ROBBERY MAY EXPLAIN DEEDS

Loan Brokers Out on Trip Through Oklahoma

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 26. (P)—David S. Smith and his brother George Smith, both of Connecticut were slain in a hotel room here tonight by two men, who other members of the Smith party said, were robbers.

John L. Wike, who was traveling with the Smith brothers, was bound and gagged, and the fourth member of the party, W. H. Seeley, who was in a bath room adjoining the room in which the killing occurred, was not molested. Seeley and Wike also are from Connecticut.

Seeley said two young men, dressed in brown suits, entered the room and attempted to rob the Smith brothers and shot them to death when they resisted. They then bound and gagged Wike and fled.

Officers immediately started a search for the pair but had found no tract of them some time after the shooting.

David Smith and Wike were from Sharon, Conn. George Smith was from West Cornwall, Conn., and Seeley was from Washington, Conn. All were loan brokers traveling through Oklahoma on business.

Other persons in the hotel declared they heard no shots.

Mustang Glee Club Presents Fine Program

A hoop-oo-puh-do duet, crooning in a manner reminiscent of Rudy Vallee and Helen Kane, listed on the program as "The Classical Colleagues," drew loudest and most enthusiastic applause from a full house at the First Methodist church last night when the Men's glee club of Southern Methodist university, Dallas, presented a varied concert on its annual Panhandle tour.

The jazz invasion was the only digression from the traditional glee club program. The Collegians were flannels and red ties and one of them played a saxophone. Their most popular number was "Should I." The two boys have frequently broadcast from WPAA and KRLD.

The first three numbers by the 26 young men, "Hark, Jolly Shepherds," "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," and "Hallelujah, Amen," were excellent examples of the flowering of the polyphonic style of singing, that is, the harmonizing of many tones at one time. The "Hallelujah" by Handell was sung best, and in a majestic spirit.

The technique of John Hurlington as he played two piano solos, "Prelude in A Minor," Debussy, and "Turkey in the Straw," Gounod, was appreciated. Ronald Knickerbocker displayed a pleasing baritone when he sang a solo in a glee club selection, "Lohinvar." A male quartet produced nice harmony in several standard glee club selections.

BARRY MILLER IS COMING APRIL 30

Lieut.-Governor Barry Miller will be in Pampa April 30, and will probably make an address. Though he has as yet made no political speeches in regard to his candidacy for governor, he is making a tour and is greeting friends in an informal way.

During the last week Mr. Miller visited Midland, Tulsa, Amarillo, and Paducah. In these places he greeted friends made through long years of political activity and work in the Masonic, Odd Fellows, and Knights of Pythias lodges.

Mr. Miller has been elected three times to the House of the legislature and then six years, or three terms, as lieutenant-governor.

The visiting tour of the west will be followed by an active campaign. Headquarters were opened in Dallas last Thursday.

Special Census Effort Will Be Made Here Soon

Census workers have not yet been able to enumerate residents of all portions of Pampa, but they expect to complete their canvass this week.

However, although they have been asked to finish their efforts by May 1, they will be given a short period in which to retrace their steps. In this latter task they will be assisted by a large number of squads assembled and directed by the Board of City Development.

While the enumerators believe that they will have 10,000 names within the city limits, it was said yesterday that there was no way to make an immediate total count. They asked that special enumerators not work where the regular staff has not yet called, inasmuch as confusion would result.

Alex Schneider has been working with the oil field executives and has secured many names.

New Church to Be Formed Today by City Baptists

A meeting for the organization of a second Baptist congregation in the city is to be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the hall above the new Chevrolet garage on Ballard street, with a committee of former members of the First Baptist church in charge.

A number of Baptist pastors from other Panhandle towns have been invited to assist. All persons interested in affiliating themselves with the group will be welcomed at the meeting.

The organization committee, composed of G. C. Stark, Mrs. S. L. Anderson, Mrs. W. L. Cobb, and O. H. Gilstrap, expects that about fifty members will form the nucleus of the new membership. Through misinformation, it was erroneously stated in the Friday issue that E. Bass Clay was a member of the committee.

Death Separates Endurance Fliers

The famous Fort Worth endurance team of Cowboy Jim Kelly and Reginald Robbins was broken forever last night by the tragic death of Kelly, who was killed when his plane crashed near Alvord. The pictures show Robbins, above, and Kelly, below, and the Fort Worth in which they remained aloft 172 hours, 37 minutes, and 1 second last May 29.

GRAY COUNTY PRODUCTION IS SLOWLY MOVING UPWARD, WITH PANHANDLE NEARING 100,000

Significant in the development of Gray county oil fields last week was an increase of 2,149 barrels in daily output and the bringing in of 5,639 barrels of new production.

Daily production of the Panhandle area rose to 95,272 barrels, while the oil wells of Gray county produced 62,977 barrels daily. The production of Gray county wells has increased on an average of 1,000 barrels per week for the last six weeks. In the week ending April 20, new production aggregated 6,500 barrels.

The largest well reported was Wilcox-Pampa oil company's No. 13 Combs-Worley, section 37, block 3, which had an initial production of 3,654 barrels. Phillips Petroleum company's No. 1 Combs-Worley (J. Fox), section 36, block 3, was drilled to a total depth of 2,870 feet and is producing 60 barrels an hour.

Empire Gas and Fuel company's No. 1 Castleberry, section 151, block 3, had an initial production of 45 barrels from 3,316 feet. The well was plugged back from 3,355 feet. The Gulf Production company's No. 1 Combs, section 38, block 3, is producing about 500 barrels of oil and 700 barrels of water per day. The pay came from a depth of 2,205-06 feet, and the initial production was 145 barrels of oil and 875 barrels of water per day. Travis and Reiger's No. 1 Mackie, section 114, block B-2, was completed for 19 million feet of gas.

Daily production of counties compared with the previous week follows:

Carson—202 wells, producing 8,961 barrels, a loss of 727 barrels.
Gray—541 wells, producing 62,977 barrels, a gain of 2,149 barrels.
Hutchinson—963 wells producing 22,281 barrels, a gain of 369 barrels.
Moore—19 wells, producing 502 barrels, an increase of 25 barrels.
Wheeler—39 wells, producing 561 barrels, a loss of 169 barrels.
Total production, 95,272 barrels an increase of 1,622 barrels.

Pistol Accident Fatal
AUSTIN, April 26. (P)—Roy Marshall, 22, was killed here tonight when a bullet from an automatic pistol, discharged when it fell from his pocket, entered his back. Marshall was sitting in a barber's chair when the pistol fell from his pocket. The bullet penetrated the chair before entering the youth's body.

FIVE HUNDRED VISITORS ARE COMING HERE

Panhandle Body Is to Convene on Tuesday

OPEN MEETING WILL BE HELD

Delegates Will Pay for Rooms They Occupy

With the prospect of having to provide lodging for from 500 to 700 delegates to the Panhandle Association of Odd Fellows next Tuesday and Wednesday, members of the local I. O. O. F. lodge last night were faced with the realization that they must find rooms for three-fourths of that number before Tuesday evening.

The hotels will not be able to care for many of the visitors, hence the Pampa lodge is renewing its appeal to citizens to open their homes to the delegates. Every local household head who will furnish one or more rooms is asked to call the I. O. O. F. hall, phone 493, at once. The delegates will pay for the rooms, and do not ask that they be furnished free.

Registration for the two-day convention will be at the I. O. O. F. hall, where most of the sessions will be held. The convention will open at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Methodist church. The public is invited to attend this opening session. Some of the degree work will be done at Central gymnasium, and there likely will be one other public program.

Odd Fellows and Rebekah's from all counties of the Panhandle are expected, according to Roy Sullivan, who is chairman of the local registration committee. He stated that the housing problem was the only detail that had not been cared for, and he asked that the public recognize the seriousness of the situation and voluntarily offer rooms to the registration committee.

JUNIOR CLASS TO GIVE PLAY, "NANCY ANN"

"Nancy Ann," a three-act comedy, will be presented by the Junior class at Central auditorium Monday evening at 8 p. m.

A large cast has been assembled and trained by Miss Arless O'Keefe, and it is said that the play will be very interesting and humorous. Among those who will have parts in the play are Frances Campbell, Harley Kennedy, Yvonne Thomas, Virginia Rose, Wilma Washmon, Katherine Roberts, Alice Ingram, Lavelle Meyer, Dary Meador, Susie Bell Hickman, Albert Lard, George Ingram, James Ayres, Paul Camp, Max Marbaugh, and L. D. Blanton.

Mrs. F. L. Hurley returned home Friday, after a visit of two weeks in Oklahoma City.

Women of Panhandle Section Survey Big Problems in Three-Day Session in Pampa

A three-day conference in which club women of the entire Panhandle gathered here to consider their multiple lines of endeavor, take measure of the past year's accomplishments, and face the problems of the future was brought to a close with adjournment Friday afternoon of the ninth annual convention of the Seventh district of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs.

Memphis was selected as the 1931 meeting place without opposition, after Canadian had withdrawn from the race and extended an invitation for the 1932 spring conference. The loving cups were presented in other annual singing contests was held during the final session, and prizes and branches of enterprises.

Prizes Are Awarded
The Potter County federation received the silver trophy for outstanding work in public welfare, and won the $15 cash prize for the best county federation report. The Alburian Daughters of Snyder was presented the cash prize offered by Mrs. W. P. Averitt of Lamesa, chairman of junior membership, for the best work in junior organization. The $5 award for the best individual club report went to the Twentieth Century club of Lubbock, and to the Delphian club of Crowell honorable mention was given. The Junior Delphian club of Childress gave, the best junior club report, to receive a blue bonnet painting. The Junior Home and Progress club of Miami was given second place in the same branch.

FLOYDADA WOMAN KILLED AND THREE OTHERS HURT AS AUTO LEAVES ROAD AND TURNS OVER

LUBBOCK, April 26. (P)—Mrs. Fred Bell, 40, was instantly killed, Mrs. Effie Cardwell, 45, probably fatally injured and two other women were hurt tonight when their automobile ran off the highway near here and turned over several times. The four women were from Floydada.

Mrs. Sam Berry, 37, was seriously injured, but Mrs. Bess Cartwell, driver of the car, suffered only minor cuts and bruises.

The women were enroute from Floydada to Lubbock when Mrs. Cartwell became blinded by the lights of an approaching car and did not notice how nearly her car was approaching the edge of the highway.

