GUARANTEES OF BANK ARE TAKEN OVER

Institutions of Nation Fearful of Runs as Confidence of Public Is Shaken Despite Debt Moratorium.

HOOVER IS LATE

Federal Reserve System May Join Other Financiers in Combating Chaos and Communism.

BERLIN, July 13. (AP)—Directing all its energies towards saving the nation from financial ruin, the German government today issued an emergency decree taking over guarantees of the $30,000,000 Darmstadt and Nations bank, which has suspended payments because of the drain on its resources by constantly rising demands for foreign currencies.

The run which closed Darmstadt extended in some degree to other banks this morning, and to help prevent the panic from spreading the government closed the stock exchange today and tomorrow.

Jacob Goldschmidt, head of Darmstadt and regarded as one of the ablest bankers in Germany, asserted a moratorium should have been declared by all the German banks weeks ago and it ought to be declared immediately. He blamed his bank's crash on the press of political opposition which "crystallized vague fears into the one specific fear that our bank was unsound."

Cabinet Work On Meantime the cabinet, whose members are worn by the constant sessions of several days past, remained on the job.

Dr. Hans Luther, whose efforts to obtain French participation in a foreign credit for the Reichsbank were unsuccessful in that the government declined to accept conditions imposed by France, left by plane this morning for Basel to attend a meeting of the world bank directors there.

The emergency decree, issued under the so-called dictatorship clause of the Reich constitution, was signed by President Von Hindenburg and under it the Reich undertakes to guarantee deficiencies arising from the Darmstadters "non-liability."

Speedy Relief Needed WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—Speedy financial relief for Germany was declared essential in a report to the state department today from Ambassador Sackett at Berlin.

Meanwhile, President Hoover returned to the White House from his Rapidan camp in Virginia and prepared to devote the day to the German crisis.

Acting Secretary Mills of the treasury was an early caller at the White House, remaining closeted with the president for a lengthy conference.

The administration had announced that while American banks were ready to cooperate to help Germany in her struggle against large withdrawals of short term foreign credits, it was up to Europe's banking institutions to take the lead.

Communism Feared CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—James W. Gerard of New York, former American ambassador to Germany, said last night that Germany's financial crisis remained much longer unrelieved, communism might sweep Europe. He expressed this opinion while passing through Chicago on his way to Hamilton, Mont.

"The situation in Germany undoubtedly is one of the most threatening the world has faced since the war," he said. "If Germany goes bankrupt and the Brüning cabinet falls, the country will be left at the mercy of the communists and Hitlerites."

Indians Whoop It Up for Fliers

New York may have given Harold Gatty and Wiley Post a riotous welcome, but it remained for Oklahoma Indians to make real whoopee when the globe-girdling fliers arrived at Chickasha, Okla. Wiley Post, native Oklahoman, is shown above being presented a handmade bead bag by a Kiowa maiden, while Chief Jasper, head of the Kiowa tribe, looks on. Gatty, pictured between Post and the girl, was presented a similar gift. At the right, Post is shown receiving an affectionate kiss from his mother, Mrs. W. F. Post of Massville, Okla.

Abilene Grocer Kills Self After Family Quarrel

SAN ANGELO, July 13. (AP)—While his son, Irvin Akin of Stamford, walked from a car to greet his mother across the street, T. J. Akin, 54, Abilene grocer, shot himself to death here Sunday. A verdict of suicide was returned by Justice B. E. Gray.

Irvin Akin testified at the examining trial that while motoring from Abilene to San Angelo his father announced his intention to end his life, that he tried to dissuade his father and later to take a gun from him but was unable to do so. Akin left no note but the son said there had been disagreement between his parents.

Second Attempt to Fly Plane to Tokyo Likely to Be Made Within Week.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 13. (AP)—The Fort Worth, baffled near Nome three days ago in an attempted Seattle-Tokyo nonstop flight and being flown back to Seattle for another try, took off for White Horse, Y. T., at 7:18 p. m. last night (11:18 p. m. Central Standard Time) today.

A refueling demonstration was given over the city, with Reg L. Robbins and Harold S. Jones, the Texas aviators, in the Fort Worth and James Mattern and Nick Greener in the refueling tri-motored plane, before the Fort Worth began its flight east.

The refueling was completed within 20 minutes and the tri-motored plane descended to Weeks field to await the return of the Fort Worth or another flight plane from the south on the aviators' second attempt to fly to Japan.

Robbins said the second attempt probably will be made within a week.

LEGISLATURE EXPECTED TO ENACT LAWS

Governor Murray Will Not Ask Shut-Down Until This State Takes Steps for Curbing East Texas.

Informal Caucuses Take Place at Austin as Measures to Be Introduced Are Talked by Many Men

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 13. (AP)—Oklahoma's oil fields will be ordered shut down as soon as Texas joins in the move to restore prices, Gov. W. H. Murray announced today.

Murray said he had not yet received the petition of Oklahoma City operators asking for the shut down order but that he had already determined upon his course of action.

"It would be useless to order a shut down here to meet the present crisis in the industry if Texas is going to be wide open," the governor said.

Governor Murray and his cousin, Cicero Murray, chairman of the oil states advisory committee, appeared optimistic regarding the outcome of the situation in Texas.

Expect Sterling Order The Texas legislature convenes in special session tomorrow and Cicero Murray, who said he had communicated with Gov. Ross Sterling of Texas, by telephone, said he believed "Governor Sterling might be persuaded to issue an executive order for a shut-down as soon as the legislature passes a law on the oil curb."

Governor Murray, declaring "the East Texas field is the cause of all this trouble," indicated his delay in taking action was in order that nothing might interfere with steps decided upon by Texas officials.

AUSTIN, July 13. (AP)—The main body of the Texas legislature already in the capital and the rest scheduled to arrive today and tonight, plans for the opening at noon tomorrow of the special session to consider enactment of laws to aid conditions in the oil industry, rapidly were taking form. The session was to last 30 days.

Inadequate Laws The call for the special session of the legislature was necessitated by failure of East Texas operators to abide by proration orders, resulting in almost unrestricted production. Inadequate conservation laws was attributed as the principal reason for failure of the railroad commission to enforce the orders.

Oil operators throughout the nation were anxiously watching the Texas situation and hoping the legislature could be able to work out some plan that would provide relief. It was generally agreed by oil men of other states that the unrestricted flow of oil from the mammoth East Texas field was the primary cause of the collapse of the oil market.

Each of the numerous bills introduced was expected to have several things in common, including (See LEGISLATURE, Page 6)

BROWNSVILLE, July 13. (AP)—The "General Emilio Carranza" was sighted on the ground 2 miles north of Soto a Larina, a Mexican fishing village about 100 miles south of Brownsville, by a Mexican Aviation company pilot, Henry Dorrell, flying between Tampico and Brownsville.

No arrangements have been made yet to go to the fliers' rescue, since it is considered they are not in immediate danger and the climate is mild.

