ALL IS READY FOR COURTHOUSE DEDICATION TOMORROW

TESTIMONY OFFERED TO SHOW MEN KILLED FOR REWARD

NEGRO SHOT WHILE HANDS WERE RAISED

Alleged Accomplices Are on Trial For Murder

NEGROES SHOT FULL OF HOLES

State Claims Robbery Was Frame-Up to Get Reward

FORT WORTH, April 18. (AP)—That John Alsop shot Isaac (Will) Tate, negro, one of the Polytechnic bank robbers, in the back while the latter's hands were raised, then fired several shots into his body after the negro had fallen, was the testimony of a student of Texas Woman's College at the examining trial for Alsop and A. P. Hoyt today.

She was Miss Frances Whiteside of Greenville, who said she was standing across the street from the Polytechnic Methodist church, where the fleeing negro, was killed after the attempted robbery.

Alsop and Hoyt are charged with murder of the two negroes, Tate and George Terrell, after the latter attempted to rob the First State bank of Polytechnic. Assistant Cashier J. M. Fry was wounded. Evidence has been offered by the state in an effort to show that Alsop, Hoyt and others "framed" the robbery to get the reward for dead bank bandits offered by the state bankers association.

Another witness, Mrs. P. J. Burton begged Alsop: "Don't shoot him any more," after the first shot was fired, she told from the stand.

Mrs. Mary Conder told an eye-witness account of the shootings. She stated: "I was driving my car on avenue F, and saw a man tiptoe across the street. I remarked how funny he was acting to my aunt."

District Attorney Stuart asked, "Can you point out this man if he is in the courtroom?" and Mrs. Conder, pointing at Alsop, said, "That's he, with the brown suit on."

"I looked into the bank," she continued, "and saw Mr. Fry holding his hands up. Alsop started firing into the bank from the outside. I slowed up the car and saw a negro come out of the door and head west. The negro was trying to dodge the shots. Alsop followed him, and I turned around at Annis street and stopped."

"This first negro was killed by the house. The second negro then came out of the side door of the bank and ran north. I called out, 'here's another one,' and Alsop came to the car and said: 'Take me up there.' We followed, with Alsop on the side of the car.

"As the negro stopped up on the curb near the church, Alsop jumped off. The negro backed up in a corner by the church steps, and Alsop shot at the negro's back was turned. The negro then turned around, with his right hand in the air. The left hand was hanging at his side, Alsop fired again, and the negro crumpled up on the ground. Alsop fired three times while the negro was on the ground.

"I hid my face."

On cross-examination, Mrs. Conder said the negro killed by the church had a gun in his left hand, but did not point it at Alsop. "It was simply hanging in his left hand," Mrs. Conder said she did not see Hoyt at all.

Rev. C. C. Henson, pastor of the Polytechnic Methodist church, then took the stand. He had just backed his automobile into the street at the church when he heard shots. He looked up and saw the negro "crotching up the street," he said.

"I saw Alsop get on the automobile and come up the street. The negro was on the church lawn when Alsop came across. I saw one shot and looked off. I could have seen them all, but didn't care to see the rest. I didn't want to see a man shot up."

WET WITNESS TESTIFIES THAT HOOVER DOUBTS WHETHER DRY LAWS CAN EVER BE ENFORCED

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—An expression of belief by W. H. Stayton, chairman of the board of the association against the prohibition amendment, that President Hoover "is beginning to doubt whether prohibition can be enforced" was received today by the senate lobby committee.

The opinion was contained in a letter written last February by Stayton to Charles S. Wood of Philadelphia, vice president of the wet organization.

It said: "My own feeling is, as I talk to senators, members of congress, and public officials here, that Mr. Hoover is beginning to doubt whether prohibition can be enforced."

It added that Mr. Hoover "wants to take plenty of time to consider it, but he is being abused a little too much."

The Stayton letter was introduced to the voluminous lobby committee while Henry H. Curran, president of the association against the prohibition amendment, was testifying for the third day. Curran had said a while before that the "tide is turning" against prohibition in congress.

Curran predicted that the Shepard bill to make the purchaser of liquor equally guilty with the seller and the Wickersham proposal to "abolish trial by jury in contravention of the bill of rights," would not be passed by the present congress.

Two years ago, he added, the Jones bill to increase penalties for prohibition violations "passed with a whoop."

Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, only wet on the committee, asked Curran if his organization had taken any action on the prohibition bills now before congress.

"We haven't lifted a finger," the witness replied.

Tariff on Casein Is Agreed Upon

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—The tariff bill conferees today agreed upon the senate rate on casein, increasing the present duty from 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents a pound.

The house group receded from its stand for the present duty, thus obviating the necessity for a separate vote in the house proper on the item, over which the conferees have been deadlocked.

Casein is a skimmed milk product used in the manufacture of finishing of paper and the higher duty was advocated by dairy interests to protect domestic producers from Argentine competition.

Two Day Rabbit Show Being Attended by Many Visitors; All Breeds Rabbits Entered

Success of the first annual spring show of the Pampa Rabbit & Fur breeders association was evident this morning when 93 entries had arrived by 10 o'clock. The show is being held in the former Chrysler building on north First street across from Albert Square.

The entry list was scheduled to close at noon today. Judging will begin at 8 o'clock this afternoon with the arrival of Russell Middleton of Amarillo who will act as judge. The building in which the show is held is declared to be ideal for the purpose. As modern wire cages were secured for display pens, the rabbits may be seen to best advantage.

The breeds being exhibited are New Zealand whites and reds, Chinchillas and Flemish giants. Members of the association are greatly pleased by the number of entries.

SENATE WOULD QUIZ PARKER ON PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Senator Overman, Democrat, North Carolina, said today he would ask the senate judiciary committee at its meeting on Monday to invite Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina to come before it to answer protests against his nomination for the supreme court.

Chairman Norris of the committee said he was agreeable to extending the invitation, if Senator Overman desired it.

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Examination by the senate judiciary committee of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina, nominee for the supreme court, has the approval of the administration and steps will be undertaken immediately to bring it about.

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Administration leaders in the senate are prepared to ask that Judge John J. Parker be called before the judiciary committee to answer the protests of labor and negro organizations against his confirmation as an associate justice of the supreme court.

Two Republican senators are considering the possibility of going to President Hoover with a request that Parker's name be withdrawn, and several more are preparing letters to the chief executive asking some explanation of the nominee's views on the race question.

Growing dissatisfaction within the party and the possibility of serious opposition led late yesterday to a conference of eighteen Republican senators at which the situation was thoroughly discussed.

The American Federation of Labor has accused Judge Parker of being judicially prejudiced against the working men.

Stimson to Talk Over Radio to A. P.

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP)—Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, speaking by Radio from London, will address the annual luncheon of The Associated Press at the Hotel Commodore Monday.

When he accepted the invitation he expected to attend the luncheon. His duties as head of the American delegation at the naval conference in London, however, precluded the possibility of attending and arrangements were made for the radio address.

The show is being visited by most of the rabbit enthusiasts in this section and by many visitors. It will continue through Saturday.

Entries have been received from Pampa, Amarillo and Eastland as follows:

Pro Administrator Asked to Resign

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Palmer Canfield, formerly prohibition administrator for the northern New York district and now a special supervisor attached to the national prohibition enforcement unit in Washington, has been asked to resign as a result of testimony given in New York Federal court this week reflecting on his official conduct.

