

PARRISH IS NOT TO MAKE RACE

Warden E. F. Harrell of State Penitentiary Tenders His Resignation

"That's gold in these here prairies."

Pampa fact: Taxes are based on assessments made the previous year; or, to put it another way, taxes are usually a year behind development. This means that the city, the county, and the schools are not yet receiving the full benefit of local growth, but will soon.

An oil community has its tremendous assets, and it also has its peculiarities. The biggest benefit of oil development is through the payroll, as concerns the average business man. Many supply houses, company headquarters buildings, and the like make a big bulk, but their benefit to the average merchant is not in the size of their stock but in the size of their payroll.

It seems to be a popular thing to stress "fairness" in running for office. But why? The ordinary, law-abiding citizen needs no fairness, and is interested only in honest enforcement of the laws and efficient administration of the duties of the several offices. If any fairness is needed in modern law enforcement, it is to the public which expects the laws enforced. We have so much weak-kneed "fairness" in this country that the criminals are laughing up their sleeves and justice, meaning giving the law violators what they deserve and what the law provides, is rare. If there is lack of fairness in present-day office holding it is in favor of the criminal class. The term has no appeal to us.

Up in Chicago the other day a plane arose over a crowded highway. The motor sputtered, the ship slowed below cruising speed, and a crash followed. The plane's occupants escaped as the propeller and undercarriage plunged through a small sedan. The car's occupants—a family of three—died instantly.

When air traffic becomes heavy in Pampa, as it will, we will not wish planes to be rising dozens of times daily over our homes. The present municipal airport would be ideal if further out, but it is a growing menace as it is now located. The residential section is moving eastward, and soon the ships will be unable to rise into the prevailing southwest winds without going over houses. It is unwise, unsafe, and unfair to visiting and local aviators. The airport problem isn't solved.

TWINKLES

Chicago must be as bad as reported—several persons have been in a plane for a week and are trying to stay up longer.

Since we cannot get rid of the dust, the next best thing would be a dustless street sweeper.

After looking over the gubernatorial ballot, we are almost of the opinion that Texas ought to be divided so as to give us fewer names to remember.

The "innocent-by-stander" is not apt to be innocent very long if he keeps on standing.

It's not the heat, but the humility that the heat gives us when our collar melts down and our whiskers grow faster that worries us.

As a rule, a town boasts either of its good business conditions or howls loudly of hard times. We should offer thanks that the only howls justified in Pampa are those of the "wildcats" nearby.

HOARD IS ACQUITTED

SAN ANTONIO, June 20. (AP)—Buddy Hoard, tried on an indictment charging him with having murdered the infant of Ethel Schumacher, Hunt, Texas, girl, was acquitted by a jury here today.

Grace, Frederick, nurse, indicted jointly with Hoard, is in Bexar county jail, awaiting trial.

NO REASON IS GIVEN AS HE LEAVES JOB

Official Believed in Kindly Care of Inmates

WAS FORMERLY TEXAS RANGER

Captain Vaughn Will Take Position For Time

HUNTSVILLE, June 20. (AP)—Resignation of Warden E. F. Harrell of the Texas state penitentiary was announced here today by Lee Simmons, general manager of the prison system.

Harrell submitted his resignation Thursday and it took effect at once, Simmons said.

No reason was given for the resignation, according to Simmons. No successor has been selected.

Captain R. H. Vaughn, assistant warden, was appointed acting warden, and Captain N. E. Barfield was promoted to the assistant warden's post.

Mr. Simmons, who is empowered to appoint and rehire the warden said he would "not be in any hurry" to name a permanent warden. The manager said he did not care to make any statement in connection with Harrell's resignation.

Mr. Harrell was out of town, and could not be reached for a statement.

Mr. Harrell, a former Texas ranger and ex-sheriff, went into office under the administration of W. H. Meade as general manager about two years ago. Several months ago Mr. Meade resigned, saying in a statement he had not obtained proper cooperation from certain sources. Harrell, upon entering the prison service, told friends he considered kindness the biggest factor in controlling prisoners. On execution nights he never could be found about the main plant at Huntsville because of his personal distaste for the proceeding.

Police Game by Boys Cause of Trouble Here

The game of policeman as played by two small boys here yesterday afternoon ended in tears for the youngsters and in two new boxes of chalk for the police force.

Officer Kenner's job is to tag the cars that are parked for more than two hours on certain streets. Each hour he places a chalk mark on the tire. Yesterday, about 4 o'clock a half-dozen indignant motorists advanced upon him. They were being led by an irate woman.

"Looky here, officer! My car has not been parked here 20 minutes and you've marked it twice." The other made similar accusations. One man removed his coat and the lady stood with arms akimbo. Kenner did not compromise. "Well, folks, if your cars are marked, they were marked every hour. You'll find the other cars in this block are similarly marked. Take this one for instance."

It had four marks on the tire. The next one had six.

"I'm beginning to see light now—I guess you folks aren't crooks after all," Kenner said. "And I reckon you're not crazy; come on, let's find them kids!" suggested the lady.

Thirty minutes later, the two youngsters were found blithely marking tires. They were taken walking lustily to the police station, but all Chief Downs could do was to lecture them.

And that's why there were no over-parking fines paid yesterday, and why Officer Kenner is using green and red chalk today.

Infant Is Buried

The infant born Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Peake of this city, at St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo, was buried yesterday morning at Fairview cemetery, after a brief service.

INDIANS FILE HUGE SUIT

Seminole Seek to Get Royalties in Future

By NEA Stryker
TULSA, Okla. June 20.—Against the interests of the red man and the white man clash in the Indian territory that was supposed to belong to the red man for all time and a new tribe of "the richest people in the world" is in prospect if the Indians win.

The present clash is in the form of another of Oklahoma's big scale law suits, affecting income of $250,000 a day and probably $100,000,000 in future wealth of the famous Seminole oil field in eastern Oklahoma.

The vanishing Seminole Indians, who are back of the suit, declare that they, rather than the present white owners, should be receiving the bounteous royalties now being paid out by oil companies producing in the Seminole field. They claim that when title to their lands in Seminole county—approximately 375,000 acres—passed into the hands of white purchasers, the sub-surface or mineral rights remained collectively vested in the Seminole nation.

At the time of the sale of the Seminole lands, about 1900, there was no knowledge of the great oil wealth under the surface. No one dreamed that the land would some day be turned into one of the most productive oil pools of all time, the famous Seminole field. Already the field has produced a score of more white millionaires, men and women who bought the land from individual Seminoles, who, when the Seminole nation went out of existence as such in 1900, took title to what had formerly been vested in the Seminole nation as a whole.

2000 Authorize Suit

The plaintiffs in the suit are four individual Seminoles, Chilli Fish, Louis Fife, Allan Cran and Samson B. Harjo. These four were authorized to bring suit on behalf of 2000 members of the Seminole tribe at a mass meeting held in August 1929. The plaintiffs are backed by former United States Senator Robert L. Owen and his associates, among whom are D. H. Linebaugh of Muskogee and H. G. Thompson, a Washington lawyer.

According to the plaintiffs' statement, the mineral rights of the land remained collectively vested in the Seminole nation even when the title passed to the individual Seminoles. This arrangement, they argue, was

New Hobbs Is Overflowing and Many Leaving

Texas has had her Spindletop, Burkburnett, Ranger, and Borger, and now New Mexico is having her first oil boom town—New Hobbs.

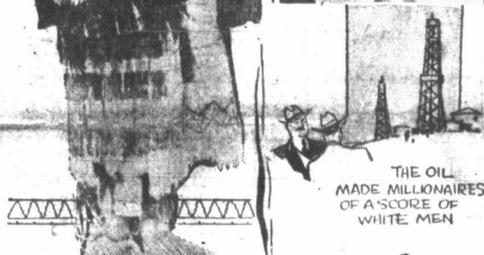

"New Hobbs is just like Borger was in 1926," said J. S. Wynne, who with G. W. Woodhouse returned Wednesday from a New Mexico trip. "The population of the town is about 6,000, and they're flocking in at the rate of 2,000 per day, but most of those who come one day leave the next. There's not a brick building that I could see in town."

Mr. Wynne said that everywhere he went people were saying they had heard that Pampa was the best town in the southwest. Jobs are just as scarce at Hobbs as they are at Pampa, he said.

