Many New Features For PAMPA DAY To Draw Throngs On Tuesday

AUCTION WILL BE STAGED IN UNIQUE WAY

"BATTLE ROYAL" TO BE FOUGHT IN THE AFTERNOON

40 BALLOONS RELEASED

PARACHUTE JUMP BY YOUTH TO CLOSE GREAT DAY

Forty gas-filled balloons last night were drifting over this territory carrying messages about PAMPA DAY next Tuesday and bearing notes entitling the finders to gifts from various merchants if presented on what will be the biggest occasion of the kind ever held here.

PAMPA DAY, which falls on September 27, will open with free movies at the LaNora and Rex theaters at 9:30 a. m., with the programs being repeated at 10:30 o'clock for late arrivals. These film programs are tried and proven features of each PAMPA DAY. The theaters are always well filled on these occasions, both young and old approving the varied reels.

Will Give Concert

A parading band Tuesday afternoon will herald the biggest and most entertaining program ever connected with PAMPA DAY. It will stop at the vacant space east of the courthouse about 3:30 o'clock for a short concert preceding the next program feature.

Six Dusky Fellows

Six dusky fellows—the huskiest to be found—will be placed in a ring to show their prowess in a battle royal. The harder the fight the more nickels they will get, hence they will be eager to please the crowd.

When this battle is ended as the hand of the survivor is lifted, a number of chickens—long and fast ones—picked for the occasion—will be loosed so that the fleetest persons may catch them if they are able. Elmer Fite of M-System store is donating the fowls.

Two Auctioneers

All of this will be preliminary to the climactic event of all—"UNDER THE HAMMER." This will be the big auction of valuable articles provided by Pampa merchants.

Extension Course Will Be Explained

Final decision as to the extension course to be offered local people by the West Texas Teachers college will be made Monday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at the high school building.

I HEARD--

That two children had mud ball practice up against the side of the Sam Houston school yesterday morning but the caretaker caught them about a block down the street and made them come back and scrape the mud from the wall and wash it clean.

I. A. Freeman telling about some cotton blankets he got in that were made in Texas from Texas cotton. It is unusual. Mostly the cotton is shipped away to be made into material and it is then shipped back to Texas. Why not make things at home?

Several local football fans wondering what happened to their favorite college teams yesterday. There were several upsets. Oh, well, this is an August year.

JUSTICES OF PEACE DO NOT RECORD MUCH VALUABLE WORK DONE FOR ACCUSED PERSONS

JUSTICES

JUSTICE W. S. BAXTER

JUSTICE JAMES TODD JR.

Social Service Is Not Least of Their Duties

The office of justice of the peace—that much under-rated department of government—has more significance than is written on the large record book which is a familiar object on the desks of the officers.

Many are the tales told about justices, ranging from those of small community despots to stories which remind one of the office of dean of men in a coeducational college, but even more enlightening are the reminiscences of the men themselves.

There is far more human interest in the justice's day than what he records when John Doe pays a fine for disturbing his neighbor. Many persons who complain to officers of the sheriff's or constable's departments or the county attorney change their minds after having a heart to heart talk with one of these or the justice. It is a peculiar fact that what many persons really need is an opportunity to "get it off their chests." Having expounded at length on the demerits of their neighbors, their neighbor's children, or their own life partner, they decide not to face the accused in court after the legal steps are explained.

PANHANDLE OIL OUTPUT DROPS DURING WEEK

Production of County Slumps 2,319 Barrels

The Panhandle daily oil production dropped to 46,615 barrels to almost the lowest point of the year during the past week. The decrease was 2,725 barrels from the previous week.

Gray county led the downward move with a slump of 2,319 barrels. Moore county showed an increase of 200 barrels to be the only Panhandle county not to drop production. The present allowable is 50,000 barrels, set by the railroad commission Sept. 1.

There were no completions reported on the summary. The new locations were made, however. The Texas company made a location in the southeast corner of section 5, block 1 on the Shaw lease. The Skelly Oil company made an east location on the Sanders.

FOES OF 'MA' SPLIT LEAGUE

Decide To Support Sterling Or Bullington After Armstrong Leaves

DALLAS, Sept. 24 (AP)—At the turbulent state-wide organization meeting of the "League of anti-Ferguson democrats" today, support was pledged to Governor R. S. Sterling in the event he should become the democratic gubernatorial nominee through his suit contesting the nomination of Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson.

The league decided that if Sterling should lose the contest, it would throw its support to Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, republican gubernatorial nominee. Active support of Bullington will be withheld until October 8, the last day on which Sterling's name can be placed on the general election ballots. Bullington was not present at the meeting.

These decisions were made after George W. Armstrong, independent gubernatorial candidate from Fort Worth had split the meeting wide open by leading his followers away to a separate session. At this rump meeting Armstrong's candidacy was endorsed.

Carr P. Collins, one of the 30 men and women who signed the call for the state-wide meeting, was selected as chairman at the league meeting. Armstrong's first brush came in this connection. He nominated Mrs. Claude De Van Watts for chairman immediately after the name of Collins had been put up.

Mrs. Watts, who is head of the Texas Women's Christian Temperance Union, declined the nomination. Then Armstrong nominated J. D. Sander of Abilene, but he also declined after Armstrong concurred in Collins' nomination.

Birth Party Given Saturday

Several games, some of them about fairies, were played. Ice cream, grape juice, and cake were served. The hostess received many gifts.

ROOSEVELT IS GIVEN OVATION IN CALIFORNIA

Mayor of Los Angeles Runs Half Block To Greet Him

By W. B. RAGSDALE
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD BOWL, Calif., Sept. 24 (AP)—In a ringing voice that carried clearly to the thousands banked tier upon tier in the natural amphitheater cut into Hollywood hills, Franklin D. Roosevelt asked today for the support of southern California in his campaign for the presidency.

"I ask it not just for our ourselves, but for our children, our grand children and our great-grand-children so that our land may be a happier and a safer place to live," he urged them.

Give me your help," he said.

He was introduced by William Gibbs McAdoo, the democratic nominee for senator from California.

Mayor John C. Porter of Los Angeles was not at the train to welcome Mr. Roosevelt. Porter previously had said he had a speaking engagement in the city.

