

EVERY VOTE WILL BE CHALLENGED OKLAHOMA COURT DISSOLVES JULIAN OIL INJUNCTION FIVE TEXANS DIE TODAY IN SCATTERED SHOOTING AFFAIRS

PAMPA TOPIC OF OUR CITY By O.E.H.

Politics: Gray county sheriff's race goes into courts. Governor Roosevelt of New York comes out for repeal of 18th amendment. Jim Ferguson "teels" out his constituents concerning a possible "boil" in support of Dr. Rutte against Ross Sterling. There is interest through the world series, from where the football season will probably satisfy us.

Senator Walter Woodward is an up and coming West Texan to be watched. He makes a good Democratic speech. He is tireless and fiery in a campaign. He is loyal to West Texas interest. Texas could have much worse governors.

Times are not so good, but there are easier ways to get into jail than to rob a store or bank. Those who rob and loot in times of depression are largely those who prey off men who patronize their illegal activities in good times. Rackets slow down when jobs are scarce.

Hoarding of money in hard times makes times harder. Most of us are not in the hoarding class, but a million people in refusing to buy certain commodities paralyze industries and directly and indirectly affect several millions of others. In monarchical governments, the decrees to accept government certificates and not to hoard gold and silver are common. No such fear exists in this country. Money is plentiful. Interest rates are not high. The will to invest will return, and the depression will recede to return at a probably nearer cycle than usual. Times are relatively good in Pampa because money is still being spent here. Conditions would be infinitely better were residence building to increase in proportion to the need therefor.

More building would mean more money for carpenters, painters and the other craftsmen. Payrolls are not hoarded—they come right back into the community and enable thousands of obligations to be met.

Among the depressions we have not yet mentioned are those of the gridiron mentors. But any depression should be judged by results, not words.

Alliance is a great thing, but it gets one all be-fuddled. Right now we should urge burning of more gas, but the cattle industry needs relief and we should call upon the rollers to use more sole leather. And emphasis must also be maintained on the pigskin.

Texas seems to be about the only state in which the political underdog has little chance. Alfalfa Bill and Governor Rhea P. Long, of Oklahoma and Louisiana, respectively, were victorious despite bitter attacks upon them. But even an underdog, Jim has learned in this state, has his day.

It's sort of cute for the Gorillas to call themselves Ingalls, but the name will not stick long to the second string football lads. The title Gorilla is not much better, and it originated, we are told, when one player called another by the name in no very complimentary fashion. This Gorilla is better than Kewpie, a name used by gridgers of a large Missouri high school.

This country needs more good rains that are not inspired by hurricanes.

EL PASO MAN KILLS HIMSELF AND HIS WIFE

Small Son Also Is Shot to Death by Him

REFINERY MAN RUNS AMUCK Charlie Walker Slain on Streets of Llano

By The Associated Press
Five persons were dead as the result of three shootings in Texas today.

The dead: George W. Cook, 52, of El Paso. Mrs. Celeste Cook, 32, of El Paso. George Wilton Cook, 7, of El Paso, son of the Cooks. Dominico Polito, of Port Arthur. Charlie Walker, 45, of Llano. Cook shot himself after he had fired bullets into the bodies of his wife and little son. Officers were at a loss for a motive for Cook's action.

Polito was shot by Edwin Ortega, refinery worker, running amuck at pany, who suddenly whipped out a pistol and began shooting at fellow employes. Polito was fatally hurt and Alex Leger seriously wounded. Walker was killed in a shooting on the streets of Llano. Ray Click surrendered to officers.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 11. (AP)—Dominico Polito is dead and Alex Leger in a serious condition as a result of Edwin Ortega, 26-year-old refinery worker, running amuck at the Texas company plant here early today.

In a statement Ortega said he shot the two men because they were leaders of a mob which had been after him.

According to Roy Young, brother-in-law of Ortega, the latter was treated yesterday by a physician, after he had been nervous and unable to sleep or eat for several days.

Witnesses to the shooting said Ortega who had been working at the plant for two years, suddenly quit work, whipped out a revolver and began shooting.

EL PASO, Sept. 11. (AP)—George W. Cook, 52, business man, shot and killed his wife, fatally wounded his seven-year-old son, and killed himself here today.

Cook, head of an electrical company, shot his wife to death while she lay asleep in bed and then turned the gun on his little son, George Wilton, who was sleeping with a great aunt. He fired three shots into his own body and died almost instantly. His son died two hours after he was wounded.

He used a pistol to shoot his wife and son but fired into his own body with a rifle. Mrs. Cook was shot through the head.

Mrs. Margaret Lowe, with whom the boy was sleeping, was awakened by the first shot fired into his body. She pleaded with Cook not to shoot.

Clothing Needed For Children Entering School

He had an exceedingly anxious look in his blue eyes—the seven-year-old boy who came to the Salvation Army early yesterday morning.

"Mother said I could go to school if I had some shoes and a pair of britches," he told Ensign King. His chin was already beginning to quiver with disappointment a possibility.

This small lad got his shoes and his "britches," according to Mr. King, but more than 50 others who went to the Army headquarters yesterday with similar stories did not.

NEW STRUCTURE LIKELY WILL BE OF 4 STORIES

There will be no delay in the construction of the Worley store and office building on the site formerly occupied by the old First Baptist church after the architect's plans are approved, it was learned today.

A number of architects are now perfecting proposed plans for the structure and these are due to be submitted to the builders this week-end. Actual construction of the building is scheduled to begin within two weeks. However, it is possible that excavation of the basement will be started before final plans are approved.

At present, the builders have in mind the erection of a not less than four-story structure which will also have a basement. Cost has been estimated at $120,000. The framework will be of either steel or concrete. The edifice will be built of brick and will be fire-proof and modern. When completed it will be the largest business structure in Pampa. It will occupy a space 109 feet wide and 109 feet long, the exact dimensions of the lot.

Razing of the old church-courthouse is about completed. All that remains of the building, erected in 1913, is the basement.

Mrs. P. A. Worley and Albert Combs, who are financing the erection of the new structure, are pioneer citizens of Gray county. They have extensive oil properties south of Pampa. The Combs-Worley pool was developed on land jointly owned by her and Mr. Combs. Mrs. Worley also financed construction of the $100,000 Worley hospital now almost completed at the corner of Kingsmill and 7th Francis and Somerville.

