Bank Examiner Shot To Death; Bank President Arrested

METEOR BURSTS ON PLAINS

TWINKLES

We're going back to the "Little Red Schoolhouse" tonight at 8 o'clock—back because we attended one of those rural schools when a lad. We're going to meet a fine gentleman, Willie Scales, and his neighbors, Charles Thomas, and the rest. Won't you join us there?

Here's our congratulations to Supt. Baze (he of the three-ply initials, M. L. H.) of Hopkins school and his student glee club. Their singing brings back pleasant memories of our glee club days—that's how good they are.

And here are some more congratulations to "Hoot" Fullingim, who demonstrates that graders can also be articulate. His oratory reminds us that that business men's course in public speaking some months back didn't get a very impressive result, to compare the pupils with Hoot.

These bright students should remind us that students do study. If tired business men gave as much thought and practice to their public appearances they too might get sincere applause!

Pampa has one of the largest per capita payrolls in the United States. If you draw a circle to include those who come here frequently, we didn't invent this statement—it comes from a representative of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Never say Pampa "needs" payrolls. We could use more—we have many.

Considering how many false reports the radio has been carrying lately, we hope this country never has another war. We're quite sure the radio announcers would soon have President Roosevelt a prisoner of the enemy, the navy obliterated, the capital blown up, and gas waves killing whole state's populations.

AS WILL SAY:

With apologies to the McNaught Syndicate we quote Will Rogers on the subject:

BEVERLY HILLS—Here is a suggestion that will help you all out of a lot of anxiety and anguish in case your town or district should be hit by some disaster. Run quick news turn off the radio. Otherwise you will hear where your own home has been swept away by the flood, you have been lost in the fire, and your husband kidnapped.

We had an earthquake out here. That's all we had, which was plenty, but that wasn't enough news for the radio. They added "oil wells overflowing and on fire, a city burning to the ground." And as a P. S. A tidal wave coming in from the ocean.

So in case of disaster, run (don't walk) to the nearest radio and turn it off, for they take delight in killing you, whether you have been killed or not.

MR. BILL DOLLAR

It pays to keep Bill Dollar at work. Tie him up in a moratorium and you see at once the effect on business. Bill helps those with whom he comes in contact. The way to enjoy his benevolent care is to keep him busy. That's as simple as third grade arithmetic. The way to keep him at home is to spend him at home, put him where he will go into a payroll, be spent for groceries and other things, and again run into a payroll. Very simple, indeed, but unfortunately many folks do not stop to add. And there are some people so high powered that they can add two plus two and get 16. The 16-cylinder snobs don't keep Bill Dollar at home.

BE CONSISTENT

And some of those who talk so much about Bill Dollar do not practice what they preach. Some wish Bill and all the little Bills spent with them, but when they spend printing, a fur coat, or something else they don't buy it in Pampa. Such inconsistency, coupled with preaching, does a lot of harm and defeats the whole program. . . . Just occasionally somebody tries to sell an inferior product under the plea of keeping Bill Dollar at home. This too, won't work. . . . But the most despicable

BEER ADS ALLOWED

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Beer advertisements in newspapers were allowed today for the first time in 13 years.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

Judge C. E. Cary en route home from a business trip to Austin, stopped in Wichita Falls today to attend the convention of the County Judges' and Commissioners' association.

I HEARD--

Dr. Walter Purviance approving suggestions for a new course to be studied in Pampa schools. The course, it seems, would be given from the first grade to graduation classes. Every Thursday would be "sliker day" in the schools. All the students will wear slickers and will pass under a light shower of water which instructors will inform them is rain. Dr. Purviance believes that if Los Angeles schools can parade a cow through the streets for the advantage of school children, Pampa can afford to show her students rain.

Jack Cunningham raving about being "woked" up so early this morning. It seems that Jack heard the meteor passing over.

ERNEST SLAIN AFTER MAN IS FOUND 'SHORT'

LIQUIDATOR IS ORDERED TO TAKE CHARGE OF HEADRICK BANK

GIRL WATCHES SLAYING VICTIM WAS EXAMINER IN OKLAHOMA FOR 15 YEARS

HEADRICK, Okla., March 24. (AP)—W. C. Ernest, a state bank examiner, was shot to death here today when he turned from a telephone after asking State Bank Commissioner W. J. Barnett at Oklahoma City to take over the Citizens State bank. J. C. Brock, president of the bank, was arrested after the shooting.

Virginia Doane, bank stenographer, immediately informed the bank commissioner: "As Mr. Ernest quit talking and turned around, Brock shot him through the heart."

"I've just found Brock short," Miss Doane quoted Ernest as saying to the bank commissioner.

Two operatives from the state bureau of criminal investigation at Oklahoma City were despatched to Headrick. Officers from Altus, seat of the county in which Headrick is located, also rushed to the town.

W. B. Jones, bank liquidator of Frederick, was ordered by Barnett to take charge of the Headrick bank. Ernest had been a bank examiner for 15 years and was a valuable, trusted employee, Barnett said. He started examination of the Headrick bank this morning and, after only two hours work, called the bank department to recommend the bank be taken over, the commissioner revealed.

The examiner leaves his widow and two daughters. The body was removed to Altus immediately.

Brewers Deluged With Orders For Legal 3.2 Beer

By The Associated Press
In more than a dozen states voters were bubbling today in preparation for putting legal 3.2 beer on sale April 7.

Breweries reported they were deluged with orders, in New York the suggestion being made that it might be necessary to ration beer among those who had ordered until supply could catch up with demand.

Beer advertisements appeared in newspapers for the first time in 13 years, heralding the date on which sale will be permitted. An informal ruling by Attorney General Cummings held anticipatory advertisements were not infractions of the law.

Another decision by Cummings fixed the time at which sale could begin at midnight in each locality, regardless of time zones.

Legislators in Washington called the beer bill passed by the house yesterday to legalize sale in the District of Columbia a model for state legislatures.

Indict Banker Mitchell

Former Chairman National City Bank Pleads Not Guilty To Tax Evasion

NEW YORK, March 24. (AP)—A plea of not guilty was entered today by Charles E. Mitchell, former chairman of the National City bank, to an indictment returned earlier in the day by federal grand jury charging him with evasion of income taxes of $573,312.81 for the year 1929.

The indictment charges that in 1929 Mitchell's net income was $2,823,405.95, whereas he reported a net loss of $48,000, and therefore paid no tax.

He was charged in the indictment with evading payment of a tax of $573,312.81.

Mitchell resigned the chairmanship of the board of the National City bank and also of the National City company and other affiliates of the bank during the period in which he was a witness before the senate banking committee in its investigations of the stock exchange.

The indictment charged that his income tax for 1929 was erroneous in that he reported a loss from sale of stocks of $1,484,067.53, instead of a profit of $1,388,237.97.

The difference is represented by a loss set up by Mitchell from the sale of 18,300 shares of stock of banks after an examination of the erment contents this was not a bona fide sale.

This was the stock which Mitchell testified before the banking committee that he had repurchased from his wife at $212 a share, the price at which he said he sold it to Mrs. Mitchell although the stock at the time he repurchased it—March 24, 1922—was then selling in the open market at $40 a share.

The indictment contains one count, as there is only one act of evasion charged. The maximum penalty provided for a conviction in such a case is a term of imprisonment for five years and a fine of $10,000, although either imprisonment or fine in any term or amount under the discretion may be imposed at the discretion of the court.

Although designated as "parents" the beginners violin class will give a program in Room 101.

But the feature entertainment of the evening will be at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium when the tumbling team, directed by Harry Kelley, will give a program. Coach Mitchell Jones of West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, will see the tumbling and probably will choose one or three students he considers to be the best tumblers. Acrobatic numbers and caesthetics will be included on this program, and the high school band, directed by R. E. "Pop" Frazier, will play.

CELESTIAL BODY SEEN BY MANY PAMPANS AS IT ROARS ACROSS NORTHERN SKY AT 6 A. M. TODAY

REPORTED TO HAVE HIT EARTH IN OKLAHOMA PANHANDLE SKY PILOT IS WITNESS

AVIATOR THINKS PIECES EXPLODED INTO METEOR TAIL

PAMPA citizens who rose early today and were startled by a meteor which turned darkness into blue-white illumination will not be able to find its remains in the rough country west of the city—the etheral visitor went a long way and was seen in several states at about the same time.

Many who saw the display about 6:05 a. m. thought it barely missed the city and one man declared he thought it was going to hit the Worley building. Three Pampa men returning from Austin, Clyde Fatherson, C. H. Walker, and W. A. Bratton, had just left a train at Clarendon when the darkness was suddenly turned to intense light.

They saw in the west what seemed to be a white light about the size of a full moon, followed by a trail of sparks and light. The meteor seemed to be below the clouds, to judge by the reflection.

Many are curious. Humble Oil and Refining company employees talked of taking a truck to near Skellytown "to bring the meteor back." THE NEWS received many telephone calls. The Associated Press dispatches below indicate the way the meteor appeared in various places.

Local dairymen said their cows became alarmed when the meteor lighted the skies and suspended milking operation for a few minutes. They also said there was a slight tremor, enough to rattle tinware on the shelves. Although the light was intense, they said, it appeared to be far off.

Fell In Oklahoma? AMARILLO, March 24. (AP)—A meteor fell in Oklahoma today. (See METEOR, Page 8)

McIntosh Couple Given Farewell Party At Hotel

Festively honoring Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McIntosh, who are to leave within the next few days to make their home in Breckenridge, a large crowd of friends banqueted and danced last evening. Mr. McIntosh, who was district foreman of the Texas company, will hold the same position in Breckenridge.

