OIL TEST ORDER AGAIN DELAYED

Six-Year Old Girl Is Strangled To Death With Skipping Rope

TWINKLES
Begging everybody's pardon in advance, we present a bit of verse inspired by the beer legislation:
To Chicago.
Sing a song of 3 and 2,
Pockets full of fry in America.
Real beer and what-have-you;
Only the weather's dry.
To New Mexico.
Sing a song of 3 and 2,
Pockets full of gin;
Reeling men and ladies too,
The question now is—when?
To Texas.
Sing a song of 3 and 2,
And don't forget the 1;
Texas borders, leaking brew—
Watch those 'leggers' run.
To Pedestrians.
Sing a song of 3 and 2,
Then dodge careening cars;
Drink a heavy draught for you
Will soon be counting stars.
To West Foster St.
Sing a song of 3 and 2,
They're cutting down your kick;
Hard's the luck for likes of you
If they make the new beer stick.

KEEPING IVAN SOBER

Ireland has her Pat; Russia her Ivan. Both Pat and Ivan are not averse to frequently becoming inebriated. It should be significant of something or other that in Russia, home of communism, liquor is quite as much of a problem in America. The Soviet, eschewing religion as Russians knew it, strangely link strong liquors and the church as kindred evils—both detrimental to the program of the communist state. Prohibitionists in America should react with interest of methods of controlling drunkenness in the U. S. S. R.

CANT SHAME THEM

First, Moscow drunkards were treated to movies of their drunken antics. It was an attempt to shame the masses into sobriety. But the masses laughed at the film and kept on drinking. Next the Soviet authorities declared bone-dry prohibition, much after the fashion of the United States. Despite heavy penalties, bootlegging prospered. As a result, we read in the New York Times Magazine, there was a partial retreat from prohibition. Light wines, beer, and "fruit spirits" were permitted. It was thought this would satisfy the peasant. (Some American think light wines and beer will satisfy the people.) But not so.

PROHIBITION ENDS

Stalin, seeing needed grain distilled to make strong liquor was responsible for the end of weak prohibition in Russia. Trotsky opposed this move, declaring that the people's government should not be based on the budget balanced, as it were, on vodka. Stalin replied that the people would have their liquor anyway and that had bootleg was worse than good, legalized vodka. Stalin now claims his move was wise.

AS TO PROFIT

Russians can have their liquor—if they can pay the rather stiff price. They do not feel as if they are breaking the law if they buy it. The government hopes that strong drink will be avoided. Prohibition has been replaced by propaganda. No moral argument is used, this having been found of little use in talking to and at the ignorant peasants. Tired, idealism of communism is being stressed, with the plea that drunkenness begets industrial losses and impeded the "plans." The society for the prevention of drunkenness tells the workers and peas-

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—The administration bill to permit President Roosevelt to employ 250,000 jobless in the nation's forests was passed today by the Senate.

The reforestation bill was quickly approved and sent to the house shortly after the senate banking committee reported favorably on another administration measure to create a $500,000,000 fund for direct distress relief grants to state.

The reforestation bill passed today will come up in the house tomorrow, while senate leaders announced early consideration would be given the more far-reaching direct relief measure.

The forest bill was approved without a record vote.

STAR BEAMS TRAVELING SINCE 1893 ARE TO TURN ON LIGHTS FOR CHICAGO'S EXPOSITION

April Skies to See Arcturus Bright Near Dipper As Great Fair Is Started.

By ROBERT H. BAKER, Professor of Astronomy, University of Illinois.

URBANA, Ill., March 28 (AP)—Arcturus, the star of the Chicago World's Fair—and the star whose light will help to open it—rises almost directly in the east at nightfall on April 1.

Later in the evening it will be higher above the horizon and therefore easier to identify. To find this brilliant reddish star follow the curve of the handle of the Great Dipper downward and around to the right.

On the evening June 1 the light of Arcturus focused by telescopes at four observatories in different parts of the country on photo-electric cells will provide the electrical impulse required to turn on the lights of the Chicago fair.

Forty years ago, while another fair was in progress in Chicago, this light that will arrive on June 1 started toward us from Arcturus. Since that time it has been speeding earthward as fast as 11,000,000 miles a minute. Just now it is less than a million miles away.

Arcturus is the brightest star of the constellation Bootes.

Here we can see a striking figure formed by the stars of this constellation. It resembles a kite, or perhaps the outline of South America with Arcturus in the position of Cape Horn. This kite figure rises on its side.

There are other interesting sights to be seen in the evening skies of the early spring. Most conspicuous of all are the two planets Mars and Jupiter, which are not far from the familiar sickle of Leo.

Jupiter is the brighter of the two and the farther toward the east. It is a fine object to observe with the telescope.

Mars has been shifting eastward recently away from Jupiter and toward Regulus, the bright star at the end of the handle of the sickle. During April it will turn around and resume its eastward journey among the stars. Mars will overtake Jupiter on June 4, when these two bright objects very close together in the west in the early evening will attract particular attention.

In June also Venus will begin to add its greater luster to the starry scene in the west after sunset. This bright planet will cross behind the sun into the evening sky on April 21.

Two Propose To Lease Swimming Pool From City

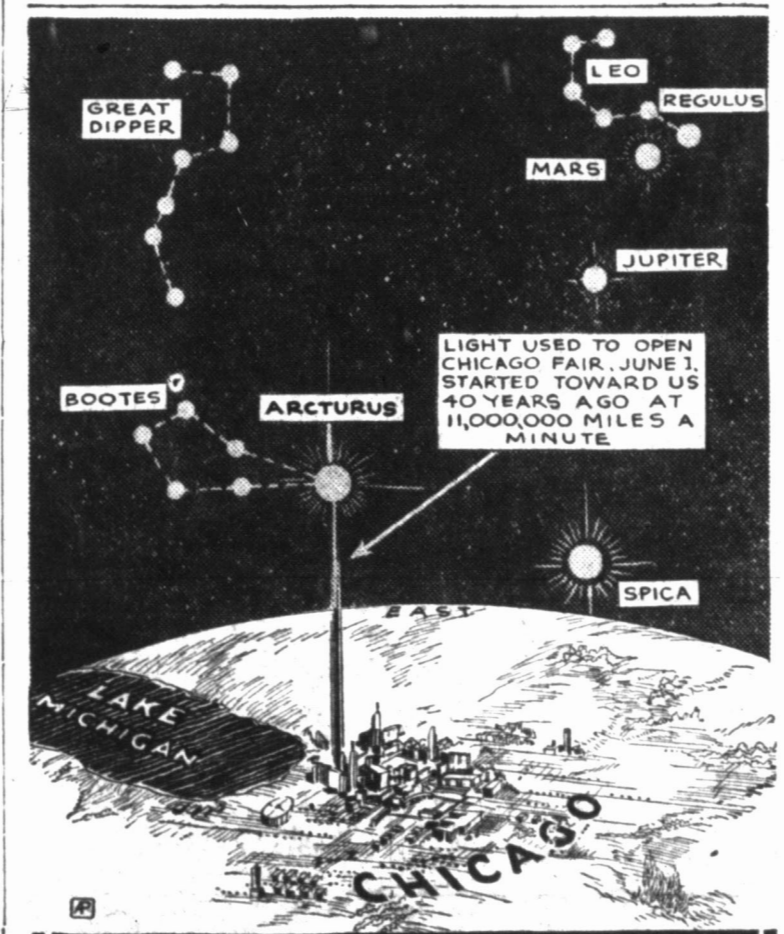

Propositions of two citizens who would like to operate the municipal swimming pool under lease, subject to regulations imposed by the city, were presented this afternoon to the city council.