The route of the parade took the nominee twice past the city hall and once the automobile of Mr. Roosevelt rolled close to the windows of Mayor Porter. The shades were tightly drawn. The machine stopped for a moment at the high steps leading into the city hall where many persons crowded to catch a glimpse of the New York governor. Some one shouted: "Where is Porter?"

Just then, hatless and breathless, the mayor dashed down the city hall steps.

Roosevelt's car was nearly a half block down the street before the mayor, panting, caught up with it. Governor Roosevelt stopped the car and extended his hand in warm greeting.

CUTTING QUILTS G. O. P. POST IN CONVENTION

PROGRESSIVES DECIDE TO SELECT THIRD TICKET

MAY FAVOR DEMOCRAT

BOLT FOLLOWS FIGHT BETWEEN GROUPS FOR SEATS

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 24 (AP)—A third ticket loomed today as the outcome of a bolt by the progressive wing of the republican party in New Mexico, following the resignation of Senator Albert B. Bronson Cutting, progressive leader, as republican national committeeman.

The progressives announced today they would select a third ticket. The resignation of Senator Cutting came as a climax last night to a contest between progressives and the element of the party known as "the old guard" for seats in the convention.

Albert Simms, former congressman and husband of Ruth Hannah McCormick, former congresswoman-at-large of Illinois, was among the republicans discussed today as a successor to Senator Cutting as national committeeman. H. O. Bursum, former United States senator also was mentioned. A decision to place a third ticket in the field followed a meeting at which Senator Cutting was a speaker. Mrs. A. B. Fall of Three Rivers, wife of the former senator and cabinet officer, also addressed the delegates.

"I suggest men who will run or withdraw as a future convention may decide," Senator Cutting said. "If the democrats nominate a ticket which represents the rank and file of the people we might decide to support the democratic ticket wholeheartedly."

In addition to nominating candidates for state office and congress the republicans probably will elect a new national committeeman to succeed Senator Cutting.

The republican convention marked time this morning following the bolt last night of the progressives. Former Governor R. C. Dillon had been nominated by acclamation for governor.

After the convention reassembled this afternoon Mariano Montoya of Bernalillo, former sheriff of Sandoval was selected for lieutenant governor. George F. Breece of Albuquerque, Mrs. Louise F. Armijo, wife of Judge Armijo of Las Vegas, also addressed the delegates.

It has to do with a Christian minister there and his pal who went slinger fishing. The preacher threw a rope around the slinger's head and swam to the shore. His pal couldn't swim so he rode the slinger to the bank while the preacher pulled him in.

Must Gain Confidence

Not all of those who appear in justice court are so talkative. Justice Todd, experienced minister whose interest in those brought before him is that of a sociologist as well as justice, spends considerable time gaining the confidence of offenders, especially those just starting in crime. A right word—mother, father, sister, or home town—may be the key to a full confession, not merely of the offense but the events which led up to it. Sometimes tears accompany the recital with remorse and promises to go straight if freed "this time." Other life stories come haltingly, with hiatuses of unrevealed thought between statements.

Delinquent girls, their features bearing the first marks of wayward lives, are often the most silent of those who reach his court. Defiance, rather than shame, sometimes governs them. A day or so in jail often reverses the attitude. A kindly word loosens a sordid story—of a country girl working away from home, poverty, and neglect, and how she came to be a subject of Justice Todd. He finds many young offenders not deliberately bad but drifting down the current of humanity's indifference.

Commends the Young

The justice defends the younger generation. He knows it. Those who reach his court are usually frank, respectful, and wholly lacking in the vicious thinking of older offenders and younger criminals of other days. He believes many of them merely need counsel, with adult direction and approval, and that they will respond to it. He considers the day well served, be there a fee recorded or not, when some young offender is attentive and thoughtful when advised, and when the lad or girl leaves the office with perhaps a routine legal program as well.

Pampa Has Two

It is also provided that, as in the case of Pampa cities of more than 8,000 inhabitants shall elect two justices. Justices are also ex-officio notaries public. Whenever there is a vacancy or the justice in any precinct is absent, unable, or unwilling to perform the duties of his office, the nearest justice in the county may temporarily perform the desired duties. No justice may sit in any case in which he is interested or where he is related to either party within the third degree of kinship.

1. Each justice shall hold a term of his court for civil business once in each month, and may transact such business out of term time as may be authorized by law.
2. Each justice shall hold the regular term of his court at the commissioner's court may prescribe.
3. The justice may hold court from day to day until all business shall be disposed of, or may adjourn the court or the trial of any case to a particular day.
4. If the regular term from any cause shall not be opened on the day fixed therefor by law, the court shall be considered adjourned until its next regular term.

Must Keep Dockets

Justices are required to keep dockets in which are entered the title of all suits, the time of hearings, the verdicts, if any, and such other details as may be needed to record the suits. All fees must be noted. The justices are responsible for the custody of the records of their predecessors. Justice courts have jurisdiction of all cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less, unless there are legal exceptions in specific actions. Foreclosing of mortgages and enforcement of liens are included in the justice's jurisdiction. Other powers of the justices are these:

1. To punish any party guilty of a contempt of court by fine not to exceed $25 and by imprisonment not exceeding one day.

2. To issue writs of attachment, garnishment, and sequestration within their jurisdiction, the same as judges and clerks of the district and county courts.

The courts have no jurisdiction of suits in behalf of the state to recover penalties, forfeitures, and escheats, of suits for divorce, or suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, suits for the trial of title to land, or of suits for the enforcement of liens on land. Pleadings may be oral, with brief statements entered on the docket. Most suits must be commenced in the county and precinct in which the defendant resides, but there are many exceptions.

Can Appoint One

If a justice is disqualified, the mayor of a suit may agree on a substitute or the county judge may appoint one. Justices issue many citations, search warrants, and other papers in the name of the State of Texas. If neither party asks a jury trial, the justice may proceed in a trial without one. The rules in justice trials are similar to those used in county and district courts, except that the justice does not charge the jury.

A party in a final judgment in justice court may appeal to the county court where the amount involved exceeds $20, including costs. Appeal bonds are then made before the justice.

It is the duty of justices to hear evidence in cases involving criminal complaints and to set and accept or reject bond if a defendant is held for grand jury action. The jurisdiction in criminal cases is where the fine imposed by law may not exceed $200.

