

SHERIFF NOMINATION CONTESTED

French Air Heroes Take Off For Louisville, Ky., During Noon Hour

Fire chief Alex Schneider asks the Pampa to say that the fire department greatly appreciates a $50 gift from Joe Danciger. Mr. Danciger gave the check to express his commendation of the work of the department in extinguishing a recent early morning fire at the Bell refinery. The plane was around loaded gasoline cars, and might have been costly had not the firemen worked courageously and effectively.

While we think of it, we should like to drop the hint that the volunteer fire fighters will soon move into their new quarters on the second floor of the new station. They will need equipment for their rooms—furniture, books, magazines, recreational devices, and the like. They are protecting Pampa's property without salary. Some gifts to furnish their new quarters, it seems to The Pampa, would be a fine way to show the boys their work is appreciated.

Gene Howe, or Erasmus Tack of the Amarillo News-Globe, talks of Pampa and Jack-ases in the same sentence, and this leads some anonymous reader to send us a clipping asking if we are the long-earred specimen under discussion. We resent the inference. Fortunately, we find by reading the article mentioned that the Jack-ases in question resides of a Hemphill ranch and is named Erasmus Tack. The connection is obvious of course. Tack says that loyal Jack-ases believe Amarillo will always be bigger than Pampa. Any Jack-ase would think that way, of course.

While we certainly feel dispirited of Tack's opinions of Amarillo, we refrain from attacking him over the article mentioned, because any skillful reader will note that he links Jack-ases' allegiance with Amarillo, not Pampa. The only thing we don't understand is why H. M. Rump, owner of the mule and Pampa booster, does not sell the darned mule and use more good Gray county gasoline. We know he has thought of such a plan, for all Hemphill county folk are by nature brainy. (Ah, er-ahem). The Pampa lived in that county a dozen years.

Honors and awards await the 1930 Harvesters. This is true because modern high school athletics cannot be separated from other community interests. It is also true because the men of the city are interested in Pampa's boys.

It should be understood that this interest is not confined to athletics. If it were, too much emphasis would be upon sports and too little upon the other things for which schools are established and paid for to accomplish. The civic club members expect the athletes to do well in their studies. They expect them to attend classes regularly. They assume that the personal conduct of the boys will be acceptable to the faculty and to their parents. Awards to be made at the end of the year should and doubtless will take these things into consideration. A boy should not confine his athletics to the daily dozen, for the taxpayers' dollar is intended to educate the pupils primarily, and health education does not necessarily include competitive sports.

Muskego, Okla., tree slitters were spanked. That is not only adding insult to injury, but injury in injury, as it were.

"Don't try to start too high in your career," says a college graduate to college grads. That is poor advice to the tens of thousands of youngsters unable to find work of any kind.

Hunting stories are rather stilled this season. It seems that many of the snipers are not too sure of their knowledge of the law, and they risk no chance of letting "big ones" in the presence of strangers, who might be game wardens.

MANAGER OF COSTE ALSO MAKES TRIP

Destination To Be Reached in Five Hours

GREAT THROG SEES TAKE-OFF

Dallas Crowd Is Easily Handled Today

LOVE FIELD, DALLAS, Sept. 5.—(P)—The Question Mark bearing Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, fresh from Paris, took to the air again at 12:30 p.m., central standard time today for a jaunt to Louisville, Ky., en route back to New York, whence it came yesterday without stop in 11 hours, 25 minutes and 15 seconds.

The distance from Dallas to Louisville was given as 740 miles by airport officials who calculated the flyers would make it in five hours and 42 minutes based on yesterday's pace.

The plane carrying Rene Racover, American business manager of the flyers, followed the Question Mark out a minute later.

They Sleep Late
Coste and Bellonte worked with the ship that brought them fame established new aviation records for more than two hours after they reached the field. Although they had set their departure at 8 a.m., they slept late and did not reach the field until more than two hours after the time set for the start. The ground crew had some trouble turning the big propeller after 100 gallons of gasoline had been pumped into the tanks, but after the motor warmed up and the ascent was undertaken she seemed to be functioning perfectly.

Circle Field Once
The Frenchmen circled the field once, headed towards the city of Dallas, turned abruptly to the north and hustled through a great thunder cloud that resembled a great mountain of snow, headed in a bee line for Louisville, where the night will be spent and the trip continued to New York tomorrow.

LOVE FIELD, Dallas, Sept. 5.—(P)—Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, French flyers who topped off their Paris to New York flight with a non-stop jaunt from New York to Dallas yesterday, came on the field here at 10:12 a.m., central standard time today, preparatory to taking off for Louisville, Ky.

The flyers were surrounded by the big crowd that had waited, most of them since before daylight anticipating an early departure. They went immediately to the hangar to see about the plane.

Mayor Dan Kenan of Okmulgee, Okla., made his way to Captain Coste and presented an invitation in French requesting the flyers to attend the state American Legion convention there. Rene Racover, American representative of Coste and Bellonte, said they would probably not be able to accept.

Bellonte Buffs Coat
Bellonte pulled his coat off and hopped up into the cockpit. He was first in one and then in the other, skipping to and fro like a cat. Coste gave instructions as the plane was moved from the hangar onto the field at 10:30 for servicing.

Police seemed in better control of the crowd than was the case yesterday and photographers and movie cameras seemed to be doing some business.

Recover said the Question Mark would take its time on the trip to Louisville.

"We want to take a good look," he said.

One hundred gallons of gasoline were ordered pumped into the tank. Coste and Bellonte, perspiring freely in the hot mid-day Texas sun that was bearing down steadily inspected the strainer and funnel closely.

"Oh, that's good; very good."

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Sept. 5.—(P)—(1:00 p.m.)—Property losses of not less than $20,000,000 were caused by the hurricane which took a toll of 1,000 lives and injured 5,000 persons in this capital on Wednesday.

Hunger began to stalk through the debris filled streets this afternoon, although many thousands of persons had been provided with emergency rationing.

There were so many persons to be supplied with food that the force of relief workers had to be increased hour by hour as more became available.

The hope was expressed by officials that early arrival of supplies would alleviate the situation somewhat.

A gang of prisoners was put to work today in the streets helping to clear away the wreckage.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(P)—Captain Antonio Silva, Red Cross official today reported 1,000 persons killed, 2,500 persons injured, 4,700 homes destroyed, 200 homes damaged, and 29,000 persons homeless as the result of the Caribbean Hurricane in Santo Domingo city.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(P)—First official hurricane reports received by the State department today said the office of the American Legation in Santo Domingo was so badly damaged it was not worth repairing.

