municipal gang and thereby helps to perpetrate it; the financier who fans the flames of speculation and paves the way for a panic; the industrialist who owns a coal mine where men are as truly enslaved as Siberian serfs; the publicist who averts public wrath from such people by acting as their apologist—these men, without exception, think that they are doing the right thing. They are, in other words, scrupulously honest according to their lights. The tragedy is that the lights by which they live are at fault. That is the point we must recognize if we are to iron out the kinks in our national life. It isn't enough to have leaders who are honest—for most men, after all, are as honest as they know how to be. They must also know exactly where they are going. In plain English, they must combine honesty with intelligence.

Theft of Oil Is Defined In Bill

AUSTIN, Sept. 15. (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling today submitted to the Texas legislature a bill to define the term "theft" as it pertained to production of oil. The bill would make it an offense for any lessee, assignee or holder of any oil or gas lease or interest therein, who, without the consent of the person entitled to any part of the oil produced, fraudulently converted any part of the oil or the proceeds therefrom to his own use with intent to deprive the owner of the value of the oil and gas or produced. Under the bill, the offense would constitute theft and persons convicted under the statute would be punishable under the theft provisions of the penal code. Representative R. M. Hubbard of New Boston, member of the house conference committee on the highway bond assumption, said the committee had agreed on the terms of a compromise bill which would be ready for action in both houses later today. The agreement was reached, Hubbard said, after two members of the senate conference group had resigned and had been replaced by two others. Those who resigned were Senators J. J. Loy of Sherman and W. R. Poage of Waco. They were replaced by Senators Walter Woodward of Coleman and Joe Moore of Greenville. Hubbard said the conference report provided for state assumption of only these portions of bond issues

Girls Compete In Personality Contest Friday

Much interest has been evidenced in the personality contest which will be conducted tomorrow evening at La Nora theater for the purpose of selecting "Miss Pampa 1932." The event will not be a style revue, although attractive garments will be worn by the entries, according to Mrs. Cecelle M. Exum and Mrs. Dorothy Bowman of Oklahoma City, who are in charge of the contest. Entrants may take their choice of street, sport, afternoon, or evening costumes. Among girls who will represent business houses of Pampa in the contest are Misses Jean Mann, Dorothy Doucette, Florida Freeman, Eiva Gillham, Bernice Moss, Lucille Cole, Claudia Atteberry, Georgia Sanders, Dorothy Shilling, Ruth Reynolds, Dorothy Dodd, Clotilde McCallister, and Anita Holmes. Figure, poise, and personality will be considered by the three out-of-town judges who will make the decisions. A Spartanburg, S. Assumption of bonds used to purchase right of way would be precluded, Hubbard said.

ATHLETIC—

(Continued from page 1) school must pay the expenses of 25 men of the visiting team. Eligibility Rule Fixed The dismissal bell at the close of school Friday afternoon will close the time of eligibility of a player for the following week. All complimentary tickets were eliminated except for the following: School board members and their wives, active members of the band, team physicians, football squad member of junior high, senior high school squads who are members of district 1, class A teams, home college teams, including representative coaches, ministers and their wives, press reporters, and unmurmed pep squad members of the participating schools. No athletic awards will be granted until the close of the first semester or second semester, and then only to contestants who have passed in three subjects during the current year. In case of a three-cornered tie, the game will be played off by drawing numbers one, two, and three. Those drawing numbers one and two will play the first half of the game, and the winner will play team drawing number three the second half. The net gate receipts will be divided three ways between the participating teams. The three-way tie game will not count against interchange of games. The place of playing would be decided by representatives of the three schools. Winning teams will be decided on a percentage basis as to championships. A trophy will be awarded the winner in football. Home teams will be allowed to wear their own colors in contests. Berger was admitted to the district class A competition at the Plainview meeting. Slaton has since withdrawn. Major General E. L. King of Atlanta flew 12,000 miles during the summer training season to inspect 15 army posts in the fourth corps area.

They wrought havoc with the wooden ships of olden times, and, by eating the dykes of Holland, threatened the very existence of that country. The shipworm, also called Tereido, is not a worm, however. It is a mollusc, and the shell valves, instead of covering the entire animal as in a typical bivalve, cover only the extreme front end. It is by means of these sharp shells that the animal bores its way through wood, swallowing the sawdust as it goes.'

City Has Water Plan For Talley Addition People

City commissioners yesterday advanced a plan for the consideration of Talley addition residents who wish the city to provide water in that area. The city commission said that if the present Talley water line could be rented and metered, water could be furnished at the rate of $2.90 for the first 3,000 gallons, 80 cents a thousand for the next 5,000 gallons, and 30 cents per thousand gallons for water in excess of these amounts. There would be a $15 installation charge and a $5 meter deposit as in the city. An alternative plan would be to sell water in bulk to some responsible distributing agency in the addition. No action on the project was taken by either party. The commission bought an electric refrigerator for the health department.

