HOOVER WIRES

Young Daughter Does Not Know of Father's Death; Mother Will Tell Her When She Arrives.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 10. (AP) Grief-stricken and sorrowing the city which knew Nicholas Longworth as a child and delighted in his accomplishments today prepared to receive its beloved "Nick" in death.

The whole city was in mourning, except for a little girl at the famous Bookwood home of the Longworths.

Business houses decided to close during the removal of the body of the house speaker who died here yesterday.

To convey the body to Ohio over the mountains of North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky the government arranged for a special train to leave at 10 a. m.

Among hundreds of messages received by Mr. Longworth was the following: "My Dear Mrs. Longworth: I am profoundly grieved to learn of the passing of your husband and wish you to know how deeply Mrs. Hoover and I sympathize with you in your bereavement."

A motion for a new trial in Rolfe Glass' suit against the Panhandle & Santa Fe Railway company was filed in 31st district court this morning by defendant's attorneys.

The railway company alleged that the court erred in receiving the verdict and entering judgment, and that both are wholly arbitrary and are unsupported by the law and evidence in the case.

A habeas corpus hearing for John Bellflower, charged with murder in connection with the shooting of S. E. Walker at Shamrock recently, is due to be held at Miami this afternoon before Judge W. R. Ewing.

Judge Ewing is slowly recovering from an attack of influenza. Physicians permitted him to preside at the hearing at Miami but restrained him from attending court in Pampa. The judge believes he will be able to preside over 31st district court here Monday.

MURRAY TOLD TO "LAY OFF" Citizens Respond to Appeal For Food To Aid School Children of Poor.

Oklahoma Senate Clears University of Oklahoma of Murray's Charges.

Indirectly recommending that the governor keep "hands off," the state committee investigating the charges of "flagrant cases of immorality and misuse of thousands of dollars of state funds" at the university are unfounded.

In a unanimous report, adopted by the senate late yesterday, the committee praised university officials, cleared those under fire, and recommended that supervision of university affairs be "left to the board of regents and the president of the university, free from interference."

Since taking office, Murray has frowned on the university's educational system in which, he asserted, athletics were over emphasized. His charges followed a secret inquiry by his private investigator, Alva McDonald.

Affairs of the school, the report said, were "in the hands of officials, competent and sincerely and honestly devoted to the true purpose of higher education."

Regarding the allegations of immorality, the committee said "only one isolated charge of alleged immorality on the part of one faculty member was brought before the committee by McDonald."

Announcement has been made of the establishment of a $1,000,000 endowment for the promotion of good-will between the United States and Germany, from a gift made by Gustav Oberlander, retired Reading, Pa., manufacturer.

PIONEER MAN DIES

DEATH COMES TO FIGHTER OF INDIANS

Joseph Wilson Harrah Dies At Home Of Son In White Deer, Texas, Early This Morning.

Another of the few pioneers still living, who fought Indians and hunted buffalo for the Panhandle during the seventies of the last century, passed away this morning.

He was Joseph Wilson Harrah, aged 79, who came to the Panhandle in 1875 from Dodge City, Kans., and settled on the Canadian river, six miles above the present town of Canadian.

Death came to the frontiersman at 2 o'clock this morning at the home of his son, Orren Harrah, in White Deer. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Christian church in Miami, under the direction of Stephenson mortuary, with the Rev. James Todd Jr. in charge.

Burial will follow in Miami cemetery. Mr. Harrah formerly lived at Miami.

Mr. Harrah is survived by six children and one brother, W. W. Harrah of Pampa. He was preceded in death by three children and his wife. Surviving children are Mrs. T. J. McEntire, Orren Harrah, and Herbert Harrah of White Deer; Mrs. Bertha Weckesser and Mrs. J. M. Hill of Miami and Mrs. E. A. Hoffman of Lincoln, Ark. Mr. Harrah joined the Christian church in 1900 and has been a faithful member since that time.

Born in Ohio Mr. Harrah was born in Warsaw, Ohio, May 19, 1851. He and Miss Harriette Fitch were married in 1871 at her home in Mulberry Creek in the White Mountains of Arkansas.

His son, O. W. Harrah of White Deer was the first white child born in Gray county. He was born at the family home on Cantonment creek within a few miles of Fort Elliott. Mrs. Harrah preceded her husband in death, Nov. 11, 1920, at Miami.

In the early part of his life and shortly after his marriage, Mr. Harrah visited the states of Illinois, Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, and Colorado. His wife accompanied him on most of these trips. After living on the Canadian river near Canadian for two years, the family in 1877 moved to Gageby creek, nine miles northeast of Fort Elliott, between 1880-81, the Harrahs settled on Cantonment Creek at a former soldiers' camp, where it was at first planned to locate the fort.

Mr. Harrah ran about 1,000 head of cattle and 100 mares on his ranch there. In 1901, the family sold the ranch and came to Miami.

Was Inspector Mr. Harrah was state cattle inspector of 15 counties in 1879, and in 1881 was employed by the government to kill bees for soldiers stationed at Fort Elliott. He has been in business, farmed, served as ranch foreman, herded cattle.

During the year of 1876 Mr. Harrah killed many a buffalo. Recently he remembered that in one day he killed 36 head after following the herd a distance of 20 miles from Adobe Walls to the rifle pits on the Palo Duro canyon. He once transported by wagon 30,000 pounds of dried buffalo beef to Dodge City and received $3 per hundred pounds.

Mr. Harrah recently described an Indian raid on his home as the most interesting experience of his life. The Indians had run away from Pawnee reservation in northeastern Oklahoma and made a marauding trip into the Panhandle.

He said the bandit knocked on the front door, and that when he opened it to see what the man wanted, he drew a pistol and ordered him to "stick 'em up!" The bandit then forced him to turn all the money in the safe, about $200, over to him.

Local officers are searching for a man by the name of King who has a club-foot, and four other heavy-set, dark-complexioned men, all of whom wore side-burns, in connection with the robbery. The men were seen driving in an old model Chevrolet.

Officers are also investigating the hold-up and robbery of H. W. Crane and A. W. Adolph Wednesday night near the postoffice. About $400 were taken from them, it was reported.

Last night after the So's store robbery, display windows in three stores were smashed by burglars who took an undetermined amount of merchandise. Officers were of the opinion that a band of middle-west gangsters had descended upon the city.

NATURAL GAS TAX MEASURE IS LAID ASIDE

Amendment To Small Bill Up for Consideration by Senate; Would Tax Cigars, Cigarettes.

FOR SCHOOL AID Proposes $1.50 to $3.60 Revenue Per Thousand; Point of Order Raised by Senator Hopkins.

