

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY BY O.E.H.

We are going to endorse the... W. style... to be given at the La Nora... Wednesday night... in advance of the softball game...

Some time ago we wrote in this column... We are told that the Harvard catalogue is read seven times, by as many proofreaders, before publication...

To the above State Press Dallas News columnist, replies as follows: "Right, Mr. Hinkle. No newspaper sets itself up as an impeccable specimen of mechanical or editorial production..."

State Press is, as usual, never perfect. A master of eulogy, he never fails to leave a few words thrown about which lead one to ponder not very contentedly...

Now to turn, as gracefully as we can to a more important subject—the road and bridge over the Canadian northwest of here...

DEATH MATTER OF TIME FOR SARAH GARNER

SPEAKER'S MOTHER IS GRADUALLY GROWING WEAKER

CONSCIOUS SHORT TIME

RECOGNIZES SON FOR INSTANT AND THEN SLEEPS AGAIN

DETROIT, Sept. 19 (AP)—No change in the condition of Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, mother of Speaker John N. Garner, was noted by her physicians at noon today.

DETROIT, Sept. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, 81-year old mother of the democratic vice-presidential nominee, critically ill at her home here, failed to show any improvement this morning and those in attendance believed the end was not far off.

The pioneer mother was considerably weaker than last night. Her temperature remained high, 103.4 degrees, and her pulse was up to 148.

Speaker Garner, who interrupted his political campaign activities to hurry to his mother's bedside, said this morning: "My mother can not recover. It's just a matter of time now."

Mrs. Garner became conscious for a brief period after the speaker's arrival from Washington yesterday, and feebly acknowledged his presence.

"Do you know me, ma?" he asked, as she stooped low over her bed. "Yes," was the faint response.

She dozed off shortly afterwards and during the night her vitality waned steadily, her physicians reported.

Mrs. Garner's serious condition appears to have been recognized by her pet poodle, "Fluffy." Since she became critically ill a week ago, the pet has refused to eat and spends most of its time lying under her bed.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 19.—The missing link in the chain of evolution that falls between fish and toads was a fish that walked on four legs, Lauro Koch, noted arctic explorer, claimed today on his return from Greenland.

Dr. Koch, holder of the American national geographic society's Charles P. Daley medal, said he found the remains of the quadruped fish near an estuary of Franz Josef Fjord.

Legislature Delays Adjournment Till Wednesday To Pass Tax Bill

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—Both houses of the Texas legislature today agreed on a bill providing for adjournment of the legislature on Wednesday, Sept. 21.

Actica became final when the senate adopted a house amendment fixing Wednesday night as the adjournment date. Senators said the house could not postpone the adjournment date without their consent and they seemed determined not to give their consent.

The senate originally asked for adjournment last Saturday but the house refused. The senate then adopted a resolution calling for adjournment tonight but the house amended it to Wednesday night.

ROBBERS KIDNAP MANAGER OF STORE, HIS WIFE, BABY AND NURSE, THEN OBTAIN $3,500

All Freed Unharmed At Outskirts Of City

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 19 (AP)—About $3,500 in cash was obtained by robbers who kidnaped Neils J. Neidermann, office manager of El-Land's department store, early today and forced him to open the store's safe. Neidermann later was released on a highway west of the city.

It had been reported earlier that the robbers were frightened away by officers who had been notified of the kidnaping of Neidermann.

They were told by neighbors of the manager that they feared the men had taken Neidermann to the store with the intention of having him open the safe for them.

Officers were investigating, but a short time after the robbery-kidnaping they announced no clues had been found. Several months ago a payroll messenger for the store was held up on the street and robbed of $5,000.

The robbers appeared at Neidermann's residence and forced him at the point of guns into his own automobile and to drive to the department store. A third robber kidnaped Mrs. Neidermann and drove her out to the western edge of the city where she was put out of the car. Neidermann found her as he was returning to town for aid.

With Mrs. Neidermann were her baby and the baby's nurse. All were released unharmed.

Six Dead After Oklahoma Battle

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 19 (AP)—A sixth death climaxed today the bloody week-end of warfare between the law and mountain crime.

Hurt Flippin, Claremore deputy sheriff, died of his wounds, in a Muskogee hospital, evening of the score of those slain—three peace officers; three accused outlaws.

Two of three alleged killers, sought for the slaying Saturday of Deputy Sheriff Walter Reese, were shot to death by a posse of officers in Heart of the rugged Cookson hills, known bandit retreat ever since.

Oil Company Head Advocates 'Share-the-Work' Movement

BOSTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, expressed belief today that the "steady-state" of our advance out of the depression is dependent upon employment and the employment situation, he says, may be met best by the "share-the-work-movement."

"I am one of those who believe," Teagle told the fourth annual Boston conference on retail distribution, "that we are emerging from the depression, definitely and on a basis which gives promise of real stability." He is the national chairman of the "share-the-work-movement."

"We face the winter with at least 10,000,000 men and women out of work," he said. "Charity funds, both private and public, are increasingly difficult to raise. The tax powers of states and communities to raise funds for public improvements to make work for their unemployed is rapidly approaching an embarrassing point."

"I am sure we are all agreed that neither charity nor the dole—for that is what much of the 'made-work' virtually amounts to—is any women who are working for them."

STORM CENTER WILL HIT AT MORGAN CITY

ALL DANGER TO TEXAS COAST PASSES, IS BELIEF

HARD WINDS SWEEP IN UNLIKELY THAT GALE WILL CURVE BACK INTO TEXAS

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Residents of lower Terrebonne parish today began an evacuation of the coast as high tides from the Gulf of Mexico pushed into the lower marsh country and strong winds swept the southern portion of the state in advance of a tropical disturbance moving inland from the gulf.

