

SHERIFF CONTEST TO BE SEPT. 23

SENATOR BURTON WHEELER SAYS PROHIBITION FAILURE

Four Men Die As Cars of Gas Burn in Wreck

"Good morning, dear teacher."

School days are here again. The first few days are rollicking and chaotic, but routine assignments will soon calm the young animals. At least one school group has already "struck" for longer lunch-con periods. A labor leader foreshadowed the revolution. Students in this country seldom take drastic steps, but in Europe the restless, radical students are at the bottom of many a plot.

If there is to be a special train to the game at Lubbock Sept. 26, it should be no half-hearted affair. Better none at all than one which would be a discredit to the community. Details of the plans for the train will be announced soon, and a prompt response on the part of those who expect to go will determine the type of train accommodations to be available. A number of business and professional men have promised to buy tickets, and if they themselves are unable to make the trip to send others.

Gray county citizens should find the address of Tom Cranfill, chairman of the independent oil men of Texas, of much interest. He will speak Tuesday evening in the district courtroom. Overproduction of oil is not in this country except in the sense that too much crude is being produced while importations are large. The crux of the matter is that big concerns have money invested in Venezuela and other countries, where production is relatively cheap, and they hope to hold down the independents in America so that the foreign business can be exploited to the limit. The oil tariff is still one of the liveliest issues in this country. Proration, however desirable now, would be unnecessary were the flood of imported oil stopped.

It is argued that oil should be reserved for use in future years and in case of war. The same was said a few decades ago about coal. Yet look at the coal market today, and the huge unworked properties. Who knows but that electricity will soon make oil as obsolete as coal is in most industries?

Completion of the new fire station brings up the question of employing more paid firemen. Pampa has grown from a town to a city. Cities have need of paid fire departments. Fire insurance premiums could be reduced by $40,000 to $75,000 annually by hiring more firemen and installing the call box alarm system.

Uppity pronunciation has recurring periods of popularity. The other night The Pampian was tuning in on KMOX, Voice of St. Louis, when the Alwater Kent audition contest was announced. Some lady, Mrs. Nussbaum, as we recall, introduced contestant No. 1. Only she didn't call it entrant. She said "awn-trawnt." After the regular announcer took up the word and "awn-trawnt" all evening. Faw-ty thaw!

Gray county somehow got into the list of counties certified by Secretary Hyde for drought aid. Evidently he didn't wish to overlook anybody, so he named a large number of Panhandle counties. Thus far the chief aid would be a one-third reduction in freight rates for shipping in feed or shipping out cattle to greener pastures. At first thought it would seem that no harm would be done by remaining in the drought list. But to do so seems inconsistent with the proud boast of good business condition. So the Board of City Development wired Mr.

Flames Leap High in Air As Casinghead Explodes

ENID, Okla., Sept. 12. (AP)—Four unidentified itinerants were known to have been killed when 15 cars of a Rock Island freight train, loaded with casing head gasoline went into the ditch at Kremlin, 12 miles northeast of here today.

Three of the men were burned to death as the train burst into flames.

Flames shot hundreds of feet into the air, as one tank after another exploded.

So intense was the heat that rescue work could not be carried on. Three bodies could be seen in the flaming mass.

The flames, roaring high into the air, but in the opposite direction from the little town of Kremlin, set fire to a straw stack a half mile away. A section house nearby, a residence of a Mexican, his garage and automobile, the residence of Omer Fowler, a carpenter, and an unoccupied residence were burned as the wind whipped the fire in their direction.

Fire fighters from here were making all possible efforts to protect other nearby buildings.

The wreck occurred at the north side of Kremlin, but a south wind whipped the flames away from the town.

Rev. Harris Will Leave Church to Seek New Field

Resignation of the Rev. John Lee Harris, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church was announced at regular prayer services at the church Wednesday evening.

Rev. Harris said that he believed that he could render greater service elsewhere and that he felt it his duty to enlarge his opportunity.

The young minister has been connected with the church here since November, 1928. He acted as pastor of the church for several months after the resignation of the Rev. D. H. Truhitte, and before the calling of the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, present pastor. He has made many friends both in and out of the church here.

A successor will be appointed immediately, according to present plans.

Joe Leopold Is to Speak Here

Joe Leopold, southwestern manager of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, will address the Pampa Chamber on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

An itinerary of Panhandle cities has been arranged by the various managers. Mr. Leopold is regarded as one of the best men in the nation in his work, and his coming is regarded as a fortunate circumstance.

All members of the Chamber will hear him as they gather for their regular monthly luncheon.

Bettencourt Is Sold
WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 12. (AP)—Sale of Larry Bettencourt, Texas league home run king, to the St. Louis Browns of the American league was announced today by William Huff, president of the Wichita Falls club, a St. Louis "farm." He will report next spring. It was said to have been a cash transaction.

Hyde that Gray county was not crying for aid.

Hemphill county was among the first to take similar action. The chief aid from the government was already available—loans from the Houston land bank. The banks are able to handle emergency cases. There is certainly no desire to deprive any Gray county citizen of any aid needed, but in the absence of any demand for such service, it seems the better part of wisdom to stay off the list of ailing counties.

DRY ASSERTS 'LEGGERS ARE TOO STRONG'

Says Speakeasies in Cities Bad As Saloons

CORRUPTION IS DEEMED WORSE

Will Demand Probe of Enforcement Work

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana Democrat, ranked among the dries in congress, issued a statement today saying he had come to the opinion "that national prohibition is a failure and that each state should be left to regulate the liquor traffic as a majority of its citizens deem advisable."

