GOVERNOR ADVISED OVER 50,000 TEXANS NEED RELIEF

STATE SURVEY MADE BY SAN ANTONIO MAN

SUGGESTS TRANSIENTS BE ASSISTED BY AGENCIES

REPORTS TO STERLING

DESTITUTE AREAS AND RAILWAY 'JUNGLES' ARE VISITED

AUSTIN, Dec. 31. (AP)—Maury Maverick of San Antonio, commissioned by Governor R. S. Sterling to make a survey of destitute people in the state, today reported to the chief executive that "there must be between 50,000 and 75,000 wholly destitute, shelterless, homeless people" in Texas.

Maverick said that he, accompanied by Pat Jefferson, elected to membership in the Texas house of representatives from Bexar county, and Harry Fritzel, had made a partial survey of the state.

"Our trip was by freight trains, automobiles and on foot," Maverick said.

He said they attempted to visit "all the destitute areas and railway jungles."

Maverick said he believed that of those affected "ninety per cent are good citizens who wish to work."

"They were miserable, filthy, hungry, wet, starving, cold, and living in the absolute lowest depths that human being can exist."

"I found that approximately 25 per cent of them were boys, and girls, of which I would say 15 per cent were unattached boys between the ages of 11 and 19, and 10 per cent women and small children."

Speaks For Transients.
Maverick said that "the various relief agencies attempt to obtain in the vicinity of all railroad yards, vacant buildings, or other shelter, and some amount of food, including milk for children."

"In order that no particular locality shall get too large portions, the movement should be state-wide, and it should be understood that those communities receiving reconstruction finance corporation money shall provide for the transient population," Maverick said.

He recommended that "you request that the relief agencies adopt a policy of 'showing down' the transient population by treating them with sympathetic help; that the policy of casting off the transient population by the police be abandoned, as it does not relieve the situation either for the people in a given locality or for the transient."

Ben Arcadia and Murray Freundlich will visit friends in Amarillo today.

KEILEY TALKS TO FAMED SCOT IN SWEETWATER

Lauder Threatens To 'Sue' School Teacher

Harry Kelley, teacher at the high school and a well known entertainer and mimic, had an experience in the depot at Sweetwater Friday noon while en route to Pampa from a vacation in Sylvester, that he will always remember. It seems that Harry had 35 minutes to wait for his train so he sat down beside an elderly man who soon started a conversation.

He was Scotch, oh so Scotch, Harry remembered after but it was several minutes before Harry caught on that he was talking to the one and only Harry Lauders. The great singer and comedian was dressed in full clan regalia but his great coat covered his clothing. The Scot talked to Harry until train time but in between jokes and reveries, he had time to entertain a large crowd.

FRONTIER DAY PROJECT WON BIG ACCLAIM

OPENING OF RAILROAD BROUGHT STERLING AND TERRELL

REID'S DEATH MOURNED

ELECTIONS HELD AN INTENSE LOCAL INTEREST

By OLIN E. HINKLE.
Big news was brought to Pampa and community by 1932 news made by big names and by outstanding events. Well organized, the community handled its opportunities fittingly, discharged its responsibilities efficiently in proportion to its resources.

Two events brought the city extraordinary good will and publicity: 1. Pampa Frontier Days celebration of May 26, 27, and 28; 2. Formal opening of the Fort Worth & Denver's Childress-Pampa branch July 15.

Frontier Days, which developed from suggestions of the "PAMPA" column of THE NEWS, brought an unprecedented gathering of oldtimers and first class rodeo stars. Cj-maxed by a great barbecue, the celebration was pronounced an unusual success in its first year.

Opening of the Fort Worth & Denver railroad made history as a special train from Pampa was operated to Childress where it was joined by another special bringing hundreds of trippers to this city. Governor Ross Sterling and Railroad Commissioner C. V. Terrell rode the first train and worked in the interest of their candidates. Ralph Budd, president of the Burlington system, made the trip and spoke in appreciation of the work of the Pampa B. C. D. and community.

