REPEAL RESOLUTION REJECTED

U. S. Supreme Court Upholds Texas Vehicle Regulation Law

TWINKLES
As we deduce it, the beans would have won had they not had to decour around the fats so much.

Canyon high's coach, feeling the edge of a razor at the hands of a fan riled because of suspension of football players, knows something about "social-purpose" weapons.

President Hoover's theme song on election night: "Say It Isn't So!"

We have witnessed a wager whereby the loser, a prominent local man, will ride a bicycle to work for a week if Mr. Hoover isn't recognized as a really "big man" and drafted for president after Roosevelt has had his chance.

Speaking of "big" men, R. C. Wilson recalled the other day how William Howard Taft, stranded at a railroad whistling station while motoring, telephoned for a train to stop "for a large party."

Fans have suddenly awakened to the fact that Pampa high has a winning basketball team.

ON FAIR PLAY
We wrote this letter to "Tack": "Dear Mr. Howe:

"Pampa wishes, and believes she is entitled, to be a participant in next Thanksgiving day's football game with either Amarillo or Lubbock. Because of a likely conflict with a Texas Tech game at Lubbock, Pampa prefers to meet Amarillo in Pampa.

"South Plains fans can feast on Texas Tech contests as well as those of the Westerners, but there are many hundreds of fans east of Amarillo who can't journey to Lubbock next Thanksgiving. Moreover, from a financial standpoint, Pampa is due a Thanksgiving day game with one of the bigger schools.

"I do not think there is any feeling anywhere that a Pampa-Amarillo game would be a set-up—it has been repeatedly demonstrated that there is not more than a touch-down's difference between the two outfits and that the dope means nothing.

"Those fans who have the 'big business' complex and who believe that the Amarillo-Lubbock tradition is unbreakable are simply deducing themselves. The traditional rivalry of Pampa and Amarillo has rank with that between Amarillo and Lubbock, and a Pampa-Amarillo Thanksgiving game in 1933

Christmas Customs From FOREIGN LANDS

In Spain, before the family sets out for church on Christmas Eve, children place their shoes in rows on the balcony with straw and grain in them for the horses of the Three Kings, so that the steeds may not go hungry while the Magi are worshipping at the manger. Returning from church, the children find the Three Kings have left toys, candy and coins in the little shoes.

PANHANDLE BANK BANDITS CAUGHT AFTER ROBBERY

ED DEAHL AND ANOTHER MAN CAPTURED PAIR

FOUR LOCKED IN VAULT OF FIRST STATE BANK

MONEY IS RECOVERED

UNMASKED MEN SCOOP UP $3,500 IN SLIP AND FLEE

BORGER, Dec. 5. (P)—Two men who today robbed the First State bank of Panhandle of $3,500 were captured at the south edge of Borger this afternoon and all of the loot recovered.

Ed Deahl, Panhandle banker, and Sewell Thorp, resident of Panhandle, ran the men down in a car and captured them without a fight. The men gave their names as French and Scriver, and said they lived at Bristow, Okla. They are about 35 years old.

PANHANDLE, Dec. 5. (P)—Two armed, unmasked men entered the First State bank here about 12:30 today, scooped more than $3,000 into a pillow slip and escaped, after locking four persons in the bank vault.

Ed Deahl, president, and Russell Downs, a bookkeeper, were alone in the bank when one of the bandits—a heavy set man of about 40—entered and demanded the money. He held a pillow slip while the bank's cash was raked into it at the point of a gun.

Milton Weeth, county commissioner, and O. E. Gurney, employee of the First National bank, entered during the robbery and were forced into the vault with Deahl and Downs.

The robber fled to an accomplice in a waiting car in front of the bank. They drove away toward Amarillo.

Those in the vault immediately freed themselves, and Deahl was outside in time to fire once at the speeding car.

STATE LAW IS SUSTAINED IN TEXAS' FAVOR

REQUIRES CONTRACT CARRIERS TO GET PERMITS

COMMISSION ATTACKED

DUE PROCESS PHRASE NOT APPLIED BY JUDGES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (P)—The Texas statute regulating motor vehicles operating under private contract was sustained today by the supreme court. This decision was handed down in a case brought by J. H. Stephenson and others challenging such regulation by the State Railroad Commission.

