When the first report of the convict-car came in today, officers immediately warned all small banks in the vicinity to be on the lookout. They said the fugitives are known to be running short of cash.

Leaving a trail of gunfire, three Texas convicts are being sought in two states and possibly more if they carry thru their announced intention of seeking refuge in Canada...

FRANCO ARMY CONFIDENT OF FINAL VICTORY

VALENCIA, Spain July 17 (AP)—Here in the temporary capital of government Spain there is general agreement that hopes of victory in the civil war, a year old tomorrow, rest largely on the ability of two leaders who have come through 12 months of conflict with reputations undimmed.

One is Indalecio Prieto, minister of defense, a 57-year-old millionaire, once a Bilbao newsboy. The other is general Jose Miaja, who saved Madrid for the government.

When the war broke out Prieto led the moderate wing in the socialist party against former Premier Largo Caballero. For months in Madrid, sandbagged in his fortress home in the ministry of Marine he was the "Man of Iron" behind the cabinet in which he held no seat, the only leader who would get things done.

When the Caballero government was formed Sept. 4, Prieto became Minister of Marine and later took over the air portfolio too.

After the last Spanish-owned bomber and last plane of the government side had refused to take off he created a people's air force of Russian machines, instrumental in the insurgent defeat at Guadalajara last March.

Long before the Caballero government fled from Madrid, Prieto had advised "peaceful removal" to Valencia to save morale. Once here he left politics to the premier and concentrated on his navy and air force. Pilots were recruited and trained; sailors put through paces as fleet officers.

Dr. Juan Negrin, who followed Caballero as premier is one of Prieto's closest adherents and friends.

With the Communists, he always had advocated that while "Capitalism must be liquidated," individual enterprise "must not be tampered with" nor "most religious feelings be strangled."

Next to Prieto's the war record of General Miaja has been most lustrous on the government side. It was the tenacity of this stock, bald, bespectacled leader that held the insurgents back from Madrid. He was the man who agreed to stay behind and face the music when nearly all thought the capital was lost. He turned it into a fortress against which the insurgent waves have dashed in vain.

Bob Koiners Will Move From Pampa

If the Koiners are sent to Fort Worth, Mrs. Koiner plans to enter Texas Christian university. Should they be sent to Waco, she will attend Baylor university.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—With the temperature high and vitality low, traders in today's brief stock market session merely made feeble motions.

While a few steels, rails, coppers and specialties managed to creep forward sufficiently to put the Associated Press average ahead 1 of a point at 67.4, there actually were 183 losers at the close as against 169 advanced. Only 506 issues changed hands and 153 of these ended unchanged.

It was the second slowest day of the year, 245,340 shares passing over the crawling ticker tape. Transfers last Saturday totaled 297,000.

Boardrooms sweltered in a new heat wave and numerous customers simply stayed away. Those who put in appearance showed little disposition to take a position either way.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, July 17 (AP)—Week-end evening up comprised the bulk of trading in the cotton market here today and the close was steady, net unchanged to 1 point up.

Weather conditions over the cotton growing region continued favorable with scattered showers in the eastern and central sections and temperature high.

Liquidation by recent buyers, and covering by shorts about offset each other in the absence of any definite development most floor brokers preferred to remain inactive.

The Dallas News report said that except for increasing weevil, leaf worm and boll worm activity in south and central Texas and considerable flea damage in the northwestern portion of the state, the crop was making good to excellent progress.

The market to some extent reflected uncertainty among many traders as to crop conditions largely because of the unpredictable extent of damage possible as a result of rust infection in spring wheat.

Estimates of injury ran as high as 50 per cent in sections of the United States belt.

Breaking of the drought in western Canada apparently came too late to save wheat in southern Saskatchewan, but a Chicago expert now in the north reported there will be some recovery in parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan where deterioration has not progressed too far.

MILLION LENT IN TEXAS FOR CONSTRUCTION

Money advanced by insured savings and loan associations in Texas for June in the home financing field totaled $1,612,253 in 761 loans, according to a report for the month compiled by the Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock, Ark.

The First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Pampa is a member of the Little Rock Bank and participated in the total lending activities of the state by caring for local needs.

Throughout the state of Texas, greatest volume of lending activity was reported in the new construction field, with 271 loans for $762,368 being made for that purpose.

"This activity of insured associations in the state is indicative of the service the associations are to their communities," said B. H. Wooten, president of the Little Rock Bank. "Through local investments, which are insured up to $5,000 against loss by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, and through credit which may be extended by the Little Rock Bank, these associations have sufficient funds at all times with which to make all reasonable loans in the home financing field."

Beside the major activity for June, lending operations included 215 loans for purchase of homes totalling $434,457; 194 loans for refinancing and repair totalling $290,389; and 81 loans for all other purposes totalling $125,039.

Budge Wins And Grant Loses Davis Cup Tilts

By SCOTTY RESTON.
 WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 17 (AP)—The United States and Germany, matching their strength against each other's weakness, split even in the first two singles matches of the Davis Cup interzone tennis finals today.

Playing for the right to face a mediocre British team in the challenge round next week-end, the United States lost the opening match when Baron Gottfried von Cramm thrashed Bryan M. (Blay) Grant of Atlanta, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, but drew level when red-headed Don Budge, reaching superlative form, conquered the willing, but outclassed, Heinrich Henkel, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.

The decision thus was carried over to the final two singles matches Tuesday when strength will be pitted against strength and weakness against weakness. There will be no play tomorrow and the doubles Monday, sending Budge and Gene Mako of Los Angeles against von Cramm and Henkel, can do no more than give one nation or the other a 2-1 lead with one more victory needed to clinch the series.

When Budge took the court for his match with Henkel, the crowd of 5,000 wondered whether the sorrel-top from Oakland, Calif., could again soar to the heights he reached in winning the all-England championship with the loss of only one set. The answer was that he surpassed his previous performances.

Early in the first set, Don mastered the German's whistling first service, coaxed him cannily to the net and raced through the match in 52 minutes with the loss of only six games.

If it was possible for one fine player to outshine another more than Budge did Henkel, then von Cramm achieved it against Grant who admitted after the rout that he was nervous and thoroughly outplayed.

On the strength of today's play, it was generally conceded that Budge will beat von Cramm and Henkel will defeat Grant on Tuesday. In this case, Monday's doubles encounter looms as the decisive struggle.

The Americans still ruled slight favorites to win the series and gain the right to play Great Britain for the cup July 24-26-27.

SMITH BROTHERS NO. 9 JOHNSON GAUGES 1,017 BARRELS

17 OIL WELLS IN PANHANDLE PUT ON TEST

With production coming from more than 300 feet of granite wash formation, the Smith Brothers Refining Company of McLean put Wheeler county in the big production class again last week when their No. 9 Johnson in section 34, block 24, H&GN survey, gauged 1,017 barrels daily on Texas Railroad Commission test.

The Panhandle field reported 17 oil wells completions with a total flow of 8,390 barrels. Hutchinson county, the hot spot of the field in recent months, registered eight new wells capable of producing a 3,340 barrels daily. Gray county's five new wells were given a total potential of 2,930 barrels.

