Whether Basis Should Be Made by Acreage or Debated — Re-Pressuring Called Impractical.

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (AP)—Questions asked witnesses at the East Texas oil prorotation hearing before the railroad commission today by Fred Upchurch, assistant attorney general, indicated that Upchurch doubted the authority of the commission to set an allowable production for the field.

KILGORE, Aug. 26. (AP)—Partial evacuation of the military district of the East Texas oilfield was effected today when 483 national guardsmen were demobilized and ordered to their homes.

Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Welters maintained a force of 709 officers and men in the shut down area.

The demobilized men created considerable bustle around the six camps as they rolled up their kits and said good-bye to the men who will remain to patrol the 600 square mile field. Busses and trains were pressed into service to expedite their departure.

The reduction in force was suggested by Gov. Ross Sterling and approved by General Welters, who said the territory was completely under control and could be guarded by a smaller number of men. Economy was the principal reason for the reduction. The demobilization affected all units, men being withdrawn from each camp.

At the railroad commission meeting at Austin, evolves new regulations to reduce wasteful production. There can be little hope of martial law being lifted. The guardsmen were sent to the producing area to halt operations until the commission could promulgate its new orders.

AUSTIN, Aug. 26. (AP)—Indications today were that introduction of testimony before the Texas railroad commission would be completed this afternoon and that the order of the commission governing production of oil and gas in the East Texas field would be issued Friday or Saturday.

Conflicting testimony as to the basis that should be used in fixing the allowable was presented.

Harry Reynolds of Houston, recommended the allowable be set on an acreage basis and declared

ENTRANT IN LIONS YARD CONTEST TELLS OF WORK

Mrs. B. C. Priest Is First to Enter—She Says Pampa Beautification Is Easy.

Mrs. B. C. Priest, 603 N. Faulkner, is the first entrant in the Lions club yard contest.

Mrs. Priest has been developing her lawn, flowers, and shrubs for four years and has achieved much success. Besides roses, she has dahlias, larkspur, snapdragon, cannas, three varieties of phlox, petunias, and other blossoms. Her yard, which includes the front and one side of the house, also has evergreens. The lawn is well kept blue grass. Mrs. Priest and Mr. Priest did all the work.

"Pampa residents can have pretty lawns and flowers if they will give the plans half a chance," Mrs. Priest told the NEWS today. "And I have not found it necessary to use any extraordinary amount of water."

It is desired that hundreds of citizens enter the prize contest, which is divided into two classes—those who did their own work, or most of it, and those who hired it done.

Prizes in shrubs and trees, will total more than $125.

Roosevelt and Tammany Come to Definite Split

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 26. (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic governor of New York, and Tammany Hall have reached the parting of the ways.

Angered because the governor yesterday refused their request for an investigation of alleged graft and corruption in Republican controlled cities upstate, Sen. John J. Dumlignan and Assemblyman Irwin Steinkut, Democratic leaders, said they would "fight to the last ditch" Roosevelt's recommendation that the Hofstadter committee investigating New York be empowered to grant immunity to witnesses.

The governor, in his message at the opening of the special session yesterday, confined his recommendations to the broadening of the power of the Hofstadter committee, thus closing the door to any effort by the Democratic minority to introduce bills looking toward investigations of upstate communities. Under the provisions of the state constitution only such matters as may be recommended by the governor may be considered at extraordinary sessions of the legislature.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell Leads Way to Roswell in 56 Minutes—Point Scores Are Announced.

EL PASO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Officials of the Santa Monica to Cleveland derby announced today that two women were leading the general handicap in which men and women are entered, at El Paso, fifth control point.

They were Cleora Granger, Santa Monica, Calif., who had a rating of 97.54 points, and Mrs. Phoebe Omlie, Memphis, second, with 97.31 points.

Lee Russe, Burbank, Calif., was third with 93.10; Eldon Cessna, of Wichita, Kans., fourth, 92.92; G. B. Warren, Alameda, Calif., fifth, 91.44; and Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, Long Beach, Calif., sixth, 90.88.

Granger, Omlie and O'Donnell held the first three places in the women's division on point scores computed between Santa Monica and El Paso, while May Hazlip, of St. Louis was fourth with 88.85; Martie Bowman of Los Angeles was fifth with 88.57 and Florence Lowe Barnes of San Maricno was sixth with 87.95.

Russe was first, Cessna second and Warren third in the men's division. Roy Hunt of Detroit was fourth with 90.89; Charles Goldtrap of Phoenix fifth with 90.87 and W. E. Musgrave of San Francisco sixth with 90.16.

ROSWELL, N. M., Aug. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, Long Beach, Calif., led the women's Santa Monica-Cleveland air derby into Roswell this morning, making the flight from El Paso in 56 minutes and 30 seconds. She left El Paso at 9:04 a. m. and arrived at the Roswell field at 30 seconds past 10 o'clock.

The plane of Earl Rowland of Wichita, Kans., was demolished yesterday by a crash in a canyon east of Douglas, Ariz. Rowland blamed motor trouble. He and Mrs. Rowland, who accompanied him on the flight, were not injured.

Motor trouble led Barney Rawson of Cleveland to land eight miles west of El Paso. Mrs. Blanche Noyes of Cleveland turned back at Tucson when the magneto of her motor failed. Fifty-two other planes arrived there safely.

Pollution Trial Here Postponed

Trial of Shell Petroleum corporation, Texas company and Panhandle Refining company charges of polluting the Red river by draining oil and salt water into the stream, was postponed in county court this morning by Judge S. D. Stennis upon motion of County Attorney Sherman White. The state was not ready for trial, Mr. White said.

Yesterday John Sturgeon, acting county judge, instructed a jury to acquit Prairie Oil & Gas company on a river pollution charge. Mr. Sturgeon based his verdict on a technical flaw in the charge. He held the state failed to name the proper defendant. T. A. Striling, game warden, was chief witness for the state.

Representatives of eight oil companies, similarly charged, recently pleaded guilty and paid fines of $100 and costs, each.

BIG RECEPTION FOR TRIPPERS

TOKYO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Men, women and children fought the police here today in a wild scramble to get a glimpse of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh.

The famous couple entered Tokyo by train this evening after landing at Gsumigaura naval base, 50 miles from the capital, the official terminus of their 7,132-mile flight from New York.

At Ueno station the Lindberghs encountered probably the most dense crowd in their experience. Several times while the liars and their official party were being seated it, line-sides the crowd became unmanageable and for a time it looked as though the Lindbergh automobile would be overrun.

