

WALLACE WILL SEEK HALF OF MAE'S WEALTH

LOS ANGELES, July 9 (AP)—Mae West, the screen's millionaire hip-swinger, would like to see song-and-dance man Frank Wallace drop his suit for "declaratory relief" now that she finally has recognized his claim to being her husband of 26 years standing.

Moon-faced Mae's attorneys said as much today, but "Mr. West's" counsel interposed an objection.

"Miss West has not answered Wallace's contention that they lived together as man and wife from the time of the marriage on April 11, 1911, until March 14, 1914," argued lawyer Avery M. Blount. "It was a question for Superior Judge Emmett Wilson to decide before nightfall and Blount said if the court ruled the suit could continue he would take a deposition from Miss West. Blount said also "it is quite probable" Wallace will ask for an accounting of community property.

In New York, Samuel J. Siegel, another attorney for Wallace, said the 47-year old vaudeville actor had been offered $30,000 to "forget all about the ceremony," but he will play for higher stakes, half of his wife's reported $3,000,000.

"Next week," Siegel was quoted as saying, "we expect to apply for an injunction that will tie up all of Miss West's property in California.

"Her contention that she is an un-kissed bride," he continued, "is ridiculous. We have affidavits to show that Miss West and Wallace lived together as man and wife from 1911 to 1915."

Disputes Police on Riot Deaths

Ralph Beck, pictured on the witness stand before the Senate Civil Liberties inquiry in Washington, D. C., denied in almost every particular the stories told by police officers regarding the shooting of ten pickets in the Chicago Memorial Day steel strike riot. As a reporter for a Chicago paper, Beck was an eyewitness of shooting.

WOMAN AUTHOR OF LETTERS TO ACTOR HUNTED

LOS ANGELES, July 9 (AP)—Federal agents hunted today the woman author of a series of fantastic letters which climaxed in the threat to "expose" Mr. and Mrs. John Boles, film couple, unless a $500 payoff was made.

U. S. Attorney Pierson M. Hall authorized issuance of a complaint against an Oakland, Calif., resident charging misuse of the mails in an attempted extortion scheme.

Arrest of the woman, authorities intimated, might dispel also the mystery regarding four weird telegrams received from Oakland by Cecil B. De Mille, motion picture producer, last week and letters sent to Buck Jones, screen cowboy.

Boles' business manager, Ira Uhr, turned over to postal inspectors a letter upon which the complaint was based. It was mailed last June 13 in Oakland, addressed to Mrs. Marcellita Boles.

Nose Protector

William Fischman, life guard in the Long Island Rockaways, tries out a new device intended to protect the swimmer's nose, sinus passages, and ear air spaces, which physicians say are endangered by too much bathing. A small, rubberized, U-shaped clip, attached to a narrow elastic band which loops behind the ears, clamps the nostrils shut, closing off the inflow of water.

PICKETS ARRESTED AT SAN ANTONIO PLANT

SAN ANTONIO, July 9 (AP)—A downpour of rain brought about a temporary truce this morning in trouble which arose yesterday when pickets began marching in front of the Shirlee Frocks Company plant here, only to be arrested and taken to police headquarters.

Those arrested and their attorneys insisted the arrested pickets were former employees of the Shirlee Frocks but I. Tobias, an official of the plant, denied it.

The attorneys claimed the pickets had social security cards to prove they had been employed by the garment manufacturing company.

Police Chief Owen Kilday said this morning that the pickets would be arrested as fast as they appeared at the plant.

Leaders of the picketing movement said they would appeal to United States District Attorney W. R. Smith Jr. and to the labor department in Washington for an investigation of the situation.

COMMITTEE TO TAKE UP WAGNER HOUSING BILL

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Chairman Black (D-Ala) working the senate labor committee at top speed, asked it today to consider immediately the Wagner housing bill.

Wary members finished several weeks of concentrated work yesterday by approving a revised wage and hour bill. Like the housing proposal, it is a major administration measure.

