Clint Small Favors Reimbursing Counties Out of Gasoline Taxes

Senator Clint C. Small in a letter to W. J. Wade, editor of the Groom News, has expanded his recent statements concerning his stand on the statewide road bond issue. He had been criticized by Mr. Wade because of his opposition to submitting the proposed constitutional amendment to the people.

The senator's letter is reproduced below to illustrate the point that Mr. Small is in line with the purpose and intentions of the plan but imbued with the idea that counties can be reimbursed for their expenditures on state roads without voting bonds. The letter follows:

Dear sir: I am in receipt of a marked copy of the Groom News, in which you criticize my stand on the $212,000,000.00 statewide bond issue.

At the outset permit me to say that I have always stood for a program to reimburse counties for the amount of money they have spent on state highways. Highway building is a state problem, and I feel that notwithstanding the local benefit was sufficient to induce counties to bond themselves in order to get the roads, yet these counties should be refunded. I have never thought a statewide bond issue necessary for this purpose. We have ample revenue to take care of the indebtedness of the counties and at the same time carry on a reasonable road program. The income of the highway department is now more than we dreamed of several years ago; and I think this is a time when the state government the county government and the city government should operate within its revenue.

You are entirely mistaken if you think that I interpreted the vote last summer as reflecting upon what people think of the bond issue. In my district I have seven counties that will profit by refund. I have nineteen counties that will not profit but will be called upon to pay the tax that refunds the bonds of the other seven. Of course, you cannot justify this position on any ground other than that road building is a state problem. I have given the bond question a great deal of thought, and feel hat I know the sentiment of the people of the state at large. The people do not want a bond issue unless it is necessary for them to take it in order for them to get relief for counties who have overburdened themselves in order to contribute to a state highway program. The proponents of the bond issue want to force bonds upon the state in order to give this relief. I want to give relief out of the $40,000,000.00 income the state highway department now has. To take up the outstanding bonds of the counties would require an annual expenditure of about $7,000,000.00. This could come out of the current revenue without seriously impairing the highway program. My personal view is that we could better afford to pay 5c gasoline tax for a few years than to have a bond issue that would last forty years.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours, CLINT C. SMALL.

THE "I. Q." TEST FAILS

It isn't any secret that we live in a changing world. We are rather well accustomed to the collapse of old standards, and we have learned how to adapt ourselves to the disappearance of the pet theories of our grandfathers. But when one of our new cure-all formulas shows signs of cracking we are apt to feel rather badly puzzled.

For a good many years the "I. Q." test has been an article of faith in the modern credo. This test, you know, is supposed to grade a person's intellectual capacity as precisely as a fruit packer grades so many oranges. Psychologists and their converts swear by it.

It has been used on school children, soldiers, industrial workers, criminals and other people who can't defend ponents have neatly classified thousands of human beings as "brilliant," "normal," or "below par" and have slept soundly in the belief that the last word had been said.

But the "I. Q" doesn't always seem to work out right. R. G. Jones, superintendent of schools in Cleveland, points to an experience in a certain Cleveland high school recently.

An "I. Q." test was given there not long ago. One boy got a high mark of 145, which meant that he was very brilliant. Another got a low of 70, which means that he was right down on the edge of feeble-mindedness.

Then the pupils were given an examination in geometry. The exceptionally brilliant pupil and the utter dumbbell both got the same mark-75, a passing grade.

Nor is that all.

Two students whose "I. Q." ratings were less than 100 and any psychologist will tell you that means they aren't Dallas Firemen over-bright-got grades of 90 in the examination. None of the four highest "I. Q." pupils got a better grade than 80; one of them wound up with a 65. The two lowest grades given in the examination were received by pupils with intelligence ratings of 105 and 107, respectively. The average grade for the 10 dullest pupils-based on their "I. Q." ratings was 82; the average for the 10 brightest, 42, from the same fire company, based on the same ratings, was 76.

All of this seems to indicate pretty conclusively that tion early today as a result of injuries received while fighting a fire "I. Q." test doesn't even come close to being as accurity that partially desiroyed a two-story the "I. Q," test doesn't even come close to being as accurate a gauge of a person's intelligence as it is supposed to. And perhaps it is about time that we stopped paying much attention to it.

