MOODY TELLS CATTLEMEN NEEDS OF STATE ARE GROWING

No Chance for Cutting Expenses, Says Governor

COURTS ADDING MUCH TO COSTS

Natural Resources to Be Taxed More, He Says

SAN ANGELO, March 19. (P)—Governor Dan Moody told cattlemen here today that tax payers face the fact that growth and development of Texas mean more money must be raised for state institutions. He said traffic should pay the cost of state roads, and a tax on natural resources should meet additional requirements of government.

Addressing the convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, Mr. Moody detailed increased demands from state educational institutions due to the ever-growing population and greater popularity of college and university education, the increased pressure on state secondary institutions, expansion of governmental departments and of the state's judicial structure.

"It is up to the tax payers of Texas to face the facts squarely," the governor said. "He did not favor an increase of the burden of landowners, but said more equitable taxation was necessary."

"When I was a candidate for governor four years ago, I was of the opinion that too much money was being spent in support of government institutions," he continued. "I am still of that opinion, but have revised it to conclude that nothing is going to be done about reducing the amount spent."

He explained the growth of schools and state institutions and declared that "humanity demands that we take care of the insane, the feeble-minded, and the development of Texas which calls for expansion of the judicial structure."

A few years ago there were between 80 and 90 district courts, Mr. Moody said. Now there are 116, and requirements of the citizenship calls for creation of additional courts.

SAN ANGELO, March 19. (P)—Cattle and ranch sales during the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association convention here this week involved more than a million dollars.

Kansas buyers bought 2,000 head of yearling steers for $100,000 and 2,000 head steers for $170,000, brokers announced. The Waggoner estate of Vernon sold 7,000 head of 3 and 4-year-old steers.

The T. Fryar, Jr., and F. S. Wilson sold a 20,000-acre ranch located ten miles east of Fort Stockton for $430,000. The purchasers, B. H. Nolen and Joe T. Lane of Rank, said the property would be stocked with Hereford cattle.

Oil Operator Seized in Rugged Area by Bandits

SAN ANGELO MAN IS VICTIM'S SON

Gordon Bristow Flies to El Paso to Help Father

SAN ANGELO, March 19. (P)—Gordon Obie Bristow, whose father, J. B. Bristow, oil operator, was held for 3,000 pesos ransom by Mexican bandits, left here today by automobile for Big Spring where he planned to board an airplane for El Paso to negotiate for his father's release. He expected to arrive at the border city late today.

Reports received by Bristow's family said the oil man was captured while exploring in the rugged country south of Tepic, Nayarit, Mexico.

A message from the American consul at Juarez said an "omnibus from bandits expected at Tepic any time."

Young Bristow said developments at El Paso would determine whether he would proceed to Mazatlan, on the west coast of Mexico, in his effort to obtain his father's release.

Sam Kimberlin, Wichita Falls merchant, last night wired his cousin, William Blocker, senior consul in Juarez, Mexico, guaranteeing payment of the ransom. Bristow is a business partner of Kemper Kimberlin, San Angelo oil and mining operator, another cousin of Sam Kimberlin.

According to dispatches to Blocker, the elder Bristow was captured while exploring for oil in the rugged country south of Tepic, Nayarit, Mexico. He was at Santa Maria del Oro, Nayarit, at the time of the capture.

The occurrence was the first reported in several months. The region, infested several months ago by roguish fanatics, is considered the most hazardous of all Mexico.

According to advices received last night from Mexico City, the American embassy there requested the Mexican government to make every effort to aid with Bristow also were reported held.

Suspended Term Is Given Boys for Theft of Chickens

The suspended sentence law was created for just such youths as Henry Henson and Fletcher Bratcher, Judge W. R. Ewing said yesterday when he gave each a five-year suspended sentence.

Both Henson, 15, and Bratcher, 19, pleaded guilty to stealing 17 chickens from G. C. Cheney of McLean during the latter part of February last. The jury was out just long enough to write its verdict.

In their testimony, the boys said they borrowed a coop to steal the chickens, and when they had driven a short distance from the poultry house, they ran out of gas and were compelled to leave the car and chickens in the road. They then walked to McLean, they said, and gave themselves up to the deputy sheriff. They testified they intended to sell the chickens at McLean and use the money to buy gas and oil to go back to the home of their parents at Fca, Okla.

Their fathers and several neighbors of the Oklahoma community testified the boys had never been arrested for nor convicted of any crime. Clifford Braly, district attorney, told the jury that the boys should be given a suspended sentence if the evidence proved that the chicken theft was their first offense.

RANGE STATUS ABOLISHED BY PRECINCT VOTERS—STOCK LAW IS APPROVED BY 180-9 VOT

The immediate vicinity of Pampa is no longer a range country.

Actually, the range was obliterated before the turn of the twentieth century, but until yesterday, when voters of precinct No. 2 voted 141 to 9 in favor of a stock law, this community was technically a range country.

An almost unanimous demand that farmers keep their livestock at home was registered in the vote. The measure was overwhelmingly approved in every voting box in the precinct. Voters in east Pampa cast 21 ballots for the law and one against, according to J. T. Crawford, election judge of voting precinct No. 9 in the city.

The nine votes against the law were assumed to have been cast in protest at the passing of the range and the encroachments of industrial civilization.

One old-timer at Kingsmill took the election rather seriously. "Who ever heard of a stock law in a cow country," he said. "You just wait and see—there'll be cows on these here plains when you can't find a drop of oil in a hundred miles."

Heretofore, a city ordinance prohibited owners from allowing their livestock to run at large in the city limits. The new law is applicable to a district about fifteen miles square surrounding Pampa.

Credit Body to Report Bad Checks to All Members

A large percent of the membership of the Pampa Business Men's association attended an enthusiastic meeting yesterday noon at the Methodist church. Every member expressed himself favorable to the plan of reporting bad checks and past due accounts each week. Special forms will be provided for sending in this information to the association office.

Blank will be furnished to members soon which all persons asking for credit from the merchants will be asked to fill out for credit references. Display cards will be distributed among members informing buyers of the necessity of establishing a credit rating before being granted credit.

Luncheon meetings similar to the one held yesterday will be held each month in the future, it was planned.

NO SALE IS MADE OF SCHOOL BONDS

Bids on the $200,000 school bond issue that were to have been considered yesterday remained unopened during the meeting of the trustees of the Pampa Independent district.

The bond houses represented would not offer as much as par, and the school board informed the representatives that it would be useless to submit bids for less. The board will file another date sale or will negotiate a private sale. It does not propose to take less than par value, although the delay occasioned by failure to sell the bonds yesterday was regretted.