The stag banquet for Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Holler was held at the Schneider hotel, while the event for the women was at the Texaco club rooms at Kingsmill. The men later joined the women in the club rooms for a dance.

Judge O. B. Grant of LeFors was toastmaster for the men's event, given by employees of the Texas company and by representatives of other oil companies. Among the special guests were O. R. Burton of Wichita Falls, superintendent of the North Texas division, W. E. McCarthy of Wichita Falls, Howard Neath of the Humble company, Pete Post of the Magovern company, Clyde Shields and Walter Biery of the Prairie-St. Clair company, T. J. Landry and Mr. McSwain from the refinery at Amarillo, and Jack Dolan, J. M. McDonald, and W. B. Hamilton, representatives of the railroad commission. Several speeches were made, and a watch was presented as a parting gift to Mr. McIntosh. Sixty-eight men attended, being served a delicious turkey banquet.

Women of the pipeline and production departments of the Texas company gave the function in the club rooms and presented a beautiful silver set as a farewell gift to Mrs. McIntosh. The Texaco colors, green and red, were emphasized throughout the banquet. Mrs. E. F. Boyles was toastmistress for the occasion, and a fitting program was given.

The Melody Maids of Amarillo furnished music for the dance which followed.

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—The senate judiciary committee today unanimously approved the Copeland bill removing the statutory limitations on the amount of liquor physicians may prescribe.

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Officials of the post office department said today in an informal ruling that legal beer could be sent through the mail after midnight, March 6.

ATTACKS EMPLOYMENT SCHEME AS FORM OF FASCISM

SMACKS OF HITLERISM

STATE BANK RELIEF BILL GOES TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, called the Roosevelt reforestation plan one of the "smacking" of fascism, Hitlerism, and a form of sovietism today in asserting he had deep apprehension of its effect on wage levels.

Appearing before a joint session of the house and senate labor committees, Green said labor also disliked the measure's "regimentation of la-

35 Offer Blood For Transfusion; Reed's Accepted

Two hours after The NEWS appeared on the street Wednesday afternoon, 35 persons had appeared at Pampa hospital to offer blood to save the life of Mrs. Frank Scott, who has been critically ill for some weeks.

The blood of C. Reed was found to be satisfactory and a transfusion made immediately. This morning Mrs. Scott was reported out of danger. However, to insure recovery, another transfusion was to be given this afternoon.

Two previous transfusions had been given, but as Mrs. Scott's blood was of type 3, few suitable tests could be found.

I SAW--

Andy Andrews of the Pla-Mou with a week's growth of whiskers and beard on his face. He denied that he had joined the House of David, and explained that somebody's whiskers has got to grow faster and thicker than his in order to win the $25 prize he will give away April 27 at a frontier dance at the Pla-Mou. The man who has the longest and thickest beard and whiskers will win the prize.

L. N. "Irish" Brashears, editor of the White Deer Review, and he said he saw the meteor burst into three pieces right over Skellytown, and that each piece went a different direction—which might account for the stories that the meteor fell in both Oklahoma and Arizona.

MISS MAY AND FRENCH GROUP PRESENT PLAY

SONGS, DANCES, AND LECTURE ALSO HOLD INTEREST

SUAVE Frenchmen and fascinating French girls were impersonated by several members of the A. A. U. W. at a meeting of that organization last evening in the city hall club rooms, and the little play was indicative of the accomplishments of the French study group, taught by Miss Wilma May.

The play, Cupidon, Dentiste (Cupid, the Dentist), was presented by the following characters: Dentist, Mrs. Earl O'Keefe; young man, Miss Wilma Chapman; girl, Mrs. R. E. Kolmer; older woman, Mrs. A. N. Dilley Jr.; old man, Mrs. H. H. Hahn; office girl, Mrs. T. E. Simmons.

Miss May gave an English interpretation of the play, which was spoken in French, and later gave an instructive talk on French words used—and misused—in this country.

Two dances were given by Miss Kathryn Vincent, the first being an interpretive dance of the French revolution, and the second being a peasant dance.

Miss Vincent was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Keehn, as was Mrs. A. N. Dilley Jr., who sang two songs in French.

Mrs. E. C. Will presided for the business session, during which plans for this year and next year were discussed and a report from the Council of Clubs was given by Mrs. O'Keefe. About thirty-five persons attended.

At the next meeting, to be held at the Schneider hotel April 30, the nominating committee will recommend officers for next year.

Mrs. Charles C. Cook was a guest at the tea hour, while members joining in the games were Mesdames A. M. Martini, A. B. Goldston, E. M. Conley, H. D. Keys, L. N. McCullough, J. H. Kelley, I. B. AMERICAN ART IS STUDIED BY WOMEN'S GROUP

GATHERING IS HELD BY CHILD STUDY GROUP ON THURSDAY

THE Child Study club met with Mrs. Robert Gilchrist at 2:30 o'clock Thursday, the subject for study being early American painters. Mrs. Frank McAfee, as leader for the afternoon, gave a very interesting paper on the different kinds of paintings, including such well-known types of landscapes, sea pictures, and portraits.

The pioneer American painters date back to the declaration of independence, it was pointed out.

Mrs. S. D. Stennis discussed American sea painters and their famous works. Winslow Homer and Alexander Harrison, both American-born, and great painters whose keynote was "true to nature," were discussed by Mrs. Burton Fitzsimmons.

Mrs. A. H. Doucette gave an interesting sketch of Gilbert Stuart, who is known as the painter of presidents. He began portrait painting at the age of 14 years. Mrs. Roy Tinsley concluded the lesson with a discussion of John La Forge and Abbott H. Thayer.

Refreshments were served to one visitor, Mrs. W. R. Kaufman, and the following members: Mesdames A. H. Doucette, A. N. Dilley Jr., H. W. Johns, Frank McAfee, Horace McBee, Roger McConnell, T. C. Shaw, S. D. Stennis, Rufe B. Thompson, Roy Tinsley, Sherman White, Burton Fitzsimmons, and the hostess.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, cakes, and coffee were served to Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McCleskey, Mr. and Mrs. Willard McAdams and Ludeen, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reeves, Mrs. Reeves of Jericho, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Andis and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Andis and Lucille, of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones and Ruby Lee, Dolan and J. L. Jim Babeock, Charles Edmanson, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ritter and children.

The club reporter made the following statement: "In January when the club was reorganized it was suggested we devote every second meeting to entertainments. We have had nearly 100 per cent attendance and have three new members. We have done more good work already than during the entire year of 1932. Quilting, sewing, and canning have been the means of assistance used. This is not a home demonstration club, but just a friendly, helping club."

Another meeting will be held soon in the home of Mrs. Willard McAdams.

Grandview Club Is Hostess For Backward Party

"Backward, turn backward your clothes for tonight," is what was urged—and 42 persons enjoyed a backward party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Looper. The event was given by the Grandview club.

Numerous games including "a penny for your thought," "silence," "freeze," and "cross questions" were played until 10:30, and games of dominoes followed. Mr. McCleskey and Mrs. Reeves won high score in dominoes, and Miss Lucille Andis and Mr. Andis took the booby prizes. Partners were drawn by unraveling a string to find who was on the other end.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, cakes, and coffee were served to Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McCleskey, Mr. and Mrs. Willard McAdams and Ludeen, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reeves, Mrs. Reeves of Jericho, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Andis and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Andis and Lucille, of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones and Ruby Lee, Dolan and J. L. Jim Babeock, Charles Edmanson, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ritter and children.

Included with other passages to be from the Bible will be the following from Jeremiah 29: "For I know the thought that I think toward you saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. . . . And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart."

Citations will also be read from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," one citation being as follows (p. 264): "Spiritual living and blessedness are the only evidences, by which we can recognize true existence and feel the unspeakable peace which comes from an all-absorbing spiritual love."

"When we learn the way in Christian Science and recognize man's spiritual being, we shall behold and understand God's creation—all the glories of earth and heaven and man."

Railroad Commission Faces Struggle With Federal Courts

ECONOMY IN LEGISLATURE NOT POPULAR

REORGANIZATION BILLS FINALLY IGNORED BY SOLONS

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—The plan to completely reorganize the Texas governmental set-up has failed to arouse the favor among members of the legislature that had been popularly anticipated.

Sponsors of reorganization claim that if their recommendations are carried out the state will be saved hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, but their assertions seem to have caused only passing interest. When the first hearing on the bill was held at a joint meeting of the house and senate state affairs committees, only a sprinkling of representatives and senators attended.

Although the jobs of thousands of state employees would be effected, only a scattering of department heads and employees were at the hearing and many left during the presentation of the bill.

One of the reasons advanced for the lack of interest in the bill is the belief by many members that it stands little chance of passing. The recommendations are so drastic and far-reaching that it will require lengthy consideration by the legislature before they are placed into effect. It was pointed out that succeeding legislatures would, perhaps, give force to all of the recommendations, but the enactments would be piecemeal and the reforms not brought about in one sweeping action.

Even sponsors of the bill were not enthusiastic over the chances of the bill's passing, admitting that it would take several years for the proposed reorganization to be fully comprehended by the legislature and the people.

New Way Ends Body Odor At Its Source

Famous chemists have discovered the effective answer for body odor—deep-pore cleansing. A new kind of bathing made possible by Kirk's Coco Castile soap.

Ordinary soaps, with their thick, sluggish lathers, are being rapidly replaced by this 100% pure vegetable oil soap, made by America's largest soap makers. Even in hard water, Kirk's Coco Castile breaks instantly into a searching lather that cleans deep into the pores, actually removes stale perspiration beyond reach of ordinary soaps, then rinses out in a flash. Thus body odor is ended in the only effective way—by removing the cause.