Caliche Being Placed on 33

Placing of a thick layer of caliche upon highway 33, beginning at the city limits, has been started by Cooke & Branden of Marshall, the contractors. The caliche will be placed for about 16.3 miles, or to the Roberts county line. State and federal funds will be used for the project under the new Sterling plan of financing. After the caliche has been placed and treated, it will be opened to traffic for a time before the asphalt topping is applied. The time for topping the road is problematical, and likely will be in late winter or spring. An excellent grade of natural caliche is being hauled 7 miles to the start of the work. A shortage of dump trucks was reported yesterday.

No Change In Gas Price Here

DALLAS, Sept. 15. (AP)—The McNollia Petroleum company today reduced retail gasoline prices one cent a gallon, cutting its regular grade to 17 cents and its special grade to 20. Officials of the Texas company were expecting to receive orders for a similar reduced schedule. No change in the price of gasoline had been received here late this afternoon. However, the Texas company had received orders to reduce the price of white gasoline at White Deer and Skellytown two cents, or to 17 cents a gallon. At noon the Gulf company was ordered to meet the cut at Skellytown, but no mention of a change here was made. Other companies were expected to cut prices in those places.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 15. (AP)—Congressman H. E. Barbour won the draw here today that gave him the republican nomination for congress in the ninth district. Glenn M. De Vore, with whom Barbour tied in the August primary, was the loser. They received the same number of votes in the recent primary and, under state law, the tie was decided by the drawing.

Scene from "MY PAL THE KING" - UNIVERSAL PICTURE

Imagine Tom Mix as a rough and ready cowboy from Texas storming a politically polluted Balkan kingdom!

Imagine him and his pals from the Wild West shooting up the long-bearded bad men in time to save a 10-year-old king from death!

Imagine two-gunned Mix slaying his famous Wild West circus in a moving picture!

Well, that and more is what you will see in rip-roaring romance, "My Pal, the King," that will open at the Rex today, with Mickey Rooney, James Kirkwood, Noel Francis, Stuart Holmes and Jim Thorpe, also in the cast. The story concerns a Wild West Show and its adventures while playing in the tiny kingdom of Alvonia.

Mix and his entire posse of cow-punchers go through their paces for the edification of a delighted child-king while his cabinet members are planning to spirit him away and do away with the political obstacle that his tiny person constitutes.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15 (AP)—Cotton was hesitant at the opening today in spite of better Liverpool cables than due, but later showed improvement. First trades were unchanged to only four points up, due to an accumulation of overnight selling orders but when these offerings were absorbed, the market rallied on short covering and October advanced to 7.23 and December to 7.38 or 12 to 13 points above yesterday's close. conference during the noon hour including Bob Morton and W. J. Miller of Spearman and W. B. LaMaster, Ed Woods, M. R. Coffee, and R. T. Shidler of Perryton.
At the afternoon session, a committee headed by Mr. Bentley of McLean was appointed to draft a resolution which would indicate a "united front" to the highway commission.
Mr. Chase of Clarendon and Mr. Collier of Spearman spoke in favor of a route which would serve as a connection with or continuation of highway 88, now ending at Pampa. Judge Ritchie of Miami advocated a bridge on the river in central Roberts county, exactly south of Perryton. Chairman Bentley of McLean indicated that this would be satisfactory to his community.
Objection was raised that the bridge should be farther west so as to split the distance between Spearman and Perryton. It was agreed that one bridge would be built.

not permit the Little Theater to announce the title for another month, but it was one of the most successful plays ever produced in New York.
Mrs. Barrett in urging persons possessing dramatic talent to try out for the roles, pointed out that interpreting any of the parts in the play would not be a reflection upon anyone's dramatic ability. "If a person thinks he has any acting ability now is his or her chance to prove it," she said. She urged interested people to "take a look" at the play at the library before Wednesday night. Try-outs will be held at the district court room in the courthouse.
According to a rule voted by the Little Theater this year, no one can appear in a play of the organization until the membership fee of $2 has been paid. Mrs. Barrett announced that the only eligibility rule for trying out Wednesday night will be a membership card. These and information concerning the play can be secured from Mrs. Barrett, I. A. Freeman at Gordon's store, Mrs. J. F. Cretney, Mrs. Conley, W. O. Workman, Archer Fullingim at The NEWS, and Miss O'Keefe.
Price of admission to the first play will be 40 cents. About 250 reserved seats will be sold at the same price to the first ones who call for them. Tickets will not be placed on sale until a week preceding production.
Directors present at the meeting last night were Mrs. Conley, Mr. Workman, Mr. Freeman, Miss Louie Barton, Mrs. Cretney, Mrs. Barrett and Mr. Fullingim.
Because so many employees of a Greenville, S. C., bleachery wanted a day off to campaign for a fellow worker who was running for sheriff the management closed the plant on primary day.

