OIL MAN FACED CHARGE BEFORE

Conspiracy Case Gave Acquittal—Fall Was Involved

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—A jury composed of nine men and three women was selected today to try Edward L. Doheny, oil operator, on the charge that he gave Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, a $100,000 bribe for awarding a lease to the Elk Hills naval oil reserve to a Doheny company.

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—Falling to secure a jury to try Edward L. Doheny, millionaire oil man, on a charge of bribing Albert B. Fall, from a panel of 26, Justice William Hitz today summoned another panel.

Eleven remained in the jury box tentatively. The government had excused six and the defense five, and four challenges remained to the government and five to the defense. Two veniremen had been excused for cause.

At the beginning of the trial today Justice Hitz overruled a plea by Doheny's counsel that placing him on trial on the bribery charge would constitute double jeopardy. They contended that the matter of the $100,000 that Doheny gave Fall had been disposed of in a previous trial in which Doheny and Fall were charged with conspiracy and were acquitted.

Doheny's attorneys today had made no move to have the oil man tried before another judge, despite their employer's shout of "It's that damn judge" after Fall had been convicted last October of receiving the bribe. Justice Hitz was not in the courtroom at the time, and court was not in session.

Doheny and Fall were acquitted of a charge of conspiring to defraud the government of the Elk Hills oil naval reserve, and the 73-year-old defendant maintained the question of his giving $100,000 to Fall in 1921 already had been decided by the former jury. The government charges Doheny gave Fall the bribe for a lease to the reserve.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, warmer in southwest portion tonight; Thursday partly cloudy, colder in north and east central portions.

DEL MONTE, Calif. (AP)—The seat of a motorcycle on a steep hill is more adapted to Colonel Lindbergh than the hurricane deck of a polo pony. Lack of wind prevented a flight in a glider, so he borrowed a traffic cop's wheel and did some plain and fancy speeding, without any such intimations of the Prince of Wales as accompanied his trial at horseanship.

EWING ASKS FOR CHARGE TO BE PROBED

(Editor's Note—Printed below is another installment of the talk District Judge W. R. Ewing made to the grand jury now in session. Yesterday's portion discussed the prohibition law with regard to the difficulty of enforcement but the necessity thereof; today's installment continues that line of thought.)

I understand the Pampa Law and Order club charges there is an organized liquor ring in Gray county, and that speakeasies are being permitted to run without molestation in Pampa.

I interpret this charge to mean that the officers of the sheriff's and police department, or some of them, are in league with the bootleg element, and permitting certain favored bootleggers who pay off to operate unmolested. This is a serious charge, and it is to be hoped, if the charges are true, that the Law and Order club has in hand sufficient competent evidence to establish their charges, and if they have, it is their duty to lay the same before the grand jury; but if that is not done, the charge itself, coming from the source it does, is sufficient to put this grand jury on inquiry, and make the most rigid investigation. You should use every means in your power and leave nothing undone to ascertain the truth of the charges; and if the charges are established, the guilty, whoever he or they may be, high or low, should pay the full penalty of the law.

I am not charging any officer with corruption or a dereliction of duty. I have learned long ago to not criticize or pass judgment until I know the facts, and not to make accusations until I am in possession of competent proof to establish the charge. One should never accuse, criticize, condemn or pass judgment upon another upon mere rumor and suspicion. Rumor, suspicion, and hearsay have no evidentiary force whatever, and are not admissible in any court. One may feel morally certain that another person is guilty of corruption and crime, and as a matter of fact may be correct; but one should never make an accusation unless he is in position to establish his charge by legal and competent evidence if called upon to do so.

But I do say, if there is an organized liquor ring and open joints in Gray county, one of two things is bound to be true, that is, the officers are either corrupt or are woefully incompetent and in either event are not worthy of the confidence and support of the people; and an outraged citizenship should arise in all its might and remove them as soon as possible.

The people alone are responsible for the kind of officers they elect.

Search and Seizure
The search and seizure law, sometimes referred to as Ferguson's pride, was passed primarily for the purpose of putting a curb on the officers in searching for intoxicating liquors—a protection to the bootlegger; if it protected only the bootlegger, it would not be so bad, but unfortunately it applies to all classes of criminals. The law is invoked in many classes of cases for many purposes that its authors never intended or dreamed of.

It is the consensus of opinion of those best informed on the subject that there is in this state no one thing responsible for as much miscarriage of justice as what is commonly called the rule of evidence known as the search and seizure act. As the law now stands it provides an effective and secure bulwark of safety to many of the criminals of this state.

Many cases are being tried in this state daily in which the sole defense is not that the defendant is innocent, but that the evidence, although clear and convincing, under the provisions of this law cannot be admitted. Thus the vilest criminals of the country stand in the shadow of the courthouse with unmistakable evidence of their guilt, and yet this evidence cannot be admitted on account of this

HOUSE HEARING LETTERS READ

Mrs. Ford Says This Nation Prospers Under Plan

AMARILLO, March 12. (AP)—The executive board of the Women's Missionary society of the Southern Methodist Episcopal church, meeting here in advance of the opening of the society's annual convention Thursday, today wired encouragement to Mrs. Henry W. Peabody in her discussion on prohibition before congress.

The message read: "The women's missionary council reaffirm their conviction of the validity of the Eighteenth amendment. They believe there should be no modification of the Volstead act in favor of wine and beer. They certify their personal allegiance to the constitution of the United States and attest their personal observance of the law. Twenty thousand women from 22 states appeal to congressmen and senators to vote against any modification of the law and to uphold the law as it now stands."

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—More than a score of prominent club and society women from all sections of the country were mustered to the defense of the prohibition laws today by dry leaders presenting testimony before the house judiciary committee in opposition to the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment.

They came with prepared statements intended to show a cross section of the opinion of American womanhood. All said the majority of their sex was in favor of the dry laws. Brief statements from Mrs. Henry Ford and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison were submitted.

