Visit New York

And 'The Lady'

"Students at Dillman Elementary School traveled vicariously to the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor during the week of February 18-22," reports Milton Oyler, principal.

Three buses, carrying children in grades K-2, traveled over 2,250 miles and transportation costs amounted to over $70 which will be given to help restore "The Lady," he added.

Virginia Bowers, chairman of the Dillman Patriotic Committee, says the spirit of patriotism was high throughout the school. Each classroom door depicted some aspect of Americanism and inside the classrooms, children listened to stories about heroes or viewed films emphasizing the American heritage.

The principal said the halls of the school echoed with excitement as the children checked the progress of the caravan to New York.

Thursday, February 21, was Flag Day, and a special ceremony was held on the front lawn as the extra large flag was raised. The event was permanently immortalized by photographer, Lonnie Adrain.

NEW HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATOR ARRIVES--Fred Johnson, left, has joined West Plains Medical Center as administrator. He arrived last Monday to assume his new duties. Pictured with him is Rex Macklin, vice president, and division manager for Westworld Community Healthcare, Inc., lessors of the hospital facility in Muleshoe.

City Council Opens And Approves Bids

Last Tuesday, members of the Muleshoe City Council had a longer than normal meeting, but during the morning had a large number of bids to open for two upcoming city projects.

City Manager Dave Marr explained that each year, the city schedules approximately 20 percent of the pavement in the city limits for sealcoating, so that each street has the opportunity of being re-topped each five years.

However, he explained that some streets need re-sealed, or

Highway Littering Is Costly

Litter along Texas streets and roadways continues to be a problem. In 1984, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation (SDHPT) spent $20 million to pick up roadside litter. Closer to home, the seventeen-county Lubbock district of the SDHPT spent over $418 thousand dollars removing litter from roadways. That's an average cost of $85.82 per mile for litter pickup.

Meanwhile, the cost of litter pickup in Texas continues to go up. Highway officials estimate that the cost of picking up litter is increasing 17 to 20 percent each year.

"We're trying to save money where we can on litter pickup here in West Texas," said District Engineer William M. Pope. "But, the fact is, it's an expensive thing to do both in terms of money and manpower. And the bad thing is, litter is a manmade problem."

One way the district is fighting the manpower problem of litter pickup is to hire outside help to do the job. In a twelve day period in January, a six person crew hired by the SDHPT picked up 100 fifty-five gallon bags of trash along I-27 and FM400 south of Plainview. In Lubbock, a six person crew picked up 193 bags of trash along an eight mile section of Loop 289.

The rising cost of litter pickup has also caught the eye of the State Highway Commission. Recently, the Commission unanimously approved a four-point program to reduce litter pickup expenses. The Commission authorized the SDHPT to proceed immediately with a state-wide media campaign, selective enforcement efforts that would increase arrests and convictions of litterers, funding support for the statewide "Keep Texas Beautiful" program, and a city and community incentive program. The Commission directed that the activities continue until litter is no longer an environmental problem.

sealcoated, more often than other streets because of the volume of traffic, drainage problems, or otherwise. Less-traveled streets do not need sealcoated so often, so that leaves the option of sealcoating the more heavily traveled city streets.

Four bids were received, and the lowest bidder, Caprock, was awarded the bid. Their bid was a total of $58,740 for this year's sealcoating project.

Ten bids were received for construction of the new fire station in Muleshoe. City Manager Marr said that although the bids were opened, and considered by the city council, no bid will be approved until the Tuesday, March 5 meeting of the council.

He and city council members will be visiting buildings constructed by the three lower bidders before finally approving a bid for the new fire station.

They will also study all the specifications to see that they are in line with what the city will be seeking in the new construction.

Church Women Plan Meet For World Day Of Prayer

World Day of Prayer Services for this year will be held in the Chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Muleshoe at 7 p.m., March 1. Women from throughout the community are encouraged to be present.

Each year, World Day of Prayer is celebrated on Friday, March 1, in churches across the United States and in 170 countries of the world. This year, the theme for these services will be "Peace Through Prayer and Action," as written by the Christian women of India.

A local spokeswoman said it is a call to people the world over to gather for the 98th consecutive year to circle the globe in prayer for peace, and to actively become peacemakers.

