

EXPERT SAYS WHEAT MUST BE SLASHED

McKelvie Tells Conference on Grain That Methods of Curtailment Furnishing Chief Problem.

PLANS ARE FEW Australia Proposes Marketing Organization and Agreement on Exports—Need More Consumption.

LONDON, May 19. (AP)—Expert views of the world wheat crisis today were expounded in the mill of the international conference after an address by Samuel R. McKelvie, head of the United States delegation, at its first open meeting today.

The conferees went into committee session to analyze the various plans for relief before submitting reports to the full conference. In rapid succession the United States, Poland, Australia, and the Danubian exporters filed their views but little detail was available.

Russia and Canada have not yet placed themselves on record and observers are saying Russia intends to hold back until she sees what the other ports propose to do.

Mr. McKelvie's speech was a resume of the situation in his country. He brought no "American plan" but he advocated reduced production as the surest way out of the difficulty.

The Polish and Australian plans are broadly similar. Both ask an agreement limiting exports.

Agreement Suggested Australia proposes establishment of an international marketing organization controlling wheat exports on the basis of an agreement to be reached by the exporting nations regarding the proportion and percentage of surplus to be marketed jointly.

The discussion seemed to be drifting definitely toward a means of securing reductions in wheat acreage, as a prerequisite to any agreement which may be reached.

McKelvie outlined the world grain conference to slash acreage to consumption needs as the only remedy for the crisis.

McKelvie submitted to the delegates a study of the situation of increasing surplus and sagging prices with an outline of the United States position.

"We see no possibility," he said, "of a satisfactory solution of the world wheat problem which does not include, as the most important single element, curtailment of production in exporting countries, individually and as a whole, until a better adjustment between supply and disposition can be effected, and restraint upon fresh expansion of production thereafter."

As a material aid toward relieving over-burdened markets, McKelvie urged every possible means of consumption expansion and suggested abolition by European importing countries of their protective tariffs, milling regulations, and preferential prices for domestic wheat.

No Marketing Solution "Apart from such extraordinary intervention in the wheat market as was felt justified during the past year," he said, "the effect of marketing methods on the level of wheat prices can only be exaggerated. It would be folly to assume that the solution of the world wheat crisis can be found in marketing channels. At best they can alleviate, they can not cure, a serious situation."

The former Nebraska governor, saying the Farm Board does not intend to authorize throwing upon foreign markets the large stocks of wheat held by the Grain Stabilization corporation, warned against dumping.

When abnormal surpluses have accumulated an current production is ample for all requirements, he said, two courses of action are indicated: Consumption must be expanded and production must be limited.

Mob Is Outwitted After Guardsmen Protect Negroes

ATLANTA, Ga., May 19. (AP)—Two negroes, charged with attacking a white girl, were spirited away from a mob at Elberton this morning disguised in army uniforms and lodged on Fulton tower here by national guardsmen.

The negroes were hidden in trees surrounding the Elberton jail for an hour and a half, militiamen said, before they were put in an automobile and hurried to Atlanta.

Shortly after, the 200 guardsmen, who had stood off a mob variously estimated at from 2,500 to 5,000 mounted their trucks and buses and departed for their homes at Elberton, Monroe, and Atlanta. At Fulton tower the two negroes were booked as Hanz McCortley, 17, and John Dower, 25.

They joined four other negroes hurried out of Elberton yesterday by Sheriff S. C. Seymour.

Breweries and Night Clubs at Las Vegas Capitulat During Raids Made by Forty-Five Federal Pro Officers

LAS VEGAS, Nevada, May 19. (AP)—More than eighty persons were under bond or facing arraignment today as a result of a series of raids on the liquor dispensaries of this desert city, the operating base for construction of Hoover dam.

Saloons, night clubs, breweries, and stills capitulated without serious disorders to the march of some 45 outside federal agents in an unexpected invasion yesterday.

United States Commissioner W. J. Hooper held court until after midnight last night, formally booking defendants and fixing bonds.

The raiders, from Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Reno prohibition headquarters, acted under orders to "clean up" the town. Colonel George Seaver of San Francisco, in command, said "we're going to make this place safe for Hoover dam workers."

Proprietors, bartenders, girl entertainers, "bouncers," and other attaches of the liquor haunts were rounded up. Besides twenty-five (See LAS VEGAS, Page 8)

Proponents of Project Seek to Get Out Large Late Balloting to Keep Institution From Being Closed NO MONEY SOON

First Levy Would Be Made for Next Year; 3 Cents On Each $100 Valuation Would Net Sum of $2,100

A total of 74 votes had been cast at 2 o'clock today in the library tax election being held at the city hall. The tax would be three cents on $100 property valuation. The polls will be open until 7 o'clock.

According to the city charter, the vote of a city election must be canvassed by the city commission within five days of the election. However, the results of today's balloting will be known early tonight, Charles Hughes, election judge, said.

If the issue carries, the 3-cent tax on the $100 valuation will net $2,150 for the support of the present library.

Proponents of the plan were planning to conduct a drive this afternoon to get out the vote. They believed that if all those in favor of the plan were to vote, the tax would be overwhelmingly approved.

A majority of those who cast ballots would vote for the measure in order for it to be successful. A two-thirds majority is not required as in bond elections.

Should the tax be approved at the polls today, first funds will be available next January when taxes are paid. Until then the library will be dependent upon donations and benefactors.

A play, "Beauty at the Throat" will be given Tuesday night, May 26, in order to obtain funds to meet payment on a note owed by the library and which is now overdue. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. They are on sale at Fairview building No. 4 and at the library in the city hall.

SOCIETY ROBBER SENTENCED CHICAGO, May 19. (AP)—Edward "Toddy" Dillon, St. Louis "society robber," was sentenced to Joliet penitentiary for one to two years today by Judge Joseph Sabath after the youth pleaded guilty to five charges of robbery.

The 25-year-old son of a slain St. Louis physician and grandson of a Missouri judge was arrested in a loop theater several months ago while he was still on parole from Sing Sing prison.

