State Of Siege Enforced In Argentina In Assassination Conspiracy

PLOT TO KILL HIGH OFFICIALS IS UNCOVERED

FORMER PRESIDENT IS EXILED AGAIN TO ISLAND

RADICALS ROUNDED UP

PRESIDENT MARKED AS KIDNAP VICTIM, REPORT SAYS

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 17. (AP)—A 30-day state of siege was approved by congress tonight as a move to forestall any attempts at a revolution.

Immediately after approval, the government issued a decree enforcing the state of siege.

Meanwhile wholesale arrests of radical leaders allegedly involved in a revolutionary plot were being made, and important military leaders and others were among those held or sought.

The radical newspapers Tribuna Libre and La Frase were closed, although police were unable to find any compromising documents. Former President Hipolito Yrigoyen, arrested yesterday, was sent to Martin Garcia Island, where he had once before been exiled by the former provisional President Jose Uriburu.

It was believed doubtful that any radical reaction would occur in view of the prompt action of police in seizing documents which related full details of the alleged plot. Retired Lieutenant Colonel Attilio Cattaneo was arrested last night after a succession of bomb seizures. He confessed leadership of a nationwide subversive plot. The government immediately rounded up every outstanding radical.

The conspiracy government declaration said, included plans to assassinate high officials. There was still another report that President Justo was to have been kidnaped.

Fund Application Before Governor

Pampa's application for $2,000 in federal relief funds has passed the West Texas chamber of commerce and is now before Governor Ross Sterling's committee, it was learned yesterday.

Governor Sterling was expected to expedite passage of the applications to the reconstruction finance corporation, since he wishes to complete this action before going out of office.

McLean, which did not ask for aid during the current year, is likely to file application next time, or shortly after the opening of the new year.

Don Conley left Friday afternoon for his home in Virginia, where he will visit over the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Conley will return to Pampa with Mr. Conley.

Miss Florita Freeman has been confined with influenza for several days.

Christmas Customs From Foreign Lands

In Hungary, children place their shoes on the doorstep on Christmas Eve. Next morning, good children find sugar has been placed in their shoes and naughty youngsters find switches have been placed in theirs—and few there are who find switches!

6 SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

FOUND—AND THEN LOST

The little girl is quite unconcerned over the difficulties she is causing. She is a foundling and is ticketed as a Catholic according to rules of New York welfare organizations which provide each child shall be ticketed Protestant and Catholic alternately. But Mrs. Hugo Connor, a Jewess, wants to adopt the child and the home claims Rabbis permit Jews to adopt only children known to be of Jewish origin. There is nothing known of the parents of this little child.

All Sorts Lies Form Plot of Comedy

Lies—little white lies, big black lies, lies representing 57 varieties—from the plot of "Love-In-A-Mist" which will be presented by the Pampa Little theater at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening, Dec. 30, at the La-Nora theater.

The lies are so numerous and complicated that it is hard to keep track of them, and the young lady, Diana Wynne (Mrs. Julian Barrett) is so exasperating that one wants her lover Gregory Farnham (Gilmore Nunn) to obey his first and issue some variety of a lie. If one wouldn't matter, but as it happens she is beautiful and intelligent, and many men are in love with her. She becomes engaged to all the men who propose to her because she doesn't want to hurt their feelings.

This Diana person simply can't force herself to tell the truth. Every time she opens her mouth there issues some variety of a lie. If one wouldn't matter, but as it happens she is beautiful and intelligent, and many men are in love with her. She becomes engaged to all the men who propose to her because she doesn't want to hurt their feelings.

Faculty Members Meet on Saturday

Faculty members of the Pampa Independent school district, heard Mrs. C. E. Roe of Washington, D. C., yesterday in an inspiring talk concerning teaching and Parent-Teacher association work.

Mrs. Roe is field secretary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Among those who spoke briefly were the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, Tom E. Rose, and Olin E. Hinkle. Miss Helen Martin led in the singing of Christmas songs and T. H. McDonald discussed the proposed formation of a city teachers' club.

'ARMY' DRIVE MONDAY

COLD WAVE IN TEXAS LEAVES FOUR VICTIMS

ICY GRIP EXTENDS TO LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY

WORST IN TWO YEARS

SNOW COVERS MOST OF STATE; MERCURY IS RISING

By The Associated Press
Slowly thawing snow and ice left over most of Texas by the severest blizzard in two years Saturday night had left four persons dead and numerous others injured, one perhaps fatally.

Temperatures remained below the freezing point over practically all of the state excepting the Gulf coast and the lower Rio Grande valley, although clearing skies and sunshine relaxed the icy grip during the afternoon.

F. C. Williams, 37, business man of Hamilton, Tex., was found dead from exposure at Dallas, in a snow-drift near a city water plant.

Justice J. M. Criss at Austin returned a coroner's verdict of "chilled to death" in the case of Worth Ray Clawson, 16-month-old, who died in a "snack camp" in which his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Clawson, were living.

The body of a negro, supposedly frozen to death, was found in a ditch near a railroad at Tyler. It was believed he had jumped or fallen from a train, was injured and remained there until he died.

Troy Hayward, 40, negro farmer, was found frozen to death in an open automobile near Bastrop, on the Austin-Bastrop highway.

At Atlanta, Tex., Ralph Shenton of Schenectady, N. Y., was injured probably fatally and E. F. Ferguson of Atlanta was hurt seriously when a wooden frozen over an entire business block collapsed under the weight of ice and snow. Several other persons suffered minor injuries. Shenton's back was broken and he received internal injuries.

Needy Group Paid $890 During Week

Pampa's federal relief committee Saturday morning authorized payment of $890.60 to 150 men who were given part-time employment.

No salaries were paid out at LeFors, where work is outside and cannot be done during severe weather. Local work was hampered somewhat by the snow and sub-zero weather of the week, but there was much to be done in clearing sidewalks, gutters, and drains of snow and ice.

A group of at least 50 men will start to work tomorrow morning, cleaning snow and hauling. Trucks will be used to haul caliche from the pits to be used for walks through the city park and to haul dirt off the streets where it was piled before the heavy snow.

Cleaning of gutters and drain ditches will continue to have everything in readiness for the thaw.

AMARILLO KIWANIS OFFICIAL PRESIDES FOR INSTALLATION

Large Audience Present Friday as McGrew Takes Office as New President.

Officers to guide the Pampa Kiwanis club during 1933 were installed at the annual banquet and ladies' night in the Schneider hotel Friday night with 141 present. Joyner Cole of Amarillo, lieutenant governor of division 6, acted as toastmaster and installing officer.

