

County Is Enthusiastic Over Road Big Bond Election

CITIZENS TO CAST BALLOTS ON SATURDAY

County-Wide Plan Adopted to Give Each Section Benefits of Oil Valuations, Present and Future.

GREAT INTEREST

Nearly Million Dollars in State and Federal Aid is Available if Action is Favorable.

A road bond election into which has gone the study and combined judgment of residents of every precinct in Gray county, and in which the entire southeast is interested because of the "through" road connections involved, will claim the attention of qualified voters Saturday.

The total of the issue, $2,250,000, includes $627,000 to retire bonds in precincts 2 and 4; $600,000 for the purpose of paying the county share of state highways 32, 152 (33A), 98, and U. S. 66; $823,000 to pave the following county roads: Completion of the Berger road west from Pampa, building of the roads from McLean and Alameda through LeFors to Pampa, and completion of the Miami road paving north of Pampa.

Nearly Million in Aid. The state and federal governments would contribute more than $900,000 toward the construction of these roads. More than 90 per cent of the entire sum to be spent would be used for labor, and in this period of unemployment this factor is expected to be an important factor. The state would require that common labor be local, inasmuch as the federal fund was allocated for emergency use. It must be requested at once or it will be given some other state.

At the present valuation of $27,695,900 in the county, the levy for the road bonds would be approximately 20 cents.

Benefits For All. The election was called following a countywide meeting at which wishes of all precincts were taken into consideration. By using the countywide plan, the people of all parts of the county will receive the benefits of the oil valuation, present and future. The plan was approved by officials cooperated throughout in furnishing estimates and suggestions. They approved for the lighter roads an asphalt paving with crushed rock base. Estimates of costs on all roads were prepared by P. E. Berry, district engineer.

Those who will be in charge at the various voting precincts of the county are as follows: McLean, John Sparks; LeFors, E. Buchanan; Alameda, W. J. Ball; Knorr, Joe Looper; South Pampa box, W. H. Lang; Laketon, F. J. Jones; Farrington, D. S. Spearman; Hopkins, G. W. Gandy; Kingsmill, Joe Bonds; First National bank building, T. E. Rose, and courthouse box, J. M. Dodson.

On account of the two-thirds vote necessary for passage, it is desired that no friends of good roads overlook the duty of voting. Widespread approval of the plans has inspired the belief that the issue has a very good chance of receiving approval at the polls.

Voting Place Changed. Only one change in the location of polling places has been reported by officials of the $2,250,000 road bond election which will be voted upon tomorrow by citizens of the county.

The polling place in south Pampa will be on South Cuyler street where Piggly-Wigly No. 2 store was formerly located. This is in the first block across the tracks on the west side of the street. T. H. Lang will be in charge of the election. W. H. Lang was appointed to act as judge but he resigned. Mr. Lang, who has been judge of elections for 20 years, was appointed to serve in his place.

Other voting places in the county will be as follows: The courthouse, rear of the First National bank building, Farrington schoolhouse, Laketon schoolhouse, Bois Grain company, Kingsmill, Grandview schoolhouse, Hopkins No. 1 schoolhouse, LeFors schoolhouse and Bentley's insurance office, McLean.

The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Everyone who has a poll tax may vote.

Klein May Be Sold Down River

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 27. (AP)—Reports were in circulation today that Chuck Klein, slugging outfielder of the Phillies, is to be placed on the market unless he soon signs the contract offered by the club. It was rumored that Branch Rikecy, of the St. Louis Cardinals, had offered Chuck Klein, slugging left fielder, two pitchers and $20,000 in cash for Klein, but that the offer had been refused.

Long List of Companies Would Take Oil in East Texas Is Given Today at State Hearing.

AUSTIN, March 27. (AP)—R. R. Penn, chairman of the Texas central proration committee, today lunged from the witness chair and did to be held off Former Governor Dan Moody when he took one of Moody's questions to imply he had not told the truth in some of his testimony. Moody called names of oil companies and asked Penn if they had made nominations to take oil from the east Texas field. Penn said the committee did not have a nomination from the Sinclair Oil company and could not say if Moody's statement it would take 25,000 barrels daily was correct.

"I understand the Sinclair company disconnected from one well last Friday and reconnected because east Texas anti-prorationists influenced it to do so, pleading such action would hurt their cause at this hearing," Penn commented. "Who told you that?" Moody inquired. "I got it by grapevine telegraph," Penn replied.

"What were the folks?" Moody asked. "I don't know. The other fellow paid 'em," Penn said.

Replying to questions, Penn said he understood the Atlantic company intended to take 15,000 barrels, but they had not made nominations to his committee. Likewise, he said, replying to interrogations from Moody, he did not know the Tide water company would take 10,000 barrels, Arkansas Natural Gas corporation 40,000 barrels, Warren Quilman company 12,000 barrels, Shawmut company 5,000 barrels, Vacuum 10,000 barrels, Houston Oil company 10,000 barrels, Crown Central company one of two ratable nominations made to the committee.

McLEAN WINS COUNTY TITLE

Tabulation Shows Pampa Did Not Enter Two Events Last Saturday.