Seymour Lowman assistant secretary of the treasury, in announcing the action said Canfield had refused to leave the service, but had been given a temporary leave of absence pending investigation.

Canfield, in a statement, denied all connection with incidents relating to the issue of permits for near beer manufacture which were alleged to have created opportunity for bribe acceptance.

Miss Mary Shell will spend the Easter week-end with her parents at Waxahatchie, and Miss Anna Esta Goerner will visit in her home at Dallas. They will leave tomorrow afternoon.

Speaker

Attorney General Robert Lee Bobbitt who will dedicate Gray county's new $300,000 courthouse at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. He was invited to attend the courthouse opening and the Forty and Eight "wreck" by J. A. Pearson, grand chef de gare of Texas.

Gas Company Will Build Long Line From Panhandle

DALLAS, April 18. (AP)—The Lone Star Gas company prepared today to begin work on a 900-mile gas pipeline from the Texas Panhandle to Lincoln, Neb., and other cities in Nebraska and Iowa.

L. B. Denning, president, announced the project yesterday. Company engineers estimated it would cost $40,000,000 to $50,000,000. It will be the longest in the southwestern fields excepting a projected line from the Panhandle to Chicago.

Associated with the Lone Star in constructing the line he said, would be the United Light and Power company and the North American Light and Power company.

Denning said the line would involve deliveries of approximately 200,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily. It will extend northeast, probably from Moore county Texas, through Oklahoma, Kansas and the eastern part of Nebraska, serving the following towns: Lincoln and Beatrice, Neb.; Red Oak, Shenandoah, Fort Dodge, Sioux City, Clear Lake, Mason City, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and intervening territory.

In addition to Texas Panhandle gas the line also will carry gas produced by the Moody-Seagraves company in Stevens county, Kansas, Denning said.

The announcement stated that construction work would start immediately.

OFFICIALS SAY 'CORRECT' TO REPORT OF MONTGOMERY WARD-SEARS ROEBUCK MERGER

PHILADELPHIA, April 18. (AP)—Officials here today said the report that Sears, Roebuck & Company and Montgomery Ward & Company, were described today by Lester J. Rosenwald, vice-president in charge of Sears Roebuck interests in Philadelphia, as being "substantially correct."

Mr. Rosenwald denied, however, that his father, Julius Rosenwald, chairman of the board of Sears, Roebuck, had gone to New York to discuss the possibility of a merger. He said he knew of no statement to be issued by the chairman.

"Mr. Rosenwald has gone to New York to attend a meeting of the Rockefeller Foundation," the son said. "Not on any matter pertaining to the interests of the company."

PAMPA CATHOLICS AND THOSE OF ALL NATIONS OBSERVE CHRIST'S DEATH IN GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

For three hours this afternoon Catholics of all nations are commemorating that period of Christ's agony which began with His descent up Golgotha and ended with His death on the cross. It is the climax of 38 days of penance, fasting and prayer.

their devotions will feel and understand something of the passion, despair and love of the Christ that cause him to undergo the pangs of crucifixion.

In that three-hour period this afternoon, Pampa Catholics are commemorating His sacrifice at Sacred Heart church of White Deer. Rev. Father Hofer, temporarily in charge of both Sacred Heart and Holy Souls churches, is conducting the services. Regular Friday evening Lenten services will be held tonight at Holy Souls church with a repetition of the Way of the Cross and a sermon by Father Hofer. The Lenten season ends with resurrection services at the churches.

Members of the Episcopal church who live in this city attended Good Friday services at 1:30 o'clock today. Having no church edifice, the little congregation gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, where the Rev. John Leascher, pastor of the local mission, conducted the services.

Rome's commemoration of Good Friday was, as always, particularly impressive; because of the number of purported relics of Christ's passion and death to be found here. A great "procession of penitents" composed of thousands of clergy and laymen, wended its way to Santa Croce in Jerusalem, where a comparatively large piece of what is said to be the Cross of Calvary has been kept for centuries.

Between the hours of noon corresponding to the time that Christ is supposed to have suffered His agony, all business was at a standstill and traffic largely suspended. Rome had almost the aspect of a dead city.

The Scala Santa, or holy staircase, enshrined in the church just across the way from St. John Lateran, was the goal of thousands of penitents, both Italian and foreign. The tradition is that the staircase is the very same that Christ ascended in the Praetorium of Pontius Pilate in Jerusalem, on his way to appear before the Roman magistrate. The steps, all of marble, were assumed to have been brought to Rome, by St. Helena, mother of Constantine, the first Christian emperor.

All day the pious pilgrims ascended those stairs on their knees, praying fervently at each pause.

He told the editors that all consorship of the press was prohibited by the constitution, but said that they must admit that some "publishers have so far overstepped the bounds of decency, and have so flagrantly abused the privileges granted them by the fundamental law of the land, that it is not surprising that some sort of remedial legislation is frequently suggested."

Urging passage of his bill to restrict the power of a judge to cite a person for contempt and then try the case, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan told the editors a throated press was a prophecy of Democracy's disintegration.

Murder Charge Filed Against Major Shepard

TOPEKA, Kans., April 18. (AP)—Major Charles A. Shepard, 59-year-old Denver army medical corps officer, was indicted by a federal grand jury here today on a charge of first degree murder for the alleged poisoning of his 37-year-old second wife at Fort Riley.

Major Shepard's bond was set at $20,000.

It was indicated at the United States district attorney's office that the case probably would be set for trial at the term of federal court convening in Kansas City December 1.

Major Shepard, confined in jail at Denver since his arrest there last month, has denied the charge.

Federal authorities announced after the army officer's arrest that Miss Grace Brandon, 23-year-old San Antonio, Texas, stenographer, entered into the case as the asserted unwilling recipient of Major Shepard's attentions.

The medical corps officer and Miss Brandon were asserted to have met in 1928 while Major Shepard was stationed at Brooks Field, Texas.

Jurist Defends Court's Power to Suppress News

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Power of the courts to punish newspaper men for contempt when articles interfere with, impede, or obstruct the administration of justice was defended before the American Society of Newspaper Editors today by Justice Ernest I. Edgcomb of the New York supreme court.

"The jurist said he knew of no reason why a judge was immune from criticism any more than any other official, asserting he could conceive of nothing so conducive to making a public official arrogant as knowledge he would never be called to account for his conduct."

He told the editors that all consorship of the press was prohibited by the constitution, but said that they must admit that some "publishers have so far overstepped the bounds of decency, and have so flagrantly abused the privileges granted them by the fundamental law of the land, that it is not surprising that some sort of remedial legislation is frequently suggested."

Urging passage of his bill to restrict the power of a judge to cite a person for contempt and then try the case, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan told the editors a throated press was a prophecy of Democracy's disintegration.

CONGRESSMAN SUCCEUMBS TO LAST STROKE

Cisco Man Had Been Ill For Five Weeks

HOUSE ADJOURNS AT HIS DEATH

Many Members Will Accompany Body to Texas

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Representative R. Q. Lee of Texas is dead.

The Texan died at the emergency hospital about 9 o'clock this morning after an illness of five weeks.