C. E. "Dan" McGrew was installed as president to succeed A. G. "Pete" Post. Other officers installed were Max Mahaffey, first vice-president; Fred Thompson, second vice-president; Raeburn Thompson, treasurer (re-elected); R. A. Selby, Ollie Doak, W. H. Lang, Alex Schneider, Edwin Vickers, S. C. Clayman, R. W. Lane, and Joe Lutz, directors.

The retiring president was presented a past-president's pin and Mrs. Post with a China coffee set, the gift of the Pampa club. The Amarillo club presented Mr. and Mrs. Post with a basket of flowers.

PHILIPPINE BILL PASSES

Senate Votes To Give, With Reservations, Independence in 12 Years.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17. (AP)—Freedom for 1944 by the Philippine Islands was voted today by the senate in the face of warnings that President Hoover would veto the legislation.

The measure, sponsored by Senators Cutting (R., N. M.) and Hawes (D., Mo.) was approved without formality of a roll call.

It now goes to conference with the house, which last session overwhelmingly approved a bill by Representative Hare (D., S. C.) granting independence in eight years.

The vote, coming after ten days of debate, made it the first time any kind of independence legislation has received the endorsement of both branches of congress in the years of agitation on the question.

The bill differs radically from that passed by the house.

The latter approved a measure to withdraw American sovereignty 8 years after final enactment and meanwhile duty-free imports into the United States of sugar, coconut oil and hemp products, chief exports of the Filipinos, would be restricted.

The senate bill not only lengthens the transition period in which the Islanders may become accustomed to quasi-self government, but lowers the quotas on sugar and coconut oil and provides that when the islands do vote approve a constitution this shall be deemed an expression by them for irrevocable freedom.

LeFors To Take Care of Needy

The needy of LeFors will receive Christmas baskets Saturday afternoon through a community move started last week. Boxes will be placed in several stores this week and loose change may be dropped in the slots.

A program will be given in the high school auditorium tomorrow night for benefit of charity. There will be music, plays, games, readings and singing.

Thursday night there will be basketball in the high school gymnasium. Several town teams will be in action, including one game between the LeFors and the Truck Drivers. Proceeds of the game will be placed in the fund for the needy.

Baskets may be left at the high school up to noon Saturday. Anyone knowing of families in need or persons planning to deliver baskets personally are urged to notify the committee in charge so that they will be no duplications.

Mayor E. Berg heads the committee and will be assisted by E. Bacchus, A. Carpenter, Mrs. J. G. Williams, E. G. Sanders, Rev. W. Williams, Rev. Tarbet, Mrs. Ralph Ogden, Mrs. D. E. Davis, Mrs. W. F. Salonski, and O. E. Stewart.

There is considerable sickness in LeFors, according to Mayor Berg, who was a visitor at The NEWS yesterday.

Thawing of Meter Boxes Is Costly

City Manager C. L. Stine issued a warning yesterday against building of fires in meter boxes to thaw them after freezes.

The practice had already resulted in destruction of several $10 meter boxes, charged to the water customer. In case of a freeze, it is best to call the city water department, phone 1181, or on Sundays the plant at No. 1.

WEST TEXAS Increasing cloudiness Sunday, slightly warmer in the Panhandle and southeast portion; Monday unsettled.

—A RUEFUL SMILE
WELLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—Interrupted in their first raid by the return of Jess Young to his home here, thieves took his pistol; then, they returned several hours later and stole his watch from the pocket of his trousers while he was asleep.

THREATENED

Bernice Darsen of Philadelphia (above) can rest a little more easily now that police have captured James Sallee who is accused of lifting a decoy letter left to apprehend the person who threatened the girl's life. Her father, Robert B. Darsen Jr., received a note demanding $5,000 with the threat the girl would be killed if the money were not forthcoming. Sallee once lived near the Darsen home.

The shut down was made effective at noon, to obtain until next January 1 at 7 a. m., unless rescinded. There were approximately 9,200 producing wells in the area, embracing five counties—Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Smith and Cherokee. The field was producing under a state order limiting the output to 310,000 barrels daily.

The railroad commission said it acted to close the wells to permit its engineers to gauge bottom hole pressure of the wells and obtain other scientific data needed for consideration at a hearing set for December 28, when proration and operation problems worry all the Texas fields, would be discussed with those interested in production.

The state's edict that no oil flow from the field during the period named came in the midst of unrest and turmoil that had obtained in the area since purchasers of crude oil started a few days ago revising downward prices offered for petroleum.

There had been contentions between factions, divided as to how the state should proceed to regulate production, ever since the field was brought in two years ago.

The shut down order was so sweeping that it directed all pipe lines transporting oil from the field, to storage, refineries, loading racks or tank cars within the field or otherwise transporting or handling oil, and trucks transporting oil, to cease their operations.

EXPULSION 14 IN FLOGGING CASE AT UNIVERSITY

Members of Hooded Gang at O. U. Punished

NORMAN, Okla., Dec. 17. (AP)—Fourteen young men students were unconditionally expelled from the University of Oklahoma today as the result of a ten-day investigation of the flogging of Bill Stephens, student newspaper correspondent, by a hooded gang wearing insignia of the D. D. M. C., outlawed secret order.

The expulsions, recommended by Dr. W. B. Bizzell, university president, and the disciplinary committee, were approved by four members of the board of regents.

The action was announced after Dr. Bizzell waited at his office in vain until the 10 o'clock deadline he had set in expectation of a call from D. D. M. C. spokesmen.

Stephens, a reporter for the Oklahoma City Times and Daily Oklahoman, was spirited from his bedroom on the night of Dec. 7. He was taken to a country barnyard, was made to dance rope and left to walk several miles back to Norman, clad only in his night clothes, in a freezing temperature.

The names of those expelled were not made public when the announcement of the board's action gathered on the campus to speculate on who the boys dismissed might be. It was conceded that virtually all of them were leaders in various activities of the university.

Pampans who attended the basketball game in Panhandle Friday night included Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, Principal L. L. Sone, B. G. Gordon, Hol Wagner and Archer Fullingim.

SHUTDOWN IS ORDERED BY COMMISSION

OPERATORS ARE QUICK TO OBEY LATEST INSTRUCTIONS

ALL ACTIVITIES CEASE

WELLS TO BE CLOSED UNTIL 7 O'CLOCK JANUARY 1

AUSTIN, Dec. 17. (AP)—Flow of oil from the East Texas field, one of the most prolific petroleum pools ever uncovered, was ordered shut down by the Texas Railroad commission, statutory guardian of the state's natural resources, today.

