

Arizona Lumberman Is Linked More Closely in Judd Case

GIRL'S DEATH PROBED

ACCOMPLICE BELIEVED TO HAVE HELPED

Woman's Story of Being at Home All Night Has Been Disproved — Made Two Trips on Car.

LETTER PRINTED

Brother of Slayer Writes Advice and Outlines Kind of Attorneys To Be Needed in Case.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 29 (AP)—New evidence intended to contradict the story of Winnie Ruth Judd and indicating that possibly she had an accomplice in the slaying of Miss Hedvig Samuelson and Mrs. Agnes LeRoi here two weeks ago was being rounded up by Phoenix authorities today.

Mrs. Judd stated she shot both women the morning of Oct. 17 as the climax of a quarrel over social affairs. She admitted placing the bodies in trunks and sending them to Los Angeles.

A street car motorman in Phoenix, Benjamin W. Jurgeneier, said yesterday Mrs. Judd was a passenger on his car the night of Oct. 16, getting off the car near the LeRoi-Samuelson apartment at 40:15 p. m., and again boarding the car at 11:35 p. m., returning to a point near her own home. Mrs. Judd had alleged she remained at the home of her two victims the night of the slayings.

Sedan Was Seen
Neighbors of the two slain women said that late the night of Oct. 16 a black sedan entered the driveway of the LeRoi-Samuelson home. Phoenix authorities were endeavoring to trace the ownership of this car and to learn whether it contained Mrs. Judd or some friend of the slain women or perhaps an accomplice in the killings.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29 (AP)—The name of J. J. Halloran, wealthy Phoenix, Ariz., lumberman, again was brought into the Winnie Ruth Judd murder case today in a letter written by his sister, Mrs. Judd, held for the killing of Agnes LeRoi and Hedvig Samuelson in Phoenix.

In part the letter stated: "I wish to speak to you in the matter of attorneys. Mr. Anderson (LeRoi Anderson) is one of the outstanding criminal lawyers in Phoenix I am told. He has never failed to free his man. He knows every judge personally."

Need Political Power
He is a prominent clubman in Phoenix. He knows Halloran personally. He knows every farmer around Phoenix. We must have prominent Arizona attorneys who exercise political power.

Halloran was first brought into the case when Phoenix authorities learned he attended a party with Mrs. Judd, Miss Samuelson and Mrs. LeRoi the night before the women were slain and their bodies sent to Los Angeles in trunks. Mr. Judd declared, after her arrest, that Halloran "knows all about it." Halloran denied all implications.

Lively Program Will Be Given At High School

The high school band will begin playing at 7:30 o'clock this evening in connection with the lively program to be given in the school auditorium by parents, teachers, and students of high school and junior high school. The entertainment is for the public, and proceeds from the 10 and 25-cent admission charge will be used to install a cafeteria on Central campus.

His First Dress Suit, a one-act comedy, then will be presented by Malcolm Carr, Dorothy Doucette, Owen Wright, and Florida Freeman, under the direction of Miss Arless O'Keefe. Paul Camp will manage the stage, the furnishings for which will be provided by Pampa Furniture company.

Another band number will be given while the stage is being cleared for the tumbling act which will be presented by the physical education department of the school under the direction of Harry Kelley. Popular music will be given by Emmitt Smith, Louise Conklin, and Mildred Holt.

Boars of laughter are expected when Principal R. A. Selby, W. B. Weathered, and Emmitt Smith, all of junior high school, present in pantomime Romeo and Juliet.

John Sturgeon will entertain with popular piano and vocal music.

"Dog biscuits" has been announced as the theme of the closing number, a radio program which will include "take-offs" on football boys, the school board, and school officials. Thurman Harris will be announced.

The pep squad and football boys will sit in special sections and assist with the program.

"Developed" Into Prize-Winner

"Pretty as a picture" best describes lovely Lillian Harvey. For this photograph of the English actress won first prize at the recent exhibition of the Society of International Photographic Artists, in Berlin. However, as you see here, there's nothing negative about her charms.

CITIZENS WARNED AGAINST COUNTERFEIT MONEY HERE

Bogus Ten Spots and Half Dollars in Circulation—Suspect Described.

Counterfeit money is still being passed in Pampa and officers ask merchants to make a close inspection of all money taken in, especially $10 bills and 50-cent pieces. The latest attempt to pass counterfeit bill was late last night at the Crystal Palace Confectionery on North Cuyler street.

The bill was tendered to Jimmie Martin, owner, but he became suspicious of the texture of the bill and told the man he didn't think it was any good. The man gave a dollar bill and rushed from the store. Mr. Martin, who was alone at the time, called the police and gave them a good description of the man.

He appeared to be about 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighing about 160 pounds. He was wearing a blue suit, dark brown fedora, and had on colored glasses. He was very nervous, Mr. Martin said, and might have been under the influence of some narcotic. His hands shook as Mr. Martin talked to him. He took the bill out of his pocket. It is an exact copy of a dollar bill, and left the store.

Postmaster D. E. Cecil has one of the bad bills at his office. It is an excellent duplicate but it feels different from the genuine bill. There is no crispness in its texture and the threads are missing.

The 50-cent pieces being passed around are about the same weight as the original but have no ring when dropped and they have a smooth edge.

Bad Eggs Being Brought to Pampa

Local grocers are receiving numerous bad eggs, according to Dr. T. J. Worrell, sanitation officer and assistant health officer. He has advised them to put all eggs under the candle test before buying them. He says most of the bad eggs are being received from out-of-town peddlers who are buying them in large quantities.

Farmers who supply eggs to grocers or who sell them direct are urged to place the eggs under the test. The penalty for selling bad eggs is a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $200. Dr. Worrell found a box full of bad eggs last week.

Eggs are scarce, grocers report.

Sturgeon Praises First Justices of Supreme Court

High praise for Chief Justice Hemphill and Associate Justices Lipscomb and Wheeler was given at Lions club by John Sturgeon, local attorney, this noon.

Mr. Sturgeon particularly stressed the importance of their interpretations of the Texas homestead exemption law. They were members of the state's first supreme court, and three Panhandle counties were named for them.

The Lions were entertained by a quartet composed of R. B. Fisher, Ed J. Thomas, E. D. Zimmerman, and Roy McMillen, with Mrs. May Foreman Carr at the piano.

POST OFFICES TO ENLARGE FORCES SOON

Christmas Rush Already Is Beginning to Show Up—Early Mailing Is to Be Stressed.

FEWER PARCELS

Window Service Will As Usual Be Suspended Christmas Day—Gifts More Substantial.

Postmaster D. E. Cecil said this morning that he would comply with orders from Washington relative to employing additional help for the Christmas rush. The postmaster says he will need additional carriers and inside clerks for the rush which usually starts about Dec. 13.

Clerks now on part time duty will probably be sufficient to care for the rush here.

He believes that letters and cards will be heavier than last year, but that parcels will be fewer and larger. The regulation size of parcels has been increased 16 inches in length and girls and people are sending larger packages of more value than in the past.

"We notice quite a difference in the number of parcels being sent," Mr. Cecil said this morning. "People are sending more valuable gifts but not so many," he declared.