Mr. Lee was stricken with paralysis five weeks ago, and it was thought for some time he would recover. Wednesday night he suffered a relapse and yesterday physicians gave up hope for his recovery.

Representative Lee was born at Coldwater, Miss., January 12, 1869. He moved with his father to Fort Worth, Texas, in 1886 and later made his home at Cisco, Texas, where he lived until elected to the house for the 71st congress. His widow and children are here.

Funeral services will be announced shortly.

Lee succeeded former Representative Tom Blanton from the 17th Texas district and had announced for re-election. Blanton also has announced his candidacy.

Besides his widow, Representative Lee is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Leonard Simon of Cisco, and Mrs. Harold Ochler of Dayton, Texas, and three sons, Edward, Robert Stien and R. Q. Lee, Jr.

The body is to leave Washington tonight for Cisco where the funeral will be held probably on Monday. A congressional delegation will accompany the body along with members of the family who have been in Washington during the illness.

The house adopted a resolution of sorrow over the death of Representative Lee, and adjourned out of respect to his memory.

Announcement of the Texan's death was made by Representative Garrett of Texas, who attributed his colleague's death to his devotion to duty.

Speaker Longworth appointed a committee of 24 members to attend the funeral at Cisco, including the 18 members of the Texas delegation, Representative Parks of Arkansas, McGinnis and McKeown of Oklahoma, Sandlin of Louisiana, Democrats, and Knutson of Minnesota, Underhill of Massachusetts, and Curry of California, Republicans.

AUSTIN, April 18. (AP)—Governor Moody said in the death of Congressman R. Q. Lee of Cisco, Texas had lost a representative in the national congress who had the best interests of the entire state at heart at all times.

"He was a man who was trying to give not only constituents of his district, but the entire state a worthwhile service," Governor Moody said. "He had succeeded in being of valuable assistance and was destined to become an influence in Washington."

Legion Auxiliary To Honor State President Saturday

Honoring Mrs. F. H. Carpenter of Sour Lake, state president of the state, or departmental, president of the American Legion auxiliary, who will be among the distinguished visitors in the city during the American Legion celebrations Saturday and Sunday, the local unit of the auxiliary will entertain with an informal reception, between 4 and 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree will open her home, 502 West Kingsmill avenue, for the affair. All members of the Legion auxiliary or the Eight and Forty, either local or visiting, and the wives, mothers, sisters, and daughters of Legionnaires or ex-service men are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Willard E. Taylor, president of the auxiliary unit. All visitors who do not have their cars with them are asked to assemble at the Legion hall on Foster avenue, at which point the Auxiliary will have cars to take them to Mrs. Fatheree's home. Three Gold Star mothers—Mrs. P. P. Reid, Mrs. C. W. Pollard, and Mrs. Crossman—will form the reception committee to meet the guests at the Legion hall and later will join the house party at the tea.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Fatheree will be Mrs. Taylor and the state officers, according to the plans perfected for the reception.

Presbyterian Women Study Social Service Problems Wednesday

Surveys of the social service and educational work being carried on among the negroes of the United States, together with sketches of lives of negro men and women who have succeeded in the professional world, formed an interesting program Wednesday afternoon before the Women's auxiliary of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. A. H. Doucette told of the advancement of the negro in the musical world, describing his native music, and pointed to his capacity for mastering other forms. She added much to the interest of her discourse by humming bits of ancient plantation melodies.

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree talked on the Collier school for negroes in South Carolina, and told of the work it is doing. Mrs. Kerr spoke on "Highly Educated Negro Men and Women." "Negroes in Professions" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Tucker.

Mrs. Joe Smith described the status of the negro in this community. Mrs. Dave Pope spoke on the service accomplished by the Presbyterians for the race. Mrs. C. H. Todd spoke on "The Visiting Missionary." "Saving the Negro Baby" was discussed by Mrs. G. Cotton.

The program was given at the home of Mrs. J. M. McFarland, with nineteen members and four visitors present.

Officers elected three weeks ago assumed their duties at that meeting. Mrs. Dick Walker was co-hostess for the meeting and the social gathering following.

Convention Housing Committee Requests Additional Homes

Accommodations for 150 of the 300 delegates expected for the convention of the Seventh district Federation of Women's clubs, next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, had been promised the reservations committee of the Council of Clubs at noon today, according to Mrs. Tom Clayton, chairman.

The greater number of those who have offered to entertain visitors in their homes have promised accommodations for two, Mrs. Clayton said. A few hostesses, unable to take guests into their homes, have given the committee money for hotel reservations.

The committee is asking that Pampa citizens give the visiting club women lodging and breakfast. Luncheons, dinners and transportation will be furnished by the Council.

With only a few days left, the Council is asking that every one who can take one or more guests let it be known to the committee. It will be necessary to make hotel reservations before tomorrow night, and those who wish to aid in the entertainment of the convention by furnishing hotel accommodations are asked to call some member of the housing committee before that time.

Mrs. Clayton's committee includes the following local club women: Mrs. T. D. Hobart, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Mrs. Alex Schneider, Mrs. J. E. Corson, Mrs. H. G. Twiford, Mrs. Fred Cary, Mrs. Clifford Braly, and Miss Mabel Davis.

Catholic Altar Society Meets for Business Wednesday

The Altar society of Holy Souls church held a business meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Spellman, with Mrs. M. F. Roche presiding.

Plans for serving the executive board luncheon and tea on the opening day of the annual convention of the Seventh district Federation of Women's clubs, were completed by the members, who have assumed the responsibility as a means of raising church funds.

Rev. Father Hofer of Amarillo, who has taken over the duties of Rev. Father Joseph Wonderly, during the latter's illness, spoke to the society on Lenten observance. Seventeen members and one visitor attended the meeting.

Mrs. A. D. McNamara of this city is receiving treatment at a hospital in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Wm. M. Craven Directs Program of Episcopal Auxiliary

Mrs. Wm. M. Craven conducted the devotional service and presented the weekly Lenten study, from "Roads to City of God," at a meeting of the Women's auxiliary of the Episcopal church, Wednesday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. C. P. Buckler.

The Rev. John Leacher, pastor of the Episcopal mission, gave an interesting talk at the close of the lesson, developing the theme of the day's study.

A large group of members attended and Mrs. George Todd was a guest.

Episcopal Sunday School Will Give Easter Egg Hunt

The Women of Moccasinheart Legion will conduct initiation services at 8 o'clock this evening at the Odd Fellows hall.

Methodist W. M. S. Circles Hold Unit Meetings Wednesday

Mrs. Chris Baer was hostess to members of Circle 1. Mrs. J. G. Stroup was leader of the devotional and director of the lesson. Her assistants were Mrs. M. M. Robinson, Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. W. Mullinax, and Mrs. Baer.

WALTER CLINE FOR GOVERNOR

State Senator Clint C. Small of the 31st senatorial district, it is understood, has definitely decided not to run for governor.

Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls is expected to announce for the Democratic nomination for governor this week, according to the Wichita Falls Daily Times and Record-News.

Many believe that Mr. Cline, who is widely known throughout the state, has an opportunity to be the first West Texan to be elected governor of this state.

Citizens of Pampa will give Mr. Cline every consideration, should he announce for office. He has been successful as a banker and oil man; he has served as mayor of Wichita Falls.

This region in particular will be interested in Mr. Cline, because he has a thorough knowledge of the oil business. The oil industry is among the most important in the state.

