Roosevelt Outlines Plan For Banks To Open In Next Three Days

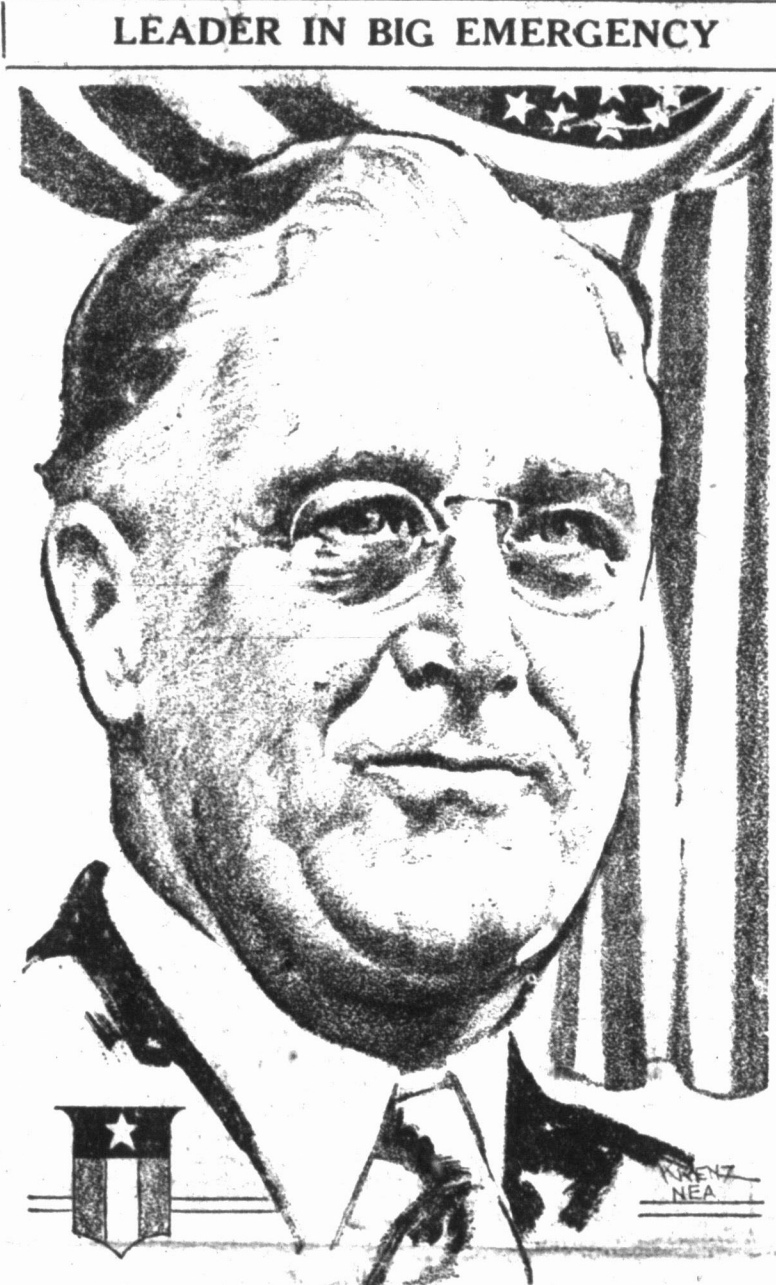

RESERVE CITY INSTITUTIONS OPEN MONDAY

CLEARING HOUSE BANKS TO RESUME ACTIVITY ON TUESDAY

NEW CURRENCY RUSHED

OTHER BANKS WILL BE BACK TO NORMAL WEDNESDAY

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—A progressive plan for opening the sound banks of the nation beginning Monday was announced tonight by President Roosevelt.
The program calls for full time operations by licensed banks—both state and national—on Monday in the cities where the twelve federal reserve banks are located.
On Tuesday, the licensed institutions located in places where clearing ing house associations, including more than 250 cities, are in operation, will be permitted to resume full activity.

Banks that win approval and are located elsewhere are given authority to proceed on a normal basis on Wednesday.
The progressive program was employed by the president to provide time for the shipments of the new currency just authorized. Congress is to get to the clearing house cities and banks in the smaller communities.