AUSTIN, April 10. (P)—The senate turned abruptly this morning from discussions of a two per cent gross production tax on natural gas to consideration of an amendment which would place an intra-state tax of from $1.50 to $3.60 per thousand on cigars and cigarettes.

The tobacco tax proposal was offered as an amendment to the Small gas tax bill which was substituted for the Sanders house bill. The Small gas tax bill proposes a levy of two per cent on the gross production of natural gas. The Sanders bill proposed two and three-quarters per cent.

Many Signs The Berkeley amendment was signed by Senators—Thomson of Nacogdoches, Beck of DeKalb, Woodward of Coleman, Greer of Athens, Woodruff of Decatur, Hardin of Stephenville, Moore of Greenville, Miss Neal of Carthage, Patton of Crockett, Gainer of Bryan, Cunningham of Abilene, Parr of Bexar, and Parrish of Lubbock.

It provided that one-half of the tobacco tax funds should go to the state available school funds and the other half into the state's general revenue.

Placed on Sale The tax would be levied but once and that upon the person making the initial sale. Dealers in tobacco would be accountable only in cases where they made sales of tobacco not bearing the required stamp.

Senator Hopkins of Gonzalez raised the point of order that the bill proposed a levy on natural gas and that the amendment sought to add taxes on other commodities. He argued that revenue raising bills should originate in the house.

Charges were made that such proposed taxation had been carried before the house twice this session and defeated. The chairman said he had no record of the matter.

Women to Present Report on Dry Law

WASHINGTON, April 10. (P)—Approximately a score of prominent women prohibition advocates gathered here today, prepared to draft and deliver immediately to President Hoover a composite report on prohibition from the feminine viewpoint.

Meeting at the National Commission of Women for Law Enforcement, the group had planned to present their plea for more strict enforcement to the chief executive tomorrow.

Because of the sudden death of Speaker Longworth, however, the president arranged to meet the women's delegation this afternoon, prior to his departure tonight for Cincinnati to attend the Longworth funeral.

Mrs. Henry W. Peshoby, chairman of the women's national committee for law enforcement, and likewise leader of the commission of 22, said today the preparation of the composite report would be rushed at top speed during the morning in order to have it ready for presentation to the president.

Additional copies of the document, described as "presenting the Wickersham report," will be sent to Secretary Mellon, Attorney General Mitchell and Chairman Wickersham of the law enforcement commission.

The report will be based on 22 dry law studies already drawn up by as many women "commissioners," many of them nationally prominent.

Continental Oil President Says Pampa Country Is Best On Earth

Healed by D. J. Moran, president of the Continental Oil company, 18 high officials of the company inspected holdings in Pampa and in Gray county oil fields this morning. Officials with Mr. Moran included heads of all company departments.

The Continental officials came to Amarillo last night in special Pullman cars. They made the trip to Pampa and the oil fields by bus. The tour will carry them to all parts of Texas, New Mexico. From Pampa they went to Wichita Falls. They will visit the East Texas oil fields next week.

Mr. Moran became president of the company when the Continental and Marland companies merged over a year ago. He said that the Panhandle and especially the Pampa territory looks more prosperous than any he has traversed recently. Like other industrial leaders who have visited Pampa recently, Mr. Moran said, "the people of the Panhandle don't know what depression means. A country that can stay as prosperous in trying times as the Panhandle now is must undoubtedly be the best country on earth."

M'LEAN VOTE IS CONTESTED

Defeated Candidate Files Protest Against Count; Lost By Two Votes.

Alleging that three illegal votes were cast for Jett Montgomery, who was elected mayor of McLean last Tuesday by two votes, D. N. Massey filed a petition in 114th district court today contesting the election.

Mr. Massey states that Montgomery received 137 votes, that he received 135 and that T. A. Landers, a third candidate, polled 18 votes in the election, according to the tabulations made by the election officials.

The plaintiff alleges that Eddie Winburne had not been a resident of the state long enough to vote, and that Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hedrick had not been residents of the city six months and were not entitled to vote. He claims that all three cast votes for Mr. Montgomery. The petition states that election officials were Jehanck Beck, Donald Beal, M. D. Bentley, J. E. Kirksy, J. E. Lynch. In a hearing, Mr. Massey stated he would show that at least three illegal votes were cast for Mr. Montgomery.

The petition asks the court to cast out the three ballots and declare Mr. Massey the contestant, elected or declare the election null and void and order that another be called.

Mr. Massey further alleges that the polls should have opened at 8 o'clock and closed at 6 o'clock. He stated the polling place opened at 9 o'clock and remained open until 7 p. m. The plaintiff states that two ballots were destroyed by the election officials who said they were mutilated. Mr. Massey contended in the petition that the officials had no authority to destroy the ballots, and that it was illegal for them to judge the ballots. He stated that the election judge might have been cast for him. He maintained that the election judge had no authority to pass on the legality of a ballot.

Another Suspect Held for Theft

HOUSTON, April 10. (P)—Police today arrested a man as a suspect in a burglary at Austin Sunday in which the home of Postmaster Lynn Hunter was entered and $4,500 worth of jewelry was stolen.

The arrest came after two other men had been taken in custody and had explained how they had come in possession of gems taken from the Hunter home. They were released when detectives said they were convinced that they did not know the origin of the jewelry.

The man arrested was expected to be turned over to Austin authorities for questioning during the day.

South Texans To Have Banquets

CORPUS CHRISTI, April 10. (P)—Ray Leeman, general manager of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, said today the group had designated June 21 as "South Texas Night" and planned to hold simultaneously in every city and town in the territory of the South Texas chamber a banquet and meeting devoted to discussion of South Texas, its history, potentialities and future.

At each of the banquets, Leeman said, only South Texas products would be used. Gov. Ross Sterling will be asked to make a brief radio address on South Texas which will be transmitted to the guests at each banquet. Men prominent in South Texas will be asked to speak.

Deny Application On Rail Rates

WASHINGTON, April 10. (P)—The interstate commerce commission today denied an application of Western truck line railroads and a group of states and cities for reopening and modification of the revision of class freight rates in western trunk line territory.

On May 6, 1930, the commission revised western rates upward but did not make them high enough to meet the wishes of the railroad companies. Shippers in the territory however, thought they were too high.

The rates originally were to have gone into effect February 1, 1931 but later the commission postponed the effective date until June 15.

Meanwhile the railroads west of Chicago and east of Denver applied for reconsideration and higher rates.

Today's order closed the proceeding and it is expected that the rates will become effective on June 15.

Farm Board Faces Big Wheat Surplus

WASHINGTON, April 10. (P)—The farm board faces a new battle today in its drive to reduce the surplus of domestic wheat.

