

CONTESTED VOTES ARE DISCARDED SHAMROCK ORGANIZES TO FIGHT ROCK ISLAND PLANS PRORATION WILL BE ENFORCED, UMPIRE CORCORAN SAYS

Has anyone who made the Lubbock football trip any knowledge of a B-flat clarinet which became separated from its owner on that occasion? Miles Marbaugh, a member of the band, lost such an instrument. Every assistance should be given Miles in recovering his clarinet.

Pampa freight shipments are the heaviest on the Santa Fe system. This claim is made by one who believes he has reliable information on the subject. He told The Pampa that this is the fourth month in which Pampa receipts have exceeded those of Chicago. The total for the month will approximate $500,000. Does that indicate any depression?

The Amarillo News is being asked to explain why it has lately been breaking release dates on the business condition map furnished by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The map issued for yesterday was printed Friday in Amarillo. Other daily papers of the Panhandle report faith with the release date, and they resent the premature publication by the Globe-News.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 5 to 11, will be timely. The Texas fire loss in August was $1,200,919. The increase was largely due to burning of vacant houses. Incendiary motives are mentioned by J. W. DeWeese, fire insurance commissioner, as having been responsible. The depression probably had a bearing. The general public, not the fire insurance companies, stands the loss. Rates are based upon fire records. Moreover, carelessness continues to take a heavy toll. Lives are taken in fires—359 in 1929. Fire prevention, fire protection, better construction, and better enforcement of ordinances will cut down losses and premiums.

Most of those who went to Lubbock probably saw the ruins of that city's recent devastating fire. A tall building was gutted. As Pampa gets taller buildings, the city must have fire equipment to match.

A letter to The Pampa: As a booster for the Pampa Harvesters on Oct. 11, when they play Amarillo, don't you think it would be nice and a good send-off for the boys if every one that goes should drive over from a central point here. Suppose we meet at the Central high school building and drive over in a procession. We should have two or three hundred cars and let the Pampa city officials lead the string of cars. All automobiles should be decorated in Green and Gold.

If you think this would be nice or practicable, maybe you could take it up with the proper authority and get it over. A BOOSTER FOR THE BOYS. P. S.—Keep the good work going.

This is a good idea, indeed, and will be considered in ample time. Organized support of a team is infinitely better than enthusiasm running wild. The Canyon Eagles will play here Saturday, but the big game of the season will be at Amarillo the following week. "Beat Amarillo" has been the slogan ever since Pampa entered Class A football.

Who knows that the four amendments to be voted upon in Texas provide? The answer is, mighty few. Evidently this column will have to set aside several days for educational purposes pretty soon.

WARNING IS ISSUED TODAY TO OIL MEN

Police Power Will Be Instituted Here

FEW PRODUCERS DISOBEY ORDERS

Injunction Protects Runs to Local Refinery

Stating that some producers in conjunction with pipeline companies, or affiliates, are illegally producing and running oil in excess of amounts authorized by the proration schedule, H. J. Corcoran announced today that he will use "every power at his command to see that the orders of the commission are carried out."

"Proration is here to stay," Mr. Corcoran said in a statement addressed to producers, pipeline companies and pipeline departments or subsidiaries of producing companies. "I am satisfied that practically all of you desire to cooperate and are extremely interested in equitable proration in this district. I regret the necessity of instituting police measures but such apparently being the case, will use every power at my command, including pitiless publicity."

Protected by a court injunction, the Danciger Oil and Refining company is running its oil to the Bell refinery here. Other companies which publicly rebelled against the proration order include Shamrock Oil and Gas company and Wilcox Oil and Gas company. They have not complied with the schedule, Mr. Corcoran said.

It is estimated that there is a 10,000 barrel potential in the Panhandle, to which there are no pipeline connections, and that the properties which are prorable but are not being curtailed add 10,000 barrels to the output.

The pipeline outlet for the two-week period will be about 80,000 barrels, but present indications are that the pipeline companies will not take that much oil. The Humble has reduced its nominations from 14,000 barrels daily to 12,000. This company, on the urgent request of the commission and on condition that proration be applied, equally and unreservedly, agreed to run 14,000 barrels during the first period. It is now apparent that the output of the wells to which the Humble is connected will be several thousand barrels in excess of the nominations for the next period.

The Prairie Pipeline company has announced that it will reduce its nominations between 1,000 and 1,500 barrels of oil. The Prairie has been running about 13,000 barrels. The Texas company will reduce its

"Hit And Run" Driver Blamed in Abilene Death

ABILENE, Sept. 29. (P)—Jose Quintilla, 30, Fort Stockton, was found dead three miles west of Abilene on the Bankhead highway at dawn Sunday. A deep gash in the side of his head was the apparent cause of death. There were bruises on his legs, indicating to officers that he met his death at the hands of a hit-and-run driver. Quintilla's relatives, who arrived here today, said he had been seeking work and was walking home from Mississippi, unsuccessful in his search. Funeral services will be held here late today.

Bedridden Rodeo Star Dies After 11-Year Illness

DENVER, Sept. 29. (P)—Eleven years of suffering has ended in death of Tex Crockett, world war veteran and twice a world champion rodeo performer.

Crockett died at Fitzsimmons hospital yesterday. His death was caused by an illness contracted during the war.

All of Crockett's suffering was not physical, his friends said. He was a red blooded adventurer who desired to return to the "hurricane deck" of a bronco and could not reconcile himself to a bed ridden fate. His last rodeo was at Cheyenne, Wyo., in 1919 when he was a star performer at the frontier days celebration. In 1914 he became the world's champion bulldogger by conquering a lunging, powerful 1,100-pound steer at Bakersfield, Calif.

FAVORITISM IS CHARGE HURLED AGAINST WILBUR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (P)—A charge of favoritism toward large oil companies leveled at Secretary Wilbur by Ralph S. Kelley, chief of the field division of the general land office at Denver was characterized today by the interior secretary as "nonsense."

The Kelley accusation was contained in a letter announcing his resignation which the field man made public yesterday.

Kelley asserted that in the past five years the large oil companies, "because of great political and other pressure brought to bear upon the secretary" had received favorable consideration in spite of his urgings to the contrary. No change in this state of affairs, he said, had occurred since Mr. Wilbur took office with the Hoover cabinet.

The Denver man said public lands in Colorado held an oil reserve containing petroleum valued now at more than forty billions.

"This is the huge prize," he said, to which the large oil interests are endeavoring to secure titles by fraud and failure to comply with the United States mining law requirements. These oil interests are thoroughly organized and act concertedly in bringing pressure to bear upon the department to induce it to give them these valuable oil lands to which they are not rightfully entitled. Among those in this combination are several of the very concerns whose fraudulent practices have so recently been exposed in the investigations and trials of Former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, Harry Sinclair, and others."

"In my opinion," he added, "the adjustment of the titles to these oil lands in such manner that the rights of the public therein shall receive adequate protection transcends in importance any other matters pending before the interior department in many years."

CITY FEARS RAILROAD TO MISS LIMITS

Committees Named in Effort to Block Move

OTHER TOWNS ASKED TO HELP

Senator Small Says Competition Is Needed

SHAMROCK, Sept. 29. (Special)—Following a telephone conversation with J. H. Barwise, general counsel for the Fort Worth and Denver, after a mass meeting Friday night, a committee of five left Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Fort Worth to confer with Mr. Barwise and John A. Hulien, general manager of the Burlington subsidiary, concerning the best methods to be followed in intervening in the rail fight.

The committee is composed of G. C. Berkley, chairman, Clayton Heare, J. B. Clark, S. W. Norwood, and A. C. Hallmark. They stopped in Wellington and Childress on their way to Fort Worth to confer with business leaders in those towns and ask their cooperation in fighting the plea of the Rock Island to have the Fort Worth and Denver miss Shamrock by four miles. They said they expected to get one or two men in each of the towns to accompany them to Fort Worth.

Citizens Meet
Active opposition to the Rock Island railroad's plea for a rehearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission on the permit granted that road and the Fort Worth and Denver for new rail construction including joint trackage from a point south of Wellington to Shamrock was inaugurated at a meeting Friday night in the Lions club hall.

The meeting, called and presided over by Mayor G. C. Berkley, was attended by about 100 Shamrock business men and farmers, with representatives present from Wellington and Dozier. Definite steps in opposing the Rock Island's plea, which included the provision that the Fort Worth and Denver should not be allowed to share in local tonnage at Wellington and Shamrock, took the form of a resolution and the appointment of a committee to confer with Denver officials and people of interested towns concerning active measures in intervening before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The resolution as adopted declared the unalterable opposition of Shamrock people to the Rock Island's latest move in the fight for new rail construction in the East Panhandle. It also contained a provision that the aid of other towns be enlisted in the fight against any change in the commission's permission to the two roads to build.

J. B. Clarke read the entire brief which the Rock Island has presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission in asking for a rehearing. This brief sets forth that the construction of the proposed Denver line as permitted by the commission would be damaging to Rock Island interest resulting from the division of receipts at Wellington and Shamrock. The commission is asked to amend the permit so that the Rock Island will be allowed to build the line from Wellington to Shamrock, leasing trackage rights to the Fort Worth and Denver, that the latter road be not allowed to share in tonnage originating at or coming into either point, and that the Denver should not be allowed to come within three or four miles of Shamrock.

Following the reading of the brief, Mr. Clarke stated that the future of Shamrock is at stake if the Rock Island's plea is granted and told his

A Grown Man—Six Years Old!