MEXICO CITY, July 13. (AP)—The pilot of a Mexican Aviation company plane bound for Brownsville reported by wireless this afternoon that he had sighted a plane apparently the "Captain Emilio Carranza" crashed on the beach between Tampico and Brownsville. He said he saw two fliers near the plane, apparently unhurt.

The two men on the beach waved to him, he said. Dorrell reported that a light plane could be landed on the beach to rescue the castaways.

MEXICO CITY, July 13. (AP)—Military and civil aviation authorities will be present at Valbuena field today to welcome Seth Yerrington and Edward Maloney, American fliers, at the conclusion of their attempted non-stop flight from New York.

HUGE ARCHER COUNTY FUND NOW TIED UP

Institution Is Closed Pending Investigation; President Is Near Collapse; Two Sons Are Involved in Deal.

MAN IS MISSING

Commissioners Must Find Way to Meet Payroll; Bond Monies Were on Deposit to Draw Interest.

ARCHER CITY, July 13. (AP)—After filing charges against four officials of the People's Exchange bank of Archer City, Sam B. Spence, district attorney, and other county officials today continued their investigation into the bank's available resources.

Leon Hays, assistant cashier; Bernard Hays, teller; and J. C. Hays, assistant cashier, were released when they each posted bonds of $5,000. The father, T. J. Hays, cashier of the bank, who also faces charges, was ill at Mineral Wells from a nervous breakdown.

They were jointly charged with accepting deposits in a private bank after the same was insolvent or in a failing condition.

Will Make Audit Directors of the bank met today and employed Homer Lee, of Wichita Falls, to make an audit of the bank's books and ascertain its financial condition.

Members of the Archer county commissioner's court met today to make arrangements for handling the county's payroll and expenses in event of a million dollar county deposit being tied up.

The bank was closed indefinitely today pending audit of its books.

County funds deposited in the bank included interest and sinking fund deposits, school and bond monies and current tax collections.

Afraid of Run The Power Banking company of Archer City also failed to open its doors this morning, officials explaining they were afraid of a run today but that the bank would be open as usual Tuesday. The First State bank was open as usual Monday.

Charges have also been filed against a fourth man, whose whereabouts are unknown.

The bank was closed Monday pending an investigation by directors and officials to determine its available resources. The institution was established 12 years ago and held on deposit more than $1,000,000 of the county's funds, representing interest and sinking funds, bond monies, and current tax collections. The money was on deposit to draw interest at the rate of 4-1/2 per cent.

PROTECTION FOR LABORERS

The depression has accentuated the need for adequate laws protecting labor. The popular belief that labor has the first lien is false. A workman is worthy of his hire, and when he is a salaried man he depends upon regular payment to meet his monthly obligations. When the laborer is unable to obtain payment for salaries, his claims should constitute a first lien. The spirit of the constitution is to protect the common man. Necessity for pressing a claim in court several months or weeks after filing of a suit works a hardship upon a person who may have to seek employment at a distant city. Moreover, as Judge Willis told The NEWS-POST, labor's claim in case of bankruptcy, receivership, or foreclosure should be recognized by the law without necessity of law suits on the part of the wage earner. The laborer should at least have a parity with those holding first liens for materials, equipment, and the like. In other instances labor should automatically constitute the first lien. Financing based upon such a law would avoid making the salaried man the "goat" as so often happens now. It is a question for immediate action by the legislature.

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON, July 13. (NEA).—Mr. Raymond Benjamin of California came to Washington late in 1930 and is still here.

When Mr. Benjamin came it was widely heralded that he would serve as a political advisor to President Hoover, would be the real brains of the Hoover effort for renomination and reelection and very likely would be the next chairman of the Republican National Committee. Subsequently all such suggestions have been pooh-poohed at the White House and by Republican leaders here and by Mr. Benjamin himself, who now has a law office in the Transportation building. This building incidentally, is close to the Barr building, headquarters of the national committee, is full of Republicans and at campaign times large parts of it are hired for G. O. P. national activities. Mr. Benjamin at first was having an office in the Barr building, but changed.

Considering the denials of Mr. Benjamin's political importance, his success in avoiding publicity and the general ignorance of what his activities for Mr. Hoover consist of, if any, you may be surprised to hear that he is now rated as the big mystery man of Washington and is even believed by some to be the unofficial directing force in the Republican party organization. Anyone who believes that Mr. Benjamin is here just to practice law finds no encouragement for that belief when he finds Mr. Benjamin showing up at the White House simultaneously with some of the party's most practical working leaders. It does appear, however, that he takes cases, because being a lawyer is his business as well as being a politician and he's not giving it up. Mr. Benjamin is now regarded as among the few men from whom will be chosen a national chairman to succeed Senator Simeon Fess of Ohio who, if he is still chairman when the next Republican convention meets, is certain not to be chairman very long in the subsequent election campaign. Once the chairmanship seemed destined for Robert H. Lucas, executive head of the national committee who is now engaged in capitalizing the Communists for Mr. Hoover's benefit, but since it was revealed that Lucas had tried to defeat Senator Norris in Nebraska by peculiar tactics it has been felt that Lucas wouldn't quite do. You hear now sometimes the name of National Committeeman Dave Mulvane of Kansas, a wise and able politician, in discussions of the possibilities. But not so much any more about Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, who used to be considered Mr. Hoover's chief political advisor.

The men "close to Hoover" have come and gone with unseemly rapidity these last three years, but it may be that Benjamin will be the exception who will last longer than anyone else. He may even become known to history as the man who was a satisfactory national chairman and didn't have to be eased out. No one can very well shoot at him now because he is so unofficial.

Also, Mr. Benjamin has a reputation for shrewdness. Anyway, he is smooth, urbane and softspoken. He is 59 years old, quite tall and blond, with bushy eyebrows. He fiddles, reads a lot of books, travels and enjoys politics thoroughly. He was a county district attorney in California when the big earthquake came and distinguished himself by going into San Francisco with a boatload of provisions and bringing out refugees. He became one of Hiram Johnson's political leaders and served ably thus for many years until he refused to back Johnson's candidate against Senator Sam Shortridge in 1926. He is regarded as the power behind Shortridge and in the past has held such important political posts as chairman of the California G. O. P. state committee and regional director for the national party in seven western states from 1916 to 1922. He has been a trusted intimate of Herbert Hoover for many years.

Eleven Persons Killed Sunday in Airplane Accidents; Dirigible Falls

By The Associated Press.
Airplane accidents over the weekend claimed the lives of 11 persons in the United States and Canada, and another died as a result of injuries he suffered in a plane crash last Wednesday.

Chester Bailes, 32, Kansas City, and William Warren, 22, San Antonio, Tex., burned to death in a crash at the Chicago municipal airport.

Bailes was a pilot for the Braniff Airlines, Inc., and Warren a pilot for the Century Airlines, Inc. Witnesses said the plane had risen to approximately 700 feet when the motor quit after a takeoff.