Five gas wells were good for a total of 143,796,000 cubic feet. Four of the gassers were in Moore county with the other in Carson.

Filing of first applications to drill broke out last week after a short period of inactivity when 20 new locations were reported to the local office of the Texas Railroad Commission. Gray county was the leader with nine of the locations, followed by Hutchinson with six, Moore with four and Carson with one.

W. J. and Jno. J. Moran will seek oil nearly a half-mile south of production in the South Pampa field with announcement of a location in the northeast corner of section 108, block 3, I&GN survey. The test will be drilled south of the Holmes lease where resumption of drilling uncovered several good producers. Small wells were found on the Holmes lease five years ago and drilling was discontinued until a few months ago.

The prolific Barrett lease two miles south of Pampa registered its best producer last week when the Dancier Oil & Refineries' No. 15 Barrett in section 128, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 918 barrels on Railroad Commission test.

Oil completions for the week, by counties:

Hutchinson County.
Amatek Petroleum Company No. 32 Lewis, section 8, block M-23, BS&P survey, gauged 569 barrels with lime pay between 2,975 and 3,056 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 23 Cockerell, section 3, block M-21, TCRR survey, was completed for 586 barrels. Pay was found between 3,000 and 3,075 feet in lime.

Timms-Robinson Oil Company No. 1 Halle, section 24, block M-21, TCRR survey, tested 117 barrels with lime pay between 2,944 and 2,988 feet.

Alma Oil Company No. 1 Erie Thompson, section 15, block M-3, TCRR survey, gauged 490 barrels.

Lime pay was from 3,010 to 3,069 feet. The hole was bottomed at 3,150 feet.

Stanford Oil Company No. 4 Halle "B", section 5, block M-21, TCRR survey, was given a potential of 237 barrels with pay from 3,000 to 3,071 feet in lime.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 5 Terry, section 72, block Z, ELRR survey, gauged 667 barrels. Lime pay was from 2,880 to 2,935 feet.

Head of King Oil Company Flies to Pampa For a Visit

Visitors in Pampa yesterday were R. A. King and son, Rufus King, of Wichita Falls, who flew here in their plane.

Mr. King is president of the King Oil Company, with large holdings in the Pampa area. He is one of the nation's outstanding skeet shooters. He recently won the Colorado tournament staged at Denver.

Young Rufus King is also a sensation with the skeet gun. At the age of 14 he won the National Handicap Skeet shoot.

One odd diet led to another for Neal Welch, Jr., of South Bend, Ind. He swallowed a pin. The doctor fed him sterile cotton to protect his stomach.

Tommy Atkins transferred from Pampa to the Houston office where he will be in the personnel department.

C. A. Husted of the local office will replace Mr. Atkins. Atkins has been active in first aid work with the company and in swimming and life saving in the city. He holds a Red Cross life saving certificate.

Figures don't lie!

If they reveal anything it is that health is the sum of many factors. Health rules are simple and few. None can be disregarded. If inadvertently some have been broken and flesh and fat have increased excessively don't experiment with the problem. Reducing methods should be directed by a physician, who will gauge and observe results so that the sum of health will be completely restored.

'CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS' WILL OPEN AT LA NORA THEATER

BARTHOLOMEW AND TRACY IN LEADING ROLES

A picture rated "five-star" by numerous critics, "Captains Courageous," starring Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas, will open at the LaNora theater today.

The Rex attraction will be "Wings Over Honolulu," starring Wendy Barrie, Ray Milland and the U. S. Navy.

With three prominent stars heading the cast, "The Hoosier Schoolboy," a Monogram production, will open today at the Crown Theater. Mickey Rooney, whose most recent screen role was in "Captains Courageous," enacts the title role in this film based on the outstanding novel by Edward Eggleston.

Frank Shields, who made his movie debut in "Come and Get It," plays his second screen role in "The Hoosier Schoolboy."

Anne Nagel, attractive Hollywood actress, portrays the feminine lead. Recent pictures in which she played leading roles include "Hot Money," "Here Comes Carter," "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop" and "Footloose Heiress."

LEWIS AND BRADDOCK FIGHT
Lewis and Braddock fight picture will be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the LaNora in connection with Captain Courageous.

Blow by blow, round by round important shots are shown in slow motion.

LA NORA
One of the great sea stories of modern literature, Rudyard Kipling's thrilling saga of the Gloucester fishermen, comes to the LaNora screen starting today with Metro-Goldwyn Mayer's picturization of "Captains Courageous," with Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas in the leading roles.

For the first time in his screen career Freddie Bartholomew plays a wholly American boy, a wide departure from any previous role. As Harvey Cheyne he is the pampered son of a millionaire who has never known the meaning of work and worthwhile effort. Bound for Europe on a super-liner he falls overboard off the Newfoundland banks and is picked up by a fishing dory manned by Spencer Tracy, the latter playing the part of Manuel, a Portuguese fisherman. This role, the most colorful that Tracy has yet had, rivals even that of the priest in "San Francisco."

The boy is taken to the fishing schooner "We're Here," captained by Lionel Barrymore as Capt. Disko. His tale of being a millionaire's son is attributed to the shock of having fallen overboard. He is put to work and gradually his regeneration begins. The hardy, honest Gloucester fisherman makes a man of him.

Mickey Rooney, teamed with Freddie Bartholomew in "The Devil Is a Sissy" again appears with him in "Captains Courageous" as Dan the captain's son. The large supporting cast playing the schooner's crew includes Charley Grapewin, Jack LaRue, John Carradine, Walter Kingsford, Donald Briggs and numerous others.

In order to obtain authentic shots of the New foundland fishing fleet for Gloucester last fall, purchased the two-masted, 110-foot schooner "We're Here," sailed her to Nova Scotia, from down the New England coast, over to the Cuba Keys, through the Canal and up the Pacific to Los Angeles harbor. Location scenes were also made off Monterey, Eureka and the Oregon coast. Before the picture was completed the "We're Here" had sailed more than 8,000 miles.

Because of crowded working conditions on the "We're Here," known as the finest heavy-weather boat on the coast, a fleet of two barges, a tugboat, two water-taxis and five speedboats accompanied her on location, all equipped with short-wave radio. The climax of the location work was the race between the "We're Here" and the "Cushman" for the honor of being the first home to Gloucester and to challenge the Canadian boat in the annual international race. It is in this sequence that Tracy meets his death when the mainmast snaps, carrying him overboard in the rigging.

"Hitch the locket," "blow-off wire," "smoked lamp," "paper hanger." Do you know what they mean?

There is a comedy sequence in "Married Before Breakfast," which opens at the LaNora theater Wednesday with Robert Young and Florence Rice in the leads, in which they get into a conversation with a thug but can't understand his underworld jargon.

The writers exhausted their supply of gangster lingo including such phrases as "at the spring" meaning "laced up in a straight-jacket"; "blow-off wire," which means "the last telegram from the mob"; "smoked lamp" meaning a black eye; "paper hanger," meaning a "bad-check passer"; and "hitch the locket," a new underworld coinage meaning "to bash in somebody's head without killing him."