Completing the last lap of their long flight, the Lindberghs arrived at Kasumigaura at 2:09 p. m. (1:09 p. m., C. S. T. Tuesday) after a 613-mile flight from New York.

They were received by Admiral Abo, minister of the navy; W. Cameron Forbes, American ambassador, and other notables while a crowd cheered.

Admiral Abo, in uttering the initial welcome, praised both the Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh for their tenness as messengers of peace, tending to strengthen the friendly relations between Japan and the United States.

Lindbergh, in responding, stressed his appreciation of the hospitality extended from all quarters and said he and Mrs. Lindbergh were "looking forward with great anticipation to spending a short time in Japan and having the opportunity of meeting and knowing more of your people."

Ambush Alleged to Have Caused Killing in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 26. (AP)—Charges that an ambush by partisans of Governor Ignacio de la Mora of Jalisco, was responsible for a shooting affray in the chamber of deputies last night in which one deputy was killed and two wounded were placed before a special congressional investigating committee today.

Ismael Lozano, president of the chamber, declared congressmen known as followers of De La Mora, who is the object of removal proceedings, took up positions at the exits and other vantage points in the hall just before the shooting broke out.

Deputy Manuel H. Ruiz was killed while attempting to defend the governor against charges brought against him in the meeting and Deputy Esteban Garcia de Alba, also a friend of the governor, was wounded in the right hand. Deputy Sebastian Alende, one of the governor's accusers, was perhaps fatally wounded when a bullet pierced his spinal column.

Efforts to bring congressional action to bear in the hope of having Governor De La Mora ousted came to a head last night when Deputy Jose Manuel Chavez in a speech to the chamber declared De La Mora was responsible for an intolerable system of peonage and corruption in Jalisco.

Congress recently has taken action against a number of state governors on charges similar to those brought against De La Mora. The governors of Coahuila and Nayarit were ousted by orders of congress and it is reported charges against Governor Andres Ortiz of Chihuahua, are ready to be presented.

WHITE HOUSE LUMBER SITE TO BE USED

Property at intersection of Foster and Ballard to Be Purchased at Cost Totaling $25,000.

IS NEAR STATION

Selection of Ground Expected to Mean Early Start on Pampa's Structure. $180,000 Available.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Assistant Secretary Heath announced today that sites for new federal buildings have been located at Pampa, Jacksonville, and Breckenridge, in Texas.

Property offered by the White House Lumber company, at the intersection of Foster avenue and Ballard street in Pampa, has been accepted. The cost will be $25,000.

The new building at Jacksonville will be located on the corner of South Jackson street and East Rusk street. The property was purchased from M. Harper and W. H. Harper for $23,000. The building at Breckenridge will be located on the corner of Court avenue and William street. The property was offered by E. Thompson for $13,500.

The site has a frontage of 150 feet on Foster avenue and 175 feet on Ballard street, although it is planned to increase the frontage on Ballard.

The contract allows the White House Lumber company 60 days in which to vacate. Officials said today that the lumber company would be moved as soon as the government desires.

Dr. V. E. von Brunow left yesterday to confer with postal officials at Dallas and Fort Worth, regarding expediting of construction it was learned today. He planned to go to Washington after leaving the Texas cities.

The site is convenient to the Santa Fe station, and this fact is thought to have had a strong bearing on the selection.

Bus Walker Is Freed in Killing

WHEELER, Aug. 26. (AP)—A district court jury which deliberated his case but 40 minutes late yesterday acquitted Melvin "Bus" Walker, 22, of the slaying of John Bellflower.

Bellflower was shot to death on the streets here Aug. 1. Walker testified he fired when Bellflower made a move as if to draw a gun.

At the time of the shooting Bellflower was at liberty under $10,000 bond on a charge of slaying S. E. Walker, the defendant's father. The elder Walker was shot to death at Shamrock March 4.

GRADER USED IN TERRACING

First terracing by county road grading machinery was done yesterday on the Wheeler Paris farm 3 miles west of Laketon. Commissioner John R. White lent the machinery for the demonstration.

The terraces were made on rolling, somewhat washed land, and were unusually high and broad. County Agent Ralph Thomas said the combines could cross them more easily than the ditches made by washing could be negotiated.

The wheat field in the future will retain practically all water which falls upon it, and washing will be eliminated. Terracing lines were run on 120 acres. More than a score of farmers watched the project.

WAITING FOR THAT "FAIR PRICE"

Forced elimination of cotton production next year is being argued chiefly on the assumption that the law of supply and demand would drive the price of this year's crop up to 20 cents per pound. Who knows that it would? We are not doubting the imperative necessity of drastically reducing production, but we doubt the claims of those who think this year's prices can be raised so high.

The supply of cheap oil is severely curtailed by the Texas and Oklahoma shutdowns. But is the law of supply and demand forcing the price up to $1? We think not. The price may go to $1 in Oklahoma temporarily, but a permanent market at the dollar figure is not in sight because of any operation of supply and demand. The fact remains that the major purchasers, abetted by producers who are willing to break a market at any time to sell flush production, can drive the price down any time they like.

We quote the Tulsa TRIBUNE:

"An increase to 70 cents per barrel for high gravity Oklahoma oil as offered by the Texas company is improvement. It might possibly be better than a prolonged shutdown in which the small refiners would be the chief sufferers. But it is not all Oklahoma is entitled to and it is not likely that it appears satisfactory to many of the oil companies that have advocated the shutdown. They started out for a fair price; Governor Murray has made a fair price at ratable takings the chief consideration in the terms offered companies wishing to reopen their Oklahoma wells; a fair price is still demanded. And nothing less than $1 per barrel is fair."

"The Standard companies ought to make up their minds that they are going to have to pay a fair price, and make it possible for their competitors to do the same, if they expect to continue in the oil business. It has been twenty years since the American people were aroused to fury pitch against the monopolization tactics of the Standard by the writings of a Lincoln Steffens or an Ida Tarbell, but there is yet enough in the Standard's methods of operation to set off a wave of public resentment that might give it as hard a jolt as it got in that famous dissolution order."

"The Standard group controls prices. There is no doubt of that. It sets the pace for price-fixing in both crude and refined products. Its unmeetable competition in many sections of this country gives it this power."

As this paper has pointed out many times, supply and demand are only imperfectly operative in the oil business as a price fixer. This law must have free play of competition to be wholly effective. Monopolies restrict this fluidity of commodity prices and both buying and selling figures are actually manipulated in defiance of the law for competitive purposes.

Therefore any shutdown alone is a temporary remedy and one that is highly damaging to small refiners.

IN 1896 THERE WERE ONLY FOUR AUTOMOBILES IN THE UNITED STATES!