Miss Elizabeth Osborn, 16, and Miss Ruby Hinson, 12, both of Jonesboro, Ark., were killed when the plane in which they were riding with H. E. Lawhead, pilot, fell to earth near Jonesboro. Lawhead was dangerously injured.

At Harrisonville, Mo., an airplane piloted by Arvin Vrooman, Kansas City, became entangled in a tree and crashed in flames, burning to death George Colburn, 17, Manhattan, Kans., and Ershul Thomas, 24, Harrisonville. Vrooman, who suffered burns, died early today.

Art Bielby, pilot, and William Bramphill, passenger, both of Lloydminster, Sask., were killed Saturday night at Lloydminster. Their plane fell from a height of 1,300 feet. W. Lang, Kitchikan, Alta., another passenger, was injured.

Charles Sugg, 30, St. Clair, Mich., died yesterday in a Martins Ferry, Ohio, hospital of a fractured skull received last Wednesday when his plane smashed into a hill at Yorkville, Ohio, while he was participating in a national air tour.

Two Trinidad, Colo., business men lost their lives Saturday in the crash of a plane at the Trinidad airport. They were F. L. Hazeltine, licensed pilot, and Martin J. Gleason.

KANSAS CITY, July 13. (AP)—A sudden storm swept the $60,000 Goodyear dirigible Mayflower to destruction against high tension wires near the municipal airport here last night.

Capt. Charles E. Brannigan, 35, the pilot, was burned dangerously in an attempt to weather alone a high wind that jerked the 140-foot craft from its mooring mast and a ground crew.

Gasoline spilling from tanks ruptured by a crash against the roof of an army hangar was ignited as the Mayflower hurtled against a transformer. The bag was filled with helium gas, which is non-inflammable, but flames poured over the gondola. Captain Brannigan fell with the cage in front of a north-bound freight train on railway tracks below. The train halted 50 yards away. Brannigan was rescued by a co-pilot, R. H. Hobensack, who with Claude Henderson, member of the crew, had dropped to safety a moment before. Hobensack, his clothing drenched by rain, was burned slightly. Hospital physicians said Brannigan's condition was critical.

"Public Enemy" Is Sensational Film At Rex Theater
Gangland has at last come in for a searching inquiry via the films. "The Public Enemy," the Warner Bros. film which opened at the Rex theater Sunday, gives the first vital portrayal of crookdom that has yet been attempted in the movies. It is devoid of over-emphasis on the low element, although this enters into its fabric, and presents instead an absorbing panorama of the growth and progress of racketeering as actually has it.

A great deal of the credit for the story's realism achieved in this film is due Director William Wellman. Without trying to become too dramatic, he impresses his audience with scenes which carry the conviction of sincerity and veracity. It does not portray only a slice of gangland life, but a succinct summary of the evolution of racketeering. In order to achieve this, the story begins in 1909 with two young boys, portrayed by Junior Hoghan and Frankie Darro, who succumb to the influence of their environment and start out life as petty thieves.

The Rev. W. O. Cooley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Estelline, yesterday accepted an invitation to become pastor of the Central Baptist church of Pampa. His telegram of acceptance was received during the church service here Sunday morning.

Rev. Cooley was unanimously called by the local church July 5. He preached at both services here June 14 and met with the board of deacons later in the month.

As he has already arranged revival meetings through August, it may be impossible for Rev. Cooley to come to Pampa until the first Sunday in September.

Some FEMININE Fancies

By HOLLYCE SELLERS HINKLE

"Somebody said that it couldn't be done—but she did it." We congratulate Mrs. R. F. Sanders of McLean who plans her wardrobe so carefully and uses left-over materials and old clothing to such advantage that she is able to dress well on $50 a year.

"Two in one" is our slogan in gold. We go around the course only once but hit the ball enough for two seasons. The resulting aches and pains are good reminders of that fact.

We talk about women in business or professions, but Miss Mary Burks, church secretary and young people's director of the Central Baptist church, has been both during the last few weeks. In addition to her regular work, she has taken the responsibilities of the pastor since the resignation of the Rev. D. H. Truhitt.

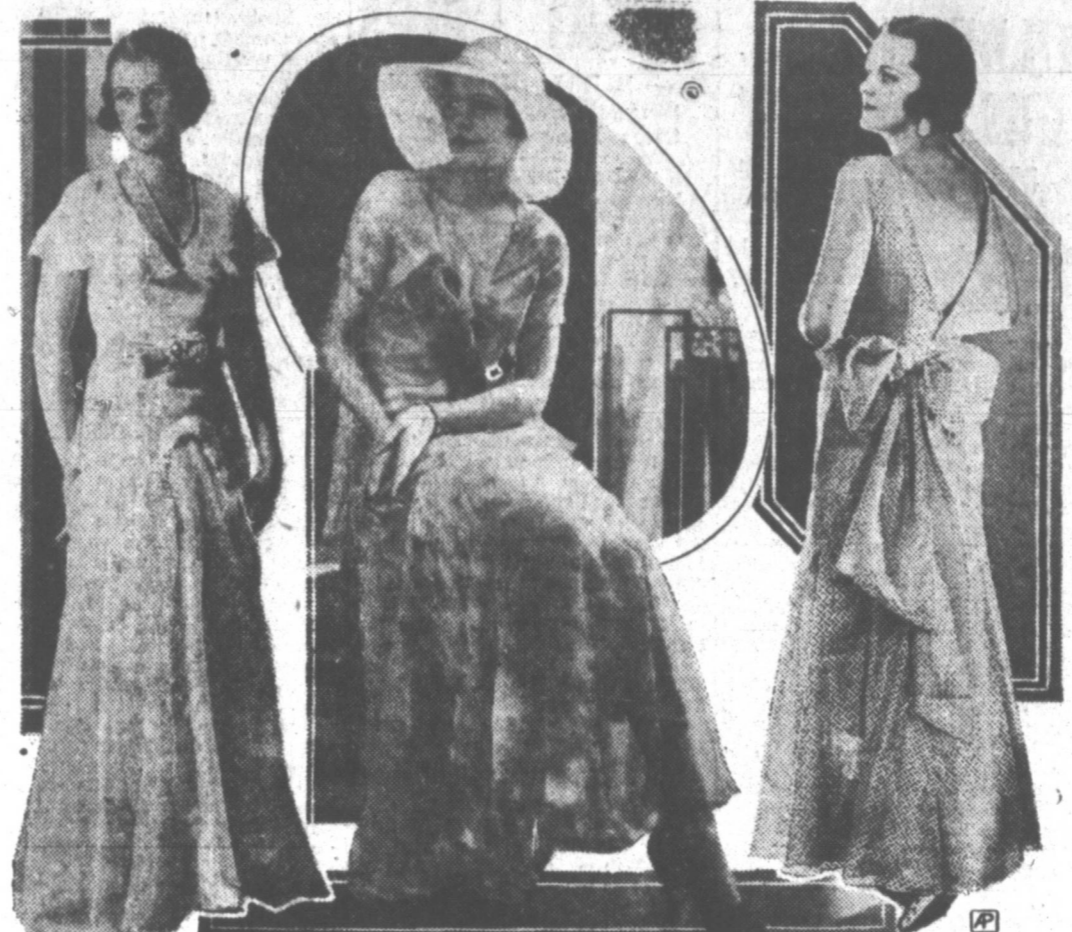

MAKES USE OF ALL LEFT-OVER BITS OF GOODS

Mrs. R. F. Sanders of the McLean County Home Demonstration club dresses well on $50 a year.