Charles B. Curtis, American minister, telegraphed that neither the personnel of the legation nor of the American Consulate had been injured but both his residence and the legation office had been completely unroofed. The archives and supplies of the legation escaped major damage.

Meanwhile, information continued to reach here on the disaster to the Dominican Republic and measures for relief. Minister Curtis informed the state department as follows:

"Office unroofed and not worth repairing. Residence unroofed. Other quarters unobtainable. Supplies and recent archives undamaged. Personnel uninjured, also consular and family."

Governor Roosevelt of Porto Rico advised the Red Cross that he had been informed by his aide Major Gary I. Crockett, who flew to Santo Domingo yesterday, as follows:

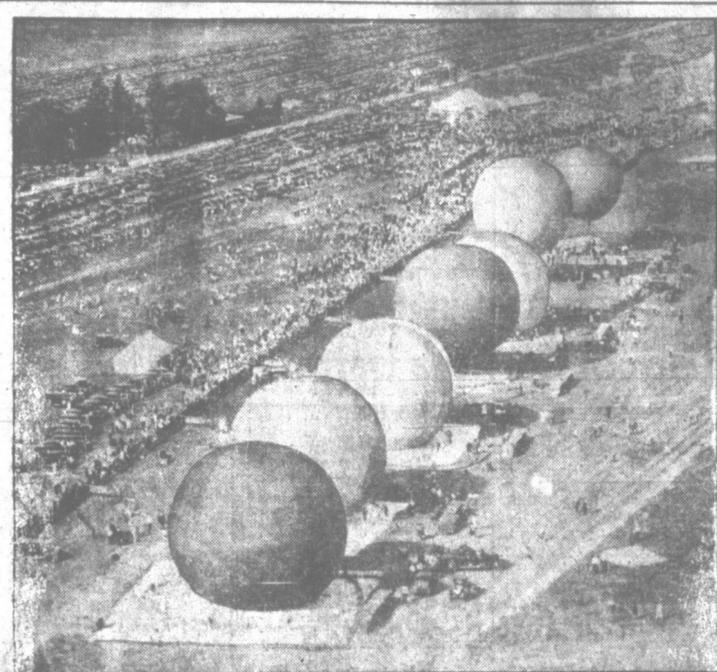

"After conference with President Trujillo and Minister Curtis and quick reconnaissance of city, I put situation in city of Santo Domingo as follows: Three-quarters of houses practically destroyed and entire city very badly damaged. No news from interior towns in path of cyclone. President reports at least a hundred deaths already counted and many more injured. American minister and all Europeans saved but legation destroyed. Urgent and immediate need for doctors, medical supplies, all available tentage, coats and blankets, 50,000 to 100,000 rations, also any clothing, both male and female. Available. Funds also necessary from Red Cross."

The Dominican legation, made public the following cablegram from its government:

"Situation appalling. Cyclone destroyed 80 per cent of this city. With estimated loss of at least thirty millions. Up to the present 300 bodies have been recovered and an

Burlington To Start Rail Line Soon as Possible

That the Port Worth & Denver and Rock Island railroads will likely reach an agreement soon on joint operation of the Shamrock-Childress branch of the Pampa-Childress and Quanah-Shamrock lines was learned by George Briggs yesterday in attending a conference with Burlington officials at Shamrock.

Speaking for the Burlington, Judge J. H. Barwise of Port Worth said that his road wished to start work at once, and that preliminary activities had already begun.

Skellytown Man Is Badly Burned

I. N. Howard, caretaker of the Skellytown school, is in the McClean and Connor hospital as a result of burns received this morning about 7:30, when leaking gas in one of the rooms he was cleaning became ignited by Howard's stepping on the gas, chest, and the back of his neck.

Four window panes in the room were shattered by the explosion. The building was not hoisted, although there was a line of fire along one of the walls of the room. The principal of the Skellytown school was summoned and rushed to a motor, where he turned off the gas.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, winner of the women's air race Los Angeles to Chicago, passed over Pampa yesterday, flying her Waco taper-wing plane powered with a Wright J-6 motor.

MINERAL WELLS GIRL AND WEATHERFORD YOUTH KILLED AS AUTOMOBILE OVERTURNS

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 5.—(P)—Miss Coral Mae Dunn, 19, of Mineral Wells and Herbert Smith, 21, of Weatherford were killed and Walter Fant, 21, of Weatherford was injured probably fatally when the automobile in which they were riding overturned on the banked highway five miles west of here early today.

The two Weatherford men were returning Miss Dunn to her Mineral Wells home after a visit with friends here at the time of the accident.

The young woman was killed instantly and Smith died a few hours after the accident in a hospital here. Fant also was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition. Physicians said he suffered a fractured skull and a broken arm. Miss Dunn's body was sent to Mineral Wells.

Fant was the son of W. S. Fant, president of the First National bank of Weatherford and manager of the hotel Parker. The other two victims also were members of prominent families.

The accident occurred near the scene of a similar one two years ago in which two Mineral Wells people were killed.

Boy of 12 Kills Sister, 10 Years Old With "Not Loaded" .22 Rifle

MCCAMEY, Sept. 5.—(P)—J. L. Pitts, Jr., 12, last night accidentally shot and killed his sister, Nellie, 10, with a .22-caliber rifle he thought was unloaded as the two were playing at their ranch home near Buena Vista. The girl was taken 35 miles to McCamey where she died about 9 p. m.

The bullet entered her abdomen and lodged in the spinal column. Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pitts, and another brother.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(P)—Coal tails are used as a necessity of the well dressed man when stepping out the coming season. City Closes Up Shop to Attend Football Game

Pampa offices and business houses were beginning to close as early as noon today for the football contest this afternoon between Spur and Pampa high schools.

The J. C. Penney company manager, R. L. Champion, bought tickets for all employees and said that his firm would make a practice of closing for Harvesters games.

Charlie Thut bought tickets for all the courthouse "family." Support of the football team began to take on the relative proportions of a few years ago when Pampa and Amarillo were struggling for grid supremacy.

FIRE AT FOUND

The fire department made a run about one o'clock Thursday morning to the city pound. The fire had gained too much headway to save the barn, and the place was entirely destroyed, with the exception of the south fence. A quantity of feedstuffs was burned, and a fine bride and saddle set, estimated as being worth $125, was consumed by the fire.