The Daily News is inclined to regard the candidacy of Mr. Cline with favor. So far he is apparently the best man of the group that is under consideration as candidates for governor.

It has been ten years since West Texas has had a formidable candidate for governor. The last strong West Texas candidate was former Speaker R. E. Thomason of El Paso.

PAMPA NEEDS WHOLESALE HOUSES

If Pampa is to become the city it should be, we must pay more attention to the development of the wholesale houses. Pampa has become a city of 14,000 to 15,000 within a radius of five miles.

This section is building rapidly. The surrounding territory is depending more and more on Pampa and we must do our part by servicing it through wholesale houses. Pampa merchants should tell the Chamber of Commerce what they believe are the possibilities of Pampa for supporting wholesale houses in their lines.

With the building of good highways through this section and high hopes for additional railway facilities, Pampa will be in shape to warrant a number of wholesale houses. However, the firms that come in the early days and help to develop the city and adjacent territory are the ones that will be most appreciated.

PITCHERS ARE DOING BETTER THAN BATTERS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

In theory, the early part of the baseball season is when the batters have the edge over the pitchers, but the first few days of the 1930 major league campaign have provided an outstanding exception to this rule.

Few of the games which have escaped the rain and cold have brought heavy hitting, while five, one third of the total number played, have been distinct triumphs for the hurlers. Four moundsmen have allowed their opponents only three hits, and one two hit game turned up yesterday.

On the opening day, Lloyd Brown of Washington limited the Boston Red Sox to three blows and Lester Sweetland of the Philadelphia Nationals repeated the feat against Brooklyn.

Larry French, Pittsburgh left-hander, outdid them all yesterday in holding Cincinnati to one single and a home run while the Pirates drove ancient Eppa Rixey from the mound and gained a 7 to 1 triumph. Ethan Allen, Cincinnati outfielder, got the homer in the ninth inning and provided the only occasion on which a red leg reached second base.

Earl Whitehill of Detroit and Pat Malone of the Chicago Cubs were yesterday's three hit pitchers with the St. Louis representatives, the Browns and the Cardinals, as their victims in abbreviated contests.

In Detroit, the Tigers were stopped by rain after 5 1-2 innings, but beat the Browns, 6 to 1, on Whitehill's hurling and homers by Marty McManus and Dale Alexander.

Chicago Cubs lacking Rogers Hornsby and Charley Grimm, kept out to give slight injuries a rest, scored three times in six innings while Malone held the Cardinals helpless with his speed ball for a shutout victory. Rain stopped the game after the Cubs had scored again in the seventh, but did not count.

The fourth game of the wet day which saw all eastern games postponed, finally allowed the Chicago White Sox to open their season with a ten inning victory over Cleveland, 8 to 7. As 25,000 fans looked on, the Sox staged their one big inning in the sixth to get a half dozen runs off Hudlin and Harder. Cleveland tied it up in the ninth, but in the extra inning Jablonowski walked Cissel and hit Reynolds with a pitched ball and Metzler doubled to bring in the winning team.

CHASE LOSES TO KOPECKY, CLINGMAN WILL MEET JAP

Leo Chase won the first fall in a so-called wrestling match last night with Joe Kopecky, the bohunk cotton picker, in 26 minutes with nine kicks, and the match was just like that from beginning to end, except that Kopecky won the last two falls.

In the second round of the brawl, Kopecky clamped on Leo one of the few holds seen during the evening, a double-toe hold, and Chase could hardly wait until Joe got it before he parted the mat. Kopecky won the third fall in five or six minutes, it doesn't matter how many, with headlocks and body slams. The match wasn't even rough in an interesting fashion. Leo especially missed so many chances when he might have socked Joe. The affair appeared to be a burlesque. Carnival stuff was rampant.

The men made a great show of being rough but they didn't fool anybody. There was not a drop of gore spilled on the mat and during the three falls there was not five minutes of good wrestling. The wrestlers ignored that part of their audience who love to see an exhibition of fast good holds. In fact there were not a dozen holds in the whole match. There was plenty of kicks and blows but the wrestlers didn't mean to inflict any pain. At times, each made a great show of being disabled but the crowd could tell that it was all just so much put-on. However, the crowd did laugh several times at the circus performance and at the bad faces made by the cavorters.

The semifinal match was enjoyable, and surprising. Rob Roy showed up with a big carbuncle on his neck, but Young Sampson didn't come. In their stead, Otis Clingman and Tiny Simmons, welterweight champion of the Pacific coast and Olympics light weight champ in 1928, gave a super-fast exhibition of good wrestling in a 10-minute match. Clingman out weighed Tiny about 12 pounds but what Tiny lacked in weight he made up for in speed. Although he consumed a great deal of time in crawling to the ropes every time Otis got a hold on him. In that ten minutes, Tiny had Otis writhing in the throes of a half-dozen arm locks. Tiny, as all good wrestlers should do, didn't go in for any rough or carnival stuff. There was no showmanship about him and he wasn't trying to put anything over the crowd. Clingman's popularity in Pampa is mostly due to the fact that he never fakes or tries to fool his audience. Tiny is a former student of Oregon State College at Corvallis, Ore. We hope that he appears in a finish match real soon.

Red Michaels, not so awkward as he used to be, threw Red Scott in three minutes with a scissors on Scott's arms.

Probably an old Japanese custom will be observed here next Thursday night when Iota Shima and Otis Clingman will provide the main event.

Shima is alleged to be the greatest living exponent of jiu-jitsu. He has never been thrown on this side of the Pacific ocean and holds a victory over Teisura Higami, the Jap who became famous when he tossed Cal Farley into the rafters here last spring. It has not been decided whether or not the match will be a kimono affair after the manner of matches in Japan where both wrestlers wear kimonos.

"Fast Company" Is Baseball Comedy By Ring Lardner

"Fast Company" is on view today and will doubtless be packing them in for tomorrow at the Rex theatre. "Fast Company" has to do with a "bush league" ball player, Jack Oakie, who plays baseball so well that he is signed by the Yankees. He leaves his little old home town and is plunged into the fast company of city-bred girls and big league players. He becomes the tower of strength on the Yankees and they win the pennant. Then comes the World's series with Pittsburgh. With the deciding game to be played on the morrow, a number of up-setting events project themselves into the pathway of success for Oakie. His girl turns him down, and a gang of smart gamblers make him their unwitting dupe. All seems dark when a very happy twist of fate saves the days for the hostful but lovable hero.

SPUDDERS AND BEAUMONT AT LEAGUE TOP

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Earl Caldwell pitched Wichita Falls into a tie with Beaumont for the Texas league top yesterday when he kept 12 hits well scattered and nosed out the Dallas Steers, 4 to 3. The Spudders found Tauscher, Steer right hander, for only seven blows, but they came in the pinches.

The Exporters were forced to share the pinnacle as a result of a 4 to 3 loss to San Antonio in the Alamo city. The Shippers apparently had sewed it up with a two-run spurge in the eighth, but the Spudders came right back with a like number in their half. Five hurlers got their name in the box score, three for Beaumont and two for the Redskins.