Postal Receipts Larger
Business in practically every department is picking up, the postmaster says. Postal receipts are greater and savings accounts are growing rapidly, he says.

An advance warning on shop early and mail early is being sent out from the postal department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Postmaster General Brown today authorized the temporary employment starting Dec. 13 of 176,205 workers to handle Christmas mail.

The postoffice department estimated that 171,070 temporary clerks, carriers and laborers would be employed for about 10 days.

In addition to temporary clerks and laborers, the department will employ 3,300 extra railway mail clerks, 1,000 helpers in the motor vehicle service, 600 rural carriers, and 335 auxiliary carriers on long routes.

Costs Five Millions
The extra Christmas service will cost the department $5,132,123.

Postmasters have been directed to cooperate with federal relief agencies, war veterans' organizations, and local charitable associations in selecting temporary help but have been warned to exclude those unable to perform arduous work.

As usual, all carrier deliveries and window service will be suspended Christmas day. As a consequence, Brown said, every effort should be directed by postmasters to have all Christmas matter mailed, handled, transported and delivered before that day.

Boy Faces Life Term With Smile

ASBOTT, Wash., Oct. 29 (AP)—Convicted of murder, 12-year-old Hubert Nicolls Jr. faced life imprisonment in the penitentiary today with a degree of happiness.

Smiling on the jury that took two ballots to find him guilty yesterday of shooting Sheriff John Wormell, 72, during a grocery robbery Aug. 5, the frail 60-pound school boy said: "Well, I'm glad I'm over, and I'm happy they didn't send me to an insane asylum, for even smart men go nuts in a mad house."

Superior Judge E. V. Kuykendall ordered the boy returned to the court room today to hear the life sentence pronounced. It was made mandatory by the verdict.

Milk Tests Are Made by Worrell

All milk being received in Pampa is being tested this week by Dr. J. C. Worrell, assistant health officer and sanitation officer. The tests will continue into next month, Dr. Worrell believes as he intends to make more than one test of each producer's sale. The milk will be graded according to bacterial count and sanitation.

Farm dairies will also be inspected as part of the tests being made. The inspection will be on 25 counts. There are 18 dairymen supplying four local wholesalers and retailers.

Irene Rich Will Divorce Husband

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29 (AP)—The TIMES said today Irene Rich, film actress, and her husband, David Blaikenhorn, investment broker, had separated and divorce proceedings would be filed soon.

Courtesy Cars Are Asked

Pampa Must Return Fine Hospitality Extended by Lubbock Last Year.

Many courtesy cars will be needed Saturday afternoon to carry the Lubbock delegation from the high school campus to Harvester stadium. The system used at the Amarillo-Pampa game will be repeated.

George Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, has received this letter from A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock chamber.

"You are exactly right; what your team does to our Westerners is up to them, but what our team does to your team is going to be pitiful. Lubbock is going to be represented in great numbers, and will buck the Westerners like nobody's business."

"But, back to the information you asked for in your letter. The special train will arrive in Pampa at 1 o'clock and the first thing the passengers will want to do is get lunch. You might notify your restaurants and hotels of this, also, that the train will not leave out until seven o'clock that evening, which means that they will want to have supper before leaving Pampa."

"We have notified the Avalanche-Carnal regarding your plan to furnish cars for all Lubbockites, and they are carrying a nice story to the effect of telling everyone just how to find the cars."

"We have also gotten in touch with the superintendent of schools, and he says they are working out details and that just as soon as they know plans for Saturday that they are writing the school there regarding these plans—for the parade, et cetera."

"Please know that we do sincerely appreciate the way you are handling our reception, and especially do we appreciate your going to the trouble to furnish cars for our crowd. Accept our thanks in advance for this."

Drivers of courtesy cars to take Lubbock football fans to and from Harvester park Saturday afternoon are urged to get their stickers from the chamber of commerce and to have their cars at the north side of the gymnasium and on the east side of North Cuyler street across the street from the gymnasium at 2 o'clock. The special train will arrive here at 1 o'clock, but the fans will have luncheon downtown before going to the field.

Members of the B. C. D. committee are anxious that Pampa drivers show Lubbock fans every courtesy regardless of the outcome of the game. Lubbock fans took care of all the Panhampans who attend the game in Lubbock last year and took defeat like gentlemen.

"I know Panhampans will show the visitors that they are a bunch of real sports," Mr. Briggs, chairman of the committee, said this morning.

All cars will go to the park by way of North Cuyler street and through the Cook addition. If it is necessary to return for a second load, drivers are urged to return to Pampa on the Miami road and Russell street to Kingsmill avenue and then north on Cuyler street to the gymnasium.

Hoover Ignorance Cited by League

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Charges of "abysmal ignorance" on the part of President Hoover and subordination of American sea forces to those of other powers form the spearhead of the navy league's latest attack on the administration's naval policies.

Renewing its opposition to the proposed world armament building holiday, the league also revives the ghost of an old controversy between the chief executive and the senate.

GRAINS DECLINE

CHICAGO, Oct. 29 (AP)—Grains declined early today under fairly heavy selling influenced somewhat by forecasts of enlarged wheat exports from Argentina. Black Sea shipments also were larger than a year ago. Starting 1-4 to 3-4 cent off, wheat afterward held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 1-8 lower and subsequently sagged further.

Continuing Bank Raids Causing Officers to Seek Organized Ring

TENARKANA, Ark., Oct. 29 (AP)—Officers of four states had action today to cope with operations of what they believed to be an organized gang of bank robbers in this section.

Officers investigating the robbery of the First National bank of Lewisville at noon advanced the theory the execution was similar to many of the preceding four robberies with in a radius of 50 miles of Texarkana in the past few weeks. The Lewisville loot totaled $5,000.

Flight of the two or three bandits was traced to six miles south of Lewisville where they abandoned their car and took another one, apparently waiting for the transfer.

Officials believed the two bandits who obtained $2,500 in a hold-up of the State bank at Omaha, Texas, at noon Monday, had escaped. The abandoned car was found eight miles north of Naples and officers believed they had made their getaway in another machine.

On Oct. 20 the Farmers bank of Emerson was entered during the night and a safe with $5,000 was taken away. On Sept. 16 the First National bank of Avery, Texas, was robbed of $1,500 by two bandits. On Sept. 1, McCurtain county bank at Broken Bow, Okla., was looted of $3,000.

A change in the date of the 18th district American Legion convention at Borger has been made by Dr. R. A. Webb of Pampa, committee man. The new date is Dec. 5 and 6, made necessary because several men on the program could not make the trip Nov. 21, and 22.

An 18th district band will be organized at the convention. Notice has been posted in every post in the district urging musicians to take their instruments to the convention. G. Ward Moody, assistant executive committeeman, will have charge of the band.

The Pampa venture 40 and 9 will put on a "wreck" the closing night. At least 25 "goods" will be initiated. Phil Trock of Borger, biggest Legion post commander in Texas and maybe in the entire country, will have charge of arrangements. The Borger post commander weighs 420 pounds.

Broadcasting Of Saturday Game Being Arranged By Lions Club

An opportunity to give Pampa much excellent publicity has moved members of the Pampa Lions club to sponsor broadcasting of the Pampa-Lubbock football game here Saturday afternoon.

