WASHINGTON.—An unprecedented amount of effort and money is being spent in attempts to guide the great American appetite. If the campaigns were all as successful as their sponsors would like, the country would be suffering from a terrific stomach ache.

Headquarters of some of the more important "eat-more-of-our-stuff" drives are in Washington. One finds that producers of food are going after 120,000,000 people through newspaper advertising, press-agent propaganda, radio, speeches and lectures, skywriting and many other avenues of publicity.

What to do with an agricultural surplus such as the American farmer's wheat? Eat it! The Brazilian coffee surplus? Drink it! Such are the current slogans. And there are various extensive campaigns to dispel popular prejudices against certain types of food such as pink salmon and canned goods in general.

One of the most vigorous campaigns now being waged is the "Back to Bread" movement promoted by the millers and the bakers. The argument is that plain white bread is cheaper than any other food and more nutritious than most others.

Eminent physicians and food experts are being rung in to plead the case of white bread. Whether you like white bread or not, all this seems to be a very interesting experiment in guiding popular taste for food.

Dr. Decio Machado, Brazilian delegate to the recent Pan-American agricultural conference here, whooped for an international campaign by Latin-American coffee-producing nations to increase world consumption and eliminate the present overproduction of coffee.

The National Canners' Association, recognizing a deep-seated vague popular distrust of canned goods, has spent more than a million dollars on research work to prove just how good "canned stuff" really is and now contemplates a huge three-year campaign to sell the country on canned foods.

The India tea dealers began an ambitious campaign hollering the virtues of Vitamin C, but it appears they made too many claims and they have since switched to boast about the tea's flavor and palatability.

An association of the canners of South Carolina is pressing the claim that all South Carolina products are rich in iodine owing to salt deposits on South Carolina's farms which allegedly are brought by the breezes from the ocean.

Turk, 156 Years Old, Run Down by Gotham Auto

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (AP)—Zaro Agha, the Turk who said he had lived 156 years without an accident until he was struck by an automobile last night, remained in bed under protest in his hotel room today while physicians were deciding whether his injuries were serious enough for him to be removed to a hospital.

Zaro Agha's left leg was seriously lacerated and he complained of internal pains. This didn't deter him from sitting up in bed and eating a light lunch today with apparent relish.

Houston Man Is Robbed Then Tied Between Two Trees

HOUSTON, Sept. 26. (AP)—gagged and bound with his body extended between two trees after being robbed of about $85, Henry Goode, 29, Houston bricklayer, chewed his way to freedom today and put police on the trail of his abductor—a man and a black-haired young woman with a "boyish bob."

Soaked through from the driving rain that fell early today, Goode was picked up by a passing motorist. He was taken to the police station where he told a story of having been forced into an automobile at the point of a pistol and blindfolded and robbed.

Hyde Issues Sentence

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. (AP)—Secretary Hyde, upon learning of the Chicago Board of Trade's action today to discourage short selling of wheat by foreign governments said he was "glad to see that the Chicago Board of Trade is making an effort to protect the market of the American farmer."

STOP CONSTIPATION THIS PLEASANT WAY. DELICIOUS WHEN SERVED WITH MILK OR CREAM. COOK INTO TASTY BRAN MUFFINS, BREADS, OMELETS, ETC.

ONCE PEOPLE thought pills and drugs were the only way to relieve constipation. But the modern, safer method is to include sufficient roughage in the diet.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a delicious ready-to-eat cereal, gives you this bulk, and overcomes constipation naturally.

"One day I came across your advertisement, so I thought I would try ALL-BRAN. It relieved me almost immediately and I have had no trouble since, which was almost three months ago."

Delicious when served with milk or cream. Cook into tasty bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. ALL-BRAN also adds needed iron to the diet.

CARD INFIELD DOPED TO HAVE EDGE OVER A'S

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, assuming they will carry the National league banner into the world's series next week, for the third time in five years, figure to have a distinct in-field advantage over the Athletics, offensively and probably defensively, if major value is placed on the keystone combination.

Frankie Frisch, no longer a youngster but still the same old Fordham flash and one of the greatest of all "money players," is the standout infielder of either club. The Cardinals second sacker excels at bat, in the field and on the bases with Charley Gelbert, his young working partner at shortstop. Frisch forms a defensive combination that compares favorably with the Jackson-Critz pair of the Giants' remarkable infield. This will be Frisch's sixth series.

Bishop and Boely, the A's veteran keystone pair, have always suffered by comparison in Philadelphia with the famous old combination of Collins and Barry, remembered as paragons among infielders. Boely and Bishop are a workmanlike pair, defensively, although they do not present the offensive threat of Frisch and Gelbert, both sluggers. Bishop is a good lead-off man and has developed some propensities as a home run hitter this year under the influence of Cochrane, Simmons and Foxe.

