Supreme Court Hears Heated Arguments in Governorship Fight

QUESTION OF PREMATURITY
BEFORE BODY

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
CLAIMS IT INTENDS
TO FOLLOW LAW

MA'S ATTORNEYS TALK

COURT ASKED TO NAME
HER AS PARTY
NOMINEE

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (P)—Members
of the state democratic executive committee today pleaded in an answer to Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's
application to the state supreme court for a mandamus to compel
her to certify her as the party
nominee for governor that they did not have any intention to do otherwise.

Attorneys for W. O. Huggins, chairman, and members of the committee, Governor R. S. Sterling and Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, parties to the action, contended that the relief sought by Mrs. Ferguson, contending for the nomination with Governor Sterling, was premature.

C. M. Cureton, chief justice of the court, came from the Pacific coast, where he was spending his vacation when the first legal test of Texas' confused gubernatorial primary was taken to his tribunal, to listen to the pleas.

Claim Action Premature
Chief Justice Cureton announced
from the bench that pleadings of all parties indicated the litigation was in agreement as to the law, the only question being whether the action brought by the woman former governor was premature.

Mrs. Ferguson did not appear in court. Her husband and spokesman, James E. Ferguson, also a former governor, sat with his attorneys.
The court room was filled long before the nine members of the main
court and commissions of appeals filed into hear the motion. Many legislators quit their work in both lawmaking halls, where they are considering tax relief measures in special session, to see the beginning of what promises to be a long legal fight.

I HEARD--

That wives of several Rotarians
"jumped" them in regard to their spying activities in connection with the scheduled ball game between the Rotarians and the Business and Professional Woman's club team at Magnolia park Monday afternoon.
Not a club Buick owner admitted that it was his that was used to watch the women work out Wednesday afternoon but the club team
declares that it was a Buick.

Jack "Quicksand" Stewart, Baker
Saulsbury, Bert Curry, Jesse Mays
and a few more town coaches arguing about the football prospects
during workouts at Harvester park yesterday afternoon. Other coaches voted to bar the "wranglers" from
the park. Head Town Coach Tommy day afternoon and was greeted with loud applause. The town team will start practice soon, said Coach Tommy.

NEWS Will Print
Work-Wanted Ads
Free Next Sunday

Desire to help those in need of employment prompts the Pampa Daily NEWS to print
"work wanted" advertisements
free to those who are seeking employment. The ads will be limited to 25 words and must be submitted to The NEWS by 6 o'clock
Saturday evening for publication
Sunday. The only restriction is that the advertiser be unemployed
and in need of work.
The work-wanted classified
ads will be printed for three days
and will serve as an employment directory for citizens needing workers. It is hoped that the citizenship will carefully read the ads and extend a helping hand
wherever possible.
Don't forget—there will be absolutely no charge for these
work-wanted ads.

SUPT. JOHN B. HESSEY HAS INSTALLED BUSINESS SYSTEM
IN SCHOOLS OF GRAY COUNTY

SUPT. HESSEY

Bringing in of a big oil well is reminiscent of the "good old days"
of 1927 and '28 in this county. But high production is no longer good news. The prices of interest to landowners, and the fact that good,
high test Gray county oil is being held back to prolong oil valuations and payrolls is startling. It is a privilege to live in such an area.

Note to Rotarians: So you think the B. & P. W. girls are going to be a "snap." Well, just keep on thinking it. We're going to join some well known Kiwanians in a cheering section, and it is going to be a privilege to say a few things when Miss B&PW hits a home.

When legislators start swapping
pet bills, listening to the "interests,"
and making a play for the good will
of the howling minorities and erratic majorities, it is impossible to forecast their actions.

And when a special session begins, more problems crop out
than the best lawmakers could settle in a year. Sterling once let misguided agriculturalists and politicians coax him into calling a cotton session, which was a farce. The current session may be productive of much good, but the point in this discussion does not involve that possibility.

There are too many lawmakers.
Representation has been overdone.
The scramble for local bills has resulted in over-government, needless expense, and unwieldy houses.
One-fourth the present number of representatives, properly distributed, would be ample. The needs and conditions in the Panhandle are mainly agricultural and relating to oil and gas. There are too many representatives from the first class of interests in proportion to those who know intimately the oil and gas problems.

There is little of the spectacular
in the current work on Gray county highways involving state cooperation, but we're told that an immense amount of effective effort is under way. The success of these efforts is of tremendous importance. It is imperative that state contracts involving Gray county roads be let as soon as possible while the state policy is to pay for the main construction.
We believe that if landowners

Every District Has Surplus In Its Treasury

Of the accomplishments during his more than four years as county superintendent, none is contemplated with more satisfaction by John B. Hessesey than the building of the new brick schoolhouse in the Eldridge community. There he went to school five years, and there
he taught five years after attending college.

Mr. Hessesey's family moved to Gray county near Almarred on February 10, 1907. He attended the Eldridge school, then was graduated
by Almarred high school in 1915.
In the fall of that year he went to Canyon and took the course of study then given by the teachers college. Back to his old school as principal, there five years, and then moved to Grandview where he was superintendent for three years.

First Appointed
In July of 1927 he was appointed
county superintendent by the county commissioners because the enrollment of scholars has passed the 3,000 mark. He was elected for a two-year term and then in 1930
re-elected for a four-year term.
Having taught eight years in the county, he knew its people and its needs and was able to launch a bigger program than had been possible
with county judges acting as ex-
-officio superintendents.

The history of Gray county enrollments is shown in these recent figures: 1928, 3077; 1929, 3606; 1930, 5093; 1931, 5599; 1932, 4896. Prior to Mr. Hessesey's taking office, there had been no budgeting, no strict attention to interest and sinking funds. A number of districts were in debt. But now every district is out of debt, all have surpluses piling up to take care of expansion and bonds, all have assurance of 8 or 9
month terms—most 9-month—and every teacher is promptly and fully paid.

An Era of Brick
There were no brick buildings in the fifteen county districts five years ago; today there are brick structures at Grandview, Hopkins,
Bell, Laketon, Back, and Eldridge.
A new modern frame plant at Webb. Seventy-five teachers, all with first class certificates and two or more years of college work, are employed. Many of them have masters or bachelors degrees. "It is the best faculty we have ever

Need For Method

Patients Is Cited

Difficulties of handling cases of illness in destitute families continue to vex the Welfare Community which must cease to function
month unless funds are raised.
An instance cited by Mrs. W. H.
Davis, manager of the board, involves a widow woman who, late at night, was having hemorrhages and was in grave danger. Mrs. Davis, awakened by telephone, secured a physician, who ordered removal of the woman to a hospital to save her life. Having been here a short time, she was ineligible for county aid.

Who is to pay for such bills? Who is to save human lives in this manner? What agency, if not a welfare board, will meet the many similar emergencies arising?

JUDGE EWING SAYS AU REVOIR
TO MIAMI—NOW PAMPA CITIZEN

Judge W. R. Ewing, first court reporter of the 31st judicial district
and for sixteen years presiding
judge with never an opponent at the polls, last night established his residence in Pampa after retiring, with slight interruptions, at Miami for 40 years.

He had been "moving for a month," but yesterday the final load was delivered at his home, 423
N. Somerville, and he "came home"
from Wheeler, where he is holding court. There was regret for him and Mrs. Ewing in leaving Miami, and pleasure in coming to a city the couple has long admired.

Writing in the Miami CHIEF, Judge Ewing said "We love our friends in Miami. To our friends who have expressed regret at our going, to those who have lent a

TUESDAY NIGHT

DOROTHY MILLETTE IS

BERN'S WILL

BOAT MADE ONE STOP

HUNTED WOMAN LEFT
LUGGAGE IN HER
CABIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9. (P)— Dorothy Millette, possibly the woman prominently named in the Paul Bern suicide, disappeared
Tuesday night from a river steamer between here and Sacramento,
leaving her luggage in her cabin.
Police were told today by F. J.
Oliva, Jr., Oakland, ticket agent
for the River Lines.

Whether this was "Dorothy Millette" named in the will of the dead motion picture executive
could not be definitely determined,
but Oliva said the woman's ticket
was signed with that name before
she boarded the steamer.

The register of the Plaza Hotel
here showed the signature of D.
Millette, New York City, among registrations for Mrs. A. the hotel stating she left Sept. 6, the day
after Bern's suicide in Beverly Hills.

The river steamer made one stop
on route to Sacramento. Steamer line officials said they found no trace of Miss Millette until they arrived in Sacramento Wednesday morning, September 7.

McLean Man Dies
In Local Hospital

Chas. M. McDowell, 49-year-old
McLean man, died at 7:40 p. m.
yesterday in a local hospital following an illness of more than three weeks.

He is survived by Mrs. McDowell,
four sons, Richard, Henry, Floyd,
and Austin; four daughters, Esther,
Dorothy May, Jewell, and Thelma Jean; a brother, J. W. McDowell of White Deer; and four sisters, Mrs.
Liza Hickey of Duncan, Okla., Mrs.
Mila Hamlin of Skelltown, Mrs.
Billie Graham of Foster, Okla., and
Mrs. Flossie Wright of Era, Okla.

The funeral, directed by Stephenson Mortuary, will be held in Jericho tomorrow at a residence, following by burial at Jericho. The Rev.
Jones, Methodist minister, will preach the funeral sermon.

Warden Child Dies
In Tally Addition

Rosie Lee Warden, 1 year and six months old, died yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Warden in the Tally addition.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister, Mary Alice.
Services were to be held this afternoon at Stephenson Mortuary,
with interment in the baby garden
at Fairview cemetery. Rev. F. W.
O'Malley, minister of the local First Baptist church, was to have charge
of the funeral service.

THREE DIE IN PLANE CRASH

Two Texans Burn To Death;
One Saved By Tightening
Safety Belt.

EL PASO, Sept. 9. (P)—Tightening
his safety belt saved George A. Davidson's life yesterday while his three companions on the
chill air of the Gaudalupe mountains were burned to death when the ship struck the side of a mountain.

Pilot W. J. (Bryant) Robbins of
the American Airways, his co-pilot, Francis W. Briggs, and Victor El-man of St. Louis were killed. Their plane, wrecked yesterday morning,
was found early today by two other American Airways pilots, Ira Mc-
Conaughy and Victor Miller.

Davidson, who lives in Richmond, Calif., was only slightly injured. The searchers found him about two miles from the plane. He had stopped to build a fire because he could not find his way well in the darkness
and needed warmth against the
chill air of the Gaudalupe mountains where the ship crashed. The mountains are about 75 miles east of El Paso.

He said he was anxious yesterday as Robbins tried to pilot the plane over the Gaudalupe chain in foggy weather. As a precaution, he tightened his safety belt. When the plane hit the mountainside, the other three were thrown forward and probably stunned. Davidson's belt kept him in his seat and left him able to leap from the plane an instant before it took fire. Almost in a moment, the other men were burned to death before his eyes.