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (NEA)—The construction industry, largest in the United States except for agriculture, considers itself a faithful forecaster of general business conditions. Study of previous periods of depression and recovery show that this industry has always led the way toward recovery from six months to a year ahead of any general upturn and that declines in construction have uniformly been followed by general declines from nine months to a year later.

Contractors now, however, hope that construction has temporarily lost its potency as a barometer. They say the present volume of construction is about half what it was in 1928 before it began to decline and that the outlook for the near future is not encouraging. Even President Hoover's efforts to stimulate public works and the lead taken by the federal government have failed to prevent a great decline in volume of public and semi-public construction.

The industry gets its figures from the F. W. Dodge corporation, whose surveys covering 37 states are used by the department of commerce and by the Constructor, organ of the associated general contractors of America. The Dodge organization surveys both contract awards and contemplated construction, looking six to nine months ahead on work a fluctuating percentage of which will be done.

The volume of contemplated work in the first seven months of 1930 was $5,889,000,000 and the volume of contemplated work reported in the first seven months of 1931 was $3,166,000,000. It is impossible to predict whether a greater or lesser percentage of this year's contemplated construction will actually be carried out.

Public and semi-public construction contract awards dropped from about $1,710,000,000 for the first seven months of 1930 to $1,250,000,000 for the first seven months of 1931, according to the Dodge reports. Thanks to the federal building program, the amount awarded for public buildings rose from 76 millions to 86 millions. But the amount awarded for public works and utilities—including highways, bridges, lighting systems—dropped from 1147 millions to 838 millions, in spite of greatly enlarged federal highway appropriations and loans which proved only a drop in the bucket. Other declines for the same period were from 239 millions to 156 for educational buildings, 108 to 71 for hospitals and institutions, 64 to 35 for religious and memorial buildings, 75 to 61 for social and recreational establishments.

Meanwhile, the Portland Cement reports show that concrete surface pavement awards—for streets, alleys and highways—were 39 per cent ahead of 1930 on May 1, 18 per cent on June 1, only 11 per cent on July 1 and only four per cent on Aug. 1. Congress increased the federal aid highway appropriation from $75,000,000 to $125,000,000 and appropriated $80,000,000 as an allocated loan to the states to be matched back against future highway appropriations.

The contractors say that the states, taking the federal money, consequently put everything into the contract award state during the first part of the year and that the total of street, alley and highway paving probably will be less this year than in 1930.

"The failure of municipalities to undertake street and alley paving work under the exceptionally favorable price conditions prevailing this year is nullifying the efforts of the federal government to increase employment through accelerating highway work," says a recent editorial in The Constructor. Such paving is largely brought and paid for on the order of abutting property holders, it is explained, and "when such property holders stop buying other commodities, thereby, they likewise stop buying paving."

Japan's Warrior of Peace Is Dead

TOKYO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Yuko Hamaguchi, former premier of Japan, who won the appellation "Warrior of Peace" by his espousal of the London naval treaty despite opposition of influential groups of extreme patriots and militarists, died here today. He was 61 years old.

Heading the government during the negotiations at London, Hamaguchi succeeded in obtaining Japan's adherence to the naval treaty only by a strenuous fight which incurred the displeasure of the ultra-patriots and advocates of a strong navy. November 14, 1930, after ratification of the treaty, Hamaguchi was shot and seriously wounded by Tomo Sagaya, 23, who was described as having been patriotically misguided or mentally deranged.

While Hamaguchi recovered slowly, Baron Shidehara, the foreign minister, became acting head of the government. Hamaguchi resumed his duties March 10, 1931, but they proved too strenuous and he submitted to two operations early in April. Subsequently he resigned and Reijiro Wakatsuki, the present premier, succeeded him.

Cuban Revolt Is Nearly Over But Police Watchful

HAVANA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Cubana fortress, crowded with some 200 captured rebels, received today 14 members of a filibustering expedition that lost to federal troops in the battle of Gibara.

Gen. Eusebio Balan, the leader, and the insurgents laid down their arms yesterday in Oriente province. Julio Gamaud, publisher of the anti-government weekly magazine Aricato, and Carlos Hevia, son of Col. Aurelio Hevia, one of six nationalist leaders, were included.

With many of the leaders of the movement in prison and the remainder in hiding, there has been no resumption of open warfare by the insurgents.

The government, confident the spirit of the revolt has been broken, nevertheless is not relaxing vigilance. Oriente province still was under a state of siege due to the reported concentration of rebels. In Havana all was quiet with the exception of sporadic bombings believed to be directed principally against American concerns as a last resort on the part of the insurgents to oust President Machado by American intervention under the Platt amendment.

Rewards of $5,000 for the capture dead or alive of bombers and the continuance of extra service for police, keeping them on duty 20 hours daily, will result in a gradual slackening of the bombings in the opinion of authorities.

Gang Murder Is New York's Latest Puzzle in Crime

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—A gang killing while scores of crooks and suspects were being rounded up stirred the police and others to new activity today.

Three men invaded an establishment on East 144th street, Bronx, last night, strode over to a table where Theodore Naddi, 29, was playing cards with two companions, and shot him dead. Naddi's two companions and the gunman were gone when detectives arrived. The police regard the place as a speakeasy.

Federal agents dealing with internal revenue, narcotics, prohibition, and other matters have conferred with Federal Attorneys Amelio of Brooklyn and Medaile of New York. It is the purpose of federal officials to aid in the drive against crime by obtaining indictments before special grand juries.

Flier's Body Is Not Yet Found

DALLAS, Aug. 26. (AP)—Searching parties, who spent one day and a portion of two nights dragging White Rock lake, had been unable to locate Reuben D. Newton, 29, missing American Airways pilot, today.

The aviator was last seen alive when he and Miss Marian Louise Craig, 17, of Whitewright, left a family picnic party to go for a boat ride. At 11:30 p. m. the girl's body was found floating face downward on the lake. Her watch had stopped at 8 p. m.

Searchers believed if Newton's body became fastened to the boat as it sank, it probably never would be recovered.

Searchers, likewise, had not found the boat in which the couple departed. A theory that the boat in which Newton and the girl rode was struck by a speeding motor boat, led officers to examine all boats about the lake. None showed evidence of having been in a collision.

TRACK MEET ARRANGED TO HOLD INTEREST OF FANS

BEN CHAPMAN DEFEATS ACE OF WHITE SOX

Yankee Also Speeds Over Paths For Two More Pifered Bases.

By GAYLE TALBOT Associated Press Sports Writer Having pretty well settled the question of team supremacy in the two major leagues, the boys have hit on a new scheme to whet the interest of the fans. They're putting on track meets, and the possibilities are limitless.