Frank Shaw returned from Kansas City, in his American Eagle, which has been reconditioned.

ANDREWS WILL SEEK POST OF LON BLANSCET

Challenged Votes In County Reach 367 Total

HEARING TO BE FIRST ACTION

Several Causes Are Cited Alleging Illegality

Gray county politics, simmering since the second primary of August 23, took many degrees in interest late yesterday when Jno. V. Andrews, defeated by 23 votes in the run-off for sheriff of Gray county, filed a petition challenging the legality of 367 ballots cast for his opponent, Lon L. Blanscet.

The petition asks the county Democratic committee, of which Slick Faulkner has been chairman for many years, to throw out the votes alleged to have been illegally given to Blanscet, and to certify the name of Andrews as the Democratic candidate in the general election of November. The first procedure will be a hearing before the committee, date of which has not been fixed.

Mr. Andrews, through his attorney, W. M. Lewright, alleges that many voters cast their ballots wrongfully in that they had paid no poll taxes. Others are said to be illegal because the voters were non-residents, were under age, or had wrongfully procured poll tax receipts in this county.

Challenge Grandview Box
It is also requested that the entire Grandview box be thrown out because the presiding judge is said to have neglected to place his name on the back of the ballots. Mr. Blanscet received a 99-vote majority in this box, the 10 it is claimed that Mrs. L. H. Green voted for Mr. Andrews, but that her vote was not counted by the judges of the election there.

The Democratic committee must set a date for a hearing this hearing to begin within twenty days of the second primary. The time will likely be in the early part of next week. It could be as late as Saturday, however. Notice of the contest must be served upon Mr. Blanscet, the contestee, within five days. It was believed service could be had today.

The contest before the Democratic committee will be in many respects to a civil suit in district court. The decision of the committee may be appealed to district court if this action is taken within three days following the contest ruling.

Judge Would Decide

In district court, attorneys said, the suit would be tried anew, with no evidence carried over from the committee contest. The district judge alone decided nomination appeals, and his judgment is said to be final. This differs from general election contests, where district court rulings may be carried into civil appeals courts.

Mr. Blanscet has retained the local law firm of Cook, Smith & Teed and the Amarillo firm of Underwood, Johnson, Dooley & Simpson to handle his interests in the contest. He will have opportunity to answer the contestants' petition and to challenge votes he may allege to have been cast illegally by his opponent.

It is expected that the contest will be decided in ample time to certify the name of the Democratic nominee for sheriff in the November general election.

FIRE IN BROOKSMITH

WASHINGTON.—Lieut. Edouard V. M. Izac who was taken from a torpedoed American transport by a German submarine, where he obtained valuable information, who dove from a train window to escape, only to be captured and crippled by his guards, who finally did get away and was given the Congressional Medal of Honor for his heroism, probably will soon be compensated in hard cash for his permanent injuries.

Izac's is one of the last claims remaining to be adjudicated by the German-American Mixed Claims Commission. This commission which has disposed of nearly all the 19,000 claims filed before it, has previously held all sessions in Washington but will convene at the Hague Sept. 17 and later at Hamburg.

At the Hague it will consider the sabotage claims such as that of the Lehigh Valley railroad arising out of the Black Tom explosion and the Canadian Car and Foundry claim arising from the Kingsland explosion. Germany has always denied responsibility for these, but witnesses bearing weird tales have been turning up against her in the last year and there is a mass of circumstantial evidence at hand. The move to the Hague is supposed to be partly due to a desire to avoid too much publicity in the United States. Other remaining claims are a rewinvolving maltreatment of war prisoners such as Izac's, about the economic provisions of the Treaty of Berlin and hundreds of claims by American seamen or their families who suffered during Germany's submarine war on neutral shipping.

The last category includes sailors scattered over the seven seas who had neglected to file claims through ignorance but who were provided for in a Senate resolution asking the president to ask Germany to let them file their claims as late as March 10, 1931. Germany has not yet agreed but is expected to do so.

Izac, whose story stand out conspicuously among those still being considered, was a graduate of the Naval Academy and had been commissioned a lieutenant shortly before being assigned to the transport President Lincoln. In May, 1918, the President Lincoln was torpedoed by the U-90 and was taken a prisoner of war. On board the submarine he managed to acquire information of submarine operations which he thought was valuable to the allied navies and decided to escape at the first opportunity and communicate it. He was 12 days on the U-90 before being landed at Wilhelmshaven and sent to the prison camp at Karlsruhe.

French officers at Karlsruhe with whom he made friends gave him 100 marks and a compass to aid his escape.

His first seemingly good chance came in July when he was being taken by train to the officers' prison camp at Villigen in Baden in the custody of two German soldiers.

One of the guards dozed and when the other turned his head Izac leaped past them and dove head foremost through the small window which he had persuaded them to keep open for air. He landed on the parallel track bruising himself and cutting his knees and feet. Then he stumbled across the fields toward neighboring woods.

The train was stopped and the German guards came after him, shooting. Izac surrendered to avoid shot down. The infuriated guards pounded him over the head and shoulders with the butts of their guns, knocked him down, kicked him in the face and finally broke a gun over his head, knocking him unconscious. Later they jabbed him with bayonets and made him finish the journey five miles to Villigen at double time. He lost about 30 pounds during the next two weeks of solitary confinement.

That Izac's story, supported by various evidence, on which he based a claim of $150,000, as representing his loss of earning power caused by the injuries.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Presenting an illustrious son of an illustrious father—Robert Marion LaFollette, Jr., senior United States senator from Wisconsin.

He carefully avoided mere surface imitations of "Old Bob," for he is convinced that he cannot entirely fill his father's place in the senate. Instead he consciously and sincerely follows his stand on national issues.

Before he entered the race to succeed his father, he never had made a speech. He went into the campaign with a prepared speech, but lost it. Nevertheless he made a speech and did well.

Young Bob was the constant companion of his father during the years when he was of high school age. Even at the age of 13 he was taken out on campaign and lecture tours. He and his brother Phil were in and out of the capitol from the time they were 10 years old.

Likes Mechanics

In school he was much interested in history, but was only a normal student. Early he developed a liking for mechanical things such as motorcycles and bicycles.

In 1904 he first broke into print. It was at the St. Louis world fair and he was credited with having turned in the alarm when the Missouri building caught fire. He claims that he didn't.