She said the services seek to motivate commitment on the part of the participants to become personally involved in the peacemaking process as individuals, as families, as communities within the nation, and throughout the world.

World Day of Prayer is sponsored in the United States by church women United and locally by the Women of the First United Methodist Church. It is an ecumenical movement that brings Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox women together into one Christian community of caring, says the spokeswoman. The organization includes a broad spectrum of race, age, economic status and ethnic background.

Women's Defense Course Slated Thursday Night

The South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) Law Enforcement Academy and Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, have re-scheduled a Women's Defense Course, previously scheduled for January.

It will be a four hour course, scheduled to be conducted 6-10 p.m. on Thursday, February 28, in the meeting room at the Bailey County Coliseum and Civic Center.

More applications to attend are being accepted at this time, and if you did not previously sign up to attend the course, you may register at the CofC office in the Muleshoe City Hall. The course will cost $20, which includes both the Kubotan and training manual.

The center of the defense training is the Kubotan, a small, plastic cylinder, just a bit thicker than a pencil. Sharply applied to sensitive areas of the body, the Kubotan can temporarily disable an assailant, giving the intended victim time to escape.

The instructor says anyone, of any age, can use a Kubotan, which is designed to attach to car keys.

For more information, call 272-4248 or stop by the CofC office.

Three Trustees Will Be Elected At Lazbuddie

Joe A. Hall, superintendent at the Lazbuddie ISD, said the school's trustee election will be held 7 a.m.-7 p.m. on Saturday, April 6, 1985, to elect three trustees for a full three year term. The election will be conducted at the Lazbuddie ISD auditorium.

The positions of Bobby Redwine, Nicky Nickels and Phil Brockman will expire at this time.

The superintendent said the last day to file application for a place on the ballot is March 6, 1985.

Teacher Duo Is Certified On Computers

H. John Fuller Superintendent of the Muleshoe schools has announced that Mike Richardson and Stephanie Barrett, teachers at Watson Junior High School, have received verification from the Texas Education Agency that they have completed all requirements for Computer Literacy Instruction.

He said, "This is a state-wide requirement implemented by the New State Board of Education Rules for Curriculum. Mr. Richardson and Ms. Barrett are both teachers of mathematics in the junior high school and share in teaching computer literacy in the eighth grade."

"Under the new curriculum guidelines, all eighth grade students must take computer literacy before being promoted to high school. Both of these teachers have exceeded the minimum requirements for certification and plan to continue their training in Computer Instruction," he concluded.

Beset by financial problems, and a declining patient census, it would appear that everything is looking up now for West Plains Medical Center.

WPMC's long-term financial woes are beginning to be cleared away, with most local vendors and creditors of the hospital receiving from partial to full payment of past due accounts, and the addition of very much needed supplies, the hospital is slowly gaining back some of the patient census and credibility that was piled beneath a 'mountainous heap' of bills and troubles.

Last Monday, WPMC also welcomed a new administrator. Fred Johnson, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is certainly no stranger to hospitals and the administration of hospitals. In the past, he has virtually specialized in pulling financially troubled hospitals out of the money doldrums, and turned them into paying institutions.

With a firm belief in quality care, Johnson commented, "I'm glad to be in Muleshoe. I enjoy and appreciate the openness of the people in Muleshoe and have been made to feel welcome from day one."

Johnson had 20 years of experience with the U.S. Navy, all spent in hospital management. While serving with naval hospitals as a corpsman, he rose to the top enlisted hospital corpsman, and received all his college education while in the Navy, including a master's degree.

On completing his U.S. Navy career, Johnson then joined Humana, Inc. a healthcare corporation, and transferred to Dallas. On leaving Humana, Inc. he became associated with a group of physicians who owned two hospitals in deep financial trouble. After turning the financial situations around, and putting both hospitals in the plus column, the hospitals were sold.

Expanding his experience, Johnson then joined the U.S. Bankruptcy courts, where he took over financially beset hospitals and put them on a paying basis.

With this extensive background, he then was approached by Westworld and was impressed by their "total commitment to quality healthcare" and decided this was where he wanted to be. From Dallas, he has transferred to West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe, where his immediate goal is to follow through with the commitment of quality healthcare for the Muleshoe community and surrounding area.