Rails had been laid into Pampa on June 14 and the first paid freight handled on June 29.

Much Welfare Work.
Pampa's greatest work of the year was in handling welfare cases which grew out of unemployment. Pampa's most sustained interest was in politics, the first primary of July 23, the second primary of August 27, and the general election of November 8. Earlier in the year, Mayor W. A. Bratton and Commissioners Clyde F. Fatheree and R. Earl O'Keefe were placed at the head of the city government in the election of April 5. Panhandle bankers met here June 13.

A date which will be remembered (See YEAR 1932, Page 2.)

The election is over after a stirring shower of ballots Friday and Saturday and the PAMPA CIVIC ALL STARS of 1932 have been named by straw vote.

First was the "primary" with the high ten nominees entering the "general" election which closed last night. When the judges finished their tabulations of the close races they announced that the upper five in the standing were the following: C. H. WALKER, ALEX SCHNEIDER, MRS. V. E. FATHEREE, I. BAUM, A. G. (Pete) POST.

HOPE GIVEN WINNIE JUDD

Grand Jury Recommends Her Life Be Spared After Halloran Is Indicted.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Dec. 31. (AP)—Winnie Ruth Judd, awaiting execution in the state prison here, found new hope for life today in the form of a recommendation by the grand jury at Phoenix that her life be spared. She is under sentence to hang for the killing of Agnes Anne Lerol.

Announcement by the grand jury yesterday that it had indicted J. J. Halloran, lumberman and sportsman, as an accessory to the crime of murder in connection with the Judd case, inspired Mrs. Judd today to tell Warden William Delbridge she would be willing to testify at his preliminary hearing next Tuesday.

The warden said Mrs. Judd appeared "greatly pleased" when informed of the steps taken by the grand jury to free her from her sentence of death through the state board of pardons and paroles. The grand jury which heard testimony from Mrs. Judd and two days later indicted Halloran as a benefactor of the young blond after she had killed Mrs. Lerol and Hedvig Samuelson in October, 1931, suggested her sentence should be reduced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Judd, who has been sentenced to die February 17 and whose efforts to obtain a new trial have failed before the Arizona courts, was tried only for the murder of Mrs. Lerol. The Samuelson charge still remains.

Caliche Can Be Laid on 33 in 18 Working Days

Only 18 more working days will be needed to complete the placing of caliche on highway 33 east to the Roberts county line.

The work has been delayed since December 7 by cold, snow, and the holiday observances. All but the last four miles of the project has received the second layer of caliche. Most of the road is open to traffic and all will be traveled as soon as the rest of the caliche is laid.

The work is being done by the firm of Copeke & Braden.

MARKET DEMAND FOR GAS IN WEST PANHANDLE FIELD SET AT 300,000,000 CUBIC FEET

PRODUCERS ARE GIVEN ORDERS TODAY TO PARTICIPATE

GAS WASTAGE REDUCED

FIELD IS UNITIZED ON BASIS 160-ACRE TRACTS

AUSTIN, Dec. 31. (AP)—The Texas Railroad commission tonight issued an order setting the market demand for gas from the west Panhandle gas field at 300,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily and providing that all producers participate in the market outlet.

The allowable will become effective at 7 a. m. tomorrow and will continue until 7 a. m. February 1 at which time it will be adjusted to meet the market demand prevailing on that date.

The order would apply to gas wells only. Market demand would be determined by the field supervisors of the commission.

Certain operators have complained to the commission for months that there were unable to obtain a share in the market outlet for the natural gas from the Panhandle. The commission attempted to shut in the field until all operators could be given outlets but a three-judge federal court held the order invalid on the ground the commission had exceeded its authority.

The deputy supervisors were ordered to allot to each producing unit, or fraction thereof, its pro-rata share of the allowable production or market demand.