All schools in the Terrebonne section were dismissed before noon as the gulf surf began to move northward toward Houma, the parish seat.

Earlier, schools had been dismissed at Morgan City, near where the weather bureau forecasts the storm center would pass. Heavy winds uprooted trees at Morgan City this afternoon.

North of New Orleans, the waters of Lake Pontchartrain were being whipped by strong winds that demolished fishing camps and sent the waters of the lake far out of its banks in a sparsely settled country.

RE-ARMAMENT DISCUSSED AT PARIS DINNER

American Diplomats Asking Support Of French

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—International political circles today viewed as of the greatest importance a luncheon given by Premier Herriot for United States Ambassador Edge Reed, of Pennsylvania and Theodore Martiner, the new counselor to the American embassy, who is a disarmament specialist.

Joseph Paul Boncour, minister of war, and other government officials were present.

Before the luncheon it was admitted unofficially that the subjects to be discussed informally would be the Hoover plan of disarmament and the situation created by Japanese recognition of Manchukuo. It was learned that Senator Reed has been doing helpful work on both matters, especially in Great Britain where he talked with Prime Minister MacDonald.

THAT FERGUSON LEGISLATURE

Those who fear that election of Mrs. Ferguson would repeat events remembered only with disgust can have little consolation if Governor Ross Sterling should, by court action, be declared the nominee and re-elected.

Governor Sterling has not been very fortunate with legislatures passably friendly to his program. What would happen with a Ferguson-controlled legislature and Sterling in a bitter struggle is not appealing to the imagination.

Jim would sow and the legislature might water, but Ross would come along and burn up the legislative crop with his veto pen. At least that is a pretty logical assumption.

Texas is becoming fairly well reconciled to another dose of Fergusonism. Perhaps Texas would rather take Fergusonism straight than in the form of a Sterling-Ferguson concoction unpalatable, ineffectual, bitter. At least two years of Jim and a Ferguson-controlled legislature would leave no doubt as to the character of government the combination working at its best and worst could produce.

There are not a few right here in Pampa who are going to vote for Roosevelt, Garner, and the Texas G. O. P.'s Mr. Bullington. This protest, however, will have no state-wide significance. These men wish hell raised but nothing done can hope for Ross and the Ferguson legislature; those who are willing to take the party nominee 'as is' may well turn their attention to fall sports and fashions, Texas is going to need a lot of "reconciling" next year.

The NEWS will support the nominees of the party in Texas, believing no other course is feasible.

CHARACTER AGENCIES

A question which is going to be raised in nearly every city in the land during the Community Chest campaigns this fall was brought up in a letter to a Cleveland newspaper the other day by Mr. Joseph J. Lopresti, who contends that 50 per cent of the chest dollar goes to "petty, parasitic bureaucracy," and then goes on to point out that he means such agencies as the Boy Scouts and the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Lopresti's argument is answered just about as effectively as possible by Newton D. Baker, national chest campaign head, in a letter to the same newspaper.

