

FIGHTING STARTS AGAIN

MUCH DETAIL IS INVOLVED IN WELFARE PLAN

Close Check Is Made of All Cases and Then Record Is Kept for Future Reference.

HAVE 2 GROUPS

Advisory Council Appoints Welfare Board, But It Does Not Supervise the Spending of Funds.

Many people are not familiar with the working organization of the Welfare association.

There are two parts of this organization. First, the advisory council, which is made up of representatives from practically all the various clubs, churches, and other societies of the city.

This council, of which J. M. Dodson is chairman and Mrs. W. O. DeCordova is secretary, has nothing to do with the handling of spending of the money for relief.

The Welfare board consists of Alex Schneider, chairman, M. K. Brown, Joe Lazarus, W. R. Campbell, C. H. Walker, Dr. R. A. Webb, T. C. Lively, Silas Faulkner, W. H. Curry, I. E. Duncan, J. M. Dodson by virtue of his being chairman of the advisory council, also sits in at the board meetings.

This board has met 25 times during the past 10 months. At these meetings detailed reports are made by the welfare worker, as to what has been done since the last meeting, and many individual cases discussed.

In the Welfare office are two paid employees, Mrs. W. H. Davis, and Miss Dorothy Mullen. Half the salary of Miss Mullen has been paid by the chamber of commerce this year.

Register is Kept in this office also is a careful register of all men out of employment, the size of their families, what they can do etc.

All these details require constant labor to keep. Therefore, there is need of a girl in the office. This girl also handles the office when the worker is out on cases.

No one is given help without a careful investigation. For a worker to sit in the office, and hand out food and clothes without knowing all the facts in connection with the case, would ruin the entire plan.

The worker is subject to call night and day; in fact, she has been called out at almost every hour of the night.

Boys to Aid at Big Show

Fourth Annual Poultry Event Will Attract Entries From Wide Area.

Final arrangements for the fourth annual poultry show were made at a meeting of the agricultural committee of the chamber of commerce last night.

Members of the committee, assisted by boys from Prof. J. L. Lester's vocational agricultural class at the high school, will meet Wednesday before the show to erect tables and cages.

The big show will be held Dec. 3, 4, and 5 in the building formerly occupied by the Fatheree Drug Store No. 1 on South Cuyler street. Booths will be available for firms selling poultry feed and accessories.

J. A. Pearson, sous chef de chemin de fer of the National Society of the Party and Eight, W. C. DeCordova, Dr. R. A. Webb, and J. W. Woodruff will attend the installation ceremony of officers of the Borger organization at 8 o'clock tonight.

Testimony Heard in Railway Suit

Testimony in the appeal of R. E. Johnson to set aside a valuation of damages recently placed upon land over which the Fort Worth and Denver railway will pass was being heard in county court this morning.

Taxes on nearly 7,118,000,000 gallons of gasoline were levied in the United States during the first half of 1931.

Vital Election Held Today

BALANCE OF POWER RESTS UPON RESULT

Seven Democrats Are Pitted Against One Republican to Succeed Late Harry Wurzbach in House.

BRIEF CAMPAIGN

NATIONAL attention was focused today upon results of the special election in the 14th congressional district, where seven democrats and one republican are seeking the place vacated by the late Harry M. Wurzbach of Seguin, republican.

Democratic candidates, other than Johnson and Kleberg, were John M. Mallinack, William R. Fox, Spencer E. Bomar, Thomas B. Smiley, and Harry Pesch.

Weather conditions will be a factor in the election.

Cash Awards in Stock Show to Be Kept Same

FORT WORTH, Nov. 24. (AP)—The thousands of exhibitors who send livestock to the Southwestern Exposition and Stock Show to be held March 5 to 13 at Fort Worth can expect the same cash awards with no reductions in any department, Manager John B. Davis announced. Four thousand premium lists are being placed in the mails, listing the prizes, and will be sent to all parts of the country.

Indications are that all livestock barns, pens, stalls and yards will be filled with the fine animals, Davis said. This alone, he declared, is reason enough for the show not to reduce the cash awards. Several of the national livestock organizations will offer prizes corresponding to the amounts paid last year at the Southwestern Exposition.

Awards to be made in the poultry and pigeon shows, the rodeo and the horse show are yet to be compiled but there will be no cuts in these departments.

Nine state historians will prepare a list of 1,000 authentic landmarks pertaining to California history.

JAPAN—

Establishing "puppet governments" to conserve her own interests in Manchuria. The fact is that former Chinese officials fled upon approach of our forces and left the unfortunate country largely destitute of constituted authorities.

Some substitute had to be improvised and this was spontaneously done by the local population, of course with the countenance of our troops. If these popular attempts at self-determination should eventually prove inconsistent with arbitrary rule in the region of Manchuria the fact might afford a speedy solution of present difficulties, but Japan regards the recognition of an untried and powerful group as rulers of Manchuria would be the only practical course.

Did Japan wish to create a subservient government in Manchuria, the organization of these sporadic committees of public safety would be the least hopeful way to set about it. The recognition of an untried and powerful group as rulers of Manchuria would be the only practical course.

Needless to say, she contemplates no such tortuous policy. But she cannot be blamed for keeping on foot some rudimentary civil organization. The proposition that the Japanese are inflicting banditry scarcely needs refutation.

Real Scotchman Will Tell Jokes and Lead Songs at Convention

AMARILLO, Nov. 24. (Special)—Fred Douglas of Amarillo can tell more good stories on the Scotch than any Irishman in Texas. He knows all of the new ones and has that canny faculty to remember the old ones. Public school teachers of Texas who may be in need of some dandy yarns on the thrifty Scotch should be sure to contact "Scotty" Douglas while attending the 53rd annual convention of the Texas State Teachers association to be held at Amarillo Nov. 26 to 28.

Mr. Douglas is a dyed-in-the-wool Scotchman. He falls from Edinburgh, Scotland, where he was born and grew to manhood. His father served with the Highlanders of the British army in South Africa.

For several years after coming to America in 1915, Mr. Douglas traveled about the states in company with a widely known theatrical company. He can sing "Roamin' in the Gloamin'" to Harry Lauder perfection. He has made a number of recordings of Scotch songs, and his record of radio engagements resemble a log of broadcasting stations.