For the purposes of the order, the field was unitized on the basis of 160-acre tracts. One-half the allowable would be based on the potential capacity of the well and the other half on a formula which would take into consideration acreage and pressure.

The commission today had issued an order designed to reduce the wastage of gas in the production of oil in the Panhandle field by 200,000,000 cubic feet daily.

Sour Gas Regulated

Use of the sour gas by casing-head gasoline and carbon black plants was provided for by the order. Ernest O. Thompson, member of the commission, indicated several applications for permits to use sour gas in carbon black plants would be granted, thus providing owners of wells with sour gas production with a market outlet.

Landing Field Will Be Moved To Wills Site

The federal emergency landing field now located 5 miles north of Pampa will be moved to the Will Wilks land adjoining the city on the northeast. The approval of the land was made Friday afternoon by telegram and the approved copy of the lease will be forwarded within the next two weeks, according to the message.

The new field will be irregular in shape but will have take-offs in every direction ranging from 3,500 feet to 4,400 feet. The field will be located directly north of the Pampa airport. It will take in the driving course, part of the fairway on hole No. 1 and the green on hole No. 9 of the Red Deer Golf course.

Lights and beacon tower will be removed from the north location sometime this spring, it is believed.

In the OIL FIELDS

There was little or no excitement in the Panhandle field during the week, and everyone appeared waiting on the railroad commission's rulings following a state-wide hearing which ended late yesterday afternoon. Gas and oil schedules were expected to be changed and new schedules ordered.

No completions were reported during the week, but the Mazda Oil company's No. 2 Combs-Worley in section 35, block 3, encountered pay that appeared good for more than 500 barrels a day.

Three locations were made in Gray county last week. Teh Cantone Oil company (Admas, Prince and Thorpe) made a location to drill in the northeast corner of the north half of the southeast quarter of section 15, block A-9, east of LeFors. In the same block the Texas company has a rig up for its No. 1 Gettings in the southwest corner of the south half of section 47, block A-9. The other location was the Mazda-Shell No. 4 Combs-Worley in the northeast corner of section 35, block 3, southeast of Pampa.

The Panhandle production increased only 312 barrels daily last week. Gray county's output was down 901 barrels despite the fact that two wells were on test. Daily production however, is still over the allowable.

Johnson Building Chosen for Show

Pampa's poultry show of January 12-21 will be held in the Johnson building on West Foster avenue, it was announced Saturday. The space formerly was occupied by Pampa Furniture company.

A long list of merchandise prizes is expected to attract a large number of exhibitors. The judge will be R. E. Callaway of the Hardeeman-King company of Amarillo.

Mrs. C. J. Kennedy was admitted to Pampa hospital Friday afternoon.

Monday Will Be Observed As Holiday

Many Pampa business institutions will be closed tomorrow in observance of the New Year.

Just as Christmas was observed last Monday, so will the advent of the new year be duly noticed tomorrow. A majority of the business firms indicated intent to close, although some managers had not definitely made up their minds.

The bank and the postoffice windows also will be closed for the day. The NEWS, however, will print a paper as usual.

SHERIFF HAS SOLVED EVERY MAJOR OFFENSE

Over 150 Gallons Of Liquor Are Poured Into Sewer

Liquor held as evidence in scores of raids and seizures in recent months was destroyed by Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet and other officers Saturday on order of District Judge W. R. Ewms.

More than 150 gallons of whiskey, gin, champagne, and other liquors was pumped into the sewer, along with hundreds of bottles of beer. Some beer bottles were broken when the deputies grew weary of uncapping them.

Destruction of the liquor was one of the last official tasks before Sheriff Blanscet, who Monday will conclude his two-year term as Sheriff-Elect C. E. (Tiny) Pipes takes the oath of office. Deputy Floyd Archer and Mr. Blanscet will need a few more days to complete the annual report. Although public officials usually take office January 1, there is a one-day delay this time because January 1 falls on Sunday.