The A's may claim an advantage among first basemen, with Jimmy Foxe outshining Jim Bottomley by about thirty points, but the Cardinal left-hander can at least hold his own on the defense. Neither measures up to the superlative standard set this year among first sackers by Bill Terry of the Giants but both have emerged from hitting slumps in the latter part of the season.

Jimmy Dykes, if he reproduced his 1929 form in the coming battle would be considered superior to Earl (Sparky) Adax, his Cardinal rival, but talkative Jimmy has not had an especially good year. Last season he was probably the most valuable man on the A's all things considered, for he is a man of all infield work.

Adams, a Pirate cast-off, has been one of the big factors in the sensational pennant rush of the Cardinals, playing a bang-up game in the field, besides hitting harder than any year since he was a regular with the Cubs. If he needs any relief, the Cards have Handy Andy High, whose pinch-hitting had a lot to do with knocking Brooklyn out of the race.

The Athletics have two youngsters, Dib Williams and Eric McNair, for emergency duty as well as Eddie Collins, the veteran who is entering his eighth world's series.

Sharkey Bout Postponed When Rain Threatens

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (AP)—Threat of rain caused postponement of the 16-round heavyweight tilt between Jack Sharkey and Victorio Campese last night.

The Garden failed to reveal its reasons for transferring the bout from the stadium, where 75,000 spectators can be accommodated, to the Garden with its maximum capacity of barely over 20,000 but two factors were believed to have led to the surprising decision, first, it was believed the Garden did not care to risk further postponements because of adverse weather conditions; and secondly, the bout had aroused so little public interest that it was believed it might more profitably be conducted in the Garden itself.

Sammy Mandell To Meet Herman Tonite

CHICAGO, Sept. 26. (AP)—Sammy Mandell, former world's lightweight champion, blossoms out tonight as a contender for welterweight honors.

The shiek of Rockford will engage Tommy Herman, rugged Chicagoan, in an eight-round bout in the coliseum. The weight will be 146 pounds, with neither having trouble making it.

Mandell has signed to meet Al Singer, his conqueror for the title, in an over-weight match in the Chicago stadium, Oct. 14, and realizes, as he faces Herman, that he must win decisively to make the Singer match attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Noel returned yesterday from Greeley, Colo., where they took their daughter, Miss Audrey Noel. Miss Noel will enter Colorado State Teachers college.

Double Play Is Now Underway In Pacific Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26. (AP)—There was a lull in singles activity on the Pacific Southwest Tennis tournament today as all surviving contestants turned to doubles play.

The semi-finals of the men's doubles attracted chief interest with the Wilmer Allison-Johnny Van Ryn match with Keith Gledhill and Ellsworth Vines holding first attention. The meeting gives Allison and Van Ryn an opportunity for revenge against the youthful western pair who blasted their hopes for a men's singles title.

Gledhill yesterday defaulted to Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., in the semi-finals singles when he strained his right arm after the fight had gone three sets. Gledhill expected to be able to return to the courts today.

Vines yesterday advanced to the singles finals by defeating Cliff Sutter, New Orleans, national intercollegiate champion. He will meet Mangin tomorrow for the singles title.

Mrs. Ralph Wrinkle was taken from her home 400 East Foster to the Pampa hospital yesterday in a Stephenson ambulance.

Early Diagnosis of Illness of Young Hoover Will Be Example to Nation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. (AP)—Public announcement that President Hoover's son is under treatment for tuberculosis was commended today by health authorities who believe it will result in wider play for science's most effective weapon against the disease—early diagnosis.

Surgeon General Cumming of the public health service said although some progress has been made, the attitude of laymen toward Frank Hooper with the one-time taboo of tuberculosis still seriously impairs the effectiveness of treatment.

"The example of the president, his family and his physician will have a salutary effect," Dr. Cumming added. "It will encourage patients to seek plain advice early; it will lead doctors to make diagnosis as soon as possible."

"And we need such an example. For although the intelligent attitude is gaining, it is still true that only a brave doctor dares make such a pronouncement as came from the White House while there is yet time to do most good."

Early Cases Recover

As if remarking a familiar fact, Dr. Cumming observed: "All early cases of tuberculosis get well now under proper care."

He saw in the optimism of the announcement new evidence of the strides science has made in comparatively few years.

Young Herbert Hoover has been in bed at his father's camp in Virginia for 10 days. Because this retreat in the hills is an ideal place for rest, offering comforts but still removed from communities, it is assumed the president's son will remain there through the fall. Because of the altitude of the pleasant climate, he can rest outdoors much of the day. His complete recovery is predicted.