FRANCES AND FLYNN

Going far afield for a picturesque setting for a movie, Warner Bros. this time chose Trax (which used to be Arabia) as a locale. They placed a British garrison there, had its members surrounded by wild natives, and offered the problem of how the soldiers and their officers and wives might be saved—if saved they might die.

"Another Dawn" is the name of the picture. It is scheduled to open on Friday at the LaNora theater. Add to that situation the fact that Kay Francis is the lady most chiefly concerned—and that the two men who love her are Errol Flynn and Ian Hunter—and both have a chance to save her and the garrison—and you have the ingredients of real drama.

It all makes a very thrilling movie, and preview experts have put it up to the top of the list among the action and romance pictures of the year.

Errol Flynn is said to surpass his performance in that history-making movie, "The Charge of the Light Brigade." And it is said, too, that Hunter (once the idol of all the matinee girls in London) has the best opportunity that has come to him since the Warners imported him to play the Duke of Athens in "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

CROWN

In "The Hoosier Schoolboy," a Monogram production, now playing at the Crown Theatre will be seen a medal that every soldier has the ambition to be awarded, the Congressional medal of honor. Edward Pawley, who enacts the role of Captain Fred Carter, wears the medal.

There are only fifty-one of these medals in existence today with most of the possessors deceased, leaving the medals for which they fought so hard in museums for sightseers. When the script of "The Hoosier Schoolboy" demanded that one of these medals be used in the picture to prevent technical errors in the picture. With Lieut. Con. Meehan acting as liaison officer between the navy and the film company, every detail of the production was checked.

Telling the truth about the evils of easy prison paroles, Columbia's new action drama, "Parole Racket," which presents a startling picture of today's racket-riddled parole boards, will open at the Rex theater Tuesday. Featured in the cast of this up-to-the-minute film are Paul Kelly and Rosalind Keith.

Kelly will be seen in the role of a police lieutenant on the racket squad. He convinces the editor of a large newspaper, played by Thurston Hall, that the "human interest" stories being carried in his paper are glorifying gangsters. This tends to sway public opinion, thereby aiding the gangster in obtaining paroles. He enlists the aid of the editor and a young girl reporter, played by Rosalind Keith, in contriving a daring plan to break up the gang and get the "higher-ups."

Kelly has himself demoted to patrolman, supposedly under suspicion. In this way he comes in contact with members of the gangster ring. He accepts a bribe, is sent to jail, and then threatens to expose the ring if he isn't paroled. The parole is effected at once and when free he reports to the leader of the gang who represents the "higher-ups." He is assigned to murder Miss Keith, because her articles in the paper are becoming too "hot." A fake murder is arranged and the gang leader is arrested. With him in jail, Kelly moves up as leader. From here on "Parole Racket" moves with a staccato pace to its exciting climax.

'SPEED TO SPARE'

Literally a whole driveway full of championship racing drivers appear with Charles Quigley, Dorothy Wilson, Eddie Nugent, and Patricia Farr in Columbia's new drama, "Speed to Spare," which is scheduled to open Thursday at the Rex theater.

Such as Rex Mays, Chet Gardner, Bob Swanson, Louie Tomel, Fred Frame, and other ace auto pilots do their death-defying best to thrill audiences in the several racing sequences that play a large part in the film's history.

Quigley, the leading man, is a Hollywood newcomer who has lately been seen in "Lady from Nowhere," with Mary Astor, and "Find the Witness" with Rosalind Keith. He is considered something of a "find." Miss Wilson recently appeared in "Craig's Wife."

RIDE 'EM COWBOY!

A range war between big city racketeers and rugged ranchmen, airplane battles over the plains, and cattle stampeding wildly when water tanks and loading chutes are bombed during the gigantic round-up—these provide some of the thrills in George O'Brien's new action drama, "Hollywood Cowboy," which will open at the Rex Friday.

Back in the saddle again, George O'Brien is cast in a western movie star who deserts the grease paint to

Copeland, Whalen To Run for Mayor

NEW YORK July 18 (AP)—New York City's complicated mayoral campaign took definite shape tonight. Leaders of both Democratic and Republican parties started aligning themselves into two camps—new deal and anti-new deal.

The new deal emerged as the major issue in the Democratic primary when Tammany Hall last night named Senator Royal S. Copeland, administration critic, as its candidate while the Democratic leaders of Brooklyn, Queens, Richmond, and the Bronx designated Grover Whalen, former police commissioner.

The organization, Republican leaders, who have openly criticized Mayor F. H. LaGuardia for new deal leanings, will meet next week to decide what course they will take. It is almost certain, political observers believe, that LaGuardia will not be the organization candidate, although he has announced he will enter the primary. There has been talk that he also would enter the Democratic primary.

Whalen was regarded generally as the candidate of the national administration because of frequent telephone conversations between Edward J. Flynn, Bronx leader, and the White House before the selection was announced.

Drefs Hurls Oilers To 12-8 Win Over Borgans

Throwing a curve ball that didn't know when to stop breaking, Lefty Herman Drefs pitched the Pampa Oilers to their third win of the season over the Huber Blackfaces here Friday night in an "On to Denver," and "Merchant's Gift" night ball game. The final score was 12 to 8.

After a jittery start in which the Blackfaces jumped out with a commanding lead, Drefs settled down and proceeded to whiff 13 Huber batters, including the murderers row in the sixth. Drefs was helped by some mighty timely hitting especially by big Lefty Cox who selected the third inning with the bases loaded to hit one out of the park and bring his team from way behind. Ben McLarry had blasted one over the fence in the second inning and Carl Beason clouted one over deep center following Cox' wallop and old Cy Young voluntarily left the mound in favor of Jim Hadley, now with the Blackfaces.

Drefs Wins Game
Pampa's new lefthander arrived from Portland, Ore., after a drive of nearly 2,000 miles and took the mound with only a day of rest. Difference in altitude and climate apparently had the porcupine on the run at the start of the game but Manager Fred Brickell decided to leave him on the hill despite a barrage of base hits.

Huber jumped on Drefs for three runs and four hits in the first inning and single run in the second. Two strikeouts got Drefs past the third but in the fourth another brace of runs sent the Blackfaces to within one run of the Oilers who had registered one in the second and five in the third. An Oiler really in the sixth inning, which put four runs across and saw Carrithers relieve Hadley put the Pampans out in front by a comfortable margin.

Choppy Spencer and Eash had the bug on Drefs, getting to him for seven of Huber's 13 safe hits. Spencer collected four singles on four trips to the plate, two of them doubles, and Eash got three for five including a two-bagger.

Big Lefty Cox hit a home run and a double to score six Pampa runs. Ben McLarry added a home run and single and Manager Brickell picked off a pair of timely singles to carry the Oilers to victory, with a 10-hit attack.

Six bases on balls also helped the Oilers while 7 of them watched the third one go by. Drefs walked three but none were costly when he fanned the third man after walking the bases full in the second and fanned three in a row in the sixth after passing the first batter.

Both teams sparked afield with Sam Hale, now an Oiler, making a couple of sensational stops at the hot corner.