Arrangements for the broadcast were completed this afternoon, while members sought the necessary funds. C. H. Walker, president of the Lions club, said that while in Dalhart yesterday he was implored to urge broadcasting. He said everyone in Dalhart would be listening in and cheering for Pampa.

KGRS will start the broadcast at 3 o'clock, when the kick-off will be made. Dr. H. H. Hicks is chairman of the financing group and Sam A. Fenberg of the broadcasting arrangements. Only members of the club will be solicited for funds.

"Battle of Duck Ponds" Ends as Army of Occupation Is Recalled

TEXARKANA, Oct. 29 (AP)—The war of the "duck ponds" along the Arkansas-Texas border was concluded peacefully today and the Texas army of occupation had evacuated with the announcement that the boundary dispute would be settled by a commission.

Texas wardens and game warden officials withdrew yesterday under orders from Austin. Rangers M. Burton and L. V. Hightowers, on duty here, rejoined their company at Gladewater.

The commission, to which officials of Texas and Arkansas agreed to settle the dispute as to sovereignty of the 4,600 acre game preserve on the Red river, was expected to be appointed soon. R. M. Hubbard, special representative for Texas in the controversy, announced soon.

The commission will consist of three members, an engineer appointed by each state and the third member chosen by the engineers.

Shell Cuts Gas Price in Houston

HOUSTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—The Shell Petroleum corporation posted a retail price for gasoline of 13 cents per gallon today in the Houston territory, which includes Beaumont and Galveston. It was a one-cent reduction.

Party Ended By Stabbing Early Today

Juanita Chriswell Dies From Wound Over Heart—Girl Claims She Inflicted Injury Deliberately.

Whether a coroner's verdict would be murder or suicide, officers said, depended upon evidence obtained in a further investigation of the death. The Chriswell girl, Lucille Roberts, Carl Ashlock, and J. H. Hogan went to a show here last night, then to Hogan's apartment for dinner, officers said. The mysterious stabbing occurred when the party broke up early this morning.

"Juanita said she was going to end it all and reached for a long knife we had used to peel potatoes," the Roberts girl said. "I tried to keep her from doing it."

She said Mrs. Chriswell was standing in the doorway between the two rooms of the apartment, and that she grappled with her in an effort to get the knife.

Officers said none of the three witnesses knew what became of the knife and that they had been unable to find it.

Slander Testimony Given at Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 29 (AP)—Mrs. T. H. Parker, president of the Dallas Central Women's Christian Temperance union, testified in district court here today that Mrs. Mittle B. Heifer had disseminated allegedly slanderous statements concerning John W. Woods, former speaker of the house of representatives, and his wife, Mrs. Helen Woods.

Mrs. Parker's testimony was given at the hearing of the $50,000 damage suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. Woods against a group of women affiliated with the Dallas county women's democratic league.

She said Mrs. Heifer had called her on the telephone one day in April, 1930, and asked her not to go to a meeting of the Dallas county women's democratic league. Mrs. Heifer, a defendant in the suit, is the sister of State Senator George Purl.

"She asked me not to attend the meeting, giving as a reason that she had learned Mrs. Woods was a dope fiend," Mrs. Parker testified. "I told Mrs. Heifer I intended to go to the meeting as Cullen F. Thomas was slated to speak on 'Why I am sorry I voted for Al Smith' and because I wanted to hear his reason."

Mrs. Woods at the time was president of the Dallas county women's democratic league.

Judge Braly Still In Serious Condition

He is unable to take substantial nourishment and is weaker than he was when first brought here. Friends are staying with him each night.

Capone's Hangout In Chicago Raided

CHICAGO, Oct. 29 (AP)—The Lexington hotel, "outlaw camp" of Alphonse Capone and his gang headquarters, was raided by detective squads today and found deserted except for servants.

The raid was described by chief of Detectives William Shoemaker as part of his campaign to harass well known gangsters at every turn and arrest them on sight.

Detectives discovered that Capone's often expressed fear of being poisoned extended even to his own hangout. On the fourth floor of the hotel, which apparently had been reserved entirely for Capone and his "boys," officers found a completely equipped kitchen with chef, a second chef and a bus boy who served only the gangster and members of his party.

KNIFE MISSING

Mysterious Circumstances to Be Cleared Up Before Coroner Decides While Examining Witnesses.

DALHART, Oct. 29 (AP)—Officers today were investigating the mysterious death of Juanita Chriswell, 20, who died last night from knife wounds over the heart.

Whether a coroner's verdict would be murder or suicide, officers said, depended upon evidence obtained in a further investigation of the death.

TEXAS PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS. We have down here in Texas one of the greatest shows on earth, and perhaps the poorest showmanship. Kendall, blazing a trail from Austin to Santa Fe, found another of the world's wonders up in the Panhandle. He stood, amazed and awed, upon the brink of canyons that, for no apparent reason at all, plunged abruptly to the bowels of the earth. He wrote a book about it—a book that has been out of print so long good editions sell for as much as a hundred dollars. But so securely hidden under a bushel is the light of these Northwest wonders, that even most Texans are ignorant of their possession.

In the trans-Pecos country is a range of mountains that for sheer and rugged beauty rivals anything in the Western Hemisphere. One peak, at least, is higher than any mountain east of the Great Plains. Yet thousands of Texans stand with mouths agape when they hear this truth; and millions of out-of-state people still think an arrow shot from the shoulder parallel to the ground, at Texarkana, would do no more than frighten rattle snakes until it crashed into the customs house at El Paso.

From San Antonio, down through the Winter Garden district to the tip of the Magic Valley at Brownsville, lies a sun-kissed winter playground that could be a mecca for weary folk with cash enough to flee the bleak snows and ice of the northern states. Yet even the valley is known better for its grape fruit than its matchless climate.

The facts are that more people know Texas as the place General Sherman couldn't swap for hell than as the scenic wonderland and vacation paradise it really is. Tourists spend cash, and lots of it. The tax on the cigarettes they'd smoke, would pay for enough printer's ink to bring them into the state in an endless stream—by train, by automobile, by boat. If we would, we could sell for cash a climate and a scenery that still would be ours, no matter how many times we sold it.

We have the show, but we have no showmanship.—EDITORIAL DIGEST.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (NEA).—Imagine yourself a pile of dimes nearly a mile high, or an end-on-end row of dimes about 10 miles long or a big heap of dimes weighing something like two and a half tons.

Then you will visualize the million dimes which the national prohibition board of strategy expects to receive in the mails the first part of December to make up the $100,000 fund with which it will begin its campaign to save prohibition for posterity.

Nobody, of course, is really going to pile all those naked dimes one on top of another, but it certainly does give one pause to think of a pile like and it probably will be almost as impressive a spectacle when the mail trucks, loaded with dimes, actually do drive up to an especially rented warehouse to deposit them.

One million coin cards have been ordered for distribution through the 33 national dry organizations represented by the board of strategy. The cards, with envelopes addressed to headquarters here, will be handed in bulk lots to churches, Sunday schools, temperance groups and young people's societies. In each card will be slots for five dimes because a man might have a wife and three children and wish to contribute a dime for each.