McLean high school won the county interscholastic league general championship held at McLean last Saturday, it was announced today by John Harding, principal of the McLean high school and clerk of the meet.

In winning the all-around championship, McLean's students amassed a total of 217 points, while Pampa boys and girls were a close second with 210 points.

The McLean victory was largely due to the fact that Pampa forfeited to McLean in girls and boys playground ball, junior spelling, and junior high school track team. None of these teams from Pampa entered the meet. By taking first in all of these events, McLean added 75 points to her total. The muddy condition of the roads prevented several Pampa entries from making the trip.

Pampa's field and track team swamped the McLean team with a total of 90 points, the McLean boys won 51 points. LeFors won the class B championship.

How McLean won the all-around championship: Playground ball—girls 20, boys 20; tennis—boys doubles 15, girls singles 15, girls doubles 15, girls singles 15; volley ball 15; extemporaneous speech—girls 20, boys 5; spelling—juniors 20, seniors 10; debate—boys 5, girls 5; declamation—senior girls 7, boys essay writing 5; first in junior high school track 15; senior track entry 5; total 217.

Pampa's points were as follows: Tennis—boys doubles 10, boys singles 10, girls doubles 10, girls singles 10; volley ball 20; extemporaneous speech—girls 5, boys 20; debate—boys 25, girls 25; spelling 5; declamation—senior boys 15, senior girls 10; essay writing 20; first place track and entry 25; total points 210.

It will be noted that Pampa students won first in every department they entered except tennis and spelling.

The Eldridge school won first in rural playground ball, and will receive a cup. The large silver winner cup won and donated the owner of the meet by the Southwestern Public Service company will be given to McLean school officials as soon as possible. It is now in the office of John B. Hesse, county superintendent.

Following are the points made by the rural schools: Hopkins No. 1, 120; Back, 65; Grandview, 35; Laketon, 20, and Eldridge, 20.

Stalled Car Is Reported Stolen

Robert Cecil, salesman at the Thompson Hardware company, was wondering this morning if somebody played a joke on him or if they meant business.

At any rate he reported the theft of his car to the sheriff and to police. This morning he started out in his Ford coupe, but was stopped by a snowdrift. He abandoned the machine and went to call a wrecker. While he was gone some one got in his car and drove away. Late this morning officers had not found it.

'Grakle,' English Horse, Is Victor

'Gregalach,' which won race in 1929, is second, and 'Anadale' is third.

AINTREE, Eng., March 27. (AP)—Grakle, a strapping English jumper owned by the Englishman, C. R. Taylor, today won the Grand National steeplechase, the hardest test of thoroughbred horse flesh in the world.

Gregalach, the big Irish steeplechaser, which won in 1929 for Mrs. Gemmill, was second and Lady Glenapp's Annadale was third. Grakle ran the four-mile and a half course over thirty jumps in nine minutes, 34 seconds to set a record.

Best of the American-owned horses in the race, of which there were 11, was Victor Emmanuel's Rhytkere, which finished fourth, closely followed by M. D. Blair's Ballyhanwood, with R. K. Mellon's Glenglass, seventh and Blair's Great Span eighth.

The two American favorites, Easter Hero and Sir Lindsay, both owned by John Hay (Jock) Whitney, fell on the second time around. Easter Hero after leading at the half-way point.

The winner paid off at the juicy odds of 100 to 6. It was the 52nd renewal of the classic race, which was started in 1839 by a Liverpool saloonkeeper who wanted to draw more customers to town to patronize his bar. Back past the starting line on the first round of the heart-breaking course Gregalach and the two American horses, Easter Hero and Blair's Great Span, were fighting it out for the lead.

One of the oldest women in the Panhandle, Mrs. Caroline Duncan, died at the age of 83 years at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, J. N. Duncan.

She would have been 84. She was born in Georgia in 1838, 12 years before the Civil war, and during the administration of Martin Van Buren.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon with the Rev. Tom W. Brabham, pastor in charge. Stephen, mortuary has charge of arrangements. Burial will be made in Pampa cemetery.

Mrs. Duncan, or "Grandma" Duncan, as she has been known to Pampans for 24 years, is survived by one child, J. N. Duncan, and the following grand-children: Mrs. H. E. Kriger, Pampa; Emma; Duncan, Dallas; Ivy E. Duncan, Mrs. S. S. Thomas, Mrs. J. E. Marlee, all of Pampa; Miss Geta Duncan, Dallas; Wade Duncan, Pampa; Mrs. Tom Goss, Big Spring; Mrs. Irene Asbury, and G. N. Duncan, Cushing, Okla.; also two grand-daughters who live at Brownsville. Duncan and his family. She has lived with him since that time. In 1906, "Grandma" Duncan moved to Pampa with her son.

Mrs. Duncan knew the hardships of Civil war reconstruction in Georgia. Five years after the close of the Civil war, she moved to Cass county, which was then a frontier country, almost. Oklahoma was a raw, pioneer land, recently vacated by the Indians when she moved to Pampa. When she came to Pampa in 1906, this section was just beginning to be settled by farmers. The great ranches were just beginning to be broken up.