The Texas act requires contract motor carriers to obtain permits from the commission. These can be issued only after the commission has determined the operations of the contract carriers will not impair the efficient public service of serving the territory.

Stephenson and others contended the act was unconstitutional as it deprived them of their property without due process of law and denied them the equal protection of the laws.

The case was tried before a statutory three-judge federal court, which by a vote of 2 to 1 overruled the objections.

Reject All Bids For Postoffice; Fund Not Enough

All bids for the construction of the Pampa postoffice were rejected, it was learned through information received at the local office from Washington this morning.

According to a letter received by Postmaster D. E. Cecil, the department in Washington wrote the architect stating: "Bids for the construction of the Pampa postoffice were approximately $14,000 in excess of the amount available even with the 5 per cent augmentation.

Local officials believe the changes can be made without the necessity of calling in all plans and specifications and that firms who entered bids will be able to revise those bids with little delay.

LIESBALLY, his name means "sneak" ... that's a poor name for Lieut.-Gen. Kurt von Schleicher, Germany's new chancellor. He has been the power behind the scenes for several years ... as maker and unmaker of ministers ... but there is nothing sneaky about tall, well-dressed amiable von Schleicher ... He's 50, a confirmed bachelor until two years ago ... when he married his cousin ... Has the short-clipped hair and mustache of the German military ... somewhat pallid, with piercing grey-blue eyes, a sardonic expression of the mouth ... likes stag-hunting, fine food, large pale cigars, and French red wines ... Distinctly a favorite at social gatherings, he has more admirers than intimates ... Had typical military education of a nobleman's son ... assigned to von Hindenburg's regiment in 1900, was still a lieutenant when the war opened ... fought the war from a swivel chair, except for brief as-

The action by the house virtually spells the death knell for prohibition repeal in that branch during the short session. Speaker Garner indicated that it would go over to the new democratic congress, which is pledged to the platform. Nevertheless, the democratic leadership plans to go ahead with its program to legalize beer for the purpose of imposing a tax.

HOUSE VOTES 272 FOR AND 144 AGAINST

MEASURE IS BELIEVED KILLED FOR SHORT SESSION

G. O. P. LENSOS SUPPORT

TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY NOT ATTAINED IN ROLL CALL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (P)—Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader stated late today that the senate democratic program for prompt consideration of prohibition proposals would not be affected by the house vote today against repeal.

The vote was 271 in its favor to 144 against. A two-thirds vote was needed to approve the resolution, since it was for amendment of the constitution. "Two-thirds not having voted the resolution is lost," gravely announced Garner, once the count was completed.

Observers from dries greeted him, while proponents of the proposal evinced their disappointment in depressed expressions. Many "lame ducks," representatives defeated for re-election, opposed the resolution.

The vice-president-elect was severely scored by dries during the forty minutes of debate for invoking the drastic procedure of suspension of the rules to force the resolution to a vote. No amendments were permitted and the vote was for and against.

WASHINGTON.—The next administration will have plenty of gusto.

Gusto for better or worse, may even be a sort of an unofficial keynote after Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt becomes president.

Gusto, in fact, was that quality which Roosevelt displayed more than anything else during his memorable visit to Washington for the purpose of conferring with President Hoover on the all-important question of war debts.

All Washington was agape. It was his first important appearance here since his days as assistant secretary of the navy under Wilson and Secretary Daniels, when no one paid more attention to him than is now paid to Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ernest Lee Jahncke.

The president-elect smiled and laughed his way through two very busy days. Even in reference to his attitude toward the debts in his conference with Hoover he was jovial, according to democratic congressional leaders who quoted him: "That's not my baby!" And he never lost his gusto.