Cement Movie Will Be Shown Here Tomorrow

The Pampa Hoo Hoo club, lumbermen's organization, will be host to delegates from neighboring towns Monday.

"Dealers & Dollars," an educational film distributed by the Le-high Portland Cement company, will be shown. This film is said to have done much to accelerate better merchandising. It will be in charge of C. C. Trapp of Oklahoma City and Fred Lyon of Amarillo.

The local Hoo Hoo club has invited dealers from Canadian, Miami, Mobeetie, Wheeler, Shamrock, McLennan, Alanreed, Groom, Panhandle, White Deer, Borger and Skellytown.

The film will be shown at a first floor room in the Rose building on North Cuyler street beginning at 4 p. m.

Orchestra Is Invited to Enter Lincoln Contest

The distinction of recognition by the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music was accorded the orchestra of Pampa high school in an invitation to compete in the national contest for school orchestras, at Lincoln, Neb., May 29 and 30.

The invitation was received yesterday by Thomas Fannell, orchestra director, who said that the high school group was eligible for having won the first place for orchestras of Class B at the recent Panhandle Music Festival in Amarillo.

Men Overlook Problems
The task of the pioneer town builder's wife is to prevent the sickness of body, mind, and soul. Her's today is a task, primarily of public welfare. Our husbands, she continued, "are so busy procuring highways for our country, they have no time left for enforcing the safety of these highways; they are so busy bringing railroads to this new country, they've no time for consideration of the industrial and inter-racial problems which the Mexicans bring with them; they are so busy erecting great buildings, they've no time

Outstanding in the events of Friday were the conferences and round table discussions directed by the state director, Mrs. R. F. Lindsay of Mount Pleasant, and the luncheon sponsored by the department of public welfare, at which Mrs. George Briggs of Pampa was the speaker.

FLIER BRAVES HEAVY STORM NEAR ALVORD

Endurance Record in "Fort Worth" Is Recalled

STUDENT ALSO DIES IN FALL

Passenger Hurt But Another Not Injured

FORT WORTH, April 26. (P)—Jim Kelly, endurance flier, and G. W. Mennis, Sr., both of Fort Worth, were killed when their plane crashed during a storm five miles northwest of Alvord shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Alvord is 40 miles north of Fort Worth.

Red Ross, Oklahoma City, and C. F. Williams, of Tonkawa, Oklahoma, passengers, were injured in the crash. Williams suffered a fracture of the left leg below the knee and possible internal injuries. Ross' scalp was badly lacerated and his leg is bruised.

Ross and Williams were brought to Cook memorial hospital from Alvord in an open car. Both were rained and suffering from cold.

Kelly is survived by his widow, Mennis, oil man, is survived by his widow and son, G. W. Mennis, Jr., a student at Southwestern university, Georgetown. Mennis was 50 years old. Kelly was 25 years old. The bodies are at Alvord.

The plane was a five plane Lockheed Vega, owned by Mennis. He was a student flier under instruction of Kelly at the municipal airport here.

The party left Oklahoma City about 5 p. m. for Fort Worth. It was not heard from early in the night and check was begun at Oklahoma City and Fort Worth.

Ross, still suffering from shock and exposure, described the crash from his bed in the Cook hospital. "We left Oklahoma City about 5 o'clock," Ross said.

"Kelly was at the controls. We had storm warnings and could see heavy clouds all along the route. We kept flying to the west in an effort to dodge the worst of the storm."

"Several showers swept over the ship, but we kept on. We had just passed over a small town which we believed to be Bowie when a heavy thunderstorm struck the ship. There was a great deal of lightning and the rain poured down in sheets."

"Suddenly the motors began to sputter and Kelly eased the ship down. We had not been flying at a very high altitude. Then came a blinding rain and the motors quit. The ship seemed to lurch and dived toward the ground. I don't remember much about the crash. I was groggy when I came to and don't remember exactly what I did. I remember them trying to get the boys out of the ship. I don't know whether they ever did or not."

"There was blood in my eyes and my leg felt like it had been broken. I remember that they put Williams and me into an automobile."

More Residences Are Started Here

Construction of residences costing a total of $11,900 was started in Pampa last week, according to building permits issued by F. E. Townsend. This amount raised the year's total to $273,383.

JUDGMENT OF $6,900 IS GIVEN IN TODD SUIT

A $6,900 judgement for F. F. Todd in his suit against the City of Pampa for damages which the plaintiff alleged he sustained when his daughter, Mickey Todd, was killed here, was returned in a verdict by a jury in 114th district court yesterday morning. The jury was out almost a day.

Two previous juries had given judgments of $5,000 and $3,500, respectively, to the plaintiff. The first judgment was reversed by the Court of Civil Appeals, and after a second verdict in the case was returned the court granted a new trial upon submission of evidence that there had been irregularities in the jury room.

It is understood that city attorneys, Cook, Smith and Teed will file motion for a new trial, and if this is denied will appeal the case.

This was the fifth trial which grew out of an automobile accident that occurred here in 1928. The plaintiff alleged that Miss Todd met her death due to negligence of the city in leaving open a ditch from which a culvert had been removed. Miss Della Todd first sued the city for damages, claiming she had been disabled and injured. This case was tried twice. W. M. Lewright has been counsel for the plaintiffs in all of the trials.

Riding in the coupe with Miss Mickey Todd at the time the car struck the open ditch and overturned was her sister and two young men, according to testimony. About a score of witnesses testified in the trial, that closed Friday after four days of testimony and arguments.

Dr. E. E. Reeves made a business trip to Borger Friday.

THE WEATHER
WEST TEXAS: Generally fair Sunday and Monday.

ROUGHNESS IS SPECIALTY OF TIGER MILLS

The era of clean wrestling is apparently over in Pampa. At any rate, it is so far as Tiger Mills, who will wrestle Otis Clingman here Thursday night, is concerned.

Said Tiger Friday: "The fans here are not going to like me any better if I wrestle Otis clean, so I'm going to let him have all the rough stuff I've got. Ears are likely to be pulled off and noses badly twisted. I've got nothing to lose here and nothing to gain—judging by the way the folks regard Clingman. Why, they think he can't be thrown. I'm going to show 'em, and I'm going to get rougher with him than anybody ever got."

"And while I think about it," Tiger tittered, "the way the fans treated Shima here Thursday night was a disgrace to good sportsmanship. That was the cleanest wrestler I ever saw and what good did it do him to be clean? None. They razzed him when it was over. That's what decided me to mess up that Clingman. This town is too crazy over him."

Tiger Mills of Butte, Mont. is not one to follow the quieter, less severe methods of the mat. He learned his business in the rough schools of the northwest and believes in tearing his opponent in pieces. Slugging and rabbit punching are his chief forms of attacks. He formerly traveled with the Sells-Floto circus in the capacity of a tiger-tamer. He was seen here last Thursday night wrestling Roy Roy.

"But I wasn't puttin' out nothin' in that match. I didn't wanta hurt Roy's carbuncle. Besides I hadn't been on the mat in four months, and there wasn't any use of stretching myself when I didn't have to."

"Tiger will be working out every day this week here."

In the semi-final event, Dutch Betke, the Berger Ape man, will go for 30 minutes with Roy Roy. Both of these lump-eared sluggers have wrestled here before and they will likely put on a better show than usual, now that Roy's carbuncle is well.

Fans who are in the habit of arriving late at the wrestling match, should be in their seats at 8:30 Thursday night when Red Michael meets Kelly, popular barber of West Foster street. Kelly believes that he owes it to the public to throw Red. "It's time that somebody took the conceit out of that youngster. He's beginning to think he can't be thrown," he said. Kelly followed the boxing racket for a number of years and became good at it. He has never wrestled, but he believes he can "bust" Red. Kelly will begin working out today with Tiger Mills.

TIGERS LOSE SEVENTH TILT TO INDIANS

CLEVELAND, April 26. (AP)—The Indians pounded Earl Whitehill from the mound with a seven run attack in the first inning today and went on to hand the Tigers their seventh straight defeat, 11 to 4.

Clint Brown, Cleveland's promising rookie right-hander, hung up his second victory over the Tigers in less than a week.

Frey Tames Chicago

CHICAGO, April 26. (AP)—Ben Frey tamed the Chicago Nationals, 1 to 0, this afternoon in an airtight game. Cincinnati pounded their one run in the first inning to win the game.

Hal Carlson and Bob Osborn allowed the visiting Reds but two hits to turn in a hard luck ball game. Frey allowed seven and three of them were bunched in the fourth but the Cubs were unable to convert them into runs.

Cincinnati 100 000 000—1 5 0
Chicago 000 000 000—0 7 1

Frey and Sukeforth; Carlson, Osborn and Hartnett.

Pirates Rally To Win

PITTSBURGH, April 26. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates came from behind to win 9 to 7 today after the St. Louis Cards had gained a five-run lead in the third inning. The win extended the Buccaneers victorious stride to six straight games.

Bill Hallahan was shelled from the mound in the fifth when seven hits and two walks netted seven runs for the home team.

Shreveport 200 011 01x—5 11 2

Lingrel and Morrow; Underhill, Moulton and Krauss.

Leland Beats Bracey for Fifth Time—Warne Nearly Breaks Record

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 26. (AP)—Climaxing an afternoon of glittering performances, in which seven meet records fell, Tommy Warne of Northwestern university provided the thrill in the finals of the Drake relay carnival today when he barely missed a new world's record for the pole vault.

Warne attempted to clear the bar at 14 feet, 2 inches, a height never before reached by a vaulter. He hurled his body over the bar, with inches to spare, but knocked the cross bar from its moorings with one arm in his descent.

Previous to this attempt, Warne had cleared 13 feet, 11 inches, bettering by nearly six inches the former Drake relay record.

New marks for the Drake carnival were established in the 440-yard university relay, the 480-yard shuttle relay, college sprint medley relay, the two-mile run, shut put, and the 440-yard relay quartet.

Texas' sprint men carried away the field in the 100-yard dash, as Cy Leland, T. C. U. flash, did the distance in 9.6 seconds for his fifth win over Claude Bracey of Rice Institute, who breasted the tape second. Eddie Toland, Michigan negro, was third and Oliver, another T. C. U. product was fourth.

Ablene Christian college set the day's first record by taking the college sprint medley in 3:33.3, clipping 7.8 seconds off the old record made in 1928. Wood, Hodges, Thompson and Vaughn comprised the Texas team. T. C. U. led by Leland, took fourth in the 440-university relay.