BANKERS TO MEET DALLAS, May 19. (AP)—The executive committee of the Texas Bankers association has been called to meet here Tuesday, May 26, President-elect J. W. Hoopes said today. The group will draft a program to be followed for the year ahead. Hoopes was elected president at the annual convention of the association in San Angelo, several days ago.

CLARENDON, May 19. (AP)—Members of the Green Belt Golf association, playing in the sixth annual tournament, were out today in the first round of match play. One hundred and nineteen players were divided into three flights of 32 each, and a senior division for men over 50.

Frank Foxhall of Memphis, defending champion and medalist in yesterday's qualifying round, was paired with F. Mitcherich of Shamrock. Foxhall shot a 75, three above par, on the Hillcroft course to lead the runner-up, Jack Parr of Electra, two strokes.

All officers of the association were re-elected at a meeting late last night. R. S. Greene of Memphis is president. O. T. Nicholson of Shamrock, vice-president; and Harry Delaney of Memphis, secretary-treasurer. R. B. Gibson of Vernon and C. R. Davidson of Electra were added to the board of directors to serve with Greene, Nicholson and R. R. Gilliland of Quanah, old member.

Gray county was taken into the association.

Commencement exercises of Panhandle high school will be held this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Dallas Boy Is Kidnaped by Men But Is Released

DALLAS, May 19. (AP)—Police today were seeking two men who early last night kidnaped 15-year-old Allen Dale Primm, apparently in the belief he came of a wealthy family and with the intention of holding him for ransom.

The youth, after convincing his captors the family was unable to raise a large amount of cash, was released two and a half hours later.

Primm described one of his captors as 40 or older. The other was 23 or 24 years old, he said.

RAIL BODY IN NEED OF FUND AND POWERS

Commission Urges Legislature to Make Possible Enforcing of Laws Governing Oil Activities.

IS HANDICAPPED Pipeline Regulation Held to Be Impossible Without Use of Force; Engineer and Paid Umpires Needed

AUSTIN, May 19. (AP)—The railroad commission today urged enactment of oil legislation in a statement addressed to Governor Sterling with copies placed on desks of members of the legislature.

The commission did not recommend any specific bill but stated "it is obvious that the commission cannot properly or promptly enforce its orders under present laws and without funds available and consequently the waste of oil and gas in this state is enormous."

A crisis has arisen in the field of oil production, the commission said. It stated Texas needed some law by which the orders of the commission could be enforced while they were being attacked in courts, provisions for speeding up court machinery so suits attacking prorations might be speedily disposed of and provisions clarifying the present statutes as they relate to the power of the commission to prevent the wasteful dissipation of the gas and gas energy of an oil pool.

No Authority The statement mentioned that during the pendency of East Texas injunction suits no penalties could be collected from operators filling the suits and these operators could produce as they pleased. "It will take months before the supreme court can decide the legal questions involved," the commission said.

The commission said it was handicapped by lack of funds. "The pipeline law was enacted two years ago but without any appropriation giving us power to enforce it," the commission said. "A petroleum engineer is needed and funds should be provided so the state may pay the umpires and other employees needed in the fields. At present such funds are raised by voluntary subscriptions paid by the operators in the field."

Representative Howsley of Albany, author of a bill to increase the prorating powers of the commission, said he believed that with both Governor Sterling and the commission demanding oil legislation, the lawmakers would stay at work and enact it, either in an extension of the session or a special session.

May Repeal Proposal AUSTIN, May 19. (AP)—The senate today heard two proposals to repeal the law which fixes the sine die adjournment date at May 22.

Both proposals, in the form of resolutions, were tabled subject to call.

Senator Woodruff of DeCATUR was author of a resolution wherein the legislature was asked to continue its deliberations through May 24. Senator Poage of Waco sent up a substitute for the Woodruff resolution proposing adjournment May 22 with the understanding that the members were to return June 22 and continue the session "until they see fit to set the date for sine die adjournment."

Poage said in his resolution that members of the legislature were willing to spend the interim without pay.

Both resolutions explained the legislature would be unable to complete its work by May 22.

Both resolutions will be considered by the senate tomorrow.

AUSTIN, May 19. (AP)—After the most tumultuous meeting of the present session last night, the senate came back today to consider the same bill which caused all the turmoil.

The bill originally was styled the peddlers' tax, but peddlers were seldom mentioned in the long discussion yesterday and last night. As passed to third reading shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, the bill carried a 75 cents a ton tax on sulphur and a 40 cents a barrel levy on cement. The present tax on sulphur is 55 cents and there is no cement levy. The two levies would raise an estimated additional $2,200,000 annually.

The session last night reached its climax when Senator Holbrook of Galveston, vigorous opponent of the bill, charged Edgar Witt, the chairman, with being unfair. Senators rose to the lieutenant-governor's defense. Holbrook stated he "did not mean anything," that he thought Witt had made an incorrect decision and that the words were uttered in the heat of debate.

Senator Woodward of Coleman told the presiding officer "all of the 31 members of the senate, including Tom Holbrook, believe you're fair."

Holbrook's ire was aroused when Witt did not order a roll call vote on one of the Galveston senator's amendments. Holbrook maintained a sufficient number of senators requested a record vote, while Witt stated he did not think so. Witt, however, offered to give the Galveston senator a roll call after Holbrook.

MAYOR INDICTED Light Vote Is Being Cast on Library Tax Levy

STRIKE ENDS AT HOUSTON THIS MORNING

HOUSTON, May 19. (AP)—The end of the walkout of skilled Houston workmen in the building trades was seen today, the union men compromising with Contractor Don Hall, the most important employer involved, on a cut in wages of $1 per day.

Two hundred and fifty or more men left their posts May 1 in protest against the $2 per day reduction put into effect by the Associated General Contractors.

The decision to accept the compromise was made shortly before noon at a meeting of the Houston Building Trades Council and Houston Labor and Trades Council.