So many persons have been asking just what Roosevelt said in his "off the record" address to the National Press Club, whose dinner guest he was, that your correspondent is moved to write the answer and distribute copies. After the manner of most great statesmen who talk "confidentially" to large social gatherings of newspapermen, he said nothing at all. He smiled—that devil-may-care, rollicking, captivating smile of his. He allowed it to be known that he appreciated the party and intimated that he would like to stay all night but would have to get along.

He said that he was going to talk "off the record," that it was mighty nice to be able to talk "off the record" for a change and that he hoped to be able to talk "off the record" often in the future. And he told a couple of funny stories and everybody laughed and cheered.

The president-elect was equally discreet at his formal press conferences, which nevertheless provided additional gusto.

Occasionally the governor led the crowd of correspondents in a gale of hearty, infectious laughter after a sparkling sally which deftly warded off a leading question. He had a fine wide-mouthed laugh which is in sharp contrast with President Hoover's rare chuckle, or giggle—as some call it. He was wearing a soft collar, which is much safer for the sort of laugh which Roosevelt laughs. Mr. Hoover always wears a stiff collar.

After sitting in on two or three sessions with the next president almost anyone would be convinced that in the word of the song whose music the band always plays for him, "Happy Days Are Here Again!" Roosevelt thinks so, anyway. And if gusto has anything to do with it, he's right.

WRECK OUR SCHOOLS? Is the empire of West Texas to be cut off with only one state educational institution and that one, Texas Tech—denuded of the technical subjects for which it was established to teach? That is the question which arises because of a legislative committee's program of reform being drawn for presentation to the next regular session which will open in January.

The recommendations include one that West Texas Teachers college at Canyon be donated to the citizenship to be used as a junior college. The little city of Canyon would have as much possibility of this sort of financing as of utilizing Hoover dam. The committee certainly forget its Texas geography when it assumed that students could travel all the way to A. & M. or Texas university to get their education above junior college rank.

West Texas has fought too long for a fair share of state educational appropriations to see her two institutions wrecked at this late day. It is true that there is a surplus of teachers, but Teachers college give instruction in liberal arts subject upon which any general education is based. Doubtless there is duplication which can in some instances be eliminated, such as at Depton where departments are duplicated in North Texas Teachers and Texas State College for Women. But West Texans who have for decades paid taxes to the enrichment of other parts of Texas will certainly arise to combat any curtailment of their senior colleges. Business conditions rise and fall, but the education of young West Texans must go on forever. Adjacency of colleges is even more imperative in hard times than in good ones.

Poultry Prizes For Perryton's Show Total $400

PERRYTON, Dec. 5.—Approximately $400 in prize money will be paid to the winners in the North Plains Poultry Show and 4-H club and Vocational Agriculture Exhibit to be held here on December 14 to 17, according to Guy R. Sheets, county agent of Ochiltree county and superintendent of the show. The 1932 show will be the fourth annual event staged by the North Plains Poultry association and judging from inquiries already received, will be even larger than any of its predecessors. The North Plains show at Perryton, coming as it does immediately following a number of county, district and state shows, has been fortunate in the past in securing entries from among the winners of these exhibitions who meet here for the final competition of the year. It is a case of winners meeting winners and presents a challenge to fanciers and breeders who like to enter real competition. C. C. Ward, Guthrie, Okla., licensed in A. P. A. work has been secured to judge the show again this year. Mr. Ward was judge of the 1931 show in which nearly seven hundred birds was entered. Any poultry breeder who has not already received one of the premium lists of the North Plains show may have one by addressing a request to C. W. Claybaugh, Perryton, Texas, secretary of the show.

By BYRON PRICE

(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington) An old senile custom, target of many a political shaft and bugbear of every President who has aspired to real leadership, appears today the most solid barrier in the path of President-elect Roosevelt's first effort to take charge of affairs of Washington. It is the familiar rule of unlimited senatorial debate. Without that rule there would be no question about the success of Mr. Roosevelt's plan to complete his emergency legislative program before March 4, and avoid an extra session thereafter. With that rule, the prospect of success is most dubious. What the democratic leaders will try to do at Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion, is to put through the short session a patch of appropriation bills greatly reducing expenditures, pass a beer bill, and write into law a new plan for farm relief. The house, with its strict rules limiting debate and speeding general procedure, can do it. To think that the senate will even approach such an accomplishment is to deny the evidence of a long record of senatorial delay and blockade.

