CANNOT PURIFY JIM OVERNIGHT

Despite the frenzied efforts to "purify" James E. Ferguson and make him appear a better man than Ross Sterling, the nation at large and the majority of Texas voters are not going to be convinced. Those who know of Jim's highway department, of his and Ma's pardoning of many of the state's worst criminals, or his political opportunism which included his famous "bolt" from the Democratic party, will not take seriously Owsley's astonishing claim that Jim is "one of the purest men in Texas."

It is passing strange that a man of Owsley's ability should have supported Sterling in the first race, when Jim Ferguson was just as "pure" as he is now. Mr. Owsley evidently never did discover Clint Small, although he now is making a great plea for the votes of Small supporters.

Ferguson men make much of the fact that Jim is not in the penitentiary. Well, name an impeached governor who is. Impeachment is usually considered punishment enough, for it is about the most humiliating thing in political and private life. Jim cannot be a candidate in his own right, and isn't that evidence enough that he is not so pure?"

It is not strange that Ferguson clansmen are trying to purify Jim. They know that Pa, not Ma, would be governor in fact, though through the proxy arrangement Jim could accept funds for his influence in securing pardons and would be beyond the law. The fact that Jim Ferguson is not in prison is proof enough that Texas should not have a dual arrangement by which the law can be evaded. Being out of prison is no proof of purity, or Al Capone would be sprouting angel wings.

Fergusonism is famous throughout the nation and in other countries among the well-read. It stands for one thing—misgovernment. Federal road aid was suspended when Ma was governor. Only the greatest of effrontery enables Ferguson to mention roads and attempt to make the subject an issue. If there is a road issue before the people, it is whether under Fergusonism the Texas road administration shall become demoralized. Jim speaks of building 3,000 miles of road a year out of the gasoline tax. Not many weeks ago he was arguing for cheap construction costing $3,000 per mile. He is either inconsistent or he recalls those excessive contracts of a Ferguson administration, for the Sterling commission is already doing all that Jim promises, and more.

Ferguson may be pure, but you could not convince the people of Canyon that he is. They remember a certain $5,000 Teachers college fund that was hunted during the impeachment proceedings. Ferguson may be pure, but there are thousands of outraged Texans who have seen the prison doors swing open to criminals who robbed them, killed their relatives and wronged their daughters.

Where is consistency when the nation cries out against weak law enforcement and a Texas governor turns loose thousands of men convicted of felonies and sentenced by juries of the common folk in due course of law? There is not a crime under heaven worse than those committed by men pardoned in Ferguson administrations.

No, the Sterling highway proposal is not an issue. Sterling as governor could have no more power to pass a bond issue than did any single Gray county citizen in the recent bond election here. The bond plan would first have to pass the legislature and then the people in the form of a suggested amendment. The people would have to approve the amendment in a state-wide election. In other words, the people of Texas would have a chance to approve or reject Sterling proposals.

On the other hand, Jim Ferguson could continue his notorious tactics beyond the reach of the ballot box. His hand-picked highway commission could let contracts for any type of road to any contractor who might gain the favor of the administration.

THERE COULD BE NO MORE DANGEROUS PRACTICE IN A FREE DEMOCRACY THAN PLACING THE POWER OF THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE BEYOND THE WILL OF THE VOTERS OF TEXAS.

If Jim Ferguson cannot properly be governor in his own right, he is manifestly unfit to have the power in any other manner.

The declaration that Ferguson is "one of the purest men in Texas" is an insult to every lover of good government.

Model City Is Formed By Children In Junior Chautauqua On Tuesday

Junior Chautauqua, a delightful program combining recreation and instruction, was opened Tuesday morning in connection with the Redpath Chautauqua that is being held this week under the auspices of the Pampa Library association. Miss Beatrice Glover, entertainer and supervisor, announced plans for Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings, and issued an invitation to all the children of Pampa and vicinity to attend each of the Junior programs.

Yesterday's entertainment included stories told by Miss Glover, yells by the youngsters, songs in which Miss Glover led, and a baseball game. A "Junior Pampa" was organized for the purpose of instructing the boys and girls in citizenship, law observance, health habits, safety measures, rudiments of city government.

The 200 or more children present for the first program entered enthusiastically into the business of electing a mayor for their little city and other officers to assist in maintaining order both at the children's Chautauqua and the performances for adults in the afternoon and evening. Paul Keim was chosen mayor; Christine Manning, clerk; and Janice Purviance, news reporter.