Kirk's Coco Castile is delightful to use and stimulating to the skin. Free from offensive M. S. (medicine smell), it ends body odor the odorless way. A big bargain, 50 per cent larger than ordinary toilet soaps, it is sold everywhere at the lowest price in history. Be sure to ask for Kirk's Castile by name—at your grocer's.

LITIGANT FEES BILL PENDING

Measure Would Require Payment of Part of Costs In State Courts.

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—A bill to require litigants to pay a substantial part of the cost of maintaining state courts is pending in the Texas legislature. The bill, introduced by Sen. John S. Redditt of Lufkin, has been given a favorable committee report.

Senator Redditt said that court litigants constituted only about three per cent of the state's taxpayers and that it was unfair to require the other 97 per cent to pay as much to the support of courts as the favored three per cent.

Redditt's bill would require the plaintiff and defendant to pay $3 each in every case filed in district court. The cost of taking an appeal to the court of civil appeals would be $10. The person who appealed to the supreme court would be assessed a $15 charge. The cost of an original action in the supreme court would be $25.

Only one fee would be charged each side in a district court suit. If there were 20 defendants, they would pay a combined fee of only $3.

Redditt said the English courts, the federal court and courts in a majority of the state assessed fees (in litigants). He estimated that the suggested fees in Texas would aggregate almost a half million dollars annually.

ENDS LONG CHASE
WALTHAM, Mass. (INS)—When John B. Sinclair, of this city, heard a St. Augustine, Florida, jury returned a verdict of guilty against John Refkin, of Providence, R. He was captured later in Hartford, Conn., extradited to Florida and convicted of larceny.

JUDGE BRYANT CITES AGENCY FOR CONTEMPT

10,000 WELLS IN EAST TEXAS ORDERED SHUTDOWN

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—Oil production under proration control in the huge East Texas field faced an uncertain future today as the federal courts and the Texas Railroad Commission, oil administration agency, were matched in a test of authority.

The commission ordered the approximately 10,000 wells in the field shutdown at 9 a. m., next Monday, shortly after Federal Judge Randolph Bryant, sitting at Beaumont, cited members of the commission late yesterday to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

Judge Bryant ordered Commissioners G. V. Terrell, Lon A. Smith and Ernest O. Thompson to appear before him at Sherman April 8 and show proof why they should not be punished for "attempting to evade the orders and decrees of this court by making and putting into effect orders different in form but not in substance" from those held invalid last week by a three-judge federal court decision.

The shutdown ordered by the commission for next Monday would be for an indefinite period, the wells being authorized to flow to maximum capacity through tubing for two hours, from 7 a. m. to 9 a. m., before the shut down, for the purpose of a test of the field potential.

R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the commission's oil and gas division, said the wells might be closed "an hour or a week," depending on the commission's decision in the matter.

Unofficial sources at Longview predicted that 600,000 barrels of oil would be produced during the two-hour open flow period, and asserted that all storage facilities were full. Parker, however, said he believed storage and pipeline facilities would be adequate.

The three-judge federal court decision filed at Tyler March 17 held that the commission's January 1 proration order, setting a field allowable of 290,000 barrels daily, was invalid because the method used in devising it was not fair as to allocation of production between various wells. The order had limited individual producers to a maximum daily production of 28 barrels and a maximum of 31, depending on bottom-hole pressure, acreage and per well factors.

That decision was in the case of the People's Petroleum Producers. Inc. of a group of suits tried as an omnibus proceeding before Circuit Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson and Federal District Judge W. I. Grubb and Bryant at Houston.

KILGORE, March 24. (AP)—Considerable doubt was manifested here today whether the new order of the state railroad commission closing 10,000 wells in the East Texas oil field Monday could be carried out readily.

Some operators expressed belief that only the national guard would be able to close all wells and expressed dissatisfaction with the latest provision of the regulatory body.

Humble officials reported to the commission offices today they did not have sufficient storage to take care of a two-hour, full-capacity run, ordered by the commission from 7 a. m. to 9 a. m. Monday. Capt. E. N. Stanley at the commission headquarters had no comment to make other than to say it would be a difficult task to close the wells.

Action To Expel All Jews Taken By German State

BERLIN, March 24. (AP)—Adolf Hitler's legalized four-year term as dictator began today with one western German state taking action which is expected to lead to the expulsion of all eastern Jews within its borders.

The legislative bodies of both German Reich and its greatest unit, Prussia, have been indefinitely suspended. The signature of President Paul von Hindenburg to the decrees which Hitler may desire to enact is no longer necessary as a result of the Reichstag's action yesterday in granting absolute power to the chancellor.

The Hitler government's commissioner in Palestine, a state lying between the British and the French frontier, has ordered that no bank or postal funds be delivered to eastern Jews. The ban, invoked until they settle all business obligations, foreshadowed a general expulsion order.

Most of the eastern Jews in Palestine emigrated there from Poland since 1914. (An estimated two-fifths of the eastern Jewish population of Europe—3,500,000—came under the Polish domination after the war and this total has decreased by nearly one million.) A British inquiry commission reported 248 Jews killed and many more wounded in Poland in the first year after the war and there have been many outbreaks since then in that country.)

He did construct the first telescope, but only after hearing of the experience of the boy at Lippershey's spectacle shop. Galileo was the first to turn the telescope toward the heavens, and soon the whole world was agog with his startling discoveries.

SIXTY-FIVE MILLION TO BE SPENT ON BREWERIES NOW, EXPERT SAYS

By J. R. BRACKETT, Associated Press Business Writer.
NEW YORK, March 24. (AP)—L. Selig Schmitman, chief statistician of the F. W. Dodge corporation, estimated today more than $65,000,000 will be spent in the next few months for new breweries and for alterations and additions to old ones.

The estimate was based on reports from 37 states east of the Rockies, and a statistical calculation for the far western states.

The figure did not include expenditures for building and rehabilitating retail establishments. It covered only a small proportion of the sums to be spent for brewery equipment, and none of the other expenses incidental to starting the brewing industry. The total has been estimated by the United States Brewers' association at $400,000,000.

Schmitman said 170 reports of brewery construction had been received since December 1, covering 37 eastern states. The total for these states was $58,000,000 and he believed another $7,000,000 at least would be required for the western states.

In the Pittsburgh area $6,000,000 will be spent on 36 projects, this district includes the western half of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, and Kentucky.

About $9,000,000 was to be spent on 35 constructions in the Chicago area, including upper Illinois, lower Wisconsin, Indiana, and Iowa.

Among the 29 reported projects from the metropolitan area of New York, including northern New Jersey, which will spend an estimated total of $15,000,000 is a $5,000,000 operation by Jacob Ruppert, and $2,500,000 plant by the New Amsterdam Brewing company.

About $2,000,000 was listed for Texas.

Moffett Would Limit Seats Of Cities In Texas

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—Rep. George Moffett of Chillicothe, leader of a movement in the Texas house of representatives to prevent the concentrated areas of population from gaining a majority of the seats, has compiled some interesting figures in support of a proposed constitutional amendment to limit the representation of cities.

Moffett's proposed amendment would limit any county to six representatives unless its population exceeded 600,000, in which event the county would be permitted one representative for each 100,000 population above 600,000.

To support his contention that representation in the legislature should not be based on population alone, Moffett made a survey of the states of the union. He found that 30 of the 48 states apportioned their representation on a basis other than population.

Moffett's main objections to basing representation in Texas on population is the state's size and the number of sparsely settled areas.

Goliath Simply Had Case of 'Giantism'

DALLAS, March 24. (AP)—Dr. Bollivar J. Lloyd, medical director of the United States public health service, predicted at the Pan-American medical congress today that plague would remain a menace to the world for several centuries although it never would become serious in the United States.

Goliath, in common with twentieth century giants, suffered from overactive pituitary glands, located at the base of the brain, Dr. J. B. Johnston of Galveston declared at a meeting of the radiology section. "He lived today," he said, "we would have used deep x-ray therapy to arrest the cause of giantism."

MINOR MIGHT BE CANDIDATE

Denton Representative Due To Run For Attorney General In 1934.

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—Fred Minor of Denton, speaker of the house of representatives in the 42nd Texas legislature, is being proposed by his friends for attorney general. It is considered certain he will be a candidate in 1934 although there is a likelihood he would not make the race should James V. Allred, the incumbent, decide to ask for a third term.

Everybody thinks Allred will become a candidate for governor. Some have mentioned him as a probable aspirant to the seat in the United States senate now held by Tom Connally of Marlin. Still others say the young attorney general has not made up his mind to quit the office he now holds, probably having not decided about his political future.

Minor is said to be prepared to run for attorney general. There likely will be other candidates for this "stepping stone" place.

It is pretty early to have surmises of probable candidates, but the name of Coke Stevenson of Junction, speaker of the house, is heard mentioned frequently as good timber for state office, anything from governor down.

Pat M. Neff was the last governor who first was speaker of the house. Few speakers, it seems, ever go to the chief executive's office. That rule, however, has not applied so rigidly to speakers as to lieutenant governors. The governorship has seemed almost unattainable for a lieutenant governor. Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt of Waco hopes to smash that jinx next time, however. He is almost certain to be a candidate for governor.

Chemical Elements of Nine Meteors Which Never Touched Earth Known

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor
AMBRIDGE, Mass., March 24.—The chemical elements in nine meteors which never touched the earth were announced today at Harvard astronomical observatory. The momentary flash of light of the shooting stars, 50 to 70 miles ahead, alone was used to reveal what the meteors were made of. The method is an unpassed piece of scientific detective work.