Qualifying Play To Be Resumed

Many local golfers and others from Miami, Canadian, McLean, Kingsmill and White Deer will qualify for the Country Club Invitational tournament today, members of the tournament committee said last night and the tournament was scheduled to start this morning but because of bad weather last week qualifying rounds will be continued until Thursday afternoon.

Play will start next Sunday morning and will continue through the following Sunday when prizes for winner and runner-up in each flight and other prizes will be awarded. A valuable list of prizes has been secured and all winners will receive their prizes at the close of play.

Less than 20 golfers have qualified and from information received, between 75 and 100 golfers plan to enter the tournament. Qualifying and play will be over 18 holes. Qualifying may be in two nines, but match play will have to be continuous.

Drawing for first opponents will take place Thursday night by a neutral person.

The recent rains have placed the fairways in the best condition in several months. The greens have been improved for the tournament, and the weeds in draws and stream beds cut and burned. Jim White, made a hole-in-one qualifying Wednesday afternoon. His lucky shot was on the 165-yard No. 12 hole.

SYNOPSIS: Nan struggles back from oblivion to find her husband's bloody head in her lap. Jervis' car has turned over on the edge of a cliff just after they had dropped Robert Leonard at his ill-looking farm—only a short while after Rosamund Carey, Jervis' former fiancée, has dropped a hint about bringing Jervis back to bring Jervis back to consciousness.

Chapter 30

WHAT CAUSED THE SMASH Nan wept wildly over the body of her husband. For a long moment Jervis was still. Nan searched feverishly for her own handkerchief, not to dry her tears, but to wipe away the salt water that ran over Jervis' face as Ferdinand worked over him.

Before she found the handkerchief Jervis muttered something unintelligible, opened his eyes, put his hand to his head, and sat up. He frowned at Nan, and said, "What are you crying for? Are you hurt?"

The tears ran down Nan's face. They ran into the corners of her mouth and tasted salt; they ran down on her neck and trickled away under her dress. She didn't want them to run down like that, but they just came. And she couldn't find her handkerchief. She complained about it out loud.

"I can't find my handkerchief." The last word was split in two by a choking sob. It was a devastating depth of misery to be sitting crying in the dust, with Jervis scowling at her, and not to be able to find a handkerchief.

"In that why you're crying?" said Jervis. "I thought you were dead!" said Nan and as she said it Ferdinand's hand came over her shoulder with a clean folded handkerchief.

Jervis looked at her with gloomy dissatisfaction. What was she getting at? It would be a very good thing for her if he was dead, because she would be free and quite well provided for. It was ridiculous to cry about it. But she had been crying. The wet on his cheek was blood, but the wet on his head wasn't. Had she been crying all over his hair?

He had got as far as this, when Ferdinand addressed him. "Anything broken?"

"Broken?" he said. Then he scrambled on to his feet. "What made that damned wheel come off?" He stood staring at the car, with her three wheels in the air and her hood hitched up on the parapet. Her last drunken lurch carried half of it away. The stones had gone down into the sea.

"If F hadn't yanked her round a bit, she'd have gone too," said Jervis. Ferdinand agreed.

"That is so," he said soberly. "It was an extraordinarily bad moment."

"But no one was much the worse. Jervis had a scratch on the cheek and a bump on the back of the head. Nan had the feeling that she had made a fool of herself. Ferdinand had a pair of trousers which would never be the same again. And the car had a broken windshield, a buckled fender, and a badly dented hood—negligible injuries when contrasted with what might have been.

A tow car came out from Croyston, retrieving the missing wheel at the bottom of the hill. Three dusty and irritable people walked back to the Tetterleys to use the telephone and wash.

Leonard, who was emerging from a hen-house, saw them pass. He did not think that they had seen him. He stepped back into the house. Presently he saw Walters, the Wearé chauffeur, drive past in the big town car, a little after that again he watched him return with Jervis, Nan, and Ferdinand.

When the fruit was on the table after dinner, and the servants had left the room, Nan leaned back in her chair and said, "Why did that wheel come off?"

"I don't know," said Jervis. "Walters swears he went over the wheel-nuts with a wrench only yesterday, but then of course he'd be bound to say that."

Ferdinand picked up a grape, looked at it, and bit it neatly in half. "How long's he been here?"

"Fifteen years." "Methodical chap?" Jervis nodded.

"But the wheel came off," he said. "A wrench can be used for loosening nuts as well as for tightening them up."

"What do you mean?" "Hasn't it struck you that you've been having rather a lot of accidents lately?"

"What do you mean by that?" Ferdinand took another grape. "That you're having too many accidents. They make me ask why."

"What accidents have I had?" said Jervis in a challenging voice. Ferdinand finished a grape. He pushed one of the seeds up on the rim of his plate.

"That's number one," he said. He pushed up a second seed. "Two." Then two more, and finished counting. "Three—four."

"What are you playing at F. F.?" Ferdinand prodded the first seed with the point of his fruit knife. "This one's way back in the mists of antiquity, but I think it's important. You get the back of your head stove in, and you're left drowning in a pool with the tide coming up—and Robert Leonard is seen going away from the spot."

Jervis flung up his head with a jerk. "What are you talking about?" "I'm talking about that accident you had ten years ago, when you were left to drown."

"What are you saying F. F.?" "He was seen leaving the spot."

"Witness? What witness? Where have you been getting all this balderdash?" Ferdinand bit another grape in half and proceeded to remove the seeds.

"Well, I'm not naming my witness just now, but as I remember, Robert Leonard slipped out of the country while you were still unconscious. It might be worth while asking yourself whether he wasn't afraid you might have seen something before he knocked you out."

Jervis pushed back his chair. "I think everyone's gone crazy about Leonard!" he said angrily. "Yes?" said Ferdinand. "We'll leave that and come down to the present day. How many accidents have you had this last week or so?"

"One," said Jervis. Ferdinand shook his head mournfully. "You've had three accidents this week, and you're lucky to be alive."

"Three?" "A taxi knocked you down after Mrs. Jervis had heard Robert Leonard offering a taxi-driver money for a job that was going to risk landing him in prison."

"Why don't you call her Nan?" said Jervis irrelevantly. "Do call me Nan," she said. "That's nice of you." He turned back to Jervis. "And then we come to your accident today."

"Good Lord, F. F. You can't put that on Leonard!" "Well, I'm afraid I can't. But I knew a man called Eisenthal who invented stuff that could turn wood rotten in anything from six to twenty-four hours—I went on looking all right until you put weight on it, and then it crumbled and splintered away like an old stump that's been left rotting in the ground."