MAGNOLIA TO MEET PRAIRIE OILERS TODAY

The Magnolia Petroleum company baseball nine will meet the Prairie Oilers this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Magnolia yard.

The Magnolia team is rated along with the Coltexo and The Gulf Guns as being at the top of the list among local teams.

Batteries for the Prairie Oilers will be Bradley and McKinley, while the Magnolia line-up will be as follows:

Bozeman c, Burge p, Gray 1b, Ward 2b, McKnight ss, Foy 3b, Sweargen lf, Bassett cf, and Brown rf.

Aggies Take Two

COLLEGE STATION, April 26. (AP)—The Texas Aggie nine today slugged its way to victory over the Rice Owls in a double header, taking the first game 6 to 0 and the second, 10 to 4.

Longhorns Easy Winners

DALLAS, April 26. (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns swamped the Southern Methodist university Mustangs with a hitting spree today, winning 16 to 4 after holding the Ponies scoreless until the seventh frame.

Texas Association of Colleges Asks Raising Athletic Standard

Time has come for action toward raising the standards of college athletics in Texas, that "the time for hot air and more talk about this problem facing us today is past," the Association of Texas Colleges in final session Saturday adopted the report of the commission on athletic offered by the chairman, Dr. D. A. Penick of the University of Texas.

Considering that "present methods of handling athletics in Texas and throughout the country at large are conducive to deception and lying," and recognizing charges brought by the Carnegie foundation that "undue influence is brought to bear on high school athletes either directly by college authorities, or indirectly by the alumni and friends of the institution to enter such institutions for athletic and not scholastic reasons," adoption of the recommendations of the commission will result in a state survey of college athletics by the National Amateur Athletic federation.

It will be the duty of the association in the future, the recommendations state, to set the standards but to leave to conferences the carrying out of details of enforcement. The association reserves the right to refuse membership in the association to any school failing to meet association standards. The fundamental principles of the amateurism article of the constitution of the National Collegiate Athletic association was adopted, and the association affirmed disapproval of practices charged in the statement that college authorities use undue influence to secure athletes for their institutions.

A resolution on adoption of the freshman rule of the Southern association prohibiting freshmen from participating on varsity teams was tabled.

Bears Win Dual Meet With Owls

WACO, April 26. (AP)—The Baylor Bears won a dual track meet from the Rice Owls on Carroll field here today, scoring 64 points to Rice's 45. Taylor excelled in the dashes and hurdles while the Owls had the advantage in distance races.

In the absence of Clude Bracey who was at the Drake relays, Godard of Baylor won the 100-yard dash with Kiersky of Baylor second, the time being 10.2 seconds.

Eastland Golfer Good

MINERAL WELLS, April 26. (AP)—Magic touch with a putter and uncanny skill with approach shots Saturday afternoon earned S. J. Barnett, 19, from Eastland a place in the finals against Gus Moreland. Sensational youth from Dallas of the fourth annual Mineral Wells invitation golf tournament. Barnett and Moreland will battle over 36 holes for the championship Sunday. Barnett's brilliant work around the greens gave him a 4 to 2 victory over Joe Ballard, Jr., Fort Worth, ranking favorite with Moreland to reach the finals.

EHMKE, 1929 SERIES HERO, FOLLOWED BROTHERS' PATH

CHICAGO (AP)—Howard Ehmke the Great was Ehmke the Fifth. When the old discarded pitcher of the Philadelphia Mackmen burst forth gloriously last year as the hero of the 1929 world series, striking out 13 of the Cubs' heavy artillery and winning the opening game he was harvesting a crop of family athletic tradition.

Back in the days when Ehmke was a kid in Silver Creek, N. Y., pitching the Silver Creek "Horsehoes" to victory over the neighboring Dunkirk "Defenders," he was merely "one of the Ehmke boys."

There always seemed to be an Ehmke on hand to pitch for the "Horsehoes." First it was Frank, who also pitched for Brown University, played tackle on the Brown eleven, was a heavyweight champion collegiate wrestler and a hammer thrower and shot putter of note.

There was also Brother Charley Ehmke who, besides pitching for the "Horsehoes," also pitched for Brown and was a lightweight wrestler.

Brother Harry was next. Harry pitched for the "Horsehoes." He also pitched for Brown, coming through as the hero of a no-hit game against Lehigh 25 years ago. He played fullback on the Brown eleven.

Brother Lester, the fourth Ehmke, was not a pitcher, but he won the middleweight wrestling championship of Brown and was a good outfielder on the Brown ball team.

After all these came Howard, the hero of 1929. He went to Los Angeles with the family and entered Glendale high school where one of his brothers was coach. Brother Charley wrote to Connie Mack and to McGraw that the lad was likely, but nothing came of it.

Thirteen years later Mack bought Ehmke from Boston when the latter was over 32 years old. Ehmke, in the meantime had gone through the Federal league turmoil and was variously shifted around afterward.

When the series was about to open last fall Ehmke had an ailing arm and was supposed to be through

SKELLY TEAM NEXT TO PLAY GULF'S GUNS

Fresh from victories over the Coltexans and the Amarillo Cats, the Gulf Guns will train their fire-works on the Skelly Roustabouts this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Skellytown.

Edelen who almost shut out the Coltexo team and the Cats hopes to do his part in leading the Gunners to victory at his position on the mound. Parr is the big pitch for the Roustabouts.

The following Guns will be put into action by the Gulf: Sullivan c, Eaten p, Davis 1b, Hays 2b, Munds 3b, Hickey ss, Swain rf, Morgan lf, and Pope cf.

The Roustabout line-up has been announced as follows: White c, Parr p, Carmochie 1b, Harring 2b, Chambers 3b, Dvorack ss, Murray rf, Shipley lf, and Phelps cf.

Tiger Mills to Let Chrysler Run Over His Body

"It's good for my digestion," said Tiger Mills yesterday afternoon when he announced that today at 3 o'clock he will lay flat on his back on the pavement at the intersection of Cuyler street and Foster avenue while a Chrysler '70' loaded with people passes over his stomach.

Tiger is going to wrestle Otis Clingman here Thursday night and he wants to show the natives how tough he is, he said. Every day for two months while Tiger was with the Al G. Barnes circus loaded automobiles passed over his stomach. One time a six-ton Mack truck was driven over him, he declared. "If Clingman thinks he's tough let him have a car driven over him," Mills challenged.

Allison and Van Ryn Winners Over Lott-Doeg

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 26. (AP)—John Van Ryn of South Orange, N. J., and Wilmer Allison, Jr., of Austin, Texas, today justified the selection of the Davis cup committee which yesterday named them to represent the United States as the doubles team in the 1930 competition, by vanquishing the doubles champions George M. Lott, Jr., of Chicago and John Doeg, of Santa Monica in the finals of the Mason and Dixon doubles championship. The defeated pair was named by the Davis cup committee to represent the United States in singles competition.

The scores of the match, fought on the courts of the Greenbrier Golf and Tennis club, were 3-6, 12-10, 7-5, 6-3.

The same remarkable ability to volley at the net which characterized their play in other matches was the reason for the success of the youthful Davis cup doubles pair.

The match concluded the tenth annual Mason and Dixon tournament.

where play will start immediately after lunch.

The Pampanos will meet at the Central States Power and Light company office and leave for Shamrock about 9:30 o'clock. W. H. Curry and Otto Stander will command the Pampanos forces.

Shamrock has made elaborate preparations for entertaining the visitors. Lunch will be served at the Shamrock country club soon after the Pampanos arrive. The country club course here, as well as the "Tom Thumb" putting links on West Foster, have been crowded for the past week with golfers who are ambitious to make Pampa preminent at Shamrock tomorrow. Shamrock has some of the best golfers in this section, and Pampanos concede they will be lucky to win.

Roosevelt Is Hailed as Next Party Choice

NEW YORK, April 26. (AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt was hailed tonight as the winning standard bearer of a militant progressive Democratic party in 1932 by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana in an address at the annual Jefferson Day dinner of the National Democratic club.

Senator Wheeler said the overshadowing issue before the American people was control of electric power. He added that the Democratic party of the nation must follow the policy of the Democrats of New York, as led by former Governor Alfred T. Smith and Governor Roosevelt, and preserve the control of the people.

Governor Roosevelt spoke on Thomas Jefferson. Other speakers were Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming, and Supreme Court Justice John L. Walsh, who was toastmaster.

"Whoever controls the electric power of the nation in the future will control the economic life of the nation," Senator Wheeler said.

"Power is the one issue upon which the Republicans dare not compromise. It is their one love they dare not desert, and as I look over the field for a general to lead the people to victory under the banner of a reunited, militant progressive party, I cannot help but fasten my attention upon your governor. The West is looking to Roosevelt to lead the fight, and, with him, I feel sure we can win."

Simpson Repeats His World Mark

FRANKLIN FIELD, Philadelphia, April 26. (AP)—For the second straight year, Ohio State's greyhound of a cinderpaths, George Simpson, today brought the Pennsylvania relay carnival to a smashing climax with a world's record performance in the 100-yard dash.

Last spring he shot from his much-disputed starting blocks to race the century in 9 3-5 seconds, equalling the listed world's record with the fastest 100 ever witnessed on historic Franklin Field. Today, with a crowd of 30,000 cheering him on, Simpson disclaimed the blocks, went back to the old-fashioned heels and repeated his time of 9 3-5 seconds, thereby satisfying any and all skeptics.

Markets

Wheat Advances Late

CHICAGO, April 26. (AP)—Abrupt late advances in wheat today contrasted sharply with earlier downward swings that tumbled May contracts to below any price record heretofore this season. Indications of big export buying of North American wheat did much to bring about the swift change of the market from weakness to strength. May wheat appeared to be getting staunch support from aggressive buying on the part of farm board allies.

Closing quotations on wheat were firm at the same as yesterday's close to 7-8c higher, with corn 3-4 to 1 1-4c down, oats 1-8 to 1-2c off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 5c.

Corn was heavy, with pit speculators good-sellers on prospects of a larger movement of corn to market in the immediate future. December corn sold at a new low price record for the season. Oats went lower, sympathizing with other grain, and because weather conditions were favorable for oats growth.

Liquidating sales of May lard had a depressing effect on provisions, notwithstanding firmness of the hog market.

Beef Supply Short

KANSAS CITY, April 26. (U. S. D. A.)—Cattle trade around the eleven-market circuit this week was marked by considerable unevenness. Conditions in the dressed beef trade did not warrant any advance in prices on killing cattle but with supplies meager at several points values were forced higher. Receipts 177,200, an increase of 24,000 over last week but 22,000 short of the corresponding period a year ago.