"I began with a personal inventory," said Mrs. Sanders. "I am 5 feet tall, weigh 110 pounds, am a middle age, have a medium complexion, brown hair, and brown eyes.

"I found that I had the following articles of clothing in good condition: One rust colored winter coat, one tan spring coat, two jackets for home wear, one brown silk dress, one tan, red figured, silk dress, one green, red figured, voile dress, one pink house dress, three kitchen aprons, one winter coat, two pairs black shoes, one pair storm rubbers, three pairs silk hose, three pairs winter-weight hose, five pairs silk bloomers, three silk slips, two cotton slips, two outing flannel gowns, two cambric gowns, one silk brassiere, and six pairs of teds in fairly good condition.

West Texas has gained a name for itself in the field of education. There are now 35 colleges and universities in West Texas, according to the July issue of West Texas Today. Seven of these institutions are maintained by the state, six by cities, 20 by churches, and two by individuals.

"If you want to stay young, be a school teacher," says Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State Teachers college, in an interview for "West Texas Today."

"You can't help it when you have youth around you and you are wrapped up in the problems and ambitions of young men and women."

"Teaching," says Dr. Hill, "is a wonderful profession. I can't think of anything else I would like to do. I enjoy every minute of my work and I recommend it to the young men and women of Texas who want to be happy and pursue a worthwhile calling."

If Dr. Hill's philosophy is that of every teacher in Pampa next year, the year cannot but be worth while for both teachers and pupils.

Speaking of school life, read this: Teacher—What is your name, little boy? Pupil—Julius. Teacher—You should say Julius. And what is your name, son? New pupil—Billions. —Texas Outlook.

Ratable Taking at Every Field, Urged at Oil Conference

SAN ANGELO, July 13. (AP)—Any legislation intended to relieve the oil-business in Texas that may be passed by the legislature, convening Tuesday, should provide ratable taking of crude from every field based upon the outlet of the entire state by pipelines, refineries and tank cars; any provision plan should be statewide and should be enforced by the state at its expense, whether through the railroad commission or any newly created body.

There were some of the suggestions made to Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo, representative, at a two-hour conference with 60 oil men here this morning. Metcalfe represents Howard, Glasscock, Sterling, Reagan, Irion, and Tom Green counties, four of them oil producing, and he invited the conference. Metcalfe was a member of the oil, gas and mining committee of the house at the last regular session. Committed to no bill, Metcalfe was given a rising vote of appreciation and confidence at the meeting.

On a question submitted by one of their number, 27 men, the majority independent operators and royalty owners, expressed opposition to legislation of any kind. A negative vote was called for. Protraction, which West Texas fields have practiced consistently, was praised by some and denounced by a greater number as being in violation of contract rights, therefore unconstitutional, and an attempt by artificial stabilization to alter the law of supply and demand and consequently doomed to failure.

Has Good System

"You may ask 'How can you claim to dress on $50 a year when you had so many clothes to begin with?' The answer is this: Many of those garments I have worn for several years, and may wear for several years longer, so I divide the first cost of an article of apparel by the number of years it is worn. For example, if I pay $15 for a coat and wear it three years, I spend $5 per year for a coat. Likewise, if I pay $4 for a hat which I wear two years, my hat costs me $2 per year. Again, I have more clothes than are really necessary. If, instead of the two coats I now have, I could substitute one of the right type, it would be really better. One good silk dress would suffice, whereas, I now have four, and I now have also more underwear than I really need.

FALL DECISION DELAYED

WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—After a lengthy conference with attorneys, Justice Bailey in the District of Columbia Supreme Court today postponed action in the case of Albert B. Fall until tomorrow.

There was no explanation for the postponement.

Justice Bailey on Saturday had refused to suspend the one-year jail sentence given Fall for accepting a $100,000 bribe for an oil lease while he was secretary of the interior.

Church Plan Is Successful

PREACHING IS HELD BEFORE BIBLE SCHOOL

The First Christian church was practically filled for the devotional, sermon, and communion service Sunday morning, and 265 were in the Bible classes.

A new order of services, which was put into effect a week ago, is proving popular with the congregation. Church services begin at 10:15 o'clock, and the Bible study classes are held between 11:15 and 11:50.

Before the new plan was begun, the attendance at the Bible school during the summer usually was from 215 to 225.

KITCHEN OR A MANUFACTURING PLANT? 'T'WILL BE HARD TO TELL

Woman's work is divided up so thoroughly and effectively among machines there is little left for the efforts of even the most ingenious inventor.

A recent issue of the Brooklyn Eagle says that with so much work of the world done by electricity it was high time the kitchen should receive its share of equipment necessary to make it as efficient as the most up-to-date manufacturing plant.

"An electrifiable, the newest kitchen assistant, will be as indispensable to the housewife as her vacuum cleaner," says the New York writer. "In its cabinet are attachments to take the drudgery out of food preparation. Meat chopper, fruit-juice reamer, grater and shredder devices, bowls and beaters of various sorts are at hand to work at the turn of a switch. There are places to plug in the waffle iron, percolator, egg cooker, and so on, part of every well equipped household."

Discussing the invention, the Detroit Times says: "If some day you should find at your back door a maid who said, 'Madam, I work for you the rest of my life; I will never need food or a day off, always be available to work at any hour, what would you say?' and leaves the answer to the housewife's imagination.—Wellington Leader.

TEXAS CLUBS RELIEVED AS HOUSTON FINALLY IS LOSER

DEAN TAKES 17TH TILT OF THIS SEASON

Exporters Are Bumped Off By Indians Twice; Second Place Is Unstable.

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Seven Texas league clubs breathed a sigh of relief today—the Houston Buffaloes, who had collected the amazing total of twelve consecutive victories—stumbled and fell in their second game against Galveston, 2 to 1, yesterday to end their winning streak. This loss run through the win column by the Buffaloes had created no little alarm among other clubs who were under the impression the race was split so all would have another equal chance at the pennant.

Houston stretched its winning streak to twelve in the first game when Jerome "Daisy" Dean beat the Buccaneers, 6 to 4. It was Dean's 17th victory of the season. Art Reinhart opposed Dean, and Art pitched a sweet ball game, but erratic support forced him to lose to the Texas league's pitching master.

Manager Hits One

Pistol Pete Fowler and Preacher Thurman were opposing hurlers in the nightcap, which Galveston won 4 to 1, to tie the Buffaloes' mad march to the second half title. The Buccaneers got their two runs in the second. April doubled, and Pistol Pete walked Thurman and Ballou to load the bases. Tex Carlton relieved Fowler. Tex was greeted by Manager Pratt's scolding April and Thurman. Thurman gave the Buffaloes but two hits in the seven-inning affair.