Worried Woman Finds Him Jailed

"Have you found him yet?" Sheriff Blanscet was asked this morning by a worried woman in this morning in as many telephone conversations.

"No. Not yet," he answered, "but we're out looking for him. You say your husband never came home last night at all—it looks pretty bad."

"I'm afraid he's out in some snowdrift frozen to death," the anxious wife exclaimed in a voice which to desperation.

HEADS UP—IT IS TIME TO NOW WHAT'S RIGHT IN PAMPA

(AN EDITORIAL)

Nothing is more popular, when it is rather widespread, than a thing that is termed the commercial stomach.

Like small boys afflicted with green apples, American business men have been prolonging what might have been only a temporary condition. Isn't it about time to quit thinking of what is wrong and consider what is right.

What is right in Pampa? For one thing, the soil is right. It was here before the boom. It made a prosperous community when wheat was considered Pampa's greatest asset. Treeless, level, fertile, deep, our soil is an inspiration to the real farmer. He knows that, given proper tilling, it is very productive. It will continue to be RIGHT.

Another thing that is right is the location. We live in America, land of liberty and opportunity. We are Texans, proud of our ancestry, our history, our future. We are Panhandle residents, free, white, and blessed with a fine heritage. We live in Gray county, rich in flowing gold, famous for rapid development, dynamic in possibilities.

The climate is right. It may be erratic, but it compares favorably with the health resorts. The air is dry, cool, and healthful, the sunshine constant, and nights invigorating. Rainfall is not great but is dependable in most years. It is not necessary for citizens to search out health resorts.

Natural resources, chiefly oil, make Pampa the center of the most active area in the West Texas territory. Proration has slowed drilling but the liquid wealth is abundant and will be drilled when it will bring more money than it does now. Petroleum and allied industries will be leading Pampa assets for many years.

Transportation is RIGHT in Pampa. There is a fine east-west road, the Santa Fe, which is one of the best managed lines in the country. The Clinton & Oklahoma Western, a new connecting link with Oklahoma, is if growing importance because it taps a potentially great agricultural area. The Fort Worth & Denver Northern is working on the 110-mile Pampa-Childress line which "will annex Pampa to Texas." This road will be a great factor in making this city a wholesale point.

Not the least of the things that are RIGHT are the citizens of this community. They are highest type of American, good workers and wise spenders, thrifty without being penurious. It is good to live where pure American blood makes up so high a per cent of the population.

THINK ON THE THINGS THAT ARE RIGHT IN PAMPA. Do more; go to the polls Saturday and make the highway situation RIGHT in Pampa and Gray county.

COLDEST MARCH SINCE 1899

STRIKES PANHANDLE TODAY—LOCAL ACTIVITY PARALYZED

Pampa Schools Dismissed, Court Adjourns Until Monday, Track Meet Is Postponed, Recital Canceled—Streets Filled With Drifts Which Prevent Traffic Through City Limits.

Spring's eager hosts were hurled back today as King Winter, jealous of departing prestige, threw icy shafts across the northern pampas of Texas and paralyzed all forms of business and social activity. It was the bitterest March weather since 1899, 6 degrees above zero here at dawn, with a high north wind whipping a 6-inch snow into the air, piling large drifts, and limiting vision to one hundred feet or less.

The city was nearly deserted early today, and business men walked to their places of business, well clothed, after ascertaining that cars could not crash through deep drifts on many streets. The drifts obeyed the whims of whirling wind, piling shoulder high on some streets and sidewalks and leaving other places clean swept. Scores of cars were abandoned within a few blocks of their starting points.

Events Postponed. Comparatively few pupils and teachers reached their buildings, and authorities quickly decided to suspend school for the day. Coach Otis Mitchell announced postponement for the invitation track and field meet scheduled for tomorrow. Judge W. R. Ewing adjourned court until Monday on account of the impossibility of assembling jurors and witnesses. Mrs. May F. Carr, whose pupils were to give a music recital at the city hall tonight, decided to delay this entertainment. The Rev. F. W. Malley announced canceling of revival services today at the First Christian church. Social clubs decided not to meet.

Trains were considerably behind schedule with respect of being more so. Safety first buses found going impossible, and only the Amarillo line was expected to get a car through today.

Coldest in Texas. Pampa was one of the coldest spots in Texas today, but this did not prevent the ice company from making city deliveries. The heavy draw vehicle, snow-covered, the shivering blanket horse, and the bundled team formed a freak picture against the background of the deserted streets and an atmosphere fogged by eddying snowflakes.

It was the coldest late March day since March 28, 1899, when 7 degrees above was registered, according to the Amarillo weather bureau.

By The Associated Press. A howling norther sweeping down out of the Rocky Mountains backward across Texas Friday, bringing snow, sleet, rain and severe temperatures to the Panhandle and northern portion of the state and threatening fruit crops and truck gardens in Central Texas. Panhandle temperatures were lowest of the winter.

At dawn, the temperature had slumped to 6 degrees above zero at Pampa, a city wind across the plains was driving snow into drifts waist high, blocking streets and highways and making it impossible to see more than a hundred feet. The snowfall was light but was pelleted with great force by the wind. Highway traffic was halted and trains were running late.

