J. E. BRISTOW IS RELEASED BY BANDIT GANG IN MEXICO TODAY

AMERICAN IS SAID TO HAVE FAIR HEALTH

Joins His Son Today and Prepares to Return

GOLD RANSOM REPORTED PAID

Oil Operator Captive of Band Since March 10

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9. (P)—The Oklahoma City Times in a copyrighted dispatch from Ahuacatlan, Nayarit, Mexico today said that J. E. Bristow, Oklahoma-Texas oil man had been released from custody of bandits who had held him in custody for nearly a month.

The dispatch was written by Merle Blakely, staff reporter for The Times, who for the last two weeks has been with Obie Bristow, son of the captive, seeking to arrange for the ransom of the elder man captured while prospecting for gold.

Release was effected after payment of the demanded ransom in gold the dispatch said.

Bristow, reported to be in fair health joined his son and two American friends including Blakely, the dispatch said.

SAN ANGELO, April 9. (P)—A message received here today from the San Angelo Standard-Times correspondent at Ahuacatlan, Mexico, said that J. E. Bristow, mining operator kidnaped March 10 and held for ransom by Mexican bandits was safe and that he was leaving for Tepele, on the West Coast of Mexico tonight.

"Thank God! Thank God!" was all that Mrs. Bristow could say when notified at her home here of her husband's safety. The elderly woman, who had given no sign of strain during the weeks Bristow had been in the hands of the bandits, collapsed into the arms of a friend when the glad tidings were given her.

Later she told neighbors, who had rushed in, that she "was just sitting there praying he was all right. It's been so long since we have had any word that I was afraid."

E. W. Eaton, American consul at Mazatlan, went into the desolate interior with young Bristow and Blakely.

In his story Blakely tells of the final vigil preceding Bristow's release.

"Late As Usual"

"We had been assured that the captive would be freed at sundown Tuesday night," he said. "Sundown came, and he had not appeared. More hours passed. We sat on the porch of a little, dingy hotel in this parched, mountain town of Ahuacatlan. All three of us were trying to keep one another's courage up."

"Well, he'll be here pretty soon," Eaton would say. "Mexican bandits are just like these Mexican trains; they're never on time."

"I chuckled. So did Bristow. But I don't think any one was fooled. We all were whistling to keep up our nerve."

"Midnight came and our nerves were leaping around like jumping beans. Sleep? Three of us suggested it. None of us did it. We all needed it. Under the pillow of each of us there rested a neatly sewed sack of gold—ransom money, on which a man's life depended."

"It has been just as bad since we got here. For the first hour Monday we kept busy instructing native envoys who were to go into the hills, laying plans for Bristow's delivery, and sending out messages. After that short relief the old occupation of waiting gripped us again."

Waiting Is Nightmare
"Waiting has been a nightmare for all of us for more than two weeks. It is terrible knowing that a man is in the hands of a group

CLIFFORD BRALY APPOINTED JUDGE OF NEW COURT—NO ONE NAMED TO BE 31ST ATTORNEY

Pampa Man to Take Over Duties at Once

AUSTIN, April 9. (P)—Clifford Braly of Pampa was appointed judge of the newly created 14th district court by Governor Moody today.

He was district attorney of the 21st district and formerly served the 69th district in the capacity of prosecutor. He served in the legislature from Milan county about 20 years ago. Governor Moody did not name a district attorney to succeed Judge Braly.

"Valiant" Cast Shows Why It Won in Contest

BY A. F.

It was hard to believe that the cast of "The Valiant" play given last night at the high school auditorium, comprised a group of high school students, all amateur actors. The various characterizations were as nearly pleasing as high school students could possibly make them. It was not difficult to see why the play won first place in the contests at Canyon. The play will be taken to Abilene to compete in the bi-district finals in two weeks.

Doyle Roundtree, playing the title role, readily and completely assumed the atmosphere of burning, smoldering sadness without which any interpreter of the part would be ineffective and unconvincing. Too much cannot be said for the spirit in which he performed. He seemed master of the moods and the emotions he sought to portray, and because of this his voice was not too intense nor too mechanical. However, it is believed that his make-up was slightly over-done. An almost white-headed man is not our idea of the 27-year-old "Valiant."

About any good "Valiant" there should be something about the voice, the eyes, the personality that "get" the audience. Roundtree fulfilled all our requirements of the role. His moody, mysterious, sad portrayal colored the other characterizations for the good.

Miss Dorothy Doucette as Josephine Paris, gave a wistful and sweet performance as the sister of the "Valiant." Perhaps she was, at first, slightly conscious of the fact that she should be embarrassed, and there was a little bit too much handkerchief-twisting. Her parting with her brother, the "Valiant" was genuine, and although it is never evident that it is or is not good acting, there were only a few eyes in the audience that were not wet when the curtain dropped.

The performance of Charles Barrett as the warden and LeRoy Price as the prison chaplain were smooth, capable and satisfactory. Barrett, especially, has a good voice and he uses it well. Make-up of both boys was good. They did much toward creating the "death-cell" atmosphere and for preparing the emotions of the audience for the highly-dramatic scenes to come.

Other characters included Curtis Stark; the jailor, and Wade Smith, the attendant, both small parts but exceedingly well-played.

Snyder Youth and Roscoe Girl Killed in Automobile Accident

ABILENE, April 9. (P)—Virgil White, 23, of Snyder and Miss Thelma Hash, 20, of Roscoe, were dead today after the automobile in which they were riding collided with a truck parked at the side of the highway near Roscoe 50 miles west of here.

Murder Verdict Is Reversed by Appeals Court

AUSTIN, April 9. (P)—D. W. Freeman, convicted in Taylor county of murder and given 20 years in the penitentiary as a result of a truck striking W. W. Hudson and killing him, won a new trial today when the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and remanded the judgment.

The court reversed the case on account of a defective indictment, which did not allege Freeman acted with malice aforethought.

Freeman and a companion were en route from Midland to Wichita Falls in a truck on last May 27, when he collided with a motor cycle on which Hudson and Mrs. Hudson were riding.

The court denied a rehearing to Jordan Scott, McLennan county, convicted of the murder of Robert Pedigo on March 7, 1929, and given death. The judgment had previously been affirmed.

The court granted the state's motion, set aside its former decision reversing and remanding the conviction against F. L. Reeves, Wichita county, and affirmed the case. Reeves was given seven years for assault to rob.

Two other murder cases were reversed and remanded on account of absence of malice aforethought in the indictment.

W. G. Clark, Upton county, 35 years for murder of E. A. Birdwell, killed with a knife Feb. 24, 1929.

Bert Hall, convicted in Hall county and given 30 years for the murder of J. R. Richey in Donley county on Dec. 31, 1928.

The court overruled the motion for a rehearing of Jim Curtis, Newton county, given 25 years for murder of Grover Jenkins. The judgment had previously been affirmed.

New Air Line Routes to Touch Many Places

AMARILLO, April 9. (P)—Airplane passenger service tying Amarillo in swift aerial jumps with Oklahoma City and Tulsa; Pueblo, Colorado Springs, and Denver; Wichita Falls and Dallas, with Los Angeles and Kansas City was the prospect today.