The second place race had pinchers put on it Sunday when the San Antonio Indians bumped off the Beaumont Exporters 10 to 3 and 5 to 2 to really give the league a jar and make the Exporters' second place berth rather shaky. It required four hours and fifty minutes to play the two games.

Regardful of what else occurs, the Dallas Steers have enjoyed a successful season and Manager Hap Morse is the hero of the day. Morse sent his Steers against the Fort Worth Cats Sunday, and the Cats were defeated 7 to 1 and 2 to 0. George Murray and Roy Hansen completely wrecked the Cats' scoring machine. Murray stopped the Cats with a five-hit first game, allowing only one run. Hansen, Fort Worth castoff, gave the Cats four hits and no tallies in the nightcap.

Hansen Wins Battle

The second game was a pitchers' battle between Hansen and Bednar, with Hansen on the inside track. The Steers' double victory showed them back into fourth place and lowered Fort Worth to the second division.

Shreveport and Wichita Falls divided a double-header, Wichita Falls winning the first 8 to 0, and Shreveport taking the second, 3 to 2. When the Sports triumphed in the second game, it ended a losing streak that had reached seven consecutive defeats. Mill Stearns was the star, hitting for the Sports in the first game, holding them to five hits. In the second, Ace Miller outpitched Fred Vincent, although both allowed six hits, respectively.

Drilling Equipment Is Stolen Saturday For Industry Here

Thieves visited three locations northwest of Pampa, Saturday night, taking drilling equipment valued at $275.

Two rotary slips were taken from the Pulse and Danciger wells on the Simpson lease, and a boiler feeder pump was stolen from the McIlroy well on the Simpson.

Tracks left near the wells indicated the thieves were driving a small car. Sheriff Lon L. Blansett is investigating the theft.

No Charges in Shamrock Killing—One Man Held

SHAMROCK, July 13. (AP)—No charges had been filed today in connection with the fatal shooting of Dr. W. W. Guyton, 82, retired physician, at a Shamrock filling station last night.

A relative, who witnesses said fired three shots into the aged man's body, is being held at Wheeler, and County Attorney Clyde Fillmore said charges probably would be filed today.

The shooting, Fillmore said, was the result of a quarrel of long standing.

J. C. Cook, operator of the filling station, said he saw that trouble was going to result from the accidental meeting of the two men, and that he ran inside the office before the shots were fired.

Dr. Guyton was a pioneer physician of this section who retired from active practice 10 years ago.

NEGRO SLAYER SOUGHT

TYLER, July 13. (AP)—A section-wide search for the slayer of Manuel Meyer, 25, groceryman, who was shot down at the rear of his combination residence-grocery here yesterday by an unidentified negro, was in progress today.

Citizens continued to be incensed over the slaying of the young grocer.

Sport Slants

BY ALAN GOULD

Just why there should be any special sympathy for Connie Mack's plight in being obliged to worry along with only three great pitchers is not exactly clear.

It is true that about every fourth or fifth game Mr. Mack has been obliged to insert some one named Mahafey, or Shores, or Rommel or McDonald, usually with the result that the A's take a pasting.

At times, one of the Big Three, Grove, Earnshaw and Walberg, wobbles sufficiently to lose a ball game, which is even more distressing to the venerable leader and perhaps just cause for a public feeling of alarm.

Up to around the end of June, however, the figures that the Sunday papers publish at the behest of the figure-compilers showed that Messrs. Grove, Walberg and Earnshaw had won 37 of the first 45 victories scored by the world's champions, while losing only 8 of the 18 games in which the A's were set back up to the time of this profound study.

The point of this, therefore, is that if the A's lose their crown to Walter Johnson's hustling Senators, it will not be due to the distressing scarcity of first-class pitchers in the ranks of the champions. It will be due to the greater scarcity of first-class infielders, plus a slump induced by the absence of Mike Cochrane.

The A's infield looked worn with age, outside of the robust Mr. Fox, in training last winter and it has gotten no better in the heat of midsummer.

Chicago's "Big Three"

Perferring further into the aforementioned figures, we took due note of the fact that the Chicago Cubs, though leading the National League by quite healthy margins in club fielding and batting, stood no better than third in the pennant race.

Naturally this led to a suspicion that the Cub curvers were not doing quite right by Messrs. Wrigley, Veck and Hornsby.

We found that the three men who might be figured to compare in reliability to Grove, Walberg and Earnshaw of the A's, namely, Bush, Root and Malone, had contributed exactly 17 victories, against 10 defeats, to the Cub campaign up to and including June 28.

If these one-time mainstays get back to the form that their employers have reason to expect, the Cubs will have a good chance to overhurl the Cardinals.

Post and Gatty To Share Acclaim With Will Rogers

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 13. (AP) Wiley Post and Harold Gatty sought the last of their hard earned days of rest here today, for late this afternoon they are scheduled to take the world-gridding plane Winnie Mae off the ground on the start of a United States tour.

The fliers planned to hop at 4 p. m. (CST) for Tulsa, and an enthusiastic greeting tonight. From Tulsa they go to Claremore to share honors at an airport dedication with Oklahoma's funniest son, Will Rogers.

Gatty was reported fully recovered today from a slight indisposition and both he and Post were said to be in excellent physical condition. They will be followed to Tulsa and Claremore by another plane carrying their wives. Rogers was believed on route to Claremore by air from the west coast.

Final plans for the United States tour will be made at New York, goal of the fliers after the Claremore appearance tomorrow.

Miss Ingalls Now On Way East for Hop-off to Paris

OKLAHOMA, Okla., July 13. (AP)—Miss Laura Ingalls, who plans a solo flight along the Lindbergh route to Paris, took off from here at 10:14 a. m. (C.S.T.) today for Wichita, Kans.

The diminutive flier left California yesterday in the huge Lockheed plane with which she hopes to span the Atlantic ocean in a solo flight to Paris.

Running into squally weather late yesterday 100 miles southwest of here, and handicapped by a "low ceiling," she decided to land in Wichita, where she had a change of plane here rather than risk damaging it by attempting to make Wichita, Kans., by nightfall.

HITTERS ARE STRONGER AS HEAT HELPS

New Ball Is Not Holding Sluggers Back; Cards and Cubs Ramage.

By GAYLE TALBOT JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The new and less capricious ball that has given major league pitchers a new lease on life this season evidently is losing its magic qualities as the sunbeams stronger and the batters begin to reach their top form. At any rate, the doctored sphere was forced to take a lopsided beating over the week-end.

Hitting predominated in almost every instance yesterday as fourteen contests were unrolled in the two circuits, including a full set of double-headers in the National. Only ten pitchers out of twenty-eight who started were able to go the distance, and no club was held to less than two runs. Thirty runs scored in the plate in one tilt, twenty-one in another and nineteen in a third. Hits for the most part ran into double figures.