The bond men admitted that the market for the bonds was improving, but they said they were not authorized to offer as much as par. The Brown-Crummer company, which holds most of the local paper, was among the prospective bidders. Others were Garrett & company, Dallas; Robert Evans, Dallas; B. F. Dittmyer, San Antonio; and the Provident Bank & Trust company, Cincinnati.

Amarillo teams will take the affirmative side of the question. The Central high school orchestra will lay several selections during the evening.

The Amarillo girls' team is composed of Lola Pasca and Frances McNeill, while the boys are Warren Woods and Jack Roach. Pampa's girls on the debating team are Ruth Wakeman and Vivian Vickers, and the boys are Sam Kleth and Charles Frost.

Pampa Students Present Play at Amarillo Chapel

Central high school's one-act play team, which recently was selected from six casts in an elimination contest yesterday presented "The Valiant" before the faculty and student body of Amarillo high school at a chapel program.

The performance was cordiality received by the audience, and many compliments were paid the young actors and their coach, Miss Velora Reed. The Pampa cast appeared in Amarillo upon the invitation of three Amarillo teachers who acted as judges in the local contest.

The cast presenting the play in Amarillo and chosen to represent Pampa in the one-act play contest of the Interscholastic League is as follows: Doyle Roundtree, the "Valiant"; Charles Barrett, the warden; Roy Price, the chaplain; Dorothy Doucette, sister of the "Valiant"; and Curtis Stark, attendant. Charles Barrett, a member of the second cast chosen in the elimination, replaced James Setz as the warden in the first cast.

The Pampa cast will compete in the district meeting next Friday and Saturday at Canyon, presenting its first performance at 8 o'clock Friday evening to contest the winner of the Sandford-Miami preliminary.

WACO, March 19. (P)—A. G. Janke, 65, was wounded fatally at his home in Leroy, 10 miles northeast of here, last night. A charge of murder was filed against his son, Louis, 21, shortly after Janke died in a hospital here today. The son was released on $1,000 bond.

Janke was shot with a rifle. Members of his family told officers the shooting occurred after Janke arrived home, and had threatened his wife. A younger son, Herbert, was alleged to have knocked one of two pistols from his father's hand just as it was discharged.

MARSHALL, March 19. (P)—W. C. Finnen, 45, was shot and instantly killed at his combination store, and home at Baldwin near Cudde Lake last night.

His 21-year-old son, T. C. Finnen, was placed under technical arrest by Sheriff John C. Sanders. Young Finnen said he shot his father in defense of his mother.

The elder Finnen was shot twice in the head with a shotgun, the entire upper portion of his head being blown away.

Sanders said he arrested the youth and then left him to take care of his mother and five small brothers and sisters after all indications had confirmed the youth's contention he had had shot in defense of his mother. Sanders said the woman showed evidence of bruises.

FEWER CARS MADE

There is room for conjecture in the prediction of Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors, and Walter P. Chrysler, president of the Chrysler Motor Car corporation, that the price of automobiles is due for a rise.

Some observers will take this to mean that these wizards of the industry have joined hands in an effort to raise the price scales. Recent rumors of mergers and "understandings" have been vigorously denied, but the belief will persist that the oldtime competition in the industry is vanishing.

There is no doubt, however, that the sales of motor cars this year will fall below normal by tens of thousands. The peak of production had to be reached sometime, and it was last year. Lowered production means higher overhead in proportion to the number of units produced.

The announcement has wide-spread aspects. Higher prices for new cars will help the used car market, which is one of the big problems in automobile distribution. Used cars represent many thousands of dollars and much good service, but the used car lot puts gray hairs in the heads of thousands of dealers.

The condition which exists in the automobile industry has its counterpart in many other businesses. There are cycles of heavy production and heavy buying. The saturation point is never reached in reality, but there come periods when demand is lessened and the people turn their money into other channels.

Unemployment, it is true, has reached large proportions. The low point of business was in December, while the low point in employment is usually in that awkward period between winter lethargy and spring activity.

show that contracts in January and February were 40 per cent greater than in any other similar months in their history. The effect of spring work should be timely.

Money is generally available at more reasonable rates for construction purposes. Bond issues are getting a better response from bidders. Available money for mortgage purposes of home building and agriculture has lagged behind other forms of credit, but the action of the Federal Farm Board is calculated to help the farmer and the home builder should find residential loans much easier this spring.

In short, the outlook is encouraging and the men out of work should find employment within the next sixty days. It can be figured that the amount of projects in sight will largely occupy the attention and command the services of the persons now idle in most trades. If conditions generally improve, and no more men are laid off, the alarms felt at the present time should be allayed by May 1.

Census Taking Is to Begin Soon

In a dozen days, a squad of census enumerators will be about Uncle Sam's business of gathering personal and public information about his citizens on every foot of U. S. ground. And it's nobody's business why the dear Uncle wants to know, the census man will soon tell you if you hesitate in answering.

The Gray county enumerators will with his own opponents.

Most Texans are more worried about 'rithmetic than 'arth-of-readin' and 'ritin. If you can do as a golf student says he is taught, and not as he demonstrates, you can have plenty of fun with these "bugs" who are trying to get the jump on you.

Uncle Sam evidently lets us little fellows alone. We have our income tax statement back with "paid" marked across it. It took him, evidently, about ten seconds to peruse it and accept the small offering toward the support of this, ahem, great commonwealth.

Mrs. Edison says we are living too fast. She ought to get a smaller car.

begin promptly on the appointed day, April 1. Dr. V. E. Brunow, assistant census director for Gray county, has forwarded 40 applications for the four enumerator jobs in Pampa to Amarillo where the census director for this district will select the workers. With the applications, Dr. Brunow sent a strong recommendation that the four census-takers to which Pampa is entitled be increased to eight. Dr. Brunow is of the opinion that four persons will not be enough to make a thorough enumeration in 30 days.

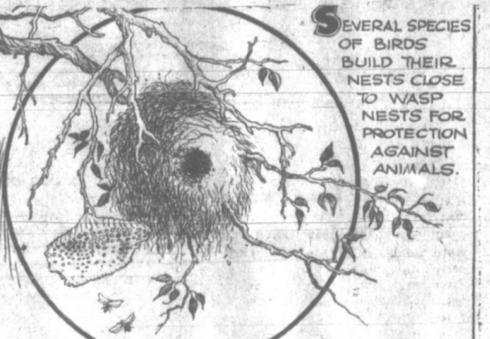

"We want the census of every person in this community taken and I don't believe four enumerators can do the job in the allotted time," Dr. Brunow said. He also recommended that six be assigned to take the census of the rural districts instead of three. Two who have been appointed to take the census of the rural districts are L. D. Rider and E. R. Turman.