Hogs unevenly 10 to 30c lower than week ago. St. Louis and Chicago had a late top of 10.20. Offerings 447,000 against 464,086 last week and 498,566 the same week a year ago.

The sheep supply approximated 332,000, an increase of 5,000 over last week and 52,000 heavier than a year ago. Closing values on fat lambs are firm to 25c higher than a week ago. Mature sheep weak to unevenly lower. Some points reported losses of 50c and more.

Deny Negroes Intimidated
WASHINGTON, April 26. (AP)—Telegrams denying reports that negroes were being intimidated in North Carolina because the National Association for Advancement of Colored People opposed the appointment of Judge John J. Parker to the supreme court were made public today by Senator Overman, Democrat, North Carolina.

The telegrams were from Governor O. Max Gardner, Federal Judge John J. Hayes, and James H. Ramsey, Salisbury postmaster. They were received as senate Republican leaders were attempting to line up enough votes to insure confirmation.

Governor Gardner said in his telegram he had investigated the intimidation charges and had found them "totally unfounded."

Flowers Are Hobby of Mrs. Wynne, Who Grows Wealth of Varieties

(By Archer Fullingim)

Last summer, when Mrs. J. S. Wynne who lives at No. 317 North Frost street, had filled a large flat basket with flowers cut from her yard for a sick friend, she noticed that there were many different kinds of flowers in the basket and it occurred to her that she might count them, "just for the fun of it." She found that there were 25 different varieties. Probably she didn't cut a sample of every blossoming flower in the yard. She just selected blooms that needed cutting, as she did almost every day. There were several beautiful varieties that were not represented among the flowers that Mrs. Wynne's sick friend enjoyed.

Tulips Blooming Now
Almost any day in the spring and summer, from April until fall, a person might gather a dozen varieties of beautiful flowers from Mrs. Wynne's yard. In March there were lovely violets and splendid purple, pink and white hyacinths. Just now there are red tulips, white and yellow roses, lilacs and iris. The Wynne yard is colorful and odoriferous proof that with skill, diligence and love for blossoms, almost every kind of flowers can be grown in the Panhandle, and Pampa in particular. The hedges, shrubbery and rows of flowers in the yard make a fitting frame for the Wynne residence which is quietly beautiful. Its architecture shows the same discriminating taste as the arrangement of selection of plants in the yard.

Yard Well Arranged
It would seem that such a variety of flowers and shrubbery would result in confusion and stuffiness, but the reverse is true. There is nothing gaudy about either the house or the yard. Each fits the other. The yard is so correctly arranged that one doesn't get the impression that the yard is stuffy or that it has too many flowers. It is a model for the proper arrangements of flowers and shrubs.

All the space allotted for flowers and shrubbery is used and there are no encroachments upon the lawn. On the south side of the house, a rambling rose hedge which will soon be a mass of red roses separates the Wynne lot from the adjoining lot. On the north side, a lilac hedge and other shrubs, separates the lots. A Chinese Elm tree is growing green and leafy in the center of each half of the front yard. A row of violets from which sprang hundreds of blossoms in March are growing on each side of the entrance walk.

There are circular tulip and hyacinth beds next to the street sidewalk. Next to the street are planted Shasta daisies. Next to the walls at the front of the house are climbing roses, peonies now in bud, a honeysuckle vine correctly half-hidden in a corner; its fragrance is to be seen and not heard. On the north and south sides of the house next to the wall, planted with the demands of climate in mind, are forget-me-nots, sent from Ohio, bouncing beauty, golden glow, phlox, four o'clocks, lilies of the valley, candy turf, begonias, California poppies, snap dragons, columbine, and many others. A large bed of fine roses adjoins the south wall of the house.

Back Yard Pretty
The back yard is just as beautiful as the front though useful as well as pretty. In the northwest corner is a strawberry bed and in the southwest corner a kitchen garden that contains rhubarb, currant vines, gooseberries, raspberries, horseradish, winter onions, thyme, and sage. "I always use my own sage instead of the rather doubtful stuff one buys from the store," Mrs. Wynne said. Next the wall that separates a poultry house and lot from the back yard, are morning glories, sweet peas, Chinese lanterns, nasturtiums. An interesting rose bush near the rear of the house is a Scotch brier whose red foliage is almost as beautiful as its single bloom roses.

An arch over which twines a rambling red rose vine and which is blooming for the first time this year, forms an entrance to an alcove at the rear of the house. In this are lilacs, daisies, lilies, hollyhocks, Polyanthas and other flowers.

Old Fashioned Flowers
On the north side of the house growing next to the wall and near the lilac hedge are sweet william, poppies, verbenas, pansies, old fashioned mint, corn flowers old fashioned pinks carnations, "Old Man," a mint which has been grown in the gardens of Mrs. Wynne's family for generations, "country hill," coreopsis, petunias, larkspur, ageratum, flower with a pretty lavender bloom, calendula and daisies.

A clump of iris in the back yard have a nice delicate odor and this is unusual since flags seldom have a pleasant if any odor. Clinging to the north wall is Boston and Old English ivy.

By accident there are a number of black walnut trees in the back yard. These were planted by a pet squirrel that the Wynnes used to have. He was a very frugal little animal and he planted them all over the back yard for any bleak days that might be ahead but he disappeared and the black walnuts are much in evidence of his existence. "I just can't pull them up, although I know they will never amount to much as black walnut trees," Mrs. Wynne said.

Legion Service Club to Outline Future Activity

The American Legion luncheon club was well attended at its regular Friday noon-day luncheon. Several Legionnaires were present for their first time. Guests were Siler Faulkner and Olin E. Hinkle. Among the things of interest to the Legion were a report on the unofficial Forty and Eight convention here last Saturday and Sunday, by Chef de Gare Frank J. Thomas, who said that it was a success from every standpoint, regardless of the fact that it was unofficial.

The Legion band appeared in their new uniforms for the first time in the parade during the convention. It was pointed out that these uniforms were paid for by the citizens and business firms of Pampa, and that the band is at the service of the community at all times. The Legion favors cooperation with the school board in securing a music director for the school, in order that new band material may be supplied in the future.

Dr. R. A. Webb appointed Edwin Vickers chairman of a "clean-up"

This House In Stone Needs Big Yard

A house that should be set back from the street is this design particularly suitable for the builder in a moderate-sized community. It can be fitted nicely into a lot about 60 feet wide and 100 deep, allowing for a good-sized yard. Spaciousness is a feature of all six rooms, none of which are characterized by crowdedness. Gray stone and clapboards are combined to make an attractive exterior, with the roof of vari-colored wood shingles. The clapboards on the upper exterior are painted white. A dining alcove adds to convenience in the downstairs plan. Both the dining and living room face the street. Cross-ventilation is provided in all three bedrooms, all of which are larger than many chambers in modern homes.

The low roof over the front-side porch averts any possible monotony in the exterior's front appearance. If the lot is sufficiently deep, plans also might include a separate garage in the rear of the house. Under average labor and material costs, the expense of construction is estimated between $10,000 and $12,000, varying in different sections.

North Fork to Be Bridged by 700-Foot Span

Material is being moved in for a timber bridge across the North Fork, 11 miles north of McLean, in section 2 of block 20.

The Peake & Landry firm of Pampa has the contract, which was let at $12,706. The bridge will be 700 feet long and will be completed in 35 days.

The span will facilitate travel on the McLean-Laketon-Miami road. Try Daily News Want ads.

Mrs. W. T. Willis of Wichita Falls is spending the week-end here with her daughters, Mrs. H. D. Lewis and Miss Iva June Willis, and her son, Ed Willis.

Formal Opening of Creamery Will Be Held Soon

Preparations are already underway for the formal opening of the Gray County Creamery, which will be held the latter part of May. Finishing of the large addition to the plant is almost completed.

The equipment, which was selected by Henry Gerhard, owner of the creamery, has already been put into use. S. E. Johnson, engineer of the Creamery Package manufacturing company, spent several days in Pampa going over plans with Mr. Gerhard before the installation of the machinery.

In order to increase the plant's capacity a new battle washing machine was added which will wash 30 bottles per minute. The machine has 462 bottles in the cleaning process at the same time. It requires from 15 to 17 minutes for a bottle to travel the 56 feet of cleaning and rinsing machinery. One more large ice cream machine and a large freezing room has been added in the ice cream department.

Loos Shows Will Show Here Week Starting Monday

The J. George Loos shows will arrive here this afternoon and tomorrow will open for an engagement under the auspices of the American Legion.

This show is said to have 300 persons in its various units, and it travels in its own train of 30 cars. Among the 25 attractions will be a trained wild animal show, negro performers, freak animals, half-man half horse, midgits, Busy City—a mechanical creation requiring years to build—motorcycle races on a perpendicular wall, animal actors, Hawaiian islands, and many others. Then there is Dare Devil Mouton, who mounts a high ladder, ignites his clothing, and leaps 100 feet into a tank of water.

The Loos shows annually are booked at some of the nation's largest fairs. They this year will be at the Missouri state fair for the sixth consecutive time.

They will be at North Sloan street all the week.

You Can Use Oilcloth Anywhere

BY MARGERY TAYLOR
Interior Decoration Editor, McCall's Magazine. Written for The Pampa Daily News

Oilcloth has "come out of the kitchen" and gone into the dining room—and to the living room, at least, of the summer cottage.

Art has performed this miracle and marvelous indeed is the charm and variety of the new designs.

That is why we now have oilcloth breakfast and luncheon cloths; screens and lampshades; oil cloth draperies for bathroom, kitchen, breakfast room and sunroom, and in the summer home, gay wall coverings and decorative cushions of oilcloth.

There is, for instance, a fascinating design of Ilonka Karasz. It is a modernistic floral pattern which would bloom in any sun room or porch. An afternoon tea served in smart black china on a table decked with this oil cloth in red would be a real event.

There is another oilcloth which combines utility with beauty. It has a chintz pattern marked off in blocks and a piece can easily be cut up into place mats for the breakfast or luncheon table. This idea can, of course, be applied easily to all plaid patterns.