The compromise was accepted by Contractor Don Hall, leader in his group and at present the employer of more building craftsmen than any other contractor. It had not been accepted formally by the Associated General Contractors as a whole, but the body was expected to meet this afternoon to take action.

Hall alone will re-employ more than 200 men "right away," he said. He had been regarded by organized labor as the central figure in the "other side." One or more important contractors never had put into effect the $2 reduction.

An official spokesman, accepting the $1 per day wage reduction of the five organized crafts said: "We feel that this is all that could be expected of labor at this time and certainly could not be consistently expected to do more."

"We are not unmindful of the justice of our original contentions nor are we unmindful of the general interest of our citizenship, and feel that they, in large numbers, are of the opinion that we should consent to some wage reduction."

"We are also actuated by a desire to have peace and harmony between the employers and employees in this city."

"We sincerely trust that you will accept this in the spirit in which it is offered and that there will be no further controversy."

The statement was addressed to J. B. Dannenbaum, secretary of the Associated General Contractors of Houston.

The five crafts are the carpenters, bricklayers, cement finishers, laters, and hoisting engineers.

The new scale under the compromise will be: Bricklayers, $13 per day; carpenters, $9; cement finishers, $10; laters, $12; hoisting engineers, $9.

Thinks Bottomless Hole in Earth

Dallas Scientist Has Theory on Tide Movement

DALLAS, May 19. (AP)—A scientist's belief in a great bottomless hole at the top of the world may be tested by the depth finders of the Wilkins submarine at the North pole this summer.

The existence of this hole is argued by Dr. Richard Ommo Meents, who holds the degree of Ph.D. and is professor of geology at Southern Methodist university here.

The hole takes a zig-zag course through the crust and from there continues in a straight line to the center of the earth, he holds, bringing upwelling water which is fed to it from huge fissures located at the bottoms of the great ocean "deeps" north and south of the equator. These fissures converge at the earth's center.

Similar At South Pole Water rises similarly in conduits under the south pole, probably emptying into the bottom of Weddell and Ross seas, Dr. Meents says. He accounts for the polar upwelling and the equatorial sinking by the 26-mile flattening of the earth at the poles, which causes a difference in hydrostatic pressure.

Dr. Meents bases his belief upon study of ocean currents. He has written a paper to show why neither temperature differences, salinity differences, winds nor earth's rotation account satisfactorily for the great ocean currents.

Asked what verification the Wilkins expedition may find he says: "Judging from the oceanic phenomena."

WAIVES HEARING

Charlton Brown and Companion Were on Way to Chamber Convention When Car Hit Ditch.

ROBY, May 19. (AP)—Trial of Charlton Brown, mayor of Mineral Wells, in a liquor case here, was set today for next Monday, May 25, in 104th district court. An indictment returned this morning against Mayor Brown charges him with transporting "spiritous, vinous and malt liquors."

The indictment is the aftermath of a car smash here May 13, a small coupe occupied by the mayor and a Mineral Wells friend running off into a barpit after missing a sharp turn on highway 83 in West Roby. The two men were en route to Lubbock for the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

R. L. Wilkerson, deputy sheriff, said he found three and one-half pints of liquor in the damaged car. He filed a transportation complaint against Brown and bond was fixed at $500 for his appearance in Judge W. R. Chapman's court yesterday.

Brown came here yesterday, waived examining trial, and returned to his home, the case being referred directly to the grand jury.

A new bond will be required, Judge Chapman said today. Officers sent word to Mayor Brown to make the instrument.

Filling Station Man and Negro Shot by Robbers

BEAUMONT, May 19. (AP)—A filling station manager and his negro assistant were wounded by the same bullet when robbers opened fire on them here last night.

The negro, Elton Redmond, 18, attempted to break away and one of the men fired, the bullet passing through Redmond's right thigh and striking Johnnie Redman, the manager, in the left thigh. The robbers escaped after taking between $35 and $40, Redman said.

It was the third time within a year the place has been held up.

ARMY ABANDONS OLD DOBBIN

The army, one of the last organizations to abandon the horse as a beast of burden, is giving way to the trend of modernism and Old Dobbin and 7,999 of his fellows will be removed from duty. Disposition of the animals has not been announced, but it is certain that fate will not be very kind to them.

The army's decision will not add to its popularity and, in many cases will not add to its efficiency. Old Dobbin does not have to carry spare parts, an extra quart of oil, nor gasoline. If necessary he can forage along the highways. He does not have to have new pistons, his combustion is uniformly good except for an occasional attack of colic, and he will return to his home stable if given the opportunity.

The horse is to be replaced by the ugly little tanks which performed such wonders in the last war. The tank is efficient, but it is a heartless thing which, when it balks, is capable of showing absolutely no signs of intelligence. It is more costly than Dobbin initially and its upkeep is fully as much.

Machines are truly wonderful and necessary, but to adopt a machine simply because it is a machine is an error. A labor leader said the other day that what the public overlooks is that, while the machine produces, it cannot consume. It will not eat more wheat, cotton and beef. Many businesses are using machines which could be as well discarded.

Another big influence in modern affairs is the huge amount spent for wars, past, present, and future. They constitute the greatest menace to world peace. Wars consume but they do not produce. Ultimately they are paid for by the taxpayer.

No civilization can stand destruction like that of the world war without being thrown into chaos by the very extravagance and destruction. The next war will be even more destructive. The following article is suggestive of the damage to be wrought from the standpoint of gas alone.

WASHINGTON (AP).—In a laboratory at Edgewood Arsenal Maryland, a little group of chemists are working on a project upon which, in the opinion of some military leaders, the security of the nation may stand or fall.

This research organization, the only one of its kind in the United States, is seeking the best possible gas defense and offense for the army.

Says Maj. Gen. Harry L. Gilchrist, chief of the chemical warfare service: "If we are to protect against an enemy gas, it is necessary that we should know all there is to know about the offensive use of gas. I do not make any claims that chemical warfare alone will win a war, but I do insist that it is one of the most important, if not the most important auxiliary."