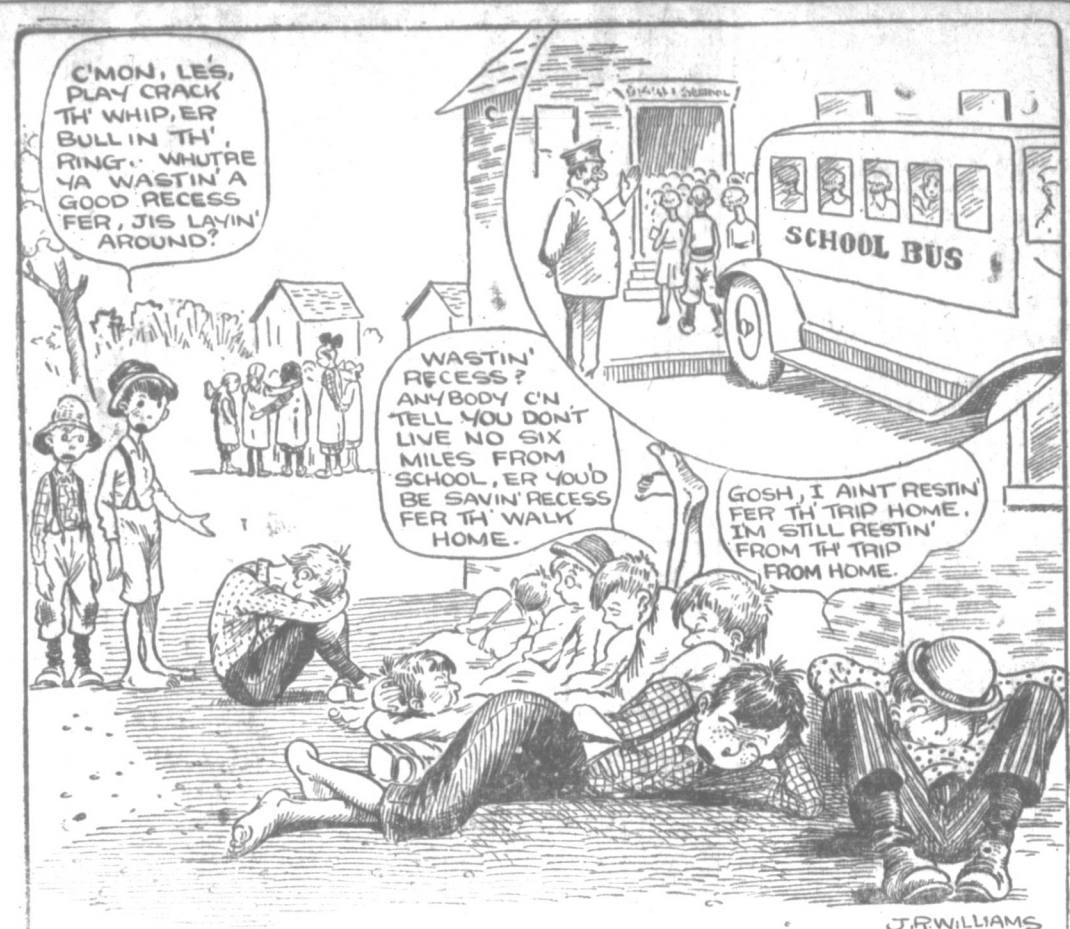

"The peril of our civilization is not a dearth of material things," Mr. Baker says. "The real danger is that this glittering, material civilization will dwarf individual character and that personal integrity and industry and thrift and reverence will be lost sight of in a high-speed, industrialized society which has broken many of the molds in which character used to be formed.

"I am sure that Mr. Lopresti will agree with me," Mr. Baker goes on to say, "that the ideal for our race is that they should be strong and wise and love beauty rather than that they should be well fed and selfish and satisfied like cows in long grass.

"As a matter of fact, character is essential to happiness and the character-building agencies are indispensable to any effort which confronts poverty, want and disease," he says.

Mr. Baker then discusses the plan for immediate relief for unemployment by shorter working hours and the shorter working week, and concludes with "Indeed, I am persuaded that the answer to these problems and a relief from these distresses will come chiefly from the building up in us of that very character which for the moment Mr. Lopresti impatiently discards.

It is doubtless true that many persons will fail to see the reason for not spending—for the time being—nearly 100 cents of every dollar available for bread and meat for the destitute.

But at the same time it is also true that the character-building agencies were never more needed than now—that they have never faced a harder, more important task than they have never accomplished so much with so little.

And if all these things are considered—and they must be before any hasty action is taken—one cannot help agreeing with Mr. Baker that "character-building agencies are indispensable to any effort which confronts poverty, want and disease."

Bolivia Offers Truce In Chaco Jungle Fighting

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Sept. 19 (AP)—An offer of a truce in the fighting between Bolivia and Paraguay in the Chaco region was made by the Bolivian government to the neutral nations today, on condition Paraguay agreed to it.

Bolivia is willing to cease hostilities immediately, the note to the neutrals said.

The Bolivians claimed gains against the Paraguayans at Fort Boqueron, where a fierce battle has been going on ten days. An official communique said the circle around the fort which Paraguayan headquarters announced they had completed Saturday was broken yesterday by a charge of Bolivian infantry and cavalry.

The note to the neutral nations, signed by foreign minister Julio Gutierrez, said that regarding securities for non-aggression in the event of a truce, the Bolivian government was confident once an agreement were made it would be complied with loyally. It recommended a civil commission of neutrals, however to pass on any alleged acts of aggression and to determine the aggressor.

Filipino Chinese Plan To Boycott Japanese Goods

MANILA, Sept. 19 (AP)—Chinese merchants, who control three-quarters of the Philippines' retail trade, today determined to boycott all Japanese goods in the Philippine Islands.

The boycott was declared yesterday at a mass meeting of six hundred Chinese in observing "humiliation day," the anniversary of the Japanese Manchurian occupation.

Many of the islands' leading Chinese merchants attended. A resolution declaring the boycott was adopted at the meeting at which Chinese Consul-General J. K. Wong, presided. Although a Chinese boycott against Japanese goods has been in effect here several months, before yesterday's meeting there had been little public discussion of it.

Farmers Intent on Halting Shipments

WORTHINGTON, Minn., Sept. 19 (AP)—Four hundred farmers swarmed over ten highways leading into Worthington today, determined to halt shipments of nonperishable farm products in an effort to boost market prices.

Two trucks of livestock were turned back soon after pickets filled the public highway.

M. B. Miller, vice-chairman of the Nobles county unit of the state farmers' holiday association, said

The association had not approved the time.

The story was assigned to Worthington commission men for shipment by rail to the Sioux City, Ia. market, a few miles south of Worthington.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THERE ARE numerous instances on record of where a bank has been robbed by its vice president, but Dave Tucker did a more unusual thing. When Dave was young, he got into bad company and helped rob his home town bank. Fortunately for Dave, he was shot down and captured, and served a term in the Oregon state penitentiary. He returned to his home town and built up a reputation. He won the respect of everyone who knew him, became one of the most successful gentlemen in his territory, and, best of all, was made vice president of the bank he once robbed.

Roosevelt Train Sweeps Through Borah's Idaho

ABOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL, En Route to Butte, Mont., Sept. 19 (AP)—Sweeping northward through the mountains of Idaho, the home state of republican Senator William E. Borah, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today brought his presidential candidacy into Montana with a three-hour stop at Butte.

At 1 p. m., Mountain Standard Time, the Roosevelt special was scheduled to resume its journey into the Pacific northwest with the next prolonged halt at Seattle, Wash., Tuesday morning.