He is an ardent baseball fan—in fact likes all kinds of sports. He is fond of travel. He leaves the theater. His sister Fola was an actress for several years, and is now the wife of George Middleton, a playwright.

He reads a great deal, particularly biography and history. He shows a great interest in all economic questions. He has an instinctive interest of how things work, but he learns the mechanics more from observation than from statistics. He drives his own car. He is perfunctory about official society, but enjoys going out. He dances a great deal and likes it.

Revival To Be Closed Sunday

The revival services at the First Methodist church continue to be marked by deep interest and conversions at every service.

Thursday night, Rev. Frank Neal spoke from a lesson in the second chapter of Mark's Gospel, portraying the healing of the palsied man in Capernaum. He spoke of four characters found in the lesson. "First," he said, "there is the Great Healer in the midst, Jesus, waiting to heal the souls of men. He is still the great healer, anxious to heal the sick multitude. There is no other source of healing for the sin-sick souls of men. Second, there is the helpless man. He will never reach the great healer unless some one comes to help him to the Master that he may be healed. There are thousands of sin-sick souls in Pampa, who stand helpless unless some one comes to help them to get to Jesus. What a challenging task the church of God has in bringing them to the great Healer of souls. Third, there are the Helpers, those who had enough interest to go out and find the helpless man and bring him to Jesus. Oh, for more helpers in Pampa who will forget everything and go out to bring the poor sin-sick soul under the healing touch of the Master. Fourth, there were the hinderers, the four hundred that stood in the way of the fellows who would bring somebody to Jesus. At the close of the sermon the altar was filled with people for prayer and consecration, and a number of people were converted. The pastor, and his helpers are expecting to have a great day Sunday, with a large attendance at Sunday school and at the morning and evening services when Rev. Neal will bring his final messages of the campaign.—Reported.

While he is not a conciliator, he does get along with his opponents. He knows how to relax from hard work—something his father never could do.

Congratulations to Mr. Joe Lazarus

CARDINALS THREAT TO CUBS BUT HAVE HARDER LIST OF GAMES THAN GIANT NINE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Except for the difficulties which the schedule has in store for them the St. Louis Cardinals might well be considered the most serious threat to the supremacy of the Chicago Cubs in the National league instead of the New York Giants. The Cards and the Giants are tied for second place and the recent record of the St. Louis club is far more impressive but the Cubs are faced with a long tour of the east while the Giants will have the advantage of playing at home most of the time.

The Cards gained their deadlock for second place yesterday by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds, 13 to 2, for their fourth straight victory and their 19th in 15 games. The Giants at the same time took a 7 to 1 beating from the Boston Braves and lost a full game in the chase for the pennant.

Since Aug. 1, the Cubs have made an upward rush that has brought them 28 victories in 35 games.

Chicago had another tough struggle with Pittsburgh but came out victorious in the tenth inning, 10 to 7, when Gabby Hartnett clouted his second home run of the game and hit .31st of the season with two on base. Previously the Cubs had staged their favorite act of giving away a big lead and then overcoming it. Brooklyn and Philadelphia had another day of idleness.

The American league leaders also had to go overtime to gain a victory. It took the Philadelphia Athletics 16 frames to down the Boston Red Sox 8 to 7.

Washington's Senators kept pace with the champions by winning a tight game from the New York Yankees, 3 to 2, their 10th triumph over the Yanks in 20 games this season.

Cleveland retained its last mathematical chance of tying the Athletics by downing the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2, as Willis Hudlin pitched a three-hit game. The Detroit Tigers did some effective hitting to defeat St. Louis, 3 to 4, in the fourth American league game.

Carl B. King, Tulsa, of the King Drilling company, landed at the airport Thursday in a Traylor Wasp-motored six-place cabin monoplane.

The Stinson-Detroit cabin monoplane of the C. C. B. Manufacturing company was landed at the local airport yesterday afternoon.

Boys Capture Crane in City

What does one do with a crane? This was the question two Pampa boys were trying to solve Thursday afternoon. One of the boys called the News office and inquired as to a way of disposing of the bird. The News has requests for information from everything from AB to ZZ, but this was the first time a crane was in question.

The two boys, Max Long, 400 East Foster, and Robert Woodson, 112 South Houston, found the bird near the J. M. Radford Grocery company, after the crane had alighted on a box car. They captured it, tied its feet, and took it to the back yard of the Long residence.

The crane was of gray-blue color, and had a wing-spread of six feet. Old timers of the vicinity state that it is not unusual to see many cranes in the Panhandle at this time of the year.

School Zones Are Announced

The Board of Education announced yesterday the zoning of the city setting forth the territory of each ward school. Pupils in the ward schools include those in the first five grades. Baker school will be attended by pupils living in the area south of the railroad tracks and west to Hobart.

The West ward school will be attended by those students living on the west of the line specified, as follows: Beginning at the city limits on the north on Banks street, south to Lincoln avenue, thence east to Ward street, south on Ward to Montagu, east one block on Montagu to West street, south on West street to the railroad tracks and from thence to the Clarendon road to the city limits on the south.

The North Ward school will draw its pupils from the following streets, running north and south, and all avenues in and between Gray, Somerville, Frost, Russell, Russell, Grace, Cuyler, Cook-Adams addition.

Junior high school students, those in the sixth and seventh grades will attend classes in the east wing of the high school building.

Texans To Battle For Net Titles

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 5.—Four Texans met today to fight it out in the semi-finals of the southwest amateur golf tournament over the Nichols Hills course here.

The Texans yesterday eliminated the last of the Oklahomans in the race.

Today Tommy Cochran of Wichita Falls was playing Dennis Lavender of Abilene and Bob McKinney was matching strokes with Byron Nelson of Fort Worth in 36-hole fights for the final positions. The finals will be played tomorrow.

Lavender yesterday entered the semi-finals by eliminating Harry Maid of Oklahoma City, 2 and 1. E. S. Hansberger, also of Oklahoma City, fell before Cochran 9 and 8. McKinney yesterday defeated M. L. Massingill of Fort Worth after the match went to the 36th green and Nelson eliminated Glen Rissman of Orange, Texas.

Memphis Near Pennant Today

ATLANTA, Sept. 5. (P)—The pennant race in the Southern Association nearer an end today due to the leading Memphis club winning again yesterday which gave the Chucks a seven and a half game lead over

New Orleans. Memphis needs only four more games in the won column to clinch the pennant.