Piled high in front of it was an estimated production of 644,000,000 bushels of winter wheat, 40,000,000 more than last year.

This bumper crop was seen as a nullifier of the board's success in obtaining a 3 per cent reduction in total acreage planted, both winter and spring.

Should normal weather prevail and a normal yield be harvested, the total 1931 production would be 6,000,000 as compared with 851,000,000 last year.

Such an indicated production possibility would create another emergency in view of expected large world carryovers and only a slight reduction in world acreage exclusive of Russia which has said it would increase its plantings.

Sheriff Takes Back Wichita Falls Man

Sheriff Perry Browning and District Attorney Sam Spence, both of Wichita Falls, were courteous visitors today. Sheriff Browning took "Chief" Eaves back to the Wichita county jail. Eaves was arrested in a local hotel a week ago by Deputy Warren Belcher. A reward of $300 for the capture of Eaves has been claimed by the Gray county deputy.

Eaves was assessed a $5,000 appeal bond, after he was convicted on a charge of robbery with firearms. The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the decision of the trial court recently.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

It is astonishing how slow many people are in getting acquainted. Not merely do strangers find it hard to make friends, but old-time residents will not speak to each other. People may meet each other on the street for years and never give any sign of recognition. They know each other perfectly, and would like to get acquainted, but they have not been introduced.

These unbending people may be charming in their own circles and full of kind thoughts toward others. Their attitude does not necessarily mean that they are proud. It frequently comes from an exaggerated feeling of propriety or bashfulness, an idea that they will be considered forthputting if they disregard strict etiquette.

A town where this spirit exists has a cold pass of distance stifling its people. They cannot form friendships they need for their own welfare and the development of the community. People get false ideas of each other and look on each other as haughty. They draw back in their own little shells, and no neighborly spirit is developed.

It is a good rule here in Altus when two men or two women have met each other enough so they know each other by sight to get acquainted. As isolated strangers they are an obstacle to the unity of the city. When they get to know each other, and discuss their common interests, they become good neighbors and a force for community progress.—Altus Times-Democrat.

EXAMPLE

Every man has some power over others that is exercised without conscious effort on his part. It is a responsibility he cannot dodge. If he is a strong man, others will strive to emulate his strength. If he is a weak man, others, in passing, will shudder at the thought of being like him. Both serve the noble cause of uplift.

In almost every group, organization, or community, there is one man who walks his chosen way without thought for the preferences, opinions and will of others. He is a strong man; original, dominant, cocksure. If he has looked the world over and decided against it; if it is his custom to attribute the worst possible motives to all men; if he is, in short, a cynic, those who come within his influence are almost certain to find themselves sneering at mankind and calling the world a failure.

But if this strong man is a conservative with a well-lined nest and a conviction that all who advocate change or a disturbing of dividends are dangerous cranks who should be jailed or deported, those who associate with him soon learn to use his pet phrases in denunciation of dreamers and feel a certain awe of money in large piles.

Therefore, since it is a certainty that the average man, who lacks a dominating personality, will be remade after the image of the strong man within whose orbit he moves, why shouldn't he exercise what little discretion he has in the matter and attach himself to men who now are what he would like to be?—Memphis Democrat.

Elinor Smith Has Claim on Record Altitude Flight

NEW YORK, April 10. (AP)—A sealed instrument was sent to Washington today to determine if Miss Elinor Smith, 19, has the altitude record for women fliers.

Flight a month ago, Miss Smith held the altitude record for women as well as the record for endurance flying. Her mark surpassed, she waited two weeks and then took off from Roosevelt field to recapture her lost honors. At 25,000 feet she lost control of the plane, fell a long distance through the air, made a dangerous landing and escaped unhurt even though her ship turned over when it touched earth. It was the same plane in which she soared above the city yesterday, and she told about the experience in a radio talk last night.

"I climbed the ship slowly," she said. "It took me an hour to get to 20,000 feet. I was monkeying with the mixture control to be sure that it was right this time. In doing that I let the motor get a little too cold, which was my fault. When I got to 25,500 feet one altimeter stopped, the other one just kept, seemingly, in a steady climb. I was climbing the ship at about 80 miles an hour on the air speed, probably doing only about 70. When the one altimeter that was going showed 32,500 my gas was running low. I was up an hour and a half at that time.

"There wasn't much possibility of getting much higher and it was getting dark. I decided that I had better start down."

The plane glided down to the field and into the arms of her parents.

Annual "Ward Week" Will Be National Event

A National Industrial Event To Speed Up Business

Retail merchandising in this community will hit one of its high spots April 11, when the annual "Ward Week" will be launched. As in former years, this social period of merchandising of commodities for the home and the farm is expected to attract thousands of visitors to this city.

"Ward Week" has come to mean more than mere merchandising of goods," said E. M. Conley, manager of Montgomery Ward & Co.'s local retail store; "it has come to mean a time for gathering of people who not only are seeking price inducements, but who want to enhance what rightfully might be termed their 'liberal education' in industrial progress as reflected in the conduct of business on a huge scale, with everything that is modern and with concessions consistent with sane and sound business procedure. As has been proved in the past, 'Ward Week' benefits the entire community, just as the management of Montgomery Ward & Co. intends it shall. Ward's is a definite part of this community, having direct interest in the common welfare and in the development of the community in every way. More than 550 Ward retail stores scattered throughout the nation are joining with the local store in launching the big merchandising week. Thus 'Ward Week' is a national industrial event."

Preparation for the 1931 "Ward Week" has been going on for months, until the management now feels this year's record will surpass even that of last year, when sales and attendance records were shattered all over the country. The management of Montgomery Ward & Co. believes that special inducements such as have been authorized for the coming "Ward Week" not only will be of direct benefit to buyers, but will serve to create that buying activity necessary to the restoration of normal business conditions. Producers of thousands of articles of merchandise have been operating for a long time to provide additional merchandise to meet the contemplated "Ward Week" demands throughout the nation. Naturally, sales forces will be augmented to meet the business demands—Adv.

BRAVES BACK HOME
BOSTON, April 10. (AP)—The Braves pulled into town today to prepare for their Saturday and Sunday games with the Red Sox. The Phillies have asked for waivers on Dudley and the Tribesmen refused to waive. Dudley may come to Boston.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10. (AP)—Now that Al Simmons, leading batsman of the American league, has signed his contract and Pitcher George Barnshaw has reported to the club apparently in good physical condition, the champion Philadelphia Athletics, were ready with a full roster today for the opening of the 1931 campaign next week.