While the Spudders and Exporters, two clubs almost unanimously relegated to the second division before the start of the season, found themselves wedged into a tie for the leadership, the Fort Worth Cats, top-heavy favorites, hit the basement with a resounding thump. The The Snyderless Kittens dropped their opener at Shreveport, 4 to 3, rounding out an epidemic of scores of that denomination.

The Cats' battery, Greenfield and O'Connell, gave perhaps as dizzy an exhibition as one will see all year. Greenfield gave up only five hits, but he issued 10 passes, and O'Connell permitted an even seven Sports to steal. That was sufficient. Tiny Owen's meanwhile, was chalking up his second victory in as many starts.

Houston climbed into third place with a resounding 7 to 1 triumph over Waco at Buffalo stadium. It was quite a ball game until the seventh inning, when the Buffs cut loose with a batting bee that scored six runs and sent House to the showers. Stout went the route for the winners, allowing six hits.

Larry Bettencourt, Spudder utility man, went into the record as the day's individual hero. Transferred to the outfield because the Wichita infielders protested that his sizzling pegs were ruining the hands, the former all-American football center belted a home run and scored three of his team's four runs off Tauscher Old Bill Huber, given his release by Beaumont at the start of the season, turned up at third with San Antonio yesterday and led the Indians' offense with two hits and a sacrifice to beat his former mates. There will be another round in the same cities today.

Suma Released PHILADELPHIA, April 18. (P)—

Homer Suma, veteran outfielder, was released by the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday to Portland of the Pacific Coast league. Suma was purchased by the Athletics last year from the Cleveland Americans. He played in 47 games in 1929 and batted .372.

Wickersham Tells Editors Man Has No Right to Drink

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Chairman Wickersham of the Hoover law enforcement commission today told the American Society of Newspaper Editors that the individual had "no inalienable right" to procure and consume liquor.

He said there was no pretense that such a right was protected by the constitution but that the exercise was offered that the prohibition amendment "constitutes an inexcusable invasion of personal liberty." He said a "strange confusion of ideas is apparent in the exposition of the protests against the national prohibition law."

"It is comparatively venial for one to break the law, with one's eyes open to possible consequences," he continued. "But to unite with others in openly aiding and abetting the violation of any law, upon the plea that it ought not to have been enacted and cannot be enforced, is inviting revolution and anarchy."

"But I appeal to you, and thru you to the press of America," he said, "to aid in demonstrating that so long as the law stands as it does now, no patriotic American should advocate flouting its provisions, or boast of violating its commands."

Neuritis Pains Quickly Succumb to New Konjola

Dallas Lady, 78 Relieves Splendid Experience With New And Different Medicine

MRS. SALLIE WILLIAMSON

"No words of praise can do justice to new Konjola," said Mrs. Sallie Williamson, 3921 South Fitzhugh street, Dallas. "I was a victim of that dread ailment, neuritis. Sharp agonizing pains shot through my entire body but the most severe attack centered in the left side of my face. I went for days at a time without a wink of sleep and became very nervous. I thought at times that I could not bear the awful pain. No medicine I tried did me any good until I found Konjola."

"I started treatment with this medicine and the results have been truly wonderful. I am not suffering a particle of pain and I can recommend Konjola as being a medicine of outstanding merit. In spite of my age—I am 78—my entire system seems to have been benefited by this new medicine as I feel better and stronger in every respect than I have felt in a long time."

Although Konjola works well and quickly, six to eight bottles are recommended as a fair trial. Although many people are benefited within a few weeks, it is well to take this medicine from six to eight weeks for the best results.

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

Sunday Will Be Decision Day at Christian Church

Announcement was made by Evangelist O'Malley last night that no services would be held Saturday night, but that Sunday at all services decision day would be observed and an appeal made for all persons to confess Christ and unite with the church.

A special Easter cantata will be rendered Sunday night as the first part of the service, this to begin promptly at 7:45. Mrs. Bratton, musical director, requests all singers to be in their places ahead of time. The gospel appeal will close the series of special sermons, which have been well attended and have developed fine interest.

Baptistal service will follow the preaching Sunday night. Last night, using the theme, "The Faith That Saves," the preacher made a clear distinction between faith in general and "the faith" which includes all the terms and conditions of the Christian gospel.

Men may have faith in other men, or in themselves, and be deceived, but none will ever be disappointed in thorough faith in God, for God is ever true and infinite in wisdom, power and love.

He urged that men believe what God declares most surely as the hopelessness of the way of sin, the real danger, the eternal woe that must result if salvation is not made sure. Also that men believe what God says about Christ as an all-sufficient Saviour, the only Redeemer, the soul's only hope.

He very emphatically taught and proved from the scriptures that men must believe what God has said about the absolute necessity of men making perfect their faith by works of obedience, both in the first principles of the gospel and in the second principles, or Christian growth and life in harmony with God's word.

Tonight the evangelist's subject will be: "The Greatest Sermon Ever Preached." This notable sermon answers the deep questions of the soul for every man. Come and hear about it.

Ladies, You Can Now Wear Your New Easter Hats

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—A clear weather for Easter for the east, New England and a part of the south was promised today by the weather bureau.

Observers prophesied fair skies and moderate temperatures for most of the Washington forecast district, but it was added conditions in the South Atlantic and gulf states were likely to be unsettled.

With the prospect of sun and balm, an army of children was expected to take part in the traditional Easter egg rolling on the White House lawn.

It will be a day for children only—as Easter Monday has been in the past for their parents, grandparents and even great grandparents. Adults are to be admitted, as the capital has come to phrase it, only if "a little child shall lead them."

Church Group Is Under Fire in General Assembly

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 18. (AP)—Alleged political activities of the Federal Council of Churches were under fire today in an overture of the Mecklenburg Presbytery to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States.

The Presbytery urged the general church body to withdraw from the Federal Council of Churches, because it was asserted, the council "is now being investigated by the congress of the United States for its political activities on questions which Christ did not commission the church to settle."

The overture was adopted yesterday at the Presbytery's meeting at Mint Hill. It will be presented at the Southern Presbyterian General assembly at Charlottesville, Va., on May 22. The Presbytery embraces 94 churches.

Rev. Father Joseph Wonderly, pastor of Holy Souls church, is at St. Anthony's hospital in Amarillo, recovering from a serious ankle sprain which he suffered ten days ago.

Thomas Claims Committee Not Fair With Love

AUSTIN, April 18. (AP)—The state Democratic executive committee acted with prejudice against one man when it ruled that persons who bolted the party presidential electors in 1928 could not become candidates in the 1930 primary, Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas charged in closing the argument for Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas in his fight to force the committee to print his name on the ballots as a candidate for governor.

The supreme court had Love's application before it today, but was not expected to hand down a decision before next Wednesday at the earliest. Thomas said if the rule had barred those who bolted in 1924, 1928 and 1929, at least three other candidates for governor, as well as Love, would have come under it.

Mergers Opposed

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Joseph B. Eastman, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, today read to the senate Interstate Commerce Committee a commission report unanimously favoring legislation to prohibit consolidation or unification of railroads through pooling of stocks by holding companies.

MAN BURNS TO DEATH AT STORE

WICHITA FALLS, April 18. (AP)—B. R. Senter, 40, was burned to death and his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Senter, suffered serious injuries in a fire which destroyed their general merchandise store and home at Dad's Corner, 18 miles south of here in Archer county, today.