Every Monday noon finds "Scotty" in the official capacity of music director and song leader of the Kiwanis club. He was taken to the district Kiwanis convention held recently at Oklahoma City and he almost took the show. Being Scotch he loves to entertain the public when it isn't resting anybody shillings. He sang five times for the Oklahoma City broadcasting station. "The air is free, you know," is his attitude.

Mr. Douglas has been chosen for song leader by the first general session of the Teachers' convention. He also will appear on the regular program. When the songs for the Thanksgiving service were being selected, Mr. Douglas said, "Let's sing 'Annie Laurie.' It's like a hymn to us Scotch."

He has been a most popular entertainer since he came to Amarillo in 1930. The school children enjoy

Stop Night Coughing

Night coughing is almost always caused by an irritated, inflamed throat; so is almost all coughing. Ordinary cough syrups do not reach these conditions but Thoxine, a prescription exclusively for throat troubles, does. It believes the irritation and the cough stops within 15 minutes. And Thoxine goes further too. It eliminates the internal cause which many times develops into serious illness.

A swallow of Thoxine before retiring absolutely prevents night coughing and insures a good night's sleep. It gives the same speedy relief for sore throat too. It contains no chloroform or other harmful drugs and children like it. Relief is guaranteed within 15 minutes or money back. 35c, 60c, and $1.00 sold by Pampa Drug Company and all other good drug stores. (Adv.)

Grain Advance of Huge Benefit to South Plains

LUBBOCK, Nov. 24. (AP)—The advance in wheat prices the past several weeks has brought unexpected prosperity to South Plains farmers in that along with the wheat advance there has come an advance in grain sorghums that has for this area outdistanced wheat.

Conservatively, the advance has meant approximately $5,000,000 to farmers who have grain sorghums, especially threshed milo maize, kafir and hegar. With only a small portion of the crop marketed and with heavy yields reported from all sections, especially south and west of Lubbock, indications are that the gain will continue for some time.

In the past five weeks threshed grain sorghums, milo, kafir and hegar, have advanced from 30 to 52 cents and more, per 100 pounds, or a net of 22 cents a hundred.

Maize heads at the same time have advanced from as low as $2.50 and $3 a ton to $6 a ton.

Sudan is now bringing 75 and 80 cents per hundred. The market opened at $1.25 but dropped to 65 cents. The market has gained 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds in several weeks.

Maize production is said to be averaging around 40 bushels or 2,000 pounds of threshed grain to the acre. Maize heads are yielding from a ton and a half to two tons to the acre. Especially is this high yield true in Hockley, Lamb, Cochran, Bailey and western Lubbock counties. Dawson, Lynn and Terry counties also have good yields.

Kafir production is about the same as milo maize. In some instances the yield is reported up to 60 bushels of threshed grain.

This year's state yield of grain sorghums is placed at 78,000,000 bushels, according to grain men. More than half of this amount is grown in Lubbock's immediate territory, the South Plains. Based on a gain of 11 cents per bushel, the paper advance is now $8,600,000.

PHONE CALLS ARE DEFINITE, ASSERTS HUNT

As Angeles Boy to Meet Red Michael in Semi-Final Engagement.

And so it will be next Friday. Promoter Frank Hunt said this morning that 90 per cent of the telephone calls he had received from us were for a return bout for Pete.

The issue arose when Pete, after the exhibition, fouled Clingman during the second period. Clingman, butted nearly out, was hit through the ropes. Before he was clearly back inside, Pete butted him back into the chairs. The referee said that he also was hit through the ropes. Pete demanded a new referee for the return. He also asked for three judges, but the promoter has not decided upon this point. With the exception of soreness in his back, Clingman has recovered from the first match. Both he and Pete regard each other as very capable and dangerous. Pete said it was his hardest match in many months. Both men took unusual punishment without flinching.

In the semi-final next Friday will be Red Michael and Howard Belcher, the latter of Los Angeles.

This Game of GOLF

By O. B. KEELER

Annual play in a golfing memorial competition in honor of the late Alex Smith, famous Carnoustie professional who died last year after more than 30 years of service in the United States, now is assured.

It is likely, however, that some changes will be made in the manner of the competition from the first playing, coincident with the recent national professional championship at Wannamoa. Gene Sarazen was the first winner of the Alex Smith Memorial, which consisted of the 36 holes in the qualifying rounds of the P.G.A. tournament. Sarazen, with 145, led the field and thus carried off the medal.

A suggestion that the memorial competition be held immediately before the annual P. G. A. championship each year, and at the same course, where all the leading professional players in the country will be assembled. This seems a good plan—separating the memorial from the tournament itself—and probably will be adopted.

P. C. Pulver, editor of a magazine for professional golfers, says that no one worked harder for the Alex Smith memorial than John Inglis, president of the Metropolitan P. G. A., and that no one more ably assisted Mr. Inglis than L. G. Spindler, the old Fox Hills golfer, also active in the Westchester Country club—formerly Alex's own club.

Eight Years Assured

The New York Seniors' Golf association is credited with the idea of a memorial to the grand old Scot of the Metropolitan P. G. A. then took it up, and as a result a fund was established sufficient for eight handsome medals for annual competition, or enough to assure the tournament through 1938.

As Mr. Pulver says, however, the memorial is certain to be played perpetually. This is singularly fitting. Alex Smith, coming to this country in 1898, did a vast deal more for golf than merely win a couple of open championships and be runner-up in four others.

He was a great competitive player, when he cared to take the necessary interest, but he was greater as a teacher, a perceptor, a coiner of epigrams and a man who made golf eternally romantic and interesting.

Legend Maker

Many of the best stories in golf focus on Alex Smith. There was the alarm clock wagger, when he was pro at the Atlanta Athletic club—when he bet he could hit an alarm clock on the mantel once in three shots with a mashie, and, as the onlookers held their breath for the first shot, Alex relaxed, turned, grinned and asked:

"And who's to pay for the clock?"

Before the roar of laughter had died he hit it with the first smack. It was Alex, the fatalist, who declined to pick up bits of gravel and other loose impediments along the line of a putt.

"They might throw the ball off line," someone said.

Theater Billboards To Advertise Event

Large posters telling the world about Pampa's big Santa day December 3 will be pasted on all LaNora and Rex theater billboards in this territory and will remain up until after the big day. C. B. Akers, manager of the LaNora theater and president of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the day, announced yesterday afternoon.