Cattle Men Warned. On the coast, small craft had been advised to seek the safety of harbors and all shipping was warned as the strong northerly gales continued. Cattlemen and all others not on the coast line were warned to prepare for freezing weather Friday night.

Truck growers and florists in the vicinity of Corpus Christi were warned by the government weather bureau to prepare for killing frosts before Sunday.

Traffic in Amarillo was virtually paralyzed by snowdrifts and a temperature of 7 degrees above zero was recorded early Friday, with a northerly gale driving snow which early Friday had amounted to eight inches. The weather bureau at Amarillo predicted the wind and snow would cease by noon but expected a temperature drop of four or five degrees above zero Friday night.

As the gale swept across West Texas, the temperature dropped to 21 degrees at Wichita Falls and to 19 at Abilene, after a night of intermittent snowfall and sleet showers. Heavy snowfall began at Abilene at 8:45 a. m. Friday. Frost was believed not materially damaged due to the dampness.

No Fruit Damage. Freezing weather set in early Friday at Brownwood, after a light rain during the night, but no fruit damage was expected to result.

As San Angelo, the north, wind caused the temperature to drop from 73 Thursday to 54 Friday morning. Rainfall amounting to .09 of an inch was succeeded by sunshine.

Sleet covered the ground at Vernon and before the wind's onslaught the temperature fell from 30 degrees at 7 p. m. Thursday to 14 degrees above zero Friday morning—the coldest weather of the year for that city.

In the middle portion of West Texas, Olney reported a temperature of 18, with snow and ice, which succeeded heavy rains. The temperature fell to 10 degrees at Abilene, a bitter zero north wind bringing snow flurries.

The temperature suddenly dropped below freezing at Fort Worth and Dallas, shortly after 7 a. m. and an 18-mile wind was blowing from the north. Rain at Fort Worth amounted to .38 of an inch Thursday afternoon and night. Rains in East Texas. Temperatures dropped sharply Thursday night at Gainesville and Sherman and snow began falling at Gainesville Friday morning after a light shower. Rain at Sherman amounted to 1.96 inches during the last 24 hours and early Friday was still falling. The minimum temperature there early Friday was 41.

East Texas, somewhat out of the path of the northerly blast, received heavy rains, the precipitation reaching Tyler and amounting to 1.31 inches at Corsicana, for the 24 hours ending at 7 a. m. Friday. A temperature of 50 degrees was reported at 8 a. m. Southward, rain had amounted to .65 at Waco and the temperature was 42 at 7 a. m. Clear and colder weather was forecast. Cloudy and cooler weather prevailed at Austin, where a temperature of 39, cloudiness and rain threatened. Cloudiness prevailed at Houston, and freezing weather was forecast for Friday night.

Zero at Berger. Berger reported a temperature of zero at 3 a. m. which climbed to nine degrees above at 8:30 a. m. Friday. A blinding snowstorm which began Thursday noon was interrupted by a sunburst at nightfall Thursday. Drifts of snow three feet deep impeded traffic on the main street and drifts blocked highways across the north plains.

The Presbyterian food sale which was to have been held tomorrow has been postponed until Saturday, April 4.

NUMB FINGERS COLD NOSES CAUSE TEARS

No Classes Are Held Today for School Children

Roasting peanuts, popping corn, playing dolls around the fireside—these pastimes, with all lessons forgotten, are diversions for Pampa school children today.

But the day did not have such a pleasant beginning. Many pupils, braving the snowstorm, received school feet, most of them with numb fingers and noses, red noses, and tearful faces which caused many moments of anxiety on the part of parents and teachers.

No classes were taught, and all parents who could be reached by telephone were asked to call for the children. There were no school buses running.

Principal J. A. Meek and the 212 teacher, Miss Willens May, who arrived at Baker school this morning were kept busy caring for the 67 pupils who came. "About thirty of the pupils were crying," said Mr. Meek. "We ran cold water over their hands and kept them away from the fire until they were a little warmer."

On Monday there were 336 pupils at Baker school, this being about the average attendance on clear days.

Three teachers arrived at Horace Mann school, and one other sent a substitute. There were only nine children present, and their parents were asked to call for them.

Eight pupils and about the same number of teachers were present at Sam Houston school. One little boy walked from across the railroad track, a distance of more than ten blocks. In good weather there are about four hundred pupils in attendance at Sam Houston.

Two schools, Woodrow Wilson and Merien, were snowbound and could not be reached by either pupils or teachers.

Pupils were dismissed as fast as they arrived at high school and junior high. There were 25 or 30 pupils and a large percentage of the teachers in attendance at each of these schools.

An apparent censorship of wireless dispatches to Yumaru has been effected by the National Government, supposedly to prevent circulation of details of the murder of two American missionaries there last week.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY HOLLYCE SELLERS HINKLE

What's happened, folks? Have we in our dreams gone with Byrd to the south pole, or has Santa Claus honored us with a visit to his land?

And Easter is nearly here.

Here's the problem. Whatever we can talk about on a day like this—the day after the coldest night of the year, yet so near Easter—should still be appropriate?

I have it. We'll have a chat about EASTER COATS.

