CHICAGO OPENS SYPHILIS WAR IN TEST DRIVE

FREE SECRET BLOOD TESTS WOULD BE ADMINISTERED

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Health officers began the country's first mass attack on the syphilis plague today by polling Chicagoans on the question of submitting to free secret blood tests administered by family doctors.

Dr. Louis Schmidt, head of Mayor Edward J. Kelly's committee for Control of Venereal Disease, said returns from the secret ballots, to be mailed to every family in the city at the rate of 50,000 a day, would govern establishment of machinery for administering the tests.

Chicago's 5,500 physicians would be asked to test the blood of their regular patients without charge, the doctor said, and the state and city health departments would be asked to handle most of the laboratory work.

"All necessary supplies would be furnished them; they would give only their time," Dr. Schmidt said.

Blood samples would be sent to laboratories under code numbers and results of the tests would be confidential between patient and physician. Treatment of those needing it then would be arranged.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 24 (AP)—A program for state-wide control of syphilis was urged today by District Health Officers on New Mexico, meeting here.

Pointing out the problem is recognized as a "major one" in New Mexico, the officers recommended a policy of cooperation with the federal government and private physicians, and an "active" educational campaign.

A bill which would have required a syphilis examination before marriage was voted down by the state legislature.

TOKYO-TO-NEW YORK FLIGHT MAPPED OUT

TOKYO, July 24 (AP)—Japan's most ambitious aerial attempt, a nonstop flight from Tokyo to New York in an all Japanese designed and built "wonder plane" is expected to be launched in the near future.

The plane, just completed at the Aeronautical Institute of Imperial university, is declared to be capable of traveling 10,000 or more miles without refueling.

Current distance record for airplanes is held by three Russian airmen who flew 6,262 miles from Moscow to southern California. The distance from Tokyo to New York by northern latitudes is approximately 7,000 miles.

Esager to surpass the Russian record, the institute has fabricated a plane with a wing span of 28 meters, an over-all length of 14.44 metres and equipped with a 600 horsepower engine. It contains 14 tanks in the wings for gasoline, claimed to be sufficient fuel for 80 to 90 hours of flying.

IL DUCE HITS AT 'FICTIONS' OF WAR DEBTS

MILAN, Italy, July 24 (AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini's own newspaper, Il Popolo D'Italia, today listed numerous international "fictions" it said some day would be "overwhelmed by reality."

Among them was the contention of the United States that world war debts still are collectible. Persons close to the government in Rome interpreted "reality" in which the newspaper went on to say always had "had a single 'brave name' for which there was no substitute" to mean war, with its general upheaval.

They declared there was no doubt the vigorous style of the newspaper's 750-word editorial on "post-war make believe" was that of Il Duce himself.

Informed persons saw a slap at the Democratic powers in this statement:

"Politics which ought to be realistic and therefore face problems as they exist become the play of reality and sophism, sometimes disguised in the motheaten garments of immortal principles."

Referring to war debts, Il Popolo said:

"The people continue to pretend they believe these debts will be paid one day. Now, everyone knows this is materially, and above all morally, impossible. Nevertheless when the fatal dates June 15 and December 15 come around the European governments inform America they find it impossible to pay. America takes notice of this and puts it on the order of the day."

BAILEY TO BE OPPOSED SAYS ARKANSAS LEADER

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Marshall Purvis, Hot Springs, Ark., attorney, predicted here today Gov. Carl E. Bailey of Arkansas would be opposed by "one of several congressmen" for the U. S. Senate seat of the late Joseph T. Robinson.

Purvis, who said he managed the Hattie Caraway senatorial campaign of 1932 and was a leader of the state's Huey Long faction, commented on the Arkansas Democratic committee's selection of Bailey as party nominee in a special September election.

"Bailey will be opposed by one of several Democratic congressmen who are considering running. The candidate will run as an independent Democrat and will have the support of our faction and others opposed to the Robinson-Bailey set-up. Bailey will never get to Washington."

The attorney said he was on route to New York City after a Canadian trip.

Navajos Go On Warpath Against White Officials

FORMINGTO, N. M., July 24 (AP)—War drums thumped through Navajo Indian councils today as turquoise and blanket-bedecked Navajo headmen threatened rebellion against the white man's government and thundered dire warnings against proposed reduction of their grazing stock.

Cooler heads among tribal chiefs urged caution, condemning white men for stirring up factional political disputes among the 50,000 Navajos.

But largely disregarding these warnings, an insurgent council of some 400 Navajos today drafted resolutions demanding the ouster of U. S. Indian commissioner John Collier and endorsing the anti-collier fight led by Senator Dennis Chavez of New Mexico. Last week directly opposite stands were taken at a tribal council in Window Rock, Ariz., and at an all-Pueblo meeting in Santo Domingo, N. M.

Bearing directly on the personal affairs of every Navajo—and, some believe, at the heart of the trouble—is the program of stock reduction set out upon by the Indian Service to maintain in service present sparse grazing lands. Furze complicated the matter is Indian dispute over the Wheeler-Howard (Indian self-government) act and a bill to define and extend boundary lines of Indian grazing lines.

Deshae Clay Chisillilge, influential tribal leader, pleaded for delay of the proposed Indian service roundup of reservation horses and the sale of excess and cull animals. "I would like to see this roundup delayed until our troubles have been settled," Chisillilge said. "The Navajo people are poor and uneducated. They don't know which way to turn—whether to believe the (Indian) superintendent or these men who are going around the reservation encouraging them to oppose the government."

Chee Dodge, rich old war chief, urged they don't know which way to turn—whether to believe the (Indian) superintendent or these men who are going around the reservation encouraging them to oppose the government.

ADJOURNMENT THREAT HITS FOR PROGRAM

COURT PLAN WORKED OVER BY SENATE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—A rush for adjournment seemed today to threaten the five-point program that President Roosevelt has laid out for this session of congress.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, freshly crowned with the laurels of Democratic leadership, traveled down the Potomac with President Roosevelt to figure out with him what might be salvaged from the presidential program.

Representative Woodrum of Virginia, frequently spoken of as a man who talks for the administration in the House, said that any effort to jam through a heavy program now would meet wide opposition, that if a broad group of measures were insisted upon "congress will still be here when the frost is on the pumpkin."

The President has listed as "desirable" for this session bills to fix minimum wages and maximum hours, to reorganize government departments, to provide low cost housing, to plug tax loopholes, and to set up a new farm plan.

Senator Barkley has said that wage and hour legislation would

FOUR BOY SCOUTS TO APPLY FOR EAGLE RANK

One of the most important Courts of Honor of this year will be held at the district court room tomorrow night at 8 o'clock when four boys, three from troop 80 and one from troop 14, will apply for the highest ranking in Scouting—the Eagle badge. They will be awarded the badge at a special program at the August Court of Honor.

The boys are Joe Cargile, troop 14, sponsored by Sam Houston school, and Jack Croust, Jack Smith and James Archer, troop 80, sponsored by the First Methodist church. The three will raise the total number of boys advanced to Eagle rank this year in district court to seven. In April, Doyle Auld, Keeton Rhoades, Ray Boyles and Aubrey Green were awarded the Eagle badge.

In addition to the Eagle applications, numerous merit badges will be awarded. Three troops are battling to win the court on the basis of points: troop 14, 16 and 80. Merit badges and advancements from each troop are expected to be numerous. Boards of Review were held last week and the preceding week. Troop 80 is leading for the year.

Chairman L. L. McCollm will preside. Parents and all Boy Scouts in the city are urged to attend.

POISON TO BE MIXED THREE DAYS A WEEK

Return of the three-a-week distribution of grasshopper poison was made Saturday when a new horde of grasshoppers moved into Gray county to worry farmers and city folk.

Ralph Thomas, county agricultural agent, announced that poison mash will be distributed from the vocational agricultural department of the high school on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays until further notice.

When the first invasion of hoppers had been fairly well stemmed, the distribution days were cut down to two a week last week, but the visitation has changed the plans. Mr. Thomas explained.

M. J. Simms is in charge of the distribution at the High School building. Mash is being distributed both to farm and city residents. More than 30,000 pounds of the mash was sold Saturday, Mr. Thomas said.

UNIONISTS SAY STRIP TEASERS LURING MINERS

24-HOUR TRUCE SIGNED TO AVOID VIOLENCE AT BUFFALO

(By The Associated Press) A grocery handlers' strike threatened Buffalo, N. Y., with food shortages Saturday night, and non-striking milk wagon drivers at Philadelphia pursued new strategy to escape violence.

At Cincinnati, unionists, in a complaint against a coal company, charged strip tease acts were used to lure miners from union gatherings. The company denied the accusation.

A 24-hour truce was reached in the Buffalo dispute but under an agreement made by employers and 2,000 striking meat packers and wholesale grocery truck drivers, there was no alleviation of a food shortage caused by a four day tieup of delivery trucks.

Employers agreed not to move meats, butter, eggs and staple groceries for 24 hours and union leaders agreed to withdraw pickets who had established a blockade. Both groups consented to meet with a state labor board mediator Sunday.

After four men were hauled from their trucks and beaten in struggles with strikers, non-striking truck drivers of the Supple-Wills-Jones milk company, Philadelphia, used

FOUR ALABAMA BLACKS FREED

DECATUR, Ala., July 24 (AP)—Swift court action in the Scottsboro mass rape case freed four negroes and left five others under sentences ranging from 20 years imprisonment to death today.

Prosecutors agreed to dismissal of charges against two who were "juveniles," one who was ill, and one who was "practically blind" when possummen dragged nine negroes from a freight train at Paint Rock, Ala., March 25, 1931.

The charges were assault in a gondola and upon two white women mill workers, Ruby Bates and Victoria Price.

Of the five other negroes, four were under sentence for rape after a series of retrials and one Ozie Powell for assault with intent to murder in slaying a deputy sheriff with a knife Jan. 22, 1936.

Twice returned to Alabama by the United States Supreme Court, the case left the prisoners in this status today.

REBELS ENTER SPANISH TOWN

MADRID, July 24 (AP)—Spanish insurgents entered the important town of Brunete, 15 miles west of Madrid, after a day-long attack, the government announced late today.

Ever since the insurgent troops of Generalissimo Francisco Franco launched their violent counter-attack last week, battling to regain territory taken in a government drive westward from besieged Madrid, the shell-battered town of Brunete had been their prime objective.

The fighting today, government sources said, was the most severe in the bitterly-contested sector. Government troops were subjected to intensive shelling and machine gunning before insurgent infantry engaged them at close quarters.