PRODUCER HAS LOST IN FIGHT ON PRORATION

Final Ruling Is Not Yet Written, However

MEMBERS ARE STILL RETICENT Legality of State's Statutes Not Decided

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 11. (AP)—The State Supreme court today dissolved the temporary writ of prohibition that for more than two weeks has prevented the corporation commission from enforcing its oil proration regulations against the C. C. Julian Oil and Royalty company.

While the court did not pass finally on the Julian company's petition to have declared invalid the statutes under which the corporation commission has assumed jurisdiction over Oklahoma oil operations, attorneys regarded its action as significant.

The court acted after a second conference behind closed doors following hearing on the Julian petition Tuesday.

A change in attitude of some of the court's members was disclosed by today's action. The court following the conference Tuesday, voted against dissolution.

J. Berry King, attorney general, and attorneys for oil companies participating in the proration agreement, in arguments Tuesday urged that the temporary writ be dissolved during the court's deliberation on the constitutional questions contained in Julian's petition.

The bare fact that the writ had been vacated was the only announcement made today by the court.

Chief Justice Charles W. Mason indicated a decision on the constitutionality of the conservation statutes might be expected this week.

State's attorneys and those for oil companies backing proration have argued that if the state's conservation laws were swept away and wells in Oklahoma flush pools permitted to flow at capacity the country's conservation structure would be wrecked and the unsteady oil market destroyed by the resulting flood of production. Prices everywhere would go to the bottom, they continued.

Students Strike to Obtain Longer Luncheon Period

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 11. (AP)—Protesting against restriction of their luncheon period to 25 minutes since the opening of the new term, students of the Hazleton high school went on strike today. It was estimated that about 950 of the 1050 students took part in the walkout.

Marching from the school thru the business section of the city the students, some of them carrying placards reading "strike at high school," held a mass meeting at city hall where they were addressed by Andrew Malten, veteran labor leader. He advised them as to methods of procedure and it was decided to meet tomorrow morning. An effort will be made to obtain the intervention of Mayor James G. Harvey and members of the city council.

Students say cutting the lunch period to 25 minutes is a hardship. The school board said the new rule would be given a trial.

MOTHER KILLED WHILE GOING TO FUNERAL OF SON WHO WAS ELECTROCUTED BY HIGH LINE

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (AP)—Mrs. J. W. Beavers of Waxahachie, en route from Athens where she was visiting to attend the funeral here of her son, O. L. Beavers, one of four electrocuted by a Texas Power and Light company live wire yesterday, was killed in an automobile accident here today.

Mrs. Beavers was identified at first by a letter from her son she carried on her person.

A man, whose name was believed to be J. A. Saylor, but whose address was unknown, was probably fatally injured in the accident.

Mrs. Beavers died in an ambulance en route to a hospital.

J. E. Manjure of Jacksonville and a negro were injured slightly.

The letter from Mrs. Beaver's son, electrocuted at West, mentioned a life insurance policy he said he intended "dropping."

"I do not feel like keeping it any longer," read the letter, written two days before his death.

DISTRICT COURT IS TO HEAR CASE

Motion Intended to Save Time and Expense

Soon after it became known that the legality of every vote cast in the county in the run-off primary would be questioned, thereby necessitating examination of 3,000 witnesses, and that the contested sheriff's election would not be settled by the Democratic committee, John V. Andrews, contestant, and Lon L. Blanscet, contestee, agreed to a judgment in order to appeal the case to district court.

The committee did not decide upon the merit of the case, and the judgment will be rendered for the purpose of saving time and expense. Counsel for both men pointed out that even though the hearing before the committee would entail the challenging of every vote in the county and in addition, great expense, the same procedure would have to be followed when the case was appealed to district court. It was deemed best to examine the 3,000 voters only once. Regardless of any judgment returned by the committee, the case would have been appealed. The agreement was reached just before noon in the county courtroom where the hearing was being held.

It was explicitly emphasized that the action was taken in order to hasten disposal of Mr. Andrews' petition asking that certain votes cast for Mr. Blanscet be thrown out and that Mr. Andrews be declared the Democratic nominee.

Neither the contestant nor the contestee will capitalize on the judgment, nor will they—counsel refer to it as any way when the hearing is held before the court of law. Attorneys for the two men are in Miami this afternoon conferring with Judge W. R. Ewing of the 31st district court regarding the appeal and trial date.

Mr. Blanscet in his answer to Mr. Andrews' petition questioned the legality of every vote cast in the election for Mr. Andrews. Name of 441 voters whose voting qualifications were challenged were appended to Mr. Blanscet's lengthy answer, which comprised 25 typewritten pages. Previously Mr. Andrews questioned the legality of 367 votes cast for Mr. Blanscet and asked that the entire vote of the Grandview box be thrown out. Mr. Blanscet asked that the entire vote of the LeFors box be thrown out, alleging that persons cast ballots under assumed names and that many others voted without paying their poll tax. He also asked that votes of the McLean box be thrown out upon similar grounds.

Members of the democratic committee were ready to set as a tribunal when the hearing began this morning. C. S. Barrett was appointed chairman for precinct 2. Other members of the committee present were Siler Faulkner, presiding officer; Geo. Thut, W. S. Willis, W. J. Ball, Wes Springer, Walter Jones, W. E. Stockstill, W. W. Formwalt and H. J. Lippold. About 250 witnesses who had been summoned were present, and in addition a large crowd of spectators that filled the courtroom.

Counsel for Mr. Blanscet included Cook, Smith and Teed of Pampa, represented by Chas. C. Cook, and Major Simpson and Mr. Underwood of the firm of Underwood, Johnson, Dooley and Simpson of Amarillo, W. M. Lewright represented Mr. Andrews.

TEST PILOT KILLED

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 11. (AP)—Joe Lowrey of Winfield, Kans., test pilot for the Arrow air craft company here, crashed with his Western air service plane today on a fog-bound pasture twelve miles north of Lincoln and died before spectators reached him.

The plane left Omaha bound for Kansas via Lincoln at 7:30 o'clock this morning and was wrecked less than an hour later.

UMPIRE GIVES SECOND ORDER ON PRORATION

"Over and Short" Accounts to Be Kept

IT WILL TAKE EFFECT SEPT. 16 Gaugers to Complete Work by Friday Night

An order to initiate and carry an "over and short" account on each lease in the Panhandle district was issued this morning by H. J. Corcoran, proration umpire, to pipeline companies, pipeline departments of producing companies of the six oil producing counties. The order will go into effect at 7 a. m., Sept. 16.

An "over and short account" includes the daily production of each lease, whether above or below the production figure set by the umpire. A lease, under the proration plan, must average a stipulated production, although the output of a certain day may exceed or fall short of the stipulated amount of oil that may be taken from the lease.