The commission decided to buy 108 swimming suits to be rented. These will be in assorted sizes and will be sterilized each time after being used.

It was decided to place natural stone steps at the city park as part of the beautification program.

Because of other business which could not be attended to last night, the commission decided to meet again today at 2 p. m., when an inspection trip of city properties was planned.

BROTHERHOOD TO MEET
Members of the Men's Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church will assemble at 7 o'clock this evening in the dining room of the church for their regular monthly dinner and program.

BRIGHT IN THE APRIL SKY is the star Arcturus, rays from which will switch on the light of the Chicago Century of Progress exhibition. The rays, which will be caught by sensitive apparatus, started their earthward journey at the time of the world's fair at Chicago in 1893.

PAMPA DAILY NEWS OFFERS FREE TRIPS TO BIG FAIR

And All Expenses to Century of Progress Exposition Will Be Paid.

A FREE trip to the Chicago Century of Progress, hotel bill and board bill paid, and with money to spend in seeing the greatest sights of a century—sounds like a dream, but the Pampa Daily News and local merchants will make this possible for two persons early next summer.

Here's how: Cooperating merchants will give coupons dollar-for-dollar as purchases are made. These coupons can be exchanged at The NEWS for votes in the Chicago trip contest. At the end of the 3-month period, the two persons having the largest number of votes will be awarded the coveted trips.

The first award will include round trip rail fare, with sleeper, hotel and board while in Chicago, and $8 cash daily for 6 days. The second award will be similar, but with $5 per day cash for six days. The NEWS will pay the expenses of the trip.

Actually, the trips will cost the winners nothing, for the coupons will be given free with purchases from the cooperating merchants. Full details will be announced in a few days. Watch for further information and plan to try for these two trips—opportunities which will not come again in your lifetime!

Friday Is Last Day to Obtain Auto Licenses

Time is short for obtaining of state vehicle licenses.

Friday is the last day, and 1,500 motorists have not yet obtained the necessary licenses. Headlight tests are no longer necessary, the legislature having abolished this law.

A penalty of 20 per cent will be assessed those who drive their cars without licenses after Friday, and those penalized also will have to pay the full year's license fee. Those who have not used their cars or trucks this year may furnish a sworn affidavit and pay for 9 months. However, state highway patrolmen are said to be making note of those who have been using their cars without new licenses and those who make false affidavits are subject to prosecution and fine.

The state officers are working in this area now.

NEW YORK, March 28 (AP)—Six-year-old Barbara Wiles was killed in the basement of her Brooklyn home today, strangled with her own skipping rope which she had unwittingly tossed ready to the slayer's hand, and within three hours police seized for questioning a man unable to explain his recent actions.

As more than 100 uniformed and plain clothes police swarmed around the Wiles tenement in the Bushwick section of Brooklyn a dark man in his early twenties came pushing thru the crowd and elbowed his way into the building.

Officials Seek Observance of School Bus Law

Passing of school buses stopped to discharge or take on children involves so much danger that school officials and county officers are watching traffic carefully.

Several persons are charged in county court with passing the school buses contrary to state law, and their trials will be heard at the next term of court.

Ignorance of the law is held to be no excuse. The buses stop briefly, and traffic behind them is supposed to be similarly stopped until the children are in the buses safely and the buses placed in motion again.

Sun's New Well Producing 1,500 Barrels of Oil

Tanks are being built to start a test on the Sun Oil company's No. 2 Combs-Worley in the southwest quarter of section 34, block 3, I. & N. railway survey, which topped the pay yesterday and which looks good for more than 1,500 barrels daily. The new producer is an off-set to the Mazda Oil company's Combs-Worley in section 35, block 3.

Pay is coming from a total depth of 3,010 feet. The first hour the test flowed 60 barrels. Gas was gauged at 8,000,000 cubic feet. After the first hour the well was shut off for lack of storage and pipeline facilities.

SCOUT COURT HELPS DRIVE

Need For Continuing Work Seen as Boys and Men Are Awarded Honors.

THE finance campaign for the support of the Boy Scout movement continued today with renewed inspiration furnished by last evening's court of honor and opening of the adult leaders' training course.

Scouts and Scouters alike were awarded last evening for active participation in the movement. The Rev. A. A. Hyde presided as chairman, assisted by A. G. Post, president of the council. Special recognition was given adult leaders, four-year Scouts and Scouters, those who took the previous training course, and members of the executive board. A large number of boys were advanced in rank.

The principal talk was by District Judge W. R. Ewing, who entertained the boys and adults with stories of fishing and camping, and closed with sound advice on the value of honesty and hard work in life. He explained why chaos would instantly result if laws were suspended.

Troop 14 of the Sam Houston school was given the president's award for its exhibit at the recent roundup. Other awards went to Troop 3 of the First Baptist church and Troop 17 of Kingsmill, sponsored by the Rotary club.

Baker School To Hold Kite Flying Event Thursday

Spring is here. Kites, shimmering high in the clear air, show that the spirit of childhood is keyed to the new season.

Who has the best kite? That's what is being asked at Baker school. Accordingly a kite flying contest will be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, if weather permits.

Judges will consider such things as originality, length and height, and manipulation. Every boy and every girl in the school has been invited to enter the contest.

The air will be full of kites and it is anticipated that the judges will have a hard time deciding which is the best one aloft.

Men Fall Under Trains; Injured

AMARILLO, March 28 (AP)—Two men were in hospitals here today suffering from similar injuries received when they fell beneath moving trains in local railroad yards yesterday. The accidents happened within two hours of each other.

W. B. Plummer, 71, of Harlingen, lost his left foot. His son pulled him from beneath the train. T. W. Williams, 39, of Austin, suffered a broken leg. He was found early today after spending the night in the railroad yard. He said his companions refused to summon aid.

TIMELY APPEAL SAVES LIFE

News events, emergencies, called meetings, sustained publicity—such things make a daily newspaper a vital part of a community as big as Pampa.

A good example is that of a woman, desperately ill a few days ago in a local hospital, who had to have a blood transfusion to save her life. Her blood was of a rather rare type. Physicians despaired almost of finding a person with the right type of blood. Time was short. Then they thought of their daily newspaper.

ORDER CANNOT BE ISSUED IS ALLRED RULING

ABSENCE OF TERRELL AND THOMPSON POINTED OUT

MAJOR GROUPS AGREE GOVERNMENT ASKED TO PREVENT ILLEGAL TRANSPORTATION

AUSTIN, March 28 (AP)—R. D. Parker, supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad commission, said today that the proposed test on next Thursday of potential production in the East Texas oil field, has been postponed.

Parker pointed out that C. V. Terrell and Ernest O. Thompson, members of the commission, would not return from Washington until Thursday evening and that James V. Alfred, attorney general, had held that the proposed order could not be issued in the absence of the state of a majority of the commissioners.

Parker advised commission employees in East Texas that "commissioners Terrell and Thompson will arrive in Austin Thursday evening and the matter of making the test will be acted upon by them in a session to be called immediately after their arrival."