His statement follows: "I voted for prohibition in Montana because I felt the old saloon was a curse to the American people and I wanted to do away with it. In the old days the breweries in many instances owned the fixtures, the buildings and the license and in many instances controlled local politics."

"I am no more in favor of the saloon, no more in favor of the saloon liquor today than I was before, but under prohibition you have in many cities more dives and speakeasies where they are openly selling rotten whiskey than you had in the old days. Today in many communities, the bootlegger is becoming a greater political power and has more influence than the old time saloon keeper as evidenced by the fact he is able to reach many of our higher officials. He is generally a much lower type of citizen. He has had a frightful corrupting influence upon our social, moral and political life.

"In view of the facts this administration and the previous administrations have apparently been helpless in stamping out the evil I am reluctantly forced to the opinion national prohibition is a failure and that each state should be left to regulate the liquor traffic as a majority of its citizens deem advisable."

Wheeler last February introduced a resolution asking a judiciary committee investigation of enforcement. No action was taken. In view of his statement today, a renewal of the inquiry demand is in prospect for the next session.

Senator Walsh, the Democratic colleague of Wheeler from Montana and a dry, said last spring he would be willing to submit a referendum to that state on prohibition and to "stand by the result." His attitude coincided with one expressed just previously by another of the strong senate dries, Jones of Washington.

Rectory Is Begun by Local Church

Construction of the Catholic church rectory on the lot occupied by the Holy Souls church was started this week by John T. Glover contractor.

The brick veneer structure will cost $7,500. As soon as it is completed it is expected that a resident priest will be assigned to the church here. It is believed that the Rev. Joseph Wonderly, now pastor of the churches here and at White Deer will be appointed, although the Rt. Rev. A. M. Gerkin, bishop of the Amarillo diocese, has not made any announcement yet.

The resident priest will be able to devote his entire time to the church here and to the needs of the parishioners.

San Francisco Slaying Is Puzzle

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Mystery surrounding the slaying of a young man and woman, both found shot through the head, held the attention of officers today.

"A plain case of murder and suicide," police said. But the couple's identity and the reason for the shooting puzzled investigators.

A trans-Atlantic flight to Hungary is planned by Lieutenant Alexander Magyar of the Hungarian Air Forces (above), who in company with Captain George Endress (below), will shortly take off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, in an attempt to win the $50,000 offered by the Hungarian government to the first Hungarian fliers to complete the ocean hop. Lieutenant Magyar was formerly a student at Parks Air college, East St. Louis, Ill.

COUNTY CLERK SHOOTS WOMAN AND THEN SELF

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 12. (AP)—Dave Chandler, clerk of Delaware county and democratic nominee to the state legislature, late last night shot and killed Mrs. Diele Stafford, wife of a Tahlequah musician, and perhaps fatally wounded himself. He told officers it was a "suicide pact."

The shooting occurred in Chandler's motor car in a wooded spot 10 miles north of Tahlequah. Mrs. Stafford, shot three times through the breast, was dead when persons living nearby investigated the pistol reports. Shot once near the heart, Chandler was taken to a hospital where it was believed he would die. He told officers "we wanted to die together" but was unable to elaborate on the slaying and suicide attempt. Earlier in the evening Chandler from Jay and had left Tahlequah with Mrs. Stafford, driving north.

Oil Workers Charged

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12. (AP)—Two oilfield workers, Lloyd W. Dye, 22, of Costa Mesa, Calif., and Gordon Eugene Gauss, 20, of Long Beach, were held today on a murder charge and officers said they had confessed the slaying four months ago of Wade Albert Morton, 65, wealthy rancher recluse.

Morton was shot to death while resisting the efforts of two men to rob his ranch house, where large sums of money reportedly had been kept.

COUNTY WILL BE TAKEN OFF HYDE'S LIST

Hemphill Also Will Seek Removal of Name

FUQUA TO TAKE STEPS AT ONCE

Adverse Publicity Is Seen in Drought Move

Gray county, in the "white spot" of Texas business conditions is not asking for drought relief.

In the absence of any demand for this relief, the Pampa Board of City Development yesterday wired Secretary Hyde that the county would like to be removed from the list certified for aid. While no reply from the secretary had been received today, W. H. Fuqua of Amarillo, member of the Texas drought relief committee, said he would take steps to remove Gray county from the list.

Mr. Fuqua also had similar requests from other counties, including Hemphill.

It was pointed out that the only relief in sight was freight rate deduction on cattle shipped to some other states to greener pastures, and no demand for this relief had been heard. It was believed that the aid would not apply to ordinary cattle shipping.

In protesting inclusion of their names, the counties involved in the action had no intention to deprive anyone of needed assistance, but in the absence of any drought crisis it was believed that to remain silent would reflect adversely upon the counties involved.

Mr. Fuqua also pointed out that the Panhandle would receive damaging publicity if many of its counties made appeals for drought aid. On the other hand, removal of the counties not hit by drought would bring beneficial publicity to this section. A number of counties do need aid, however, and these will remain on the certified list.

AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—In a statement today George B. Terrell, Texas commissioner of agriculture, characterized federal drought relief plans as a myth and claimed it was government aid by "word of mouth."

Terrell said there has been enough "printer's ink and newspaper space wasted" on the discussion of state and federal aid for drought sufferers to provide a fund sufficient to relieve all distress and added "but no meat or bread to feed the destitute has been offered by the federal governments and no funds have been advanced by either government to aid the situation."