county judge, "shall compose the 'commissioners' court' and the county judge, when present, shall be the presiding officer of said court."
Any three commissioners, including the county judge, comprise a quorum for any business except that of levying a county tax. The county clerk is ex-officio clerk of the commissioners' court, keeping all records and issuing writs at the direction of the court. Regular terms are held beginning each second Monday of each month if the business of the county demands it, but may be held or terminated as conditions demand. For several years, especially during the construction of the courthouse, the Gray county court met often and members were busy constantly with county business.
Salaries of the commissioners are paid out of the general fund. The salaries in Gray county are $2,250 per year. The salaries are limited by law according to valuations assessed for tax purposes.
The duties of commissioners include:
1. Divide counties into precincts and fix the times and places of holding elections.
2. Lay out and establish, change, or discontinue public roads and highways.
3. Build bridges and keep them in repair.
4. Appoint road overseers and apportion hands.

main highways was not more important than maintaining of arterial highways into the neighboring all fields. The amount of road maintained in precinct 2, for instance, was increased from a little over 100 miles to about 445 miles by Commissioner Lewis O. Cox.
The function and wide scope of duties of county commissioners are often overlooked by the public. True, there are many other county officials serving under the complex department system which some taxpayers' bodies are seeking to simplify, but the activities of the commissioners are administrative, managerial as to local contacts through the precincts and in directing uses of county property, and even judicial through the county judge.
More recently, the installation of the budget system has placed the responsibility of economy squarely upon the commissioners.

ONLY fresh GAS PACKS FULL POWER

FRESH-MADE gas packs "life," punch, power. But as staleness increases—power decreases. The "light ends"—the "easy starting" elements—evaporate. Besides that, a chemical change takes place—making gas sluggish, weak and "dead." And the staler the gas, the stickier it is—and the more apt it is to knock. The entire petroleum industry has long sought ways to overcome gas deterioration. Gulf, after years of study, now announces a system that assures you of FRESH, full-powered gasoline! Here's how... By making the best possible gasoline and refining out certain complex elements that cause early deterioration. And by rushing this FRESH-MADE, FULL-POWERED gas to you like some perishable food, Gulf has spotted its huge sections of the country—so that a station is close to a source of gasoline. Gulf has geared its system to high speed. Fast gas to Gulf pumps every day. Get your money's worth. Get FRESH gas—delivered exclusively.

CUB MANAGER IS SATISFIED

Grimm Wants Team To Keep Keen Edge Before Sewing Up Pennant Race.

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
As the Chicago Cubs continue to peek in a little closer to the national league flag day by day, gradually winning the thing by default, so to speak, their manager is perfectly satisfied with their conduct and steadfastly refuses to view with alarm.

Charlie Grimm wants it that way. Not that he wouldn't like to win every day. He's in there fighting on every pitched ball, but he isn't in any great hurry to sew up the pennant. He wants his team to remain keyed up as long as possible, doesn't want them to have an extended "let-down" before they meet the Yankees in the world series.

"I believe it's better for a club to keep on its toes right up to the series," he said. "Those Yanks, now, have nothing to do for a couple of weeks except play out, get a little stale, and it might be hard for them to get back that keen edge they had while they were winning the flag."

The little Bears lost to the New York Giants yesterday, 4 to 3, when Freddie Lindstrom hit a homerun in the 11th inning but it didn't damage their status as the Pittsburgh Pirates were dropping another game to Boston, 5 to 2. The Cubs thus remained 5 1/2 games in front with 11 games to play.

A triple play, started by Bill Urbanski, enlivened the Braves' victory over Pittsburgh. Brooklyn climbed closer to second place by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals again, 3 to 1, behind Van Mungo's steady curving. The Phillies subdued Cincinnati, 4 to 1, as Big Boy Hansen allowed four hits.

Some of the Yankee veterans took a well-earned rest but they were able to beat the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2. Detroit whaled four Washington pitchers to win 8 to 3. Jimmie Dykes' home run with two out and the bases loaded in the ninth set off an eight-run rally that saw the Athletics submerge St. Louis, 13 to 6. Mel Harder tossed seven hits scattered in pitching Cleveland to a 9 to 0 win over the Red Sox.

NERVE HOLDS MAKES PAMPA BOY FRANTIC

CHIROPRACTOR UNABLE TO RESIST ROB'S SPECIALTIES

Rob Roy, Pampa's own light-heavyweight wrestler, went a step nearer a chance at the crown last night at the Pla-Mor auditorium when he won two falls out of three from Doc Mueller, the Austin chiropractor. The match was one of the weirdest ever seen on a local mat.