Relief Agency Issues Checks To 171 Persons

One hundred and sixty-three men and eight women were issued checks totaling $786.90 by the federal relief committee Saturday. Three teams and eleven trucks were used.
The LeFors payroll last week was $150.50, according to E. Bacchus and H. Breining, who attended the meeting of the Gray county committee.
The committee will meet here Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to make distribution of the $6,000 it will receive from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for use in the county during March.
While the checks issued were not immediately redeemable in cash, they could be exchanged for food, the essential commodity needed by the unemployed men and women.

SECRETARY WOODIN ASKS STATE AUTHORITIES TO PERMIT BANKS TO OPEN ON UNRESTRICTED BASIS

State Banks Must Be Qualified To Operate

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—Secretary Woodin late tonight called upon state authorities having supervision of banking institutions located in federal reserve bank cities to cooperate with the government by permitting the institutions to open for business Monday in all cases they are qualified to do so on an unrestricted basis.
At the same time, the secretary of the treasury said no licenses would be issued to any bank located outside those 12 cities to open before Tuesday.
His call for the cooperation of state authorities applied to those institutions which are not members of the federal reserve system.
"The secretary of the treasury," his statement said, "will not permit any member bank, state or national, to open in any such federal reserve city unless opened for normal business on an unrestricted basis, except so far as affected by legal contracts between the banks and depositors with respect to withdrawals or notice of withdrawals."

HUMOROUS AND TRAGIC ANGLES OF QUAKE

By The Associated Press.

Out of the wreckage left by California earthquake came stories of heroism and humor, in which Death walked with a heavy tread. These stories were told by survivors:
Forest Brinkeroff, young switchboard operator at the Dominguez sub-station of the Pacific Electric railway, stuck to his post when the first shock came to throw a switch that would save the lives of many at the cost of his own. Searchers found his body in the ruins of the building.
While her home was being turned into a shambles, Mrs. Eugene Van Winkle gave birth to a girl at a Compton hospital. She was moved from her home at the first pronounced tremor.
Three men were killed when their airplane crashed as they were en route to render aid to quake victims at Long Beach.
Dr. A. A. Firkins, a Compton dentist, was operating on a patient. The building collapsed. He was pulled from the debris dead. The patient, a woman, walked unhurt from the wreckage, the dental apron and towel still across her shoulders.
Mrs. Naomi Eilers, bookkeeper for a Long Beach laundry, fled from the office of the building. She was killed when struck by an avalanche of brick. Had she remained in the office she would have lived. It was the only room which remained intact.
The bank holiday prevented death or injury to scores of others at the same laundry. Business had slowed down almost to a standstill. The twenty women who did work during the day, had gone home early, just half an hour before the quake.
The quakes failed to stop the motion picture stars from discussing a prospective fifty per cent cut in salary at Hollywood. The players headed for a door of the conference room when the first quake came. Their chairman reminded them "The safest place is where you are." The meeting went on.

An immediate verdict of acquittal was given Loyd Purvis, charged with aggravated assault, in county court yesterday.
Purvis was named in a complaint last October, filed by Mrs. Mary J. Purvis. He was represented by W. M. Lewright.
The jury, which reached a verdict on the first ballot just before noon, was composed of C. T. Caughy, Ray Jones, Ben N. Lockhart, F. M. Zello, C. M. Gatlin, and Joe W. Clemen.
The defense denied allegations of serious injuries claimed by the plaintiff and through descriptions of the circumstances pleaded justification in the defendant's course of action.

ECONOMY MEASURE PASSES HOUSE

SPLIT SENATE DUE TO ACT ON PLAN MONDAY

TEXAS SENATOR IS FOE LEADERS CONFIDENT OF PASSING BILL IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—President Roosevelt's economy bill was rushed through the house to a divided senate today in a spectacular battle that split the big democratic majority into two fighting factions.
The opposition was led by insurgent democratic forces, which refused at a party caucus earlier in the day to be bound to support the president in his proposal to bring about economies to balance the federal budget and restore the nation's credit.
Despite this, the leaders, aided by the conservative wing and a majority of republicans, stamped house approval on the emergency legislation 286 to 138. On a roll call vote.