"Figures, fancies, and finances," says Diana Merwin, A. P. writer, "have influenced designs for new spring coats."

"The spring mode displays coats light and dark, fitted or straight, fur-trimmed or plain. There are dark blue, black and brown pebbly weave wool coats for street wear designed with fitted waistlines and slightly flared skirts. Some have simple reverse collars, while others are designed with V-necks without any collar at all.

"For the dressy woman there are dark smooth-finished wools designed with waist-length capes bordered in狐 or fox and green, brown and blue models finished with high-standing fur collars.

"Apple-green, pastel pink and pearl gray broadcloth coats colored in blue fox and designed with fitted or semi-straight lines are presented for formal afternoon wear with matching crepe frocks.

"Coats for spring wear are worn 11 to 13 inches from the ground, one inch longer than the dress."

And here's an A. P. report from Paris: "Smart Europeans are wearing dresses like coats. The new models cross in front in double-breasted fashion, are fitted at the waist and may be worn with or without a belt. Dark colors in soft wools or heavy silks are most popular."

Haven't you noticed those very styles in Pampa?

Chamberlin Must Remain On Ground

NEW YORK, March 27. (AP)—Clarence Chamberlin, trans-Atlantic flier, may stay on the ground awhile.

He is accused of flying a licensed plane without a pilot's license and of flying lower than the law allows over New York bay.

Sanford L. Willis, chief inspector of the aeronautical division of the United States department of commerce, forwarded the charges to Washington.

Willis summoned the flier before him on receipt of reports he flew over New York bay at an altitude of 40 feet. City ordinances and federal regulations require a minimum altitude of 500 feet.

The inspector said he asked to see Chamberlin's license and was shown one that had expired.

Under federal laws the flier faces fines of $500 on each count and he may be temporarily refused a license if the charges are sustained.

A plan to try for the men's altitude record, now held by Capt. George Halderman, will be delayed until disposal of the charges.

Chamberlin is employed by the airplane division of the New York police department in an advisory capacity.

again he kissed her. "Catherine!" he whispered at last brokenly. "Oh, Catherine!" She drew away slightly. A faintly mocking quality came into the woman's smile. She knew exactly how to time her moods. This young artist would not only be a handsome escort but he was proving manageable. It would all be as easy as she had hoped. "There will be other times," she reminded him, rising. "And we will have evenings together—as in Paris. But my little party this evening—you'll come?" Crosby nodded.

"Of course I will."

Mrs. Langley moved toward the mantel and drew one of the scarlet tulips from the amber bowl. Then she turned about, toying with the blossom. She could see her reflection in the mirror across the room. She was pleased with the reflection.

The young man waited, watching. Now he arose.

"I wish I could paint you as you are, standing there!" he exclaimed. "Lord, Catherine, you're beautiful! There's no one like you!"

She waved aside his words. Always there was purpose beneath the silken exterior of Mrs. Langley's manner but that purpose was deftly concealed.

"Let me see if you mean that," she said quickly. "Will you do me a favor?"

"You know that I will."

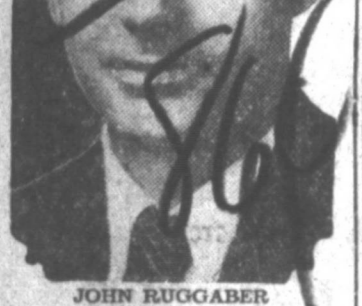

She paid him with a smile. "Very well. Then you can paint me. I will pose for you any time you say. The favor is that you are to move from that wretched downtown location."

You always remember—"EAST LYNNE."

rooming house. Remember, you've promised."

"I'll have to find a place as cheap."

"You can do that. There are a dozen neighborhoods to choose from."

"They've—they've been awfully nice to me down there."

"Whom do you mean by 'they'?"

"Why—the woman who runs the place. The others who stay there."

Mrs. Langley smiled. "That proves you need me to see you're not imposed upon," she said. "It's only that I want you to be comfortable, so you can do your best work, dear. Is that so dreadful?"

He agreed that it was not. He would move within the next few days. Anyway before the end of the week.

Crosby left the apartment with the promise to return at 7 o'clock. They were to attend a dinner party with friends of Mrs. Langley.

Gypsy McBride spent that Saturday evening in her tiny fourth-floor bedroom. She had waited downstairs until late afternoon when Alan came in. There had been a few words between them and then Gypsy made excuses. Something in a muffled voice about meeting friends. No one noticed that after the girl had climbed the stairs to her room she did not go out to dinner.

For three years now that room with the sloping ceiling and two rear windows had been Gypsy's home. She had moved to Mrs. O'Hare's as soon as she had been able to give up the flat in Brooklyn after her father died. Jerry McBride's insurance paid his burial expenses, one month's rent, a few scattered debts, and left $300 in the bank. The city editor of the newspaper on which Jerry had been a copyreader for eight years gave Gypsy the letter of introduction which had brought about her employment as a typist by the MacNamara Electrical Supply company. The business training she had received in high school was meager preparation with which to earn a livelihood, but Jerry's daughter had inherited some of her father's pluck.