The prolonged drought has not broken in New Mexico, and there is practically no grass, Mr. Wynne learned. Many cattlemen are preparing to move their cattle out of the state. Crops are either poor or they are not yet up, and the latter is true especially in the New Hobbs-Lovington district.

Mr. Wynne said grass in this section of the Panhandle is fine for cattle and is getting better all the time. The ranches have a fine range. It is his opinion that the good grazing conditions will help to offset the short wheat crop which he predicts will be "about half of average."

Involved in Indian Oil Move

THE OIL MADE MILLIONAIRES OF A SCORE OF WHITE MEN

EIGHT CARLOADS OF WHEAT SHIPPED AND TWELVE BILLED OUT—PRICE DOWN TO 70 CENTS

Eight cars of wheat had been shipped out of Pampa at noon today, and 12 cars were being billed this afternoon.

Farmers continued to place their grain in storage as wheat sank to the new level of 70 cents per bushel today. C. S. Barrett of the Pampa Grain company said that out of 25,000 bushels brought to him, he had bought 1,000 bushels, while L. C. McMurtry stated that he has in his possession 9,000 bushels of which he bought 1,640 bushels. Although, he added, he has bought 2,000 bushels under contract, to be delivered later. These figures indicate that 90 per cent of the grain is being placed in storage in the hope that better prices are around the corner.

Farmers are storing the grain in the elevators and on their farms. The elevators still have ample storage space.

Benefit Event to Be Given Tomorrow

An ice cream social is to be given at the Grandview school tomorrow night by the 4-H and Home Demonstration clubs of that community.

Profits from the event are to be used in sending delegates from the girls' and women's clubs to the annual short course at A. & M. college in July.

The Grandview school is south of the city. A large crowd is expected for the benefit event.

BYRD LIKELY TO RETURN TO POLAR REGION

Thinks Claim to Be Important For U. S. A.

MUCH LAND IS SEEN BY PARTY

Four Books to Give Data on Great Journey

BY OSCAR LEIDING
Associated Press Aviator Editor
WASHINGTON, June 20. (AP)—Refusing to speak of the future "until we get squared away on this expedition," Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd today hinted nevertheless at more south polar work.

"We've got to get in and find out what's there," he said just after his welcome to Washington. "This work is a big bug—hard to get over."

"There is a perfectly tremendous lot of land there, but I'd rather not talk about what may be planned as this expedition is not finished and we must clear up a debt of from $50,000 to $100,000."

"We only saw 50,000 or so square miles of territory and the sector I claimed for the United States may have a tremendous area. It stretches east of the Ross dependency, Great Britain's claim, from the 150th meridian west."

Asked of the value to mankind of proving that the south polar flight was feasible, he countered: "Who knows? It was 100 years or more before our own country was put to use after its discovery."

"Within a few years it may be that people will be flying down there. At least permanent weather stations should be established and it will be only a few years until they will."

He pictured the south pole area as a once tropical land, with carboniferous deposits like America's coal age, but "now in the clutches of an ice age with glaciers" still alive.

The bottom of the world, he said, has even more effect than the north on weather and he praised the members of his expedition who carried on the scientific studies in temperatures exceeding 75 degrees below zero.

There were half-hour observations during the long polar night of the Aurora Australis, which is believed to have great effect on the world's weather, and readings later when the sun came back over the frigid wastes.

Important radio readings were taken, he said, especially of the short-wave echoes which were caught in their journey through space.

From the welter of scientific material four books will be written, to which Rear Admiral Byrd will contribute one article, on the geographical aspect.

Wilcox Brings in Gusher Well —5,000 Barrels

Wilcox Oil and Gas company's No. 15 Combs-Worley, section 35, block 3, was brought in yesterday afternoon for an initial production of 6,000 barrels. Ten million feet of gas came with the oil.

In a 20-hour period, ending at 7 o'clock this morning, the well had flowed 5,000 barrels of oil. This is one of the best wells which has yet been developed on the Combs-Worley lease. The largest gushers completed in Gray county this spring has been in this pool.

The well was drilled to a total depth of 2,815 feet.

Prairie Oil and Gas company is preparing to bring in No. 4 and No. 5 Leycomb, both of which are expected to be of gusher proportions. No. 4 will be completed this week-end, it is believed.

L. P. Davis of Wichita Falls was a business visitor in Pampa yesterday.

Wants Funeral to Be "Good Time on Me"

NEWBERRY, Mich., June 20. (AP)—The will of John M. Youngs, filed for probate today, provided for an innovation in funerals.

The will read in part: "I want a monument erected to cost no more than $150, musicians for pallbearers to play some good pieces at my funeral, no sad pieces to be played, and a good lively one at the grave, last of all."

"Executrix to buy cigars to be smoked by all men at my funeral, hearse, hack drivers and all, to smoke from the time they start, until the time they return home."

"Executrix to buy candy and gum for the women folks and children. Men, women and children, have a good time on me."

KANSAS BANK IS ROBBED OF $2,000 TODAY

WICHITA, Kans., June 20. (AP)—Two men robbed the first national bank of Towanda, Kans., of approximately $2,000 ten minutes after the bank had been opened today.

The woman cashier and a customer were forced to lie on the floor while the intruders scooped up all the available cash in the vault. Towanda is 25 miles north-east of Wichita.

PERRELLVIEW, Mo., June 20. (AP)—Holding bank employees and customers at bay with a revolver, an unmasked man today held up and robbed the Ferrelview State bank of an undetermined amount of money and escaped in a motor car in which another man was waiting.

The robber scooped up all the loose bills in sight in the cashier's cage.

As the robber ran from the bank, employees of the institution fired a number of shots through the windows at him and the motor car.

Lions to Carry Pans in Parade at Denver Parley

Pampa's Lions club has offered to wager a banquet with any other Panhandle club that it will have the biggest delegation at the international convention in Denver next month. The challenge has not yet been accepted.

President W. H. Curry, who is also chairman of the Panhandle district, will open headquarters in connection with the Texas general delegation, and will cooperate with the state organization in planning demonstrations.

Each member of the Panhandle delegation will carry a pan, on which will be written the name of the club to which the member belongs. On the opposite side of the pan will be the words, "Texas Panhandle." Texas delegates will wear white trousers and blue coats.

The Pampa club will hold its annual election of officers and directors next week. Visitors at the luncheon yesterday were Ralph Thomas, county agent, and Loop M. D. Bentley of McLean.

Well in Western Bee

BEVILLVILLE, June 20. (AP) Grayburg oil company's No. 1 Kimball in Western Bee county was completed yesterday at 3,545 to 3,558 feet for an estimated 300 barrels of 37 gravity oil daily.

Prank Causes Many Motorists to Be Given "Tickets"

George Briggs was chucking this morning about an incident that occurred Thursday afternoon. Mr. Briggs had parked his car and gone into his office. He returned to his car one hour and forty minutes later and was given a ticket for over-parked cars in that block, and that the officer, whose duty was to check on the time cars are parked, observed the marks of yellow chalk on the cars, and gave a ticket to each driver.

L. P. Davis of Wichita Falls was a business visitor in Pampa yesterday.

SUPPORT TO BE GIVEN TO CLINT SMALL

Candidacy Filed by His Friends in Crosby

STATEMENT TO BE GIVEN OUT

Home Field Open to West Texas' Aspirant

LUBBOCK, June 20. (AP)—Senator Pink L. Parrish of Lubbock wired the Lubbock Journal from Austin today that he was withdrawing his candidacy for governor and would support Senator Clint C. Small of Wellington.

Senator Parrish's candidacy was filed by Crosby county friends and today's statement was his first since his return from Toronto, Canada, where he was attending a Shrine convention at the time his name was certified for a place on the primary ballots.

AUSTIN, June 20. (AP)—The Austin American said today Senator Pink L. Parrish of Lubbock stated here he would withdraw as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor and support Senator Clint C. Small. Parrish said that he would issue a statement of his position tomorrow in which he would give his reasons for withdrawing from the race and for giving his support to Small. The American said.

Man Convinces Jury of Insanity

In a matter-of-fact voice a LeFors man this morning in county court convinced not only his neighbors and relatives, but a jury that he was sanely insane and should be sent to the Wichita Falls hospital for the insane.