Roosevelt Mobilizes Navy, Treasury and Red Cross For Relief Work.

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—Under alert leadership from President Roosevelt, navy, treasury, and Red Cross heads today mobilized aid for earthquake-devastated California.
Because of quick work by relief forces on the spot, their task was largely one of backstopping and organizing of adequate funds and supplies.
But to launch these efforts, President Roosevelt was out of bed and busy with the telephone in the early hours, Mrs. Roosevelt helping to relay messages together with his secretaries. After the order the president gave, telegrams went out from the relief funds.
By mid-morning the treasury announced it had authorized California banks to advance cash needed by victims, called attention to the authority of Federal Reserve banks to make direct loans to individuals, and promised that if more was needed it would be forthcoming.
The Red Cross withheld financial aid after assuring itself the California branches were on the job for the immediate steps. Later a decision is to be made on what money to send in. William de Kleine, director of disaster relief, spend west by airplane.
The earthquake had an echo in congress, where the house directed a resolution of condolence to the people of the stricken area. Another reaction was at the state department, where Ambassador De-

ARE YOU PAMPA CONSCIOUS?

READ SERIES OF STORIES ABOUT YOUR TOWN

What do you know about your city and your community—the payrolls, the origin of public institutions, the men, women and firms which have builded well?
Are you "Pampa conscious" in the sense of being appreciative of Pampa's assets and taking positive, effective steps to help those who make Pampa and Gray county stable?
The files of the "Pampa Daily News" are filled with articles written to make you "Pampa conscious." Future historians will find it easy to write the history of Pampa and Gray county, just by reading bound files of this newspaper.
Currently, there is a series of articles in Pampa entitled "Queen City of the Plains." This title was given Pampa many years ago by one of its founders—George Tyng. Many citizens have clipped these articles so that they can have a thumbnail history of Pampa.
Another series of regular articles is being printed on the oil communities of Gray county—about Gray county's factories and payrolls. PAYROLLS make Pampa, and Gray county, and there is a vast factory payroll in this immediate territory. Pampa is a city within a city, surrounded by populous little camps to which Pampa extends a helping hand at all times.

SHOCKS STILL SHAKING EARTH IN CALIFORNIA

PROPERTY DAMAGE SET AT $45,000,000 IN WIDE AREA

DEATH LIST INCREASES

LONG BEACH REPORTS SEVENTY DEAD AND 2,500 INJURED

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Staff Writer
LONG BEACH, Calif., March 11. (AP)—This coastal city which bore the brunt of the severe earthquake here last yesterday felt another severe shock here at 10:01 p. m. tonight.
LOS ANGELES, March 11. (AP)—Southern California trembled tonight as she measured her earthquake dead in scores, her injured in thousands, and her property damage in tens of millions of dollars.
Recurring earth shocks, in addition to the 23 major convulsions that killed many and maimed and harassed the densely populated Metropolitan area, kept rasping at the already raw nerves of the two million persons who escaped unscathed.
As afternoon wore on into night the less severe shocks got beyond counting. Grievous and fear edged into the wide picture of death and destruction as the citizenry watched the corpse hunters fill the far-flung ruins, all the while keeping on edge for the relief work, which scientists said might continue for days or even weeks.
Deaths Occur Hourly
The ever changing casualty figures stood unofficially tonight at 130 dead and possibly 5,000 injured, including everything from scratches and bruised heels to cases that may prove fatal. The number of persons requiring actual hospital treatment was estimated at 1,000 for the entire area.
Property damage was estimated to be at least $45,000,000, including wrecked business buildings and schools, broken utility lines damaged streets and harbor channels.
Bodies still were sought in ruins at Long Beach, which bore the brunt of the quake.
Alert to prevent possible vandalism, looting and ghoulish acts, United States sailors and marines from the battle fleet at San Pedro, national guardsmen and American Legionnaires joined police in preserving order in the stricken regions.
Roif Takes Charge
Centralized control of emergency measures was invoked when Governor James Rolph, Jr., who flew here tonight, appointed Col. O. C. Wyman of the California national guard to head the relief work.
Swift action to alleviate grief, pain and privation was taken when relief authorities decided a portion of the more than $4,000,000 allotted to the state March 3, by the Reconstruction Finance corporation might be diverted quickly to that end.
The application of martial law was deemed unnecessary at Long Beach and E. S. Dobbins, city manager, was designated to direct the policing of that vicinity. The governor ordered the condemnation of all buildings unsafe for occupancy.
Long Beach had 70 dead and reported injuries to 2,500 persons. Compton, a small suburb of Los Angeles, reported 17 deaths. Huntington Park's death toll was eight, with property damage of $2,250,000.
While had seven deaths and the remainder of the mortality list was divided among various sections of the Metropolitan area.
Twelve of these deaths were attributed to heart failures from fright induced by the earthquakes. Convener's officers said fear that each succeeding shock would be worse than the preceding ones finally became powerful enough to kill.
For once, Hollywood, Beverly Hills and Culver City looked out upon a tragedy not of their own.