The shut down was made effective at noon, to obtain until next January 1 at 7 a. m., unless rescinded. There were approximately 9,200 producing wells in the area, embracing five counties—Rusk, Gregg, Upshur, Smith and Cherokee. The field was producing under a state order limiting the output to 310,000 barrels daily.

The railroad commission said it acted to close the wells to permit its engineers to gauge bottom hole pressure of the wells and obtain other scientific data needed for consideration at a hearing set for December 28, when proration and operation problems worry all the Texas fields, would be discussed with those interested in production.

SOLICITORS TO ASSEMBLE AND START APPEAL

MANY ORGANIZATIONS IN WORK BY PROVIDING TEAMS

NO SET GOAL IS FIXED

RELIGIOUS PHASES OF PROGRAM TO BE STRESSED

Representatives of many clubs, fraternal organizations, and churches will meet at 9 o'clock Monday morning to launch the annual home service appeal of the Salvation Army.

A. G. (Pete) Post is chairman of the drive and George Limerick is vice-chairman.

It will be the most extensive drive held here by the organization, with an expansion of the local program as the goal. Complete records for the daily reports of soliciting teams have been compiled by Mrs. Phil T. Rainey of Dallas, who is here to assist in the appeal. No goal has been announced in dollars and cents, the plan being to obtain as much as possible in order to have a large program.

The local work is in charge of Captain Clyde Hollingsworth and Lieutenant Truman Cox.

Example Is Given.
This example of the Army work was furnished by an officer of the organization: Two men knelt at a street corner beside a bass drum at night. A man passed by, then another. The last was a worn-out traveler who had no home, no money, no place to sleep. He was hungry, and sought the necessities of life and a spiritual blessing. He remained and heard the sermon and was given a place to stay for one night with a bit to eat and encouragement to go on his way in search of permanent employment.

The other man was also troubled, although he had the necessities of life and was merely in town on a successful business trip. He had celebrated freely, a id had gone to his hotel room, from which he could hear the beating of the drum and voices raised in familiar tunes. He heard words of the Bible spoken. Looking out he saw two men kneeling.

Jayses To Eat Turkey Tuesday

Pampa Jayses will be fed turkey with all the trimmings Tuesday noon at their regular meeting in the Schneider hotel and all for 50 cents. Alex Schneider informed President Bill Fraser yesterday.

A special Christmas program is being arranged and one of the largest gatherings of the year is expected. The program will include a Christmas talk by the Rev. C. A. Long, pastor of the First Methodist church, selections by John Sturgeon, and a surprise number. One member or guest attending will receive a Christmas gift during the meeting.

Reservations are to be made at the hotel by 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

BIG ENTRY OF GAME BIRDS FEATURES SHOW AT M'LEAN

Fourth Annual-Event Draws Poultry From Points in Broad Territory.

McLEAN, Dec. 17. — McLean's fourth annual poultry show reached the judging stage this morning, and Dr. George P. Groat of Panhandle was to arrive to do the judging of nearly 300 entries from 25 communities of the surrounding territory.

In addition to poultry, there were rabbits, guineas, and pigeons this year. Boys of the 4-H clubs were among the formidable poultry raisers competing. Cash prizes will be given for first places, depending on the amount of money taken in by the show, and ribbons for other places. The entry fee was 10 cents per bird.

This year's show, directed by Prof. A. A. Tampeck as manager, with John Harding as secretary, is notable for the large number of game birds entered. The interest of visitors centered about these trim chickens, although the quality of many other entries was obvious.

McLean club boys have long been famed for their poultry judging ability. They won first place in the last two judging contests at Pampa, and will take permanent possession of the loving cup if they win next year.

THE BEST MEDICINE: A merry heart doeth good like a medicine; but a broken spirit drieth the bones. Proverbs 17:22.

Generosity Despite the maladjustments of our time, there is ample evidence that the spirit of our people is as generous as ever, as willing to share the burdens of those in need.

In the face of difficulties, millions of American citizens this season are contributing to many drives, supporting needy relatives, "adopting" underprivileged persons, and attempting to see to it that no one is forgotten this Christmas.

In some big cities, a person is not helped as long as he has a brother who is solvent. While this is too drastic, because of the implication that all should alike become insolvent before help is extended any, it illustrates the responsibility of relatives to care for each other.

Of the various drives—Welfare Board, Red Cross, and now Salvation Army—much of the success of the campaigns will depend upon keeping of promises to contribute. A pledge is worse than nothing if not honored, for the reason that it represents theoretical success and hinders further soliciting.

Favorite Words

Three little words, "I love you," perhaps have fame and appeal as lasting as any save home, Mother, Dad, and God. Winfred J. Funk, New York publisher, went a step beyond these and picked words which appeal to him because of their sound, easy pronunciation, and other reasons too difficult to define.

Funk's words are Dawn, Hush, Lullaby, Murmuring, Tranquil, Mist, Luminous, Chimes, Golden, Melody. Pronouncing them, you will note qualities which appeal to the tongue and the ear. Perhaps you can think of others. Just offhand, we will say that we like Cognizant, Ethereal, Full-Bloom, Obtain, Translucent, Meadow, and Enclosed Please Find.

Atrocities in Oil

Commonly called the best regulated of major industries, the oil business last week showed again that astonishing ability to turn hectic on short notice. There had been rumblings of defiance of proration, or sales of crude below posted prices.

But from sources close to the leaders of the industry that were expressions of optimism and predictions that, if proration were sustained, prices would ride out the winter without a collapse. The special session to amend the proration laws did its work and went home. The United States supreme court decision restricting martial law in the oil field was not a material matter, since the law on which the appeal was based had in the meantime been amended on the Oklahoma plan.

While demand is expected to be 10 per cent less this winter than last, production also will be considerably less unless some fields are allowed to break over. Estimated consumption and production for November indicated a shortage on the production side of 12,241 barrels daily.

But with winter stability in sight, we find a tendency of many agencies, large and small, to break it down. Most devastating and as yet unconvincing as to necessity was the drastic price cut made by major purchasers. This came at a time when the state commission was struggling with the production and market problems with hope of success. Ratable taking under proration has been widely advocated, yet the commission is authority for the statement that many of the advocates of that goal have been unwilling to make necessary connections for distress wells.

Another disappointing factor is the renewal of attempts to secure repeal of the excise tax on crude oil, which is the nearest thing to a protective tariff which has passed congress. While imports have been reduced by the excise tax, the levy of 42 cents a barrel has not been sufficient to place domestic crudes on an equal footing with foreign crudes. The federal tariff commission cited a differential of $1.03 between costs in the United States and in Venezuela.