For the past month, G. W. Keeling has been taking a business, industrial, and professional census of Pampa. Mr. Keeling's findings are for Uncle Sam's benefit alone and are not available to business firms and citizens. The business and industrial census will be completed by April 1.

Dr. Brunow expects that names of Pampa enumerators will be sent to him in a few days.

St. Patrick's Party Given Tuesday Honoring Sunday School Class

Members of the Bible Gleaners class of the Baptist Sunday school, who recently were defeated in a contest with the Azar class, paid their obligations yesterday afternoon with a delightful party honoring the winners.

The affair was held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Greene, where decorations of shamrocks and green streamers created a gay setting for games and contests suitable to St. Patrick's day festivities.

The hostess wore green tea aprons during the entire afternoon. After opening the program of entertainment with a welcome song, they held a mock coronation ceremony, crowning the guests with tiaras of green cardboard. Members of both classes were given Irish names by which they were called thereafter.

An interesting game centering on the words, "Erin Go Baugh," the Irish wry, was played at twelve tables. Mrs. G. C. Malone was winner. Other contests of the occasion were won by Mrs. H. L. Grove, Mrs. Tracy Willis and Mrs. Clyde Garner.

Three Clubs Assemble At Enjoyable All-Day Social Meeting Monday

Mrs. E. A. Shackleton's hospitable country home was opened Monday to members of three clubs of the community for an all-day social gathering. Coterie, Wayside, and the Laketon Helping Hand clubs were represented at the enjoyable affair.

During the afternoon hours, following a buffet luncheon to which each club member contributed, a program was presented by the three organizations and special guests. Mrs. Tom Clayton, president of Wayside club, presided. The serious and the frivolous were well-balanced in the entertaining numbers.

Mrs. Clayton opened the program with a talk on the value of an egg-crate in Gray county and the possibilities of organizing one in connection with home demonstration club work.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, an honored guest of the occasion, gave an inspiring talk on the subject, "Home." Miss Myrtle Miller, Gray county home demonstration agent, spoke on the relationship between federated women's clubs and home demonstration clubs. Her talk was one of particular interest, inasmuch as both Coterie and Wayside are federated organizations, and the Laketon and Wayside are combination study and demonstration clubs. Mrs. Tom Eller expressed Coterie club's appreciation for the opportunity of meeting with the other organizations.

The remainder of the program was humorous. Wayside club entertained with a debate: Resolved that town life is more ideal than city life. Mrs. Bob Montgomery took the affirmative side of the question and Mrs. W. P. Vincent, the negative. The judges, Mrs. Girtha McConnell, Mrs. John R. White, and Mrs. Hunkapillar, found it impossible to reach a decision. Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, a member of Wayside, gave a series of reminiscences on important events in the lives of the persons present.

Laketon's clever program included a dialogue, "The Cedar Chest," by Mrs. John R. White and Mrs. Lawton Hoffman. "The Joke's on Me" was read by Miss Dorothea Paris. Songs in which the assembled guests joined with Mrs. Charles Talley leading, brought the program to a close.

The following were in attendance: Coterie club—Mrs. Tom Eller and Mrs. Girtha McConnell; Laketon Helping Hand club—Mrs. Leo Paris, Mrs. John R. White, Mrs. W. S. Paris, Mrs. F. W. Alford, Mrs. C. L. Beebe, Mrs. Clyde Gray, Mrs. Lawton Hoffe, Mrs. Charles Talley, Mrs. G. B. Denton; Wayside club—Mrs. Jim Richardson, Mrs. Billie Taylor, Mrs. Bob Montgomery, Mrs. W. P. Vincent, Mrs. Tom Clayton, and the hostess, Mrs. E. A. Shackleton. Mrs. Hunkapillar and Miss Miller were honored visitors.

Anticipating the interest of club women who plan to attend the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Denver, June 5 to 14, Mrs. C. S. Hutchins, Greenville, chairman of transportation of the Texas federation, and Mrs. L. A. Wells, Amarillo, transportation chairman of Seventh district, jointly have issued the following letter:

The Fort Worth and Denver City railway in connection with the Colorado and Southern has been selected as the official route to the biennial.

We hope to have sufficient number to make the trip to warrant a special train, which will consist of standard sleepers, diner and library observation car with open platform, and probably a coach.

Reservation requests should be made to your district chairman of transportation, who in turn will handle with the state chairman of transportation, as this is the only way in which we can determine how much equipment will be needed.

Plans will be made for short stops at Wichita Falls, Childress, and Amarillo, enroute, as well as other points to pick up delegates boarding the train north of Fort Worth, and you should state in your reservation request where you will board the train. It is hoped there will be a sufficient number to staff cars from Houston and San Antonio, thus avoiding necessity of change.

While definite schedule cannot be arranged until it is known how many delegates we will have, the party will leave Dallas 8:45 a. m. June 3, leaving Fort Worth 10:20 a. m., and if special train is operated, we will arrive in Denver 10:30 a. m. June 4, if not, we will arrive in Denver 11:45 a. m. In any case, we will have the same high class equipment in train, and our cars, if regular train is used, will be next to diner.

Regular summer tourist rates will apply, as they are lower than the convention rates, and such tickets may be purchased from ticket agents from any point in the United States to Denver and return.

If any delegates or others wish to go on to one or more of the national parks, to California or the Pacific, etc., they should purchase tickets to their final destination, such tickets to be routed via the F. W. & D. C. & S. railroads to Denver, thence as each person prefers to continue her tour. It is impracticable to quote rates from all points, but this information may be obtained from your local ticket agent. In making reservation, please state number of persons occupying one berth, as this will prevent duplication. Two people may occupy one berth for the price of one berth; the price is per berth, not per person.

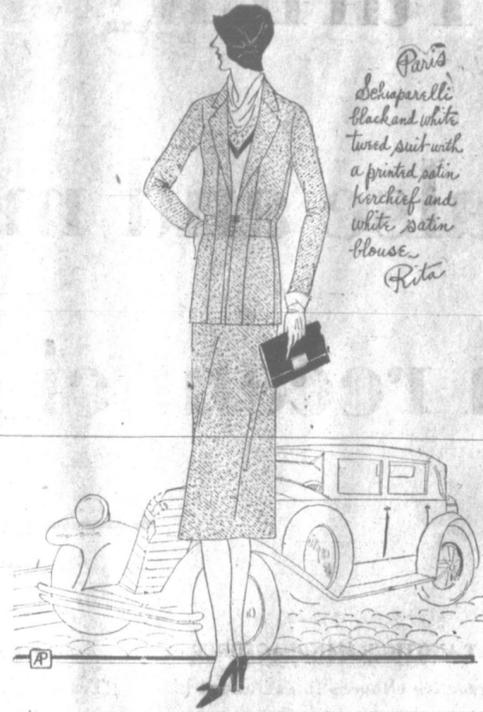

Engineer Dies as Train Is Derailed

CHICAGO, March 19.—(AP)—An engineer was killed and a score of others were injured in a head-on collision of the Badger State Limited and a suburban train on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad last night near Arlington Heights, a suburb.