Mailing day for all the dimes is Nov. 30. A two-cent stamp must be placed on each envelope. So, besides the $100,000 objective of the prohibitionists, there will be $20,000 in revenue for Uncle Sam, who has a big deficit and needs all the money he can get.

The Board of Strategy co-ordinates the effort of the various dry organizations and will unify the battle not only at the next national political conventions and in the campaigns, but also in the coming session and all subsequent sessions of congress. Part of the $100,000 will be spent against efforts for a referendum in the next session as well as to prevent congress from reducing prohibition enforcement appropriations. After the conventions next summer a national strategy conference is expected to meet to endorse a presidential candidate.

Jolly old Dr. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, who wears bright green shirts and suspenders, is executive secretary of the board. He has spent 37 of his 64 years as a temperance worker. Gleeefully he stresses the significance of the "million dimes" stunt. Wet movements are financed almost entirely by a few millionaires, he says, and the dime demonstration will be in the nature of an uprising of the masses. The wet millionaires, he is prepared to prove, feel that beer and liquor taxes would save them much of the tax money they now pay.

So emphasis is being laid on the fact that in this fund-raising a millionaire has to come down on the same level with the laborer—he can only give a dime. Certain millionaires and other prominent dimes have agreed to give dimes. Their names will be publicized at the proper time.

Gems of Peril

by HAZEL ROSS HAILEY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

OH MRS. JUPITER, wife of the millionaire automobile manufacturer, gives an engagement dinner and dance for her secretary, MARY HARKNESS, who is to marry DINK RUTHER, a successful young lawyer. Mary receives a telephone call from her estranged brother, EDDIE, saying he is in trouble and must see her. The house is strictly guarded against "gate-crashers" because Mrs. Jupiter is wearing the famous Jupiter rubies. Mary arranges for Eddie to be admitted secretly. When she goes upstairs to meet him she finds Mrs. Jupiter robbed and murdered in her room. Seeking Dink, she finds him with COGNELLA TABOR, his childhood sweetheart. Dink advises her to keep silent about Eddie until he can locate the boy.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER V

It was Dink's voice—tired, rather, but blessedly his. Mary went weak with joy. "I've got word of—the person we were speaking of," he said. "I'll see you at three o'clock. Can you be ready to go with me then?"

"Oh, Dink, of course! Then it's all right! Everything's all right!" "I don't know that," he hedged. "I haven't talked with him. Better not say anything to anybody yet. Well, I'm going home and get some sleep now, and I'll be around for you at a quarter of three, sharp. See you then."

Three o'clock. If she could just keep her own counsel until then, somehow she could not bear to face Mr. Jupiter with the knowledge of what she was holding back. "So far there has been nothing—nothing!" There was something—not much, perhaps, but something. She would feel better when the strain of waiting was over, when Mr. Jupiter knew.

She was almost fatalistic about it now. She knew that sooner or later someone would interrogate Bessie, if they had not already done so, and that in all probability Bessie would tell frankly about the side door she had left unlocked at Mary's request. She ought to speak to Bessie.

But something held her back. Pride, of a sort. She could lie herself but she could not ask Bessie to lie. Intrigue with a house-maid would be humiliating at best. Perhaps Inspector Kane was so busy he would forget about Bessie. But as she passed the library door she saw Kane there with Mr. Jupiter and the lawyer, talking with a fourth man who had his back to the door. She recognized with a start that it was Tom, the chauffeur.

TOM was shaking his head with great positiveness. "I'd take my oath on it," he said, "that it was the same car. Three times it came in and went 'round the circle, in the space of half an hour."

"You'd know it again if you saw it?" "I would. A black body with aluminum trimmings and aluminum hood. Mr. Jupiter called our attention to it, that's why I noticed it. A guy was driving it, but I didn't see his face."

"Anybody in it?" "Nobody in it that I could see." The detective made a rapid note. "Lorimer. Special body." The chauffeur nodded.

"All right, Tom. You can go." The group of newspapermen waiting in the dining-room, where sleepy-eyed servants had laid a buffet supper at Mr. Jupiter's order, were ushered into the library next.

Mary would have slipped away but Inspector Kane, spying her as she greeted the men on their entrance, summoned her with a nod. "Come in, will you please, Miss Harkness? We need a rose among all these thorns." The newspapermen eyed her curiously; she felt as overpowered by shyness as if she had suddenly been thrust out on a stage, alone. But they behaved toward her with the most formal courtesy.

Kane watched the girl's white face with obvious relish of the impression he was creating.

Kane jumped into the middle of his discourse. Evidently he had gone over most of it with them in dividually before. "So as I said before to you boys, I'm convinced the crook who did this was an amateur and a bungler. I haven't changed my mind."

"Bungler!" someone snorted sarcastically. Kane raised his voice. "Bungler, I said. And why? Because he'll have to take the rap for murder, that's why. Any jewel thief who knew the A, B, C of the business could have got those jewels and never left a mark on the old lady." Remembering the presence of Mr. Jupiter, he lowered his voice somewhat as if to soften what he had to say.

"But how did he get in?" someone asked. Kane waved him down. "He got in, didn't he? We'll get around to that. Two Pinkerton men looked over the guests as they came in and there wasn't a 'guy' in the lot. But they left at midnight. "But let's get on. As I say, Mrs. Jupiter's feet hurt and she went upstairs to her room on the third floor to give 'em a little rest. That's because she had on house slippers when she was found. Her maid was downstairs looking after the women guests. The thief was either hiding in a closet, or in the next room, or else he came in after she did. He stole out, throws a gun on her, and tells her to hand over the jewels. But the old lady was game. She wouldn't give them up. "Now! How do I know the guy was an amateur? Because first of he grabs her rings and the diamond tiara. Diamonds are flashy and any fool knows what they're worth. But rubies," he broke off to ask, "any of you ever seen the Jupiter necklace?"

There was shaking of heads. "Pictures of it," one man admitted. "Well, then you know it doesn't look like so much. You'd never think to look at it that $500,000 wouldn't buy it. A cool half a million! That's money, in any language. But just to look at it, why, say, my wife's got a string of pearls I bought her for Christmas that knocks the spots off it for looks!"

"Taking a little graft, Kane?" somebody snickered. Kane overlooked the raillery. "Now, the way I figure it, this guy don't have any real idea of the value of that necklace or he wouldn't have fooled with the other stuff. Here's what he did: he pocketed the diamonds, and made a pass at the necklace. Now, any crook smart enough to know a ruby from an agate knows that a valuable string of any kind don't depend on no catch that's gonna come apart with a jerk. A woman can't lose a necklace nowadays. They've all got patent catches. This guy was new, and he was stared, for when the old lady refused to hand over the necklace it rattled him. He tried to snatch it and she held it up in her hands, tight. He cusses her and she runs to the balcony and he lets her have it. Now, why would he do that?"

"He must have thought the upper floor was deserted or he wouldn't have been there. And if somebody did hear her scream and came in, what difference would that make? If he'd been a regular stick up that know his job he'd have stood them up against the wall and made a getaway just the same, cool as you please.