If chaos again grips the domestic industry, it will mean that storage will be filled with cheap crude ready for the seasonal demand of next summer, that the land and royalty owners will be robbed of a major portion of their incomes, that the state will suffer tax losses, and that counties like Gray will have lower assessed valuations on oil. If leaders in the industry cannot, with the aid of martial law, special sessions, and the courts maintain the stability of the industry, the public will not continue to look with favor upon state regulation. Chaos can be achieved for much less cost than special sessions and martial law.

Et Tu, Star-Telegram?

Long the spokesman for West Texas, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram slips astonishingly from the status when, in discussing the legislative committee's economy program, it says: "It may be a fact, as declared by the committee, that certain state schools, notably the Teachers colleges, may be dropped from the state system with-

ABOUT NEW YORK

By WILLIAM GAINES

NEW YORK.—Recently there were two blonds called June Knight on Broadway at the same time.

One was appearing—and still is—in a hit revue. The other was dancing in a movie house stage show.

As you may recall at one time there was a threat of legal action over the right to use the name. Jack Holland, a dancer, teamed first with one girl, then with the other, and gave the stag to each. He claimed the name as his invention.

First it was June Lloyd, who Holland decided had better be called June Knight. She married and retired temporarily. Later when Holland teamed with Marie Valli from the movies (who actually was christened Margaret Rose Valliquette in Los Angeles), he made her his June Knight.

June Knight the second didn't retire. She went forging ahead, and building her reputation on that name. The late Florenz Ziegfeld signed Holland and Knight as a team, but eventually decided to retain only Miss Knight for "Hat Cha." That was when Holland raised the issue over the rights to the designation.

Miss Knight the second took her troubles to no less a legal adviser than Jimmy Walker, who was still mayor at the time, and Jimmy arranged for her legal adoption of the stage name.

Then Mr. Holland proceeded to team again with June Knight the first—by now a widow—and bring her back to Broadway.

It's all very complicated, and nobody seems to know just what can be done about it. But perhaps the world will just go on.

June Knight II

I'd like to tell you a little something more about June Knight of the revues, who right now is one of the toasts of the street.

This girl never walked between the tender ages of 22 months and five years, and four times her parents—of French descent— anxiously watched over what they believed to be her death bed. But the saving air of Arizona brought the child around, and at 7 she entered dancing school in Los Angeles to build up her frail body.

So it was that June Knight learned she could dance, and later she was to learn she could sing, with a vocal range of 4 1-2 octaves.

Today she is attractive of face and figure, weighs 119 pounds and stands 5 feet 5. Her unusually blue eyes are green when she's angry, but seem to respond chameleon-like to certain colors she may be wearing—particularly brown.

Her hair—"naturally sort of red," she told me—is bleached, and with the first bleaching much of it fell off. For two years she wore wigs. Her complexion is peachy, and she's very fresh and youthful looking. Really, she's only 19, and her next birthday is January 22.

Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—Another famous White House institution may be scrapped in the near future if reports coming from Governor Roosevelt's retreat at Warm Springs mean anything.

The governor is said to be considering doing away with the position of physician to the President when he takes office on next March 4. He'll call in a physician from the outside when one is needed, it has been indicated, rather than keep one on duty all the time at the mansion.

White House physicians in the past have been a rather important part of presidential retinues. The present one, Comm. Joel T. Boone, a navy medic, has been one of the most prominent members of Mr. Hoover's personal staff.

During the campaign, on all official visits away from the capital, on the few of his pleasure trips, and on week-end excursions to the Rapidan, Dr. Boone has been along always.

Friend and Physician

President Wilson's personal physician, Admiral Cary T. Grayson, not only looked after his health but became his close personal friend as well. And it was a friendship that the admiral to this day cherishes.

Locked in his mind are many incidents of those last treacherous days of the war president in the White House. They will never be known to the public if Grayson must tell them. Repeatedly he has refused to talk about his close association with Wilson. He holds that he was there first as a physician and next as a friend.

Coolidges Never Ill

Calvin Coolidge probably would have done the same thing Governor Roosevelt is said to think of doing if he had thought of it. Dr. Boone, who was at the White House during Coolidge's stay, is fond of telling how the president all but told him once that he thought his job was superfluous.

"We're never sick," Coolidge told him dryly. And so true was his statement that when he came to the end of his administration he was able to write to a friend: "Whatever else may be said about me, I have been a healthy president."

out serious loss." The Star-Telegram should know that since 1910 the West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon has been the principal seat of higher learning for towns of the upper Panhandle and that its functions have gone far beyond its service in training teachers. Through necessity, the Teachers college must afford instruction in most of the subjects which are included in any liberal education. It would be far more logical to provide the Panhandle with a liberal arts college in name, with teacher training as a companion function, than to abolish it or reduce it to junior college rank.

West Texas Teachers college affords opportunity for general education to pupils of a huge and rapidly expanding area. To attend it is economical. To abolish it would deprive hundreds of students of a complete college course and would cause hundreds of others to go to universities of nearby states. West Texas Teachers college is too remote to be consolidated with any other institution. It behooves the Star-Telegram to protect the interests of West Texas by observing what should be obvious—that the upper Panhandle needs a first class senior college.

MANUAL FOR POLE-CRASHERS

If you are thinking of spending the winter at the North Pole or the South Pole you will want at hand the information compiled for Pole-Crashers by W. C. Sellar and R. J. Yeatman in their Outline of Knowledge, "AND NOW ALL THIS," which E. P. Dutton and company released for publication Dec. 1. The authors of "1066 AND ALL THAT" detail all the necessary information, covering "Byrd life, polar outfits and other equipment, polar bearings, etiquette, etc." We quote some sound advice from their manual: "Inexpensive Polar outfits can now be obtained at most of the leading stores. All clothing should of course be air-tight; and, if possible, bear-tight, too. But in addition to your unshrinkable thermos boots and unshrinkable walrus-hide handkerchiefs and so on you will undoubtedly require some companions.

"Choose your companions carefully: you may have to eat them. "American audiences in particular are terrifically keen on facts, so start with a clear idea which pole you are dashing at, and try to start facing the right way. Conditions at the Poles are deceptively similar and the compass will not help you, since, though one end of the compass denotes the North Pole, there is nothing on the compass to show which end is which (back).