Government reports said the insurgents reached the outskirts of Brunete shortly after noon but were hurled back by their original positions west of the town. The insurgents relentlessly attacked again and, official reports tonight said, entered the town.

The government said many Moors were in the insurgent ranks.

Heavy fighting was still going on tonight in Brunete government advisers said, as the insurgents strove to drive the defenders completely out of the town. Casualties were high.

Brunete is the pivotal town in this campaign, 15 miles west of Madrid. If the town is captured, the insurgent General Jose Miaja's strong force there they may defeat the government's attempt to lift the siege of Madrid.

A successful government advance from Brunete would aim at Navalcarnero, the insurgents' supply and communication base for the siege.

The officers gave chase but the fleeing car had too great a start.

Returning to the service station, the officers discovered that a window had been smashed and that an attempt had been made to enter the office. This morning Mr. Williams reported that nothing had been taken.

County Judge Sherman White was the victim of a petty thief Friday night. He reported to city officers the loss of 70 feet of garden hose. The thief left the spray on the front lawn.

It was suggested by Mrs. Hollman that the three girls walk down the street again, and that she would follow in her car to check up.

JEAN HARLOW WILL OPEN AT LA NORA TODAY IN LAST FILM

'SARATOGA' TO ALSO FEATURE CLARK GABLE

The dead will live again on the LaNora screen today when Jean Harlow will show in her last film. A double was used in only a few of the scenes. Clark Gable, Lionel Barrymore, Cliff Edwards and Una Merkel are in the supporting cast. Clark Gable will also star at the Crown where he will appear in "No Man of Her Own." Carole Lombard and Dorothy McNeill furnish the feminine interest.

At the Rex, Tarzan will roar and swing from tree to tree in "Tarzan, the Ape Man."

JEAN HARLOW BACK
Behind the release of the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Saratoga," which opens today at the LaNora theater with Clark Gable and Jean Harlow in the starring roles, lies one of the most unusual technical tasks ever attempted in a Hollywood studio.

When the flood of letters began pouring into the M-G-M studio demanding the release of this picture, Director Jack Conway was faced with the problem of devising a means of finishing the few uncompleted scenes without the feminine star.

The solution lay in rewriting these sequences to eliminate as far as possible the character she played; re-editing scenes already filmed to conform to the new treatment; and the use of several technical devices.

Fortunately, the ending of the picture with Miss Harlow and Clark Gable had already been filmed. Miss Harlow was in all the scenes up to the next to last reel of the production. A double was used in the few rewritten scenes but her appearances were minimized. In these instances, only "long shots" were made, the double appearing with her back to the camera. In no place is her face seen. Other details, such as entering doors or running across a lawn to "the in" with scenes already made by Miss Harlow, were used.

"Saratoga," a race track story from the pen of Anita Loos and Robert Hopkins, deals with the romance between the daughter of a wealthy horse owner and a bookmaker. Much of the action is laid at the Saratoga racetrack. The final two reels dealing with intrigue over a horse race and a bet were written so that most of the action was in the exterior reproduction of the racetrack where "long shots" with the double could be most easily made.

Decision to release the picture was made following floods of previous cards urging this release and polls conducted by eastern newspapers showing a practically unanimous desire on the part of Miss Harlow's fans for the picture.

TARZAN ROARS AGAIN
"Tarzan, the Ape Man," Edgar Rice Burroughs' widely-read African adventure novel, has been brought to the screen under the direction of W. S. Van Dyke of "Trader Horn" fame, and will be shown starting today at the Rex theater.

Because the hero of this story is a white man who has been brought up in a jungle and lives like the apes in the tree-tops, making his way by swinging through them from limb to limb, difficulty was encountered in finding someone of sufficient athletic prowess to fill the exacting role.

The problem was solved when Johnny Weissmuller, world's champion swimmer and one of the finest examples of masculine physiques was cast as Tarzan. Neil Hamilton and C. Aubrey Smith, as leaders of an English safari seeking ivory wealth, Maureen O'Sullivan as Smith's daughter, Doris Lloyd, Forester Harvey and Ivory Williams fill the remaining principal roles.

Jungle thrills outdoing even those of the sensational "Trader Horn" are promised in the daring trek of the safari through the wilds of Africa in search of the curious "Elephant's Burial Ground" in the course of which the adventurers meet with terrifying obstacles. The wits of the white man are batted against those of beasts and savage pygmies with the primitive winning out in the end, while screen romance of a new order is entailed in the curbs, love affair of the Ape Man and English girl.

What are reported to be some of the film's most hair-raising episodes include an attack of lions by night upon the safari camp; the crossing of a river filled with hippopotami; a fight between Tarzan and a bull-ape; the rescue of a trapped elephant and the subsequent efforts of the grateful beast to aid his rescuers.

SHOOTING 'TOOTIN' DICK'
The latest movie starring that shooting, singing cowboy, Dick Foran, doesn't belie its name, according to advices sent in advance of its opening next Friday at the Rex theater. It is a Warner melodrama called "Blazing Sixes," and the number, of course, refers to the six guns with which Dick and his pals, and their enemies, the stagecoach robbers, volley their way through the plot.

It is a tale of Colorado in 1890, when it was a common thing for the road agents to hold up the stages carrying gold coins from the Denver mint. The identity of these highway-men—and the hideout where they melted the coins down and made gold bars out of them—remained a mystery until secret agents of the government tracked the miscreants and recovered the loot.

Dick, in "Blazing Sixes," is head man of the government group. It is said to be the most thrilling among the eleven outdoor pictures this fall rednecks had since beginning his movie career with Warner's a couple of years ago.

CROWN
"No Man of Her Own," a dramatic story of a gambler and his women, starring Clark Gable and featuring Carole Lombard and Dorothy Mackall, will be the attraction at the Crown Theater beginning Sunday.

The story deals with the adventure of Babe Stewart, cardsharp and confidence man, played by Gable. With the aid of Dorothy Mackall, Grant Mitchell and Paul Ellis, he lures wealthy men into poker games and easily trims them of their bank-rolls. But he gets himself into trouble when he tries to walk out on Dorothy as he has walked out on countless women before her. She threatens to go to the police, and Gable leaves town. On a hunch, he goes to a small town, and there meets Carole Lombard. Taking a gambler's chance, he marries her and takes her back to New York with him, intending to give her a good time and then send her home. But he falls in love with her—a situation which seriously complicates his mode of living. And his troubles reach their peak when Dorothy Mackall, jealous of Miss Lombard, sets out to wreak vengeance.

REX
SPANISH WAR STORY
The drama of war-torn Spain has been made the background for a powerful motion picture plot by Paramount Pictures in "The Last Train From Madrid," the star-studded drama which opens on Sunday at the Rex Theater.

With a capable cast of players headed by Dorothy Lamour, Lew Ayres, Gilbert Roland, Karen Morley, Lionel Atwill and many other skilled players, "The Last Train From Madrid" is the story of ten persons, most of them unknown to each other, whose lives are suddenly thrown together and their destinies worked out during twelve feverish hours in Madrid while the city is under heavy bombardment. The story centers upon an incident in the Spanish War which took place last winter. During one of the battles the railroad connecting Madrid to Valencia, referred to as "Madrid's Life Line," had been cut, isolating Madrid from the outside world. A few days later the line had been repaired and the government announced that certain persons would be permitted to leave the city on the first train out, which was also to be the last train from the stricken city.

Foreigners, persons on governmental business, correspondents and carefully chosen civilians were to be permitted to leave on this train providing they were able to give the government good reasons for it. The story begins with the announcement that the line had been repaired and that the train would leave in twelve hours.

GAMBLING MAN
There are many surprises in store for movie goers in "King of Gamblers," the story of the slot machine racket in a big city, which opens on Tuesday at the Rex Theater. "Three gents who specialize in villainous play" "sympathetic" roles in the story, one of them even carrying the leading male romantic role. Another, who specializes in wearing kimonos, foreign military tunics and flowing capes, appears in smart modern male attire. An actress who never sang in films sings two new song hits, and a newcomer to the screen proves she is an actress of great versatility.

The erstwhile villains are Lloyd Nolan, Porter Hall and Harvey Stephens. For a villain Nolan has had an amazing career. Screen villains are generally roundly hated by moviegoers but Nolan proved an exception. His fan mail became so great as a result of his work in "The Texas Rangers" and "Internes Can't Take Money," that he was given a chance to play a leading role.

In "King of Gamblers," Nolan plays the role of a reporter who falls in love with a racketeer's girl friend, played by Claire Trevor, and the two lead to the undoing of the underworld czar.

Another reformed villain is Porter Hall. Hall came in films in "The King of Gamblers," Nolan's first film, and achieved his greatest popularity since in "The General Died at Dawn" and "The Plainsman."

In "King of Gamblers," however, Hall is a thoroughly likeable if somewhat fussy managing editor of a reform newspaper.

LA NORA
MIRIAM CHASES MAN
Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea, one of the most successful and popular romantic teams in films, come back to the LaNora Theater on Thursday when "Woman Chases Man," the riotous Samuel Goldwyn comedy, begins a one day engagement there.

"Woman Chases Man" marks the fifth production in which the stars have appeared together. The earlier films were "The Richest Girl in the World," "Barbary Coast," "Splendor" and "These Three."

Charles Winninger, Erik Rhodes, Ella Logan, Leona Maricle and Broderick Crawford are also prominently featured.

This hilarious story casts Miriam in a real comedy role as a girl architect who chased a wealthy young man (McCrea) to the ends of the earth—to make him sign a contract to finance a model village and finally managed to get his name on the dotted line—of both the contract and a marriage license.

John Blystone directed "Woman Chases Man" from a screenplay by Joseph Anthony. Manuel Seff and David Hertz. The story is by Lynn Root and Frank Fenon.

STARRING FARRELL
Would you like to go all the way around the world in the space of a few minutes beyond a single hour? It can be done. All that is necessary is to go to the LaNora Theater next Thursday when the Warner Bros. melodrama "Fly-Away Baby" opens up.

This is a movie based on the recent race around the globe by three reporters, two men and a girl. The Miss Dorothy Kilkallen of the King Feature Service.

For the first time in film history, according to producers, we are shown action abroad a giant Zeppelin crossing the Atlantic from New York to Germany. That is how Miss Kilkallen and her competitors started their trip.

Also you see the crossing of the Pacific from China to San Francisco by the famed China Clipper. And in between are shots of innumerable foreign cities and airports.

More than 200 interested fans were on hand last night when Bob Clark brought his Amarillo Country Club swimming and diving team to the municipal pool here. The team, composed of high school youngsters, gave a well-performed show.