Sarchers Find Wreckage
Unable to help them, he remained near the plane awhile and then started to try to make his way out of the mountains. The plane struck only about 150 feet below the crest
of this morning, it had been flying at a slightly greater altitude,
it might have gone on to Dallas safely. At the time of the crash it was only an hour out of El Paso.

After the plane had been some hours overdue, search for it was begun. When McConaughy and Miller, the Canadian, are so eager to obtain a bridge that they are willing
to cooperate in almost any enterprise likely to succeed.

Burglars Take
Letter File of Texas Company

The Texas company's wholesale warehouse on East Tynne street was entered last night and a four-drawer letter file stolen. It was found early this morning in a ditch four miles east of Pampa on Highway 152. Papers were scattered over a large area of the nearby country.

Only 10 gallons of Texaco oil was found missing when company employees made a check this morning.
Several papers are missing, having been blown away when the cabinet
was dumped in the ditch. The cabinet was opened with a crowbar
in the warehouse before being loaded into a truck or car.

Entry to the warehouse was by cutting a hole in the front door early this morning. The hole was cut and chisel was used to cut the hole in the door. No reason for the theft
can be advanced by Mack Graham, manager.

It was the second time that the warehouse has been entered. The first time the cabinet was opened
and a small amount of money taken.
There was no money in the cabinet
last night.

Tire Stolen

E. H. Heath of Amarillo reported to city officers this morning that a Ford car and rim had been stolen from his Ford car parked in front of a local hotel sometime last night. Officers were investigating the reports.

Boy Will Make
Parachute Jump

Two parachute jumps will be made by Eddie Winfield, 16-year-old boy, at the Pampa airport Sunday.
The first jump will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will be a free fall. The second, a double parachute, will be made made at 6:30 in the evening.

The stunts will be made from Art Parey's plane which the pilot brought back to Pampa yesterday
from Wichita, Kans., where it was repaired.

GEOGRAPHIES STILL ARE INADEQUATELY TELLING OF ASSETS OF PANHANDLE AREA

If Gray county pupils have a
this Plains section they will have to get it from some source other than the geographies which are furnished by this state.

While the West Texas chamber of commerce has suggested numerous additions and corrections to publishers of geographies, the new books are not yet available to instructors. The geographies in use are several years old, and do not properly describe oil, rail, and agricultural development of the Panhandle during the last five or six years.

Principals are encouraging teachers to use much current source material to supplement the inadequate texts. Texas as a whole is barely represented in the elementary Texas,

roads. Most of the oil is pumped the Panhandle not at all in these and poorly in the Texas supplement
to the advanced texts.

What Beginners Read
Extracts from the geography for beginners:

"Oats grow in nearly all parts of our country, from sunny Texas
north to the colder plains of Minnesota."

"By and by the people began to grow rice in all the states along the warm waters of the Gulf. Now Louisiana and Texas, the farthest
west of these states, raise more rice
than any of the others."

oil fields in tank cars by the rail-

CONFERENCE RESULTS IN NEW PLAN TO ROUTE NORTH ROAD
THROUGH M'LEAN TO MIAMI

Residents of Three Towns, Merging
Influence

Efforts to obtain a state-constructed bridge across the Canadian river north of here were rapidly
nearing a climax in preliminary work today, with Miami, McLean,
and Hedley merging their influence
in the enterprise.

On Wednesday at McLean, Miami
and Hedley citizens held a conference and agreed on a route to be sought. There was another session at Hedley yesterday and one
at Miami this afternoon.

The proposed route would be
south from Perryton to Miami, thence to McLean and Hedley and on to Lakeview. Residents north of the Canadian are so eager to obtain a bridge that they are willing
to cooperate in almost any enterprise likely to succeed.

Plans launched by the Pampa Board of City Development several years ago, and continued at intervals since, call for a bridge where where in Roberts county, probably near the center, with the road connecting with Pampa and Miami and furnishing both an outlet for Miami,
and a projection of highway 88
north. It is believed here that the state would not approve of a route
too closely paralleling highway 4.

Representatives of towns interested in the highway bridge have been invited to meet in Pampa September 14. George Briggs, manager of the B. C. D., was in Miami today.

The Miami delegation to McLean,
headed by County Judge J. A. Mead,
included A. L. Muney, W. H. Craig,
A. J. Mickle, J. V. Coffey, and W. L.
Russell. The McLean group which went to Hedley yesterday included
Evan L. Sitter, M. D. Bentley, and Boyd Meador.

Powers Funeral
This Afternoon

Funeral services for James F.
Powers, 62, were to be conducted at the First Christian church at 4 o'clock this afternoon with the Rev.
F. W. O'Malley, pastor, officiating and arrangements in charge of the
G. C. Malone Funeral home.

Mr. Powers died at his home, 415
East Kingsmill avenue, late last night following a brief illness. He is survived by his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Powers moved to Pampa from Augusta, Kan., six years ago. For the first three years of his residence here, Mr. Powers was with a local brick laying company and helped build the Schneider hotel, First Christian church and other buildings. For the last three years he was custodian of the First Christian church.

Burial will be at Fairview cemetery.

SHIP'S BOILER BURSTS

BOAT BLOWN TO BITS
24 FEET FROM

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (P)—An old wooden steamboat exploded
in the east river near Hell Gate
today and 165 iron workers on Riker's island were hurled into the air, many dead and virtually all the rest injured.

Twenty-four bodies were brought
during the morning to the ferry
house where 28 years ago the dead
of the Slocum disaster, in which
more than 1,000 died, were laid.
The contracting company which employed the men reported the number of known dead at the ferry
house and in hospitals was 37.

Scores were missing and it was feared the final death list might well reach 100. Among those surported but considered surely dead
by his associates was Harry Hires
of Mattawan, the boat's engineer who was in the engine room when the boiler exploded and the craft
was torn apart.

The boat that blew up was the
"Observation," a 92-foot built 44
years ago and always owned by the Forsythe Transportation company.
Alexander Forsythe, the captain,
was injured critically in the explosion and his father, George Forsythe, suffered serious injuries.

Until recent years the "Observation" was always an excursion boat
and until its end it returned to this type of service every week-end, filling in the week as a labor ferry.
Caught in a strong tide last winter
it turned over and sank but it was raised and reconditioned and in April passed its annual government examination.

Investigations were begun today
by various agencies, including the

NEWS--COMPLETE NEWSPAPER

When J. M. Smith of Pampa took over this newspaper as a little weekly way back in the early part of this century, he quickly changed the name to The Pampa NEWS. The old name was The CRONY.

There is a significance in the name
NEWS which the present editorial
staff feels an obligation to cherish.
This is a NEWSpaper. Its intention is to print NEWS of every community activity, from sports to oil,
from personals to the most serious
delineation of progress.

The NEWS is unique in the generosity displayed toward churches
and organizations which ordinarily get small mention in daily newspapers. What the people are interested in, The NEWS is here to record.
No organization, cooperating with this newspaper, has ever failed to get prominent mention. Many groups have won statewide and even national fame through stories
in The NEWS.

The latest added feature to your
Pampa NEWSpaper is the Book Worm,

A NEW TANK AND A MONUMENT
Two entirely unrelated little stories got into the papers the other day, and if you happen to read them together they may have set you thinking.

One told of the new army tank that was being tested at Linden, N. J. This tank proved itself able to travel 110 miles an hour along the highway and to do 60 miles an hour over rough ground. It can jump over ditches and it is light enough to be carried by an airplane.

All in all, it seems to be a delightfully efficient bit of fighting machinery. The other story came from Thiepval, France. It told how the Prince of Wales, President Lebrun of France and other dignitaries met to dedicate Great Britain's memorial to the 73,000 English soldiers who died in the battle of the Somme.

Not much connection between these two stories—but reading them together does start one pondering. We are at present devoting ourselves—like all other great nations—to the job of getting ready for the next war. We are spending huge sums and enlisting the cleverest inventors and designers we can find so that our army and navy can kill expeditiously and surely the next time they are called into action.

Given the present state of international relations, we can hardly do anything else. And yet—That memorial on the Somme rises like a grim signpost. Seventy-three thousand Englishmen died in one battle there. Thousands more were maimed for life. Almost an equal number of Germans fell in the same night. That memorial ought, somehow, to be more than just a tribute to gallantry.

It ought to stir us anew to bend every effort to make a repetition of that ghastly battle forever impossible. So far, we haven't done much along that line. And, meanwhile, we have devised a fine new tank that can go 110 miles an hour and jump ditches.

understand the great need for speed they would make very easy the task of those obtaining the right-of-way. We understand the cooperation along this line is gratifying already. When a huge saving is in sight for taxpayers of the county under the Sterling plan, it behooves all citizens to take advantage of it to the fullest extent. We mentioned this fact before the primary, not as a matter of politics merely, but as a truth. We trust any reader who thought we were "just arguing" now sees the truth of our statements.

Tennessee-Texas clubs are being formed in several counties of this state. There is room for a club of this sort here. The great service that Tennessee-born Texans rendered during the days of the republic and for years thereafter should be memorialized and properly publicized for the education

Enrolment Larger Than Last Year

Pampa high school's enrolment this morning stood at 710, including about 15 post graduate students. This is an increase over last year.

Most of the post graduates are doing commercial work, but one is taking chemistry and one physics. The total enrolment for the Pampa independent district is beyond the 3000 mark. The question of transferring some students to equalize the distribution of pupils in the ward schools was before the trustees this morning. Another session to decide this question and that of possible employment of another teacher or two will be held tonight.

of the public. We suggest that Tennesseans get in touch with one of their number, C. Herbert Walker, and talk it over. We also suggest that civic club program committees give attention to the possibilities of the subject. As for us, we're from Missouri but a good many years "from" that fine old state.

Speaking of legislators again, they are the fellows who barred boxing from this state on the grounds of brutality but retained wrestling, which is a combination of all forms of punishment.

Gas Order Is Regarded Here As Beneficial

Until a copy of the order to shut in gas wells in the east half of the West Panhandle gas field and signed by the Railroad commission yesterday, is received, officials of the local office of the oil and gas division of the commission will make no statement. They are unfamiliar with the entire order and do not know when it is to go into effect.

The order declared that the wells should be shut in until such time as the owners of wells have a market which will insure ratable production and outlet. The order will affect several royalty and land owners temporarily but the rule is believed to be the only one suitable to the occasion and that it will prove beneficial to the owners in the future.

The order when put into effect will shut in gas wells in the competitive area west of the Burk Burnett ranch in Carson county and as far east as a point north and south through LeFors. The order pointed out that certain pipe line companies, which had a controlling market outlet for gas, refuse to purchase ratable and take any gas except from their own wells. This condition amounted to "confiscation" of the property of owners of wells that did not have pipe line outlets, the commission order said.

The order was based on hearings held at Pampa and Amarillo, when conditions were discussed. Involved in the hearings were applications of Easy, Harrington and Marsh and other independent owners of gas leases in the area, for permission to extract gasoline from their gas. They had complained that they had no market because the big pipe lines would not afford them an outlet.