"We are looking at the people's needs, and will be responding to their needs," said Johnson Thursday morning. "First and foremost, before anything else, the best health-care, anywhere, is our immediate goal."

His wife, Carlita, is a registered nurse, currently with Children's Hospital in Dallas, where she is working in the intensive care unit, conducting an experimental treatment for cancer among children.

On completion of her studies with the cancer treatment, she will be joining her husband in Muleshoe. He has three children, two in college, plus one younger child. Mrs. Johnson has visited in Muleshoe with her husband, and he says she is impressed by the people and the hospital facility here.

West Plains Medical Center, through Westworld, has made a major acquisition very recently. They have purchased the former First Christian Church building located just north of the back parking lot at the hospital.

WPMC bought the building, which is structurally sound, and will be doing extensive remodeling. Upon completion of

School Plans

Committee For Drug Program

The local trustees of the school district approved a proposal from the superintendent of schools at their last regular meeting to appoint a study committee to evaluate the school district's current Drug Awareness Program and to make recommendations to the trustees in March or April of this year.

According to the school superintendent, H. John Fuller, Muleshoe I.S.D. has a K-12 Drug Awareness program for students and local policies dealing with the possession of illegal substances on school property. However, due to the current interest expressed by several community members, Fuller recommends that a systematic study be conducted and a formal recommendation be made to the trustees.

The superintendent recommended including a representative from each individual campus, a representative from the high school student council, and a representation of parents and community leaders. The committee will be holding its first meeting within a few days after all members have been confirmed.

A RITUAL DANCE?--No one probably knows for sure what was going on in this weird ritual dance between members of the Muleshoe Lions Club and the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday night in a basketball game to benefit the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. By the way, the Lions won, 33-29.

Judge Nutrition Advice Before Following

Advice on nutrition has become almost as common as advice to the lovelorn in many popular magazines.

"Most people wouldn't think of experimenting with their health, yet that's just what happens when they indiscriminately follow the advice given in many of these stories," says nutritionist Dr. Dymple Cooksey.

A recent study by the American Council on Science and Health (ACSH) indicates the accuracy of information in magazine nutrition stories ranges from 20 to 95 percent.

"Unfortunately, the ACSH study also shows that some magazines with the most nutrition coverage are often the least reliable," adds Cooksey, a specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

So readers need to make their own judgments about the accuracy and usefulness of this nutrition advice, she says.

First consider whether the article makes inaccurate claims that certain foods or nutrients have special benefits.

Frank Espinoza

In Sudan

Senior Spotlight

This week the Sudan Senior Spotlight shines on Frank Espinoza, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Espinoza, Sr. He was born in Hardin Montana, on October 8, 1966, and has three brothers and three sisters. Frank has black hair, brown eyes and is 5'8" tall.

Frank lists Home and Family and Art II as his favorite subjects and Mrs. Pierce and Ms. Malherbe as his favorite teachers. "If I Could Only Dance With You", Jim Glacear, and the Glacear Brothers are Frank's favorite song, singer, and group. Revenge of the Ninja and "Austin City Limits" are his favorite movie and show. Emanuel Lewis and Heather Thomas are Frank's favorite actor and actress. Winter and December are his favorite season and month. Frank's favorite food is tamales, and his favorite color is black.

Frank enjoys singing and listening to music. He has been involved in FHA and track and field at SHS.

Frank is undecided about which college he is going to attend. His goal in life is to become the greatest singer in the world. Frank is a member of the Sudan Church of Christ.

"Particular foods or nutrients may have special features, but eating any one food in excess will lead only to an imbalanced diet," explains the specialist.

"A variety of foods from the four basic food groups of protein foods, breads and cereals, dairy products and fruits and vegetables is the only known way to achieve a healthful diet," she maintains.

Next, consider the credentials of the person who writes or acts as the source of the article, Cooksey advises.

Unless the author is a Registered Dietitian or "R.D.," holds an academic degree in nutrition or is a medical doctor with special training in nutrition he or she is unlikely to have a thorough knowledge of the subject.

In many cases, she says, the nutrition advice from unqualified authors -- especially celebrities -- is simply personal testimony that may have no basis in fact.