Under the leadership, for the day, of Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Beverly, Mass., chairman of the woman's national committee for law enforcement, the claim was presented that 12,000,000 women favor a continuance of prohibition.

A prominent witness was Mrs. John F. Sippel of Baltimore, president of the

(See PROHIBITION, Page 8)

This shameful condition applies to every crime committed, and in a large per cent of the cases the sole defense is that the evidence, although undeniably a fact, is not admissible against the guilt of the defendant, and, therefore, the court is compelled to release guilty defendants to further pursue the avenues of crime protected and safeguarded by the provisions of this law. It is thus apparent that the law operates to harass, embarrass, hinder and deter the officers in apprehending criminals, and at the same time furnishes a perfect screen of protection to the criminals in all classes of crime; and especially in liquor cases is this law a mill stone about the officers' neck; and even if the officer is armed with a search warrant they are such a technical instrument they are frequently defective, and the same as no warrant at all. The application for a search warrant, its execution and return are the most technical instruments known to the law. It is the one thing in the law that the courts have been inclined to dismiss on technical grounds, while the general tendency of the courts is to do away with technicalities.

Law should be passed for the protection of society, and not for the protection of the criminals, and when a

AUDITORIUM BIDS TO BE OPENED MARCH 28

The H. V. Robertson company of Amarillo yesterday afternoon was given the contract by the city commission to make the annual audit of the records. This company has audited the books for the last two years.

The commission at March 28 as the date on which bids for construction of the city hall-auditorium will be opened, and the contract probably let. The bids will be opened at 10 a. m. A turn-key contract will be let. Since the jail and furniture will likely cost $15,000, the general contract cannot go far beyond $85,000. The total voted for the purpose is now available.

The city is faced with the fact that the state highway commission demands a 100-foot right-of-way on highway 33 from the west city limits to Hobart street. The city's proposal to pave the entire width of the present street was not acceptable, it has been learned.

McLean Legion Officers Installed by Pampa Members

The Andrew Floyd Post at McLean met Tuesday night, when a delegation from Pampa present installed the newly elected officers of the McLean post. C. S. Doolen was made commander, T. W. Gilstrap, vice commander, L. V. Lonsdale, adjutant, Ed Webbs, finance officer, and Homer Abbott, sergeant-at-arms.

J. A. Pearson of Pampa, who installed the officers, was accompanied by Artie C. Sallor, John Bradley, and W. C. DeCordova.

Following the installation of officers Wm. Doolen took charge of the meeting. It was voted that the post solicit the entire city of McLean to purchase uniform flags in the business district for special occasions. The post also voted to donate a flag to each rural school in the McLean trade territory. The entire membership was appointed to serve on this committee. A finance committee was appointed to look after the finances of the post. A membership committee was appointed to enlist all eligible men in the near future in order that post can function more effectively. A publicity committee also was appointed.

After the business session all enjoyed a buffet luncheon, which was prepared by the Legion members. Since the Boy Scouts were meeting in the same building Tuesday night, the Legion invited the entire Boy Scout troop to enjoy the luncheon.

ALLRED HITS WALL STREET OWNED STORES

Personal Opportunity Is Being Stifled, He Declares

SAYS BARGAINS ARE NOT REAL

Fight Is Not Aimed at Men Who Boost and Invest

Scorchingly attacking Wall Street chain stores for what he termed unfair competition, corrupt methods, community disloyalty and stifling of individual opportunity, James Allred of Wichita Falls spoke last night to an audience of about 300 in the Central auditorium.

He was introduced by Sam Fenberg in the absence of Judge Newton P. Willis, who, it was announced, was detained elsewhere by business. Through a misunderstanding, the American Legion band did not play as announced. Mr. Riggs, a representative of W. K. Henderson of Shreveport and radio station KWEE, was introduced. He will participate in another meeting of the Merchant Minute Men at B. C. D. rooms this evening at 8:15 p. m. It was announced by Wade Duncan, president.

Mr. Allred prefaced his remarks by saying that he found no fault with business men who by their skill and residence in a territory manage to build up a firm of several stores, and who invest their money in Texas instead of Wall Street. He said he had no quarrel with those whose intention was to build greater communities and a greater state.

He said he was speaking of stores which send their daily balances eastward, whose managers do not own their homes, and whose clerks are employed at starvation wages. These stores, he claimed, crippled business in Wichita Falls, his home town, and inspired his speaking tour. He said the stores of which he spoke dodged taxes, made sworn but erroneous statements as to their stocks and brought all their insurance elsewhere. He declared the right and opportunity of young men to rise to success in their own businesses were seriously menaced, and that giant mergers had tended to create monopolies and make a "nation of hirelings." Independent merchants, he added, were on the verge of bankruptcy and hundreds of traveling men were out of work.

The speaker read comparative tax payments of nationally owned and independent stores, showing the latter paid more taxes in many Texas counties although owning less property and smaller stocks. Then he turned to the question of "bargains." He denied that chain stores save the shoppers money, although, he said, goods were sometimes sold below cost as an inducement to get customers into the stores. He carried an exhibit of grocery items to illustrate what he termed a conspiracy of manufacturers in favor of large buyers. He showed boxes of articles bought in independent stores for 25 cents and similar boxes bought for a few cents less in nationally owned stores. The boxes varied several ounces in size, those purchased at the independent stores being the larger.

He closed his address by an appeal to those present to "not boycott the chain stores—just don't trade with them." He attributed his relatively small audience to the fact that prosperous Pampa had not felt an economic crisis. Closing the meeting, chairman Sam Fenberg asked the Minute Men to meet again tonight, and he added that the organization was "going to drive the Wall Street stores out of Pampa." He said today that Mr. Allred would probably be brought back to Pampa for another meeting soon.