Carl Kutzner, engineer on the suburban train, was crushed to death. The Limited, southbound from Minneapolis, crashed into a section of sewer pipe that had slipped from its sled as it was being towed across the tracks. The locomotive was derailed, and six cars were hurled into the ditch. The onrushing suburban train, then crashed into the engine of the Limited.

Ferry traffic across San Francisco bay increased 147,294 persons in 1929, for a total of 57,734,413.

Bridge Benefit for Library Is Financial and Social Success

The first privately sponsored benefit for Pampa Public library was given Monday evening at Hotel Adams with such notable success that officers of the library association believe others of the city will be encouraged to follow the example.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Allison, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Holt were hosts and hostesses, assisted by Mrs. George H. Wallace, chairman of the ways and means committee of the library association, and Mrs. H. H. Hicks, a member of the committee.

With Mr. and Mrs. Holt, managers of the hotel, furnishing the rooms for the event; Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, the trophies; Mr. and Mrs. Allison, the refreshments, and other business houses of the city contributing materials, all funds were clear profit for the library.

Sales of tickets amounted to $42. Donors to the affair, in addition to those named, were as follows: Pampa Buick company; Hamlett-Mitchell company, F. W. Woolworth company, M System grocery, Fatheree Drug company.

Turning the light of Truth on false and misleading statements in recent cigarette advertising

WHAT ANOTHER MANUFACTURER of cigarettes chooses to say about his product is not our affair. Even when he sees fit to misrepresent his product and leave false impressions concerning it, that still is his business—not ours.

But—when, in his advertising, he goes beyond his own product and makes false statements or leaves misleading impressions about other cigarettes—then it is time that the truth be told.

Some time ago a manufacturer of cigarettes used the following statements in his advertising:

"The extra secret heating process removes from (————) harmful irritants, corrosive acids, which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way, and which cause throat irritation and coughing."

"No matter how much or how little you pay for cigarettes you have a choice of only two general classes, and not more than two. In one class you have the billions of cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way and in the other class you have (————), the toasted cigarette, a product of modern science, a cigarette from which harmful irritants have been removed by that extra secret process described by the phrase 'It's Toasted'."

WHEN THESE STATEMENTS were first made, we assumed that they were a casual phase of that manufacturer's advertising and did not represent a deliberate and calculated policy. After making a few such statements, he abandoned this particular form of advertising. However, other statements used in his advertising came to the attention of the Federal Trade Commission on a question of their truthfulness.

As a result of the action of the Federal Trade Commission he was ordered to stop his admitted practice of using in his advertising false testimonials of non-smokers to the effect that they kept slender by smoking his brand of cigarettes, and was further ordered to stop using other fake testimonials and the specious argument that all can keep slender by smoking that brand of cigarettes. He then began to use again the form of statement quoted above or variations of it.

IF ANY MANUFACTURER chooses to say that the tobaccos he uses contain "harmful irritants, corrosive acids, that are injurious to the throat," and then to claim that these things are removed by the heat-treating process, that is his own affair. But when he tries to create the impression that it is general practice to use in cigarettes such rank tobaccos as he describes, we object to the attempted reflection on the industry.

We have never used in our blend those rank tobaccos which can be properly described as containing "harmful irritants, corrosive acids," nor do we believe that they are used by some of the other manufacturers.

If that manufacturer wishes to advertise heat treatment, calling it toasting or what-not, that is his right. But when, in so doing, he tries to create the impression that he is the only maker of cigarettes who treats tobaccos with heat, the truth again needs to be told.

The publication of a fake testimonial is no greater perversion of the truth than to imply that the heat treatment of tobaccos is an exclusive process with any single manufacturer.

THE FACT is that the use of heat treatment in the manufacture of tobacco is about the most commonplace and universally practiced method in the industry. It has long been standard practice.

We use heat treatment in its most modern and scientific application, both in the preparation and in the manufacture of those mild, fragrant, ripe tobaccos that carry their natural goodness into CAMELS.

The first CAMEL Cigarette we ever made was manufactured under the heat-treating process. Every one of the billions of CAMELS produced since has been manufactured under heat treatment. We rely upon heat to the limits of its possibilities to make our good tobaccos better. It cannot make inferior tobaccos good.

WHETHER OR NOT a manufacturer, to have something to talk to the public about, attaches a contrivance to his heat-treating machines to catch, condense and bottle the vapors that come from them can have no more effect toward improving the tobacco than your catching and bottling the vapors that come from your teapot would have toward improving the tea in the pot.

Our own brand, CAMEL, continues to grow, but we are, nevertheless, unwilling to let these far-reaching false statements or impressions regarding the cigarette industry go uncorrected.

Bank Robbers Say All Equally Guilty in Crime

DENVER, March 19. (P)—Warned that they probably will hang for the fatal shooting of Deputy Sheriff C. A. Hickman, of Eads, Colo., and that a straightforward story was their sole hope for escape, three confessed robbers of the Manter, Kans., state bank have admitted they all are equally guilty in the slaying.

The latest story of the officer's death was told in the Denver county jail. The trio was brought here yesterday from Johnson, Kans., following their arrest by possemen near Jetmore, Kans.

Walker, admitted leader of the bank robbers, told the entire story with the collaboration of his companions. He gave a detailed account of the $4,000 robbery of the bank on Friday, the fatal gun fight near Eads, the theft of an automobile in which they attempted to escape, a second gun fight with other officers at Cheyenne Wells, Colo., and their final capture.

The wife of Walker, who also was known as John Thomas, was arrested last night at Joplin, Mo., and was held for investigation. Miss Goldie Hegworth, sweetheart of Halkiday, also was arrested at Webb City, Mo., nearby.

Both women had just returned by automobile from Amarillo, Texas, where the men, in their confession, said they maintained headquarters. A of the state patronage committee, McClain, also was under arrest in Webb City.

RED SOX, THEIR GLORY IN PAST, SLOWLY REBUILDING IN HOPE OF REPEATING SURE DAY

BY ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 19.—(P)—The glories of the old Red Sox have departed, but the spirit carries gallantly on.

When Connie Mack, in 1922, gave up his long-term occupancy of the American league cellar for better things, the Red Sox took over the lease. With the exception of one season in the past eight, the Boston entry has finished last, a far cry from the halcyon days of 1903 to 1918 during which the Sox won six pennants and were seldom out of the first division.