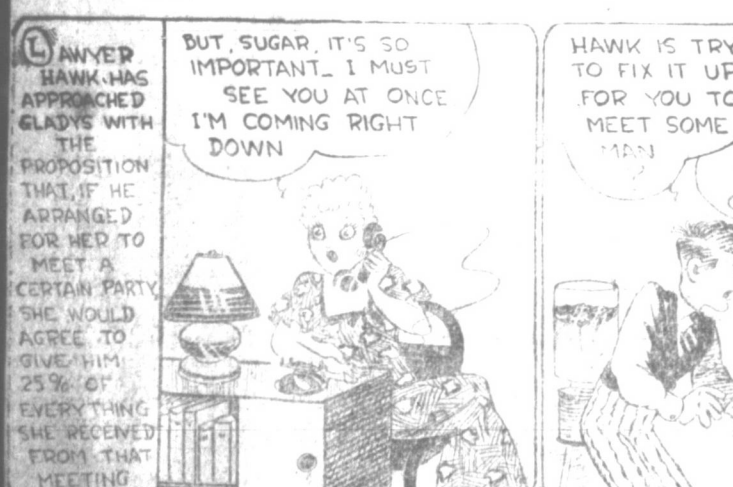

Entering the second week of his 3-weeks swing through 21 states, stretching from his home state of New York to the Pacific coast, the democratic nominee last night made platform appearances at Ogden, Brigham and Cache Junction, Utah, and McAmmon, Pocatello and Idaho Falls, Idaho.

In his journey from Salt Lake City, where the Roosevelt party spent the week-end, the candidate had a supporting cast of national figures. They were United States Senators William S. King of Utah, Thomas J. Walsh of Montana and Key Pittman of Nevada; democratic National Chairman James A. Farley and National Treasurer Frank C. Walker. Governor C. Ben Ross, Idaho's democratic governor, was with the party on the trip across his state.

When he reaches Seattle, Mr. Roosevelt will have completed one leg of the 8,900-mile triangle his campaign is tracing in the west. Leaving here Tuesday night, his train will move southward through Washington, Oregon and California with the week-end stop at Los Angeles.

Robot Shoots Master, Carrying Out Threat

BRIGHTON, England, Sept. 19 (AP)—"Alpha," the electric mechanical man invented by Harry May, had made good his threat today to wreak vengeance on his inventor.

During a demonstration of the robot at an electrical exhibition yesterday one of May's hands was severely burned by the premature discharge of the gun the robot fires.

May was inserting the cartridge in the gun, during which the robot customarily says: "Look out, or I'll blow your hand off!" As it uttered the words the gun was fired.

It was the inventor's third injury at the robot's hands. Twice before it raised its steel fist and crashed it down on his head.

May was unable to explain how yesterday's accident occurred unless somebody in the audience said something which affected the iron man's mechanism.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST CHURCH

The lesson-sermon subject was "Matter" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 18. The golden text was from Jeremiah 10:14: "Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them."

'Stronger Effort' Is Hoover's Plan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—A campaign keyed to the "stronger effort" President Hoover said Maine election results made necessary today was definitely charted by republican party chiefs. It was formulated in detail at a White House conference last night, will be built about "the most vigorous possible speaking campaign" between now and November's balloting, and will be concentrated on points outlined in the president's acceptance speech.

AVIATRIX IS NOW RESIDENT OF PAMPA Splendid Record Made at Fair by Gray County Women

WAS FIRST OF ALASKA WOMEN TO MAKE SOLO

'TAKE UP FLYING' IS HER ADVICE TO ALL WOMEN

She was the first woman to make a solo flight in Alaska. Her picture has appeared in the largest newspapers in the United States. She has a personal acquaintance with Jimmie Doolittle and many other outstanding aviators. And now this 22-year-old aviatrix, Miss Irene Irvine, is a Pampa resident.

Miss Irvine likes the north, yes, but it cannot take the place of her native Texas, so when she was urged to return and to accept a position with the Panhandle Insurance agency here, she accepted the offer. She formerly held a position with the same agency in Borger.

In Alaska, where the Texas girl spent 18 months, she was known as "the flying Finn." She had not intended to become an aviatrix, but when she went to Anchorage, Alaska, to visit her uncle, Matt Neiminen, Alaska Airways flyer and wartime aviator, she made many trips with him along the Yukon river and to other points.

Miss Irvine advised all women to take up aviation. "It is worth the effort," she said, "and I believe women have the capacity to progress just as rapidly in aviation as men have."

She hopes to secure a transport pilot's license as soon as possible, and one of her ambitions is to own her own plane.

Delegates generally were open-minded on the question of a party split, preferring to listen rather than to talk. While there is expected to be much bolting regardless of whether Mrs. Ferguson or Governor Sterling eventually secure the nomination, the move is not expected to be of substantial proportions, nor to affect the huge majority to be given the Roosevelt-Garner ticket.

Presiding Elder Beavers of Clarendon presided for the meeting, and the program was opened with a song by the assembly.

PURITY OF BALLOT BOX HELD MORE IMPORTANT THAN MANNER OF NOMINATING IN THIS STATE

Purifying of the ballot boxes in Texas is regarded by local democratic leaders as more important than the question of retaining the primary system or returning to the nominating conventions. Siler Faulkner, county chairman, believes that any change without more safeguards of the polls would prove ineffectual.

They Satisfied in '17 and you can't Beat 'em Today

THIS picture will bring back memories to a lot of people of the days when the boys went marching away with flags flying and bands playing. And that milder, satisfying Chesterfield flavor is still their steady choice... after fifteen years!

JELLY ENTRIES ARE FOUND TO BE EXCELLENT

EIGHT ITEMS ENTERED BY GIRLS—FIVE ARE WINNERS

Judges in the Tri-State fair, Amarillo branded the entries Gray county women as especially good by their decisions Friday and Saturday. A large per cent of the art entered by the Gray county women took prizes, even though there were 1,500 cans of food entered by women of a large area.

Girls of the county entered 8 entries of the county women's fair, but five of them were winners. The winners were as follows: Canned beans, third place, Jean Word of Eldridge; pea second place, Jean Word of Eldridge; pickles, second place, Word of Eldridge; tomatoes, first place, Juanita Glibbreath of Eldridge; grape jelly, first place, Elaine Skibinski of Bell. Crowd of 2,000 Meets To Hear Crimm's Sermon

Two thousand persons gathered in the W. Kingsmill tabernacle for the revival service last evening. The singing done by the crowd was regarded as exceptionally good, this being led by H. M. Powell and a choir of more than one hundred persons.