Here is six-year-old Clarence Kehr of Toledo, Ohio, whose amazingly rapid development has his parents and Toledo school officials puzzled. Despite his youth, Clarence weighs 84 pounds, has to shave regularly, smokes cigars, talks in a man's voice and possesses unusual strength. Physicians attribute his development to superactivity of the ductless glands, and schools authorities—although they say he has a high intelligence quotient—refuse to let him enter the regular first grade classes. Above Clarence is shown displaying his muscle; at the right he is showing his strength by lifting a grown woman completely off the ground.

BALLOTS OF LEFORS BOX THROWN OUT

Andrews' Counsel Is Calling Voters to Stand

TECHNICALITIES POINTED OUT

Writs Are Issued to Bring Absent Persons

Passing upon testimony introduced by Jno. V. Andrews, who is contesting the sheriff's election, Judge W. R. Ewing this morning ordered thrown out 10 votes cast in the LeFors box for Lon L. Blansett in the run-off primary. One vote cast in the box for Andrews was discarded.

Testimony was heard on a total of 13 challenged votes. Six persons whose votes were challenged last week when the box was inspected were not present. As they have already been summoned to appear at the hearing, the court ordered that writs of attachment be issued and that they be brought into court. "Mr. Andrews challenged about 25 votes in the LeFors box, which he carried by a vote of 146 to 66. The court was due to dispose of the votes challenged by Blansett early this afternoon.

Mr. Blansett has challenged approximately 55 votes cast for Mr. Andrews in the LeFors box. The court expects to finish with the box by 1:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Reasons for discarding the ballots were numerous. Some persons voted in the wrong precinct. Others paid their poll taxes in the wrong county. Six challenges on votes were withdrawn by Mr. Andrews when it was learned that election and voting laws had not been violated.

Persons whose votes were discarded this morning are as follows: Carl Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, Betty McDuff, George Wheeler, Mary Ingram, W. I. Fowler, E. R. Ballinger and J. D. Disbrens. Challenges were withdrawn on votes cast by the following: Mrs. W. W. Thompson, L. L. Hardin, Joe Chambliss, S. S. Kennedy, N. N. Porterfield and Carl Mundt. The judge reserved the right to act on the vote of W. B. Ellard, who testified he was not certain that his poll tax was paid in Wheeler county where he was living in January, 1929.

Chas. C. Cook and R. E. Underwood, attorneys for Mr. Blansett, made frequent exceptions to the ruling of the court, and to the procedure used in submitting testimony.

The judge ruled that the four Cunninghams, Mr. Ingram and Mr. Ballinger voted in the wrong precinct. Mrs. W. G. Cunningham testified that her poll tax gave LeFors as her voting box. Mr. Watson, Miss McDuff, Mr. Fowler and Mr. Wheeler came here after January, 1929, and their votes were dis-

THE SYMPTOM OF FEAR

Contrasts between the different ways in which different governments meet emergencies are often rather instructive.

During recent days the governments of the United States and Russia, respectively, believed that they discovered food plots within their borders.

The Americans believed that Russian plotters were trying to make the American farmers' plight worse by selling wheat "short" and driving down the price. The Russians believed that a group of 48 men were conspiring to bring about a food shortage in Russia by destroying the nation's food reserves.

Notice, now, the contrast between the ways of meeting these emergencies.

In the United States a series of indignant statements fluttered forth from Washington, and two or three investigations got under way. It is fairly certain that these investigations will be long drawn out and that at the end—if the charges are sustained—some sort of disciplinary action, such as deportation, will be taken.

But in Russia announcement of the discovery of the plot was followed instantly by a brief trial—and the 48 accused men were led out and shot to death!

The contrast between those two actions speaks volumes about the relative stability of the economic systems in the two countries.

Violence is a symptom of fear and uneasiness. It bespeaks a constant apprehension that an overthrow is going to come. The Russian government, in abruptly killing these 48 plotters, announced by that action that it lives in terror of revolution. It cannot temporize; it dares not be lenient.

On the other hand, the charges about the grain plot in this land have hardly created more than a ripple of excitement. The ordinary man has glanced at the headlines and turned away to think about the coming world series. If the "plotters" are found guilty, the worst that can happen to them is expulsion from the country.

By that contrast we have the true measure of the difference between the two countries. Communism, evidently, feels uneasy on its throne. "Capitalistic America" does not.—NEA.

WASHINGTON.—Ex-Senator William M. Butler, textile magnate, former chairman of the Republican National Committee and the friend of Calvin Coolidge, has been telling the voters of Massachusetts that if he is elected to the Senate in November he will undertake to get them a constitutional amendment and a law providing a maximum 48-hour week in American industry.

But it need not be supposed that Mr. Butler has suddenly softened in his attitude toward labor or that he is so obsessed with the desire for political office that he has forgotten his mill profits.

The fact is that Mr. Butler and other Massachusetts mill owners are united in their desire for a national 48-hour law, whereas organized labor is officially opposed. Massachusetts textile interests have been suffering for years from the competition of southern mills which work their employees longer hours than Massachusetts mills can. It would be a fine thing, from the Massachusetts standpoint, if the rest of the country were brought up to her standard. And Mr. Butler's idea doubtless appeals to many Massachusetts workers.

Massachusetts is the only large textile manufacturing state which has a 48-hour law for women. The state's male workers benefit because so many women work in cotton and woolen mills that it is impracticable to make the men work longer than the women. But southern mills, according to labor leaders, are able to work their men and women 55 to 60 hours, and even more, each week.

No state has an eight-hour law or a 48-hour law applying to all private employees. The supreme court undoubtedly would declare such a law unconstitutional on the same principle as it has ruled against minimum wage legislation and laws providing for compulsory arbitration. The American Federation of Labor for many years has opposed legislation covering working hours in private industry while urging the eight-hour day through trade union effort.

Massachusetts and Oregon have 48-hour week laws for women. Nine states and the District of Columbia have eight-hour day laws, the states being Arizona, California, Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, New York, Utah and Washington. North Dakota and Wyoming limit the work of women in industry to eight hours and a half a day.

Butler would not be the first legislator from Massachusetts to propose the national 48-hour law. Two years ago Congressman Dallinger introduced a joint resolution in the House for a constitutional amendment giving Congress the "power to establish uniform hours and conditions for labor throughout the United States." Such an amendment would be necessary before Congress could pass a 48-hour law which would be constitutional.

Leaders of organized labor have been urging the six-hour day and the five-day week as measures to reduce unemployment and already a million workers are said to be working the five-day week. But the same leaders believe it would be dangerous to have legislatures and Congress start regulating hours and wages generally. Most of union labor already has won the eight-hour day and even a large section of unorganized labor has it.

Agitation for the eight-hour day by the A. F. of L. began in 1881. In 1884 the federation resolved that "eight hours shall constitute a legal day's work after May 1, 1886" and on the latter date a big strike was called to put the idea over. The strike won the eight-hour day for two or three industries and in instances where men had been working 14 to 18 hours a day their hours were cut to 12. The long campaign bore fruit gradually.

Bobby Comes to Golf Trail's End

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 29. (AP)—The greatest trail of golfing adventures the world has ever known, which began at a suburban railroad station here in April, ended this morning at the same little depot as Bobby Jones came home to his friends. Although no official welcoming program had been arranged, hundreds of friends and admirers crowded Brookwood station for a glimpse of Bobby as he stepped off the train. Automobile horns honked, train whistles blew and a score of cameras added their grinding noise to the general uproar. News reel photographers followed Bobby's every step until he driven away to his home.

HEALTH SUPERVISOR BEGINNING WORK IN PAMPA TODAY

Miss Bess Killough Comes to This City With Background of Intense Study; To Make Survey in Schools

Another milestone toward fulfilling the year's slogan, "An equal opportunity for every child," was reached today when Miss Bess Killough, of Hobart, Okla., began her work as health supervisor in the public schools of Pampa.

The schools here previously have employed a health nurse, whose duty it was to find defects and take measures toward having them corrected, but Miss Killough has the distinction of being the first health supervisor, who will not only act as nurse, but will guide the teachers in their efforts to educate the children in health measures. There are to be no definite classes in health, Miss Killough said this morning, but the health work will be correlated with other subjects.

Begins Survey Today

Miss Killough began her work today in making a survey of health conditions in the schools, and will tabulate the defects already corrected. She states that later on examinations will be made and local physicians and dentists will be asked to cooperate. Another feature of the health work, she said, will be daily morning inspection of the children by the teachers, with all abnormal conditions being called to her attention.

The health work in the schools is receiving the hearty cooperation of club women and members of the Parent-Teacher associations, according to R. B. Fisher, superintendent of schools.

Previous Activities

Miss Killough has been employed for five years with the state health department of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma Public Health association. She is a former student of Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, and is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma School of Nursing. She has also done post-graduate work in Columbia university, New York City.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Reality" was the lesson-sermon subject in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 28.

The golden text was from John 8:12. "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

The service included the following passages from the Bible: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me."—Isaiah 45:5, 6.

The following citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy were also included in the lesson-sermon: "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause" (p. 207). "Material sense does not unfold the facts of existence; but spiritual sense lifts human consciousness into eternal Truth" (p. 95).

Improving Park

CLARENDON, Sept. 29. (Special)—A gateway being built at the City Park here is nearing completion. The gateway plan made by J. W. Martin and Miss Lorena Steagall consists of two large pillars 10 feet wide from outside base to outside base, nine feet high and with an arch connecting. Boulder stones set in concrete is the type of construction and the stones, sand, and concrete were all donated to the work. Valuable work on the park has been done through the use of city machinery in leveling the park grounds and cutting a channel to confine flood waters that occasionally go down the draw. Other permanent construction will be done with the beginning of spring.