"Eisenthal's dead. Last I heard of him he was back of the Magdalena with an American and bye and bye the American came down the river alone. I never met him. He called himself Brown. He had a chin that stuck out, and a head some few sizes too big for the ordinary hat—and that's just about all I could find out about him. It's not very much, but there none of it that doesn't fit Robert Leonard."

"That's as far as I've got up to date, but if you were looking at Robert when I was talking about Eisenthal at lunch, you may have noticed that he wasn't deriving any very keen pleasure from my remarks."

"What an imagination you've got, F. F.!" "Imagination rot!" he said. (Copyright, 1932, Lippincott)

Ferdinand offers evidence about the murder of Leonard. Monday, but will Jervis believe it?

and Planned

The Pampa NEWS playground ball team will issue challenges to the Phillips 66 team of Berger and to Skellytown for night games during the next two weeks. Both cities have lighted diamonds and the Pampa boys are anxious to play under the artificial lights.

Manager R. C. Sturgeon plans to strengthen his club with players from other teams in the league before invading Berger where one of the fastest teams in this section is located. The game should be a pitchers battle between Harry Drain of THE NEWS and Leon Cheuning of Phillips. Both are speedball artists.

Skellytown has a couple of fast teams and Manager Sturgeon is anxious to get in touch with them to arrange a game.

Perry Vanquishes Vines Conqueror

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24. (P)—Frederick Perry, second ranking tennis player of Great Britain, won the singles championship of the Pacific Southwest tournament today in a scintillating straight set victory over Jiro Satoh, Japan, who already had beaten two of the world's best players to reach the finals.

The Japanese Davis cup player was far off the style exhibited when he eliminated Ellsworth Vines, world's singles champion, in the quarter finals and disposed of Henry Austin, No. 1 player of England, in the semi-finals.

The Davis cup doubles champions, Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, and John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, gained the finals of the men's doubles by eliminating Gene Mako, 16-year-old University of Southern California freshman, and Lester Stoefer, Los Angeles, 9-7, 8-6, 6-2.

This church has undertaken this year, especially in light of the new church legislation passed by the last general conference of the Methodist church. The course to be taught is, "Organizing for Education in the Local Church."

ACTING MADE NECESSARY BY ANIMAL FILM

HUMANS AS WELL AS TIGERS AND LIONS WATCHED

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—The times are getting really difficult for would-be actors when the human players in a wild-animal picture are expected to act. Clyde E. Elliott, who made "Bring 'Em Back Alive" in Malaya last year, now is leading a little troupe back to that section—just the other side of the world from Hollywood—to make another, has been having trouble finding three members for his cast.

Wants Actor, Too "We want unknowns, but we want actors," he specifies. "The word got around we wanted a Johnny Weismuller physique, and we do, but we want its possessor to have acting ability. We've had applications from swimmers, football players, athletes of all kinds, some of them handsome lads too—but they can't act." In the old days such a demand would have been outrageous, but that's what Mr. Elliott wants, and he probably will have found his man long before you, there, with the ambitious physique can get off a letter to him. So save that stamp! Marion Burns, Fox contract player who has yet to be lunched much by autograph-hunters, is to be the girl in the case, with Harry Woods, a little-known but husky actor, as the heavy.

Garbo Not First Garbo's reclusive existence is nothing new under the sun of the movies. In the old days, I'm told by a contemporary of Mary Fuller, that early scintillant lived apart from the busy world in a modest little apartment in New York, seldom went places, and worked and saved earnestly to achieve her goal of half a million dollars.

If your million's good you'll recall "What Happened to Mary?" and other two-reel epics of the decade before last. Long retired now, Miss Fuller divides her time between Hollywood and Washington. Expensive items: The Indian wig Weldon Heyburn wears in "Call Her 'Savage'" cost $125—and the lone penguin Radio was able to find for "Penguin Pool Murder" draws more money than the average bit player, $150 a week. The bird was located in a beach town near here.

Razorbacks Tie Hendrix College

RAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 24. (AP)—The University of Arkansas and Hendrix college played a scoreless tie today, the fleet sophomore Razorbacks on the Razorback squad failed to show scoring power. The Razorbacks made 13 first downs to five for Hendrix. LaForge and C. Jordan, sophomore halves, made several sensational dashes and three times put the ball inside the Hendrix five-yard line. Late in the game Coach Fred Thomsen sent in two veteran backs, Phillip and Murray, to open a passing attack. It failed to score. Moffatt and Reeves, halfbacks, gained most of the ground for Hendrix. Moffatt punted out of bounds several times close to the Forker five yard line. The Hendrix line was strong on the defense and most of the Arkansas gains were on off tackle and end plays. It was the second tie in 15 games between the teams. Arkansas won the others.

INSIDE STORY OF HOLLYWOOD TO BE SHOWN

GENEVIEVE TOBIN BACK AFTER RECEIVING ACCLAIM

"Hollywood Speaks," hailed as a powerful dramatic story giving a glimpse of the glamorous life of the movie colony, will be the next screen feature at the Rex theater, beginning today. Genevieve Tobin, who scored such a hit in Maurice Chevalier's "One Hour With You," plays the leading role, which shows the rise of a young girl from obscurity to stardom. Pat O'Brien, the breezy young man who appeared to such good advantage in "The Front Page" and other films, has the role of the movie columnist who fights her battles. Lucien Prival, Ralf Haroldo, Rita La Roy, Leni Stengel and Anderson Lawlor comprise the rest of an excellent cast.

Of all the pictures dealing with Hollywood, this is said to be the first treating the subject in a realistic and dramatic manner. It is described as a characteristic story of an ambitious girl's struggles to reach the top of moviedom, and how, for the sake of the man she loves, she throws it all to the winds. "Hollywood Speaks" takes audiences on tour through Hollywood, showing scenes of studies and sets, Hollywood parties, and interesting outdoor scenes of the place. Realism is the keynote of "Hollywood Speaks," as the film points out the temptations and pitfalls which the aspirant for screen stardom must guard against.