Exhibitions of the American and Australian crawls were given by beginners and by experienced swimmers. Henry Blackburn, Amarilloan who is attending S. M. Two young women, Grace Rogers and Norma Jo Robertson, demonstrated the crawl and backstroke.

The old-style breast stroke was exhibited by Dick Kelly, and the new flying fish stroke was performed by John Boyce. Other demonstrations of the backstroke were given by W. A. Robertson, Eddie Rogers, and Blackburn.

ENGLAND NEEDS MORE DIVORCE COURT JUDGES

LONDON, July 24 (AP)—Liberalization of England's divorce laws made it probable today that more divorce court judges will be needed to handle the impending flood of cases.

Regarded by the British press as the biggest change in England's social laws in many years, the new divorce measure led high court lawyers to estimate they would have 50 per cent more work to do when the law becomes operative Jan. 1.

The new law, enacted by the House of Commons Friday, will establish desertion without cause for three or more years, incurable insanity for grounds for divorce. Hitherto, the only ground for divorce in English law was adultery.

Lawyers said they believed most of the 22,000 applicants for legal separations on grounds of cruelty and desertion last year will be eligible now for divorce.

POLICE HOLD PAIR. SHREVEPORT, La., July 24 (AP)—Police today reported the arrest of two men who Police Sgt. W. W. Mabry said are wanted at Duncan, Okla., for theft of an auto in which they were riding when picked up on suspicion here this morning. The prisoners gave their names as Walter Cahoun, 19, of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Boyd McInmore, 24, of Addington, Okla.

On Capital Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, July 24 (AP)—Considering the many sides of the problem confronting Gibb Gilchrist in deciding whether to relinquish the good job of State Highway engineer to accept the good job of dean of the engineering school at A. & M., he reached a quick decision. He accepted the other nine days after it was made.

The position of Chief Engineer in the State Highway department is one of the best in State government. Gilchrist was due to receive an annual salary of $7,750 starting next Sept. 1. His salary during the current biennium was $6,900 a year.

There appeared no possibility he would lose his job as long as the highway commission's personal remained as at present, and no vacancy will exist on the Commission until February, 1939. Even after a change on the commission, there was no certainty Gilchrist would have been discharged as he had held the place under several governors. A factor in favor of staying was that he owned a home here.

The fact remained that a high position on a school faculty is much more stable than one in a state department. There was not much difference between the salaries of the two positions.

Gilchrist was reluctant to leave the organization he had been building for eleven years. He was loath to leave to an uncertain future the man in the department who had stood by him through those years.

The chief engineer's resignation will become effective about Sept. 1. The Commission probably will take considerable time in selecting his successor. Among those mentioned is E. P. Arneson of San Antonio, developer of master highway plans for Bexar and other counties, who resigned a short time ago as district director for the works progress administration.

Gilchrist still is fairly young. He saw overseas service during the World War.

One interesting thing about the change in the important position is that the new man, if he comes from outside the Highway department, will receive 20 per cent less than Gilchrist would have been paid.

The Legislature attached to the Highway department appropriation a rider that if its higher-paid officials were discharged or resigned their successor would be paid one-fifth less unless they had had five years experience in the department.

The rider reduces the possibility of a wholesale shakedown as a consequence of Gilchrist's departure. The chief engineer is in charge of Highway Department personnel.

Departure of Gov. Allred Aug. 1 for a vacation in Mexico City will give Lieut.-Gov. Woodul of Houston another opportunity to serve as the state's chief executive.

It will be no new experience for Woodul although it will be his first such opportunity in some time. Allred has left the state frequently, especially during his first term. Several presidents pro-Tempore of the last Senate were permitted to sit in the Governor's chair through the absence simultaneously of Allred and Woodul.

TEACHER FOUND DEAD

SAN ANTONIO, July 24 (AP)—E. H. Newlee, about 55, language teacher in the Kingville high school for the past 10 years, was found dead in his room here late this afternoon. His death was believed to have been from natural causes.

In Budapest, Hungary, Mrs. Lajos Kolompar has given birth to triplets for the second time in two years.

It is estimated that about 100,000 persons in the U. S. are studying to be nurses.

Stamp News

THE Virginia Dare commemorative stamp will be placed on first-day sale at Manteo, N. C., on Aug. 18. The stamp will contain an artist's conception of the pioneer Dare family—mother, father and 2-month-old baby, all dressed in clothes of the period. The three photographs will be enclosed in a medallion and will form the personal feature on the stamp. At the lower left-hand corner of the stamp there will be a replica of a basket of fruit and vegetables, while in the background a log cabin will be depicted.

The postmaster general at Melbourne, Australia, has announced his department will issue a series of three commemorative stamps in connection with the Sesqui-Centenary of New South Wales. The stamps are expected to go on sale Oct. 15 and will be in the following denominations: 2 pence, 3 pence and 9 pence. A pence is equal to approximately 2 cents. Orders for stamps should be placed with the Director of Postal Telegraph, Melbourne, Australia.

Stamp sales to collectors through the U. S. Postoffice Department's philatelic agency for the fiscal year just ended totaled $1,945,019, the highest normal year in the history of the agency.

King George VI will keep the $2,500,000 stamp collection started by his father and add to it, according to reports from London. Housed in some 250 volumes, in charge of a "philatelic secretary to the king," the collection is "one of the world's greatest. George V began it as a boy.

Budge Wins And Parker Loses Davis Cup Tilts

By SCOTTY RESTON
WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 24 (AP) — The United States and Great Britain, playing spotty and sometimes hilarious tennis, split the first two singles matches of the Davis Cup challenge round today.

Sleek, dark-complexioned Henry Wilfred (Bunny) Austin, main hope of the defending British, soundly whipped Frankie Parker, 21-year-old youngster from Milwaukee, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5 in the opening match; but Don Budge, the "red terror" from Oakland, Calif., tied up the series by subduing young Charles Edgar Hare after a weird first set, 15-13, 6-1, 6-2.

This even division, confidently predicted in advance by the experts, left the rivals exactly where they started in America's campaign to regain the cup for the first time since France lifted it at Germantown, Pa., in 1927, no farther advanced than before.

American supporters, however, are counting definitely on picking up to the two points still needed in the doubles on Monday and in the final two singles matches Tuesday when today's pairings will be reversed.

The Milwaukee youngster, named as a replacement for Bryan M. (Babe) Grant of Atlanta, never had a chance against the machine-like Austin, whose tennis reputation has been built mainly on his remarkable exploits in Davis cup competition.

All the excitement of the first day's play was furnished by Hare, a big, handsome southpaw. Given not a chance against the brilliant Budge, the young Briton had the gallery sitting in wide-eyed amazement as he carried the fight to the red-headed Californian from the outset and yielded finally through sheer exhaustion rather than to the American's superior play.

Out of the first day's play emerged the conviction of some experts that this challenge round can't be conceded to the United States unless Budge plays better tennis on Tuesday against Austin than he did in the first set against Hare.

"I just couldn't get going," the red-head said after the match. After taking the Sabbath off, the teams will return to the courts Monday at 3 p. m. (9 a. m. Eastern Standard Time) when Budge and Gene Mako tackle C. R. D. Tuckey and F. H. D. Wilde in the doubles.

The Americans are favored to win this and thus go into the final day with a 2-1 lead.

Wilmer Allison Wins Longwood Tennis Title

BROOKLINE, Mass., July 24 (AP) — Wilmer Allison, 32-year-old Texas star, recovered quickly after a bad start in the Longwood singles final today and won permanent possession of the eighth Longwood bowl by defeating Gil Hunt of Washington, D. C., 2-6, 6-3, 6-0, 6-4.

After dropping the first set to the youthful Hunt former Massachusetts Institute of Technology top-notcher, Allison shook off the handicap of an injured right arm and turned loose all his court strategy to take the next three sets in a row. It was his third Longwood singles title, as he previously won in 1926 and 1934.

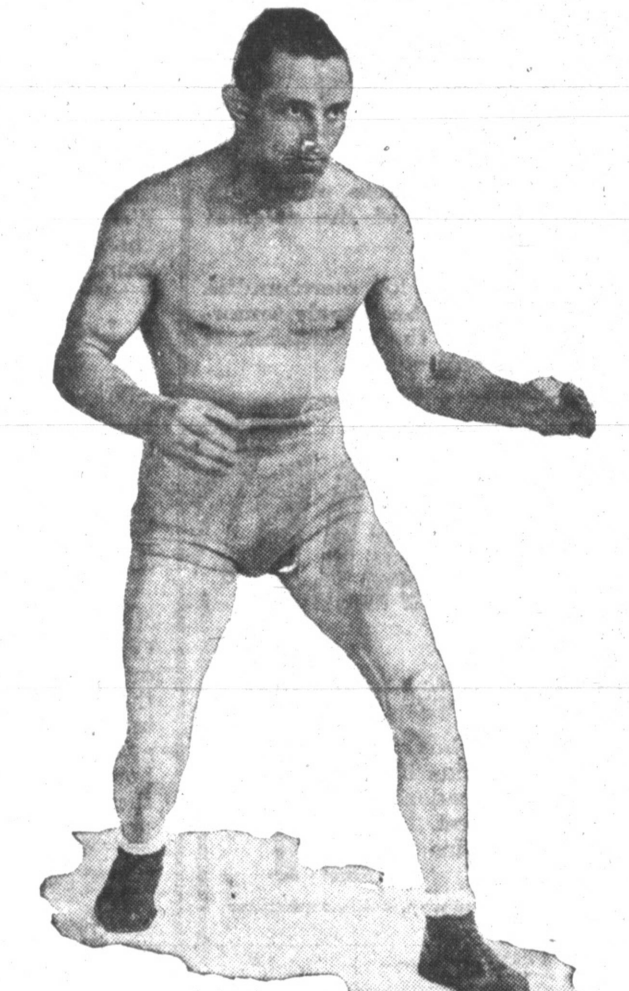

In the women's final match, Mrs. John Van Ryn, Austin, Tex., seventh ranking woman tennis player, scored a straight set victory over Helen Pedersen of Stamford, Conn., 6-3, 6-4.

Top-seeded Mrs. Sarah Paley Fabyan and Kay Witherspoon, Manchester, found little difficulty in the Norma Taubele, New York, and Virginia Rice Johnson, Boston, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4.

Allison, teamed with Mrs. Van Ryn in the finals of the mixed doubles, gained a hard-fought victory over Paul Guibourd of Meirice, Mass., and Gracyr Wheeler of Santa Monica, Calif.