NEGRO SLAYERS TRAIL IS LOST BY POLICE

HOUSTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—The trail of a negro who shot to death a Houston ice dealer and attacked his companion Saturday night, as they drove through Houston suburb, continued today to baffle police.

Bloodhounds from the Central state prison farm was brought to the scene in an attempt to trace the slayer of H. H. Peveaux, 35, but the trail was lost near the wooded section where the attractive 25-year-old waitress was assaulted. Officers believed the killer escaped in an automobile.

Ethel Barrymore Is To Keep Acting 'While I Can Walk,' Makes Plans To Actively Watch Over Daughter's Career

BY MARK BARRON (Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Now that Ethel Barrymore Colt has come to carry the royal family of the theatre through a ninth generation, what if her mother? The answer is that Ethel Barrymore will continue to reign as she has since she made her own debut at the age of 13.

She will continue to act, accompanied by her daughter, in plays that she will select and direct to be presented in her own playhouse.

Her own career will go on, and she will be there to watch, over Ethel Colt's, determined that this 19-year-old daughter will not follow her uncles, Lionel and John Barrymore, into talking pictures.

Perhaps now, Ethel Barrymore might want to retire as an actress, confining herself in the future to directing and producing.

"No, I won't do that," she told us. "I will always be an actress as long as I am able to walk on the stage."

"As for directing, I have been directing my plays for a long time, but I have never said anything about it before because I wouldn't have a chance with my critics."

"You think the critics would be unfair to you?" we inquired.

"Very likely. They are usually only fair with their favorites," she answered. "However, poor fellows, I suppose one shouldn't blame them. Their jobs must get awfully tiresome."

Following "Scarlet Sister Mary," in which she and her daughter are now playing, Miss Barrymore plans to do several other productions this season. She would like to have a repertoire of six or seven plays in her theater.

One of the dramas she may have on this season's program is a revival of "Sunday," the play which gave her that famous line:

Two Candidates Are Received by Pythian Sisters

Officers of the organization are asked to meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. for officers' practice.

Air Mail Theft Puzzles Officers

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29. (AP)—The theft of two pouches of air mail from under the noses of municipal airport attaches and waiting pilots, offered postal inspectors here a baffling mystery.

The two 35-pound bags, one of them registered, were brought here from Chicago on a National Air Transport plane piloted by Edmund L. Matucha, veteran of the service. Shortly after the Chicago plane arrived Sunday morning, mail for the southwest was trundled to a Dallas ship, waiting with motors roaring. In that brief space of time the two pouches vanished.

Postal inspectors said airport employees were mystified as to how the theft was perpetrated, as they were sure no automobile was parked nearby.

Umpires Appointed

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—J. E. (Jack) Beardon and Charles Rigger will be the National league umpires in the world's series, President John A. Heydler, announced today. The Chicago city series president Heydler named E. C. Quigley and George Magerjuth.

Miss Grace Bull Recommends One Evening's Relief Each Week From Cooking; To Conduct School Here

"The average man with a multitude of interest and contacts comprising his daily duties cannot understand why his wife gets tired of a routine of cooking," declares Grace Bull, noted cookery expert, who will appear personally in Pampa Oct. 14-17, conducting the Pampa Daily News cooking school in the basement of the First Methodist church.

"If it were possible I should appreciate very much the opportunity of devoting one of my lectures to this essential item of lack of perspective in otherwise sympathetic husbands. The same husband who complains of the monotony of his meals, does not stop to realize that maybe the monotony of his wife's duties were responsible. There is no doubt in my mind that every housewife has a right to a temporary respite once a week from cooking. Any occupation whether it be bridge playing, or reading, if made compulsory three times a day, seven days a week could not help but inspire rebellion.

"An Evening's Relief

"Many homes have been made much happier by a systematic plan of providing the housewife with one evening's relief a week. On such an evening courtship days are revived—Mrs. Housewife dons her best garments and again, as in their early youth, her husband selects a place at which they will dine and orders for the family! In the summer time particularly do I recommend periodical picnics in which paper plates and napkins remove much of the so-called drudgery of 'cleaning up'. The entire family circle is stimulated by an out of door meal and such instances rapidly become regularities in the program of the family."

Sensible Advice Given

Homely, sensible philosophies such as the above, run like a golden thread through the warp and woof of recipes, food values, menu construction and technical data which comprises the fabric of Miss Bull's lectures, making them most enjoyable.

The remarkable personality of Miss Bull, colored and mellowed by contacts with hundreds of thousands of women makes a most edifying and pleasant instruction period out of what might easily become a more or less dry discourse. Her unusual capacity of graphically vivifying her remarks by incidents drawn from her rich background of experience have led to an unprecedented demand for her services.

Ethel Barrymore has no thought of retirement, now that her daughter has joined her on the stage. Miss Barrymore is shown as the queen in "Clair de Lune" (1921) and in sketch as artist sees her in "Scarlet Sister Mary," paper profession.

She is passionately fond of hard work, she believes fully that her daughter is a great actress. She heartily disapproves of most late to say as much. She has little love for the newspaper profession. She believes that "truth is the only thing that ever matters." She is very fond of England. She cannot understand why newspapers print front page stories when something unusual happens to a member of the Barrymore clan.

its women readers are indeed fortunate to be able to attend Miss Bull's lectures this year since her bookings were at a premium.

Miss Bull's popularity is attested by the fact that many queries have been received at the Pampa Daily News office regarding details of the school. Admission will be absolutely free without obligation. Lectures will be given promptly at 2:30 o'clock each afternoon for four consecutive days beginning Oct. 14.

Interest of the federated club women throughout Texas is centered upon plans for the permanent headquarters building to be erected at Austin, where the plans were made public by the building committee Saturday. The attractive two-story structure will be in pure Colonial design, both exterior and interior.

The following description has been given for publication: "The building will be of hollow tile, finished in old Colonial effect brick in varying shades of red, with stone entrance and trim and slate-roof. The main entrance will be through a columned portico, and the floor of the vestibule, or reception suite, will contain the Texas Lone Star and the shield of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs in mosaic tile. Typical of the Colonial plan, the reception hall is flanked on either side by spacious lounge and library rooms. These in turn connect through arcades with the wings. In one wing will be the art gallery and in the other the tea room, kitchen and service pantries.

"The reading and writing room, which joins the library, will be dedicated to the Texas Veterans of the world war. An oriel window will bear in its recesses three bronze memorial tablets. One of these tablets will be as the war veterans' dedication, one the list of founders, and the third the list of patron contributors.

"An auditorium is provided on the main floor, back of the reception hall, and the library and art gallery wings. The state federation office and office room for the management of the building also are provided for in the main floor plans, and there will be room for shops on the ground floor.

"On the second floor will be several guest suites for the accommodation of visiting club women.

Southwestern Football Games to Be Brighter This Week

MUSTANGS TO MEET NOTRE DAME ELEVEN

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Sept. 29. (P)—Southwestern conference's biggest and best football week dawned today, with three schools bearing down in preparation for intercollegiate battles that will headline the nation's grid program Saturday.

Topping the week's card in standpoint of popular appeal was that between Southern Methodist University's aerial circus and the colorful Notre Dame eleven at South Bend, Ind. The Mustangs, an easy victory over Howard Payne under their belts, were confident as they finished polishing up their offense to be used against the Rockne team. Catching the same train north with the Mustangs Wednesday afternoon will be the Baylor university squad, bound for Lafayette, Ind., and a skirmish with the Purdue Boilermakers, 1929 champions of the Big Ten. They will make most of the trip together, crusaders in a common cause—an effort to gain prestige for the southwest conference. Prospects were not so bright for the Bears, as they made an indifferent showing in defeating the Denton teachers, a weak outfit, 33 to 0, in their opener Saturday.

A third squad bound for the intercollegiate wars this week were the Texas Aggies, who Saturday will clash with the Nebraska Cornhuskers, coached by Dana X. Bible, former Aggie mentor, at Lincoln. The Belkmen, generally picked to finish in the second division in the conference race, looked surprisingly strong in overwhelming the Southwestern university Pirates, 43 to 0, a far better showing than Rice Institute had made against the same team.

Although they were not billed for one of the spectacular frays this week, the champion Texas Christian university Frogs continued to demand attention as the result of their strong showing in preliminary tussles. In their third appearance Saturday, the Frogs stopped a strong Austin college team, 33 to 7, running their total points to 190. The illustrious Cy Leland scored his fifth and sixth touchdowns, one of them on a 48-yard gallop. Lisle, Kangaroo back, supplied the game's feature with a 90-yard run for his team's score after intercepting a Frog aerial.

Saturday the Schmidtmens will show their wares to West Texas fans, meeting Simmons university Cowboys in their annual bout at Breckenridge, neutral ground. Texas university, victorious over the Texas Miners from El Paso, 28 to 0, in its inaugural, was to stay at home again this week and engage the always troublesome Centenary Gentlemen at Memorial stadium. Last year the Gents gave the Longhorns a fit before finally going down, 20 to 0. Against the Miners Saturday, Coach Littlefield's eleven failed to show the power expected of it, running up a score largely through breaks of the game.

The Rice Owls, whose poor showing against Sam Houston State Teachers Saturday was a surprise and disappointment to conference grid fans, will engage the St. Edward's university Saints at Houston. As they could mudge out the Bearkats only 13 to 12, the Owls were likely to get some stiff competition from the veteran St. Edward's eleven.