Senter re-entered the flaring building after taking his wife and three children to safety. He was overcome by smoke and heat and fell some feet from a door. It was supposed he had gone back after money or clothes.

Mrs. Senter was injured when she attempted to rescue her husband. She was unable to drag him from the store and barely escaped before the roof collapsed. Her burns were not expected to prove fatal.

Besides his widow and three children, Senter is survived by six brothers, one of whom, Nathan Senter, resided in Fort Worth.

WILBUR ATTACKED

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Attacking Secretary Wilbur for "passing the buck", Senator Frazier, Republican, North Dakota, chairman of the senate indian affairs committee, today complained on the floor of the senate against "bureaucratic methods" of the indian bureau.

Walter D. Hardin and Clarence Coffin transacted business in Skellytown yesterday.

Oil Independents in Argument on Lobby Program

FORT WORTH, April 18. (AP)—A large number of independents from all oil states west of the Mississippi today attended the directors' meeting prior to the first annual convention of the Independent Petroleum Association of America here tomorrow.

Permanent organization, interrupted by the oil tariff fight which came within one vote of victory in the United States senate, and various protective measures to which the small operators feel they are entitled in their competition with the larger interests were expected to vie with future tariff campaign plans for places on the program.

One of the most highly controversial points between the average independents and the majors came to the front immediately after the opening of the day's session. This was the legislative program sponsored in the various states by a special minerals committee of the American Bar association. Proponents of the program contend it will permit cooperative development and conservation while many independents assert that it will entirely deny them their liberty of action.

Police today are searching for a young man who succeeded in passing at the Rex theatre a one-dollar bill raised to $10 by pasting two corners of the larger bill on the smaller.

Overall Estate To Three Nieces

COLEMAN, April 18. (AP)—Mrs. Martha Tyler Overall intended to convey by her will the residue of the vast Overall estate to three nieces, Judge E. J. Miller decided in district court here today.

The ruling was on request of J. P. McGord, administrator, for a construction of the will which is being contested.

The three nieces of Mrs. Overall are Mrs. Agilla M. Franzell of Wheeling, W. Va.; Mrs. Mary M. McCully of Britton, Okla.; and Mrs. Lucy Van Cleave of Macon, Mo., the latter dead. The court ruled that one third of the residue should go to Mrs. Van Cleave's two children, instead of being apportioned according to the law of descent and distribution.

Mrs. Van Cleave died prior to Mrs. Overall's death and no alteration was made in the will which bequeathed monies remaining after all bequests approximating $175,000 had been made, to the three nieces. Monies remaining amounted to about $2,500, but land notes and oil royalties amounted to more than $300,000.

Attorneys for heirs seeking to have the residue divided equally among all relatives of Mrs. Overall filed a motion for a new trial. If this is denied an appeal will be taken.

NEGRO

Mary Frances Whiteside, Greenville, also a T. W. C. student, said she was standing by the fine arts building across the street from the church. The negro had his hands up, she said, facing the church, and on the first she he turned and ran. Then four shots were fired, she said. Miss Whiteside demonstrated the position of the negro, with hands in the air. After her testimony the state closed.

Chief of Police Lee was the first defense witness.

He said on direct examination that Bill Zent, Chief of Police at San Angelo, and a man he believed to be a member of the San Angelo police department, came to his office, and Zent told him: "I've got a tip that the Poly bank will be held up today."

Chief Lee said he immediately sent Detectives Swinney and Weatherford to the bank. The following morning, Lee related, Alsop came to him at the city hall. Chief Lee quoted him as saying: "I'm the man that tipped this off, and I'd like to go out."

Athens Shocked By Earthquake

ATHENS Greece, April 18. (AP)—Severe earthquake shocks rocking the peloponnese during the night did extensive damage in several small inland towns. Athens and the Piraeus were shaken badly, and there was great alarm among crowds of Holy Thursday worshippers in the churches.

Berkeley Bell Is Beaten in Tourney by Californian

PINEHURST, N. C., April 18. (AP)—Johnny Doeg, Santa Monica, Calif. star defeated Berkeley Bell of Austin, Texas, 8-6, 6-3, 6-4 today in semi-finals of the united north and south tennis tournament.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 18. (AP)—Johnny Doeg, California wizard, and Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., Georgetown university sophomore, today won their way to finals of the United North and South tennis tournament.

Mangin staged a comeback to defeat Emmett Pare of Dayton, Ohio, in a five set struggle today after losing the first two sets.

Doeg trimmed Berkeley Bell of Austin, Texas, 8-6 6-3 6-4, in the other match.

Except in the first set when Bell played him on equal terms, Doeg was master of the situation. His service was so swift as to be almost unplayable, and his returns for the most part were accurate. Doeg lost only two services during the match.

The Texan's service was erratic, and he rarely was able to place his first ball in the court.

During the third set Bell gained a lead of four games to one but appeared tired and dropped the next five games in a row.

Fight on Naval Treaty Looming In U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Chairman Hale of the senate naval affairs committee, urged in the senate today that senators take no definite position regarding the London naval treaty until the naval committee has held hearings on technical points he said would be involved.

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—President Hoover may wait until the American delegation returns from the London conference before reaching a decision as to whether the senate will be asked to ratify the new naval treaty at this session of congress.

The chief executive is anxious that the pact be taken up at the earliest possible time, but has been advised by senate leaders to defer action until their colleagues have had an opportunity to study the treaty.

The delegation is expected back in Washington during the first week in May. It includes two members of the senate, Reed of Pennsylvania, and Robinson of Arkansas, and one prospective member, Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow.

Possible forewarnings of opposition were seen in an announcement by Chairman Hale of the Naval committee that he believed the treaty embodied a departure from the American policy of building big cruisers.

Senator Borah chairman of the foreign relations committee, however, gave the treaty his conditional approval. "From what I have been told there are no political conditions in it," he said. "and I do think it helps the cause of disarmament. But I cannot pass finally upon a treaty until I see it."

Senator Watson, Republican leader, would like to see a clear path ahead, in point of procedure, before the senate takes up the treaty. He is leaving the question of giving it consideration at this session however, to the decision of President Hoover.

Watson, Borah and Hale were called to the White House yesterday to discuss the treaty with the president, in conferences in which assistant Secretary Cotton of the state department also participated.

Capper of Kansas, Republican, is the only member of the senate who has taken an outright stand in favor of ratification. He is a member of the foreign relations committee.

Senator Tydings, Democrat, of Maryland, delivering a radio address last night said it was "unfortunate" that popular approval had been given the treaty without study or examination.

International Sunday School Lesson BY DR. J. E. NUNN

International Sunday School Lesson for April 20, 1930.
General Topic: Jesus Teaching Forgiveness.

Scripture Lesson: Matt. 18:21-35.
21. Then came Peter and said unto Him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?
22. Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven.
23. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would make a reckoning with his servants.

24. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand talents.
25. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
27. And the lord of that servant being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

28. But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred shillings; and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest.
29. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee.
30. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due.

31. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.
32. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgive thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me;
33. Shouldst not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee?
34. And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due.
35. So shall also My heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one of his brother from your hearts.

Golden Text: Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.—Matt. 6:12.
Time: The summer of A. D. 29, in the third year of Christ's ministry.
Place: Capernaum.