Bill Carrigan, great catcher and manager of two world's championship teams, failed in a three-year comeback attempt to lift the Red Sox from their lowly estate. This year, Charles (Heine) Wagner, Carrigan's lieutenant and himself a veteran of the famous 1912 champions, has taken over the somewhat thankless job of trying to go somewhere with a team that lacks the punch to be considered a serious factor in the race.

Nevertheless, the Red Sox have spirit and a number of redeeming factors in player talent. Unable to compete financially with a number of their rivals, they have stuck to the task of rebuilding slowly. This determination was manifest early in the year when President Bob Quinn and Manager Wagner stoutly refused to listen to flattering offers of players and cash from the Yankees for the services of the No. 1 right hander of the pitching staff, Big Ed Morris of Mobile, Ala.

In addition, Wagner counts on capable right-handed flinger from Charles Rutting, Danny MacFadden, the former Somerville schoolboy star, Jack Russell and Mill Gaston. This group lacks something in left-handed support, with only the veteran Billy Payne, Edgar Carroll, and Ed Durham, the

Lindsay Thinks He Is Too Good for Preliminary Work—Says Large Words

Red Lindsay of Shreveport, who is scheduled to wrestle Billy Londres for 30 minutes in the semi-final event here Thursday night, believes he is so good that he barely consented to wrestle in the preliminary affair.

"I'm used to appearing in the headline event or not at all," he said. "And if it were not for a chance to give that Greek more than he has ever gotten from any wrestler, I wouldn't be in the card at all."

But at that, the promoters were forced to make the semi-final event for 30 minutes instead of 20. Lindsay will head a card at Amarillo Friday night, wrestling Tex Watkins. Tex has won two falls from every wrestler in this section except Clingman. The one thing that promoters are counting on to make the Lindsay-Londres match good is that Red wants to take the ego out of Londres. The

EXHIBITIONS IN TEXAS WILL BE VERY PLENTIFUL

(By the Associated Press)

Even muddy weather wasn't expected to hamper Skipper Snyder of the Fort Worth Cats, who today planned to place his team in the first of a two-game series with the Texas Christian university team. The second game was set for tomorrow. Another duo Saturday and Sunday with the Baltimore Orioles will give the Cats their first professional opposition of the season.

The Shreveport Sports were matched against the College of Marshall today. They went through their regular training drill yesterday in spite of a light snow which forced cancellation of the scheduled game between the Gray and the Whites. Three rookies, Barnes, former Texas Aggie pitcher, Wright, Dallas sandlotter, and "Red" Anderson, third sacker, were cut loose.

Still nursing sore arms, the Wichita Falls Oilers planned a trek today to Ryan, Okla., to tussle with the All-Stars there in their second exhibition game of the season.

Manager Joe Schultz expected to send his Houston Buffs into action today against Manager Joe Presswood's All-Stars, state amateur champions in 1929. Due to start the fracas were two big right-handers, Charlie Breeden youngster from Hallettsville, for the Buffs, and Charlie Whitmer for the All-Stars. Arrival of Al "Monk" Edwards, outfielder, and Leon Dondoro, infielder, was awaited by the San Antonio Indians, these two being the only ones lacking to make a complete squad. Catcher Pete Lapan and Pitcher Roy Auer donned the uniform yesterday, although the Indians had to work out in the Fort Sam Houston auditorium because of a muddy diamond.

The Waco Cubs were due to play the Baltimore Orioles if weather permitted. Yesterday they missed a practice session for the first time this season because of rain.

Only Chick Gilver was absent from the Beaumont Exporters, in training at Orange, where they were driven to cover by Juke Pluvius yesterday, interrupting a practice game between the regulars and Yauigans.

The Dallas Steers and the Southern Methodist university Mustangs planned to tangle today—barring weather, which caused their scheduled game yesterday to be interrupted. Skipper Jack Atz whiled away a rainy day by running his roster to 29 players, pass-out "Pick Uns" to three youngsters, catcher Noah Holley, Plano; Outfielder Frank Wilson, Tupelo, Miss., and shortstop Fred Morris, Ennis. Bob Tarleton, business manager of the Steers, announced the purchase of Frank Brewer, hard-hitting outfielder-first baseman, from the Baltimore Orioles. He declined to divulge the price. Baltimore paid $6,000 for him.

BOILS BOTHER GIANTS—STAR TO HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, March 19. (P)—An epidemic of boils has struck the New York Giants' training camp at San Antonio, but Freddy Lindstrom, star third-sacker, has a monopoly on them. He went to a hospital yesterday with seven of them developed on his left hand and forearm.

The Brooklyn Robbins seem to have made no mistake when they exchanged Buzz McWeeny for Adolfo Luque of the Cincinnati Reds. Luque has been showing great form in spring training at West Palm Beach and made a splendid showing in the three innings pitched for the Robins against the St. Louis Browns yesterday.

Connie Mack, head strategist of the Philadelphia Athletics, is going to have a "spot" pitcher this season, possibly three. The veteran Howard Ehmke signed as a "spot" pitcher this year. That is, he only promised to start games at intervals of about two weeks and in spots where his style will be most effective. He also is coaching recruit pitchers. Two other veterans, Eddie Rommel and Jack Quinn, are also probable "spot" performers.

Captain Preco Thompson, last of the Phillies regulars to report, was expected to reach Winterhaven, Fla., today or tomorrow. Manager Shotton announced. Chuck Klein celebrated his return to the fold yesterday by jousting a pair of horns against the House of David team.

The Cubs broke up their Catalina Island training camp today and headed for Los Angeles and a long series of exhibition games. Seventeen games will be played at Los Angeles with Portland, Los Angeles, Hollywood and the Pittsburgh Pirates before the champions go to Kansas City for a final four game series with Kansas City's American association champs. Singing in the rain is one optimistic habit in which Manager Donie Bush of the White Sox does not believe. Rained out of an exhibition game for the third successive day at San Antonio yesterday, Bush hired a hall and drilled his White Sox indoors.

Commissioner Has Drastic Plan to Prevent Fouling

NEW YORK, March 19. (P)—Stringent regulations designed to reduce the number of bouts ending on fouls have been adopted by the New York state athletic commission.

Hereafter, boxers losing on fouls will draw a suspension of two months for the first offense; four months for the second; six months for the third, and life for the fourth. Boxers who foul will be paid only for the completed rounds before the disqualification. Remainder of the purse will be turned over to the promoter.

James A. Farley, chairman of the commission, said: "Fouls and unsatisfactory endings of bouts are choking the boxing game to death."

He also paid for an option on the half and is ready to defy the elemental capers.