Copies of 'Inside Story' of Negro Case Confiscated

DECATUR, Ala., March 28 (AP)—Pamphlets purportedly containing "the inside story" of the first Scottsboro trials were ordered confiscated by Judge James E. Horton today, and an order was issued for the arrest of the man who placed them on sale.

The action was taken on the request of Samuel S. Liebowitz, chief of defense counsel for the seven negroes sentenced to death in the first trials and now facing a new trial on charges of attacking two white girls.

Liebowitz during an exchange with Thomas E. Knight Jr., state attorney general threatened to "ask for a change of venue." If similar occurrences interrupted the trials.

Examination of witnesses, mostly negroes from Jackson county, regarding their qualifications for jury service proceeded after the interruption.

The testimony was offered by the defense in support of its motion to quash the indictment against the negroes, because no negroes were included in the grand jury returning the true bills.

Judge Horton issued an order for the arrest of Kyle Frazier, whom three boys selling the pamphlets said employed them, after Liebowitz had asked that he be cited for "criminal contempt of court."

GET OUT OF THE PACIFIC

Yosuke Matsuoka has arrived in New York and promptly announces that he does not come to make appeals to the United States because "Japan is not a vassal state to America or any other nation."

The trouble is that his suggestion did not go far enough. Japan was greatly vexed when, in 1898, the Hawaiian group was annexed to the United States, and still more so when the Philippines were taken over that same year as the result of Admiral Dewey's exploit.

Japanese hints to China are in reality commands. Perhaps the United States should also promptly take the hint and withdraw the fleet from the Pacific. In that event it would be so much easier for Japan to hint, further, that it intends to control the whole of the Pacific, not merely the western half, and consequently would be pleased to have us vacate the Philippines and Hawaii both.

Incidentally, United Press reports that Japan's general staff desires the Emperor to authorize a drive into China proper. It is to be hoped that no other nation, or the League of Nations, will offer objection to this. Japan is not a vassal nation. It is supreme in Eastern Asia and hopes to rule the Pacific through its navy in due time. The United States should not interfere. It should reduce the effective strength of its navy still further and order what is left of it into the Atlantic so as to give Japan a free hand.

President Post said today he was encouraged by the reports made by solicitors in the finance campaign. Workers are asked to report daily at the headquarters office. The work of the council can continue only as long as the funds raised will permit, since the council will incur no deficit.

Beers should not be allowed by the family to replace milk. The soft drink and milk industries, not to mention scores of others, will suffer if alcoholic drinks gain more favor. But after the big "party" signaling return of beer, we may hope for and expect a rising tide of disgust against drunkenness. Then true temperance will mean self-discipline, of which this country stands in need.

Homer Pierson, in charge of production in the East Texas field, was advised to give as much publicity in the field as possible to the fact that the proposed test had been called off so that no one would make an attempt to conduct the test.

Members of the commission formerly had planned to issue an order requiring the flowing of all the approximately 10,000 wells in East Texas at maximum capacity for two hours on next Thursday. After the test, the wells would have been shut down until ordered opened by the commission.

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—C. V. Terrell and E. O. Thompson, of the Texas railroad commission, were still in Washington today but expected to start back tonight for Texas so the commission might meet to consider the dispute over their order for a test of the flow from 10,000 East Texas oil wells.

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—Agreement was reached today by major groups at governor's oil conference to ask the federal government to prevent the transportation in interstate commerce of oil produced in violation of state laws.

Wirt Franklin, president of the Independent Petroleum association of America and a member of the committee of fifteen named to formulate a program for stabilization of the oil industry, said the group was in accord on this and on an adequate competitive tariff for crude petroleum and petroleum products.

A broader plan for federal regulation was under consideration, however, and this has delayed presentation of a stabilization program to Secretary Ickes, who called the administration-sponsored meeting.

Franklin said he could give no details of additional plans for government supervision but it was understood that its scope was very broad and a discussion of details had prevented framing of the stabilization plan for presentation to the conference proper.

OH Field Puzzled KILGORE, March 28. (AP)—Landowners, operators and employees of the state railroad commission in the East Texas oil field were in a quandary today over the orders and counter orders issued by the commission which regulates their production.

Shortly before noon, no word had been received here that the order calling for two hours' open flow and subsequent shut-down, planned for Thursday, had been postponed. R. D. Parker, supervisor of the oil and gas division of the commission, made the announcement from Austin.

Capt. E. N. Stanley, in charge of the commission office here, said he had no official word of the cancellation and would shut in the wells unless instructed otherwise. He declared conditions over the field were quiet except overproduction of what he termed "chronic" violators.

The Sinclair-Prairie Oil company which opened its 481 wells yesterday for two hours, was believed to have produced 129,870 barrels before shutting down production operations. Capt. Stanley said charges were being filed against the company by the commission.

VALIANT DUST

SYNOPSIS: At sea in the whirlpool of intrigue that fills the ancient Citadel of Mekazen, Margaret Maligni is taken to see her childhood sweetheart, Otho Bellême, lying bound and wounded. He has been betrayed by Raimul, son of the King of Mekazen, and by Jules Malloni, Margaret's husband. Raimul has threatened Otho, private in the Foreign Legion, and Margaret as well. Jules is no protection, in desperation Margaret remembers Colonel Le Sage of the French Secret Service, who is trying to unravel the intrigue of Mekazen.

Chapter 41 A NEW MISUNDERSTANDING

Rising from the cushioned mattress that served him indifferently as arm-chair, couch and bed, Colonel Le Sage strode to the heavy iron-plated door of his room.

That wasn't Major Langeas's knock, but it was the knock all right.

Warily opening the door, Le Sage saw a Moorish woman, or rather a cloak which presumably concealed a Moorish woman, for no face was visible.

"Yelverbury?" he inquired in a whisper.

"It's I, Margaret," she whispered in reply, as she slipped into the room, and Le Sage locked the door.

"Oh, I am in such trouble, Colonel Le Sage. I've come to you for help. You will help me, won't you?"

"What is it?" asked Colonel Le Sage. A little coldly, Margaret thought.

Could it be that he was another of those people who promise everything and perform nothing? Had he cultivated her solely for his own ends, or for her possible usefulness to him.

"You will help me?" she asked him urgently, seizing his arm.

"What is it?" again asked Colonel Le Sage.

Yes. Definitely unenthusiastic. He had been very different from this when it had been a question of her being useful to him.

"I did my best to help you, Colonel Le Sage. And I'll help all I can. I'll do anything you ask, if only you'll help me now, just this once."

Margaret fought back her tears of pain, misery and disappointment. Was there no one in the world she could trust—except Otho? And yet she had felt such confidence in this man. An instinctive liking and trust.

What was he saying about Yelverbury? Why talk about that now? "Oh, Colonel Le Sage, do listen to me and help me. My oldest and dearest friend is . . ."

One moment, Mrs. Maligni. You must answer my question before we go any further. I must know where I am.

"Oh, Colonel Le Sage, I trusted . . ."

"Yes, Mrs. Maligni. And I trusted you absolutely, although it's not my custom. Now, tell me why didn't you give me the pass-word when you came to my door? And when you've told me that, just tell me where you got it."

"I don't understand, Colonel Le Sage."

"You don't? At the end of our talk together, you suddenly shut it all to me, and I admit you made me feel something of a fool. What was the idea exactly, Mrs. Maligni, in concealing the fact that you knew all the time who I was?"

"But I didn't. . . ."