Daily air passenger service in the five directions, radiating from Amarillo, was announced yesterday by W. D. Peck, Jr., district passenger agent for Western Air Express, as effective today.

The Colorado connection is operated by the Midcontinent Air Express, affiliated with the W. E. E. and will use Fokker six passenger planes. The Dallas and Tulsa lines will use trimotored Fokker planes, carrying 12 passengers, as are now used on the regular east-west run from Kansas City to Los Angeles.

Reach No Decision

WASHINGTON, April 9. (P)—The house judiciary committee today again failed to reach a decision on the Hoover law enforcement commission's legislative program and the Stobbs bill to amend the Jones law. The committee adjourned until next Wednesday.

GWIN STAYS WITH PAMPA AS MANAGER

City Government Has Achieved Economic Basis

IMPROVEMENTS ARE NUMEROUS

Addition Residents to Vote on Joining Corporation

City Manager F. M. Gwin was unanimously retained by the new city administration at the first regular session yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Gwin, now in his third year here, has served during the period of rapid city growth, and has effected economies which have demonstrated the value of the city manager plan. Solving the water problem has been accomplished under his regime, and water and sewer extensions, street paving, adoption of the tax-supported Board of City Development, and other projects have been carried out.

The commission yesterday received a petition from a number of property owners in the Merten-Buckler addition, Northwest Pampa, for incorporation in the city proper. The petition, signed by Paul J. Certain, J. P. Wehrung, Marvin W. Lewis, Paul Keshke, and W. A. Duerr, was referred to the city attorney. An election will likely be held soon in the addition to decide whether the addition will become a part of the city.

The city will take no action on the paving from Hobart street west to the city limits on Highway 33 until the state has let contract for grading and drainage to the Carson county line. The city and county will probably pave on each side of the highway paving under a joint arrangement.

Waffle Supper Will Be Held in Baptist Church

On Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock the Y. M. B. C. and Fidelis classes of the First Baptist church will sponsor a waffle supper in the basement of the church building. The supper will last until 9 p. m.

Members of the class are working through various committees to make the affair one of the best of its kind. All materials will be furnished by the class members, and all work is being done by class members. Jack Wood superintendent of the young people's department, and M. Jake Erwin are working as a "gathering up" committee. All serving will be done by the young ladies' class. The "serving committee" consists of Miss Roy Riley, Miss Wilma Chapman, Miss Collins, and Miss Hortense Allison.

The class instructed its committees to tell the public that everyone will be served all the waffles wanted. Tickets are on sale by members of the class, at fifty cents each. Every one is invited.

L. N. McCullough Is Elected President of Rotary Club—Farm Editor Is Speaker Today

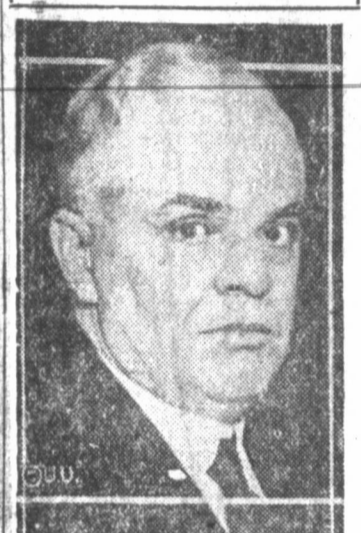

L. N. McCullough, who has been active in the work of the Rotary club since its organization in Pampa, was elected president for the coming year at a meeting of the board of directors last night.

Other officers elected were: M. K. Brown, vice president, and Tom Rose, secretary-treasurer.

F. A. Briggs, editor of Farm and Ranch, speaking before the Rotary club today noon, stressed the importance of farm crop diversification and the feeding of livestock for market.

"The greatest problem for people of the Panhandle is yet to be met," Mr. Briggs said. "It is one that other communities have had and solved, that of preserving the productivity of the farm soil. We must consider that our soil is our greatest resource. How to take care of this soil determines the future of our productivity."

Defeated

Senator Charles S. Deneen, advocate of adherence to the world court, yesterday was defeated for the Republican senatorial nomination by Congressman Ruth Hanna McCormick of Illinois.

GULF BRINGS IN GUSHER ON BOWERS LEASE

Gulf Production company brought in the Bowers No. 1, section 63, block B-2, yesterday for an initial production of 100 barrels an hour. The well has been pinched in to 65 barrels an hour. The potential production of the well was estimated to be about 3,000 barrels.

Pay was struck at 2,976 feet. Total depth of the hole is 2,981 feet. The well will be deepened. It is located 967 feet north and east of the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 63.

Auxiliary of Legion Formed by McLean Women

McLean now has a duly organized American Legion auxiliary, a ladies' organization, composed of wives, sisters, and mothers of ex-service men. Ladies of McLean, assisted by members of the Pampa Legion auxiliary, Tuesday night organized a unit at McLean.

The following members and legionnaires from Pampa made the trip: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. de Cordova and little Miss Clarice, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Green, Mrs. R. A. Webb, Mrs. R. S. Burns, Mrs. W. A. Lang, Mrs. Frank Soodhalter, Mrs. I. B. Hughey, Mrs. Roy Sewell, Mrs. O. K. Taylor, Paul D. Hill, D. W. Thurman, Frank J. Thomas, John I. Bradley, and Lewis O. Cox.

Commander C. S. Doolen of the McLean post made a talk in which he commented the Pampa Legionnaires on their activities and expressed appreciation on behalf of the McLean post for Pampa's part in organization of the post there. Much interest in the Legion work is being shown by McLean members.

WIDOW GETS BIG MAJORITY AT PRIMARY

Woman May Follow Husband to Senate

WORLD COURT MADE ISSUE

Chicago G. O. P. Is Loser in State Campaign

CHICAGO, April 9. (P)—5,714 precincts of 7,117 for the Republican senate gave: McCormick 554,630; Deneen 380,220; Jenkins 91,961. In Cook county 3,204 precincts of 3,464 gave McCormick 334,562; Deneen 185,320; Jenkins 47,992.

CHICAGO, April 9. (P)—Once more a McCormick stands for election to the United States senate as representative of Illinois Republicans.

Twelve years ago it was Medill McCormick. Today it is his widow, congresswoman Ruth Hanna McCormick. She was nominated at yesterday's primary election with more than 150,000 votes to spare over Senator Charles S. Deneen, seeking re-election.

Medill McCormick won the Republican nomination of 1918 from one of the political powers of Chicago—William Hale Thompson. Yesterday his widow overturned the "charismatic" Republican organization in Chicago, and she did it with the full support of the reconstructed city hall Republican faction that Deneen's forces crushed in 1923.

Next November, as a result of Tuesday's primary, history will get a chance to repeat—or reverse—itsself for then, as 12 years ago, it will be McCormick vs. James Hamilton Lewis. Lewis, whom Medill McCormick defeated in the 1918 election, ran away with the Democratic nomination yesterday.

With 5538 of the state's 7117 precincts counted Mrs. McCormick had polled 531,296 votes against 366,143 for her opponent. Newton Jenkins was third on the ballot with 88,095 votes.