The law and order commissioners were Chester Hunkapillar, Mickey Ledrick, and William Hassell. The service commissioners, corresponding to the Boy Scouts, were Alvin Deneheim, Jack Walstad, and Flora Deen Finley. Betty Jo Townsend, Janet Cole, and Leona Hurst were the health commissioners.

Miss Glover said a Junior Chautauqua parade would be held Wednesday afternoon, following immediately the regular matinee performance at the tent on East Foster avenue. The children were invited to appear in any sort of costumes they might own, or in their play logs, riding ponies, bicycles, or walking, and they were asked to tell all their little friends and invite them to join in the fun. A track meet for the boys and a doll exhibit for the girls was announced for Thursday. Friday, the closing day, would feature a picnic, at which each child would furnish his own lunch, Miss Glover said.

The programs are to open at 9 o'clock each morning, with Miss Glover directing. Stories and songs will be a part of every day's entertainment, and the program will be enjoyable for children of all ages, according to Miss Glover. She stressed the invitation to all children of the city and the community, whether they or their parents hold Chautauqua tickets or not.

The supervisor is a young woman of attractive personality. During the winter months she is a teacher in the public schools of Kansas City, and during the summer she travels in all parts of the United States conducting Junior Chautauqua programs. She was enthusiastic about the ready response of the children of Pampa, and said excellent school training toward initiative was evident in their attitude.

Mrs. Clifford Braly made high score among the club members, and Miss Ruth Anne Mitchell, among the other guests. Mrs. Philip R. Pond cut high.

Others present were: Mrs. Charles Thut, Mrs. Henry Thut, Jr., Mrs. M. F. Roche, Mrs. Mel Davis, Mrs. Frank Keim, Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. W. A. Willson, and Mrs. F. M. Gwin, club members; Mrs. S. D. Martin of Norman, Okla., Mrs. Chilton of Austin, Mrs. T. F. Smalling, and Mrs. Frank P. Graham.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 20. (AP)—Returns from 400 of Wyoming's 679 precincts in Tuesday's primary election gave Robert D. Carey, former governor, a substantial lead in the four cornered Republican contest for the long and short term senatorial nomination.

The vote on the contest for the long term was: Carey 11,587; Charles E. Winter, former congressman 8,015; William C. Deming, Cheyenne publisher 3,217; W. L. Walls, who advocated repeal of all prohibition laws, 1,830.

DANCING JUDITH

BEGIN HERE TODAY JUDITH GRANT, artist's model loves ALAN STEYNE, who is also loved by CHUMMY MORLEY.

Judy had her great dinner party, and is was a tremendous success. During the course of it she was more than ever convinced that Chummy was happy, and that Alan Steyne was doing what she considered the right thing.

"Happened to me, Bastien?" she said. "No, Judy—not the real you. After you first came out, I did think you'd changed. I thought you'd grown a little hard, and I feared that you might be spoiled."

"I look like it," the young artist said. "Oh, I'm so glad—so glad!" "Sometimes," said poor Bastien, "I'm jealous even of Chummy, because you love her so much!"

Judy had the satisfaction of seeing that Madame de Toros looked foolish. What she thought Judy did not know, but in some way or other she had played up to her brother. No doubt he had lied to her; and now she had found him out.

"So you have been fooled, my good man!" "Yes, Thirza, I had a beastly headache that night," he said expansively.

"We'll leave it at that," she answered carelessly. "What do you want to talk to me about?" "Judy, do tell me that you forgive me! I can't rest until you've said so. It was unpardonable. It was monstrous!"

"Considering I'm sitting talking to you here, I must have forgiven you, mustn't I?" she said. "She was not afraid of him any more. There was nothing to be afraid of. She had conquered him for good and all. She had him in the hollow of her hand."

"Why do you ask me to marry you, Mr. Punch?" she said. "Because I want you to be my wife," he replied, his voice trembling like a nervous girl's singing in public for the first time.

"Long ago there was a room, some where in New York, and in that room there were easels with pictures on them, and a lot of beautiful furniture. On the floor there was a lovely white barksin rug, and on that bearskin rug sat Judy Grant one afternoon, and a tall screen hid her.

"From the next room came two gentlemen well known in New York—very well known, indeed—real gentlemen, they were! And they came in and were talking about little Judy Grant, the artist's model.

"I do mean it, truly, Mr. Punch." "I never wanted to marry her, as she surveyed him. In the back of her eyes the light of keen enjoyment glowed brightly."