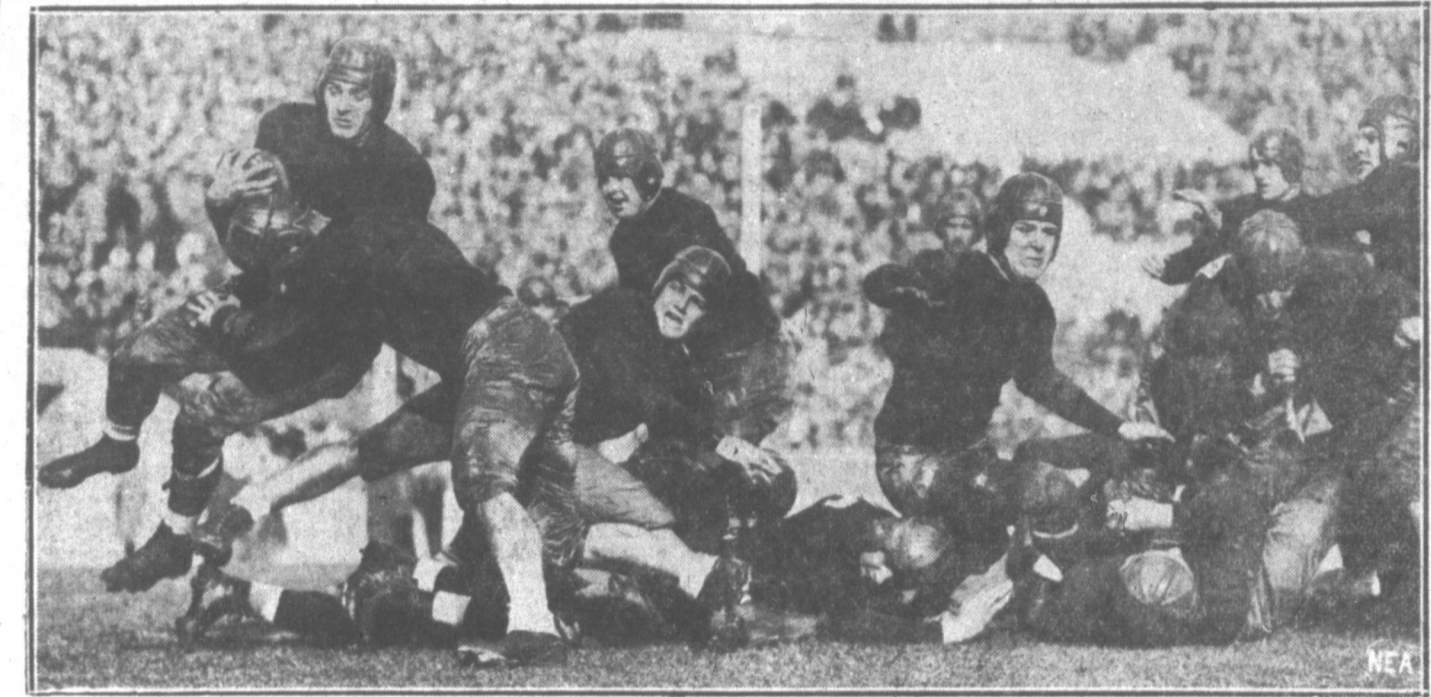

Advertising and news stories will be sent to every weekly paper in this section of the Panhandle. There will be a big parade with floats, bands, clowns and everything that goes with a parade, band concerts, fireworks, a visit from Santa Claus himself and other activities during the big day. Merchants will dress up their stores for the occasion and the city will put on holiday attire. An automobile show will be an added attraction.

All roads will lead to Pampa that day, declare members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who are enthusiastically working on the plans. H. L. Polly is chairman of the committee in direct charge.

Fighting Irishmen Learn Meaning of Trojan Menace

It was a story of national interest when the Notre Dame juggernaut that had rolled over all comers for 26 games was wrecked by the University of Southern California eleven. The westerners were held scoreless until the last quarter, when they made two touchdowns, then, with only 2 minutes to play, Baker, Trojan guard, placed-kicked from the 23-yard line to win the game, 16-14. Steve Banas of Notre Dame is shown off his feet in the arms of Captain Stan Williamson, Trojan, center, after making two yards in the second quarter.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE DUE NEXT MONDAY

Division of Squads Will Be Made to Permit Close Coaching of Boys.

Basketball practice at Pampa high school will probably get under way Monday afternoon. The football season will likely end Saturday and the boys will turn in their suits Monday.

It is possible that post-season game will be scheduled but no definite arrangements have been made. Electra wants to come to Pampa for a game Saturday afternoon.

Should Amarillo defeat Lubbock Thursday, which is unlikely, the district 1 race would go into a three-corner tie and the Harvesters might be forced to play again for district honors. Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox are not letting down on training and should the tie result the green and gold will be in condition for the important playoff.

Basketball this year will be curtailed, according to Supt. E. B. Fisher. Principal L. L. Sone and Coach Odus Mitchell will choose 10 of the best boys for the varsity squad. Coach Argus Fox will take the next 10 boys for a second string team which will be used to practice against the varsity squad. The 20 boys will practice at the same time.

Coach E. G. Gordon and Coach Warren Moore will take the rest of the squad for Gorillas. They will practice after the Harvesters squads. The girls' team this year will be coached by Harry Kelly assisted by a lady sponsor yet to be selected.

Several 1940 lettermen are available for the Harvesters squad this year. Some others graduated and the 10 semester rule will make still others ineligible. Several new men will be seen in action this year. The most promising of the new players are Enloe, last year with Berger, and Fullingim, last season with Panhandle.

Texas U. Students Studying Peace

AUSTIN, Nov. 24. (AP)—The movement for world peace is gaining rapidly at the University of Texas where a large number of students has enrolled in the International Correspondence League, a world organization that has for its object the prevention of wars and promotion of friendly relations among nations.

Boost Return Battle

The wish to see the battle may be the father of the thought, inspired by mid-western enthusiasts, but it would be one of the great events of the year to arrange a return match for charity between Notre Dame and Northwestern.

At a $5 and $10 scale, such as prevailed at Chicago for the Army-Navy game of 1926, the Wildcats and the Irish conceivably would pull in $750,000 through the gates of the big stadium bordering Lake Ferraro, Viviano, Hewitt, Booth,

The Backs To Watch

WHEN DEATH TURNED THE TABLES

A slip... then death... This remarkable picture shows the actual scene as Carmelo Perez, a noted Mexican matador, was fatally gored by a bull in a ring in Spain recently.