The victory of Mrs. McCormick, first woman ever to win a senatorial nomination from a major political party, was accomplished by pluralities from every part of the state. However, her great strength, which showed itself as a surprise to many political wisecracks, was in Chicago, Senator Deneen's home town where, only two years ago, he led the fight that dumped Mayor Thompson from his place of party power.

Mrs. McCormick sought nomination on a platform of opposition to the world court. When it became apparent she had been nominated, Mrs. McCormick said:

"I believe it is a logical conclusion that the people of Illinois are against adherence to the League of Nations court."

Senator Deneen, in his campaign, accepted the world court as an issue and defended in speech and

YOUNG FLYING CADET KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

SAN ANTONIO, April 9. (P)—Lieut. Bert C. Muse, student officer at Brooks Field, was killed when his plane crashed near South ton, 10 miles south of here, today.

The plane dived to the ground with such force that the pilot probably was killed instantly. It burned after the crash.

Lieut. Muse was 25 years of age and married. His home was at Cedar Glade, Ark.

Officers said Lieut. Muse was practicing forced landings at the time, but they could assign no cause for the accident.

Judging Team at McLean Wins Many Places

MCLEAN, April 9. (Special)—McLean high school vocational agriculture teams from the classes of Dr. A. A. Tampe won 31 places and the sweepstakes banner in the annual vocational agriculture contests recently held at Texas Technological college at Lubbock.

Contests in which McLean boys placed high were the following: Farm shop, livestock judging, poultry raising and judging, dairy cattle judging, and plant production.

Boys who distinguished themselves in the contests were Clyde Andrews, Orville Cunningham, Ward Hunt, Clark Stockton, I. D. Shaw, Hugh Cobb, Tracy Morse.

Ford Shows Profits

BOSTON, April 9. (P)—The balance sheet of the Ford Motor company, filed with the Massachusetts commissioner of corporation today, indicated profit for 1929 of $61,797,861, as contrasted with an indicated loss of $72,321,498 in 1928.

Mrs. R. D. Van Hoeken of Houston, day coach passenger on the fast train, was tossed into the aisle.

"When I came to my senses, I ran to the rear end of the coach, but could not get out," she said. "Then I ran to the forward end, and somehow got outside. I went on up front and found the negro wedged between the cars. I saw the engineer hanging out of his cab. As I started to help him, several men came up and after some delay succeeded in getting him from his engine."

To W. J. Campbell of Carbonate, Ill., the sensation was like that of an earthquake.

"I had just picked up my razor," said Campbell, "and was about to take the first stroke. Glass flew everywhere, but I was not cut."

TRAIN WRECK AT ALVIN IS SERIOUS ONE

One Missouri Pacific Unit Strikes Another

BRAKES ARE SAID TO FAIL

Flare Burns Out in Fog—Engineer May Die

ALVIN, April 9. (P)—Roaring through a heavy fog just after dawn today, a fast night Missouri Pacific train crashed into the rear end of another here, killing a negro brakeman, injuring an engineer probably fatally, and inflicting slight injuries on at least 28 other persons.

Twenty-eight persons on the fast train, Number 16, from Brownsville, were hurt slightly, an announcement from the office of H. R. Safford, executive vice president of the lines, said. The injured on the train which was struck, No. 14, had not been counted, the announcement stated, but it was known no one on either train, with the exception of engineer Buck Raiford of Number 16, was seriously hurt. Raiford was scalded and received a skull fracture. He was taken to St. Mary's infirmary in Galveston.

The brakeman, Mack Brader, was crushed, and several hours were required to remove his body from between the engine car and the first day coach on No. 16, where it was wedged.

The list of injured originally had been placed at a dozen.

Number 14, the slower train, was standing at the station. It was nearly an hour behind time.

Mr. Safford learned, he said, that a flare placed about 1500 feet behind No. 14 had burned out.

"When Engineer Raiford of Kingsville saw this flare still smoking, he applied his service air. This failed," Mr. Safford added.

"Then the engineer applied his emergency air. This, too, failed. He then reversed his engine. This was his last resort, but the crash came before this action was effective."

"The fact that neither the engineer nor the fireman jumped, after doing everything possible, indicates their belief that they had the situation in control."

Raiford, unconscious, was found half hanging out of his cab. The fireman on No. 16, T. P. Ross, was thrown from the locomotive but merely was bruised.

Dr. F. R. Irwin of Alvin began giving first aid immediately after the wreck.

"I attended," he said, "half a dozen or more. All of them had minor injuries."

Mrs. R. C. Craft and Charles Joeke, both of Houston, were among those to whom he administered.

The engine of No. 16 plowed for several feet into the rear of the last sleeping car on No. 14.

H. P. Odom, sleeping car conductor on No. 16, said he was in the smoking room and was thrown across it when the crash came.

"I rushed through my car and found that no one was hurt and then went outside to see what I could do," Odom said.

WATER NOW PLENTIFUL AND CHEAPER

Those citizens who have hesitated in starting lawns and flowers need do so no longer. Cheaper water is a fact, taking effect this month.

Pampa's remarkable growth brought the water problem home to the people, but fortunately tax valuations increased sufficiently to permit warrant issues for new wells.

In the past the rate schedule could hardly have been lowered without creating a demand well above the supply.

Contrary to popular belief, the water department has not been "coining money". Its gross profit last year was cut to less than $20,000 by interest and sinking fund requirements.

The present local reduction appears logical in view of sustained operating economies. The public can cooperate by using more water, and thereby preventing lowering the gross income.

Chicago, with civic problems of crime, corruption, and tax inequalities, is noted for picking ludicrous issues not bearing on the main problem.

LOOKING ABROAD FOR ISSUES

Illinois yesterday went to the polls and in all seriousness, apparently, passed upon the world court issue as espoused by Senator Deneen and denounced by Congressman McCormick.

Our friend the Rev. O'Malley is doing his bit to aid the month's rainfall by holding a revival. It won't be long now until the rain comes a-dripping.

We are "agin" drilling of those huge gas-oil wells in Oklahoma. We probably have the same things over here, but we are prating and keeping mother earth's pressure properly confined.

The straw votes show that the wind isn't blowing in any particular direction, but is somewhat inebriated.

A busy man is one who doesn't care whether we have twelve months or thirteen, for he works by periods of light and darkness. There is no inclination, however, to do away with Sundays.

Cheer up, look up, take notice of better business conditions, and talk good business in Pampa. Or, if you don't believe times are on the mend, take a little sojourn into neighboring sections.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

BY HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—Those long, tiring months of the tariff which the United States senate went through left their mark.

It was no idle thought that prompted Jim Watson to suggest that senators take a week's vacation after the final vote on the measure.

The big hearted majority leader knew full well that there was not a man whose nerves were not frazzled—whose mind and body were not simply fagged out.

Watson himself had to get away months ago when the battle was at its most critical stage. And though he returned, after the shortest of vacations in the south, the big Hoosier "limped" through the remainder of the fight.

And there were many others on the casualty list at the end. Sessions starting at 10 o'clock in the morning and running into all hours of the night, week after week, was a tremendous strain.