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP) — The New York Yankees all but completed arrangements today whereby they will gain control of their third Class AA baseball farm — the Kansas City Blues of the American Association.

Opening the card will be Ole Erickson and Tarzan Krause.

GEHRIG SCORES FIVE

FELLER FAILS TO LAST

DES MOINES, Ia., July 24 (AP) — Rath today caused postponement of final rounds in the men's singles and doubles of the state tennis tournament. The meet will be completed tomorrow. wark club of the International league and have a working agreement with the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast league.

McLEAN CAFE HOLDS FAST AFTER VICTORY

McLEAN, July 24 — The McLean Cafe had little trouble in defeating the Skelly team to take first place in the first half of the McLean softball league. The game was marred by many errors.

The second round of play starts Monday, July 26. All of the teams have been reorganized and strengthened. The entering of the Columbian Carbon plant team from Magic City will make teams hustle to defeat them. The Smith Bros. plant team is made up entirely of old baseball players and should be hard to beat. The local opinion is that the second round of play will see much better ball.

The managers decided to start all games promptly at 7 o'clock and any team not having ten men ready to play at the time the game is called will forfeit the game. There will be no Wednesday night games.

The entry of the McLean Cafe team in the second round has made it necessary to revise the schedule that was recently published. The first week will be played as per schedule but the rest of the schedule will be revised and printed soon.

Teams listed in the second round are Phillips of Alameda, Columbian Carbon plant of Magic City, Skelly, Smith lease and Smith plant from Kellerville, Canton from Canton Creek, City Drug, Magnolia, and McLean Cafe from McLean.

OILERS WILL PLAY BORGANS IN AFTERNOON

Littrell's Single Wins

A single by Littrell in the eighth after Eash was safe at home on Baugh's high throw, relay from Brickell, who took Wilson's double down the third base line gave Huber their victory Friday night before more than 1,000 fans.

The scoring opened for Borger in the fourth when Eash and Littrell doubled in succession and Summers singled to also score on Warren's long fly to center.

Pampa came back in the fifth when San Baugh doubled and went to third on a passed ball. McNabb walked, Brickell beat out an infield hit and Eash scored. Sain singled the score Brickell. Benson fanned with the bases loaded to retire the side.

Oilers Lead in 7th

The Oilers went into a one run lead in the seventh. Brickell walked and Sain sacrificed. Baugh popped out. Cox singled to score Brickell. Benson hit to right but was thrown out at second, Cox scoring on the play.

Huber's eighth inning rally ended the scoring. Hutton pitched nice ball for the Oilers, allowing 10 hits. Eubank, a new comer to Borger, held the Oilers to eight hits.

Halliburton's Cementers need no ballyhoo for Pampa fans. The team, which will be enroute to the Denver Post tournament, will be packed with power. The Cementers have the edge on the Oilers this season, four games to two.

Seminole Here Tuesday

The Seminole Redbirds, also enroute to the Denver Post tournament, will be making their first appearance of the season here today. Pampa audience. With the Redbirds will be Lee Daney, former Pampa Road Runner hurler. Daney has been going strong with the birds this season.

Texan and Sooner Reach Net Finals

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP) — For the third straight year a western winner of the eastern clay court tennis championship was assured today when bespectacled John McDiarmid, the Princeton professor from Fort Worth, Texas, and Don McNeill of Oklahoma City won their way to the finals of the current title play.

McDiarmid, top seeded favorite, was forced to four sets in defeating Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., 6-1, 2-6, 7-5, 6-1. McNeill breezed through Frank Bowden of New York 6-2, 7-5, 6-2.

MAT FINAL TO BE SCIENTIFIC MONDAY NIGHT

Cliff Chambers anticipates a scientific main event after three gory battles when Gust Johnson of Portland, Ore., exchanges holds with John Nemanic of Denver, Colo., in the main event of the fourth wrestling card of the season at the Pampa Athletic arena tomorrow night. Previous main events have been of the rough and tough type.

The promoter will give fans who like things unorthodox their fill in the semi-final when Buck Lipscomb will make his weekly appearance. In an effort to give the rougher a lesson, Chambers has imported another newcomer to the Pampa Athletic wrestling circles. He is Senor El Pulpo of Mexico City, D. F., a former well known bull fighter who has decided to take up the more hazardous game of wrestling.

Opening the card, at 8:30 o'clock at the arena four blocks east and one south of the postoffice, will be a time limit affair between Tarzan Krause, deaf mute, and big Ole Erickson, the Swedish Swede.

Reserve seat tickets are now on sale at Pampa Drug for 77 cents. General admission tickets will be 40 cents with children admitted to 25 cents.

CUBS STRETCH LEAD

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP) — The Chicago Cubs whipped the Giants 10 to 5 in the second game of their crucial series today and stretched their National league lead to three full games.

The Giants' scoring came in the sixth when Roy Parmelee, starting pitcher, walked three men in a row, after which another walk and three hits gave the New Yorkers their five runs.

Cities Service Defeats King Oil 6-5 In Upset

Cities Service Gassers sprung the second surprise in the City softball playoff Friday night with a 6 to 5 victory over the favored King Oilers. Stanolind stepped on Phillips for the first upset on Tuesday night.

That left the Gassers perched on top of the Industrial league division after they had to battle overtime to place fourth in the league standing and secure a place in the playoff.

In the opening game of the night, the Jaycees had little trouble swamping the Clasy Dusters, 18 to 5.

Sharp put King Oil into the lead in the first inning with a home run but little Claude Heiskell more than evened the count with a homer with two on base in the fourth. King Oil tied the count in the seventh with Cities Service putting across the winning run in an extra inning.

Poe was on the mound for King until the eighth when Atkinson took over. Sheridan was behind the plate. Errors kept Poe in trouble all the way and one cost Atkinson the game. Muney went the distance for Cities Service with Word receiving.

Kellam and Prock divided the hurling job for the Jaycees with Kennedy, Hale and Brown behind the plate. Clasy Dusters were eliminated from the tournament.

One game will be played at Recreational park this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when the Jaycees meet the loser of the Texas-Skelly game of last night.

To catch up in the playoff, three games have been scheduled for Monday night, all for the price of one—10 cents for women and children and 15 cents for men.

At 6:30 o'clock Monday Phillips will meet Stanolind. At 8:30 o'clock the winner of Saturday night's game between Texas and Skelly will meet the winner of the Sunday afternoon game. The nightcap attraction will see King playing the winner of the Phillips-Stanolind game.

At the present time Cities Service is leading the Industrial league with two wins and no losses. King has a win and a loss and Stanolind and Phillips have no wins and one loss each.

In the City league, Texas and Skelly are tied with a win and no losses. The Jaycees have won one and lost one. The Clasy Dusters have been eliminated.

Schoolboy Rowe Asks Retirement

DETROIT, July 24 (AP) — Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe submitted an application for voluntary retirement tonight to Walter O. Briggs, president of the Detroit Tigers.

Club officials said Briggs accepted the application, and that approval of American League President William Harridge and Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis would complete the severance between Rowe and the Tigers for the remainder of the 1937 season.

The schoolboy, nursing a sore arm, will go to his home in El Dorado, Ark., Monday.

- 2 INCREASES PRODUCTION. Numerous tests show that output per worker invariably improves with better lighting and easier seeing. Production does not slump on dark cloudy days.
- 3 IMPROVES SUPERVISION. Poor lighting causes eyestrain and fatigue and promotes "soldiering."
- 4 DECREASES ERRORS or SPOILAGE. This is a logical result of quicker, easier, more accurate vision.
- 5 PERMITS BETTER USE OF SPACE. With modern lighting the arrangement of office equipment is independent of window light.
- 6 REDUCES FATIGUE. Fatigue means inefficiency.
- 7 REDUCES ACCIDENTS. Insurance companies say that 20 per cent of all industrial accidents can be prevented by good lighting.
- 8 IMPROVES HYGIENE. Improved lighting promotes orderliness and neatness and lessens maintenance.

Pompoon Mastered In Chicago Classic

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Pompoon, second to War Admiral in both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, was just another race horse to 30,000 sweltering spectators at Arlington Park today.

Flying Scot, carrying the silks of John Hay Whitney of New York, was Pompoon's complete master in the ninth running of the $30,000 added Arlington classic. Pompoon, heavily played to 5 favorite, finished fifth in the small but brilliant field of seven. The chestnut son of the Porter-Caledonia, leading almost from start to finish of the mile and a quarter journey, defeated Eagle Pass, entry of the Valdina Farm, owned by Emerson F. Woodward of Houston, Tex. by half a length, with third honors going to Burning Star, which carried the hopes of Richard and Patrick Nash, of Chicago. The race had a gross value of $34,900 with $27,375 going to owner Whitney. The public overlooked the Whitney racer in the betting with Flying Scot going to the post at 7 to 1. He paid $17.20 to win, $5.20 to place, and $3.40 to show. Dellor finished fourth, Gerald sixth and Sunset Trail trailing in last place.

DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—Insiders are whispering Cecil Smith, the Llano cowboy, will regain his 10-goal polo handicap this year. . . . Dropped from 10 to 8 two years ago, Smith climbed to nine last season and brilliant play on Long Island to date has almost assured his climb back to perfect rating. Watch for Les Mallon, former Dallas Steer second baseman who announced retirement from pro baseball when sold to Los Angeles, to bob up in Fort Worth uniform almost any night now. . . . Efforts are being made to iron out the Los Angeles angle. . . . Strangely, the University of Texas two-ranking freshmen tennis stars, Melvin Lapan and Marvin Kantrowitz, are both from New York—but wanted to get under Dr. D. A. Penick's wing.

Released by Chicago's Cubs three weeks ago, L. D. (Tiger) Meyer, T. C. U.'s great all-around athlete, has caught on with Knoxville in the Southern Association and is doing lots of second basing. . . . Detroit's "Bob Peiler," 18-year-old Les Mueller, a righthanded phenom of Belleville, Ill., high school fame, has joined up with Beaumont's Exporters for seasoning. . . . In seven high school games this year, all over the seven-inning route, he averaged 18 strikeouts per game and tacked up two no-hitters. He also struck out 30 men in a 12-inning triumph. . . . Detroit's Tigers went high to land Mueller, outbidding the Yankees, Browns and Indians.

Wichita Falls is now taking entries for the annual state municipal tennis tourney, scheduled for Sept. 5 and 6. . . . ## O'BRIEN FAILS TO BOX BAUGH; NO CARD HELD

When Tiger Jess Baugh refused to fight a substitute after learning that his advertised opponent, Chuck O'Brien of Dallas, had failed to put in an appearance at the arena, Del O'Neal's boxing card was called off Friday night and patrons were given their money back.