"Also determine whether any weight-loss diet featured in an article is safe, sensible and effective," cautions the specialist. "A weight loss diet should be designed for gradual weight reduction, include a balanced diet and exercise, and not promote the purchase of pills, products or special diet foods."

Finally, ask yourself if the information seems to be scientifically sound and factual, suggests the nutritionist.

Even without a scientific background themselves, readers can note whether the author is associated with respected institutions or programs, Cooksey says. They can also be on guard for stories based on a single research study and sensationalized for public consumption.

Hyperactivity In Children Can Be Controlled To Extent

Hyperactivity in children is a serious problem and should not be treated lightly, a Baylor College of Medicine child psychologist said.

"Problems with school, family and friends can occur when a child is overactive, fidgety, impulsive and easily distracted," said Ben Williams, M.D., director of the hyperactivity program at Baylor and Texas Children's Hospital.

"But this excess physical activity probably results from the hyperactive child's inability to concentrate for any length of time," Williams said.

Although hyperactivity is a problem, it can be controlled to some extent. It is not a condition that is caused by bad parenting. But good parenting skills, such as teaching the child how to concentrate, can help the child perform better while at home and in school.

Five to eight percent of all children, or about one child per classroom, will be hyperactive or have attention problems. Boys are more likely to be affected than girls, and the problem can be spotted as early as two and one-half years of age. Peer difficulties and disruptive, inattentive behavior are common classroom problems for hyperactive children.

Williams advises parents to seek treatment for a hyperactive child before he reaches school age to reduce the problems the child will face.

Williams recommends that parents teach a hyperactive child how to organize his time and structure his activities to help him concentrate on one project at a time.

He also advises parents to use non-physical discipline. Denying a child television time or forcing him to sit for ten minutes in a special "time-out" chair may be more effective in controlling outbursts than spanking, yelling or scolding.

He warns parents not to flood a hyperactive child with an angry string of commands.

"Hyperactive children typically have problems listening and following directions and many parents will start saying, 'Sit still. Be quiet. Do this. Don't do that,' without giving the child time to respond," Williams said. "The parent becomes angry because the child isn't minding and the child is frustrated because he is overloaded with commands."

Because the child has problems paying attention, Williams said, parents should get the child's attention by using "good parenting" techniques:

--Speak directly to a child's face, rather than to the back of the head or in his general direction.

--Praise a child's completion of specific tasks to bolster his self-esteem and increase his desire to follow directions and complete tasks.

--Set aside time to spend with child each day.

The Creative Woman
By Sheryl Borden

Information on choosing toys, the language of flowers and the importance of early pregnancy testing will be presented on "The Creative Woman" show on February 26 and March 2.

Kay Willis is a consultant to Fisher-Price Toy Co. and she will talk about several important points parents should consider when choosing toys. Quality toy companies consider it their primary responsibility to construct toys that are safe, functional and durable. Parents are still responsible for seeing that their children play safely. Mrs. Willis is from Rutherford, New Jersey and the mother of ten children and much of what she will share will be based on first-hand experience.

Another guest is a color and floral specialist and her name is Dominique Isbecque. She's a consultant to 800-FLOWERS, a new, nationwide flowers-by-phone service that you can dial 24 hours a day -- toll-free -- for quality, guaranteed arrangements. Ms. Isbecque will tell about the history of flowers, explain what the color and type of different flowers means, and what message it conveys. She will also talk about the psychology of color and discuss when to send flowers. Ms. Isbecque is from New York.

Another part of the show will be presented by Dr. Sheldon Cherry, of New York's Mt. Sinai Hospital. He is the author of "Understanding Pregnancy and Childbirth." Dr. Cherry outlines important do's and don'ts for the mother-to-be and will explain some of the sophisticated techniques available today to make pregnancy a safe and pleasant experience.

Information on a new product from Pellon Corporation, gifts to make and a health up-date on osteoporosis will be presented on the show on February 28.

Quilter's Secret is a new product from Pellon and at first glance it will look like another bolt of interfacing. It is fusible but on one side will be lines printed. This product cuts down the time involved in piecing quilts to about half. Jane Schenck is the Educational Director for Pellon and she's from New York. Ms. Schenck will show how to use this product and talk about the obvious advantages of using the Quilter's Secret.