Victorious over College of Ozarks, 27 to 0, in their starter, the University of Arkansas Razorbacks were scheduled to meet Tulsa University at Tulsa, Okla. The Porkers moved into the "dark horse" category by their impressive play against the Ozarkians, who are strong this year.

Only Pair of Champs Retain Baseball Titles

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (P)—Only two individual champions in the major leagues have retained their titles in the season just ended.

Babe Ruth, although unable to remain home-rung king of all baseball, continued to lead the American league with 49 four-baggers, improving his 1929 mark by three.

Kiki Cuyler, fleet Chicagoan, continued to steal more bases than any other National leaguer although his total of 36 was below his 1929 mark of 43.

Bill Terry of New York became the leading batsman of the National league, compiling an average of .401, although he was not able to pass the total of 245 hits made by

CANYON EAGLES WILL PLAY HERE FRIDAY INSTEAD OF SATURDAY AS SCHEDULED

Rest was in order for the Pampa Harvesters today, and several of them needed more than a little of it. Chastain and Lard were suffering from severe "charley horses" and must loosen up slowly.

Coach Odus Mitchell, himself recovering from a serious throat ailment, announced today that he would use the first string as little as possible against the Canyon Eagles next Friday. The game has been moved from Saturday to Friday to permit local fans to see the Amarillo-Childress game on Saturday.

Without "Cow" Williams, who has moved to Teachers college grid circles, the Eagles are not expected to be very tough, and the reserve squad should have a great day of it.

All concentration from now to October 11 will be on that all-important game with the Amarillo Sandstorm. The Sandies will make a desperate effort to win on their home gridiron, and under new coaching they appear to be making fast strides.

The Harvesters are regarded as having reached midseason form more quickly, but the Amarillo school has heavier material and the locals will face the heaviest line they will meet all season.

Both teams will be fearful of the opposition. Pampa's astonishing play against the Lubbock Westerners scared Amarilloans to the core. As the Lubbock Avalanche puts it: "No longer are the Pampa Harvesters known as the mystery team. There was not the slightest hint of mystery about the manner in which they undertook to place nice slippery skids under the Lubbock Westerners and leave the field on the shoulders of a joyous mob of 600 rooters who came 200 miles to see just how the trick would be turned. It was to the tune of 12 to 9, and the score indicates the nature of the affair, the first conference game for either team, and the first time the teams had ever met."

After praising Captain Don Salsbury as a "human dynamo," the Lubbock scribe said that "aside from Captain Salsbury there were ten other stars on the Pampa team. In the backfield there was one named Lard, and the lad lived up to his name, slipping through holes, around ends, over tackles, and under center line greased lightning. There were others whose presence was a source of misery to the Westerners. They were Chastain and Martindale, a pair of halfbacks."

Fans who saw the Lubbock game doubtless understand now why the Harvesters have not attempted many early season passes. Lubbock's air attack proved to be Pampa's opportunity, and had the Westerners stayed on the ground the final score might have been different. Passes are wonderful—when they are completed and when they are not intercepted.

Wrestler Who Humiliated Clingman In Lightning Fall to Try It Again

Wrestling fans recall an occasion when Otis Clingman was glad to pat the mat after 16 seconds.

The hold was a freakish upward and backward twist of the arm, and it was so punishing that there was nothing to do but concede a fall.

The young man who applied that hold to the local favorite was Jack Rose of Shreveport. It is history that Clingman came back with a drop toe-hold took the second fall in 14 seconds, then won the match in a grueling third period.

Rose will journey back to Pampa Thursday to take another crack at Clingman. The Shreveport man has done a lot of traveling since he was here. He is reputed to be toughened by recent matches and to have learned some more tricks.

Frank O'Doul of Philadelphia in winning the 1929 title with a 398 mark. He did tie this total, which is a National league record.

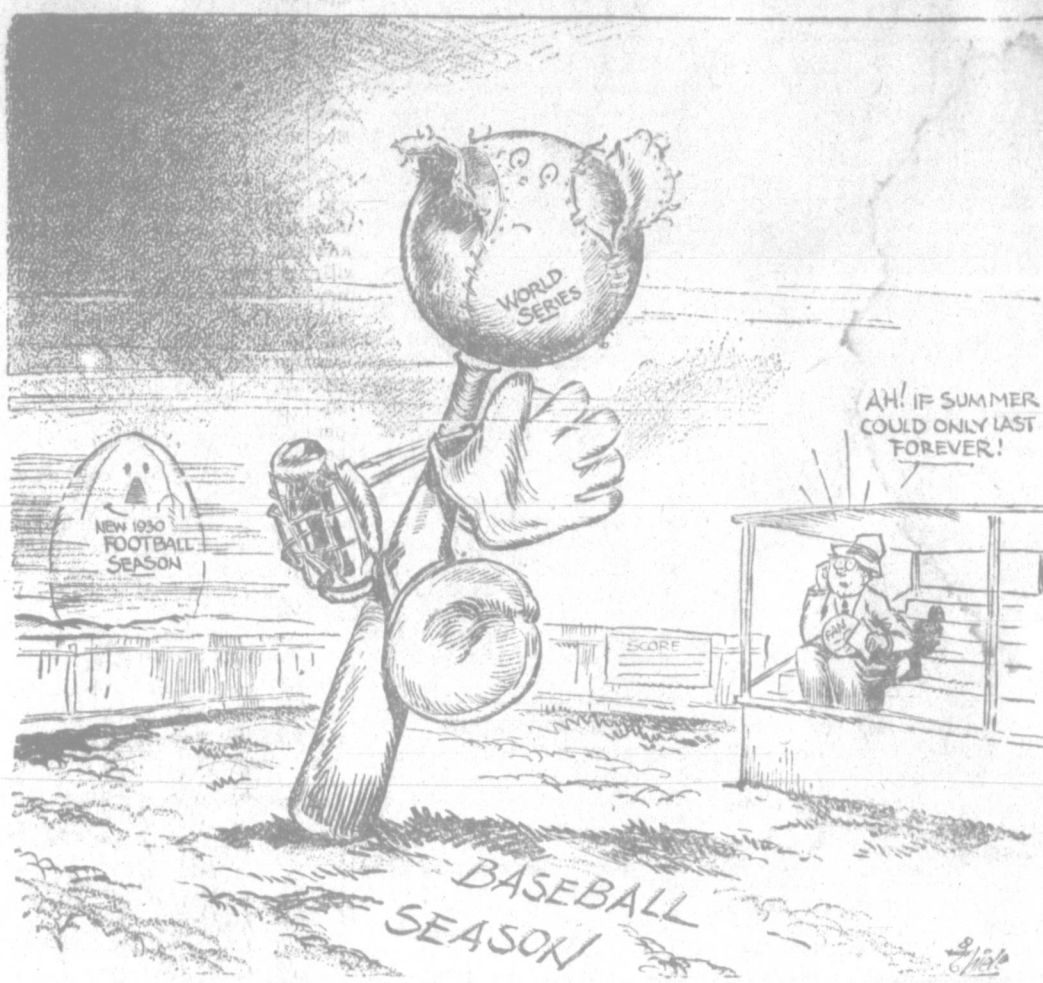

Chuck Klein of Philadelphia and Hack Wilson of Chicago led in the individual record smashing. Klein scored 158 runs, hit 59 doubles and made his blows good for a total of 455 bases. All three were records for his league, passing the totals of 156 and 52, made last year by Rogers Hornsby of Chicago and Johnny Frederick of Brooklyn, and of 450 total bases made by Hornsby a few years before. Wilson left hardly a fragment of the league home run record as he hit 56 to beat the mark of 43 set by Klein in 1929. And in doing this he established an all time major league mark of 180 runs batted in and helped his team to do as much for the club homer record with a total of 171 for the Cubs. Adam Comorosky of Pittsburgh supplanted teammate Lloyd Waner, in first place by hitting 23 triples.

The final result of the race for the American league batting championship which Lou Gehrig of the Yankees and Al Simmons of the Athletics carried on may not be known until the official figures come out, but unofficial returns have it that Gehrig's three hits yesterday brought his mark to 382, to give him the crown by a one point margin.

Texas Will Fight

GIANTS USE MANY MOUND MEN SUNDAY

BY HUGH S. FULGERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Only one place left in the lineup of the two big leagues was in doubt as the teams went out for their final games yesterday and the New York Giants decided that by defeating the Phillies, 7 to 5, in a 10-inning struggle to hold third place in the National league by a one-game margin over the erstwhile league leaders from Brooklyn.

The Giants used five moundmen, came from behind to tie the score in the ninth inning and won in the tenth. The Robins did their best to gain a tie, defeating the Boston Braves, 6 to 3. Hollis Thurston gave eight hits and drove in four runs with three of Brooklyn's 15 hits, including the only home run of the game.

The champion St. Louis Cardinals flashed a new pitching star to take their final game from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 1. Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, recently of the Western and Texas leagues, held the Pirates to three hits and shut them out after his first major league inning.

The New York Yankees brought forth an old timer of the hurling ranks, none other than Babe Ruth himself, and won a 9 to 3 decision from the Boston Red Sox. The Babe had not pitched a full game in nine years, but did it in his old

Several Good Fights on Cards For This Week

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (P)—Justo Suarez, Argentine, who has yet to meet defeat in a brief American campaign, battles Ray Miller, left hook specialist from Chicago, in a 10-round at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, takes on Del Fontaine of Canada, in a 10-round at St. Paul Friday night with no title at stake.

fine form yesterday, giving only two hits in the first five innings.