Mere Chances. For debate. The appropriation bills alone, even in ordinary times, have proved about as big a grip of major legislation as the senate could handle between December and March. This year, complications attending the attempt to reduce the budget will make for extra controversy, debate and inaction. The beer bill will provide, in addition, enough oratorical ammunition to keep the senate batteries going for months. The 96 senators are not unlikely to have at least 96 different ideas about rescuing the farmer, and the rules are that no senatorial idea shall pass without expression at whatever length its proud parent may choose.

PAPER CLAIMS 'POP' WARNER IS TO RESIGN

SAYS MENTOR GOING TO COACH AT TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Examiner says it has definitely learned Glenn "Pop" Warner will resign this week as head football coach at Stanford university and sign a contract as mentor of football at Temple university, Philadelphia.

Questioned about the report this morning, the old fox said from his Palo Alto home, "An newspaper editor who has not been bothered about it," and promptly hung up the telephone.

Graduate Manager Al Masters of Stanford, who has repeatedly scouted rumors of Warner's impending resignation, reiterated the coach has not resigned.

The Examiner, however, said "he has made up his mind" and will sign a contract with the Philadelphia institution for five years or more.

While the American Legion began a special study of present laws relating to veterans and their federal benefits, Representative Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the house veterans committee, served notice his group would scrutinize closely any recommendations for reducing those allowances.

Raising Mister Cain. Certain All-Southern selections, either ignored Johnny Cain, the Alabama halfback, or placed him on the second team, and the Alabama operatives are all excited.

John Putnam of Birmingham sends along the good word on John, a very good word it is that Putnam uses. Here's a load of it: "Some of the boys who don't like to pick the four best backs out of five are responsible for the impression that Cain eliminated himself from all-star selection by injury."

Bad Knee and All. "While he was unfortunate enough to come up with a bad knee, it kept him out of only one game—and that an easy one. He played All-America football with a bad knee and you don't believe it, he watched the All-America selection who saw him in action do about it. Several of the coaches who saw Cain in action, even when he was crippled, will name him. I am sure."

All-American Stars To Play For Charity

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Three 1932 all-American football stars from the midwest have accepted invitations from Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern to play in the annual Shrine hospital benefit game at San Francisco January 2.

The All-Americans are Paul Moss of Purdue, end; Joe Mott of Notre Dame, tackle, and Harry Newman of Michigan, quarterback. Seven others have accepted bids and one more will be selected. The others are: Dick Fencil, Northwestern, end; Marshall Wells, Minnesota, tackle; Gregory Kaba, Wisconsin, guard; John Oehler, Purdue, center; Ernest (Pug) Rentner, Northwestern, a member of the 1931 All-America, and Gilbert Berry, Illinois, halfbacks, and Roy Horstmann, Purdue, fullback.

Sheep and Goat Men to Assemble

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 3. (AP)—The annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' association will be held in Del Rio on Dec. 15 and 16, it has been decided by the executive committee. The date was set at a recent meeting of the committee at Eldorado when a committee was named to draw up a resolution of protest to the San Angelo branch of the regional agriculture credit association.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—In all the pre-congress swirl of significant developments, signs that the industry, caught in the machinery of economy demands, will churn up one of the stormiest legislative seas stood out most prominently today.

While the American Legion began a special study of present laws relating to veterans and their federal benefits, Representative Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the house veterans committee, served notice his group would scrutinize closely any recommendations for reducing those allowances.

Raising Mister Cain. Certain All-Southern selections, either ignored Johnny Cain, the Alabama halfback, or placed him on the second team, and the Alabama operatives are all excited.

John Putnam of Birmingham sends along the good word on John, a very good word it is that Putnam uses. Here's a load of it: "Some of the boys who don't like to pick the four best backs out of five are responsible for the impression that Cain eliminated himself from all-star selection by injury."