Yes, It Removes Varnish—And So Does Moonshine

EVANSTON, Ill., March 12. (AP)—William Harper, referring to the gallon jug found in the back of his car when stopped by Evanston police yesterday said:

"Varnish remover!" Squad members after taking a sniff one after the other agreed: "Smells like varnish remover!" But just to make sure they took him to the station where he produced a paint brush and applied some of the liquid to the sergeant's desk. The varnish immediately shriveled up, prompting the sergeant to assert:

"Acts like varnish remover!" But just to make doubly sure, Captain Charles Paasch, who has charge of liquor cases, was called in. He wet his finger with the liquid, tested it gingerly and announced: "It is varnish remover, and a very good grade—but it is also moonshine, a very poor grade." Harper was locked up.

Many Excuses in Divorce Actions Heard by Judge

Grounds for divorce—infidelity, drunkenness, cruelty, incompatibility, snoring, bad cooking—are being heard by Judge W. R. Ewing this week, but none of them, he said, is quite as unusual as the reasons why one woman in a nearby county applied for a divorce.

"Upon what grounds do you ask for a divorce?" Judge Ewing asked.

"Why the courthouse grounds, of course," the indignant woman answered.

Judge Ewing says that when some heckled, hen-pecked husband applies for a divorce from his negligent housewife-cook on coffee grounds the classic example in grounds for divorce will be reached.

The following divorce suits were dismissed by Judge Ewing yesterday on plea of either the defendant or the plaintiff: M. W. Southall vs. Jessie B. Southall; Eunice Beaumont vs. John R. Beaumont; J. H. Fry vs. Ruth May Fry; Marjorie Jones vs. A. T. Jones. Divorces were granted the following: Ora Reed vs. Joseph Reed; E. L. Thomason vs. Edna Thomason; Ira McLaurin vs. W. E. McLaurin; Roma McLeran vs. Donald McLeran, with custody of child; Naoma Curtis vs. W. H. Curtis; Marie Davis vs. W. D. Davis; Nancy Pilcher vs. Irvin E. Pilcher; Pauline Thurman vs. D. W. Thurman; Grace Palmer vs. E. A. Palmer; Ray Spencer vs. Hattie Spencer; Geneva Clark vs. Wm. P. Clark; Audra Martin vs. C. R. Martin.

William Huddleston Is Victim in LeFors Accident

HE WAS WELDING PIPELINE COLLAR

Funeral to Be Held at Local Church Thursday

A sand bank that caved in on William Huddleston, 23, while he was welding a leak in a pipeline collar at the bottom of a four-foot ditch, suffocated him before fellow workers could remove the 300 pounds of sand that buried his body yesterday afternoon.

Huddleston was dead when his body was rescued from the ditch about 10 minutes after the cave-in, although artificial respiration was employed in trying to bring him back to life. The accident occurred at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon about 50 feet from LeFors Petroleum company's No. 2 well in the city limits of LeFors.

Huddleston, an acetylene welder of LeFors, had lived in this community for the last three years. He is survived by his wife, and several half-brothers. He had been married two years. G. C. Malone Funeral home has charge of the arrangements.

Two men working near the scene of the cave-in did not see the bank slip but estimated they discovered the accident about three minutes after it happened.

Burial will be in Duncan, Okla., former home of Mr. Huddleston.

STINNETT, March 12. (AP)—Suit for $378,217.47 was filed in district court here today against W. L. Pearson and company, Houston contractors, by the Hutchinson county commissioners.

Pageant Presented by Pampa Cast Cordially Received at Lubbock

The Challenge of the Cross, a pageant, presented here with marked success on two occasions last fall by a group of women of the local Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. F. Lee Hill, was enacted again by the original cast last Sunday evening before an appreciative audience at the First Methodist church of Lubbock, as the principal feature of a ceremony in which a large tapestry recently presented the church by the Mary Helm auxiliary was unveiled and dedicated.

An impressive pageant depicting Christianity's challenge to the world, the presentation was made doubly impressive by the beautiful costuming and the lighting effects, which were similar to those employed in the performance here. The notes of seven women to whom the symbolical cross was given in the course of the pageant, were: Mrs. Tom W. Brabham, who represented the church; Mrs. F. Lee Hill, Mrs. H. G. Twiford, Mrs. Raymond Harrah, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mrs. R. B. Fisher, and Miss Dorothy Dodd. A violin prelude to the pageant was played by LaVerne Twiford, whose accompaniment was played by his mother, Mrs. H. G. Twiford.

The painting unveiled in the ceremony was conceived by Mrs. Carl Slaton, a sister of Mrs. F. Lee Hill, and was executed by Mrs. W. T. Millam. Both artists were given recognition at the unveiling of the work. The names of hundreds of members of the congregation of the Lubbock church, the Sunday school, the Mary Helm auxiliary, and of the bishops of the Methodist church, South, as well as the roll of the church members who have died, were painted finely into the symbolic scene.

Accompanying the cast to Lubbock were: Mrs. C. C. Dodd, Miss Ruth Reynolds, Miss Lella Johnson, R. B. Fisher, and LaVerne Twiford. A tea was given on Saturday afternoon preceding the ceremony, honoring the women of the party, with members of the Mary Helm auxiliary as hostesses, and on Sunday a luncheon was given for the entire group from Pampa, followed by a tour of Lubbock.

law becomes a menace to society, and at the same time protection to criminals, it should be wiped from the statute books.

The injunction is a very effective weapon against the operator of a liquor joint. Article 4664, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes provides as follows:

"Any hotel, rooming house or boarding house, country club, garage, rent car stand or other place to which the public commonly resort for board or lodging or commonly congregate for business or pleasure, where intoxicating liquors are kept, possessed, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or to which persons resort in assembling for the purpose of drinking intoxicating liquor, or where intoxicating liquors are furnished to minors or to students of any educational institution, or where persons resort for the purpose of gambling, or for the purpose of prostitution, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance. Any person who knowingly maintains or assists in maintaining such a place is guilty of maintaining a nuisance." And Article 4666, same statute, provides that: "Whenever the Attorney General or the district or county attorney has reliable information that such a nuisance exists, either of them shall file suit in the name of the state in the county where the nuisance is alleged to exist against whoever maintains such nuisance to abate and enjoin the same. And if the allegations in the petition be sustained, then judgment will be rendered abating said nuisance and enjoining the defendants from maintaining the same, and ordering that said house to be closed for one year from the date of said judgment unless the defendant make bond payable to the State of Texas in the penal sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge trying the case (note the bond is to be approved by the judge) conditioned that the acts prohibited shall not be done or permitted to be done."