Senator Wagner (D-NY) was invited to explain to the committee today an amendment offered to meet treasury objections to his bill.

The amendment would permit capital subsidies of 45 per cent as an alternative for the annual operating subsidy which the bill would grant to low rent housing projects.

The measure would authorize a billion dollar bond issue and a $50,000,000 appropriation during the next four years.

On Capitol Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, July 9 (AP)—The week of Sept. 6 or Sept. 13 appears to be the best guess for the convening time of the revenue-raising session of the legislature.

Newspaper reporters recently asked Gov. Allred if he could not postpone it until late September or October because of the heat but Allred replied it probably would begin early in September.

The governor said he did not know how many sessions would be necessary, intimating that one purpose of convening the lawgivers early was to make sure they would be back home for Christmas shopping.

He said more than one session might be needed to complete the law proposals for large increases in the levies on corporation franchises, oil, gas and sulphur which are highly controversial.

In order for the higher taxes to become effective immediately they must be approved by two-thirds of the membership of each branch. If the increases favored by a majority should be more than 33 1-3 per cent they might not get the two-thirds support and therefore not go into effect until 90 days after the session's end.

The House voted this spring to triple the corporation franchise impost, increase that on oil from 2-3

Rio Grande River Islanders Seek Division of Land

MEXICO CITY, July 9 (AP)—The Mexican government took under advisement today a petition from residents of Cordoba Islands, the Rio Grande river south of El Paso, Tex., asking for the establishment of communal farms.

The islanders asked that the land be distributed among them in the same way other lands in Mexico have been expropriated and given to peasants.

Two engineers from the agrarian department, Luis Artega and Leonardo Medina, are en route to Cordoba island to study the possibility of dividing the land for distribution among the petitioners.

LEDBETTER DIES

MUSKOGEE, Okla., July 9 (AP)—A pioneer Oklahoma and Arkansas peace officer, J. F. "Uncle Bud" Ledbetter, 84, who once remarked "I don't see how I ever kept from being killed," died peacefully in bed last night. Death came to the courageous officer who helped smash out outlawry during and after turbulent territorial days as he lay unconscious in a hospital here.

BRITISH NAVAL CHIEFTAIN'S GLORIOUS PASSING

Centuries of British sea-power and majesty met in a moving ceremony at Portsmouth when the body of Admiral Sir William Fisher, late commander-in-chief of the British fleet, was borne in a solemn cortege past the historic frigate "Victory" flagship of the immortal Admiral Nelson at Trafalgar.

Arabs Appeal to 4 Kings Against British Plan

JERUSALEM, July 9 (AP)—The Arab high committee cabled to four Arab kings today a plea "in the name of God and religion" to intervene against the British plan to partition Palestine.

The rulers from whom assistance was sought in the tense situation are Crown Prince Ibn Saud, Emir of the Arabian, Saudi Kingdom, the Imam of Yemen, Emir Abdullah of Transjordan, and the Ghazi of Iraq.

The committee, in its hurried message, protested that the best part of Palestine would go to the Jews and the holy places would go under British mandate.

On the other hand, the Jews are no better pleased. Confronted already by reports of minor disturbances following disclosure of the plan, Great Britain was warned she would find it impossible.

THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO STOP CONSTIPATION

You have to correct the cause. Simply taking a pill now and then is just temporary—and often harmful.

Most constipation is due to meals low in "bulk." Put enough "bulk" in your diet and you can really correct common constipation.

That's why millions of people eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day. This cereal furnishes "bulk" which does not "break down" in the body. ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, gently sponges and cleanses the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a food—not a medicine. You buy it at the grocery store. Besides "bulk," it has vitamin B to tone up the intestines, and iron for the blood. Eat two tablespoons daily with milk or cream. Three times daily in severe cases. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT INCREASE QUESTIONED

AUSTIN, July 9 (AP)—Charley Lockhart, state treasurer and member of the automatic tax board, was not sure today that the board of education could increase the per capita apportionment to forestall a reduction of the school tax rate.