Sees Evidence of Prosperity Tho Drouth Severe

That the nation appears prosperous despite drouths and other economic ills, is the contention of C. L. Stine, who returned recently from a two-week trip to North Carolina.

HOT FINISH IN TEXAS LEAGUE RACE APPEARS TO BE SURE

SPODDERS AND CATS ARE TIED AT TOP RUNG

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nineteen days to go on the second half, and the Wichita Falls Spuds and Fort Worth Cats were back in a perfect deadlock for the Texas league pinnacle today. The Houston Buffs, on a long home stand, were only two and a half games back of the leaders, occupying the most strategic position of any of the eight contenders. Looks like a nifty race down the home stretch, mates.

Smashing a winning streak that had reached 10 straight, the Cats slaughtered their old rivals, the Dallas Steers, 17 to 9, in their one-day stand at Fort Worth to climb back into a tie with the Spuds, who were dropping a night tussle at Shreveport. Five May hurlers were pounded heartily by the pennant-hungry Kittens, who sewed up the verdict with an eight-run spurge in the third. Hugh Williamson punched a homer No. 30 for the losers. The loss knocked Dallas back into a tie with Waco for fifth.

Oscar Tuero, the venerable Cuban spitballer, rang up his seventeenth triumph as he stopped the Spudders cold under the lights at Breckenhard field. The first half champs collected only six hits, all singles, off the Shreveport veteran and went down without a struggle, 5 to 0. Larry Bettencourt, the mighty, struck out three times in a row as Tuero's splitter cracked across the plate. McClanahan led the winners' assault on Les White with a homer and a single.

The Buffs continued to get great pitching as they captured their opener at Beaumont, 7 to 5. Ralph Judd allowed the Shippers seven hits, including a roundtripper by Eckhardt, but whiffed nine and was tight in the pinches. Led by Homer Peel, with a brace of doubles and a single, the Junior Cards bunched their blows off Denny Burns in five innings.

Returning to their beloved Katy park after a disastrous jaunt thru the north, in which they lost nine out of 11 starts, the Waco Cublets achieved a 10 to 4 victory over the luckless San Antonio crew. The Prattmen hopped on Cooper and Cramer for 15 knocks, scoring all their runs in the first three rounds.

AMARILLO, Aug. 20. (Special)—Tuesday, September 23, has been set aside by the directors of the Tri-State Fair association as Pampa Day, and all residents of Gray county are extended a special invitation by Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the association, to attend the fair on that, their own day, or any other day.

Under plans now being completed by the association this year's fair will far surpass that of any previous year. Mr. Hawk said yesterday, in outlining the progress made by the fair officials during the months they have been engaged in booking attractions for the midway and in arranging contests that will include every type of exhibit that might be entered.

Cash prizes aggregating $18,000 will be paid to exhibitors at this year's fair. Of this amount $5,000 will go to beef cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to dairy cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to swine exhibitors; $5,000 will be paid in agricultural premiums and $500 to exhibitors of pet stock. A zoo crammed to overflowing with animals of every type will be one of the attractions.

Flyweight Champ Is Given Beatings

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20. (AP)—Midget Wolgast, recognized world flyweight champion in New York and Pennsylvania, took a severe beating at the hands of Newsboy Brown, Los Angeles veteran trial horse, last night.