When Ben Chapman, the Yankee's favorite speedster, outfought Carl Reynolds of the White Sox in a special match race before yesterday's tilt at Chicago, something undoubtedly was started.

After beating Reynolds by some four yards in their special 100-yard dash, Chapman utilized his speed in the game that followed to steal his fifth and fifty-first bases of the year. The Yankees won, incidentally, 8 to 0, behind Herb Pennock's six-hit pitching.

It Didn't Matter

Rommel hurried the Athletics to a 4 to 1 victory over St. Louis, allowing only six hits, Washington, so far back now it scarcely matters, thumped the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 1.

All set for second place in the National league, the Giants helped matters along by trimming the Chicago Cubs twice, 5 to 3 and 7 to 1, stretching their lead over the Hornaby clan to five games. Carl Hubbell's five-hit pitching and Mel Ott's homerun with two on featured the first. Jim Chaplin stopped the visitors in the second.

The Robins, likewise nursing second place ambitions, divided a pair with the Pittsburgh Pirates. A 4-run spurge off Watson Clark in the eighth, giving the Pirates the opener, 7 to 3. Fred Heimach secured matters by winning the nightcap, 4 to 0.

Lots of Whitewash

Cincinnati and Philadelphia took turns applying the whitewash, the Reds winning the first, 8 to 0, behind Red Lucas' brilliant pitching and the Phils making the second, 1 to 0, as Jim Elliott bested young Si Johnson in a tight duel.

Old Socks Seibold neld the Cardinals scoreless for eight innings, but they nicked him for one to tie the score in the ninth and then collected three more in the tenth to defeat the Boston Braves, 4 to 1.

Sinclair Out of Racing For Time

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 26. (AP) — Whether Harry F. Sinclair's retirement from thoroughbred racing would be a permanent or a temporary affair was a matter of much conjecture today. Sinclair's Bancocas stable is to pass from the picture Sept. 3, when the 25 horses in training will be sold.

Friends of the millionaire oilman and sportsman say, however, his green-capped silks will be on the turf again next year and point to Sinclair's large breeding farm at Hoboken, N. J., where over 100 mares, yearlings, and weanlings are quartered. Sinclair refused to discuss his future plans when he announced his retirement "because he was unable to give his stable proper attention" but his three great sires, Zev, Lucille, and Bud Lermer, will not be sold.

Sinclair achieved international fame as a sportsman when Zev defeated the English derby winner, Papyrus, in a $100,000 international race at Belmont park in 1923.

Athletics To Rest Regulars All They Ask

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26. (AP) — Despite injuries, the world champion Athletics are in front 141-2 games. Down the home stretch they are playing with four regulars on the bench.

Mickey Cochrane, catcher, is the latest casualty. He returned home yesterday for a rest at the seashore, suffering from dizzy spells which have been keeping him from sleep. His physician refused to disclose whether the ailment resulted from sinus trouble, which has bothered him, or from injuries received ten days ago when hit in the head with a pitch. Cochrane joined Al Simmons, George Haas, and Joe Boley on the disability list.

Jimmy Dykes, Max Bishop, and Johnny Heving, Cochrane's understudy, also have been out of the game during the last month but are now back.

After the champions had been all right during the early part of the season, they got back in shape late in July. But Jimmy Dykes pulled up lame and Joe Boley joined him with a second charleyhorse.

Then Haas fractured a wrist and Max Bishop, at second, took down with the heat and was out for a week. Johnny Heving suffered a broken nose in an exhibition game and Bing Miller went to the bench with a bad leg.

Two weeks ago Al Simmons, in the midst of a battle with Babe Ruth for batting honors of the American league, twisted one ankle and was unable to play left field.

George Earnshaw hasn't worked in the box for almost two weeks and some say his arm is sore. Connie Mack hasn't announced it.

This Game of GOLF

Among other lessons in the first sectional qualifying test for the United States amateur golf championship was one which dealt with the striking improvement of the Dixie golf which we saw in our little affair at the East Lake course in Atlanta.

The most important lesson was furnished by the depressing fact of one player qualifying the Detroit district with a score of 164, while another in the beetle district was left out with a 149.

But the improvement of southern amateur golf in the last 15 years was something to ponder also. It furnished a striking illustration of the general increase of golfing competence which has taken place over the country.

At the East Lake course, now known as the "old course," since a new one has been put in play, 11 youngsters assembled from the southeast, to play for four places in the 1931 national amateur championship. Polly Boyd of Chattanooga was the oldest. Most of the entries were under 20. Gene Cook, who turned in the best score, was 26.

Medalist With 83

Sixteen years ago, the southern amateur championship of 1915 was played at East Lake, on the "old course"—then the "new course." The layout was in about the same condition and showed the same yardage, with the eighth hole a one-shotter instead of the present par four, as in the recent event. One hundred and forty of the best amateurs in Dixie played in the medal round of 18 holes, back in 1915.

The leading medalists were Nelson Whitney of New Orleans, champion of the year before, and Charlie Dexter of Dallas, who went on to win the 1915 title, with Whitney as runner-up. Their scores were 82. Bobby Jones was next, with 83.

Returns from the 11 youngsters at East Lake looked amazingly different. In the first round of 18 holes, nine of the 11 contestants were better than 80. The young man who brought in an 83 was ready to jump in the lake and end it all. He was ready to faint when I told him that that was Bobby Jones' score, on the same course, qualifying in his first southern amateur, and that it was regarded at the time as a great bit of work. That it had been, in fact the leading factor in winning the club team competition in the medal round.

Modern Sub-80's

Gene Cook's two rounds were 75 and 73. Carl Dann Jr., did 77 and 75; Jack Tommer 75 and 78; and Charley Yates, East Lake youngster, was left out with 76-78-154, and was terribly cast down about it. Of the 22 rounds by the 11 competitors only half a dozen were 80 or worse.

I suppose the worst score to qualify for the national in the entire United States was the 164 of a Detroit entry, in a district where quantity was more in evidence than quality. This seems pretty terrible today.

Yet the co-medalists of that southern championship at East Lake in 1915 presented exactly the same score—82-82-164—and everybody considered it darned good, at the time. And the 83 by Bobby Jones, well, that was a sort of nine-days' wonder.

South Carolina and Mississippi sandlot baseball teams will compete in the American Legion eastern tournament for championship of the east at Manchester, N. H.

BEAUMONT IN REVENGE TILT WITH BUFFS

Defeat Houston 7 to 4 After Trailing Champs Into Eighth Inning.