Evangelist E. B. Crimm spoke last night on "Why be a Christian or prepare to meet God." He said: "Man ought to prepare to meet God because he has to meet him sometime, somewhere. The law of one's country may be violated and the violator never brought to justice, but the broken laws of God must be met."

"Man ought to be a Christian because it's the natural thing to do. Even the heathen worships something. All of nature worships God its creator. Man, the highest of God's creative genius, often refuses to worship God."

"Man should prepare to meet God because that is what this life is for—a preparation. One may be rich in this world's goods, but if he dies wrong the life has been a failure. No matter how poor you are, if you die right your life has been a great success. Success of this life and eternal life depends upon what we do with Jesus. "It pays to serve God in this life. If I knew there were God, heaven, or hell, I would not alter the plan of my life for a single moment." The evangelist contrasted his life with the life of a cowboy friend who scoffed at him because of his stand for Christ. That cowboy, he said, went to the penitentiary for stealing cattle and died there. "Man ought to be a Christian because religion will help him die. We all wait something upon which to lean as the shadows of death come."

CUBS CAN CLINCH PENNANT WITH ONE WIN OVER PIRATES

CHICAGO TAKES 3-0 DECISION IN 15 INNINGS

TORY IN FOUR-GAME SERIES WILL BE SUFFICIENT

HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer, has an off-day by the schedule today, the Chicago Cubs selected all their forces for a last-grapple with Pittsburgh that clinches the National League pennant for the Cubs not later than tomorrow.

Their 4-3 victory over Cincinnati 15 innings yesterday put them in a position where they can clinch the flag by any one victory over the Pirates in the four-game series which opens with a doubleheader in Wrigley Field tomorrow.

It was the erstwhile playboy, Larry French, who broke up the Reds' duel with the Reds yesterday, as young catcher lared out a double with John Moore on second in the 15th.

The Pirates got effective pitching from Larry French and Leon Chagnon, and beat New York twice, 7-4 and 6-5. Brooklyn's hold on third was endangered as the fourth-inning Phillies won a 5-1 decision by Phil Collins' six hit pitching. The split game in the fourth-inning Al Spohrer's single decided the first game in the Braves' favor in the ninth, 3-2, but Dizzy stopped the Tribe, 5-2, in the ninth.

The American League, New York beat St. Louis, 7-2, to give Jimmy Allen his 17th victory but they could not solve Sam Gray's bats in the second game and went down 2-1.

Philadelphia gained valuable ground in the battle to clinch second place by beating the White Sox, 4-3, and 7-4, as Jimmy Fox's hit his 53rd homer of the year. Washington split a double bill with Cleveland, losing the first, 7-3, and winning the second, 9-2. McNaughton's wildness enabled Detroit to ship Boston, 6-5.

DOC AND JACK WILL GRAPPLE

Fans Don't Care How Rough Mueller and Purdin Get Wednesday Night

Pampa wrestling fans will see two unpoplar maulers in action at the Pia-Mor auditorium Wednesday night and they will not care which one gets beaten. The two figures in the main event will be the one and only Doc Mueller, Austin chiropractor, and Jack Purdin, the Florida hurricane. Rob Roy, local favorite who has beaten both men, will sit on the sidelines and watch the fun.

The two well known wrestlers will be meeting for the first time and fans are wondering what will happen when Mueller starts using his chiropractic headlock and nervy pressing on Purdin. The Floridan was eliminated from the lightweight tournament in Amarillo before he got to Mueller, who is standing at the top of the heap but with a loss to Roy hurting him considerably.

Pampa's own Red Michael landed here by surprise Saturday night from San Antonio, where he has been going strong for the last two months. He asked for a place on the card Wednesday night and Pia-Mor promoters handed him Howard Belcher of Amarillo, who has been met two years ago and both remember things that happened in that encounter. There should be 30 minutes, or less, of hot action in the semi-final.

The first match in the elimination contest with Red Michael as the prize will open with Tommy Thomas of LeFors and Andy Gump in the ring. The names of entrants were placed in a hat and the first two drawn were named to meet Wednesday night. Andy is scheduled to get some of his chest tatted when he meets the LeFors speed artist.

Rob Roy will demonstrate several wrestling holds between the semi-final and main events with James Gocher as the pupil. Rob is resting for a week after his terrific battle with Mueller last week.

Scrimmages To Feature Work Of Harvesters

Pampa Harvesters, now in good condition and ready for heavy work, will devote most of this week to fundamentals of football plus a number of heavy scrimmages.

LeFors and Miami high schools would like to have scrimmages with the Harvesters, but sanction of Inter-scholastic league officials probably would be needed to allow this, lest the work-out be considered games.

At any rate, heavy scrimmage will be in order Wednesday. Coach Odus Mitchell intends from now on to work certain combinations of men together. He has combinations in mind for several backfields but will make changes if the development of individual players warrants it.

Encouraging strength was shown by the Harvesters in the contest with the exes, but weakness in fundamental play, such as blocking and tackling, was revealed.

HARVESTER

The likely prospect for the quarterback job on the harvesters squad this year is H. L. Ledrick Jr., 155 pounds, better known as "Chicken Creek." He is plenty clever and can block and tackle with the best. He is only 17 years old but will play his last year of football for the green and gold this year. He has already played one year of Gordie football and 2 years as substitute with the Harvesters, all in the backfield. H. L. was born and grew up in Pampa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ledrick, pioneer Gray county residents. He is a senior this year. Besides being a clever football player, H. L. has always been at the top of his classes.