This over and short account will be based on the allowable production as shown in the proration schedule from time to time to be issued by the umpire. This account will in no way pertain to any other over and short account which the pipeline companies may be carrying for their own purpose.

The pipeline companies were instructed to make a daily report on that date, of the amount of oil run from each property to which they may be connected or may later be connected and run oil. This report must reach the umpire as early as possible each day, and should also show the status existing over and short accounts for each lease up to 7 a. m. that morning. A day's business shall include the period from 7 a. m. of one day to 7 a. m. of the next day.

If the superintendent or gauger is not familiar with the method of procedure of handling items in this manner, Mr. Corcoran requests him to communicate at once with the umpire and the railroad commission for the proper carrying out of these instructions.

In a separate order, the companies were ordered not to make any new connections, change existing connections in the Panhandle without first securing the approval of the umpire.

The 16 gaugers who have been working under the direction of Mr. Corcoran since Monday will have completed testing oil properties in the district by tomorrow night, it is believed. These reports will be compiled and a new proration schedule based on the actual potentials will be issued Sept. 16.

A GOOD POLITICAL OMEN

Say what you will about American politics, at least our various political campaigns are displaying one sign of returning health; they are proving immensely interesting to an enormous number of people.

The Illinois situation, for instance, while disturbing on the surface, has this redeeming feature. The people of Illinois are being stirred up, and the people of the other states are watching the race eagerly.

It is not especially reassuring to see the way in which the campaign is beginning to hinge on the actions of Senator Gerald Nye of North Dakota.

If Mrs. McCormick is correct in her assertion that secret agents retained by the Senate committee rifled her files in her office and her home there is little doubt that public sympathy will swing to her side.

Senator Nye and his committee are specifically charged with the duty of investigating high campaign expenditures. For Mrs. McCormick's nomination it is already apparent that around $300,000 was spent—far more than was considered sufficient to bring condemnation on Newberry.

Meanwhile, one may hope that this extraneous incident does not become the central issue of the Illinois campaign; and one may add that whether it does or not the aroused public interest displayed in connection with the campaign is a very good omen.—NEA.

WASHINGTON.—The burning of the wartime-constructed temporary building which housed the Federal Trade Commission, the Women's Bureau and the Children's Bureau was a partial answer to a prayer often offered up by the government employes who have had to work in such flimsy structures.

There are still nine of these "Tempo buildings," as they are called here, housing various bureaus which cannot be accommodated in the larger and better government buildings.

And, if the truth must be told, they look more like overgrown hen houses than buildings commensurate with the dignity of a large, proud government.

Of course they are all going to be torn down sooner or later in the government's huge building program but for all these years since the war they have been housing many important federal activities and protecting—or exposing—many important and valuable records susceptible to fire.

Visitors to Washington arriving by train are familiar with the general appearance of the Tempos, for among the group were the government hotels which faced the railroad station plaza but which are now in process of demolition.

Those remaining are mostly in the vicinity of Tempo No. 4, the one which burned, and in the Mall, south of Pennsylvania avenue between the Capitol and the treasury.

One of the latter housed the Prohibition Bureau and the Customs Service until recently, when both were moved up to the old Southern Railway Building at the foot of 13th street on the avenue.

About 6,000 employes of the Census Bureau are working in two of the old war buildings, it has been pointed out by Census Director William M. Stewart, and the important records of the 1930 census on which they are now working are regarded as seriously exposed to fire risk in the day time.

The U. S. Public Health Service and various offices of the Agriculture and Commerce Departments are among tenants of the other Tempos.

Federal Trade Commission records of the "power trust" and chain store investigations were not as seriously depleted by the fire as was at first reported, but the destruction of the building and such files as were lost seems to be giving new impetus to the ancient movement for a government archives building.

Markets

Wheat Down Two Cents

CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—Brisk selling by commission houses and Chicago traders forced the March and May deliveries of wheat down almost two cents a bushel to new low levels of the season at the start of trading today.

Opening at one one-fourth to two cents lower than yesterday's finish, wheat declined still more, but the downward movement was checked and prices continued steady at the new levels.

Corn started 1 3-8 to 2 1-8 down, sagged a little further and then rested.

Cotton Steady

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—Cotton opened steady, unchanged to a decline of five points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables.

Covering was less active after the heavy buying of yesterday and these appeared to be a little more scattered selling which came partly from the south.

Estimated production for September 1930, corn, 1,983,000,000; wheat, 830,000,000; oats, 1,391,000,000; barley, 323,000,000; Canadian wheat, 384,769,000.

Estimates for August 1930 were: corn, 2,212,000,000; wheat, 823,000,000; oats, 1,316,000,000; barley, 306,000,000; Canadian wheat, (1929), 396,000,000.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—Wheat: No. 1 hard 85 1-4 to 1-2; No. 1 northern spring 85; No. 1 mixed 85.

Corn: No. 2 mixed 97 1-4 to 1-2; No. 1 yellow 97 1-4 to 1-2; No. 1 white 100 3-4.

Oats: No. 1 white 39 3-4 to 40; No. 2 white 39 1-2 to 3-4.

What closed weak at 1 3-8 to 5-8c net lower than yesterday's finish, corn closed unsettled, 1 3-8 to 7-8c off, oats 1-2 to 5-8c off, and provisions ranging from 12c decline to a rise of 10c.

Corn Crop Is Cut Tremendously by Long Drought

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. (AP)—The searing hand of the drought was indicated by government estimates today to have reduced the prospective corn yield almost 250,000,000 bushels in 17 important producing states during August.

The outlook for the whole country is for harvest of a crop some 600,000,000 bushels less than the 1929 production of 2,614,307,000 bushels.

The dry August blow fell heaviest in Iowa, where in that month the crop lost 44,000,000 bushels as compared with the August forecast. Illinois lost 38,000,000 and Missouri 28,000,000.

In Nebraska alone there was an increase over the August prediction, the indicated yield there increased 33,000,000 bushels. Kansas held its own.

The other states figuring in the 250,000,000 reduction during August were New York, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado.

The yield of durum wheat was listed at 2,000,000 bushels more in Minnesota than last year. Larger increases are expected in Montana and South Dakota but a drop of almost 4,000,000 bushels is reported in North Dakota.

For other spring wheat, increases were reported in each of the six big producing states with the exception of Montana, where a 5,000,000 bushel decrease is in prospect.