Summers to Huber
A familiar figure was missing from the Pampa lineup. It was little Al Summers, sensational second baseman. Summers quit the Oilers to take over a similar job with the Huber Blackfaces. He was not in a Huber uniform last night, declaring he would play for neither team in the big game. Summers will be missed but the Oilers management hope to fill his place with a well known star. Ben McLarry played a bang up game in Summers' position last night, taking four hot grounders without a bobble.

Buzz Ross was absent from the Huber lineup because of a badly sprained ankle. His loss sent Eash to third and Manager Storey to second. Hadley, Francis and Army Littlell of the Phillips club were Huber uniforms and will accompany the Blackfaces to Denver.

AL SUMMERS

The Pampa Oilers are in the market for a second baseman following the sudden departure of little Al Summers who joined the Huber Blackfaces of Borger following Friday night's game when he played for neither team. Summers was a hot-shot on Pampa ball teams for the last three years. He is a sensational fielder and this year his hitting has been far above other seasons.

GIANTS BEAT CARDS.
NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Jim Tipton's single with one out in the ninth inning drove in the winning run to give the Giants a 6 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the series opener today. The Giants came from way behind after homers by Ducky Medwick and Johnny Mize produced five runs for the Cards.

PIRATES DROP ONE.
PHILADELPHIA, July 17 (AP)—A ninth inning double by Pinky Whittey, following a single by Chuck Klein and a base on balls to Dolph Camilli, gave the Phillies a 9 to 8 victory over Pittsburgh.

CUBS FROM BEHIND.
BROOKLYN, July 17 (AP)—After kicking away a five-run lead in the early innings, the Chicago Cubs came from behind with two runs in the ninth and another in the tenth to whip the Brooklyn Dodgers 8 to 7 and retain first place in the National league today.

JAYCEES BEAT KELLERVILLE IN 6 TO 5 GAME
Playing sparkling ball the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce softball team won a 6 to 5 overtime game from the Kellerville All-Stars Friday night at McLean, scene of a softball carnival. Shamrock's All-Stars nosed out a similar team from McLean, 8 to 6, in another attraction.

YANKS CONTINUE TO WIN.
CLEVELAND, July 17 (AP)—The New York Yankees outslugged the Indians 9 to 6 in the series opener today, although they were outlittled 12 to 16, by the Tribe.

BROWNS WIN PAIR.
ST. LOUIS, July 17 (AP)—After trimming a team composed of 1922 Brownies, the 1937 Browns kept right on with their winning way today and blasted three Philadelphia Athletics pitchers for a 10 to 2 victory.

BRIDGES WINS ANOTHER.
DETROIT, July 17 (AP)—Tommy Bridges blanked the Washington Senators with five hits today as the Detroit Tigers pounded out a 6 to 0 victory in the first game of the series here. Charlie Gehringer's fourth home run of the season topped a five-run Detroit rally in the first inning.

22 Teams Now Entered In Panhandle Tourney

Jack Kretzinger, Panhandle district commissioner of softball, had received 22 entries for the district tournament to begin here on July 29, up to 10 o'clock last night. Other entries were expected to be in the mail by midnight and the commissioner was hopeful that the entry list would reach 25 or 30.

Pampa's district tournament last year was the largest in the state with 23 teams entered. The Voss Cleaners won the district and went to the state meet at Fort Worth. This year the winning team will go to Kilgore, with expenses paid. The defending champions will not be on hand to seek a second title.

Teams have been entered as follows: 12 from Pampa, 5 from Amarillo, two from Borger, two from Dalhart, and one each from Canyon and Panhandle.

The diamond, however, will receive its baptism under fire at 6:30 o'clock when Cities Service and Coltexo play off to see which team will be fourth in the playoff. At the close of league play, Coltexo, Cities Service and Stanolind were tied. The three managers met last night and flipped a coin to see which team would take third place. Stanolind won the toss, leaving the other two teams to play a sudden death game for the other "money" place.

Another bang-up wrestling card has been arranged for fans on Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena when Cliff Chambers will present Gust Johnson, big Swede, and Joe Kopecky, Texas cotton-picker, in the main event. Opening the card at 8:30 o'clock will be Tarzan Krause, a rough and tough Swede. Lipscomb was seen here last week when he tried to whip everyone in site. Promoter Chambers figures that Lipscomb will be so busy with Erickson that he won't have time to contest the ring-side boys this time.

It's no secret that Gust Johnson is being primed to take Gentleman Joe Kopecky apart and stuff him with some of his own cotton. Johnson holds a decision over Champion Gus Kallio in a two-hour time limit match in Seattle, Wash., last year. It was an overweight match and the only fall went to Johnson.

Krause will meet Nemanic in opener
The semi-final is scheduled to be just the opposite with Buck Lipscomb, the Hoosier Hotshot, tangling with Ole Erickson, a rough and tough Swede. Lipscomb was seen here last week when he tried to whip everyone in site. Promoter Kopecky won himself a battle here last week and is mighty chesty over his accomplishment.

FIRST GAMES TO BE PLAYED AT PARK DIAMOND TOMORROW

The new softball diamond at Recreational park, a mile east of the city, will be ready for opening of play in the city tournament tomorrow night. The first game, at 8 o'clock, will see the Pampa Jaycees meeting Texas company with King Oil clashing with Stanolind in the second game.

sulted said the three White House aides were eager to counteract any resentment cause by the president's recent letter to Barkley, asserting that it was the "duty" of congress to act on the administration's court program this session. Some senators had criticized the letter as an attempt to dictate to congress, and as an indication that

Mr. Roosevelt favored Barkley for senate leader. Test of Strength Leaders of both sides conceded privately that the vote would be close, unless an unexpected swing one way or the other develops before the funeral party returns to Washington Monday. The leadership election was regarded as a partial test of strength in the court fight, since senators opposing the president's bill have lined up almost solidly for Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Coffey, 719 East Browning avenue, announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Ivan Noblitt on July 24 at a dinner party in their home Friday night at 8 o'clock. The place cards were small envelopes containing the announcements in the form of a jig-saw puzzle. They were tied with tiny pink satin ribbon to an engagement ring in the center of the table at the end of a question mark. The ring and the question mark were placed in a crystal platter making the center decoration for the table. A color scheme of pink and silver was used throughout.

After dinner the guests were entertained by working the jig-saw puzzles. When the puzzles were completed they formed a red heart on which was written "Frances Coffey and Ivan Noblitt are to be married July 24 at home."

WHEN SUMMER BREEZE SINGS QUINTS A LULLABY TODAY'S PICTURE STORY

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. "What a lovely, sunny morning!" Cecile seems to be saying.

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. "I'll spread the rugs for a sun-bath," contributes motherly little Yvonne, "so we can keep our nice fresh dresses clean."

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. Annette is first to sprawl out comfortably on the rug.

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. "A-a-ah!" murmurs Marie, "This is the way to spend a summer day, even if the sun does get in your eyes a little, once in a while."

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. But it's Emilie who really has the system for complete relaxation. Here she is, flat on back, arms over face, and saying nothing at all.