Sport Slants

There has been a disposition in some quarters to "throw out" the Northwestern game, a scoreless tie in the mud, when the Notre Dame record for 1931 is up for discussion. Nothing could be more unfair, to either schools, and Notre Dame would do well to cool the ardor of some of its adherents, too anxious to attach the national championship label to the Fighting Irish.

Notre Dame's high-powered machine unquestionably came along like a cyclone after battling the Wildcats to a deadlock at Soldier Field while the world's series still was the focus of sporting interest. Perhaps the Irish, on a dry field, would have repeated their triumph of the year before over Northwestern. But then again, perhaps not. They both played in the mud that day.

Northwestern, too, has run up an amazing record against strong opposition. The Wildcats opened against Nebraska and have had no setups at any part of the way.

LEAGUE OFFICIAL DECLARES IN OPPOSITION TO GANG TENDENCY

AUSTIN, Nov. 24. (AP)—School officials have the alternative of allowing the competitive instinct of their pupils to express itself in "gang" wars, in secret societies or in other vicious manners, or of taking a firm hold of the matter by organizing and directing contests of an educational trend. This is the opinion expressed by Roy Bedichek, chief of the University of Texas Intercollegiate League Bureau in an article, "Interscholastic Contests," which appeared in a recent number of the journal, Junior-Senior High School Clearing House.

Mr. Bedichek declares himself in favor of a state-wide organization for these scholastic competitions, since, he said, it "provides a unified control with many practical economies in administration." Such an organization, under the auspices of some higher educational institution or under the state department of education, offers peculiar advantages, including the offering of only standard contests with standardized rules and regulations governing not only the contests themselves but the eligibility of the individual contestants, the placing of each school on an equal footing with other schools of its class, the facilitating of "practice meets," the prevention of one school or another from "running hog-wild" about some one event to the neglect of other contests or pupils not qualified for participation in it.

"It is my opinion that the interscholastic contest, properly controlled, intelligently administered, and introduced into curricular subjects as well as into extracurricular activities often proves a godsend to both the school and community," Mr. Bedichek said. "It substitutes internal drive for external drive. It is a spur to activity and a whetstone for talent." It is a selective agency which better than any intelligence or other test yet devised, sets apart for special attention those individuals whom the Lord has favored—that is, the ambitious, the talented, the pupils with emotional drive and the will to achieve.

Highway Work Is To Begin Shortly

The bond of H. Lott Construction company of Amarillo, successful bidder for the nine and one-half miles of grade and drainage work on the LePors-McLean road, was approved by county commissioners in session yesterday afternoon. The bond of the Stuckey Construction company of Pampa, who bid low for four and one-half miles of concrete work, was accepted last week.

Mr. Lott announced that he would start work by Dec. 1. His contract calls for the use of all Gray county men possible. The Stuckey Construction company has already started laying pipe for a water line on the Miami road where two miles of concrete will be poured. The balance of the highway to be constructed is on the LePors road.

The contracts were let at a meeting of the commissioners Nov. 14.

BUILDERS of PAMPA

T. T. SCHOFIELD

T. T. Schofield Is Helping
Build a Better
Pampa

The progress and development of any city is the result of the energy and effort of the business men and firms who make it up. The businesses listed on this page are permanent institutions and have contributed much to the upbuilding of Pampa.

This page will appear in the News-Post once each week and will contain something new and interesting each time. A study of its stories will give a new knowledge of the reasons for the individual successes. Help these merchants in their program.

United Store Was Opened in Pampa October 4, 1930

"We believe in the communities in which we operate," says T. T. Schofield, manager of the United Dry Goods Store.

The store was opened in Pampa Oct. 4, 1930, and from the day it was opened it has been recognized as one of the progressive institutions of Pampa. The company operates 18 stores in California, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. Each store is operated on an individual partnership plan. The manager in each town owns an interest in the individual store he manages. The connection of one store with another is mainly in buying, each connected so that larger orders for merchandise can be placed and lower prices can be obtained. The customer is the one who benefits most from such an organization.

The United Store in Pampa sells only first class merchandise at a standardized low price. No sale is considered final until the customer is perfectly satisfied. Any person buying merchandise at this store, and the article purchased is not satisfactory, may take it back and find that an exchange bill will be cheerfully made or the purchase price will be refunded.

T. T. Schofield says that he values his personal contact with fellow citizens far above the dollars and cents that the store takes in from day to day.

He says: "I am always glad to cooperate with all civic organizations in helping to build a bigger and better Pampa. Any person who boosts his own community will be well repaid, for as the community grows and prospers so will his individual business."

Mr. Schofield is energetic and always eager to assist in community work. The store he operates reflects his efforts for it is filled with a complete line of high quality piece goods, shoes, ladies ready to wear, mens furnishings, etc. New merchandise arrives at the store every week, and sometimes every day, so that new styles and new articles can be shown to customers every time they visit the United Store.

The organization operates its own alteration, dress making, hemstitching and button manufacturing departments. All alterations are made free and satisfaction is guaranteed. In the button department can be found a duplication of any button for any garment.

The store also has its own beauty parlor which is operated under the personal supervision of experts. It is one of the best equipped in this community.

The United Dry Goods Store is filled with holiday merchandise which includes practical gifts for anyone. The lay away plan enables buyers to select merchandise now and make a 25 per cent deposit, and then take the articles when they want them. If more convenient, they can pay a little from time to time and divide the payments as desired.

This progressive store supports 17 people in Pampa, and can truly be grouped with the greatest assets of Pampa.

TRUCKS ON THE HIGHWAYS

When three to ten tons of oversized machinery charge down the middle of a concrete highway at forty miles per hour, many things may happen.

One inescapable consequence is this: roads—roads built by people for all the people—disintegrate under the terrible punishment. Highways in Texas are not built to support such tremendous loads transported at such terrific speeds, and the result of our failure to limit weights of vehicles is written in the crumbling edges and cracked faces of every trucking lane in the country.

But the price we pay in dollars is as nothing to the price we pay in human lives and mangled bodies. Authenticated statistics reveal that in the present season more than 67 lives have been snuffed out by cotton trucks alone, and 141 serious, but not fatal accidents contributed more shame to the appalling situation.