Senator King was forced to quit the field weeks before the finale. The Utah senator not only fought in the battle on the floor, but as a member of the senate finance committee, in that body as well.

Novarro Has Pleasing Voice in Rex Picture

The opening of "Devil-May-Care" at the Rex theatre today was a distinct event. Many Ramon Novarro fans were present, all frankly curious as to their favorite's excursion into the singing end of talking pictures.

They came away well entertained and with the star more firmly enshrined in their affections than ever. For the handsome Latin proved that he has an exceedingly easy, smooth and well-trained operatic tenor voice.

Certainly this critic would say that as a "great lover" of the screen his technique is decidedly amplified by his rendition of such really extraordinary love ballads as "Charming" and "The Shepherd's Serenade."

However, his capacity for putting over a song does not stop with old romance. "The March of the Old Guard" is a martial tune of Napoleonic origin, sung with vigor and strength. "Bon Jour, Louie," however, is a comedy creation which Novarro sings with great comic feeling.

Besides Novarro, two other members of the cast sing in the picture. Marion Harris as the Countess, while proving herself an excellent dramatic actress, has a "blues" number titled "If He Cared," which is one of the high spots of the picture.

Dorothy Jordan, the petite little miss from musical comedy, is heard in duets with Novarro which offer excellent opportunities for her piquant voice.

"Devil-May-Care" was adapted by Richard Schayer, Hans Kraly and Zelta Sears from a French play entitled "The Battle of the Ladies."

It deals with the escape of a Bonapartist lieutenant from a firing squad of Royalists, his hiding in the disguise of a footman, and his love affair with a charming lady while outward appearances the devil-may-care young man is one of the lower classes.

John Miljan plays the villain of the piece, de Grignon, in his usual manner. Sidney Franklin, responsible for "The Last of Mrs. Cheney," is to be credited with another splendid job of direction. Many of his photographic effects outshine anything ever produced in the screen.

One scene in particular, done in technicolor, in which a group of Albertina Rasch girls execute a dance, stands out as a brilliant and artistic cinema achievement.

Many Ailments Yield Quickly to New Konjola

Manager of East Side Stone Yard Eagerly Praises Merits of New Medicine

MR. JAMES A. COX

"Stomach trouble, disordered kidneys and constipation over a period of six months, had placed me in a badly run-down condition," said Mr. James A. Cox, 630 Mathewson street, Wichita.

"Gas and bloating followed even the simplest meals. Kidney weakness gave me frightful back pains and I was subject to frequent bladder actions. I was restless and found it difficult to sleep for any length of time. I had no appetite and was weak and listless. For two weeks I was utterly unable to work and it was during this time that Konjola was recommended to me by my friends."

"My appetite increased from the very day I began taking Konjola. My stomach gradually began to function as it should and the back pains left me. Today I eat heartily without any discomfort whatever and am free from bloating. My kidneys are in excellent condition and I am entirely free from constipation. My general health is better than it has been in a long time. I owe all this to Konjola."

It is logical to believe that what Konjola has done for others, it will do for you—for everyone. This is especially true if Konjola is given a fair trial. Six to eight weeks is recommended as a fair trial in stubborn cases.

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

Extremes Seen in Women's Garments at Gotham Parade

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—Skirts and shorts for tennis and floor-length evening dresses mark the two extremes of women's fashions for the summer of 1930. A parade of 140 mannikins displayed the styles last night at the summer fashion show of the Garment Retailers of America at the Hotel Astor.

The materials are silk, satin, and cotton fabrics, lace and fur. The colors are pastels; caprice tan, a sort of beige, carress blue; charm pink and coquette green.

Skirt lengths are not materially changed from last season, nor is there any change in silhouette. The garments shown were described as "wearable," being a modification of the high waist-line and other extremes of design of last autumn.

High School P. T. A. To Hold Election of Officers Tomorrow

Officers of the High School Parent-Teacher association for next year will be elected tomorrow afternoon at a monthly business session at the music cottage on Central campus. Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, president, will be in the chair for the election and a business session.

The program topic for the afternoon is to be "Why Our Children Fall in School." E. H. Solf, a member of the Central high faculty, will open the subject with a discussion on "Responsibilities of the School." "Responsibilities of the Home" will be discussed by Mrs. T. B. Solomon. Mrs. B. E. Finley, program chairman, is asking that each member of the association be prepared to give in one sentence a reason for the failures of students.

Entertainment numbers will include a vocal solo by Supt. R. E. Fisher, a number by the high school girls' quartet, and a selection to be arranged by Thomas Fannin, head of the public school music department.

Modern Drama and Important Plays Are Discussed by Club

Mrs. Lee Harrah was director of a short but interesting program on modern drama that was given yesterday afternoon before members of Junior Twentieth Century club. Her contribution to the study was a comparison of American and foreign drama. Mrs. Arthur Swanson sketched "Journey's End" and "Tennent Street," recent plays of importance.

Mrs. T. R. Martin was hostess for the regular club meeting and for a tea hour following. Her guests, in addition to those on the program, were: Mrs. Hal Peck, Mrs. Roy Bourland, Mrs. Fred Cary, Mrs. N. A. Heistand, Mrs. Dick Walker, Mrs. Eli Willis, Mrs. T. M. Ashley, Mrs. C. C. Boles, and Miss Ruth Anne Mitchell.

Wall Whitman's Work of El Progresso Club Reviewed in Program

A study of the verse of Wall Whitman from El Progresso's course in "Chief American Poets," occupied club members who met yesterday afternoon at Mrs. P. C. Ledrick's home. Mrs. W. Purviance was in charge of the enjoyable program.

A quotation from Whitman's poetry was given by each member in response to roll call. Mrs. Purviance opened the program with a sketch of the poet's life.

"Whitman's Peculiar Verse Forms" was the next paper, and was given by Mrs. James Todd. An outstanding number was an analysis and reading of "Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking," which was given by Mrs. C. M. Bryson.

Mrs. Carson Loftus read "Captain, O, My Captain," and Mrs. John V. Andrews recited "For You O Democracy." A round-table in question-and-answer form was conducted by Mrs. Purviance at the close of the numbers.

Members present were: Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, Mrs. T. D. Hobart, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Mrs. H. L. Ledrick, Mrs. Dave Pope, Mrs. Charles Thut, Mrs. J. H. Kelly, Mrs. George Walstead, and those presenting program numbers.

Mrs. W. J. Schroll Is Honored Tuesday With Birthday Party

The guests were: Mrs. W. B. Rose, Mrs. F. W. Byrd, Mrs. Walter Campbell, Mrs. C. E. Pollard, Mrs. Cecil Trostle, Mrs. Sam McCullough, Mrs. A. Ralsky, Mrs. Leo Murphy, Mrs. John L. Peake, Mrs. H. H. Kelly, and the honoree.

Church Enjoys Good Sermons and Fine Singing

At the Christian church, 506 East Kingsmill avenue, Evangelist O'Malley, who is conducting revival services to last over Easter (April 20), preached to a big audience last night on the subject "What It Means to Be Lost."

The excellent choir and the congregational singing greatly helped the meeting. Mrs. Marbaugh and Mrs. Pauley sang a beautiful duet. The church is aroused as it probably has never before and earnest work, with faith and prayer, will surely receive God's blessing and bring an abundant harvest.