Mueller, a specialist in the chiropractic headlock and nerve-pressing game, had the Pampa boy almost out of his head by pressing nerves and muscles to break holds. The Pampa boy overcame all difficulties by going through the ropes, and by using a nice right to wherever it would land. Rob won the first fall in 25 minutes with a Japanese toe-hold. Mueller put Roy to sleep in 16 minutes to win the second fall. Nervous and jumpy, Rob battled Mueller and nature to win the deciding fall in 15 minutes with a series of rolling headlocks and a body crush.

Wildcat Willie deLors was too old in every way for J. C. Lewis and threw him twice in 10 minutes, both times with body crushes. Andy Gump and Don Jones wrestled 10 minutes to a draw in the opening number.

Mueller and Roy climbed through the ropes at 9:05 o'clock and the fireworks started immediately. Rob got an arm strangle and Doc pressed a nerve and it was all off. The Pampa boy got a toe-hold but he finally broke it and came up with a body scissor, only to have Doc press the button and get another scissor and hammerlock. The two maules exchanged the same hold four times in a row and stayed in them nearly 10 minutes. Ropes, feet, fists, and ju-jitsu, on the part of Mueller, were used to break the terrific holds. Mueller had the Pampa boy outweighted so much that Rob's famous headlocks went for nothing. He couldn't get the big fellow over his shoulder.

The battling went on uninterrupted until Rob came out of a body scissor with a Japanese toe-hold. He held it despite the fact that Mueller used his strength to toss the Pampa boy around in the air. Doc finally patted the mat after 25 minutes.

JIM POOL

Captain Jim Pool soon will be playing his fourth and last year of football for Pampa high school. He is only 17 years old but weighs 185 pounds. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pool and has been a resident of Pampa for the last seven years, coming here from near Spearman. Jim is an all-around football player. He can handle almost any position on the team. He has played end and center on the Harvester squad, and this year is a likely prospect for the fullback position. Jim loves the game and gives his best at all times. He also plays a hard game of basketball and has been a member of the track and field squad.

Cats In Mexico To Play Crack Teams

Fort Worth may meet Chattanooga, champion of the Southern association, here in early October in two exhibition games.

spits, and a toe hold before Rob ever got a hold. Toe holds, slams, punches and other forms of battling were in order during the fall. Mueller again started his chiropractic work and Rob, as he predicted, used everything in retaliation. Rob showed the fans several nice flying headlocks and flying body scissors that Mueller had to break with his special touches.

Goes To Sleep
After a couple of rabbit punches Mueller turned Roy around, slipped on a flying body scissor from behind and then proceeded to put his fingers somewhere on Rob's throat. The Pampa boy knew what was coming and reached for the ropes, but the hold took effect before he could grasp them and suddenly his knees buckled and he went to sleep with his shoulders to the mat.

Rob came back for the last fall cautious. He played the outside of the ring from the first minute. He got a Japanese toe-hold but Mueller threw him into the rope. Rob got a headlock but Doc pressed a nerve that sent Rob into the audience. He made three more trips into crowd during the fall.

The Faculty playground ball team came from behind to defeat the Kiwanis club at Magnolia park yesterday afternoon 21 to 13 in a postponed fixture. The clubmen scored seven runs in the second inning and held the lead until the fifth when the Faculty went to the front.

Mitchell, Faculty shortstop, scored five runs on his five trips to the plate, one going for four bases. Selby was the real hitting star of the game with four hits on five trips to the plate. Cullum was the big noise for the Kiwanians with three hits and three runs in four times at bat. Collins, Fred Thompson and Buckingham also hit well for the clubmen.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox will be at home to Pampa football fans Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Harvester park, when the 1932 Harvesters will meet a team of ex-Harvesters in a real old-fashioned scrimmage. The exes have been working out for several days and are ready for the battle.

The Harvesters have not had a real scrimmage this season and it will be a chance for the coaches to see their charges in action. The starting line-up has not been named, but every boy will get a chance. Jim Collins catching the best game of the season. Several costly errors were made by both teams. Earned runs on both sides were anything but numerous.

ORDER TO BE ISSUED

AUSTIN, Sept. 15. (AP)—R. D. Farker, director of the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad Commission, said an order probably would be issued today, effective at 7 a. m., tomorrow lowering the per well reduction in the East Texas oil field from 50 to 46 barrels per day.

Two veteran former champions, Charles Evans of Chicago and Jesse Guilford of Boston, were very much in the fight but only two of the

The greatest advance ever made in gasoline . . .

Mobilgas

with CLIMATIC CONTROL*

At last a gasoline has been made that gives the highest usable level of performance in all kinds of weather and at all altitudes. Climatic Control is the greatest thing that has ever happened to gasoline!

HOT - COLD - RAIN - SHINE

It's all the same to Mobilgas

In addition to the outstanding advantage of Climatic Control, Mobilgas has an unusually high ANTI-KNOCK rating. All this at no increase in price. Mobilgas is a regular-priced gasoline!