This is a very effective law against the liquor joints if enforced. The rules of evidence in this character of proceeding are entirely different than in criminal actions. It does not take near the quantum of proof. Among other things evidence of the general reputation of the house is admissible to prove the existence of the nuisance, and if the injunction is violated the bond is not only forfeited, but the defendant is cited for contempt of court, and in contempt proceedings he cannot appeal to a jury, but must deal direct with the court. Anyone running a liquor joint, can, under this statute be put to so much trouble and expense by successive injunction suits, that he cannot afford to do business; and furthermore, such proceedings would not be a bar to criminal prosecution for the same offense.

Pool Halls

"My attention has been called to the operation of pool halls in Pampa, and it is my duty to call same to your attention. For years pool halls were a licensed business and could be run lawfully in this state, but they became such incubators of crime, and hotbeds of vice, the Legislature finally passed laws prohibiting their operation. The term "pool hall" is defined by statute to be any room, hall, building or part thereof in which are exhibited for hire, revenue, fees or gain of any kind, any pool or billiard table or stand or structure of any kind or character on which may be played pool or billiards, with balls, cues or pins or any similar device. Any such table, stand or structure of any kind used or exhibited in connection where goods, wares or merchandise or other things of value are sold or given away, or where or upon which any money or thing of value is paid or exchanged, shall be regarded as a place where is exhibited the same for hire, revenue or gain. You see the definition of a pool hall includes all possible conditions under which pool and billiards may be played, except in private homes and bona fide clubs where no fees of any kind are charged, and where no merchandise or other thing of value is sold or given away. If the operators of the pool halls in Pampa charge any kind of fee, directly or indirectly, for the playing, or if any kind of merchandise is sold or given away, in the room where the games are played, he is guilty of violating the law and is subject to prosecution; and if any kind of betting or gambling is permitted, and betting table fees, that is, the loser of the game pays for the game, constitute gambling within the meaning of the law; then the proprietor of the hall is guilty of running a gambling house which is a felony, a penitentiary offense. The fact that a pool hall may be incorporated and acting under charter from the State as a Club of some kind (which is usually camouflage) is no defense; if, as a matter of fact, they are doing the thing prohibited by law. The law does not condemn the games of pool and billiards; but the pool halls. Pool tables are of ten found in Y. M. C. A.'s; American Legion Halls, and private homes, where are a great many offenses worse than those committed.

The proprietors of pool halls are not only subject to criminal prosecution, but the state has another effective weapon by way of injunction. Pool halls, along with bawdy houses and liquor joints, are declared by law to be a public nuisance, and may be closed by injunction at the suit of the state or any citizen. Article 4668, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, provides that: "The Attorney General of this State, or any district or county attorney, or any citizen of any county in which any pool hall is maintained, may, either in term time or vacation, apply to the district judge of the district in which is located the place where such pool hall is maintained, or to any district judge in Travis County, for an injunction to prohibit the operation and maintenance of any such pool hall. Such judge upon the presentation of a petition for such injunction shall issue a temporary injunction or restraining order, and, if upon final hearing thereof the fact be shown that the defendant is guilty of keeping, maintaining or operating a pool hall, or contemplating such act, the court before which the case is tried shall grant a permanent injunction against such party as prayed for in the petition."

There is no way a pool hall can be operated legally in this State. If the people do not want pool halls they have an effective remedy.

Suspended Sentence Law

The suspended sentence law is an incubator of crime. It frequently makes criminals out of young men who, but for this law, would not take the chance. It is merely another cloak of protection that is thrown around the criminal. The law is noble in purpose, but unmercifully abused. Let the officers catch a criminal for the first time, and the slicked-tongued lawyer, with tears in his eyes, will tell the jury what a good boy he has been, and what it means to his family, and that this was his first offense—when, perhaps, he had committed numerous offenses, and pleads for one more chance for the offender. The jury with sympathetic heart takes the whole bait, hook and all, and turns the offender loose on the public with a suspended sentence, a smoother crook than ever. It may be all right to give a man a chance, who, in a moment of passion commits wrong, but to turn the burglar or thief loose who deliberately robs you while you are asleep, is not only folly, but a crime against society next to the burglary itself. The first duty of the jury, after the guilt of the accused is established, is to see that society is protected. This done, any good they can do for the criminal is noble.

How is society protected, or what good does it do a fly-by-night criminal who walks out of the courthouse with a suspended sentence, a free man, under no compulsion to report to the court or any officer. He may go when or where he pleases. True, the law requires that the court take his personal recognizance (bond) conditioned that he will not be convicted of another felony during the time for which his sentence is suspended, but the recognizance in most cases is a farce, a mere empty form, and means nothing. I would not advocate a repeal of the suspended sentence law, but it needs some working over. The trouble is not so much with the law as with juries, who, through maudlin sentiment turn too many criminals loose.

GAMBLING

I have been requested to call your attention to the offense of gaming, commonly known as gambling. Gambling in some form or other has gone on from time immemorial, from "time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary," and will continue to go on. One might as well try to stop the wind from blowing as to stop gambling. It can't be done. But it can be suppressed and kept under cover. If it were not for our laws against gambling, and the act they are enforced as well as they are, we would have here in Pampa today the open gambling div, with all its attendant evil influence. There are a great many offenses worse than gambling, but I know of nothing that leads to more direful consequences than unrestrained gambling. There are numerous ways, however, one may bet and wager without violating any law. It is only those methods of gambling denounced by statute that concerns you, as grand jurors. Such as gambling with cards, dice, dominoes, etc., and there are circumstances under which one may gamble with cards without violating the law.