Introduction
The most solemn lesson of this parable is that one who is unwilling to forgive his brother has no right to expect forgiveness for himself. This is in harmony with that earlier declaration of our Lord: "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your heavenly Father forgive your trespasses." "No man can cherish the malicious disposition that treasures up offenses against himself, and at the same time feel that the divine love is wrapping him round in its warm folds. If we are to retain our consciousness of having been forgiven by God, and received into the amplitude of His heart, we must, in our measure and degree, imitate that on which we trust and are mirrors of the divine mercy which we say has saved us."

"Until Seven Times"
Our Lord's teaching had required patient love beyond what the rabbis required, for their teaching was that the offender should go to the man he had wronged, confess his fault, and seek forgiveness; but Christ had commanded that the wronged man should take the initiative in seeking a reconciliation. Peter was startled, and wanted to know more about the matter.

"Then came Peter and said to Him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him?" Impetuous Peter was likely to bring down much criticism on his head, and become involved in many disputes with his brethren. He was hard hit by Christ's command of ready forgiveness. "How long must I keep this thing up?" he anxiously inquires. "Until seven times?" Peter thought that to be a sufficiently liberal offer, since the rabbis required only a thrice-repeated forgiveness, basing their rule on Job 33:29 and Amos 2:4. Probably Peter expected to be praised for his "seven times."

"There was a mystical atmosphere about the number seven; it symbolized perfection. Three being the number which spoke of heaven, and four the number of the world, seven gave the ideal of completion—the union of heaven and earth."—Rev. John Henry Hopkins.
"Seventy Times Seven"
"Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times, but, Until seventy times seven." The translation is uncertain here, and the marginal "until seventy times and seven" may be correct; but whether Jesus said four hundred and ninety or seventy-seven makes no difference, since our Lord plainly meant that one is to forgive an indefinite number of times. Forgiveness does not go by the count but by the spirits. It is not a matter of arithmetic or of bookkeeping, but of love; and love has no limits. Peter was shown how low was his estimate of forgiveness compared with Christ's. The true Christian forgiveness is not to be limited to any particular number. "If a person remembers wrongs enough to keep count of them, he does not really forgive them."
A Day of Reckoning
"Therefore is the Kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would make a reckoning with his servants." The king stands for the Saviour himself, who is some day to sit in judgment upon all men, making a reckoning of the deeds done in the body. "And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand talents. A talent was not a coin, but a weight of gold or silver. These were probably talents of silver, each worth three thousand shekels or twelve thousand denarii, and the denarius was the day's wages or an ordinary laborer. In our money the sum would be between nineteen and twenty million dollars, a sum impossible to pay. If these were Greek and not Hebrew talents, the total would be about half this sum—probably more than the whole annual revenue of Palestine at this time" (Cambridge Bible). Such is the debt which the sinner owes to God; he can never pay it or hope to pay it.

The Bankrupt Debtor
"But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay." "Do any of us realize, as we all of us ought to do, the infinite number, and the transcendent greatness, of our transgressions against the Father?"—Alexander Maclaren: "His lord commanded him to be sold." The Mosaic law authorized the selling of a man into slavery for theft (Ex. 22:3) or for debt (Lev. 25:39-47). "And his wife, and children." "A man's wife and children were his property. The order is also in accordance with the idea that the whole of a man's family is responsible for his acts (Josh. 7)." Alfred Plummer. See 2 Kings 4:1. "And all that he had, and payment to be made." The sale would go only a little way toward paying the enormous debt, but it would amount to something.
"The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him." "Worshiped" is in the imperfect tense in the Greek, implying worshipful prostrations repeated over and over. "Saying, Lord have patience with me, and I will pay thee all." In his terror and anguish he was ready with promises that could never be fulfilled, and that the king knew could never be fulfilled."

The Forgiving Lord
"And the lord of that servant, being moved with compassion." How often is compassion attributed to Jesus! Indeed, pity for human misery was the prime motive of Christ's mission to this world. "Released him." Possibly he had at once been thrown into chains or into prison, but probably this means merely that the king released him from his obligation. "And forgave him the debt." Cancelled the whole matter, making the debt as if it had never been.
"God is willing to forgive us all our debt. It is indeed, the very purpose of revelation to make that fact known to men; and in its proclamation David and Paul, Isaiah and John, Jeremiah and Peter, are in full accord."—William M. Taylor.
Unforgiving Servant
"But that servant went out." Utterly unmindful of his own undeserved mercies not in the least humbled by the experience, perhaps puffed up by the vast favor shown him by the king. "And found one of his fellow-servants." Another officer of the king but an inferior one. "Who owed him a hundred shillings." The denarius or "shilling" was worth from sixteen to seventeen cents, so that the debt of the second servant amounted to only sixteen or seventeen dollars. The debt which the first servant had owed the king, and which had just been forgiven, was from half a million to a million times greater. So petty are the wrongs others have done to us compared with the wrongs which we have committed toward God. "And he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest." "The Roman law allowed a creditor to seize his debtor and drag him before the judge, and Roman writers repeatedly speak of a man's twisting the neck of his debtor till the blood flowed from the mouth and nostrils."—John A. Broadus. If you want to learn a man's character, do not look at his bearing before his superiors, but at his attitude toward subordinates.

"Then his lord called him unto him." He also was more grieved than angry, though he must have been terribly shocked at such cruel conduct. "And saith to him, Thou wicked servant." Wickedness should be recognized and called by its right name far oftener than it is. "I forgive thee." (See Lesson Page 12)

TRIED NUMEROUS REMEDIES

Expresses Appreciation to Kellogg Company for Relief

If you are troubled with constipation, this letter from Mr. John J. Mulligan, 300 So. Cicero Avenue, Chicago, Ill., will interest you:

"This is simply a letter of appreciation for the wonderful results I have obtained through the use of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."

"For years, in fact ever since my return from France, I have been troubled with constipation and its companion ill. I tried numerous remedies in vain. Finally in desperation, not wishing to be a slave to laxatives all my life, I turned to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. The results were remarkable and quick—in fact the next day long-hoped-for relief became a happy reality."

The Kellogg Company has received thousands of similar letters in praise of ALL-BRAN, the product that is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation.

It also adds needed iron. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream . . . in soups, salads and fruit juices . . . in cooked foods and hot breads. Your grocer has ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Murder Backstairs

by ANNE AUSTIN
AUTHOR OF
"THE AVENGING PARROT"
"THE BLACK PIGEON," ETC.
©1930 by NEA SERVICE INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

DORIS MATHEWS, lady's maid, is murdered in a summerhouse on the Berkeley estate, by a blow from heavy perfume flask, given by MRS. BERKELEY by SEYMOUR CROSBY. BERKELEY, engaged to CLORINDA BERKELEY, whose scarf is found bound about the rock-weighted body when it is removed from the lake by DETECTIVE DUNDEE.

A wealth of evidence involves Mrs. Berkeley, Clorinda, DICK BERKELEY, in love with the murdered girl; her fiancé, EUGENE ARNOLD, chauffeur; GIGI BERKELEY, 15, who unaccountably sprinkled perfume from the murder flask, later placed in Mrs. Berkeley's bathroom; by WICKETT, the butler, and JOHN MAXWELL, former suitor of Clorinda, believed to have been with her Friday night when she admits having been in the summerhouse, after the crime.