"No, that guy had a nervous trigger finger. I might go so far as to say he was yellow, clear through. Maybe he monkeyed with the catch and couldn't open it, as the old lady lay on the floor—we'll know when we get the fingerprint man's report. But the chances are he didn't, for he didn't have time. Miss Harkness thinks she didn't scream, but she isn't sure. She probably made a sound of some kind. Then it couldn't have been more than a minute before she came in and the man was gone. When Miss Harkness came in and when she went out, the lights were on, full and bright. She didn't make a search, naturally, and it's a good thing she didn't, for Miss Harkness," he turned to the girl, "you can take my word for it the murderer was still in that room, all the time you were there!"

HE watched the girl's white face with obvious relish of the impression he was creating.

"The butler answered Mrs. Jupiter's bell that had just rung a minute before he met Miss Harkness at the foot of the stairs. When the butler entered the room, it was dark. He switched on the lights himself."

"I don't get you, Sergeant," somebody commented. "Who rang the buzzer—Miss Harkness?" "No, he did. The thief did." The push-button that summons the servants is right next the light switch. In trying to turn out the lights to cover a getaway he missed the light switch the first time and rang the buzzer by mistake.

"We've got the story of a chap named Doulton that he went out through the grounds. Matter of fact, he ran into Doulton and nearly knocked him down. He must have climbed up and come in by the balcony. There's footprints in hall. No evidence on the balcony rail or the wall to prove it, but that's the most likely thing."

"Doulton got a look at him?" Kane looked disgusted. "I regret to say that Mr. Doulton was more than a trifle drunk."

"Any fingerprints?" "None so far. But I've got another witness that saw him probably. Saw him plain. Can identify him. But I'll tell you boys frankly that I don't think his life would be worth a nickel if I told you who he was."

One of the men—he was the veteran police reporter for the Star—asked slowly. "Saw him before or after the shooting?" Kane hesitated. "Before," he admitted finally.

There was some talk about the exact value of the jewels, a request to photograph the necklace. And in a remarkably short time, the newspapermen had all left the house.

Only the man from the Star hung back, while his photographer went upstairs to "shoot" the necklace. "You know, you sound to me, Inspector, as if you had already made up your mind who did this. Am I right, or wrong?" he asked. "And if I had," barked Kane disconcerted, "would I spring it to you guys? What you'll print anyhow may put him wise till I'll never be able to lay a finger on him."

"Ah, the old alibi," chided the Star man. He lowered his voice. "How about telephone calls into the house last night? Have you traced 'em?" (To Be Continued)

Again we say BEAT THE WESTERNERS!

But whether we win or lose, we must give the Lubbock football boys and the Lubbock fans a lasting impression of our good sportsmanship and our hospitality. That is what visitors remember long after they have forgotten the score of a game.

Susie Bell Hickman, former pep squad leader at Pampa high school, is now in Wichita, Kansas, was so pleased with the impression we gave the Wichita boys upon their visit here that she sent her Pampa friends clippings from a Wichita paper.

"After questioning most of the boys as to what they enjoyed most at Pampa, the reply was always the good old southern hospitality shown them. According to all reports the Pampa high school boys and citizens make them feel at home. More than one friendship was formed there.

It seems that the boys learned how to play football while they were at Pampa. They certainly show some spirit in practice now-a-days. It has been rumored that the dapper Billy Moekel came near being removed from the game for unnecessary roughness, and even with those big boys. My, my, please be careful with them Billy. Billy seems to have plenty of fight in him for a guy his size. You'll probably hear more about this later on."

If the Lubbock boys want an alibi maybe they can get a suggestion from the Wichita paper: "Ask some of the team what was the matter with Joe Haskell in the huddle while they were at Pampa. Try it. If you have a good sense of humor you may get a good laugh, if not, no harm's done anyway. Better ask Joe what happened.

"The purified air in Texas proved to be much for some of the boys. They said if they ran 10 yards, all they could do was sit down and pant awhile. Imagine those big husky fellows running 10 yards and then having to rest. It's a good thing they didn't go to Colorado, they might not have been able to move without resting.

Wichita was impressed with our pep squad also, and decided to enlarge her own to at least one hundred members.

Dr. William G. Anderson, director of the Yale gymnasium, is predicting the overthrow of football within the next 10 years. "Football," he said, "has its seven fall years and usually seven lean years will follow, you know. Like the Greeks and the Romans, the public likes spectacles. That's why football has grown so popular. He also believes the so-called minor sports will become self-supporting.

We hope the educator is right. It will give the boys and girls who are less powerful physically a chance in sports. But before that time comes, let's have a state championship for Pampa.

Holiva has a new touring association which will encourage automobile transportation and the building of new roads.

AMERICAN LEGION AND AUXILIARY HAVE PARTY

PROGRAM GIVEN FOR 70 GUESTS ON WEDNESDAY

Seventy members of the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary gathered here for an informal party in the Legion hut Wednesday evening. The time was spent in discussing activities of the organization, in hearing a program of music and readings, and in neighborly chatting.

The gathering was opened with the song America, sung by the entire group. Dr. R. A. Webb then introduced the Legionnaires and Mrs. Al Lawson, president of the auxiliary who, in turn, introduced members of her organization.

Betty Ann McTaggart, in a dainty frock of pink taffeta, entertained with a toe dance. She was accompanied by her teacher, Miss Catherine Vincent.

Following a reading and encore by Clarice de Cordova, a tap dance was given by Bonnie Lee Rose. Miss Vincent was at the piano. Lucile Carlock entertained with a reading and encore.

Clyde Garner, J. P. Murphy, D. W. Thurman, and Mr. Spees led the group in singing a number of old-time songs.

Talks were made by C. M. Carlock, commander, and Paul Hill, chaplain, on activities of the Legion, and by Mrs. Al Lawson, auxiliary president, on work of the women.

D. W. Thurman gave an instructive discussion of his experiences in the war.

Guests were given their choice of many kinds of pie which was served with coffee.

Halloween Party Is Arranged for School Pupils

Mrs. C. B. Akers and Mrs. H. M. Ellis, first grade room mothers at Sam Houston school will entertain pupils of that room with a Halloween party Friday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock. The children are asked to bring their little brothers and sisters to the party. Mothers also will be welcome.

Lawyer Explains Statement Made

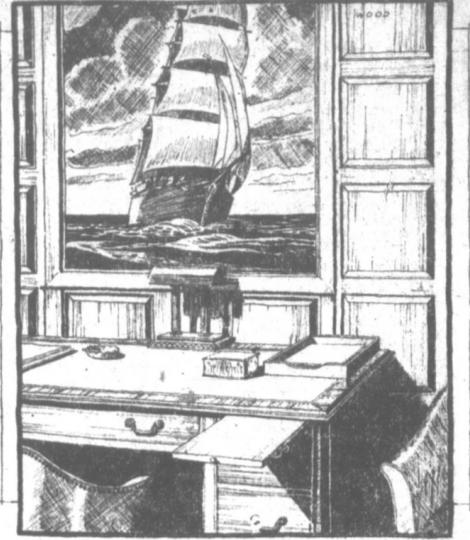

Property owned by a woman before her marriage does not become community property under Texas laws at the time of her marriage, according to a statement of Arthur M. Teed this morning. It is only the income from this property which, legally speaking, is owned by both husband and wife.