The Chicago Cubs came back to beat Cincinnati, 13 to 11, after the Reds had scored nine runs in the second inning. Washington's second place team scored six times in the fifth to defeat Philadelphia's American league champions, 9 to 4, as four aces of the Mack hurling staff worked briefly. St. Louis and Cleveland divided a wild hitting double header, the Browns collecting 17 hits as they won the first game, 11 to 5, and the Indians unleashed a 20-hit attack to capture the second, 15 to 4. Chicago's White Sox did likewise, hitting safely 15 times as they defeated Detroit 10 to 7 through a strong finish.

SIMMONS IS MOST FEARED STAR OF A'S

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29. (P)—Collectively, the Cardinals have a heavier hitting outfield array than the Athletics, but in the robust person of Aloysius Harry Simmons the American league champions possess the slugger most apt to break up a ball game on short notice.

Rival managers and pitchers have no hesitation in saying they would rather see any member of the A's except Simmons come to the plate in a pinch. Simmons started the winning rallies for the Mackmen in the last two games of the 1929 world's series. What he left undone, his outfield mates, George (Mule) Haas and Edmund (Bing) Miller, finished very neatly.

In the Shibe Park clubhouse of the A's, Bing Miller includes among his cherished souvenirs the warclub from which flew the two-base hit that decided the final game of the battle with the Cubs last year.

Miller and Haas have not been hitting any where near their best this year. Haas has been a casualty, but their series records help offset the fact that the St. Louis outfield trio of George Watkins, Chick Hafey and Taylor Douthit has been hitting at a 355 clip as compared to around 325 for their forthcoming rivals.

Watkins wasn't on the regular roster of the Cardinals, reporting for spring training at Bradenton, Florida, last winter, but the Rochester recruit has been one of the National league sensations, a big factor in the late rush of the Cardinals to the front. His batting has been heavy, close to .370 as well as timely.

Douthit is well below his companions in the hitting column but the fleet Cardinal fly-chaser is one of the best defensive men in the game. He is a natural ballhawk and a streak on the bases.

Hafey's career at one time almost was checked by eye trouble but he has come back and hit around .340 all this year. He is a terrific line hitter, and like Simmons, can break up a ball game.

The National league champions are better equipped in outfield reserves with a .370 slugger, George Fisher, ready to step into an emergency position. Ray Blades, who doubles as a coach, also is available for outfield duty.

The Athletics have a prize recruit in Jim Moore, Texas league product, who joined the team just in time to help win a few ball games and become eligible for the world's series. In his first 13 major league games he hit .378. Homer Summa is a veteran utility man.

 bearers that the time had arrived for the town to get into the fight. He added that the Denver means business and is ready to begin construction as soon as an agreement can be reached with the Rock Island. He charged the Rock Island wants to exclude competition of the Denver through selfish interest and that such a result would be damaging to the interests of Shamrock.

Senator Small Speaks
 Sen. Clint C. Small of Wellington spoke briefly at the gathering stating his belief that the construction of the Denver line would be more beneficial to interested towns, as the construction of the Rock Island alone would not afford competition. The Denver line would not be complete if it missed Shamrock he asserted, and expressed the belief that the Rock Island move is not pleasing to anyone in Collingsworth county.

The committee chosen to confer with Fort Worth and Denver attorneys and the business men of other leading towns concerning the most effective method of opposing the reopening of the hearing was composed of G. C. Berkley, chairman; A. C. Hallmark, J. B. Clark, S. W. Norwood, and Clayton Heare.

 nominations from 11,000 to 3,000 barrels.

"The Railroad Commission of Texas set a maximum figure of 90,000 barrels of oil to be produced and run from the Panhandle," Mr. Corcoran stated. The proration schedule of the umpire set the outlet for the second half of September at 70,000 barrels, yet the actual outlet does not reach the latter figure. Figures are constantly reaching the umpire's desk showing runs from the Panhandle district substantially in excess of the 80,000 barrel figure, after three weeks of proration.

"The only interference is from some producers in conjunction with pipeline companies, pipeline departments or affiliates are illegally producing and running oil in excess of amounts authorized. Permit me to say that the umpire is aware of these violations and that as you read this you take stock of your individual picture."

"The umpire is charged as a deputy of the Railroad Commission, with the promulgation of rules and regulations necessary to handle local situations to bring them within the scope of the general order. He is also charged with enforcement."

Kansas Rivals

No matter how the coming election results, a past departmental commander of the American Legion will win the governorship in Kansas. Both Frank Haucke (top), the Republican nominee, and Harry Woodring (below), the Democratic nominee, have commanded the Kansas legion. Each is a banker and a bachelor. They declared a truce in their campaign to attend the national legion convention in Boston together.

qualified on that ground. The judge stated that they should have paid their poll taxes in the Texas county where they were living in January, 1929, although they were entitled to vote in Gray county after living here six months. It was not necessary for Mr. Porterfield and Mr. Ingram to pay poll taxes since each was 21 years old just before the election.

Writ of attachment was issued for J. B. Sargeant. Other witnesses who were not present included C. C. Dittler, W. M. Pace, A. D. White and C. C. Gantz.

The hearing came to an abrupt standstill at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, when W. M. Lewright, attorney for Mr. Andrews rested his case until Mr. Blansett submitted evidence on the challenged Andrews votes in the LeFors box. None of the witnesses for the contestee was present and the court adjourned until mid-afternoon.

Mr. Underwood claimed he was under the impression that Mr. Andrews would offer testimony on all the challenged Blansett votes, and that his witnesses were not subpoenaed until about 11 o'clock this morning. Mr. Lewright contended that according to an agreement the contestant would produce witnesses affecting challenged votes in each box, and that the contestee would immediately introduce testimony on the challenged Andrews votes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Campbell were in McLean Sunday.

Wheat Rallies

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—All deliveries of wheat plunged down temporarily to new low price records today, but met with aggressive buying that brought about quick rallies. Continued urgent offerings of Russian and Canadian wheat abroad were reported, together with an increase of the amount of wheat on ocean passage and sharp downturns in wheat quotations at Liverpool.
 Opening 7-8 to 2-1-8c off, Chicago wheat futures soon reversed this action, and the market scored gains all around. Corn started 3-4 to 2-5-8c off, and like wheat snapped back.

Befriends Man But Is Slugged By His Guest

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 29. (AP)—A man he had befriended beat and robbed R. E. Gosnell, Phoenix, Ariz., tourist, about 6:30 o'clock Monday morning and then threw him out of his car six miles south of here.

Gosnell, teller in a Phoenix bank, was going east on a vacation. He told Sheriff Barker of Parker county that he drove into a filling station "about 90 miles west of Fort Worth at 4 o'clock" and saw a young, overalled man talking to a policeman. He offered to give the young man a "lift."

Since he had driven all night, Gosnell said, he became drowsy and permitted the passenger to drive. Gosnell fell asleep. At Weatherford the young man turned south, and, reaching a point six miles from town, slugged the tourist with a pistol, robbed him of $30 in cash, threw the unconscious body out of the car and turned around. Officers believe the man continued toward Fort Worth in the car.

Gosnell was not seriously injured. A dairyman saw him pitched out of the car and brought him to a hospital here.

DAN MOODY RECEIVES PLEA FOR SPECIAL RELIEF SESSION SPECIAL TRAIN TO PAMPA-AMARILLO GRID GAME IS PROPOSED

TICKET SALE TO BEGIN SOON AT CHAMBER

Round Trip Cost Is Set at $1.10 by Agent

RAIL PLAN IS POPULAR HERE

Special Section of Bleachers to Be Reserved

A proposal made yesterday by L. W. Klein, Santa Fe agent, to transport Pampa football fans in a special train to the Pampa-Amarillo football game, scheduled for Saturday week, was being discussed favorably today by Pampa football fans.

A round-trip ticket would cost $1.10, Mr. Klein said. The train would leave here about 1 o'clock and arrive at the football field one hour before the game. The special would not stop at the Santa Fe station upon arrival at Amarillo but would proceed on a switching track to the field, stopping within a block or two of the stadium.

A number of business men who have already expressed themselves in favor of the special train, regardless of whether the game is played on Friday or Saturday. It was pointed out that the effects, psychological and otherwise, of the Lubbock special were highly invigorating to Harvester morale. Mr. Klein and local business men announced that they would negotiate for a reserved section in the bleachers for Pampa fans. The Pampa crowd, accompanied by bands and pep squads would make a strong impression by arriving at the field in a body, and by occupying a special section.

The train would leave Amarillo about 6:30 p. m. and arrive back in Pampa before 8 o'clock. In order to obtain the special, 200 persons would have to make the trip.

Geo. W. Briggs, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is today communicating with school officials and other business men regarding the plan. Mr. Klein said that cooperation of the school would insure the special. A proposal to have the game played on Friday instead of Saturday is also being considered by business men. However, there was doubt expressed as to whether Amarillo would agree to make the change in date. High school football games have been consistently played in A-class division, and especially in Amarillo, on Saturday for several years. The B. C. D. will take orders for the tickets.

Mr. Klein reported that no complaints have been made to him regarding the Lubbock special. "The crowd was the most orderly I have ever seen on a special train. There was plenty of fun going on, but no rowdiness," he said. A check of ticket sales made yesterday revealed that 542 from Pampa rode the train to Lubbock.

Proration Is Wanted

FORT WORTH, Sept. 30. (AP)—The Fort Worth proration committee voted yesterday to recommend to the railroad commission extension of proration in the Penn pool of that county and adoption of a method of proration similar to that in effect in the Yates pool of Pecos county. Probable outlet for the next 29 days will be 7,500 barrels daily. W. L. Todd, chairman of the committee and vice-president of the Shims Oil company, presided.