Federal Reserve Asks About Gold Held in Pampa

Who has the gold?
The Federal Reserve banks wish to know and have sent a request for the information to the various Texas financial institutions.
The First National bank of Pampa yesterday received this message from the Dallas Federal Reserve bank:
"Pursuant to a request received from the Federal Reserve board at Washington, we ask that you furnish us as soon as possible after March 13, 1933, as complete a list as can be made from information which you are able to obtain of the names and addresses of all persons who have withdrawn gold certificates or gold coin from your bank since February 1, 1933, and who have not re-deposited it in a bank on or before March 13, 1933. If you are in position to furnish us similar information regarding withdrawals prior to February 1, 1933, it will be appreciated, although withdrawals before February 1, 1933, and those after February 1, 1933, should be segregated."

SEN. HOWELL OF NEBRASKA DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Democrat Due To Be Appointed To Succeed Him

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—Senator Robert B. Howell, 69, republican from Omaha, Neb., died at Walter Reed hospital after two week's illness.
The aged legislator, who was serving his second term in the senate after a varied career as naval officer, law student, real estate operator, manager of municipal-owned utilities, and state senator, was a victim of a heart attack growing out of pneumonia and complications.
His lungs had cleared considerably and his doctors felt there was some hope for recovery until an abscess developed on his neck. This weakened his vitality.
Vice President Garner appointed a committee of 15 senators headed by Norris of Nebraska, to attend the funeral.
The body will be sent to Omaha tomorrow morning. Funeral services will be held at the Howell home on Tuesday.

No Election For School Trustees Here This Year

The Pampa Independent school district will have no trustee election this year.
Every member of the board has a tenure lasting through this year, by reason of legislative changes and the special state charter under which the district operates. The trustees will have to draw for terms before April of 1934, in order that by proper succession under 3-year terms may be worked out.
Teachers of the district were paid February 24, hence have not been as much inconvenienced by the financial holiday as some other citizens. Their next pay day is March 24.

DANCIGER CASE ARGUED BEFORE THREE JUDGES

Ex-Justice of Texas Supreme Court Flays State

DALLAS, March 11. (AP)—An attack on Texas oil promotion laws heard today by a three-judge federal court here was featured by arguments of Nelson Phillips, former chief justice of the state supreme court, denouncing the state's attempt to make what he called "a complete confiscation of property."
Throughout the day Circuit Judge Joseph C. Hutcherson of Houston, District Judge James C. Wilson of Fort Worth and District Judge Dival West of San Antonio heard the attack, brought by the Danciger Oil and Refining company and the Petroleum Refractionating corporation, which is claimed to be Danciger's principal outlet under existing contracts.
"Where does the state get this power to intercede in behalf of any industry?" asked Judge Phillips, in discussing fundamental law with the court. "It might as well step in and help the horse and wagon industry because the automobile is making them obsolete."
The Danciger attack was brought against the Texas Railroad commission's promotion orders in the Panhandle field, where it has most of its properties. The company claimed the order's prevented its fulfilling terms of contracts with the Refractionating company and threatened to force that company out of business, with consequent financial loss.
The Danciger case was brought before the three-judge court on the point of its attack on the promotion laws as violative of the federal constitution after Judge Wilson had denied Danciger a restraining order against the state to prevent enforcement of the promotion orders against Danciger properties.
The first attack on promotion order brought in Texas was filed by Danciger several years ago.