The fact was brought out by Mr. Teed at a meeting of El Progreso club Tuesday, but due to a misunderstanding, a story was published to the effect that joint ownership referred to the property itself.

Sisterhood Plays Games on Tuesday

Following a luncheon at the Schneider hotel members of the B'Nai Israel Sisterhood joined in playing bridge and other games Tuesday afternoon. Score prizes were awarded Mrs. Ralph Denepehn, Mrs. Milton Clayman, and Mrs. I. A. Freeman.

Mrs. Archie Ralsky was welcomed as a new member, and Mrs. Spilmon of Denver was a special guest for the occasion.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks in Mrs. Freeman's home.

GOAL OF 600 IS SET FOR ATTENDANCE

A goal of 600 persons in Sunday school next Sunday was set at a meeting of 25 teachers and Supt. Phillip Wolfe recently. These teachers planned to visit every Methodist home in which the family does not attend church and Sunday school in an attempt to enlist this family in church work.

Mrs. Carson from the Mother's class, Mrs. Jerry Edston of the Friendship class, Mrs. Lee Hill of the young married people's class, Bob Campbell of the men's class, and Mrs. Roy Bourland, adult superintendent, will be at the door to greet those attending Sunday school. It is the object of the teachers to allow no one to be a stranger in the church but once. Similar welcomes are being planned for younger people who attend.

Mrs. Lee Harrah and Mrs. Chris Baer are in charge of the baby department.

An attempt is being made to have every member of the church a member of a Sunday school class.

A railroad connecting San Jose and Guanacaste, Costa Rica, is being promoted.

WESTERNERS CLOSE SCRIMMAGES AGAINST PAMPA PLAYS

INJURIES TO LUBBOCK MEN ARE RUMORED

Britton, Quarterback, Is Not Training; Calhoun and Griggs Are Hurt.

LUBBOCK, Oct. 29. (Special)—Practice by way of preparation for the Pampa Harvester game by Lubbock's Westerners reached its climax of the week yesterday in a stiff round of scrimmage on the Fair Park field. For more than an hour the Westerners ran signals over the field and then for about half an hour they engaged in a scrimmage with a team schooled in the offense usually displayed by Pampa.

While they did not look like the world's best in the scrimmage, the Westerners were given a taste of what to expect Saturday when they go up against Odus Mitchell's flag-seeking Harvesters at Pampa. Winners over Amarillo two weeks earlier, the Harvesters will be favorites over Lubbock and favorites for the district title. A victory over the local entry will mean a district flag for the Mitchellmen.

A bit of gloom settled over the Westerner camp early this week and was not raised yesterday as a result of a couple of injuries which may be felt next Saturday. O. H. Britton, regular quarterback, broke a tooth in the Odessa game Saturday and what was left of the thing had to be pulled Monday. The resulting soreness has upset the youngster's peace of mind and body and so far this week he has not been able to do his turn with the team in practice. He was out on the field yesterday but laid off the scrimmage.

Calhoun On Injury List
Elmer Calhoun, who is slowly developing into one of Chapman's best tackles after more than a year out of school, is thought to have a broken leg. He played the game, or part of it, Saturday with the member wrapped up and a closer examination early this week revealed a possible fracture. While not necessarily a serious threat to the lad's football future, the injury may bar him from Saturday's game.

Coach Chapman hoped to keep the news of these injuries more or less a secret, but it leaked out when queries as to the absence of the day had to be answered. Melvin boys in the lineup Monday and Tuesday, regular left guard, is troubled with a trick knee. The hurt kept him out of the game Saturday and he is refraining from intensive practice this week.

Three States to Elect Governors

By the Associated Press
Three States—Mississippi, Kentucky, and New Jersey—will elect governors at next Tuesday's off-year elections. In Mississippi, where democratic nomination is equivalent to election, the voting will be hardly more than a formality. Mike Cooner is the democratic nominee. He is so take office Jan. 1.

The campaign in Kentucky has been confined for the most part to the administration of the state highway department. Ruby Laffon, circuit judge, is the democratic nominee. He favors the present partisan arrangement of the highway commission. Mayor William Harrison of Louisville, heading the republican ticket, would return the board to its former bi-partisan setup.

New Jersey's contest has been the warmest of the three by far. In that state the governorship is sought by David Baird Jr., republican, and Harry Moore, democrat. Each has campaigned with vigor for several weeks, the issues being numerous but with no particular national significance.

Baseball Players Given Ovation On Arrival In Japan

TOKYO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Fourteen major and minor league baseball stars from America were received eagerly by Japanese fans upon their arrival here today for a barnstorming tour of the empire.

Arriving in Yokohama on the liner Tatsuta Maru, the players were greeted by enormous crowds. The ship arrived eight hours late, having been delayed by the tail end of a typhoon which proved the baseball players were not all good sailors in rough weather. A special train brought the Americans to Tokyo.

Football Growing Farther from Feet With Each Season

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Every year, the name of "football" as applied to the present intercollegiate game becomes more of a misnomer as the ancient and honorable art of drop and placement kicking fades from the picture.

The decline in importance of the field goal really traces from the introduction of the forward pass and it was given a further kick downward by the change in rules which moved the goal posts 10 yards back of the goal line. This year it has reached a new low.

Statistics of major games played to date in 1931, compiled by Parke Davis, football sage at Easton, Pa., show no more than 13 goals kicked on college fields in the whole country.

The finest drop-kicker in college ranks according to the record is Ralph Hewitt, brilliant field general of the Columbia Lions. His 53-yard drop kick in the Cornell game last year which gave the Lions a hard fought 10-7 victory ranks 21st on the long list of goals from the field compiled since the start of the game in the United States.

An interesting point of the list compiled by Davis is that five of the 13 kicks he has recorded were the games, three of them for the only score. Of such were the goals kicked by Cy Blanton of Texas, Oklahoma, by Otis Jefferson of Sewanee against Virginia, by Ben Boswell of Texas Christian against Louisiana State, and by William Worthing of Creighton against Wyoming. Bill Skillman's placement goal helped Long Island U. defeat Baltimore 9-7.

Speedboat Rules Somewhat Altered

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Racing for the Gold cup, the blue ribbon trophy of the speedboat world, still is far from being a poor man's sport but the Gold cup contest board of the American Powerboat association has done its best to reduce the cost of building a boat for the contest.

Meeting here last night, the board decided not to change the present rules but adopted a set of alternate conditions permitting the use of stock motors. These motors are limited to 350 horsepower and may not cost more than $5,000.

Miss Patterson Is Engaged to Pilot

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—The crash of Miss Alicia Patterson's airplane near South Bend, Ind., yesterday while it was being piloted by Joseph W. Brooks of New York led today to the revelation that Miss Patterson and Brooks are engaged and are to be married this winter.

MARCHIE MARCHES ON

—By Pap

HE IS AGAIN SPECIALIZING IN "PERSONALLY CONDUCTED TOURS" ACROSS THE GOAL LINE

Sport Slants

BY ALAN GOULD

It isn't compulsory to bring up the subject at this time, but we would like to know about it if there are four backfield performers more outstanding in the four major sections of the football map than these young men.