After tying the score in the sixth, the Chattanooga Lookouts were held scoreless by pitcher Kelly while his mates crossed the plate twice more to give the Chicks a six to four win. New Orleans also held tight to its position in the league by swamping the orphaned Mobile club, 21 to 4. The Pels started, scoring in the third with eight runs and repeated the act in the fourth to build up the bulk of their score.

Birmingham was set back at the hands of Atlanta yesterday when the Crackers added a run in the eighth to nose out the Barons 6 to 5.

Little Rock won a tight game from Nashville 3 to 2. It was a hard game for the Vols to lose as they got 10 hits to the Travelers 5 and made two errors to three for Little Rock.

months ago. He will meet Tommy Freeman, Cleveland challenger, in a 15-round contest to a referee's decision in the Cleveland American league baseball park.

The match will be fought at the welterweight limit of 147 pounds. Indications were that both Thompson and his challenger would easily make the weight. The champion figures to scale around 144 pounds, with Freeman tipping the beam at 148 pounds when they appear before the Cleveland boxing commission.

Freeman defeated Thompson last January, before Thompson won the title, but in that engagement the Cleveland welterweight had a weight advantage of six pounds. He scaled 152 pounds, which enabled him to retain his full fighting strength.

Whether paring his frame down to the welterweight limit would impair his fighting ability tonight was a question that caused his handlers to worry.

One-Armed Man Falls To Death

DALLAS, Sept. 5.—(P)—Several persons, including three women, were held in jail for investigation today in connection with the death of Rex (Wingy) Brooks, 31, one-armed rent car driver, who fell to the pavement last night from the window of a sixth-floor room in a downtown hotel. His skull was fractured and many bones in his body were broken.

His fall followed a fight which occurred in the room from which he fell, officers were told. City detectives found the room spattered with blood and in great disorder.

Although one of Brooks' arms had been amputated at the elbow, he had gained a reputation for skillfulness as an automobile driver.

Thompson Will Risk His Crown This Evening

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 5. (P)—Young Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, risks his title tonight for the first time since he won it from Jackie Fields four

P.T.A. COUNCIL HAS FIRST MEETING OF NEW FISCAL YEAR

Caring For Individual Needs To Be Aim of Schools During Coming Year, According to Superintendent Fisher

Plans for making this year of achievements were discussed at the initial meeting of the year for the Pampa Council of Parent-Teacher Associations held Thursday afternoon in the high school building with Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, president, presiding.

Reports from officers were heard, and R. B. Fisher, superintendent of schools, stated in an interesting talk that the main objective of the schools this year would be the study of the individual needs of the pupil, his problems and their correction, and expressed the desire that the Council would adhere closely to the seven objectives in teaching and that more of the patrons would take an interest and active part in Parent-Teacher activities for the coming year.

FEMININE FANCIES

By HOLLYCE SELLERS

Your society editor played hooky yesterday afternoon, and pleads guilty. She should have been writing a column on Feminine Fancies, laboring on a story for today's paper or a feature for Sunday or any one of a dozen other things, but she got right up and leaving all those stories which seemed to cry "write me!", "write me", she went home, powdered her nose and started out for a musical tea.

Terrible. She admits its an awful thing to do, but she's not even sorry, even though she may not do such a thing again in weeks. She'd even heard the story, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," but she didn't believe it strong enough to put it into practice before. And she had heard more than one charm expert advise leaving duties behind occasionally and play awhile, but somehow she just couldn't break away from stories that tried to be written. But now she's done it and is glad, because she learned some real lessons which she is going to pass on to you.

In the first place, she decided that what a story is to a newspaper reporter, a child is to a housewife. A mother often cannot find time to attend an entertainment of any kind because there is Johnny's suit to be pressed, and Mary's beads to be restringed, and baby's cradle to be fixed.

But if the society editor had not attended the tea, how could she have ever thought of such a comparison? Now here is a suggestion. Even though the mother may not learn a way to press the little suit without burning her finger, and even though she may not learn that dental floss would be stronger than sewing thread in stringing beads, and even though she may not learn the most substantial way to mend a cradle, there is one thing sure—she will be refreshed from the change of environment and can perform every duty quicker and more efficiently by having had the experience. Try it just once and see how good you feel.

Seven Objectives

Following are the seven objectives health; mastery of the tools, technical; mastery of the tools, technical and spirit of learning; vocational and economic effectiveness; faithful citizenship; wise use of leisure; ethical character.

Mr. Fisher extended a special invitation to P.T.A. presidents and members to attend teachers' institute which is to be held Monday and Tuesday at the Methodist church, and especially urged that they be present Monday morning, when Mrs. J. M. Grain of Claude, district president, will address the body.

Short Talks Given

Short talks were given by R. A. Selby, principal of the Junior high school, and by A. L. Patrick, principal of Lamar school. Mr. Patrick, a new-comer, expressed the desire to cooperate with the Council in every way.

Mrs. George Wallace discussed the health program which she hopes to execute in the schools, and Mrs. H. J. Neely, a visitor, brought to the attention of the Council "The Book of Texas," which many educators believe to be necessary in the schools. The book was endorsed by Superintendents Fisher and J. B. Hessey, by the City Council and by various teachers.

The Council is to meet in the third Monday of each month at 3 p. m. in the library of the high school. Everyone interested is urged to attend regularly and to help put over the program outlined for the year.

the counting of change to make sure the merchant does not make a mistake.

Parents also find this play method, practical in dealing with their children at home. No mother has to think twice before she can tell whether Johnny or Susie had rather wash dishes or play an interesting game. The question is, "Will she have to drive the children to study their lessons as she must drive them to wash dishes, or can she make a game of study?"

Many times, if she is clever, she can devise a game, which, when played, will teach a lesson as well as afford amusement. For example, if two or three children are working a problem in fraction, why not put a big red apple in the center of the table and let the first child who receives the correct answer get that fraction of the apple to eat? Yes, study is lots of fun, after all.

CHURCHES

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Corner Francis and Starkweather
Sunday school, G. C. Stark, Supt., 9:45 a. m.

Sermon, by the pastor, 11 a. m.

Morning subject: "A Vision of His Face." This subject will deal with the vision we should have of Christ. Every page of the New Testament pictures to us Christ's kindness. He stopped by the wayside to cleanse the leper. He forgave the sinning woman. He took little children up into his arms and blessed them. Isaiah said of him that he was as a lamb led to the slaughter.