"I knew ten days ago that I would go insane yesterday, and I did," he said. "At that time I knew I was developing insanity. Every day that passed I grew more insane. I had impulses to kill with a knife. At other times I wanted to take life by hanging. Four days ago I asked a neighbor to stay with me and watch me to prevent me from obeying my impulses. I am sanely insane."

Neighbors testified that the man worked at an insane asylum for several years, and that he now has relatives who are in institutions for the insane. He said it was his belief that he inherited insanity. He will be taken to Wichita Falls this week.

County Attorney John Studer said the man was the first person he ever knew of who was aware that he is insane.

THE WEATHER

Oklahoma and Texas: Partly cloudy to unsettled tonight and Saturday. Light to moderate winds on the coast, mostly southeasterly.

—AND A SMILE

NEW YORK. (AP)—Brooklyn's bachelor pastor, who has several times described his difficulties in remained unmarried, is to wed. The Rev. Dr. Henry C. Offerman, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, is engaged to Miss Grace Altman, a beauty, who helped carry the daisy chain at Adelphi college. "All sorts of tricks are thought of to win the special interest of the unmarried minister," he once said. "I believe I could write down the names of 100 very sweet girls who have been suggested to me as wonderful possibilities for the parsonage."

THE DECLINE OF BOXING

The aftermath of the Sharkey-Schmeling fight seems to be chiefly a matter of sour reflections by all concerned. Schmeling protests that he "didn't want to win that way". Sharkey no doubt has his own melancholy thoughts. And the great American fan has the dismal realization that once more he has been taken for a ride.

All of this, of course, is primarily a matter for discussion on the sports pages. But sport, in America, has become a transcendent subject. Affairs like a world series, a heavyweight championship prize fight, a major football game, a national golf tournament or a featured horse race are things that interest everyone. They cut across the ordinary boundaries. The intensity with which we nourish them lifts them above the confines of what used to be called "the sporting world."

Boxing, ever since the war, has been one of the nation's favorites. Beginning with Jack Dempsey's victory over Willard, the American public has showered money extravagantly on its prize fighters. A few of them, like Dempsey, have given value received; but—especially in the last couple of years—the public has received very little for its money. The sour taste that is left by the last few heavyweight fights is getting unendurable—brought to a climax by this Sharkey-Schmeling fiasco.

Fundamentally, probably, the trouble is that prize-fighting is not a sport at all any more. Golf and football are games that are played for the love of playing. Baseball, while deeply commercialized, is still basically a game and not a business. Even horse-racing, surrounded by a demi-world of touts gamblers and fixers, is still at least partly a sport.

But boxing! It has fallen into the grip of the racketeers, the chiselers and the tin-horns. Whatever elements of sport it once had seem to have left it. If the American public is well-advised it will let this business die—or, at least, let it pass into a coma and stay there until it gets back to first principles once more and becomes at least as much of a sport as big league baseball is.—NEA.

BOBBY JONES IS STILL SUPREME---GETS ANOTHER TITLE

HUGE BRITISH PLAYER HAS POOR ROUND

HOYLAK, Eng., June 20. (AP)—Bobby Jones today was the British open golf champion for the third time with a score of 291. The open champion of the United States increased his golf title to three as he won the amateur championship of Great Britain last month. He is the first man to hold the British amateur and open championships since John Ball accomplished the feat in 1890.

The Georgian won in spite of two shaky rounds today. He took 74 strokes in the third round, when he carded a six, and 75 in the afternoon when he had a seven on his card. His first two rounds of 70 and 72 pulled him through to a sixth.

Leo Diegel and Archie Compston threatened until Compston ruined his chances with 43 strokes for the first nine in the afternoon and Diegel remained in the hunt until the sixteenth hole when he took a sixth.

Leo Diegel, P. G. A. champion of the United States, made a great bid but finished two strokes behind Jones, taking 75 for the third round, the same score Bobby returned.

Although he had not definitely won when he finished his round Jones was furnished an escort of police who guarded him on his way to the club house as though he had just been arrested for throwing a bomb of something.

Archie Compston, giant British pro, went from the sublime to the ridiculous in his last day's play. He broke the course record in the third round with a 68 and then fell away to 88 in the fourth for a score of 297.

best shot I hit all day. I'd like to have won but I hope to have better luck next time. I come nearer every year, anyway."

Diegel finished third in the British open last year.

MacDonald Smith, New York pro, equaled Diegel's total of 293 by scoring 71 in his final round.

Final scores in the championship: Horton Smith, New York, 223-73-296.

Abe Mitchell, England, 230-77-317.

(X) Robert T. Jones, Jr. Atlanta, 216-75-291.

Fred Robson, England, 221-75-296.

Bert Hodgson—England, 227-74-301.

(X) Donald K. Mooe, Portland Ore., 223-80-303.

Percy Alliss, Germany, 226-79-305.

Ted Ray, England, 229-78-307.

Leo Diegel, Mexico, 218-75-293.

Archie Compston, England, 215-75-297.

James Barnes, New York, 220-77-297.

NIGHT PLAY TO BE TRIED THIS EVENING

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

Things were picking up in the well known Texas league today. A split season was assured, starting with games of June 25, and two clubs were prepared to take a high dive into the night game soon after dark this evening. All in all, it was a big day for the J. Alvin Gardner circuit.

Assurance that the season had been duly split, as everyone knew it would be, came last night from President Gardner soon after his return from Chicago and points north. From all available information, it seems that the matter had been settled for several days, seven of the eight club owners voting for a new start next week. It was learned that William Huff, president of the Wichita Falls Spudgers, who are safely under the wire for the first half, was the lone opponent of the move.

True to custom, President Gardner vouchsafed the opinion that the second half would be a humdinger. He said he expected several clubs to give the Spudgers a fit from here on, mentioning, in particular, the Houston Buffs and Fort Worth Cats. Announcement last night that the Dallas Steers had signed Grover Cleveland Alexander also was taken to mean that the Herd had serious designs on the second half. Anyway, there will be a new deal all around next Wednesday.

The Fort Worth Cats and Waco Cubs were scheduled to hook up tonight at Katy Park, Waco, in the circuit's first nocturnal debate. The greatest crowd in Waco's baseball history, probably 7,000, was expected to watch the clubs battle it out under the arc lights. If tonight's game goes off well, it is likely that every park in the league will be equipped for night ball before the season closes.

The Spudgers, traveling along as though they had never heard of such a thing as a split season, took their final from the Cubs yesterday, 6 to 2, thus stretching their lead over Houston to nine games.

Milt Steingrafe attended to the pitching, holding the Prattmen to seven hits, while Bettencourt, Kloss and Storti did the heavy stick work each clouting a homer with a male on base. That accounted for all six runs. Bettencourt's round trip was his 22nd of the year.

Dick McCabe hurled the Fort Worth Cats to victory in their final at Houston, 6 to 1. The Panther right-hander kept seven blows scattered and had the Elsons blanked until the eighth. Kelly and Cox led the winners' attack on George Payne, each of with a pair of doubles.

Air-tight chinking by Jim Chaplin, who chalked up his fifth triumph, gave the San Antonio Indians a 3 to 0 decision over Shreveport in their closer. Chaplin gave up only five hits, two of them by Baker, and struck out five. Underhill went the route for the Sports and allowed only seven hits, but they were bunched on him in three frames.

Beaumont's wabbling pitching staff had another tough day of it as the Dallas Steers hammered three Exporter chunkeys for twenty hits and a 15 to 10 victory. Grady Adkins went all the way for the winners, even though he was peppered early and often. Every man in the Dallas line-up except Adkins got at least two hits, Willingham leading the parade with four.

Mrs. L. A. Snodgrass of Skellytown and Misses Ruby and Launa Gibson of Borger are shoppers in the city today.

Stribling Will Fight Von Porat This Evening

CHICAGO, June 20. (AP)—The battle of postponements between Otto Von Porat and W. L. (Young) Stribling will become a leather throwing reality in the Chicago stadium tonight.

After several days of anxiety for stadium officials over the condition of Stribling's flighty left hand, only the weighing-in remained to be accomplished before the Southerner and the Norwegian crusher climb into the ring after two postponements, for not more than 10 rounds, and possibly less.