Terrell said the "great show" made by the federal government was for appearances only and was to be expected because "this is a political year and 486 members of the house of representatives and 32 United States senators are to be elected and the drought is severe in some

Walker Talks to Kiwanis Group

"Watch the little things and the big things will take care of themselves," said Herbert C. Walker in addressing the members of the Kiwanis club today.

In referring to business ethics, Mr. Walker stated that if all business men in a community knew one another and were acquainted socially as well as they were in a business way, there would need be no discussion of business ethics.

Mr. Walker is a member of the local Lions club.

How Gandhi's Men Dare Death

If the oxen move ahead with their cartload of British-made goods, there will be just one more martyr to Mahatma Gandhi's program of passive resistance to English rule. For the man shown prone upon the street in this unusual picture is one of the volunteers in Bombay, India, who have pledged themselves either to halt the transportation of boycotted foreign merchandise or to die without resistance. Partly as a result, foreign trade in Bombay declined $8,000,000 in a single month, as compared with the same period last year.

LANDSCAPING PLANS ARE FIRST TO BE COMPLETED BY ENGINEER EMPLOYED BY CITY OF PAMPA

Rapid progress on the master plan being made for the city of Pampa was shown by Julian Montgomery of Wichita Falls, city planning engineer, at a session of the special commission yesterday.

Landscaping of the fire station, courthouse, and city hall grounds is virtually complete, and that of the city park south of the Cook-Adams addition is likewise taking form. The park, which will change an unsightly draw into a beauty spot, will be developed under supervision of the park commission.

The park plans drawn by Mr. Montgomery and his engineers show a natural outdoor theatre, in which it is proposed to erect a concrete stage which also would serve as a bandstand. There will be trees and shrubs, foot-walks across the watercourse, and flower pots.

The planning engineer also will suggest means of beautifying the various school grounds and other city property. He will make maps and charts relating to the water system, sewerage system, and public utilities. A building code, adoption of which will lower the fire insurance key rate, will be drawn by him. One of the most important works of the engineers and the city planning commission will be adoption of a zoning ordinance, through which property values will be stabilized and protected. The plans will be flexible, however, and adapted to city growth up to 25,000 population.

Olin E. Hinkle was elected chairman of the commission, with J. N. Duncan as vice chairman, and C. C. Alexander as secretary. Other members are Chas. C. Cook, A. H. Doucette, Robert Woodward, G. N. Suttles, Mrs. DeLea Vicars, and Mrs. Tom Rose.

Public hearings on a number of proposals will be held before the master plan is recommended to the city commission for adoption.

Explanation of Slaying Is Given Close Scrutiny

HOUSTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—The body of a man believed to be H. H. Myhrs of New Orleans, beaten over the head and shot through the chest, was found today lying face down beside a road near here.

Meanwhile, C. D. Kennedy, Myhrs' companion, also of New Orleans, who had reported he and Myhrs were held up last night, was being questioned by the sheriff's office.

The body, clad in dinner clothes, was discovered a half mile east of the San Jacinto river by officers searching for Myhrs. Earing he had met with foul play, they believed the victim had been clubbed to death.

Kennedy made the following report: "Mr. Myhrs and I bought a new car in New Orleans on September 8 and were en route to California in it when we were held up near Houston. Two white men and a negro in a coupe blocked the road in front of us. All three of them drew guns on us and I got out of the car but Myhrs stayed in."

"Both of the white men got in the car with Myhrs and drove off, leaving the negro to guard me. The two men came back in about 10 minutes later and Myhrs was not with them. I noticed a lot of blood on the car."

"The three men then got in the coupe and drove away, leaving me alone. I didn't know what had happened to my friend. I then came to Houston and reported to officers."

Officers were not certain robbery was the motive because they pointed out that Kennedy told them he had $95 on him when held up which was not taken. Myhrs was supposed to have had $64 when taken away.

The body was being brought in this morning, to be viewed for identification purposes, by Kennedy.

PROCEDURE IS TO BE BRIEF AS POSSIBLE

Judge Ewing to Pass on Legality of Votes

EVERY BALLOT NOT CONTESTED

Sensational Data Is Promised by Attorneys

September 23 was the date set for the hearing on the contested sheriff's election by Judge W. R. Ewing of the 31st district court yesterday at Miami while in conference with W. M. Lewright, counsel for Jno. V. Andrews, contestant, and Major Simpson of Amarillo, one of the attorneys representing Lon L. Blansett.

If necessary, the voting qualifications of every person who cast a ballot in the run-off primary will be investigated, although it is not expected that every one of the 2,973 votes cast will be challenged. It was said today. "The process of determining the democratic nominee for sheriff will be much simpler than the voluminous pleadings submitted to the democratic committee yesterday indicated. These pleadings will be entirely re-vamped.

At the hearing in district court, testimony regarding the qualifications of the voter will be submitted and Judge Ewing will pass on the legality of the vote. It was estimated today that probably 500 votes would be challenged, although findings may be such as to force test of every voter's right to cast a ballot. Judge Ewing, and not a jury, will be the sole judge.

The hearing will be held on Tuesday, the second day of the annual September term of court, which this year will continue for 12 weeks.

The appeal from the Democratic committee to the district court was perfected last night soon after judgment was entered by the committee. In order to save time and expense of trying the case twice, Mr. Andrews and Mr. Blansett agreed to a judgment which the committee returned without going into the merits of the case. According to this judgment, Mr. Blansett was declared the democratic nominee for sheriff of Gray county. Mr. Andrews then served written notice of appeal. The judgment states that the decision was based on evidence presented at the hearing. Council for both men will not capitalize on the judgement, and they agreed not to refer to it in any way in district court. A judgment was necessary to perfect the appeal and to conform to statutory procedure, although it is valueless to either the contestant or the contestee in this case.