WOMEN PLAY LIONS TODAY

Rumor Says 'Doc' Hicks Is To Pitch Elevated Balls To Ladies.

Razzing squads from both the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs will be on the sidelines helping the Business and Professional Women's club playground ball team in an attempt to beat the Lions club at Magnolia park at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The club women have already defeated the two other civic clubs and are all set to twist the Lions' "tail."

The Lions threat of Barrett, Bourland, Hessey, Rose, Toed, Bratton, Sill, Hinkle and others will be on hand to try and stem the females' attack on their honor. Then again the Lions hope to raise their proud "tail" and declare that it took them to tame the ladies after the other civic clubs had gone down in defeat.

Starting hurlers have not been named. The Lions are supposed to have a dark horse ready to throw in the box. Rumor has it that it will be Dr. H. H. Hicks who has been working with Catcher John Hessey on top of the Worley building. He is reported to have a good high ball that should baffle the club women.

Arguments as to officials, referees, timekeepers, scorekeepers and other dignitaries were heated this morning and at noon no settlement had been reached. The club women demanded the same officials as last time, while the Lions have been insisting to the Rotarians who think they were given the worst end of the bargain. The argument will probably be settled on the field of battle.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Behind the Scenes With the Mauler
 Three men sat at pinochle in the dressing room of a vaudeville theater. They were, respectively, a blackface, a dancer and a clown. The clown's name was William Harrison Dempsey.

He jumped up, as usual, with the old zeal he always showed for newspapermen. At his side was Floyd Fitzsimmons, promoter and Jack's friend of his fighting days.

Between hands, the ex-mauler freely discussed the beak-busting business. He was asked what boxing needed most of all, these days.

"Czar," Well, No
 "Men," was his reply. "Some men like Tex and some fighters who are willing to get in there and give the people a run for their money."
 "A czar," asked your correspondent.
 "No, I wouldn't say a czar. But some man or men big enough to control the racket by their personalities and strength of character. Somebody the fans felt would give them a square shake."

Doing His Stuff
 It was almost time for his act. Out on the stage pictures from some of his great fights were being run. Dempsey walked nervously back and forth in the wings. He did a little shadow-boxing. The act consisted of a few tracks William Harrison Dempsey made with a stogie sports writer from a rural newspaper. The jokes were only fair. There was a jovial reference to "the long count" that the audience seemed to like, and another jibe directed at Jack Sharkey that was applauded.

Some slapstick was provided by Dempsey giving the stogie a playful slap on the back that almost floored the man.

And so back to the pinochle game—and the entertainment of more visitors. They still crowded the doors to see the Old Mauler, and shake his hand.

Much of the attraction of Dempsey's personality is built upon friendships the old boy refuses to forget. Many of them are expensive loyalties. Dempsey is one of the most "touched" men in public life.

Down and out characters he used to know "in the days when" continually are coming to him for aid.

Meeting the Girls
 Then, also among his visitors are the ladies. In almost every city, Jack must arrange his schedule so that he can give them an audience and answer their questions.

"Most of the girls I talk to," said Jack, "want me to fight again."
 "Would he?"
 "Well, let's not go into that right now," was his parting word.

BIDS WANTED
 Sealed bids will be received until 12 o'clock noon, Friday, Sept. 23, for the exclusive concessions of eatables and drinks for the 1932 season. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Proposals should be filed at the office of Joe M. Smith at the court house.

EX-CONVICT HUNTED
GONZALES, Sept. 19. (AP)—Gonzales and Guadalupe county officers today hunted an ex-convict believed to have been the slayer of Charles Harris Saturday night. Harris, 58-year-old Harwood merchant, had started home with two friends. As they turned a corner, a man hiding behind a goods box shouted for them to raise their hands. When they did he shot Harris through the heart and fled.

Americans Praise Amateur Champion

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. (AP)—American amateur golf today accepted the new holder of its championship trophy, Ross (Sandy) Somerville, wealthy Canadian sportsman, with neighborly approval and praise, unstinted by reason of the first setback in 21 years to the home forces.

"Somerville's victory strikes a particularly happy chord in our international golf relations," said Herbert H. Ramsay, president of the United States Golf Association. "Johnny Goodman acquitted himself splendidly on behalf of our rising group of younger players, in the final, but he lost Saturday by a close margin to a golfer with real championship stuff."

"It was a great match, a fine victory for Somerville and a real tribute to Canadian golf. I can say happily that since the trophy has to leave this country, it can be in no better hands."

Eobby Jones who defeated Somerville in the first round of the Georgian's last championship march at Merion in 1930, praised the Canadian as one of the finest mat players he has ever met.

Somerville's greater length off the tees, superior iron play and experience had much to do with Goodman's defeat.

Frogs Expected To Have Fight on Hand With LSU At Baton Rouge.

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
 Football will flare Saturday for Southwest conference teams when six of the seven members unlimber their 1932 model formations against non-conference competition.

It will be a new experience for five of the six teams. Texas Christian university jumped into competition Saturday at Fort Worth by beating the North Texas Teachers, 14 to 2. Baylor will be the only conference team idle this weekend.

Forced to bear down to beat a stubborn Denton team, the Horned Frogs planned Trojan duty this week in order to erase rough spots and flash a more polished offense and defense against Louisiana State. The Texas Christian and Louisiana State game will be at Baton Rouge. In their last year battle, the Frogs whitewashed Louisiana at Fort Worth, 3 to 0.

While several hundred spectators watched, the University of Texas Longhorns staged their initial scrimmage Saturday. After it was over, Coach Clyde Littlefield said his boys were ready to battle the Daniel Baker Hill Billies this weekend at Austin.