The preacher said in part: "The condition of being lost is far broader than the common conception. Too often it is the custom to think of the submerged classes, or a criminal element, but while the base of sins of the flesh are fatal, the sins of pride and selfishness and worldliness which mark the so-called 'respectable' or higher classes, are in God's sight equally fatal to the soul, causing it to miss heaven.

Mere formalism in religion, ritual, without the life and service due to God and our fellow beings is likewise vain and gives no assurance of final salvation.

"Again, the sin of embezzling life's faculties, talents, time, and opportunities was arraigned as deadly sin. These are all as capital put in our hands by God Himself to be used for Him and His kingdom and not for mere selfish purpose and plans. When one appropriates to himself the funds of a bank, or a trust fund committed to his care, he is classed as a criminal, and those presenting program numbers.

justly so. God is fully as intelligent as the wisest of men (though some act as if He were not), and will judge those who live wholly for self, for pleasure or gain of this world, and who do not place obedience to His laws and ordinances, duty, service, and holy living above all worldly claims.

"Souls, multitudes of them, are lost in the sin of resisting God's Spirit, by refusing to give time and consideration to the gospel of salvation, thus despising God and setting at naught His wonderful love and mercy through which salvation might have come. Others after making profession, turn back to the weak and beggarly elements of the world and are lost in utter apostasy.

God's great sacrifice of His Holy Son, Jesus, to redeem man by his atoning blood is His comment on what it means to be lost—a condition that demanded such a tremendous price was no idle notion, but a dreadful reality."

Then the retributions of eternity were emphasized, remorse, tormenting conscience, the associations of the vile through all eternity, separation from God, the utter hopelessness and despair, these indicated what it means for a soul to be lost.

An earnest appeal was made to all Christians to seek and win souls as the Master did.

The sermon tonight at 8 will be "Why Everybody Should Be a Christian."—Contributed.

Resume of Texas History Presented at Club Meeting

Three epic periods in the early history of Texas—the era of French exploration, the period of Spanish domination, and the beginning of English settlement—were reviewed in an informative and highly interesting program resume at Twentieth Century club's semi-monthly meeting, yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Sawyer.

Mrs. Paul Kasishke was director of the program. A paper on "Louis XIV of France and His Court" was read by Mrs. W. A. Bratton. Mrs. H. O. Twiford told of the founding of French claims to Texas soil in "LaSalle Plants a Colony in Texas."

"The Basis of Spanish Claims in Texas" was the subject of a paper by Mrs. H. D. Lewis. Mrs. W. R. Campbell gave a descriptive sketch entitled, "A Spanish Settlement."

The beginnings of English influence and power in Texas were traced in two discourses: "Settlement of Boundary Disputes Between Louisiana and Texas," by Mrs. Clifford Braly, and "English Expeditions in Texas," by Mrs. J. D. Sugg. The leader closed the program with a paper, "The Mexican Revolution Frees Texas from Spain."

Mrs. T. J. Considine of Amarillo was a visitor at the meeting. Members present were: Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. L. B. Hughey, Mrs. Porter

Malone, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell, Mrs. Tom E. Rose, Mrs. Joe M. Smith, Mrs. Edwin Vears, and those who appeared on the program.

Hand Starting Is Favored—Trial for Year Is Proposed

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., April 9. (AP)—Robert L. "Dink" Templeton, Stanford track coach, today had a letter from Major John L. Griffith, athletic commissioner of the Big Ten and a member of the rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, in which Griffith declared he favored giving hand-starting blocks a year's trial before their legality was determined.

Templeton declared the N. C. A. A. rules committee, meeting in St. Louis last summer, had sanctioned both hand and foot blocks, but that Griffiths, earlier this year, had written him declaring the hand blocks illegal.

Templeton said he was at a loss to interpret the second letter from Griffith.

Dog Killing Is Necessity Here

T. G. Hudson has become a competitor of the city in the dog-killing business since he served notice on the public that he was going to kill every dog he caught chasing his cattle in a pasture adjoining the air port.

In the last week he killed eight. Mr. Ayres, a neighbor whose cattle the dogs also run, has killed two, and Louie Behrends has shot two of the marauders.

Mr. Hudson decided to shoot any and all dogs, pedigreed or cur, after a pack had killed two calves for him and had mutilated several cows. He says the way the dogs cut out a cow from the herd and run her down is almost uncanny.

American Clubs Set Good Mark in Early Games

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—Winning all 14 ten league exhibition games played in the past week, the American league clubs forged ahead in the annual spring baseball warfare between them and the national circuit. The American league has won 29 of the 57 games played so far and the National 22, one was tied.

The Washington Senators, picking up the Boston Braves in three successive games, took the lead in the league-against-league standing while the Braves, former leaders, dropped to sixth place. The Senators have not lost a game to a National league club. Cleveland also enjoys that distinction with one victory and no defeats. Detroit's Tigers, with six victories and four defeats, top the clubs which have gone in seriously for competition with the other league. The Cincinnati Reds, Chicago White Sox and the Braves also have won more than half their games.

Washington also leads in the standings for all exhibition games, having won 12 out of 14 against major and minor league opposition.

Al Dodd, formerly of Pampa and more recently of Oklahoma City, returned Sunday and is now used car sales manager for McGarrity Motor Co., Oldsmobile and Viking dealer. Mr. Dodd was used car sales manager for Biggs Horn Nash Co., in Pampa for two years, and has many friends in this section who will be glad to know that he has returned. He has been living in San Diego, Calif., and Oklahoma City for the past few months, but expects to move his family back here in the near future.

Somerville and Dawson each had 147 in 36-hole qualifying play to tie for the medal. They led a field of more than 150.

Senate Asked to Investigate Lobby of Various Churches

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP)—A statement requesting the senate lobby committee to investigate the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals and the Federal Council of Churches was issued today by Representative Tinkham, Republican, Mass., as he took the witness stand before the lobby committee.

The statement given to newspapermen said: "I believe that this committee can render no greater public service than to do its part towards a public exposure of the practices of these organizations, in violation of the principle of the separation of church and state, so that their church constituencies, as well as the public at large, may be informed and so condemn such practices."

He said the Methodist Board "for some years has attempted to influence and direct the legislative and executive branches of the federal government and to influence, and interfere with judicial appointments and the administration of justice."

The federal Council of Churches, he added, "working largely by propaganda, attempts to influence congress on both domestic and foreign policies."

Tinkham was refused permission to place his statement in the record.

TEXAS LEAGUE EXPECTING BIG CROWDS ON ITS 29TH OPENING THIS AFTERNOON

By The Associated Press
Promptly at the hour of 3:30 p. m., today the twenty-ninth annual championship grind of the Texas League gets under way.

Interest was focused on La Grange field at Fort Worth, where the Cats hoped to sink their teeth into the horns of the Dallas Steers, their ancient rivals, now manned by Skipper Jackie Atz, once the czar of Catville baseball.

Pancho Snyder expected to use Jimmy Walkup, port-sider, as the Cat fliinger, and Dave Danforth, another leftie, was the probable choice for the Steers.