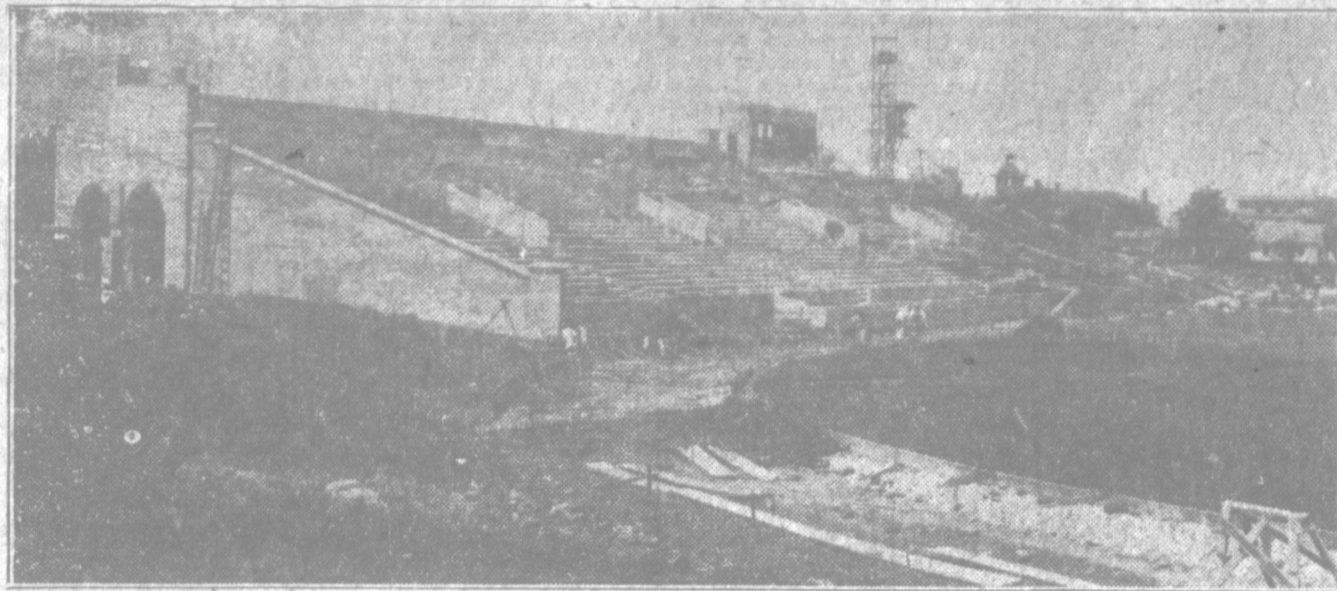

Referee Jack Kennedy gave six rounds to Brown, Wolgast two, and called two even. The fight was fast throughout. The Philadelphian floored Brown in the fifth and was staggered in the eighth by a terrific left to the body.

Miss Leah Amend of Canyon, formerly a teacher in the local high school, visited friends here yesterday.