Old man gloom invaded Texas A. and M. last week because Charlie Malone, 1931 all-conference end, suffered an injury to his knee that may prevent his playing this season.

This weekend the "A" squad will invade Amarillo to play Texas Tech. The "B" squad remains at College Station to play the Southwestern Pirates.

Coach Fred Thomson and that fine crop of University of Arkansas sophomores will stage their annual battle against Hendrix college on the Razor back gridiron. Arkansas beat Hendrix last year, 19 to 0.

Having held his aerial circus Saturday and acquainted his players and fans, Coach Ray Morrison is ready to open his 1932 campaign in defense of his Southwest conference championship. The Mustangs play the only night game on this week's schedule, meeting the North Texas Teachers at Dallas.

Rice Institute, boasting the largest conference squad, will battle Texas A. and I. at Houston. Rice won last year, 37 to 0.

Exporters Play Chattanooga In Texas Tuesday

BEAUMONT, Sept. 19. (AP)—Two clubs which have never been in a Dixie series will begin play here tomorrow for the baseball championship of the south and southwest.

They are the Beaumont Exporters of the Texas league and the Chattanooga Lookouts of the Southern association. Youngsters predominate on the rosters of both clubs and both play daring baseball. The Exporters are fresh from a runaway triumph over Dallas for the full season championship of the Texas circuit. The Lookouts won the Southern flag in a race so close that prospects on the way it was handled were carried all the way to Kearsaw Mountain Landis.

Neither manager had named his starting pitcher. However, the prospects were that Del Baker of the Exporters would send Art Herring to the box and Bert Niehoff of the Lookouts would open with Clyde Barfoot. Both are right-handers.

Last year's Dixie series was won by Birmingham of the Southern from Houston of the Texas league.

Mrs. Beatrice O'Neal of Hoover was a Pampa shopper Saturday night.

TRIO QUALIFY FOR COUNTRY CLUB TOURNEY

MOST OF 50 GOLFERS DISCOURAGED BY HIGH WINDS

Only three local golfers qualified yesterday in the Country club amateur invitation golf tournament. The high wind made it almost impossible to control a ball and most golfers decided to wait until during the week to qualify. C. T. Hunkiller qualified with an 86. Edwin Vicars shot a 91 while DeLora Vicars was shooting an 87.

More than 50 golfers started to qualify but changed their mind and went practice rounds. Because of the high winds of yesterday, qualifying may be in two nines during the week. After the first nine holes are played, the score card must be turned in to the ground keeper who will give a receipt. The card will be surrendered upon return of the receipts and the player can finish his qualifying on the same card so that tournament officials will not have to check more than one card for the entrant.

The prize list is a valuable one with awards for winner and runner-up in each of five flights. Additional prizes will also be given for low and high qualifying scores, most birdies, most eagles and the driving contest.

Match play will start Sunday morning. Qualifying will close Friday afternoon.

GRAY COUNTY CREAMERY

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

An adequate and well-balanced meal is as necessary for the school lunch-box as the home luncheon. This meal must be satisfactory supplement to the other two meals of the day and must be nourishing and inviting. If carefully thought out and planned the day before, there will be less confusion in the morning before school when every minute must count.

It is very easy to let school lunches become monotonous. Certain foods pack easier than others, it is true, but different combinations and changes can be worked out that will make the luncheon more interesting to both the packer and the child.

Careful consideration should be given to personal likes and dislikes. Neatness and order appeal to all children. Girls, little and big, like daintiness. Boys, on the other hand, scoff at this feminine trait and want big thick sandwiches, big thick cookies and so on through the list.

Another factor of importance is the age of the child. Children under 12 require a different sort of lunch than that planned for the boy or girl in high school.

If there is not a school cafeteria, a hot drink or soup should be carried in a thermos bottle. The hot food aids digestion and does much to relieve nerve strain.

The sandwich is the mainstay of the lunch box and must be connected to furnish much food value. Variety of breads as well as fillings make it possible to vary the sandwich from day to day.

Carefully wrapped celery, radishes, carrot sticks and hearts of cauliflower give balance to the meal by supplying bulk and crispness to a diet that is likely to be concentrated and soft.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, salt codfish hash, corned ham, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: scalloped rice and mushrooms, hearts of celery, toasted muffins, grapes, milk, tea.
DINNER: Liver and bacon, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, peach shortcake, milk, coffee.

Whenever meat is used in a sandwich, try to combine it with lettuce, grated carrot or minced celery. The combination gains both food value and piquancy.
Fresh fruit always is suitable and desirable for dessert and is easy to pack. Individual baked custards and firm tapioca puddings can be used occasionally for variety. Cookies and cup cakes are popular and are easy to eat. Three or four dates, raisins, figs and well scrubbed prunes also will satisfy a child's natural craving for sweets and add nourishment as well.

The packing of the food in the lunch kit is of vast importance. There are so many attractive containers available at small cost that the task is lightened and neatness is assured. Well-wrapped foods stay fresh and appetizing, so use plenty of waxed paper, wrapping each article before putting it in the box. Put the dessert first. Otherwise the box must be unpacked to reach the sandwiches and there is the possibility that the dessert only will be eaten and the rest of the lunch overlooked.

Two Men Slain In 68-Year Old Kentucky Feud

MANCHESTER, Ky., Sept. 19 (AP)—National guard troops were on duty here today after the killing of two men and the wounding of another yesterday in the outbreak of a feud that started during the civil war.

The dead were Commonwealth Attorney Frank H. Baker, 9 of London, Ky., and John Brockman, about 28. Frank young, 40, was shot in left hip and was in a serious condition today.

Rifle shots fired by men barricaded in the Clay county courthouse felled Baker as he stepped from the home of his uncle, Wiley Baker, 62. As Brockman went to Baker's aid, he too was shot down and killed instantly.