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc. But even idyllic scenes like this are not for long when you are going-on-four and a quintuplet. Yvonne spots one of the bird visitors to the nursery, and Emilie half rises to watch. Cecile and Annette are in a regular tete-a-tete, but Marie just wants to doze.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
JOY—Heroine, hostess in smart Maine tearoom.
ROGER—Joy's fiancé; rising young designer.
ANGELA—Joy's rival in love.
DICK—Wealthy young playboy. Roger's rival in love.

Yesterday: Roger and Joy quarrel over Peter; Joy returns her engagement ring to Roger as they part in anger.

Chapter III
MONDAY: Stopped at the news stand in the Roosevelt hotel and bought a magazine from the clerk who usually waits on me.
"Look," she whispered glancing in the direction of the dining room, "there's the man who owns the Ace-High club."
I turned around while she continued. "He's with the young fellow who designed the interior and furniture for it. They say Rocco wants him for his daughter... you bet she likes him... nice, clean-cut fellow... wouldn't mind having him myself. Oh, don't you feel good?"
I knew my tell-tale face was betraying my heart so making the best of it, I forced a smile and pointing at the clock, said, "I'm all right, but look at the time!" and putting the change in my bag I hurried away.
When I reached the door, Roger was already on the sidewalk. A flashing, metal-trimmed car was at the curb. The door opened. Angela's laughing face was raised to his... if only I could have heard what they said when he got into the car.
Peter didn't say much when I told him Roger and I had broken our engagement; but his, "Gee, Sis, Roger's a swell guy!" still rankles. Don't I know it?
I've tried to console myself with the thought that Roger deliberately made an issue of Pete's future so that he could bring our engagement to an end; but my heart tells me it's not so. There are moments when I can feel Roger's kisses on my lips. I have not heard from him all day... if only I might know whether Angela really means something to the man I shall always love.

Ran into Rita Haley an old college friend, on Fifth Avenue. She's a buyer for a western store... sails for Paris tomorrow... interested as usual in my affairs... suggested I get a summer job and take Peter to the country. That might be all right, but what about a job in the fall? Offered to get me one if Long's refused to take me back... her promises were still ringing in my ears as we said goodby... she'll probably marry a count and forget everything else.
"You're not going to stand for that, are you?" Gail asked when she came on duty in the afternoon. "I think it's time someone put a flea in the ear of that gossip," and she thrust a paper into my hand, her finger pointing to this paragraph in The Crow's Nest:

"Betting's in favor of the lovely Angela leading her young designer to the altar."
I laughed and handed back the newspaper.
"Then there's nothing to all this talk about Roger and Angela?"
I shook my head, and darted to the locker room. Does Roger know where he's drifting? His strength of character... how much I admired that.
Went out with Dick... had a grand time... disturbed a bit though at that car that came alongside us as we crossed the Queensborough Bridge. I can see the dark, ferret-like eyes of the driver now. They were riveted on Dick when the traffic lights turned against us. Mine followed their gaze... Dick's face was pale beneath his tan... His knuckles showed white as his hands tightened the hold of the wheel. Wondered if Dick recognized him... decided silence was "golden."
Told Dick of my ill luck... Got a counterfeit $10 bill in change... he wanted to give me another one for it... opened his wallet. I saw a big bill... of course I refused. I told him I wasn't passing my ill luck on to him... guess he's quite generous... perhaps I've misjudged him.
Surprised to learn Dick knows Roger... knows that he got his chance with Rocco because he went down one night to take the place of a friend who sings there, and accidentally left a portfolio of his designs in the club.
"Rocco found them, I suppose... got a swell job for almost nothing, I guess," Dick said, his disturbing eyes searching mine.
"Yes, but Roger didn't mind that... it gave him the chance he wanted to break into this line of work, and now he's getting on well."
"So I see. According to the gossip in The Crow's Nest, it's to be another case of poor boy makes good and marries his patron's daughter."
"Perhaps," I answered as lightly as I could; but that spoiled the rest of the evening for me.
It might have been spoiled before if I had let myself think about what the manager had said to me... he might have to let one of us girls go if business slackened off... suppose I'll be the one as I've been at Long's a shorter time than any of the others. Has my luck gone sour? Called me later... said Mrs. Fenwick, the society woman, wanted someone to be hostess at her swanky tearoom in Maine. With Peter on my hands I guess that's out for me.
Tuesday: Must put a postscript to my last entry. Am in a new world. So much has happened all I can do is jot down some of the highlights. Took the job at Mrs. Fenwick's, though I almost lost out because of Peter... she didn't want any little boys around... Miss Pegler heard about it... her summer home's quite near the coast... one word from her put me right in.
I'm sure I'll love it here... imagine getting a summer holiday in Maine for nothing (my expenses going and coming are being paid by the lady) and earning a nice salary for a few hours' work every day! Best of all the manager promised me my job at Long's would be waiting for me when I returned to New York in the fall!
What was that noise? With ears trained to the screams of "E!" trains the shouting of newsboys and whistles shrieks of fire truck horns, it seemed ferriberly quiet in the country. Everyone's gone to the village to the movies tonight (the college girl waitresses and the famous cook, Big Kate, live in the cottage with us) except Peter, who's asleep upstairs.
There it goes again! I've got to see what it is. Cal, the handyman, told me today we're almost a mile from the nearest neighbor... sounds like someone knocking... Rowdy, part Airdale, part German police dog, hears it too.
Back at my desk once more, still shaking with excitement. Well, here's what happened. I tiptoed into the hall which was in semi-darkness (Mrs. Fenwick likes to save electricity), nearly touched the ceiling when I saw a face pressed against the lower pane of a small window beside the front door.
Rowdy rushed ahead of me, barking furiously... I told the man I dare not open the door in case the dog would go for him. (He's the fiercest thing, but he's gentle as a lamb with his friends)... offered to make his call for him.
He stormed about for a minute, then agreed, while I racked my brain as to where I'd seen his face before... got his number... a foreign voice answered... couldn't or wouldn't understand my message... returned to man... told him... then, scowling as he glanced towards his stalled truck, he said, "Tell them to step on it... Jigger says so!" Suddenly I knew where I'd seen him.

7 BOYS FROM GRAY COUNTY AT FORT SILL

PORT SILL, Okla., July 17—Approximately 1000 boys from Oklahoma and Northern Texas arrived at Fort Sill Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5, 1937, for 30 days training in the Citizens Military Training Camp. Officered by reserve officers and supervised by regular army officers from the Fort Sill army post, these boys spend their days in healthful work and recreation.
With the first formation at 6:00 a. m. the boys are kept busy until "taps" at 10:00 p. m. They have three wholesome meals each day and are served sandwiches and milk daily at 10:00 a. m.
The morning hours are spent in military drill and instructions, calisthenics and policing their tent area.
The afternoons are all devoted to organized athletics under the direction of the regular army officers. These athletics include swimming, baseball, basketball, volley ball, tennis, track softball, wrestling, boxing. In the evening the trainees are entertained by stunt nights, wrestling and boxing matches and dances every Friday.
Every precaution is taken to protect the health of the enrollees by having a medical staff in constant attendance at the camp infirmary and a medical officer attendance at athletic contests. Mess is regularly inspected, and every trainee bathes each day.