K. C. McCullough of Fort Worth is spending the week-end with friends here.

Kiwanians Have Re-Vamped Team

A strengthened and re-vamped team playing under the colors of the Kiwanis club will take the field Tuesday afternoon in the second half of the Pampa Playground ball league. At the helm will be Frank Carter of the Kiwanis club. Players, other than club members, will be recruited to strengthen the club-boys who stuck by the team in the first half. Manager Carter will have his roster complete by the opening game of the second half. The arrangement meets with the approval of the league officials and team managers. Such Kiwanis stars as Dr. Johnson, Lewis O. Cox, Buckingham, Waggoner, Fred Thompson will remain members of the new team. The club boys are scheduled to meet the Faculty, winner of the first half, at Magnolia park Tuesday afternoon. They also have a postponed game with the Santa Fe.

"We are going to have a strong line-up for the second half and should make things interesting for some of the other teams," Manager Carter said yesterday. "We will use Pete Post in an advisory capacity, feeling that he can do less damage that way."

GREAT CLOVIS CLUB CRUSHES HOBBS, 33-0

HARD FIGHT EXPECTED WITH WILDCATS FRIDAY

The Pampa Harvesters will officially usher in the 1932 season Friday afternoon against the Clovis high school Wildcats, one of the best high school teams in New Mexico. On Friday afternoon the Wildcats smothered the Hobbs high school team, 33 to 0, in the opening game of the season. Big J. M. Smith, Clovis fullback, pounded the Hobbs line without let-up, while Riddick and Neff, halfbacks, ran wild with the pigskin.

General admission to the local game will be 50 cents. A few seats will be reserved for 25 cents extra. Joe Smith will have charge of ticket sales. The hour of the game has not been set but it will be at either 3 or 3:30 o'clock.

Coaches have not named their starting line-up and probably will not do so until the teams are ready to take the field. As the game will be the first of the season for the green and gold, fans will get their first real sight of the Harvesters in action. They have watched scrimmages with interest but have not determined what the team will look like under fire.

The Clovis JOURNAL writes about the Wildcats:

Three weeks of hard workouts and one light practice game have put them in fairly good physical condition. But the club is handicapped by greenness of some of its members.

The line has been the big worry of the Wildcats, but if it functions tomorrow the Wildcats will go like wild, because they boast of one of the fastest and strongest high school backfields of this side of the state.

The wing positions are well taken care of. Bill Lawson, captain and center of the last season's squad, has moved to right end, leaving his place on to Cash Ramsey. Wayne "Red" Smith, who can punt, pass and tote the ball as well as open holes for the backfield, occupies his old position on the left wing of the line.

The left side of the line is fairly well fixed so far as the tackle position is concerned. The position is filled by the husky Eugene Snyder, letterman from last year. Dick Martin, newcomer, is holding down the tackle position on the other side but is still fairly green in the position. He plays on the backfield of a Kentucky high school last year.

The players who are receiving their first gridiron experience are Tommy Jones, a husky young gentleman who began the season as center on the second string but got into the starting line-up when he caught the eye of Line Coach A. D. Garten because he could come out of the line fast and get in interference.

Carasco and Cherry, guards; Reamer, tackle, and Abernathy, end, are promising substitutes who may see service in the Hobbs game.

The starting order of the backfield probably will be Skarda, quarterback; Riddick and Neff, halfbacks; J. M. Smith, full.

Shorty Perry, star of last season who is going even stronger this year, ago to water when he was injured during the early part of the game on account of a leg injury.

NUMBER 5

Another Pampa man joined the famous "hole-in-one" club last week and it was Jim White who drove the little white ball into the cup on the 12th hole on the country club course while qualifying in the County club invitation tournament. He qualified at 86. No. 12 hole is 165 yards long and nearly a blind hole. He carried a used No. 5 iron and the ball carried within 18 inches of the cup.

In the foursome with Mr. White were Tommy White, his brother and city open champion, G. H. "Hamp" Brown and J. W. Brumley. It marked the fifth time Tommy had played in a foursome where a member made a hole-in-one.

The strange shot was the fourth ever made on the County club course and the fifth ever made in Pampa. Bill Lang, Clarence Barrett and Grover Austin made previous holes-in-one over the course. Walter Hill made the only shot registered on the Red Deer course.

After the hole had been made Jim inquired if the tournament officials were giving any prizes for the most holes-in-one during the tournament along with the prizes for the most birdies and eagles.

Roy To Wrestle Farmer Vance On Wednesday Eve

Wrestling fans would be wise to take special glasses and ear plugs to the Plu-Mor auditorium Wednesday night when Roy Roy, local favorite, meets the one and only Farmer Vance of Australia. The farmer was voted uglier than Dutch Mantell and Bull Montana several years ago and his age has not improved his appearance. The farmer also yells lustily when in holds that give him trouble.

Vance is 52 years old, or one year older than Dutch Mantell, but he is still as spry as a young colt. He has the same opinion about these "young sprouts" as Mantell. "It takes us old timers to make youngsters out of the younger generation," the farmer likes to say.

Vance is former light heavyweight champion of Australia and wrestled twice for the world's championship belt. He is expected to finish the Pampa boy in a hurry but fans believe Roy's superior speed will keep him away from the Australian until he is winded. Vance owns a large sheep ranch in Australia. He started out as a school teacher but gave up the practice when the kids worried him too much.

Rob left for Amarillo yesterday morning to spend three days working out with Dutch Mantell. If there is anyone who can show the youngster how to beat Vance, it is Mantell.

A suitable opponent for Red Michael is being sought. Wildcat Willie and Andy Gump will probably open the big card. Andy is suffering from protruding chest since he stayed 15 minutes with Barber Kelley and three J. C. Lewis. He says he wants the Vincents boy.

Mrs. Joe Vincent attended the Tri-State fair in Amarillo Thursday.

A world series may be an old story to Babe Ruth, but the Big Stick of the Yankees is always fresh news to his young fans. Here's Ruth taking a few minutes out from his world series practice to tell the admiring youngsters how he hits 'em.

COUNTY TEAMS WORKOUT HERE

Both Harvesters and LeFors Pirates Look Good In Scrimmages.

The Harvesters looked good and had by turns against the LeFors Pirates Friday afternoon when the two teams lined up in the center of the field with their coaches listening to plays chosen and watching each play from almost the line of scrimmage.

Fans thought the coaches were going to get into the scrimmage at times when they saw glaring openings left by one or the other side. The Harvesters made the first push and then handed the ball over to the Class B team for an offensive.