Young Girl Champ Tries for Record

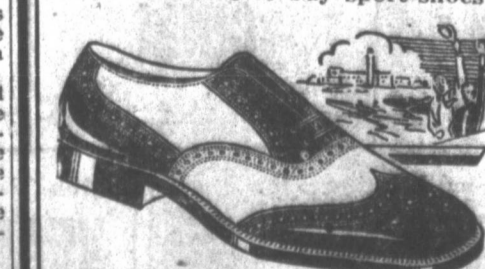

CLEVELAND, April 10. (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Helen Madisen, who holds 15 American women's swimming records, won't be satisfied until she has some more. Tonight she'll try for No. 16 in the Cleveland Athletic club pool when she seeks to better the time of 7:59 made by Martha Nereus in the 600-yard free style.

Wichita Falls Is Out of Running

WICHITA FALLS, April 10. (AP)—Wichita Falls' chances of retaining the state bowling championship won last year at Beaumont went aglimmering last night when the high team of six class A entries turned in the comparatively low score of 2,744 pins. Ten out-of-town teams are to roll against this score over the week-end and it is believed a near certainty that the present high score will not linger long at the top. The lead is now enjoyed by Kruger Jewelry company of Wichita Falls.

Twelve pairs of class A doubles and 24 sets of class A singles are on tonight's program.

U. S. Hopes Young Will Regain Cup

NEW YORK, April 10. (AP)—The United States Lawn Tennis association has turned to the rising generation in its campaign to regain the Davis Cup, held since 1927 by France's musketeers of the racquet. Twenty-year-old Francis X. Shields of New York and 19-year-old Sidney B. Wood of the University of Arizona, definitely have been selected to represent this country in the first round cup tie with Mexico and also for the second round series with Canada, granting that Mexico is defeated.

Against Mexico, the two youngsters will have the aid of the youthful "veteran," Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, a member of the several recent American Davis Cup teams. Their companions in the battle with Canada will be selected later.

The Mexican series will be played at Mexico City May 1, 3, and 5, with two singles matches the first day, he doubles on the 3rd and the final two singles matches May 1. If victorious, the Americans then will move to Montreal to meet Canada, May 21, 22, and 23.

Neither Shields nor Wood has played Davis Cup tennis but both played brilliantly in American tournaments last summer. A "truth serum," said to be so potent that under its influence the slibber liar will "tell all" is being experimented with by scientists at the crime detection laboratory of Northwestern university.

Seeded Players In Semi-Finals

HOUSTON, April 10. (AP)—Seeded players in order, with the exception of Junior Coen of Kansas City, were ready to meet today in the semi-finals of the River Oaks Country club's annual invitation tennis tournament.

George Lott, the 1930 Davis Cup player seeded No. 2 defeated Fred Royer of Dallas, 4-6, 6-1, 6-0, yesterday and will meet Bruce Barnes, seeded No. 5, who eliminated Coen, seeded fourth, 7-5, 7-9, 8-3.

The other half of the bracket will find Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, seeded No. 1, playing Ellsworth Vines, seeded No. 3. Sutter yesterday disposed of Jake Hess of Rice Institute 6-3, 6-1, and Vines won from Jimmy Juick of Dallas 6-3, 6-3.

BEST SOONER TRACK STARS GO TO MEET

Jayhawk Track Carnival is Scheduled April 18; Dawson Is Unlucky In Running Hurdle Events.

NORMAN, April 10. (Special)—With a record of having scored 63 1-2 points and won or tied for ten championships in the last half dozen Kansas relay carnivals it has attended, the University of Oklahoma will send its best performers to Lawrence April 18 for the ninth annual running of the Jayhawk carnival.

An eleventh first place was nullified by disqualification in 1927 when Ray Dunson, Sooner high hurdler, defeated a fast field of competitors including the famous McGinnis of Wisconsin and Allison of Iowa. However, the little Creek Indian flattened too many hurdles and lost both the title and trophy. Arthur Cox of Grandfield, Oklahoma's greatest javelin thrower, is the first Sooner to gather a championship at the Kansas carnival. In 1925 he broke the meet record in the javelin with a mark of 197 feet 6 1-4 inches. The following April he was second to John Knuck while 190-pound Frank Fotts, Bennie Owen's powerful halfback, cleared 12 feet 11 7-8 inches to earn a triple tie for first in the pole vault with Wirsig, Nebraska, and Carter, Kansas City. Dunson unlucky in 1927.

Dunson's misfortune occurred in 1927. That year the Sooner four-mile relay quartet of Russell Carson, Harold Keith, Jack Sides, and Les Niblack finished third to Illinois and the Oregon Aggies while Billy Mullins grabbed off a fourth in the broad jump. The 1928 meet saw the finest Sooner showing of Kansas relay history. In raw wintry weather Coach John Jacobs' great team won five championships, furnished the meet's only record-breakers, and with a total of 28 1-2 points decisively outpointed the entire field of "Big Ten," Pacific Coast, Rocky Mountain, Central and Missouri Valley conference teams. That 28 1-2 points may be a record for a single team.

Tom Churchill won the deatlon, Alfred "Hippo" Howell flung the discus 141 feet 9 inches for a new record. Parker Shelby took the high jump; Bruce Drake and Johnnie Bryce tied Dregemuller, Northwestern, and Brewer, Colorado Aggies, for first in the pole vault at 12 feet 8 1-8 inches and Jack Carman was second in the high hurdles.

It was that season that Coach

NEW LONGHORN CAPTAIN AUSTIN, April 10. (AP)—Maurice "Dutch" Baumgarten, guard, was selected captain of the 1931 University of Texas football team last night. He will succeed Gover C. "Ox" Emswiler, declared ineligible by officials of the Southwest conference. Baumgarten will be a senior next year and is regarded as one of the sturdiest linemen turned out at the Longhorn school. Baumgarten is from Schuylburg.

Jacobs' all-victorious Sooner medley relay quartet of John Hewitt, Heston Heald, Russell Carson, and Harold Keith ran off from the field, distancing its nearest competitor by 150 yards to establish a new record. Never before or since has a Sooner relay team of any kind won a Kansas relay title.

In 1929 Oklahoma scored 14 1-2 points at the Lawrence carnival. Tom Churchill set his university record of 7422.2846 to retain his deatlon championship against "Buster" Charles, sensational Haskell Indian. Parker Shelby tied for first in the high jump and Howell took second in the shot and discus to Beatle Colorado Aggie.

Last season witnessed a Sooner performance that was not up to par. Captain Shelby was relegated to second place in the high jump when Shaw, of Wisconsin, got off a beautiful leap of 6 feet 6 3-16 inches. The Oklahoma medley quartet was second to Marquette's great quartet, Frank Abbott, Bruce Davidson, Warren Moore, and Glen Dawson forming its personnel.