Fine Control and Ability To Judge Batters Is Secret of Success.

BY HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, April 22. (A)—Herb Pennock, the experts agreed years ago, was "all through." you can find any more like him right now there's an opening or two the New York Yankees' roster. Stricken with a severe and persistent attack of neuritis in his educated left arm, Pennock wasn't much use to the Yankees in 1929 when for the first time in his career as a Yankee he lost more games than he woh. Last year he showed enough improvement to win 11 games while losing seven.
The chances are that Joe Mc-

Carthy, new boss of the Yankees did not bank very much on the 37did not bank very much on the 31-year-old southpaw when he laid his plans for the 1931 campaign but already Pennock has staged a re-markable comeback and afforded "Marse Joe" with at least a partial solution for his pitching problems. Pennock, generally rated as the smartest of all present-day pitchers, has started twice in the seven games of the Yankees have played so far, gone the route and won both them, and allowed the opposition grand total of two runs and 15 hits in 18 innings.

Control has been the principal factor in Pennock's ability to keep going after 18 years in the majors. He knows the batters from "A" to "Z," knows what to pitch to them, and what is more, knows that the it. He has walked only one man in the 18 innings this year that was an intentional pass when the Red Sox proved threatening.

Opposing batsmen have said often that no hurler in the league throws "stuff" that looks so easy-and is so hard—to hit safely. swer, of course, is that they seldom get a really good ball when Pen nock is on the firing line. Pennock's complete major league record record for 18 years through the 1930 seasons shows he had par-ticipated in 516 games and pitched 3,109 innings. Of these games he won 210 and lost 146. He has struck out 1,070, walked only 112 and allowed 3,296 hits. Pennock has participated in four world's series and won five games

FIRST PLACE IS NEW SHOW IN BALL LOOP

Steers Lose First Game of Season; Spudders Beat Luckless Sports.

By BILL PARKER

Associated Press Sports Writer. Another day of baseball went into the Texas league calendar Tuesday, but this time it offered a different show for first place with the Dallas Steers and Fort Worth Cats deadlocked with five wins and one defeat each All baseball pennant parades are eprinkled with a few detours and the Steers found their Tuesday first of the league chase when the Cats stopped them, 10 to 6. But don't tell Jakie Atz that there is such a thing as a different story in baseball, for his Shreveport Sports dropped a double-header to Wichita Falls which made their seventh consecutive defeat. In order to down the Sports, the Spudders were pushed pretty hard. Cooney and White, Wichita Falls hurlers, had a tough time beating the Sports 9 to 8 in the first tilt. Shreveport rallied in the seventh and eighth innings for a combined total of seven runs, but could not push over the ninth tally. In the nightcap. Oscar Tuero, spitball ace of the Sports, lost a heart wrecker when the Spudders chalked up a run in the seventh to break a 3 to tie and eventually win, 4 to 3.

Making their seven hits fit in exactly where they meant runs the Beaumont Exporters made the San Antonio Indians leave their warpath, 4 to 2. Ray Fritz, Beaumont first sacker, was the big shot Tues-He clouted his second home run of the season and got a single double and drove in three runs. After losing a couple games, the Houston Buffaloes decided to try their luck under the sun instead of the stars Tuesday and the switch brought the Buffaloes a 6 to 3 verdict over Galveston Bob Durham, a rookie right-hander, went the route for Houston and kept seven Galveston hits sprinkled.

At Fort Worth, where the Steers lest their first game since the flag race started, 10 to 6, the fans saw Lee Meadows hurl superb baseball for the steers but was the victim of miserable support in the outfield where Bennett and Borrelli dropped fly balls that allowed Fort Worth runs to cross the plate. Meadows went out in the first half of the eighth to allow Langford to hit for him, but Langford lined out to Engle, leaving the score at 6-all. It was then that the Steers cracked when relief hurling from Lou Garland and Oscar Fuhr was poor.