Found Six Pitchers

The Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals gave the day's most boisterous exhibition in the second game of their pair, the Cards pounding six Cub pitchers for 21 hits and a 17 to 13 victory. Three Card moundsmen gave up 16 hits. Chicago captured the first hit, 7 to 5, largely the result of home runs by Hack Wilson and Haze Cuyler. Both sides used three hurlers.

The crippled New York Giants took two free-hitting contests from the Phillies, 13 to 6 and 9 to 4, to pick up a full game on the Cards. Frank Hogan hit two home runs in the first game and Mel Ott a pair in the second.

Cincinnati's last game Reds came back after five straight defeats to sweep their holiday bill with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Red Luces bested three Pirate twirlers, 14 to 7, in the opener. The second went eleven innings, 6 to 5.

Adolfo Lague, Brooklyn, veteran Cuban, pitched his fifth victory of the year as the Robins downed the Boston Braves, 7 to 4, in their first, but the Braves fought two innings to win the added attraction, 4 to 3.

A's Win Couple

A pair of Connie Mack's second line pitchers, Waite Hoyt and Leroy Mahafey, gave the Athletics a clean sweep over the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 2 and 6 to 2.

The two wins enabled the leaders to pick up a game and a half on the second place Washington Senators, who were tamed by the Yankee veteran, Herb Pennock, 10 to 4.

Cleveland and Chicago divided their American league double-header, the Indians winning the first, 10 to 4, but losing the nightcap, 7 to 5. Elton Hogsett of the Detroit Tigers gave the day's best pitching exhibition when he held the St. Louis Browns to four hits and beat them, 7 to 2. He also helped the cause along with three hits off a trio of opposing hurlers.

FOULOUS IS PROMOTED

WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—The promotion of Brig. Gen. Benjamin D. Foulous to chief of the army adjutant corps and the rank of major general, effective Dec. 30, was announced today by the war department.

MAGNOLIA LEAVES TODAY FOR TOURNEY AFTER 20-7 VICTORY OVER ALL-STARS

The Magnolias were in good humor when they left for Amarillo this morning to play White Deer this afternoon in the Globe-News tournament.

They had good reasons to be feeling optimistic and confident. Yesterday they won the last game of the first half of the Gray-Carroll league season by trouncing the Pampa All-Stars 20-7 before a large crowd.

The Mags garnered 20 hits off Ellis, and the All-Stars, 15 off Burke. The game was marred by several ghastly wild-pitches and errors. The good batting and fielding of the Mags accounted for the big score. The Magnolias also cashed in on a number of errors.

The Mags got six two-base hits and the All-Stars, five. Lister and Morgan of the Mag squad each clouted a homer. The Magnolias runs were made as follows: Morgan 2, Dye 4, Mitchell 4, Lister 2, Cahill 2, Boseman 1, Thom 2, Shriver 1. The All-Stars scored as follows: Mitchell 1, Weiss 2, Munn 2, Friedman 1, and Dillman 1.

Both Morgan and Munn were members of the champion Gulf Gun club last year. Practically every member of that team is playing in the tournament this year, but on different teams. Lefty Graham who hurled the Gulf Guns to victory in the last and deciding game with Amarillo last year is pitching for the Lubbock Hubbers who lost yesterday afternoon to Berger's "66" club, 5-4. Playing on the Earl Wrayt team are four members of last year's Gulf team. They are Roberts 2b, Joe Marcum cf, Williamson 3b, and Westhuffed lf.

The Mags are due to give the White Deer Bucks a severe drubbing, since they have already defeated them 5-1. However, the Bucks do not lose the same lineup they had at that time, and the Mags are looking for a battle. Burke did the twirling yesterday so "Sug" Edwards could save his arm for today.

Fleetwood and Womble Will Clash for NEWS-POST Golf Crown Sunday

W. S. Fleetwood and P. A. Womble, linotype operators, will battle next Sunday on the Red Deer golf course for the NEWS-POST championship.

Fleetwood defeated Philip R. Pond Sunday 3 and 2 to go into the finals with Womble, who finished 1 up on J. B. Wooten, hard-hitting pressman.

Womble shot sensational pars from poor lies on the last three holes to nose out Wooten on the eighteenth hole. Wooten led by one hole at the end of the ninth and two holes at the sixteenth. He had gone into the semi-finals following a 1-up victory over Olin E. Hinkle at the 18th hole some time ago.

Womble is favored to win the tournament, since Fleetwood is of the third flight.

MANILA, July 13. (AP)—A group of American army officers and their wives was stoned by any angry crowd of Filipinos here yesterday while other islanders were participating in an independence demonstration before two United States senators. Several Americans were hit. Captain Fred Adams of the thirty-first infantry, and Robert Davis, son of an army officer, were injured, but not seriously. The incident occurred at the open air swimming pool of the Army and Navy club when the crowd of Filipinos, evidently curious, overran the grounds. Ordered off the grounds, the islanders became incensed and started throwing stones.

Lamentation

It will be 10 years or more before another national championship tournament is pitched on the sun-scorched fairways of Inverness.

Judging by the damage wrought by a stampeding gallery that watched the overtime battle this year, it will take 10 years to get the course in shape again. Ten years will not be too long.

Ten years will not be too long for the golf writers, either. I am told by some of the scribes who suffered there through five days of confusion.

In the Garret

The understanding at the start of the tournament was that the newspaper tent was to be out around the fifth tee. This was changed, probably on behalf of hospitality and the newspaper writers were placed in a room close to the roof in a cadie house, a mile from the scoreboard and a good par five from the 18th green. The temperature under the roof was only about 112.

Scores were being garbled in transmission frequently, requiring changes after they had been sent over the wires. It was reported that on the first day there were nearly 40 changes made in the score-board.

It did not matter a great deal to the reporters that the gallery was one of the worst behaved that ever witnessed an open championship. Newspaper men know how to battle galleries and get away with it. But whenever a reporter went he was almost certain to be shoved around by some silly marshal who probably was witnessing his first golf match.

Three-Year-Olds To Race Saturday

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—If there is any question as to the identity of the season's champion three-year-old, it probably will be settled Saturday at Arlington park in the world's richest three-year-old race, the $70,000 added classic.

Twenty Grand, Mrs. Helen Hay Whitney's great thoroughbred, is stabled at Arlington, and unless his recent injury is aggravated, he will try it again with A. C. Boswick's Mate, the only horse to defeat him this season, as well as Spanish Fly, winner of the Ltonia derby, A La Carte, Ohio derby victor, Vander Pool, unbeaten over shorter distances, Sun Meadow and Epithea.

The presence of the big bay in the classic will frighten away a lot of other horses, but the mile and a quarter feature is expected to cross between $80,000 and $90,000. Should he be unable to start, a gross value of $97,000 would not be surprising.

Twenty Grand took his first exercise on Arlington's lightning fast strip yesterday and appeared to have completely recovered from the back strain suffered in winning the Dwyer stakes July 4.