O'Brien arrived in Pampa Thursday but disappeared Friday afternoon. His suspension was immediately recommended by the boxing and wrestling commissioner. Baugh announced point blank before the first preliminary that he would not fight a substitute and O'Neal offered to return the fans their money. O'Neal's semi-final also blew up when Pete Regal could not be located and Ray Young, his opponent, was not on hand. O'Neal planned to substitute Frankie Bates of Borger with Perry Johnson of Shamrock. When O'Brien failed to put in his appearance, Johnson challenged Baugh, who refused to change his mind and fight a substitute. After announcements, arguments and statements, the large crowd became restless and at about 9:30 o'clock they were given their money back. A full report of the evening's happenings has been sent to E. F. Nichols, head of the bureau of labor statistics under whose department wrestling and boxing is conducted. The boxing show was not conducted by or had any bearing on the wrestling promoter and owner of the Pampa Athletic arena, Cliff B. Chambers, Chambers, who constructed the arena and who conducts wrestling, leased the building to Del O'Neal for the night. He was to receive a percentage of the gate receipts for the use of his arena but he had no part in matching the fighters or conducting the fight. Chambers will present his weekly wrestling card as usual on Monday night. His main event will send Gust Johnson against John Nemanic in what should be a scientific match. For a semi-final, the rougher, rougher in the game, Buck Lipscomb, will tangle with Senor El Pulp Tarzan Krause and Olie Erickson will be the preliminary boys at 8:30 o'clock.

Oil News Daily To Be Published

DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—Tom E. Foster, publisher of daily newspapers at Kilgore and Jefferson, Texas, announced here today that the Petroleum Daily newspaper to serve the gas and oil industry of the nation, would begin publication here the first week in August.

Foster, president of the publishing firm, Other officers, he said, include Allen V. Peden of Houston, secretary, who also will be editor, and North Higbee of Dallas, who will be assistant editor and chief of the Dallas bureau.

The daily, Foster said, will be published each morning except Sunday. It will be tabloid size, on book paper.

Peden said "the Daily will completely abstain from engaging in politics of any kind, or from entering into any controversies within the industry, either sectional or as between groups. It will, however, actively support or oppose issues and measures on which the industry is itself united."

Boy scouts at their Washington jamboree ate 200 tons of food daily.

WIDOW MENTIONED AS CANDIDATE FOR SENATE

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 24 (AP)—A Democratic party dispute in Arkansas over selection of a nominee to succeed the late Senate majority leader Joseph T. Robinson today brought the name of his widow to the forefront as a possible independent candidate.

Sources close to Mrs. Robinson said she had received many telegrams urging her to run against Governor Carl E. Bailey, nominated by the Democratic state committee yesterday to enter the special election which he will win, probably for Sept. 14.

Committee action in making the nomination itself, instead of calling a party primary, threatened a rift in the party.

The Arkansas Democrat reported Mrs. Robinson was giving "serious consideration" to the request, though she opposed the governor. Seeing only intimate friends at her home here, Mrs. Robinson declined comment. She was an active campaigner at the side of her husband during 40 years of married life.

Several others, the newspaper said, are considering making the race against the Governor, Albert Walls, Lonoke attorney, and Congressman John L. McClellan of Malvern were mentioned in that connection.

and a two-year-old son in Denton, Texas, he admitted to County Attorney Gordon. He was separated from his wife and child two months ago when they were residing near Shamrock, he stated.

Scheu and his 19-year-old sweetheart met for the first time in a Pampa night cafe on the evening of July fourth. They had attended dances and night clubs every night since, they both said, and reached a decision Thursday night to get married.

The girl knew Scheu as Stafford and did not know that he was married until after the Erick marriage ceremony. She said that Scheu told her when they returned to Pampa that he was married.

Scheu told the county attorney that he tried to see a lawyer about getting the marriage annulled, but that he was arrested before he could carry out his plans.

His arrest came when the girl's father appeared in county court and asked that officers take the youth into custody. The county attorney also took statements from the other newly-wedded couple and the two youths who accompanied them to Erick.

pass the Senate by late Tuesday. The House labor committee is still trying to put such a measure into shape for action on that side of the capital.

Chairman Jones of the House agriculture committee said he believed that if Congress remained in session until the end of September it could pass a general farm bill.

To the minds of many such a survey of opinions seemed to indicate that Congress would pass a revised court plan and hurry home. That was what Republicans were pulling for.

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—The Senate judiciary committee, foregoing its customary week-end holiday, worked on a six-point program today to speed up the action of lower federal courts.

Committee members said they would burnish off the rough corners of their legislation Monday and hand it to the Senate late next week as a substitute for the President's original court bill.

Their tentative draft did not even refer to the Supreme Court.

In the House, some administration supporters revived proposals for limiting the Supreme Court's power to declare federal laws unconstitutional.

Asserting that 80 per cent of his colleagues favored his plan, Representative Dies (D., Tex.) suggested a constitutional amendment authorizing Congress to reinstate by a two-thirds vote any act invalidated by the court.

A similar proposal was advanced by Representative Belter (D., N. Y.), with the further stipulation that Congress might not over-ride the court's decision until after one election has intervened.

their wives as guards. The women followed trucks in family cars to call aid in the event of disorder.

A five-week-old C. I. O. sit-down strike at Robeson Rochester corporation, Rochester, N. Y., was settled with an agreement providing for a national labor relations board election to determine a collective bargaining agent for the 200 employees.

A statement by C. I. O. unions that the federal government showed no interest in the protection of strikers against "flagrant" violations of the rights, drew denials from senators supporting and opposing administration policies.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 24 (AP)—Two thousand striking meat packers and wholesale grocery truck drivers reached a 24-hour truce with their employers tonight after a four-day strike but the agreement provided no alleviations of food shortage caused by a tieup of delivery trucks.

The Rev. Dr. John P. Boland, chairman of the state labor board, said the employers agreed not to move meats, butter, eggs, and staple groceries for 24 hours and union leaders promised abandonment of picketing and other steps taken to prevent food deliveries.

Both groups consented to meet tomorrow with Dr. Boland and mediation assistants to discuss closed shop clauses in proposed contracts.

Dr. Boland, Buffalo priest who started settling labor disputes as a hobby, returned to his home here and drew the contentions into a quick conciliation conference as a special mediator after wholesalers appealed to Governor Lehman to intervene.

The priest, who recently gave up most of his parish duties to become chairman of the newly created state labor board, also obtained an agreement from union leaders that they would not call further strikes to tighten the food blockade.

Grocers reported shelves almost bare of many staple groceries, including eggs, butter, and meats.

They have received no supplies the last four days from 44 wholesale grocery houses closed by the walkout of 1,000 truck drivers—American Federation of Labor affiliates—and C. I. O. union butchers at three meat packing plants.

Both groups demand preferential union shop contracts, called "un-American and unconstitutional" by the employers.

Ten men turned over a meat truck early today and threatened the driver in the only violence of the four-day walkout.

SCHOOL BOARD SESSION POSTPONED AT AUSTIN

AUSTIN, July 24 (AP)—An effort to reduce the unprecedentedly high state per capita school aid apportionment failed at least temporarily today when attendance at a called meeting of the board of education fell one short of a quorum.

James G. Strong of Carthage, the member necessary to make a quorum, arrived shortly before nightfall but asked that the session be postponed until tomorrow. It was understood he was endeavoring to work out a compromise on the controversy.

Chinese Situation Becoming Ominous

PEIPING, July 24 (AP)—Japanese army leaders tonight declared the North China situation, which for two weeks has kept China and Japan on the verge of war, again had become ominous because Chinese troops were not leaving this area rapidly enough.

They charged that units the Chinese had undertaken to withdraw actually were digging in for resistance. Peaceful settlement of the crisis which yesterday appeared in process of being carried out, had struck a dangerous snag.

Japanese troops began searching passengers on trains of the Peiping-Hankow railway, on which normal service had just been restored after two weeks. As a result service again was suspended.

General Hsiung Ping, vice-chief of the Chinese general staff, came here by airplane from Nanking on orders from Generalissimo Premier Chiang Kai-Shek.

CHIEF HURST RETURNS FROM LAREDO MEETING

A representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from Washington was one of the principal speakers, Chief Hurst said. State highway patrolmen discussed traffic and automobile wrecks, hit and run drivers, etc.

The convention closed with a trip to Monterrey, Mexico, made by bus.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART, NEA Service Staff Writer

Time was when women believed that glasses were a great and fatal handicap to good looks and suffered severe discomfort rather than wear them in public. Today, however, we know that vision defects are just as apparent without glasses as with them, and providing the optician has an interest in appearance as well as eyesight, that glasses need not detract at all from physical beauty.

Moderns would much rather see a girl wear glasses than to go around not recognizing people because of near-sightedness or to squint or complain of headaches. If you are told to wear spectacles, be a good girl, take the prescription in hand and present yourself to an optician who has a fine selection of various styles and frames and who will take the trouble to give you glasses that are flattering as well as beneficial.

Spectacles which are set low and straight make long nose seem shorter. Those with a highly arched bridge give length to a very short nose. Round or oval lenses make irregular features seem more even. Straight sided ones lessen the prominence of extremely thin, high cheek-bones. There is almost no facial irregularity that correct glasses cannot overcome to some extent.

How Frames Accent Character. Experts say that oxford rims suggest worldliness and sophistication; tortoise shell glasses turn one into a gayer, younger looking beauty; silver or gold rims intensify a serious expression; fairly round models suggest humor and youth. For sports and casual daytime occasions, rimmed types with light amber lenses are recommended. For evening, hand-engraved, dainty non-folding orders of white gold are advisable. Or you can wear folding glasses on a thin gold chain around your neck.

A girl who wears glasses should avoid a severe coiffure. She needs soft curls or feminine looking waves around her face. Flair, extreme or brushed backward effects are apt to give her a frozen, unapproachable air. Mannish suits, shirtwaist dresses without feminine touches, sailor hats of stiff straw are other items for the bespectacled woman to stay away from.

To counteract the shadows that glasses are bound to cause, one should smooth powder on eyelids and directly below the eyes, and use less rouge on the shadowed area. All makeup ought to be applied with the greatest care—perfectly blended and never, never with a lavish hand. Lipstick is a "must."

MISS ROBB AND ROY WILMETH TO MARRY THIS AFTERNOON

Modern Menus

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

Ice cream can be all things to all men. Some like it hot, some want it cold. Then give them Baked Alaska Shortcake.