By WILLIAM A. (BILL) PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer Beaumont, loser of the first half championship to Houston, got a bit of revenge yesterday by defeating Houston, 7 to 4. The Exporters were trailing 4 to 3 at the end of the seventh but in the last of the eighth they rampaged for 4 rounds. Schudible started Beaumont's run stamped in the eighth with a double. His hit was followed by four singles and a triple steal.

Hitting Ferrell, Vincent and Pressnell timely and hard, Dallas opened a sixteen-game stay by defeating Wichita Falls, 7 to 3. Lefty Minogue went the route for Dallas, registering his 12th victory this season.

Dick McCabe of Fort Worth has the honor of being the fourth pitcher in the Texas league this season to win 20 games. Dick turned the trick last night when he limited Shreveport to nine hits for a 12 to 5 decision. McCabe received loose support, but never was in serious danger.

In the series open between Galveston and San Antonio, the Buccaneers gained a 2 to 0 verdict. Thor-mahlen led the Indians to five hits. He struck out seven and walked three.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP) — Ponderous but powerful pugilism is in order at Ebbets field tonight as Victorio Campolo, one mile north of Canyon, has been made by the old cow punchers association.

The former range riders and their wives are expected to arrive on the grounds on the afternoon of August 26 and camp for the night. It is expected that 200 or 300 people will be present, although invitations are limited to immediate families of the old timers.

CANYON, Aug. 26. (Special)—On August 27 cow punchers from the entire Panhandle-Plains region will meet for their annual round-up on the T-Anchor range, one mile north of Canyon. The arrangements for the gathering have been made by John Arnot, president of the old cow punchers association.

Team Objects to Playing at Night

HOUSTON, Aug. 26. (AP) — Vigorous protest against a night game with South Chicago, its opponent in the American Legion junior world series, had been made by the Columbia, S. C., baseball club. The series is scheduled to open here Friday.

Definite decision on the night play plan will be made tomorrow when Russell Cook, Legion official in charge of baseball, arrives in Houston with the two teams.

"Mate" Is Not to Race in Saratoga

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 26. (AP) — A. C. Bostwick, owner of the year's leading three-year-olds, announced yesterday that Mate would not start against Twenty Grand and Sun Beau in the Saratoga cup race Sept. 5.

Mate, Bostwick said, evidently was cut by another horse in the running of the Kenner a few days ago. The scratching leaves Twenty Grand, the Kentucky derby winner which lost two out of three decisions to Mate, and Sun Beau, Willis Sharpe Kilmer's six-year-old veteran which has raced impressively this year to become the world's greatest money winning horse, as the leading contenders for the cup.

The Georgia Bulldogs will have 12 veterans on the football team this year—all seniors.

Mrs. Tyson Looks Like Champ Now

MICHELAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 26. (AP) — Back on the game that carried her to the national title back in 1927, Mrs. George Tyson of Kansas City today stood out not only as the defending titleholder but the one outstanding favorite to topple in the battle for the women's western golf championship.

She turned back her first opponent in match play, Mary Elizabeth Ford of Kansas City, 7 and 6. Her rival today was Ann Webster of Leavenworth, Kans., a shot maker accustomed to using about six more shots for 18 holes than Mrs. Tyson, who won the national open as Miriam Burns Horn.

With one exception, Mrs. Gregg Lufur of Los Angeles, all of the favorites remained in the championship picture today as the tussle entered the second, 18-hole round stretch. Mrs. Lufur, finalist in 1925, was ejected from the race yesterday by Rena Nelson, 18-year-old Chicago girl.

Oliver Sansen, fullback who will captain Iowa's grid team this year, has won four letters in football and track.

Claude Wilson of Birmingham, for many years a clever boxer, has doffed the gloves and is now coaching amateur fighters.

Lefty Jenkins, who pitched a 19-inning 1-to-1 tie game in Springfield, Mass., formerly hurried for the Duke university baseball team.