HOUSTON, Sept. 30. (AP)—V. Bernhardt, 62, dragged by a team of draft horses for more than 100 feet, today was putting up a fight for life at a hospital. He was injured seriously.

LeFors has her second newspaper, The LeFors News, which is a successor to the Alanreed Herald. A previous paper at LeFors was the promotion variety, and lasted but a few issues. The new publication is assured a longer life. C. C. Warford is editor and publisher. The first issue printed in LeFors boasts a live Chamber of Commerce, newly oiled streets, a $170,000 school building, 25 teachers, rich oil and gas development, and a bright future. That is the spirit of a growing town; congratulations.

Cheyenne, Okla., a city brought nearer to Pampa by reason of the C. & O. W. railroad, will have a celebration Nov. 27 to honor an unknown Indian soldier. The date is the anniversary of the battle of the Washita, which occurred west of Cheyenne on Nov. 28, 1868. The bones of an unknown Indian will be interred in a Cheyenne cemetery with appropriate Indian rites. Chief Magpie of the Cheyenne tribe will have charge of the ceremonial. This will do the prejudices of frontier days fade.

C. P. Buckler is another one of those who sees signs of a mild fall. The hot, dry summer pressages such weather, in his opinion. The Pampa has been here too long to prophesy, but he has a hunch that next winter will not be as mild as many persons think.

Secretary Stimson in claiming that the G. O. P. has redeemed 34 out of 35 campaign pledges made quite an admission. He in effect admitted that the party had made a stab at fulfilling 35 promises. In other words, the party didn't promise to accomplish much, but it did pledge itself to try. That is something, but how far from actual accomplishment!

Few cities of the size of Clovis have zoos, but the New Mexico City is quite proud of her caged animals. A few days ago a circus went broke and Clovis bought lions, cheetahs, bears, and monkeys very cheap. Most cities can boast only of Lions, Moose, Elks, and that sort of antiquarian known as the Rotarian.

Miss Bull, who will conduct The News' cooking school this year, evidently is quite accomplished. She shows how the housewife may use all her beauty aids at the same time she is cooking. We imagine that to cook efficiently and at the same time look in a mirror instead of into the oven must be quite a stunt.

Closing business houses during a football game may appear foolish to some people. Maybe it is, from their standpoint. But we American business men do many things that are foolish. Sitting in a stuffy store room for 10 or 12 hours every day is a dumb practice for anyone with the slightest appreciation of nature, the arts, or what other folks are doing. Clerks could be made to stand behind a counter much longer than they do, or the hours could be shortened without materially affecting the even trend of business. Most things happen because they are habitual, and not because they are necessary.

Fortunately, the world series will be over before the talk about the Pampa-Amarillo game gets dominating. Otherwise, the A's might not get proper attention in their victory. There, we let our predictions go, but we won't expand on the subject.

GOVERNOR IS UNDECIDED AS TO NECESSITY

Legislature Would Meet Short Period

FEDERAL HELP NEAR NOTHING

Plan of 1918 Is One of Ideas Being Studied

AUSTIN, Sept. 30. (AP)—A communication from the Federal drouth relief committee which was interpreted as being new arguments for a special session of the legislature for drouth relief, was received today by Gov. Dan Moody.

The communication said that no other counties in Texas would be certified for reduced railroad freight rates on livestock and feed, and that many of the Texas counties already certified would be withdrawn before Oct. 31. Governor Moody replied to the letter that it was unthinkable that many of the counties would be denied his relief and that he had petitions from numerous other sections asking the rates.

Counties now seeking the rates, which probably will not receive them, are those on the Edwards plateau and west of the Pecos river, the governor said. It is doubtful whether the rates could be reduced intrastate without sanction of the Federal government.

"This is just one more indication," the governor said, "that we're going to get practically nothing from the Federal government." Governor Moody said the seriousness of conditions would govern whether he called the session, and said he had numerous letters from substantial citizens in the drouth area asking it.

He has no plan in mind, he said, but pointed out that the plan used in 1918 might be utilized. At that time counties appealing for aid through their commissioners courts were loaned $30,000 each to be repaid, without interest, within two years. The commissioners courts apportioned the money among needy farmers.

Most of this money, the governor said, was paid back by the counties.

The governor said there were 25 or 30 counties in dire need of relief and that even fall rains would not help the condition of many farmers in these areas, since they already have been forced to the wall by three successive years of drouth.

Pioneer Woman Dies In Denver

Mrs. Jennie Cooper, 73, well-known Gray county citizen for the last four years, died Monday morning at Denver, Colo., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Ashton, it was learned here yesterday. Mrs. Cooper made her home in Pampa with her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Kellems, of 1038 South Wilcox. She left for Denver Sunday and arrived there a few hours before her mother's death.

Mrs. Cooper is survived by her daughter and four sons, Tom Cooper, Waynesville, Mo.; Charles Cooper, of Des Moines, Ia.; Joe Cooper of Chanute, Kans., and Jack Cooper of Berger.

Clara Bow And Her Rubber Checks

In this picture we have two extremely interesting exhibits—the famous "It" girl, Clara Bow, registering dismay and disillusionment and the sheaf of rubber checks which she handed to the proprietor of an elite gambling resort at Calves near Reno, Nev. The checks, which total $33,000 and which are signed with Clara's signature, did the gambling house no good, as the "payment stopped" stamp can be seen on them. Clara says she thought the chips used at the game represented a lot less money than they really did, and insists she handed the gambling house proprietor blank checks, signed and trusted to him as a gentleman that they would be filled in properly.

Poison Dose Is Fatal

Ira Ball of LeFors Dies in Local Hospital

Two weeks after he returned from the state hospital for the insane at Wichita Falls, Ira Ball, 44, of LeFors, died at 10 o'clock last night from the effects of poison taken yesterday afternoon in a pasture near the Ball apartment house at LeFors.

Ball was found insane by a jury in county court two and one-half months ago, and was placed in the institution. He was released two weeks ago. A week later he went to White Deer and obtained work in a barber shop. He returned to LeFors last Saturday night. Ball had been in poor health for several years, his wife said, and was often subject to despondency. For the last two years, he had been threatening to take not only his own life but the lives of others living near him.

Mrs. Ball and a number of LeFors citizens had been searching for him for two hours, when she discovered him crawling up to the door of the apartment house about 6 o'clock in a semi-conscious condition. He had slashed his left wrist with a pocket knife but this wound was not serious. The two main arteries in the arm had not been struck by the knife. Mrs. Ball said that she crawled from the pasture to the house. He had left the house about three hours before. Mrs. Ball said that she had kept a close watch on her husband since he first began making threats to take his life.

The man was rushed in a G. C. Malone ambulance to a local hospital, but the poison, bichloride of mercury, was already taking its fatal toll. The Ball's have lived at LeFors for the last two years. He was formerly a barber. He is survived by his wife. Three brothers and three sisters live in the state of Washington. His parents are not living.

Funeral services were to be held at the chapel of the Malone funeral home at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

J. W. Christian of Amarillo salesman for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, was in Pampa Monday.

C. L. Etelson of Fort Worth, district manager of Montgomery Ward and company, was in Pampa today.

Missionary To Speak on Friday

The descendent of a family that has given uninterrupted missionary service in China for nearly one hundred years will speak in Pampa at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening. The speaker who comes for this address is Rev. Wilmot D. Boone, now engaged in city evangelistic in Tsinan, China.

Having served as acting principal of the Hamilton Memorial Academy (a high school for Chinese boys), he is especially interested in the student group, though his address Friday evening will appeal to all classes.

Rev. Boone says, "While life has been made harder for the vast majority of the Chinese people by the turmoil of recent years—war, banditry and famine—yet these people are plodding on their ancient way, sowing and reaping, buying and selling, marrying and giving in marriage."

Riot Trial Delayed

DALLAS, Sept. 30. (AP)—Trial of fourteen men charged in connection with rioting at Sherman has been postponed until some time in November. District Judge C. A. Phippen announced yesterday the district attorney of Grayson county was occupied with other important cases at present. Four defendants are in jail here. The others have been released on bond.

Trying For Record

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 29. (AP)—Seeking to establish a new junior trans-continental air speed record sixteen-year-old Bob Buck, of Elizabeth, N. J., landed at Port Columbus 3:18 p. m. today. Young Buck, who hopes to better the record held by his friend Eddie Schneider, 19, of Jersey City, hopped off from the Metropolitan airport at Newark, N. J., at 7:10 this morning.

C. M. Powell of Tulsa of the International Derrick and Equipment company was a business visitor in Pampa Sunday, en route to Amarillo.

HE THUMB WAGS HIS STOLEN AUTO

CHICAGO, Sept. 30. (AP)—A thumb-wagger, to coin a word, is a person who stands in the road and yanks his thumb at passing motorists in the hope that one of them will stop and give him a lift.

Harry W. Olson became a thumb-wagger yesterday, but not through choice but by necessity.

Someone had stolen his automobile. He decided to stand out in the road and be a thumb-wagger.

After a while a car came along. The driver seemed different than the rest; a cheery soul, and kind hearted. He stopped the car and Olson got in.

Olson dropped into the seat and began twiddling his thumbs abstractedly. A thumb-wagger will do that absent-mindedly nine times out of 10. He glanced down at the instrument board. He was amazed.

As soon as they reached an intersection where there was a policeman, Olson summoned the officer. "Arrest this man," he said, pointing to the driver, one Ralph Klingensmaier.

Mr. Olson, it seems, had thumb-wagged his own stolen automobile.