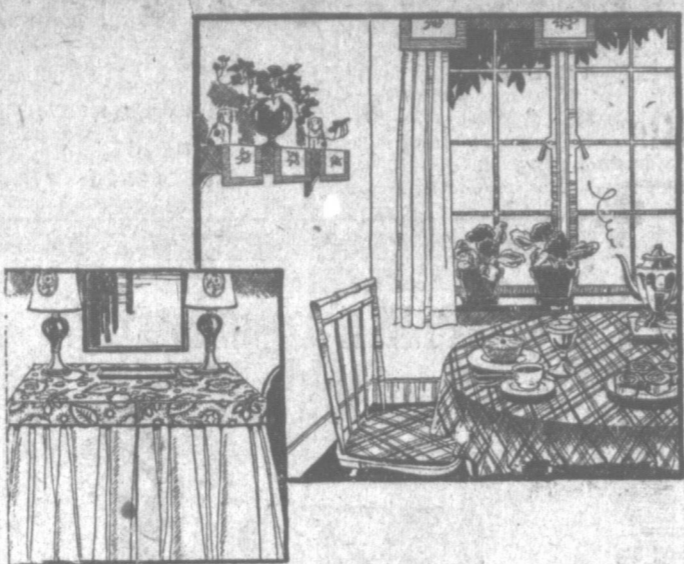

Naturally, with such designs feminine ingenuity is happily unbounded. Book covers, bathing bags, aprons and other small accessories already display the new oilcloth art. But we cannot stop, and we must achieve whole 'cottage' sets including draperies, lamp shades, table cloths and chair pads which all match.

The cleanliness of oilcloth has always been a great attraction. Therefore the new designs make it even more welcome in the summer cottage or camp. Boat cushions, hammock furnishings, pillows, and hangings in oilcloth stand outdoor wear well without showing that wilted summer look.

For a permanent table cloth, oilcloth is of course ideal. But the old tacking method is giving way to the much better one of gluing, which makes the top not only neater, but twice as lasting.

Use the ordinary cooked flour paste. Spread the glue on the table and put the oilcloth in place. Before the paste dries, smooth the cloth down with the fingers to avoid wrinkles.

Lindbergh Has Uneventful Trip

HAVANA, April 26. (AP)—Completing in two hours and three minutes the first leg of an inaugural air mail flight from Miami across the Caribbean sea to the Canal Zone, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh landed at the Pan-American airways field at 5:36 p. m. today.

He took off from Miami at 3:33 p. m., and will leave Havana tomorrow at daybreak for Cristobal, Canal Zone, via Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, where he will refuel. He plans to reach Cristobal at 6 p. m.

Accompanying the flying colonel today were Basil Roe, co-pilot of the Sikorsky amphibian, and Bert Denicke, radio operator. The plane carried 41 pounds of mail for Havana, and 211 pounds for Cristobal.

Colonel Lindbergh was cheered by a crowd of several hundred Cubans and formally welcomed by Enrique Soler y Baro, state department attaché. He announced he would spend the night in the home of George Grantmason, Cuban representative of the Pan-American Airways.

Hail at Dallas

DALLAS, April 26. (AP)—Hail stones beat a tattoo on sections of Dallas and nearby towns today. Damage appeared to be confined to broken window panes and some damage to plants.

Carrollton, Cleburne, Grapevine, Lisbon, and Richardson reported hail of varying intensity.

Private Fire Fighters Refuse Non-Member Aid

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 26. (AP)—Fire engines moved swiftly thru the streets of a Nashville suburb today.

Arriving at the blazing home of Frank M. Bass, attorney, the fire ladders prepared to fight the flames. "Just a minute," their leader yelled. "He's not a subscriber." The firemen packed their tools and moved swiftly away.

When the Nashville fire department arrived the home was in ruins. The loss, partially covered by insurance, was estimated at $35,000.

The first company, an independent company, supported by subscribers, explained they had no authority to fight fires for non-members.

Bristow Is Pleased

SAN ANGELO, April 26. (AP)—Told that press dispatches reported the capture and execution of Cruz Delgado, Mexican bandit chief, and his brother, Francisco, who held him captive for thirty days, J. E. Bristow tonight said "tell them to keep up the good work." Bristow, oil man, was at his home here for a rest after his experience with the bandits who released him after ransom had been paid.

Dallas Lady Enthusiastic About Konjola

Sought for Fifteen Years for Right Medicine—Found It At Last in New Compound

MRS. J. M. WIGGINS "For fifteen years I suffered dreadfully with rheumatism," said Mrs. J. M. Wiggins, 1322 Canton street, Dallas. "This dread ailment settled in my back and on hands and the misery I went through was simply torture. My hands were badly swollen the joints of my fingers were stiff and sore and at times my hands were entirely useless. My back ached steadily and at times so badly that sleep was out of the question for hours at a time. Often after sitting, I had to have help to get up again.

"After many failures I decided to give Konjola a trial. Two bottles of this remarkable medicine did more good than all the other treatments put together. My bowels were regulated and I could almost feel the poisons beginning to sweep from my system. Konjola not only banished the pains of rheumatism, but it built up my entire system until I am in better health than I have been in years."

Konjola, the new and different medicine, is a systematic treatment, taken after meals. It quickly goes to the source of the ailments, cleansing and invigorating the ailing organs and giving glorious and abundant relief.

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

Noted Fiddlers Enter Contest

That the third annual Old Fiddlers contest at the Pla-Mor auditorium May 2 will be bigger than ever is indicated in letters and verbal comments on the event. Some of the best known fiddlers of the Panhandle are expected to be here. These will include Mill Trout, Dimmitt; "Fiddlin" Babe Barker, Claude; Will Walling, Lelia Lake; Albert Burns, Panhandle; Pat Hooker, Amarillo; Zeke Welch, Amarillo, and Frank Moody, Big Spring, who have already entered. A square dance will be held after the contest. Additional entertainers will be Chas. Burns and his Mahuka Hawaiian radio broadcasters.

The Nail Keg

A column of news and views for Pampa people, and our farmer friends.

We suppose nearly everybody has had the idea at some time or other that he would like to write something.

Personally, our ambition has been to conduct a "column" in some big city daily and have it syndicated all over the country.

But so far the Hardware and Implement business has kept us too busy to attempt anything of the kind.

However, there are lots of interesting little things that happen around our place of business and in this community that we would like to tell you about.

So we have arranged with Phillip Pond, down at the News office, to publish this little column in his paper every week.

He hasn't told us how much he is going to pay us for conducting this department and we will probably need a lot of help from you Pampa folks. But anyway, HERE WE ARE, and we hope you will like it.

Ervin Cole, poultryman south of town, filled our window this week with highly colored "Easter" baby chicks. They attracted more attention than anything we have ever had. Thanks, Ervin.

We have an extra good value in a 50-foot black corrugated 6-8 inch water hose and brass nozzle for $4.95 for this week.

You fishermen, remember the season opens before the next week end. We have a wonderful stock of tackle as well as licenses for fishermen.

Hoover Feat in China Is Recalled

WASHINGTON, April 26. (P)—A battle-born covenant of soldierly friendship, first sealed in British and American blood spilled thirty years ago before Tientsin, was rededicated here tonight with President Hoover and the British ambassador sharing in the brief colorful ceremony.

The setting was the Gridiron club dinner, with the rollicking satires and pungent wit of the news scribes put aside for the moment that old, heroic memories might be revived. Three decades ago American marines and the Welsh fusiliers stormed together into Tientsin to rescue beleaguered foreigners from fanatic Boxer hordes. Protected by barricades of rice and sugar bags set in place by a young American engineer, the "foreign devils" had waited weeks almost hopelessly for the coming of the troops.

Tonight the story of that long day was recalled in the stirring rhythm of a new military march by the master craftsman, John Philip Sousa, a Gridiron club member. It was "The Royal Welsh Fusiliers," played for the first time by the marine band with Sousa himself again swinging his baton over the organization with which he shares his fame.

And in his place as honor guest, that young engineer of thirty years ago, now Herbert Hoover, president of the United States, thrilled to the tug of old memories.

The diners had no forewarning. In the midst of the fun making, the burst of a band, playing the marine hymn, "From the Halls of Montezuma," rang out. In marched marine color bearers in costume with national and corps colors, and with them a Britisher in full uniform bearing the flag of the commonwealth. Then came the scarlet coated bandmen to line up before the guest table where President Hoover sat.

"Bob" Barry of the New York World Washington staff, stepped out to face Mr. Hoover and explain. He told of the siege and relief of Tientsin, of young Hoover and his wife trapped there by the Boxer uprisings, of Hoover's work in barricade building and that first Hoover experience in food rationing, a job at which one day he was to become "a world figure."

Ector Well On Fire SAN ANGELO, April 26. (P)—Skelly-Amerada's No. 1-A university in the Pennpool in Ector county, caught fire as it came in today when it was shot with 300 quarts of nitroglycerin at 3,722 feet.

Gandhi to Try Force in India

BOMBAY, India, April 26. (P)—Mahatma Gandhi announced a stronger move in his campaign of civil disobedience today, asserting he soon would lead a group to take possession of the government salt depot at Dharasana.

Previous manifestations sponsored by the Nationalist leader have centered around the manufacture of salt illegally. At the outset of his campaign he ruled that salt depots be raided, fearing government authorities would fire on the invaders.

Now Gandhi is prepared to offer his head for the cause, he told a crowd at Charvada, whence he had motored from Bulsar. He said he would take with him both men and women, but only those who wore humpspun cloth, had given up liquor and boycotted foreign cloth.

Daylight Saving Goes Into Effect Monday Morning

NEW YORK, April 26. (P)—Daylight saving—a boon to city workers but still frowned upon in rural communities—starts officially at 2 a. m. tomorrow in cities of 16 states in the United States and 17 cities in Canada.

Clocks will be turned up an hour throughout the Massachusetts and Rhode Island and in nearly every city and town in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

The larger cities in Pennsylvania: Chicago and suburban cities in Northern Illinois and Indiana and several cities and towns in Maine also will observe daylight saving time. Similar plans will be followed in part of Ohio, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Delaware, Michigan and New Hampshire.

Britain to Help Decide Ferguson Ballot Problem

AUSTIN, April 26. (P)—A. H. Britain of Wichita Falls former president of the Texas State Bar association, was appointed special chief justice of the Supreme Court by Governor Moody today, to consider application of former Governor James E. Ferguson to mandamus the state Democratic executive committee to place his name as a candidate for governor on the 1930 primary ballots.

Britain would take the place of Sam Streetman of Houston, who declined to serve, advising the governor he had held and expressed a fixed opinion as to the validity of the "amnesty bill," which was designed to remove the constitutional obstacle to Ferguson's holding office again after his impeachment and removal in 1917.