The official weighing ceremony time was shifted from 2 p. m., to 1:15 p. m., the change having been made, the Illinois state athletic commission announced, to "avoid confusion." Von Porat was expected to come in at 205 pounds, giving him a sizeable advantage over Stribling, who will weigh about 190.

Interest in the bout centered in the prospect of bringing out a challenger for Max Schmeling's N. B. A. New York state athletic commission world heavyweight championship. Each is after the chance and will be out for a decisive victory. By reason of his boxing skill and experience, Stribling continued to rate a 6 to 5 favorite over the Norwegian. Some money was offered at 1 to 2 1-2 that Von Porat will knock Stribling out.

Ball Argument Rages as Both Clubs Practice

Threats and insinuations, such as wrestlers hurl at each other, were the hot spots today in the argument between the Gulf Guns and Phillips "66" as to which won a baseball game last Monday evening.

The Guns, talking longest and loudest, explained in detail what they are going to do to the "66" club in the game Sunday afternoon at Gun park. It's no secret with them that they are going to import some big shots for the game—a pinch hitter who has a batting average in the Western league, a pitcher and a fielder from Wichita, Kans. Phillips retaliated by sending up to Wichita, Kans., for the "best pitcher in the state."

The game will undoubtedly be one of the best and the most bitterly contested, to be seen here this year. Without the imported stars, both clubs have perhaps the best assembly of baseball talent in the Pan-for the Guns. When the first Phillips hitter struck out and the second had two strikes on him, Phillips knew that school was out so Manager Mooney walked out on the field and told the umpire, who is a Phillips gang pusher, to stop the game on account of rain, and give it to Phillips on a technicality.

"There is only one thing the Guns crave now—that is a chance to beat them fair and square."

BORN WITHOUT ARMS, SIX YEAR-OLD OKLAHOMA TOT FINDS IT NO HANDICAP

SAND SPRINGS, Okla., June 20.—Nature put a terrible handicap on little Joan Whisnant. But it also gave Joan a sturdy, determined soul. The result is that Joan, overcoming long odds, has found a way to an active, almost normal existence in spite of an affliction that might have seemed too great to be borne.

Joan, who is just six years old, was born without hands or arms. Apparently she was doomed from the cradle to be a helpless cripple. But her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whisnant, were determined that she should escape that fate as far as was humanely possible, and they have taught her to do with her feet what other children do with their hands. As a result—

Joan can write legibly, can eat from her own plate with her own knife and fork, can drink from her own cup or glass, can turn the pages of her own books, can cut out paper dolls, play with her toys, wash dishes, comb her hair and embroider very nicely with a needle and thread.

Her first demonstration of dexterity with her toes came when as a small baby she kicked and played with a rubber ball, hung over her cradle by a string. At the age of 4 she was making marks with a pencil held between her toes.

Now she is going to school, and aside from the fact that she has a special desk she is treated there as a normal child.

At home she insists on helping her mother with the housework. Her parents have declined all offers to have the girl go into vaudeville, and insists she never will.

"Joan has shown herself to be a normal child and not a curiosity," says her mother. "We intend to educate and treat her as such."

First Christian Church 500 East Kingsmill Ave. Pastor F. W. O'Malley has returned, and will occupy the pulpit both morning and night, Lord's day, June 22.

Bible school, which has the best of teachers and classes adapted to all ages, begins at 9:45 o'clock, with Roy McMillen as superintendent. Communion and sermon are held at 11 o'clock, with special music. All young people's societies meet at 7 o'clock, with capable leaders and interesting and helpful exercises. Gospel preaching begins at 8 o'clock. Congregational singing and good gospel songs are features of this meeting. Everybody is invited. F. W. O'MALLEY, Minister

The FRIGIDAIRE mechanism is inside the cabinet at the bottom where the outside air is coolest... One reason for its lower operating cost

Other reasons why 3 times as many Frigidaires are now in use as any other make of electric refrigerator: porcelain on steel, inside and out—surplus power—cold control—the new hydrator—permanently quiet operation—low first, and operating cost!

Because the unit is in the bottom, the food shelves are elevated..... this eliminates stooping...and the top is flat, clean and usable this is ONE reason why 3 times as many Frigidaires are now in use as any other make of electric refrigerator

Mrs. W. A. Curry and Mrs. Frank Perry Are Hostesses at Bridge

Mrs. W. A. Curry and Mrs. Frank Perry entertained with bridge yesterday afternoon at the Pampa tea room. Eight tables were in the game, each smartly appointed with accessories in a variety of pastel shades.

At the close of the playing, Mrs. Ivy Duncan was rewarded for high score, and Miss Margaret Buckler, for second high. Mrs. H. D. Lewis made top cut, and Mrs. Justin Devine cut low.

Guests, other than those named, were as follows: Mrs. P. B. Carlson, Mrs. John Studer, Mrs. Roy Wight, Mrs. John Wight, Mrs. Clarence Barrett, Mrs. W. J. Smith, Mrs. Wade Duncan, Mrs. M. D. Oden, Mrs. Floyd McConnell, Mrs. Robert Gilchrist, Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, Mrs. B. W. Farris.

Mrs. Sam Fenberg, Mrs. Yarrington of Marietta, Okla., Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan, Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. W. H. Lang, Mrs. Fred Lang of Tulsa, Mrs. Arthur Swanson, Mrs. Joe Quinn, Mrs. R. C. Sowder, Mrs. J. W. Garman, Mrs. Elmer Blair, Mrs. W. H. Nichols, Mrs. Hal Peck, Mrs. Curtis Douglas, Mrs. Frank Soodhalter, and Miss Phoebe Baker of Boston.

Mrs. W. R. Coffey of Louisville, Ky., left for her home yesterday, after an extended visit in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. F. W. O'Malley. She is Mrs. O'Malley's sister.

Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Pollard and their daughter, Miss Dorothy, are in Amarillo this afternoon.

W. M. U. of First Baptist Church Hears Program of Variety

A meeting of the entire Women's Missionary union of the First Baptist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the church, attended by members of all four circles. Special features made the program one of unusual interest.

The hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," was sung as the opening number, and was followed by a prayer by Mrs. John McKamy. Mrs. C. L. McKinney, president, conducted the devotional service.

Mrs. Ernest Fletcher and Mrs. Wilson Hatcher sang a duet, "Some One Is Needing You Somewhere." The Rev. Taylor of Abilene spoke to the assembly, and then gave a beautiful reading, "Friendship." He also sang a solo.

"How to Help the Negroes" was the program topic outlined in Royal Service. Those who took part in presenting the subject were: Mrs. R. L. Champion, Mrs. F. E. Bowman, Mrs. Mary Binford, Mrs. Clyde Garner, Mrs. Tom E. Rose, and Mrs. W. W. Weant. Mrs. E. F. Brake closed the meeting with prayer.

Besides the members already named, the following attended: Mrs. Will Benton, Mrs. J. H. Ayers, Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. T. B. Solomon, Mrs. H. L. Greene, and Mrs. R. P. Mitchell.

Otto Teis of Dodge City, Kans., was a business visitor here Thursday.

Judge Ivy E. Duncan made a business trip to White Deer Thursday.

Educational Work in Korea Is Missionary Topic of W. M. S.

A lesson from The Missionary Voice on "Educating Korean Children" was studied yesterday afternoon by the four circles of the Methodist Missionary society. The devotional topic of the day was "Returning Good for Evil," with the Scriptural readings from Matthew, Luke, Romans, and Peter. Prayers and hymns completed the program.

Mrs. J. G. Stoupe was leader at the meeting of Circle 1 in Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar's home. Mrs. N. F. Maddux, and Mrs. J. G. Noel presented topics on the Voice lesson.

Mrs. Hunkapillar gave a discourse on two chapters from Spiritual Adventures. Members present were Mrs. Wm. Castleberry, Mrs. L. M. Guyer, Mrs. E. F. Caughey, Mrs. J. E. Ward, and those who appeared on the program.

Mrs. John I. Bradley was hostess to five members of Circle 2. Mrs. M. A. Graham was program leader, and those who joined in the round table were: Mrs. J. G. Burgess, Mrs. O. H. Booth, Mrs. S. A. Hurst, and Mrs. S. A. Beavers.