General Gilchrist says the present army gas mask is believed the best military mask in the world, but that its weight and bulk still are more for foot troops than is desirable. Development of masks suitable for voice transmission and for use with optical instruments, such as range finders, is nearing completion.

Nearly a third of the casualties in the American army during the world war were due to gas, General Gilchrist says. In a large number of cases it was found that the men would not put their masks on.

WASHINGTON—Uncle Sam takes a real pride in his "detectives"—those young men on whom he relies to combat the modern criminal with his high-pressure methods. And young men they are from the keen and youthful director to the lowest man in the ranks.

The service—bureau of investigation of the department of justice, to give it its proper name—has the reputation of being the hardest branch of the government service to get into and the easiest to get let out of.

An applicant must be between 25 and 35 years of age. J. Edgar Hoover, the director, is himself under 40. Twelve years ago he was a minor clerk in the filing department of the bureau. He studied law in his spare time and in six years climbed to the directorship, succeeding William J. Burns in 1924, at the age of 30.

He is typical of the service where steel trap brains are the rule and ability rather than seniority governs promotions.

Know Legal Evidence
These investigators must have legal training, for it is essential that they know what constitutes evidence in a court of law. Often they take the witness stand to convince a judge and jury that they are telling the truth.

Their responsibility covers all federal laws except prohibition, narcotics and counterfeiting. One day an agent may be called on to interview the president of a great industrial concern and the next day he may be deal-

Cooperation is the keynote. The division of identification and information, for example, which now contains some 2,400,000 fingerprints and is in communication daily with hundreds of police departments, is solely the result of voluntary cooperation of police chiefs with the federal government.

The friendliest relations are maintained with such organizations as the royal northwest mounted police, Scotland Yard, and the French national police.

Job Is To Get Facts
As a result, a man recently arrested in south Africa was found to have a police record in Detroit.

When working with local authorities, the investigators have instructions to let the local man get the credit for the arrest.

"Our job," says Hoover, "is to get the facts. If the facts show somebody has violated a federal law it is up to us to see that the violator is put in the penitentiary."

The cardinal rule is, "Never underestimate your opponent." He is given credit for being as shrewd as the investigator.

The work is done quietly and secretly. Announcements concerning cases are not made until an arrest.
"But we don't wear false whiskers," Hoover smilingly says.

NEW BALL IS GIVING TO GIANTS MUCH BETTER HURDLERS NOW GOING ROUTE FOR M'GRAW

HURDLERS NOW GOING ROUTE FOR M'GRAW

Ed Brandt, ineffective last season, takes his sixth straight victory.

By GAYLE TALBOT JR. Associated Press Sports Writer. John J. McGraw predicted in the training season that the new ball would have a marked influence on the National league race and made his plans accordingly.

"All I need," the Giants' pilot said at San Antonio, "is pitching, and I'll get that with this new ball. It's going to make a big difference. You'll see."

How well McGraw sized up the situation is admirably illustrated in the standing today. Largely because of hurling, the Giants are running a powerful second in the National league, a bare half-game behind the St. Louis Cardinals. McGraw's moundsman have gone the route in 14 out of 24 games, the highest average in either league.

Another Giant, Bill Walker, pitched the full nine yesterday in setting the Cardinals down, 6 to 2. Ed Brandt, the Braves big south-paw, who could win only four victories out of 41 games in which he participated last year, scored his sixth straight triumph at the expense of the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 1.

Led by Babe Herman, the Brooklyn Robins enjoyed a field day against the luckless Cincinnati Reds. The score was 14 to 4, and Herman cracked a homer, triple, double, and single.

Don Hurst's pinch single off Jackie May drove in the winning run as the Phillies scored twice in the ninth to nose out the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 4.

The Chicago White Sox turned the nearest trick of the day in the American league when rallied for six runs in the ninth round to beat Boston, 9 to 8.

There was no sign of a let-up on the part of the Athletics as they continued their whirlwind tour of the west. They defeated Cleveland for their tenth straight victory, 10 to 7, taking a firmer hold on first place and sending the Indians down to sixth.

The New York Yankees kept pace by scoring a 20 to 8 victory over Detroit and squaring their four-game series.

Turnesa Leading British Tourney After Fine Play

LEEDS, Eng., May 19. (AP) — Joe Turnesa, American professional, today capped a 69 in the first qualifying round of the $5,000 Leeds professional tournament to take an early lead over the big field.

Turnesa's fine 69 was a record for the course. He turned the first nine in a regulation 36 but came home in a 33. The old record was 70.

Turnesa won the Leeds tournament last year. Turnesa's fine display was in contrast to the play of the other three Americans in the tournament. Tony Manero and Horton Smith, who finished third in the $7,500 Southampton tournament last week, took 76. Joe Kirkwood, the New York trick shot artist, was closest to Turnesa with a 74.

Blockade to Low Wages Is Erected

WASHINGTON, May 19. (AP) — The administration is trying to erect a blockade on the path to lower wages.

Through Secretary of Labor Doak it has notified workers and employers alike that any general efforts to reduce pay should be a violation of the agreement reached between labor and industry in the 1929 conference called by President Hoover.

The secretary said yesterday that that agreement to maintain wage levels despite the depression. He added that general reductions would be a violation of confidence and would permit employers to demand more money although they had decided to abide by present pay scales.

Doak said he believed pay slashes shown in recent compilations by his department could be attributed to the smaller businesses. The larger industries have not reduced but are responding "fairly well" to insistence that the level be maintained, he asserted.

Washington Bust Given To State

AUSTIN, May 19. (AP) — Congressman James P. Buchanan urged America to rededicate itself to the principles of George Washington in an address here last night presenting a bust of the first president to the state of Texas. The program was to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the birth of the nation's first executive.

Buchanan said the country was entering on the most important period in its history, and declared the growth of bribery and corruption in public life was a menace to the union.

Accepting the bust, Governor Ross Sterling exhorted Texans to property observe the bicentennial of Washington's birth.