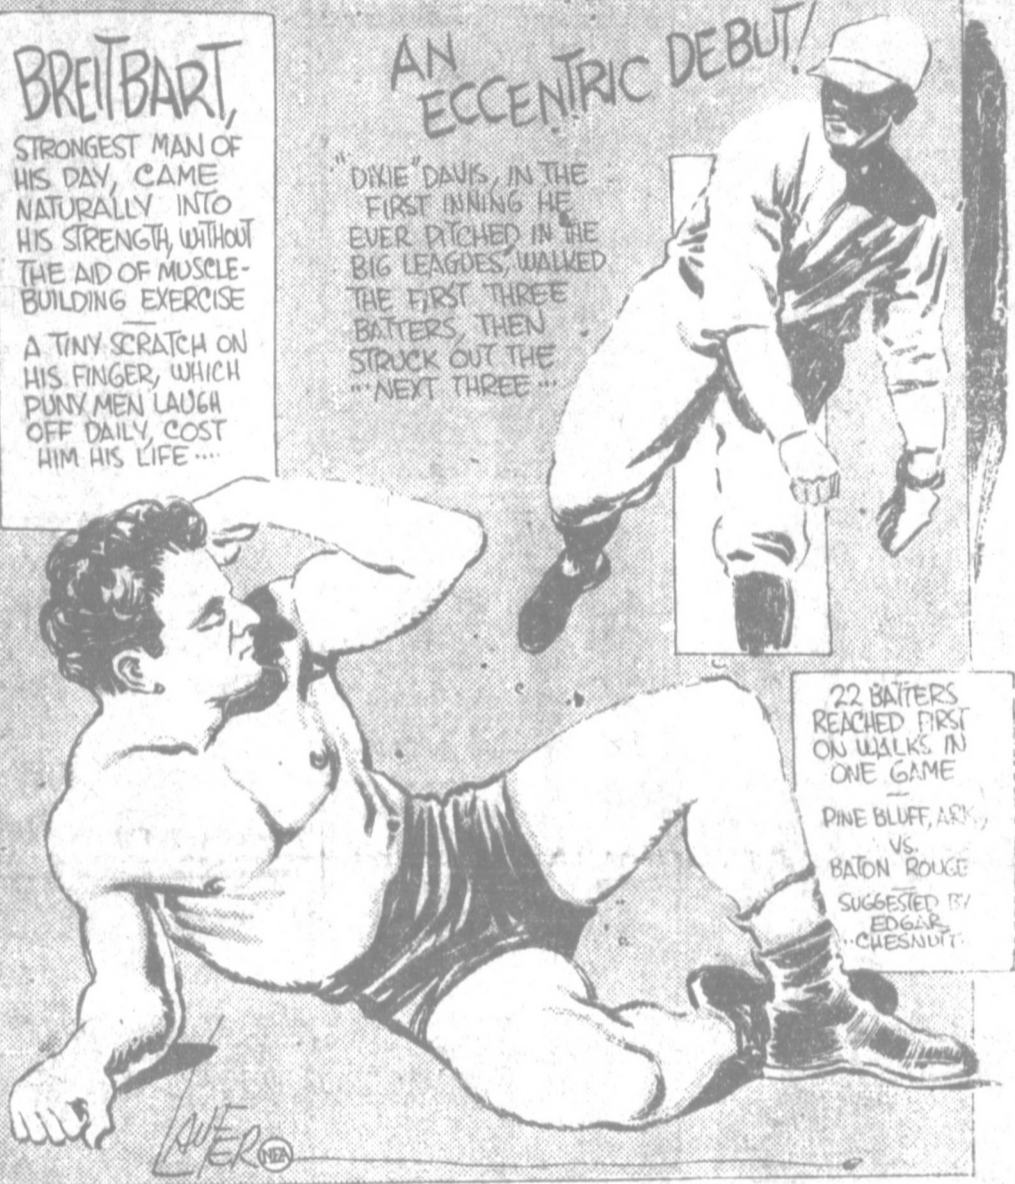

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Braswell, Jr., of Clarendon visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Atteberry, Monday evening. They recently returned from a wedding trip to South Texas points. Mrs. Braswell formerly was Miss Cecelia Atteberry.

Mrs. Paul Potter and son, Paul, Jr., returned Monday, after a day's visit in Plainview with her sister.

NEW STADIUM AT UNIVERSITY OF TULSA

Brushing Up Sports - - - - - By Laufer

University of Tulsa's new $300,000 stadium is fast nearing completion and will be ready for the Golden Hurricane's first home game with the University of Arkansas Razorbacks on October 4.

The above view is taken from a recent photograph of the construction of the west section, which, together with an identical section on the east side of the field, will seat 15,000 spectators. To the right of the tiers of seats in the cut above may be seen the playing field, which has been sodded with Bermuda and which is watered daily to insure a firm sod for the Arkansas game. Surrounding the playing field is the oblong quarter mile cinder track.

The field and track have been constructed with a modern drainage system, which will allow a dry surface almost 365 days out of the year. Rows of drainage tile were first laid down, upon which was laid eight inches of crushed rock, this was covered by a foot of soil, in which Bermuda was planted. A layer of cinders instead of soil, was put on the crushed rock as a surface for the track.

Following the first game with A. U. on October 4, at which time the stadium will be dedicated in a huge celebration entailing speeches and music by the university band, a home schedule of seven games, four of which are at night, will be treated the football fans of this section. The schedule follows: University of Arkansas, dedication Oct. 4. Hendrix College, night, Oct. 17. Phillips University, night, Oct. 25. Geo. Washington Univ., night, Oct. 31. Missouri School of Mines, night, Nov. 14. Oklahoma City Uni., Thanksgiving, Nov. 21. Haskell Indians, Indian Day, December 6.

The stadium is located at Eleventh and Florence streets, four blocks from the campus. The tower of the administration building may be seen in the background of the picture above, and to its right are seen the tan brick walls of Harwell gymnasium.

ROBINS TAKE THIRD PLACE AFTER LOSS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Due to the efforts of a pair of clubs which are not even making a pretense of getting into the super-heated National league pennant struggle, the three contenders for the flag have found themselves in a more uncertain position with the prospect that the coming series between the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants will be the really crucial one of the season.

The Giants have taken second place in the standing and have placed themselves within striking distance of the league leading Cubs, only three games behind.

While the Giants were taking a close struggle from the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 2, Pittsburgh shoved Brooklyn's Robins into third place with an 8 to 0 triumph while the humble Phillies kept the league leaders from making any sort of gain in a double header.

The Phillies took the first game by a 9 to 2 count despite the efforts of Hack Wilson, who clouted his 43rd home run to tie the National league record set last year by Chuck Klein and of Hartnett and Blair, who also hit homers. Then, as the teams attempted to play off Saturday's eleven inning tie, the tall enders battled the Cubs to a standstill in 15 minutes of play which wound up in a 6-6 tie. Fidgety Phil Collins hurled the entire game and was deprived of a eulogy when Lester Bell hit a homer with two on base in the eighth inning.