Two special topics were presented on the program given before Circle 3. Mrs. W. R. Campbell talked on "A Practical Gospel for Korea." Mrs. W. F. Campbell then spoke on "Seeing Missions Through a Missionary's Eyes." Mrs. R. W. Lane led in the discussion of the main topic. In addition to the members named, the following were present: Mrs. W. H. Peters, Mrs. Lee Gray, and Mrs. Gilbert. Mrs. Burton was enrolled as a new member.

Mrs. Roy Tinsley was in charge of the program at the church for members of Circle 4. She was assisted by Mrs. Lewis Robinson, Mrs. Porter Beck, and Mrs. H. B. Carson. Other members attending the meeting were: Mrs. C. C. Dodd, Mrs. Nell Walberg, Mrs. C. E. Ward, Mrs. George Fiescher, Mrs. Albert Wood, Mrs. George Walstad, and Mrs. Z. H. Mundy.

Teachers of Baptist Junior Department Hold Monthly Session

A regular meeting of the teachers of the Junior department of the First Baptist Sunday school was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grover Durham, 319 West Francis avenue.

The teachers present were: Mrs. W. B. Henry, Mrs. E. G. Barrett, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. E. F. Drake, Mrs. Willie, Miss Florence Bolar, Miss Lois and Miss Cornelia Barrett.

Mrs. Henry read the 107th Psalm as the first number of a program on "Thanksgiving." A series of discussions followed.

Reports showed that the classes taught by Mrs. Barrett and Miss Bolar made the highest records for the month.

Large Crowd Attends Dinner Dance Opening New Moose Lodge Hall

The dinner-dance held last evening by the Moose Lodge and the Women of Mooseheart Legion as the opening function for their new temporary hall at 819 West Francis avenue, was attended by a large crowd of members and friends.

Garden flowers in varied hues adorned the tables where a delicious chicken dinner was served, and the color theme furnished by the floral arrangement was repeated in decorations of the hall.

Dancing followed the dinner, with Lunford Brothers orchestra and the American Legion band playing. Officers of the lodge expressed gratification at the interest shown by the public in the initial affair at the hall and appreciation for the cooperation of the musicians.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sone of Stanton are visiting their son, L. L. Sone, Mrs. Sone, and little Miss Shirley Mae.

Emory Crockett of McLean is a visitor here today.

Large Class Initiated by Royal Neighbors of America Last Night

The Pampa camp of the Royal Neighbors of America, meeting last night at the Labor temple, initiated eight new members in an impressive service. Mrs. L. A. Barber, orator, presided.

The regular meeting, at which there was a large attendance, was followed by a social period, during which refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. B. Winfield of Brownwood and San Antonio is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, and Mr. Craven. She is to make an extended visit in this city.

A slight improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. John L. Peake, who is ill at St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo.

Mrs. Clyde Garner, Don Garner, and Clyde, Jr., are to spend tomorrow in Amarillo.

Loven Will Use Airplane to Make Political Jumps

SAN ANTONIO, June 20. (AP)—Paul Loven of New Braunfels, candidate for governor, announced today he would make "a whirlwind" campaign on July 4, using an airplane to jump from South Texas to West Texas, thence to North Texas and back to Southeast Texas.

He planned to deliver his initial address on Washington plaza in San Antonio at 5 a. m., fly to Abilene for a speech at 10 a. m., hop to Fort Worth to fill a 3 p. m. date, jump to Denton for an 8 p. m., and wind up the day with an appearance at Houston at 11:30 p. m. He said he would speak in his home town of New Braunfels July 5 at 3 p. m.

Paul Tabor of Dallas was a business visitor here yesterday.

County Agent to Hear Address by Dairying Expert

Ralph R. Thomas, county agent, will go to Canadian tomorrow to attend a meeting of dairy farmers of this part of the Panhandle. An address will be given by J. L. McClain, Washington, D. C., of the United States Department of Agriculture, a dairy specialist, who has addressed dairy men in Swisher, Hale, Randall, Deaf Smith, and Potter counties.

Gray county could become as important a dairy center as Hale county, according to County Agent Thomas, if the project interested the farmers here. Hale county has a dairy association with memberships in parts of Floyd and Lamb counties, the members numbering 1,200. Gray county has only 7 registered bulls, according to Mr. Thomas, while Hale county has 7 bull circles.

S. D. Stennis left Thursday on a trip to Dallas.

The Rev. F. W. O'Malley, pastor of the First Christian church, has returned from Iowa Park, where he conducted special services this week.

Mrs. Ernest Sanders, who underwent an operation at a local hospital two weeks ago, has been moved to her home at Haggard apartments.

INDIANS

approved by the United States government.

On April 26, 1908, Congress passed an act vesting the mineral rights of the Seminole lands, as well as the surface titles, in the white purchasers. The plaintiffs asserted that this act, which specifically provides that the interest of the Seminole nation in the mineral rights should cease, is unconstitutional.

Defense Refutes Claim
Lawyers for the defendants, the Carter Oil Company of Tulsa and other large and small companies drilling and producing in the Seminole area, refute this constitutional argument by showing that, since the Seminole nation ceased to exist as such after 1900, it no longer had anything to lose when the act was passed in 1908.

But when the nation ceased to exist, contends the Indians, title to the mineral rights did not pass to the individuals because of this, but remained in a common body of Seminoles as opposed to the organized body under the name of "nation," "tribe," or "government."

The Indians do not seek to recover the millions that have already been paid in royalties to the white owners by the oil companies but merely to have the companies restrained from paying further royalties to the whites, and pay them instead to a common Seminole fund.

The defendants have been officially notified of the suit, which is to be tried in federal court at Muskogee. They were given until June 20 to file their answers.

While some of the oil companies are inclined to regard the suit lightly, there are others which seem quite concerned over the possible outcome.

"Present owners of oil and gas royalties in Seminole county possibly stand to lose between $200,000 and $300,000 a day in incomes, while the oil operating companies will probably not be affected in any way," said Judge James A. Veasey, vice-president and chief counsel of the Carter Oil company.

The Seminoles' case resembles that of the Osage tribe of Oklahoma, except that the Osage were still owners of their land when oil was discovered thereon. Previously the Osage had eked out a barren existence on their rocky farms, but the oil millions soon elevated them to the wealthiest people in the world and reckless extravagance followed. Recently, however, their wells have been dwindling.

Cal May Try This Tonight

Approximately 300 Pampans will go to Butler field, Amarillo, tonight to see Cal Farley make his attempt to win the welterweight championship of the world from Jack Reynolds. However, most of these are going for the primary purpose of seeing Otis Clingman mix it with Joe Kopecky in the 30-minute semi-final event. The matches begin at 8:30. The above photograph shows Cal applying one of his arm holds.

Most of the seats which have been on sale at Cal Farley's tire shop here have been sold, and the ones left are the only ones that can be bought anywhere, Clingman said last night. Local fans are hoping that Clingman will prove to be the wily cotton-picker tonight.

The Farley-Reynolds match will be the first championship event ever held in Texas. Farley is seen above applying a characteristic hold.

T. A. Spencer, of Amarillo, representing the United Sash and Door company, was transacting business in Pampa Thursday.
L. E. Downs of Amarillo, representing the Oklahoma Portland Cement company, was a business visitor here yesterday.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Natalie Converse, jealous of her husband, quarrels over Bernadine Lamont. Alan seeks sympathy from his secretary, Phillipa West, who successfully schemes to arouse Natalie's suspicions, and she leaves Alan. Wounded pride prevents either from seeking a reconciliation, and Alan turns to Phillipa, who plays her part so cleverly that they soon become engaged.

Natalie writes Alan, informing him of her return. Phillipa, fearful of losing Alan, leaves home and takes an apartment, and he agrees to pay for the furnishings.

Alan's meeting with Natalie, who brings her young sister, Florence, with her, leaves Alan hopeful, but baffled as to her intentions. Torn by his knowledge of his love for Natalie, and his entanglement with Phillipa, Alan's silence causes Natalie to believe that he does not love her. He goes to Phillipa and asks her to release him. Phillipa refuses, and makes an appeal to his pity and chivalry.