That Saturday evening—alone in her dreary quarters—was one of the occasions when Gypsy had need to call upon this inheritance.

She sank down upon her favorite seat—a little old trunk pulled before the windows and covered with gay floral cretonne. The windows were closed and Gypsy raised one of them to its full height. The fresh, cool air was comforting. She took a deep breath and leaned her arms against the window sill.

In the west the sun was shining but its light was hidden by the house-tops. There was a single tree in the small square of rear yard which Gypsy could see and a line hung with laundry. In the house across the way there were lights and a woman moving about the kitchen.

Downstairs the girl knew Alan Crosby was dressing for dinner. He had spoken vaguely of spending the evening with "people he met in Europe." Nothing at all about when he was to see Gypsy. Not even excuses. Nothing at all about when they were to exchange news and gossip, as, in letters, Alan had said he was so eager to do.

Gypsy rested her head wearily against the easement. She had reached the inevitable conclusion and there was no doubt about it. Alan had changed.

That, unfortunately, was not the worst of it. The worst of the situation was that Alan had changed and she had not.

Gradually the sky darkened. More lights blinked in the opposite building and the odor of cooking food reached Gypsy's nostrils. Even then she did not think of eating. There were crackers and cheese and a jar of marmalade in the square tin box on the table cross the room, but Gypsy did not think of them. Neither did she switch on the light. Darkness was settling.

Gypsy did not know what time it was when at last she arose, slipped out of her clothing and prepared for bed. Not until her head reached the pillows did the tears come. Then she wept bitterly, choking sobs. She wept until exertion quitted her. Crosby's neglect gradually became less of a tragedy. He would explain it all when she saw him tomorrow. Alan would make it seem very silly of her to have been so miserable. Comforted, at last she slept.

Sure enough, the following morning her hopes were justified. It was 11 o'clock. Gypsy was coming to the stairs after breakfast and a young man appeared, smiling.

"Gypsy!" he called. "Wait a minute—I want to see you!"

MIAMI, Fla., March 27. (AP)—The Brooklyn Robins and their star pitcher, Dazzy Vance, still are $2,000 apart on the question of the dazler's salary. Before leaving here for New York last night, President Frank York said he had been in communication with Vance, who has retired to his home at Homosassa to await developments. York's offer remained unchanged at $23,000 for the season while Vance refused to reduce his $25,000 demand.

Hoover Party Runs Into Cold Weather Today

C. S. S. ARIZONA, March 27. (AP)—The Arizona, carrying President Hoover and his party back to Washington, ran into cold bracing weather during the night after a week spent in the tropics which left the faces of most of the party, including President Hoover's, burned to a deep red.

Hoover in a statement commented upon the progress the people of Porto Rico had made in self-government and establishment of democratic institutions. He said the island was recovering from the hurricane, drought and business depression. "The most constructive contribution of the federal government is to continue to expand the present policies of aid and cooperation with their institutions in health, education, better adaptation of agriculture and expansion of industry and markets."

The president's view of the Virgin Islands was less hopeful. He said they might have some military value sometimes but "when we paid $25,000,000 for them we acquired an effective poorhouse, comprising 90 per cent of the population. The people cannot be self supporting either in living or government without discovery of new methods and resources." Commenting that the reason for change of jurisdiction from the naval to a civil department was to see if industry would not be developed, he said: "Viewed from every point except remote naval contingencies, it was unfortunate that we ever acquired the islands. Nevertheless, having assumed the responsibility we must do our best to assist the inhabitants."

CHAD ISN'T GOOD
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 27. (AP)—Numerous pitchers have made quite respectable outfielders but Manager Bill Killefer wondered today whether Big Chad Kinsey ever would be among them. Killefer is trying to make an outfielder out of Chad but so far no one had remarked that the big boy reminds of Tris Speaker. Yesterday Chad made good one of three chances he didn't have to run for.

WHERE'S "DEAD" BALL
LOS ANGELES, March 27. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today were wondering whether the story about this year's ball being less lively should be hung up along with the one about the three bears and little curly locks, or whether their pitchers have acquired a habit of grooving them. Wednesday two Los Angeles homers in the 12th inning took a game from the Bucs. Yesterday there were two out in the ninth when a Detroit Tiger patted a four-sacker to grab the game.

An educational survey of the Missouri penitentiary shows that there are 250 illiterates, 50 who have never gone beyond the first grade and many more with but little education.

An intensive search is being made for an airplane of the National Airways, carrying six passengers and a pilot, which has been missing between Melbourne and Sydney, Australia.

The Vienna Tageblatt, whose articles about Jugo-Slavia recently were the subject of protest by the government of that country, published a formal apology for the articles.

The Duluth, Minn. hockey club recently broke scoring records by caging 13 goals in an American league game with St. Louis.

TRACK AND FIELD MEET POSTPONED THIS MORNING

WEATHER NOT FIT FOR THIN CLAD EVENTS

Date of Local Athletics Uncertain But May Be Held Week Later If Storm Abates.

Thirtieths of Panhandle schools will not cavort here Saturday in the scheduled third annual track and field meet.

Coach Odus Mitchell was sure of that after he walked through snow drifts to central high this morning and rubbed his aching ears.