M. D. Hammett of Tulsa arrived last night on a business trip. Mrs. J. R. Harris of Childress is shopping in Pampa today.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Mrs. W. Requa Bryant, friend of Col. Raymond Robins for 20 years, today said she saw the missing prohibition and peace worker on a Chicago street yesterday afternoon. "I am positive the man was Mr. Robins," she said. "I have known him since my childhood when he visited at our home. He appeared distraught and for that reason I didn't speak to him. I didn't know he was missing at that time."

Georgia Mentor Deplores Lack Of Crack Line

By DILLON GRAHAM Associated Press Sports Writer ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 9 (AP)—Husky Harry Mehre, Georgia's football coach, looks glum these days as he watches half a hundred athletes prancing about under a burning September sun, readying themselves for the gridiron campaign.

"Not a crack lineman in the lot," he murmurs. "You know, we're liable to use five men in our starting line that have never played varsity football. No, how're you going to go places with guards and tackles like that?" Georgia lost 20 players from the 1931 squad, 14 of them lettermen. A complete backfield combination, two tackles, four guards, and two ends are among the missing.

"It's just a case of what my new men—sophomores and reserves—will do." "Sullivan will make us a good quarterback. He's stronger than Downes and can stand more punishment, but he isn't as good a strategist," Mehre said, as he watched the husky 185-pound toss passes down field to end candidates. "Mott, Key and Crouch are good halfbacks and the sophomore, Buck Chapman at 195 pounds, is an excellent full-back prospect."

The schedule follows: Oct. 1—Virginia Polytechnic at Athens. Oct. 8—Tulane at New Orleans. Oct. 15—North Carolina at Athens. Oct. 22—Vanderbilt at Athens. Oct. 29—Florida at Athens. Nov. 5—N. Y. U. at New York. Nov. 11—Clemson at Clemson. Nov. 19—Auburn at Columbus, Ga. Nov. 26—Georgia Tech at Atlanta. ("Tomorrow—Notre Dame.")

CHILDREN TO BENEFIT FROM CLUB BATTLE

LIONS-ROTARY GAME IS TO BE PLAYED AT 4 O'CLOCK

Civic clubmen were to assemble at Magnolia park at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the Rotary baseball team was to meet the Lions team for the second time this year. The game came about as the result of a challenge issued to the Lions for a return game on the grounds that the Rotarians were "rumped out" of the first encounter" by an 18 to 15 score. Dutch Mantel was the umpire.

Proceeds from the game will go to the crippled children's fund of the two clubs. Admission will be 25 cents. Neither club had named a starting lineup this morning. Manager Travis Lively of the Rotary nine was expected to be behind the bat, with possibly Linquist in the box. John Hessey or Bonnie Rose were to be on the receiving end for the roaring gang, but the hurler was still a mystery. Mayor Bill Bratton's arm was known to be mighty sore and it was not likely that he would be able to take the mound.

The winner will likely accept the challenge on the Kiwanis club, the nine that defeated the Lions 7 to 5 last week.

Chorines Avert Panic at Fire

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—The nonchalant attitude of the chorus girls, who continued to play their part on the stage even as the boards under their feet grew hot and smoke poured upward, was credited today with having averted a panic when fire broke out in the Garrick theater.

The patrons, warned by the manager that a serious fire had broken out in the basement, moved calmly, through the exits last night as smoke filled the theater which is in the heart of Chicago's rialto. The musicians remained at their posts and the chorines went on with their dances. The prima donna of the chorus, Lottie Kroll, was singing her number, "Dancing in the Dark," as firemen arrived.

Not until the last patron had departed and the chorus girls and musicians leave. The fire, thought to have resulted from defective wiring, caused damage estimated at $15,000.

Drummers Told To Give Up Beds To Politicians

LUBBOCK, Sept. 9 (AP)—Avoid Lubbock on Sept. 11, 12 and 13 is the warning this city is heaping out to the traveling public as it prepares for the turbulent political convention facing Texas democrats Sept. 13 and the meeting of the executive committee the preceding day.

Traveling men who generally make their headquarters in Lubbock while covering the South Plains are being asked to give up their beds to statesmen and politicians.

Hotel owners, civic leaders and city officials realize that they face an emergency in caring for the hundreds who will participate actively in the convention battle and the thousands of others who will be attracted by the promise of the greatest fight in Texas politics.

This fight will result in the naming of the party's gubernatorial nominee.

Leading figures in Texas politics began sending in hotel reservations immediately after the second primary, which resulted in the closest tabulation of votes recorded in a gubernatorial race in this state in recent years. Reservations increased when Governor R. S. Sterling issued a public statement calling on his political friends to make preparations to attend the convention and continue their fight in his behalf, and the forces of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, led by her husband, James E. Ferguson, rallied to thwart any efforts to change the ballot tabulations at the convention here.

Many staunch Sterling supporters, including several members of the legislature, were among the first to make reservations. The Ferrisons, both former governors, will be on hand when the convention convenes. Ten rooms were reserved for the Ferrisons and their party at one hotel, and 21 rooms by Mrs. Ferguson's campaign manager at another hotel.

Both factions will come to the convention with evidence to support their leaders. The Sterling forces have indicated they will contend that the governor received enough of the "legally cast" ballots to renominate him, while the forces of Mrs. Ferguson will champion the returns as compiled by the Texas election bureau which gave her a majority of 3,753 votes.

Naming Nominees By Convention To Front Again

AUSTIN, Sept. 9 (AP)—The democratic party's current unpleasantness has created in the breasts of many followers of Jefferson a longing for return of the old-fashioned convention system of choosing nominees.

Already several county delegations to the state convention at Lubbock next week have committed themselves to a platform plank proposing repeal of the primary election laws, replacing the whole works by the custom of selecting nominees in state convention.

Such a system would take away the need of large expenditures of money by candidates, convention advocates claim. Of course there would be a necessity for campaigning by persons who proposed asking the convention for nominations, but it would not be necessary to enter into the vote chasing game so extensively as at present.

Opponents of a return to the convention system of nominating will argue that under that arrangement a handful of politicians probably would do the picking. But many persons are tired of the mud-slinging and the confusion that attend the existing hurly-burly scramble through two primaries every two years. And, they argue, the best man is not always nominated.

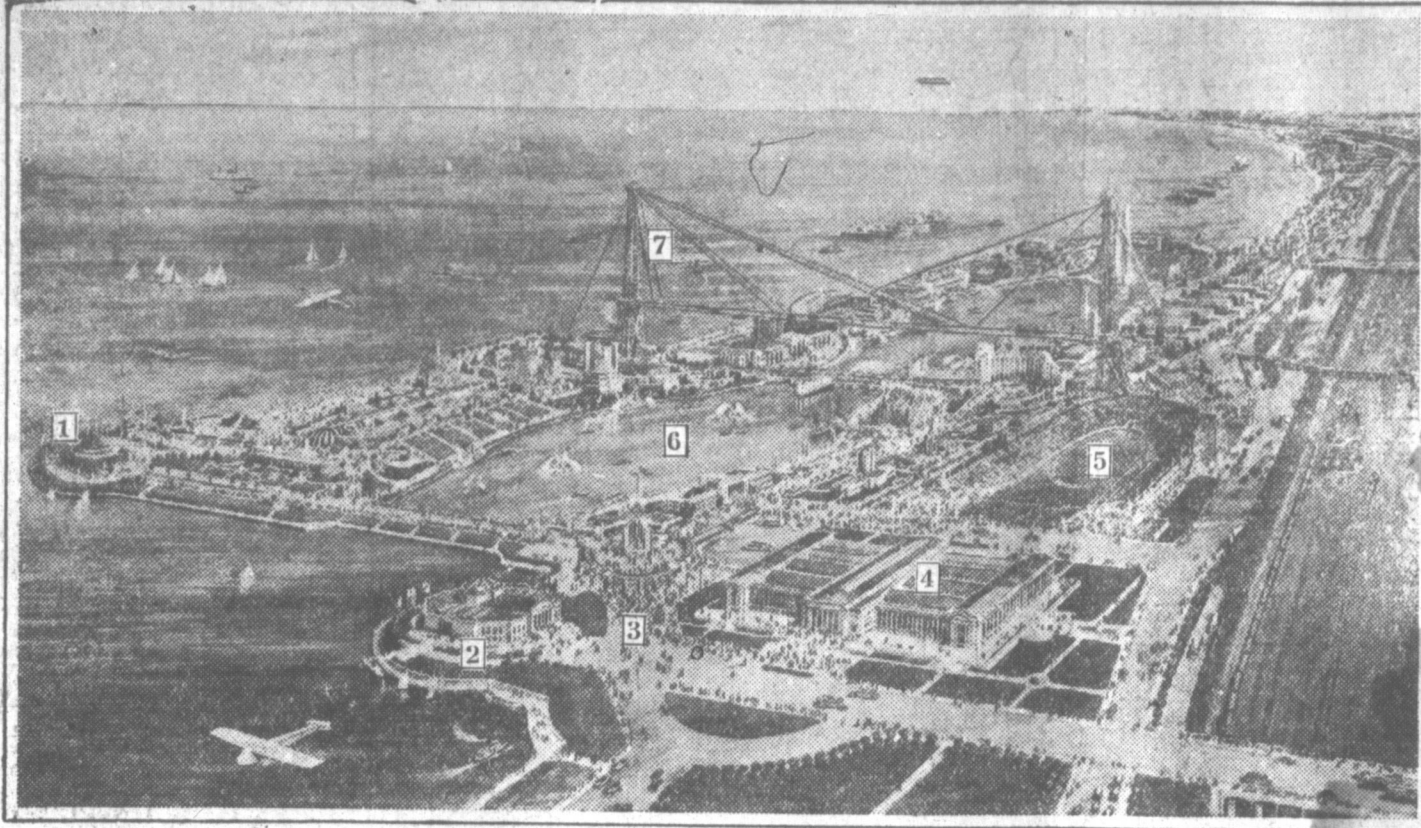

There seems to be no doubt now but that those who want to adjust their consciences can do so and brush aside the pledge to support the nominee for governor. The race was so close that those who actually believe there were irregularities can renounce the nominee and still look the world in the face. There are others, however, who never have scratched a democratic nominee and never will. They will swallow the dose, if they do think it a "bitter pill," and vote the ticket straight.

Many of the partisans of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson are telling that the legislative move to investigate charges of irregularities simply is for the purpose of laying a predicate for a general election by democrats who do not want to accede to Mrs. Ferguson's apparent victory.

It seems to be admitted by all that the campaign for governor of Texas is just beginning with weeks of bitter contention between this state and the November general election. Texans doubtless will put this election down as one to be remembered for years to come.

All of which brings back to memory the words of W. A. Hanger, who defended James E. Ferguson of impeachment charges before the Texas senate. When the verdict removing Ferguson from office had been announced Hanger said: "Fergusonism will be an issue in the political campaigns of Texas just as long as James E. Ferguson remains in the land of the living."