In the last session of the legislature an attempt was made to remedy what was then realized to be a desperate condition, but we made the mistake of writing our anti-truck law, not for primary purpose of protecting public life and purse, but for safeguarding railroad revenues. The result was that most of the act was declared unconstitutional.

Investigation reveals that most fatal accidents involve drivers who have been continually at the wheel for twelve to eighteen hours. The eyes of such men are blurred with the mist of drowsiness and they hold the wheel with the hand of death. The state would be wholly within its rights to limit to eight hours the time these men spend at the helm of such potentially dangerous machinery. Similarly, the state certainly has the right to prescribe maximum width for trucks; the public has a claim to half the road and safety demands that half the road be clear. Finally, if the state is charged with the duty to maintain highways, it would appear to have the right to prohibit loads that are destructive.

There is need for such law as is suggested here. The state should protect the lives, the limbs and the investments of its citizens. And such a law would stand the tests applied in courts.—Editorial Digest.

HAZEL ROSS HAILEY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The thief who robs and kills rich old Mrs. Jupiter during the night of the murder. They plan to marry at once. Mary meets Bowen in a speakeasy where Bowen says 'The Fly is hiding. Dirk, on his way to look up the Jupiter necklace, comes by to take Mary home. He groves The Fly in a car as he goes to meet Mary.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIV

Two utterly miserable people faced each other down the length of the great Jacobean dinner-table that night... that night which should have held particular happiness for both of them. Each was heroically resolved to keep his troubles from the other but their woebegone faces would have told the tale, even if the loquacious Della had not said, 'You're looking a little peaked.'

'Better come along to Bermuda with me next week.' Mary raised stricken eyes at the word 'Bermuda.' 'I'm all right,' she murmured. Jupiter cleared his throat explosively, and set his melon aside unuttered.

'Don't know as this is the time to speak of it but I talked to Ruyter about that matter this morning.' His voice was still hoarse with emotion. 'It's all settled. Makes you my heir. Bruce will be taken care of—enough for a man that lives the rattle-brained life he does. But none of them French hussies will get my money! I've got no son, but by God, there's no law that says I can't have a daughter.'

As the whole import of this sudden announcement made itself clear to her, Mary threw out her hands involuntarily. 'Oh, no!' she cried. 'You mustn't do that! You mustn't!'

'When can we start?' she asked eagerly. 'Will we be in Miami by the 16th?' Her sudden enthusiasm puzzled Jupiter, but he was pleased to see that he had succeeded in 'perk-ing her up.'

plectical, in his throat, moving the silver about agitatedly. When he had calmed himself, he said: 'We'll say no more about Bruce. I have the two greatest griefs to bear that can come to a man—my wife and my son are dead.' He was almost weeping.

FEAR for him, in his present highly emotional state, tied the girl's tongue. It seemed foolish to try to convince him by the usual platitudes, that this violent repression was only natural, that a little familiarity between father and son would smooth away the sharp edges of their difference, bring them back together again.

'Very well,' she said quietly. 'If you're sure you want to do that, you've always been kind to me, but this seems—too much, somehow. I've never done anything to deserve so much. I've no right to it, really. If you change your mind—'

'It's all settled. And it ain't so much. Not half of what people think,' he flashed warily. 'And time the taxes are paid and all, you won't be so rich you'll bend your back carrying it.' This was pure swank, Mary knew, but she let him say it. If it pleased him to belittle his wealth, it was a pleasure he could afford.

'Ask only one thing,' she said soberly. 'That nothing be said about it just yet. No one must know.'

'I've got Hendricks,' he said. 'and he won't take on anybody I wouldn't. Good man. Good navigator, good pilot. And a damn good mechanic. Don't often find that in a seagoing man. We'll get away the first of the week.'

'Go away from New York, leave Dirk? Mary's heart cried out that she couldn't, no matter how unfairly he had behaved toward her.

'You make up a party,' the old man persisted, with forced cheerfulness. 'Ask anybody you like. We've got cabins for 15. Maybe Steve Ruyter and his wife can get away; do him good. Shut you up a few weeks with that wife of his and maybe you'll decide you don't want to get married, eh?' He squinted at her, in a feeble attempt at humor.

'I reckon so,' he answered. 'Why? Somebody down there you want to see?' She laughed excitedly. 'I should say so! How long will we stay?' 'Why, long as you like, two—three weeks, I suppose. Danged if I'll open the house, though. Always hated the thing—looks like an oil station. No vacation for me—go all the way to Miami and live in an oil station! We'll live on the 'Gypsy.'

HE was avoiding the palatial Spanish 'cottage' which had been Mrs. Jupiter's favorite among her various homes because her memory was too vivid there, Mary knew. But she did not care; the 'Gypsy' suited her purposes even better. A plan of almost diabolical cunning had occurred to her!

She might take chances herself but she would never again take chances on behalf of anyone else—the load of responsibility she already bore was heavy enough.

'There was still the chance—she did not admit it, but it was there—that though it had been the Fly's gun with which Mrs. Jupiter was shot, Eddie's hand had fired it. If that were true, she wanted to know it, but she did not want other people to know it if it could be helped. So they must do without the police. For notoriety followed when one dealt with the police—she had found that out. And in that one respect, at least, she meant to respect Dirk's wishes. His name would always be coupled with hers since the official announcement of their engagement, even if—her mind refused to follow up that painful 'if.' She would not drag him into this if she could possibly avoid it.