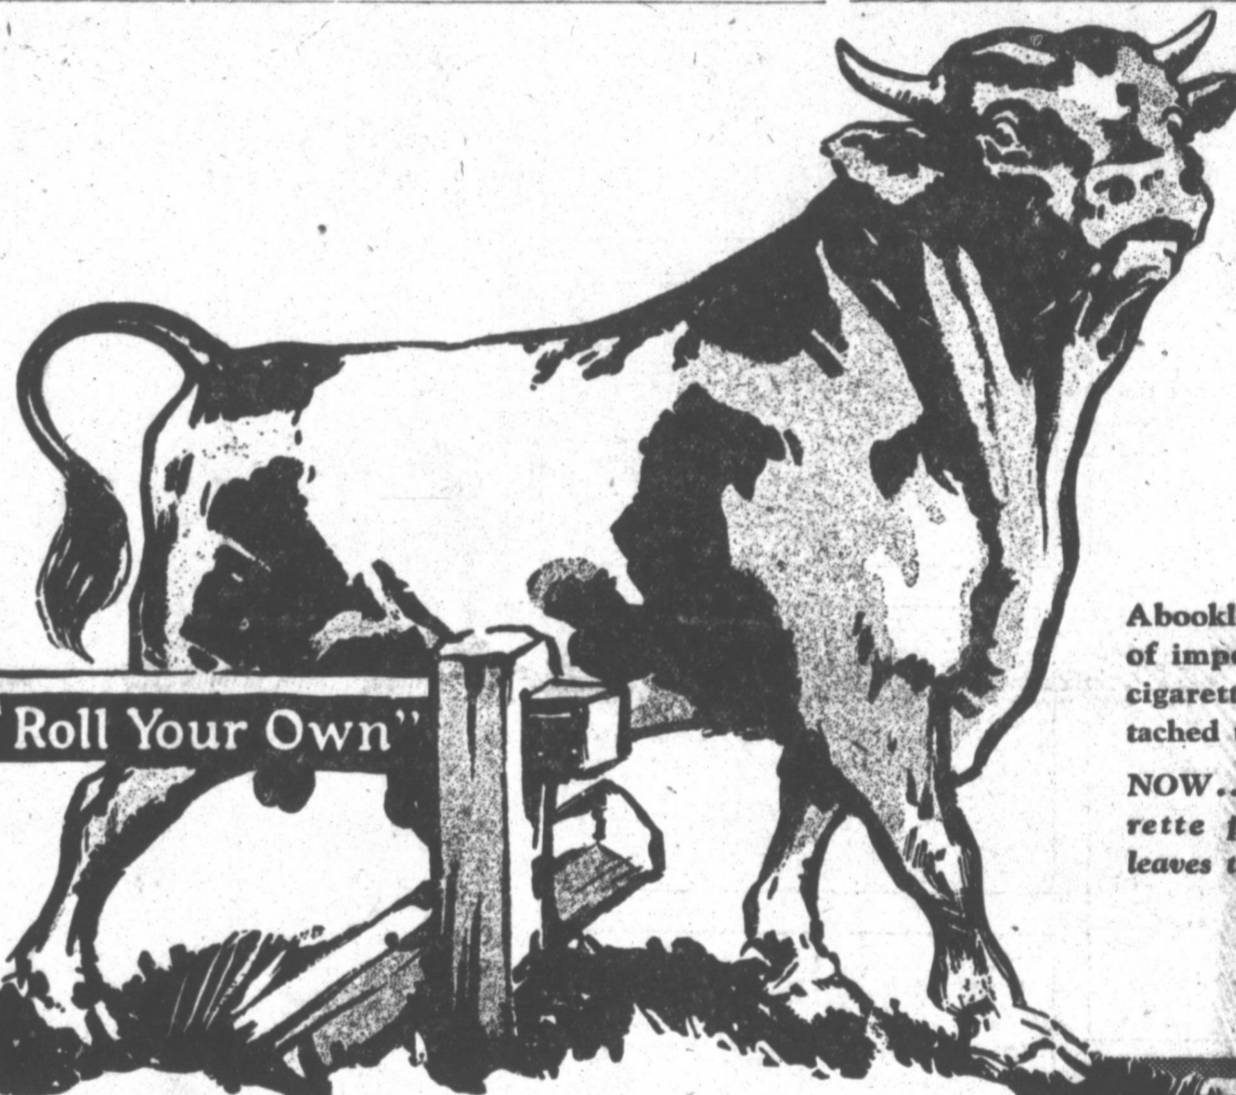

IOWA GIRL IS CHAMPION OF TRAP SHOOT

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 26. (AP) — An 18-year-old Iowa school girl and a Detroit automobile salesman stood today at the head of the amateur trapshooting ranks of America. Karl Maust, Detroit, shot his way out of a four-way tie to capture the men's North American clay target championship in the feature event yesterday of the thirty-second annual grand American trapshooting tournament of the amateur trapshooters association.

To Jeanette Jay, 18, of Waverly, Ia., went the North American women's crown after a shoot-off with Mrs. H. E. Grisby of Oklahoma City. Miss Jay shattered 191 pigeons out of a possible 200, and in the shoot-off ran 25 consecutive targets to out score Mrs. Grisby.

Tale of Slaying Denied in Borger

LONGVIEW, Texas, Aug. 26. (AP)—A man giving the name of Smoky Smith and two girls who said they were his companions on an automobile trip during which a hitch-hiker was fatally beaten near Borger several weeks ago were held here today for Sheriff J. W. McCormick, who has felony warrants for the three. Officers said one of the girls said she saw the man beaten.

Local officers, informed a man and two girls were held in Longview in connection with the alleged fatal beating of a hitch-hiker near Borger recently, said today the only such occurrence known to them had not resulted fatally.

A man named McAfee was beaten and thrown from an automobile south of Borger in Carson county late in July. He was not badly hurt. He was treated at Panhandle and later left this section with a man and two women.

Phillips Team Will Play Oilers

Manager Kirkpatrick of the Phillips team announced today his club will play the Pampa South Side Oilers here Sunday afternoon. It has not yet been decided whether the game will be played at the Gulf or Magnolia diamonds.

It is the only game announced for the day for Sunday. The Oilers include best players from a number of local teams in the Gray-Carson league that recently disbanded. Manager Latch has collected a formidable aggregation, the Phillips team believes.

Phillips' battery will probably include Stewart and Pulliam.

Big Dirigible Is "Walked" to Air

AKRON, O., Aug. 26. (AP)—The Akron, queen of the air, poked her nose out of her giant dock early today for her first visit into the open air.

A ground crew of 250 men "walked" the ship, the largest dirigible in the world, outside of the hangar in the dress rehearsal to prepare for the first flight sometime in the near future.

The maiden flight will not be staged before Sept. 5. Goodyear-Zeppelin corporation and navy officials said.

WHEAT IS STEADY
CHICAGO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Relative strength of Liverpool quotations and scattered buying held the Chicago wheat market generally steady at the start today. Trade was light and price changes only fractional.

Corn also was fairly steady with trade mostly of a local character. Wheat started unchanged to 3-8 cent higher and showed little change afterwards. Corn opened unchanged to 1-4 off and held near this range.

Mysterious Cabinet Has Double Life

By MARGERY TAYLOR
Interior Decoration Editor, McCall's Magazine. Written for Pampa Daily News

Crafty designs are inspired particularly by the small apartment. There is the dining problem, for instance, where there is no dining room. The latest answer is the "cabinet dinette," and we forgive it, its name because of its service. Between meals, it is a charming maple or mahogany pier cabinet, with open shelves below, and may be used as a desk or telephone stand. But, with one pull, the front drops and there is a gate leg supporting a table for two or three, while the shelves are ready for the china.

The furniture designers are not satisfied with changing the styles of traditional tables and chairs and other large pieces, but any small accessory which adds to comfort is re-designed for new grace and usefulness.

And if they discover something which ought to be but isn't, they immediately serve up a new creation. Among living room accessories, the newest card tables have become real furniture, although easily collapsed and hidden. The latest magazine rack, so necessary for a literary but not a literary air, owes its lines to a music rack designed by none other than Thomas Jefferson.

Friends Find Relief for Beaumont Man

Beaumont, Texas.—Mr. Irwin J. Meyers, 1226 Victoria, has recently had the congratulations of his friends for his recovery from sickness that looked very serious. When interviewed, Mr. Meyers told the following story of his recovery:

"Before I started taking Herb Extract I suffered from constipation, torpid liver and severe gas pains on my stomach. I belched continuously, had dizzy spells, felt tired and sleepless and had no pep. A friend of mine urged me to try Herb Extract and since taking it my stomach is much better. I am no longer constipated—my head feels clear—and I have plenty of energy to do my work at the Beaumont Iron Works, where I've worked for six years. Have visited in Beaumont fourteen years and know many friends who will be interested in such a wonderful medicine, doing so much good right here in Beaumont."

Such remarkable recoveries happen every day when people use Herb Extract. This amazing medicine is now available at your drug store. Get a bottle—try it—and get lasting relief and benefit.

CHURCH CLASS HAS PICNIC ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Members of the Builders class, First Christian church, and the teacher, John Sturgeon, enjoyed a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marbaugh on the Berger road Tuesday evening.