But an unfinished letter of Doris to her sister in England places an entirely new light on the case, and Seymour Crosby becomes startlingly involved. Dundee, novice detective, has been a guest in the house largely to observe Crosby, under a cloud 14 months before when his young wife, PHYLLIS CROSBY, died in England. In her letter Doris, formerly maid to Mrs. Crosby hints darkly of murder and her own plans of vengeance, but does not name her suspect. Dundee frames telegram to Scotland Yard, then grills Crosby, who protests entire innocence of his wife's death when she fell from roof of an apartment hotel in London. When he violently repudiates the charge that he has tried to bribe Doris to silence, then murdered her, CAPTAIN STRAWN, shows him right. Isn't it, Crosby?"

"Those facts came out at the inquest, yes," Crosby admitted in a flat voice. "It was the first I knew of her letter to her father. I had no idea she wished to leave me, and until this day I haven't the remotest idea why she wrote as she did. I repeat: I loved my wife with all my heart, and she loved me. During those two weeks you speak of she told me repeatedly that she loved me, but would give no explanation of her fits of weeping."

"Yeah?" Strawn sneered. "Can't you guess? By that time Phyllis Crosby knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that you had married her for her money—"

"That's a foul lie!" Crosby flung at him furiously.

"Yeah? Well, lie or not, that's what Phyllis Crosby must have had good reason to believe; otherwise, why should she have written her father as she did?" Strawn gibed.

"I believe, further, that your wife found that you were unfaithful to her, that you were keeping another woman on her father's money—"

"Strawn, I'll be damned if I let you—"

"How are you going to help yourself?" Strawn grinned. "I admit that's supposition on my part. But how else could you break your wife's heart, as Doris Matthews charges you did?"

"Those words do not refer to me!" Crosby denied passionately.

"Who did she mean then?" Strawn demanded reasonably.

"I—don't—know," Crosby admitted. "I wish to God I did!"

"Well, let's get along with the story. The climax came shortly after dinner on the night of Sunday, May 6. Your wife ate nothing but into tears at table, and fled to her room in hysterics. You followed her and she refused to admit you. About 10 o'clock that evening, Mrs. Lambert, who had been a guest in your home since the previous Sunday—summoned by you from Biarritz to cheer your wife up—discovered that Mrs. Crosby had left her bedroom. She traced her to the roof of the apartment hotel, found her weeping inconsolably, tried again to learn what was wrong, and finally, at your wife's request, returned to the apartment to tell you.

"You left the drawing room instantly, and Mrs. Lambert summoned Mrs. Crosby's maid, Doris, asking her to take an evening wrap to the roof for your wife, since the night had turned cool and Mrs. Crosby was wearing a thin evening dress. Still correct, Crosby?"

"Yes," the tortured man admitted, and bowed his head upon his

HERE'S PROOF

THIS is to certify that I was diagnosed as having cancer of the stomach by three up-to-the-minute physicians, before I was brought to a chiropractor's office by Uncle Frank and Aunt Mary Cope. I was hardly able to sit up at that time, and had lost 47 pounds. I had a Radionic analysis which verified the diagnosis of the other doctors.

With the Copes' aid I purchased a card of Radionic Vibrations—that being Armistice Day, 1929. Today—March 15, 1930—I have gained 32 pounds, can work hard every day, and feel good all the time. I was too sore to be adjusted for the first few weeks, so I just took the Radionic alone for the first three weeks. I was dismissed today—and I can do a man's work and feel good all the time.

I can highly recommend the Radionic and Chiropractic.

to do.
"But she hated you, Crosby! Doris wanted to make you suffer as Phyllis Crosby had suffered. And as she says here, 'there are other ways.' One way was to expose you to the Berkeleys as a fortunehunter, and, in strict confidence, as a wife-killer."

did you?—Well, let's see what Doris testified now. She said she emerged from the 'lift' at the top floor, walked up the very short flight of stairs leading to the roof, and was stepping foot upon the roof when she heard a shrill scream, followed by the sound of a man's voice calling, 'Phyllis! Phyllis! Oh, my God!' And, most providentially for Mr. Seymour Crosby, Doris testified that she saw him running across the roof to the spot from which the scream had come, the place from which his wife leaped to her death. According to her story, you were fully 50 feet from the railing when she heard the scream and caught a glimpse of fluttering white as the woman leaped, Mr. Crosby.
"Yes," Crosby groaned. "That is all the exact truth. Doris reached the railing almost as soon as I did, and—restraining me from leaping after my wife."
"So she said!" Strawn nodded. "Now, let me tell you what really happened, as I reconstruct that tragedy. You were lying when you said you stopped for a book. It was already in your pocket. You went to the roof immediately, by the stairs, just as you said, because even then you were planning an alibi in case it became necessary to kill your wife. You met your wife, she charged you with having married her for her money, with having been unfaithful to her, or with some more serious crime, the exposure of which would have ruined you socially. A crime, possibly, of which only Phyllis Crosby knew and for which she could have had you arrested!"

that Phyllis Crosby would rather be listed as a suicide than that her husband should hang for her murder. At any rate, it is my firm conviction that you and Doris Matthews concocted your alibi between you, then and there. She had rung twice for the elevator. You made her agree to say that she had rung only once, so that your own story of having just come to the roof could be partially substantiated.
"Well, Crosby, it worked out as you planned. The girl stood by you at the inquest, and you were exonerated. Phyllis Crosby was listed as a suicide while temporarily deranged. But Doris Matthews had a conscience, and she loved her dead mistress very dearly. She confided to her sister, as this letter very clearly indicates, and Kathryn Matthews advised Doris, for her own sake, not to try to reopen the case, lest Doris be convicted of perjury. As Doris writes Kathryn: 'The case is closed forever, and maybe I did then what she would have wished me gave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me." Not because of anything in the man's character or conduct.

"Shouldst not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee?" The kindness of God is for our imitation. We can follow the divine example in the strength which God will supply.
When anyone says, "I will forgive his injury to me, but I will never forget it," he usually reveals his intention to remember it, and therefore he reveals an unforgiving heart. So long as he tries to remember the wrong, he does not really forgive it. To forgive is to dismiss, to put out of sight, to treat as if the wrong did not exist. That is what we want God to do with our sins. We pray with the Psalmist, "Blot out my transgressions. Remember not the sins on my youth, nor my transgressions." Spurgeon says pithily, "Forgive and forget. When you bury a man's dog, don't leave his tail above ground."
"But Mrs. Lambert just thought she had written you," Strawn interrupted. "The truth is, you were in a panic. You knew you would have to see Doris Matthews immediately, and insure her continued silence by bribery or by murdering her!"

"That's a foul lie, too!" Crosby groaned.
"Yeah?—Well, you became violently angry with her, and in your rage you lifted her and hurled her over the railing. And you were caught in the act by Doris Matthews!
"You deserve to be killed, Captain Strawn," Crosby told him, in a dead, toneless voice.
"Yeah?" Strawn grinned, and lit his pipe again, striking the match upon the sole of his big shoe. "The unexpected appearance of the maid with your wife's wrap—you didn't know, of course, that Mrs. Lambert had sent her, after speaking with you—threw you into a blue funk. Perhaps you did try to leap after your wife, and the girl restrained you. God knows what you said to her. I don't say you offered her hush money then. I rather think you appealed to her love for her mistress, urging her to believe