East—William Barry Wood Jr. of Harvard.
Midwest—Marchmont Schwartz of Notre Dame.
South—Eugene McEver of Tennessee.
Far West—Orville Mohler of Southern California.

It's never safe to nail down October predictions concerning college football performances. Too many factors and circumstances can upset them during November. The hero of one Saturday may be the goat the following week.

Nevertheless it is fairly safe to expect this great quartet, barring accidents, to receive consideration when the All-America ballots are posted later on. They all have "class," plus.

Wood and the Raiders
Perhaps the greatest compliment we have heard paid to Barry Wood's generalship and all-around ability so far is this remark of a journeyman observer:

"Wood has a mighty fine Harvard team to work with this year, a fast, hard-charging line and an exceptional guard backs, but—this year, in charge of Notre Dame's forces and they would be next to unstoppable. In my mind, Wood is at least the equal of Frank Carideo in the equal of Frank Carideo in the equal of Frank Carideo by a wide margin as a passer. You will recall that Yost classed Wood as a sophomore passer with the great Benny Friedman."

Both Blocks
Speaking of blocking, an art that the average fan is paying more attention to than heretofore, Yale men were told an incident that occurred in the team's dressing room after the first half of the Chicago game.

Tommy Taylor had scored the Elfs' first touchdown on a short B. Both performed the "key block" in the play and took out the chief menace to Taylor's rapid progress. Instead of congratulating Taylor for his footwork, however, coaches as well as players handed the words of praise first to Captain Booth for his blocking.

"It was as fine a piece of work as there was in the entire game," said Taylor, "but I dare say it went almost unnoticed off the field and the sidelines. Nowhere in accounts of the contest did I read that Taylor scored with the aid of Booth's fine blocking."

TEXAS TEAMS LEAVE TO DO GRID DEEDS

It Will Be Homecoming for Arkansas When T. C. U. Frogs Arrive.

By the Associated Press
The Texas Christian University Frogs embark tonight for Fayetteville and the University of Arkansas homecoming game. Injuries have forced Coach Schmidt to revamp his line. Yesterday he moved Johnny Vaught from guard to right tackle to replace Foster Howell who will be out of the game because of injuries.

Tied with Southern Methodist for the conference lead with an unblemished conference record, Texas Christian is favored to topple Arkansas, but beating the Porkers on homecoming day is a tough assignment.

Last week the Arkansas line stopped Louisiana State on ground plays but lost 13 to 6 when Louisiana completed several long passes.

Although several Arkansas players are nursing minor injuries, the first string lineup is expected to start, including Homer Ledbetter, one of the conference leading scorers with five touchdowns.

The undefeated and untied Southern Methodist Mustangs were hustled through a long practice yesterday. They battle the University of Texas Saturday at Dallas in the conference headliner. The workout was devoted to offensive formations featuring passes.

Texas A. and M. will leave for Shreveport tomorrow to battle Centenary college Saturday in a non-conference game. Drill in fundamentals and practice against Centenary formations featured A. and M. practice yesterday.

Rated no more than an even favorite, the Baylor Bears are busy preparing for the invasion of Texas Tech, a non-conference school. Only eight points have been scored on Texas Tech this season.

Texan Eliminated In Golf Tourney

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 29. (AP)—Three Arkansas and one Oklahoma player were in the 36-hole semifinals today of the Southwestern Golf association annual tournament here.

Jack Murphy, Fayetteville collegian, medalist in the qualifying round, was paired with Ed Klein of Oklahoma City while Onis Green of Hot Springs played with Dr. G. C. Coffey, also of Hot Springs.

Klein defeated M. P. Lipscomb of Texas one up in the afternoon round yesterday. In the morning round he defeated Mack Wilson, Hot Springs, 2 and 1, while Lipscomb won over W. T. Sorrels, Oklahoma City, one up.

Fourteen Women in House of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Fourteen women led by Nancy Lady Astor, contribution of the first families of Virginia to British politics, will grace the green leatherbacked chairs of the house of commons when the new house is convened next month.

Thirteen of the 14 have staunch conservative convictions. One, the ingaicaluable Miss Megan Lloyd George, whose election platform was Ruth's "whether thou goest I will go," she applied it to her father—is a liberal.

Not one of the 36 women candidates of the labor party was elected although there were 10 women laborites in the last parliament. Only four of the 14 victors have sat in the house of commons before—Lady Astor, Lady Iveagh, the Duchess of Atholl and Miss Lloyd George.

WOMAN IS ROBBED
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29. (AP)—Margaret Weber, proprietor of a Pasadena gown shop, was held up by two highwaymen last night and robbed of a sable wrap and jewelry police said she valued at more than $40,000. The robbers halted her motor car as she was being driven from Pasadena to her Beverly Hills home.

Longhorn Frame of Mind Very Bad

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—Experiencing the greatest difficulty in getting their men into the "proper frame of mind," University of Texas football coaches today planned to put their charges through their final full time practice session before the game Saturday with Southern Methodist university at Dallas.

The Longhorns were given a heavy workout yesterday in formation drill and in defensive tactics. The practice was concluded with a light scrimmage, with the Yearlings using S. M. U. plays and formations, will top off today's program.

Coach Clyde Littlefield said he had not decided definitely on the type of defense he would use against the Mustangs. He was greatly dissatisfied with the morale displayed by his team, saying he was having extremely tough going in making them "football minded."

Coach Littlefield was inclined to believe the 1931 Texas team is trying to "live off of the reputation" established by last year's championship eleven.

Last year, Texas stopped S. M. U. and its aerial threat. This year, S. M. U. was expected to use a varied type of offensive and not depend entirely on its overhead attack.

Longhorn adherents were hopeful the Texas power house attack would get going against S. M. U. and erase the sting of the Rice and Harvard defeats.

Pirate Pilot to Be Known Later

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Barney Dreyfus, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is thoroughly non-committal about who may manage his team next season.

Several men are available for the job, he says, and he intends to look over the eligibles before reaching a decision, which will not be made before the first of December.

Boilermakers Are Riled by Defeat

CHICAGO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Saturday promises to be the worst of Saturdays for Chicago's Maroons. Saturday is on the warpath.

Upset by Wisconsin in their first Big Ten game of the season, which meant virtual elimination from the championship race, the Boilermakers now figure some consolation may be gained by outscoring other opponents by as great margins as possible. Purdue's forces think they will be able to smack Chicago around even more severely than the Boilermakers of 1928 who turned in a 40 to 0 triumph.

Nearly 126,000 sheep and goatskins were shipped from Bahia, Brazil, to the United States in a recent month.

Airplane Lunch Makes Travelers Ill

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Passengers of a special excursion plane piloted by Reg Robbins from Brownsville to Dallas were recovering today from effects of a lunch eaten on board the ship yesterday.

Ten of the 12 passengers became ill. Robbins and Clyde Smith were reported recovering in a Fort Worth hospital. The two attempted to continue to their home in Fort Worth after leaving the passengers here, but became so sick they made a forced landing on a farm north of Birdville.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS UPHOLD

TEKSAHANA, C. I. 29. (AP)—Woman's Right to deny a writ from a small platform on top a 40-foot flagpole was upheld by Judge George W. Johnson in district court at Boston yesterday.