It is sometimes hard for youth, and even for old age, to see the harm in gambling. There is a delicious ecstasy in money made without work. The professional gambler is a gentleman of leisure, and a cancerous growth on society. Like the lilies of the field, "he toils not neither does he spin," but, "Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Without discussing the moral issues involved in gambling, there are a few things which should be enough to settle the question. Nobody is willing to put a gambler in a position of trust. Let a firm learn that the bookkeeper spends his money at poker, and he will soon be looking for a new job. Gambling places integrity under suspicion. A young man may be capable, energetic and alert, but if he is addicted to gambling nobody wants to employ him. He is without a market value. He is on the slag-dump. The chances, however, are that if he gambles, the young man is not likely to be either capable, energetic or alert. Industrious habits rot out under the influence of the gaming passion.

The nation that sanctions the lottery, stagnates. Panama is a notorious example.

Gambling, as most all crime, is a scheme to live without work. There is no such thing as a decent life without honest toil. It was not a curse, but a blessing the Master pronounced when he said: "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread."

Driving Automobile While Intoxicated
The automobile is a magnificent invention, but at the same time it is an extremely deadly weapon. A moving automobile guided by a careless or intoxicated person can be as dangerous as a razor in the hands of a maniac. Boose and gasoline is a dangerous combination, and there can be no greater menace to the safety of the people than an automobile in the hands of a drunken driver.

It is a felony to drive an automobile on any street or public highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. It is a law that is frequently violated, and the violation of no law, deserves a more careful and rigid investigation at your hands.

Conclusion

The citizenship of Gray County, as a whole, are a high class, law abiding people, and I doubt if one can find in the State of Texas a county that has as large oil and gas fields, carbon black plants, and their allied industries; that has as little crime as this county; especially major crime. Of course we have the bootlegger, thief, burglar and numerous other offenders, the fly-by-night element that follows every oil field. But for an oil field county, there has been a remarkable absence of major offenses, such as murder and hijacking.

The law can be enforced. We must never cease vigilance. The fight against crime is a constant warfare. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Every citizen has the right and it is his duty to look to the law for protection; but he has no right to violate the law, regardless of whether it be good or bad; and he should do all within his power to see that it is respected and enforced; and, so help me God, as long as I remain in office, I shall endeavor, regardless of whether it be popular or not, to denounce every character of crime and bend all my feeble efforts to enforce the laws of our country.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.

SENATORS ARE GLUM—YOUNG BLOOD NEEDED

BY RALPH WHEATLEY (Associated Press Staff Writer) BILOXI, Miss., March 12. (AP)—About the only bright thing around the training camp of the Washington Senators is the sun overhead.

Goose Goslin has refused to join his teammates because Clark Griffith will not open his money pots wide enough to suit him. And if Goslin does not take his place on the team the question remains unanswered as to who can pound out the slashing hits and home runs around which a team can rally.

The mainstays of the team have passed the crest of their careers. Great in their day, but waning now, is the story of Sam Rice, Joe Judge, Oswald Bluege, and Harold Ruel.

New blood of youngsters is needed to start the Senators back on the limb toward the pennant. Goose Goslin has been counted on heavily to inspire the new men to hit and play ball. It was felt that after his two miserable years, he was due to revive his old brilliance and set the stride for the whole team.

Manager Walter Johnson is spending most of his time trying to develop some hitters from among his thin squad of 28. Emile (Red) Barnes can field as well as Goslin ever could. Barnes is being groomed for Goslin's place. If Red should get handy with the stick the Goose could stay in his backyard without much loss to the Senators.

From a defensive fielding standpoint there is no better team in the league than the Washington outfit. There are prospects of developing sufficient pitching material to meet demands. On the mound, Johnson expects Fred Marberry to carry the burden with strong support from Sam Jones, Irving Hadley, and Adolph Liska. He has his eye on Carlos Moore, Lloyd Brown, and Bob Burke in the hope they will develop into campaigning twirlers. If he should be favored with such luck, his pitchers would be over. Behind the bat, Ruel no doubt will be leading man with Bennett Tate first alternate.

The infield probably will find Bluege back at his old third sack with his crippled knee almost as good as ever. Joe Judge no doubt will be on first as usual with Myer at second. Joe Cronin probably will be sent back to shortstop despite his 65 errors of last season because he shows promise as a hitter. Out in the outfield the two Sams, Rice and West, probably will be waiting either for Goslin or Barnes to fill the field as first string men.

Johnson is going ahead shaping his team on the theory that one ball player, more or less, does not make or break a ball team. Under this theory, Roy Spencer, catcher, of Augusta, Ga., was suspended when he failed to report on time. One thing Johnson made clear, and that was that he was thru as an active ball player as much as he would like to go back.

Chase and Taylor Angry—They Are to Wrestle Main Event Thursday

The four wrestlers who will furnish spills for the crowd at the Pia-More Thursday night were in a seething fury this morning. London was mad as a hornet because his name was under the Bulgarian Demon's picture. The Demon was just as mad as London for the same reason.