The well is located in section 57, block B-2.

Notorious Bandit Shot Four Times

FORT SMITH, Ark., March 11. (AP)—Charley Chapman, notorious south-west desperado, was shot four times and dangerously wounded in a gun fight with three officers near Van Buren, Ark., late today. His two companions escaped.
Chapman was brought to a hospital here tonight, and in both arms, left leg, left hip, and in both arms.
Police said he admitted leading a gang that robbed the Hope, Ark., bank of $14,000 recently.
Chapman is wanted in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Missouri, and Louisiana for bank robberies.
The gun fight took place after Sheriff A. D. Moxey of Crawford county and two deputies recognized Chapman's automobile on the Van Buren-Alma highway.
The officers had been in ambush at Alma, Ark., all day on a tip that Chapman intended to rob the bank there. As it grew late they started back for Van Buren and met Chapman's car.

DEFRAUD NOT: For this is the will of God... that no man defraud his brother in any matter.—1 Thesalonians 4:3,4.

Practical Good Will: Pampa's inter-community relations committee tries to promote good will between the various communities of this territory and with this city.

Good will, then, is nothing but the by-product of good service rendered. But there are many elements of character and personality involved.

And by service we do not mean merely something which can be wrapped up by a store clerk and carried off. We mean the personal contacts, the friendliness which arises from a genuine interest in the welfare of the people of a territory.

The most important contacts of any city are not those made by the city commissioners and leading citizens, but by the filling station men, policemen, store clerks, and others who have a chance to know the visitors personally.

"Visit the widows and orphans in their sickness and affliction," is a Biblical command, and many carry it out. Some don't do anything about it, widows, orphans or what not.

Newcomers are too often neglected when they come to town, but there are some cities in which newcomers receive samples of locally made products, greetings from the chamber of commerce and mayor, and visits by pastors and Sunday school class officers.

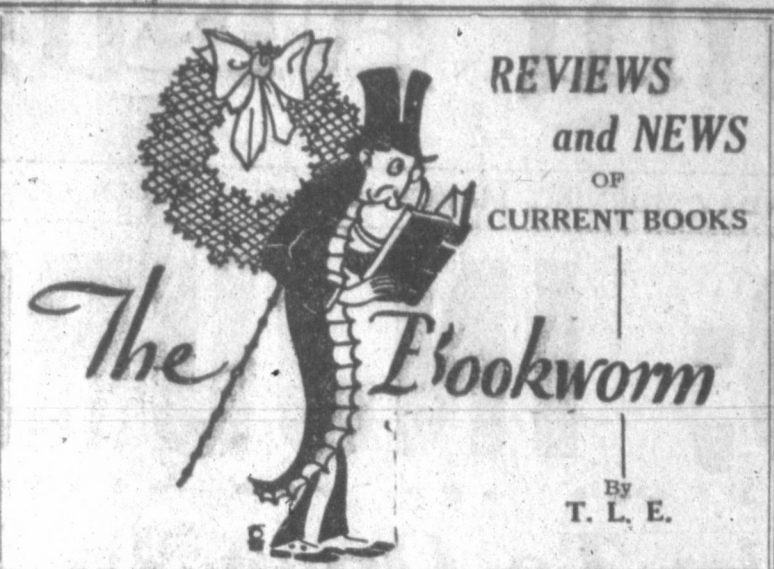

Inter-community relations can be similarly developed for the benefit of all. Interchange of ideas, bartering of products of the farm, visiting of entertainments—all these things make "living at home" more practicable.

Modern Education: If, in her extremity, America logically turns to a university graduate—Franklin D. Roosevelt—is it not true that college educations are rather essential in meeting the crises of modern times?

If this premise is well taken, then proposals to limit free public education to high schools are not logical. If the best training of the colleges is needed to fit men and women to hold offices of high responsibility and great complexities, then high education should be placed as near the average student as possible, with fees as low as possible.