Bad Knee and All. "While he was unfortunate enough to come up with a bad knee, it kept him out of only one game—and that an easy one. He played All-America football with a bad knee and you don't believe it, he watched the All-America selection who saw him in action do about it. Several of the coaches who saw Cain in action, even when he was crippled, will name him. I am sure."

All-American Stars To Play For Charity. CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Three 1932 all-American football stars from the midwest have accepted invitations from Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern to play in the annual Shrine hospital benefit game at San Francisco January 2.

The All-Americans are Paul Moss of Purdue, end; Joe Mott of Notre Dame, tackle, and Harry Newman of Michigan, quarterback. Seven others have accepted bids and one more will be selected. The others are: Dick Fencil, Northwestern, end; Marshall Wells, Minnesota, tackle; Gregory Kaba, Wisconsin, guard; John Oehler, Purdue, center; Ernest (Pug) Rentner, Northwestern, a member of the 1931 All-America, and Gilbert Berry, Illinois, halfbacks, and Roy Horstmann, Purdue, fullback.

Stagg Definitely Out at Chicago

AMES, Iowa, Dec. 5. (AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg, often called "The Grand Old Man of the Midway," will not be reappointed head football coach at the University of Chicago.

T. N. Metcalf, Iowa state athletic director who will succeed Stagg in a similar position at Chicago next fall, said yesterday following his return from the conference of Big Ten officials in Chicago that Stagg would not be reappointed.

TROJAN-NOTRE DAME SKIRMISH THIS SATURDAY

RAMBLERS REVENGEFUL AS TRIP TO WEST COMMENCES

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Through Notre Dame and Pittsburgh lies Southern California's path to the mythical national football championship.

Notre Dame at Los Angeles this Saturday, Pittsburgh in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena January 2, that's a thorny road for any team to travel through on the defense. Some can get through it without stumbling there will be few to dispute their right to retain the throne they won by force of arms last year. Not even Michigan, Colgate, two great undefeated arrays, could offer much in rebuttal in that event.

The current Trojan machine perhaps lacks some of the offensive power of the all-star 1931 eleven which spotted Notre Dame two touchdowns and then whalloped the Ramblers 15-14. But to offset this, the Ramblers have a very good defense. Some far western critics have called it one of the finest defensive elevens the game has known. So far the Trojans have won eight successive games and yielded sturdy opposition just 13 points.

The Rambler-Trojan clash is the only outstanding game on this week's schedule. Last week's program was topped by Army's conquest of the Navy, 20-0; Auburn's disastrous 20-20 stalemate with South Carolina, and Alabama's inter-sectional triumph over St. Mary's Gaels, 6-0.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—The prime pick of Notre Dame's football talent, 35 husky young men filled with a burning desire for revenge, headed westward today to meet Southern California's Trojans at Los Angeles next Saturday.

There were traces of those famous influenza cases in the party, but most of the ill and lame were on the mend, and Coach Hearty (Hunk) Anderson figured his biggest task en route, would be to remove optimism generated by the Ramblers' triumph over Army. The big break in the long trip will start Wednesday morning when the squad reaches Tucson, Arizona. The Ramblers will remain at Tucson for two days. They plan to reach Los Angeles Friday night.

He can also get rough and tough, it is reported, and that will be necessary when he crawls onto the mat with the Dutchman. If there is a dull moment during the match it will be because the maulers will be unseated by the Dutchman never did like Californians and Arthur especially. It seems that Arthur dashed the hopes of one of Mantell's proteges some years ago and the "Dutcher" has had his eye on Arthur ever since.

The old gentleman consented to return to the mat for one more match, and that to get Arthur. Pampa's redhead needs no introduction to a Pampa audience. When he is in the ring there is action all the time. The local boy is likely to get all the action he desires when he meets Ross Austin. Austin is one of the coming welterweights and is not a newcomer to the ring.

Radium Treasure Is Recovered in Ashes

of the University of Texas, the fourth shovelful of ashes taken from a San Antonio city incinerator last night gave up a one-inch brass tube containing radium valued at more than $3,000.