Bern's Physical Condition Very Important Item In Film Tragedy

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9 (AP)—A conference between Jean Harlow, platinum blonde screen actress, and Henry Bern, New Rochelle, N. Y., ended at 1 a. m. Thursday without a statement concerning the apparent suicide of Paul Bern, husband of the actress and brother of Henry.

Bern said there would be a statement "soon enough." He expressed a desire to confer first with relatives.

The conference was unattended by any other relatives, friends or police officers who have been investigating the death of the 42-year-old film executive who was found in his home Monday with a bullet wound in his head, a discharged pistol in his hand and nearby a note signed "Paul," addressed to "Dearest Dear," and confessing a "frightful wrong."

Bern was given medical and police records of the case, together with personal effects of his brother, before leaving the conference. He said he wished to study the records.

"It is my wish to confer with relatives here and in New York before agreeing to a statement of any kind," Bern said. "I am simply a man come to the funeral of his brother. There will be a statement made soon enough. I want no secrecy veiling the matter of my brother's death. He would not have it that way in life. I wish to do as he would have done. He never had secrets from anyone. Bern was to be one of the witnesses at the inquest scheduled to be held later today. Miss Harlow, who married the film executive two months ago, was subpoenaed but on the report of her physician that she was in no condition to attend was excused by Coroner Frank A. Nance. Studio officials said they expect the findings of autopsy surgeon Frank Webb to remove all mystery surrounding the death. They stated the physical condition of Bern was an all-important factor in the tragedy.

In a long distance telephone conversation with Louis M. Mayer, head of the studio where both Bern and Miss Harlow worked, Dr. Edward B. Jones, Bern's personal physician, said he "understood the motive."

"It is not a matter that I can discuss publicly," Dr. Jones, who is in Honolulu, told Mayer. "But I am returning to Los Angeles at once, arriving there Sept. 13, and I shall be glad to give whatever information I have to the proper authorities."

The autopsy report showed Bern was free of disease, but that his physical handicap was one that would prevent a happy marriage. His brother said Bern, although a bachelor until he married Miss Harlow, 21, had another woman in his life previously.

"Paul was not a virtuous man, in the conventional sense," said his brother. "But he had a higher virtue. He was good. I am tired of indecent talk about him."

BUILDER DIES
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9 (AP)—M. H. Sherman, 78, an outstanding figure in the development of the southwest, died here today. He was president of the Los Angeles Steamship company and a director of the Southern Pacific company. At one time he was adjutant general of Arizona.

HOW'S your HEALTH
Edited by Dr. Jago Goldston Academy of Medicine

DIABETES FACTS—II
Although sugar appears in the urine of diabetic patients, the disease is not one affecting the kidneys. In diabetes the major difficulty lies in the pancreas. The pancreas, commonly called the sweetbread, is a gland of internal and external secretion located in the upper region of the abdominal cavity close against the back of the body wall.

The pancreas produces two varieties of substances: one, which it pours out into the intestines, is an enzyme in nature, that is, it assists in the chemical breaking up of the food inside of the intestines; the other substance which the pancreas produces is of an endocrine nature. This substance, named insulin, passes from the pancreas into the blood and is essential to the effective use of sugars by the body.

In the more serious stages of the disease, it may be necessary to assist the body in the utilization of carbohydrates by the injection of insulin derived from the pancreas of other animals. Diabetes is an insidious disease. It is not uncommon to discover its existence by a routine analysis of urine. Diabetes, however, does give some suggestive symptoms, such, for example as excessive thirst and hunger, frequent passing of large amounts of urine and itching.

The finding of sugar in the urine of the diabetic patient does not necessarily establish the existence of diabetes. The repeated finding of sugar on a series of examinations is, however, more serious.

Borger Recall Case Set for Sept. 21
AMARILLO, September 8.—Borger's recall election controversy, which involves Mayor John R. Miller and the four city commissioners, will be aired before the seventh court of civil appeals in Amarillo September 21.

WOUNDED MAN DIES
HOUSTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—W. E. Sharp, 23, pipe line worker, died last night of a bullet wound received Saturday. Dr. Sam Cruise, 39, dentist of Cleveland, Tex., previously had made $1,000 bond on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Republicans Look To East, Democrats To South and West

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Battle lines for the presidential campaign still are far from complete, but the present week has produced signs that the republicans are turning their faces a little more definitely toward the east, while the democrats incline a little more surely toward the west.

Of course, neither side has at all abandoned hope or endeavor in either east or west, but the present phases of the struggle, considered alone, show three interesting developments:

Former President Coolidge, rallying support for the republicans, puts special emphasis on his appeal to his own industrial east. The democratic troubles in New York City have intensified republican effort to capture the Empire state. Governor Roosevelt's plans for his first long speaking trip, beginning Monday, forecast a western swing unequalled by any democratic nominee since William Jennings Bryan.

For the moment, the most-talked-of of these developments probably is the Coolidge appeal, though it was by no means a surprise. In a copyrighted article in The Saturday Evening POST, Mr. Coolidge has gone the whole way of endorsing Mr. Hoover's aids collectively and in detail, of praising Vice-President Curtis, and of upholding the republican prohibition plank.

Tournament Prize List Is Tempting

Arrangements for the Country Club open amateur tournament are going forward rapidly and the date and prize list will be announced soon according to Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the tournament committee. It is planned to throw the tournament open to golfers throughout this section of the Panhandle.

The course is being put in excellent condition in preparation for the event which will be the first of its kind sponsored by the club. Valuable prizes will be given in each flight. These days will be required to complete the tournament it is believed.

The prize list is being prepared and it will be a tempting one when completed, Dr. Hicks says. Seventy-two per cent of New York families live in rented apartments.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Let's Not Worry
Because Dick Hanley wants Notre Dame to play Northwestern at Dwyer Stadium in 1934, while Jesse Harper and Hunk Anderson want Northwestern to play the game at South Bend, each side threatens to call off the game. But we are taking the liberty to inform you that the game will be played, so you can have a good night's rest tonight. The reason the game will be played is that it's a sure-fire draw. You're welcome.

Can Outmet Repeat?
Francis Outmet, amateur champion of 1931, has been playing a keen game, and it would not be a great surprise if he repeated his triumph this year at Five Farms. Gus Moreland and Ira Couch, who did not figure seriously in the picture last year, but who defeated a good field in the Western at Rockford, will be heard from in that regard.

So Much For Tennis
Bunny Austin, the British tennis player who is here for the major tournaments, wrote a little piece for the Daily Mail of London recently, in which he said that tennis would have to take second place to business in his young life because he didn't relish the prospect of becoming "a useless old man living in a one-room flat."

It Has To Us
Did it ever occur to you when the catcher walks out to the mound and holds a long conference with the pitcher, that the two of them merely may be arguing about who is the best jockey at Lakonia? Or, that the catcher may be only informing the pitcher that Dan wasn't such a hot manager this year, and the reason is that Chick Hefey got sick.

Where Howley Failed
Cincinnati is speculating on the matter of Dan Howley's successor as manager of the Reds. It seems that Dan wasn't such a hot manager this year, and the reason is that Chick Hefey got sick.

And Maybe They Did!
No squawks have been heard as yet about the expenses of the athletes who have been partaking in post-Olympic track and field meets here and there. The boys may have taken a serious lesson from the life of Paavo Nurmi, whose bookkeeping was atrocious. Perhaps the athletes should take expert accountants along with them.

Speaking of Money
The Olympics grossed in excess of $1,500,000. That seems a lot of money, but not so much when it is recalled that the University of Southern California drew $1,600,000 in 11 games last fall, and that Tunney and Dempsey brought $2,700,000 at Chicago. The fighters, however, are not anticipating that kind of money from the customers these days.

As to Crowds
Perhaps the event that draws more people than any other sports spectacle in this country is the Harmsworth trophy race between speedboats, held this year at Detroit. It was estimated last year that 500,000 pairs of eyes witnessed the first heat of the tussle between Gar Wood and Kaye Don.

Economy Overlooked
With an eye to economy, the British might have saved a bit of expense money on the Walker Cup matches. Kaye Don is here for the Harmsworth races. Between heats, he could dash up to Brookline, Mass., and compete with the Walker Cup team. Don shoots between 90 and 100, and that should be good enough to make that British team.

Venzelos Resigns As Greece Premier

ATHENS, Sept. 8 (AP)—Premier Eleutherios Venzelos, sometimes called the "modern Ulysses" of Greece, resigned today as a result of a demand by the Royalist party that he be removed from office.

It was virtually certain, however, that President Zaimis would request him to remain at the head of the government.

Venzelos has been premier of Greece many times the past dozen years and is perhaps better known to the rest of the world than any other statesman of his country.

It has been said of him, however, that in striving to restore some of the nation's ancient glories abroad he sometimes neglected the country's internal welfare.

What Does It Mean?
The tournament between American born golf professionals and the foreign born, at Oak Park, Chicago, seemed to this department to prove nothing more than the fact that Eskimos don't go south for the winter.

DANCIGER STAYS ON LEAGUE TOP AFTER BEATING JAYSEES

PHILLIPS BOYS CONQUERED BY SANTA FE 3-0

ROSE TEAM SHUT OUT BY TEACHERS 13 TO 0

The Danciger entry in the Pampa Playground league dropped the Jaysees from the top rung in the league standing by a 14 to 12 win yesterday afternoon. The Santa Fe pulled the surprise win of the season with a win over the mighty Phillips team 3 to 0. The NEWS swamped the Kiwanis club 14 to 3 while the Faculty was doing the 2 to 0 to the Rose building 13 to 0.

Home runs and errors accounted for most of the Danciger runs. The boys from east of Pampa made three homers with Riley, Jones and Miller on the best end of the bat. Adair hit one for the circuit for the Jaysees.

Danciger nipped C. Olsen for 11 safe singles while the Jaysees were getting to Geppelt for 10 safeties. Both sides made several costly errors that netted runs. The Phillips started the first inning with a four run splurge but Danciger overcame the lead in the third. The Jaysees went into the lead in the next inning but Danciger scored six in the fifth. The Jaysees sent five runs across on a seventh inning rally but fell two short of tying the score.

Hits were well scattered on both sides. Ferris, Danciger shortstop, made many nice saves. E. Woodward, Jaysees catcher, played another good game.

Errors Costly
The Santa Fe pitcher Phillips was unlooked for as the oilmen have been regarded as the black-horse team of the league. Hits were scarce on both sides with Poe of the Santa Fe and Hieronemus of Phillips both pitching sensational ball. A few costly errors accounted for the three runs.

The scoring opened in the second inning when Fox walked. Coburn safe on an error and both scored on another error and two outs. The other Santa Fe run came in the 3rd when Thorn crossed on the fly and Phillips reached third base and that came in the seventh inning.

Husted was behind the bat for the railroaders with Gibson catching for Phillips. Both caught stellar games. Support on both sides was tight most of the time but the Phillips lapses proved costly.

Drain Too Fast
Harry Drain, NEWS fastball pitcher, proved too much for the Kiwanis club and nine of them whiffed the air as the NEWS won 14 to 3. He fanned three straight in the third and two in each of the fourth and fifth innings. Besides pitching good ball he hit two for four bases on four trips to the plate. LeBeuf of the oilmen was using a slow ball which proved easy for the batters to hit. The first inning, Acthman for the NEWS and Buckingham were catchers.