Attorneys of both sides were promising sensational disclosures regarding irregularities in balloting, but the nature of these will not positively be known until Mr. Andrews files new pleadings and Mr. Blansett his answer.

Civil Suit in Progress

A non-jury case suit for debt in which the U. S. Supply company is plaintiff and J. W. Minn is defendant is being tried in 11th district court today before Judge Clifford Brady.

Both of the white men got in the car with Myhrs and drove off, leaving the negro to guard me. The two men came back in about 10 minutes later and Myhrs was not with them. I noticed a lot of blood on the car."

TODAY in SPORTS

DIXIE SERIES IS TO START WEDNESDAY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 12. (AP)—The tenth Dixie series Southern baseball classic, will get under way next Wednesday but where will depend on the outcome of the post season series in progress, this week between Fort Worth and Wichita Falls, winners of the two sections of the Texas league split season.

Under an agreement reached between John D. Martin, president of the Southern Association, and Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas league, the Memphis Chick-seas as Southern Association champions will travel to Wichita Falls for the first two games of the seven-game inter-league fray if Wichita Falls is victorious in the Texas league's final affair but if Fort Worth wins, the opening games of the series will be played in Memphis.

The schedule after the two opening games provides for an off-day Friday and a shifting of the background for games Saturday, Sunday and Monday, then another off-day and the playing of the sixth game, if the series goes into the fifth game, in the city in which the fray started. The site of the seventh game if needed would be decided by the toss of a coin.

Four victories for either of the contesting teams would end the series which will give the victor the title of Class A baseball champions of the South.

Other arrangements decided upon by the presidents of the two leagues as the board of control under which the series will be played, included the naming of Bill Brennan and Hadley Williams of the Southern association and Harry Kane and George Barr of the Texas league as umpires. The four will alternate in the position of umpire-in-chief. A toss of a coin will decide which will have the role on the opening day.

Each team will have 18 eligible players. Under agreed-to exceptions the standing agreement which provides that any player to be eligible must have played with the club at least thirty days Memphis will be permitted to play Stanley Benton, shortstop obtained August 31, from Milwaukee, and Fort Worth can use Paul Dribble, a recently acquired utility player. Benton went to Milwaukee of the American association at the end of last season from the Wichita Falls club. The umpires will receive $250 and their expenses for their services and the official scores $20 a day.

Doc Prothro of Memphis will be the only playing manager. The pilots of the Texas league clubs will do their directing of play from the coaching lines or the bench.

CUBS LEADING BY HALF GAME IN NATIONAL

BY RUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

St. Louis and Brooklyn again were triumphant yesterday in the National league race and placed themselves only a half game behind the leading Cubs. The Robins made a clean sweep of their three game series with Chicago as Dazzy Vance turned in a third successive five-hit performance to give Brooklyn a 2 to 1 victory. The Cards, with Chick Hafey's first-inning home run as the deciding factor, again defeated the Giants, 5 to 4.

As the Cubs moved today to the safer regions of Philadelphia and the Cards and Cards remained in New York for a final clash, the race shaped up this way: Chicago—won 80; lost 59; pct. .575; to play 15. St. Louis—won 79; lost 59; pct. .572; games behind 1-2; to play 16. Brooklyn—won 80; lost 60; pct. .571; games behind 1-2; to play 14. New York—won 77; lost 62; pct. .554; games behind 3; to play 15. Vancie Vanbed 13 Cubs. Hack Wilson's 4th home run of the season, a clout over the right field wall in the seventh inning gave the Cubs their first run of the series. In the first inning Glenn Wright smashed the ball into the left field bleachers after Herman had walked to give the Robins a head start that Chicago never overcame. Guy Bush, who allowed Brooklyn only eight hits in seven innings, was the victor.

After Adams had singled and Frisch had walked in the opening inning Hafey of the Cards made a home run. The Giants overcame that lead in the fifth inning and made another comeback in the seventh, but they failed in their third attempt after the Cards had scored their fifth run, leaving the bases filled when the game ended. Walker pitched for the Cards. Pittsburgh placed themselves 7 1/2

TEAMS REST AT EVEN ODDS IN PLAY-OFF

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 12. (AP)—All square after two hard fought games here, the Wichita Falls Spuddets and Fort Worth Cats rested today prior to a resumption of hostilities tomorrow at Fort Worth in their playoff for the Texas league crown.

New York's Yankees all but dropped out of the race as the Cleveland Indians turned on them after two beatings and hammered out a 9 to 5 victory behind the steady pitching of Clint Brown. The best the Yankees can do now is to tie Philadelphia if they win all their 15 games and the A's lose all 13 contests.

Ted Lyons, veteran Chicago hurler, went 12 innings in the remaining game to win his 21st victory of

Football Date at Canyon Altered

CANYON, Sept. 12.—The football date with Abilene Christian college and West Texas Buffaloes has been changed from Saturday, October 11 to Friday Oct. 10 and will be played as a Dad's day feature, and will be a night game, starting probably about 8:00 o'clock. The game between these schools has always been a classic. The Christian Wildcats have been successful in topping the Buffaloes for the past few years. Not since 1927, when playing before a Homecoming crowd on Buffalo field, "Red" Keith intercepted a pass and galloped for the winning touchdown, which knocked A. C. C. out of the T. I. A. A. championship, has the Elson Herd been able to down the Wildcat tribe.