DETROIT'S SLUGGING FIRST-BASEMAN WHO HAS BEEN SETTING THE PACE FOR THE AMERICAN LEAGUE BATTERS

SEND THE REST OF THE TEAM HOME
ALEXANDER PULLED A TRIPLE PLAY WITH GEHRINGER LAST SEASON
HE CRUISED 22 HOME RUNS LAST YEAR

Sport Slants

Baseball history may repeat itself, to the annoyance and embarrassment of the earnest, hard-working expert.

Last season only two of them drew the St. Louis Cardinals out of the hat in making pre-battle forecasts on the National league pennant race.

The Cardinals, of course, upset a lot of dope by winning and forcing with were awarded No. 1 position in the 1931 consensus.

Nothing has happened so far to disturb this confidence in the Red Birds, but the New York Giants look like the "catch" this year.

Only four robust critics named the Giants to win the pennant. They were rated behind the Cubs and Robins. Whether as a result of the or not, the House of McGraw has projected itself to the very forefront. The club has all-around class, fortified by better pitching.

McGraw seems about to get the breaks again, after a considerable lapse. He shifted Lindstrom to the outfield with the rookie Vergez on third and it has worked amazingly well. He needed an understudy for Travis Jackson and found him in flashy Eddie Marshall. He needed more pitching strength, whereupon the aged Clarence Mitchell twirled four straight victories, to keep pace with the right-handed ace of the staff, Freddy Fitzsimmons.

The first series between the Cardinals and Giants, starting May 16, at the Polo Grounds, should develop some of the flashiest pitching and all-around brilliance of the spring skirmishes.

Columbia isn't going in for the "Rockne System" under Lou Little, as a result of the acquisition of Marty Brill of the 1929-30 Notre Dame champions as a backfield coach.

"There is no use trying to lecture halfbacks on how to tackle," remarked Little in discussing Brill's selection. "So I am going to give them a coach who is young and able-bodied enough to step in and give some practical demonstrations. If we don't do anything else next fall we are going to teach interference and tackling."

"I have known Marty Brill since he was a boy and have followed him through Penn Charter school, Pennsylvania and Notre Dame. Columbia isn't going to adopt Rockne football or make any radical changes in its style of play; nevertheless I am hoping Brill will bring us some new and different ideas out of his fine experience with a master coach like Knute Rockne."

"Rock's" Wizardry Lives
The Rock's wizardry carries on. Of the 1930 team; Brill goes to Columbia. Frank Cardozo to Purdue; Moon Mullins to Kansas; Bucky O'Connor to Yale; Tom Conley to LaSalle of Philadelphia, to swell the list of Notre Dame stars on the coaching lines.

Nowhere else in sport that we can think of off-hand has any system become so rooted, sustained such impetus. It will take a few years to let whether graduates lacking the old master's touch will do so well as those to whom he passed on his golden grills.

GOLF STARTS TOMORROW

BEAUMONT IS CUT DOWN IN CAT RAMPAGE

Spudders Outplay Houston in Ninth Inning Rally—Hillin Hits Homer.

Monday games in the Texas league saw the ten-game winning streak of the Beaumont Exporters stopped at Fort Worth, where the Cats won, 4 to 2.

Hap Callard limited the Exporters to eight hits to stave off the recent rush of the Beaumont boys who swept from fourth to second place during their consecutive wins.

The game was purely a case of where the Panthers binged in the pinches. They secured only six hits off Malicky, but they got them in the right spot. The victory enabled Fort Worth to gain a full game in the pennant marathon.

At Wichita Falls, the Spudders defeated Houston in a well-played 5 to 4 contest. They won with a three-run rally in the ninth. Ash Hillin, Wichita Falls pitcher, was the hero of this rampage with a triple that scored two runs and tied the count at 4-4. Hillin scored a moment later to win his own game.

Dallas, in a night contest, defeated Galveston at Dallas, 13 to 6. Grady Adkins, on the mound for Dallas, allowed nine hits but kept them scattered until the Steers had stacked up a 13 to 1 lead in the first four innings.

The Shreveport-San Antonio game was rained out.

Tom Maguire of California Hurts Yankee Chances by Bad Round.

WESTWARD HO. Devon, Eng., May 19. (AP) — The American contingent suffered a succession of reverses in early matches of the second days play in the British amateur golf championship today.

Tom McGuire of Stockton, Cal., who had won his first round match in easy fashion yesterday, went down today before R. E. Andrews of Westward Ho, 3 and 2.

Two native Americans who make their homes in England also were beaten. Douglas Grant of London, who has won many minor English tournaments, was trounced by Rex Hartley of the Royal St. George's club, 5 and 3. Paul Abell, who entered from the Essex County Country club of New Jersey, fell before A. R. Nall-Cain, of the Royal and Ancient, 4 and 3.

E. J. Hadden of Oakland, Cal. eliminated the veteran American Joshua Crane of Brookline, Mass., in a second round match, 4 and 3. Both had drawn first round byes.

Charles Lewis of Hollywood, Cal., who was to have met Maj. C. E. Ormerod of Berkshire, withdrew from the tournament.

Baseball Problem to Be Discussed Here Wednesday

Jim Galloway, former Texas and big league star, will be in Pampa Wednesday and will remain until it has definitely been decided whether or not Pampa will enter a team in the proposed Panhandle Baseball league.

Mr. Galloway was supposed to arrive here yesterday but returned to Wichita Falls to complete some business.

Last night J. M. Dodson, who was elected vice president of the league, had not received further word as to how the league would be operated.

J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas league, was elected president of the proposed league without remuneration for one year.

Location of a park will be discussed at a meeting Wednesday night. Negotiations for use of the Earvester football field are under way but whether the combined projects could be worked satisfactorily is not known. It would be impossible to play football on a baseball infield, is the belief of several local fans.

PROFITS FROM FOOTBALL BUILD SKATING RINK

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 19. (AP) — Profits from varsity football will pay for a $300,000 indoor ice skating rink which the University of Illinois will open next November.

The rink, long a dream of Athletic Director George Huff, is now under construction. It will be housed in a brick and stone building 208 by 141 feet, with a 55-by-130-foot service wing.