"Furthermore, the Pole being a purely imaginary erection, there will be nothing there, except you, when you arrive, and the accompanying map of the district will be of no assistance to you whatever. "Tear up the map, therefore, along the dotted line, and work your compass to a standstill: if it then points straight up, you will know you are at the N. Pole; if it points straight downwards you are at the S. Pole and vice versa. (N. B. If you appear to be at the wrong Pole you might try holding the compass upside down.)

"But in any case you are not at the real Pole, yet. A glance at your geography book will remind you that the compass will have only led you to the Magnetic Pole, and that you are still about 1,000 miles from THE POLE itself. (Jolly bad luck.) "Now is the time to start eating your companions."

"Janet Aver Fairbank, whose novel, "The Bright Land," will be published on December 16 by Houghton Mifflin company, is the author of "The Smiths," "Idle Hands," "The Courtlands of Washington Square," and "The Lion's Den." Her new novel begins when Andrew Jackson was president of the United States and people in the middle west traveled by stage-coach, primitive railway carriage, and Mississippi steamboat. It carries the heroine through the civil war and the year of reconstruction which followed. The scene is laid largely in Galena, Illinois, which was a flourishing lead-mining city when Chicago was merely a fort.

Florence Ayscough, who has lived for the last two years in Guernsey, has recently spoken of the Island's antiquities before the Archaeological Congress in London. Mrs. Ayscough believes that there is probably no quarter of the earth where a greater variety of pre-historic monuments can be found in such close proximity as in the case of Guernsey. Long identified with China, Mrs. Ayscough has recently completed a book on China for young people, "Firecracker Land," illustrated by Lucille Douglas.

"People all over the country are writing to Houghton Mifflin company to ask something about Lloyd C. Douglas, the Montreal minister, whose "Magnificent Obsession" and "Forgive Us Our Trespasses" are two of the most popular novels of recent years. The following characterization, which has just been sent to his publisher by an old friend of the family, shows that Dr. Douglas is, in every way, as human as readers of his books might expect: "He waits until the last minute to write his sermons and prefers to deliver them while they are hot. He can't fix anything and hates to get his hands dirty. He uses very profuse language ever tough stiff collars. He is a charming host but ing too much. He eats Kippers for breakfast. He reads himself to invariably insists on his guests cat-sleep and usually drops off with his glasses on and his book in his hand. He never tells anyone he is a minister. In a pulpit smoker he says he is a salesman. He is active in social welfare but is too easy to lend money. Even a poor salesman can sell him anything. He smokes far too many cigarettes and has recently become a grandfather. He is not affected by criticism. He doesn't care what the critics say about him so long as they say something. He adores music, but can't stand the radio, except "Amos 'n' Andy."

He will say, "Quien sabe?" but one finds the herds on the plains well sprinkled with slate-colored cattle with queer white faces.

Editor, The NEWS: The following item appears in the Hereford BRAND, Dec. 8, 1932, under the heading, "A Long Time Ago in Hereford."

"T. Aubrey Cox has written to Santa Claus requesting him to bring him a little rock-horse, a book of two, and, maybe, a doll, Aubrey promising to be a good boy."

Mr. Cox is now first trick operator for the Santa Fe at Pampa, having been employed in 1924, and certain, therefore, that he will be interested in having brought to his attention certain of his fancies of more than thirty years ago.

Editor, The NEWS: Within the next few days the Salvation Army is to launch forth a mighty drive, its purpose to help mankind.

I have been asked to write a few words as to why we should help support this fund.

There is a life of unselfishness and sacrifice—a life of doing for those less fortunate than ourselves.

In the words of our Master, the greatest friend mankind has ever known, "Give and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down, and shaken together and running over, shall men give unto your bosom."

I have worked sufficiently with this Army to know that funds appropriated are used judiciously and wisely. They seek out those in greatest need regardless of sect or station and the donations they solicit are not given away promiscuously.

KATHARINE CORNELL, IN NEW TYPE ROLE, NOW TESTING HER ABILITY AS CLASSICAL ACTRESS

DESPITE CONTROVERSY, STAR HAS FAITH IN DRAMA, 'LUCRECE'

By NOEL THORNTON. NEW YORK (AP)—Although it is arousing a tempest of controversy, Katharine Cornell has great faith in her newest drama, "Lucrece" which was inspired by Shakespeare's poem, "The Rape of Lucrece."

It is far afield from any role she ever has acted and brings her at last to that threshold she long has been approaching, the beginning of her career as a classical actress.

Several years ago she appeared in a pageant costumed as Cleopatra, and managers at that time requested that she act Shakespeare. But she refused by saying, "I am not ready."

Now moving away from her successful run as the gentle Elizabeth Barrett Browning in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," she comes nearer to a classical role in the Shakespeare character.

"I could have played Elizabeth Barrett for four years," she says, "but that meant artistic death for me."

It is inevitable that "Lucrece" will stir controversy," she admits. "I am prepared for that, but to me it is such a beautiful play that nothing will shake my faith in it."

"I feel 'Lucrece' is a test for myself. This is not a sensational venture. To me it is more than that. I want to discover if I am worthy of the classics, whether I have the ability to be a part of a truly noble and beautiful play that therefore have the right to go further and produce other great classical plays."

There is rumor that she will later present Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra." She was asked if this were true.

"I will wait and see if I have in me to act the classics," was her reply.

No Person To Be Hungry—Merchant To Give Dinners

I. Baum, local merchant, has determined that no person shall be without an adequate Christmas dinner.

Attractive gifts were taken from the tree and given to members, who also received little red stockings filled with Christmas candy.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Dec. 16. (AP)—Wheat values were moderately higher today despite renewed selling pressure here from traders who made simultaneous purchases in Winnipeg.

Export sales of 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, helped to lift prices. Winnipeg reports indicated there was little unsold Canadian wheat except that on farms.
Wheat in Chicago closed firm at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 cent higher, corn 1/4 off to 1/2 up, oats unchanged to 1/4 advance, and rye unchanged to a rise of 1/2 cents.
Evidence that distress selling which yesterday tumbled the Winnipeg market to a new all time bottom price record had ceased stimulated the upward trend in Chicago.

Freezing temperatures that extended to the Gulf of Mexico added to uneasiness over likelihood of crop damage to winter wheat, already handicapped by prolonged drought and other adverse conditions.
Reports that last year's domestic wheat production barely exceeded home requirements, and that next year's output promised to fall short of the average requirements within the United States, also attracted attention.