"And I wonder how the devil your husband got hold of it. And I'd have sworn that that légionnaire lad was honest, too straight, too fine. I suppose he gave me and the pass-word away to Riccoll, and Riccoll told it to the Malignis, and Jules Maligni told you."

"Told me what?" cried the bewildered Margaret.

"Look here, Mrs. Maligni. There's the small matter of my life at stake, and you can believe me when I say that it is a very small matter in comparison with my success. That is an enormous matter, and I stick at absolutely nothing when I am working for my country."

"How long have you known who I am? Who else beside your husband and his father know who I am? And who was it told you a pass-word that I'd have sworn only I and one other man ever knew? It's important."

"Was it your noble husband, or was it Riccoll himself?"

"Colonel Le Sage, what are you talking about? What has happened since I saw you last? My husband told me you were a German Secret Service officer, Carl von Mittengen, masquerading as Herr Schlacht, and hoping to get something out of the Caid. I never dreamt you were anything else until you told me so, the last time I saw you."

"As for the pass-word you are talking about—nobody has ever told me any pass-word, neither my husband nor Major Riccoll, and I know nothing whatever about it."

Colonel Le Sage stared hard into Margaret's eyes, which met his unwaveringly, unflinchingly. Suddenly he spoke.

"Tell me this, then," he snapped. "Where did you get this word 'Yelverbury'? Why did you say it to me?"

School Debate Teams To Go To Canyon Tonight

Two Hi-Y basketball teams left this afternoon for Amarillo to return the visit that the Amarillo club made two weeks ago. T. H. McDonald is in charge of the trip.

Two weeks ago the Pampa Hi-Y teams split games with the Amarillo boys, our junior team winning and the senior team losing.

A high school bus was used for the purpose, but expenses are being defrayed by the Hi-Y. The Hi-Y folks were accompanied by Miss May and the debaters, who are returning Canyon's two debates tonight.

Sidelights: In terms of music valse means waltz—no wonder "Pop" laughed when Roy Webb asked what that word "v-a-l-s-e" meant on his piece of music.

The debaters returned White Deer's two matches last night.

The school wishes to thank the Cabot company and the Minter Lumber company and others who offered their tennis courts for the tournament Saturday.

Miss May has announced that any student in high school can earn two extra points for his English grade this six weeks by entering an essay in the Lions club contest on the subject of "If I Were a Lion, What Would I Want My Lions Club to Do for Our Community?" Papers are due Friday. See your English teacher for particulars.

Starting today the Home Ec girls are to serve breakfast in families each morning.

R. E. Williams of the Great Southern Life Insurance company was guest speaker to Miss Latimer's Vocation class last Friday.

April 1 comes on Saturday this year, and you won't have your usual chance to fool your teachers by not being at school.

"Pop" has been relating his experiences in the Spanish-American War to Miss Durrenberger's history classes. At the first period Thursday morning he will lecture on the Boxer uprising.

Phillip Powell wrote his term theme on forestry. We wonder if that has anything to do with his interest in the cultivation of the brain.

The other day this "Ad" appeared in the paper: Found—a wallet of five dollar bills. Will the owner please form a line at the west entrance of the high school?

A headline in an Austin paper reads thus: "New Building To House Old Fossils."

Jess Patton seems to be getting over that broken record pretty well; we'll bet he doesn't break it again just to see if it can be done. P. S. Louise visits him regularly. Not so bad, eh?

Miss May says her theme song since refereeing tennis matches Saturday is "Was My Face Red?"

CLASS SPIRIT VS. HAZING

Class spirit in Pampa High School has at last come out of the slump, and we are proud of it. Some few, however, might carry the thing too far with the practice of hazing.

Wholesome class spirit and friendly rivalry are fine, but there is no justification for physical violence. Of course such things are usually started in fun, but they sometimes get out of bounds before anyone realizes it and end unfortunately.

Let us be loyal to our classes and to their activities. Let us realize also that our loyalty should extend to other classes. Let us respect the rights and privileges of our school-mates, and realize that when class affairs are given, their activities should not be interfered with. Let us keep our class spirit a thing of joyalty but not of abuse.

English IV book reports are due April 10. All who need more points than they can make at that time are requested to get them up as soon as possible, as no reports will be accepted after that date.

Starting today the Home Ec girls are to serve breakfast in families each morning.

WHITLOW CONVINCES FANS HE'S A FIRST-CLASS FIGHTER

MANY BORGANS TO ACCOMPANY PUG TO PAMPA

UNUSUAL INTEREST IS AROUSED IN BOUT TOMORROW EVE

Allen Whitlow of Indianapolis, Ind., showed a large crowd of boxing fans that he is a real boxer during a strenuous workout at the Pia-Mor auditorium yesterday afternoon. Whitlow will meet Pug Grubbs in the 10-round main event at the Pia-Mor tomorrow night and the bout is hoped to be one of the best ever presented in Pampa.

The matchmaker is building extra ringside and bleacher seats. He will be able to accommodate 1,000 fans by tomorrow night. Grubbs is sending a delegation that is expected to reach 200 persons and they will be given a special section. They expect to see Grubbs beaten but may be disappointed if he opens up and fights like he is capable of doing.

The opening bout on the card will be at 8:30 o'clock and will see Toughy Simons and Wildcat McGuire in the ring. Emil Sturgeon, local boy, and Dexter Wright of Borger will follow. Hates Saltman, local boy, will meet a real slugger in Bill Stevens of Borger in four rounds. The other four-rounder will bring Skeet Sherrod, local boy, against Allen Gristy, of Borger.

The eight-round semi-final should be a second main event when Joe Vernon, 164-pound Pampa boy, meets Panton Taylor of Oklahoma City at the same weight. Vernon really opened up last week here and showed fans that he can fight. Taylor is a well known boxer in Oklahoma.

Grubbs and Whitlow are scheduled to go 10 rounds, wearing six one-gloves. Both will weigh less than 125 pounds, ringside. It is the bout fans have been calling for and they should get their fill of fighting.

Admission will be 25 cents for women and children and 40 cents for men. Reserve seats will be 15 cents extra to everyone.

SIGNATURES COLLECTED
CANYON, March 28. ## GALVESTON FANS CONCERNED ABOUT 'HANK' BUT HE ISN'T Beaumont Sports Writer Of Opinion Exporter Infield Will Be One of Fastest.

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Galveston baseball fans are said to be a bit worried about their star southpaw pitcher, "Hank" Thorman.

The portlander reported late and many fans fear it will mean a bad season for him because he has always been a slow starter. Belated beginning of spring training has caused some speculation whether he will be able to repeat his 20 wins of last season.

"Hank" told the fans not to worry, that he would be ready when the curtain went up. He is a wheel-horse for pitching and has promised Manager Billy Webb he will be in the pink opening day. That means he will have to bear down like a day laborer the remaining training days.

Vin Burke, Beaumont sports editor, is authority for the statement that the Exporters will have one of the fastest infields in the league. Vin believes an infield of Patchett, Newcomb, Clifton, and Walters, will perhaps be the fastest the Texas League has seen.

He believes this speed will offset some of the batting punch that the pennant winning predecessors had last year.

Vin does not say what will be done with that fast infield if "Hank" Greenberg and a few other 1932 Exporters are handed return transportation by the Detroit Tigers.