Fort Worth anticipated its greatest opening day crowd for this event, a semi-public holiday in the city, and school children included, 16,000 were expected to be on hand.

Although Larry Cox was back in the Cat field, Bek Sullivan was the prospect for right field, while third base was uncertain, though Mallon was the probability if the Steers used a southpaw pitcher.

The Steers yesterday drew an 8 to 5 defeat from the Pittsburgh Pirates, if the game giving the Pirates a draw of three games won and three lost against Texas League opponents.

Steers and Cats shift to Dallas for Thursday's tilt.

The scene was set in Wichita Falls.

Carnera Hooted After Knockout

LOS ANGELES, April 9. (AP)—The knockout record of Primo Carnera contained another victim today, but the Italian giant was booed lustily after he had polished off Neil Clisby, negro fighter, in the second round of their bout here last night.

A crowd of 12,000 fans didn't like Carnera's tactics of punching as he broke from clinching with the negro, and as the giant walked toward his dressing room he was hooted.

Clisby was Carnera's fourteenth straight knockout victim, during his present American tour. The negro, who once stayed six rounds with George Dodfrey, weighed 198 1-2 pounds to the Italian's 273 pounds.

TEXAS LOOP IS LOOKING TO GOOD SEASON

WICHITA FALLS, April 9. (AP)—The Texas league in 1930 should enjoy one of its most successful seasons in history, both financially and competitively, President J. Alvin Gardner said today.

"I have visited each training camp, and I do not see a 'runaway' club or a weak one," said the new president. "Therefore, I anticipate a very close race and no reason for a split season. Financial conditions over the entire state look good, promising a bumper attendance."

President Gardner was to attend the opener between Shreveport and Wichita Falls here today.

YANKS LOSE AFTER THEY APPEAR SAFE—GIANTS TO TRY REESE IN OUTFIELD

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—It never pays to take anything for granted in baseball—and you can have the word of Roy Sherid, New York Yankee pitcher, for that.

Sherid appeared to be in a perfectly safe position in the fifth inning of yesterday's game with the Memphis Chickies. He had pitched four frames of shutout ball and had two strikes on the opposing pitcher, Clarence Griffin. But the next pitch cost him the ball game. Griffin bounced a hot one off Koenig's glove to drive in two runs, and the Chickies won by a 3-1 score.

The New York Giants have found a new job for Andy Reese, whose hitting failed to earn him the post at second base. "With Edd Roush a holdout and Johnny Mostil on the sick list, Andy was placed in center field for yesterday's game and performed well."

The management of the Phillies is "through follin' with Chester Nichols," right handed pitcher drafted from the Montreal club.

"We've stopped trying to please him," Manager Shotton said today. "He missed the entire training trip, and we have no word from him."

Brooklyn's Robins once more proved the truth of adages concerning youth and age. They played two games against the Atlanta Crackers. A team composed largely of veterans and won them both. They did best yesterday when they tackled a pair of ancient pitchers, Oldham and Koob, and a former Robin, Clarence Blethen, and pounded out 20 hits for a 15 to 1 victory.

Manager Joe McCarthy, of the Chicago Cubs, freed of worry over whether Rogers Hornsby and Charlie Grimm will be ready for the opening of the National league campaign, is pondering on who among his recruits will be cast adrift at the close of the series with Kan-

Rockne Asks Mayo to Teach Physique

ROCHESTER, Minn., April 9. (AP)—Knut Rockne, Notre Dame's football master mind, today was at Mayo Brothers clinic for a physical check-up.

Bronzed by the Florida sun during his two months rest at Miami, Rockne enthusiastically looked forward to being up and around soon. He arrived here accompanied by Dr. C. J. Barborca of the Mayo clinic, called to Florida to examine the noted coach. The physician said Rockne was completely recovered from an acute attack of asthmatic bronchitis and was making progress in convalescence from the ailment in his right leg.

CONSPIRACY IN BUYING LIQUOR CLAIMED TODAY

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP)—Attorney General Mitchell urged the Supreme Court in a brief filed today to hold that a person ordering liquor shipped to him is guilty of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law.

The brief was filed in an appeal brought by the government attacking the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals which held that Alfred E. Norris, New York banker, was not guilty of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law in having liquor shipped to him by Joel D. Kerper, from Philadelphia.

A call to clubs is being sent out this week by W. H. Curry.
The Pampa Country golf club has accepted the challenge of the Panhandle golf club to play on the Panhandle links next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and 25 of Pampa's best golfers are needed to make the trip, Mr. Curry said.

A notice of the matches will be posted on the local course, and all golfers who wish to make the trip are urged to see Mr. Curry as soon as possible. Pampa has promised to send 25 players but should send more, he said.

The Panhandle golfers have never defeated Pampa's best, but they sent word that they have improved mightily in the last year and with the aid of "some outside help," they are planning to give the Pampans a good walloping. The Panhandle links are undergoing a thorough working and cleaning this week for the match.

Oklahoma Elevator Burns
OKLAHOMA CITY, April 9. (AP)—Burning obstinately, a fire in one of the 12 big storage bins of the Oklahoma City Mill and Elevator company here today had caused damage estimated at $250,000 after being in progress for more than three hours. It was believed there was no danger of the fire spreading.

Kopecky's Scowling Face Said to Demoralize Opponents—Otis Clingman Expects Hard Match

Joe Kopecky, the lanky Pole who will wrestle Otis Clingman in the main three-fall match at the Piamor tomorrow night, is noted as the wrestler who is as bad as his looks. And Joe's is such a menacing face that some wrestlers claim they are demoralized by it from the minute they enter the ring.

Joe has never been known to lose or win a match without slugging, and it is taken for granted that he will deliver punches and socks Thursday night. If he does, will Otis get rough with him? And if he does, how much will Otis take before he gets mad? Pampa fans believe the answers to these questions will spell defeat or victory for Clingman. Those who saw Kopecky mutilate Tex Watkins, Cal Farley, Billy Lendos, and other aspirants to his junior middleweight championship, are hoping that Clingman will do everything but tear the reformed cotton picker apart.

Clingman is well aware that he will be up against the toughest proposition in the Panhandle when he steps onto the mat with Kopecky. If Otis wins, it means that he is supreme in the middleweight division. It will be the best wrestling match seen here this year. Fans are conscious of that fact and the sale of ring side seats is going fast.

In the semi-final event, Rob Roy of El Paso, will be a match for the theatrical Dutch Betke. Roy has been suffering from a carbuncle on his neck but he doesn't want Dutch to know about it. Roy is rather lean and not tall but he proved to be almost a match for Clingman here several months ago. If Dutch starts any rough stuff, he will make the Borger ape man sorry for it.

Red Michaels, Pampa's clever amateur, will engage on a 10-minute affair with Curley Lewis.

Clingman won, but he had a hard tussle. He took the first fall in 17 minutes. Sampson won the second in 45 minutes. Aroused by a loss of the second fall, Clingman went after his opponent hard in the deciding tussle, winning handily in seven minutes.