Formerly Fatal

"Less than 20 years ago," Dr. Cumming continued, "to make a diagnosis of tuberculosis was to write funerals on the social, domestic and professional life of the patient—if not to pronounce a simple sentence of death. There arose, consequently, the very foolish sentiment of shunning the disease. Symptoms were pooh-poohed, patients were pronounced 'under suspicion' of it, and treatment was hidden and delayed.

"Intelligent persons have quite outgrown these old notions," he added, "but there still persists an unfortunate subservience to them where they do the greatest harm to the cause of eradication."

As witness to medical progress the health official cited vast actual decreases in mortality effected while the country's population increased. There were 153,781 deaths from tuberculosis in 1900; 104,024 in 1923, and about 90,000 last year.

"Leathernecking" Coming to State Theatre on Sunday

"My friend, cut yourself a piece of throat!" is how cynical Hollywood explains the competition between players on a movie set.

The reason is "scene stealing," a recognized film tradition!

Yet five topnotch comedians worked six weeks together in "Leathernecking" Sunday, each garnered his share of laughs, and they parted bosom friends!

Which demands an explanation. Eddie Cline, director of comedies of the past twenty years, gives a logical one.

He says: "Ken Murray, Louise Fazenda, Eddie Foy, Jr. and Benny Rubin, all get the same results—laughs—but they arrive at this by entirely different routes. In other words, each one's method is distinctly different from that of his rival."

"Red Sparks' meum is an 'old-time' 'cold pan', combined with what he says and how he says it."

"Benny Rubin's Jewish dialect would tickle the risibilities of a Sphinx, yet his psychology is more subtle. Benny always plays the opposite mood in a scene or picture. If he is opposite a 'menace' he creates sympathy for himself. If he plays opposite a 'weak sister,' Benny gets hard boiled, and so on ad infinitum."

"Ken Murray has a lazy good humor and a faculty of infecting his audience with it. Any line of dialogue seems to come from his lips with hilarious results."

"And Louise Fazenda! She can't help being funny on or off the stage, any more than I can help laughing at her continuously. One reacts to her perfect naivete, as to a child who asks a lot of bewildering questions."

Celebrities Pay Tribute To Will Hogg At Burial

AUSTIN, Sept. 26. (AP)—Will C. Hogg, Texas philanthropist and patron of the University of Texas, was buried simply here today beside the grave of his father, former Gov. James Stephen Hogg, in Oakwood cemetery. Hundreds of residents of the capital city stood silent as the funeral cortege wended its way from the railroad station to the last resting place of the son of the "great commoner."

The body arrived here from Houston where funeral services were conducted yesterday. Mr. Hogg died at Baden Baden, Germany, two weeks ago.

State and city officials and professors at the University of Texas paid last respects as the body of Hogg, who had spent his boyhood in Austin attending the university, was lowered into its grave.

The Rev. Beverly Boyd of St. David's Episcopal church read the burial service.

Glouring tribute to the memory of Hogg was paid today by state leaders in the columns of the Daily Texan, official newspaper of the University of Texas. The tributes included eulogies from O. O. McIntyre, Irvin S. Cobb, noted writers and close personal friends of Hogg; United States Sen. Morris Sheppard; Thomas Watt Gregory, university benefactor and close co-worker of Hogg in furthering the interests of the institution; H. Y. Benedict, president of the university; R. L. Batts, chairman of the board of regents of the university; V. I. Moore, dean of men and leaders in the ex-students association.

Business at the state capitol was practically at a standstill.

Woman Attempts Record Solo Hop

MUNICH, Germany, Sept. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Victor Bruce, who hopped off from England yesterday in what is believed to be an attempt to beat solo flights to India and Japan, took off at 9:25 a. m. today in continuation of her trip after spending the night here.

She was understood to be heading toward Constantinople by way of Vienna and Budapest.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

QUARTERLY REVIEW
General Theme: The Greatness of the God-Fearing.
Devotional Reading for the opening service—Psalm 8.

1. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! who hast set Thy glory above the heavens.
2. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
3. When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou has ordained:

4. What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? and the Son of Man, that Thou visitest Him?
5. For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

KEY VERSE—The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. A good understanding have all they that do his commandments. His praise endureth forever.—Ps. 111:10.

FIVE GROUPS OF CHARACTERS
"Many different voices in God's wondrous chorus," is Doctor Cranwell's characterization. He divides these twelve characters as follows: Patriarchs (Abraham, Jacob); Leader-Legista (Moses, Debrah); women in the home (Naomi, Ruth, Hannah); Kings, more or less (Saul, David, Jonathan, Josiah); prophets (Amos, Jeremiah, Jonah).