From the time the trainee reports in to the camp until they are mustered out they are constantly under the discipline and control of the army, and lead a vigorous healthy life out of doors.
Enrollment in these camps is purely voluntary, and their purpose is mainly the training of the candidate for proper citizenship, trainees receive a travel allowance from their home to Fort Sill and return, but no other pay. They must be not less than 17 years of age to take the basic courses, and not over 21 to take the advanced courses, they must pass a physical examination upon entering camp. If the basic, red, white and blue courses are completed, for a period of four camps, the trainee completing all four courses is eligible, upon passing an examination for a commission as a reserve officer in the U. S. Army.
A list of the trainees from Gray county and enrolled at this camp follows:
Otis J. Foster, Pampa; Claude C. Johnson, Pampa; William T. Scott, Pampa; Jimmie D. Vaughan, LeFors; Lester W. Barrett, Jr., Pampa; Jack S. A. Green, LeFors; Pharis D. McKay, Pampa.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART, NEA Service Staff Writer.

Provided she decides definitely how she wants to look, then plans her beauty and grooming routines carefully, any woman can be chic and attractive. Good taste is a wonderful substitute for ready cash, and knowing how to arrange your time to allow for the things you really want to accomplish is a sure cure for I-never-have-time growls.

More often than the rest of us care to admit, the smartest women turn out to be those who lead the most active lives, with jobs, homes, children, and goodness knows what else to occupy their time.

But they are the ones who believe with all their hearts that it's better to brush hair for four minutes every night than for twenty minutes one day a week. Also that skin which is cleansed, stimulated and lubricated properly at the end of each day will remain smooth and unexpectedly young looking through the years. And they practice what they believe.

The busy mother who never seems to be able to comb her hair carefully and put on a little makeup before breakfast might find it worthwhile to go to bed ten minutes earlier and get up ten minutes earlier to allow time for a bit of personal glorification.

This may sound like impractical advice, but the fact remains that morning tasks seem less full if one's hair is oily, nose powdered, lips faintly pink. And never think for a moment that children do not notice how mother looks. They most certainly do notice, and they care, too.

If your budget is limited, remember that two dark, perfectly fitted dresses are better than half a dozen sagging frocks in various shades which call for several complete sets of accessories. Never wear collars and cuffs which are even slightly soiled. Keep clothes neatly pressed and immaculately clean. Let your plans for greater beauty include a few minutes a day for a care of clothes as well as face and hair.

REV. SHARP TO PREACH

The Rev. J. R. Sharp of Canyon will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church at morning worship today. Sunday school will be at 10 o'clock with church services at 11.

Since 1871 American Indians have obtained $18,000,000 in claims from the federal government.

Yesteryear In Pampa

10 YEARS AGO TODAY Two hundred twenty-five carload of wheat, averaging 1,400 bushels per car, had been shipped from Pampa to date.

A new wing of the high school was being built at the cost of $55,000. The red brick building was being remodeled with new chimneys and interior decorations.

5 YEARS AGO TODAY Pampa's All-star baseball team was defeated 1-0 in a game with the combined forces of White Deer and Skellytown.

plants are highly efficient, employing a large proportion of especially skilled steel labor. Steel barons argue that establishment of a closed shop lowers the factory average of skill among the workmen.

For all these reasons—with their bald implication that John L. Lewis had, in a sense, conspired with Big Steel—Little Steel fights and distrusts Lewis and his CIO.

IT ALL SEEMS LIKE A WONDERFUL DREAM

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—It was just the other day that Frank Capra, greeting ship news reporters on his return from Italy, stepped forward and seized a news photographer by the arm.

"You still don't want to sell him?" Capra went on for the thousandth time. After de Saria again declined they talked a while and then Capra left for Hollywood and de Saria went on about his business.

There is quite a history behind his entry into the movies—Paschan Lama's that is. De Saria got him in China when he was touring the Orient with a news reel outfit.

Panchan gets one pound of hamburger a day, plus three small puppy biscuits. He is now just one year and six months old, and, being a cold weather dog, he must suffer through another year and a half before his coat can be clipped.

At that, it was Harrison Forman, technical director of "Lost Horizons," who was directly responsible for bagging Panchan Lama for the picture.

Veteran directors, who saw the dog on the set, say his poise was superb. Since he never had faced a camera before, they were prepared for almost anything. But the dog takes orders perfectly and never occasioned a single retake.

Panchan Lama gets one bath a week, and three good combings. The academies in Hollywood which train dogs for the films are anxious to have him enrolled in their "schools."

Every day for weeks an anonymous "Mary" has written a letter to this office. . . She suggests antidotes for the worlds ills, settles affairs at Washington, and offers remedies for croup and influenza.

But this is one Tibetan terrier who isn't going to school. He knows all the answers now.

Tom Aldridge, local store manager for C. E. Anthony department store left Friday afternoon for Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. Aldridge will spend a week, respectively at Chicago and St. Louis buying fall merchandise for every department of the store. Later he will go to New York for a two weeks buying trip.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

There are those who once lived here but are now far removed from the eye-cwaring landscape of sky-touching plains, the burning winds, the blazing night skies and the glaring white sun, and most of those people eventually become homesick for the heat-seared Panhandle, and they want news from this top of Texas.

This is July 18, 1937, and last night there was a half-full hooked moon and the wind blew a gale under it—a wind that chilled, and whispered romance in the highest meaning of the word.

There is a horde of grasshoppers that is almost ravenous enough to bite a human, but people here have been undaunted and they are fighting the pests to the last ditch. The combines are clattering over the great wheat fields and the crop is good in spots, but most are like Roger McConnell who said "I'm busy these days but I've got to get that bushel of wheat."

Regarding people, somebody gets married every day, and there are more marriages than divorces which is unusual. Almost all the women they used to call old maids are getting married, and so are the old bachelors, but Bob Thompson is still holding out. Last month the babies outnumbered the deaths two to one.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Nice variety in previews recently. In three separate films Paul Muni gets old, Edward Arnold gets funny, and Mickey Rooney gets young.

The pictures have nothing in common except celluloid, but two of them are the kind that make you want to see more pictures. . . But as "The Life of Emile Zola" (Muni) and "Easy Living" (Arnold-Jean Arthur).

Paul Muni plans to "retire" for at least six months. "Zola" entitles him to a vacation. As he and Director William Dieterle dramatized a man of science in "Pasteur," they dramatize a fighting man or letters in "Zola." The natural climax is Zola's struggle in the Dreyfus case. The picture is built to hit that climax and sustain interest.

Muni's performance is for the most part restrained and powerful, but you have to give Joseph Schildkraut an equal hand for his Dreyfus.

Slight Misunderstanding Edward Arnold has been funny before, but never in such a pot-pourri of nonsense as "Easy Living." In fact, it's such a light tid-bit that Eddie, accustomed to lord-ing it over his pictures, would seem out of place if he had as much footage as usual. The picture belongs to Jean Arthur and Ray Milland, who is stepping right into that head-man class.