*CLIMATIC CONTROL is the preadjustment of the specifications of Mobilgas, before it is placed on sale in your locality. It automatically adapts itself to the variations in "engine heat", caused by changes in temperature, altitude, humidity and road "pull". In the Mobilgas Research Laboratories all these changing climatic conditions have been "manufactured" in hot and cold testing-chambers. The road performance of Mobilgas is thus scientifically verified at different "engine heats".

HOT-ROOM TESTS (Above left)—In this specially constructed chamber tests are made at as high as 150 degrees F., hotter than the hottest day you have ever known. Here the "hot weather" preadjustment for Climatic Control in Mobilgas is scientifically verified.

COLD-ROOM TESTS (Above right)—Here engineers reproduce driving temperatures as low as 20 degrees below zero. This verifies scientifically the "cold weather" preadjustment for Climatic Control.

"ENGINE-HEAT" READINGS (Right)—On this control panel, the exact performance of Mobilgas, under the different "engine heats" produced by the hot and cold room tests, is measured and recorded. Then Mobilgas is preadjusted to provide it with Climatic Control, a scientific achievement.

The two matlers exchanged the same hold four times in a row and stayed in them nearly 10 minutes. Ropes, feet, fists, and ju-jitsu, on the part of Mueller, were used to break the terrific holds. Mueller had the Pampa boy outweighed so much that Rob's famous headlocks went for nothing. He couldn't get the big fellow over his shoulder.

The battling went on uninterrupted until Rob came out of a body scissor with a Japanese toe-hold. He held it despite the fact that Mueller used his strength to toss the Pampa boy around in the air. Doc finally patted the mat after 25 minutes.

Mueller started the second fall with a display of speed and holds that were dazzling. He had Roy in a drop toe-hold, two rocking chair

with CLIMATIC CONTROL

At last a gasoline has been made that gives the highest usable level of performance in all kinds of weather and at all altitudes. Climatic Control is the greatest thing that has ever happened to gasoline!

In addition to the outstanding advantage of Climatic Control, Mobilgas has an unusually high ANTI-KNOCK rating. All this at no increase in price. Mobilgas is a regular-priced gasoline!

There's a new driving sensation waiting for you at the Mobilgas pump. Fill your tank today and breeze ahead.

HOT - COLD - RAIN - SHINE

It's all the same to Mobilgas

HOT-ROOM TESTS (Above left)—In this specially constructed chamber tests are made at as high as 150 degrees F., hotter than the hottest day you have ever known. Here the "hot weather" preadjustment for Climatic Control in Mobilgas is scientifically verified.

COLD-ROOM TESTS (Above right)—Here engineers reproduce driving temperatures as low as 20 degrees below zero. This verifies scientifically the "cold weather" preadjustment for Climatic Control.

"ENGINE-HEAT" READINGS (Right)—On this control panel, the exact performance of Mobilgas, under the different "engine heats" produced by the hot and cold room tests, is measured and recorded. Then Mobilgas is preadjusted to provide it with Climatic Control, a scientific achievement.

Nothing Venture

by Patricia Wentworth

SYNOPSIS: Nan hotly insists that the broken bridge that nearly cost her own and her husband's lives was weakened by the murderer Robert Leonard, whom she has seen sulking about the estate. Jervis is stiff-necked, and will not believe her. Rosamund Carew, Jervis' treacherous former fiancée, call with Janet, Tetterley and they maliciously force Nan to tell that her father was Nigel Forsyth, famous explorer, who died in 1919 at Bagdad.

Chapter 22
ALMOST AN APOLOGY
The evening was very hot. Monk brought them seed coffee in the library. It was still broad daylight, the terrace and the long slope to the ravine in full sun, and the shadows on the lawn dead still. Jervis went out on to the terrace, and Nan picked up a book. As long as Monk was in the room they had talked quite easily and pleasantly; when Monk was gone there seemed to be nothing to say—or too much. It was a relief to go through the pages of a book into another world. She had read no more than half a chapter when she heard Jervis come back.

He rang to have the coffee taken away, and stood by the window smoking a cigarette until the door had closed behind Monk. Then he came over to where Nan sat by a window facing the shadowed lawn. He stood looking down upon her. "Rather unwise of you to commit yourself like that to Tetterley." Nan looked up. If she was startled, she did not show it. Her eyes had the wide, steady gaze which roused something in him. Anger? He took it to be anger. "Dashing of course—but a bit unwise, don't you think?" "I don't know at all what you mean," said Nan. "Really?" "Really?" "I'm afraid you're a bad memory. It was quite amusing to see you call Tetterley's bluff, but I think

"Why don't you believe me?" He laughed. "Let's drop it! But if I were you, I should leave the ancestry vague. Nigel Forsyth is just a bit too well known."