Pond scored three runs on two hits while Drain, Hinkle and Hieskell added two each. Sturgeon, Pond, Drain, Hinkle and Fullingm each got two hits. The finding of Sturgeon, Merton and Ragdale was bright spots defensively. Drain smacked two homers. Fullingm, one and Sturgeon one.

The Kiwanians got five safe singles to 14 for the newsmen. Dr. Johnson scored two runs on three men's runs while Harry Grove crossed the plate with the other. The Kiwanians made four costly errors which netted several runs. The finding of Carter and Fred Thompson was particularly sparkling for the oilmen. They cut off several hits by nice stops and good throws. Grove also played nice ball in the outfield.

Faculty Infield Good
The Faculty's 13 to 0 win over the Rose Building was due mostly to good hard hitting and heady base running. Moore of the Faculty was the leading batter of the game with two home runs and a double to his credit. Odus Mitchell provided the fielding sensations by making several almost impossible plays.

Patrick of the Faculty was in trouble several times but his infield pulled him through. He had three men on base and only one out on two occasions and was saved by double plays both times. Hughes of the Rose building was the walking star of the team. Bohlman and Walker also were with Walter Frothingham the fielding plays.

Cretney started in the box for the Rose boys but was relieved by Cecil Miller who shut the Faculty out the last two innings.

Games scheduled for Tuesday night:
Rose Building vs. Santa Fe at Santa Fe.
Kiwanis vs. Phillips at Magnolia park.
Jaysees vs. Faculty at Jaysees.
NEWS vs. Danciger at Danciger.

Novelty Tourney Planned by Heath

Mark Heath of the Red Deer golf course expects to announce a novelty golf tournament soon. Mr. Heath has not intimated what kind of a tournament he will sponsor but it will be something new and different in golf, he declared yesterday. The course is in good condition despite dry weather. It will be improved considerably before the tournament. Several good scores have been recorded recently by players using summer rules.

The matches with Hillcrest club of Amarillo should be announced soon.

DALLAS STILL WINS EASILY

Beaumont Hard-Pressed To Take 5 To 4 Game From Galveston.

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The heavy hitting artillery of the Dallas Steers and the Beaumont Exporters continues to deal misery to clubs obstructing their permanent path to the second half Texas league championship. Today, the Steers remained two games in front of Beaumont with three days to play.

Yesterday at Tyler, Dallas plastered the pitching of Hubbell and Chambers for 15 hits to win, 10 to 2. It was the seventh consecutive victory for Dallas. Hubbell started for Tyler but failed to last three innings. Chambers finished but had no luck stopping the mighty slugger of Radcliff, Bonura, Lanford, Holman and Morehart. George "Turbee" Murray pitched for Dallas and won his twenty-fourth game this season. The Steers ended yesterday's game with consecutive home runs in the ninth by Bonura and Jeanes.

Beaumont got a powerful scare when the Exporters had to play ten innings to beat Galveston, 5 to 4. Twice the first half pennant winners had to come from behind and overtake the Buccaneers to annex their third straight over Galveston. Reiber's tenth inning triple started a two-run rally that prolonged Beaumont's chance at the second half.

Although both clubs got eleven hits each, Houston nosed out San Antonio, 6 to 5. In a doubleheader, Longview beat Fort Worth 5 to 2 in the first game but lost the second, 2 to 0.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
The State of Texas, County of Gray.
To the Sheriff, or any Constable of Gray County, greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Lola Millard by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in September A. D. 1932, the same being the 19th day of September A. D. 1932, there to answer a petition filed in said Court in the 17th day of August A. D. 1932 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3219, wherein E. M. Millard is Plaintiff, and Lola Millard is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows: That plaintiff has been an actual and bona fide resident and inhabitant of the state of Texas for more than twelve months, and of the County of Gray for more than six months, immediately next preceding the filing of this petition. That plaintiff and defendant were duly and legally married on or about Oct. 1, 1929, and that there are no children and no community property. That the defendant was quarrelsome and nagging continually, and that she frequently assaulted the plaintiff, forcing him to defend himself, and inflicting physical punishment, discomfort, and humiliation upon him, all of which conduct the plaintiff alleges constitute excesses, cruel and inhuman treatment of such a nature as renders their further living together insupportable.

Herein Pail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 17th day of August A. D. 1932.

Justice Finds Boys Were Shot During Scuffle

SAN MARCOS, Sept. 9. (AP)—In explaining why he returned a verdict of accidental shooting in connection with the death of Arthur and Harry Morton, sons of a millionaire rancher, Justice of the Peace A. M. Ramsay today expressed the opinion that the pistol found at the scene had been discharged in a scuffle.

"The pistol had a hair trigger and would continue firing so long as a finger contacted it," Justice Ramsay said. "There apparently were no eye witnesses to the shooting."

"Hunk" of Notre Dame Optimistic Over Prospects

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 9. (AP)—Hearty "Hunk" Anderson is ready to stand or fall on his own coaching job at Notre Dame this fall. Some of his critics still amazed that the rambler lost their last two football games in 1931, think he'll fall but "Hunk" figures to have the team on the run by the time the smoke clears from the fall campaign.

He has an abundance of material to draw from—almost 100 good men for each position—and a staff of assistants picked and approved by himself to work with.

Light Tears
"It will be a very light team; I need weight all around," was one of Atkins' few remarks about the outlook.

The coach did have five bright spots until recently. They were Atkins, with two intelligibility found when the careers of the boys were checked, two boys gone from Borger with their families, and failure of two expected linemen to reappear at the opening of school.

Sutter Climbs To Semi-Final Round

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 9. (AP)—The headlines have been going to other stars but Cliff Sutter, Tulane university youngster, has been playing a lot of tennis in the national championships, now in the semi-final round.

Sutter's rivals in the round before the final were Ellsworth Vines, defending champion, Wilmer Allison and Henri Cochet of France, all of them holding a much higher ranking in the world's tennis lists.

YANKS IN TIE WITH TIGERS; A'S LOSE 2-1

Perils of Last Road Trip Affects Leaders

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
In those four seasons from 1927 through 1930 when the national league champions could not win a world series, the explanation was advanced that the close race took too much out of the winners and left them easy prey for the American leaguers.

The same contrast comes up again this year as the National league race goes down the homestretch with seven teams still mathematically in the running while only three are left in the American, two of them with only the slimmest kind of a chance to overtake the New York Yankees.

The perils of the seasons last road trip affected the leaders in both circuits yesterday. The Yankees had to go five extra innings in the first game before they put over two runs to defeat the Tigers, 5 to 4, and darkness stopped them in the seventh inning of the second with the score tied at seven-all. Philadelphia lost a precious game to Cleveland, 2 to 1. Monte Weaver did the flinging to bring up his 30th victory of the season and enabled Washington to turn back St. Louis, 3 to 1. Ted Lyons, Chicago veteran, pitched a fine ten-inning game for a 4-3 victory over Boston.

A divided doubleheader with Boston added a half game to the Cubs' lead as Pittsburgh took another one on the road from Brooklyn. Charley Root's six-hit hurrican and a big eighth inning gave Chicago a 4-1 victory in the opener, but Rob Brown duplicated the six-hit feat for Boston in the nightcap and a homer by Wally Berger led to a 3-2 triumph. Pittsburgh was buried, 12 to 2.

A circuit drive by Don Hurst gave with two on gave the Phillies a 3-0 victory over the Cardinals in the only other National league game.

COTTON OPENS STEADY

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9 (AP)—The cotton market opened very steady today despite lower Liverpool cables, first trades showed gains of 13 points from yesterday's close, due to the execution of numerous overnight buying orders. This early advance attracted some further long liquidation and October raised off to 1.20 and December to 1.06, or 12 to 14 points down from the opening figures. As soon as these offerings were absorbed, prices rallied 9 to 10 points from the lows, moving up to within 3 to 4 points of the opening high. The rally was attributed to trade demand and an opening improvement in the stock market. Following the activity of the first hour, cotton became considerably quieter and prices fluctuated narrowly for a time. Later in the morning, however, prices rallied again on some fresh trade buying and on buying by ring traders in sympathy with an improvement in stocks. October traded up to 1.05, or 16 points up from the lows and 15 points above yesterday's close. While December advanced to 829, or 22 points up from the lows and 24 points above the close of yesterday.

GRAIN VALUE WEAK

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Grain prices here lacked aggressive support and averaged lower early today, despite firmness of wheat quotations at Liverpool. Argentine and Australian crops reports were less favorable, but selling here by houses with connections northwest was more than a counterbalance. Opening unchanged to 1/4 off, Chicago wheat futures held near the initial limits. Corn started at 1/4 decline to 1/4 advance and subsequently sagged.

Robins in Chicago, A Friend Claims

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Col. Raymond Robins missing prohibition and peace leader, was seen in Chicago yesterday by a friend who knew him during his former residence here, the Daily News said today. The unnamed friend, reading of the mysterious disappearance of the New Yorker, volunteered the information at the newspaper office that he had passed Robins yesterday afternoon at the corner of State and Adams streets in the loop. He professed to be certain of the identity. Robins, however, seemed preoccupied and he did not interrupt him in the loop crowds to speak to him. The news informer said he thought Col. Robins might be here on some secret mission. Saturday is your last chance to get a free show tickets with a 50c. want ad. Prepare one now.

STEP BY STEP AS SUN AND MOON WENT INTO ECLIPSE

Shown here, step by step, is the spectacle witnessed by millions outside of the New England belt of totality as the moon crossed the face of the sun to cause the recent solar eclipse. The picture at the left shows the sun just before the eclipse began and the succeeding pictures—taken at short intervals—show the sun as the moon gradually obscured its face and then passed on. The center picture shows the spectacle when the eclipse maximum was reached in this particular area, 87 percent of the sun's face being obscured. Though total in parts of New England, the eclipse diminished in the direction of the southwest.