It's about a poor working girl who finds herself established in the most luxurious apartment the movies ever dreamed, simply because the hotel owner thinks that she and the millionaire who holds

FOR SNAKE BITE

By DR. IAGO GALDSTON

Cauterization, madstones and whisky won't help if a poisonous snake bites you. But here is some helpful advice from Laurence M. Klauber, curator of reptiles and amphibians of the San Diego Society of Natural History.

He who goes afield in rattlesnake country should wear stout leather leggings and carry a pocket kit containing: rubber tubing, a small bottle of antiseptic (iodine), a sterile razor blade in a little bottle, and a cup and suction bulb.

This paraphernalia is needed for first-aid treatment in case of poisonous snake bite.

The rubber tubing is used as a ligature and is applied not too tightly to the limb above the bite. The ligature should be released every 15 or 20 minutes for one or two minutes. The rationale of the ligature is to impede the spreading of the injected poison. To prove this effective the ligature must be applied within two minutes after the bite.

The area surrounding the bite should be painted with the antiseptic and the razor blade may then be employed to make criss-cross cuts deep enough to reach through the skin and the underlying connective tissue. The incisions should pass through each fang puncture and similar incisions about three-quarters of an inch apart should be made over the entire swollen area.

The glass cup with the stout rubber suction bulb is then applied to the cuts and the fluid drawn off. This evacuation process must be kept up for half an hour and repeated at intervals while there is any swelling.

As promptly as possible the patient should be placed under a doctor's care. The patient should be kept as nearly as possible at absolute rest. Physical effort stimulates the blood circulation, which hastens the spread of the poison.

Potassium permanganate may be employed to wash off the area surrounding the snake bite, but should not be injected by hypodermic syringe into the tissues. Lacking a suction cup, the poison may be sucked out with the mouth, which should first be filled with potassium permanganate solution.

Antivenin or anti-snake bite serum is available and can be purchased. To be effective, the antivenin must be specific against the particular snake. The serum should be injected intramuscularly or subcutaneously in the vicinity of the bite. It should be used promptly and liberally.

And he has a son, who rebels and works in a restaurant, where hungry Jean goes foraging. It starts on a low note of insanity and thanks to smart dialog and Mitchell Leisen's direction, it climbs to the highest peaks, including slapstick. Luis Alberni, Franklin Pangborn and Mary Nash add laughs to a picture that obviously was fun to make.

As for Master Rooney, who at 16 has announced his "engagement" but not set the date, he plays "The Hoosier Schoolboy." The misunderstood, pug-nosed kid from the other side of the tracks, with the drunken-dad he's proud of, and so on.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. If a foreigner wins the world's heavyweight championship, can he compel the challenger to come to his country to fight for the title, or must a title bout be staged in the United States? F. R. F.

A. The world champion heavyweight may fight wherever he chooses to defend his title in his own country or any other country.

Q. At what season of the year do most people visit Mount Vernon? D. T.

A. The six months beginning in April account for about 80 per cent of the visitors.

Q. How does a ventriiloquist manage his voice? M. B.

A. The essential mechanism of ventriiloquism consists of taking a full breath, then keeping the muscles of the chest and neck fixed, and speaking with the mouth closed, and the lips and lower jaw as motionless as possible while the air is very slowly exhaled through a narrow glottis. No air must escape through the nose.

Q. Is moonshine liquor still being made in Kentucky? H. W.

A. During the last fiscal year 681 still outfits were confiscated in Kentucky by the government. The law enforcement officers also seized more than a quarter of a million gallons of mash.

A. They eat many other things such as dead grass, rotten wood, dead insects, shell fish, seaweed, and partially decayed rags.

Q. Is the arsenal at Rock Island, Ill., the largest in the United States? A. B.

A. It may be considered the largest of the manufacturing arsenals in point of war production and storage capacity. The Picatinny arsenal, Dover, N. J., has the largest acreage, and Frankford arsenal, Philadelphia, Pa., has, at present, the largest personnel.

Q. Who was John Henry? T. K.

A. John Henry is a legendary character of a negro giant worker. Some years ago Roark Bradford wrote a book entitled "John Henry." This book was an account of the legends in connection with him.

Q. Could a woman serve as President of the United States if elected? H. S. B.

A. There is no provision in the Constitution in regard to the sex of the President of the United States. In so far as that document is concerned a woman would be eligible to the office.

BOOK A DAY

By BRUCE CATTON

Why is it that snakes are so fascinating, even to people who can't look at them without feeling shivers run up and down their backs? This reviewer would not willingly remain within 10 feet of the most harmless, and well-intentioned snake that ever wriggled over a log; yet he reads every book on snakes that he can find, and asks for more.

There is at hand currently an excellent book in this field—"Snakes Alive," by Clifford H. Pope (Viking; $2.50).

Mr. Pope is out to present a simple, non-technical handbook on snakes, telling how they live, how the different species can be recognized, what is known of their evolution and what types you are apt to find in your immediate vicinity, and he does a first-rate job.

Like all herpetologists, he is indignant at the unthinking antipathy (like that of your reviewer) which leads so many people to destroy snakes indiscriminately. The United States contains only a few species that are dangerous; most of the rest have a direct economic value. Yet most of us account it a good deed to slay any snake we come across.

Even the poisonous snakes, he says, could be worse. If you are bitten by a rattler, the chances are eight to one that you will recover even if you are given no treatment whatever; with treatment, your chances are 30 to 1. The moccasin is too remote to endanger many people; the copperhead simply does not bite enough venom to kill a normally healthy adult.

Altogether, "Snakes Alive" is worth reading. It should do much to promote a sane attitude toward these interesting and useful creatures.

SHORTER SKIRTS AND HIGHER HATS DECREED

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Women's fall hats either will tantalize men or drive them distracted until they get used to the new tricks.

Some of the new hats, shown today by Johns-Fredericks, leading designer were gay with chicken feathers from the barnyard Plymouth rock.

Some had a trimming like the end of a shaving brush, and some were shaped like witches' hats, with a tall peaked crown.

"Skirts are shorter, hats are higher," said Johns. "Don't ask for a lower crown. I won't give it to you."

Handbags are big enough to put everything but your husband in. Skirts 15 inches from the ground barely skimmed the knees.

M'LEAN HAS TWO FIRES WITHIN TEN MINUTES

McLEAN, July 17.—McLean's volunteer fire department was called out twice in about 10 minutes Friday in what Fire Marshal Boyd Meador stated was the "closest of any two fires in 10 years." The fires broke out within only a few minutes of each other, but both were extinguished, one after costly damage was done. At about 2 o'clock a customer backed into an electric gasoline pump at the Magnolia station on highway 66 and a spark ignited the gasoline, causing it to burst into flames. A call to the fire department was quickly answered and the flashes were put out by chemicals, without injury to anyone. No sooner had the volunteer boys returned to their various trades than a second call sent them hurrying to another section of the town, this time to find the home of Mrs. Belle Henderson flaming. After fighting the fire for some time, the men finally extinguished it, only after the house had been badly damaged, particularly on the inside. Mrs. Henderson was not at home at the time, and it was thought that the fire was started by a cigarette being thrown on the lawn and spreading flame to the porch and into the home. Mrs. Henderson is employed in the WPA sewing room. A small son lives with her.

scores of questions asked by the boys. Aubrey C. Green Jr. and Edward Wilkins have signed up to attend the council camp on Wolfe Creek. Other Troop 80 boys are also planning to attend the camp. About a dozen boys have qualified to go on a camping trip to Colorado. J. G. McConnell drilled the troop in marching, and the boys showed great improvement. The drills continue to be the most popular feature of Scout meetings. Ladies of the Friendship class served the boys punch after the drill.