Baked Alaska Shortcake
One-quarter cup butter, 1-3 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 1-2 cups flour, 1 1-2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup milk, 1 quart fresh strawberries or raspberries, 1-4 cup sugar, 1 quart ice cream; for meringue, 4 egg whites, 6 table-spoons sugar.

To make cake, cream butter and sugar together. Beat in whole egg. Sift dry ingredients together and alternately add with milk to egg mixture. Beat thoroughly. Pour the batter into a well buttered 2 quart heat-resistant glass utility dish. Bake until nicely browned in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 25 minutes or when an inserted toothpick comes out clean. While cake is baking, clean and cut berries and stir in the sugar.

When cake is cool, cover with berries, forming 6 depressions for the ice cream. Place the ice cream in each depression. Cover thickly with the meringue, made by beating together the 6 egg whites and sugar. Be sure the eggs are beaten absolutely stiff. Brown quickly in the oven and serve immediately. That's a big time Sunday dessert!

For a less spectacular dessert with plenty of surprise flavor, try Butter Pecan Ice Cream.
Butter Pecan Ice Cream
Two cups milk, 1 package vanilla arrowroot pudding, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 2-3 cup pecan nuts, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup cream, whipped. Mix vanilla arrowroot pudding with milk, bring to boil, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Add sugar. Cool slightly and pour through freezing tray of automatic refrigerator to chill. Let freeze about 1 hour, until thick but not hard. Brown pecans in shallow pan in hot oven for 6 minutes. Add melted butter and salt and stir until nuts are well coated. Cool, then chop. Remove pudding from freezing tray, add nuts and whipped cream and mix all well. Replace in tray and allow about 3 1-2 more hours. Something to talk about.

THIS youthful coat of gray kidskin gives shoulders that squared-off, boyish look which is featured in August fur sales. Notice how tiny the collar is, the depth of the patch pockets and that the coat is several inches shorter than the model's dress.

Miss Margie Coffey, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Glen Maxey was the best man. The house was decorated with roses, gladioli, daisies and other spring flowers. An improvised altar of palms, candelabra, and ferns was in one end of the room.

Miss Leona Hurst sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Lewis played soft music during the services.

Miss Coffey is well known in Pampa, having been a pep squad leader for the past year in the local high school. She has been active in music and church affairs. ## Cleverness and originality were the theme notes of the shower and announcement party, which Miss Dena Black and Paul Simpson Friday night at the Schneider Hotel. The wedding will be August 7th in Liberal, Kansas.

The surprise shower for the bride-elect was from eight till ten. The decoration motif was the story of the daisies, but Miss Stark had rearranged the old story and the new theme was, "Daisies Do Tell." The center of the table had as its attraction a large engagement ring with a cluster of daisies symbolizing the stone. The center of the ring held a plaque of blue and white feverfew, which read, "Dena, Paul, Aug. 7." On each side of the ring were yellow candelabra and daisy trees. The small tables around the room were decorated with yellow candles and daisies.

The entertainment was an original skit written by Miss Stark and portraying the story of the romance. The portrayal included the engaged couple meeting, their courtship and finally their engagement; its theme was carried out with music, reading and action. Mrs. May Forman Cary played the piano while the guests were arriving and also accompanied Mrs. Gene Seastrand, who sang during the skit. Mrs. Mary Kay Hartell assisted in the reading. At the end of the skit Miss Black was led through the garden of the story to the many beautiful gifts.

Miss Black was attired in a coral taffeta and silk net formal gown. The gown was made princess style with a very full taffeta skirt with strips of silk net inset diagonally. Her accessories were all of gold. The flowers in her hair were in the form of a halo.

After every guest had written an inscription in the white guest book with linen paper, refreshments of individual cakes iced in green and green punch were served to the following guests: Mrs. May Forman Cary Hartell, May Forman Cary, E. ## CHAPTER IX

WEDNESDAY: More excitement today, though I haven't been able to put two and two together concerning Dick and Jigger. However, as the kids say when they play one of their guessing games, "I'm getting warmer."

A terrific thunderstorm broke just at lunch was almost over... passing motorists rushed to cover in The Golden Anchor, for the road is lined with enormous trees, and if one of those hemlocks should ever be struck by lightning

it would be just too bad for anyone on the road. I hustled around, helping the girls to clear up the tables... was more than surprised when I saw Jigger seated at a small alcove table—he was dressed in approved country clothes—and glancing out into the courtyard I recognized his car, the one he'd driven over the Queensborough Bridge. Another man was with him, and of all people, Rocco! Standing near the table, "directing traffic" as Peter calls it when he sees me finding places for new arrivals, I heard Rocco say:

"You're all wet... it can't be." "All wet? Nothing! That's the guy, there!"

Following Jigger's glance I saw his gaze was on Dick. "I'll prove it to you right now," and the angry man started up from his chair.

"Now, don't start anything here," said Rocco, and he laid a powerful arm on Jigger's. "This neighborhood's not any too healthy for us just now. Besides, you're making a mistake... a swell guy like that ain't interesting himself in your propositions."

Just then a crowd of the younger set burst into the room. "Hullo, Dick Pegler! What luck to find you here," and they flocked about him. I glanced quickly towards Jigger's table. Rocco seemed embarrassed, his saturnine-faced friend triumphant. Instinctively I felt Jigger's recognition of Dick had some significance; and when Dick left the room, barely recognizing me as he hurried to his car, I felt vaguely disturbed. I saw the men watch him go... then talk for a few minutes, rise and leave the room.

Later in the afternoon Miss Pegler rushed up to me, threw her arms about me (I was glad the tear-room was empty) and said:

"I'm delighted you're going to marry Dick. It will almost be like having a daughter of my own. I hope you'll both be very happy."

For a moment I felt a little compunction about the step I was going to take of course I guess we can make a go of it, even if I don't love him,) then I said, "I'll try to make him happy."

"I know you will. I've just been talking things over with Dick... told him that newlyweds should start by themselves so I'm putting in my bid for Peter right now. Won't you let him come and stay with me?"

"That's terribly kind of you, but I haven't got the length of thinking about our living arrangements yet."

Miss Pegler smiled. "Of course not, but Dick wants to take you for a year's trip around the world so I think such an arrangement about Peter should work out all right."

Other guests appeared, so that ended our conversation. Thursday: Never got another word written last night... heard Peter crying... rushed to his room... he was sitting up in bed, sobbing with fright... it's the second time he's done this... tried to quiet him... finally got him asleep after he told me Dick had given him a big box of chocolates when he promised he would not tell about something he had seen from the tower of the camp.

Sobbed as he whispered he hadn't even told Roger when he met him on the shore... evidently Peter informed him he'd rather have him marry me than Dick. Wonder now if the whole thing was just a childish nightmare or if there is any truth to his story that Roger said he wished he was going to marry me... but of course that's out.

Rain came down in sheets last night, so Dick telephoned and called off our date. Was surprised he agreed so enthusiastically with me... usually makes quite a fuss if I want to break a date... can't help wondering if he has other plans for tonight. Isn't that a terrible way to write about the man whose name I'm soon to share! Oh, I wonder if I'm going to make a mistake marrying him?

I'd almost forgotten to make a note of the meeting in the room when summer residents all signed a petition to have an investigation made about Serene Shores... It's to be handed to the Township Committee for all the exclusive families are up in arms at the thought it may be a rendezvous for undesirable, though outwardly it bears the resemblance of a high-class summer resort, and Peter informs me, Cal tells me too, that Roger is holidaying there. Wonder if Dick knows anything about the place... why didn't I think of asking him about it.

Walked over to Miss Pegler's in the forenoon with a book Mrs. Fenwick was lending her... maid said Miss Pegler was busy... would I care to wait outdoors or in... decided I'd sit on her porch... soon I heard voices... didn't pay much attention to them, for I'd picked up a magazine... then I realized I was eavesdropping when Miss Pegler said:

"Oh, Mr. Hall, you can't mean that... Dick would never get mixed up in such an affair... I'm sure that can't be so." "I'm very sorry, Miss Pegler, but it's true, Dick's been in hot water ever since he went to college... Perhaps it might have been better had I gone into details with you before now, but as your lawyer I wished to save you from unnecessary worries."

"But Dick's just engaged to a charming girl... perhaps if they were married right away, and he got a fresh start somewhere else..." "Well, if the young fellow really cares for the girl, and if we can fix this business in time, though I doubt it."

As the lawyer paused I realized what I was doing, listening to a conversation I was not supposed to hear... T tiptoed from the porch, passed the maid cutting flowers, told her I'd see Miss Pegler again... she needn't mention I'd called... and walked quickly towards the Golden Anchor.

But at every step I took I questioned about the trouble Dick was in... it was strange I didn't see him around... stranger still he hadn't been at the tea-house for his morning game of tennis... perhaps after all there was something to what Peter had said... but if he had promised Dick he wouldn't tell, I would never dream of trying to force his confidence and make him break his promise.

Cal halted me when I passed the lounge. "Well, what is it, Cal?" I asked, seating myself on a boulder, for when Cal starts any of his stories you may as well make up your mind it's going to be some time before he reaches the end.

"I've got some news for you," he said, throwing a couple of sacks over the ice in the station wagon. "Yes, strce, those men you told me about... the ones you sent to Serene Shores ain't the usual run of summer visitors... they're in cahoots with the police... saw them talking to Constable Tuttle this morning right in his garden."

I laughed. Cal's imagination was surely working overtime... probably they were asking the way to some place nearby. I jumped up as I said so. Then Cal whispered, "Eb Tuttle says they're Secret Service men."

THINK NEUTRAL, TOO, TO KEEP OUT OF WAR

There is now the gravest chance of a war between Japan and China. That war might involve Russia, which might involve Germany, which might involve France, which might—

The possibilities that lie in every brush between Japanese and Chinese sentries around Peiping are almost too awful to think about. Yet we must think about them, and think hard.

Ninety-five per cent of the American people are absolutely against having any part of either the Spanish or any Asiatic war. Regardless of personal sympathies in either case, it is clear that almost all Americans agree that the first duty of the President and of Congress is to keep us out of these slaughterhouses that have claimed too many lives in Spain, and will claim many millions in Asia once the mad dogs of war are unleashed there.

Every citizen must remember this: there is no law, and there can be no law that will insure our keeping out of these wars. Certain laws may help, may make it easier, but there is only one guarantee that offers any hope whatever.

That is an unshakable resolution on the part of a b majority of Americans that we will not be involved, that we want and will have no part of it.