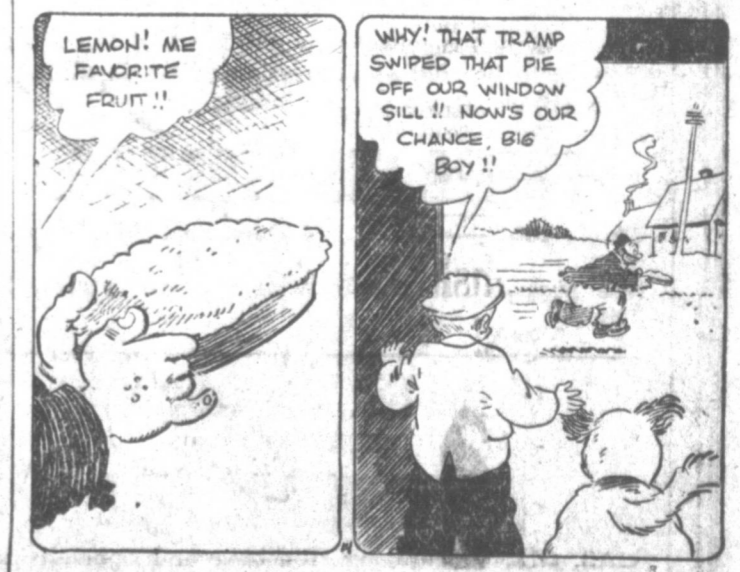

All this she had to make clear to Mr. Jupiter, as well as her plan to capture the Fly. When she had finished, he asked:

'You sure he'll be there?' 'It's almost a certainty, Bowen thinks. His horse races at Hialeah on the 16th. He'll show up, all right—he doesn't take the law seriously, you know. He's been arrested many times, but they're hard to let him go. He's careful. Bowen says he's the smartest crook un-hung. Maybe that's why they call him The Fly. He's so hard to swat.'

Jupiter granted. 'If the police can't swat him, how do you expect to?' 'By avoiding their methods, and using my own! He can't be taken in an open chase, that's been tried too many times. Very well. We'll emulate a spider, spread our web and wait for him! He'll come. The necklace will bring him. He is the only one who knows the truth about Eddie. He must be made to tell, that's all. If you want to do something for me, do that! It's the one thing I want, more than anything—'

College Students Fond of Work in Band Instruments

CANYON, Nov. 24. (Special).—Fifty college students are taking work in band at the West Texas Teachers college this year, this being the largest number C. E. Strain, the conductor, has ever had from which to select the players for the Buffalo band.

Band students are divided into three groups, the first or Buffalo band, the second and the junior bands. Players may pass from the second or third organizations into the first whenever an emergency arises or when a player in the first group fails to keep up to the standard of performance.

The members of the Buffalo band, which is ordinarily used for public concerts, trips and similar occasions are: Reece Hough, Canyon, Fern Landers, McLean, Ashley Little, of Vernon, and John Allridge, Odell, Charles, Naomi McManis, Kingman, Kansas, Noel Colchon, Dimmitt, and Carroll Killbrew, Canyon, saxophones; Charles Strain, Canyon, Woodrow Ireland, Hereford Malcolm Hunt, Canyon, L. E. Thomas, Canyon and J. W. Cole Canyon, cornets; Martha Strain and Nancy Strain, Canyon, Grace Mateer, Kingman, Kansas, and Marvin Higdon, Canyon, horns; William Strain and Joe Hill Jr., of Canyon and Henry Whitley, Amarillo, trombones; Robert Newton, Corsicana Bill Chambers, Canyon, bass horns; Ray Robbins, Canyon, baritone; and V. L. Cook and Josephine Duffot, Canyon, drums.

The Buffalo band, uniformed in the maroon and white of the West Texas State Teachers college will appear several times during the meeting of the State Teachers association at Amarillo, Nov. 26, 27 and 28.

Tires Last Well Properly Inflated

LAPAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 24. (AP)—Good standard automobile tires, properly inflated, lasted in Purdue university tests as long as thousands of drivers own their cars.

Eight tires were driven 36,000 miles on two heavy cars, and eight other tires were driven 45,000 miles on two lighter cars.

These casings were purchased in the open market by Purdue scientists. The cars were operated 24 hours of the day, in shifts of drivers, over open roads, including gravel, stone and concrete, at 35 to 55 miles an hour. The heavy cars were run 900 miles a day and the light ones 750.

The tires were inspected daily, inside and out, and air pressure checked every three hours. Brakes were adjusted with extra care. Casings were changed from one wheel to another to equalize their chances.

Most of the 16 tires were reported in fairly good condition at the end of the two months' intensive road service.

Japan Is Warned By Soviet Press

MOSCOW, Nov. 24. (AP)—Japan was sharply warned Sunday by the Communist newspaper Pravda to cease what it termed an anti-Soviet campaign in connection with Manchuria.

"Soviet Russia's peace policy does not mean it will allow efforts to harm the interests of Socialist construction to go unpunished," declared the newspaper.

"Let Tokyo, Washington, and Paris not forget this."

Declaring it was no secret that certain Japanese circles were seeking to complicate Japanese-Soviet relations, the Communist party organ said:

Action Demanded

"The Japanese military cannot satisfy us by assurances alone. The Japanese government must confirm by actions its peaceful intentions toward the Soviet Union and first intercept the anti-Soviet campaign."

Pravda was most outspoken of the Soviet press, which generally expressed dissatisfaction with the latest Japanese declaration to Soviet Russia. Alarm was sounded lest the widening Japanese occupation of Manchuria would present a further opportunity for imperialist efforts to involve the Soviet Union.

Analogy Is Drawn

An attempt to draw an analogy between the present conflict and the Chinese-Russian imbroglio in 1929 was described by Pravda as "only an effort to indicate that the Soviet government was indebted to Japanese imperialism, which gives a new pretense to prolong the anti-Soviet campaign."

Continuous efforts by imperialist powers to set up in China the bogey of an "anarchy" created by Soviet Russia and rumors of Soviet support for Chinese generals, the newspaper said, were "fabricated to divert attention from imperialist plundering of Manchuria."

TURKEY SHIPPING HEAVY

BRADY, Nov. 24. (AP)—Approximately 50 cars, or one million pounds, of turkeys will be shipped from Brady during the Thanksgiving and Christmas markets, local produce men estimate.

A greater percentage of the birds than in previous years will be ready for the Thanksgiving market. With the abundance of cheap grain, many farmers have placed their flocks on feeding rations much earlier than in other years.

WILL FIGHT LAW

HOUSTON, Nov. 24. (AP)—Harris county commissioners who are not satisfied with the state law governing distribution of state automobile taxes will not forego their proposed suit, although Bexar county has done so.

Commissioner W. G. Sharnan made that clear.

Wheat produced in the Panhandle of Texas this season would make enough flour for three billion loaves of bread enough to feed the people of West Texas on bread for five years.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon Irving Crossland by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein; but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 114th District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the 1st Monday in December, A. D., 1931, the same being the 21st of December A. D., 1931, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 1st day of October A. D., 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3014, wherein Grace Crossland is Plaintiff, and Irving Crossland is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife. Plaintiff asks for an absolute divorce on the ground that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and excesses of such nature as to render their living together insupportable; that he has abused plaintiff and finally deserted her; that he is guilty of adultery and is now living with another woman.