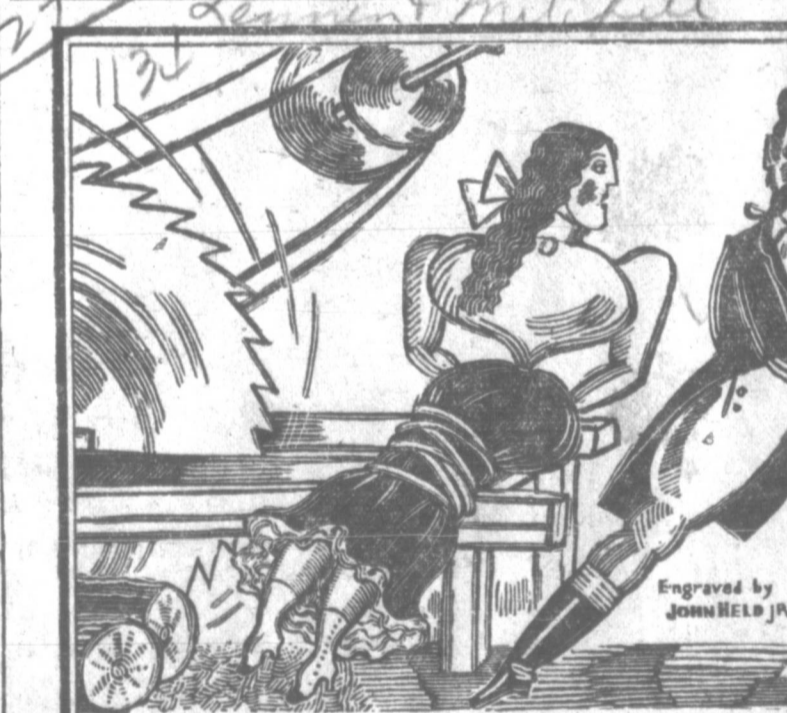

Both Leo Chase and Tiger Taylor were griping because the paper said yesterday they are going to wrestle in the 20-minute match, when as a matter of fact they will furnish the main event in three falls to a positive finish. "It's enough to make anybody mad," said Tiger and London said, "ditto." The Demon and London will tangle in the semi-windup.

Leo Chase has been getting himself in shape for Taylor for the last month. "The minute I saw that punk I wanted to wrestle him," Leo said. It makes Leo mad because the Tiger claims to be a lady-killer, a sheik. Tiger said that when he was out in Hollywood recently he had 39 proposals of marriage from the movie stars. "Where-ever I went," said Tiger. "I took along two or three starving boxers to keep the women from piling on to me." Leo holds in scorching contempt the spats that Tiger affects. Leo, a veteran of strangling, ear-twisting, finger-hold days, bemoans that the younger wrestlers are "mostly sheiks with perfumed hair and silk underwear."

The Demon, according to a report from Amarillo where he is hanging out, has just returned from Bulgaria. He is best remembered in Tack Town for his leaping ability which he displayed against Cal Farley about five years ago. He dives clear across the mat, straight as an arrow, and attempts to knock his opponent out of the ring. His downfall then was a surprising ignorance of toe-holds, and London is likely to capitalize on this. However since then the Demon has learned a plenty. He's going to beat London at his own game of slugging and gouging, he declares. Otis Clingman, who will wrestle the Demon Friday night in Amarillo, says that the London-Demon match is one of the best to be seen because the Demon is the only wrestler who will be as rough as London.

SHIRES SAYS LITTLE—HOLDS FOR $10,000

CHICAGO, March 12.—(AP)—Charles Arthur Shires, still a member of baseball's holdout union, has demonstrated to Owner Charles A. Comiskey of the White Sox that he can be silent as well as garrulous.

On February 2, Comiskey wrote a letter to the fighting first baseman, enclosing two contracts and asking him to answer certain questions as to his department in the past and future. Having read the Shires' reputation for talking, telegrams and special delivery letters were expected.

But not until yesterday, a month and nine days later, was a reply received from the "Great Shires." All questions were answered, apparently satisfactorily, but the contracts were unsigned.

While Comiskey refuses to divulge the salary differences between the club and Shires, it is understood Shires has been offered $8,000 with threats of severe fines if he attacks another manager. He is demanding $10,000.

"I will study his reply today and answer it immediately," Comiskey said. He is expected to offer a new contract, and Shires, who doesn't always do the expected, is expected to sign it.

Judging Under Way at Fat Stock Show

FORT WORTH, March 12.—(AP)—Judging continued today among Hereford and Shorthorn cattle entered in the livestock exhibits of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show, while in the arena rodeo performers continued their efforts to set new records at conquering wild broncos and steers in bulldogging and riding contests.

Animals worth more than $1,500,000 passed in review last night in the coliseum in the livestock parade. Evacus of Page, shown by Oklahoma A. & M. college, was the grand champion Hereford bull, and the grand champion female was Enlixa 2nd, owned by James B. Hollinger, Chapman, Kansas. Medina Lad 57th, owned by W. T. Montgomery of San Antonio, was senior champion Hereford bull.

FORMER PRO AGENT HELD BEAUMONT, March 12.—(AP)—C. C. Mattox, former federal prohibition agent, was at liberty today under $1,000 bond under a charge of assault to murder, after the shooting yesterday of his estranged wife, Mrs. Fina Mattox, at her home.

ROOKIES TRY HARD TO LAND TEXAS BERTHS

(By The Associated Press) If any fact gleaned from the world of ballyhoo surrounding Texas league training camps has impressed the followers of the great American sport in this part of baseball it is that all the boys seem to be trying unusually hard "to make the team."

Tales of fence busting unusual this early in the season are rolling in from almost every camp in the circuit with many Yannigans on the sending end of the stick. Only yesterday the Spudders up at Wichita Falls unearthed a new hitter, christened Austin Thomas but preference the Brazos Kid. The Spudders believed him a follower of Arthur (The Great) Shires until he busted out in a practice game and accounted for two of his team's three runs.

Shreveport offers young Gallagher who in three games has registered .666. His bat registered the winning runs in the Gray-White practice game there, which, by the way, the Yannigan team took, making it three straights for them.

Several rookies put their hands in the hat and drew out pink slips. Four hurlers were turned loose at Shreveport. Seven Waco candidates lost their meal ticket. The axe fell on four yearlings at Dallas. And others were in the offing.

The high spot of today's training camp affecting promised to be the clash between the Houston Buffs and the Rice Owls. Rose and Brown will try out their wings against the Owls and Bob Morrow, who just joined up, probably will be on the receiving end for a time, alternating there with Hal Funk.

Two new pitchers were in the Indian camp at San Antonio—Leo Aiter purchased from the Sally league club of Augusta, Ga., and Hugo Klarnier of Fredericksburg. Arrival of Catcher Pete Lapan and Pitchers Jim Chaplin and Herman Sparks was awaited.