With the exception of South Dakota and Nebraska, the 15 important oats producing states are expected to harvest larger crops than in 1929.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 11. (Special)—One of the outstanding freshman grid prospects at the University of Tulsa this year is Alfred Duncan of Pampa.

During the first week of practice and scrimmage, Duncan has been distinguishing himself as one of the best men trying for the halfback position.

Duncan is one of the six Texans who are working out on the University of Tulsa football squad.

Activity in Van Zandt County Is Back to Gushers

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (AP)—Activity was renewed by the Van Zandt county oil field east of here, today, after the well of the Forey Oil corporation of Fort Worth and the Van Oil company of Van blew in yesterday and flowed 60 barrels of oil into the storage tank in 15 minutes. Operators estimated it had a potential output of 35,000 barrels daily.

The well, situated on an 8 1-2 acre tract owned by the Sanger Investment company of Dallas, extended the Van field's producing area several hundred yards eastward.

Deposed President Taken to Uruquay

LA PLATA, Argentina, Sept. 11. (AP)—Hipolito Irigoyen, aged deposed President of Argentina, sailed away from his native land at 11:50 a. m. today, on the Argentinian cruiser Belgrand to which he had been removed a few minutes earlier from his sick room in the seventh regiment barracks here.

The ex-president, whisked from the virtual prison in which he had been confined since the revolutionary forces under Evaristo Uriburu seized the government a week ago, went into apparent exile accompanied only by his daughter, and a small guard of revolutionary agents.

The destination of the cruiser was not made known but earlier reports had indicated that it would proceed first to Montevideo, Uruguay.

Nancy's Husband and Cast Arrested

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—John M. Kirkland, husband of Nancy Carroll, film actress, and the eight members of the cast of his play, "Frankie and Johnnie," were under $500 bail each today on charges of giving an indecent performance.

At the close of the third performance at Jamaica, Long Island, last night, a squad of plain clothes policemen led by fifth Deputy Police Com. Sinnott converged back stage where they arrested Kirkland, the company and stage managers, the theatre owner and manager, and the five men and three women of the cast. They were taken to the police station in private automobiles. All entered bail.

The play, which was being given a tryout prior to a Broadway opening, has its setting along the St. Louis waterfront. The police said their principal objections was to the language used.

Man Believed Insane

Recount May Be Held in Detroit

DETROIT, Sept. 11. (AP)—Possibility of a recount of the votes cast for candidates seeking the Republican nomination for governor in Tuesday's primary was seen today in a statement by supporters of former Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck that "the election isn't over yet."

On the face of unofficial returns from 3,282 of the state's 3,217 precincts, Attorney General Wilbur M. Brucker led the former governor by 7,460 votes. Nineteen of the missing precincts were in Wayne county (Detroit) where Groesbeck had shown such tremendous strength that he was able to cut down a Brucker lead that exceeded 90,000 before the Wayne vote was counted.

The figures from 3,282 precincts showed: Brucker, 368,569; Groesbeck, 361,109. "It should be borne in mind that the largest primary vote on state officers, so far as I know, was cast Tuesday," said Burt D. Cady of Port Huron, campaign manager for Groesbeck. "A mistake of two or three votes in a precinct is possible in an election of this magnitude. All I can say to the friends of Mr. Groesbeck is to have heart, listen and wait—the election isn't over yet."

Telegrams went out from the offices of Gov. Fred W. Green at Lansing last night to county clerks directing them to "carefully guard primary election ballots, boxes and returns." The order directed the clerks to "provide personal guards if necessary."

Governor Green supported Brucker in the campaign. He entered the campaign to reply to criticisms of his administration by former Governor Groesbeck.

Huge Property Loss
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. (AP)—A government survey in Santo Domingo estimated the existence of 1,000 gangrene cases, 8,000 injuries and 2,700 dead. Property loss as a result of the recent hurricane totaled between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000.

The navy received the information today from Colonel R. M. Cutts, marine brigade commander at Port Au Prince, Haiti. On request of President Rafael Trujillo, he asked that 50 machines be sent to Santo Domingo "to handle food supply and for moral effect."

Four Linemen Killed
WACO, Sept. 11. (AP)—One flash

from a high voltage electric wire yesterday brought death to four linemen of the Texas Power and Light company, as they were stringing lines at West, 18 miles from here.

The dead: O. L. Beavers, Waxahachie; H. F. Dodson, Waxahachie; H. S. Wadley, Palmer; and Fred Mayberry, Runis.

Mrs. Clayton Husted underwent an appendicitis operation at the Pampa hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hans Davis and Mrs. Dan Gribbon left Wednesday for Wichita Falls to the Wichita Falls-Fort Worth baseball games. Mr. Gribbon will leave Saturday for Wichita Falls, where he will be joined by Mrs. Gribbon on a trip to Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Davis returning by train to Pampa.

The Hollywood Story

COPYRIGHT 1930 by NEA SERVICE Inc. by ERNEST LYNN

BEGIN HERE TODAY DAN RORIMER, Hollywood scenario writer and former New York newspaper man, meets ANNE WINTER, who has come from Tulsa, Okla., to seek extra work. He takes a deep interest in her. Dan is with Continental Pictures, and not very satisfied with what he is doing. Anne is just a beginner.

Anne gets extra work at Grand United studios. She goes to live with two other extras, MONA MORRISON and EVA HARLEY. The latter is a bitter individual, possibly because of her failure to get much work, and from her Dan learns a lot about the problems of the vast army of extras.

GARRY SLOAN, famous director has noticed Anne Winter. He gives her a "bit" in a picture. Dan, not liking Sloan, although he has not actually met him, is a bit apprehensive. The casting director at Grand United calls Anne up and tells her there may be a chance for her in a musical comedy picture. He and Director FRED HURLEY get her to dance for them, and Hurley promises her a screen test. Anne eagerly tells this to Rorimer, who is more disconcerted than ever at Continental Rorimer, who is living with PAUL COLLIER, who writes a daily movie column for a string of newspapers, tells Collier that he has torn up his contract with Continental.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIV

Paul Collier's fingers fell away from the typewriter keys. He swung around, rested one arm on the back of his chair, planted the other elbow on his little desk, braced his cheek with his fist.

"You what?" he said. Rorimer sank heavily into an easy chair. He grinned. "I tore up my contract today. You know, my contract with Continental," he added with sarcastic explicitness, enjoying the mild sensation of his announcement had created. Elaborately he unbuttoned his shirt at the throat and loosened his tie and waited for the surprised Collier's questions.