THE TWELVE CHARACTERS
A brief description of the 12 characters studied during the last quarter as given by Dr. Amos R. Wells are as follows:

- (1) Abraham, great in faith;
- (2) Jacob, great in appreciation of the divine covenant;
- (3) Moses, great in friendship with God;
- (4) Deborah, great in godly courage;
- (5) Ruth, great in sacrificial love;
- (6) Hannah, great in motherly devotion;
- (7) Saul, great in modest bravery;
- (8) Jonathan and David, great in faithful friendship;

(9) Amos, great in clear-headed and bold vision;
(10) Josiah, great in fidelity to the teachings of the Bible;
(11) Jeremiah, great in obedience to God under difficulties;
(12) The Book of Jonah, great in its insistence on the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of men.

THE TWELVE TOPICS AND GOLDEN TEXTS

I. July 6. Topic—Abraham. Gen. 12:1-3; 13:7-12; Heb. 11:8-10. Golden text—By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.—Hebrews 11:8.

II. July 13. Topic—Jacob. Gen. 25:29-34; 26:18-22; 28:18-20; 33:1-4, 18. Golden text—For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his life?—Matthew 16:26.

III. July 20. Topic—Moses. Ex. 3:1-12. Golden text—By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.—Hebrews 11:27.

IV. July 27. Topic—Deborah. (Temperance applications.) Judges 4:1-10. Golden text—Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not.—Isaiah 35:4.

V. Aug. 3. Topic—Naomi and Ruth. Ruth 1:6-10, 14-22. Golden text—And He made as one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth.—Acts 17:26.

VI. Aug. 10. Topic—Hannah. 1 Sam. 1:9-18, 24-28; 2:19. Golden text—My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.—Proverbs 1:8.

VII. Aug. 17. Topic—Saul. 1 Sam. 9:15-17, 25-27; 10:1; 19:9-11; 31:1-4. Golden text—Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.—1 Corinthians 10:12.

VIII. Aug. 24. Topic—Jonathan and David. 1 Sam. 18:1-4; 20:14-17; 32-34; 41, 42; 2 Sam. 1:25-27. Golden text—He that maketh many friends doeth it to his own destruction but there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.—

Proverbs 18:24.

IX. Aug. 31. Topic—Amos. Amos 1:1; 7:10-15; 2:11, 12; 3:7, 8. Golden text—I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me.—Isaiah 6:8.

X. Sept. 7. Topic—Josiah. (Temperance applications.) 2 Kings 22:1, 2, 8; 23:1-3, 21-25. Golden text—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and light unto my path.—Ps. 119:105.

XI. Sept. 14. Topic—Jeremiah. Jer. 1:4-10; 31:27-34. Golden text—Each one of us shall give account of himself to God.—Romans 14:12.

XII. Sept. 21. Topic—Jonah. Jonah 2:1-5, 10; 4:1-11. Golden text—Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to Him.—Acts 10:34, 35.

Federals Jail "Collector" of Capone's Gang

CHICAGO, Sept. 26. (AP)—Two brothers of the notorious Jack Gusik known as the Capone's gang's "collector"—were tossed into jail by federal agents today.

When the detectives seized the two Gusik—Harry and Sam—in a south Wabash avenue restaurant, Harry Gusik asked:

"What do you want us for?"
"Income tax," one of the agents replied.

"Oh," said Harry, showing signs of relief, "I thought you was 'vagine' us."
"Vagine," police explained, is the newest word in the argot of the underworld. It was born of the recently inaugurated police campaign which seeks to drive well known crooks from town under threat of arrest as "vagrants." Severe jail sentences may be imposed under the revived vagrancy law under which gangster prosecutions are to be made.

The Gusik arrests were the second stroke against gangsters within 24 hours, both being by federal men. Yesterday the government agents led a raid on the Carleton hotel on South Wabash avenue, making one significant discovery. That was the finding, in the room occupied by Tony Tagenti, a Capone's bondsman, of a secret police department mem-branda.

The paper, listing 31 police characters and the names of police officers who had arrested each of them on previous occasions, was under Tagenti's pillow. Tagenti said he did not know how it got there.
The possibility of a leak in the police department was seen in discovery of the document. Only four copies of it had been made, under orders by John Ryan, deputy chief of detectives. The men listed were not the "public enemies" for whom vagrancy warrants have been issued. They were other hoodlums apparently picked by police commissioner Aleock to be arrested in addition to the more widely known "public enemies."

Of the four copies of the memorandum that were made, deputy chief Ryan said that two were now in his safe. One was given to Chief Norton, he said, and the fourth went to William Luthardt, chief of the vagrancy bureau. Chief Norton today said he did not recall getting the copy. Luthardt could not be found.

W. E. Snow, representing the Bennett Printing company of Dallas, was in Pampa Thursday.
Baker Saulsbury returned Wednesday from a business trip to Fort Worth.