The Giants gained the triumph by some timely hitting in the second inning which produced three runs. Pitcher Carl Hubbell driving in two of them. Brooklyn failed to make any progress at bat as Steve Swetonic pitched his first full game this year for the Pirates and made it a six hit shutout. With nothing much at stake, Fred Frankhouse turned in another nice job of hurling to give the Boston Braves a 4 to 0 victory over Cincinnati.

The American league's hurlers had a thoroughly enjoyable day with the single exception of those who work for Boston. The Red stockinged moundsmen failed to stop the Cleveland batters while the Indians got the benefit of Wes Ferrell's 21st winning game of the year and an equally good job of pitching by Roxie Lawson to win by scores of 7 to 2 and 7 to 3.

Earl Whitehill continues his chase after Ferrell's league leading total of victories by running his string to eleven straight to give Detroit a 2 to 1 victory over Washington. He allowed the Senators five hits while Brown and Liska granted six. Charley Ruffing of New York made an-

HARVESTERS OPEN CAMP AT DAVIS RANCH TODAY - YOUNG PLAYERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Pampa's Harvesters will open their training camp this afternoon at the Mel Davis ranch near LeFors.

Coach Odus Mitchell said that he had picked out two playing fields, which he declared almost ideal for the purpose. One is of deep sand, full standard size, where the lads may make their early season tackles in the knowledge that if they hit hard there will be no physical damage. This gridiron is in the bed of a dry stream.

The other field is higher, and has a grass turf. Passing and punting and formation work will be done there.

There is a cool spring nearby, and shade trees where rest periods may be observed. The daily program will depend much upon the weather. If the hot weather continues, the boys will have to take their toughening tactics slowly. Hiking will probably be in order every other day. Skull practice will not be overlooked, since Class A football is mental as well as physical.

The boys will not be allowed to leave the camp unless for good cause. They will not be brought here more than twice during the 10 days. It is going to be necessary to take this football season seriously. Right now the youngsters of the squad act like colts before a storm. Coach Mitchell smilingly said that a workout of two would reduce their enthusiasm to a workable basis.

The school board has voted to increase the bleacher capacity to 3,000, and work will start on the new stands at once.

County Teachers Are to Attend Canyon Institute

All school teachers in Gray county with the exception of those who will teach in the Pampa Independent school district, will attend the consolidated teachers' institute at Canyon beginning Sept. 1, according to John Hessey, county superintendent.

The institute will continue until Wednesday when the teachers will return to Gray county and make preparations for enrolling students on Thursday and Friday. All rural schools in the county and in addition, the school at McLean will open for work Sept. 8.

Due to delay in completion of the new ward building on Frost street and the various additions, the local schools will not start until two or three weeks after the other schools in the county have opened. Pampa teachers will probably hold their own institute here just before the session opens. However, final plans will not be announced until Supt. E. B. Fisher returns from Columbia University.

Oden Attends Radio Sessions

M. D. Oden returned yesterday from a trip to Oklahoma City where he attended a meeting of Victor dealers. At this meeting, the Victor line for 1931 was on exhibit, and Mr. Oden says that information regarding the new line will be announced to the public on or about Sept. 1.

Gov. W. J. Holloway made the address of welcome to the dealers. Governor Holloway praised the optimism of E. L. Gratigny, vice president of the T. E. Swann company, Victor dealers, saying that in the course of several months he had often asked Mr. Gratigny, "how's business?" and the reply was invariably optimistic. Mr. Gratigny answering the query by stating that business was good, and the least he ever said was that "business was good as could be expected." The governor praised this spirit highly. Mr. Oden said that at Oklahoma City, the Oklahoma Gas and Electric company had two service men, who, at no cost to radio owners, made trips over the city, locating and correcting any local cause of interference.

Argentine Man Defeats Flowers

NEW YORK, Aug. 20. (AP)—A third victory to his credit, Julio Suarez, Argentine lightweight, looked around today for more worlds to conquer.

He knocked out Bruce Flowers, New Rochelle, N. Y., negro in the sixth round of a ten-round bout at the Queensboro stadium last night. Suarez gave Flowers a bad beating, flooring him with heavy rights. The victory was the most decisive of Suarez' American campaign. Previously he had outpointed Joe Gillick and Herman Perlick in ten round bouts. Flowers, one of the country's leading 136-pounders, had scored a one round knockout over Tommy Grogan in his last start. Each weighed 136 1-2 pounds.

J. G. Gaetz made a business trip to Spearman today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Seemyer of Tulsa are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. West.

The Rev. A. A. Hyde, minister of the Presbyterian church, planned to go to the Boy Scout camp in Ceta canyon today. He will remain there through Sunday.