Although his tenure is shown by the records to have been unprofitable to him, his service to the county includes the solution of virtually every major offense. Soon after he took office, bank robberies in this section and other felonies required that he work almost day and night. In these investigations and in co-operating with other officers of the Panhandle, Sheriff Blanscet won high praise. He and his assistants were particularly shrewd in making arrests and obtaining evidence on the lightest of clues. Many offenders are in the state prison and others are in the county jail.

Sheriff Blanscet leaves no un-solved homicide. Only a few night burglaries and a hijacking or two remain unsolved, and officers are in possession of evidence on which suspects will be arrested when found.

Stories Conflict
Noland was a hated enemy of the Kimes as a result of an alleged illicit love affair with Nellie Kimes, who is 23. The brothers swore vengeance against Noland after he had allegedly snuck and wounded Nellie. They had spent the last two days in the company of the guards, to visit Nellie in Anadarko, in western Oklahoma, where she was recovering from a pistol wound in the face, and to attend the funeral of another sister, Mrs. G. H. Hatton, the victim of illness.

The guards, after depositing the brothers in the prison tonight, were ordered to return to Seminole immediately for questioning by Pession and the warden.

Meanwhile, officers here investigated numerous stories of the brothers roaming Seminole streets at large during the day, drinking liquor in speakeasies, with the guards nowhere near.

The rendezvous was rumored to have come about after Nellie pretended to "make up" with Noland and promise to meet him again in the house where they previously had lived together. It was at this house the killing occurred.

Other field allowable remained the same as follows: Raccoon Bend 4,500; High Island 6,500 in the Gulf Coast field; Panhandle 43,500; North Texas 50,000; West Central Texas 27,500; Winkler 25,000; Crane Upton 12,000; Duval 6,775; Salt Flat 6,500; Howard-Glasscock 14,000; Estor 14,000; Reagan county 20,000; Darst Creek 14,000; Cross Creek 2,200; Hull 5,500; Huggins 5,125; Pettis 3,300; Pierce 4,700; Refugio 7,700; Spivey 7,700.

OFFICERS AND PAIR JOIN IN HIDEOUT RAID

GEORGE NOLAND SLAIN IN MYSTERIOUS ENCOUNTER

CONVICTS ARE ON PAROLE

SISTER CLAIMS NOLAND SHOT HER IN FACE RECENTLY

SEMINOLE, Okla., Dec. 31. (AP)—A tangled story of love and hate in the world of Oklahoma bank robbers and killers and unraveled slowly here tonight as officers sought details of a new slaying.

At least three members of a clan whose menfolk ranked high among the state's public enemies, the Kimes family, played a part in this outbreak of violence, which took the life of a George Noland, an escaped convict.

Noland was shot down at the door of a house here where he apparently awaited a rendezvous with Nellie Kimes, sister of George and Matt Kimes, her brothers who are serving life sentences for robbery and murder.

Mystery entered the picture here, with county officers and the warden of the state penitentiary seeking to learn whether Noland was killed by the two brothers or by two guards in whose charge the brothers were being transported across the state.

The guards, W. C. Turner and Atwood Thompson, reported by telephone to Warden Sam Brown, after the shooting, saying only, "we have a dead convict here for you," and returned the Kimes boys to the penitentiary, at McAlester.

County Attorney Otis Pession, hearing conflicting stories from witnesses after the shooting, called Warden Brown, and the latter came to Seminole tonight to aid in the investigation to determine whether the actual shooting was done by the guards or by the Kimes brothers.

Noland was a hated enemy of the Kimes as a result of an alleged illicit love affair with Nellie Kimes, who is 23. The brothers swore vengeance against Noland after he had allegedly snuck and wounded Nellie. They had spent the last two days in the company of the guards, to visit Nellie in Anadarko, in western Oklahoma, where she was recovering from a pistol wound in the face, and to attend the funeral of another sister, Mrs. G. HUMAN ADJUSTMENTS: Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.—Phillipians 2:4.