RATTAN LOSES TO LOCAL MAN TRYING ILL ADVISED FLYING BODY SCISSORS

Silent Rattan should have known better, but apparently he didn't—maybe he didn't care. Anyway, he threw away his chance of winning two falls out of three from Otis Clingman last night at the Pampa arena by leaping upon the Pampa's back and locking his legs around Clingman's middle, after he had headlocked the Baby Face until the latter was resting. With Rattan in such a position, all Clingman had to do was to fall backward to the mat, knocking the breath out of the deaf mute, which he did without any hesitancy.

Even the high sheriff of Gray county whose reaction to the match was, "Doc my cats, I'm glad Otis won," admitted that the leap was a dumb stunt even for a deaf mute. The silent one applied five fierce head locks, hugging Otis over the top before he did the tiger act.

Clingman won the second fall in 30 minutes with a step-over the hold that made Rattan pound the canvas. Otis succeeded this by an agonizing drop-toe hold, head scissors, and an arm bar and as vicious and destructive as head lock as was ever seen here. It was clear that Rattan was confident of winning the third fall during the last minutes of it. He probably thought that Otis was more exhausted than he really was. He just worked too fast.

The first fall was Rattan's from beginning to end. In quick succession the deaf mute applied arm and head locks, a toe hold, wrist lock and body scissors. However, Otis broke these and recovered without much difficulty. Rattan, who is not only fast but strong, was rushing Clingman more than Clingman was ever rushed. The Pampa favorite got in a toe hold, a head lock, and a split before Rattan came. Otis about with five head locks. It would seem that Rattan does not like to win a fall by the

Second Raters Fight It Out in Southern Baseball

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 12. (AP)—The competition left in the Southern Association seems to be between Birmingham, Atlanta and Little Rock clubs and Chattanooga and Nashville. Memphis Chickies have already won the pennant and added another victory yesterday by noosing out Mobile in a transferred game 5 to 4. New Orleans is so deeply set in the second position that there is little chance of the Barons overthrowing them as the Pelicans and Little Rock were forced to call off their game Thursday due to bad weather. The 1929 champion Barons split a twin bill with the Chattanooga Lookouts, the latter capturing the first game 7 to 2, and the Barons coming back to swamp them in the night cap 6 to 1. Atlanta's Crackers gained a half game on Birmingham for third place and widened the gap over the Travelers, who have been threatening to take the former's hold in the first division in a final spurt before the season closes. Atlanta now stands two games behind the Barons and two ahead of the Travelers. The heavy hitting Nashville batter hammered two Atlanta hurlers for 15 safeties yesterday while three Vol pitchers held the Crackers to eight, but the slack defensive play by the Vols caused five errors and gave the Crackers an edge of 9 to 7.

Bank Robbers Are Surrounded

KENTWOOD, La., Sept. 12. (AP)—A sheriff's posse today closed in on the swamp hiding place of the two surviving bandits who yesterday robbed the bank of Kentwood of $10,000. At the same time, authorities continued their efforts to identify the third member of the robber trio, who shortly after the raid, either committed suicide or was shot by a member of the posse as the chase grew hot. Aside from laundry marks nothing was found on the dead bandit's person to indicate his identity.

The three bandits, after the hold-up yesterday, took refuge in a swamp near Tangipahoa station, six miles south of Kentwood, and as the posse pressed hard, and bullets flew, one of the three toppled from a tree with a bullet through his head. He was believed at the time to have been killed by a posseman.

Coroner Luther Ricks said he committed suicide, pointing to powder burns about the man's head to support his opinion. The posse today was confident the two remaining bank raiders were still in the swamp and expected to capture them. Coroner Ricks expressed the belief that the dead bandit after returning the fire of the officers, despaired of escaping and saved one bullet for himself.

BAD TIMES IN GERMANY

There is a general impression in this country that Germany has made remarkable strides in recovering from the World War. Often one hears it said that the aftermath of the conflict is really less onerous to the Germans than to the English.

At certain periods this may have been true. Today however, it is becoming evident that Germany is still feeling the ravages of war very keenly. The approaching national elections only emphasize this point, since the nation's terrific economic depression is becoming the leading issue.

A recent dispatch from Berlin by an American correspondent, Ruth Finney, makes the full extent of Germany's plight clear.

Of the 40,000,000 adults in Germany, Miss Finney points out, nearly one-third are dependent on the public treasury for food and shelter—not counting government employes. Skilled workmen are getting, on an average, wages of only $16.25 a week; unskilled workmen get from $10 to $12.50. Furthermore, the buying power of these incomes is only a very little greater than it would be in the United States.

From those figures it becomes plain that Germany is in the grip of a depression that makes our own look like rosy prosperity. Nor is that all, Chancellor Bruening proposes to relieve matters by cutting the unemployment and poor relief benefits—which run, in individual cases, from $2.50 to $5 a week—and follow that by a general reduction in wages throughout the country.

What this would mean to the German wage-earner and to the man who cannot get work and has to exist on the unemployment benefit, can be imagined. Yet some such steps in necessary. Last year the German government spent approximately $1,250,000,000; of this sum, fully $750,000,000 was devoted to the support of the 12,000,000 people who are entirely dependent on state aid.

What the outcome will be is not at all clear. The one thing, indeed, that is obvious is that war, in these modern times, does not pay. The German people are paying a terrible price for the conflict their rulers dragged them into in 1914.—NEA.