Herein Plaintiff has before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 2nd day of November A. D., 1931.

Mother Attempts To Find Slayer of Juanita Criswell

DALHART, Nov. 24. (AP)—Her four-room home—all that she possesses—is being offered by Mrs. Cora Criswell of Dalhart as a reward for information that will lead to the conviction of the person who killed her daughter, Juanita Criswell, October 29.

In addition to the reward offered by the mother, Sheriff H. D. Foster and other officers have posted a reward of $100 for a solution of the case.

The 19-year-old girl died as the aftermath of what officers described as a drinking party. Her companions said it was a dinner party they attended in the apartment of J. H. Hogan after going to a motion picture show.

Juanita had been stabbed twice over the heart with a long-bladed pocket knife that earlier in the night had been used to peel potatoes. Hogan, Carl Ashlock and the other girl in the party said Juanita stabbed herself, but officers say that everything has been told a different story.

Officers filed charges of murder against Hogan and Ashlock. They are willing to admit now that they have obtained little information, and are offering a reward for a plausible solution.

Mrs. Criswell, believing that her daughter was either murdered or had been mistreated and forced to take her own life to avoid disgrace, is offering a reward for conviction only.

"I know there is someone who could help," said Mrs. Criswell. "Not everything has been told. I thought perhaps the offer of my home might induce someone to give the information officers need."

Seize 5,000 Cases Of Liquor on Ship

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. (AP)—The freighter Raritan Sun with 5,000 cases of liquor was seized today and 90 men were arrested at Bushey's dry dock at the foot of Court street, Brooklyn.

Customs officials estimated the value of the liquor at $350,000, and the vessel, a 533-ton freighter, at $750,000, figures which, if authentic, would make the seizure one of the largest of its type in the history of prohibition enforcement.

In addition to the boat, which is owned by the Sun Oil company, and the liquor, five trucks valued at $50,000, were also seized.

The raid resulting in the seizure was carried out as the liquor was being unloaded. Gregory O'Keefe, chief treasury agent, and Deputy Surveyor John McCall of the customs enforcement division, headed 75 agents engaged in the raid. Three customs patrol boats and a coast guard cutter were used.

Farewells Said to Presiding Elder

CLARENDON, Nov. 24. (Special).—The formal farewell of a departing member, Lion W. M. Murrell of the Clarendon Lions club was given out at the regular noon meeting of the group together with discussions relating to important questions confronting the citizens of the city and the club.

Following a sing-song under the leadership of Lion Fred W. Rathjen and the luncheon, Boss Lion Boykin called the members' attention to the small folder containing therein a parting wish from each member of the club. With appropriate ceremony, embodying both the ridiculous and the sublime, the presentation was made as a parting gift with the hope that when Rev. Murrell gets settled in his new home at Abilene he will find time to read the statements and remember the old guard back here in the Lions den.

MANFIELD, O., Nov. 24. (AP)—Ira A. ... a two-week hitchcock marathon was touched and ended.

Physicians Sunday performed an operation upon the Mansfield garage owner in an effort to strike at the root of the trouble, which has laid various scars on King's life for the past 15 days.

The victim doubtless would be hale and hearty if 10,000 remedies and cures from every part of the nation were able to turn the trick. The prescriptions range from suggested injections of sodium amy-tol to one from Hollywood, Cal., advising this strenuous treatment: "Knock him unconscious with a left hook; when he rallies, the hitchcock will be gone. If I'm wrong I'll take the right one."

A telegram from San Francisco advocated drinking a glass of champagne every half hour; from Scranton, Pa., came the suggestion to apply whisky in chipped ice; a certain kind of preserves was the offer of a Chicago man; Will Rogers advised oil of cloves, "an infallible Indian remedy."

HARLINGEN, Nov. 24. (AP)—Between 25 and 40 cars of Texas grapefruit will probably be shipped across the ocean to England by Christmas, this year, constituting the first large scale shipments of Texas fruit to Europe, according to announcement here.

L. E. Paskill of Tacoma, Wash., American representative of John A. Walls, Covent Garden Market, London, was here recently making arrangements for fruit. He will make a shipment of about 10,000 boxes, around 25 carloads, to England the latter part of November, he said, and has made arrangements for the shipment.

Some other valley shippers also are preparing to move smaller quantities.

"The English people have had a few samples of Texas grapefruit, and like it better than the Porto Rico fruit which they usually consume," Paskill said.

"The British are beginning to like grapefruit better, and will probably consume large quantities of the Texas product in the future."

Positive Proof of FORD ECONOMY

City of Detroit purchases 137 new Ford cars

Hundreds now in use prove low cost of operation

21 radio-equipped Ford scout cars were included in this purchase. They had been operated day and night for two years in heavy traffic and all kinds of weather.

Their individual records ranged from 73,434 miles to 143,723 miles with a grand total of 2,283,097 miles. The operating cost of the 21 cars was 2,284 cents a mile—less than 2 1/3 cents. This cost included all fuel, oil, tires, repairs and every other item except depreciation and insurance.

Of 577 Ford cars in Detroit City service the 300 in the Police Department traveled a total of 6,591,937 miles during the past fiscal year, at an average cost of 2.9 cents a mile.

Many claims have been made on operating costs, but here in the carefully kept motor car records of the City of Detroit positive proof of Ford economy.

In the paragraphs above, it is seen that 21 Ford scout cars averaged less than 2 1/3 cents a mile and 300 Ford cars in all branches of Detroit police work averaged 2.9 cents a mile!

Day and night, twenty-four hours a day, these Ford cars are in operation. Few branches of transportation demand such grueling service. The records show that low fuel and oil consumption is but one of the Ford's many economies. Ford materials, simplicity of design and accuracy in manufacturing provide unusual strength, stam and freedom from replacements and repairs.

The individual car buyer as well as the purchasing department of a city or a business cannot afford to ignore the proved economy of the Ford car.

IDENTIFICATION BUREAU TO BE ASKED OF NEXT LEGISLATURE

EL PASO, Nov. 24. (AP)—Creation of a state criminal identification bureau will be asked of the next legislature by the Chief of Police and City Marshals' Association of El Paso.