The item that discomfited Manager Jewel Ens the most today as he studied the figures of yesterday's loss of the Pittsburgh Pirates to San Francisco read: "Left on bases—Pittsburgh 12." The manner in which the Pirates, led by Gus Suhr and Bartell, capped the ball was pleasing, but Jess Petty's ineffectiveness and the habit of his teammates of being garrooned on the bags combined to leave the Ens men still without an exhibition victory.

Perfect Scores Made by Pupils in Music Memory

Results of the music memory contest in Junior high school were announced Monday afternoon by Miss Iva June Willis, public school music supervisor, under whose direction the contests were held during the closing days of last week.

Six perfect scores were made by pupils of the sixth and seventh grades, and in addition there were eight scores between 90 and 100. Students receiving scores of 100 were: Hester Ella Lester, Louis Fannell, Joyce Smith, Juliet Jane Canfield, Mary Catherine Clark and Earl Bradford.

Ratings of the other eight given honorable mention were as follows: Florence Sue Dodson, 97; Lois Bryson, 97; Blanche McMillen, 95; Phyllis Smith, 93; Murray Feenberg, 90; Harriett Hunkapillar, 90; Howard Zimmerman, 90; Sybil Husted, 90.

Contests in Junior high school were similar to those recently held in the fifth grade classes of the four ward schools. Tests were given under the rulings of the Interscholastic League, rating competitors upon their recognition of compositions with which they had become familiar by name and by the composer's name, and upon recognition in unfamiliar pieces of theme, type, rhythmic measure, and instrumental tone. Miss Myrtle Hargrove was teacher of the Junior high group.

Judges in the several Junior high contests were as follows: Mrs. C. S. Wortman, Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mrs. C. C. Boles, Mrs. Tom E. Rose, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell, Mrs. J. I. Bradley, Mrs. G. C. Malone, Mrs. Porter Malone, Mrs. F. M. Culbertson. Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, Mrs. Clyde Fatheree, Mrs. J. M. Dodson, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Mrs. E. Bass Clay, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan, Mrs. D. E. Canfield, Mrs. George Wolfe, Mrs. George Walstead, Mrs. Alex Schneider, Jr., Mrs. Otto Studer, Miss Madeline Tarpley and Miss Julia Mae Barnhart.

CARD OF THANKS

The Ways and Means committee of the Library association wishes to thank the following people and firms, whose donations made it possible for all the money received at the benefit bridge to be turned to the library fund: Pampa Bulck company, score cards; Hamlett-Mitchell company, paper cups; F. W. Woolworth and company, paper plates and dillies; M. System, wafers; Fatheree Drug store, pencils; Panhandle Lumber company, paper for table covers; Thompson Hardware cutting tops.

We especially desire to thank Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Allison of the Canary Sandwich shop for the lovely refreshment plate; Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell of Mitchell's Ready-to-Wear store, for the sixteen beautiful trophies; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Holt of the Hotel Adams for the use of the rooms and porter service; the Pampa Daily News for their generous write-ups; and the generous public for their overwhelming support of this worthy cause.

We regret we had to turn some away for lack of space. We hope the benefits will be continued in a series of large affairs in the larger homes, and in smaller affairs in the smaller homes. The library is a vital need in a city, making possible good reading matter for those unable to buy books and magazines, to say nothing of its value as reference for the schools and clubs of the town and surrounding territory.

Deputy Sheriff Is Warm Friend of New Konjola

"New Medicine Certainly Made Good in a Wonderful Way in My Case," He Declares

MR. THOMAS W. WARREN

Results are what count, and Konjola can be counted on for results, and results are what sufferers need and want. Don't hesitate about Konjola if stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels are out of order, or if rheumatism, neuritis or nervousness make life miserable. Now read the grateful words of Mr. Thomas W. Warren, deputy sheriff, Arkoma, Oklahoma, who says:

"This new medicine, Konjola, certainly made good in a wonderful way in my case, and I thought there was no medicine under the sun that could set my stomach and kidneys right. Three years ago I had a bad attack of the 'flu' and this left me in a terrible condition generally. Soon rheumatism set in, and my condition was alarming. Medicine after medicine failed, and the outlook was dark indeed.

CHURCHES

SALVATION ARMY Envoy W. O. Self, Georgia evangelist who is conducting revival meetings at the Salvation Army, preached a forceful sermon last night on "Hindrances to Revivals." In spite of bad weather a good crowd attended.

Revivals, according to the evangelist, are not miracles, but psychological results of means used. The envoy called upon all Christians to assist by offering a prayer for the success of the meetings. "The churches should love the Salvation Army," the Envoy said, "as 90 per cent of all the converts of the Army go to some other church."

Envoy Self's sermons are a happy combination of humor and sincerity. The meeting will continue throughout the week each night at the Army hall across from the Methodist church.

Church of Brethren

The Church of the Brethren (Dunker) to pay the deficit. Other laymen join campaign to pay its mission deficit of six years standing. Rev. Charles D. Bousack, general secretary of the general mission board releases news that the mission deficit is completely paid and there is a surplus to carry into the new year.

Since 1923 the Church of the Brethren (Dunker) has carried a deficit in its foreign and home mission program. At one time in 1929 the deficit amounted to nearly $1,000 per member. The church membership is 133,000. During 1929 two laymen, J. J. Oiler of the Landis Tool Co., Waynesboro, Penn., and J. K. Miller of the Martin Dry Goods Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, challenged the church to pay the deficit. Other laymen joined these men in paying half the amount needed.

The dead line for the congregations to complete their half was Feb. 28. By that date the deficit was raised with a balance of $25,000. The last three days of the year brought $44,000. The membership is 70 per cent rural. On the days when wheat was touching its lowest price for 16 years the largest missionary response was given. The Church of the Brethren has more than 100 missionaries on its fields in Indian, China, and Africa.

Capone Is Said to Be Hiding in Indiana Retreat

CHICAGO, March 19.—(AP)—Chicago wondered today what had become of its notorious bad man, Alphonse Capone. Rumors varied widely as to the whereabouts of the scar-faced overlord of gangland since his release from a Philadelphia jail Monday, where he had spent ten months for carrying concealed weapons.

The Herald and Examiner said it had definitely learned that Capone arrived yesterday by plane and immediately slipped into hiding with his lieutenants. After these "business conferences" are over, the newspaper said, Capone intends to leave Chicago—destination unknown. The Tribune said Capone was in one of his hideouts in Indiana.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DETECTIVE BONNIE DUNDEE, secretly a member of the Hamilton

Home Squad, accepts an urgent invitation from a former Yale classmate, DICK BERKELEY, to spend the weekend at Hillcrest, the millionaire Berkeley's estate.