Murder Backstairs

©1930 by NEA SERVICE INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DORIS Matthews, lady's maid, is murdered Friday night after 11:30 in a summerhouse on the Berkeley estate, by a blow with a heavy perfume flask, presented to MRS. BERKELEY by SEYMOUR CROSBY. The body, rock-weighted and tied with CLORINDA BERKELEY'S scarf, is taken from the lake Saturday morning by DETECTIVE BQ-NIE DUNDEE, who summons CAPTAIN STRAWN.

MEMBERS OF HOUSEHOLD: (all under suspicion): Mr. and Mrs. George Berkeley, who have quarreled late Friday night over Clorinda's engagement to Crosby, close friend of the social secretary, MRS. LAMBERT; GIGI BERKELEY, who sprinkled all persons in drawing room Friday night with perfume from the murder flask, later placed in Mrs. Berkeley's bathroom by WICKETT, butler; DICK BERKELEY, who after having been missing all night turns up while his mother is accusing EUGENE ARNOLD, chauffeur, engaged to Doris, of having murdered Doris and Dick out of jealousy.

Mrs. Berkeley is forced to admit she slapped Doris while the maid was dressing her for dinner because Doris said she used too much perfume; admits also she instructed Doris to wait up for her but says Doris was not in her rooms when she (Mrs. Berkeley) went up to bed at 11:40. Roused print of Doris's mouth on bathroom mirror proves girl was there and that a struggle took place.

When Clorinda admits having seen Doris just before 11, Strawn asks: "Didn't Doris tell you that your brother had made her promise to meet him when the family was in bed?"

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XX
"Does your silence mean yes, Clorinda?" Captain Strawn prodded relentlessly. "Doris did tell you that she had promised to meet your brother, and even then you knew there would be—trouble?"
"No, no! Doris did not mention Dick!—Oh, please!" The tragic dark eyes flew wide, pleaded desperately. "Tell me if that is true, or if you are just trying to trap me into an admission damaging to myself?"
Dundee had an unprofessional impulse to tell her the truth, to relieve her strange suspense by telling her that her brother had spent the night in the tower room, waiting for the girl who never came.

But Captain Strawn was answering her with a cruel evasion: "She'd promised to meet Dick all right! We have two witnesses to prove it!—Now you've said you didn't know until this morning that Arnold couldn't keep his date with Doris, because of faking the Smiths home. Who told you that?"
With an obvious effort Clorinda got control of herself, and answered almost calmly: "Mrs. Lambert. She was wandering about at the breakfast table whether Arnold had got word to Doris that he could not keep his appointment with her, or whether he had asked her to meet him an hour later than they had planned."

"Did Mrs. Lambert also know last night that Doris was to meet Arnold?"
"No. I contributed that bit of news myself this morning." Clorinda answered lazily. "We were all thrashing out the probabilities and possibilities—naturally."
"Naturally!" Strawn agreed, his voice heavy with sarcasm.
"Now, don't be nasty!" Gigi warned, pretending to be about to choke him as she had threatened. "And you mustn't mind Clo. She has a 'Lady Clara Vere-de-Verre' complex, though I must say the grand manner becomes her. I'd try to be just like her when I'm grown, except that dignity simply does not go with a pug nose," she added mournfully, looking cross-eyed at the short but adorable feature.

"I'll have to spank you yet," Strawn told her severely. "Well, Miss Clorinda, you two girls chatted together quite a lot last night. I suppose, as Doris helped you get ready for bed?"
"We talked—yes," Clorinda answered stiffly. "Doris and I are—very good friends."
"Talked about sweethearts and getting married, and things like that?" Strawn pressed gently.

Clorinda did not answer, but her black eyes were scornful.
"Doris bragged about her sweetie and you bragged about yours?" Strawn went on, with heavy good humor.
"Doris talked of Arnold—yes," Clorinda answered coolly.
"And just what did she say about Arnold?"

"A number of things. That she loved him with all her heart, that she wished he were not so 'jealous-natured.'"
"And even then she didn't say that it was, Dick Berkeley her sweetie was so jealous of?"
"I've told you she didn't mention my brother."

"Did she tell you then, or when she was helping you undress shortly after seven, that your mother slapped her face?"
"What?" Clorinda was again startled out of her insolent calm.
"Oh, dear!" Gigi wailed. "Isn't this exactly like a detective story?"
—Poor old hot-tempered Abbie smacked Doris for pulling her hair, or something, and the police say, 'aha! She mothered the girl! I'll bet before the day is over I'll be wearing steel bracelets, because Doris is sure to have told somebody about me saying I could simply murder her for being so darned pretty and cute that Arnold couldn't see me at all—You see," she explained sadly to Strawn, "I was trying out my sex appeal on Arnold, and for about a minute, I thought I had him going, but I simply couldn't compete with Doris, once he had a good look at her."

"Oh, so you threatened her life, did you?" Strawn growled. "Where are my handcuffs?—Now, Miss Clorinda, answer the question please: did Doris tell you your mother had slapped her face?"
"She did not!" Clorinda retorted curtly.
"But she wasn't in such a happy mood when she came from your mother's room at 7:15 to help you dress, eh?"

"I was late, and rather in a hurry. I did not notice Doris's mood particularly, but she was too well trained to gossip against my mother to me," she answered scornfully, after an instant of hesitation.
Strawn shrugged, then began on a new tack, his voice suddenly portentous: "Miss Clorinda, I want you to search your memory very carefully before you answer this question, because it's important: Was Doris wearing lip rouge when you saw her just before 11 o'clock last night?"

"Lip rouge?" Clorinda repeated incredulously. Then, as Strawn nodded grimly, she closed her eyes as if to concentrate: "At last she answered positively: 'No. I am quite sure she wasn't. Doris was a perfectly trained maid. I never saw she retorted imperiously. "Remember, I do admit nothing. I do not believe you can bring forward any witness whatsoever, who will dare stand before me and—"

"There is my witness!" Strawn interrupted, pointing melodramatically to Dundee, whose face flushed scarlet with embarrassment.
"Forgive me, Miss Berkeley!" he begged, in all sincerity. "I assure you I was not spying on you. I was just about to leave the drawing room when I heard you cough slightly. I confess I peeped to see who it was, and I saw you descending the stairs. I waited until you had let yourself out the back door before going upstairs. I had been hunting for Dick. I knew he had forced Doris to agree to meet him last night, and I wanted to persuade him to abandon the adventure."

"I see," Clorinda said icily. "Dick seems to have been particularly—unfortunate in his choice of a weekend guest."
"Don't, Clo!" Gigi protested brokenly. Dundee could feel the trembling of her small body against his knees, and involuntarily he laid his free left hand gently on the bright, bowed head. She reached up blindly and clung to his fingers with both her small, brown hands—desperately, as if to a life-line. Poor kid, he thought pityingly. She had fought hard to protect her sister, and she had lost. What had she known, or suspected? Oh, the scarf, of course!

"Very well, then!" Clorinda capitulated suddenly. "I—had a headache. I took a long walk about the grounds. I walked over the west part of the estate first, then to the south wall, and finally around the lake."
"And were you alone on this long walk, Miss Clorinda?" Strawn asked genially, now that his witness was tractable.