Most people find a great deal of satisfaction in making gifts for someone they care for. Jewell Limacher, former Extension Home Economist from Roswell will share two very useful and very clever gifts to make yourself. One is a crayon and coloring book carrier and kids and parents alike will enjoy this. The other item is a travelers organizer and this gift would be ideal for men or women. Both items are fairly easy to make and the cost comparison between making them and buying comparable ones is very interesting.

Osteoporosis is a women's problem for the most part. It's painful, disfiguring and debilitating, but it can be prevented and its progression can be halted, if diagnosed early. The first part of the show will be a health up-date on osteoporosis.

"The Creative Woman" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show airs on KENW-TV, Channel 3 in Portales on Tuesday and Thursday at 12 noon and at 2:00 pm on Saturday.

Rumor has it that the Lions Club cheerleaders perhaps made the difference in the outcome of the game, won by the Lions 33-29. The Rotary cheerleaders did not show up for the game.

the remodeling, the building will be expected to house the Intercept (Alcoholism treatment) Program, as well as the administrative offices and meeting rooms.

The Intercept Program, for treatment of alcoholism on a local basis, will be instituted by West Plains Medical Center in the near future, and will include both in-hospital treatment as well as the new facility located just behind the present hospital facility.

The pews and all religious articles, including books, and other articles were retained by the former members of the First Christian Church and are expected to be donated to various churches and religious organizations.

Rex Macklin, vice president and division manager for Westworld, said the Intercept Program is expected to contribute a major new service to persons in this entire area, and will be instituted as soon as plans can be worked out.

Also in the works are the possible acquisition of new doctors for West Plains Medical Center.

Although some prices were increased when Westworld took over the hospital on January 1, Macklin and Westworld said

Hog Business Declining In Texas

The hog business in Texas is declining rapidly, mainly a victim of dwindling markets.

Texas hog and pig numbers stood at 415,000 head last December, down 30 percent from a year ago. That December inventory was the lowest on record for the state.

Swine numbers have been declining sharply in Texas in recent years after peaking at 3.1 million head in 1944. Texas was dropped as a major hog production state by the Statistical Reporting Service in 1982.

"Texas pork producers have been the victims of declining market outlets," points out Dr. Ernie Davis, livestock marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Procurement or assembly costs of Texas hogs for slaughter have been relatively high because of the state's wide dispersment of hog production," Davis explains. "These costs have limited any competitive advantage Texas producers may have."

"This means that today's producers must compete more aggressively for markets just to stay in business, he adds.

Texas breeding hog inventories last December were down 12 percent from a year ago, and sow farrowings also were down substantially in 1984, notes the economist. There were 94,000 farrowings last year compared to 124,000 in 1983.

Nationally, hog and pig numbers stood at 54 million head last December, 5 percent below a year ago.

Davis estimates pork production in the U.S. during the first half of 1985 to be about 4 percent below pork supplies of a year ago. This should mean slightly higher prices to producers, who are continuing to struggle for profits due to increasing production costs, says Davis.

County Officials To Key On Continuing Education

County judges and commissioners from across Texas who will be meeting here for their annual conference, Feb. 26-28, will be putting a lot of emphasis on continuing education.

"Continuing Education--The Key to the Courthouse" will be the theme of the 27th annual County Judges and Commissioners Conference, which will be held at the Ramada Inn.

Gov. Mark White has been invited to address the conference at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 28.

State Rep. Gary Thompson of Abilene will address the county officials earlier that morning. Thompson is chairman of the House Committee on County Affairs and will have some members of his committee on hand for an open forum and question-and-answer session.

The County Affairs Committee is studying a number of critical issues during the current legislative session, including optional ordinance-making authority, indigent health care and alternative sources of income.

Thompson and members of his committee will also take part in a review of legislation affecting counties.

Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, will open the conference with an official welcome. The annual conference is conducted by the Extension Service's Institute of County Government for the purpose of helping Texas' elected county officials serve more effectively and efficiently.