The board voted to boost the allotment from $19 to $22 which, statisticians figured, would demand maintenance of the current 20-cent rate on the $100 valuation.

"If the board of education can force us to set whatever tax rate it wants," Lockhart said, "what's the use of having a tax board?"

George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, said the question appeared to be one of law rather than policy. The board's action brought much criticism.

John S. Redditt, chairman of the Senate finance committee, said he thought the tax board, under the law, would have to reduce the property levy for school purposes to seven or eight cents, the amount necessary for textbooks.

Mexican Claims To Be 114 Years Old

HARLINGEN, July 9 (AP)—Justo Infante, who claims to have been 13 when Texas won her independence from Mexico, says he is considering marriage for the fourth time. "Yes, I would marry again," he says, but a condition attaches. "It would have to be a woman with some money who could take care of me when I get old."

Infante, a withered little man about five feet tall, claims August 6, 1829, and Tampico, Mexico, the date and place of his birth. He was a blacksmith here many years. He retains several original teeth.

Memory of his youthful years is hazy, but he recalls he married his third wife when 65 and became the father of eleven children, seven of whom survive. The youngest, Juanita, 24, was born when Infante was turning 90, and Julia, the eldest, is 48.

Infante says he served 20 years in the Mexican army, fighting frequently. He was a blacksmith and cooper at Monterey, some of the barrels he coopered being used by water vendors.

Infante had no children by his two first wives. He has no rule for longevity, indicating with a shrug he merely kept on growing older, or, perhaps, drank from the fountain of youth and forgot it.

Cuguelino Marconi, inventor of wireless telegraphy, was born of an Italian father and Irish mother.

Flashes of LIFE

(By The Associated Press.)

ROOM FOR ONLY ONE. MT. MITCHELL RANGER CAMP, N. C.—Forest Ranger Chet McKinney pulled all his five feet to the top of a high cliff and met a big black bear which had chosen the other side for ascent and simultaneous arrival.

"Well, I studied a minute," reported the little ranger, "and then said 'bar, where the deuce are you going?' The bear look at me a second, turned and scampered down the rocks as fast as he could. He was more scared than I was."

MODERN FISHERMAN. CHICAGO—When Eric Erickson, 29, saw a fish swimming near his baited hook without even giving it a tumble, he became excited. "I dove in—yes, I was wearing a bathing suit—and gave chase," Erickson said. "I caught 'im, the little feller, by a gill. Now I'm going to stuff him—he weighs 12 pounds and five ounces."

READING CLERK DIES. WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Patrick J. Haltigan, reading clerk in the House of Representatives, died last night. He was 74 years old. Before joining the House staff 26 years ago, he had been a printer. He was editor of the National Irishman, and author of a book on Irishmen in the American Revolution.

FRANCE THREATENS TO OPEN SPANISH BORDER

LONDON, July 9 (AP)—France showed signs of weakening today in her determination to open her Pyrenees frontier to the Spanish central government immediately unless the international neutrality patrol is re-established on Spain's east coast.

Informed sources said Ambassador Charles Corbin, French member of the non-intervention committee, declared at today's first committee session that France would open her border, but he did not fix a date.

The 27-nation "hands off Spain" committee, still deadlocked on a program for keeping arms and men from Spain, met again late today.

But reliable sources said it was improbable that any decision could be reached today breaching the opposing Anglo-French and Italo-German views. They said the problem might be referred to a technical sub-committee.

MAX DEMANDS FIGHT

LONDON, July 9 (AP)—Max Schmeling, arriving here today from Berlin, said that he "insisted" that Tommy Farr, British Empire heavy-weight champion, should fight him before meeting world champion Joe Louis. The German tentatively had been scheduled to meet Farr here in August or September. However, Farr entered into negotiations with American promoter Mike Jacobs, who announced in New York yesterday that Louis and the Briton would meet at the Yankee Stadium, August 28.