We are not so likely to become involved through "neutral shipping rights" or "freedom of the seas" as we were in 1914. Those excellent and civilized principles have been murdered by the kind of war that is waged today. For today all articles of trade are contraband because anything that is of any use to anybody is of use in war today.

It is loss of American life that is most likely to start the war fury burning. The most vital difference between British and German trampling on American rights during the world war is that the German trampling cost life, the British cost only money and inconvenience.

Thus the first step is to see that American citizens are kept out of war and danger zones, or at least that they go or stay there at their own risk.

The next and most important step is for every individual to think neutral, and not to yield to propaganda that, in the case of Spain, has already begun and, with the start of an Asiatic war, will aim at showing America that this war is different, that country A or faction B is pure and the defender of civilization, while country C or faction D is the barbarous defiler of all that is good.

And the atrocity stories. Whenever you read an atrocity story today think of the Crucified Canadian and the Handless Baby of 1914. Twenty years afterward, we found that they didn't exist, never had existed. To every atrocity story you read today add three large pinches of salt.

Ask yourself two questions every time any one appeals for sympathy in these wars: Just what is my stake in this? Am I willing to die for it?

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON—The state department was neither disturbed nor alarmed at the faltering of the Oriental dove of peace. It was downright jittery.

A Japanese-Chinese war is just about the last thing this country wants. In the first place, as one critic said, it is a bad time for a war to start.

A Japanese-Chinese war might spread quickly to Russia, then involve Germany on the other side of Eurasia. No one needs to guess what would happen after that.

Another thing, the American neutrality act would go into effect. Under it, the state department is like a man with his neck under the guillotine. It can't do anything except to call American ships off the sea and crawl into its hole.

And by the very act of withdrawing it would contribute to the success of one side.

In the instance of a Japanese-Chinese war, the neutrality act would serve the Japanese mightily. For they could come to America and pick up certain much needed supplies under the "cash-and-carry" section of the bill, while the Chinese without a first class fighting ship on the whole water-front, couldn't come for a pennyweight.

Looking at it from a cold commercial standpoint, a war in the East would interfere with the buying power of one of America's best customers—Japan. The neutrality act would prohibit that nation buying arms and munitions. So that business would be out. But at present Japan buys more than $100,000,000 of raw cotton from this country annually. Under the neutrality act the President is directed to impose an embargo on other commodities besides munitions, if to do so would promote the cause of peace. So the secretary of war and the President would be under pressure from "strict neutrality" adherents to cut off Japan's supply of cotton and steel. And there would be tremendous pressures against such action from cotton growing states and the steel industry, including labor.

Having to face a real war in the Pacific

TEX'S TOPICS

Comes a letter from "A Farmer," who believes something should be done in an organized way about cattle thefts in the Panhandle. . . . It was the first inkling to come to our attention that the practice is being carried out on a large scale. . . . But, in order for you to get a general idea of the farmer's complaint, read these excerpts from his letter:

"Your valuable paper has been a real booster for the Panhandle. Your encouraging editorials have been of great assistance to our Panhandle farmers and stockmen. . . . Truly, our Panhandle farmers and stockmen need you now! . . . The cattle rustlers, or thieves, are taking advantage of our farmers who are now busy in their wheat fields. I have heard so many complaints by farmers and stockmen lately about cattle and livestock thefts. Only a few days ago I talked to a young farmer in Moore county who is complaining of thefts from his herds. On several occasions two young cattle and two hogs disappeared from his farm northwest of Dumas.

"Here is the way it is worked: a 'cattle buyer' appears and looks over the herd of stock, but the buyer and seller can't agree on price. In a few days one or two of the cattle turn up missing, and no trace can be found of the missing stock. I think we should get up a reward fund for the capture of these cattle and livestock thieves. Our Panhandle farmers and stockmen have put up with hell and dust for about six years, now, and many city folks still begrudge the farmer his government benefits. But, truly, our Panhandle farmers and stockmen are entitled to every cent they receive from government benefits.

"Now is the time to show our helping hand, and assist our Texas farmers and stockmen in the endeavor to rid the state of cattle thieves. Gov. Allred should call a special session of the legislature for the protection of Texas farmers and stockmen. Many other laws have been passed, but it appears that the Texas farmer and stockman is in the class of the 'Forgotten Man.'

"New Mexico laws have proved to be a real protection against cattle thieves. Why can't Texas offer the same protection? I would like to hear from all Texas farmers and stockmen who are willing to make a donation of $1 for the capture and conviction of the thieves. Understand that there are many good, honest cattle buyers in Texas and they should have full protection and be cleared of any blame that has been caused by the unscrupulous ones who pry on unsuspecting farmers.

"(Signed) The Fool Farmer, Box 1952, Amarillo."

It is a just complaint this man makes, and do doubt there will be many who have some ideas on the subject. If so they can get in touch with him by addressing mail to the above mentioned Postoffice Box in Amarillo. . . . And, if anything comes of it, we'd like to hear from "The Fool Farmer" again. Maybe we can help some, too.

Young Jack Hesse, the Boy Scout, explained to Kiwanians last Friday why he had such a wonderful time at the Boy Scout Jamboree in Washington. . . . In addition to the many other angles of the trip, Hesse came back to Pampa with Dizzy Dean's autograph, a piece of the wrecked Hindenburg, a shell from Plymouth Rock, memories of rehearsal with the U. S. Navy and U. S. Marine bands, national radio hook-up talk with the famous Lowell Thomas as his announcer a pass to Congress, as well as the knowledge that he sold four Texas horned-loads to a Washington taxi driver for $5.

Scout Hesse also took in a session or two of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives. . . . Senators are much tougher than Representatives, says young Hesse. . . . He said the afternoon he listened in on the Senate, the going really got rough and the bouncer had to put a couple of the boys on the Senate, the going really got rough, and bub on the floor. . . . He met and shook hands with the Panhandle's Marvin Jones, and it was Congressman Jones who gave him the congressional Annie Oakley.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fatheree announced the birth of a son, Clyde Warren.

FIVE YEARS AGO Presbyterians attended a conference then in progress at Ceta Canyon.

The Post Office employees had a picnic at the Ledrick ranch.

Boyd Kennedy made plans to start an air school.

while strapped in that sort of strait-jacket was not a funny prospect for the state department. Moreover, Secretary Hull sincerely wants the world to be at peace. With him it is not mere policy. It is religion.

The state department insists it was quite by accident that representatives of China and Japan showed up at the state department, an hour apart, to run smack into the solemn caution that it would be "a great blow to the cause of peace and world progress" for them to go to war.

The caution was obviously intended more for Japan than China. No one, except possibly Japan, has accused China of starting all this Oriental monkey-business.

CACTUS JACK RIDES AGAIN

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Bleeks is the mid-town tavern where most of the newspapermen in town report for their favorite brand of oolong. It is pronounced "Blakes."

Strangers dropping into Bleeks for the first time are often jolted with the suspicion that they have happened unwittingly into the upper nursery of an asylum, for the thing that greets their eyes very often surpasses understanding.

Almost invariably five or six young men at the bar will be gravely holding clenched fists behind them when one after the other will submit one fist and suddenly open his hand. A number of matches, never more than three, will be in each hand.

After a hasty inventory, the process of elimination, one is left. This is the "matches" game, and the stakes run from bank notes (when a reporter happens to have a bank note) to drinks.

Everyone plays "matches" at Bleeks. There is more to it than guess work. No player is permitted to hold more than three matches. If there are four men in the game, the total matches could not possibly be over 12. You hide your hands behind you, attempt to guess how many matches the others will have, then hold hands out and open. The lucky guesser waits patiently for the others to finish the game, the last one being stuck for the drinks.

Bleeks is also a good place to eat. If you are comfortably in the chips, although the real charm of the place is its lack of formality, its intimate atmosphere, and its convivial companionships. Such personalities as Stanley Walker, who wrote "City Editor," John O'Hara ("Butterfield 8"), Lucius Beebe, the millionaire reporter, Dick Manney whose gift for getting things into the papers is referred to by theatrical producers as "Maney's Magic," and the like are landmarks in the place. They are the ones who have made Bleeks what it is.

As a partner at the party the other night I drew Seri, a Japanese dancer, but before she had time to warn me that she was deaf. So I bowed and smiled but said nothing. That is a funny predicament to be in. From time to time you smile and point to things, saying nothing. Finally, with a show of impatience, Seri turned to me: "You haven't said a word all evening. Am I boring you?"

Really, nothing is sacred in this town. It's getting so now a man can't even trust his own host.

Paying heed to guests who are athletic-minded, one cafe has provided its patrons with a tennis court, showers, and also a hand saw. No extra charge. You have a good work-out, a shower, a brisk rub down. And then dinner (the proprietor hopes), with all the trimmings.

J. R. Graduated from the local high school in 1936 with high honors. He was second highest boy in scholastic ranking, president of the senior class, a member of the National Honor Society, and captain of the Harvester football team.

His brother, Stokes Green, lives here, and will attend Rice Institute next fall.

Came today the Panhandle Herald's celebration of its 50th anniversary in 48 pages and this one having been editor of that newspaper looked at it keenly.

That was nine years ago. Al Smith was running for president of the U. S. A. and John Weatherly and many another Panhandle voter were for Hoover, and this one and Dr. J. H. Walker, now of Borger, held the fort down for the Brown Derby. That was the year of the first talkie, and that also was the year of the last big wheat crop. The winter of 1928 was wet with snow and for days.

Main street was level with the sidewalks. Everybody in Panhandle and Pampa those days went to Borger to see how tough the town was. That was the year this one's friendship with Judge Southwood, Asbery Callaghan, Sid O'Keefe, Dr. George P. Groul, Drue McVey, Mrs. Bill, Frank Paul and many another hospitable Panhandle resident began.

It was the next spring this one wrote a society story in the Herald to please a hostess who liked adjectives that had 117 adjectives, and devised the present masthead on the Herald, set in extremely modern type, and wrote a column called "Panhandle Around." Then in the years that followed, Panhandle took to its heart the three dear children Alf and Virginia and Henry Will, and the town became an even brighter place because Jack and Electa Adkins lived there. . . . and so today the Herald is beloved and cherished because through its fifty years it has been humane, and the Herald is always proud of Panhandle.

And Panhandle is proud of her sons and daughters. But there is one son of Panhandle that all Pampa is proud of—J. S. Wynne who today is celebrating his 76th birthday.

So They Say

Under the present economic system, prices will continue to go high. credit will collapse and the depression will return.—John T. Flynn, economist.