Corn and oats were steadier by wheat action.
Provisions went up as a result of dearth of offerings.
Closing indemics: Wheat—May 47 1/2, July 46 1/2, July 47 1/2, Corn May 27 1/2, July 27 1/2, July 28 1/2, 29.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK
KANSAS CITY, Dec. 17. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Cattle trade during the week under review was marked by unevenly lower prices on most all killing classes except fat light yearling steers and heifers. Fed steers and long yearlings were tendered declines of 25-100. Weighty steers drugged on the market and showed the most loss. Trade interests at several points advised against the shipping of many strong weight steers for next week's market in order to give the market a chance to stabilize itself. Chicago report—ed an average cost of 5.25 on fed steers which was 3.00 under the season's high level in September. SANDIES CRUMBLE BEFORE MASONS' MIGHTY M'CALL

AMARILLO IS WHIPPED 7-6 IN SNOW DUEL

SANDSTORM FAILS TO STOP CONQUERING QUARTERBACK

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Staff Writer
FORT WORTH, Dec. 17. (AP)—Led by the powerful offensive and airtight defensive playing of their great Scott McCall, quarterback, the Masons' Home team took the ball on the snow and into the finals of the Texas Interscholastic League bi-district state championship football game today. The Masons' outplayed the husky Amarillo Golden Sander team, 7 to 6.

An estimated crowd of five thousand saw these two teams play in sub-freezing weather and on a gridiron covered with snow in a game where both fumbled a lot, but not enough to make a miscue the "break" of the game. Both touchdowns were scored on clean, straight football. For the Golden Sandies it was Woodrow Dunaway, quarterback, who charged through center for a touchdown in the first period. It was the elusive Scott McCall, who has not been completely stopped this season, who took the ball on a triple lateral pass and raced across the Sandies' goal line for the touchdown and then dropped back the fifteen yard stripe and boomed the sphere between the goal posts for the "one point" that was the difference between playing in the state finals and a tie game. It was not a game of passes.

Masons Play Safe
The slippery condition of the field and the water soaked football prevented a consistent passing game. Only in the fourth period did Amarillo, desperate to score, open with a passing game, but most of the aerial heaves were completed. Once in front, Masonic Home played cautious football, took no chances, held the ball much as possible and the system gave them victory.

In a matter of first downs, the teams finished the first two periods with six each, but the Masons gained a 7 to 6 lead at the half way point gained through a powerful running offense that erased Amarillo's first period, 6 to 0 lead. The Golden Sandies tramped through the snow to a touchdown in the first of the Masons' one yard line where he planted the sphere on the Masons' 33 yard line for a first down. On the second down of the next series, "Chiggers" Enoch, running from a spinner formation, circled end and went down the side-line to the Masons' one yard line where he was raced out of bounds. On the first down of the next series, Dunaway plowed through for a touchdown. John Mann had his kick from placement blocked by White.

Touchdown Arouses Masons
Evidently the Amarillo touchdown not only made the Masons see red, but warmed them up. Anyhow they started crushing into the Amarillo front wall and the Sandies' line started crumbling. Terrific thrusts by McCall, Newsome and Roberts carried the Masons down the field. A fifteen yard penalty moved the Sandies back to their 21 yard line. The trio of McCall, Newsome and Roberts kept plugging for yardage and gain it. They gained a first down on the Sandies' 21 yard line. On a trick lateral pass formation, Roberts whipped around end and planted the ball on Amarillo's 7 yard line as the period ended.

On the second down in the second period, a triple lateral from Newsome to McClure to McCall saw McCall rush over for a touchdown behind McClure's screen of interference. It tied the score at 6 a. t. but McCall smashed the deadlock by kicking goal from placement.

The remainder of the second period centered around an exchange of punts that was dangerous for both aggregations because of the slippery and soggy condition of the ball.

McCall Injured
Much of the snow on the gridiron had melted at the mid-way stage.

PAMPA WINS AGAIN 45-16

Canyon Basketball Quintet Loses Second Game to Harvesters.

Pampa basketball teams split two games with Canyon teams at the high school gymnasium last night, when the Harvesters won 45 to 16 and the Pampa girls lost 22 to 21 in two periods overtime.

The Harvesters have played and won six games this season.

Both teams showed a nice offensive with tight defenses that lapsed at times. Both teams missed many shots, but the Harvesters allowed few Canyon tries from under the basket.

PAMPA CAGERS PLAY 3 GAMES IN THIS WEEK

SHAMROCK AND HEDLEY COMING TUESDAY AND THURSDAY

Six games of basketball will be played here during the next two weeks and the Harvesters will make one try in that time. The team will play three games this week and four games next week. Included in the schedule, completed yesterday by Coach Odus Mitchell, will be two games with Plainview and two games with Big Lake, all in Pampa.

On Tuesday night, the Shamrock Irishmen will come to Pampa for a game. Thursday night the Harvesters will entertain the fast Hedley Owls. The Harvesters will meet the Owls Friday night at Hedley.

Plainview will come to Pampa for two games Monday and Tuesday nights, after Christmas. The next two nights will see Big Lake here for games. Both teams have outstanding records and should give Pampa basketball fans a real exhibition.

The Harvesters have yet to defeat a team of Plainview-Bulldogs under Coach Froggie Lovren, but this may be the season of upsets. Pampa has prospects for one of the best teams in years. Coach Lovren has most of the team back that defeated the Harvesters twice last season.

Big Lake went to the state meet last year and was near the top of the list when eliminated. Hedley has been seen here in tournament competition and has always been a strong contender for winning honors. Shamrock also has given the Harvesters considerable trouble in past years. The team is composed of veterans.

The girls' team has not scheduled any games through the holidays, but Coach Harry Kelley said yesterday that he might play one or two games.

SECOND TEAM WINS EASILY

Harvester B Squad Take 23 to 11 Cage Game at Panhandle.

The Harvester B squad won a 23 to 11 game from the Panhandle B squad following the game between the Harvesters and Panthers Friday night in Amarillo. The Pampa boys kicked with precision with both regulars and substitutes in the lineup.

Clovis Green, playing forward, was high point man with 8 points. He was followed by Clinton Adair with 6 points and J. R. Green with 4 points. The Pampa boys kept the cub Panthers well bottled and held the ball well.

Fampa scorers were Bill Kelley, 2 points, Clovis Green, 8 points, J. R. Green, 4 points, Clinton Adair, 4 points, Lester Sartin, 2 points, Siler Faulkner, 1 point. Other members of the team were Lloyd Hamilton, Curmen Howard, Dick Sullins, Bert Stevens.

Coach Argus Fox has been working hard with his boys and they are showing much promise.

CORSICANA IS CONQUEROR OF JOHN REAGAN

TIGERS PILE UP 19 TO 7 SCORE IN DECISIVE VICTORY

By WILLIAM S. WHITE,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
HOUSTON, Dec. 17. (AP)—The Corsicana eleven soundly defeated John Reagan of Houston, 19 to 7, here today for the right to engage Masonic Home of Fort Worth in the schoolboy football championship of Texas.