"Nigel Forsyth was my father, and Constance Livingston was my mother. My father's people were rather badly. And as it happens, Brasher is the sort of fellow who would be sure to have cartloads of old encyclopedias and Whos Whos knocking about the place."

"I don't know what you mean." He sat down on the arm of a big chair and leaned towards her. "Oh, I think you do. Janet's as inquisitive as they're made. She'll go home, and she and Brasher will look up the appropriate volume—I mean what year Nigel Forsyth died."

His face changed again. The momentary embarrassment passed. He looked like a triumphant school-boy. "I've fallen on my feet! I congratulate myself—you're too angry to do it for me of course—but I'm about to apologize."

"Why didn't you believe me?" He didn't answer the question. "You've seen Rosamund. Probably you know her as well as I. I didn't love her. But I did think we might make a go of it. And when she let me down it was a colossal crash. I'm taking no more chances—I'll beg your pardon when I see those letters."

"You're going to make me pay Rosamund's debt?" "Probably," returned Jervis. Nan flared up. "But suppose I won't pay?" she demanded hotly. "A strange misunderstanding, tomorrow, bring about an unexpected union."

New Additions To School Force Made Necessary

Instructors and executives, including the registrar, numbered 95 in Pampa district schools today. Latest additions to the faculty, necessitated by resignations and increased enrollment, are: Miss Johnnie Houssels, University of Texas graduate with A. B. degree in business administration; Miss Madge Rusk, A. B. West Texas Teachers college, to have charge of physical education, English, and reading in Junior high; Miss Lella Clifford, for 5 1-2 years in Wichita Falls schools, assigned to second grade at Horace Mann school.

School buses are very crowded; readjustments may be possible to lessen the loads, but it is possible that another vehicle will be added. The enrollment in the district today was almost exactly that of last year, or 2,700 pupils. Last year's average attendance of 2,413 is expected to be bettered this term.

Post-graduate students under 21 continue to enroll to take commercial work. County Superintendent John B. Hessey expects reports from his fifteen schools to show an increase over last year. About 25 high school students are being brought to Pampa high from the Hopkins district. The Hopkins district is furnishing the bus and paying tuition to avoid the necessity of setting up a high school for the small number of students.

HOOVER ASKS SUPPORT FOR RELIEF WORK

Individual Help Now Needed More Than Ever

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—Appealing to the American people to support generously private relief agencies, President Hoover today outlined to welfare and business leaders four salient points in caring for the nation's needy.

"They were, first, 'to see that no man, woman or child shall go hungry or unsheltered through the approaching winter.'

Second, 'to see that our great benevolent agencies for character building, for hospitalization, for care of children and all their vast number of agencies of voluntary solicitude for the less fortunate are maintained in full strength.'

Third, 'to maintain the bedrock principle of our liberties by the full mobilization of individual and local resources and responsibilities.'

Fourth, 'that we maintain the spiritual impulses in our people for generous giving and generous service—in the spirit that each is his brother's keeper.'

The president spoke at the White House to several hundred noted figures in American social service and industrial life. They were meeting in a one-day welfare and relief mobilization conference to rally support behind local community projects for extending aid to the unfortunate. Twenty-nine social service organizations have been enlisted.

"This is, I trust," Mr. Hoover told them, "the last winter of this great calamity. Yet despite a dawning hope upon the horizon, individual need in the meantime may be greater than before."

He asserted, however, that although greater difficulty may be encountered this year in obtaining subscriptions, he was "confident that you will succeed."

Frasing the previous generous responses to local relief societies, the president outlined federal relief projects—the $300,000,000 fund, mammoth building programs, Red Cross distribution of government wheat and cotton and efforts to spread employment.

"With these back logs behind your efforts and those of local authorities," Mr. Hoover asserted, "we must make sure that no American will this winter go hungry or cold."

Gifford Urges Local Programs In Relief Work

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—Speaking hopefully of indications of business recovery, Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, today told the welfare and relief mobilization conference:

"If I entertained for a moment the thought that our present unemployment and economic situation had any of the elements of permanence, I, for one, would wish to evolve other plans rather than to again mobilize the private welfare and relief resources."

"The problem which particularly concerns this conference, as I see it, is to alleviate so far as humanly possible distress among the unemployed while the battle against the depression is being won and, at the same time, to carry on the essential, long-established private social welfare activities of the country."

Gifford, who is president of the charity organization society of New York, said that regardless of economic improvement the coming winter would be a "hard one," necessitating close cooperation between public and private welfare agencies and between communities and the state. He urged that a community program be adopted in advance.

Local responsibility in meeting relief needs, Gifford said, must be continued, otherwise there would be greater hardships to those who are in want, adding that the foundation on which local relief activities rest—privately organized social work—must remain secure. There are thousands of cases, he said, which public funds can not reach.