The tiny capsule had been inadvertently thrown in a wastebasket in the office of Dr. Dudley Jackson and had gone to the garbage wagon and the incinerator.

What Do the Reds Get? In exchange for Mr. Herman and his color which has the very practical value of packing them in, the four old Reds are in receipt of a bundle of assorted ivory chateaus. Catcher Rollie Hemsey is Exhibit A. In his five years in the majors he has been at times a very able receiver, but has been in trouble several other times in Pittsburgh and Chicago for smacking the training regulations wide open.

Just how far he will get breaking training rules under Owen Bush, who has been named 1933's victim as manager of the Reds, is definitely known in advance. The answer is nowhere at all.

ANOTHER CHARITY GAME. CLARENDON, Dec. 3. (SP)—The "Army" and "Navy" elevens, composed of business men, will clash here December 9 for sweet charity's sake under the auspices of the Lions club. Well known political figures of Texas will make their appearance in the "game."

PANTHER MEETS DUTCH MANTELL

ERNIE ARTHUR THE CANADIAN PANTHER

Dutch Mantell, the Duke of Luxembourg, is liable to pull all the hairs out of the Canadian Panther when he gets him in the ring at the Pla-Mor auditorium Wednesday night. But by the looks of the middleweight champion of Canada, the great Dutchman will have his hands full. Arthur is a rough and tough gentleman from the back woods. He learned a lot of his stuff from the French-Canadian Voyageurs and if there is anything about the grappling game those boys don't know, it is something new. The two main events will go to a finish.

DUTCH COMING BACK TO MAT TO GET HATED MIDDLEWEIGHT

Mantell Had Retired But a Chance To Meet Arthur Broke Resolution.

Pur is scheduled to fly at the Pla-Mor auditorium Wednesday night, after a few weeks of comparative quiet and idleness when the veteran and favorite, Dutch Mantell, meets Ernie Arthur of Montreal, Que., in the main event. Red Michael and Ross Austin of Baltimore are carded for the semi-final and it should be a second main event. Arthur, known as the Canadian Panther, holds the middleweight belt of Canada and has been winning over all opponents on his tour of the States. He springs at his opponent with the grace of an animal, and he knows his wrestling. He can also get rough and tough, it is reported, and that will be necessary when he crawls onto the mat with the Dutchman.

If there is a dull moment during the match it will be because the maulers will be unseated by the Dutchman never did like Californians and Arthur especially. It seems that Arthur dashed the hopes of one of Mantell's proteges some years ago and the "Dutcher" has had his eye on Arthur ever since. The old gentleman consented to return to the mat for one more match, and that to get Arthur. Pampa's redhead needs no introduction to a Pampa audience. When he is in the ring there is action all the time. The local boy is likely to get all the action he desires when he meets Ross Austin. Austin is one of the coming welterweights and is not a newcomer to the ring.

FOUR-HORNED SHEEP ARE FOUND ON THE ISLE OF MAN.

THE FOUR-HORNED SHEEP, of the Isle of Man, is known as the Loughtan, or mouse-colored sheep. These animals live on the hill-tops where the soil is very poor and consequently they are small in stature. But when put into rich pasture lands in England they increase in size. There is a tendency in the breed toward an increase in the number of horns, and sometimes there are as many as three pairs.

SHAMROCK'S FAST QUINTET PLAYS HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Harvesters To Meet Strong Irish Quintet in Second Game of Season.

The Shamrock Irishmen will invade Pampa Friday night to play the Harvesters, Coach Dicus Mitchell announced this morning after having talked to Coach Stevens at Shamrock. The Irish leader said he had a strong five built around a boy named Cherry, who was seen on the local floor last year. Shamrock has been practicing for the last three weeks and is in the best of condition. Coach Stevens stated that his boys had found their shooting eye and were dangerous already. The Harvesters defeated Shamrock by only three points in the closing game of the season last year, and the Irish have practically a letter team again this year.

Captain Robert Woodward and company showed fair ability in all departments in their opening game here. Fans are looking for the green and gold colors to go far on the courts this season. Coach Harry Kelley of the girls' team is trying to match a game with the Shamrock girls but arrangements had not been completed this morning.