Eight Kansas relay carnivals have gone down into history since the meet was founded in 1923. In each of them a Sooner team has competed.

Champion Is Out of Final Play In Golf Tournament

PINEHURST, N. C., April 10. (AP) The 31st annual North and South amateur golf tournament today moved into the semi-final round with Eugene Homans, the 1930 champion, a looker-on.

The Englewood, N. J., star fell yesterday before the consistent shooting of T. Sufferin Tallier, Newport, R. I., linksman. Tallier had the defending champion one down at the turn and on the 14th hole laid him a stylike to win the match, five and four.

George T. Dunlap Jr. of New York, the medalist, whose machine-like striking has made him a sensation in the tournament, continued his march by defeating Howard Tryon, Elmira, N. Y., 7 and 5. Dunlap, intercollegiate champion, today faced J. B. Ryerson, Coopers-town, N. Y., shotmaker, who advanced yesterday with a three and one victory over Richard S. Tutis of Pinehurst.

Tallier's opponent was S. M. Parks Jr., Pittsburgh, two and one victor over Forbes K. Wilson, York Harbor, Me., in the quarter-finals.

Bell And Jurgens Duel For Berth

KANSAS CITY, April 10. (AP)—Lester Bell's batting power is still battling against Bill Jurgens' speed and throwing arm for a regular job in the Chicago Cub infield.

Bell ranks as the most persistent hit-getter on the club, but his weak right arm and comparative lack of speed afoot have worked against him. There is plenty of question in the mind of Manager Rogers Hornsby as to which will be a regular.

GETS ANOTHER CHANCE MACON, Ga., April 10. (AP)—After watching Earl Mattingly whip the Brooklyn Robins twice, Wilber Robinson has decided the rookie right hander deserves another chance to stick in the big league.

Robinson, who released Mattingly to the Hartford farm some time ago, has completed an arrangement by which the rookie comes back to the Robins. Hartford gets Pitcher Buck Green in Mattingly's place.

HORNED FROG NINE TACKLE RICE, AGGIES

Christian Sluggers Will Play Today And Saturday In Northwest Loop.

FORT WORTH, April 10. (Special)—Following their one-run defeat at the hands of the Southern Methodist Mustangs in the initial game of the season, Coach Dutch Meyer and his Horned Frog baseball squad entrained last night for the south Texas trip where they will meet the strong Texas Aggies and Rice Owls today and Saturday.

Because of the upsetting victory of the Aggies over the strong Baylor nine, the cadets are heavy favorites to top the College Station tilt. Although the Owls have a veteran club, there is little hope by which to judge the Frog-Owl game, since Rice dropped the opening game to Baylor.

To date the work of John Hirsline, first baseman, at the plate has been the outstanding feature of the Meyermen's play. In all the pre-season games, the Frog first baseman has led the team's hitting, and in the S. M. U. game he connected with the Mustang moundman for two singles in three attempts.

Jay Williams, veteran catcher who has been out of the line-up for the past three weeks with an injured hip, will be in shape for the Aggie game. It is probable that he will replace Dennis of the backstop position. Coach Meyer has made his definite announcement as to his starting line-up, but it will probably be: Hirstine, first base; Currell, second base; Snow, shortstop; Baxter, third base, and Carl Wright, Hinton and Gillum in the outfield.

ST. LOUIS, April 10. (AP)—St. Louis' major league baseball teams, the Cardinals and the Browns, came home today from their annual training trips and tomorrow they will open their annual two-games series at Sportsman's park.

Lynchings in the nation during 1930 totaled 21—more than double the number in 1929.

PILLS ARE OFTEN DANGEROUS Most laxatives have to be taken in ever-increasing doses. Otherwise, they lose their power. The body needs roughage.

One of the most natural ways to obtain this roughage is by eating a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Read what Mr. Albert F. Parker of Massachusetts has to say: "I am 52 years old and have put in years suffering from constipation. Bought all kinds of pills and drugged myself with them and awoke lots of mornings with a headache. Haven't taken one pill since I began on Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I am now feeling the best I have felt in 20 years."

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are guaranteed to give relief. At your grocer's, in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Nuisance Tax on Tobacco Opposed By Retail Official

DALLAS, April 10. (Special)—In discussing the proposed nuisance tax on tobacco, cigarette, tobacco products, and certain other articles now being considered by the legislature of Texas, Roger G. Flournoy, secretary of Texas Retail Grocers association, said "The people of our state are already overtaxed. The merchants, including the retail grocers and druggists, are overburdened with taxation. Many of them owe large sums of money and their profits have been reduced to such a low margin that the proposed tax will not only absorb their present profits but will jeopardize and cripple very seriously the very life of the business institutions represented."

Tax money of the nuisance variety must be paid by the dealer or consumer. In either event it will have the same effect on business conditions in every state where the nuisance tax has been tried out. It has resulted in the illegitimate competition of out of state dealers in the proposed tax. In other words it creates what is commonly known as the bootlegger salesman of the merchandise upon which said state has levied.

A nuisance tax is unfair competition with the legitimate wholesaler and retailer. The wholesaler, the jobber, the retailer and the consumer already pay their share of taxes to the governmental institutions. The only legitimate taxation is equal taxation and certainly no one will agree that the nuisance

Most Healthy Cities Named by National Body

WASHINGTON, April 10. (AP)—America's six leading cities in health conservation were rated today by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Detroit was adjudged holder of the best record for cities of more than 500,000 population.

The cities were entries in a contest for 1930, conducted by the chamber in cooperation with the American Public Health association. The winners, in addition to Detroit:

Newark, New Jersey, cities from 250,000 to 500,000; New Haven, Connecticut, 100,000 to 250,000; Racine, Wisconsin, 50,000 to 100,000; Alhambra, California, 20,000 to 50,000; Chesterton, Maryland, cities under 20,000.

Thirty "honor" cities named were: Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Reading and Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; San Francisco, Pasadena, and Palo Alto, California; Baltimore, Maryland; Buffalo, Syracuse, Yonkers, Utica, White Plains, Watertown, and Rochester, New York; Hartford, Connecticut; Salem, Oregon; West Orange, East Orange, and South Orange, New Jersey; Fargo, North Dakota; Cincinnati and Sidney, Ohio; Kansas City, Missouri; Denver, Colorado; Memphis, Tennessee; Evansville and La Salle, Illinois; Durham, North Carolina, and Albany, Georgia.

H. H. Kung, minister of commerce and industry, told the Associated Press in Shanghai that the Nationalist government was not considering an embargo on foreign wheat.