We would never know Jesus if we did not have the Bible. One by one we can pick out his characteristics from its pages. His Love, His patience, His mercy, His kindness. Come let us get a vision of our Christ.

Following the morning services we will go out South of Pampa to the lake and administer the ordinance of baptism.

All are asked to bring lunch, and if there are those who don't have ways to go come to the church and we will provide a way.

We are glad to announce that our building is almost completed and our people are rejoicing because we have a place to meet we can call our own.

The interest continues to grow in every department of our church, there being additions every service. We welcome you to attend services at the Central Baptist church, where the Bible is preached, and to attend Sunday school where the Bible is taught.

A welcome awaits you.

The Hollywood Story

COPYRIGHT 1930 by NEA SERVICE Inc. by ERNEST LYNN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Through a letter that he receives from a friend in New York, DAN ROEMER, Hollywood scenario writer and former New York newspaper man, meets ANNE WINTER, who has come from Tulsa, Okla., to try to get extra work in the movies.

Dan finds her charming and takes a deep interest in her. She learns from him that he works at Continental Pictures, and she gathers that he is not quite satisfied with condition there. She has worked only one day as an extra herself, having been there but a short time, but a few days after their meeting she gets extra work at Grand United.

Her first day there she meets a girl named MONA MORRISON, and immediately likes her. Mona is living in an apartment with EVA HARLEY, and Anne lives alone, and Mona suggests that the three occupy a bungalow that she and Eva have seen.

They do this. When Dan calls on Anne there one evening he learns from Mona that GARRY SLOAN, the famous director, actually has noticed Anne, and she may be hired a "bit." Dan, not liking Sloan (although he has never actually met him, is a bit apprehensive.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER IX

There flashed through Roemer's mind the picture of Garry Sloan and Sylvia Patterson seated at a restaurant table; and Johnny Riddle saying: "Sylvia's a swell girl; but Sylvia's ambitious—and she can be diplomatic."

And Dan wondered if Sylvia Patterson would be starring with Grand United if she had chosen not to be diplomatic to Sloan. Perhaps the thought was not exactly fair to Sylvia, though; the girl had an undeniable talent, and a rare, orchid-like beauty, and her fan mail, Riddle had said, was among the largest in Hollywood.

Perhaps, Sloan or no Sloan, she would have gone far. And yet, remembering how she had sat there smiling at him with eyes and lips, listening with flattering attentiveness as the brawny director smoked and talked, Dan found it easy to think that perhaps Sylvia Patterson felt it was less to her choice than to her interests to feed Garry Sloan's vanity.

And Dan remembered him.

Anne Winter said, "I may be doing a bit in this picture yet. It sounds almost too good to be true, I know; but Mr. Sloan himself talked to me today and they may give me a few lines."

"Atta girl," Dan said encouragingly. "Didn't I tell you you'd knock 'em dead if you got a chance?" Rather abruptly he asked, "What do you think of Sloan?"

"He's rather wonderful, Dan." Anne got up from her chair and took a few nervous steps toward one of the front windows. There she stood, gazing into night and nothingness for a minute or two, and Dan perceived, when she turned her face toward him again, that she was highly agitated.

He said, "I'm nothing but a clumsy idiot to be staying when you should be resting. Tomorrow may mean a tremendous lot to you, and I'm keeping you from bed. You're a little nervous; you ought to have some hot milk and go right to sleep."

Anne said, "Oh, Dan, you talk as if I were a baby. I'm going to have sandwiches and coffee, and so are you. I'm—I'm just a little silly, I suppose. Only, it does mean a tremendous lot to me; you were right, and it shouldn't, of course; a bit is only a bit, after all—I'm only fooling myself if I think it means any more. A week from now I suppose I shall be looking for any kind of extra work and thinking myself lucky if I get it."

Roemer smiled. "I wish Dick Charities could hear you talk, Anne. I'm sure he'd be surprised at your humility. He isn't used to it. Dick says: 'Give an extra a bit and he automatically thinks he's a bit player and doesn't want to do extra work again.' And I suppose he knows as much about it as any casting director in Hollywood."

He went over to her and took her hand in his and patted it. "You're going to go over, Anne. I know it. There's nothing can stop you, because—well, because you've got more ability right now than nine-tenths of them. Wait till they hear you sing. Have you sung for them yet Anne?"

Anne said, "Of course not, silly," and she laughed. "Why, I'm frightened to death to sing for Garry Sloan."

"You sang for me," Dan reminded her.

"I know, but I was such a tiny little voice, Dan."

He told her that she did not have to shout over the microphone. "Is there any chorus singing in the picture?" he asked.

Anne said there was not, and she proceeded to tell him the story of the picture. Its working title, she informed him, was "Married in May."

"Sylvia Patterson has several songs, and Raymond Marberry, and Pat Station and Mary Ellis have one or two. But there's no chorus singing. Mr. Sloan, though, has a

Hoover Extends Congratulations To German Aviators

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(AP)—President Hoover today congratulated Captain Wolfgang Von Gronau and his co-pilot, Edward Simmer, for their recent trans-Atlantic flight.

Two other members of the German crew, Frans Hack, mechanic, and Fritz Albrecht, wireless operator, remained in New York. The four plan to sail Wednesday for Germany, shipping their plane on the liner with them.

The aviators were photographed on the south lawn of the White House with Mr. Hoover. Afterwards they told him of their trip.

Von Gronau expressed his views upon the practicability of a commercial air line between Europe and the United States by way of New Zealand and Greenland. He said he believed the plan feasible and that the trip could be divided into three stages with refueling facilities available on the West coast of England, Iceland and either one or two bases in Greenland.

Johnny Ketter, piloting the Halibuton Oil Well Cementing company's Stearman, landed at the Pampa airport yesterday.

B. M. Brashears returned yesterday from a business trip to Boise City, Okla.

WHEAT IS FIRMER
CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Encouraged by unexpected strength in Liverpool quotations, and by commission house buying, Chicago wheat prices advanced more than 1 cent a bushel at the start of trading today. A better demand for cash wheat abroad, indicating that more business in North American grain might be expected, helped the rally. Corn was higher with wheat, but selling on resting orders halted the advance. Trade was of larger volume.
Opening 3-4 to 1 --8c higher, the wheat climbed a little more, and then reacted. Corn started 1-2 to 1 18c up and showed further strength.