The green and gold defense showed an improvement since the last scrimmage but it still appeared weak against an aerial attack. The Wildcats completed several nice passes in the midst of stiff opposition. They were not afraid to hit the Harvesters line or run the ends. Coach Duncan will have one of the finest Class B teams in this section, with a little more training. Several of his boys are green but are willing.

Pool Is Fullback

Coach Mitchell started Captain Jim Pool at fullback, Tuke Saultsbury and Dick Sullins at halfback and H. L. Ledrick at quarterback. His starting line included Patton and Kelley, ends, Walkers and Nelson tackles, Schmidt and Powell, guards and Green, center, but almost every member of the squad was in the scrimmage.

The boys executed several new plays with a precision that made them look good. A full second game was in during the scrimmage also worked plays smoothly. The boys will have just four days more practice before the opening game of the season with Clovis high school Wildcats here Friday. Clovis boasts the fastest backfield in Eastern New Mexico.

Captain Pool continued to hit the line with plenty of promise and should round into a dependable fullback by the time the Harvesters meet Friday. Ledrick looks like the quarterback of the season. Miles Marbaugh is Pool's understudy at fullback and he is improving daily. His passing is becoming accurate and long.

There is little wrong with the Harvesters line, defensively. It is still a little slow charging and running interference, but that should be remedied with a couple of games. The boys just need practice and plenty of hard work. Coach Mitchell failed to name his first string after the scrimmage.

No Second String Yet

The Harvesters substitutes, or they may be regulars, are still working with a vim and vigor. If they are not in the starting line-up they get their share by going into the scrimmage as if it was the opening of the game. The boys just need practice and plenty of hard work. Coach Mitchell failed to name his first string after the scrimmage.

Coach Duncan has a fast and shifty backfield pair in Stewart and Carter, with Bagwell as a safety and defensive star. Stewart can also pass with the best. He takes his time and picks his man before the ball leaves his hand. White and Berg at ends are green but have the makings of two of the best. They have never played any football but their work in Friday's scrimmage labeled them as dangerous.

PIGSKIN DOINGS

One of the prettiest tacklers and aggressive players to come before the eyes of Pampa fans this season is Rufus Walker, Harvesters tackle. Rufus is a senior, 19 years old and weighs 175 pounds. Every pound is dynamite and when Rufus starts out to make a hole or stop a gain he means business. He will be playing his third year of football, one year as a Gorilla and two years as a Harvesters. He was a substitute part of last season but came to the front in the latter part of the year. Rufus is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Walker and has lived here 14 years. Pampa fans are looking for Rufus to be a tower of strength to the green and gold this fall.

John Pafford, one of Pampa's biggest and best linemen, had the pleasure of stopping Dangerous Dan McCarthy for the second year in his football career in Amarillo Friday afternoon when the Cameron Aggies and the Amarillo Badgers met. Big John was at guard for the Badgers and on several occasions when Dan started on a spree he toppled him. John also had differences with Dan when that worthy played here with Ranger in 1930.

And more about the duties of officials:

TALKING TO OFFICIALS

An official imposes on a player a decision, he is simply doing his duty as he sees it. He is on the field representing the integrity of the game of football, and his decision, even though he may have made a mistake in judgment, is final and conclusive and should be accepted. Even if you think the decision is a mistaken one, take your medicine and do not whine about it. If there is anything to be said, let your captain do the talking. That's his business. Yours is to keep quiet and play the game.

THE FOOT BALL CODE

You may meet players and even coaches who will tell you that it is all right to hold or otherwise violate the rules if you do not get caught. This is the code that operates in the game of football. The crime in their code is getting caught.

The football code is different. The football player who intentionally violates a rule is guilty of unfair play and unsportsmanlike tactics and whether or not he escapes being penalized, he brings discredit to the good name of the game, which is his duty as a player to uphold.

FROGS TIE L. S. U.

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 24. (AP)—Texas Christian University and Louisiana State University each had a giant tackle capable of kicking a field goal from a difficult angle tonight and as a result their game under the lights of Tiger stadium ended in a 3-3 deadlock. With both teams playing good defensive football by scoring by the kicking route was resorted to under almost identical circumstances.

Mrs. Dave Keel of Miami shopped in the city yesterday afternoon.

J. H. Crabtree of LeFors was a Pampa visitor Friday afternoon.

ous. Brown and Cox in the line are two more dangerous players. Wood, a freshman, showed up like a veteran in the scrimmage. He broke through the Harvesters line several times to make tackles behind the line.

The Pirates open the season Friday afternoon at home with Groom providing the opposition. Happy will be the second team on the list.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 24. (AP)—Despite a seven-run rally in the sixth, the Indians went down to defeat before Chicago, 8-7, today.

The tribe, held to six hits, was helped by Biess' wildness in their big inning. The White Sox, however, kept on shelling the veteran Jack Russell and eventually emerged victors.

BATTLE TO TIE

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 24. (AP)—The Southwestern university football team held the Texas A. & M. Pirates to a scoreless tie on a muddy field here today. Rain fell during most of the game. Play was between the 30-yard lines during most of the game. The Pirates made four first downs to three for the Aggie Reserves. The Aggies fumbled frequently.

Recent visitors from McLean included Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. J. D. Back, Mrs. O. G. Stokley, Mrs. Martha Hamilton, Miss Texola Harlan, Mrs. J. Boston, and D. E. Upham.

Mrs. Doshia Anderson of Groom was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 24. (AP)—Three games of the Dixie series having been decided, each by the break in the luck, the Beaumont Exporters will go up against the Lookouts in the fourth game here tomorrow confident that they can even the series game standing at two all. Clyde Barfoot, who lost a pitching battle to "Red" Herring of Beaumont by 1 to 0 on the first day of the series, is due to return to the box for the Lookouts but there is a possibility that the duel will not be renewed as Luke Hamlin, Beaumont's regular season ace, has not yet had a chance on the mound.

Both teams are in fine fettle except for Beaumont's two crippled outfielders, Tauby and Fox. Neither Mrs. Ralph Arnold of Perryton was visiting friends here yesterday.

COTTON FIRM

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Cotton developed fairly active trading in today's short session and prices followed a moderate upward trend, the general market closing steady up 7 to 15 points net.

The opening was slightly easier as cables came in 1 penny point better to 3 worse than duty.