In making the announcement, Police Chief Lawrence T. Robey, El Paso, president of the association, said he believed such a bureau could be a powerful agency for combating crime in the state.

A bill creating a bureau of criminal identification and sponsored by the association passed the house in the last legislature but died in the senate.

The new bill will be similar to the old in essential features, namely, revision for a board of managers to be appointed by the governor, for appointment of a bureau staff by the board of managers, and for recording data on all persons arrested in the state.

The finger-printing feature alone would make the bureau worth while to the state," said Chief Robey. Under the plan, officers throughout the state would send daily reports to the bureau of all persons arrested.

These reports would be filed, and information sent back to the officers on the arrested persons' records, if any. In any opinion, it would be only a short time until criminals would be passing Texas up. They would want to avoid a state where they were constantly checked upon.

Another feature of bureau work would be assisting in preventing disposal of stolen goods through pawnshops.

In El Paso, and most other cities," said Chief Robey, "the police receive a list daily of all articles pawned. By checking these, they recover much stolen property, especially that which has been taken by professional burglars.

"The trouble we all have, however, is that professionals seldom dispose of goods in the city where they are stolen.

"That's where a state bureau would come in. Every city police department would send a copy of its pawnshop list to the central bureau, and we would then have a state-wide system for investigating."

Texline Students Visit at College

CANYON, Nov. 24. (Special)—Eighteen student visitors from Texline recently spent a day and a half in Canyon. They came in the Texline public school bus and spent the afternoon of the first day inspecting the library, and other parts of the plant of the West Texas State Teachers college. Most of the visitors had never seen a buffalo, and greatly enjoyed watching the three which are the mascots of the local college.

Sunday the boys and girls attended church in Canyon and on the afternoon they returned to Texline. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Camp, a teacher in the Texline high school, and Clifford Romine drove the bus.

The college invites other schools to learn something of the state's educational facilities by visits like this.

Hill Invited to Hoover Conference

CANYON, Nov. 24. (AP)—Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers college is among the college presidents of Texas who have been invited to a conference soon to take place in Washington. The invitation reads as follows:

"The President of the United States invites Dr. J. A. Hill to attend the meeting of the president's conference on Home Building and Home Ownership which is called in the City of Washington, December second to fifth. Nineteen hundred and thirty one."

Since this conference takes place at the same time as the annual meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, it will be impossible for Dr. Hill to attend.

Arkansas Divorce Law Is In Effect

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 24. (AP)—The Arkansas 90-day divorce law was definitely declared in effect by a decision of the state supreme court yesterday.

By a 5 to 2 vote of the justices, the court upheld Secretary of State Ed. F. McDonald in refusing to accept petitions from the Home Protective association for a referendum in the next general election in an effort to repeal the law.

If a referendum had been ordered, the law, passed by the state legislature early this year, would have been held in abeyance until voted upon.

Several divorce cases under the new 90-day residence requirements already are pending, most of them at Hot Springs. No decrees have been granted because of the uncertainty resulting from the legal fight on the law.

The new law requires 90 days residence within the state before a decree can be obtained, although proceedings may be instituted after 60 days residence.

Petitions must prove the cause of divorce occurred or existed in this state, or if out of the state, that it was a legal cause of divorce in this state.

Pat. McHaffey, assistant state attorney general, said that judging from the number of inquiries being received at the attorney general's office, several hundred divorce petitions would be filed immediately as a result of the court decision.

TEXAS BUILDING IS IMPROVING

AUSTIN, Nov. 24.—The building situation in Texas improved considerably during October as compared with the previous month, due particularly to the unusually good showing in Fort Worth and to the fact that gains were recorded in 19 of the 35 cities of the state which make monthly reports to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Permits issued totaled $3,379,000, as compared with the record figure of $2,752,000 in September according to the bureau's compilation. Since normally there is little change between the two months, the increase of 30 per cent this year is encouraging, the bureau's statement said.

"The total for October was 51 per cent under that for the corresponding month in 1930 and was the lowest figure for that month ever reported by the 35 cities included in the list," the bureau's report said. "Increases were shown only in Tyler, Paris, Marshall in East Texas and in Fort Worth and Galveston."

Construction contracts awarded in the Texas territory, as reported by the F. W. Dodge corporation, totaled $6,774,500 in October, as compared with $7,845,500 in September and $9,332,500 in October last year. In the 37 eastern states, contracts awarded amounted to $246,094,000 and were 28 per cent under October 1930, and the total for the first 10 months of the year is 30 per cent behind the corresponding period in 1930.

"The Annalist's index of building material prices, based on 1913 as equal to 100, lost slightly more than 2 points, dropping from an average of 115 for September to 112.9 in October. Last year in October, this index averaged 131.1."

C. Rhonemus, 96, of Clinton county, Ohio, has voted for 18 democratic candidates for president.

Detention Hall Plan Abandoned

AMARILLO, Nov. 24. (AP)—Pupils in Amarillo high school no longer "stay in" after school hours.

Through an agreement between Principal R. B. Norman and the student body, detention hall has been abolished. The result is that Norman now has only one case for discipline to 10 last year, he said.

"We had an understanding at the beginning of the year," Norman said, "and I have had little to say about rules since that time. We asked the pupils to show the proper school spirit, and they have responded. That's all there is to the plan."

Smart SHOPPING

"How good is it?"
That's it!

ABOUT anything and everything they buy, smart shoppers like to ask one question—"How good is it?"

Chesterfield welcomes smokers who buy their cigarettes that way.

OUR tobacco buyers are smart shoppers, too. They "shop" for the ripest, mildest, sweetest-tasting leaf that grows. And they won't take anything else.

"How good" are Chesterfields? Well, consider their blending.

Blended and cross-blended... not merely mixed together. Blended first by crops and countries... then cross-blended again and again... to produce a flavor and aroma that are Chesterfield's alone.

That's how we get that better taste... that's why Chesterfields are milder. Even the paper they're rolled in is the whitest, cleanest and purest that money can buy.

And the package... clean, bright, fresh-looking... see how easily it opens, yet how tightly it's sealed.

"HOW good is it?" Light up... then you tell us!

Good... they've got to be good! There's value here. We know, because we put it in... and you'll smoke it out with every one you light.

"Sure I shop for cigarettes - Chesterfields satisfy me"