Jack Smith, senior patrol leader, was in charge of the meeting. Members were reminded that several Scouts who have been in town on Scout meeting nights and who were neither working nor sick have been absent three times. When a boy is absent four times in a row his name is taken off the rolls under Troop 80 rules.

ped. None were classed as exposed or infected. All exposed or infected livestock were systematically treated. The Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas will continue the work in the Amarillo district in an effort to protect the livestock in that district from imported infection, and affording the necessary scabies certificates demanded by other states on livestock moving from Texas.

The above work was conducted under the supervision of Chas. E. Atford, supervisor of scabies eradication work, Amarillo. Note—There were employed in Amarillo district two county paid men which are not included in the above expenditure.

PASTOR CONFESSES HE SLEW 'DEVOTED' FRIEND

PITTSFIELD, Ill., July 17 (AP)—An 11-page signed statement of a soft-spoken pastor that he struck his "devoted friend," Mrs. Dennis Kelly, 45, with a hammer during a roadside quarrel after she deserted her husband—was claimed by authorities today.

State's attorney Merrill Johnson of Pike County, Ill., announced the statement and said the Rev. C. E. Newton, 51, indicated willingness to plead guilty if the grand jury indicted him. Newton, for 13 years pastor of a Baptist church at Paris, is charged with first degree murder, a crime for which the electric chair is the extreme penalty.

Johnson quoted Newton as saying Mrs. Kelly insisted he accompany her to California on her flight from home and husband. A roadside quarrel followed, during which he struck the woman with a hammer upon becoming "excited" as an automobile approached.

Then he dragged the body in the car, drove to the Mark Twain bridge over the Mississippi and pushed the body off into the river. It was found floating near Louisiana, Mo., Tuesday morning.

MARKER OF CORONADO TRIP BELIEVED FOUND

KANSAS CITY, July 17 (AP)—Archaeologists will make a further study of an inscribed fragment of a stone, which may be a relic of the explorations of Coronado 400 years ago, to determine its authenticity.

W. R. Wedel, assistant curator of the U. S. National museum, and Dr. Loren Eiseley, of Kansas University, examined the stone owned by Lyle Stephenson and sent a photograph to Washington where experts in Spanish lettering may study the style of the inscription. The stone was found near Atchison. The archaeologists said if the marker were genuine it would indicate Coronado reached the Missouri river in northeastern Kansas.

Treasury Didn't Escape Unscathed In Parading Names Of Tax Dodgers

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The names and favorite legal tricks of various tax evaders and avoiders have now been paraded by the treasury department before the joint congressional committee, and it now remains for Congress to plug up some loopholes in order to make the job of some 45,000 private tax lawyers that much harder.

But it would be a mistake to say that the treasury had not lost a few tall feathers in the process. It ought to be said for the treasury that its primary motive in putting on this show was to rouse Congress to the point of some remedial legislation, thereby increasing revenues. But there is circumstantial evidence that the administration did hope to make plenty of political capital out of the effort, and that the treasury was unnecessarily choosy in selecting the names which it tossed out to the lions.

The treasury took its first spanking when conservative leaders in Congress turned down its proposal to have treasury agents hold hearings and take charge of the publicity. Then Vice President Garner and Speaker Bankhead took pains to appoint the most conservative members available to the joint committee, further spiking administration hopes of bringing the evaders and avoiders here in person.

One of the first committee reactions was to ask the treasury in effect, "Where the devil have you boys been?"

Although it had been losing hundreds of thousands of dollars a year over a five-year period through a tax evasion scheme involving fake foreign insurance companies, and agents had reported frauds and evasions through the scheme, no action was taken until February. And, of course, the general question was raised why the treasury hadn't made its public exposures long before.

They May Be Lobbyists, Too.
Queer still was the fact that the treasury, long acquainted with the personal holding company method of tax avoidance, was now foaming at the mouth about it, but as recently as last year Congress—apparently with treasury approval—had slashed personal holding company taxes heavily, some by 50 per cent. Undoubtedly certain tax lawyer-lobbyists here did that job, but why the treasury and the White House let them get away with it continues to be puzzling.

The fact that thousands of tax lawyers have been graduated into private practice from the Bureau of Internal Revenue after intensive courses—at government expense—in the latest, most improved methods of tax evasion was also brought out. This racket flourished through the Wilson-Harding-Coolidge-Hoover period and is still going strong.

I UNDERSTAND. I AM PREPARED TO FURNISH ALL THE REFERENCES YOU DEMAND.

THAT IS, IF I FIND A CHILD THAT STRIKES MY FANCY. YOU SEE, I AM A LONELY OLD MAN AND I SHOULD LIKE TO HAVE AN HEIR.

THIS WAY PLEASE, BUT I'M AFRAID YOU WON'T FIND ANY BUT VERY YOUNG CHILDREN HERE.

AH BUT IT'S A BABY I'M LOOKING FOR, MISS NORTH. I SHALL BE GLAD TO HIRE A NURSE TO CARE FOR IT.

IF you can see the small companion star near the middle star in the handle of the dipper, your eyesight is supposed to be normal. The small star was named "Alicor" by the ancients, a word meaning "the test." The light that we see coming from them actually started on its way 73 years ago.

RICKETS MAY BE CAUSE OF STOMACH TROUBLES DENVER, July 17 (AP)—Childhood rickets may be the reason a lot of Americans now have to be fussy about their diets. Dr. Leon J. Menville, of Tulane Medical School, New Orleans, reported today. Rickets rats furnished the clues to some otherwise unexplained "bad stomachs" in humans. Dr. Menville told the third radiological conference here. In the experiments, the rats first were given a diet of calcium that contained little phosphorus and vitamin D. The rats developed rickets. Their bones bent easily and certain muscles were weakened, chiefly those of the intestines. Then, using three different methods—ultra-violet rays, the irradiated fat known as viosterol, and a normal diet—Dr. Menville cured the rats of the rickets as far as bone conditions were observed. But the stomach and intestine muscles remained weak. If the rats had been humans, they would have assumed they were cured of the rickets and would still be wondering why they had laxy mid-sections. Just to make sure his rats were reacting like humans, Dr. Menville once fed some Tulane Medical students the same diet his experimental rats were getting. After several days of observing both, he concluded his rats were reacting accurately. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Potete, 229 West Craven street, was buried in Fairview cemetery Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The child died in a local hospital. Surviving are the parents, a sister, Geneva Icy and a brother, Herbert Brooks. In France, there are 1844 persons to every square mile of area.