President Hoover headed the country's Easter observance Sunday at a sunrise memorial service conducted by the grand commandery, Knights Templar, at the Arlington Amphitheater.

Probing Seizure of Canadian Ship

WASHINGTON, April 10. (AP)—A vigorous defense of the coast guard's use of forceful measures to capture the rum-laden Canadian schooner Josephine K off New York harbor three months ago has been transmitted to the state department by the treasury.

Attorney-General Mitchell is expected to submit to the state department within a day or two his opinion on legal aspects of the case. The opinion was asked by Secretary Glinesca, after the Canadian government protested the seizures. The Ottawa government contended the Josephine K was outside the hour's sailing distance from shore within which treaty rights permit search and seizure of British vessels by American authorities. It also held that the firing of a one-pound shell which killed the vessel's master, Capt. William P. Cluett, constituted unwarranted force.

FLAG LOWERED

Honoring Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the national house of representatives, who died yesterday, the flag at Central high school was flying at half-mast today.

Prof. Albert Einstein, in encouraging "militant pacifism," stated that: "If you can get two per cent of the population to assert in time of peace they will not fight, you can end war."

G. L. Platakoff arrived in Berlin as head of a Russian trade delegation which will direct details of $75,000,000 worth of orders for Ger-

LOVE CULT PROBED

PITTSBURGH, April 10. (AP)—A frail little woman sat in a cell in the county jail here today waiting for detectives to ask her further questions concerning a "love cult" composed of former school teachers and the slaying of Miss Minnie E. Otley, 76, who was found dead at Fort Fort, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., last week.

Mrs. Frances Thompson, 29, former Pittsburgh teacher, daughter of a former minister, was arrested last night and detectives said she told them the spinster wanted her husband to become head of a "love cult," but insisted she knew nothing of the slaying.

MAD MARRIAGE

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "HEART HUNGRY," etc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Gypsy McFrieder, 19-year-old typist in a New York office, is miserable and lonely when she finds that Alan Crosby, just returned from a year and a half in Paris studying art, no longer cares for her. Crosby is infatuated with Mrs. Langley, wealthy divorcee, who considers herself a patron of art. Gypsy becomes disgusted with her job and when she is criticized for carelessness impulsively resigns.

She accepts an invitation from her wealthy cousin, Anne Trowbridge, to take the place of another guest at a formal dinner. The party is a bore. She leaves to get her wraps and go home, hears a noise in the next room and opens the door to see a man climbing in the window. He is James Wallace, guest of the Trowbridges, who has entered by the fire escape to avoid the dinner party guests. Wallace tells Gypsy he has just been jilted by his fiancée. She admits she has had the same experience. To spite the girl he cares for, Wallace asks Gypsy to marry him. She first refuses but later accepts. They are married next morning and take the train for Forest City, arriving in the evening.

At Jim's home they are greeted by his aunt, Miss Ellen Wallace, who has kept house for him for years. She is shocked when she learns the bride is not Marcia Loring. Gypsy goes upstairs while Jim attempts to pacify his aunt. An hour later there is a knock at the door.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

There was a second knock before she reached the door. "Who is it?" Gypsy called.

Jim's face appeared in the narrow opening. "May I come in?" "Of course."

He entered, closing the door behind him. "Things haven't turned out—exactly the way I planned," he began. "I'm sorry. Hate like the devil to get you into such a mess. But it's going to be all right now. I mean about Aunt Ellen. She was just herself when you saw her. Shock upset her. Naturally I didn't tell her—well, exactly how we met. She thinks I've known you quite a while. That's best, don't you think so?"

Gypsy had been watching him. Fuller made her eyes look larger. "Much better," she agreed. "I was wondering how you accounted for me."

Wallace waved the matter aside. "Oh, I just said you were Anne Trowbridge's cousin and I met you at a party at their apartment. That's true, you know? But that doesn't matter—you're starved, aren't you? I came up to tell you dinner is ready."

"All I want is something hot to drink," Gypsy said.

"Listen, you don't know what a wonderful cook Harriet is! She's got a big dinner ready and she's waiting for us to come down."

The girl hesitated.

"Please come," Jim urged. He spoke so earnestly that she was persuaded against her better judgment.

"All right," she said. "Give me five minutes."

Wallace turned to go. "I'll wait for you downstairs," he told her.

There was a bath adjoining the room. It was spacious and finished in white tile. Nothing modernistic, no pastel-hued plumbing fixtures in this house, Gypsy assured herself, thinking of the grim Aunt Ellen.

"She loathes me," the girl thought. "She loathes me and she's never going to get over it."

Quickly she splashed cold water on her face. Nothing in the world would have been so inviting to Gypsy at that moment as a warm, leisurely bath but it was out of the question. The cold water was refreshing. Gypsy powdered and fluffed her hair at the sides with a comb. Her white blouse was smudged with train smoke. She brushed it but that only made the smudge darker. Well—she had done her best to look presentable.

Jim heard her coming and appeared at the foot of the stairway.

"The dining room's through here," he said. He led her into the long living room where a cheery fire burned on the hearth, across a hallway and into a room where tall candles cast their yellow glow over a table set for three. Ellen Wallace, prim and severe, waited beside a chair at the head of the table.

"You're so late here," Jim told the girl, drawing back the chair at the right.

Gypsy sat down. Jim seated his aunt, then took his place at the opposite end of the table.

There was a centerpiece of red roses. They were so high Gypsy could scarcely see over them but she murmured something appreciative about the flowers. The linen was glistening and snowy and the silver a heavy, old-fashioned pattern. More of the ancestral splendor of the Wallaces, the girl thought resentfully.

Miss Wallace touched a bell and immediately a servant appeared with the soup. The hostess broke her silence to ask if Gypsy cared for more seasoning.

The girl said she did not. The soup might have been excellent an hour before. Now it was flat with the distinct taste of warming-over.

Wallace began talking of Forest City's new airport. There was to be a reception for a distinguished flyer there next week. He had read plans for the occasion in the evening newspaper. He talked glibly, proud of the time addressing Gypsy but occasionally turning toward his aunt.

Poor fellow! Jim had the set look of a man determined to be cheerful at all costs. Gypsy, who had been brooding over her own misfortunes, suddenly felt a sweep of sympathy for him. He was having a hard time and trying to make the best of it.

"It's not all his fault either," honesty forced the girl to admit. "I'm as much to blame for this nightmare as he is!"

In spite of Jim's efforts the dinner was dismal. Harriet (she had not only cooked the food but was serving it) had done what she could to repair the damage of delay but the biscuits were cold. The soufflé, so delicately flavored, was a soggy mass and the salad was scaked with dressing. The coffee must have been freshly made. It was delicious.