Physician and Girl are Found Dead in Room

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—A signal flash caused by an overturned telephone led to the discovery today of the slain bodies of a physician and a young woman in the doctor's office-apartment in the fashionable Sutton Place section.

The body of the physician, Dr. Maxwell B. Allen, 35, was found on the bedroom floor. He had been shot through the right temple. A revolver lay near his side.

The young woman, tentatively identified as Miss Florence Lapelle, 25, his nurse-secretary, was lying on a bed, shot through the neck.

Powder marks on both the man and woman indicated the shots had been fired at close range. They expressed belief the physician had shot the girl and killed himself.

The well, located just north of Graham, last night halted traffic on the Rock Island railroad and on a nearby highway while a crew battled to control the flow of gas and oil.

Gas from the well was estimated at 15,000,000 cubic feet, with an oil flow of 5,000 barrels. It came in at 3,757 feet, flowing tools out.

Mr. and Mrs. August A. Gordon and their nephew, Alvin Denebism, are to leave today for Kansas City, where they will spend the Easter holidays with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Carl Brashers, Mrs. John L. Peake, and Mrs. John Haggard spent Monday in Amarillo.

Greenville Man Shoots Boy and Wounds Father

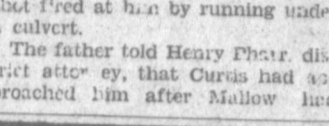

GREENVILLE, April 9. (AP)—Because of a disagreement over property and a drainage ditch, J. H. Willis, 60, today was charged with a murder and Pennington Mallow, 37, was dead.

A. F. Mallow, 35, the youth's father, was seriously wounded yesterday in a shooting at Kingston, seven miles north of here. Willis Mallow, brother of the slain youth, was helping his father and brother dig a drainage ditch and escaped a shot fired at him by running under a culvert.

The father told Henry P. Hays, district attorney, that Willis had approached him after Mallow had burned some grass on his property several days ago that resulted in fence posts between the two properties being scorched.

John Haggard left this morning on a business trip to points in Colorado.

No-Bill Voted by Grand Jury in Lambright Case

A no-bill on the charge of theft against Edward Lambright was recently reported by the grand jury. There was no evidence presented that would warrant the jury in returning an indictment, according to reliable information received by The News today.

Lambright was arrested six weeks ago in a South Pampa rooming house on a charge of theft. A varied assortment of merchandise, including wearing apparel food products, and notions was seized by the arresting officers, Deputy Herman Wachtendorf and Constable G. H. Parish.

The grand jury has reported one no-bill and 31 indictments. Seven were returned yesterday.

Lambright was in the hospital three weeks following his arrest, suffering from the effects of a blow at the base of the skull which he said he received when Deputy Herman Wachtendorf struck him on the head with a leather black-jack. The deputy alleged Lambright resisted him during search of the room.

Following his release from the hospital, Mr. Lambright moved to the apartment of his mother, who came here from Nowata, Okla., to be with her son. Lambright appeared before the grand jury a week ago, although he still remains in bed part of each day. His appearance before the twelve men was one of the two times he had left his room. Lambright was unconscious three days in the hospital.

Investigation by the grand jury revealed that Lambright bought much of the goods in stores that featured "grab bags." Yo Yo's among the merchandise were bought in this method, it was stated. The grand jury was unable to obtain proof that any of the articles now in possession of the sheriff's department were stolen.

Before the grand jury, Lambright denied that he resisted arrest or that he struck the deputy at all. He said he remonstrated with Wachtendorf when the latter was "tearing up his room."

Storey Is Reported Seen Near Denton

DENTON, April 9. (AP)—Officers of Denton county kept a sharp lookout today for Yancy Storey, after receiving reports that he had visited his ranch home 12 miles south of here and was hiding in a wood, armed with a rifle. Storey two weeks ago was ordered committed to the state penitentiary after his appeal was withdrawn from a five year sentence for bank robbery. The district court here, when he failed to appear, forfeited his appeal bond in a theft case and bonds in two other turkey theft cases pending.

Majestic Liner Linked by Phone

Another trans-Atlantic liner has been linked by telephone with the United States. Service is open between the S. S. Majestic of the White Star Line and the Bell system telephones in this country.

Services will be maintained from the time the ship leaves her dock until she is well on her way to Europe.

This is the second step in the American Telephone and Telegraph company's ship-to-shore telephone service, connection having been established with the S. S. Leviathan of the United States lines last December. As with the Leviathan, service with the Majestic will be available as long as the ship is within range of the company's radio stations on both outward and inward voyages.

The circuit is a combination of land lines and short wave radio stations and radio telephone apparatus aboard the Majestic.

MEXICAN COP LOSES TEMPER

MEXICO CITY, April 9. (AP)—A dispatch to Universal from Juarez says when one of a trio of intoxicated women tried to stab him, a local policeman lost his patience and took all three to jail.

The women, Emilia Saenz, Angela Soto, and Ines Morales, were tottering along a Main street shouting, "Damned be all men!" The policeman took this affront with a grin, whereupon the women cornered him and twitched his moustache and gave him a few playful scratches.

Then they tore his coat and otherwise maltreated him, but the gentleman kept his temper.

It was too much, however, when one of them dived at him with a knife. They were locked up overnight.

(Continued from Page 1) of ruffians with no emotion except greed, who would think nothing of sending back an ear for a souvenir in case they grow restless about their money.

"In Mazatlan there was civilization, but the town went its lazy, tropical way, indifferent to the fact that a gripping drama, with a human life in the balance was being worked out.

"We tried to question the peons. Eaton talked the Spanish. 'Have you seen an American?' A reply of a scrawny Indian-Mexican. One of them told us an elderly American man was back the trail a few miles headed for Ahuacatlan.

"Finally we got a fragment of reassuring news. One of Obie's private scouts at Hilo reported that Bristow and the bandits had passed there, apparently headed for Ahuacatlan and our little group of rescuers. That message got us thru the night.

"Wednesday morning the break came. The bandits took Bristow to a mountainside. They had taken a long way around to avoid the eyes of the Mexican soldiers who were out to get them dead or alive. There they wheeled their horses and turned back into the desolate waste, leaving Bristow in the hands of the ransomed messengers who had delivered the bags of gold.

"Bristow was brought in by these messengers. It was in front of that dingy little hotel that he was turned over to us—sallow, with dark rings under his eyes, with shrunken cheeks, but alive. Eaton and I stood back while he and his son embraced."

ELECTION

Prohibition promises to join the world court as an issue of the November campaign. Lewis has announced the 18th amendment will be a major issue, so far as he is concerned. He is outspokenly opposed to prohibition. Mrs. McCormick classifies as a dry.

Except for the world court, Mrs. McCormick campaigned in support of the administration program on farm relief, and other matters of national concern. She planned to return late today to Washington to resume her congressional duties.

When she returns home, she said, she will commence a campaign for election as vigorous as that which preceded yesterday's primary.

Length of the ballot was delaying returns on congressional contests. Leopre returns showed Oscar DePriest, negro, congressman from the first district, ahead of Congressman M. A. Michascon, whose leaky trunk led last year to a charge of prohibition law violation—a charge of which he was acquitted—was having a close race with three op-