Study Is Made of Women Employes in United States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—A 50-year old study of women in gainful occupations, from 1870 to 1920, today was published by the United States census bureau as background for 1920 census discoveries on feminine status.

Dr. Joseph A. Hill, assistant to the census director, author of the monograph, pronounced its theme one of the most interesting economic studies in the province of the census.

Place Not in Home A foreword by Seymour L. Andrews set forth: "Whatever opinions may be held as to the proper sphere of women, the fact is that, to a considerable extent, women's place is no longer in the home."

Andrew commended Dr. Hill for "refraining from excursions into realms of speculation," and making "no moralization as to the presumed aspect on home life of the participation of women in gainful occupations."

In 1920, 24 per cent of all women were engaged in gainful occupations, and women comprised 20 per cent of the total working population. One married woman in 11 was working for a wage, and 2 out of 100 were unmarried women at work were married. Of unmarried women, 48.8 per cent, or almost half, were earning money.

A special study of married women in 11 cities was included in the monograph to answer the question "do gainful employed married women have a normal home life?"

It was found that in these cities, Fall River, Massachusetts; Providence, Rhode Island; Rochester, New York; Patterson, New Jersey; Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Paul, Kansas City, Missouri, Atlanta, Louisville, and New Orleans, 37.6 per cent of the married women engaged in gainful occupations were not living with their husbands in homes of their own, but were either boarders or lodgers.

In the fifty year period, Dr. Hill found, women school teachers increase in number from 87,047 to 662,500, partly accounted for by replacement of men by women. He noted decided decrease in the number of women employed as servants, dressmakers, laundresses, milliners, tailors and boarding and lodging house keepers.

Guests included the teachers, their wives or husbands, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Moses, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Braly and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicks. About 30 persons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Foster were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wichey in Amarillo Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Foster won the prizes in the bridge games, three tables being played. Among other guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Pieratt of Wichita, Kans., who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wichey. Mr. Pieratt is manager of the United Wholesale Furniture company at Wichita, Kans., and Mr. Wichey is a salesman for that company.

(Special)—Workmen are busy on every part of the campus of the West Texas State Teachers college putting things in readiness for the opening of the fall session September 19. The administration building is undergoing some changes and many repairs including the installation of additional radiators which will make the building warmer than ever before.

Cousins Hall, woman's dormitory, is undergoing a thorough renovation. Streets adjacent to the campus are being paved, sidewalks on the campus proper are being laid and an additional well is being dug. The growth in every department of the church has been better than we expected. To the Teachers of the Public School: We give you a special invitation to attend a series at the Central Baptist church. We will give a special sermon Sunday morning for you. We welcome you to our city and hope your work and stay will be a pleasant one. Strickland in City Riley Strickland, Amarillo lawyer, is transacting business in Pampa today.

Not only was the occasion Thursday a smart party, but it was a smooth one. All the guests had been greeted at the door and had found their tables, and everything was in readiness to begin the games shortly after 2:30 o'clock, the hour set for the arrival of guests. The rules of the game were explained in not more than two minutes by one of the hostesses, and there was no interruption until the announcement of winners.

Congeniality of the guests also accounted somewhat for the success of the party. Not all were "old acquaintances," but all were quick to introduce their friends and to enter into the real spirit of the party. So, it was agreed, "a good time was had by all."

Study Is Made of Women Employes in United States

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—A 50-year old study of women in gainful occupations, from 1870 to 1920, today was published by the United States census bureau as background for 1920 census discoveries on feminine status.

Place Not in Home A foreword by Seymour L. Andrews set forth: "Whatever opinions may be held as to the proper sphere of women, the fact is that, to a considerable extent, women's place is no longer in the home."

Andrew commended Dr. Hill for "refraining from excursions into realms of speculation," and making "no moralization as to the presumed aspect on home life of the participation of women in gainful occupations."

In 1920, 24 per cent of all women were engaged in gainful occupations, and women comprised 20 per cent of the total working population. One married woman in 11 was working for a wage, and 2 out of 100 were unmarried women at work were married. Of unmarried women, 48.8 per cent, or almost half, were earning money.

A special study of married women in 11 cities was included in the monograph to answer the question "do gainful employed married women have a normal home life?"

It was found that in these cities, Fall River, Massachusetts; Providence, Rhode Island; Rochester, New York; Patterson, New Jersey; Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Paul, Kansas City, Missouri, Atlanta, Louisville, and New Orleans, 37.6 per cent of the married women engaged in gainful occupations were not living with their husbands in homes of their own, but were either boarders or lodgers.

In the fifty year period, Dr. Hill found, women school teachers increase in number from 87,047 to 662,500, partly accounted for by replacement of men by women. He noted decided decrease in the number of women employed as servants, dressmakers, laundresses, milliners, tailors and boarding and lodging house keepers.

Guests included the teachers, their wives or husbands, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Moses, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Braly and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicks. About 30 persons were present.

As U. S. Poloists Beat British Four

Before some 45,000 persons, the greatest crowd ever to see a polo game, the defending United States team won the first game of the tenth international polo series at Meadowbrook, Long Island. In the upper photo you see how the long stands were packed as the hard-riding Americans triumphed over England's best malleteers by a score of 10 to 5. In the right center foreground the famous Captain Tommy Hitchcock is shown connecting with the ball. An exciting bit of action is pictured below, as E. A. S. Hopping, of the U. S. team, and the youngest player in the match, outrode an opponent to reach the ball.