SHORTAGE REVEALED
GAFFNEY, S. C., Sept. 5.—(AP)—An audit made public today by the clerk of the court here revealed a shortage of $29,000 in the accounts of Lieutenant Governor T. B. Butler as receiver of the defunct bank of Blacksburg.
Lieut. Butler was appointed receiver for the bank when it failed last year. Its creditors last march demanded an audit and it was ordered by Circuit Judge Mauldin. Lieut. Gov. Butler resigned as receiver last month and is under a physician's care.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
500 East Kingsmill Avenue
A great Bible school invites earnest persons of all ages. Roy McMillen is superintendent.

Following apostolic example, the communion is kept every Lord's Day. Every Christian should witness for Christ by faithful observance of this ordinance.

Gospel preaching at the 11 o'clock hour, and at 8 in the evening will interest and help all who hear. Bring friends and neighbors. They will enjoy the fellowship of this church.

Leaders of the young people's societies request a full attendance at 7 o'clock.

F. W. O'Malley, minister

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Francis and Warren St.

In order to enjoy the salvation of the Lord Jesus, a sinner must have a change of heart. The heart should be changed today just as it was in the New Testament times. The history concerning this matter is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles.

Some are unable to distinguish between the heart of man and the blood pump, that sends the blood to and from through the body. God does not want this member of the body to be changed, for he made it perfect in the beginning, and for it to be changed would mean almost instant death. Study this lesson with us Sunday night.

Services: Bible study, 9:45 a. m. Preaching, 8 p. m. Subject: "A Preaching, 11 a. m. Subject, "Warning at the Devil's Fire." Young people's meeting, 7:15 p. m. Change of Heart." Song practice Monday, 8:15 p. m. Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 8:15 p. m. Ladies Bible class, Thursday, 3 p. m.

You have a special invitation to each and every service, come. JTSSE F. WISEMAN, Minister

PREBYTERIAN CHURCH
The church has a message for every man. Though he may ignore it, though he may neglect to hear the message all his life, still the message of salvation is for him as much as for the man who accepts Christ. We invite you to hear the sermon, "Who then can be saved?" at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Services next Sunday as follows: Sunday school, 10 a. m. Sermon, "Who then can be saved?" 11 a. m. Junior Endeavor, 3 p. m. Sermon, "Watchman, what of the night?" 8 p. m. You will find a welcome awaiting you. C. M. A. A. HYDE, Minister

Pampa's Bowlers Win

FIRST GAME OF SERIES IS VERY CLOSE

An all-star Pampa team bowling under the name of the Diamond Shop last night defeated a picked team at Amarillo in the first of a series of three contests. The score was 2556 to 2494 in favor of the local men.

Each game last night was hotly contested and decided by from 10 to 17 points. The Pampa aggregation owed victory to the sensational bowling of Charlie Dusard, employe of the Phillips company, who averaged 213 by shooting games of 215, 202, and 222. The Amarillo team declared Dusard was one of the best bowlers to hit the maple in their city.

The Diamond Shop five through their victory established a reputation which they propose to defend against all comers. The players formerly were stars in other sections of the country. Their next match with a return affair with the Amarilloans here Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The final of the series will be played at a point to be decided by the toss of a coin.

Last night's scoring:
Diamond shop team—Joe Kahl, 155-171-180; Bill Holmes, 177-166-108; Sam Fenberg, 190-88-177; Hap Baxter, 169-187-159; Chas. Dusard, 215-202-222. Team score by games, 906-814-846.

Amarillo team—Daly, 168-164-143; Coffman, 172-176-165; Lennox, 142-157-195; Rogers, 169-170-139; McMinn, 210-137-143. Team score by games, 861-804-829. Scorer, Cy Relger.

Battle For Cup To Start Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Sept. 5. (AP)—The battle for a 44-year-old cup and world polo supremacy begins on Meadow Brook club's international field, Westbury, Long Island, tomorrow with Tommy Hitchcock's American four favored to beat back Great Britain's challenge for the third successive time.

Close to 40,000 spectators are expected to witness the opening match of the series for the Westchester cup first up for competition in 1886. Although Great Britain won the first series and the next one in 1902, the United States leads six victories to three. England won in 1914 while the United States, regaining the cup in 1921, successfully defended it in 1924 and 1927.

Unless all signs fail, the contenders will ride out like this:
America:

Eric Pedley, No. 1; Earle A. S. Hopping, No. 2; Tommy Hitchcock, No. 3; Winston Guest, back.
Great Britain:

Gerald Balding, No. 1; Lewis L. Lacey, No. 3; Capt. C. T. I. Roark, No. 3; Lieut. Humphrey Guinness, back.

CLINGMAN WEATHERS BAD ORIENTAL STORM TO WIN OVER PROFESSOR HIGAMI

The most unpopular Japanese wrestler that ever performed here got rough with Otis Clingman at the Pla-Mor last night—and got slammed hard for his trouble.

Clingman took two of the three falls from Prof. Tetsuri Higami, losing the middle one.

The local boy started his usual relentless grappling and clamped on a series of headlocks, bar arm and short-arm scissors, and an occasional drop toe-hold. The Japanese, quick as a flash and powerful in his legs, managed to squirm out and to try his evident specialty, the headlock. The first fall went 13 minutes before Clingman, with a series of headlocks that had the Oriental glassy-eyed, used his airplane spin and body slams to convince the visitor that the mat was clean enough to lie upon.

Higami came back intent on winning the second fall. He slugged and crawled for the mat at the first sign of danger. He resorted to the Japanese art of thumbing nerve centers when he got into toe holds and head scissors. Clingman rushed him, getting one, two, three, four headlocks and body slams. Then the unexpected. The Japanese dived between Clingman's legs, raising the local man high and letting him fall on his head. Shocked by the fall, Clingman fell victim to four body slams and a wriggling shoulder pin. The time was 14 1-2 minutes.

Billy Hallas, "of New Mexico," was big, ugly, powerful, and too experienced for Rob Roy, of Amarillo. The unpopular Hallas made a great uproar for about 22 minutes, then finished the youngster with body slams. Hallas has met some of the best in his day, and he is still no relic.

Tommy Thomas had a busy evening as referee. The crowd was unusually large for a season-opener.

TRADITION TO BACK SPUDS IN PLAY-OFF

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
A Texas league tradition that says a first half champion never has been beaten in a play-off will ride with Wichita Falls when they engage Fort Worth in the first of a five-game series next Wednesday at Wichita Falls.