TRAVEL--

Philadelphia, Quebec. Passports are granted by the state department, and applications may be made through any postoffice. Requirements include photograph, a birth certificate, and passport visa. Get There Early. Advise getting to the boat early. Watching the crowds go aboard is fun, and last-minute attractions include the taking aboard of baggage, flowers, and even decorated cakes on some occasions. "Everyone is interested in watching the tugs chugging away to pull the boat well down the channel. The skyline of New York is lovely. At Sandy Hook the pilot leaves in a row boat and the captain assumes charge. Then the boat is at sea. A traveler is lucky if he is not subject to sea-sickness. There are more than 50 remedies for sea-sickness, but I know of only one real remedy—calm weather. "It is no longer necessary to carry steamer chairs and rugs. They may be rented. "Divisions include sitting and watching the sea, pacing the deck for exercise, playing games, dancing in concerts, theatricals, masquerade parties, and, before landing, the captain's dinner. It is easy to make friends while traveling. "Naples is the most beautiful harbor I've ever seen and Cobb, Ireland, is the most amusing. "In Ireland the custom officials, if any, wear no differentiating uniforms, and the checking system, which seems to be no real system at all, is never understood by Americans. No checks are given, but, strange to say, baggage never disappears. "The happy-go-lucky person will enjoy Ireland. Everyone is friendly. I was received very hospitably by the family living in the stone, rose-covered cottage in which my father was born. It is located near Limerick. "One of the most interesting experiences of my travels was the service at the Sistine chapel, Rome, in which Pius X celebrated mass. It was elaborate and extremely formal, and there was much brilliance of color. No ordinary clothes were allowed. Men were required to wear full dress suits and women were required to wear black clothing with high necks, long sleeves, gloves, and veils. I discovered too late, however, that unmarried women might wear white. "I spent three months in Geneva, Switzerland, and there became acquainted with many Egyptian and Russian students. "The comradeship of the Russians was remarkable. "I was amused at one Egyptian boy who could not understand how a woman could be the head of a family, who thought it strange that men and women should dance together, who believed a man should always walk two paces ahead of a woman. "Dress is almost universally the same, but in Normandy people wear their national costume, and a woman's native village can be distinguished by the type of cap she wears and the way the stripes of velvet are stitched on her dress. "Going abroad helps to make a person internationally-minded and it gives him recollections which result in much joy. "El Progresso members attending were Mesdames George W. Briggs, J. M. Dodson, C. P. Buckler, William M. Craven, S. G. Burratt, T. D. Hobart, C. T. Hunkapillar, P. C. Ledrick, H. L. Ledrick, J. M. into pipe lines under the ground. These pipe lines carry it to cities and towns many miles away. It is even piped from Texas and Oklahoma fields to the Atlantic coast. Little About Texas. Extracts from Elementary Geography (McMurry and Parkins): "From New Orleans one goes west through Houston, San Antonio, and El Paso, on to Southern California. "Corn will be seen all along the route except in some parts of western Texas, where there is TOO LITTLE RAIN FOR IT. "The traveler in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, and Louisiana sees hundreds of derricks in the oil field. "While some lumber still comes from these states, most of the southern pine is now obtained farther west, from Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas. "China is almost as thickly settled as the state of Texas would be if all the people of the United States lived there. "In 1920, there were only four cities in Texas with a population of more than 100,000, and no city in Texas had a population of 200,000. Gray's Wheat Mentioned. Extracts from Texas supplement in advanced geography: "Since the breaking up of the large ranches of the Great Plains, however, the black-soil counties have given over the lead to Floyd, Hale, Gray, and Carson counties. These counties have almost doubled the output of the former counties. "In east Texas conditions are highly favorable for the peach crop, while several counties in the north-central part of the state and some in the Panhandle produce from 20,000 to 35,000 bushels. "A herd of buffaloes in the Panhandle and a cattle scene, both pictures published by the Amarillo chamber of commerce, are printed along with a wheat scene and an oil scene from the same source. "There are a number of successful meat-packing plants at such places as Dallas, Waco, Houston and Galveston, and El Paso, Amarillo, and Wichita Falls. "Although summer rains come rather often in the rolling and Great Plains, the long summer days and drying winds cure the natural grasses into hay. "The gas fields in the Panhandle and the oil fields in the Amarillo section have promised oil, and in 1922 enormous supplies of oil were opened up in Hutchinson county. In six months the yield in this field was 19,000,000 barrels. THREE DIE-- (Continued from page 1) made their way back toward the wreckage on foot over the rough mountain trails and found Davidson on route. Davidson was burned about his hands and face. He decided to spend the remainder of the night at a ranch house. The pilots returned to El Paso, Texas, with a doctor and a nurse, they started back to the wreck early today. Convention To Vote For Bonus, Is Prediction

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Legion officials here predict advocates of immediate bonus payments will control more than four-fifths of the votes at the American Legion convention in Portland, Oregon, next week. Consequently, they expect the convention by an overwhelming majority will demand cash for compensation certificates. They fear, however, that the contest on the question might be prolonged by a dispute over whether the resolution to be adopted should mention the eviction of the bonus expeditionary force from Washington. Tabulations kept by these Legion officials show that on the basis of the last convention's voting strength there will be 1160 ballots for the bonus and 61 against it. The 1160 total covers 35 states and the District of Columbia departments of the Legion. Two other states—Virginia and Missouri—propose payment when it is believed the financial condition of the treasury can stand it. Only three states so far have voted directly against payment.

HESSEY—

(Continued from page 1) had," declared the superintendent. Although a number of good teachers were dropped this year under Mr. Hesse's ruling that the economic conditions made it wise to eliminate married women teachers, the single women employed are fully as capable, he believes. Formerly there were no permanent records of work done by the pupils; now there is a complete record kept by Miss Hazel Christian, his assistant. These records show the age, mentality, physical condition, and parentage of all pupils, their progress physically and mentally, their attendance, and their grades. It will be possible, later, for these children's children to learn the grades made by their parents. Few Houses Vacant. The enrollment reports for the current term will likely show an increase. Not many farm houses are vacant in Gray county. The back-to-the-farm movement seems to be beginning. Gray county is a good place in which to farm evidently, and the teachers—the applicants numbered over 500—testify to the desirability of this as a place in which to teach. The Gray county school system is becoming more widely and favorably known every year, according to state inspectors and other authorities. The distances make it necessary for the superintendent to rise early. "I've got to be up early tomorrow," Supt. Hesse told THE NEWS last night. Hawk Declares Budgets of West Texas Cities Cut

FORT WORTH, Sept. 9. (AP)—More than $15,000,000 has been cut from 1932-33 budgets of cities in West Texas, Wilbur Hawk of Amarillo, president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, said at a statewide meeting here today.

Among problems discussed were control of expenses of state and local governments, the home rule plan and fee system. Organizations represented were the West Texas chamber, the South Texas and East Texas chambers, and the Texas agricultural, industrial and commercial conference.

Flood Maroons Pioneer Family At River Lodge

ABILENE, Sept. 9. (AP)—A record-breaking flood in this section was central today in the Clear Fork of the Brazos, in the vicinity of Leuders, where desperate attempts were being made to rescue a West Texas pioneer, Col. R. L. Penick, 74, of Stamford.

With his daughter, Miss Lillian Penick, and O'Brien, of Breckenridge, beside him, Colonel Penick spent a harrowing night perched on the roof of a stone lodge on the estate of his own summer property, Lillias lodge, built on the river.

GRAND LIFE-IN FAIR WEATHER

A sturdy craft, a faithful crew and fair weather—what more could a young yachtswoman want? Lerory Mercer asks no more, as this amateur photograph shows. In a lake near her home in Tampa, Fla., she cruises wherever her Spotty may lead her.

SYNOPSIS: Rosamund Carew and Robert Leonard plot to secure Jervis Weare's fortune even if murder is necessary. Leonard already has made two attempts upon Jervis' life, and Nan Weare, his wife, is distracted because she cannot persuade Jervis that Leonard means him harm.

Chapter 17 A NEW VENTURE Nan saw Weare for the first time under driving rain. They taxied from Croyston with the sky blue behind them and a heavy indigo cloud coming up out of the west.

Then tall stone pillars, and straining trees lashed by the wind until they brushed the car as it passed. At last a grey house, and a portico under which they came to a standstill.

Jervis jumped out, and she followed him. Her new suitcase emerged; her new trunk came down dripping. There was comfort in them, and Nan needed comfort badly.

"Nan—this is Mrs. Mellish. She has been housekeeper here for—How long is it, Mrs. Mellish? Thirty years?" Mrs. Mellish, frosy and buxom, with severely parted grey hair and a black dress with a high stiff collar surmounted by white frilling and clasped by a large brooch of moss-agate set in a pale gold rim, interposed in a firm, respectful voice.

Just for a moment she looked at Nan, and there was no welcome in her look. Nan was a stranger. With the cold of it at her heart, she lifted her head and smiled prettily.

The butler, considered that she smiled very prettily indeed. He was a fat man, with small sunken eyes, sparse pale hair, and a voice so soft as to lend his most casual remark the air of a confidence. "A very pleasant young lady," was his comment to Mrs. Mellish in the housekeeper's room later on. "A very pleasant young lady."

moved across it with a caressing touch. Jervis came over to them. "You are free of Bran's affections," he said gravely. "He only shakes hands with people he likes very much."

Just for an instant Nan would have given everything she had in the world to know whether Rosamund was one of the people with whom Bran shook hands. The feeling was so irrational and so strong that it brought the blood to her cheeks. She walked to the window, Jervis beside her.

Nan sees a sinister silhouette, in tomorrow's installment, and loses a night's rest. This Story Is Good Reason For Jerseys

GALVESTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—After several weeks of searching, one Galveston county farmer found his jersey calf that disappeared after the recent hurricane. He discovered her grazing in a prairie on the mainland near Texas City—18 miles away from her owner's farm down the island.

After the discovery, the farmer said a neighbor found 125 of his Brahmas, from the same section of the island as the jersey, drowned along the Texas City dike. How the little jersey calf survived the long drift while the others died is just one more of the unexplainable mysteries of the storm.

An exchange quotes District Judge W. R. Ewing as saying, it was so hot in Wheeler one day recently, that a dog chasing a cat, were walking slowly across Main street.

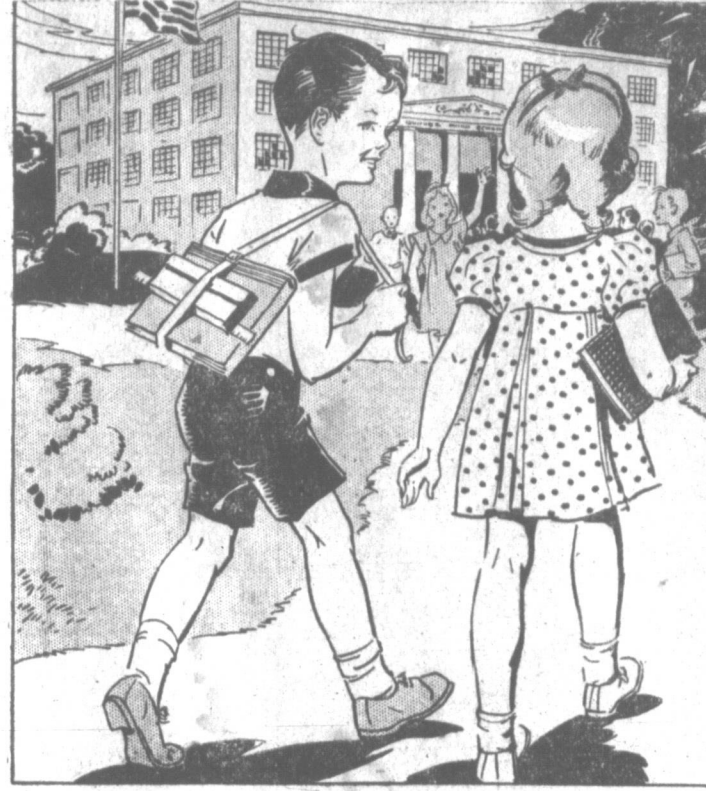

POOH, POOH! WINNIPEG—Womans may drive taxicabs in Winnipeg if they want to. The court saw to that yesterday in quashing an ordinance which says they may not. The chief of police had argued that cab driving was not good for a woman's morals—an argument which the court pooh-poohed.