Gandhi Might Be Removed From Jail

LONDON, Sept. 15 (AP)—The British government has decided that as soon as Mahatma Gandhi begins a hunger strike, which he has said he will start Sept. 20, he will be removed from the Yeroda jail at Poona to a place of private residence.

The announcement by the India office said it is hoped that it will not be necessary to impose any further restrictions on Mr. Gandhi but that this will depend on whether the liberty accorded him lends itself to the promotion of civil disobedience or of any similar agitation prejudicial to the maintenance of law and order.

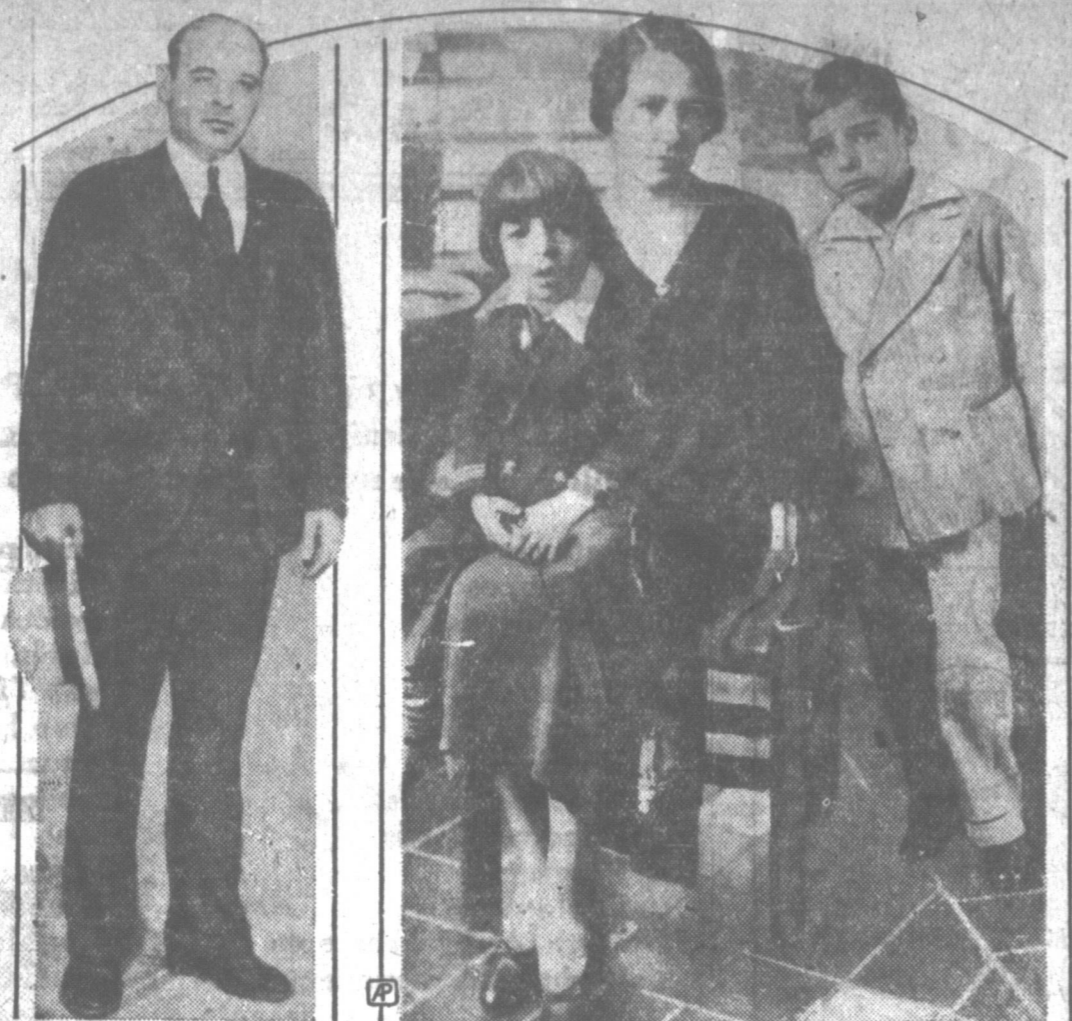

The only restriction contemplated is that Mr. Gandhi would be served with an order directing him to remain at the place of private residence selected.

SONG WRITER DIES

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15 (AP)—Author of more than 8,000 hymns, many of them popular in all countries, Charles H. Gabriel, 76, died here yesterday. He was the author of many famous revival songs of Billy Sunday, the evangelist. His songs include "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," "That Will Be Glory for Me," "There is Glory in My Soul," and "Higher Ground." His death was attributed largely to grief over the death of his wife a year ago.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

One of the easiest ways to furnish up an otherwise ordinary meal is by means of sweet pickles. The simplest meat dish gains zest and no relish tray seems complete without its compartment of this piquant accessory.