Oil Executive Sees "Normalcy"

A prediction that production activities in the Panhandle area will return to normal "within a comparatively short period," was made Saturday by E. J. Nickles, vice-president in charge of production for Continental Oil company, who, with four other Conoco production executives inspected properties here, Saturday.

Mr. Nickles approves curtailment methods now being used in the Panhandle, Oklahoma, Kansas and other sections of the United States. "Even the East Texas situation," he said, "at present the biggest thorn in the industry's side, appears to be gradually improving. We're on the up-grade now and we can see bright prospects just around the corner."

Accompanying Mr. Nickles were L. P. Carpenter, general superintendent of the Oklahoma-Kansas division; G. H. McIntyre, general superintendent of the Texas-New Mexico division; R. S. Shannon, general superintendent of the Rocky Mountain division, and A. H. Bell, production superintendent of the California division. Arriving here in two large company automobiles, the group was met by J. E. Warren, district superintendent, and proceeded immediately to the fields in the Panhandle district. The company owns or operates 30 wells on 29 leases in these fields. The inspection tour will cover much of the western half of the United States.

BARNES WINS TITLE

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—Bruce Barnes, Austin, Tex., tennis barnstormer, today resumed his travels carrying the Illinois State singles title with him.

Barnes yesterday won his latest title, defeating Ted Burwell, North Carolina star, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5, 6-0, while Miss Mae Chervorst, a south-paw swinger who holds five other titles, beat Jackie Ayer of Chicago, 6-1, 6-3, in the women's final.

The Rev. Ray N. Johnson officiated for the installation of officers of the young people's division, First Methodist church, Sunday evening.

EARNSHAW IS EAGER TO BE USED OFTEN

Volunteers When Other Hurlers Get In Trouble; Listed in Social Register.

By EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, July 13. (AP)—Sometimes when Big George Earnshaw trudges out to the mound to fire baseballs past the hitters, sometimes as often as every other day, the faithful must wonder why Connie Mack doesn't quit picking on that burly, willing fellow.

But strangely enough, most of the times that Earnshaw and Bob Grove, the long left-hander, march out to the rescue of some other struggling Philadelphia pitcher, Connie Mack has nothing to do with it. He sort of looks down the bench appealingly when there's a relief job to be done. Sometimes it is Grove, but often it is Earnshaw who speaks up.

"Where's that ball? Give me the ball. I'll go out there."

Earnshaw is a six-foot three-inch, 200-pound husky of ancient Quaker stock, listed in the social register, a Swarthmore college graduate, well-to-do in his own right. He loves to pitch the way Babe Ruth likes to hit and if he had his way he'd be starting games for the Athletics every other day.

"I'm better the oftener I work," says big George. "Every other day is just about right for me. If I rest too much I lose my control and I find I'm no stronger after three days rest than I am after two."

With 15 victories to his credit and only four defeats marked against him, Earnshaw turned in the "iron man" highlight of the first half of the major league season last week when he pitched a full game Sunday, July 5, and lost through no errors to the Senators; pitched nine more and trounced Washington Tuesday; and then came back Friday in a relief role to halt the Yankees for eight innings and finally win in the fourteenth.

He gets between $18,000 and $30,000 a year.

HOVER FORGETS FOREIGN DEBTS AT BALL GAME

With the heavy business of debt moratoriums well in hand, President Hoover and his aids found their first relaxation in more than two weeks by attending a baseball game at Griffith stadium, Washington.

They were still with Irene when Tommy arrived. Mr. Everett had asked him to come, but he needn't have done so for Tommy couldn't have stopped after reading Gaylord's telegram.

Irene's wire reached its destination after Tommy was on his way to take a train to Okdale. When word was sent up that he had arrived at the hospital she naturally assumed it was her wire that had brought him.

Gaylord did not want to tell Irene until Beryl was out of the room. He did not trust Irene's power of self-control.

"No," Beryl said with a shake of her head. "It isn't what you say, Gaylord. It's what you do."

"I suppose you'd say that if you were giving an arm," Gaylord grumbled. "Now I know what's there puzzling me. You're a fanatic, that's what you are! And Irene isn't worth it."

"Please!" Beryl said simply and Gaylord decided. "Irene," he called to the day nurse. "I suppose my hair's messy," she fretted, putting up her hands to smooth the golden crop.

"Really, you shouldn't sleep all the time," Irene grumbled to Beryl, who lay with her thin hands clutching the counterpane.

"Please be quiet," the nurse begged. "If you're not your visitor can't come in."

Beryl heard no more until a shrill "Nanny!" apprised her that the young man's presence in the room. She opened her eyes. Even when he came to Irene she must look at him. Dear, dear Tommy!

He stood in the doorway. His eyes were on Irene, looking pretty in her pink jacket and crowned in gold. He wore brown tweeds and his hair was brown. The sun—a winter's sun—was glinting across the room.

Tommy had not moved. His eyes searched the room. Then he saw Beryl, but the girl's vision was dimmed by scalding tears. She had held back those tears for so long!

"Tommy," Irene cried again. "In a minute I must wake up and smile," Beryl was telling herself, "but for just this little minute—Tommy—if you just could kiss me goodby it would make it easier for ever after."

Beryl held to the last shreds of her courage desperately. She did not notice the footsteps that were coming nearer to her. In a moment she would open her eyes and see Irene in Tommy's arms. She would smile casually and say, "Hello, how are you?" as though her heart were not breaking.

Two hands fell softly upon her shoulders. "Beryl!" It was Tommy beside her, pouring out his love, whispering to her that he had loved her always—never anyone else but her! His arms were around her. Tommy's words were music. Now he was saying all the dear, beautiful things Beryl had dreamed of hearing for so long.

"But Tommy—" she exclaimed weakly. "Beryl, darling, forgive me. Oh, my precious, precious girl, I love you. Don't you understand? I love you!"

He was holding her closely in his arms now. Across the room a white-faced girl stared at him in amazement. Irene could not believe her eyes. Neither Beryl nor Tommy cared for that. Irene was forgotten. The rest of the world was forgotten. For these two only the great, joyous reality remained that they had found each other. Here at last was happiness. Here at last was love.

Tommy's lips pressed to Beryl's. (THE END)

Recent Inmate of Asylum Kills His Youthful Wife

FORT WORTH, July 13. (AP)—Lee Wilbanks, recently released from the state asylum at Wichita Falls, shot and killed his 20-year-old wife and most instantly today when he accosted her near her home. Two charges from a 12 gauge shotgun pierced her breast. She died immediately after being placed in an ambulance. The husband, arrested soon after the shooting, was unable to give a coherent account of the act, and kept moaning distractedly. "My God, I don't know why I did it. I loved her." Police were able to elicit from him no reason for the shooting. On the way to the central police station, Wilbanks repeatedly expressed the desire to be sentenced to the electric chair or confined for life. He said he came here last week after his discharge from the Wichita Falls asylum. "Why did they let me come back?" he moaned over and over.