Major areas of discussions during the three-day conference will deal with "Administrative Responsibilities of Commissioners Courts" and "Relationships in County Government." In addition, the roles of various officials will be discussed, including the county judge, county commissioner, county clerk, district clerk, county treasurer, county auditor, county tax assessor-collector, county and district attorney, justices of the peace and constables, sheriff and county Extension agent.

Other discussions will deal with legal liabilities of county officials, revenue sharing and new handicap access regula-

Letter To The Editor

(Editor's note: The following is the copy of a letter mailed to Congressman Larry Combest.)
 February 12, 1985

Dear Congressman Combest:
 In answer to question number one on your 1985 Questionnaire, "What is the best way to reduce the federal deficit?" I would like to elaborate a little:
 The only way to significantly reduce the federal deficit is to get the farmers back into a profitable situation. Do you remember the last time we had a balanced budget? 1974-I believe. Do you remember what agriculture commodity prices were like in 1973? Think about it! FARMERS DO NOT WANT A GOVERNMENT HAND OUT (welfare checks). What we want is a fair price in the market place. To achieve this we must grow no more than the U.S. can consume and export. To do this we need a mandatory set aside large enough to keep farm prices high enough to at least cover the costs of production with no government deficiency or diversion payments.
 One final note: Do you realize we (farmers) are receiving the same price, or less, for our commodities that we were over 10 years ago? During the same 10 years our costs of production have risen 50-75%. Do you know of any business that can stay afloat when its costs continually rise and the prices it receives remain the same or go down?

Sincerely,
 James L. Wedel

Nursing Home News

by Joy Stancell

Lida Wilhite, Margaret Wilhite and Lena Hawkins visited and brought gifts, Tues. to help D.J. Gage celebrate his birthday.

Lois Ethridge was visited by her brother, Bruce Slayden, and sister Maxine and Peggy Tuess.

Thank you Western Drug for the beautiful boxes of Valentine Chocolates. We really did enjoy them. ***

We are glad to hear that Margaret Beard is growing stronger daily after her surgery in Lubbock Methodist Hospital.

Cleo Bellar is in W.P.M.C. at this time. Hurry and get well Cleo we miss you. ***

We would like to welcome our new resident. She is Mary W. Farley-she was born Aug. 12, 1896 in Ft. Worth. She is a member of the Muleshoe United Methodist Church. Welcome Mary, to our nursing home family. ***

Wed. morning 'Gabriel', a black Poodle dog visited the nursing home. His owner, Tina Wilson, was so gracious to let him visit us. We truly do think Rit from bringing him by for a visit. He was well mannered and friendly. He was fun to have around. Ruth Hall read short stories & poems about animals. Lois Ethridge led the song 'Old McDonald Had a Farm'. We had a good discussion about our pets and our children's pets. And as if you couldn't guess, refreshments of animal cookies were served. ***

Among those visiting the nursing home this week were Jerry Hutton, Mr. McCormick. ***

All who heard the Quartet from Hereford Fri. evening were surely blessed. How we did enjoy them. How we wished that everyone that enjoys good gospel music could have been here to enjoy them with us. Opal Robinson was our special guest. ***

The New Covenant Church came Sunday afternoon to sing Gospel music. ***

A friend of the nursing home, Maud Kersey, is now in a nursing home, where her daughter lives. We really do miss Mrs. Kersey, she was so faithful to come and visit and play dominoes with us. We hope she will be happy in her new home. ***

Glenda Jennings came Wed. afternoon to have a Sing-A-Long with the residents. Our special guest were Doc Goucher, Lena Hawkins and Mrs. Dawson. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holland was visited by Mrs. Gordon Wilson and Mrs. O'Hair tis week. It is so wonderful to see Mrs. Holland able to be up and about. ***

Clara Weaver spent Sat. and Sunday, visiting in her home out in the Lazbuddie community. Glenda Jennings visited Clara Wed. afternoon. ***

Mr. Scoggins took Emmitt Dean out for a ride last week.