Collier, unmoving, stared at him, for some moments in silence. "What's the matter?" he said presently. "Did the heat go to your head?"

"I tore it up right under Adamson's nose," Dan told him calmly. "What for?"

"Because I'm sick of Adamson and I'm sick of Continental. They don't want ideas; they want yes men and office politicians."

Paul got up from where he sat and applied a match to his pipe. "You're a funny guy," he said.

"What did Adamson do?" And Dan admitted that Adamson had surprised him by not throwing him out.

"I invited him to fire me, and tore up my copy of the contract to show him I wasn't fooling; but Adamson's so damn suspicious of everyone that he probably thought I was trying to put a fast one over on him. In fact, I'm sure of it by the way he acted."

"What did he say?" Collier asked, and Rorimer shrugged. He said, "Oh, he told me that as long as he held Continental's copy of the contract I might find it a bit difficult to leave to make other connections."

He lighted a cigaret and added that that was Adamson for you. "He's such a colossal bluff himself that he thought I was bluffing. And a bluff scares him silly; I learned that."

"And suppose he hadn't been bluffing," Collier said. "I suppose you would have waited right over to Paramount or M-G-M or some place and told them that their new scenario writer was ready to take off his coat and go to work—huh?"

Dan laughed. "Not exactly. But I'd rather free lance than work for Continental."

"You mean you'd rather starve," Collier snorted, and Rorimer smiled and quietly said that he knew something about that, too.

Continental. "You mean you'd rather starve," Collier snorted, and Rorimer smiled and quietly said that he knew something about that, too.

letting a couple of us collaborate on it and get the benefit of each other's ideas, he passes it around as if it was a contest or something! That's his idea of economy. They can't buy me a new typewriter to replace that old coffee mill I have to work on, but they can waste the time of three men making fairly important money, in duplicate effort. I'd like nothing better than to have Adamson tell me to get out and stay out."

Paul Collier nodded in sympathy. He put an arm on Rorimer's shoulder and steered him back to the living room, and he said, falling ungracefully into a chair, that he could understand, of course, but wasn't it a little unwise to throw away a salary such as Continental was paying Rorimer, just because of inability to get along with a bum of an executive?"

Dan, his eyes glinting wrathfully, demanded of Collier what he would do under the same circumstance. "I suppose you'd smile and like it, eh? You would like so much—"

"Say," Collier interrupted, "if I ever landed one of those fancy scenario-writing jobs, I'd take out an accident policy on it. That's just how nice I'd treat it." Rorimer, he added, didn't know when he was well off. "I could put up with an awful lot, Danny, my boy, just as long as the old dough was there on pay day."

"I have a life-size picture of you," Dan retorted, his eyes taking in the other's lanky, powerful frame in significant appraisal. "You'd be planting your fist in the middle of Adamson's nose."

Collier grinned. He clasped his hands in back of his sleek black head and, leaning back indolently in his chair, observed that Adamson's nose was a big enough target. "I don't want to see you lose out, Dan," he said. "That crazy southern temper of yours will get you in trouble yet. What will you do—no fooling—if Adamson decides to take you up?"

Rorimer replied that he hadn't given the matter much thought. "I'm not worried," Martin Collins is a friend of mine. He told me that if I ever thought I'd like to make a connection at Amalgamated, to let him know, and he'd see what he could do for me."

"Why, you old razor blade, you're too blamed stiff-necked to ask Collins or anybody else to do something for you," Paul accused him, and there was affection in his tone and in his smiling gaze.

Dan made no answer. He smoked in silence, his mind dwelling on more pleasant thoughts. Collier turned back to his typewriter and wrote steadily for 10 or 15 minutes, after which he leaned back with heavy finality and announced that he wanted another nightcap. "It's your turn now," he said, and Dan went out to the kitchen.

EXCESSIVE GUM IN GASOLENE CAUSES HIGH FUEL CONSUMPTION

KOOLMOTOR GASOLENE is FREE FROM HARMFUL GUM

GASOLENES that are carelessly refined and of inferior quality deposit a sticky, gummy, clinging substance on your valves. This causes delayed seating and, in some cases, complete sticking of intake valves. Faulty valve operation allows unburned gasolene to blow out through the exhaust—unused and wasted.

Koolmotor—the original high test, anti-knock green gas—protects you against this waste of fuel because it is free from harmful gum. A special Cities Service process—the mini-gum process—has reduced the gum content in Koolmotor Gasolene to a harmless minimum. It keeps your valves clean and free-moving—always ready to do their best—unburdened with sticky, gummy deposits.

For a powerful and smooth-running motor and full mileage from your gasolene, keep your tank full of Koolmotor—the gas that is free from harmful gum.

CLINGMAN TRAINS DOWN AND IS READY FOR RATTAN HERE

WRESTLERS WILL BE OF EVEN WEIGHT

Trained down to make his weight come within the demands of Silent Mattan, Otis Clingman was at an acceptable displacement this afternoon when he weighed in.

He scaled 157 pounds and three-quarters, or within the limit placed by Mattan, who stretched by one pound his original demand of 157 pounds.

Whether this reducing will too greatly weaken Clingman is problematical. Ordinarily he could make the weight, but the winter inactivity resulted in caloric enhancement, or something like that. Starving to make the weight, the local favorite eagerly rushed to a well loaded plate of "ham and" after the scales had done their worst.

Rattan, deaf and dumb boxer who formerly was a star at Oklahama A. & M., has no trouble staying within his class. He built himself from a frail youth into the young giant he is today. He has given defeats to some of the best men in the game, and Champion Jack Reynolds grappled with him for hours before the silent one gave up with a knee injury.

Preliminaries will start at 8:30 at the Pla-Mor. K. O. Kitchens of Miami and Curly Lewis of Pampa will first take the mat. Tommy Thomas and Red Michaels will follow with their 30-minute limit one-fall match.

Little Change in Southern Expected

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 11. (AP)—The Southern association draws to a close this week and if the games continue to come out as they have lately, there is not likely to be much change between the standing of any of the clubs.

The Little Rock Travelers led to New Orleans yesterday, 8 to 5, while Nashville was trimming Atlanta, 3 to 2. If the Travelers had won they would have stood only a half game from a first division hold due to the Cracker's loss and if Atlanta had won the Dobbinsmen would have been only a game and a half from the third place Birmingham Barons, who were forced to postpone their game with Chattanooga yesterday on account of rain.