It makes possible a study of the atoms of dust, stones and minerals which fly incessantly through space, always dark and invisible, except for the instant when one of them strikes the earth's atmosphere and ends its existence in a bright flash of light. About 100,000 of them strike the atmosphere every 24 hours.

The nine meteors revealed their makeup through study of their spectra by means of photographs of their light taken through prisms. The studies were made by Dr. P. Millman.

They showed that six and possibly seven of the meteors were mostly iron. All contained some calcium, and the stuff which sometimes turns red the smoke of great mills. Two had aluminum of there was chromium in one, possibly two.

Silicon, one of the earth's most abundant elements, was barely indicated as a strong probability. Millman's study noted that the elements of greenish hue contained considerable magnesium.

NATIONAL POLICY
Every community is expected to care for its own unemployed and dependents. If you are destitute and leave home, you'll be told very promptly to go back to the city of your residence and to stay there. Transients are getting little help these days. No community is independent, but localizing of the welfare burden is no less thorough under the present national policy than that of taxation. . . . It is a parallel policy to build community stability from within, keeping payrolls going, in order to meet that local need.

CONSISTENCY, AGAIN
Somebody handed us this: "When things go wrong, as they sometimes will, When the road you're treading seems all uphill, When funds are low and the debts are high, And you want to smile but you have to sigh, When care is pressing you down a bit, Rest if you must, but don't you quit. Life is queer with its twists and turns, As everyone of us sometimes learns, And many a failure turns about When he might have won if he'd stuck out.

Don't give up, though the pace seems slow— You may succeed with another blow. Often the goal is nearer than it seems; It's just that you're faint and your feet aren't clean. After the struggler has given up, After the victor has captured the victor's cup, And he learned too late, when the night slipped down, How close he was to the golden crown. Success is failure turned inside out— The silver tint of the clouds of doubt, And you never can tell how close you are— It may be near when it seems afar; So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit— It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit."

Pampa Eliminated In One-Act Play Contest in Canyon

The Pampa high school one-act play cast lost in the first round of the one-act play tournament at Canyon today to Panhandle. One judge voted for Pampa and two, both of Amarillo, for Panhandle. The Pampa play cast, largely inexperienced in competition, is coached by Miss Arless O'Keefe, whose teams in other years have distinguished themselves in stage appearances.

The play used the same as last year, is "The High Heart," with 9 characters and a war spy theme. The characters are: Major Cranston, in Stone; General Dodge, Henry; Lieut. Richards, Norman; Agnes Cranston, Dorothy; Mrs. Peyton, Miss Roy; Blaylock, Augustus, a negro servant; Seron Doucette, Sam Davis, spy; Stephens, two soldiers, Jack; and Richmond Eastup.

The cast and Miss O'Keefe went to Canyon last evening. They knew before they left they would meet Panhandle high's team at 10 a. m. and that the winner would meet Panhandle at 8 p. m. tonight. The finals will be Saturday evening. Panhandle's team is composed of 4 boys.

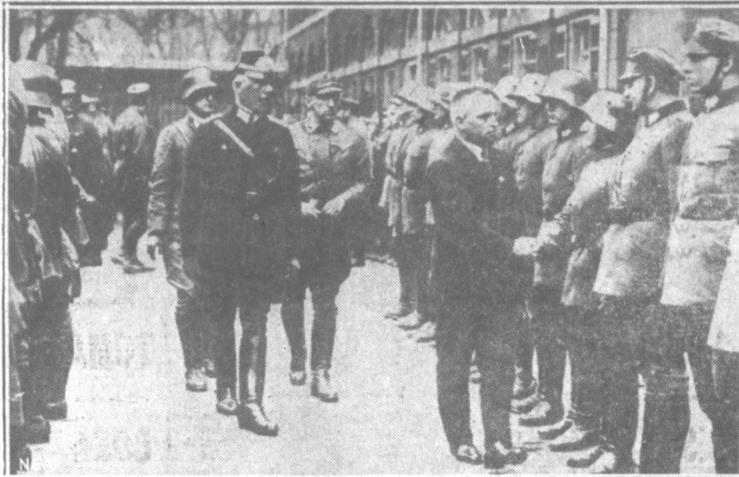

Last year the local team was eliminated by Miami, which then won the meet.

POST MORTEM BY TOM O'NEIL

In discussion after a rubber of what might have been, Mrs. Augusta Dinwiddie, who learned the game in New Orleans, has proved a keen analyst in New York bridge clubs.

After a lively rubber which her side eventually won she was congratulated by partner.

"Well, she remarked, "We failed to bid a slam that could have been made. We bid one in the wrong suit and were set. We had a better chance in another suit. We could have set the enemy."

"What a break for us!" chimed in an opponent.

"Well," said Mrs. Dinwiddie, "you could have set us more on that slam we tried."

Here are the details:

MRS. DINWIDDIE - NORTH
WEST		EAST
♠ 7 6 5	♠ 4 3 2	♠ K J 8	♠ 10 7
♥ 7 2	♥ 6 4 2	♥ A 10 7	♥ 5 3

SOUTH		DEALER
♠ 10 4 2		♠ A 10 7
♥ A 10 8 6 5		♥ 4 3
♦ 8 5 3		♦ 7 4

Not vulnerable, Mrs. Dinwiddie opened the auction fourth hand with an offer of three no trump, which was passed all around.

The declarer lost only one trick, to the ace of diamonds. She took a club finesse and discarded two spades on South's hearts. A heart was opened.

"There seemed to be no slam possibilities in my hand," said South. "That's why I left you a three no trump."

"Had you bid hearts over the no trump," said the declarer, "we would have reached a slam. I did not want to open with a two-club bid, forcing, because my longest suit was a four-carder."

The four players were still discussing the possibility of a two no trump bid over a two heart response.

Shaw 'Knows More Of America Than Its Inhabitants'

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24. (AP)—George Bernard Shaw, the 77-year-old British playwright, arrived on the American Mainland today for the first time with the abrupt pronouncement that he "knew more of America than its inhabitants."

He told a mass of interviewers and cameramen that Americans elected their public officials "because the candidates had their pictures taken with a baby in their arms."

During a discussion of the Tom Mooney case (Mooney was convicted of participation in the predecessor parade bombing at San Francisco in 1916) Shaw stated Americans "were Romantics in their treatment of the whole criminal system."

"You Americans can get remanded about 20 to 30 years in prison," he said, "but to a man in prison six months is terrible. I hesitate to express an opinion regarding Mooney. Generally I would say to bury a man alive in a vault for 17 years is extremely foolish. I am a forger of courts or police. But if Mooney is not fit to live, have the courage to shoot him. It would be a great relief to me if the governor of your state would pardon Mooney."

The United States, he charged, was a drinking nation because it was an unhappy nation.

"A sick man is given chloroform for an operation but in your crowded cities, when a man gets sick from excessive hours of labor, he takes alcohol."

"I am a teetotaler but I can't expect the United States to come up to my standards. I don't like it, I don't need it."

"Are there any happy people?" a questioner asked.

"Yes, there are, in the cemeteries, I suppose."

"I don't know how Hitler will turn out," he answered a questioner. "The whole German people are in a state of suspense and chaos. They are trying out Hitler like you are trying out Mr. Roosevelt. In four years I will be able to tell you about them."

Hamilton Child Has Astounding Presence of Mind

The astounding efficiency and memory of a 4-year-old girl was demonstrated last night by Jerry Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton. The tot was in bed when she heard her mother call that she was fainting. Instead of becoming hysterical, the child called a physician at his office and when no one answered she called his residence, asking for the correct number, and told him to come at once, that her mother was ill.

The child then called the railroad commission office, where Mr. Hamilton is assistant deputy supervisor, and told someone there to call her daddy at the Schneider hotel where Mr. Hamilton was attending a banquet. She then called a next door neighbor.

Pastor Gives Tip On Whisky Still

AMARILLO, March 24. (AP)—The aid of local church workers is making it possible for Sheriff Bill Adams to stay a jump ahead of the bootleggers.

Acting on the tip of a pastor, he seized the second still of the week today, this time before it was taken from the tin shop where it had been made to order. It was a duplicate of the still which Adams, acting on the tip of a Sunday school boy, seized earlier in the week in operation.

Three men were arrested in connection with the first raid, and the fourth was placed under bond today after the tin shop owner had named him as the purchaser of the equipment.

Matsuo Arrives At New York As Chinese Protest

NEW YORK, March 24. (AP)—Yosuke Matsuo, head of the Japanese delegation to the League of Nations, arrived in America with five fellow delegates today and asserted that Japan was "not appealing to anyone, for it is not a vassal state to America or any other nation."

He also suggested that Japanese American feeling might be improved if the United States would withdraw its fleet from the Pacific ocean.

He said he did not know whether or not Japan intended to withdraw from the League of Nations. In answer to a specific question, he declared that Japan had no intention of relinquishing the mandated islands whether or not it remained in the league.

A crowd of Chinese were gathered in the street outside the pier as the Leviathan docked with Matsuo and his fellow delegates. They had congregated to protest against what they said was Matsuo's intention to engage in a campaign of propaganda while in America.

A party consisting of about 150 uniformed men and detectives had been assigned to the dock to prevent possible disorder. One Chinese, Lin Nap Hin, a student, was held for questioning after police found that he had a revolver with him. He played a permit to carry the weapon.

Hitler Ambition To Regain Islands Worries Japanese

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Adolf Hitler's ambition to recover the colonies wrested from Germany by the allied powers apparently has added to the Japanese apprehension over their mandated islands in the Pacific, an apprehension first aroused by suggestions that Japan's resignation from the League of Nations would make it necessary for them to give up the islands.