Although the professions may seem to be very badly crowded, there is no doubt that the professions need many more people in them.—Prof. Harold F. Clark, Columbia University.

How's Your Health?

MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS

Multiple Sclerosis is one of the unsolved riddles in medicine. The disease was apparently recognized by the ancient physicians. Little knowledge, however, as to the basis of the disease was had until about 100 years ago.

In 1837 an English medical student named Carswell drew a picture of the spinal cord and lower brain structures taken from a sufferer of multiple sclerosis, and therein showed sclerotic changes in the nervous system associated with the disease.

During the following 100 years much study has been devoted to this disease. However, its cause or causes have not as yet been definitely defined, nor is there a specific treatment available for it. In 1923 a commission of eminent neurologists, appointed to study multiple sclerosis, concluded:

1. The age of persons suffering from multiple sclerosis ranges chiefly from 20 to 40, but the disease may occur as early as 10 or as late as 60.

2. The disease occurs more often in males than females in the ratio of about 3 to 2; and makes up about 1 to 2 per cent of the organic diseases of the nervous system including those due to syphilis.

3. The duration of the disease averages about eight years but may run less than one year or more than 30.

4. It occurs in persons doing skilled manual work more often than in ordinary laborers or brain workers.

5. In the United States it seems to occur more in the region of the Great Lakes—at least among young males.

6. It is not a "family disease," and is not inherited, but in the ancestry there is often evidence of a neuropathic stock.

7. Acute infections may immediately precede the disease in a small percentage (10 or 12 per cent) and it occurs no more frequently in persons who have had the usual child's infectious fevers than in those who have not had them.

8. It is not caused by syphilis.

9. In a small percentage of cases the disease appears to be excited by injury, but injury cannot itself cause the disease and only may apparently awaken a disease process already potentially existent.

10. Further laboratory studies and field work are needed to learn the real cause of multiple sclerosis.

For "The Bride Wore Red" Hollywood has gone to the mountains and also brought the mountain to Hollywood. The Joan Crawford picture now is back in the sound stages after a location trip to the High Sierras. Stage 15 is a nice Tyrolean setting, complete with trees and foliage.

And there is excitement not in the script. Joan is smothering smoothly when suddenly she grasps her arm and says "Ouch." There is concern, "the star has been bitten by a spider. "Oh, it's nothing," says Joan. But Dorothy Arzner, the director, insists on calling a nurse to treat the wound. They also get out the spray cans and declare that other spiders that may be lurking in the transplanted foliage.

Garner May Have Asked FDR To Change Policies

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 24 — The President telephoned the vice president and said, in effect: "Jack, you come on back here and help me settle some of this mess you made. A lot of these senators who are agitating for adjournment point out that there is no reason for staying here and passing our legislation since the president of the Senate has gone away. Come on back here and help me out of this jam."

Presumably each man had a stenographer taking down the conversation, none of which is available, of course, except to the participants. One can only guess as to what Garner said.

But every insider, Roosevelt and Garner adherents alike, agreed that Roosevelt deperately needed Garner's help at a tight point in the court fight.

Somewhere in the contact between the White House and Garner arose the suggestion that Roosevelt would be willing to make a trade with Garner on certain policies in return for the vice president's support.

One guess, made by a man who nearly always guesses right, was that Garner would win the assurance that wages-hour legislation would not be demanded at this session. Garner is grimly set against financial-economic-political control from New York. Hence he realizes that the court bill would be helpful in that field. He is equally violent against sidown strikes, the C. I. O., higher wages for Negro workers as well as poor whites in the south, and government spending for WPA.

Recall of Garner, who had walked out from his post while Roosevelt, in effect, had elevated his nose and suggested the vice president would never be missed if the legislation would be demanded at this session. Garner is grimly set against financial-economic-political control from New York. Hence he realizes that the court bill would be helpful in that field. He is equally violent against sidown strikes, the C. I. O., higher wages for Negro workers as well as poor whites in the south, and government spending for WPA.

The late Joe Robinson had operated on a personal basis and there was no administration machine in the Senate. He had exchanged favors for favors, but these were personal favors and this became obvious after his death to the great demoralization of the administration's court fight.

The real Capital Hill battling had been left to the Department of Justice, which meant, in effect, only Assistant Attorney General Joe Keenan.

His Luck Holds Good
Some of Roosevelt's closest friends and most influential advisers begged him in vain to go on the funeral train with the body of Robinson to Arkansas, for strategic reasons, of course.

The President's failure to board that train aroused plenty of criticism, not only from the few who felt he should have paid the final tribute to a loyal follower, but also—and perhaps mostly—from political enemies who made the most of it.

Roosevelt's unjustly celebrated luck seemed to hold good, however, when complaints as to his failure to go along became dulled by unvarnished reports which showed the to-and-fro trip to have been a continuous political conference. Vote canvassing on the Senate majority leadership and court bill compromise talk were the outstanding features.

The President of the United States would have been placed in a bad setting. Whether or not the specter of such a spectacle influenced his intention not to ride with the body to burial, he had the memory of the political shindig into which the late Speaker Henry Rainey's funeral was turned to remind him of the possibilities.

The excuse he gave to the intimates who urged him to go was that he was terribly worried about the Chinese-Japanese hostilities and must stay here to follow hour-by-hour developments.

Apparently he meant it. The new neutrality act practically forces the President, in effect, to take sides in any foreign war. Roosevelt could afford to make a grandstand play for neutrality by his handling the Spanish civil war was primarily something for France and England to worry about.

But the Pacific, from the military and political standpoint, is in this country's back yard. Our traditional attitude toward China is one of friendliness, and the nine-power treaty calls for aid for nations which become victims of aggressors.

Military and naval gentry all regard Japan as the nation which we're most likely to fight. This country is China's base of supply for munitions, which would be automatically cut off once Roosevelt recognized a state of war.

The neutrality act's cash-and-carry ry principle would give Japan a tremendous advantage on other commodities because she has a merchant fleet and China hasn't.

The situation was loaded with dynamite, and each of the many possibilities through which the neutrality law is sure to make us unneutral in a foreign war was painfully obvious.

Growing of Sugar Beets May Be New Plains Industry

AMARILLO, July 25 (AP)—A new industry for the Panhandle-Plains area may develop if experiments in Deaf Smith county meet the approval of sugar manufacturers who use sugar beets.

Several trials at growing the plant have been successful in the irrigated areas, with the late summer sun in this section said to be of added advantage by causing a heavy sugar content in the beets. Sugar beet growing in Deaf Smith county was pioneered in 1912 by D. L. McDonald, but attracted attention only in the last five years.

One company has sent a representative to the county to study conditions, while two others have sought detailed information by mail.

SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD IN OVERTON

OVERTON, July 25 (AP)—H. E. Rush, district commissioner of the Amateur Softball Association of America, announced today the association would hold its 1937 state championship tournament in Overton, Sept. 1-8.

The tournament will decide the team to represent Texas in the world's championship tournament in Chicago.

Short Skirts Are Fashion for Fall

CHICAGO, July 25 (AP)—Skirts, to be fashionable, will be shorter this fall. Fourteen inches from the floor will be the approved length, Miss Esther Bradford, Chicago stylist, said today, while 16 inches would be "quite daring."

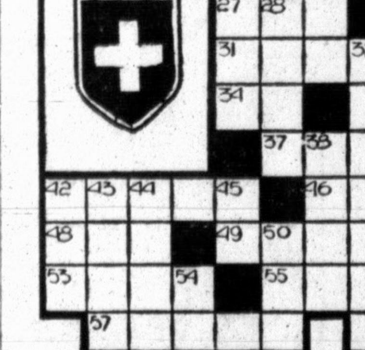

Hats will have higher crowns and be worn generally off the face, exposing the brow, and some waistlines will be higher.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson
IN AUSTRALIA, ABOUT 1,000,000 POUNDS ARE SPENT ANNUALLY CONTROLLING THE SPREAD OF RABBITS!
CHIPMUNKS ARE KNOWN UNDER THE GENERIC NAME, "TAMIAS," MEANING STEWARD, BECAUSE OF THEIR HABIT OF STORING AWAY PROVISIONS.
THE SMALL CONE-HEADED LIZARD HAS A TAIL ONE YARD IN LENGTH.
THE Australian government erected over 6000 miles of wire fencing in its efforts to control its rabbit population, but with little success. The millions of rabbits now inhabiting three-fourths of the country are descendants of two dozen wild rabbits brought in about one hundred years ago.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP)—Unsettled away with today's brief stock market session, coming to life in large volume for gains of fractions to a point or more.

Fifteen minutes before the close power and light company issues were all over the ticker tape and the majority finished at the best levels of the session.

Chrysler hit a comparatively fast upward pace at the start following the better than expected earnings statement, together with a more generous dividend than had been looked for. The issue ended up 2 1/2 points at 115 1/2, a new high for the move.

The turnover was the best for any Saturday since May 1, transfers totaling 655,750 shares. A week ago the aggregate was 245,340. The Associated Press average of 40 stocks advanced .6 of a point to 101.1.

CHICAGO GRAIN July 24 (AP)—Late selling of September and December wheat dropped prices of these contracts 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents a bushel today while grain deliverable this month scored a slight advance.

The two-way market in wheat, reflecting short covering in July and quiet but persistent selling of the deferred contracts, was paralleled in corn trade, July corn on which delivery must be made next week, fluctuated rapidly at times over a 1 1/2 cent range.

Wheat closed 1/4 higher to 1 1/2 lower, compared with yesterday's finish, July 1.20-1.20 1/2, Sept. 1.15 1/2-1.15 3/4, Dec. 1.20 1/2-1.20 3/4; corn was 1/4 up to 2 1/2 down, July 1.08 1/2, Sept. 1.08 1/2, Dec. 1.08 1/2; oats last 1.15 1/2, July 1.15 1/2, Sept. 1.15 1/2, Dec. 1.15 1/2; and provisions were unchanged to eight cents down.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON July 24 (AP)—Following an early period of weakness which carried prices off over $1.60 a bale here today cotton encountered realizing and covering by satisfied shorts and last prices were steady, 22 to 26 points above the lows but 13 to 16 points below the previous close.

The sharp early sag carried the two nearest positions below the 11-cent line for the first time this season, October trading at 10.92 and December at 10.92 or 502 to 507 points, approximately $15 a bale below the season's high established in the latter part of March.

Oct. traded at 11.18, Dec. at 11.20, Jan. at 11.21 bid, March at 11.20 bid, and May at 11.22 bid. Spot was quiet and 13 points lower with middling at 11 1/2.