Marconi's early wireless experiments were financed by his father, a wealthy resident of Bologna.

MYRON TAYLOR WILL RETIRE FROM STEEL

NEW YORK, July 9 (AP)—Wall Street, where the possibility of Myron C. Taylor's appointment of a diplomatic post has been long rumored, speculated today upon a newspaper report that he expects to retire Jan. 1 as chairman of U. S.

Steel corporation. A company spokesman refused to confirm or deny the report. In Florence, Italy, where he is vacationing Mr. Taylor said he could not comment on the report.

The New York Herald Tribune said Taylor's retirement "is contingent on the completion of a financing and common stock dividend resumption program on which his heart is set. News Want-Ads Get Results.

SWIM SUIT SOC DO CUT
The bathing suit is ever so brief, but the voluminous beach robe affords the modest touch the smart Parisienne demands this summer. The Mazzy Rouff coat is of white jersey, drawn in at the waist with a thick cord. The swim suit is bright navy and has white stripes worked chevron-wise.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES.
"Man's Besetting Sin" is the subject of the Bible study beginning at 7 p. m.
The lecture, beginning at 8 p. m., is a continuation of the study on "Religion vs. Christianity." Proof is given that religion had its origin in the land of Shinar, with the building of the Tower of Babel, which tower was built in defiance of God as a means of entering heaven. Christ opened up the "new and living way" into heaven and was the founder of Christianity.
The meetings are held in the commissioners' room at the city hall.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES.
901 North Frost.
"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, July 11.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled ... Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God" (Matthew 5:6, 8).
The lesson sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures":

Spanish Crisis May Bring These Boats Into Action

Untried under conditions of actual warfare, England's littlest "warships" (above) were readied for emergencies along with the fleet of destroyers and torpedo boats that have been sent to the Spanish coast to checkmate the ominous assemblage of German naval vessels at Lagos, Portugal, following withdrawal of the Nazis and Italians from the neutrality patrol. The midgets of the British fleet are swift, 26-foot launches intended for use in landing detachments of bluejackets and troops.

by Mary Baker Eddy: "The baptism of Spirit, washing the body of all the impurities of flesh, signifies that the pure in heart see God and are approaching spiritual life and its demonstration" (page 241).

Showers Fall in West Texas Areas

DALLAS, July 9 (AP)—While the northern half of the nation was sweltering under high temperatures today, the mercury in Texas had been driven down by scattered showers over about half of the state.

Rain was reported yesterday at El Paso, Abilene, Del Rio, Corpus Christi, Brownsville and Port Arthur.
Additional showers were falling today at San Antonio and in the coastal area. Corpus Christi had reported a total rainfall of 1.06 for the 24-hour period.

Temperatures throughout the state, which at many points had climbed above 100, dropped to the 80's yesterday. The Dallas office of the weather bureau, forecasting additional showers for today, did not expect to see the mercury touch 100 anywhere in Texas today.

MOTHS, BUT NO FLAMES.
WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE. O. (P)—Firemen responding to a midnight alarm, saw smoke pouring from the clock tower of the Fayette county court house.
Scaling the tower, they discovered that what appeared to be smoke was dust from the wings of thousands of large moths which were beating at the illuminated dials of the clock. The insects had wing spreads of more than two inches.

Rarely So Wickedly 'Smoked Out' Is Roosevelt As When Questions Brought His 'Dunce Cap' Reports

By RONDEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON, July 9.—The White House press conference probably is an institution, unique in the world. At least, in no other foreign capital do correspondents stand up twice a week and fire questions at Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, the King or Prime Minister of England or whoever else the top big shot may be.

The new style press conference—its four years old now—is Roosevelt's own. Coolidge and Hoover used to have a system whereby you wrote your questions and slipped them to a secretary. The President picked out the ones he felt like answering and ignored the rest. Roosevelt, however, decided he would submit to verbal questions and give direct answers. Information for background or strictly "off the record" replies.