ODDS AND ENDS

John Riechthoff, Sweden's Olympic heavyweight wrestling champion, has been a trial to those who sponsored his recent debut in professional circles. He almost ruined several of the country's noblest gladiators before they could extract his amateur ideas. It has been suggested they named it the Rose Bowl because they're always planting some eastern team out there.

A Chicago duck hunter proved that kindness really pays when he fought his way 400 yards through weeds and brambles to release a stray dog that was caught in a muskrat trap. Shortly thereafter he fell from the boat into the icy lake, up to his eyes. Add unusual superstitions: The Navy football eleven always pulls down the blinds when its special train passes through Baltimore. The idea being that, for some reason or other, the city is bad medicine for the Middles' chances.

Eastern critics who saw Notre Dame crush the Army are predicting the Ramblers won't be that great a team against Southern California on Dec. 10. No eleven, they say, can attain that fine fervor more than once a season. Waite Hoyt, at 33, has been given his release from three clubs of the American League and two of the National.

School Officials To Discuss Cage Schedule Today

Coaches and superintendents of schools in section 2, class B, in the Panhandle basketball league have been called to meet in the office of Supt. R. B. Fisher in the high school this afternoon.

Unless arrangements are made to allow schools without regulation gymnasiums to play scheduled games in gymnasiums at the nearest schools, about five teams will be entered in this section. Only Pampa, Amarillo, McLean, Miami, and Canadian have regulation gymnasiums in the three counties composing this section. Home and home games will be played by Feb. 4.

The winner of this sub-section will meet the winner of sub-section A in the same section before Feb. 14. All winning teams will go to Canyon for a district meet Feb. 17 and 18.

The Class A schedule for the Harvesters will be worked out later.

Hunting In 3 States Brings Death to 35

ST PAUL, Dec. 5. (AP)—Upward of 35 persons perished during the seasonal big game hunt just closed in three north central states: Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, but game authorities today said the toll was not surprisingly high considering the number of nimrods participating.

In the three states, at least 150,000 men and women tramped the woods in pursuit of deer and the total kill, based on preliminary estimates, apparently aggregated 75,000 animals.

Predominating in the cause of fatalities was the factor of one hunter mistaking another for either a deer or bear. Accidental discharges of weapons was another leading hazard.

In a rolling pin tossing contest at Turkey, Texas, Mrs. B. V. Seigler won first prize by hurling a pin of extra size 63.4.

Kelley Working To Turn Out a Clicking Sextet

Hard, steady basketball practice are on the books for the three high school teams during the week. The Harvesters will work on new plays and correct weaknesses which showed up Friday night in the opening game of the season. The girls will also be put through a week of intensive training in an effort to get a working combination.

The Harvesters should go far this year, fans believe after seeing the boys in action Friday night against the Clarendon Bulldogs. The offense is one of the strongest seen in early competition in years. The defense is practically air-tight.

He is anxious to give his plentiful work in preparation for tough season. The Harvesters plan to play the regular schedule under the new Panhandle Basketball league plan and also a schedule with Class A teams in the football district.

Coach Warren Moore will in a likelihood divide his squad this week, selecting a team of Gorilla which will play a schedule as also attend most of the tournaments. Coach Moore had 65 boys out for practice opening day.

APPLICATION DENIED. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—The federal radio commission today denied the application of radio station KGRS at Amarillo, Tex., to change from 1410 kilocycles to 1340 kilocycles. The commission observed that "it does not appear that operation on 1340 kilocycles would result in a service free from interference or would materially extend the present service area."

THAT GIFT PROBLEM SOLVED

Petit-point embroidery is engaging many Washington women this year. Most of the embroiderers are giving their friends seat and foot stool covers for chairs which they have stowed in measure at odd times.

One Washington woman is covering 48 ordinary match boxes with bright paper. All it takes is the paper, match boxes, a glue-box, and with a pencil and ruler lay out all the pieces.

The young woman who does a good deal of entertaining may be happy to receive a mulline bag to hang on her dressing table.