Postponement of the big event leaves the probable date uncertain. If the weather clears, the meet may be held next week. Mitchell has an intra-squad spring football game scheduled for next Friday, but may postpone it and concentrate on the delayed track and field events.

FIVE SCHOOLS ADD TO RELAY ENTRY LISTS

Total of 1,024 Athletes to Participate in Texas Events—Record Breakers Among Them.

AUSTIN, March 27. (AP)—Acceptance of five Texas schools yesterday brought the entry list of athletes for the seventh annual Texas relays here today to 1,024.

Twenty-three universities, 16 colleges, nine junior colleges, and 45 high schools were on hand. Weather reports yesterday stated a typical "Texan" weather was beating down on Austin. Other reports last night stated the storm would not reach here until late afternoon or night.

Both record breakers, the relay teams from the University of Chicago and Marquette university were set to renew their rivalry, this time for the medley crown of the meet.

Marquette is the present relays record holder. Chicago turned back Marquette March 14 during the Illinois indoor relays, establishing a new record of 10 minutes 27.7 seconds for two miles. Little more than a week later the Marquette team dashed the distance in 10 minutes 26 seconds to clip 1.7 seconds off the Chicago team's time.

Peven Glass Jr. of the Oklahoma Aggies and Bob Holloway from Ruston, Houston, were on hand to battle for the sprinting honors of the Southwest. Meeting in Fort Worth recently, Glass outspurred Holloway at the finish to beat him by a foot.

Tom Warr of Northwestern came back to Texas today to shatter his own pole vault record of 13 feet 8 1/2 inches.

Among the individual performers were Harlan of Texas A. and M., and Hager of Iowa State, two of whom are polished hurdlers. Rice and Missouri ruled as favorites in the mile relay class.

The San Angelo high school relay team, relay high school record holder, had a rival relay in the Main Avenue high school team from San Antonio.

Dempsey Would Meet Wills To Avoid Damages

CHICAGO, March 27. (AP)—Jack Dempsey's retirement may become a forgotten announcement if representative of Harry Wills take him at his word.

During the testimony of Paddy Mullins, manager of the negro heavyweight, during the $500,000 breach of contract suit against Dempsey, the former champion cried out yesterday:

"Let 'em put up the money, I'll fight him right now."

The Coliseum club, of which E. B. Clements is president, is suing Dempsey for failure to meet the New York negro before Dempsey lost his title to Gene Tunney in Philadelphia back in 1926. Dempsey claims that no contract existed, since the Coliseum club failed to make an advance payment of $125,000 to bind the agreement. He also contends he was to have an additional $625,000 before the fight.

LA BARBA TO MEET FRANCIS IN NEW YORK

Westerner Hopes to Wipe Out Defeat Handed Him Overseas by Italian—Foe Is Favorite.

NEW YORK, March 27. (AP)—A feud that began in Paris nearly two years ago will be renewed tonight in Madison Square Garden when Fidel La Barba, Los Angeles featherweight contender, battles Durable Kid Francis of Italy over the 10-round route.

Then a bantamweight, La Barba took a neat licking in 15 rounds in that first clash with Francis overseas but the far westerner is confident he can reverse the verdict tonight.

Not so the betting fraternity. With them Francis has been established a seven to five favorite chiefly because of his recent excellent showing against Eddie Shea of Chicago.

Ernest McDonald, California lightweight, meets Tony Herrera of El Paso, Texas, in the 10-round semi-final.

ROSE THROWS WILDCAT PETE INTO CROWD

Wild Affair Illustrates All Manner of Wrestling—Referee Dotson Is Given One Fall.

Jack Rose threw Wildcat Pete into the crowd last night in a controversial deciding fall at the Majestic. The bout, which had been credited to Referee Dotson and several others in the nature of a brutal event.

The fire works started after each wrestler had one fall to his credit. Jack Rose tried to choke the wildcat when Referee Dotson was not looking but the referee caught him and warned him. Jack cut loose with a right that took Dotson on the chin. The referee then picked Rose up, slammed him and then dropped him into the crowd with himself tagging along.

Following a few slugs, etc., Rose took Pete to the mat and Dotson patted Rose but as Pete came out the battle was resumed. Rose suddenly took Pete for a ride and threw him into the crowd and it was all over.

In one of the prettiest slugging scenes here in some time, Wildcat Pete started off like a whirlwind. He took Rose in his corner at the bell but that worthy lumbered through the ropes. Suddenly Rose landed on top of one of the posts and Pete became tangled in the ropes to have Rose land on him.

Then following 15 minutes of everything in the wrestling and boxing game, Pete used almost everything on the elongated Rose and had him in plenty of misery. The fall ended in 15 minutes with Pete applying one of his famous surf boards.

Number two was a repetition of the first fall but a lot more rougher. Slugs developed into holds that an ordinary mauler couldn't have broken in a week, but both came up slugging. Rose would close his fist and punch Pete in the stomach while Referee Dotson would be at the backs of the fighters. As the referee would step to the front Rose would slip in a few punches to the kidneys or neck. Then a few strange holds would develop into something and so on. The fall went to Rose in 20 minutes with a double toe hold.