Florence, believing that Alan really loves Natalie, engages the help of her fiancé, Andrew, to fake an illness in order to keep Natalie in New York. Desperate and helpless, Natalie turns to Alan for help, and he goes home, after a scene with Phillipa. But with no explanations forthcoming, the gulf is still impassable.

Florence decides they might do better if left alone and pleads homesickness. At a party given for Florence, reference is made to the fascination of Bernadine Lamont, which arouses Natalie's old suspicions. She goes to Alan's office, and there meets Bernadine Lamont.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIV Bernadine was in a state of great agitation. She had come down to Alan's office in spite of Dr. Wagtail's orders that she spend the day in bed.

She was closeted with Alan in his private office when Natalie arrived, having an earnest business conference.

Phillipa had sat, her eyes on the closed door, while she pretended to be typing something, fuming inwardly over the length of time Bernadine had been in there, until Natalie appeared.

It was a surprise visit, the first she had made to the office since her return, and she had come now only because Alan had been particularly pleasant at breakfast. She had been encouraged to think he might enjoy shopping with her for the wedding anniversary gift she was sending to his parents.

Phillipa looked up at her with malicious satisfaction. If she had to come, it couldn't have been at a more opportune time, the girl thought.

"Oh, good afternoon, Mrs. Converse," she said smilingly, and ceased her typing.

Natalie smiled back at her. She was a little breathless and flushed from hurrying, and from the pleasant anticipation of seeing Alan in his own office again. It would be like an echo of the past—from the days of their happiness.

Her excitement enhanced her beauty. Phillipa was furiously conscious of her exquisiteness and of the fact that all eyes were upon her. The girls would be laughing up their sleeves, at her, Phillipa, she knew.

Her fury almost penetrated to the surface. It was the bitterest gall to her to see Natalie there. Still she said, politely: "Mr. Converse is busy, but I will tell him you are here if you like."

"Oh, no, don't bother," Natalie exclaimed, and took a nearby seat; "I'll wait." She picked up a magazine and opened it, for she too was aware that she was an object of general interest. If embarrassed her a trifle, for she guessed that these girls probably knew something of her marital difficulties. Alan had often warned her against making scenes in his office—telling her that all offices were hotbeds of gossip.

She tried to think of more agreeable subjects—other office scenes—scenes that Alan had made, for instance. She buried her face a little lower over the magazine as she recalled the way he had laughed at her fear that someone would open his door and surprise her in his arms. And the more she had protested, the tighter he had held her and the harder he had kissed her. It was a delicious pastime, living over those moments again. A vagrant thought, coming unobtrusively, remained in her mind as she sat there, and grew into a poignant longing.

She closed her eyes and let herself dream that it might come true. She would go through that door and Alan would hold her close as he used to. He'd kiss her "bewitching chin," her "adorable nose," her "alluring lips," her "enchanted eyes."

Her lids flew open. Alan was at his door. She felt her heart go pit-a-pat. And then—she saw Bernadine.

Neither Bernadine nor Alan saw her. She might have been a graven image, so suddenly still had she become. For the scene she was witnessing was a petrifying one, to her.

Plainly Bernadine was emotionally upset. Had they had a love scene? A quarrel perhaps? A knife-like pang shot through Natalie's heart. Had she sat out here dreaming in a fool's paradise, while actually the thing she was dreaming of was being enacted at that very moment with her rival in her role? Suddenly, under the overpowering stress of her emotion, she closed her eyes, shutting out the blackness that rose before her. When she opened them again, Alan was standing with his hand on Bernadine's arm, speaking to her in low, soothing tones.

Natalie's imagination, inflamed as it was by her suppressed jealousy of Bernadine, saw in it a love-like touch. Then he took Bernadine's hands, holding them one on the other and gently patting the one on top.

Natalie could scarcely bear it, especially when Bernadine leaned against Alan, her physical weakness appearing to Natalie like a demonstration of her affection for him.

Alan went with Bernadine to the outer door. "You shouldn't have come out," he scolded her, but they had passed by Natalie and she did not hear. "If you'd just listen to (See STORY, page 8.)

"I'm an experienced tire man and I choose the new Federal. Ask me why"

S. M. Dwyer

Did you ever change a tire in the middle of the afternoon on a Fourth of July when you had the whole family along? Remember how it ruined the day for you?

Buy a set of Federals NOW and play safe. You'll be glad you did for a mighty long time afterwards. This Federal is a new kind of tire. Has a 12% larger cushion of pure air. You know what that means. You ride on more air!

Besides being the most comfortable tires, the New Federals are the fastest tires out. Much better pick-up is yours, with them on. Better braking. You see the new Federals have a Rim-Wide full contact tread backed up with an extra amount of live rubber. That's why they make your car steer so much easier, too.

Of course you get extra mileage. Lots of it—50,000 miles and more of excess mileage out of the new Federal De Luxe.

If you don't believe me, think this is too good to be true, just read how far we go with you. This "Money-back" Guaranty upon which all Federals are sold will tell you.

"If after 30 days' use you are not fully convinced that these new-type Federal Tires give you more luxurious, air-cushioned riding comfort, better acceleration, easier steering, firmer braking, and the assurance of maximum mileage, return them and your money will be refunded."

me, Bernadine, you wouldn't have these losses."
"I know Alan, but they came from the same source my luck came from, so how was I to know?"
"What's your broker for?" Alan grumbled.
"To take me to the elevator," Bernadine suggested. "She was smiling, but it was really necessary for her to lean on Alan."
Natalie watched them go. And slowly her lovely mouth became contorted as it had been for months. She was standing when Alan returned, her head held high, a cold brightness glittering in her eyes.
Alan was close before he saw her. "Why, Nata..." he began, then her expression warned him to stop. He divined, at once that something was radically wrong. His first care was to seek privacy for what he surmised was to come.
He took her firmly by the arm. "Have you waited long?" he asked for the benefit of the office, quite forgetting that Phillipa should have received some special thought. But how could he remember with one of Natalie's tempers coming on, that he had told Phillipa, to insure what peace she had, that he and Natalie had not become fully reconciled, even though they were living under one roof?
Phillipa hadn't believed him, but as she saw him now sending Natalie, with seeming pleasure, into his private office, she was more than ever convinced that he had lied.
What happened in that office, after Alan closed the door, would have mollified her considerably had she witnessed it. For Alan and Natalie quarreled bitterly.
All her carefully built-up restraint vanished under the lash of her jealousy, which, now that she had let it go, whipped her into a veritable madness of passion.
Alan tried at first to explain, to tell her about Bernadine's heavy stock losses, to show her that it was only friendly encouragement that she had seen him offer Bernadine.

But Natalie would not listen. Then Alan too had lost his temper, and they quarreled in earnest.
Natalie accused him wildly of this and of that. He did not deny her charges, and he said "bitter, biting things" in return.
Phillipa outside, keeping her back turned to the other girls, agonized under the suspense of waiting for something to happen. She consulted her watch every other minute. The time that Natalie stayed in Alan's office seemed to her interminable.
Natalie and Alan had lost track of time. When at last Natalie's physical strength could no longer support her mood it changed. She knew suddenly she couldn't fight any longer—that she had to leave, or subside into humiliating weakness.
Alan let her go without protesting. He did not even go to the first door with her. This Phillipa noted with a flare of exultation when the open door, she could see Alan, turning toward a window, and there was in his manner something that added still further to her satisfaction.
Phillipa throttled her inclination to go in—to him as she had meant to do, before she saw Natalie and knew that they had quarreled. She heard a faint chattering behind her. A discussion of Natalie, no doubt. A feline smile wreathed Phillipa's lips as she, calmly now, went on with her work.
The scales were tipping in her favor again. As she had hoped, Natalie had resented Bernadine's presence there. Suddenly she frowned. She didn't like Alan's attentions to Bernadine herself. But she knew that Bernadine needed sympathy. Her losses on the market had been exceedingly heavy and suffered as a result of her refusal to take Alan's advice in the matter.
Phillipa was not really troubled over Bernadine. But she decided she would like Alan to drop her when it was all over between him and Natalie. That little Bobby was a pest.