Also prominently among the missing was Joe Bonowitz, slugger for the Port Worth Cats, and Manager Snyder has let it be known—probably hoping the report will reach Bonowitz's ears—that pretty soon the extra plate will be removed from the training table. Snyder now has only one regular fly chaser, Eddie Moore, a cinch for the center field.

Skipper Jackie Atz at Dallas was contemplating drastic action against his holdout outfielder, Si Rosenthal, threatening him with suspension or sale unless he breaks his silence.

YOUNG PLAN APPROVED BELLIN, March 12.—(AP)—The Reichstag today finally approved the Young plan. The vote today was 266 in favor of the plan and 193 against it with three absences.

Three Schools Already Training to Enter Pampa Invitation Tournament Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press) Three schools—Amarillo, Memphis and Panhandle—have already accepted invitations to enter the local track meet March 22.

The Amarillo Sandies are pointing their efforts for the event, while Memphis will groom her best men in the hopes of taking some first places. Panhandle plans to enter two men in every event of the day.

Coach Odus Mitchell said this morning that the condition of Albert Lard's knee was improving, and that the star sprint man probably would round into good shape, although it might be necessary to keep him out of the hurdles.

Seven Years I Suffered; Then I Found Konjola

St. Louis Lady Pays Glowing Tribute to Powers of New and Different Medicine

MRS. F. C. FOGERTY Remarkable but true, Konjola, the new and different medicine for the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, came at the peak of its powers when pitted against the stubborn cases. Like, as an example, the experience of Mrs. F. C. Fogerty, 1509 North Spring avenue, St. Louis, who says: "Seven years I suffered the tortures of indigestion and then I found the wonderful Konjola. After every meal I was formed from fermenting food, and my pains were terrible. I ate but little, and lost steadily in weight and strength. I tried every medicine and treatment, recommended, but none helped me. When Konjola was recommended I was inclined to scoff, but after starting with this remarkable remedy I had only praise for Konjola. This splendid medicine went right to work, and in five weeks I was able to eat anything. I have gained in weight, am as strong as I ever was, and feeling better in every way than for seven years. No words of mine can pay Konjola the tribute that is its due."

Rash Romance

By LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY JUDITH CAMERON, New York typist, marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of the publishing house in which she is employed. Knight is a widower with a daughter, TONY, 18, and son, JUNIOR, 16. Tony denounces Judith as a gold digger. Her father makes her apologize. When Junior comes home for Christmas holidays he is equally unfriendly. ANDY CRAIG, a young man Knight has aided, takes a position with the publishing house in which Tony and Junior call on her frequently. Tony tries to convince her father that Judith and Andy are carrying on an affair and, when she fails, tricks the pair into a compromising situation. Tony is carrying on a flirtation with MICKY MORTIMER, wealthy and married. This is revealed when they are arrested at 3 a. m. for reckless driving. Tony and her father quarrel over this but the girl is finally forgiven. Knight becomes ill with pneumonia. Junior comes home and before he leaves admits to Judith he has misjudged her. Tony intercepts a letter which comes for Judith. Later she follows her step-mother on a trip into the city and sees her meet a young man. She threatens to tell her father, unless Judith goes away for two weeks. Judith goes, leaving a note for Arthur. Knight's secretary reports that Andy Craig is missing too. Judith goes to an inexpensive hotel on upper Broadway. Next day she roams aimlessly about the city, pursued by a sense of guilt. She finally reaches the water-front.

ing in before the automatic doors clicked shut. Judith dropped into the first seat and eyed each passing station attentively. As they neared the railway station she made her way to the door, ready to dash out the minute the train stopped. Off to the ticket window and down a flight of stairs to the suburban train, Judith's heart bounded. There, waiting, stood the girl.

She entered the nearest car and found a seat. A gold little shiner ran down her spine. "If he'll only listen!" Judith prayed. "If Arthur will only understand—now that the excitement of catching the train has ended, there was a lump in her throat. She was afraid that Arthur would not understand. But even his eyes had not appeared. Judith, looking for the moment, she made her way to the door, ready to dash out the minute the train stopped. "I'm back!" she faltered. "I might eyed his young wife coolly and deliberately. "What have you come for?" he asked. (To Be Continued)

CHAPTER XLIV None of the men and women about her noticed the girl dressed in shabby black sitting alone on a bench facing the water. Judith studied her neighbors. There were two old men, white-haired and red-checked, who sat nearest. Their collars were hunched up about their chins to ward off the wind. The two men were arguing, though she could not hear what they said. One old fellow was tall and thin. The other's shoulders were bent and one side of his mouth moved, chewing rhythmically.

When she had finished her dinner she paid the cashier and stepped into the street. Chiming electric lights beamed on Judith ignored them. For several blocks she walked without noticing that she had passed the corner where she should have turned to reach the hotel. Still she continued. She was not thinking—at least Judith told herself she did not want to think. Subconsciously her mind was in ferment. Should she go back to Arthur? Should she remain here? The long afternoon out of doors had made her weary. At last Judith turned and made her way back to the hotel. When she was in her room once more she slipped into the one chair and

Bud Goodwin Is on Trial Today— Brother Convicted

BOSTON, March 12.—(P)—Bud Goodwin, 21, charged with being an accomplice in the murder of Lloyd Elliott, 23, faced trial today in the same courtroom in which his brother, Dave Goodwin, 40, last night was sentenced to death in the electric chair by a jury which convicted him of the murder. Elliott's bullet-riddled body was found March 3 in the Sulphur river.

A compromise verdict for the younger Goodwin was expected. In the event a plea of guilty was entered.

Collie Goodwin, 63, father of the Goodwin brother, was to answer today to charges of hog theft, along with Buck Sanders, 29, who made his home with Dave Goodwin.

SENTENCES IN LAREDO MURDER CASE AFFIRMED

AUSTIN, March 12.—(P)—Sentences of life imprisonment and 20 years confinement against R. J. West and Tom Hernandez, respectively, for murder of Harry B. Williams, Laredo newspaper reporter, were affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals today.