Edith Bruns was visited Tues. eve. by Ruth Briscoe and Francis Bruns. ***

Beryl Hollis went out to her brothers and sister-in-laws house Monday, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. McCarty. ***

Grace Morris was visited by Mr. Morris and Barbara and other friends. ***

Lindy Schuster and daughter visited Ernest Kerr Wed. evening. ***

Our thanks to Cooky Bamert for the gift of the beach ball for our exercise class. We, and our friends had all been looking for one everywhere, it seems they are out of season right now, to replace our tired one that would no longer hold air. We are really pleased with our new one. We understand that it had once been to Florida! ***

We invite you to come and play 42 and Skip-Bo with us on Thursday afternoon. We need you and would love to have you. ***

Reminder! The monthly birthday party will be Thurs. Feb. 28th at 3:00 p.m. ***

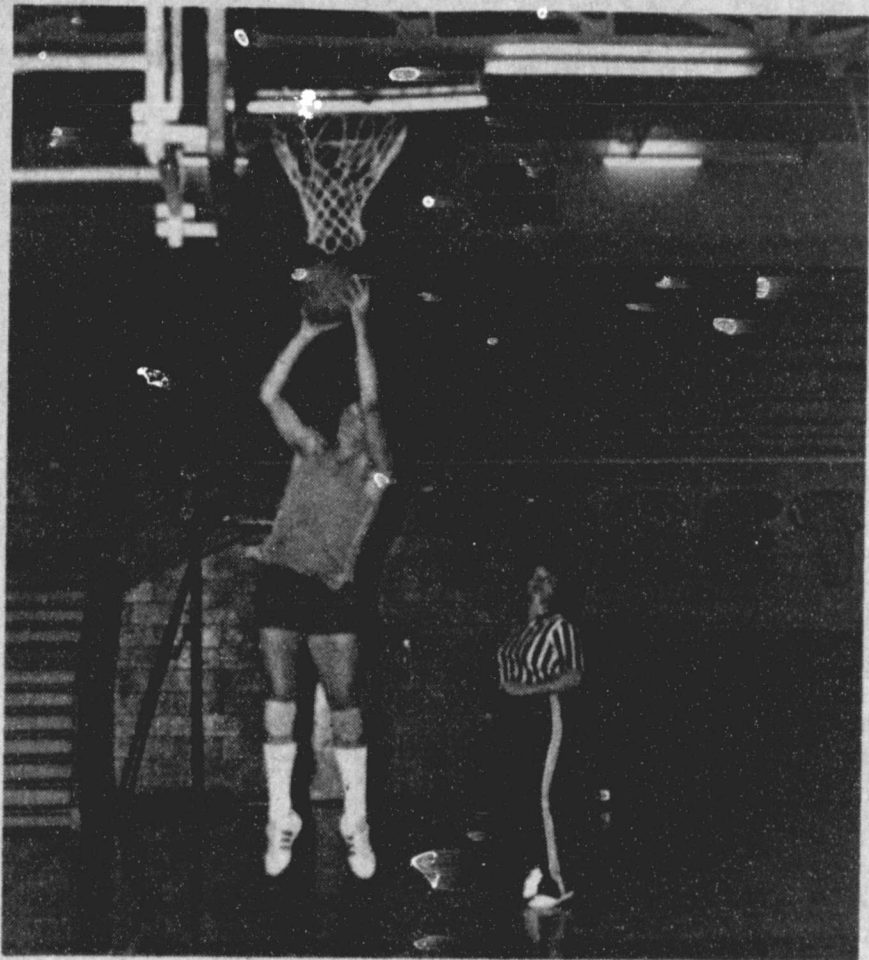

Congratulations to Beryl Hollis and D.J. Gage for being our Valentine Queen and King. We are very proud of you. ***

We enjoy bird watching at the nursing home. Josephine Wenner sits by her window and looks out at the birds eating out of the bird feeder. Ernest Kerr, Lois Ethridge and Mary Farley spotted a Robin in the tree on the patio. We enjoy seeing our fine feathered friends. The Robin gave us the exciting feeling that Spring is just around the corner. ***

We would like to express our sympathy to Lois Ethridge on the death of her nephew, and Clara Weaver at the death of her brother who lived in Washington. ***

Tues. the Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary came to shampoo and set the ladies hair and give manicures and some of them stayed and played Skip-Bo.

ALMOST ALL ALONE-Taking to the air for the Muleshoe Lions Club-Rotary Basketball game Tuesday night is this unidentified player, who is closely watched by one of the referees as he makes his shot.