Yosuke Matsuo, Japanese delegate to the Geneva disarmament conference, who was due to arrive in this country today on his way back to Japan, has taken a strong stand in defense of Japan's mandate over the islands, saying it was granted by the supreme allied council, not by the League of Nations, and that membership in the league is not essential to its validity.

Japan's conception of mandated territories is at variance with that of other powers. Japanese spokesmen have repeatedly said their mandate over the hundreds of former German islands scattered along the route between the Philippines and Hawaii is equivalent to ownership.

President Wilson subscribed to no such conception at the Versailles conference. However, Japanese spokesmen insist Great Britain and France agreed to it.

The Japanese may capture the German-owned islands in the Marshall, Mariana and Carolina group soon after Japan entered the war on the side of the allies. Their strategic position makes them important to Japanese naval defense.

Japan has repeatedly denied that she is fortifying the islands.

Events tomorrow will start at 9 o'clock. Volley ball will be in the gymnasium, tennis behind the high school building, and playground ball on the Sam Houston diamonds on North Frost street. Teams from McLean, Alameda, LeFors, Pampa high, Junior high, and ward schools, and also from several rural schools will take part in the meet tomorrow.

Supervisors tomorrow will be: A. L. Patrick, boys' playground ball; J. A. Meek, girls' playground ball; T. H. McDonald, tennis; J. L. Lester, volleyball. R. A. Selby will be supervisor of the meet.

Tennis and playground ball will take nearly all day, as there are eight teams in each bracket and there are three brackets. Volley ball will be finished tomorrow night with one game scheduled for 7:30 o'clock and the other game set for 8:30 o'clock. The first game will be for the ward school title and the second game for junior high and high school title.

Mr. Lester will be out to win his third consecutive county volleyball title and permanent possession of a large cup. However, the LeFors high school team is favored to take the event this year.

HARRIS PREDICTS 'SCHOOLBOY' WILL BE PITCHING SENSATION

But Purdy Says Texas Will Be Released After May 15 or Thereabouts.

Associated Press Sports Writer "Bucky" Harris, Detroit manager, believes that "Schoolboy" Rowe will develop into a rookie pitching sensation this season for the Tigers.

"Pud" Purdy, who played center field part of last season for Dallas and now listed with Indianapolis of the American Association, doesn't believe Rowe will show enough to stick with the Tigers after May 15 which is cutting-down time for the major leagues.

"Where they get a license to predict great things for Rowe is beyond me," commented Purdy. "For any pitcher with a knowledge of pitching knows exactly what Rowe is going to throw. In other words, he telegraphs his curve, fast ball or change of pace. I predict he will be shipped to some minor league team May 15."

Manager Harris plans to start the season with huge Henry Greenberg on third base. Purdy saw Greenberg play first base last season for Beaumont. During the conversation concerning Rowe, he switched to Greenberg's qualifications as a third sacker.

"That's another one who will be on his way May 15. I don't believe Harris is really serious about making that giant a third baseman," said Purdy.

But whether Purdy agrees with Manager Harris, it is a fact Harris believes Rowe will win many games for Detroit and that Greenberg will develop into a passable fielding third sacker and stick on the hot corner this season for the Tigers.

Purdy's Status

The handwriting on the baseball fence indicates that Purdy will not play outfield for Indianapolis this season but will be transferred to the Fort Worth Cats. Instead of working out with Indianapolis at Hot Springs, Purdy was sent to Mineral Wells to workout with the Cats and keep a scouting eye on the work of Charlie Biggs, pitcher, and George Washington, Fort Worth outfielder.

Although small, Purdy has always been a dangerous hitter and a fast outfielder. He is several pounds overweight due to a recent operation, but claims he is in the best condition since he was an outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds several years ago.

He was a holdout for a short time this season and requested Indianapolis to arrange a deal whereby he could play with Dallas, but his request was denied.

Whisky Raid By County Officers Nets 22 Gallons

Officers of the sheriff's department confiscated 22 1/2 gallons of whisky in a raid in the southwest part of the city Wednesday night.

The liquor was in two 10-gallon wooden kegs and 5 half-gallon fruit jars, besides one jar partly full.

O. C. Williams was arrested and named in a complaint charging possession of liquor for purpose of sale. He was arraigned in Justice W. S. Baxter's court and released on $500 bond.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT STUDIED BY MERTEN CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

Merten home demonstration club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. T. Hargis with 10 members present. The president, Mrs. J. H. Smith, was in charge. The meeting was opened by the club song, Morning Comes Early, and the club prayer followed. Roll call was answered by each paying 5 cents to the scholarship fund, and by-laws were adopted.

The second lesson in county government was conducted by Mrs. C. B. Haney. Mrs. Haney's cheese was selected to be sent to Plainview for the cheese grading, and eight persons reported they had made shoe racks like those demonstrated by Miss Ruby Adams at the last meeting. Extension work also was reported.

It was voted to have the club's third recreational party Saturday evening, April 1.

A beautiful end table was presented to Mrs. Fred C. Fischer by the club as a birthday gift, and the hostess served refreshments.

The combination of a wealthy new ownership and one of baseball's brainiest strategists as business manager probably won't produce any miracles with the tall-end Boston Red Sox this year.

Tom Shawkey, who has had five years before even the famous Ruppert bankroll achieved notable results with the Yankees. They probably will be delighted if the club climbs out of the cellar this year, a stunt that has been made in both the infield and outfield under the "new deal."

The prospective starting lineup is a bit heavy-footed but it will pack enough batting dynamite to give the pitching defense a plenty of scoring assistance. Dale Alexander, the diminutive new-comer, the diminutive new-comer, Bob Kline, 220-pound sinker-ball expert; and Ivy Paul Andrews, who turned in sensational work last season after being obtained from the Yankees. Andrews won 10 and lost 7 with tail-end support.

In addition to Bob (Lefty) Weiland and Gordon (Dusty) Rhodes, the pitching possibilities include two promising novices. One is Lefty Allen Jones, from the University of Mississippi, professor of an explosive "hip-handle" curve, and the other is Justin McLaughlin, also a portside, recalled from Scranton.

The catching will be better this year if Johnny Gooch and Mervyn Shea make good their comeback attempts. The attempted conversion of Jolley from the outfield to a post behind the bat is still an experiment.

Alexander is no Hal Chase at first, but a hard worker and a real slugger. Hodapp has the call at second base. Gregory Mulleavy's hitting may give him an edge over "Rabbit" Warster at short. Manager McManus has a rival for the third base job in Barney Friberg, formerly of the Phillies.

Camp followers at Sarasota look for a starting combination of Roy Johnson, Bob Seeds and Johnny Watwood in the outfield, with Pothergill, Tom Oliver and Tom Win-

SCOUTS

The treasury is empty and if the towns in the council electing a new treasurer they must lend their support. Pampa, as the headquarters city, should take the lead in maintaining the program.

Meantime, Scout activities are continuing at a fast pace. A court of honor will be held in Berger tonight and another will take place in Pampa Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the district court room under the direction of the Rev. A. A. Hyde, chairman. The public is invited.

This local court of honor will serve as part of the first lesson in the adult leaders' training course which will follow the boys' service. The court of honor will be brief, then W. O. Christian will take charge of the training course, which is available to men interested in learning Scouting and training of boys.

Perryton, recently organized for Scouting, now has three troops, one with 33 boys. Hooker, Okla., and Texoma likewise are becoming active. There are more than 800 registered Scouts in the council, and another hundred not yet enrolled officially.

It was emphasized that the public should hear the court of honor Monday evening. Judge W. R. Ewing will be the principal speaker.

MITCHELL'S "APPAREL FOR WOMEN"

WOCKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Personals. One of the first official acts of Eddie Collins as boss of the Red Sox was to tell Marty Burke that he was no longer to be a bench warmer. Eddie Collins was too young to become a bench warmer and Buck Harris quit the diamond for the plank too soon. Marty Burke, who became so proficient as a sparring partner that he was no longer could hit him, is doing well now as a promoter in New Orleans. Derby talk drifts to Dynastic. He was unplaced only twice in 10 starts as a 2-year-old and finished third in the Futurity and Kentucky Jockey club stakes. They are saying Gallant Sir is the horse Pillow Flight has to beat to win the Agua Caliente Derby.

The Baseball Book. Tom Kearney of St. Louis, one of the biggest "storekeepers" in the United States, issues his odds on the baseball races. The Yankees are a 3 to 5 choice to repeat. Odds in the American League range from that to 100 to 1 on the Browns and Red Sox. But the longest price you can get on a National League team is the Cincinnati Reds. You're sure to see the Cincinnati Reds. This indicates that the National is far and away the better balanced league. And seems to confirm the predictions of certain ball players to the effect that the Yanks would be far in front by July 4.

ROOSEVELT

Earlier, General Douglas McArthur, chief of staff of the army, had denied the bill was a "draft act" by which men would be picked up on the streets and forced to go to camp whether they wanted to or not. Lewis Douglas, the budget director, testified that all new public works contracts had been subjected to a "temporary stop order" by the administration to save funds to finance the proposal.

Green cited the proposal to send the men to army posts to support his claim it was "regimentation of labor" and said he saw no need for that sort of military organization and control. Asserting that the proposal was "highly objectionable to labor," Green said it "violates the very spirit of voluntarism and freedom of personal action."

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—The Robinson-Steagall bill for the relief of state banks went to the White House today for President Roosevelt's signature.