For a time Aunt Ellen sat in dour silence but presently she began to question Gypsy. Her intentions were only too obvious.

"I'm afraid Forest City may seem quiet to you after New York," she suggested. "I suppose you're used to parties almost every night?"

"Hardly that often," Gypsy answered.

"But Jim tells me these relatives of yours—what's their name?—Trowbridge—do a great deal of entertaining. I've read about the wild carryings-on in what passes for society nowadays. Society—humph! What's your religious faith?"

"I—why—I used to go to the Presbyterian church—" Gypsy floundered, color surging to her cheeks.

"The Wallaces are Episcopalian," the older woman informed her. "and were regular in attendance. Our pastor is a splendid man—Rev. Brooks. His messages are always inspiring."

Gypsy would have liked to reply that when you found a typewriter six days a week until your shoulders ache it is easier to talk about "inspiring messages" than to arise and go to church on the one morning it's possible to sleep. She didn't say it. Gypsy recalled in time that Jim had probably concealed the fact of her three years in the MacNamara office.

There was a lull and Jim tried to turn his aunt's attention to another subject. The effort was useless.

"I understand your name was McBride," Ellen Wallace persisted. "Sounds Irish. Was your father a professional man?"

"See here, Aunt Ellen," Jim interrupted. "Gypsy's tired. She can't tell you all that some other day."

"I don't mind," the girl assured him. "I like to talk about my father. Yes, I guess he was what you'd call a 'professional man.' He worked on a newspaper."

Miss Wallace frowned. "An editor?" she asked.

"No, he wasn't exactly editor. He worked on big New York newspapers. Different ones. He wrote headlines and corrected mistakes and he knew everything in the world. He was wonderful. We were always together—up until three years ago."

She turned her head away. They had finished the coffee and Wallace seized the opportunity to suggest returning to the living room. His aunt arose, regretfully.

"Let me show you the house," Jim suggested to Gypsy. "You'd like to know your way about, wouldn't you?"

She said she would. The Wallace residence was a rambling structure that had been added to as demands arose. Originally the building had been square. The old part, built by Grandfather Wallace, included the living room which was fully 30 feet long and half as wide. Its furnishings were too dark, Gypsy thought, and too massive, but the room had a "lived-in" quality that was pleasing and the fireplace was cheerful.

Off this room was the hall with its circular stairway. To the left was the library lined with bookshelves and at the far end was Jim's desk. Back of this was a small space known as the "sewing room" and beyond were the kitchen and pantry. There was a porch off the dining room screened and used as a summer sitting room. Upstairs there were five bedrooms.

"The room you were in," Jim said, "was my mother's. Aunt Ellen kept it as a guest room. Mine's on the same side of the hall. Aunt Ellen has the back room because it's quieter."

Quieter? The whole house seemed to Gypsy to be as quiet as a tomb. "Where's Pat?" she asked suddenly. "Where does he sleep?"

Jim laughed. "Oh, he has a bed in the cellar. That dog likes you all right. It's unusual for him to make up with a stranger so quickly. Never saw him do it before!"

They were alone in the living room. Gypsy dropped down on theavenport which faced the fireplace. Lashing tongues of gold and crimson flame leaped from the logs in the grate. There was no other light except a lamp at the far end of the room. The glow of the hearth fell upon the girl's face, turning her skin to warm ivory. Her eyes, shadowed by their long lashes, became luminous.

Wallace looked down at her.

"Gypsy," he said, "this room suits you, do you know that? You've had a hard day—a rotten day and you're looking prettier than I ever saw you."

He sank beside her, leaning back against the cushioned seat.

Now was the time to tell him, Gypsy knew. Now was the time to tell him what she had been thinking during the long hour of waiting upstairs. There was only one thing to do—abandon this reckless bargain. They could never go through with it. Jim was a lawyer and should know how to manage such things. She would go away. Anywhere. What did she care?

It was going to be hard though. Gypsy turned and found herself gazing directly into Wallace's clear blue eyes.

"I want you to know," he was saying very earnestly, "that I think you're the sweetest girl I've ever met. You've been great about this thing. I—well, I just want you to know that I appreciate it."

"Why, Jim—"

"I'm not good at saying things like this," Wallace went on, "but Gypsy—you're a brick."

The girl's vision took on blurred outlines. For an instant his eyes held hers. Then she looked down at the floor. Over and over she studied the pattern of the rug.

It must have been several minutes before she spoke. Then, Gypsy said, "Do you mind if I go upstairs now? I know it isn't late but I do feel tired. Please say good night to your aunt for me."

Wallace nodded. "Didn't mean to wear you out," he said. "I'll tell her."

Gypsy smiled at him over her shoulder. He was still there, staring at the fire when she entered the hallway.

She found her suitcase in the room upstairs. Gypsy opened it, took out the dresses and hung them away. Then she slipped out of her clothes, wrapped herself in a yellow bathrobe and drew the tub full of warm water. She enjoyed the bath, took her time at it. She had finished and was brushing her hair when she heard a sound at the door. Jim's voice came to her. She opened the door.

"Just wanted to tell you good night," he said. "Didn't disturb you, I hope?"

"Not at all. Good night."

That was all. Gypsy closed the door and turned away. Five minutes later she was in bed. Close beside her cheek, damp with warm tear drops, was a package tied with ribbon. The package contained Alan Crosby's letters.

TIGERS IN DETROIT

DETROIT, April 10. (AP)—A 28-man Detroit Tiger squad arrived home this morning after two months of training on the west coast in which they engaged in 31 exhibition games. At least two pitchers and an outfielder are still to be pruned from the squad before the June 15 dead-line. The Tigers still have three games scheduled for the exhibition season, all with Pittsburgh on the home lot.

ROUGH WITH REDS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 10. (AP) Eddie Roush, star center fielder for the Cincinnati Reds for 10 years, was back on the field where he earned his fame today, working out in a Rhineland uniform and glad to be "back home." The 38-year-old gardener said he felt fine, was having no trouble with his legs and expected to be in center field Tuesday for the opener if Manager Howley wants him there.

MAY LOSE LISKA

WASHINGTON, April 10. (AP)—The Senators have about decided to send Ad Liska to Youngstown for treatment to his sore arm.

The subway ball hurler continues to feel uncomfortable when he throws. He thinks his present difficulty might be similar to that he had in 1927, when a physician removed the soreness by snapping a back muscle into place.

"THROW HIM OUT"

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 10. (AP) One fan down here doesn't think much of Brick Owens who is umpiring games for the New York Yankees on the spring training jaunt.