The Texas League transportation problem has not been settled. The club moguls and President Gardner are still trying to decide whether they wish to ride trains or busses. It has been suggested if they left the choice to players, the trains would win without a struggle.

Night Baseball.
Night baseball—the game that was invented to save baseball—is slowly doing a fade out. Houston apparently is the only Texas League city that still likes the night game. Fort Worth plans to play as much daytime ball as possible.
"We will play daytime baseball so long as we can and I hope it will be for all season," commented Bob Tarleton at Dallas.

Oklahoma City and Tulsa owners are confident that they can draw fans with daytime Texas League baseball.

Many Old Bibles Are Exhibited

BROWNWOOD, March 28. (P)—Considerable interest was shown here in an exhibit of old Bibles, some being more than one hundred years old. The oldest volume shown was owned by W. P. Logan. It was printed in 1815 and included the apocrypha. It has been said the Bible was buried during the civil war in order that it might not be confiscated. It once belonged to Mr. Logan's great-grandfather, who died in 1870.

Another of the old books was printed in 1816 and still another in 1824. Printed in recent years but of unusual interest was a Bible owned by Dr. Ben M. Shelton. It was printed in Jerusalem, translated from the original and bound in cedar of Lebanon. It was given to Dr. Shelton by a missionary. In the display was part of a collection from Daniel Baker college, including Bibles in Latin and Hebrew and prayer books and hymnals printed in 1843 and 1848.

Matsuoka Will Talk To F. D. R. On Next Friday

WASHINGTON, March 28 (P)—Simultaneously, the English and French views on economics, which the Roosevelt administration considers is closely linked with European debts, were presented here to the president and his secretary of state.

While President Roosevelt was engaged in discussion of the French attitude with Ambassador Claudel and Jacques Sterns, vice-chairman of the finance committee of the French chamber of deputies, Secretary Hull was talking for a second time with Ambassador Lindsay of Great Britain.

After their talk with the president, Claudel said they had discussed the forthcoming world economic conference and that the French favored holding it as soon as possible.

A little later, arrangements were made for President Roosevelt to talk with Yosuke Matsuoka, the Japanese diplomat, next Friday.

MAKE STOVE CENTER
The stove should be a "cooking center." Near it should be grouped frying pans and other utensils that are put on the stove to heat before food is placed in them; pan covers, forks, spoons and ladles; used in cooking; and salt and pepper.

Many utensils can be hung on the wall, especially if a sheet of zinc or composition material is tacked to the wall over the plaster. A narrow shelf can hold the rest.

INDIANS NEED OUTFIELD TO RATE AMONG BEST IN LEAGUE

Roger Peckinbaugh Proud Of Five Starting Pitchers He Has Ready To Go.

(This is another of a series analyzing major league baseball prospects.)
By RALPH WHEATLEY
NEW ORLEANS, March 28. (P)—Give Roger Peckinbaugh one good utility outfielder and the Cleveland Indians can duel against the best of steel in the American League.

The club is well shod in all other quarters but an injury in the outfield would cause a situation that makes Peck shudder. Indian-scouts are out looking for another outfielder.

If the need should arise, it is not an idle guess that Eddie Morgan might be sent to the outfield and cover over his present first base to E. H. Boss, the flashy fielding first baseman that led the minors last year with Chattanooga. Such a shift, however, would be forced by emergency, as Boss has been hitting in practice like a ham from the sticks.

But the rivalry in the infield between Morgan and Boss is overshadowed by that between John Burnett, regular shortstop, and the 21-year-old William Knickerbocker, up from Toledo. Burnett has been handicapped by an arm ailment suffered during the winter layoff and for a time it looked as if the youngster would roll him, but the arm has improved and Burnett is slated for his old berth. Cissell has second base without dispute and Kamm is going strong on third.

Averill, Porter, and Vosmik will hold down the outfield as regulars as Roy Spencer, a Senator turned Indian this year, takes the place behind the bat left vacant by the trading of Luke Sewell to Washington. Myatt will continue as second-string catcher.

All of this is well enough but the pitchers battery is what really warms the cockles of old Peck's heart. He believes that ball games are won by pitchers and he has five starting pitchers. Brown, Ferrell, Harder, Hudlin, and Hildebrand, whom he believes are the equal of any in the league.

JUNIOR TRACK TEAM WORKING OUT FOR MEET

PROMISING ASPIRANTS ARE IN CHARGE OF COACH MOORE

The high school junior track and field team started work yesterday afternoon in preparation for the county meet at Harvester park Saturday afternoon when the junior and rural division will be run off. The senior division, with only the Pampa Harvesters and LeFors participating, will be run off Friday afternoon starting at 3:30 o'clock so that the Harvesters can go to Clarendon Saturday.

Warren Moore is in charge of the junior team and he has some mighty promising aspirants. They have been working out for some time but only yesterday went to Harvester park for their polishing off. The coach will select his team Thursday afternoon in an elimination.

The junior division points will be used in the total to decide the school taking first place in the entire county events. Last year little time was given to the junior division but other schools made good showings and it was decided to develop a junior team here. The boys will be promising for senior competition next year, it is believed.

The junior team will compete against teams in the same class from LeFors, Alannred, McLean, and Hopkins. The age limit for the junior event is 15 years.

Phillips Well Is Located In Middle of Road

When the Phillips Petroleum company decided to drill an offset well on their lease in section 88, block B-2, south of Pampa in the Bowers-Jackson pool, they discovered that it would be located in the middle of the road to LeFors. The road is not a designated one but is a courtesy road through the field.

After conferring with Commissioner John Haggard, it was decided to route the road around the well, and yesterday A. H. Doucette, county engineer, surveyed the new route. The work will be done soon by county and Phillips men.

The new test will be known as the Phillips Petroleum company's No. 7 Jackson in the northeast quarter of section 88, block B-2. The road which the location will be made runs through the oilfield east to LeFors.

C. O. Gillman of Big Springs is a Pampa visitor this week.

PLAYGROUND BALL TALKED

Meeting Will Be Called In Near Future To Plan Community League.

Playground ball is in the air and a meeting will be called some night next week to make preliminary plans for the organization of a league. The date has not been set but will be announced later in the week.

Several teams have already organized and others are being gotten together. Phillips and Danieles teams are ready to go, while the old Jaycees Faculty, the Rose Building and the new Diamond Shoppers are gathering strength. The Kiwanis club will more than likely field a strong team this season. Many other teams are being talked and it is probable that an eight or ten team league will be organized this year.

Team captains are asked to get in touch with the sports department of THE NEWS, register their team, and name the time most suitable for them to attend a meeting.

Operators Will Make Plans For Austin Hearing

Several Panhandle oil operators will meet in the railroad commission offices here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to discuss what action they will pursue at the state-wide oil hearing set for 10 a. m. April 3 in the state capital in Austin. It will be decided whether it will be advisable to give written or oral testimony and to what length.

Questions to be asked by the commission in compiling data will be studied by the operators. The commission will endeavor to learn the market demand for the next four months so that a fair allowable can be set for producers anxious to observe proration.

CHECKERED SHOES USED WITH SPRING DRESSES

PARIS (P)—Checked shoes are a new note to give a fashionable fillip to spring costumes. Jenny shows them with plain kid toes and checkered wool back sections. A blue and white checkered wool frock worn with a three-quarter length coat of navy blue wool is accompanied by blue kid shoes having back sections of the checkered wool. Blue kid gloves cuffed with the same check complete the costume.