Congressional action was completed yesterday. About noon, Speaker Rainey, signed and Vice President Garner did so while lunching in the senate restaurant. Both of the presiding officers were given special authority by the branches over which they preside to sign the measure even though the house and senate were not in session. The bill permits the Federal Reserve banks in their discretion to make loans to non-bank state banks after an examination of the applying banks and the written endorsement of the proper state banking authorities.

14 STATES READY BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourteen states already have arranged conventions to act on the question of repeal of the eighteenth amendment and legislation for such conventions is pending in 24 states. Thirty-six of the 48 states must ratify the 21st amendment—providing for repeal of the 18th—before liquor may be sold legally in this country.

I. C. GIVEN AUTHORITY WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Legislation to repeal the railroad recapture clause and give the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to regulate railroad holding companies was approved today by the house interstate commerce committee.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

A baseball training trip usually costs a major league club from $15,000 to $25,000. . . but with excursion rates on the railroads this year the cost will be cut down. . . receipts for the exhibition games are an important factor. . . last year the Red Sox drew $8 at one of their games. . . but the Yankees have prospered at St. Petersburg. . . when the teams started north, Lewis along the way used to lie awake night waiting for the big leaguers to arrive. . . now they just yawn when the teams arrive for a game.

Mrs. Hazel Rains, 315 E. Kingsmill, entertained a group of friends with a three-table bridge party on Wednesday evening. AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—Nine new suits for injunctions to restrain East Texas operators from overproducing oil in violation of proration orders of the state railroad commission were on file in district courts here today.

LAFOLLETTES' AT WHITE HOUSE

Whether problems of Soviet recognition by the United States or unemployment relief occupied their conference with President Roosevelt, neither Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin (left), nor his brother Philip LaFollette, former Governor of Wisconsin (right) would divulge as they left the White House as pictured here. Their visit stirred speculation that Philip LaFollette, who recently returned from Russia, may become American envoy to Moscow if the Soviet is recognized, or possibly may be asked to direct Roosevelt's unemployment program.

Mussolini Given Homage of Party On Anniversary

ROME, March 24. (AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini, fascist chieftain, today received the homage of a huge black shirt army congregated in Rome to commemorate the 14th anniversary of the formation of the party. Rome donned gala attire to celebrate the anniversary. The music of massed bands lent a gay note to the ordinary clamor of the metropolis and thousands of festive citizens crowded windows and balconies to watch the smart passage of fully uniformed fascist units.

In the midst of the festivities Premier Mussolini took occasion to emphasize the solemn responsibilities attendant upon membership in his organization by personally receiving several hundred widows and mothers of fascist and war dead. A column of party founders, veterans and avanguardists, or young black shirts, who arrived from Milan after celebrating the occasion in that city yesterday, formed at the Piazza Esedra at 9:45 a. m. as a signal for the anniversary ceremonies to commence. They were joined by Roman units of the organization and the war veterans. The commemorative ceremonies were concluded late this afternoon with solemn inauguration of the war dead chapel in Verano cemetery, and a reception for fascist leaders at the capitol by Prince Francesco Boncompagni-Ludovisi, governor of Rome.

Flat Tire, Not An Officer's Bullet Stopped Fugitive

FORT WORTH, March 24. (AP)—A flat tire and not an officer's bullet stopped Raymond Hamilton and two other fugitives yesterday an hour after they had broken out of the jail at Hillsboro and commandeered an automobile, the 19-year-old youth declared here today.

Hamilton and his companions, David Cates and J. B. Stephens, were held for safekeeping. "If it hadn't been for that flat," said Hamilton good naturedly, "we'd have been long gone. And they got it wrong about me giving up without resistance, too. I ran. I could see the bullets kicking up dirt around my feet and I knew I didn't have a chance."

Grabbing a shot gun and rifle from the jail office and running across the street to a filling station, the trio commandeered the automobile of O. G. Freeman and Mrs. J. K. Hare and drove out the Hillsboro-Pium road.

"I guess the people went into that filling station to get the tire fixed," said Hamilton. "We were way ahead of the officers when the tire went flat about 20 miles out. We had changed the tire and were tightening the lugs when they drove up. "Cates and Stephens threw up their hands at once. I ran but saw it was no use. "I wouldn't have shot any one. It's against my policy to shoot in trying to escape. Those fellows would shoot any how. They were too old-timey and weren't even loaded."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoare are in Amarillo today.

SCIENCE'S QUEST FOR 'TRUTH'

If you have ever felt that modern science has a cocky and self-satisfied air about the body of knowledge it has amassed, you might heed the words of Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard Astronomical Observatory.

Dr. Shapley predicts that "practically all current theories" are going to prove mortal before so very long. The axioms of today will be abandoned and outworn theories of tomorrow, and Dr. Shapley adds:

"The only eternal verities at present are the enthusiasm back of hypotheses, the will to know and the willingness to fumble as we learn to know."

This viewpoint, to be sure, is the general rule among scientists. But laymen often misunderstand it, and because they misunderstand it they sometimes resent what they feel is a too dogmatic and inflexible attitude on the part of science.

A proper understanding of it might save us from a good deal of our creepy dread of the rising of scientific knowledge. For it seems, now and then, as if the scientists were banishing mystery from the world. It seems as if science were about to say: "Thus and so was a world made, and thus and so was man himself put together, and you can make your religion and your poetry and all of your dreams fit this framework or else you can discard them—it makes no difference, for this is the way things are."

Now that kind of talk is calculated to put cold shivers down the back of any thoughtful man. But it is precisely a kind of talk that the real scientist does not indulge in. He is more likely to keep in mind Plato's great picture—

A dim cave, with man chained facing the inner wall, gazing fruitlessly on the shadows cast on the wall by beings who walk against the sun in the open air. The ghost "scientific truths," the greatest discoveries, are merely shadows. Today's verities are tomorrow's discredited theories; there remains, as Dr. Shapley says, only "the will to know and the willingness to fumble as we learn to know."

Acting Comptroller of the Currency Anawalt, quizzed newspaper men in the recent rush to reopen the banks, muttered "We're snowed under! We're snowed under!" With frozen assets.

More than 14,000 telegrams pile in on President Roosevelt in 12 days. At least the telegraph companies are getting a new deal.

More gold was dug from the ground in 1932 than any other year. But less from big butter-and-egg men.

Scientists at New York recently demonstrated an "electric eye" that opened the doors of the city's newest room as the shadow of an approaching customer crossed its path. . . . Now if the banks had only been equipped with something like that when a depositor walked up with a check during the holiday!

The 13th hardly can be considered an unlucky day any longer, since it was on March 13 that the banks began to reopen.

Lippmann Predicts New Social Order

BERKELEY, Calif., March 24. (AP)—A new economic, social and political order for future humanity was predicted by Walter Lippmann, editor, author and economist, in a charter day address at the University of California today.

"The old order of human affairs is gone, irrevocably so," he told a university gathering. "In the new order, the loose, individualistic and acquisitive democracy of the nineteenth century will be replaced by a much more highly integrated, socially conscious form of government."

The product of history, invention and laissez faire, he added, has broken down in war, revolution and economic disorder and cannot be put together again.

Ranchmen War On Rabid Coyotes In West Texas Area

SAN ANGELO, March 24. (AP)—Ranchmen in the four West Texas counties of Ward, Winkler, Ector and Loving—have been joined in a war on rabid coyotes by the predatory animal division of the bureau of biological survey. This was announced here by C. R. Landon, leader of the division, after a conference with Ed Ligon of Fort Stockton.

Mad coyotes have been attacking livestock and human beings, Ligon, director in charge of predatory work across the Pecos river, told Landon.

Several state or federal trappers will be sent to the area to start an intensive campaign of trapping and poisoning.

C. Avery, who owns a dairy at Monahans, made the first report of the mad animals. Alder Estes of that place lost eight cows which were bitten. Seth Thomas, who lives four miles east of Kermit, was aroused recently by the bawling of his registered cattle in their pens.

He was attacked by a rabid coyote which followed him to the house and tore his clothes. He killed the animal, sent its head to the Pasteur Institute at Austin and was advised the animal had a positive case of rabies.

A sheepman near Midland lost 200 head of sheep which were bitten by the rabid animals.

Ruins of Ancient City Is Discovered

ZAMORA, Spain, March 24. (AP)—The Zamora Herald said today that archaeologists working on the shore of the Duero river near here had discovered the ruins of what they thought might be the ancient city of Arcubala, which was destroyed by the Carthaginian General Hannibal in 220 B. C.

Professor Virgilio Sevillano, who has charge of the excavation work, has asked the government to aid in further exploration.

The newspaper said that a few monuments and fragments of statuary had been found.

Francis Taylor, 405 E. Kingsmill, was admitted for treatment in Worley hospital yesterday.

ROOSEVELT INAUGURATION AND PARADE ARE VIVIDLY SHOWN IN PAMPA DAILY NEWSREEL IN CITY

The inauguration of President Roosevelt, shown in detail in the current issue of the Pampa Daily News-Universal Newsreel, proved to be the greatest event in newsreel history, with the latest developments in speed and of the motion picture science enlisted to rush sound pictures of the epochal ceremony to the screen for the millions of Americans unable to see it in person. The film is at La Nora theater.

The Pampa Daily News-Universal Newsreel established an all-time record for newsreel service in handling these pictures and getting them to the screens on the Eastern seaboard while press wires were still hot with the story of the event and while the radio still resounded with descriptions of the festivities. The achievement was possible because of a carefully prepared plan, resembling war-time battle plans for the handling of troops in an attack.