This method is a good thing for Roosevelt and a good thing for the correspondents. But it is not without flaws. Obviously the President has to depend on himself to avoid answering certain questions—just as Coolidge and Hoover managed to avoid answers by not acknowledging the inquiries.

Lost in Laughter
Sometimes Roosevelt says he doesn't want to or isn't ready to answer a question that he doesn't know the answer, that he hasn't ready the statement, report or newspaper story to which the question refers, that the question is an "if question," or that the question is best answered by another question which he thereupon propounds.

Sometimes he says something quite irrelevant and starts laughing, whereupon the correspondent joins in and the question is lost in the laughter which sweeps the room.

Occasionally the question is such that Roosevelt deliberately seeks to turn the laugh on the inquiring correspondent. Perhaps this is one reason why the correspondents' corps generally refrains from asking questions that might be considered embarrassing. Another reason doubtless is that newspapermen think it's sporting of Roosevelt to take on all comers twice a week, and it's only sporting for them to consider certain questions out of bounds. No one would think of asking him, for instance, how he felt about the marital and commercial alliances of his children with the du Ponts and Henrlys.

Asked Sooner or Later
But most important questions get asked sooner or later—embarrassing or not—and so it was with the question whether he would accept a third term nomination if it were offered. Back in 1927 newsmen kept slipping questions to Coolidge asking if he were a candidate for renomination. Coolidge ignored them consistently. Then one day the fellows ganged up and each individually wrote the same question and saw to it that they were all in the room. Coolidge turned them over, one after another, until he reached the end of them. And then he began a 15-minute rambling disquisition on the subject—unless this writer's memory fails—of telephone rates in the District of Columbia. The correspondents were glad to get away from there when he finished. Of course eventually Coolidge was smoked out to the point of asserting that "I do not choose to run."

The Dunce Cap Incident
Roosevelt was asked three pointed questions about his own third-term thoughts. Seldom are correspondents so persistent in putting him on the spot.

The first was as to whether he had any comment on Governor Earle's endorsement of Roosevelt for 1940. He merely shook his head.

The second was a flat one—Would he, if offered it, accept renomination in 1940?

"My gawd, how hot the weather is!" correspondents seemed to hear him say, and then: "You go over in the corner and get a dunce cap and stand with your back to the rest of the boys."

But then the first correspondent came back and asked if the situation were covered by the February Victory Dinner speech in which Roosevelt said he wanted to turn the country over to his successor in 1941 in better shape than it was when Buchanan handed it to Lincoln. Roosevelt then made his second dunce cap nomination.

Resent Picture Edict
The two correspondents joined the general laughter. Mr. Roosevelt is usually conceded the right to razz at these conferences—or even to fib if he does it only to duck a question, not to misinform. Just the same there's a certain restraint in questioning, inspired by the average correspondent's desire not to be criticized by colleagues or to "get in wrong" at the White House. This has nothing to do with the "Roosevelt charm," which attracts some news men, is ignored by many and definitely annoys others.

Much more resentment has been caused by White House Press Secretary Steve Early's order to Secret Service men to keep—temporarily—certain cameramen from photographing the President, than by anything that has happened at a press conference.

The cameramen are those of Acme Newspictures and Associated Press, which distributed photos taken by congressmen at the Jefferson Island party. Early had said no newspaper pictures were to be taken there and thinks his edict was defied. On the same principle Early might punish certain newspapermen who wrote about something Early didn't want disclosed. Protests are resounding in the Early cars.

NEGRO EXECUTED IN CHAIR AT HUNTSVILLE
HUNTSVILLE, July 9 (AP)—Ernest McCarty, Tarrant county negro convicted of assaulting a white woman, died in the electric chair at the state penitentiary early today.

Fort Worth officers were in the death chamber to watch the young convict die. He had a scared half-smile on his face as he said: "I am not guilty of the crime I am being punished for."

McCarty was convicted of raping a white woman March 10, 1936. The Board of Pardons and Paroles refused a plea for clemency.