C. S. Bradley of Groesbeck as special associate justice William Pierson would serve with Britain, Chief Justice C. M. Cureton and Associate Justice Thomas B. Greenwood having certified their disqualifications in the case.

Seats for Passion Play in Demand

AMARILLO, April 26.—The rush for seats for the return engagement of the Freiburg Passion Play, Amarillo, April 29 and 30, is on again. More than 3,000 were turned away from the first appearance in February and indications are that hundreds will be disappointed again unless immediate reservations are made.

Seats for the matinee, next Wednesday, are being reserved, specially for accommodation of out-of-town people who want to return home the same day. School children may attend for 50 cents, teachers for 75 cents and other adults for $1, $1.50 and $2. Seats for the night performances range from $1 to $2.50. Mail orders should specify the performance for which seats are wanted. Address orders to Wilbur C. Hawk, Tri-State Fair, president, Amarillo.

for stressing fire prevention methods. She praised the women of Seventh district for their emphasis upon service rather than social ambition, and told them that she had never seen a group more able to put the hand upon true work. The comic-strip joke depicting the club woman as a negligent mother and inefficient housekeeper passed out of existence, she said, because club women had proved its complete error and established a tradition to the contrary.

The task of the club woman of today is to establish in her town a fit place in which to rear her children and to rear her children as fit citizens for the town. She used the dramatic Western story, "Cimarron," by Edna Ferber, most effectively in developing her thought.

Talks Of Prisons
Touching upon the prison reform problems of the state, Mrs. Briggs made a firm stand against transferring the prisons of Texas into the pleasant institutions which she said some states maintained, at the same time protesting with equal vigor against the unsanitary, inhumanly crowded conditions which were said to prevail in some Texas prisons.

Mrs. Briggs spoke at the convention by invitation of the district program committee. Mrs. T. V. Reeves of Canyon, chairman of the public welfare department was presented by Mrs. Q. S. Barrett of Childress, chairman of the division on prison reform, who presided at the luncheon sponsored by the department. Mrs. Grace Higgins was local hostess at the function. Program numbers included a vocal solo by Thomas Fannell, with accompaniment by Mrs. Fannell, and a violin selection by LaVerne Twiford, whose accompaniment was played by his mother.

B. Frank Bennett has been here for several days taking membership in the Panhandle Plains of Texas, Inc., and has had considerable success, he said yesterday.

He has been assisted by F. P. Reid. The organization has been formed to work for agricultural development of this region, and annually places exhibits at many middle western fairs.

Its officers include Dr. J. W. Stevens of Tulsa, president; Sam Braswell of Clarendon, vice-president; F. H. Hill, Panhandle; E. B. Black, Hereford; O. H. Lloyd, Vega; Maury Hopkins, Plainview; and H. W. Clutter, Amarillo.

It has no direct connection with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Central's Stunt Night Is Success

Stunt night at Central high auditorium Friday night produced a lot of laughter and enjoyment for the audience, a neat sum of money for the junior and senior banquet fund.

Burlesque was the underlying motif in most of the stunts. "Impersonation of Pampa's Leading Citizens," provided rather hilarious entertainment, and the impersonations were very apt. The high school students seemed to be aware of most of the mannerisms and characteristics of the local celebrities.

"A Central high school faculty meeting," revealed that the youngsters know just about what goes on in the principal's and superintendent's offices, and that they regard those goings on rather lightly. "An Oratorical Contest," was indeed

Half of County Schools Closed

Half of the Gray county rural schools have closed their 8-month terms, according to John B. Hessey, county superintendent. The others have 9-month terms.

Mr. Hessey hopes that before long it will be possible to have terms of nine months in all the schools. He expects every school to have enrollment increases next term, most of them of as much as 25 per cent. At least 70 teachers will be necessary in the schools under his supervision.

Fifteen teachers applied to Supt. Hessey for jobs yesterday morning, and he estimates that he has had between ten and fifteen applications for every position to be open. The surplus of teachers is becoming an acute problem in the profession. Many teachers are offering to take jobs for $100 per month or less, and frequently degree graduates offer to teach for that figure.

This situation is raising the standards of teaching but it tends to reduce the salary scale to below a living wage. It is the policy in Gray county, however, to pay as well as finances permit, and school trustees are not trying to cut salaries just because the opportunity to do so exists.

Gray county schools will have a total enrollment next fall of more than 5,000 pupils, Supt. Hessey estimates. He is establishing the first set of permanent records for the county schools.

West Ward Students Will Hold May Fete Thursday Afternoon

May day will be celebrated at West Ward school with a fete on the campus and a May pole dance next Thursday afternoon, with 276 pupils taking part.

The fete will include folk dances, songs, and the coronation of the May queen and Robin Hood, and will begin at 5 o'clock.

The West Ward pupils and teachers wish the pupils of all other schools and their grown-up friends to attend, and they extend a cordial invitation to the public.

Bible Gleans Honor Two Class Members at Party on Thursday

Mrs. E. H. Massey and Mrs. E. L. Billingsley were honored jointly by other members of the Bible Gleans class Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Charles Stevens entertained with a pretty party at the former's home, 711 North Banks street. A shower of attractive gifts was presented each of the honorees.

House decorations, gift packages, and the tea hour refreshments followed a color scheme of pink and white. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in games and contests. Following is the list of those present: Mrs. Herman, R. Whitley, Mrs. A. C. Shaw, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. J. P. Griffin, Mrs. Grigaby, Mrs. J. Powell Wehrung, Mrs. J. A. Cliff, Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, Mrs. K. S. ## New Dairy Plant in Operation Today

The Taylor Farm Dairy will start operations in its new $50,000 plant today. G. H. King, dairy expert from Portland, Oregon, has installed the machinery and will supervise the operation of the new plant.

Both raw and pasteurized milk will be available and will be distributed by the Dairy's regular trucks.

The new plant has seven rooms, with no two kinds of work done in any room. The requirements of the United States Board of Health were complied with in the construction and operation of the plant.

O. E. Paris, is manager of the Taylor Farm Dairy.

Alfred Fullinm of Panhandle visited here yesterday.

Mrs. Harold Kelley and small daughter, Patsy Anne, are spending the week-end in Borger.

C. E. Phillips, Jr., is recovering from a case of the mumps.

Sunday School Class Entertained at Party Thursday Afternoon

Among the delightful gatherings which marked the closing days of the week was the monthly business and social meeting of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist Sunday school, held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cyril Hamilton.

Mrs. H. M. Stokes, Mrs. H. C. Chandler, and Mrs. F. M. Baker were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Gilmore, president, presided at the business discussions and directed games and contests during the social period. A brief devotional was conducted by Mrs. T. W. Jamison, preceding the opening of the business meeting.

Favors were presented the winners of contests by Mrs. Gilmore. Those receiving them were Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. Chandler, and Mrs. Hamilton. A color theme of green and white was employed in appointments for the party and the dainty refreshment course of the afternoon.

In addition to those named, the following were in attendance: Mrs. Charles Kentling, Mrs. R. E. Malone, Mrs. F. M. Baker, Mrs. H. M. Stokes, Mrs. W. D. Berton, Mrs. C. E. Langard, Mrs. Jim Richardson, and Miss Erdine Benton.

Party Celebrates James Foran's Eighth Birthday Anniversary

Master James Foran's eighth birthday anniversary, April 23, was celebrated with a party at which ten of his little friends were entertained.

After a number of games had been played, the birthday gifts were presented, and refreshments were served.

The guests were: Ralph Vincent, Jeanne Lively, Arline Elliott, Christine Kidwell, John Kidwell, Evelyn Kidwell, Theda Belle Killbrew, J. L. Killbrew, Catherine Dickson, and Jean Barber.

White Deer Chapter of Eastern Star to Attend Meeting Here

A regular meeting of the Pampa chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, an initiation service, and a social hour will be held at the Masonic hall at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening. An interesting program is to be presented.

Members of the White Deer chapter are to be guests for the occasion. Mrs. Wilson Hatcher, worthy matron of the local organization, urges that all members be present.

Orchid and Pink Color Scheme Given Emphasis at Party

One of the prettiest of the parties enjoyed by J. A. O. bridge club was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harold Kelley, Haggard apartments.

Bowls of pink and orchid sweet peas decorating the rooms established the color theme for card table accessories and the appointments for tea. Nougats of sweet peas were given as favors to the twelve guests.

High score for guests was made by Mrs. Wm. Kelley of Borger. Mrs. Carl Brashears played high for club members, and Mrs. E. B. Gober, low. Attractive trophies were awarded.

Players, other than those named were: Mrs. Ernest Sanders, Mrs. Walter Dean, Mrs. A. Ralsky, Mrs. Leo Murphy, Mrs. F. M. Boche, Floyd Shaw, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Shaw, III, Mrs. John L. Peake and Mrs. John Haggard.

J. W. Harper of Amarillo, U. S. district marshal, visited friends here yesterday.

Miss Lela Brown, stenographer at Montgomery Ward & company, is spending the week-end in Clarendon.

HOW ABOUT RECKLESS WALKERS?

Much is said and written about reckless drivers. And too little, we believe, about reckless walkers. Many reckless walkers are only reckless drivers afoot, but this is not always true.

If the pedestrian has certain inalienable rights, should not the motorist have the right to traversing blacks without having to watch for walkers emerging from between cars?—we mean the common, garden variety of jay-walker. It is hard enough to keep the eye focused on the cars ahead and those about to back out from the curb without having to watch for jay-walkers who may be at any point.

The glint of a car at night, or the glare of the sun by day, is enough to prevent sighting of reckless walkers, who assume they have the right-of-way and should be dodged by the cars. Moreover, color of pedestrians' clothing greatly affects the visibility. The skilled driver can look for a store sign, or a friend on the sidewalk for whom he is searching, and at the same time drive safely by keeping motor traffic within his vision. A solitary pedestrian, however, cannot always be seen. The shock of having a walker enter the vision, with resultant slamming of brakes and wrenching of wheel, is unpleasant and unnecessary.

Furthermore, children should be taught by teacher and parent to observe the rules of traffic when afoot. This is a tremendous problem, but an important one. The average boy gang sifts through traffic as if it were not there, and the habit seems to persist through life. Heavy traffic should move faster than ordinarily is the case, but reckless walking adds to the danger.

The reckless driver has had his inning of publicity and complaints; now the reckless walker should be brought to bat.