"That fellow takes all the fun out of the game," said the fan, referring to Owens. "It's so good you can't make fun of him, or cuss at him, or throw anything at him."

OPTIMISM GROWS

LOUISVILLE, April 10. (AP)—The optimism of the Cleveland Indians grows day by day. Their sieve-like defense has tightened up, the hurriers have been going good and they know they'll hit when the season starts. The failure of their offense so far is attributed to the difficulty of making any major league team down on minor league opposition.

High School Will Conduct Carnival For Annual Fund

A well organized carnival is being planned by Pampa high school students to be presented Friday and Saturday nights, April 17 and 18, on the high school campus between the gymnasium and the junior high school building, and in the gymnasium.

During the carnival, a series of programs will be presented at 15 minute intervals in the high school gymnasium. Each program will last for 30 minutes, and will be introduced by music by the high school band. There will be concession booths erected on the grounds between the buildings.

The program for the first night of the carnival, starting at 7 o'clock, will include novelty dances, "The Euave Drill," "Newsboy Clog," "A Boy's Quartet," and a "Drummer Doll Dance," by girls of the physical education class. This will be followed by an exhibition of tumbling, given by the same class.

Boys of the athletic department will present gymnastic stunts, boxing bouts and a "Negro Battle Royal."

Starting at the same time Saturday night, pupils of Woodrow Wilson and Horace Mann schools will give a 30-minute program at 7 o'clock, to be followed by a program of Baker and Sam Houston schools students.

High school students will stage a one-act play, "And the Villain Pursued Her," directed by Mr. Workman.

The junior high school students, and high school girls will present tap dances and other novelty numbers.

Proceeds of the carnival will be given to the Pampa high school yearbook fund.

Despite an anti-religious campaign by the Atheist society, thousands of Russians Sunday began celebrating the Greek Orthodox Easter, which continues this week and ends with church services next Sunday.

"I'm actually taking long walks every day now, after being in bed four months with rheumatic pains all through my arms and legs—and Sargon and Sargon Pills got all the credit for my remarkable recovery. They also got me over a bad case of stomach trouble and constipation, and I can't praise this wonderful treatment enough." — Mrs. Sarah Hamby, 2004 32nd Ave. N., Birmingham, Ala.

FRANCHISE OF INDIANS MAY BE PURCHASED

Owenship of San Antonio Club May Change Before Texas Season Opens.

SAN ANTONIO, April 10. (AP)—Walter H. Hammond and his associates in the ownership and operation of the San Antonio Indians, Texas league baseball club, may sell their franchise in the league before the season opens next Wednesday, Hammond declined today. Supporting a statement in which he intimated that the club might be transferred to Waco, recently dropped from the league when Galveston was re-admitted, or to Tulsa or Oklahoma City, at present in Western league territory, Hammond said he had no offer but declared details of the bid, the name of the prospective buyer, and the terms of the deal should go thru, are "not yet for publication."

Hammond admitted he had no offers from Tulsa or Oklahoma City but had merely suggested that these cities might like to get into the Texas league, a subject over which there was much talk some years ago. John Holland, owner of the Oklahoma City club, was quoted in Associated Press dispatches as saying that "any talk of such a deal here misrepresents the situation," adding that he did not believe Tulsa would be interested either, although Tulsa is now having trouble financing its Western franchise, in the possession of a woman, Mrs. Lucille Thomas.

Hammond was asked, since the Oklahoma cities had made no bids, whether Waco was the city from which the offer came. He replied: "I am not at liberty to say now. All that I can say is that a certain party came to me and asked me if the Indians were for sale and I told him everything I could and a price on it. Then he asked me if I thought the franchise could be moved out of San Antonio and I told him I didn't know, that it would be a matter for the league to decide."

The San Antonio club president said he was disgusted with the lack of support here.

COTTON OPENS EASY NEW ORLEANS, April 10. (AP)—Cotton had a very easy opening here today owing to bearish Liverpool cables. First trades showed a decline of 9 to 11 points. The market continued to ease off after the start owing to continued May liquidation and selling by ring traders on the generally favorable weather in the belt and the bearish character of foreign news.

May traded down to 10.07, July to 10.33 and October to 10.64, or 11 to 12 points below yesterday's close.

At the end of the first hour the undertone was still easy and prices were tending downward.

The market continued to ease off during most of the morning on further May liquidation and selling by ring traders on the more favorable weather. May broke through the 10-cent line to 9.97. July eased off to 11.22 and October to 10.53, both 22 points below yesterday's close.

Around noon the market rallied 3 to 7 points from the lows in sympathy with a firmer stock market. Weekly statistics were rather bearish and probably helped the decline prior to the noon rally.

Unintentional Suicide: Many people are slowly poisoning themselves just as surely as if they drank iodine every morning for breakfast. They are daily absorbing the toxins, or poisons, created by accumulated waste matter in their contaminated digestive systems. Sooner or later disease will conquer their weakened bodies.

If you have headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, no appetite, illious attacks, you are probably suffering from self poisoning caused by constipation. A relief for this condition is Epsom's vegetable cathartic which acts in the natural way. Get a bottle today from Patheco Drug Company.—Adv.

WHEAT PRICE DROPS CHICAGO, April 10. (AP)—Responsive to the bearish showing of the United States government crop report, wheat prices here went lower early today. Comparative firmness of Liverpool kept quotations, however, helped steady the market at fractional declines, although the official forecast of United States 1931 winter wheat production was much larger than the majority of traders had expected. Opening 6-8 cents off to 1-8 c., wheat later held near to the initial range. Corn started 3-8 lower to 1-8 higher, and subsequently hardened.

AN ERROR

In Montgomery Ward & Co.'s double page advertisement in Thursday's News their Airline Monarch radio was priced at $39.95 and was described as being a four screen grid set. The set mentioned, is a three screen grid radio and is priced for Ward Week at $39.95, which price will prevail during this special campaign only. The News-Post gladly makes this correction.

Mr. Harrah was a typical frontiersman in appearance even to the day of his death.

DEATH COMES

It was in 1878 or '79, Mr. Harrah said. "I had been killing beaves and hogs in the country near Sweetwater creek and I had heard that the Indians were headed in my direction," Mr. Harrah related.

In describing the attack, Mr. Harrah said, "We piled up sacks of feed on the inside of the house against the doors and windows and then loaded our guns. In about an hour we heard the Indians coming. There were about 360 in the band and they came up the valley riding like the wind and yelling as they came. Such a yell from the throats of 360 savages fairly deafened us. The attacking party halted at a safe distance from the house near the old buffalo wallow and the medicine man came forward and proceeded to make medicine before opening the attack on us.