The fortunate woman who can turn delicious fruit cakes out of her one should be busy right now, particularly if she has any hurried apartment house dwellers on her list.

Then there are always hooked rugs. Dozens of Washington women are busy "punching" away at burlap these last few weeks in order to give away these bright, soft rugs.

Of course there will always be mothers who turn out Santa Claus by making the favorite doll a new wardrobe of clothes.

The old trick of pulling colored threads through handkerchief squares is being borrowed this year by a group that is making woolen scarves.

SANTA and the MAGIC DOLL

Chapter I. THE UGLY PINOCCHIO

Once upon a time long ago there was a very lazy Gnome who worked in Santa Claus' Toyshop near the North Pole.

He was supposed to carve out beautiful wooden soldiers and then paint their pretty red suits. But instead he played all day with the soldiers' toy guns and swords.

One day he had been particularly lazy. He hadn't carved out one single soldier. And then he suddenly saw Santa coming toward him.

Equal Pay for Women Cited as Need of Today

Equal pay for women, who are now receiving—in all occupational groups—appreciable lower wages than men doing the same work, is advanced as an important depression remedy by Henry Suzzallo, editor of the new National Encyclopedia.

"There is some important and fundamental work still to be done by the women of this country in establishing their economic equality with men," says Dr. Suzzallo.

During the earlier stages of economic development, women were primarily used in production, since men were largely occupied with warfare and the chase.

There are today more than 8,000,000 women gainfully employed in the United States.

There are 250,000 women organized in trade unions who form a nucleus which should be able to do very effective work for better wages and better working conditions.

"I'M THROUGH WITH BEING DEPRESSED!"

"FOR the past three years I have lived a horrible life. There has been nothing the matter with me except that I have been scared stiff. After three years of fright, during which none of the things I was afraid of happened, it is high time I changed and began to live like a normal human being once more.

"My salary was cut, yes, but it really wasn't very serious, and I can certainly still live pretty well, and a lot better than I have been living lately.

"In my closet there are two business suits. One is too badly worn for any man in my position to wear at all. It will go to some one who really needs it. The other I can wear when I do odd jobs around the house. I'm going to buy two new suits, and wear them on alternate days, for that's the way to get the best wear out of them. I'm going to buy an overcoat and a hat too.

"My shirts have fringes on the cuffs. My underwear is patched, and my darned socks are ugly and uncomfortable. My shoes have been half-soled, and the uppers are cracked. I am buying an entire new outfit, and my old things are going where they will do some real good. I'm going to stop being ashamed of my appearance.

"My wife needs dresses, underwear, shoes, hats, gloves. I've given her the cash to buy them with. 'Get everything you need,' I told her, 'nothing more and nothing less!'

"The living-room rug is a sight. Out it goes, and in comes a new one. The sofa needs repair and recovering. It's going to be done. We need new curtains, new napkins, new towels, even new sheets? Never again!

"My old automobile has 56,000 miles on it, and the best you can say for it is it still runs. The paint is dull and chipped, the nickel is rusty, the upholstery stained and worn threadbare, and there are enough rattles and squeaks to amuse all the babies from now to kingdom come. Every few hundred miles some annoying little repair costs me from 50 cents to $5. It nearly burnt up one night because the insulation had worn off a wire, causing a short circuit. I'm going to buy a new car because I need it and want it and because I can AFFORD it.

"My old radio still works, but I know that during the past three years there have been big improvements. The new radios sound a lot better, look better, are easier to work, and they give you more stations. There's a new radio coming to our house.

"I'm going to buy the books I have been wanting to read. I'm going to see the shows I want to see. I'm going to buy everything I need and can really afford.

"And I'm going to contribute generously to the unemployed, because, like most Americans, I want to help people in distress.

"It all comes down to this—I am going to live the kind of life I am entitled to lead. In living that life I am aiding others, directly and indirectly, to live their own lives by helping to provide them with the money and work they need.

"I'm through with being depressed in body and soul. From now on, see my smile and Watch My Dust!" (Signed) John W. S.