Masonic Home turned back Amarillo at Fort Worth today in the other semi-final game of the state interscholastic league football race.

Corsicana's stout able team had little trouble with Reagan. Save in a few instances. The game was played before a relatively small crowd and in 38-degree weather. The footing was somewhat slippery.

Halfback Green appeared in the light of hero for the visiting Tigers making two of their touchdowns and otherwise cuffing the Bulldogs.

The Tigers, favorites by reason of having turned back John Reagan in an early season game, turned loose a fast versatile offensive in the second period that brought them two touchdowns. McGee, a guard, scooped up a blocked punt and waded through five yards for the first Cole kicking from placement of the extra point, and Green came along a few minutes later to spin nine yards through virtually the entire Reagan defense for the second. Finley had paved the way for Green, having intercepted an enemy pass on Reagan's 38-yard line after which he proceeded to blast the Bulldog defense for 26 yards, aided by a 5-yard penalty.

John Reagan scored its only touchdown in the same period, a 28-yard pass to Hallmark and another for 13 yards to Asbell putting the ball in position for Costa, a substitute, to take it 16 yards over the goal line. Asbell kicked the extra point.

PAMPA CAGERS WIN SECOND TILT FROM PANTHERS 25-6

Panhandle Held to 2 Field Goals; Harvesters Keep Ball Most of Time.

The Harvesters took their fourth basketball game of the season when they invaded the fair of the Panhandle Panthers Friday night and won a 25 to 6 encounter. It was a return engagement, the Harvesters having defeated the Panthers here 29 to 11 the previous week.

Coach Odus Mitchell used his first string during the entire game, while Coach Pat Gerald of the Panthers in vain threw substitutes into the fray to find a winning combination. Both quintets played defensive ball in the first half, but the Harvesters opened up for the final session with a spurt of scoring. The score at the end of the quarter was 3 to 2 in favor of the Harvesters. At the half the score was 10 to 3.

The Pampa boys seemed to have only partly recovered from the slump which attacked them after the Clarendon game. They missed many shots Friday night but they passed accurately and kept possession of the ball three-fourths of the time. Most of their field goals were either scored on rebounds or in crisp shots under the basket. They played an air-tight defensive game and it was no accident that the Panthers made only two field goals.

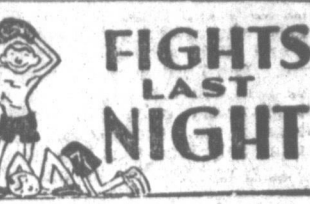

Coach Mitchell's main purpose is to develop a passing team with each man entitled to an equal share of the victory or defeat. Points were made Friday night as follows: Woodward and Marbaugh, 8 each; Fullinm, five, Kelley, two; Heiskell, two. Davidson, Panhandle guard, scored three of his team's points before he left the game on personals in the last quarter. The other three points were divided. Heiskell played the entire game at guard, replacing Jess Patton, who has been ill of influenza.

K. Felts and Dunaway tried hard for the Panthers, but were unable to break away. There was erratic shooting on both sides in the first half with the Harvesters doing most of the missing. K. Felts covered Woodward well in the first half of the game.

The score:
PAMPA (25) fg ft tp
Woodward, f. 4 0 8
Marbaugh, f. 3 2 8
Fullinm, c. 2 1 5
W. Kelley, g. 1 0 2

Telephone Call Aids Panther To Whip Old Grads

FITTSBURGH, Dec. 17. (AP)—Driven indoors by a pelting snow, lashing the silent stadium, Pitts' gridmen clashed today with Pitt's stars of used-to-be, trouncing the alumni 7-0 in a rough-and-tumble battle with Southern California.

Piled up for three scoreless periods by the Gibraltar wall of the "old grads" the varsity engaging in its final home drill on the eve of its departure for the Rose Bowl battle with Southern California, was snatched from the brink of a humiliating tie by a telephone call.

It happened this way:
Bill Kern, a line coach at Pitt, took his position at tackle with the alumni as the teams lined up at the start of the fourth quarter. Pitt holding the ball on its own 45.

"Hey, Bill," called a side-line jockey, to the ex-star of the Green Bay Packers, "you're wanted on the phone."

As Bill, just returned from scouting Southern California against Notre Dame, turned his head with a beaming smile, Crafty Hogan snatched a play at Kern, Weisenbaugh slashing over the tackle and through the secondaries to scamper and waltz 55 yards on a magnificent run for the only touchdown of the afternoon.

Alley Record Is Broken by Darby

The bowling games are not unusual, but when games are rolled above the 200 score to a tie, they are not numerous. Tom Darby and Joe Landry rolled the game of 299 pins in a three-games series Friday afternoon. Darby then rolled a game of 225 pins on top of a previous score of 235 pins for a three-game total of 709 pins to break the existing record on the local alleys, which had been in the hands of Hap Baxter with 701 pins.

Landry's other games in the series were 201 184 pins for a total of 634 pins. The two men total also set up a new record with 1,243 pins.

The same afternoon F. E. Maynard rolled games of 234, 234 and 216 for a total of 684 pins.

S. King of LeFors was in the city last night.

"Hymn Night" To Be Observed at Baptist Church

Sunday evening has been designated as "Christmas hymn night" at the First Baptist church. Stories of the Christmas hymns will be told by the Rev. C. E. Lancaster and sung by the choir, led by Miss Loma Groom with Mrs. Tom E. Rose at the piano. Special numbers also will be given. The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will continue one hour.

MEETING--

Honored at Luncheon
Mrs. Roe and Mrs. Griggs shared honors at the beautiful luncheon given in the home economics room of the high school.

As guests arrived, they were greeted by officials of the city council of Parent-Teacher associations and were invited into the artistically decorated reception room, where they were introduced to the guests of honor.

The forenoon luncheon tables were charming in decorations suggestive of the Christmas season and Parent-Teacher work, red and green being emphasized throughout.

Oak Leaves Used
Oak leaves, the Parent-Teacher symbol of individual members, formed the place cards, and an improvised oak tree was the centerpiece. Menus were printed beneath tiny maps on which Pampa was indicated and on which clusters of the state flower, bluebonnets were painted. A bluebonnet picture also was presented to Mrs. Roe.

Mrs. Townsend was toastmistress for the occasion, and the program was opened with songs, "Silent Night" and "The First Noel," sung by Howard Zimmerman, Clotilde McCallister, Marjorie Enloe, and Charles Frost, directed by Harry Kelley. Miss McCallister also gave a humorous reading.