In short, it seems incredible that Texans are ready to debate the standard of education for the common people by making college attendance so costly as to rule out most of the children from wage-earning homes.

The fact that the rent is due again, the income tax blank is waiting, and the coal pile is dwindling may be the reason for that far-away look in dad's eyes as he drops crumbs to the gold fish.

Pampa has had an even dozen mayors since the town was incorporated 21 years ago. All except two of the 12 are living in or near the city now. The deceased are C. A. Duankel and F. P. Reid.

Mr. Reid was the only man who served as mayor at different times. He was mayor for six years, from 1920 to 1924 and from 1925 to 1927.

Mr. Duncan came to Pampa 25 years ago from Duncan, Okla., and has lived here since. He is one of the town's biggest taxpayers, and owns a good position of the business district.

Mr. Wynne holds the distinction of being the oldest-timer of old-timers here. He worked on a number of ranches in the Panhandle before he "settled" in Carson county.

Mr. Hobart should have served at least one term as mayor of Pampa, for if there is one individual by whom residents of other sections of the Panhandle remember Pampa it is Mr. Hobart.

Truck Savings To County Claimed In Recent Analysis

AUSTIN, March 11.—Truck-completed reductions in the cost of hauling Gray county's 1932 cotton crop of 5,184 bales saved farmers $4,924.80, according to figures compiled from state records by the Texas Motor Transportation association, showing cotton production by counties together with the difference in railroad rates applying in Texas up to June 15, 1931, and the temporary rates now in effect.

Based on the difference between the old and the new rates, the total savings that went directly into the pockets of Texas cotton producers, as shown by the association's analysis, amounted to $6,338,871 on a crop of 4,167,937 bales.

The analysis also shows that commercial motor vehicles contributed $1.66 per capita, or $2,599,271 to the state public school fund in the form of one fourth of the gasoline tax paid by trucks in 1932 in some instances, in excess of 75 per cent.

It shows that the state highway department receives from this source more than $8,000,000—enough to pay all highway maintenance costs in 1932 with $492 per mile per year left over. This county's portion was $8,892.38.

A. P. I. Meeting Tuesday To Be Very Informal

The regular monthly meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute Tuesday night in the city auditorium will be in the form of a smoker and get-acquainted session.

After announcing that there will be no speeches (applause), Mr. Moyer will instruct those present to get acquainted, have a cigar or cigarette, and relax while Cal Farley's Arkansas band, the Amarillo college quartet, Dutch Mantell's revellers, and other entertainers swing into action.

The public is invited to attend and become acquainted with the oil men of the Panhandle. There will be no admission and a good time is guaranteed.

VALIANT DUST by Percival Christopher Wren

Chapter 27 FRIENDLY PLOTTERS I AM watching the situation, my dear young lady. There are going to be developments. These vast, uncultivated country, these savage barbarous people who are two hundred, two thousand, years behind the times, have got to—adjust themselves, or be adjusted to the advance of civilization, the march of progress.

"I shall be grateful for your help, Herr Schlicht, if you will give it, should I need it," replied Margaret. "And I shall be glad to help you in any way that I can. But I can't help you by betraying confidences, or repeating things I hear, or anything of that sort. And now I must, and I will, go. So please show me the way out, or I'll try and return by the way I came."

"Yes, that was my idea," agreed Herr Schlicht. "She'd be absolutely staunch to her husband so long as he played the game by her, but I fancy she'd be on the merciful side if he let her down badly, that is to say, if she found out that he was unfaithful to her, as of course he is..."

Tips on CONTRA

By EVERETT BUCKINGHAM The Finesse The finesse is an attempt to take a trick with an honor which is lower than some honor held by the adversaries.

Example No. 1, you lead the Queen from your hand forcing West to cover with the King, provided he holds it, taking the trick in dummy with the Ace leaving the Jack and Ten good. In Example No. 2, you lead a low card from the hand to dummy's A-Q-J and finesse the Jack. If the King lies in West's hand, you will take three tricks, but if the King is held by East, you will only take two tricks.