Severe Asthma
Asthma is among those conditions for which there may be available palliative remedies but no universally appreciable and completely effective cures.
From the Massachusetts General hospital comes an interesting report on a study of 132 patients admitted because of chronic severe asthma. Virtually all of the patients improved after a hospitalization of five days.
An important part of the study concerned itself with the underlying causes of the trouble. The author, Dr. Francis M. Rackemann, stated in commenting on the report that "the problem is difficult."
Is asthma due to some innate peculiarity rooted in the constitution of the sufferer, or is it due to external agencies?
Attacks of asthma may follow a head cold. On the other hand, asthma patients may have a head cold without suffering an attack. Exposure of foods and dusts to which the patient is sensitive sometimes brings on an attack and at other times it does not.
The majority of the patients dealt with in this study reported some domestic, financial or other difficulty leading to anxiety, but as the report points out, it is difficult to determine whether the asthma came first and the psychic difficulties later or vice versa.
If not directly responsible for the asthmatic condition, chronic infections certainly appear to contribute to the frequency and severity of the attacks. The report states that while extrinsic factors can be excluded and psychic factors are of secondary rather than primary interest, focal infections are probably important.
All of which leads to the conclusion that the sufferer from asthma must rely for relief upon the removal of his foci of infection upon maintaining as "cheerful" an attitude as possible, and mostly upon such treatment as will give him the greatest amount of relief.

BOYS SETTLE DOWN TO HARD TRACK LABOR

VALUE OF KEEPING IN TRAINING STRESSED BY MITCHELL

Coach Odus Mitchell really put his thimble through a workout following an eloquent lecture yesterday afternoon at Harvester park. He informed the boys that they would keep in shape or there would be some quiet dropping from the list.

Most of the afternoon was spent with the sprinters. The art of quick starting and running with the feet straight ahead rather than pointing out which cuts down speed. Emmitt Lane was uncovered as a sprint prospect. He paced Trenary in a heated battle over 100 yards. Trenary is showing better speed in the dash events and should be a winner before long.

Orville Heiskell worked on the distance and looked better than in any event he has entered. With another week or two practice he should be able to step with the best. All that appears to be the matter with Leon Robinson in the 220-yard dash is lack of confidence. He should be a world beater at that distance.

Wood and Elkins are both improving and should place in the county meet here Friday afternoon. Winners in that meet will go to Clarendon Saturday to an invitation meet which will see teams from Amarillo, Dumas, Canyon, Hollis, Okla., Clarendon, and other schools entered. The Clarendon team is rated the strongest in the race.

The county meet will open at 3:30 o'clock at Harvester park. Only LeFors and Pampa will compete. McLean has no track and field team this year.

Preliminaries in the Clarendon meet will start at 9 o'clock Saturday morning with finals in the afternoon.

'Holiday' Tryouts Continued Tonight

Try-outs for "Holiday," three-act comedy to be produced by the Pampa Little Theater, April 24 and possibly April 25, will be held again tonight in the club room of the city hall. Initial tryouts were held last night after the regular meeting of the Little Theater. There are 12 roles in the play to be cast.

About a dozen persons participated in the try-outs last night. Director Howard Nellis and the casting committee invites every interested person to be at the club room tonight. The casting committee includes six members of the Little Theater. None of the roles will be cast until after tonight.

'SCHOOLBOY' ROWE MENTIONED AS PRIZE FRESHMAN HURLER

Rookie Pitchers Are More Strongly Represented In American League.

By ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, March 28. (P)—The prospective freshman pitching class for the 1933 major league pennant season looks to be much more strongly represented in the American League than the National, on the basis of training camp developments thus far.

Every club in the American League has at least one good young pitching recruit primed for the big test, and the probability is that a round dozen will retain their places on the payroll at the start of the season. It will be a surprise if as many as six newcomers make the grade in the National League, which with their sophomores and elder classmates or that they haven't found much talent among this spring's freshman candidates.

Washington and New York, kept pennant rivals in the American League, each developed an outstanding freshman last year and may duplicate the stunt. The Senators will be extremely lucky if big Ed Linke, the strikeout king from Davenport (Iowa), follows the successful footsteps of Prof. Monte Weaver, who won 22 games last year, but the Yankees appear quite confident that burly Don Brennan from Newark will prove as effective as was Johnny Allen, a 1932 sensation.

The world champions have two other great prospects in Russell Van Atta, southpaw, and Marvin Duke, right hander. Each won 23 games in the minors last year. Van Atta with St. Paul and Duke with Erie, Pennsylvania.

Bucky Harris believes he has the prize pitching rookie of them all, however, in Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, pronounced ready to become a major league regular after winning 19 games with Beaumont in the Texas League. Rowe is only 21, a youthful giant standing five inches over six feet and weighing 205 pounds. Everyone who has seen him says he has class.

Connie Mack expects big Gowell Claset, a southpaw obtained from Montreal, to land a reserve job with his A's and may also keep Bill Dietrich from Portland, Oregon. Cleveland regards the former University of Iowa southpaw, Forrest Twogood, as a fixture and will give Belve Bean a thorough test on the strength of his good record with Toledo. Walter Brown, bought from Montreal by the Red Sox, and Jack Knott, taken from Milwaukee by the St. Louis Browns, appear to have clinched big league jobs. The White Sox

Garner Successor Quits House Seat

AUSTIN, March 28. (P)—Milton H. West of Brownsville, democratic nominee for congress from the fifteenth district to succeed John N. Garner, has resigned from the Texas house of representatives.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson has called a special election to be held on April 22 to fill West's place. The general congressional election also has been set for that date. West represented the 72nd district, comprising Cameron county.

may keep either George Murray, who won 23 for Dallas, or Clarence Feiber, southpaw from Oakland. The only National League pitching recruit who came up definitely tagged as a stayer is Walter Beck, high right hander of the Brooklyn club, and he seems to have justified expectations. He won 27 games for Memphis last year.

The outstanding surprise is Ed Fallenstein of the Boston Braves. Having once had a trial with the Phillies, Fallenstein isn't exactly a novice, but his professional experience is brief. After playing with Jersey City and Scranton, he was out all last year with a broken hand. He stood the Yankee sluggers on their collective heads in his last exhibition appearance.

"hidden quart"
THAT STAYS UP IN YOUR MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY
*THE GERM PROCESS (exclusive Conoco patent) imparts to this motor oil that peculiar ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. Of this first filling about one quart will "hide" itself up in your motor's precious working parts. This hidden quart never drains away. It becomes a part of the motor itself; worth its weight in gold.
The Oil You Can Trust in Emergencies
Is Safest to Use Every Day
We publish Mr. Strauss' experience (and there are hundreds like it) to prove this point: If emergency demands, it is possible to drive many miles on the "hidden quart" alone. Conoco is the only oil with the "hidden quart" advantage. An oil that meets big emergencies, so ably, will meet daily demands with a margin of safety to spare.
When starting, unless your motor is blessed with a "hidden quart, it must run a few minutes without oil. Ordinary oils drain back into the crankcase, overnight. 50% of motor wear occurs during the "warm-up," while lubrication waits on the pump. This loss is needless. Drain and refill with the "hidden-quart oil, today.
Read the Words of a Former Skeptic, Mr. M. A. Strauss, Hartline, Washington:
"I had always considered Conoco Germ Processed motor oil a superior oil, but the "hidden quart" as just publicity stuff. I am now convinced of the truth of your statements.
"On the outskirts of Wilber, the well, my car struck some rocks. I gave it no particular thought and drove on into Spokane at 40 or 45 miles per hour. Returning from Spokane, out about 8 miles, I noticed the pump not working. In addition I saw it run out the bottom. I investigated and found a square-inch hole. Only at Wilber could the accident have occurred. I realized I had driven fully 75 miles without oil. In addition I drove the 8 miles back to Spokane for a new pan and more Conoco."