Cameras or sound trucks were stationed at all strategic points in Washington with definite instructions as to what scenes or personalities were wanted in film. As soon as President Roosevelt's upraised hand dropped after the oath of office, the cameramen began to crank their cameras and ran for a waiting automobile. With police motorcycle escort, he was whisked to a Washington airport, where the country's fastest air-transport, a 230-mile-an-hour air express corporation monoplane was idling. An hour later the film was in New York, where it was rapidly assembled, printed, and started on its way to various theaters.

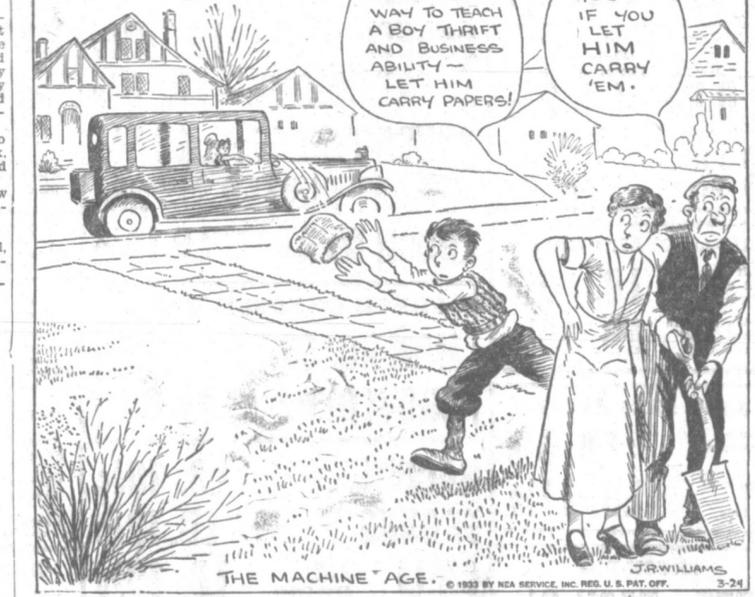

The inaugural address and scenes of the parade followed on later planes and were rushed by air express to theaters in all parts of the country as fast as ready. Interesting scenes of the leading of the speedy transport plane and of its arrival at Newark airport are included in the inauguration special.

Increase Size Of Yellow House Ranch

LITTLEFIELD, March 24. (AP)—J. P. "Phelps" White, owner of the Yellowhouse ranch southwest of here, has purchased an additional 5,000 acres of land adjoining the 14,000-acre old headquarters of the ranch.

The ranch is being fenced and White is shipping several hundred head of cattle here. He plans construction of some buildings at headquarters but is not rebuilding the old headquarters ranch house at this time, he stated.

White and his uncle, the late Major George W. Littlefield, bought the ranch from the old XIX outfit over 30 years ago and operated it many years. It is one of the historical outfits of West Texas.

Museum 'Tenants' Will Be Ejected By Opening Date

CANYON, March 24. (AP)—English Sparrows have no respect for the date when the museum of the Panhandle Plains Historical society is supposed to be open for use and inspection.

Although Field Secretary L. F. Sheffy has repeatedly announced that visitors will not be admitted until April 14, the sparrows have visited and even settled down to stay indefinitely. They have built a "penthouse" apartment on the head of the antelope which forms a part of the decoration of the beautiful limestone building.

It is suspected that they will be forcibly ejected before the dedicatory ceremonies, on the fourteenth of April, when hundreds of people are expected for the first public view of the exhibits.

VALIANT DUST

by Percival Christopher Wren
Synopsis: As a final blow, Margaret Malgini leaves that Jules, her husband, not only has failed to protect her, but has betrayed his employer, the Kaid of Mekazzen. The Kaid plans a campaign against France, with the treacherous aid of Major Napoleon Riccoil of the Foreign Legion—and Major Riccoil plans to seize the Kaid later. Colonel Le Sage of the French Secret Service is Margaret's only refuge. He is discussing Riccoil with Margaret, with whom the traitorous Major has just offered to share the throne he believes he will win!

Chapter 28, RALSUL'S PLAN

"Kismet! Kismet! Fate plays some funny tricks. Surely one of the funniest was to bring Ralsul, looking for just such a tool, across the path of Riccoil," Le Sage continued.

"Ralsul, who can pass as a Spaniard in Spain, an Englishman in England, and almost as a Frenchman in France, is really clever, really subtle, and therefore infinitely more dangerous than his father, who is merely a first-class Robber Baron of the old pattern."

"And there again, strangely enough, it was Riccoil who brought Ralsul under our more particular notice, for he was watching and cultivating Riccoil when I was doing the same thing. I have kept my eye on him ever since the year he became a captain; for even then he was a very remarkable man. And even then had amazing boundless ambitions, and made no secret of them."

"You won't be too deeply chagrined and hurt, I am sure, if I disclose to you the fact that he offered my own wife the same high destiny which he laid at your feet tonight."

Margaret smiled.

"I am a little disappointed, Colonel Le Sage," she said. "It takes a little of the gilt off the gingerbread for me."

"Yes, but I am going to take the gingerbread from under the gilt, for him," answered Le Sage, "and quite soon, I hope."

"Yes," he continued. "A Corsican officer of Chasseurs d'Afrique, who thinks in kingdoms and empires, is worth watching. Especially later, when his partner is the interesting Ralsul, son and heir of the Kaid of Mekazzen; and most particularly so, when later still, he intrigues hard, moves heaven and earth, we may say, to get posted to the least desirable spot in the French African Empire, and that spot happens to be on the borders of Mekazzen."

"I wonder the French authorities didn't arrest Ralsul," said Margaret.

"Oh no, my child, that would never have done. In the first place, there were no grounds for doing so, for it is not a criminal offense to be the son of one's neighbor, and in the second place, once I was on his track and had a pretty clear idea of what was on, I should have been very sorry if the game had been stopped at that stage."

"Well, Ralsul fooled Riccoil, and Riccoil fooled Ralsul, or each thought he was fooling the other. Ralsul saw his way to giving France a hideous shock as well as gathering in some very solid material advantages in the shape of the latest guns—very difficult to get hold of—rifles, and a large number of European-trained soldiers. Also officers and specialists, engineers, signalers, gunners and so on."

"Doubtless Ralsul hopes that Riccoil will be a perfectly invaluable tool and weapon until the time comes to break it—and that will be the time when the tool begins to turn in its master's hand, the weapon to be two-edged. It may happen at once. Riccoil may show his hand now."

"And then exit Riccoil!" asked Margaret.

"By pretending to be the tool, while intending to be the master. He hasn't the faintest intention of really serving the Kaid of Mekazzen. Do you know what he has come here to do? Nothing more nor less than to seize this Citadel."

"What?" asked Margaret. "Capture the castle?"

"Yes. And whoever holds the Citadel holds the town. And, of course, the country. But Riccoil is not doing this for France. It is for himself."

"How do you know?" How could you prove it?" asked Margaret.

"Know and prove? Well, I know because I have known Riccoil and the workings of his mind for a very long time; and because, thanks partly to you, Margaret, I know that his mind is working today; as it worked when first he brought himself to my notice, through his proposal to

"In any event, don't worry, my dear. You shall get home all right."

"Home!"

"Where is it?" asked Le Sage.

"Velverbury," replied Margaret. "Not by so much as the flicker of an eyelid did Colonel Le Sage betray the fact that he had received one of the surprises of a lifetime."

"What did you say, Margaret?"

"Velverbury."

"Ah. . . . I seem to have heard of it, somewhere."

A blow from behind tells one in whom Margaret is greatly interested, tomorrow.

There is nothing that annoys a theater manager more than people who arrive after the first act, says a critic. Unless, of course, it's the people who leave.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

Quarterly Review
 General topic: Jesus Our Example in Service.
 Golden Text for the Quarter: "Jesus of Nazareth . . . who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him."—Acts 10:38. Scripture Lesson:—Isa. 42:1-4.

- Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.
- He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.
- A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench; he shall bring forth judgment to the truth.
- He shall not fall nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law.

Introduction
 The twelve lessons of the quarter, with the exception of the temperance lesson, are all taken from the first six chapters of Mark. They place before us very vividly Jesus as a most diligent worker, going about "doing good," giving himself in sacrificial service to others.

Lessons of the Quarter
 The topics of the twelve lessons, together with the Golden Texts, are as follows:

- Jan. 1.—John prepares the way for Jesus.—Mark 1:1-11.
- Golden Text—Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.—Mark 1:3.
- Jan. 1.—Jesus Begins His Work.—Mark 1:12-20.
- Golden Text—The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and believe the gospel.—Mark 1:15.
- Jan. 15.—Jesus at Work.—Mark 7:21-45.
- Golden Text—My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.—John 5:17.
- Jan. 22.—Jesus Forgiving Sin.—Mark 2:1-12.
- Golden Text—The Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins.—Mark 2:10.
- Jan. 29.—Jesus and the Sabbath.—Mark 2:13-34.
- Golden Text—The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath.—Mark 2:27.
- February 5.—Jesus Chooses the Twelve.—Mark 3:7-35.
- Golden Text—I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit.—John 15:16.
- Feb. 12.—Jesus Teaching by Parables.—Four Kinds of Hearers.—Mark 4:1-20.
- Golden Text—Herein is my Father glorified, that I have chosen you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit.—John 15:16.
- Feb. 19.—Jesus Teaching by Parables.—The Growth of the Kingdom.—Mark 4:21-34.
- Golden Text—The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.—Isaiah 11:9.
- Feb. 26.—Jesus Shows His Power.—Mark 4:35-5:20.
- Golden Text—For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.—2 Tim. 1:12b.
- March 5.—Jesus Giving Life and Health.—Mark 5:21-43.
- Golden Text—The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.—Psalm 126:3.
- March 12.—Jesus Ministering to the Multitude.—Mark 6:1-56.
- Golden Text—The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Matt. 21:28.
- March 19.—The Effects of Alcoholic Drinks.—Prov. 23:29-32; Isa.