MUSICIANS CAN BE "GROWN"

Announcement that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fannell will not be with the local schools next year calls attention to the fact that serious thought must be given to replacing them, if possible, enlarging the music instruction available to the boys and girls of Pampa. Mr. and Mrs. Fannell through the many organizations they have directed have done a great work in the two years they have been here. They and the other music instructors affiliated with the schools or offering private instructions are laying the foundation of future music here.

Great choirs, choruses, bands, and orchestras are possible only when these organizations are absorbing younger talent and "growing" into big, experienced groups. Bandmasters cannot depend upon chance to develop their organizations. Growing a band is comparable to growing a football team—green material does not make for excellence, and fundamental training should begin early.

If musical instruction were made available to the youth of Pampa for five years, the result would be amazing. Free education should include the fine arts as well as the A, B, C's. The work must be made, in part at least, a part of the regular curriculum. Let's enable our youngsters to master some instrument or cultivate their vocal talents. To do so is to give them the possibility of enjoyment throughout life, and the capacity of contributing to the enjoyment of others.

Mr. Bradford and the Legion band should be commended for the consistent practice they hold. They should be given the advantage of having young players developed to fill up their instrument sections and replace men who have to drop out of the band.

THE I. C. C. DECISION

Considered independently, the Rock Island-Frisco building plans in Northwest Texas are of no direct concern to Wichita Falls. That project could make no great difference to this city, one way or another. Wichita Falls did want to see the Fort Worth and Denver build into Pampa, and thus give this city a closer connection with the prosperous and growing section of the eastern Panhandle. The Denver's proposal offered that section a logical, natural outlet to the southeastward and it should have been approved as a separate undertaking, regardless of other proposals. The Interstate Commerce commission in Washington chose to regard the two projects as being in conflict with each other, which was a narrow and short-sighted view to take. There is no economic justification for the bottling up of an important city like Pampa, in such a manner as results from the commission's ruling. Pampa becomes the victim of selfish interests that are too strong for her. We hope the fight for the Denver's line will be renewed vigorously, and that the commission will one day take a fairer and broader view of the rail needs of the eastern Panhandle country.

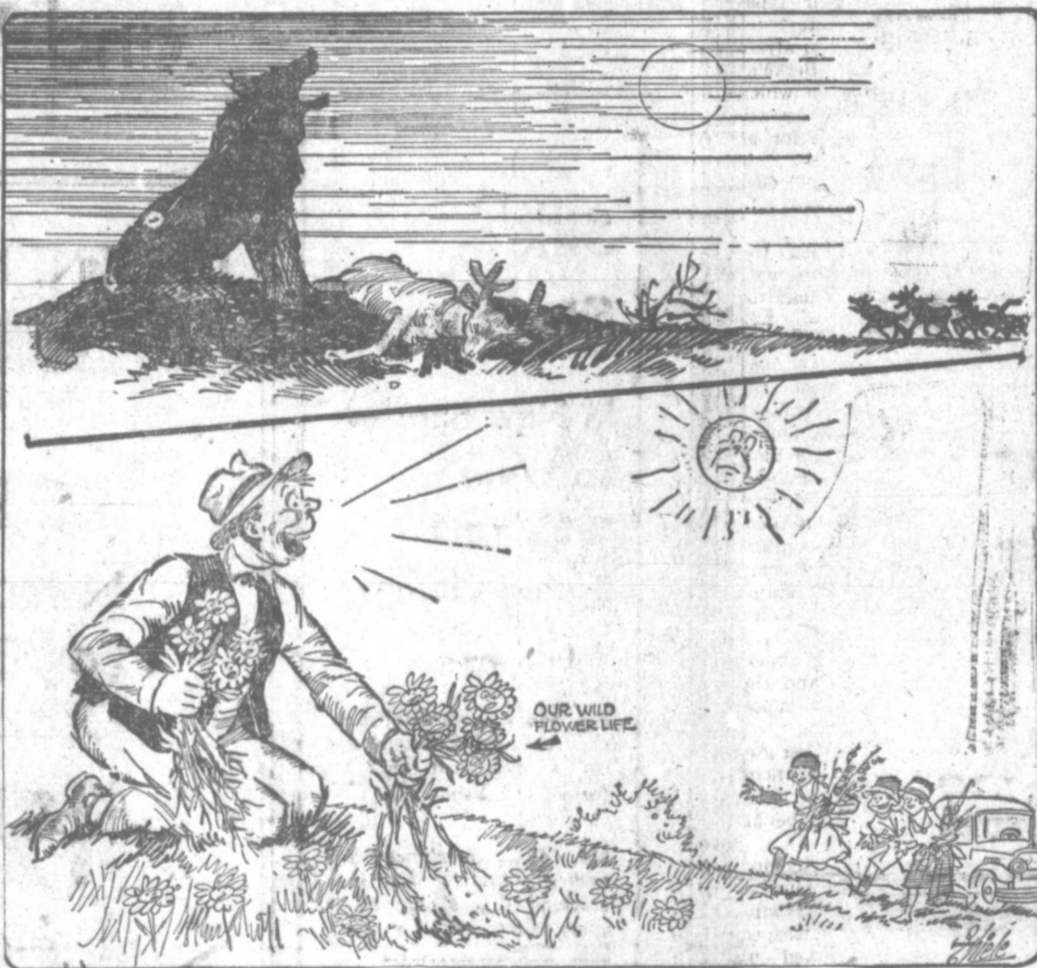

Having had seven days of conventions, the writer is among those who are willing to rest for a few days. Of course we will welcome the Odd Fellows Tuesday, for we are a little queer ourselves. But we understand much of the activity of the I. O. O. F. convention will be secret, and therefore not open to the news columns.

A new wrinkle in growing early vegetables is to install an underground heating system to warm the soil. Mother Nature is a grand old lady, and you cannot beat her in season, but her seasons are not always to our liking.

Murder Backstairs

by ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF 'THE AVENGING PARROT' 'THE BLACK PIGEON' ETC. ©1930 by NEA SERVICE INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY DORIS MATTHEWS, lady's maid, is murdered in a summerhouse on the Berkeley estate, by blow from heavy perfume flask given Mrs. GEORGE BERKELEY by SEYMOUR CROSBY, engaged to CLORINDA BERKELEY, whose scarf binds the rock-weighted body when it is taken from the lake by DETECTIVE DUNDEE. Evidence involves Mrs. Berkeley, Clorinda, Dick Berkeley, Eugene Arnold, Doris's fiancé, GIGI BERKELEY, 15, who unaccountably sprinkled everyone Friday evening with perfume from murder flask, later placed in Mrs. Berkeley's room by WICKETT, butler.

An unfinished letter of Doris to her sister in London almost causes the arrest of Seymour Crosby, and links the maid's murder with the sudden death of PHYLLIS CROSBY 15 months before in London. Dundee cables Scotland Yard, then grills Crosby who denies charges of having bribed or killed the maid, and having caused his wife's death, officially pronounced suicide. The discovery that HARVEY JOHNSON, valet, has robbed Mrs. Berkeley and Crosby convinces STEAWN the murder is solved. Johnson is sought and Dundee held in charge at the Berkeley home.

Mrs. Lambert begs Dundee not to accept any solution which reflects on Doris's character; then is closely questioned on the death of Phyllis Crosby, friend of Mrs. Lambert and Doris's former mistress. Mrs. Lambert says she last saw Doris shortly after 11, that the maid had been talking with Crosby and crying; that she—Mrs. Lambert—then went to Mrs. Berkeley's sitting room, an important fact hitherto unknown to Dundee. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY. CHAPTER XXXV

"Less than five minutes, I should say," Mrs. Lambert answered. "I made a note of the engagement on Mrs. Berkeley's calendar, glanced over two or three belated acceptances for the dance which was to follow the dinner tonight and added the names to the list of guests." "Did you go into Mrs. Berkeley's bathroom or bedroom for any reason whatever?" Dundee asked, with the glint of his blue eyes betraying his excitement.

"No. I was in the sitting room only." "Did you hear anything at all while you were at work there?" "Nothing whatever," Mrs. Lambert answered positively. "Was the door open into the foyer between the rooms?" Mrs. Lambert knit her brows, then shook her head. "I'm sorry, but can't remember. I was in rather a hurry, partly because I wanted to be finished with the work before Mrs. Berkeley came upstairs and partly because I was very tired."

"You wanted to avoid Mrs. Berkeley?" Dundee suggested. "Avoid! Is scarcely the word," Mrs. Lambert answered coldly. "I suspected that the interview in the library between Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley concerned Clorinda's engagement to Mr. Crosby and I was loath to hear a possibly hysterical account of it. I knew, too, that Mrs. Berkeley needed sleep more than she needed a confidante."

"Mrs. Lambert, have you been happy here at Hillcrest?" Dundee asked quietly. It was Gigi, climbing back into the social secretary's lap, who answered for her: "Don't be an idiot, Bonnie Dundee! Do you think a 'great lady' like my darling Tish would be happy working for another woman, when she'd never had to take orders before in her life?" "I have been happy—on the whole," Mrs. Lambert answered for herself, her arms closing almost convulsively about the small body, curling itself contentedly in her lap.

room, are they not?" Dundee asked. "Yes. The flight leading up to the third floor is very near my room, but the flight leading down to the back hall is nearer to the new untenant guest room opposite my room. Those stairs are not carpeted, but the servants are all required to wear rubber heels while on duty."

"Then you did not hear Doris descending from the third floor a few minutes after you returned to your room?" "No. But I was in my bathroom, taking a bath, within two or three minutes after my return. That is, I began to run the water immediately and when the tub was full, finished reading my letter as I lay in the warm water. Even if I had been in my bedroom, I doubt if I should have heard Doris, since the walls and doors are very thick—practically sound proof."

"I see," Dundee agreed, more disappointed than he wished her to know. "Have you anything else to add, Mrs. Lambert?" "Nothing to add," she replied quietly. "But I want to emphasize what I said before: no solution of the tragedy which in any way reflects on Doris's character or loyalty will be the true solution."

"I am sure of that, Mrs. Lambert," Dundee answered sincerely. "You may go, and—thank you very much. You have been more courteous, and patient, I am sure, than you think I deserve. But I want you to know that I have not been asking irrelevant questions out of vicious or idle curiosity."

Mrs. Lambert smiled at him suddenly out of a mist or tears and held out her hand. "One other thing," he detained her. "May I borrow your typewriter to transcribe my notes?" She flushed slightly. "I am afraid I shall need it, but Mr. Berkeley has a machine in his room which he seldom uses. I am sure he will be glad to lend it to you for as long as you need it."