Crude Attempt To Blackmail Mrs. Lindbergh Thwarted

SCHOOL BOY'S LETTERS ARE INTERCEPTED

POSTOFFICE OFFICIALS SNATCH MISSIVES FROM MAILS

AKRON, O., March 28 (AP)—A crude attempt to blackmail Mrs. Chas. A. Lindbergh for $25,000 was thwarted today with the arrest of a 15-year-old Hudson high school boy.

The lad, postoffice inspector Ernest D. Claggett said, admitted mailing two letters to the famous aviator's wife but said, "I don't know what I would have done with the money if I had got it. My father will kill me, though, when he hears of this."

Detectives who captured him last night near the spot where the money was to have been sent said the boy probably would be turned over to juvenile authorities. They withheld his name.

He didn't know the Lindberghs' address "for sure," the boy said, so he addressed the letters to "Mrs. Charles Lindbergh, Delaware and New York," believing that if they lived in either state the missive would reach them.

One of the letters was mailed Feb. 27. It was snatched by postoffice inspectors here. The second, dated March 14, was intercepted by Washington postal authorities. Neither was seen by Mrs. Lindbergh.

"We are watching you," the brief second message said. "Your lives are in danger. There are 30 in our gang. Send the money by parcel post to 'Dad,' care of Bluebird Inn, Route 8, Hudson."

Claggett said "Dad" was a 73-year-old house friend of the boy. He disclaimed any knowledge of the plot and, the inspector said, the boy did not implicate him.

Kidnaped Boy Is Returned Home; Ransom Is Paid

WARREN, Ohio, March 28 (AP)—A desperate band of kidnapers, rid of their 15-year-old captive, was hunted today by federal authorities to whom the father told of a rendezvous with the abductors on a lonely road shrouded in darkness.

The boy, Peter Meyers Jr., appeared in good health as he related his experiences during the eight days he was held in a semi-dark room following his capture by three men armed with revolvers and a sub-machine gun.

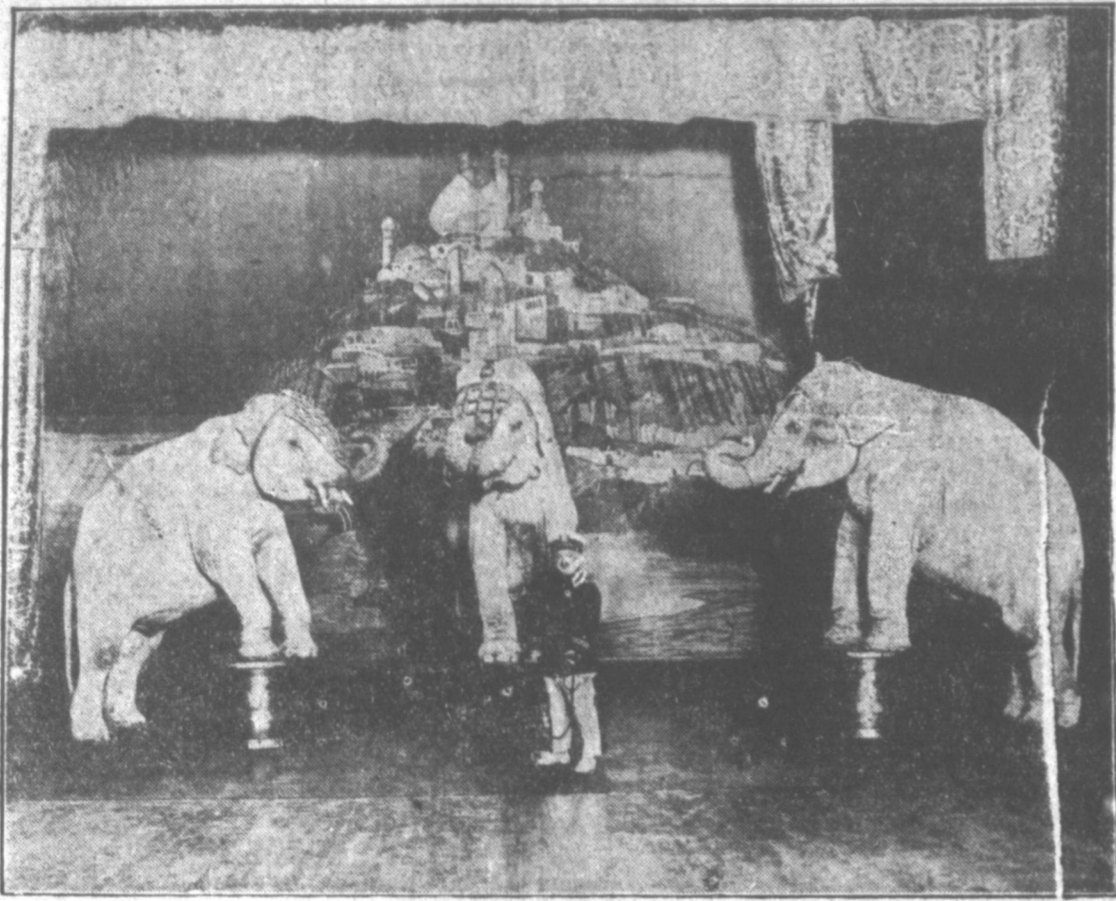

Three hundred dollars, a hundred more than he had offered for the capture of the kidnapers, was the price the elder Meyers said he paid for his son's return. A larger sum was demanded, the father said, but through the "friend" who acted as intermediary he was able to scale the price down on the plea that his money was "tied up in the bank."

W. E. Peters, agent for the federal bureau of investigation, expressed the belief Meyers was withholding some details of the rescue in fear his family might be harmed if he talked.

Mrs. Frank Scott underwent a major operation this morning in Pampa hospital.

Mrs. W. E. Robinson was able to leave Pampa hospital yesterday.

'Vociferous Articulation' Is Jim's Version of East Texas Oil 'Flow'

By R. W. BARRY.

AUSTIN, March 28 (AP)—"Vociferous articulation!" Those are two words almost as cumbersome as moratorium. Yet they rolled off the tongue of James E. Ferguson, husband of Texas' governor, like monosyllables.

He was referring to the East Texas oil field. He said there was "vociferous articulation" on all sides about how to bring everybody into line and make everyone satisfied with production conditions.

"It is virtually an impossibility to please as many as ten thousand persons," Ferguson said. "There are that many wells in East Texas and the owner or owners of each has his own notion how the matter of producing production should be handled."

Ferguson is deeply interested in the field since it embraces an area that is giving storage to the state's most valuable natural resource.

He entertains many East Texans in the course of a day's business and he never fails to get what information he can from each.

Recently he sent for all three of the railroad commissioners, who were in the production problem day in and day out, and there was a long conference. Some consternation then was felt when news came out that the executive's chief counsel and the commissioners had been talking East Texas oil.