Williams' body was taken from the Rio Grande several weeks after he had disappeared, and conviction was principally on circumstantial evidence. Williams had come to Laredo from Muncie, Ind. It was alleged that the murder occurred on January 19, 1929.

Voodoo Doctor Is Back to Baptist Faith in Prison

HUNTSVILLE, March 12. (P)—Somewhere in the dark recesses of death row the gods of black magic had withdrawn from their apostle, Bishop Adams, and the negro voodoo doctor had turned back to an older and kinder faith today as the hour of his electrocution drew near.

The slayer of William Glover, Austin grocer, had ceased calling for the strange symbols of voodooism, had been received again into the Baptist church he left long ago and had accepted a philosophy of resignation.

"Ready to go; waiting for time; let them do what they may."

These phrases Adams occasionally muttered, forgetting his old championship of the primitive credo of the jungle black man, leaning again on the simple faith the negro prison chaplain, C. F. Wilson, read out to him.

general federation of women's clubs, who had received an anonymous telephone call threatening her with harm should she appear in favor of the dry laws.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Edison agreed in favoring prohibition.

"I stand for the law that has proved a blessing for one station in life and would be an equal blessing to those enjoying greater privileges in this world if they would give the law a fair chance," the inventor's wife wrote.

"I am heartily in favor of the Eighteenth amendment without modification," Mrs. Ford's statement read. "It is a law of the United States and should be observed by all of us. In my opinion it has been of untold benefit to the women as well as men of our country in improved living conditions and a more prosperous nation."

Brothers Held in Assault Case

DUNCAN, Okla., March 12. (P)—Two brothers, suspected in the attack on Miss Leona Bosley, Loco school teacher, on a road near Loco Sunday night, were arrested late yesterday at their home 14 miles northeast of Marlow. One was 39 years old, the other, 23.

Officers said one of the suspects owned a roadster which fitted the description of the machine driven by two men who kidnaped Miss Bosley and her companion, Chad Thurman. The young woman, shot and critically wounded, was taken in an ambulance yesterday to her home at Gainesville, Texas.

Sulphur Tax Is Near Defeat Today

AUSTIN, March 12.—(P)—Senate and house conferees on the proposed sulphur tax were on the verge of definitely failing to compose differences between the two houses today and left the meeting without setting a time to reconvene.

The senate members declared they would not stand for a greater tax than 50 cents per ton, and Representative Phil Sanders of Nacogdoches, spokesman for the house, stated that if that was the case the committee might as well discontinue its meetings. The house voted a 1 per ton tax.

There was a motion to recess subject to call of the chairman and one to adjourn. Neither carried and the conferees dispersed informally.

The bill to amend the bill authorizing purchase of land adjacent to the Alamo Inn San Antonio was killed on a point of order in the house. It was held in contravention to the constitution, which was said to prohibit the pledging of the state's credit. The amendment would provide for acquisition of the land on a deferred payment plan. The law to acquire the land did not appropriate any money for that purpose, neither did the latest bill, although the latter would have fixed a limit of $850,000 to be paid for it.

Much Cotton at New Orleans Burns

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—(P)—Between 400 and 500 bales of cotton were destroyed in an early morning water front fire that broke out in a section of the dock board's cotton warehouse at Valence street. Firemen held the flames to one section of the steel structure by closing partitioning doors.

Today's fire led police to start an investigation to determine if the three river front fires of the last few weeks were of incendiary origin. The first fire broke out in the Charbonnet wharf three weeks ago, destroying the wharf, burning the steamship Scantic and causing the death of six persons.

WASHINGTON, March 12. (P)—The will of the late William Howard Taft, former president and chief justice of the United States, was filed today for probate, although no valuation of the estate has yet been disclosed.

The will was executed June 3, 1925, and was modified by two codicils, one on April 27, 1927, and another on June 1, 1927. Under the original will, Yale university was given $10,000, to be added to the principal of the alumni university fund and credited to the class of 1878.

Wendell W. Mischler, his secretary, was given $5,000, and the following specific bequests were made: Margaret McNamara $1,000; Annie McNamara $750; Thomas Halpin $750. With these exceptions, and save for his papers and copyrights, the former president left all his remaining estate to "My dear wife, Helen H. Taft."

The widow was also named as executor, with the request that no bond be required of her and that she should not be required to make any inventory of the estate.

Assault Charge Draws 99 Years

EASTLAND, March 12.—(P)—Convicted of assault upon a 12-year-old girl, Raymond Mathers, Flint, Mich., youth, today had before him a 99-year sentence in the penitentiary. The jury which tried him returned the verdict last night within an hour after receiving the case in Judge Elso Bean's district court.

Mathers entered a plea of not guilty and also a plea of insanity. The jury found him sane. He was alleged to have committed the offense near Ranger late on the afternoon of March 3.

WHEAT WAY DOWN

CHICAGO, March 12.—(P)—Under pressure of general selling, wheat, corn and rye all smashed down here early today to new low price records for the current season. Demoralized market conditions at Liverpool, where wheat showed an overnight drop of 4 5-8 pence a bushel, was largely responsible, together with reduced estimates of world import needs, as well as official announcement that for sixty days yet there was no likelihood of relief from congestion at domestic grain terminals.

Opening 5-8 to 3 1-4 down, Chicago wheat futures later showed transient rallies. Corn, rye, oats and provisions weakened with wheat, corn starting 1 5-8 to 3 3-8 off, and subsequently declining further.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, March 12.—(P)—Wheat: No. 3 red $1.08; No. 3 mixed $1.04. Corn: No. 2 mixed 74 1-2c; No. 2 yellow 75 1-2c. Oats: No. 2 white 40 1-2c to 40 3-4c.

What closed feverish 1 to 2 3-8c a bushel lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1 5-8 to 2 1-4c down, oats 5-8 to 1 5-8c off, and provisions showing 7 to 22c drop.