Nearly all the fruits and many of the vegetables lend themselves to this method of preserving. Carrots and cucumbers are most delectable of the vegetables. Carrots retain their color and are very decorative to serve. They are easier to make than cucumber rings because of their natural firmness of structure. Unless cucumbers are at the right stage of maturity they are apt to become soft and mushy.

Beets, small green tomatoes and ripe small tomatoes can be used to make appetizing and colorful sweet pickles. They are all inviting garnishes for winter salads as well as meat dishes.

Fresh, canned or dried fruits can be used with good results. This makes it possible to make sweet pickles at any time during the year and not only when fresh fruits are available. Melon rinds, both cantaloupe and watermelon, should be added to the list and in a season when fruits and vegetables are generally scarce they should not be overlooked.

Canned pineapple is extraordinarily good when prepared in sweet pickling sirup. Cut in slices and wedges and pour boiling sirup over the fruit for three successive mornings. The fourth morning, fruit and sirup are brought to the boiling point and put in sterilized jars and sealed.

Fresh plums, pears, peaches, apples and the seedless grapes are delicious when put up in a sweet pickling sirup. Any fruit which is pickled without removing the skin or rind should be well pierced over the entire surface.

The time for cooking fruits in the sirup varies. The fruit can be cooked until tender in clear water and simmered in the pickling sirup until transparent. Or the whole cooking process can be done in the sirup. The pickled material should be tender and clear, but firm and unbroken. Pouring the sirup over the fruit or vegetable for several mornings in succession insures a perfect and unbroken pickle but prolongs the time of preparation.

The same general rule can be used for almost any variety of fruit or vegetable. The spices can be varied but the proportions of sugar and vinegar remain the same. The spices are used whole and tied in a small cheesecloth bag if clear, unclouded pickles are wanted. Powdered spices darken the sirup and discolor the fruit.

Sweet Pickling Sirup
One quart vinegar, 4 pounds light brown sugar, 1-2 cup whole spices. Break cinnamon into short pieces. Use more cinnamon than cloves. Put ingredients into preserving kettle and bring to the boiling point. Boil five minutes before adding fruit or before pouring the sirup over the fruit. Calculate one-half cup vinegar and 1-2 pound sugar for one pound of fruit.

YANK MANAGER IS AFRAID OF CUB PITCHER

HURLING WILL DECIDE SERIES, SAYS JOE M'CARTY

By PAUL MICKELSON
 CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Joe McCarthy's famous grin has widened an inch since his Yankees milled down that American league pennant but his world series voice has choked to a cautious whisper.
 Not even his exultant players, already shouting about four straight victories over the Cubs, can ignite a spark of outspoken optimism from "Marse Joe."
 He's been to the world series wars before as commander of the National league entry and knows only too well what can happen to the proud east ball club in just a few riotous innings.
 "Any one who says or thinks that we are a cinch to win the world series doesn't know what he's talking about and I'm not just telling bear stories," the square-jawed leader of the Ruppert rifle squad said seriously as he watched his team in a meaningless game against the downtrodden White Sox at Comiskey park. "Sure, we do have an edge in hitting, but did you ever hear of a great hitting team losing a lot of ball games? Don't fool yourself. Pitching will decide this series as well as all others. I've got a lot of respect for those Cub pitchers and for one of the sweetest leaders in the game, Charlie Grimm."
 McCarthy, unlike the experts, doesn't expect any advantage from his former connection as manager of the team he is expected to meet in the world series. Rather, he figures it a handicap.
 "When I was manager of the Cubs, I knew well what every pitcher's weakness was on that ball club," he reflected. "But that's been two years ago and how baseball players can change in two years! They change radically and I probably don't know anything about any of them today except what I can get from scouts."

Amarillo Blast Mystery Still Puzzles Police

AMARILLO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Who were the two men burned to death in their own fire trap set early yesterday at the home of Horace Tharp here? What was their motive in entering the house?
 Officers still are seeking answers to these questions as they continue investigation today of the blast that wrecked the looted home and took the lives of two men.
 Efforts to identify the bodies and to trace ownership of the abandoned motor car found near the scene and which contained loot from the Tharp home have been futile, officers said.
 The car bore a license issued at Las Vegas, Nev.
 While the Tharps were in Borger attending a dance, three men were seen in their home by neighbors, who watched while furnishings were saturated with gasoline.
 "Never mind the shade. Turn out the lights. We've got to get out of here," neighbors heard one of the men say.
 Immediately after the lights were turned out the neighbors saw the flare of a match. It was followed by a terrific explosion. It is believed one man escaped in a motor car.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE CALL OF THE WILD
 "Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by Paul Bransom, America's foremost animal painter... inspired by the savage struggle between the ferocious wild dog and the vicious wolf... as described in Jack London's famous novel of combat against crude nature in the frozen north.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
 That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, the lord will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON. Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

Cor. 1932, The American Tobacco Co.