Big Leases Sold
LONGVIEW, Sept. 12. (AP)—Seventy-five oil and gas leases covering 16,000 acres were filed with the county clerk here Thursday in favor of the Republic Production company of Houston. The deal involving $16,000.

The land lies all in one block south of Longview in Gregg county. T. J. Arnold, president of the Houston company, closed the deal. The Gulf company owns a 12,000-acre lease northeast, the Humble company 12,000 acres northwest, the Southern Crude company 10,000 acres south and the Sun company is leasing a block west of this tract.

A contract has been signed with D. H. Byrd of Dallas, independent driller, to put down a well and work was expected to start at once.

Gary Cooper, screen star, was cattle puncher foreman on his father's ranch in Montana. He says he's going back to Montana and run a dude ranch after ending his career in the movies.

Markets

Wheat Still Lower
CHICAGO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Weakness of quotations at Liverpool forced Chicago wheat prices lower at the start of trading today. Liverpool prices were down sharply because Russia has renewed offers of cheap wheat. Prices here dropped to new lows for the season for the deferred deliveries on the break and the September delivery sold as low as 81c a bushel. Stop loss orders were uncovered on the way down. Buying against bids and on resting orders checked the decline. General selling was on in corn with support lacking.

Wheat broke sharply at the opening. Initial sales being 3-8 to 1 3-8 under yesterday's finish. Corn was also down at 1-2 to 1 5-8 lower than the final quotations yesterday.

Cotton Is Off
NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points in response to Liverpool cables and a renewal of the selling which was in evidence yesterday. This was encouraged by reports of freer hedging from the south, and the figures of the New York cotton exchange service, placing domestic consumption of cotton for August at 397,000 bales compared with 379,000 in July and 558,000 in August last year may have been another factor on the decline. There was some trade buying and covering which steadied prices right after the call but the selling continued with the market working off to 10.90 for the new October and 11.45 for March contracts by the end of the first half hour or about 6 to 9 points net lower.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Wheat: No. 2 red 88 1-2; No. 1 hard 85; No. 1 northern spring 81 1-2 to 3-4. Corn: No. 2 mixed 95 1-2 to 96 1-2; No. 1 yellow 96 to 1-2; No. 2 white 99 1-4 to 3-4. Oats: No. 2 mixed 38 1-2; No. 1 white 39 1-4 to 1-2. Wheat closed weak, at 5-8 to 1 1-8c net lower than yesterday's

Children Die In Fire
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 12. (AP)—Two children were killed and ten adults were injured today in a fire which destroyed a three-story brick tenement on Prospect street. Five of the injured are in a critical condition.

Several persons were carried to safety by police and firemen, and three leaped safely into a life net. The child victims were John Romero, 6, and Edward Santon, 5.

Kills Bride and Self
TORONTO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Anger-stricken when his bride of two months ordered him out of her parents' home, Simon McIntosh, 30, a Royal Canadian mounted police constable, shot and killed his wife, Helen, 23, with his service revolver today.

Walking then to the rear of the house he shot himself, dying instantly.

of the western states which generally elect republican congressmen. Something must be said (not done) to hold these states in line for the G. O. P. so it was necessary to call committees together and discuss relief and adopt resolutions pledging all the aid the government could grant by 'word of mouth.'

The commissioner scored the attitude of the banking committee in recommending that drought relief be administered by the affected states and charged that leading republican advisors of the president advised against calling a special session of congress to provide funds for drought relief.

The Hollywood Story

COPYRIGHT 1930 by NEA SERVICE Inc. by ERNEST LYNN

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DAN RORIMER, Hollywood scenarist, writer and former New York newspaper man, meets ANNE WINTER, who has come from Tulsa, Okla., to seek extra work. He takes a deep interest in her. Dan is with Continental Pictures, and not very satisfied with what he is doing. Anne is just a beginner.
 Anne gets extra work at Grand United Studios. She goes to live with two other extras, MONA MORRISON and EVA HARLEY. The latter is a bitter individual, possibly because of her failure to get much work, and from her Dan learns a lot about the problems of the vast army of extras.
GARRY SLOAN, famous director has noticed Anne Winter. He gives her a "bit" in a picture. Dan, not liking Sloan, although he has not actually met him, is a bit apprehensive. The casting director at Grand United calls Anne up and tells her there may be a chance for her in a musical comedy picture. He and Director FRED HURLEY tell her to dance for them, and Hurley promises her a screen test. Anne shudders at this. Rorimer, who is more discontented than ever at Continental Pictures, who is living with PAUL COLLIER, who writes a daily movie column for a string of newspapers, tells Collier that he has torn up his contract with Continental. And he tells him about Anne's forthcoming screen test, and Collier has news about Garry Sloan.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XV
 "What about Garry Sloan?" Rorimer asked.

long I stay.
 Greg smiled a little sheepishly and departed.
 Sometime later there was a telephone call from Martin Collins. The director told Dan he was giving a housewarming in his new home in Beverly Hills. "And you're invited. Bring your own girl, or try to grab one off at the party; suits me either way—How's things at Continental?"
 "Not so hot," Dan said.
 "You'd better come over to a real studio and go to work. They're actually human over here. How is 'Grim Holiday' doing? I beg your pardon—'Passion's Price.' You might tell Adamson that we've got a lot of old worn-out titles over here that he might use when he runs out of those original ideas of his."
 Collins was laughing, but his voice held an edge of sarcasm. Dan smiled, recalling Collins' version of his farewell session with Adamson, and said that the picture was doing fairly well. "But it's not breaking any box-office records that I've heard of."