Memphis won the first game of their series with Mobile 10 to 2, but the Bears put over a big inning in the nightcap which netted five runs and gave them a nose out, 5 to 4. The leading Chicks have already won the pennant and New Orleans has a lead which should bring them through with the second place honors with out any trouble.

Welterweight Leads
CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—Welterweight, famous in 183 balking today had a 10-point lead over Alvin Hall of Chicago, after two blocks of their 300-point special match.

Western Polo Player Is Star

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 11. (AP)—America, her supremacy in the polo world for years built around the talented aristocrats of Meadowbrook's classic school, today can bestow a large portion of the credit for her latest triumph over great Britain to the sharpshooting son of California—Eric Pedley.

Six years ago this square-jawed hard-riding and hard-hitting horseman galloped in from the far West to become a sensation on Eastern fields but the best they conceded him that year was a substitute's role when international competition rolled around.

This summer, Pedley, now 34, came on again to thrust his way through all opposition and clinch the all-important No. 1 position on the new American "big four." Yesterday, in the second and deciding match of the international cup series, he was the outstanding star and scoring ace in the spectacular Josting rally that gave America a 14 to 9 victory for another period of three years.

Bowling Match With Amarillo to Be Friday Night

The second bowling match of the series between the local Diamond Shop team and the Amarillo All-Stars will be held tomorrow evening, instead of tonight, at 7:30 o'clock.

Sam Fenberg, captain of the team, is in Wichita Falls at the Texas league baseball play-off, but will return in time to participate in the bowling beginning at 7:30 o'clock Friday.

The Pampa men won the first match and hope to take the second and deciding one of the series while a big local gallery watches tomorrow. If Amarillo wins the second match, the teams will toss a coin to decide upon the city in which the deciding games will be played.

Rallies to Win Title

After being knocked to the canvas for a count of six in the second round as shown above, Tommy Freeman gamely came back to win the welterweight championship from Young Jack Thompson the other night in Cleveland. Referee Patsy Haley is shown counting over the fallen Freeman, while Thompson stands in a corner waiting for Tommy to get up.

WILTSE HAS JINX ON CATS IN FIRST TILT

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 11. (AP)—Out in front as the result of Hal Wiltse's well pitched victory in yesterday's opener, when he held Fort Worth to nine scattered hits and beat them, 6 to 2, the Wichita Falls Spudgers were brimming with confidence as they prepared to meet the Cats in the second game of the Texas league playoff today.

Milt Steengrate, second ranking ace of the Spud mound corps, was regarded as the logical choice to face the visitors in the second tilt, while Manager Frank Snyder of the Cats was expected to pin his faith in Lil Stober in an effort to square the series. Another victory today would give the Spudgers an almost unbeatable advantage in the five-game series. After today's bout the teams will move to Fort Worth, where the series will be resumed Saturday.

Dick McCabe, who licked the Spuds in all three starts against them during the regular season, lost his rabbit's foot yesterday. For five innings the Cat star pitcher matched Wiltse pitch for pitch, but in the sixth the Spudgers fell all over him and drove him from the hill. Five hearty hits, including homers by Storti and Burns and a triple by Bettencourt, scored four runs in the eventful frame before "Red" Roberts could be sent to the rescue.

Wiltse was in rare form all the way. In each of two innings, the fourth and sixth, the Cats bunched three singles to score, but their other three hits were widely scattered. In the third Wiltse fanned all three batters to face him, and in the ninth whiffed Gribble, a pinch hitter.

Storti, with his home run and two singles, and Jim Levey, with three singles, were big guns in the winners' offense.

CUBS LEAD IS CUT GAME IN GREAT RACE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

A squadron of traffic police is needed along the road to the National league pennant. All the efforts of the teams from Chicago, St. Louis, Brooklyn, and New York to get to the championship only have resulted in one of the greatest jams that highway ever has seen.

Yesterday's contest brought the Brooklyn Robins and St. Louis Cardinals a game closer to Chicago's leading Cubs. The New York Giants in fourth place remained only three games behind the top. With Adolfo Luque shutting out the National league champions with five hits, the Robins made it two straight over the Cubs by a 6 to 0 count. St. Louis retained its one-point grip on second place as Jim Bottomley's eighth inning home run gave the Cards a 5 to 3 victory over the Giants.

The standing:
Chicago—won 80, lost 58; pct. .580; to play 16.
St. Louis—won 78; lost 59; pct. .569; games behind 1 1-2; to play 17.
Brooklyn—won 79; lost 60; pct. .568; games behind 1 1-2; to play 15.
New York—won 77; lost 61; pct. .558; games behind 3; to play 16.
The Robins ran out of their dug-out yesterday to greet Charley Root, and promptly started running around the bases. Five men faced Root and all of them hit. Then Jiss Petty came to the rescue and allowed one more blow, which brought Brooklyn's first inning total up to five runs before he cast a spell over the Robins that lasted until he left the game in the eighth inning. Then they scored their sixth run off Flynn Nelson.

The Giants and Cardinals started out for a second pitchers' battle with Fred Pittsinnmons opposed to Sylvester Johnson. The Giants forged ahead slowly, getting one run in the first, which St. Louis equalled in the third, and two more in the

TWO REGULARS WILL NOT BE SEEN IN PERRYTON GAME AT HARVESTER FIELD FRIDAY

Pampa Harvesters will go into the game with Perryton at 3 o'clock tomorrow without the services of Jim Ayres, right tackle, and Albert Lard, quarterback.

Ayres is suffering from a sprained back, while Lard is waiting for three cracked ribs to knit.

Captain Don Saulsbury will take the quarter's job, and Dick Benton will likely be the fourth man in the backfield, with Bill Barnett and Don Tate in waiting. Chastain is ready as usual, and Martindale is expected to be in condition, although the latter was injured in the Spur game last week.

The Harvesters have had a week or readjustment and will show more form in spots that were weak in the opening game. However, they will not be at full strength before the Lubbock game two weeks away. They will play Hollis, Okla., here next week. Hollis has a reputation for downing overconfident teams in this state.

Little is known of the Perryton Rangers, except that their backfield aces, Witt and Tucker, are at top form and are likely to run away with any game in which they are not watched.

FEMININE FANCIES

Men's Ears

Are't they funny—these ears men wear?

Some are big and some are little but most are big. And how. You'd expect things little to be graceful and active, but when it comes to men's ears—good gracious, you don't know what to expect. The big ones wiggle and flop around just like a Hula Hula dancer or elephant ears, but most of the time they are trying to do a fancy stunt by balancing on one corner and sticking out diagonally. We talked yesterday about women "showing off", but oh, these ears of men! They certainly manage to get themselves in the spotlight of interest.