The market soon started to rally in sympathy with firmness in stocks and reports of rains in Texas were not needed, coupled with a forecast for showery weather next week. The improvement was later added to by trade buying and price fixing and December moved up to 7.46 and January to 7.50, up 13 to 14 points from the lows, on these active months. Trading was active in the second hour. December closed at 7.42, up 10 points net for the day and January closed at 7.50 up 13 points net.

Both receipts 31,261, for the season 1,173,084, last season 897,357. Exports 23,201, for season 974,678, last season 550,864. Port stock 3,505,187, last year 3,194,469. Combined ship-board stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 98,080, last year 83,164. Spot sales at southern markets 50,744, last year 63,095.

RAILS STRONGER

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Rail news provided most of the lifting power under today's higher stock market. Advances, however, were of a moderate nature, even at best, and it appeared that both the large gain in car loadings and the eastern consolidation agreement had, in market parlance, been largely "discounted."

Improvement of one to two points was general during the first hour and into the second, although trading was quiet. Profit-taking cut down the rise somewhat, leaving an average appreciation for the day of about a point. Turnover totaled 1,336,170 shares.

Several specialties ran considerably ahead of the market, among them Homestake, Mack Truck, Norfolk & Western and Case.

For U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Sears Roebuck, Harvester, North American, American & Foreign Power, International Telephone and Union Carbide net gains amounted to around a point, and there was a similar range for numerous carrier issues. Motors quieted down while the recently depressed oils were a little steadier.

WHEAT ADVANCES

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Brisht buying hoisted wheat almost 2 cents a bushel today, largely as a result of augmented export business and stock market strength.

Domestic millers in many sections reported much improved demand for flour.

Influenced by spread selling from

Winnipeg, Minneapolis and Kansas City, wheat reacted somewhat in the late dealings but cooled firm 3-4 to 1 cent above yesterday's finish, corn 1-8 off to 1-4 up, oats 1-8 to 1-4 advance and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2 cents.

It was announced the world's wheat visible supply totaled but 435,000,000 bushels against 533,000,000 year ago, with the decrease largely in Europe and the United States. Predictions were current too, that the quantity of wheat on passage to Europe would not show any material increase, a large proportion of this week's shipment being destined to China.

Suggestions that constructive developments were likely to come out of next week's speeches by President Hoover and Governor Roosevelt had not little bullish effect at times.

Corn and oats sympathized with wheat strength, but were handicapped by active rural selling of corn to arrive here, 1,300,000 bushels in the last four days.

Closing indennities: Wheat—Dec. 53 3-4 to 7-8, 55 7-8 to 56; May 59 1-8 to 1-4, 61 3-8. Corn—Dec. 28 7-8, 29 3-8 to 1-2; May 34 3-8, 34 3-4.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Increased receipts and substantial price declines at eastern dressed beef markets were factors influencing an uneven price decline on most killing classes of cattle during the week under review.

Strictly choice heavy steers in Chicago cleared up to 10.35 and 10.00 was scored on finished long yearlings. There was a fair country demand for the better grades of stockers and stock calves at mostly steady values, while stockers lacking in quality and the general run of feeders closed weak to mostly 25 lower. Aggregate receipts at eleven markets totaled around 238,000, as compared with 221,697 last week and 214,388 the corresponding period a year ago.

Fat lambs are generally 25-50 lower for the week, well finished range offerings showing the most decline. Other killing classes were little changed and feeding lambs were weak to 25 lower. The week's supply approximating 435,000 was 3,000 more than last week and 105,000 of a year ago.

Only slight changes were registered in the hog market, most centers reporting a 5-10 up-turn on strong butchers, while light weights ruled steady to 10 lower. Chicago had a late top of 4.50. Total offerings were around 349,500, against 333,661 last week and 355,247 a year ago.

Boys Must Play Hour for Letter

Admission to district 1. Class A football games was left virtually a matter for decision of competing schools when the executive committee met in Amarillo yesterday.

For ordinary conference games, the general admission will be 75 cents, but the charge for reserved seats, if any, was left to competing schools to decide. Authority to increase the price for "crucial games" was given. The Pampa school authorities will meet soon to decide whether reserved seat charges will be added to the 75-cent general admission cost. It is likely that reserved seats will be sold only for the Lubbock conference game here, and not for the one with Plainview.

Admission to non-conference tilts has already been set at 50 cents, plus 25 cents for reserved seats if desired.

The committee yesterday passed a rule setting 60 minutes of actual playing time as the basis for letter awards in member schools. The athletes also must meet all regulations of his school. Authority was given to award letters in isolated cases to players who perform in

PLANS OFFERED AT PARTY HELD AT SCHNEIDER

This year the Pampa branch of the A. A. U. W., in keeping with the aims of the national organization, is planning a broader study program than ever before, according to announcement of Miss Fannie May at the "rush" party held by the association as the first meeting of the year.

DAYS IN COLLEGE ARE RECALLED AT GAY FUNCTION

Under the direction of Miss May, general chairman of the study groups, arrangements have been made for groups in international relations, interior decorating and landscaping, book reviews, French, and parliamentary procedure.

French Class Offered

A class in French will be taught by Miss Fannie May, graduate of the University of Texas, and head of the English department of the high school.

College Life Stressed

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar was general director for the "rush" party, given at the Schneider hotel Thursday evening. The event carried guests back to their college days.

Autumn Theme Used

The dining room was beautifully decorated in autumn flowers and leaves, carrying the colors of reds, browns, and yellows. The room resembled a dining room, with college pennants, pillows, and blankets.

On entering the dining room, guests were given cards bearing their names and their college, and these were pinned on them with ribbons containing orange punch, which are pastel shades.

Then everyone passed to the tea table, which was laid with cream lace over orange.

The autumn theme was further carried out in the tall orange tapers on the tables and piano in crystal vases.

Two huge punch bowls containing orange punch accentuated the theme, and the beverage was served with dainty sandwiches, wafers, minis, and lives. Mrs. Arthur M. Teed and Miss Maxine Lyon presided at the tables. Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. Henry Thut, Mrs. Ben Ferris had charge of refreshments.

Get Acquainted

After the guests were served, Mrs. Kapitlar made a short address and asked each person to stand and give her name, the name of her school and the school colors, then she turned the meeting over to Mrs. J. B. Massa, program chairman.