District Attorney Elmer Lincoln had sought to enjoin Betty Fox and Babe Fox from staging a performance on top of the flagpole which was above one of the tallest hotel buildings in town.

Condemned Men Enjoying Meals as Death Approaches

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 29. (AP)—With death in the electric chair less than 18 hours away, Victor Rodriguez, 30, and Nicandro Munoz, 26, condemned slayers, were enjoying the death house fare.

Prison officials characterized the composure of the two men as unusual "they eat their meals with apparent relish." H. E. Moore, secretary to Warden W. W. Wald, said last night.

The two men were scheduled for execution shortly after midnight tonight. Having been saved twice before by last minute stays they appeared to hold faint hope for another reprieve.

The two were convicted of slaying Burt Ellison, border customs inspector, in Hidalgo county, Oct. 9, 1930.

Methodists Open West Texas Meet

AUTSIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The 73rd annual convention of the West Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, opened here today with Bishop Sam R. Hay of Fort Worth presiding.

A conference with presiding elders of the eight districts comprising the West Texas conference was held yesterday by Bishop Hay.

Appointment of ministers to pastorates for the ensuing year will be announced.

Rev. Sterling Fisher of Brownsville will assume the office of secretary for the 41st consecutive year.

Officers of the conference are: Reva F. B. Buchanan, San Marcos, and Gaston Hartfield of Corpus Christi, assistant secretaries; Rev. W. D. Williamson, Mathis, statistical secretary; and C. C. Wade, San Marcos, treasurer.

Pacific Coast Business Showing Steady Improvement in Volume

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Glints of sunshine, breaking through rifts in the business clouds of the Pacific coast, are spreading financial warmth to the farmer, the manufacturer, the storekeeper, and the laborer.

The hen's cackle may be no louder but it is more tuneful to the farmer's ear. The golden cream in the milk pail and the golden grain in the bin no longer are reduced to fool's dust. Eggs, butter, grain, and dairy products, along with other products of the soil of the west, are putting a few more coins in the agriculturist's jeans.

A weighty factor in the Pacific Northwest is wheat, the price of which has turned up abruptly. "More than 25 per cent higher than prices obtainable earlier in the season," is the way R. J. Stephens, Spokane, manager of the Farmers National Grain corporation, put it.

With an upturn in price of 40 per cent since January, butter has indeed taken on an aureate hue. The raisin that lays the golden egg hasn't been hatched yet, but golden specks in the way of higher prices have been noted. These products affect the pocketbook of the average farmer all over the coast.

Raisins in the San Joaquin valley of California, where vineyards have been pulled in an effort to combat over production, have been selling at steadily rising prices for months. In manufacturing lines, commercial survey agencies notes gains in employment and activity in shops turning out wearing apparel, lingerie, especially millinery and shoes for milady.

Records of the California state division of labor statistics show a gain of 123 per cent in payrolls of textile companies from August to September. Other lines in which state statisticians found gains in employment or wages, or both, are: Metal trades, furniture factories, publishing, paper products, clothing, millinery, laundering, and a miscellaneous group.

Adams Explains Plan at Amarillo

AMARILLO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Operating plans of the National Credit corporation were being outlined to Amarillo bankers today by Nathan Adams of Dallas, director of the corporation for the eleventh federal reserve district.

Individual banks are asked to subscribe to the corporation's funds, Adams explained, on the basis of 2 per cent of their deposits, or 10 per cent of their capital stock and surplus.

Loans will be made to banks by the corporation for one year, he said, with additional time given banks if needed. He said the plan would enable banks to carry "sound paper" until such time when they could liquidate without hardship to the borrower or the bank.

Among local bankers in conference with Adams was W. H. Fuqua.

IN MEMORIAM

The following poem was written by Miss Sunny Jones, high school student, in memory of Harley Kennedy who died June 2, 1931. Harley was one of the most popular students in Pampa high school. He was prominent in athletics and known for his scholastic excellence. A Pal That Passed Us By He fought for his school—oh, so hard, And never seemed to grow very tired, But put his best in everything, And lots of victories he did bring. He made of himself a charming boy, That caused his friends lots of joy, He made the "Harvester" grid squad with ease, And on the basketball floor he would please, Now don't forget his track work, And other duties he didn't shirk, You've gone, old pal, and left us all alone, To win or lose—to smile or groan, But we'll think of you, old pal, and try, To win for the pal that passed us by, You've won a greater award than all, And while climbing, you did not fall— But made a touchdown for your soul And kicked a greater, finer goal.

How Lives Are Saved in Subs

Tests showing the most modern methods in submarine rescue work, which the U. S. navy scheduled for Oct. 26 off San Diego, Calif., are illustrated here. The artist has sketched the rescue vessel Ortolan pumping fresh air to the submerged submarine Narwhal (until recently the V-5) and also a diver descending from the Ortolan to put food aboard the sub via one of its double-doored escape hatches. The diver taps with a hammer as a signal to inquire if the inner door is closed and after being answered opens the hatch's outer door, places food therein and closes it. The men within the sub then drain the water in the hatch into the bilges and open the inner door to receive the food. It is said men can be kept alive and fed for many days by this method. The photos show an escape hatch and an officer in the sub at the lower end of the periscope.

New Jersey Has Heated Campaign

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 29. (AP)—Whoever wins election as governor next Tuesday, be it Harry Moore, democrat, or David Baird Jr., republican, he will know he has been in a genuine, old-fashioned campaign.

Both candidates have been prosecuting their appeals for votes for several weeks. Today each expressed confidence of victory.

In advocacy of the candidacy of Baird, Ambassador Walter E. Edge has returned from Paris. He will be welcomed formally tonight at a banquet which is expected to bring together the largest group of party leaders of the campaign. The speech of Ambassador Edge, as well as that of David Baird Jr., are to be broadcast over a radio network.

The personal popularity of Moore, the democratic candidate, and the fact he has the united support of party leaders are argued as strong factors in support of his chances of election.

France received more than half the reparations coal shipments from Germany in the second quarter of this year.

Huge Magnet May Transmute Metals

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 29. (AP)—Installation of a huge electromagnet at the University of California by which two professors expect to perfect a method of breaking down the component parts of atoms and thus possibly evolve a way to make gold out of less precious metals was announced today by the California Monthly, alumni publication.

If successful in the experiments, Ernest O. Lawrence and Dr. M. Stanley Livingston, would realize a dream which scientists have cherished since the days of the alchemists hundreds of years ago and also would open possibilities for creating new sources of energy.

Lawrence and Livingston said they had been successful on a small scale in the basic principle of their experiment.

The magnet, built for radio work during the war, was intended for China but never was delivered. Its castings, weighing about 85 tons, were offered to the University as a gift through the Federal Telegraph company.

SOMERSET, Oct. 29. (AP)—Flames consuming 40,000 barrels of crude oil in a tank on the Texas Petroleum Products company site were feeding a black plume of smoke into the sky today.

The fire, which is out of control and probably will burn for 20 hours at an estimated loss of $45,000, started with an explosion which shook this little oil town.