These ears have even learned the graceful art of blushing, the big ones and all. Talk about women being afraid of public performance! Just pick out the biggest, the grandest, and proudest public speaker among the men and take one glance at these ears next time he appears before an audience, especially one of the ladies' clubs. First, they will suddenly be a delicate pink, and then the color will become a little deeper and a little deeper until pretty soon they will be as florid as a choice red apple.

Now here's a hint exclusively for the ladies. If there is a man reading this story, right here is the place to stop. Ladies, if you are trying to think of a new and clever means of stressing that popular color scheme, flesh and flame, just have a gentleman appear before the social group and give you one of his entertaining lectures. Of course what he says will be of little importance, but you can truthfully tell him you appreciate his valuable presence on this occasion. Of course you need not explain that it is because every shade in your chosen color scheme is reflected in his ears that you are glad he is present.

And that's not all. Had you ever noticed how the size of men's ears change? If you don't believe it, just try this little suggestion. When you are sitting in some stuffy building listening to a dull speech not because you want to be present but just because everyone who is anything is there, the little plan will give you a way to pass away the time without being bored to death, and at the same time will be quite educational on a subject pertaining to about half of the human race. Pick out any ordinary man—of course that is easy, because they are all ordinary—and watch his ears. If possible, choose one that you can look at from a front view, perhaps the speaker himself. Then, just focus your view on his nose (of course you can see the ears, even though you are not looking directly at them) and see what happens. The ears will gradually get a little bigger and a little bigger, until finally the poor fellow is just about all ears. Oh, and be very, very careful not to laugh out loud, for the gentlemen in the audience would never understand what was funny about the vital, dignified statement concerning solutions to the greatest problems of the age, that might be coming from the platform.

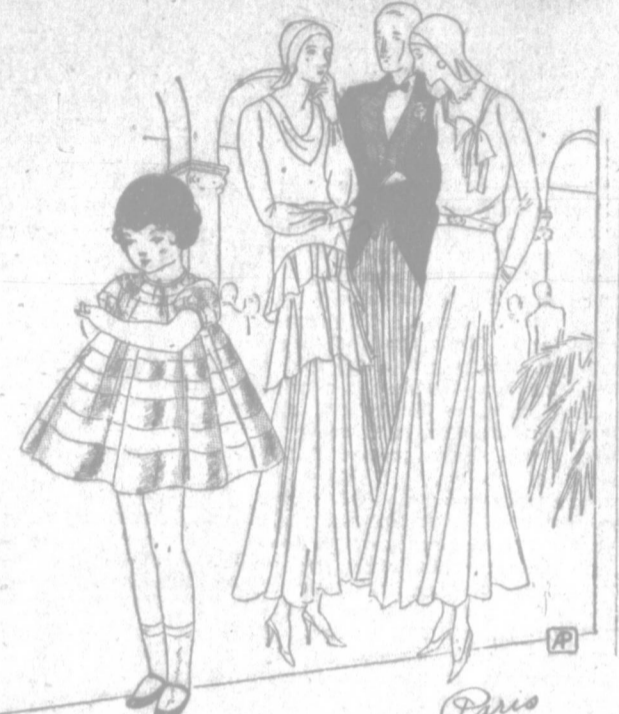

But ladies, don't take this too light-heartedly, for it is probable members of the fairer sex are to blame. These men like to be oratorical and dictatorial, but, after all, they realize that they are somewhat subordinate to the rest of us, and that they must hear our every command or request or take the consequences, and we do get a bit chatty sometimes. Perhaps the cause is over-exercise, and let's take our share of the blame for the tragic, yet comical condition of men's ears.

(Editor's note: If the ladies above mentioned should talk less when they should be listening, their ears might not be so small and so incapable of reflecting the finer shades of feeling. Or are they? We haven't seen any lately.—O. E. H.)

One Hundred Persons Attend Affair Wednesday on Presbyterian Church Lawn; Pastor Makes Short Speech

One hundred Presbyterians and their friends attended a lawn party given at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock by the Woman's auxiliary.

A program of music and readings was given on the prettily lighted lawn, and refreshments were served during an informal social period which followed.

On Program

The program was opened with a piano duet by Anne Sweatman and Juliet Jane Canfield, followed with two violin selections by Otto Schick, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. P. McSkimming. A short address of welcome then was given by the pastor, Rev. A. A. Hyde, and Mrs. A. H. Doucette entertained with two vocal numbers. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Keehn.

Other numbers on the program included a reading by Catherine Vincent, a piano selection by Eunice Rudman, who gave a reading as an encore, a group of old-time melodies sung by Mrs. John V. Andrews and Mrs. Frank Keehn, and as the closing number, a good-night song by Mrs. Harry Lyman, with Mr. Schick playing violin obligato.

Those in Charge
The committee in charge of the entertainment consisted of Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Claude Ledrick, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Harry Lyman, Mrs. John V. Andrews and Mrs. F. P. McSkimming.

Economist Says Roosevelt Idea on Liquor Unsound

NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—Governor Roosevelt's proposal for prohibition reform would be "a step backward," Prof. Irving Fisher, economist, told the Christian Science Monitor today in a statement telephoned from Narragansett, R. I.

Governor Roosevelt, in a letter yesterday to United States Senator Wagner advocated repeal of the 18th amendment and substitution of state control of the liquor question. "Both Dwight W. Morrow and Governor Roosevelt," Professor Fisher said, "have left out any explanation of how they are going to protect the dry states from the wet states; that is the whole problem. Both have glossed over how it would be impossible without using custom houses between states, without any federal control present, to add thousands of miles to the frontiers to be guarded against bootleggers. "What would actually happen, unless that problem can be solved, is to bring back exactly where we were before we had prohibition; when it was impossible to protect dry states against the wet. It was because of that impossibility that we went on to national prohibition. "In other words, this Roosevelt proposal looks to me like a step backward, not forward."

Konjola Very Medicine This Lady Required

She Rejoices Over Wonder Relief From Indigestion—Happy to Endorse New Medicine.

MRS. ALMA WEBSTER "I had stomach trouble for a year and a half," said Mrs. Alma Webster, 2017 Avenue R, Galveston. "Each meal brought pain for my food was not properly digested. Gas formed after every meal at times making me very ill. There were many things I did not dare eat because of the condition of my stomach.