BLANSCET IS NOT TO CARRY ON HEARING

Original Nominee Is Claiming Lack of Cooperation

CHARGES ARE MADE, DENIED

John V. Andrews Is Declared Legal Nominee

Charging officers with failure to produce voters whose ballots were challenged at the hearing on the contested sheriff's election, and saying that "all the breaks" had gone against him, Lon L. Blanscet, who was nominated in the run-off primary by a majority of 22 votes, today through his attorneys, Chas. C. Cook and E. E. Underwood, withdrew from the contest just before noon.

Mr. Andrews will be declared Democratic nominee for sheriff of Gray county as soon as a check of the ballots which were thrown out is completed. Attorneys of both sides stated that it was their belief that at the time of the withdrawal, Mr. Andrews had a majority of one, two or three votes over Mr. Blanscet. W. M. Lewright made an agreement with Mr. Blanscet conceding Mr. Andrews' nomination, but reserved the right to introduce more evidence if it should be found that the court has not the authority to render an agreed judgment in the case.

If it is found that Mr. Andrews does not have a majority of the votes, Mr. Lewright, attorney for Mr. Andrews, will offer testimony on challenged votes sufficient to give him a one-vote majority. However, the court has already rendered judgment, naming Mr. Andrews as the nominee.

Chas. Technicallies

In announcing Mr. Blanscet's withdrawal, Mr. Cook pointed out that his client had a lead of 22 votes when the hearing opened, and that due to technically faulty votes, Mr. Blanscet lost 21 votes in the Hopkins box and two in the Laketon box. However, he said, the loss of these votes left the two candidates practically even when the hearing on challenged votes opened. Mr. Cook mentioned that a greater number of the new citizens voted for Mr. Blanscet than for Mr. Andrews. The new voters were not acquainted with precinct lines and often voted at the wrong boxes, he said.

"We are withdrawing from the case because we are losing votes proportionately greater than Mr. Andrews," Mr. Cook said, "and that is largely due to a strongly organized group which is working against Mr. Blanscet. To get down to the truth of this election requires much money and the work of many. As

—AND A SMILE

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Middle age, not youth, is blamed for the evils of jazz life by Luther A. Weigle dean of the Yale divinity school. At opening exercises he said: "Youth is clean and decent, today as always, till affected by wrong influences. It is not the passions of youth, it is the befuddled counsels of the older generations that are swinging the world toward paganism and ruin."

Good Start Is Made by Choral Club of Pampa

Local singers who attended last evening's first meeting of the choral club which will sing Handel's "Messiah" near Christmas time were enthusiastically seeking new members for the organization today.

Basses and tenors were especially desired. The soprano section is unusually large. New voices can be used in all parts, since the size of the chorus is practically unlimited.

Prof. Emil F. Myers will direct the chorus. Mrs. May Foreman Carr will be accompanist, and Prof. John Cochran will be director of the orchestra.

Among those present last evening were Mrs. C. S. Wortman, Mrs. Grace Higgins, Mrs. C. C. Dodd, Samuel Irwin, A. L. Patrick, R. A. Waits of Amarillo, Mrs. H. O. Price, Mrs. Grace Brown, Miss Iva June Willis, Mrs. J. L. Lester, Monroe Tate, Walter D. Hardin, Mrs. T. M. Cook, Mrs. J. V. McCallister, Mrs. W. A. Bratton, Mrs. H. S. Gilbert, Mrs. Rosamond Lowell, Mrs. J. B. Townsend, Miss Aileen Cook, Miss Dorothy Dodd, Miss Aurelia E. Miller, Miss Josephine Thomas, and Malcolm Carr.

Typhoid Menace Draws Order To Clear Up Camps

Danger of adding to the six typhoid fever cases in this community prompted Dr. V. E. von Brunow, county health officer, to send out orders instructing residents of oil field camps to observe sanitary laws. Dr. Brunow declared that he would close certain pumps unless sanitation was effected immediately.

Four cases of typhoid fever were reported at two camps yesterday. Dr. Brunow said that typhoid is one of the most contagious diseases and that every precaution should be taken to prevent its spread. He pointed out the danger of an epidemic in concentrated communities such as an oil camp.

The first precaution is to screen all food from flies, he said. All toilets should also be screened. "The main thing is to clean up all filth and garbage," Dr. Brunow said.

Shoots In Court

After losing a damage suit against Attorney H. C. Wedgewood at End, Okla., Mrs. Dollie Douthitt, 89, (above) drew a revolver and started shooting, wounding Wedgewood. Another bullet grazed Judge Arthur G. Sutton who handed down the decision. Mrs. Douthitt says she was "hounded into it" by repeated efforts to deprive her of her fortune of $40,000.

New Company In This Field

The Southern States Gas company of St. Louis, Mo., has entered into a contract to purchase the east half of sections 181 and 182, block B-2, Gray county, it was learned here today.

A well will be drilled on the property at once, according to J. C. Logan of St. Louis, who has been here for the last week completing negotiations and making arrangements for development of the property. The company contemplates drilling several wells in Gray county this year.

The first location will be three and one-half miles south of the Graham-Cree-Hoover. A 70-million foot gas well was completed several years ago on the lease.

A DEPRESSING OUTLOOK

Adolf Hitler's recent speech before the Leipzig supreme court can not fail to add to the uneasiness which Europe has felt since the last German parliamentary elections.

In his speech, Hitler set for just what he proposes to do, if and when he gains power in Germany. His program is not reassuring.

Hitler declares bluntly that his party is pledged to do away with the international treaties under which Germany now labors. If these treaties can be wiped out by ordinary diplomatic means, well and good; if not, they will simply be broken.

If one could only write Hitler down as an irresponsible, loud-mouthed politician the situation would not look so bad; but Hitler, unfortunately, occupies a position of vast influence, and may become more influential instead of less during the next few years.

If he does, and if he breaks the post-war treaties, what then? There could be only one answer—war. Like the last one, it would probably become a general

Not for years has the future looked so dark. Barely 12 years after the end of the worst war in history, a new one is taking shape on the horizon.

The time to move to avert this war is not some future date, when the conflict is actually about to begin. It is today, while the nations involved are still willing to listen to reason.

To drift during the next few years is to invite disaster.

COCHRANE IS ALSO FACTOR IN THE DOPE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30. (AP)—Two of the factors that will weigh the balance of "dope" in Philadelphia's favor in the baseball battle with St. Louis for the world's championship are the man in the dugout, Connie Mack, and the man behind the bat, Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane.

Mack's shrewdness and great experience, Cochrane's aggressiveness and masterful handling of the A's moundsmen count heavily in a short conflict where the forcing of a few "breaks" at vital moments often proves decisive.

They are factors that may have more to do with the outcome of the world's series than the individual brilliancy of Simmons or Grove or Fox, the fighting spirit of the Cardinals or the law of averages.

So far as the comparative figures and records go, a good case can be made out of either contender in the annual American baseball classic. The greater experience and fine defense of the A's, plus the confidence of their 1929 conquest, may be offset by the aggressive attack that carried the Cardinals past all obstacles to the National league peak.

The big bats of Simmons, Fox, Miller, Haas, and Cochrane may play a livelier baseball than the war clubs of Hafee, Frisch, Watkins, Bottomley, and Douthit.

As a club, the Cardinals have out-hit the Athletics more than 20 points on the season's play. Without much dispute they also overcame stiffer opposition in winning the National league flag than the A's did in repeating in the American League.

Where the Mackmen had only Washington to worry about most of the season, the Cardinals had to fight their way through three tough and seasoned outfits—the Robins, Giants and Cubs.

Every regular on the Cardinals club has hit .300 or better for the year, although Bottomley, Gelbert, Douthit, and Adams barely got inside this figure. Boley, Bishop, Dykes, Haas, and Miller range between .255 and .300 in stickwork but the cleanup wallops of Cochrane, Simmons and Fox have a habit of being produced when hits mean runs.

The Cardinals, however, have no backstops to compare with Cochrane in any department of play. Since the injury of Jimmy Wilson, St. Louis has relied on Gus Mancuso, a hard hitter and hard worker who is expected to do most, if not all of the catching.

Baseball Fans Trooping Into City of Brotherly Love for Festival of Baseball Which Starts Tomorrow

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30. (AP)—Most of the other burning issues having been settled for the year, the clans trooped into Philadelphia today for the crowning festival of American sport—otherwise the world's series of baseball.

It starts tomorrow with the hometown Athletics, two-time champions of the American league, favored to unlimber a couple of double-barreled guns, Simmons and Fox, Grove and Cochrane, and check the sensational flight of the Red Birds of St. Louis, champions of the National League.

The city of Quakers has taken the situation this year much more calmly than was the case a year ago, when the return of Connie Mack and his young men to the baseball heights after a lapse of 15 years created a semi-hysterical outburst of enthusiasm. There has so far been no demonstration over the A's to compare with the mob scenes attending the crowning golf triumph of Bobby Jones in the suburbs last Saturday, nor has it been necessary to call out the marines to control the situation at Shibe park.

Nevertheless, the big American league stadium is expected to be packed to its enlarged limit of 33,000 spectators for the opening game tomorrow, when the occasion will take on dignity through the presence of the president of the United States and his party.

Aside from the stampede for tickets and the rather brisk argument over the relative merits of the contending clubs, the main question is: who will pitch the opener?

Charles (Gabby) Street, veteran pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, has already furnished his own answer by naming the old spitballer, Burleigh Grimes, to start the Red Birds on another winning flight.

STRONG MAN IS TO MEET BLACKSMITH

Arthur Saxon, whose feats of strength have "made" Believe It or Not, will match his biceps against the power and wrestling prowess of Oscar Dotson, local man, in the main preliminary event at the Pampa Thursday evening.