28:1-4; Dan. 5:1-4.
 Golden Text—At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.—Prov. 23:32.

Special Lines of Study and Teaching
 We may consider again with interest and profit some of the individual characters that have come before us in the different lessons of the quarter—John the Baptist, Herod Antipas, Herodias, Peter and Andrew his brother, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, The Capernaum demoniac, Four friends of the paralytic, Gadarene demoniac, Jairus, and the Lad with the luncheon.

Let us review some of the special teachings about Christ and we find in the different lessons:

In Lesson 1. We find that Jesus was the Messiah foretold in prophecy.

In Lesson 11. We find that Jesus was tempted as other men, but overcame the devil.

In Lesson 12. Jesus sends men forth to win the world.

In Lesson 13. Jesus sends men forth to win the world.

In Lesson 14. Jesus can calm all the storms of life.

In Lesson 15. Jesus is always ready to answer calls for help.

He would have us follow his example by giving ourselves in willing, helpful service for others, that we should be "going about doing good."

Others
 "Others, Lord, yes others, Let this my motto be, Help me to live for others, That I may live like thee."

Soviet Agrees To Release Britons

LONDON, March 24. (AP)—The Soviet embassy here announced today it had been informed that the public prosecutor in Moscow has agreed to the release on bail of W. H. Thornton, John Cushman and a man named Gregory, British subjects who were arrested several days ago by Soviet secret police on charges of sabotage in electrical construction work.

It was understood in official British quarters that nothing short of unconditional release without trial would be considered by the British government as a satisfactory settlement.

It was understood also that if a satisfactory settlement is not reached, the British government may consider application of an embargo on Russian imports the expiration of the Anglo-Russian trade agreement on April 17.

Seventy-Two Hours In This Kansas Day

TOPEKA, Kan., March 24. (AP)—Among its other achievements, the present legislature has brought to Kansas the longest day the state has ever known.

Although the sun has risen four times and set thrice since midnight, Monday, March 20, despite the 60-odd hours intervening.

This seemingly impossible feat was attained by the two branches by the simple expedient of stopping their clocks at 11:35 p. m., Tuesday when the house got a body scissors on the senate over the controversial salary reduction bill, while the senate in turn got a headlock on the house, which to date neither has managed to break.

KIDNAPED BOY

PETER MYERS, Jr., 16, above, is being sought by police of three states. He was kidnaped at Masury, O., when strangers called him to the door of his home and abducted him, leaving a threatening note behind. His father awaits an expected ransom demand, and police of Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky were on the alert.

Why They Didn't Find Liederman

NEW YORK, March 24. (AP)—They found Charles Liederman today but it was too late to tell him the boy he struck with his automobile did not die and that, after all, the police did not want him for homicide.

Liederman, a 24-year-old candy salesman, ran down little Phillip Coniglio in Brooklyn on January 31 and didn't stop.

Police thought the child was going to die and so they broadcast an alarm for Liederman. A witness to the accident had noted his auto license number.

The candy salesman disappeared and neither his wife nor the police could locate him until today.

His body was found floating in New York bay.

He had committed suicide.

WELL SHUT DOWN

NACOGDOCHES, March 24. (AP)—Drilling was shut down temporarily today at the Jennings-Columbion No. 1 well three miles north of Lufkin in order to set the casing in cement. The first few ballers from the well yesterday showed a heavy trace of oil and finally a sufficient amount to cause an estimate to be made of an ultimate flow from 50 to 100 barrels of the same gravity as found in the shallow field here.

L. D. Gill left Worley hospital for his home in Groom this morning.

Newspapers Of America Warned By Hitler Group

BERLIN, March 24. (AP)—In a short semi-official statement issued today, the German government threatened drastic measures against foreign correspondents guilty of spreading "atrocity reports."

The statement asked how, if an economic boycott "agitated by certain American circles" were carried out, "is the question of private debts to be regulated properly?"

The warning was directed not only against correspondents but also against their newspapers. It would take such form as barring the papers from the German mail.

The statement emphasized that any boycott would affect the United States more adversely than Germany.

ITALY SHOWS GROWTH

ROME (INS)—Italy is one of the few European nations where the population grows steadily. On November 30th last its population was 42,312,000 souls, with an increase of 609,000 inhabitants since the last census was taken in April 1931. The difference is partly due to return of immigrants.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cobb, 416 N. Starkweather, are the parents of a 7-pound boy born last night at Worley hospital.

Baird Recalls First Strike of Cowboys

CANYON, March 24. (AP)—The first cowboy strike recorded in the history of Panhandle ranching was recalled recently when friends of Ed Baird of Amarillo met at the old T-Anchor ranch headquarters near Canyon to observe the fiftieth anniversary of Baird's employment by that outfit.

When Baird appeared at the ranch in 1883 looking for work, he was told to "hang around" a few days, that a strike was pending. The strike was called on April 1. Baird got a job.

Mrs. C. E. Melton was dismissed from Worley hospital Thursday afternoon following treatment.

Texline J. P. Can't Get Rid of Office

DALHART, March 24. (AP)—Charles Shaw at Texline has a job he can't get rid of.

Several months ago he was appointed justice of the peace by the commissioners to fill out an unexpired term. He refused to become a candidate in November but his name was written in the ballot and he was declared elected. He wouldn't qualify then, but as the law requires the incumbent to hold office until his successor qualifies Shaw has continued to be J. P. Last week he came before the commissioners to try to resign.

C. E. Ash of Wichita Kan., is here on business this week.

'Newshawk' Corps Pleased By Free And Easy Discussion of President

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Something may cause a change later, but so far President Roosevelt and the newspaper corps seem well satisfied with the informal, direct question and answer discussions at Mr. Roosevelt's semi-weekly press conferences.

In re-establishing this type of conferences—abandoned since the early days of the Harding administration—Mr. Roosevelt laughingly said that he had been told they would not continue long. He ventured they could and would be carried out.

Some of the veteran reporters disagreed but after several successful gatherings, they have changed their mind.

The procedure at the conferences on Tuesdays at 10 a. m. and Fridays at 4 p. m. is simple. The newspapermen waiting in the lobby of the executive offices are summoned into the president's room. They fill almost every available bit of space. Mr. Roosevelt greets them and leans comfortably back in his chair.

The questions come thick and fast, and some go to the root of delicate questions and situations. Not once thus far has the president shown any sign of impatience or perturbation. There is no hesitation in his answers. When he doesn't make a direct answer, he says: "I can't tell you anything about that yet," or "I don't know."

First off, Mr. Roosevelt tells the reporters whether the answers are "off the record," or "background" to be used on their own authority. Direct quotations are prepared in writing.

All in all, it is a free and easy, give and take exchange, with the president heartily enjoying the frequent quips and sallies.

Kansas Cowman Buys 3,000 Steer Calves at Marfa

SAN ANGELO, March 24. (AP)—J. W. Greenleaf, cowman of Topeka, Kansas, recently did some of the fastest buying the West Texas cattle country has ever seen. He arrived in Marfa in an airplane from Topeka at 2 o'clock on a Saturday afternoon and by 2 o'clock Monday afternoon had bought 3,000 steer calves for fall delivery. It was the first bunch of calves contracted for fall delivery this year, and many of those he bought have not been born.

Greenleaf got all the steer calves from the herds of Luke Brite, who operates a 123,000 acre ranch; all the steer calves from Lee Fischer's Wirt Love's and Buck Clelland's ranches.

U. S. May Protest Mistreatment Of Jews In Germany

WASHINGTON, May 24. (AP)—Ready to make a formal diplomatic protest if necessary, the American government today sought to learn officially if Jews in Germany are being mistreated by the new Hitler government.

On the heels of a protest from prominent American Jews headed by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, the state department informed Ambassador Sackett at Berlin that the concern felt here on the basis of press reports and asked him to check officially on their accuracy.

Chancellor Hitler has moved to get his followers under control by proclaiming the most stringent of regulations including detention sentences and even the death penalty for unauthorized wearing of the brown uniform of his national socialist or "Nazi" party for committing terrorist acts in his name.

Many times in the past the American government has lodged strong protests against persecution of Jews, sending notes to Roumania, Russia, Austria-Hungary, and the Mohammedan countries at various times.

Louisiana Plans To Have Beer April 13

BATON ROUGE, La., March 23. (AP)—Beer legislation in Louisiana passed today at the halfway mark for routine procedure with liberal predictions of legalized beer in this state by April 13, or 20 days after repeal of the Hood act, state prohibition law, if perfected.

The senate of the special legislative session last night passed the Dugas state repeal bill by vote of 30 to 7 and sent it to the house for action Friday.

The house with only two dissenting votes adopted the Wimberly beer and wine taxing bill which provides a state excise tax of $1 a barrel on beer and wine and a state license tax of fifty cents per barrel.

Californians Scorn 3.2 Per Cent Wine

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23. (AP)—While brewers speeded preparations to tap beer kebs the night of April 6, California's vintners made no move to take advantage of the simultaneous legalizing of 3.2 "wine."

It is worth nothing, they said, and isn't wine at all. Leaders of the industry in whose cellars are stored 20,000,000 gallons of wine, reiterated they would wait for and continue to fight for legalization of naturally fermented light wines of approximately 10 per cent alcoholic content.

But while the vintners waited, one brewer indicated his company may attempt the manufacture of 3.2 "wine"—but not until the end of the rush attendant upon spigoting beer kegs here at 9:01 p. m. (PST) April 6.