"I kept reading in the papers about Konjola and what is doing for so many people that I began the treatment. Konjola has so improved my condition that I have not had a sick or dizzy spell since I began taking the medicine. I can eat anything I wish without fear of subsequent misery. I have improved in general health and am happy to endorse this medicine because of what it has done for me." Sufferers do not have long to wait after taking Konjola before relief comes. However, a six to eight bottle treatment is suggested for the average case. Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Fire Insurance History Is Related By Lions Speaker

An interesting talk on the history of insurance, with local examples of recent trends, was given at the Lions club today by W. T. Fraser.

Mr. Fraser divided the subject into four classes—fire, casualty, life and marine. The first recorded organization to insure its members was in England in 1632. He pointed out, when insurers banded together to help share ship losses. The first application of the premium was in 1705. The great fire in London in 1666 had shown the tremendous need for some protective system. The Chicago fire in 1871 and the San Francisco fire in 1906 were notable conflagrations in this country.

Today, the speaker said, insurance companies have a system of dividing losses among themselves known as re-insurance. Under this plan, one company does not share the entire loss in a disaster, even if it has written all or most of the property destroyed.

Facts were given concerning the Pampa fire insurance status in 1927 and today. The 1927 keyrate was 58 cents; today it is 32 cents. The waterworks department has been improved by 6 per cent, and other credits include: Elevated tanks, reduction of 1 per cent; water mains, reduction of 2 per cent; hydrants, rate reduced 2 per cent in business section; volunteer fire department, rated reduced from 12 to 4 per cent; fire alarm, same 4 per cent charge for lack of box system; building code, still 6 per cent charge; paving in business section, 2 per cent charge eliminated; frame business buildings, same 2 per cent charge; shingle roofs, 4 per cent; over head wiring, 1 per cent in mercantile section.

For each 1 per cent reduction in the keyrate, it is estimated by Mr. Fraser that the city saves $6,000 in annual premiums. Installation of a box system, fire alarm and employment of five firemen at the state urges would save the city about $48,000 per year, and would cost much less than that to inaugurate.

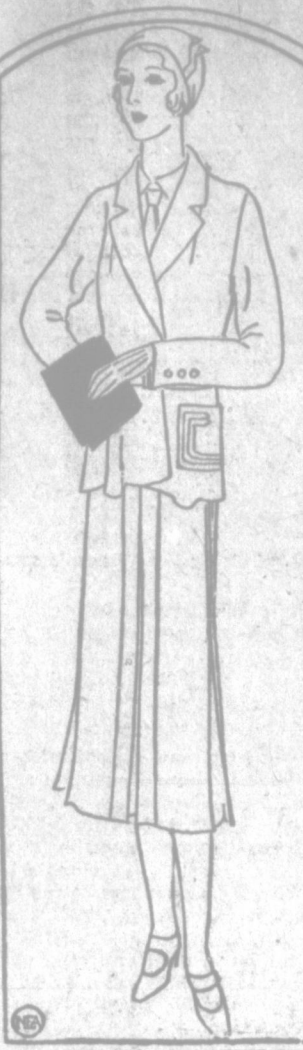

For seven years Pampa has had an excellent fire loss record, but this year will not be so good, and a penalty may be assessed in fixing the next key rate.

C. H. Walker was chairman of today's program. Elbert Thomas called attention to worthwhile items in the Lion magazine. Mrs. Frank Keen played piano solos and was accompanist for club singing. Visitors included Frank Peyton, Dr. A. B. Goldston, Walter Roth, Judge Clifford Braly, and Master J. C. McConnell.

The morning silhouette, as expressed by Patou, chooses an English fabric, in the new "astrakhan beige." A tailored blouse of matching silk, with a rather severe tie, completes the ensemble.

Better Times in Prospect Asserts Secretary Davis

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11. (AP)—Secretary of Labor James J. Davis said today at a luncheon of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers that there were many indications of improvement in business and employment conditions for which he gave credit to President Hoover.

"We have all been carried away to such a depth of pessimism that when anyone ventured to say that good times would return, he was labeled a ' Pollyanna.' " the secretary said. "I am sincere in stating that there are many indications that business is picking up and going on. Agreements have been reached recently that guarantee peaceful relations in an industry employing 150,000 workers. The pact signed is to run for five and one-half years, with a payroll that will run to nearly two billion dollars, based on normal work during that period.

"The genius of America has practically put out of existence such things as famine and pestilence, evils that we once thought beyond the power of man to control. "I am sure that unemployment will soon be in the same category."

High Entrants in Gas Contest Named

Winners for Wednesday in the Chevrolet drivers gasoline economy contest were announced today. They are: Paul F. Faw, first, 27.2 miles per gallon; Roy Busbee, second, 31.2; J. G. Huckaby, third, 30.4 plus; Paul H. Gray, fourth, 30.4; D. C. Blythe, fifth, 28.4.

Ninety-five cars made the test yesterday with an average mileage of 22.5 miles per gallon. Only four out of the 95 made less than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

The 12 prizes offered are: 1. a Karry Keen trunk, Culberson-Smallings; 2. Kelly tire and tube, Culberson-Smallings; 3. a $15 spotlight, Culberson-Smallings; 4. a pair of Bostonian shoes, Murfee's; 5. an $8 Stetson hat, Kees & Thomas; 6. Federal tire, Texas garage; 7. 25 gallons of gasoline, F. D. Keim. 8. $5 basket of groceries, Oil Belt grocery; 9. 27 x 50 Mohawk rug, Pampa Furniture company; 10. two men's suits or ladies dresses cleaned and pressed, Pride Dry cleaners; 11. family dinner, Gibson cafe; 12. $2.50 coupon book, Rex theatre.

The contest will continue until 7 p. m. Friday. Culberson-Smallings officials state that owners are greatly pleased with the results obtained in the test.

The contest is open to all drivers of Chevrolet sixes, both of the 1929 as well as the 1930 models.

Music Credit in England Is Obtained by Abilene College

ABILENE, Sept. 11. (AP)—Credit relations between the Royal Academy of Music of London, Eng., and the conservatory of music at Simmons university here have been established as a result of a visit made to the English school by Prof. Irl Allison, head of the Simmons school of piano. Prof. Allison made this announcement upon his return to Abilene this week.

Graduates of the Simmons conservatory make take three examinations at the Royal Academy and receive the Bachelor of Music from that school, according to Professor Allison. "My principal purpose in visiting Europe this summer was to compare the work done in their conservatories with ours," Prof. Allison said. "I found that their work was done on exactly the same lines as that in Simmons.

Professor Allison also spent several weeks in Paris and other cities of France.