Dotson, a blacksmith—"a mighty man is he"—is a heavyweight grappler of the old school and he expects no sympathy when he meets a scion of the famous Saxon family. The main event will be between Otis Clingman and Jack Rose. Rose, lightning artist of the mat, met and almost defeated Clingman a few months ago. The Shreveport man likes to win in a hurry, for he has tremendous nervous energy which he puts into holds so punishing that his opponents are glad to pat the mat.

Clingman wore the visitor down before, but Rose claimed that he was booked on short notice and was not in condition. He will not be under that handicap Thursday. Clingman figures that if he keeps away from Rose's raking feet and plays safe for a few minutes he will be able to wear his opponent down like he does a majority of those who face him.

Rose, in turn, will doubtless keep a wary eye out for Clingman's rolling toe hold, which not only is applied with startling suddenness but which is excruciating and hard to break.

Mrs. George McCary left today for Shamrock where she will visit friends and relatives during this week.

Officials for Pampa-Amarillo Game Announced—Harvesters to Be In Good Condition For Fray

After considerable discussions between the two schools, the officials who will work in the Pampa-Amarillo football game Oct. 11 have been chosen and announced.

The referee will be DeFord of Dallas, employe of a sporting goods house and well known official. At the umpire's post will be Roach, former S. M. U. star tackle. May, who was headlinesman at Lubbock, will take the same position in the Amarillo game. Timekeepers will be Hunkapillar of Pampa and Hays of Amarillo.

Friendly investigation of each school's players is being made by officials of Amarillo and Pampa, but all questions which had arisen up to yesterday were cleared up without incriminating any player.

The intervening game for the Harvesters will be with the Canyon Eagles next Friday on Harvesters field. Coach Odus Mitchell will start his first team, which will be charged with the responsibility of showing local fans some more of the form which enabled them to defeat Lubbock. The players are rounding into good condition and should hit a fast stride against Canyon. The Eagles tried to back out of a game in which they obviously are due for a trouncing, but Coach Mitchell wanted the contest for his reserves, who will play most of the time.

The Harvesters who played at Lubbock rested yesterday while the reserves scrimmaged the Gorillas. Some new plays were attempted, including variations of the air attack the locals have kept under cover all season.

All practice is pointed toward the Amarillo game. Assistant Coach A. M. Fox saw the Sandies play Normal, and he returned with a story of wonderful improvement in the Amarillo squad.

He Enjoyed Game From Tower But He Came Down

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 30. (AP)—Gabriel Fitzpatrick, 37, saw the Louisville Colonels beat Rochester yesterday in the little world's series. He saw the game from the top of the score board, and the only reason he saw it was that the law was unable to scale the 90-foot structure.

Mr. Fitzpatrick enjoyed the game immensely. He also enjoyed the efforts of officers to bring him down. When the game was over, however, and he started to descend, he found the officers still waiting for him. He decided to stay up.

For more than an hour Mr. Fitzpatrick decorated the scoreboard. For more than an hour two policemen sat on the ground below him. Finally Fitzpatrick gave up and descended. The law gathered him in and he was booked on a disorderly conduct charge.

Form An Orchestra
Stine's Syncopaters is the name of a new orchestra being formed here by C. L. Stine. They are playing tonight at a dance at "the barn" on the Berger road, and expect to play each Tuesday and Thursday.

Saxophone, banjo, drums, and a piano are the instruments now represented in the orchestra.

Floyd Gibbons recommends the New General Electric Radio at M. M. Fox saw the Sandies play Normal.

Von Elm Strikes at Golf Methods

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. (AP)—George Von Elm, national amateur champion in 1926, had bidden an official farewell to amateur golf competition and, at the same time, taken a pot shot at the United States golf association and its policies. Von Elm, in a formal statement, declared he would be in the future a "business man golfer, neither amateur nor professional, who expects to take the profits from open prize money and yet maintain his own private business."

Wealth of Cooking Knowledge To Be Imparted by Grace Bull, Who Asks That Women Take Notes at Lectures

"Nothing is mirrored so quickly as human interest," declares Miss Grace Bull, noted lecturer, home economist and platform speaker, who will conduct the Pampa Daily News cooking school, which opens Oct. 14, and continues for a total of four consecutive lectures.

"My contacts with thousands of cooking school audiences convince me that the greatest inspiration a lecturer can have is the rapt attitude of attention on the part of her listeners and particularly the presence of notebooks in which they are transcribing for future use the data, which the lecturer at great pains and expense has secured for them.

Feel: Keen Interest

"In my schools I feel an equally keen interest in my listeners. Formality, insofar as possible, is ruled from my lectures. I work in a model kitchen preparing my own material and giving practical visual demonstrations of the methods I prescribe. Recipes would lose much of their fascination through a tiresome recitation, without an active demonstration of their practicability. Ingredients involved become most interesting when those ingredients themselves are prepared before the very eyes of the women in attendance, and they are given an opportunity to sample the results obtained. I am particularly happy," Miss Bull writes, "that so great an interest has been evinced in Pampa, and I am looking forward with much anticipation toward making it one of the best schools I have ever conducted. The high culinary standards of the community as evinced by the intelligent inquiries sent in will be reflected in my giving my listeners the very best that I have to offer in this fascinating branch of activity."

The Pampa Daily News has reserved the basement of the First Methodist church for Miss Bull's appearances and wishes to warn its feminine readers that the avalanche of inquiries received so far, presages an unprecedented attendance at the forthcoming school. Many Pampa housewives have already committed themselves to the attendance of all four of the lectures, and are making plans to insure their not missing a single one of the rare demonstrations conducted by this great leader and lecturer. The fact that admission is absolutely free and without obligation, and that the lectures will start at 2:30 promptly inspires the Pampa Daily News to warn all women planning to attend that the first to arrive will be the first seated.

Co-operating with the Pampa Daily News in the promotion of this great series of cooking school lectures are some of the most outstanding national food manufacturers in the nation. Intimate acquaintance with Miss Bull's remarkable background of the nutritive values of properly cooked foods, coupled with their personal contact with this gifted lecturer in which they have become enthusiastic over her remarkable stage presence have inspired their eager participation in Miss Bull's courses of home economics.

Every product used and recommended by Miss Bull has not only undergone laboratory tests at the hands of national manufacturers, but has been tried out on a personal basis by this famous cookery expert in her own demonstration kitchens where the recipes appropriate to the product have been tested and retested.

Tickets Are Going Rapidly in Pampa For Artist Course

Season tickets to the Amarillo Artist course are being sold rapidly in Pampa, Emil F. Myers of the Amarillo College of Music who is presenting the course, said yesterday. Mr. Myers is confident that the house will be sold out of season tickets before the opening of the first number, which is to be the Tipica Orchestra of Mexico City.

Mr. Myers also claims this to be the most expensive and to contain more of the stars of the first magnitude than any artist course ever given in the middle west, not excepting any course of artists ever presented in Denver, Kansas City, Dallas, Fort Worth, or Houston.

Value of Parental Education Given Emphasis by President of National Congress of Parents and Teachers

Nation-wide attention in educational circles is being drawn to the address by Mrs. Hugh Bradford of Sacramento, Calif., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, at a meeting of the national executive board last week in Swampscott, Mass.

Mrs. Bradford said in part: "As I see it now, the most important work we face this year is the task of broadening our program of parental education. I think, perhaps, in our zeal to make the whole Congress as inclusive as possible, we have not realized how much our progress depends upon giving parents knowledge of the tools which will supplement the work of teachers.

Help Is Gratifying

"We have been surprised and delighted at the extent to which colleges and university extensions and child welfare groups that are civically founded have offered us their help. Findings they have made in independent research are sure to be of incalculable value; indeed they have already been so. And those are the groups that are going to help us link theory and practice, so far as the parent is concerned."

Mrs. Bradford spoke of the extent to which the Parent-Teacher movement was an example of unselfish volunteer service and said it was part of its privilege that it needed no paid specialist because of the extent to which other organizations, conducting formal investigations of the matters with which the congress is concerned, diverted to the congress their findings to use for common good.

Improvement Predicted

"We feel," said Mrs. Bradford, "that the time is rapidly coming when a far more ideal family life will be set up in the United States because of this steadily increasing cooperation between parents and teachers on the subject of the child in its relation to the community.

"The family circle, the family hearth, have been brought back into the consequential notice of average children over the country. Children are learning now not only how to get their marks, but how to get their lessons so that they derive from them a residue for all their future; they are learning to play in the same way, and that play is a part of the well rounded life. The American home is to the fore now and we propose to keep it there, enriching it as our program can be expanded to take account of the changes in modern life."

To Help Porto Rico

Another item of interest in connection with the board meeting was the sending of a letter to Theodore Roosevelt, governor of Porto Rico, accepting his invitation to appoint a committee to participate in a six-year program of child welfare measures which will, as the governor believed, "put the island on its feet within that six years."

Governor Roosevelt wrote that a Porto Rican group had outlined a comprehensive, constructive plan which met with the approval and indorsement of President Hoover and had already enlisted the promises of cooperative participation of many child-welfare groups in the United States. He said he believed the National Congress of Parents and Teachers had a definite and practical contribution to make to the specific problems faced in the island with respect to child-welfare and hoped the Congress would feel in a position to extend its council and help to Porto Rico.

Mrs. Gertrude Arnold and son Clarence returned yesterday from a trip to Besse, Okla.

J. H. Shipp, representing the X Laboratories of New York, transacted business in Pampa Monday.