Measured Optimism: Confident in the stability and steady progress of Pampa, this writer is glad that he is not expected to make all manner of bright predictions for the country generally.

On Technocracy: The word of the hour is technocracy. As a statement of difficult employment conditions, we can commend it. Engineers and inventors have produced machinery, and it is well that they take thought of the result of their genius.

We are not inclined to condemn the machine. It has lifted burdens from the backs of human slaves. It represents the genius of man. It has diffused comforts which otherwise would have been impossible.

The Other Side: Yet do not misunderstand us. Human comforts should not be wholly determined by the supply and demand of labor. Some way must be found to distribute the benefits of machinery, to distribute the leisure hours without producing unemployment.

Readers of the Bible know the facts of the Sabbatical seventh year, when the Israelites shared the fruits of the previous six years. No crops were planted in this seventh year, and there was no spinning. Jewish economy called for a year of rest for man, beast, and soil.

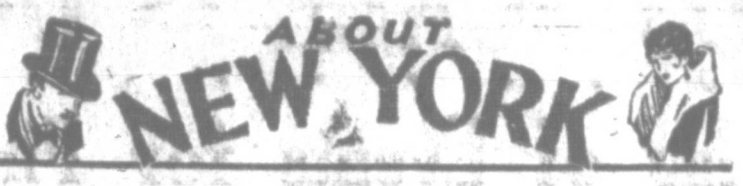

Our Sundays represent a rest theory too often dissociated from its practical as well as religious significance. We force longer "rests" on many persons who have no advance notice, no six years in which to prepare. And recently the year of rest has stretched into longer unemployment.

Normalcy No Solution: It is idle to wait for "normalcy" to correct unemployment. The need for reduction of overhead to meet taxes, interest, and other fixed charges will result in even greater demand for machinery. In the boot and shoe industry, according to the New York Times, 100 machines have replaced 25,000 men.

On Fixed Charges: Before employers, even with machinery, can more generally distribute profits to employees, certain heavy taxes and sources of fixed operating costs must be lessened. We find local budgets, about which there is much dissatisfaction. We must remember that you cannot economize in paying interest and principal on large bonded indebtedness.

Similarly, we find the federal government with fixed charges which cannot be escaped. Did you know that of the federal budget of $1 1/2 billions for the next fiscal year, $2,200,000,000 is directly due to war? Of this, $1,260,000,000 is in interest and sinking fund on the public debt and $931,000,000 is for veterans. Of the remainder, subtract expenditures of $584,000,000 for the army and navy. Take out $141,000,000 for public works and $67,000,000 for the postal deficit. After deducting all fixed costs, President Roosevelt will find only $545,000,000 on the operations budget and every section fighting for its share of this.

The shah of Persia wants to sell his throne and calls it a bargain at $20,000,000. With a little dickering it probably could be bought on easy terms, say around $10,000,000 down and maybe a half million a month.

ABOUT NEW YORK

NEW YORK—Visitors to Chinatown who stop to think at all about what they see and don't see always ask the same question: "Aren't there any women down here?"

There are very few Chinese women in Chinatown. A liberal estimate of their number is 250, and the chances are 50-50 that the visitor won't get a glimpse of a single one of them in his sight-seeing rush. Most out-of-towners make a night dash through the few blocks that constitute New York's Chinatown. And the women are not to be seen on the narrow, snake-like streets at night. Until recently they were seldom seen on the streets by day.

Modern influences have brought the activities of Chinatown's women into the daylight—but only to a limited extent. As a group they have taken some part in the work to relieve victims of clashes with Japanese troops. As individuals they have come out of their seclusion to do the family marketing—hitherto left to their husbands. But it's a rare sight to find a Chinese woman so much as dining in one of the restaurants of the area after nightfall.