Those arriving first played tennis, croquet, and forty-two. The women had a horse-shoe pitching contest in which Mrs. Roy J. Wilson took honors. Later in the evening, all joined in playing informal group games.

The picnic lunch consisted of sandwiches, Coca Cola, home-made ice cream, and cake. The best of the left-over food was presented to the welfare board.

After the lunch, a sing-song was enjoyed with Mr. Sturgeon proving very popular as a pianist.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames John F. Sturgeon, Ebert Thomas, C. W. Stowell, Billie Taylor, F. H. Meskinen, Art Blachley, J. W. Hutchins, R. C. Wilson, Roy J. Wilson, D. Frederickson, Paul Hughes, Carl Blashears, and H. E. Marbaugh; Mesdames May Foreman Carr, E. W. Voss, Carl Taylor, and Gertrude Arnold; Margaret Faye Taylor, and Loraine Blachley.

SOUP IS MADE BY GROUP IN OPEN TUESDAY

Soup was made out-of-doors by 24 members of the Girl Scouts Tuesday evening. The girls also brought bread and butter and home-made cookies from home. They were furnished drinks by the Coca Cola Bottling company, and were given ice for their water by the Pampa Ice company.

One girl, having sampled the soup so many times to see that it was properly salted, was said by the other girls to have already eaten her supper and was ordered to look on while the rest ate.

The girls took time about bringing in wood and tending the fire. They also studied woodcraft and learned to tie the knots required in the tenderfoot test. About half of the group will take this test next Saturday.

The University of Maryland will have 14 of 18 letters for the football grid this year.

CHURCHES

INTEREST IN REVIVAL
CONTINUES
Great interest is being manifested each day in the Methodist revival. Yesterday morning's service was one of the outstanding services of the series thus far. There were around a hundred people present and everyone present enjoyed a service of true revival power. Rev. Johnson preached upon the theme "How to Bring Men to Christ." He said we might study man-made means and machine methods but that there was only one method and that was the method of Christ and His disciples.

At the close of the morning service there were five decisions for Christ. The evening service was attended by a house full of interested and listening hearers. Mr. Lance Webb sang "Does Jesus Care" after which Mr. Johnson preached on the subject "One of the Mightiest Men of the Bible and How He Fell." He took the life of Samson and traced his natural and spiritual advantages and then the power of sin that trapped him and made him to lose his power. Mr. Johnson likened the experience of Samson to the experience of many a modern day Christian and church member who once were powerful but who had, like Samson, "Wise not that the Lord had departed from him."

The young people's services at 7:30 each evening are in charge of Mr. Lance Webb and are being well attended. Every young person of the city are invited to come and meet with this group. Mr. Johnson announced last evening that tonight he would preach on "A Quartet of Fools." There will be no day service Saturday morning.

Saturday night there will be a mass rally and a truly evangelistic service. Mr. Johnson stated that he would like to have every person in Gray county present Saturday evening. He will bring a special message entitled "The Second Coming of Christ." There will be no day service Saturday morning.

Future Farmers Complete Course At Training Camp

CANYON, Aug. 26. (Special)—Eighty-five boys, future farmers, representing high schools at Tulsa, Dimmitt, Hiale Center, White Deer, Pampa, and Farwell, completed their three-day camp at Ceta canyon Saturday with a luncheon at the West Texas State Teachers college with Prof. Frank R. Phillips in charge.

Dr. J. A. Hill addressed the future farmers, taking as his subject, "The Honesty of Boyhood," and urging the boys to make full and careful preparation for the work which is ahead of them, and calling to their attention the need for trained workers in the great basic activity of agriculture.

James L. Linder and Frances Up-try furnished entertainment features. The last session was held at the Tierra Blanca farm, where hog and cattle judging was practiced. Prof. Fred Hale, swine specialist at A. & M. college, gave a lecture, "How to Judge Hogs," illustrating with animals before him. D. H. Taylor of Tulsa spoke on important phases of judging.

J. R. Bertrand of White Deer was elected representative from the Pampa Agricultural council to state advisory council at Dallas this fall. He has already served as president and vice-president of the White Deer group of students of vocational agriculture under J. R. Hewitt. He was chosen one of the five Lone Star Farmers of Texas in 1930. The camp was so successful that plans are already being made to make this an annual affair.

Details Concerning Cigaret Tax Given

Details of retailing cigarettes on which the new state tax are to be paid, as shown by the statutes, reveal that the retail dealers are relieved of accountability for placing of the stamps. The law requires the wholesaler, or person making the first intrastate sale, to affix them to the cartons.

The pertinent sections of the new law follow: Section 11.—In order to supplement the state's available school fund, and to reduce the burden of ad valorem taxation on the farms, and homes and other property of the people, there is hereby levied a tax on all sales in intrastate commerce, in this state, of cigarettes made of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, and weighing not more than three pounds per thousand of $1.50 per thousand, and on those weighing more than three pounds per thousand of $3.00 per thousand. Such tax shall be paid only once, on account of any cigarette so sold, by the person, firm, or corporation making the first sale thereof in intrastate commerce in this state, and payment shall be evidenced by stamps purchased from the state treasurer and properly canceled and affixed to the package or parcel containing the same, covering the amount of the tax thereon as levied by this act, provided that such stamps may be purchased and canceled and affixed to such package or parcel by a manufacturer or distributor outside this state, in which case no further payment of tax shall be required.

Section 12.—It is the purpose and intent of this act to relieve retail dealers in cigarettes in this state from all accountability by reason of sales thereof, except to make it unlawful to sell cigarettes on which the tax herein levied has not been paid, and which are not contained in packages or parcels to which are securely affixed the stamps evidencing payment of tax as required by this act.

"Rip Tides" Feared In Hot Weather

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26. (AP)—The weather bureau today forecasts a continuation of high temperatures which visited Los Angeles and vicinity yesterday and surf bathing as a means of avoiding the heat was made unattractive to many because of the possibility of the recurrence of dangerous "rip tides."

The temperature was 97 here yesterday, the hottest August day in five years. This freakish twist of the weather followed the hottest July recorded for Los Angeles.

The return of heat to the Los Angeles area saw the recurrence of a rip tide similar to that of last July 4, which claimed 21 lives along the Southern California coast. However, only one drowning had been attributed to the new tide—a combination of vicious cross currents.

The cotton market had a quiet opening today. Liverpool came rather better than due and first trades here showed gains of 4 to 5 points. The market continued steady after the start owing to a liberal shift covering October trade in 1.02 and December at 7.25, or 5 points on both active months above yesterday's close. Later prices eased off 4 to 6 points in anticipation of a favorable weekly weather and crop summary. Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady but at the low.