The skating arena will measure 126 by 193, the concrete floor being criss-crossed by some 80,000 feet of imbedded piping, leaving a surface adaptable for other purposes during non-skating months.

Skating will become one of the required activities in physical education, and intramural hockey will be introduced.

Intercollegiate hockey, now played by three Big Ten schools—Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota—is a possibility, but Director Huff is emphatic that the primary purpose of the rink is to provide winter recreation for students who otherwise would not get it and that varsity hockey will not be permitted to usurp the rink.

A spectators' gallery, accommodating 1,200, is included in the plans, while the service wing will contain check-rooms, rest rooms, storage rooms, first aid room, lunch room, and skate-sharpening department.

WATSON TO TRAVEL
R. R. Watson, manager of the Western Union, will leave Thursday afternoon on a two-week vacation trip to Oklahoma City and El Paso.

In Oklahoma City, he will visit one week with his brother, B. W. Watson, and in El Paso, he will visit his sister, Mrs. T. T. Vasham. Elmer Hendryx of Oklahoma City, will arrive in Pampa Wednesday to relieve Mr. Watson while he is on his vacation.

HAVE YOU SEEN "SEED?"

Promoter Frank Hunt is giving Otis Clingman another chance to see what he can do with a light heavyweight. Jack Purdin will be the opposition in this week's regular Thursday night card.

Purdin comes from Shreveport, where he is a plantation owner. He is an aristocrat who loves the game for its own sake.

Clingman is putting on much weight in spite of the daily workouts, golf, and fishing in which he is indulging. He is going to keep out of the way of Sonnenberg tactics and depend on his speed to beat the heavier man.

Clingman believes that his fine physical condition will enable him to handle Purdin down to a size he can handle.

Red Michaels will face a new man, Fred Carter, in the preliminary event. It will perhaps be the hardest match he has attempted. The program will open at 8:30 o'clock with Barber Kelly and Tommy Thomas on the mat.

INVITES RULER

Wilbur C. Hawk, above, general manager of the Amarillo (Texas) News-Globe, is taking 150 people on a $999-mile trip to Mexico to invite President Rubio to come to Amarillo to open the Tri-State exposition this fall. The trip costs $20,000.

"I figure just as I did last fall I've been thinking about it all winter—there wasn't a single ball or a single play in that series that I could have second guessed or changed judgment on, in any way."

"The games Philadelphia got the breaks in they won. The games we got the breaks in we won. When we didn't get the breaks we lost."

"It'll be like that again, if things go the way I think they will this season. There's nothing to this idea that the American league is stronger than the National. We have a harder season than they do. For the past few years the American league winner has come down to the finish well out in front and with a clinch to rest. That's important."

"Of course," he said, "this stuff don't mean anything now. We've got to win a pennant first."

"Hey, you fellows, let's get out there now and beat this club again. They're not so tough."

Buy Suit With $10 In Pocket—Left by Thief

EVANSTON, Ill., May 19. (AP) — Some folks, as the saying goes, have all the luck.

Take the case of Fred A. Goodrich. He walked into a clothing store, picked out a snappy new spring suit, tried it on, and decided to buy it.

Putting his hand in the hip pocket of the new suit, he pulled out a $10 bill.

The money was left in the suit by a thief who previously had stolen it. The thief later was captured and the suit returned to the owner of the store, who brushed it up and put it back into stock.

"I know a bargain when I see it," said Goodrich as he walked out after using the $10 to help pay for the suit.

Martial Law in Madrid Is Lifted

MADRID, May 19. (AP) — Spain's capital revelled in freedom from martial law today for the first time since the beginning of the incendiary riots against Catholic property and the provinces looked forward to the same privilege by the end of the week.

After a lengthy meeting, Provisional President Alcalá Zamora's cabinet restored civil rule last night with the statement Madrid again was tranquil and indicated the same procedure would be followed throughout the nation in a few days if the cities continued calm.

President Alcalá and Papal Nuncio Federico Tedeschini held a second conference yesterday over what was believed to be Pope Pius's protest against anti-religious depredations but no announcement was forthcoming.

RETURNS FROM MEETING
The Rev. C. E. Lancaster returned last night from Birmingham, where he attended the Southern Baptist convention May 13-17. On Sunday evening he preached at LeBel's Baptist church, Memphis, Tenn. Rev. Lancaster will fill his pulpit here next Sunday.

Ewing to Collect Bond Forfeitures

Judge W. R. Ewing of 31st district court has made up his mind to collect bonds that have been forfeited. He has ordered a number forfeited but thus far none have been collected. In fact, court records show that no bail bonds have ever been collected in district court here.

Judge Ewing is now making plans to collect the bail bond of Mrs. W. H. Jensen, charged with violation of the prohibition laws. Her bond was signed by several citizens of Winkler county. The court ordered the sheriff of that county to collect the bond. This was done, and now Judge Ewing intends to collect the bond from the sheriff's sureties.

CHANGE OF LIFE

"I used Cardui about sixteen years ago, and found it helped," says Mrs. Ruth Scott, of Tuscon, Ariz. "I used it during change of life. I was very nervous and my back ached week. I did not sleep well at night, and was restless and very worn-out. In fact, I took Cardui at this time. It built me up and from then I have been well and strong."

Medicine for Women to Health

Feminine Fancies

BY HOLLYCE SELLERS HINKLE

We wonder—Who is this playwright incognito in Pampa whose five-episode play, "Beauty at the Throat," will be presented May 26 for the benefit of the Pampa Public Library?

To say the least, we congratulate this local citizen on his ambition in writing a play suitable for presentation by five high school senior boys who were unable to find a play written even by professional authors which pleased them.

Latent talent exists everywhere, at home in Pampa as well as across the seas. So to those who wish to write, I say rent a typewriter and start out—the chances are you'll compose something that others will enjoy reading as much as you enjoy reading the works of others.

"But I don't know anything to write about. I've never been anywhere unusual, never seen anything out of the ordinary," someone is thinking.