During the next four hours the two bodies laid in the street while the snipers in the courthouse fired intermittently at the Wiley Baker home. The fire of the snipers was not returned.

As suddenly as they had started shooting, the men in the courthouse slipped away and escaped. Troops searched the courthouse but could find no trace of the assassins. The shooting climaxed a series of killings which Clay county authorities have attributed to ill-feeling between two clans. Last February Alfred Neal, negro, was slain on a street here, and two months later Police Judge C. P. Stivers, a witness in the Neal case was shot to death at the same location.

At the conclusion of the afternoon workout Coach Meagher declared he was well pleased with the progress made thus far. Nothing Venture by Patricia Wentworth

SYNOPSIS: Nan has taken refuge in her room from her husband's cruel doubt that she is the daughter of the famous explorer, Nigel Forsyth, and from his suspicion that she accuses Robert Leonard of murderous designs upon Jervis from mercenary motives.

Chapter 25 F. F. SCENTS A THRILL Ferdinand Francis came down next day, arriving in time for dinner with an extraordinary assortment of luggage, including the yellow Gladstone bag, a canvass holdall, a uniform-case scraped and battered down to the bare tin, a typically British wash-basin with a leather top, and some assorted parcels.

"When dinner was over, they had coffee on the terrace, with the heat dropping out of the day and a breeze blowing in from the sea. Mr. Francis' bright brown eyes looked appreciatively from his coffee to a bed of flame-colored snapdragons, from the snapdragons to Nan in a green frock, and from Nan to Jervis.

"No more accidents?" There was a little dragging silence before Jervis said in a casual tone, "Only the old bridge above the fall."

Ferdinand jerked round in his wicker chair. "Not really! And it fell?" "What a dramatic mind you've got, F. F.! The timbers were rotten with the spray."

"Rotten were they — and with the spray?" "The bridge fell. And was there anyone on it when it fell?" Jervis got up, and stood half turned away, looking down towards the ravine.

"Nan had a narrow escape," he said. "She'll tell you about it if you want to know." Ferdinand certainly wanted to know. He looked at Nan, and found her changing color.

"There's nothing to tell, Mr. Francis." "Oh, I imagine there's something." "No, there isn't." Then, as Jervis looked over his shoulder with a sardonic gleam in his eye, she colored and said stammeringly, "I ran on to the bridge. It cracked, and then it fell. Jervis pulled me up."

"My eye!" said Ferdinand. "Can't someone do better than that? Haven't you got a few extra syllables about you, Mrs. Jervis? I feel as if I could do something with them if you have."

"Bran wouldn't cross it," said Nan only just above her breath. "I knew there was something wrong when Bran wouldn't cross it."

"I'm an inquisitive man," said Ferdinand, "and I'm feeling the strain of this conversation pretty badly. If someone doesn't tell me what happened soon, I'm going to be a first-aid case."

Did you know that it is only about 40 miles to Spearman as a crow flies? And only 55 miles to Perryton by the same reckoning? Consider the ease of going to these points across the river, even with a curving road, as contrasted with the bridging distances now necessary by way of Dorger and Canadian.

Felties in the New York Stock Exchange? Very likely—politics is everywhere else. Manipulators probably did not have the power to force the bullmarket of recent weeks, but it is not unlikely that breaks right after the Maine election were manipulated.

The advice of legislators is not to make tax levies for bonds presumably to be taken over by the state. This form of relief is well conceived, but how is a county to know, quickly how much relief the special committee will grant?

CHICAGO WHEAT CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—Wheat—No. 1 hard 63 1/2. Wheat closed nervous, 1/4 cent under Saturday's finish, corn unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, oats 1/4 cent off to 1/4 cent and provision unchanged to 1/4 cent down.

GRAIN ADVANCES CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (P)—Responsive to upturns in wheat quotations at Liverpool, grain values here tended to advance early today. A snowfall in Canada likely to check threshing had some bullish influence. Opening unchanged to 1-4 higher, Chicago wheat futures rose afterward all around.

COTTON FIRMER NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19 (P)—Cotton opened firmer today and fairly active. Cables were a shade better than due and the market also was influenced by prospect of rains due to the tropical storm in the Gulf.

Milk Grading To Start This Week

Grading of all milk sold in Pampa will start this week and continue through the month, Dr. T. J. Worrell, city health and sanitation officer, said this morning.

The grading will be determined on the bacterial count, sanitation, condition of herd, etc. There are four tiers of raw milk and two retails of pasteurized milk in the county. They are supplied from 17 sources in the county.

Accident at Road Turn Is Mystery

A truck with trailer crashed thru the guard at the end of the paving on the Amarillo road sometime last night and pieces of the truck and trailer were found in the field beyond the guard.

City officers had found no one who knew anything about the accident at noon. City Manager C. L. Etine instructed the street department to repaired the damaged railing. The truck was towed, or was able to proceed under its own power and no report was made to city officers who cannot understand how the driver escaped serious injury.

The guard can be seen for a considerable distance back on the highway. The driver must have been operating his truck at a high rate of speed and couldn't stop or was half asleep and did not see the guard.

LeFors-Alanreed Highway Surveyed

County Engineer A. H. Doucette and his staff have completed the survey of the proposed county highway route from the North Fork bridge near LeFors to a point on highway 86 about 2 miles west of Alanreed.

The distance is 15 1-2 miles, or several miles longer than the old route, but more people would be served by sending the road through the Eldridge community. The highway is 11 miles east of No. 88. A good outlet to Clarendon would be afforded residents of Central Gray county, in addition to the intra-county traffic.

Paving estimates are being prepared.