MOON of DELIGHT by Margaret Bell Houston

SYNOPSIS: First, Juanita Bana, a slow-witted brought to Divitt's gambling house. A cigarette girl, then Divitt's special wedge into the homes of the New Orleans elite. There with the marquis, Divitt's criminal partner, she had been the innocent aid to his robberies—fearing to run away because of some mystery in her past, conscious only of the deception in her assumed name—Senorita Flores—of Kirk Starnard's love for her and hers for him. Now, with Divitt and his henchman, Umberto arrested, the pariers raided and the marquisa flown, she is her true self—Beatriz Montega, voluntarily a prisoner in New Orleans to answer to a charge of murder in Vera Cruz, Mex., beside her, hears her strange story.

Chapter 37 JUANITA'S STORY The guard, who had paced up and down before Juanita's cell, was passing now. As he went by he glanced in at Juanita, seated on her bed with Kirk beside her. "For a moment," she was silent; then, the guard out of hearing, she spoke again.

"I told you of my mother... how she died a year ago. She was killed. Not outright, but little by little, day by day. She had married the man I loved, and she had a child, like yours, like mine. My mother was the Basaras in Mexico City. De Banos they hated an enemy. It was an old quarrel, and my mother begged them to forget and lay it by. Her brothers warned her that if she married him they would renounce her, and never see her again. I think she loved him. I only know she married him, gave up her people and went with him to Vera Cruz. She took only me and old Pedro. Pedro had been with her since her marriage to my father.

"Pedro and I watched her die. She had been frail always. Great eyes and heavy hair, and such a light body, like a child's—like Nelly's. Not strong enough to fight and no one to turn to. That was why I fought for her. Often in the night I heard her crying, and when I would go to comfort her she would say, 'What have I brought you to, Juanita? What will you do when I am gone?' she would say. And I would answer, 'Pedro will take care of me, Mamita.' Pedro had taken care of us both before. Once when Mamita was stricken with the lever Pedro nursed her. And when the bandits came he stood guard at our door, and though he was shot, he kept them at bay, and they went away. He came near dying of his wound.

"But she answered, 'I have robbed you, of your people. You will have nowhere to go. They hate us now.' Hatred is a deadly thing with us, Kirk. I know. I felt it for de Banos. His mistresses came openly to the house. I remember a banquet he gave to one of them. I remember the noises of their orgy as the night went by. 'I remember the dress of gold tissue that she wore. 'I remember my mother. Pedro said to me, 'Some day I shall kill him.' 'I said, 'Hush, Pedro. But I had said the thing to myself many times.

"She found peace at last. I said to de Banos, 'You have killed her.' He hated me for that. He kept me prisoner in his great house. He feared I would say abroad what I had said to him. But others knew already.

"He knew that I hated him, but he did not know that Pedro hated him, too. Old Pedro, part Indian, who would have died for me, and who said again, 'I will kill him.' 'No Pedro,' I said, and knew that I myself would do the thing.

"Pedro slipped decent food to me in my prison where Estrella, who had been de Banos' mistress and who was still his, had sneaked, watched me night and day. Pedro was too clever, even for her. He slipped the key to me also, bidding me be careful when I used it.

"Estrella had taken my clothes. But once I had come home from a dance and slept in this tower room not to disturb my mother. The dress I had worn hung there still—the cloths, the slippers were there. 'It was dark. Far below I heard de Banos' and Estrella's laughter. Estrella was certainly nowhere near my door. I heard the click of glasses and more laughter. Once a door banged. Then came silence that lasted a long time.

"I wrapped a cloak about me and went down the stairs. The door of de Banos' room stood open. De Banos lay on the rug, face down. The lights were burning. 'I thought, 'He is drunk. Tomorrow he will be violent. But I shall be gone.' 'Then I saw something shining—

New Ministry Is On Unsteady Basis

LONDON, Aug. 26. (AP)—Ramsay MacDonald's second labor government passed into history today in the presence of King George and his first non-partisan ministry was formally launched on its mission of balancing Great Britain's books.

The king received the retiring ministers of the old regime at Buckingham palace and they handed over their seals of office. An hour later the tri-party members of the new cabinet called on him and he convened a privy council at which they were sworn in.

Prime Minister MacDonald started his day as usual with a walk in St. James park, accompanied by his daughter Sheila, and was back at his desk at No. 10 Downing street before 9 o'clock.

Having played his constitutional role in the nation's political drama, the king prepared to return to his castle at Balmoral, Scotland, from which he was summoned Sunday when the cabinet split on the question of finances.

Focusing its attention on the joint meeting of the leaders of the parliamentary labor party, the trades union congress and the independent labor party, the nation realized the magnitude of the opposition the emergency government must face in pushing its economy measures through parliament.

Though the cabinet of ten ministers includes Prime Minister MacDonald and Chancellor Snowden, it was apparent the united weight of almost the entire labor party and trade unionism would be cast solidly against the government.

On the basis of the belief not more than a dozen labor members of parliament outside the cabinet members themselves would support the regime in the commons, there was speculation as to whether it could even be sure of a majority.

Parachute Jumper in Narrow Escape

CORSICANA, Aug. 26. (AP)—Thurston Carlisle, 22-year-old Giddings, Tex., parachute jumper, may carry a knife with him when he goes parachuting next time.

Carlisle's "rabbit foot" failed him last night, as did his parachute, when he went aloft with Bill Stewart Corsicans, pilot to make a night jump.

As a result, Carlisle was bounced along at the end of an unopened parachute for 45 minutes, making vain attempts to reach the rip cord of the emergency bag he carried.

When the plane's gasoline supply was exhausted, Stewart landed, "cracking up" to avoid crushing Carlisle.

Carlisle received numerous cuts and bruises. On all occasions Carlisle declined to carry a knife with him, stating his "rabbit foot" would turn the "trick."

EX-HARVESTERS WILL GIVE NEW OUTFIT POWERFUL TEST

Former Stars Working Out as Unit to Back Up Claim They Are Best.

Are the current Harvesters husky or merely beefy? And how will they rank in a contest with last year's eleven.

The 1930 boys are disdainful of the new crop of athletes and believe they can show them up easily. The dispute, which has been growing warmer daily, will be settled Friday afternoon here when the two groups meet in a practice game.

The ex-Harvesters, strengthened by Archie Lee Walstead and other boys of former years, are practicing daily for the event. They may not be in as good condition as the campers, but they say that brain work will decide the tilt. A number of them are getting ready for college play and these are in superb condition.

The big scrimmage will begin about 2:30 o'clock Friday on Harvesters park. The fans in great numbers are expected to see the event.