STURGEON—

$200,000 and $300,000 for expenses as chairman of North Texas Sterling forces. Refused this sum at the Dallas rally, he bolted the Sterling cause he had been advocating and went over to Ferguson.

The speaker said that Owsley had admitted this fact to Amarillo Legionnaires, and Sturgeon declared Owsley to be insincere and to be making speeches for personal gain.

Sees Sterling Victory
Judge Sturgeon said that in his home Lamar county, Senator Small received 1,500 votes, although he was practically unknown there. He predicted that 85 per cent of the Small vote in East Texas would go Sterling and against Ferguson because "Small's supporters are that kind of high-principled people."

In describing Sterling, whom as an official of the Christian church he has known for many years, Sturgeon said that in the Houston man the people of Texas had an opportunity to elect a governor who is old fashioned enough to go to Wednesday prayer meetings and to ask the blessing when he sits down to eat with his family. He declared Sterling to have been grossly and maliciously misrepresented. He recalled that when Sterling sold a short railroad to the Southern Pacific he demanded and was assured that every employe would retain his job at no loss in salary. He has given every cent of his salary as chairman of the state highway commission to charity. And although he has visited every county seat in Texas, he has never submitted an expense account.

Sterling Needs No Graft
Sturgeon said that Sterling, having succeeded in business from poverty to wealth, has retired and has no desire to do more than serve his state as best he knows how. He declared that through his business acumen the Houston man—voted last year Houston's "most Useful Citizen"—could do infinitely more for the common man than Jim Ferguson. The common people, Sturgeon shouted, have paid for Ferguson's mistakes and the bad reputation he has brought upon this state.

Sturgeon asserted that this was a campaign with a strong moral issue, and that it was high time every citizen "took sides." That is why, he said, that such men as Clint Small, Walter Woodward, Pink Parish, Lee Satterwhite, and other West Texans are making a powerful onslaught on Fergusonism. Texas has a chance, he said, to elect Sterling—a man with a clean private and public record. He called attention to Sterling's philanthropies, which total hundreds of thousands of dollars to schools and churches.

On the other hand, the Paris man said in a quiet, earnest manner that held his audience, the Supreme Court of Texas has twice declared that Jim Ferguson has forfeited his right to seek favors from the people of this state, and cannot himself hold even the office of notary public. Sturgeon asserted that this fact alone should be enough to prevent Texans from elevating the Fergusonis to the highest office, where Jim could defy the impeachmen, the Supreme Court, and the will of the state by exercising the power of the governorship without being responsible to people or law.

Sterling Is Honest
After branding a number of charges against Sterling as false, Sturgeon continued by advocating the Houstonian, a native Texan of pioneer parentage, for the governorship. He said Sterling stood for tax equalization and had fought for a $1 per ton tax on sulphur. When he had reviewed highway scandals under Ferguson administrations, he said that not even Sterling opponents have charged that the present highway commission had mispent a dollar of the $100,000,000 which has passed through its hands in the last 3 1/2 years.

Attacking the Ferguson pardon record, the speaker declared that there could be no efficiency, no justice, in pardoning 3,700 men in two years and 160 persons in the last three days of the Ma Ferguson administration. In the last 29 days of her tenure, Mrs. Ferguson pardoned 124 robbers, 127 liquor law violators, 133 murderers, and 39 rapists. Mr. Sturgeon said that releasing of this number of arch criminals could have no defense in law or decency.

The speaker charged that he had the proof that Jim Ferguson ac-was good on most low lands, but deterioration was reported from other places, with rapid shedding in the hills."

AUSTIN, Aug. 20. (P)—Drought conditions in northwest Texas, especially along the Red River and in the vicinity of Childress, have been described as serious in telegrams to the state department of agriculture and the governor's office here.

Would Move Cattle
The telegrams stressed principally the need of livestock men in this section and the governor particularly was asked for emergency freight rates so that cattle might be shipped out of the territory.

Some relief from the intense heat that held the greater part of Texas in its grip was promised Wednesday, by the weather man as showers, the first in most instances that had fallen in many weeks, fell in sections of North Texas.

The highest temperature was recorded at Greenville in Hunt county where rain fell late Tuesday to break a 60-day drought.

Light showers fell at Abilene, Amarillo, Fort Worth, Pampa, Palestine, Nacogdoches, Bridgeport, Bronson, Crosbyton, Dublin, Eastland, and Weatherford. At Dallas where a few drops fell Tuesday a slow drizzle was falling today.