His landlady, MRS. RHODES, tells him that Mrs. Berkeley, formerly a nobody, is trying to crash society, and that she has fortified herself with a social secretary, MRS. LETTIA LAMBERT, formerly a society leader in New York and Newport. It is also rumored that CLORINDA BERKELEY is engaged to be married to SEYMOUR CROSBY, New York guest in the Berkeley home. For reasons of his own Dundee has a strong professional curiosity to see and study Seymour Crosby.

At the Berkeley home he meets Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley, Clorinda, 15-year-old GIGI, who annoys her mother with her frank criticisms and unbridled comments, and gracious, well-bred Mrs. Lambert, the social secretary. But it is Seymour Crosby in whom the detective is vitally interested.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER II

Yes, it was a strange and rather terrible dinner party, Dundee decided before the fish course was removed. In the first place, the dining room was too stuffily grand for words. And the dinner service was overpowering. If this magnificence was trotted out for what Mrs. Berkeley called "a dull little family party," what in heaven's name would tomorrow night bring forth? Dundee wondered gloomily.

And what a queerly assorted group they were! The Benjamin Smiths overawed into silence, or brief little spurts of ghastly gaiety. Mrs. Berkeley had made it quite clear that her full duty to the undesirable Smiths was being discharged tonight; they would not have a chance to commit their faux pas on Saturday night when "a very interesting announcement may be expected."

Mr. George Berkeley, darkly somber but a perfect host except for the odd remark to the honor guest of the evening. Indeed, when his black eyes flashed a covert, measuring glance toward Seymour Crosby, the nature of his thoughts might easily be guessed by the tightening of his lips and the flaring of his nostrils.

Clorinda Berkeley, aloof, arrogant, apparently almost as determined to ignore her reputed fiance as was her father.

Mrs. Berkeley, voluble, effusive, ridiculous. "No, I don't like Mrs. Berkeley!" Dundee told himself fiercely, after she had subjected him to another barrage of questions, compliments and comments upon "bourgeois" Hamilton.

"Considering that the jolly old town made us so lousy rich, I think you might lay off of it, Abbie," Gigi suggested in her strident young voice.

"Gigi, I must insist that you show me more respect!" Mrs. Berkeley burst out, in one of the fishwife rages which Gigi engendered in her mother almost every time she opened her frank mouth.

"I've heard that every day of my life, when I wasn't away at camp or school," Gigi reminded her mother cheerfully. "For a change, suppose you show me some respect, Abbie! I honestly think parents should respect their children, and then take awfully good care that they themselves are worthy of their children's respect before they demand it."

"Gigi!" Mr. Berkeley commanded sternly, and the girl slumped dejectedly into her chair beside Dundee's.

But she was not crushed long. In a low, eager voice she challenged her dinner partner: "And I'll bet you agree with me, Mr. Dundee. You're the only thrillingly handsome man besides dad that I ever saw who looked as if he had sense."

"Thank you, Gigi," Dundee said gravely, using the nickname as she had commanded.

"You're Scotch-Irish, aren't you? We're English way back on dad's side, and 'pore white trash' on mother's. That wouldn't be bad at all—might be lots of fun, in fact—if Abbie weren't trying so hard to be 'society.' . . . Of course dad's a born gentleman. Isn't he precious? I'm nuts on dad, you know, and it makes Abbie simply wild because I can wind him around my little finger."

"I should think you'd be rather expert at winding any male around your most adorable little finger," Dundee assured her gallantly.

"Do you really think so?" Gigi was almost pathetically earnest. "It's terrible to be only 15, and not to know whether you have sex appeal. But I do think I'm going to have quite a lot, don't you? I've only tried it out on Arnold—that's the chauffeur, and he's disgustingly in love with Doris, the lady's maid—"

Dundee did not laugh. "I'm completely bowled over—if that helps!"

"Oh, it does, for I've been trying to sex-appeal you all evening," she assured him shamelessly. "You see, it's rather hard with Clorinda around. She's so simply gorgeous, and I'm just a sun-burned, leggy kid. . . . What do you think of Mr. Seymour Crosby?" she added suddenly, her wide, childish eyes of clear topaz blazing up at Dundee.

He had been dodging that very question, every time the detective part of his brain had presented it to him. Now he raised his blue eyes and studied Seymour Crosby for the third or fourth time. Clorinda's fiance being at the moment engaged in conversation with Mrs. Lambert. And suddenly it came to him, with a little shock, that Crosby and his fiance were enough alike to be too closely related for their marriage to be legal. Both were tall and slender and very dark as to hair and eyes. Both looked like thoroughbreds, the product of centuries of blue-blooded ancestors. But where Clorinda Berkeley was arrogant, Seymour Crosby merely had that indefinable air of pride in birth and position.

"If he were not so young, I believe I should characterize Mr. Crosby as a gentleman of the old school—and I mean that in the best sense," Dundee answered Gigi, in all sincerity. Looking at Seymour Crosby, those dark speculations upon the mystery with which he was connected seemed impertinent and absurd. Still—

"So young?" Gigi echoed. "He's 34! Dad's simply wild—"

They were interrupted by Mrs. Berkeley, who was calling: "Clorinda! . . . What is the child brooding over, to make her deaf? . . . Clorinda!"

Gigi giggled, and leaned close to Dundee. "Listen to Abbie! Doesn't she sound exactly like one of the bugle horns on a car? Ta-ta-ta-ta!"

"You little fiend!" Dundee chided her, but he laughed as hard as he could.

dared. And then he looked curiously at Clorinda Berkeley.

"I'm sorry, mother," she was saying stiffly. "What is it?"

"Your Aunt Lily has been trying for ages to attract your attention, darling," her mother soothed her.

"Oh, it's really nothing, Clorinda," Mrs. Benjamin Smith twittered apologetically. "Ben and I were just wondering if you knew John Maxwell is in town. You remember John Maxwell? . . . But how silly I am! If anyone in Hamilton remembers John Maxwell, it must be you, Clorinda. Everyone was sure you were going to marry him—"

"Don't be an idiot, Lily!" Mrs. Berkeley interrupted sharply, with a venomous glance at her sister-in-law. "Clorinda was never engaged to John Maxwell. It was simply one of those boy-and-girl crushes, wasn't it, Clorinda darling?"

"It was not!" Clorinda said clearly, curiously, her nostrils quivering and her black eyes blazing briefly upon her mother.

It was Mrs. Lambert's exquisite tact which lifted the dinner party out of its nightmarish quality.

"Isn't she precious?" Gigi whispered softly to Dundee. "I simply adore her. When she first came I tried to be exactly like her, but of course I'm really not a lady and never can be one, so I was no go, and Tish herself told me to go right on being myself. She says that in real society you can be as frank and eccentric as you want to be, specially if you're a member of the younger generation, and it's just considered a swell line."