Dozens of others have thought the same thing. Remember that what is commonplace to you may be unusual to someone else. Human interest events are seen on every hand in Pampa. Unique characters may be found in every circle, and unique characteristics in every individual.

"They remain only to be recorded in a play, a short story, or a magazine article.

Don't let anyone tell you that you can't make a dress, that you can't compose a musical selection, that you can't paint a picture, or that you can't write. Remember—the first 10 compositions are the hardest.

Why not stress individual creative work in study clubs? It has been tried and found successful. To write one play, for instance, will give a club member more satisfaction than studying two dozen plays.

Bacon once said, "Reading maketh a full man, conference a ready man and writing an exact man."

Ten American Debutantes Are To Be Honored

LONDON, May 19. (AP)—King George and Queen Mary, assisted by the Prince of Wales, will receive in historic Buckingham Palace tonight, among others, ten American debutantes and the wife of an American minister in the first of the social season's four court presentations.

The last courtesy was practiced today and the last ruffles tied into place in preparation for the crowning event in the social lives of the elect. They will wear gossamer gowns of tulle, chiffon and lace, the majority of them white but some in pale shades of color.

Mrs. Charles Carter, Davies, wife of the American ambassador to the court of St. James, will present the following:

Mrs. Ralph Booth, wife of the American envoy to Denmark, of Detroit; Miss Barbara Hutton, Miss Louise Rich, and Miss Virginia Penn of New York; Miss Helen Brinton, Miss Margaret Duane and Miss Edith Martin, of Philadelphia; Miss Adele Jahncke, of New Orleans; Miss Bertha Potter Palmer and Miss Virginia Dawes, of Chicago; and Miss Jasmin Schoelkopf, of Buffalo.

Nine American women, six debutantes and three matrons, will participate in the second presentation tomorrow night.

When the guests line up in their carriages along the wide drive leading to the palace to await their summons, London will be provided with one of its favorite shows. Habitués of the court as well as the trembling neophytes will be exposed for hours to the inquisitive gaze of cockney crowds.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO GREET TEACHERS. Baptist Women Attend One O'Clock Luncheon

COMEDY GIVEN BEFORE LARGE GROUP MONDAY

"It Pays to Advertise."

The fact was humorously convincing when the play by that name was presented by a group of well-trained actors of the Little Theater Monday evening in the city auditorium. Three hundred persons attended.

The play, a farce of three acts, was written by Roi Cooper Merguc and Walter Hackett and staged under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Douglas. Filled with humor and impossible but ludicrous situations the story is of a young man who is involved by his father and his father's secretary into a situation in which he must go to work—a possibility that he has successfully escaped in the two years he has been out of college.

The young man, Rodney Martin, does go to work but unfortunately for his father, Cyrus Martin, he picks his father's vocation of making and selling soap. With the aid of Amely, a press agent, he organizes the 13 Soap company and inaugurates a great advertising campaign.

Although young Martin is nearly felled by the Contesse de Beaurion and nearly betrayed by Ellyer Clark, the spineless son of a rival soap manufacturer, the 13 Soap company wins the respect of Cyrus Martin. Of course, Rodney marries the prettiest secretary, Mary Grayson.

All characters in the play were well portrayed, especially those of the Contesse de Beaurion, played by Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Cyrus Martin, played by Mr. John B. Hessey and Ambrose Peale played by Mr. Harry Kelley.

Other persons appearing in the play were: Mrs. Raymond Harrah, Mr. W. O. Workman, Mr. Morris Johnson, Miss Velora Reid, Mr. A. L. Patrick, Mr. C. W. Stowell, Miss Dary Meador, Mr. Emmitt Smith and Dr. H. H. Hicks.

Plans Made for Vacation School

Detailed plans are being made for the daily vacation Bible school which will be held at the Central Baptist church May 23 through June 5. On plans to attend the school will come to the church for registration and then will take part in a parade to advertise the school.

A faculty of from eight to 12 teachers will supervise the work and play of the children. There will be four departments, each having a superintendent and teachers. Miss Mary Burks, young people's worker, will be in general charge of the school. Superintendents include Miss White, beginners department; Mrs. G. D. Holmes, primary; Mrs. G. C. Stark, junior; Mrs. W. B. Barton, intermediate. Teachers will be Miss Katie Anderson and Mesdames Walter Kirbie, Ray R. Hungate, L. A. Satterwhite, Fannie Mae Cliff, D. L. Lunsford, and R. M. Mitchell. Miss Daphnia Lunsford will be pianist for the primary department and Miss Louie Barton will play for the junior and intermediate departments.

The school is designed to be of all-round benefit to the children through instruction in the Bible, missions, habit and character-forming stories, patriotism, music, work, expressive activities such as note-book work, paper cutting, and tearing, drawing, map making, poster making, hand and craft work for the larger boys and girls, and dramatizing and telling Bible stories, memorizing choice Bible passages, its supervised play periods for the smaller children, and weekly social outings for all the children.

During these two weeks, beginning May 23, the school will be held in the mornings from 8 to 11 at Central Baptist church.

HIGH SCHOOL P-TA WILL BE HOSTESS HERE

The public is invited to attend the reception to be given by the high school Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in honor of the school faculty. The event will be held in the school building.

Mullinax; hostesses in dining room—Mesdames C. P. Buckler, A. A. Hyde, O. H. Ingram, George Walslad, M. T. Harblson, C. L. McKinney, Mary Binford, George Fleisher, and T. H. Red Cross Fetes Last of Founders

Mrs. Emma L. She is shown, upper left, as she appeared at the first meeting and, below, as she is today. Mrs. DeGraw, who lives in Washington, has seen the Red Cross grow from 51 charter members to 3,500 chapters with 11,000,000 members. In connection with the 50th birthday celebration, Uncle Sam is making 50,000,000 portraits of Marie Bard, New York model who posed for last fall's Red Cross poster, shown here, for reproduction on the government's Red Cross anniversary stamp issue.