Three Policemen Acquitted by Jury MINEOLA, N. Y., Sept. 9. (AP)—The prosecution's second attempt to pin the "third degree" killing of Nyman Stark, young robbery suspect, on a deputy police chief and two detectives ended in defeat today.

A weary jury acquitted the three men of manslaughter early today. Their first trial ended in a jury disagreement Aug. 28. The defendants, Deputy Chief Frank J. Tappen and Detectives Leslie Pearsall and Harry Zander, sat white-faced as the jury filed in. For long minutes after the foreman said "not guilty" they remained motionless, unsmiling. Then they went out, surrounded by a congratulating crowd of friends.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: ISRAEL JOURNEYING TOWARD CANAAN.

Scripture Lesson: Numbers 10:11-12:36.

11. And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony.

12. And the children of Israel set forward according to their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud abode in the wilderness of Paran.

13. And they first took their journey according to the commandment of Jehovah by Moses.

14. And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which Jehovah said, I will give it unto thee; come thou with us, and we will do thee good; for Jehovah hath spoken good concerning Israel.

15. And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

16. And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou shalt be to us instead of eyes.

17. And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what good ever Jehovah shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

18. And they set forward the mount of Jehovah three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

19. And the cloud of Jehovah was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp.

20. And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, O Jehovah, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

21. And when it rested, he said, Return, O Jehovah, unto the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel.

22. Golden Text: Come thou with us, and we will do thee good.—Numbers 10:29.

Time: The setting out from Sinai in B. C. 1497, about April 21.

Place: The wilderness of Paran, north of Sinai.

Introduction With this lesson the long sojourn at Mount Sinai is ended, and the Children of Israel resume their march through the wilderness. They would never come that way again; the only other appearance in the Old Testament history being in connection with Elijah's flight from Jezebel. But it will never lose its significance in the life of the Hebrew nation. There the nation received its constitution, the great body of the law with its moral, ceremonial and judicial guidance, which would serve as a tutor until the day of Christ.

The departure from Sinai was no easy task. This because the covenant and the sustenance of so vast a people through the wilderness were beyond possibility without divine intervention and guidance; and for those who reject miracles the whole story must be fiction. But for those of us who believe in the miraculous power of God, it is a demonstration of the grace of God in giving wisdom to his chosen leader, Moses, and his sustaining and guiding presence to his chosen people.

The Book of Numbers Numbers is the fourth Book of the Pentateuch, or Five Books of Moses. Its Hebrew name is its opening word, "In the wilderness." Our name for it comes from the Greek translators, and is derived from the fact that it contains two numbering of the people, one at the beginning and the other at the end of the wilderness wanderings. A large part of the Book is occupied with various laws, but it also contains, besides the incidents of our lesson, the accounts of the descent of the quails, of Miriam's leprosy, the journey of the spies through Canaan, the rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, the death of Miriam, the sin of Moses and Aaron, the death of Aaroh, the story of the fiery serpents, the story of Balaam, the choice of Joshua to succeed Moses, and other events of the wilderness wanderings. It is a much-neglected Book, but contains much that is worth our study and reflection.

Moving On, vs. 11, 12 The Israelites had been at Mount Sinai almost a year. Notice the significance of this: God believer in preparation. He doesn't lead you forth into new and strange lands, without first getting you good and ready. These months at the mountain were the most momentous in the whole history of the chosen people. Their entire political, social and religious life, for centuries to come, was to follow the principles and instructions here imparted to them by God.

"I'm a pilgrim" is a confession that we are all willing to make. It has taken forty-year journeyings to speak to reach the most of the desirable goals of your life. Time and again sin has made you zig-zag instead of straight. But you are a poor Christian if you cannot sing with confidence Professor Gilmore's "He leadeth me: O blessed thought!"

The Wilderness of Paran, v. 12 The wilderness on which the Israelites now wander is indeed a great and terrible wilderness (Deut. 1:9). A bare limestone or sandstone plateau, crossed by low ranges of hills, seamed with innumerable dry water courses, and interspersed with large patches of sand and gravel, is what now meets the eye of the traveler in this forsaken land. "It is clear from the Bible that the country was then, as now, emphatically frightful" (Deut. 1:19; 8:15; 32:19; Jer. 2:6). At certain seasons, at any rate, the wilderness of Paran was as if it had been a wilderness where the dreadful silence of a lifeless land was only broken by the hideous howling of unclean beasts who tracked the footsteps of the living in order to devour the carcasses of the dead. Perhaps so had a country has never been attempted by any army in modern days, even by the Russian troops in central Asia.—Pulpit Commentary.

The Invitation of Hobab "And Moses said unto Hobab, come thou with us, and we will do thee good." "He who make no effort for the salvation of others, has great reason to distrust his own."

Moses' Second Appeal to Hobab "Thou shalt be to us instead of eyes." "Moses had another plea, even after this distinct refusal, a plea under the circumstances far more powerful to such a man than the offer of personal good. It was the plea not of Hobab's need of Israel but of Israel's need of Hobab. He knew the country, knew all its dangers and resources; he was a man of great influence and wisdom; and cared for Moses and presumably also for the great religious interests at stake in Israel's future. To have him with them would be a source of strength to all. And so Moses' invitation took another form. He appealed to Hobab's heart and not to his interests; he appealed to their need of him, and no longer to anything of good that might come to him. He could be their guide and their guardian, and could be a help to them of untold value. He might be as their very eyes. And we are left to assume that this second appeal was successful." In Judges 1:16 we see that the sons of Hobab were counted among the men of Judah and shared their patrimony in the conquered Canaan.

Moses' Journeying Prayer "Verses 33-36 give us a picture of the journeying hosts of Israel as they departed from Mount Sinai. The ark of the covenant, that new-born symbol of the presence of God, was borne before them, doubtless emphasizing the divine leadership. To nobody in all the company was the sight more sacred and more moving than to Moses. It was to him a call to prayer, and we are told that when the ark set forward, Moses said, "Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee." It was a prayer for protection and guidance. It was an Old Testament version of the prayer, "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." The figure of life as a journey is old because it is so true, and because life is a journey every one of us ought to have his journeying prayer—which becomes a prayer of power if he is on before.

Divine Guidance "I see my way as birds their trackless way."

Government Not Fair In Handling Of Agriculture

AMARILLO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Congressman Marvin Jones, chairman of the agriculture committee in the national house, said in an address here that the national government "discriminates against agriculture in favor of industry."

Jones said the discriminations lay chiefly in the tariff system and the export freight rate structure.

"At present," he said, "cotton and wheat growers are forced to buy machinery and supplies in a market hemmed in by high tariff walls, yet must sell their commodities in the open markets of the world. Again, where the manufacturer is permitted a low transportation rate for goods destined for export, the farmer enjoys no such privilege for his products."

"Crop loans and government aid will afford only temporary relief. Permanent relief will come when agriculture is given the same opportunities to develop as industry."

Glasses Lost 88 Years Ago Found

NACOGDOCHES, Sept. 9 (AP)—While on a bear hunt in the Attoyac river bottom in the eastern part of Nacogdoches county in the autumn of 1844 Anastasio Carr lost his old fashioned "specs" or glasses. The bear fight occurred in a cnebrake Carr was unable to find his glasses although he searched many times. The glasses were in a metal case. Recently while clearing land in the Attoyac bottom Tom Hart found the glasses still in the metal case which had been almost consumed by rust. The glasses were in good condition and now are the property of C. A. Stockman, a grand-nephew of the man who lost them.

Lubbock Will Have Unusual Convention

By R. W. BARRY AUSTIN, Sept. 9 (AP)—Democrats who intend to go to the democratic state convention at Lubbock expect plenty of action. It has been a long time, if ever, since a convention offered such excitement as anticipated.

One million democrats have expressed a preference for governor and there is a margin slightly in excess of 3,000 favorable to one of two candidates. If the candidates have charged many votes were cast illegally. That is interesting enough. There probably isn't much the state democratic executive committee can do about the contention. As Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston lately said in the senate, the executive committee cannot be expected to do anything except recommend nomination of the candidate who received a majority on the face of the returns certified to the committee.

But there will be a great throng of democrats there to see that done. There will be a large slice of party

Hume and Hunt Coaching Football After Dull Careers in Baseball

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
A Football Mixture

Southwest football fans with a desire to see a team play a mixture of football a la Notre Dame and Southern Methodist, will be granted such an opportunity. The Dallas Highland Park Highlanders, in district six of the Texas Interscholastic league, will maneuver under two such systems this season.

For years the Highlanders were coached by Notre Dame football by Nick Dobbs, one of the best to use this system. At the conclusion of last season, Dobbs resigned and Charlie Trigg, his assistant, was appointed head coach. Trigg, during his tenure under Dobbs, grasped a fine working knowledge of the late Knute Rockne's system for football.

Redmond Hume, one of the greatest running backs to wear the blue and maroon of Southern Methodist, was signed to assist Trigg. When Hume was splitting Southwest conference lines, Trigg was an end at Southern Methodist.

These two former Mustang stars went into a conference and emerged with an announcement that their Highlanders of 1932 would use Coach Ray Morrison's S. M. U. pass formations and the Notre Dame shift on all ground plays.

It promises to be highly interesting to watch a club maneuver into one formation for a passing attack and then snap into a shift formation for a running attack. Such a system of football tactics is sure to keep other district six coaches in hot water trying to perfect a defense for a two-way combination selected from two of the most sensational systems in all football.

Hume and Hunt
Redmond Hume, who went as high as the Philadelphia Athletics in professional baseball and as low as several "hot owl" leagues where one plays all day and rides overland all night, is definitely through with baseball. Redman said:

"I've got a swell coaching job after several years of trying to land one. Baseball, that is the professional game, is out of my life. This year round work doesn't leave the stomach as empty as baseball's four and six months in a year job."

Hume isn't the only southwest conference star to forgo and forget professional baseball. Joel Hunt, former Texas A. and M. backfield blue blazer, says he's through with the national pastime.

Hunt, after taking the uplifts and knockdowns of the professional game, has returned to Texas A. and M. where he is assistant backfield coach.

Upon his graduation in 1929, Hunt was signed by Houston. He was later shipped to the St. Louis Cardinals, then to Rochester, then to Columbus, back to the Cardinals and over the same Rochester-to-Columbus route again.

Joel saw a lot of world within four years and played with many clubs. It wasn't satisfactory. He has returned to the gridiron, his first and greatest athletic joy, where he will take up the task of showing young Aggies how to weave through tackles and guards and let the rest of the world roll on.

Supposed Dead Boy Walks In On His Parents

CROSBYTON, Sept. 9. (AP)—"I read your letter to grandmother saying I was dead, so I came on home."