"Do you want to go into 'society'?" Dundee led her on.

"I suppose I have to," Gigi replied gloomily. "For years they've been shooting the works at me—in ritzy schools and camps. I can ride and shoot and swim and hunt, play tennis and golf, but—I can't spit a curve in the wind," she added with mock grief.

"Say, would you dope it out that Clorinda and Mr. Crosby are in love with each other? They don't look it, though Mr. Crosby is the most chivalrous-acting thing I ever saw—and if there's one of those electric currents vibrating between them, like you read about in novels, I can't feel it!"

To himself Dundee admitted: "Neither can I," but Mrs. Benjamin Smith's tactless remark explained at least half of the situation. And, undoubtedly, the Berkeley millions explained Seymour Crosby's conduct quite fully. And Dundee was sorry, for he could not help liking that tall, slim, exquisite with the sad, gentle, brown eyes. Gentle? That might be a strange word to apply to Seymour Crosby, if certain whispered things were true. . . .

The butler, at an imperious signal from his mistress, was advancing from the sideboard, with the napkin-wrapped champagne bottle in his hands, when Dundee, to his surprise, saw George Berkeley countermand his wife's order by a stern and unmistakable gesture. Wickett hesitated and involuntarily looked toward Mrs. Lambert for guidance. Dundee switched puzzled blue eyes to the social secretary and saw her move her silver-crowned head slightly in the negative. Perhaps Mrs. Berkeley had failed to see her husband's gesture; at any rate, it was upon poor Mrs. Lambert that she opened the vials of her easy wrath.

"Obey me instantly, Wickett! Fill up the champagne glasses all around. And kindly remember in future that I, and not Mrs. Lambert, am mistress in this house! . . . Of course I realize, dear Mrs. Lambert, that it may be natural for Wickett to forget that you are no longer his employer, but I really must ask you not to forget again!"

"Fill mine to the brim, Wickett!" young Dick Berkeley cried, his voice reckless with disgust.

"Oh, I hate us all!" Gigi whispered fiercely to Dundee. "How mother dares speak like that to Mrs. Lambert! I know the poor darling would leave in a minute if she weren't so poverty-poor—And Wickett would walk right out, too, if it weren't that he adores Tish. He was her butler for years and years before she lost her money, you know. . . . Oh, this is a terrible party, and something tells me it's going to be worse before it's over!"

And Bonnie Dundee silently agreed with her.

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying—not afterward when it is too late.

ON THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. Here are three reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) The Ford charges for financing are low.

(3) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. The car leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices. None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used-car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item—value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

Banker at Fort Worth Succumbs to Heart Trouble

FORT WORTH, March 19.—(AP)—Major K. M. Van Zandt, 93, died today at his home here. Death came from heart trouble.

Up to his last illness, which began a week ago last Thursday, he had been active president of the Fort Worth National bank since its organization 56 years ago. He came to Texas from Tennessee in 1839, the family settling in Harrison county.

He was former commander of the United Confederate veterans.

His father, Isaac Van Zandt, was prominent in negotiating for the annexation of Texas and died at the age of 34 while a candidate for governor of Texas.

When Major Van Zandt first came to Fort Worth in 1865 he engaged in the mercantile business.

Prior to his last illness, Major Van Zandt enjoyed good health during practically all his life. He spent six hours each day at the bank and officials of the Fort Worth National said "you could almost set your watch by watching him go to and from work."

Earl of Balfour Dies Early Today

WOKING, SURREY, England, March 19.—(AP)—The Earl of Balfour, veteran British statesman, died here at 8:45 a. m. today in a room at the home of his brother, the Honorable Gerald Balfour. A window at his bedside overlooked one of the most beautiful scenes in Surrey.

The end came peacefully to the statesman, who was in his 82nd year. He had been ill for a long time. He was never able to return to his home at Whittingehame, Prestonkirk, East Lothian.

From the time he entered parliament in 1874 until the closing years of his life he figured as an important factor in British politics. He visited America as head of the British commission in 1917 and was a member of the British delegation to the Washington arms conference in 1922.

He was most famous perhaps for the so-called Balfour note in which Great Britain renounced all post war claims in continental Europe, both from her allies and Germany, beyond what was needed to pay her own debts in America, and by the Balfour declaration of British policy in Palestine, which set that country aside as a home for repatriated Jews.

PRIMO DE RIVERA HONORED

MADRID, March 19.—(AP)—Passing of the funeral cortege of General Miguel Primo De Rivera, former dictator of Spain, through the streets of Madrid to San Isidro cemetery this forenoon was the occasion for a most enthusiastic royalist demonstration. It was in marked contrast to the temper of crowds which recently have shown republican sympathies.

Martin Defeats Conger in Thousand Yard Thriller

NEW YORK, March 19.—(AP)—Dr. Paul Martin, Swiss Olympic ace, and Ray Conger of the Illinois A. C. can beat each other at their favorite distances but meet trouble when they invade the other's domain.

Martin, defeated in a mile race a week ago, came back last night in the National A. A. U. indoor championships last night to conquer Conger at 1,000 yards. Martin had to set a new record of 2:12 6-10 to do it, but he left the Illinois flyer three yards behind in a great finish.

Herman Brix, Los Angeles A. C. shot putter, set a new world record with the 16-pound iron ball, 51 feet, 2 1-2 inches.

The accepted world's indoor record of 8-6-10 seconds for the 70-yard high hurdles, beaten earlier in the season, was equalled twice last night. Monty Wells of the Boston A. A. tied it in winning his heat, then Lee Sentman, Illinois star, repeated the time in winning the final.

Hundred Hurt in Riot

RANGOON, Burma, March 19.—(AP)—More than 100 persons were injured today at a disturbance outside the courtroom where J. N. Seragutta, mayor of Calcutta, was being tried for sedition growing out of utterances made in support of Mahatma Gandhi's campaign of civil disobedience.

Taft Favored Pro Law

WASHINGTON, March 19.—(AP)—The late William Howard Taft was quoted today at the house judiciary committee's prohibition hearing as having said in November, 1923, that the results of prohibition were "glorious" and that he felt it would be possible to achieve satisfactory results.

New Defense Bill Passed in Germany

BERLIN, March 18.—(AP)—The Reichstag today adopted the new law for the protection of the republic by a vote of 265 to 150.

The law supersedes the old defense law which went out of operation on July 22, 1929.

Under the old law the former Kaiser was specifically forbidden to re-enter Germany. The new law does not contain this provision, and, while under it the Kaiser theoretically would be free to return, nobody, not even the monarchists, considers even the possibility of his return.