It is doubtful that a thousand Chinese women could be counted in all of the city. In the census of 1939, only 8,414 Chinese of both sexes could be accounted for in all New York. The men prevail in about an eight to one ratio.

Chinatown Today: That part of our little Chinatown which is open to the stranger offers some novelty but small chance for thrills. The novelty is confined to a few shops dealing in curios and strange foods, the bulletin board of a Chinese-language newspaper, Joss houses and restaurants which, after all, are pretty much like Chinese restaurants uptown.

An for thrills there's always a faint—very faint—possibility that a tong war might break out under the visitor's nose. Nobody can tell when these infrequent bloody parties are coming off, or whether they'll ever come off any more.

Then there are some forbidding doorways that seem to hold some promise of a movie version of Chinatown inside—but, stranger, I'll lay you 100 to 1 that you won't see behind those doors.

The denizens you'll see are content to mind their own affairs and have you mind yours—unless, of course, you want to buy a back-scratcher or a package of tea. Leading citizens cherish their respectability and are quick to resent an affront upon it. Not so long ago a motion picture was being made, showing different phases of New York police work. The mistake was made of including a raid on a Chinatown dope den, and New York officialdom had to apologize to Chinatown for suggesting that such things happen.

Redress For Debt?: All I know about it is what I hear from Kiviette, the costumer, but she is convinced that the war debt situation has done something to the women who pay big money for their clothes.

Some of those who preferred the output of Paris salons are not so much inclined that way since all the uproar about the debts, says Kiviette. She finds ritz New York women giving more patronage to American designers.

BY HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—It will be interesting to observe in the months following March 4 just what John N. Garner will do with his new job of vice-president and-pretending officer of the senate.

Everything in "Cactus Jack's" almost 30 years as a national figure would seem to indicate that it would be hard for him to make of the vice-presidency the rather tame sort of affair that his predecessors, perhaps of necessity, have made it.

He seems not the type. To use his own expression, he's never happier when he's "hellgobbling"—as he defines it—ravishing his political opponents.

Dawes Tried It: The only vice-president in recent times who has attempted anything like that was Charles G. Dawes. But the senate promptly and effectively squelched him.

Garner, probably, is too well versed in the senate's ways of doing things to attempt with that body what even remotely resembles a departure from the traditional and ordered way. Fifteen terms in congress, even if spent on the other side of the capitol, have taught him much about that subject.

Some observers profess to see in the fact that when Governor Roosevelt came to the capital some weeks ago to talk over the war debt situation with President Hoover, and Garner boarded the train at Baltimore and was later summoned to the governor's hotel for a conference around midnight, that the vice-president-elect was destined for an entirely new role in the coming administration.

But it must be remembered that Garner is still speaker of the house. Whoever held that job during Roosevelt's visit would most certainly have been called in for consultation on a problem which in the last analysis must be handled by congress.

A New Role, Maybe

It may be that Garner will find his outlet in acting as a soft of contact man between the White House and congress. President Hoover found it advisable to have such a man in Walter Newton, a former member of the house from Minnesota. Newton is one of the Hoover secretariat with the title of legislative secretary.

Garner's immediate predecessor, Charles Curtis, however, has had congressional experience that rivals his, yet the president hasn't often openly called on him for such duty.

Practically no one has advanced the idea that Jimmy Walker might try collecting France's war debt payment while he sojourns on the Riviera.

Roosevelt soon will be the new "man of a thousand faces." Just watch the headlines: Roosevelt faces debt crisis. Roosevelt faces farm aid clash. Roosevelt faces split over beer. Roosevelt faces, etc., etc., etc.

Joseph Oklombi, one of America's great war heroes, finds himself jobless and applies for veteran's compensation for wounds. The fact that he waited 14 years should rank him as one of America's great peace heroes.