Mrs. Emma L. Missouri Woman Will Face Trial In France Soon

NICE, France, May 19. (AP) — Mrs. Charlotte Nixon-Nirdlinger, former St. Louis, Mo., beauty contestant, goes to trial tomorrow for the killing of her husband, a wealthy Philadelphia theater owner.

The state will ask a verdict of guilty for "murder with excuse of provocation," the punishment for which is from two to five years in prison. The defense, headed by Louis Cassin, the Riviera's greatest criminal lawyer, is expected to plead self-defense.

Magistrate Vauchier will sit in the case and the jury will be drawn from a panel of reputable business men.

OSBORN ADOPTS HIS SECRETARY

MACON, Ga., May 19. (AP) — Miss Stella Lee Brunt, who went to night high school when she was 21 and then worked her way to an M. A. degree at the University of Michigan, is the adopted daughter of Chase Salmon Osborn, former Michigan governor and lecturer and writer.

The adoption, which took place in a special court session in Chambers in Sylvester, Ga., on April 30, was not revealed until today. Miss Brunt, who has been literary secretary to Osborn for many years and whose home is in Hamilton, Ontario, is 37. Osborn is 72.

By the adoption Miss Brunt was granted the name of Stella Lee Osborn. Osborn explained that his advancing age and increased literary work required someone to give him constant attention, and he wished to give his faithful secretary all the advantages of a legal daughter.

nomens, I would say that the conduits are nearly one mile in diameter. They enlarge in a funnel shape before they intersect the sea floor.

"Jumping Off Place"

"Consequently, when the Wilkins expedition takes soundings in the Arctic ocean, a sudden increase in depth will be noted as the conduit is approached, there being a sort of 'jumping off place' at the beginning of the funnel.

"The vertical drop in the conduit below the Arctic ocean basin floor may be about five miles. As the average maximum depth of the Arctic thus far reported is between two and three miles, I would say that soundings which indicate a sudden increase in depth of about two and one-half miles to anywhere above that figure may be accepted as those taken within the throat of the conduit."

There may be more than one Arctic conduit, Dr. Meents says, but due to the basin-like nature of the Arctic he favors "one gigantic somewhat circular opening" approximately directly under the geographical pole.

Markets

CABLES ARE LOW

NEW ORLEANS, May 19. (AP) — Cotton opened active but rather easier here today owing to lower cables than due. First trades showed losses of 7 points on all active months which was not as large a decline as the cables warranted. The market soon eased off further, however, July dropping to 9.10 and October to 9.45, or 10 to 12 points below yesterday's close.

This early decline attracted covering as shorts were afraid the weather man would show unfavorable weather in the belt. Prices rallied 9 points from the lows and were steady at the end of the first hour.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, May 19. (AP) — After an irregular start, grains moved upward early today. Liverpool dispatches said wheat demand was improving, that stocks in six chief European ports had been reduced almost half compared with a month ago and that estimated planting this season in Australia showed almost 5,000,000 acres curtailed.

Opening 1-2 cent off to 1-4 to 3-3 up, wheat afterward scored additional gains. Corn started 3-8 lower to 7-8 higher and subsequently rose all around.

BANK RATE REDUCED

NEW YORK, May 19. (AP) — The Federal Reserve bank of New York today reduced its buying rate on acceptances by 1-8 of 1 per cent to 1 per cent for bills maturing in sixteen to ninety days.

The reduction was the fifth in less than four weeks. As quotations on acceptances are in percentage yields the reduction was equivalent to an increase in price. The lower yields are another step in the federal reserve policy to force money rates downward as an aid to business. Acceptances constitute an important form of commercial credit.

Bond Victory Is Won By Two Men

DALLAS, May 19. (AP) — Two men held in the Corsicana jail charged with kidnaping Robert Cerf, Corsicana banker's son, last December and obtaining $15,000 ransom for his release, looked toward Dallas today for the next move in their fight to obtain release on bail.

Jimmie and Doyle Nash won their contention in the court of criminal appeals at Austin yesterday on habeas corpus proceedings for release under bond in the Navarro county charges, kidnaping and conspiracy. Currie Caldwell, named with them in the Corsicana charges, also was allowed bail at the hearing. Charley Hassell, a fourth member of the quintet indicted at Corsicana, remained in jail, and Oliver Clapp, the fifth member, had not been arrested.

BANKER OFFERED POST

DALLAS, May 19. (AP) — John E. Owens, a vice-president of the Republic National Bank and Trust company, has been offered the general management of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, the Dallas News said today.

Owens declined to comment on the offer other than to say it still was "up in the air."

Harry Williams declined re-election to the position at a meeting of directors here last Wednesday.

brook's charge of unfairness, but the senate would not let him do so because the result already had been announced.

About 15 amendments were pending when the previous question was ordered, shutting off all debate. Of those, only the amendment by Senator Hopkins of Gonzales to tax cement was adopted. Amendments to tax soft drinks, bath houses, and swimming pools, cosmetics dealers, intangible assets, and electricity were among those voted down.

Farm Levy Killed

The Poage amendment to tax purchasers of grain, live stock, cotton, and other agricultural products was stricken out, part by part, after Senators had failed to kill it as a unit. Poage agreed to eliminate everything but cotton and Senator Woodul of Houston won his fight to remove the cotton purchaser.

Senator Woodruff of Decatur said he would introduce a resolution today to extend the session another week beyond May 22. There had been some talk of that last week, but many believed the move had lost its momentum.

The house yesterday passed a $5,000,000 rural aid bill, reducing the senate's figures $200,000. A bill to levy an occupation tax on firearms was set for special order today.

Mrs. J. J. Spangler was dismissed from Pampa hospital today.

night clubs, roadhouses and saloons, five breweries and three stills were put out of commission.

Although about 20 miles from the site of Boulder City, the "model town" which the government is building for dam workers, Las Vegas will be in easy reach of laborers off duty. State authorities do not enforce prohibition, Nevada having repealed her state dry law, and enforcement is left to federal authorities.