Chicago Riot Photo That Stirred Senate

(Copyright, Paramount News; Released by U. S. Senate Civil Liberties Committee.)

A menacing ring of Chicago policemen surrounds the two fallen strikers in this hitherto suppressed picture taken at the height of the sanguinary Memorial Day riot at the South Chicago plant of the Republic Steel Corporation, when

10 persons were killed. The policemen in the lower left corner of the photo has a ready revolver in his hand, while his fellow officers stand with clubs poised. Notice the background of fallen and fleeing men, the blue-coated figures, the swinging nightsticks. Taken by Paramount newsreel camera, this is one of the "stills" introduced as evidence at the Senate Civil Liberties committee strike investigation.

DRIVERS VICTORS IN SANTONE TAXI STRIKE

SAN ANTONIO, July 9 (AP)—This city's week-old taxicab strike was at an end today, with drivers victorious in their demands for a 35 per cent commission.

The agreement of operators and drivers freed 300 tied-up cabs which had been idle since the cab union called its men out last Saturday.

GOD PROVIDES A LEADER.
Text: Exodus 3:1-12.
By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.,
Editor of Advance

From the story of Joseph and the descent of the children of Israel into bondage in Egypt, we come now to the equally inspiring story of Moses, the great type of the leader and deliverer.

The story of Joseph began in personal tragedy as Joseph was sold by his brethren and suffered persecution and imprisonment in Egypt.

Here the story begins in the tragedy of a people, cast down from their former prosperity in the bitterness of cruel tasks, and suffering from tyrannous masters, yet helpless and almost in despair because there is no way of deliverance.

Now suddenly a leader and deliverer appears, a man who, like Joseph, has had the opportunity of power and preferment, but in whom loyalty to his people and to their great traditions means more than any success or power he may achieve for himself.

Moses had been born in this condition of bondage at the very time when Pharaoh, in fear of the increasing numbers of the Jews, had taken the ruthless course of destroying their babes. The love of the mother of Moses for her babe had led her to set him afloat in the little ark of bulrushes, in the hope that though she would lose him, he might escape destruction.

Pharaoh's daughter had found the babe and taken him into the palace, and as it turned out, the babe's own mother had become his nurse. It was no wonder that Moses had become so imbued with the sense of unity with the people, that when he became older he refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, and chose rather to cast in his lot with his own people, and to share their afflictions.

He was a man of intensity and a man of action, aroused by sympathy for his people. When he went out and saw one of his own race being smitten by an Egyptian, he killed the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

He supposed that no one had seen the deed, but when he interfered with two of his own race who were fighting the aggrieved Hebrew asked him, "Would you kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" and Moses, discovering that his act was known, fled from Pharaoh's wrath to the land of Midian.

There he settled, married the daughter of Jethro, a priest of Midian, and became a shepherd. For 40 years he lived this hidden life, but one may well suppose that he never forgot his earlier experiences or the sufferings of his own Hebrew people in Egypt.

Now came the day of Moses' call and leadership. His call to leadership came in the revelation of the burning bush. Like all true leaders, Moses felt his own inadequacy. The great leaders in history have not been the men of dominant and dictatorial spirit who have forced themselves into positions of prominence; the true leaders in great causes have been, on the contrary, men who felt the intense nature of their responsibility, and who felt their own weakness.

One thinks of Paul at a later date, pleading his weakness, and of the voice that came to him: "My grace is sufficient for thee, for my strength is made perfect in weakness."

It is this very sense of their own weakness and inadequacy that sends men capable of leadership to the source of divine strength and help. Moses quickly found the assurance of divine help. When he cried to God, "Who am I that I should go unto Pharaoh?" there came the strong conviction of God's presence and help.

The voice that comes from our inner life may be as real as the voice that came from the burning bush, and all ground may become holy ground as all life becomes consecrated to the higher purposes of love and righteousness.

The elm has been cherished as a shade tree since Pilgrim times.