"Just wanted to learn a little more about things over there now that not so much time is taken up here at the capital talking with job seekers," Ferguson said.

The lines of job hunters have thinned out noticeably, but every day or two they seem to appear in greater numbers.

One caller, turned back by John Wood, the governor's secretary, went upstairs and sent the governor a telegram advising her that he, the sender of the message, was in the outer office awaiting an audience.

Chemical Test Tube Holds Key Of Civilization

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)—A future in which the test tube of the chemist holds the key to world power and the problem of international relations, with additions to human knowledge now undreamed-of, was pictured today before the American Chemical society.

"The difficulties which arise in world politics from distribution of mineral, and quite generally, natural resources," said Prof. Hugh S. Taylor of Princeton university, "may be intensified because progress in scientific, and most often, chemical achievement may profoundly modify the extent of power accruing from the possession of a raw material."

Chemistry's contributions to civilization, though already so vast as to startle chemists themselves, have barely begun, it was predicted by Harry L. Derby of New York, president of the American Cyanamid and Chemical corporation.

Dalhart Section Now Diversified

DALHART, March 28 (AP)—The north Panhandle has been agitating "diversification" for three years and now it has a diversity of interests.

While Jack Earl Collins, Channing 4-H club boys, was winning second with his junior yearling calf in the Fort Worth Fat Stock show, Samuel H. Roberts, Dalhart, was receiving congratulations on his horse, "Miss K. Y. Rex" winning championship honors in the American saddle horse blue-blooded brood mare class in that department of the Amarillo Fat Stock show. Its pedigree goes back to the famous Denmark family, now a requisite in all registrations.

Dalhart has a group of saddle horse enthusiasts. T. W. Turner, 84, city councilman, rides horseback every day. John Langhorne has 13 fine blooded saddle horses in Dalhart. Mrs. John Schrader is picture on a side saddle.

Charles Giddings Jr., future farmer of America, showed his two junior yearling Hereford calves in the Amarillo Fat Stock show, selling them well above the market price. Total cost on the calves, including their purchase price, feed, transportation, and selling cost was $73.20, leaving a labor profit of $36.80. Charles put on a pound of beef for 4 cents, his figures show.

Oil Hearing To Be Based Upon Four Questions

Four important questions will be asked of every purchaser of crude oil in the state at a state-wide hearing of the Texas railroad commission in Austin April 3. The purpose of the hearing is to determine the demand of crude between April and July, inclusive.

The following questions are to be answered:

QUES. 1. What amount of crude oil is held in storage by you or for your account available for use during the period April to July, 1933, inclusive? Where is the same stored? Give separately the quantities of stored oil, according to classification by gravity and special refining characteristics, and where each class is stored.

QUES. 2. What amount of crude oil is held by you in storage for others which is available for use during the months of April to July, 1933, inclusive? Where is the same stored? Give separately the quantities of stored oil according to classification by gravity or special refining characteristics and where each class is stored. Give same information as to oil stored by you for yourself or for your account by others.

QUES. 3. What amount of crude oil classified as to gravity and of special refining characteristics will be required by you for your own use during the months of April, 1933, May, 1933, June, 1933, and July, 1933, separately stated by months and reduced to average daily demand for each monthly period? From what fields do you contemplate securing said oil, where is the same to be used and with oil from what other fields in Texas is said oil interchangeable? Through what pipelines or combination pipe and rail lines do you contemplate transporting said oil from the field from which you desire to obtain it? State if you are willing to purchase said oil ratably from producers in the field or fields in which said oil is to be produced. By "ratably" is meant according to such allocation of allowable as the commission may order.

QUES. 4. If you are a producer or purchaser for sale or delivery to others, give the same information concerning oil required by you for sale or delivery to others for use as is called for in Question 3, and show where same is to be used, to whom said oil is to be delivered, and the address of the party to whom the same is to be delivered. It is understood in this question that the party to whom said oil is delivered is a consumer. If the oil is to be delivered to more than one consumer, give names and addresses of all such consumers and quantities to be delivered to each. It is contemplated that the oil so required will be taken ratably from producers in the field from which the same is to be obtained. State if you are willing to so purchase the same ratably. By "ratably" is meant according to such allocation of allowable as the commission may order.

Oil Hearing To Be Based Upon Four Questions

Four important questions will be asked of every purchaser of crude oil in the state at a state-wide hearing of the Texas railroad commission in Austin April 3. The purpose of the hearing is to determine the demand of crude between April and July, inclusive.

The following questions are to be answered:

QUES. 1. What amount of crude oil is held in storage by you or for your account available for use during the period April to July, 1933, inclusive? Where is the same stored? Give separately the quantities of stored oil, according to classification by gravity and special refining characteristics, and where each class is stored.

QUES. 2. What amount of crude oil is held by you in storage for others which is available for use during the months of April to July, 1933, inclusive? Where is the same stored? Give separately the quantities of stored oil according to classification by gravity or special refining characteristics and where each class is stored. Give same information as to oil stored by you for yourself or for your account by others.

QUES. 3. What amount of crude oil classified as to gravity and of special refining characteristics will be required by you for your own use during the months of April, 1933, May, 1933, June, 1933, and July, 1933, separately stated by months and reduced to average daily demand for each monthly period? From what fields do you contemplate securing said oil, where is the same to be used and with oil from what other fields in Texas is said oil interchangeable? Through what pipelines or combination pipe and rail lines do you contemplate transporting said oil from the field from which you desire to obtain it? State if you are willing to purchase said oil ratably from producers in the field or fields in which said oil is to be produced. By "ratably" is meant according to such allocation of allowable as the commission may order.

QUES. 4. If you are a producer or purchaser for sale or delivery to others, give the same information concerning oil required by you for sale or delivery to others for use as is called for in Question 3, and show where same is to be used, to whom said oil is to be delivered, and the address of the party to whom the same is to be delivered. It is understood in this question that the party to whom said oil is delivered is a consumer. If the oil is to be delivered to more than one consumer, give names and addresses of all such consumers and quantities to be delivered to each. It is contemplated that the oil so required will be taken ratably from producers in the field from which the same is to be obtained. State if you are willing to so purchase the same ratably. ## Fifteen Killed In Belgian Air Liner's Wreck

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 28 (AP)—Fifteen persons were killed today in the wreck of an Imperial Airways passenger liner near Essen. Eleven of the victims were English.

The plane, bound from Cologne to Crofton, England, by way of Brussels, was the tri-motored "City of Liverpool."

She carried 12 passengers and a crew of three. All perished when the ship crashed in flames. Assistance arrived quickly, but too late to help the victims.

The burned bodies of the pilot, mechanic and four passengers, one of them a woman, were recovered from the wreckage.

Persons who saw the ship fall said it burst into flames and dropped like a spent rocket. It fell in a farmer's field.

The bodies of four of the dead were found at some distance from the plane. Apparently they had jumped.

In every corner of the world, both here and overseas, wherever you find joy in life, 'tis always "Luckies Please!"

Luckies are distinctive in character ... unique in mildness

The wide world over, people want a cigarette that has character ... and mildness ... That's why they choose Luckies.

The "Cream of the Crop"—in those four words, you have the reason for Luckies' character—a character that sets them apart from all other cigarettes. The choicest tobaccos are aged and mellowed for nearly three years ... and then "Toasted" for true mildness. For these two reasons—Character and Mildness—"Luckies Please!"