"I'll show you where it is!" Gigi cried. The three of them ascended the stairs together, Gigi in the middle, impartially swinging a hand of each. "I thought you were never coming, Mrs. Lambert!" Mrs. Berkeley called reproachfully from her sitting room door. "My telephone has been ringing constantly. Somehow those dreadful reporters have got hold of my private, unlisted number, and they've been driving me crazy. Just to get rid of them, I've promised them all an interview at four o'clock and we must hurry to get up a written statement for them, listing my stolen jewels, and—"

Mrs. Lambert, murmuring apologies, joined her employer and the sitting room door closed upon them. Gigi ran up the hall to her father's door and knocked blithely. "Isn't in!" she announced to Dundee. "But come along! It'll be all right."

The detective obeyed, stepping into a spacious but rather severely furnished room. Two broad windows gave a view of the landscaped front lawn and a third looked out upon the rolling, grass-carpeted slopes to the west of the house. "Dad's a pretty good stenographer himself," Gigi bragged, beckoning Dundee to a large, old-fashioned secretary, upon the open leaf of which rested a portable typewriter. "Rolled into the carriage of the machine were two pieces of blank white paper, with a sheet of purple carbon between."

"Here's a bunch of typewriter paper," Gigi offered, jerking open a drawer and appropriating at least 50 sheets of the good plain bond. "Need anything else? Carbon paper?" "This sheet in the machine will be enough," Dundee assured her. "What's this? Another of your father's patent lighter-filling machines?" "Yes," Gigi laughed. "Funny Dad should choose one in the shape of a whiskey barrel, isn't it? See the XXX? But see also the skull and crossbones below, to warn you that the liquor this little barrel holds is most awfully poison! Ready? I'm going with you and watch you work."

was George Berkeley she had meant when she wrote: "It will take buckets of money, of course, but I know where I can get all or more than I need." Why should George Berkeley be willing to finance a beauty parlor for a girl who had been in his employ less than two months? A girl who had, innocently or not, captured the love of his only son? And the date of Berkeley's letter to his lawyer was Sept. 27—Friday. The day Doris Matthews was murdered. Why had George Berkeley not finished that letter?

SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF SALE State of Texas. County of Gray. WHEREAS, by virtue of an Order of Sale issued out of the District Court of Gray County, Texas, in and for the 31st Judicial District of Texas, on the 10th day of April, A. HERE'S PROOF THIS is to certify that I was diagnosed as having cancer of the stomach by three up-to-the-minute physicians, before I was brought to a chiropractors office by Uncle Frank and Aunt Mary Cope. I was hardly able to sit up at that time, and had lost 47 pounds. I had a Radionic analysis which verified the diagnosis of the other doctors.

With the Copes' aid I purchased a card of Radionic Vibrations—that being Armistice Day, 1929. Today—March 15, 1930—I have gained 32 pounds, can work hard every day, and feel good all the time. I was too sore to be adjusted for the first few weeks, so I just took the Radionic alone for the first three weeks. I was dismissed today—and I can do a man's work and feel good all the time.

I can highly recommend the Radionic and Chiropractic. (signed), HARRY ANDERSON, Box, 85, Pampa, Texas.

Alan Gould

BY ALAN GOULD

It develops that Walter Hagen's main reason for passing up the British Open Golf championship this year, after two straight triumphs on the Links and a total of four altogether, was a desire to get down to more serious competitive business at home—in short Wandering Walter plans a homeland comeback.

For nearly a decade, Hagen has been doing much better on foreign battlefields than he has on the native fields of golfing combat. He first won the British Open in 1922, repeated in 1924 and again in 1928 and 1929. Whether from the wear and tear of so much traveling or the lack of preparation, or both, "The Haig" has come booming home with his foreign trophies, only to be a "beat" in the American Open, year after year.

Hagen has not won the American Open since 1919. In fact he has not even been close to it, for while he was runner-up in 1921 at Columbia he was 9 strokes behind Lanky Jim Barnes, who won by the biggest margin on record. Since then, Hagen has never been better than fourth. He came back from England in triumph last June but was never a contender in the National Open at Winged Foot.

The upshot is that the dapper Hagen, who takes as much pride in his achievements as he does in his attire on the links, has decided to do something about it. He will return in June from an Australian junket with nothing to do but get in shape for the American Open championship at the Interlachen Club, Minneapolis, early in July. Sir Walter will do this by the simple expedient of going to Minneapolis for at least two good weeks of rest. Smith and Leo Diegel will hustle and practice. Meanwhile, the champion, Bobby Jones, along with Horback from England barely in time to reach Interlachen for a day or two of practice before the battle is on.

The death of Wayland Dean at Huntington, West Virginia, closes the book on one of baseball's tragic figures. He died at an age—28—when with anything like a favorable break from the fates he should have been in the prime of a great major league career.

Dean came up from the American Association with the class of 1923—the class that sent Al Simmons to the Athletics from Milwaukee, Glenn Wright to the Pirates from Kansas City, Bill Terry to the Giants from Toledo, Hughie Critz to the Reds from Minneapolis, Earl Combs to the Yankees—all to stardom.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley are to arrive today from New Orleans, where Dr. Kelley has spent several weeks in post graduate study at Tulane university. He spent some time, also, in work at a Dallas clinic and with Mrs. Kelley visited relatives in Cleburne.

Warden

Warden Charles E. Linscott, above, narrowly escaped death in the Rhode Island State Prison riot which resulted in the killing of two men and the wounding of three others. Three men in an automobile, who instigated the riot by attempting to aid the escape of two prisoners, sighted the warden. One aimed an automatic revolver at him and pulled the trigger but the gun jammed.

Talks To Parents

YOUNGER BROTHER

BY ALICE JUDSON PEALE

Five-year-old Tommy was never so happy as during the days when his two older brothers were sick in bed with colds in their heads.

He who spent his days trilling at their heels, accepted in their games only on sufferance, and occupying generally the position of the under dog, was now the person of whom they must ask favors and whose company they sought. All day long it was:

"Tommy will you get me this? Tommy will you do that? Tommy, come here, I want you. No, he's coming over to me first."

And Tommy made the most of it. He came at their calls, or not, as it pleased him. He saw to it that they asked politely for favors and he did them in his own good time. He would not have been human if he had not thoroughly enjoyed this reversal of their respective positions.

Parents seldom appreciate how difficult is the position of the youngest child in the family, especially when he feels himself in competition with his older brothers and is thus daily reminded of his inferiority to them.

We need to take particular pains to see to it that the baby of the family neither feels too keenly this overwhelming competition with the

Cuts and Threshes All Small Grain and Seeds

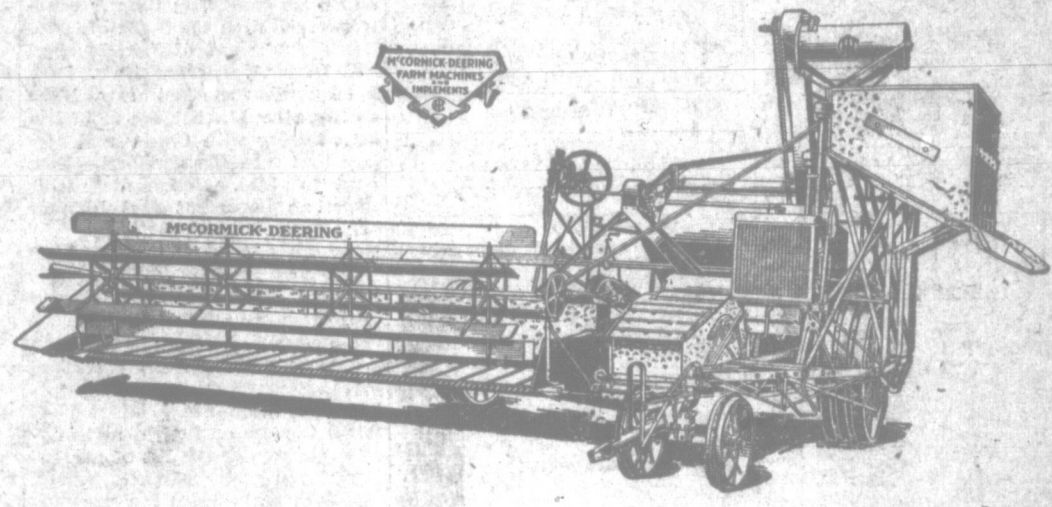

When you invest in a combine you want a machine that does more than head and thresh grain. You want an honest-to-goodness harvester-thresher that can harvest and thresh all small grain and seed crops year after year—under adverse as well as favorable conditions—that is able to cut the grain regardless of whether it is lodged and tangled, short or light and fluffy. You want a combine that gives dollar-for-dollar value—and more.

The wide, grain-tight platform canvas is the only sure method of harvesting and saving grain that is down and tangled. And it is the only way seed crops and flax can be handled. It has stood the test of harvesting and threshing all over the world for many years.

We strongly recommend the McCormick-Deering No. 11 as the harvester-thresher that will pay its way on all crops and give you a full return on your investment. Come in and see this harvester-thresher—let us go over its many features that result in cleaner grain and more profit to its owners. Examine, also, our complete service and parts departments that have been built up through years of selling and servicing McCormick-Deering Harvester-Threshers, Harvesting Machines, Threshers, Tractors, and other Power-Farming Equipment.

12 Important McCormick-Deering Points

1. Adjustable to cut low. Gets lodged and tangled grain.
2. Continuation of grain-tight platform canvas forms lower elevator canvas. No grain lost at end of platform. Large capacity, wide elevator carries all grain to feeder.
3. Chain and slot feeder carries grain, heads first, into the cylinder. Direct front feed.
4. Spiked beater in feeder assures positive feeding and controls delivery of grain to cylinder.
5. Ninety per cent separation at cylinder. Straw and grain thus separated never mix again.
6. Four-section straw rack. Extends entire length of thresher from cylinder to straw spreader. Combs straw apart, drops it three times, thoroughly shakes out all the grain.
7. Extra long chaffer and cleaning sieve thoroughly cleans grain.
8. Revolving weed screen takes weed seeds out of threshed grain and bags them. Saves dockage and reduces spread of weeds.
9. Platform folds for transportation—does not have to be detached. No transport truck to buy.
10. A pioneer of small combines—backed by 99 years of practical harvesting-machine experience and by field tests under difficult conditions in the harvest fields of the world.
11. Expert service on the entire machine by permanent dealers and Company-owned branches.
12. Handles a variety of crops under a variety of conditions and seasons.