Pete stayed in the hold nearly two minutes and never missed a beat chewing his gum.

The final spasm was the worst of all. It was dog eat dog and Rose finally took the wildcat down with a slam and scissor but after Referee Dotson had patted Rose the battle was resumed and only ended when Pete passed out among the crowd.

The preliminary between Rob Roy and Ray Myers was another hectic battle. The boys wrestled for a while but appeared to get tired and took up socking. Everything went with Roy having all the advantage for the first few minutes. Finally Myers came out of his apartment coma and took the match with a body slam. The time was 17 minutes.

Clarence Parker fell on Clarence Lee to win the opening event. Andy Gump was the referee.

Favorites Remain In Cage Tourney

DALLAS, March 27. (AP)—Four pre-tournament favorites of the Birds' national amateur athletic union basketball met entered the semi-final round last night in hard fought games but in which winning teams finished with comfortable margins.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, Crescent college Comets, flashy second round favorites from Eureka Springs, Ark., are scheduled to play the Dallas Cyclones, current Southern A. A. U. champions. Crescent eliminated Fort Worth last night 44 to 20. Dallas Cyclones erased Ches. Texas, 54 to 41.

At 10 o'clock tonight, Dallas Sunoco, three times national A. A. U. champions, and defending their title in this tournament, are due to meet the Wichita Thurstons. In three games, Sunoco for airds have scored 221 points. Last night they beat Durant, Okla., 52 to 26.

At 11 o'clock, the well-played 52 to 25 game that was fairly even in the first two quarters, but in the last two, Thurston was the whole show. The two winners are scheduled to battle Saturday night at 8 o'clock for the 1931 national championship.

SAN ANTONIO, March 27. (AP)—The San Antonio Indians took a night drill today in a damp field preparatory to their tomorrow afternoon game with the Philadelphia Phillies in the International League. The tribe was engaged today over the 12 to 10 victory in yesterday's game with the Chicago White Sox. The club showed a punch, Lee Stobbing especially delivering in the pinches. His double won the see-saw slugfest in the eleventh innings.

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 27. (AP)—Sollie Carter, former Alabama Polytechnic pitcher, has made a favorable impression on Manager Connie Mack and will be given every opportunity to make good with the world champions.

"I have a high regard for Carter," Mack said, "and he is going to get a thorough trial, for I think it is in him."

Basant Singh, Hindu wrestler, claims to eat a bit of pure gold and then to give him added strength.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 27. (AP)—Babe Ruth is nothing if not fair with his baseball enemies as well as friends. The House of David collection of bearded diamond warriors who furnished the opposition for the last Yankee exhibition game here this season, appeared with a "recruit," Shortstop Heller, who lacked the customary whiskers. The Babe evened things up, however, by playing with a full set of false foliage attached to his chin.

GIANTS ARE MEEK

SAN ANTONIO, March 27. (AP)—One of the most pleasing aspects of the New York Giants spring training record—to John McGraw at least—has been the fact that no disciplinary measures have been necessary.

"It must be some kind of a record," said baseball's iron-man. "But during the entire training season not one player has reported late for work."

TUFFY WILL MEET TOMMY THIS EVENING

Griffiths Will Rush His Foe, Disdaining Weaker Pitches of Old Master

CHICAGO, March 27. (AP)—A match with Jack Sharkey assured the winner, Tommy Loughran, will ring in from Philadelphia, will engage the rough Gerald Ambrose Griffiths of Sioux City, Ia., in a ten-round battle at the Chicago Stadium tonight.

The match is one of the outstanding heavyweight attractions of the indoor season, but despite its importance, there has been no general rush toward the box offices. The reason for the apparent lack of interest was because Loughran ruled a firm 7 to 5 favorite to out-box Griffiths.

Loughran, most active of all heavyweights, has scored seven consecutive victories during the current indoor season with his sharpshooting left hand. He has being Levine, Dick Daniels, Max Baer, and Eddie Schaefer, among his recent victims. The sailing Philadelphia says he is in the best physical condition of his 11 years of ring activity, and figures to enter the contest tonight weighing about 183 pounds, with Griffiths scaling 187.

Griffiths, knowing that Loughran is not a killing puncher, plans to wage a rushing battle, believing he realizes the futility of attempting to outbox the Philadelphia.

Furnesa Leading Spudders Forced To Observe Rest

PINEHURST, N. C., March 27. (AP)—Joe Furnesa, handsome young New York pro, held a lead of one stroke over his nearest rivals today after the first 36 holes of the North and South open golf tournament.

Furnesa added a 70, one under par, and a 72 in the two 18-hole rounds of yesterday for 142, better than any of the rest of the field of 132 could do, with $6,550 in prize money to drive them on.

Next were Bobby Cruickshank, the steady shooting Scot, and Willy Cox, who had 36-hole scores of 143. Cox had 69 for the first round.

WICHITA FALLS, March 27. (AP)—A typical spring blizzard accompanied by a flurry of snow early this morning, assured the training Spudders of a day of rest they do not need. The squad, both the detachment that was in Mineral Wells to play St. Paul and that which remained at home, has forced indoors yesterday by rain.