She worked on until closing time, without giving any of the girls a chance to talk to her. But as she saw, when they were preparing to leave, that she could not avoid them, and Alan was still in his office, she picked up her notebook and went in to him.
He was sitting at his desk, staring fixedly at nothing. His face was a perfect reflection of his hopelessness.
Phillipa came over and stood beside him. "It's closing time," she said softly. And then, as he did not answer: "Is there anything I can do?"
"What?" Alan looked at her blankly.
"I said 'Is there anything I can do?'" Phillipa repeated.
Alan muttered: "No." His head had fallen forward again, his chin on his chest. He was slumped deep in his chair, utterly dejected.
Phillipa seated herself quietly in the chair that was for her use. She said nothing. Presently Alan looked at her. "Let me alone," he begged.
Phillipa reached out and put a hand on his arm. "Please, Alan," she coaxed. "I know you're in trouble. I'm going to help you."
"You are?" Alan's voice was jeeringly inflected.
"Oh, you don't believe I know anything about love, do you?" Phillipa flung back at him. "Well, I love you enough to give you up if... if you can't live without Natalie."
Alan put out a hand, as though to stop her.
"Oh, I know," she cried. "You and Natalie have quarreled about me. I'm standing between you. Well, I wanted to—as long as I thought there was a chance that you could love me. But I can't stand to see you looking like that... I can't, I can't!"
She was sobbing, her head on her arms.
"Don't," he entreated. "You hadn't a thing to do with it, Phillipa."

"Oh, Alan, I'm so sorry for you," Phillipa gasped. "What are you going to do?"
"I don't know," Alan said huskily. "But let's go somewhere." He looked wildly about.
"We'll go to my apartment," Phillipa said. "I'll cook dinner for you."

NO WONDER YOU FEEL SICK

When Constipation Gets Its Grip You Can't Keep Well. What You Need Is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

That tired feeling, that persistent headache, that bad breath are often symptoms of constipation.

There is only one thing to do—clean out your system. Do it now or you may be seriously sick. Your intestines are clogged because you have not eaten enough roughage. And there is no better roughage than that healthful, appetizing cereal—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is a natural food that brings natural results regularly. Its fiber content sweeps the intestines clean of poisonous wastes. Much better than habit-forming pills which become useless unless their abuse is increased.

In addition, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is rich in iron. Scientific research has proved that practically all of this iron goes into the blood—bringing the glowing color of health to the complexion and strengthening the entire body. A wonderful way to enjoy feeling well!

You will like the nut-sweet flavor of ALL-BRAN. Ready-to-eat with milk or cream—fruits or honey. By letting ALL-BRAN soak a few moments in milk or cream, its rich flavor is brought out.

Use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in making muffins and hot breads. Recipes on the package. Sprinkle it into soups, on salads. Mix it in scrambled eggs or meat loaf, add it to every diet.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Just eat two tablespoons daily—recurrent cases, with every meal. Sold by all grocers. Served in hotels, restaurants, on dining-cars. It is the original ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Risko Punches Way to Victory Over Uzcudun

DETROIT, June 20. (AP)—Johnny Risko, Cleveland baker boy, has conclusively demonstrated that he is Paulino Uzcudun's master in the ring.

These two veteran trial horses clashed before 11,000 fans in Navin field last night and Risko left-hooked his way to a decisive victory in ten rounds. Ringside experts credited the Clevelander with nine of the ten rounds.

In their first meeting, three years ago, Risko was awarded the decision after a close fight that some critics thought Paulino had won. Last night there was not the slightest question as to the merits of the award.

Risko, throwing punches from any posture in which he might find himself, cuffed the Basque wood-chopper all around the ring, had him bleeding almost from the start, staggered him badly with a series of hard rights and lefts in the fifth round, nearly closed Paulino's left eye and cut the other one badly, and at the end was swinging punches just as freely as he had in the first round.

Adopt Closing Hours

The miniature golf course, located across the street from the Rose Motor company will be closed during Sunday school and church hours on Sunday morning and Sunday evenings, Noel Woodley, owner, announced. The course will be open to players on Sunday afternoons from 12 until 6 o'clock. Mr. Woodley decided to close the links in the morning and evening believing this will encourage patrons to attend Sunday school and church.

A'S SHOWING HOW CHAMPS SHOULD ACT

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

It is a matter of indisputable record that the Philadelphia Athletics are current champions of the baseball world, and their games of the past few days go a long way toward explaining why they hold that position.

The Athletics were in a bad spot for a while. Crippled by a series of injuries, they saw the Cleveland Indians take first place away from them and lose it again before the onslaught of the New York Yankees. They came home from a disastrous tour of the West faced by the double threat from these teams. With Washington not far in the back ground and with a five-game series with Cleveland to start their home stay.

Louis Weksler of Panhandle was a business visitor here yesterday. R. F. Williams made a business trip to LeFors today.

The champions began to display their championship calibre right there. They defeated the Indians, 7 to 2, Wednesday and repeated the dose yesterday by a 4 to 2 count, sending Cleveland down into fourth place by the two defeats. The A's aren't in the best condition yet, but they were able yesterday to make good use of their hits off Willis Hudlin, taking a two-run start in the first inning, while Mose Grove pitched shut-out ball until he had a good lead behind him and could afford to let down and still score his ninth victory of the season.

The Yankees threat would not be shaken off although the New Yorkers had to bring in Babe Ruth's famous home run act to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4. After fanning in three attempts, the Babe clouted his 22nd homer of the year in the seventh inning and provided the margin of victory. George Uhle, who accounted for three runs in one inning himself, held the Yanks to eight hits and fanned seven, was the victim of the wallop.

Washington, holding its tie in games with the Yankees for second place, found its newly acquired players a great help in scoring a 3 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Al Crowder, formerly of St.

Louis, held the Sox to four hits. Another ex-Brown hit twice in three attempts while the Great Shires gave his old mates a taste of hit batting greatness by hitting three times in four trips to the plate. Danny MacFayden was the one star in the fourth American league game. He held the Browns to three hits while Boston won its fourth straight game, 4 to 1.

Only two National league contests escaped the weather in the west and the result of that pair was to bring the Chicago Cubs a game closer to the Brooklyn Robins the league's floundering leaders. The Cubs opened a home run assault on Socks Seibold in the first three innings and scored all their runs for a 10 to 4 triumph. Hack Wilson hit his 19th four bagger, tying Chuck Klein for league leadership, while Woody English and Kiki Cuyler also hit homers in these three big frames.

The Robins failed to offer much support to Adolfo Luque and the Cuban veteran was ousted from his post as pitching leader of the league with a 5-0 defeat at the hands of the cellar occupying Cincinnati Reds. Brooklyn could get only 7 hits off Ray Kolp. Luque contributing two, while the Robins made a couple of costly errors and the Reds made a few long hits where they counted. The defeat left Brooklyn 2 1-2 games ahead of Chicago.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic—The Risen Lord and the Great Commission.
Scripture lesson—Matt. 28:1-10, 16-20.

1. Now late on the Sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from Heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

3. His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4. And for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.

5. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified.

6. He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7. And go quickly, and tell His disciples, He is risen from the dead; and he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him: lo, I have told you.

8. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

9. And behold, Jesus met them saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of His feet, and worshipped Him.

10. Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not; go tell My brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see Me.

11. But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus appointed them.

12. And when they saw Him, they worshipped Him; but some doubted.

13. And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto Me in Heaven and on earth.

14. Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

15. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I command you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

Golden text—Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations.—Matt. 28:19.

Time—Christ's resurrection, Sunday, April 9, A. D. 30.

Place—Jerusalem.

INTRODUCTION

The lesson we studied last week by itself would be a dreadful one; that is, if it ended the story. But the cross never ends the story of the gospel of the Son of God. This is one of the splendid things about it. Its dark, hopeless incidents always have a bright, hopeful conclusion. The resurrection throws back upon the crucifixion a radiance that robs it of its horror, that transforms the hateful cross into a symbol of the victory of heaven's King over earth's sinfulness, of life over death.

The Resurrection

"It was blackness of despair for the disciples. The Master had indeed raised Lazarus from the dead, but now the grave held Jesus Himself fast. With Him they had buried all their hopes. No conspiracy on the part of these dejected disciples to revive Christianity with the announcement that Jesus was alive, though He was not, is conceivable. If it be said that had the women imagined that they had seen angels and Jesus and so restored the hopes of the disciples, it is to be observed that the disciples did not believe the women. If it be said that the narratives are conflicting, one must remember that this shows independence in the testimony. In simple truth, no theory has yet been advanced that harmonizes with the fact of the revival of a dead Christian. The disciples saw Jesus."—Prof. A. T. Robertson.