Hearing Damage Suit

A suit in which W. B. Saulsbury is asking damages of H. M. Henderson for an alleged breach of contract involving a land sale is being tried in 114th district court. Cook, Smith and Teed are representing Mr. Saulsbury, while Willis, Studer and Studer are representing the defendant.

Ray Nichols Coming

Ray H. Nichols of Vernon, Rotary district governor, will be in Pampa next Wednesday and will address the Pampa Rotary club. It was announced at the meeting today. He will spend most of the day in Pampa and will meet with club committee chairmen at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Hear Montgomery Cases

The quarterly session of county court opened Monday morning. Non-jury cases are being heard this week. Jury cases will be tried the second and third weeks. The case of Starkey vs. Nichols is set for next Monday.

cepted money to seek a pardon for a man while at the same time being retained by others seeking to block the pardon. He read affidavits purporting to show that money passed to Ferguson in connection with the notorious Langhorne pardon case. That Ferguson maintained law office and practiced to his personal profit while wielding the power of the governorship in his own favor was declared to be without parallel in American history.

Introduction By Willis
The speaker was introduced by Judge Newton P. Willis, who headed the local Small forces in the first primary and who is supporting Sterling's candidacy now.

The crowd applauded Sturgeon enthusiastically, and when he closed gave an affirmative reply to the question of whether they cared to remain to hear Judge E. J. Pickens, Judge of the 84th district court. Judge Pickens spoke briefly, giving most of his time to a discussion of Ferguson's claim to service to rural school children. Judge Pickens quoted figures to show that the Moody administration has more than doubled the rural school aid, and has placed the per capita appropriation at the highest figure in Texas history—$17.50.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20. (P)—Good quality weight hogs were sold today at the Chicago union stockyards for the highest prices paid this year and at levels which have not been reached since August, 1929. The top price early was $11.65 per hundredweight, or 15 cents higher than any paid so far this season. The same quality hogs sold a year ago for $12.25 per hundredweight. Sales were made at the start of trading today at $11.50.

Grain Turns Upward
CHICAGO, Aug. 20. (P)—Quick upturns in grain values today followed setbacks at the start. Traders gave particular attention to an unofficial estimate that total wheat, corn, oats, rye and barley supplies this season taken together were 435,000,000 bushels short of the total of these grains last season. In this connection, it was pointed out that wheat and rye are more than 50c under a year ago and corn and oats 10c under.

Opening 3-9 to 1 1-2c off, wheat later showed decided general gains. Corn started at 1-2c decline to 1-4c advance, and subsequently scored a sharp rise all around.

"BIG POND"

ning performance that alone would have made the attraction worth while to many of those in the audience.

Their repertoire included native island music, classical and operatic selections, and American popular music. Soft and appealingly sweet in the manner of the music of the tropics, their playing was nevertheless strong and technically perfect, through years of training in American colleges and conservatories. Each of the men played a number of instruments and all of them sang.

Smith Damron, potter and philosopher, gave the principal program feature of the evening—an unique demonstration, lecture, and exhibit. One of the comparatively few potters of this country who follow the ancient method of fashioning with the potter's wheel and the hand, Mr. Damron is reputed to be the only artist combining the trade with platform entertaining.

As he trod the pedal of his wheel with his left foot, and shaped the spinning clay with his hands, Mr. Damron philosophized in a manner sometimes reminiscent of Browning's Rabbi Ben Ezra, and sometimes of the modern Scattergood.

His talk on American ceramics contained much of practical interest, too, and was heard with interest and close attention by the entire audience. The finest American china wares, Mr. Damron said, are in all ways superior to the noted and highly expensive imported chinawares. He showed samples of the fine porcelain of American manufacture, together with pottery from the Rookwood potteries in Cincinnati and the Van Briggie potteries in Colorado Springs. His wide and beautiful collection contained a specimen from George Washington's dinner service, and samples from several of the White House sets in which the audience took much interest.

POLITICS—

"I taken' instead of 'I look' but regardless of which he uses, you can bet your last dollar it is only his own property that he is talking about."

Perhaps the most bitter campaign onslaught of the day was that of Governor Dan Moody, speaking at night to a large audience at the state fair grounds at Dallas. The sandy-haired governor, for the first time during his campaign tour speaking for Sterling's candidacy, was without serious interruption from hecklers.

He read from what he declared were records of Ferguson's impeachment trial and attacked the Ferguson pardon record.

"Jim Ferguson is going up and down the country," he told his hearers, "with his catchy, political pro-