Mrs. Massa introduced the president of the A. A. U. W. branch, Mrs. E. C. Will, who brought greetings to the guests from the members. Mrs. Will then gave a brief resume of the organization. She said there were 497 branches, including 8 in foreign countries. Mrs. Will reminded her listeners that they were non-resident members of national headquarters at Washington and that as they traveled about they had guest privileges in the club rooms of the various branches at home and abroad. Reference was made to the A. A. U. W. fellowships, fifteen of which already have been awarded. Each year the local branch raises a small sum for this fellowship fund. Some of the states have combined in raising these funds by the "Lemon" alone. Mrs. Will, in asking cooperation of all members, said that friendship and fellowship would be stressed.

Miss Frey Plays

Mrs. Massa then presented Miss Eleanor Frey, violinist who recently returned from 15 months' study in Germany. Accompanied by Mrs. May Foreman Carr, Miss Frey played two highly pleasing numbers.

Mrs. A. N. Dilley gave an impromptu recitation of a girl practicing voice lessons at her first year in college. This was very amusing.

Miss Dorothy Doucette and Miss Jackie Jones gave a medley of college songs. In the chorus of "The Eyes of Texas" the members and guests joined.

Mrs. Will Presides

Mrs. Will presided again for a business session. She announced that luncheon meetings would be discontinued and that dinner sessions would be held instead each third Thursday in every month. Dues will be the same as last year, $3.50 for national members and $2.50 for associate members. She introduced Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, who is scholarship chairman. The scholarship fund was explained. Mrs. Marbaugh revealed that the club had raised almost $1,200 in the last three years. There have been three awards, the first to Evelyn Carter, the second to Ruth Wakeman, and the last to Eloise Lane.

The first project for the fund will be a play "The Ghost House" which will use local talent—five women and six men. A professional director will produce the play, which will be given at the city hall October 21 and 22.

To Give Dance

On October 28 the A. A. U. W. will sponsor a Halloween dance at the Schneider hotel for the same fund.

Concluding the evening in a get-acquainted spirit, those present played two spirited games. Then the guests were given the "rush" for new members. Nine signed for membership. They were Mrs. John Moyer, Mrs. Bruce Pratt, Mrs. H. V. Patterson, Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Edward H. Damon, Miss Retha Lester, Miss Madge Rusk, Miss Maxine Lyon, and Miss Marie Carter.

Parent-Teacher Names Are To Be Kept by Congress

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude

The name and address of every one of the 58,323 members of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers is wanted at the state office of the Congress as soon as the 1932-1933 dues are paid. Every one of the men and women who pay the 25 cents per capita dues is entitled to an all-inclusive membership card which is a receipt for payment of dues. Delegates must present this card with the official credential card for admittance to the district conferences and the state conventions.

The first page of this buff-colored 4-page membership card contains the oak tree emblem of the National Congress and certifies that the person whose name appears in the space provided for it is a member of a certain Parent-Teacher association. The signatures of the national and state presidents and local president are affixed thereto.

The second page sets forth the objects of the National Congress as expressed in the by-laws: "First, to promote child welfare in home and school, church, and community; to raise the standards of home life; to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children. Second, to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that the parents and the teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child; and to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest attainable in physical, mental, moral, and spiritual education."

The third page is an exposition of what it means to be a parent-teacher worker: "It means that your name, your dues, your influence are counting in the realization of a local program, a state program, a national program, and a world program. It means that the force of your personality is on the side of human values in our schools, in our homes, in our state and national life. It means that you have caught the spirit of the age and have given your loyalty to a great organization in a day when the individual is weak but the group is strong. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers is an inspiring movement. Everything you put into this movement in time, energy, money, and spirit helps to magnify the finer values of our civilization."

The fourth and last page states that the National Congress has adopted for its platform the seven cardinal objectives of education. These objectives are: Health and safety; worthy home membership; mastery of the tools, ethics, and spirit of learning; citizenship and world goodwill; vocational and economic effectiveness; wise use of leisure; and ethical character. Parents and teachers may direct the growth of the child around these seven great purposes with the assurance that his life will be well founded and rich in promise of the highest success and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bass Clay attended the Tri-State fair yesterday.

Autumn Party Is Given Group by Mrs. J. H. Kelley

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Corner Kingsmill & West Streets

The Pampa Daily NEWS is to be given in Friday's paper to the progress made in growth of churches throughout America. There was a splendid editorial on attending church.

Such things, however, are like the idols described in the Bible to those in wrong relationship to the church. "Eyes they have but see not. Ears they have but hear not." That describes the great section of humanity who repudiate ours as a Christian nation and the vital place of the church in the Kingdom of God.

The First Baptist church shares this progress indicated in this nation-wide survey. Since January 1, 1932, one hundred and eighty-one have united with our church, more than 100 of whom have come by baptism. The enrollment of the Bible school is 1200. The attendance has more than doubled what it was two years ago, and is two to three hundred a Sunday more than it was a year ago. Again the NEWS has given a most valuable service in carrying reports of the various departments of work, and has always done it graciously.

The regulars in the present church membership feel the day is just dawning for a much larger program of service, one that will continue to reach increasing numbers in evangelism, teaching them the Bible, and training them for active service. There is a marked decline in church finances, and with the heavy obligations of the church it is very difficult to pay bills each month. So far, however, we have been able to do it.

The program today begins at 9:45 and is our annual promotion in Sunday school. Morning worship at 11. The pastor will preach. Training service at 6:30. At 7:30 there will be a baptismal service. We will attend the revival meet at 8. Those without a church home will always be welcome.

—C. E. Lancaster, pastor

This model embodies every worth-while radio improvement, many exclusive with PHILCO. There is no finer performing radio at any price.

$150.00

This is the greatest radio in all the world! It is a superb musical instrument to bring you all the vast variety of broadcast programs with a realism which has never been approached. It is different in appearance and different in performance. Here is a design which looks better, sounds better and IS better—better because reception is not radio-like; instead it brings you the actual program "as if in person."

Look carefully at the illustration and note the difference in appearance. The inclined Sounding Board throws all sound up into the field of the listener, making all the high notes heard for the first time in radio. The large area of Sounding Board insures reproduction of low notes. TWIN speakers insure full tonal range. The back of each Cabinet is fitted with an Echo-Absorbing Screen, which prevents echo and blur and insures that you hear only the music from the FRONT of the speaker. The design is exclusively Philco—it is Patented.