"I understand you got her divorced." Collier lit a cigarette, blew smoke toward the ceiling. "I just heard it today."
 Dan, reclining in his chair with his arms folded and his eyes half shut, wanted to know, without looking at Collier, what Sloan was going to do now. "Marry Sylvia Patterson?"
 Paul shrugged. "Search me."
 Dan said, thoughtfully: "What kind of a bird is this Sloan, anyway? You know him, don't you?"
 "Sure, I know him. He's a swell director, all right; he also has a knack of keeping his name in the papers."
 "Johnny Riddle said he had a swell head."
 Paul Collier said, hesitatingly, that he supposed that was true. "Only he's not a snob, Dan. It's just that he's got a great opinion of himself. The man's an artist—and no getting away from it. And he's got all the temperament that goes with it. Sloan thinks that without a doubt he's the greatest director in the business and I'm not so sure that he isn't."
 "Riddle said he was a Narcissus," Dan spoke with some contempt and Collier laughed. "Well, he does admire himself plenty." Paul said, "but why so sour? You don't know him, do you?"
 "No, but I've seen him, and he gives me a pain."
 "Yeah? But the women go for him, my boy."
 "I suppose so," Dan said, getting to his feet. "I'm going to bed."
 Collier watched him go to his room. He sat where he was for some minutes, smoking thoughtfully, until Dan's voice demanded to know if he was going to sit up all night. And then Paul went to bed.
 During the next few days Dan saw Adamson only once. Then it was in the hallway outside of Rorimer's office, and Adamson, who

They went that evening for a drive that ended at a little roadhouse where strange-sounding Russian dishes were served by waiters in picturesque Russian costumes.
 Rorimer. Take it easy. Your stuff's good. I'm not kicking, am I?"
 Dan shook his head, and Greg, sitting down on the edge of his desk, gave him a friendly lecture. At the end of it he put his hand on Dan's shoulder and told him he would do what he could to make things more pleasant.
 "By the way, you weren't thinking of trying to go over to some other outfit, were you?"
 Rorimer thought: "Adamson's trying to find that out." He said: "As long as I'm under contract here it's entirely up to Continental how

SPORT SLANTS

Alan J. Gould

Gallat old Sir Thomas Lipton has heard the enthusiastic cheers, the affectionate well wishes of his American friends since arrival. No sportsman will begrudge the famous Irish baronet the achievement of a 31-year ambition to "capture the old mug" when his Shamrock V. slips out to race Enterprise off Newport.

Nevertheless, it will be boat for boat, sail for sail, man for man, with no favors asked, when the naval struggle for the America's Cup begins Sept. 12. It would be no satisfaction to Sir Tom to win otherwise than on the merits of his boat, his brawny seamen and his capable skipper.

Stripped of all sentiment, the facts favor Enterprise and her millionaire skipper, Harold S. Vanderbilt, who handles the helm as deftly as he does a bridge hand.

Shamrock V. seems the best of her line, fit in every respect to give a good account of herself, but Enterprise is the best of four racing sloops embodying the very latest, most scientific racing designs and ideas.

American sportsmen altogether sponsored the expenditure of upwards of $3,000,000 to produce the fastest all-around racing yacht possible. Enterprise has met all tests under varying weather conditions. She has the ablest "after guard" or board of strategy that can be assembled.

In short, all that money, science and skill can produce in yachting has been concentrated in the development of Enterprise.

In a measure, the same thing can be said of Shamrock V. for after all this is as much a battle of millions as it is sport. Given a fair breeze and a "break" or two, the challenger may offset any technical advantages possessed by the defender, sailing in home waters.

If any further evidence was required to shoot full of holes the charge that American track and field athletes were on the decline, due to dissipation, national championship performances at Pittsburgh furnished it.

achievements, this year's A. A. U. meet, bringing together the pick of college and club athletes, surpassing anything I can recall, including the famous Olympic final trials of 1928 at Cambridge.

The track and field campaign of 1930 has witnessed the best American performances of all time in the 100-yard dash, the mile run, the shotput, the discus, the javelin throw and the high hurdles.

If Charley Paddock can detect any decline, outside of his own, in this picture, he is entitled to the prize for the best imagination of the year.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
 The Lord's Day comes as a well-earned time to every thinking man and woman. Some only see in the day a time of physical rest, good only for the animal nature of man. The wise know it to be the season when the spiritual life is permitted to enliven the whole being of man.
 Our sympathy goes to the superficial who think attending church is merely a matter of habit.

By Bomb Blast

CHICAGO, Sept. 12. (AP)—An extortionist's bomb splashed up the opening of the grand jury's investigation of racketeering today.

Just a few hours before the inquiry was called, the family of John Valentino was blasted from sleep by a bomb explosion. The home, on the west side, was damaged.

Valentino, a street car company laborer, told police he had received letters threatening him with death unless he paid $5,000 to a man
"who would approach him and ask for a match."

Prominent civic leaders—thirty-three of them headed by Col. A. A.
Sprague—supported state's attorney John A. Swanson in his drive to put racketeers on the legal rack.

Henry Barrett Chamberlain, operating director of the Chicago crime commission, and Walter G.
Walker, of the employers' association, offered their files on racketeers and racketeers to the grand jury today. The evidence of Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and John Fitzpatrick, head of the Chicago federation of labor, was held over until Monday.

Both Swanson and Chief Justice
McGoorty of the criminal court said the investigation would continue until business was no longer a prey of the racketeer.

J. A. Buckingham of the Magnolia
Petroleum company made a business trip to Amarillo yesterday.