Speaks to Group
Introduced by Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Roe gave a short, pointed talk on the importance of considering the child's viewpoint in teaching.

Supt. R. B. Fisher spoke on what the Parent-Teacher work has meant to the schools and Mrs. V. E. Fatheree spoke on Parent-Teacher accomplishments. They stressed cafeteria and welfare work, health projects, library improvement, and beautifying of grounds.

The meal was served by home economics students, directed by Mrs. J. B. Massa.

The luncheon guest list follows: Mrs. C. E. Roe, Mrs. J. E. Griggs, Mrs. J. B. Townsend, Supt. and Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. H. G. Myers, Mrs. O. E. Palmer, Mrs. J. D. Lawson, Mrs. H. B. Knapp, Mrs. A. L. Jones, Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle, Mrs. C. T. Funkhouser, Mrs. G. C. Malone, Mrs. J. Harry Marbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Some, Mrs. W. Purviance, R. A. Selby, Mrs. J. M. Turner, Miss Josephine Thomas, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Patrick, Mrs. A. N. Dilley, Mrs. Annie Daniels, Mrs. Claude Lard, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meek, Mrs. J. C. Browning, J. B. CONVENTION--

Miss Murfee began her work at once by presenting some of Texas' problems of public education before the Twentieth Century and Junior Twentieth Century clubs of Lubbock. Among other things Miss Murfee said "West Texas is entitled to a technological college and the vast plains area needs a senior teachers college at Canyon." Miss Murfee pointed out that the only way opportunities can be brought to rural children is through the development of the resources of the region and the provision for expert teachers in the rural schools.

Miss Murfee is county superintendent of public instruction in Lubbock county, and has served as president of the Lubbock county federation, at the same time being an active member of several study clubs of that city.

The club women of East Smith county are ready to help to make the seventh district convention which takes place at Hereford in April a delightful occasion for the two hundred or more women from 48 West Texas counties who will be their guests at that time.

LIES--

GIVE FLOWERS For CHRISTMAS CLAYTON FLORAL CO. Resident Florists Phone 80 410 E. Foster

The seven persons in the play and the director, Mrs. T. F. Morton, will be more than ready to give an unusually interesting performance, Dec. 30. The players knew their lines almost letter-perfect in a rehearsal at the LaNora yesterday morning. The three-act comedy will be the second offering of the Little Theater this season.

The most unusual spectator surely would have become convinced yesterday that Mrs. Morton had selected an ideal cast to present the play. Mrs. Barrett interprets the role of Diana so realistically that one apologetically wonders if after all she is not quite a bit like Diana. She and Mr. Nunn will show Pampa audiences a thing or three in this play.

Masters Italian Accent. But the most difficult and one of the most entertaining roles is interpreted by Howard Nellis as Scipio Vorelli, an Italian count. Mr. Nellis who is possessed of an enviable voice, has mastered English as an Italian would speak it. His Italian accent is even better than that of Marx brother who plays the piano as if he were shooting a pistol. Mr. Nellis slips into his character and never loses it.

Other members of the cast are Miss Anne Wynne, Miss Louise Barton, Miss Sidney Rose (Miss Florida Freeman), Kizzy Collin (James Todd Jr.), Kizzy and Collin are colored servants. Miss Anne Wynne is a dumb, helpless, talkative aunt. Miss Sidney Rose is misunderstood; in the end she gets what she wants.

It was ordered that all stored in tanks or tank batteries and in larger storage units of any kind remain in the field during the period of the shut down.

Order Quickly Obeyed LONGVIEW, Dec. 17. (P)—Major oil companies and independent operators alike were quick today to obey the order of the state wells commission to shut down their wells until Jan. 1 in order that it might gather scientific data on which to base future production orders.

Field headquarters of the commission here said that approximately 90 per cent of the 2,300 wells in the East Texas field had been closed by 2 p. m. and that the others would cease production by night. The order called for a complete shut down at noon.

Homer L. Flerson, inspector for the regulatory body, after talking to a dozen major companies, said that on the basis of cooperation at that time he expected the shutdown would be effective 100 per cent. The commission notified its seven field offices which, in turn, sent word to all operators.

A large corps of new employees is being added to the railroad commission force in East Texas to aid in gauging the bottom hole residue of the 9,300 wells. W. F. Knode, chief petroleum engineer for the commission, will arrive in Longview Monday to supervise the work. It was estimated that each two-man crew would be able to test accurately five wells each day. At present, there is a limited supply of instruments in the field which can be used in gauging bottom hole pressure of the wells and workers pressed that unless more were obtained quickly, only a small number of the 9,300 wells could be so gauged by January 1.

OIL-- (Continued from Page 1) was from 2,820 to 2,840 feet. The Texas company's No. 6 M. B. Davis in section 8, block 1, southeast of LeFors, made 1,032 barrels a day on a five day test. Pay was from 2,775 to 2,805 feet with the hole bottomed at 2,815 feet. The Texas company's No. 1 Pope in section 173, block 3, west of Pampa, was good for 25 barrels of oil and 2,500,000 cubic feet of gas. Pay was from 3,160 to 3,165 feet. Kewanee Oil company got a 25-barrel well on the pump in section 3, block 26, on the Morse lease. The hole was bottomed at 2,669 feet. Skelly will abandon its No. 8 Saunders in section 4, block 1, after shooting with 400 quarts of nitro. The well made a small amount of oil after the shot. The hole was bottomed at 2,907 feet. The only location made in the county during the week was for the Skelly Oil company's No. 5 Jackson in section 90, block 2. The cellar is being dug.

The Stucky Construction company made a location for a test on the Koons lease in section 43, block 24, H&GN survey in Wheeler county. Production in the Panhandle field increased only 26 barrels daily. Gray county's production jumped 1,225 barrels when several wells were placed on test. However, Hutchinson county's decrease of 1,277 barrels, largely due to paraffin, evened things.

Wealthy Man Touched. The man of wealth the next night heard the same voices and the same drum. Thank God for your songs and prayers where all sorts of men pass by."

Market places have their host of voices, rumbling of cars, and shouts of people going and coming, but at the corner is one clear, ringing note that reaches back through ancient hymns to appeal to the childhood of human hearts. This note recalls memories of mother, Sunday school, children and home. Surely, then, it is worth a few dollars to have the "voice of reminder" raised at the busy street corner, where all sorts of men walk by. That is why Pampa people are asked to contribute to the annual home service appeal opening Monday.