In addition to that psychological advantage, the Oilers will play the first two games of the saw-off on their home grounds, where they have been poison to all opposition this year. Notoriously long hitters, the Williams clan can deal enemy pitchers misery in their small park, where an almost constant breeze from home plate wafts high flies over the ballustrades.

After the two opening bouts at Wichita Falls, however, the advantage will rest with the winners of the current race. Resting Friday the two clubs will move to Fort Worth for the concluding games of the series, starting Saturday. The first to win three decisions will meet the Southern Association champion, almost certain to be Memphis, in the Dixie series.

Neither of the title contenders exerted themselves in the first game of their concluding series at Wichita yesterday. With the second half already sewed up, the Panthers used two fingers to win the lackadaisical contest, 10 to 7. After Dick McCabe had held the Spuds to one run for five frames, he was relieved by Terry, a rookie, who yielded six more in the eighth. McCabe's great showing made him a certainty to start one game of the play-off.

Waiting until the waning days of the season to get hot, the San Antonio Indians won their sixth straight at the expense of Waco, 4 to 0. Cy Cottey limited the Cubs to five scattered knocks.

Bill Morrell outpitched Walt Tauscher as the Shreveport Sports downed Dallas, 9 to 3, to start their final series. A homer by Hugh Williamham for the Steers featured the all.

Dean and Stout turned in two brilliant performances as Houston took both ends of their right double header from Beaumont, 3 to 1 and 5 to 0. Dean allowed only four hits and fanned 16 in the first. Stout gave up one hit and whiffed eight in the seven-inning affair. Three of the four blows off Dean were of the scratch variety.

AMERICAN YACHTS WIN

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 5.—(AP)—America's six-meter yachting team has scored an overwhelming victory over Great Britain in the second competition for the British American cup.

The American team won its fourth successive race of the best four-out-of-seven series in Long Island Sound yesterday. The Americans scored 20 1-4 points to 15 for the Britons and an aggregate of 89 to 55 for the entire series.

Great Britain won the inaugural series for the cup on the Clyde in 1928.

immense number injured. We are going on recovering more dead and injured. It is necessary to cremate bodies for lack of time for burials.

"Families" are sheltered in churches, schools and public buildings still habitable. No news from rest of country. Rivers are in high flood. Lack of food is being felt. Families without clothing. Medical supplies insufficient to care for so many injured.

"The National congress, facing this great catastrophe has passed in a law essentially as follows: There are hereby suspended such constitutional guarantees as may be so suspended under the constitution.

"The president of the Republic is invested with authority to take such steps, whether economic or of any other character, which may be necessary to aid the towns and persons and save property, raise funds on public credit, distribute relief supplies, and in general to do what ever he understands to be demanded under the present circumstance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5—(AP)—Charles L. Mitchell, weather forecaster, said today that if the hurricane hit Florida at all it probably would not be damaging.

His reassuring word was given after the bureau had issued the storm warning which has been given many times daily of late as the destructive wind raged across the Caribbean and devastated Santa Domingo.

Locating the disturbance over or near the North Central Cuban coast, the bulletin said no strong winds had been reported.

FLIERS—

Coste said in broken English after he had examined each. While the gasoline was being put aboard, Coste climbed to his cockpit and sat there leisurely drinking used gingerale, consuming three glasses.

Each Chew Gum. Previously, George (Jimmie) Smith, personal representative of Colonel William E. Easterwood, who offered $25,000 for a flight such as Coste and Bellonte terminated here yesterday, had posed with the fliers before picture cameras, the three chewing gum. Easterwood is a chewing gum distributor.

As the gasoline pumps continued to work Coste was kept busy affixing his autograph to cards passed up to him by women and children, the stream seeking this form of souvenir increasing steadily. The flyer's disposition was not ruffled by the demand and policemen looked on without interfering with the groups that approached the plane.

The latest weather report said there were scattered thundershowers along the border of the route to Louisville, but the weather was favorable on the line the question Mark proposed to fly.

Kiwanis Club Objectives Are Outlined Today

The objectives of Kiwanians were summarized in an impressive talk at the luncheon of the Kiwanis club today by Kiwanian R. L. Underwood of Amarillo.

"We can best summarize the true objectives as hope, speed and gold," said Mr. Underwood. "First, we hope to render a real service to the community in which we live. Second, we need to put this service into action. Third, we find the gold, not in a metallic form, but gold that cannot be bought with money. This gold is the true friendship with our fellowmen, and satisfaction of having done real good."

Mr. Underwood was introduced by Judge R. L. Randolph, member of the Amarillo club.

R. L. Champion, M. P. Downs and E. M. Conley, delegates of the Pampa club to the district convention at Lubbock, gave reports of the meeting. Each of the men were impressed with the work that other clubs in Texas and Oklahoma are doing. A definite program for activities to be engaged in by the Pampa club will probably be decided on in the near future.

M. K. Brown, past president of the Rotary club, gave a brief talk stressing the necessity of paved roads if Gray county is to progress.

Prof. Otto Schick, accompanied by Mrs. F. P. McSkimming at the piano, gave several violin selections. The meeting today was in charge of Jack Baker.

Cubs Are Now In Good Health

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 5—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs today were within one man of being the team that started the season in quest of a second consecutive national league championship.

Rogers Hornsby—the Rajah himself—yesterday played his first game since his left ankle was fractured last Memorial Day, and only Captain and first baseman Charlie Grimm was lacking from the band of seasoned athletes who composed the starting Cub lineup.

Hornsby demonstrated that he can still get around. He handled six chances without an error, was in the middle of one double play and started another that squelched a Pirate rally. He also was the same patient Hornsby at bat, waiting out Pittsburgh hitters for three walks.

Grimm got, in Wednesday as a pinch batsman, and probably will be ready early next week. However, he may find it difficult to break back into the front line, as long George Kelly has been hitting at a busy clip.

Borotra To Play Bell Saturday

NEW YORK, Sept. 5—(AP)—The National men's singles tennis championships get under way at Forest Hills tomorrow with a first round clash between Jean Borotra of France and Berkeley Bell of Austin, Texas, expected to provide most of the fireworks.

The first day's schedule of 31 first round matches will cut the field of 95 by about one-third.

The luck of the draw was all against Borotra, favored with Big Bill Tilden to reach the final round. Not only is he pitted against such a formidable first round opponent as Bell but probably will be forced to meet another "first tier" player in the second round, Fritz Mercur of Bethlehem, Pa.