A Great Earthquake

"And behold, there was a great earthquake." Matthew is going backward a little with this verse, for the earthquake evidently took place before the arrival of the women at the tomb, which was at the break of dawn. "For an angel of the Lord descended from heaven." If ever these celestial beings came to earth, it would be to attend the birth and the resurrection of the Son of God. "And came and rolled away the stone." The women, as they approached the tomb, were worrying about the great stone that closed the entrance, and how it could be moved by their feeble strength—a fine example of the uselessness of worry. They did not know about the sealing of the tomb and the Roman guard in front of it, or they would not have attempted their errand at all.

"He is Risen"

"He is not here." He was in the world, but not in the grave. "For He is risen, even as He said." These women had been with Christ through out His ministry. Probably each of them had heard Him prophesying that He would rise from the dead on the third day. This is the most more wonderful event than the angels' stupendous announcement ever made proclamation of the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem. It is the most blessed for us, taking away the fear of death forever. It placed the crown of triumph on the life of the Saviour. "Come, see the place where the Lord lay." The empty tomb would be more convincing than the stone rolled away. When Peter and John, who came next, running, entered the tomb, they were powerfully impressed by the sight of the grave cloths in which the body of Jesus had been wrapped, and especially by the headbands, lying there rolled up in the shape of the Lord's head, like a chrysalis shell from which the butterfly had emerged. (John 20:1-9).

The Risen Lord

"The New Testament is an effect, the cause of which lies in the fact of the risen Christ. If Jesus Christ had remained buried in the tomb, the story of His life as recorded in the New Testament would have doubtless been buried with Him. The death of Christ shattered the faith of the disciples. This is evident from a study of the conduct of the disciples between the death and appearance of Christ. It is a question as to whether we should have heard anything more about them, or any further messages from their lips, had not the risen Christ appeared to them and resurrected their faith."—Dean William Evans.

"And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail." No one but a true historian would have related, in those days when women were not held in honor as they are now in Christian lands, how the Lord showed Himself first to a woman. A false historian would have told how the risen Saviour showed Himself to the Sanhedrin and Pilate to confound them, or to the chief of the apostles, Peter and James and John.

Report by the Guard

Matthew interrupts his narrative at this point to relate the report of Christ's resurrection made to the chief of priests by the Roman guard the dismayed meeting of the Sanhedrin, and their bribing the soldiers to say that while they, the soldiers, slept, the disciples came and stole the body of Jesus. The Sanhedrin agreed to protect the soldiers if Pilate should threaten to punish them, for it was death for a sentinel to sleep on duty; but it is inconceivable in the first place that the soldiers would be asleep, and in the second place that they would confess it when the confession meant death, and in the third place that the disciples would have taken such a step. We know that they were honest men. They died for their faith in Christ, based on His resurrection. Men do not die for the sake of a cheat which they themselves have accomplished.

"We are not to think of the Lord's resurrection as a mere appendix to our religion. It is a fundamental part of our Christianity. We are justified in believing in Christ as our Lord only by the completed fact of His resurrection."—Rev. D. W. Faunce, D. D.

Go Ye, Therefore

Because I have authority, therefore I command you to go forth. Because I will empower you, therefore go. Because there is no other way to get the gospel to all the world therefore go. It is to be noted that the first two letters of go-spel spell GO! The people will not come to Christ? Then it is our business to go to them with Christ. "And make disciples of all the nations." Christ said He was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; but He sends His disciples to all the lost sheep, of all lands and races. "The method by which Jesus proposed to subdue all things unto Himself appears to be utterly inadequate. To teach, to make disciples, to baptize these disciples, and to instruct them further in the faith! Good Master, are these the weapons of our warfare? Not thus the princes of this world contemplate conquest, for they rely on monster guns, iron clads, and engines of death-dealing power. Yet what are these but proofs of their weakness? Had they all power in themselves they would not need such instruments. Only He who has all power can work His bidding by a word, and dispense with all force—but that of love."—C. H. Spurgeon.

"Teaching Them"

"Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you." "We men are at our best, always learning, always revising, correcting, supplementing what we have learned heretofore; never able to express ourselves positively on subjects which deeply interest us, without feeling that we, or others, will trace shortcomings, or exaggerations."—(See LESSON, page 12.)

ROAD TRIPS PROBLEM FOR EAST CLUBS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

To a disinterested observer it would appear that the scene of a ball game should not make much difference in the result where such seasoned campaigners as major league players are concerned, but it does not always work out that way. The National league clubs of the east, which are just opening their second western tour, found surprising success at home but it is rather doubtful whether they will continue it on the road.

The New York Giants who routed their inter-sectional opponents to the tune of nine victories in 12 games at the Polo Grounds, had a large amount of trouble yesterday in taking their first game of the tour from the Pittsburgh Pirates, who won but four out of 13 away from home. The final count was 4 to 3 for New York, and it took a sparkling unassisted double play by Hughy Critz to end the game before the Pirates had tied the score.

An injury to Bill Walker, Giant southpaw, and a sudden weakening of Heinie Meine broke up a pitching duel in which the Giants led 1-0 for six innings. Meine let down in the seventh and gave three runs on four hits. Pittsburgh promptly replied by collecting a run an inning in the last three frames. They had the tying counter on second when Critz grabbed Paul Waner's liner and doubled Grantham off the keystone sack.

Other National league clubs do not start the second half of the east-west test until today, but on the basis of form shown in the games since June 1, the eastern clubs have all the advantage. They won 34 contests while the west took but 18, with only the hard fighting Chicago Cubs getting better than a .500 average. Every eastern club won more games than it lost.

In the American league, the struggle was somewhat closer as the east's leading penant contenders held their own although they were pulled down from the heights they had reached before they invaded the western half of the circuit. The east came out ahead, 26 games to 25, due principally to the activities of the New York Yankees, who won nine and lost three. The other eastern clubs came out just below the .500 mark but their western rivals, with the exception of the Cleveland Indians, were in the same vicinity. Cleveland won eight out of 12 games.

The Indians, after pushing up to within striking distance of the league lead, found when they came east again yesterday that the Philadelphia Athletics have a real championship team despite eight defeats in 14 games. Cleveland had a chance to oust the world's champions from first place, but even their pitching ace, Wes Ferrell, could not stop the Athletics in a crucial moment. The A's made a dozen hits, most of them in two big innings, and equalled an American league record for home run hitting in winning a 7 to 2 decision.

Al Simons, Jimmy Foxx and Bing Miller connected with Ferrell's delivery in the fifth inning for three successive home runs, a feat that had been performed only twice before in American league history, drove Ferrell from the mound and put the game and the league lead in a safe place. The A's had scored three runs in the first on a bunch of hits, while Roy "Speed" Mahaffey, youthful right hander, pitched effectively all the way.

LESSON

generations, or elements of paradox or falsehood, in what we say. Our Lord is haunted by no such apprehension as this. He is confident that what He has taught His disciples will hold good for all time; for all races and classes of men; for characters, moods of thought, moral and intellectual atmospheres the most diverse. As He said, 'My words shall not pass away' (Matt. 24:35), so now He fearlessly bids His disciples teach the nations He reigns, alike in the moral and the intellectual world; and He is certain of the authority of the commission which He gives to teach.—Dean H. P. Liddon.

I Am With You Always
"And lo, I am with you always." Literally, all the days; dark days, bright days, busy days, restful days, "all the way my Saviour leads me." And notice the verb, "I am." To Christ, the Lord of eternity, all time is one, and present. The name of Christ, as of the Father, is "I Am." Remember His great saying, "Before Abraham was born, I am" (John 8:58). "So shall we ever be with the Lord" (1 Thes. 4:17). "Even unto the end of the world." The margin reads, "The consummation of the age," the close of this world-age. The coming of the Holy Spirit, and His constant abiding with Christians, is the fulfilment of this great promise. "This last and wonderful word in Matthew is a worthy close for any book, for any career, even for the life of Jesus the Son of God."—Prof. A. T. Robertson.