This was the explanation of Glenn Cody, 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cody of the Big Four community, near here, when he walked into the home of his parents after he had been believed dead and buried in a cemetery at Midland, Texas.

Glenn left home six weeks ago without telling his parents where he was going. On August 21 a youth was killed near Midland. From the description he was identified as Glenn Cody.

Mr. and Mrs. Cody made a trip to Midland and reported the description tallied with that of their son.

MIDLAND, Sept. 9. (AP)—Identity of the 18-year-old youth buried in the Midland cemetery as Glenn Cody of Crosbyton, remained a mystery after a letter received from Mr. W. Cody, the supposed dead boy's father, was read.

The night of August 21 a boy, believed to have been asleep, was killed by a train on the right of way of the Texas and Pacific railroad. The accident occurred just within the eastern city limits. Two boys with him were unable to give his name and there were no marks of identification.

Duard Scott, photographer for the Midland Reporter-Telegram, took pictures of the dead boy and they were sent broadcast to persons inquiring about lost boys. The Cody's received one and after the funeral came here where the picture was identified again. The body was exhumed and also partly identified.

Mr. Kimbrough has received the following letter:

"I am glad to say our boy, Glenn Cody, came walking in yesterday (Wednesday) evening. So we will have to call the suit off. I will admit we was awful badly fooled when he came in. We were almost ready to run and hide. I couldn't hardly believe my eyes but he is here. So I will send those pictures taken by Mr. Scott back and please have Mr. Ellis to change the inscription on the grave and have the paper to make corrections."

Suit had been filed against the Texas and Pacific for damages.

Lazarus Back From Eastern Shoe Markets

Joe Lazarus, owner of the Pampa Brownbill shoe store, 123 N. Cuyler Street, returned yesterday from St. Louis where he spent several days in the Brown Shoe company's sample rooms. He selected new fall patterns for ladies, and also new patterns for men and children.

JOE LAZARUS

Mr. Lazarus opened the Brownbill shoe store here two years ago, and during this time he has proven to be a booster for Pampa. He has taken an active part in civic activities, being a member of the Welfare Board, and is one of the directors of the Junior chamber of commerce.

"I have spent many years in the shoe business," says Joe, "but I have never before had the privilege of choosing my stock from such a beautiful array of shoes. They had every thing that is new in the shoe line displayed in St. Louis and I took my time in selecting the 'cream of the crop.' The new shipment which I have just received includes, black and brown, in suede, kid, marcelle cloth, straps, ties, and pumps. . . . Well, just see our windows for the latest styles that are being worn in the Eastern cities."

Several interviews with St. Louis manufacturers revealed to Mr. Lazarus that business conditions throughout the Western States are showing an upward trend. Shipping records for the past 30 days have shown an increase over the same period last year, and the manufacturers predict a steady increase for the remainder of the year.

BIG HOUSE COMEDY
SEATTLE—The jailer shouted: "Bob Patterson, going out." He looked at Mr. Patterson, having served his time in jail, was now entitled to leave. Mr. Patterson happened to be asleep and failed to hear the jailer. Vernon Hemme, with two more weeks of his sentence ahead, happened to be awake. So he walked out in place of Mr. Patterson, much to the later mortification of the jailer.

There are about a thousand practicing farmers in New York.

TRAVELING MAN ENDORSES ALL-BRAN

Says It Brought Relief From Constipation

"I want to take this unsolicited means to tell you what ALL-BRAN has done for me.

"I am on the road all the time, and this has a tendency to constipate me, or any one who travels all the time. I used to suffer a great deal from constipation, until some one told me about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Since I have been using this cereal, I have been cured of constipation. I heartily endorse it to any one suffering as I did."

Mr. B. W. Tollard, Marion, N. C.

Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN provides both. At the same time, it supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently cleans the intestines of wastes. Being a natural corrective ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming.

How much better than risking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation—serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green packages. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY, NEA Service Writer

Perhaps of all the pies made, pumpkin is the most popular. It's almost the only variety commonly included among party refreshments and it seems such a personal kind of pie! Everybody has his own definite and decided ideas of just what a pumpkin pie should be from color to taste.

The stewing or baking of the pumpkin is the first step in the preparation of the pie and it is a most important one. Baking is the simplest method, for the vegetable is merely cut in halves, the seeds are removed and it is placed cut side down in a dripping pan and baked until tender. Then scrape from the shell and force through a ricer or colander.

To stew a pumpkin, wash and cut in narrow strips. Remove seeds and pare off yellow shell. Cut in cubes and put into a heavy aluminum or iron kettle. Add just enough water to prevent boiling before pumpkin begins to cook. Cover and cook over a good fire until pumpkin is dry. Stir occasionally to prevent burning. It takes from four to six hours to stew a pumpkin. Rub through a colander or ricer when dry.

If you use canned pumpkin cook it over a low fire until perfectly dry.

Plain Pumpkin Pie.
One cup sifted pumpkin, 3-4 cup light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon baking molasses, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 egg, 2 cups rich milk.
Mix and sift flour, spices and salt, and add to sugar. Mix and stir into pumpkin. Add molasses and egg slightly beaten with milk. Turn into a pie dish lined with plain pastry and bake one hour. The oven

Monday's Menu.
BREAKFAST: Cantaloupe, cereal, cream, corned beef hash, cornmeal muffins, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Scalloped eggplant and tomatoes, toasted muffins, apple dumplings, milk, tea.
DINNER: Swedish meat balls, baked sweet potatoes, succotash, stuffed tomato salad, pumpkin pie, milk, coffee.

should be hot, 425 degrees Fahrenheit, when the pie is put in. At the end of 10 minutes reduce heat to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. This rule will fill an eight-inch pie pan.

Fluffy Pumpkin Pie.
This pie is more "partified" and you may prefer it for guests.
Use 3-4 cup sifted pumpkin, 3-4 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1-2 cups milk, 1-2 cup cream, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon salt.
Beat yolks of eggs with sugar, salt and spices. Add pumpkin and mix thoroughly. Add milk and cream and stir until blended. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff. Turn into a pie dish lined with pastry and bake as in preceding recipe.

Debates Replace Examinations at Canyon College

CANYON, Sept. 9. (AP)—Debates take the place of examinations in classes studying the history of mathematics under Edna Graham, professor of mathematics at West Texas State Teachers college.

Miss Graham said students became confused in studying contributions to mathematics by Greeks, Arabs, Hindus, Egyptians, Babylonians, Italians, French, English, German, Chinese and Japanese, and as a result she has found it more profitable to let them debate some subjects covering the history in a general way.

She said the idea for some other method of examination was born from her own confusion when she was asked on examination to "name the ten leading mathematicians of all time. List them according to the value of their contribution to mathematics and give the reasons for your choice and your order of arrangement."

The last subject debate by her class was: "Resolved, that the school of Alexandria contributed more mathematics to the progress of civilization than did the school of Baghdad."

Mollison's Atlantic Flight Will Be Subject of McNamee's Report In Current News Issue at LaNora

The epochal completion of the first west-bound solo hop across the Atlantic by the intrepid British air-man, Captain James A. Mollison, is reported in all its exciting details in the current issue of the Pampa Daily News-Universal Newsreel. Graham McNamee, ace of radio announcers and the screen's Talking Reporter, "covers" the event for picture audiences at the LaNora theater today and Saturday.

Mollison's arrival at Roosevelt Field in his small Moth plane proves unique. Missed by a squadron of escort planes, he suddenly appears over the field almost unheralded and dropped to earth in graceful circles, to be greeted by several thousand spectators. The man who made air fame for himself by fly-

Panhandle Cowmen Oppose Vaccination

AMARILLO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Panhandle cattlemen have called "a needless expense" the proposed testing of range cattle for tuberculosis, which is advocated by state and federal governments.

In a meeting here of 22 ranchmen it was pointed out that the tests necessary to establish "accredited areas" would involve considerable expense for both the cattlemen and the government.

"It would create an additional overhead at a time when every cent counts," the cattlemen said in protesting the movement.

GAME PRICES CUT

STILLWATER, Okla., Sept. 9 (AP)—Oklahoma A. & M. football prices, never exorbitant, will be reduced this year. Only the University of Oklahoma game Oct. 29 will cost as much as $2. Reserved seats for Missouri conference games will be only $1.50 with $1 general admission.

Canadian Bank Is Forty Years Old

CANADIAN, Sept. 9 (AP)—The First National Bank of Canadian was 40 years old Sunday, Sept. 4. H. E. Hoover, dean of Panhandle lawyers, is its president.

The history of the local bank represents the banking traditions of the Panhandle from the time Robert Moody and Henry Hamburg organized here in 1887 the first bank between the Indian territory and New Mexico. The present institution was organized five years later.

APPETITE VARIES

CANADIAN, Sept. 9—Two horses that eat table scraps or almost anything else tossed their way, are owned by W. B. Knox, near Canadian. A neighbor tells of setting fire to a basket of paper that included a sack of corn husks. One of the horses retrieved the corn husks after the blaze was started.

Scientist Says Sweet Scents Perk Eyesight—In Hay Fever Time, Too?

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 9 (AP)—Experiments proving a sniff of a pleasant odor improves eyesight temporarily were reported to the annual meeting of the American Psychological association which opened at Cornell university today.

An unpleasant smell or the pain of a pinch on the hand is equally effective for greater acuity of eyesight. The experiments were reported by George W. Hartmann of Pennsylvania State college.

Back of the experiments lies one of the new messages of psychology for the person who tries to overcome his natural handicaps.

The message of the eyes is that they do not function virtually alone in seeing, as commonly supposed, but that sight is really only a part of the "unity of senses." In other words, a person seemingly crippled in some needed talent can replace part of this lack by training some other part of his being.

The eyesight observations, bear out previous reports to the psychologists by Dr. K. S. Lashley of the University of Chicago, who trained rats to do stunts and then removed the sections of their brains known to control the ability to do these things. The rats proved they still could learn fairly well with other parts of the brain not usually called upon.

A discovery that human eyes are subject to unfelt jars which cause them sometimes to see intermittently like the shutter of a movie camera, was reported by Dr. Milton Metfessel of the University of Southern California, who credited the discovery to Mr. Wichart, his assistant. The looker does not realize he is seeing intermittently. The effect is called "stroboscopic seeing."

"The jarring from walking," said Dr. Metfessel, "motions of the jaw in talking or vibrations set up by an airplane motor all could produce intermittent vision. Under certain conditions the pulsing of blood in and about the eyes can produce the same effects."

"These experiments suggest a possible explanation of revolving wheels of automobiles and propellers of airplanes perceived as apparently standing still."

FOOTBALL COLOR CHANGED

STILLWATER, Okla., Sept. 9 (AP)—An orange-colored football, instead of white, will be used for night games at Oklahoma A. and M. college this season. Coach Lynn Waldorf explains the orange ball does away with the floodlight glare that bothered punt and pass receivers of the white ball. Instead of orange jerseys, the aggies, whose colors are orange and black, will wear white.