Railroad Inquiry to Precede Decision on Rate Structures

WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—The interstate commerce commission will investigate operation of railroads to determine whether certain unapproved practices are "lawful and consistent with economical and efficient management." The inquiry will be conducted by the commission in connection with application of the carriers for a blanket increase of 15 per cent in freight rates. Saying it wanted to have full and complete information on the subject, the commission announced it will investigate "prices paid for railroad fuel and the practices in connection with the handling of coal at Tidewater points, lake coal, private freight cars, the spotting of cars at industries, and the construction and maintenance of sidings for shippers." Hearings will be conducted separately on the various subjects to be inquired into. Improved illumination of the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor will remove the impression that Miss Liberty has a double chin and various and sundry face blemishes.

Russian Wheat Prospect Is Fair

WASHINGTON, July 13. (AP)—The foreign service of the agriculture department said today the condition of crops in important spring grain sections of Russia had for the most part been reported at average or less. The present outlook for Russian spring wheat does not appear promising, the foreign service said, adding that winter wheat condition also was said to be average or slightly below. Late crop reports indicated a general decline in prospects for all Russian cereals. Preliminary reports of Russia's spring sowing campaign show about 240,000,000 acres planted to June 25 as compared with 221,000,000 last year. The 1931 plans call for 247,000,000.

KANSAN SUED

Moore, vice-president of the American Bond and Mortgage company, now in the hands of a receiver, which financed the Mayflower hotel at Washington, D. C. Moore alleges that the publisher, in magazine articles, linked his company's financing of the hotel "in a defamatory manner" with the allegedly small rent paid by Vice-President Curtis who has an apartment therein.

German Chaos and Bumper Crop Depressing Wheat

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—Germany's nightmare financial conditions and a record-breaking wheat harvest movement in the United States led to sharp new downturns of grain prices today. Wheat tumbled to within 1-2 cent of the bottommost point ever reached for future delivery contracts on the Chicago board of trade, and simultaneously Liverpool outdid previous lows since 1854. Disappointing volume of United States export business apparently indicated that even at bargain counter rates foreign buyers had no intention of loading up with wheat beyond hand to mouth requirements. Wheat closed unsettled, 5-8 to 1 1-2 cents lower, corn 3-8 to 1 1-8 off, oats, 3-4 to 1 5-8 down, and provisions showing 15 to 20 cents decline. Most of the pressure that forced Chicago wheat down resulted from hedging made as a protection against losses on rural purchases of newly harvested wheat. Some buying here was done against sales at Winnipeg, the latter market being regarded as temporarily the highest in the world. Other purchasing on down swings was based on the fact that prices had been breaking almost continuously for more than a week. It was contended that this circumstance warranted rallies, and especially so as wheat had now become about the cheapest of foods. Receipts of new crop domestic wheat totaled 9,028 cars, and primary arrivals were 7,771 bushels against 6,040,000 a year ago. Hedgers had difficulty selling all the wheat they wished, with the United States visible supply showing 3,660,000 bushels increase for the week, and Russia reported pressing offerings at Liverpool. Corn, oats, and rye dropped with wheat, corn to the lowest figures since 1910, oats since 1906, and rye and wheat since 1894. Provisions gave way with hog values and with cereals.

GERMANY

Continued from page 1 Ambassador Von Hoersch this morning and a long talk with him concerning the critical financial situation in Germany. Specifically, it was reported, the ambassador informed M. Briand that Chancellor Brüning and Foreign Minister Curtius of Germany are not likely to come to Paris for the proposed conference with government officials here while the financial situation in Germany is so critical.

PARIS, July 13. (AP)—The newspaper La Liberté said today that "measures of protection" have been taken on the frontier to meet any eventually in case of disorders in Germany. The newspaper adds that the French government has acted wisely in "taking preventive measures against the acts of a few zealots who might imperil the peace of the world."

LEGISLATURE

Continued from page 1 speeding up of court procedure in trial of suits to enforce enforcement of proration. Another of the common provisions was expected to be one whereby no injunction would be granted without hearing and another by which the state could collect penalties pending determination of suits. A more comprehensive definition of waste, to make production conform to demand, was included in most plans. Bills Discussed Under the present law, an injunction suit automatically stops any penalties for violation of the proration orders. Several caucuses of oil men and legislators were set for today, a majority of them informal, at which the various bills to be offered will be discussed and efforts made to iron out possible difficulties before the start of the session. A meeting of independent operators has been called by Claude Wild, executive vice-president of the Texas Independent Petroleum association, at which attempt will be made to patch up old differences among the independents so that they can present a united front in sanctioning or opposing any bill. "The enmity between the majors and the independents was expected to crop out during the session, although many predicted it would not be as bitter as at previous sessions owing to the dire straits of the oil industry in Texas generally."

Markets

COTTON OPENING WEAK NEW ORLEANS, July 13. (AP)—Cotton had a very weak opening today owing to a sharp decline in Liverpool cables and the serious financial situation in Germany. First trades showed losses of 24 points. The market continued to ease off after the start under pressure of long liquidation, October dropping to 9.11 and December to 9.32, or 35 to 36 points below Saturday's close. Prices rallied three to four points near the end of the first hour but the undertone continued weak. The textile report for June was very encouraging, showing that sales of domestic cotton goods had increased 36.8 per cent over production, owing to the weak foreign situation, the textile figures failed to influence the market.

WHAT IS AFFECTED CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—Influenced by Germany's financial crisis and by New York Stock market weakness, grain prices underwent sharp early setbacks today. In a flurry of stop loss selling, all deliveries of wheat, corn, and oats except July corn fell to new bottom records. Opening 3-4 to 1 3-8 cents down, wheat afterward sagged further. Corn started 3-4 to 2 off and subsequently held near the initial limits.

MISSING STAGE BEAUTY

Evelyn Wilson, above, Broadway show girl, walked out of her sister's home to go to a drug store an hour after midnight—and she didn't return. Police found her purse in a gutter in uptown New York. That was the only clue. Relatives said she had feared being kidnapped by her father, Harry Wilson, sent word from Chicago that she had written him that she was despondent because she could not marry the man she loved. Then she returned home and refused to explain her absence.

Woman's Young Son Passes Out Her Life's Savings

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—For ten years Mrs. Rose Amato hoarded the money she earned from her grocery store, until she had accumulated $3,000 which she concealed in three rolls of bills behind some tomato cans on a top shelf. Today she had left from these years of saving, $91 in cash, two bicycles, two air rifles, and one swimming suit. The explanation was given, police said, by her 13-year-old son, Johnny, who found the three rolls of bills, and then went among his friends to see that an end was put to the business depression in the Maxwell street district. Laden with $10, $20 and $50 bills, Johnny and his associates flocked to the store. He began talking to the police a short time after he had given his mother the bicycles, air rifles and swimming suit. From two of his companions the $91 was recovered. Mrs. Amato put the $91 back behind the tomato cans.