First Eight Games Indicate Team May Be Contender This Season.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. Associated Press Sports Writer. Bill McKechnie, a successful pilot of baseball clubs for a good many years, seems to be meeting with success in his efforts to build up the Boston Braves even sooner than he expected. McKechnie took over the Boston management last year under a four-year contract, which, he said would give him just about enough time to change a losing club into one which stood a good chance of winning. The first eight games this season already have put the Braves into the light of a pennant

Boston now is second in the National league with six victories to their credit and appear to have everything that is needed to go right on winning. In the pitching line, Ed Brandt pitched and wor his second full game yesterday, allowing the New York Giants only five hits for a 5 to 1 triumph. The Braves are hitting hard and at appropriate moments, averaging nearly ten blows a game.

Rated as one of the leaders in the pre-season dope, the Brooklyn Robins took their sixth defeat in seven

In the American league, the Washington Senators and New York Yankees staged 12-run uprisings to make the day's showing rather one sided. Washington slammed the Boston Red Sox around for 16 hits and scored ten runs in the first four innings to win 12-3. Fred Marberry made his first start of the season and gave the Sox only seven hits. It took the Yanks only two innings to get the runs off a trio of Philadelphia hurlers and they downed the world's champions 12-1.

Cleveland had a real battle on its hands before it could join the three-way tie for the American league lead by beating out the Detroit Tigers 5 to 4.

Changing the American Hockey league rules relative to overtime play and tie games was a distinct success. Only eight league games were left deadlocked this season, compared to 48 stalemates the year before. The new rule eliminated the giv-ing of one point credit for a tie games yesterday. Jim Elliott, and stipulated 20 / instead of 10-former Brooklyn pitcher, hurled the minute overtimes. St. Louis played Phillies to a 7 to 3 victory over his its 47 games without a single tie

Under the hoofs of grazing cattle the destiny of the Southwest

Copyrighted, Erwin E. Smith

HE pioneer cattleman who crowded the heels of savagery was of the breed which met emergency with resourcefulness, his word and honor needing no sureties. In the face of adversity he wrapped himself in his abound ing fortitude and calmly awaited the opportunity to again forge ahead. Like the mesquite tree, he was the first to occupy the vacant space and, like the mesquite in a drouth, which dies back from the top but whose roots are deep in the soil, auspicious showers found him ready to again thrust out green boughs and luxuriant foliage.

But a new wealth was destined to turn the resourcefulness and energy of the pioneer cattleman and farmer into more lucrative channels. In 1894 traces of crude petroleum showed in a well that was intended to bring water to the City of Corsicana, Texas. Exercising an inherent pioneer progressiveness, a group of far-sighted citizens began drilling for oil. Their vision and foresight were rewarded when, in 1896, a producing well was brought in, marking the beginning of the first important oil field in the Southwest.

Within a few brief months a movement was started to build a refinery. On Christmas Day, 1898, the first still in the Southwest was charged at Corsicana by the J. S. Cullinan Company, which, through a series of developments, became the Magnolia Petroleum Company in 1911.

Before the accidental discovery of oil at Corsicana in 1894, the vision of a Jules Verne could hardly have conjured a picture of the Southwest thirty-seven years hence. Oil, like black magic, plus the same kind of resourcefulness and fortitude possessed by the early Southwestern pioneer, has brought untold wealth and prosperity to a land that would otherwise have been cattle pastures or cotton fields.

As oil transformed the cattle range into cities and oil fields of beehive activity, the founders of the Magnolia Petroleum Company kept pace with each new need for petroleum products. As the kerosene lamp replaced the ancient and troublesome tallow candle, bringing new convenience and pleasure to the ranchman and farmer, so was a new era of smokeless, cinderless luxury introduced to the traveler when, in the early part of 1901, the first oil-burning locomotive left Corsicana over the Houston & Texas Central, burning Magnolia fuel oil.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company, as the original refining company of the Southwest, like its pioneer predecessors, has grown with its responsibilities and opportunities until today we see the pioneer, who a generation back read his letters from home by the light of Magnolia kerosene, hurtling across his range in an eightcylinder motor car, still served by Magnolia . . . his needs supplied better than ever before by Socony Motor Oil and Magnolia Ethyl or Maximum-Mileage Gasoline.

This is the last of a series of ing the pioneer history of the Southwest, in commemoration of Founders' Month of the Magnolia Petroleum Com-pany, pioneer Southwestern refiners.