CONFESSIONS OF THE POWER TRUST BY CARL D. THOMPSON. In as lively and romantic a story as has yet been written about our modern business, Carl D. Thompson, secretary of the Public Ownership League of America, and author of "CONFESSIONS OF THE POWER TRUST," just published by E. P. Dutton and company, draws on the actual investigations of the federal trade commission for the data and structural details of perhaps the first comprehensive lay picture of our big utilities organizations.

Mr. Thompson's story is a verified record of the rise and spread of the public utility business in the United States in which utility officials tell their own story. Primarily, Mr. Thompson's book is a record; he had done a service to the public in summarizing a mass of data uncovered at recent hearings before the federal trade commission. He is no propagandist; but an historian as well as among lay readers.

JANET AYEY FAIRBANK Author of "The Bright Land" Janet Ayer Fairbank combines amazing energy with shrewd intelligence. It has been rightfully said that she is one of the busiest and most influential women in Chicago, where she is a moving factor in the social, political and literary life of the city. A daughter of the late Benjamin F. Ayer, she is the sister of Margaret Ayer Barnes, Pulitzer prize winner, the dedication of whose novel, "Westward Passage," reads: "To J. A. F. Who Blazed the Trail." Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, as she is generally known, has blazed many trails, and as far back as 1910 wrote her first book, "In Town." Twelve years elapsed before her next, "The Courtlandts of Washington Square," which established her as an important novelist. "The Smiths" was runner-up for the Pulitzer prize the year the award was refused by Sinclair Lewis. "Idle Hands," a collection of short stories, was followed by "The Lion's Den," a story of diplomatic Washington. "The Bright Land," published December 15, is by far the most ambitious piece of work she has undertaken, covering in point of time the period from Andrew Jackson's presidency down through the civil war and the years of reconstruction.

Following a five weeks' lecture tour of the United States, John Drinkwater has just returned to London. After the holidays, he expects to visit Egypt, but plans to be again in England at the time of the production of his play, "Laying the Devil." Mr. Drinkwater's new volume of biographical reminiscences, "Discovery," is to be published by Houghton Mifflin company in February.

R. N. Linscott's omnibus of American humor, "Comic Relief" (Houghton Mifflin company) is a recent selection of the Laugh club, an organization which purveys to its members books that are guaranteed to take their minds off the depressing and other unpleasant subjects. Among the authors whose work appears in the Omnibus are Donald Ogden Stewart, Robert Benchley, Ring Lardner, Corey Ford, Dorothy Parker, James Thurber, Frank Sullivan, Stephen Leacock, and Don Marquis.

My Beauty Hint

MYRNA LOY (Screen Actress)

The tendency of the younger set to apply too lavish a make-up is doubly regrettable because usually they need no such facial covering. Youthful faces are colorful enough without its aid.

Many girls also seem to ignore their own color types and apply shades that fail to blend with their natural attributes.

For instance, eyelashes and brows should be brown for the lighter eyes and black for the darker eyes. Eye shading for light eyes should be gray, and brown for the dark ones.

BARGAIN PARTY TO BE UNIQUE EVENT OF WEEK

January Bargain party, admission 49 cents, will be given sometime during the coming week under the auspices of the club room furnishing committee. It will be held in the city hall club room, which is soon to be furnished by the various clubs of Pampa. Mrs. J. M. Dodson is chairman of the committee in charge.

The date of the party and other details will be decided upon at a meeting of the committee Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the club room. Tickets are selling rapidly.

Those making donations are the Texas Furniture, Pampe Hardware, Pampa Office Supply, M-System No. 1, City Drug, Fox Paint and Wallpaper, Murfee's, United Dry Goods, Violet Shoppe, Gray County Creamery, and others.

Second Birthday Is Occasion of Party

Charles Barry Fenberg, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Fenberg, entertained a few of his little friends with a party on his birthday Thursday afternoon.

Various games were played and refreshments were served to the following children: Andy Gerhard, Annette Soodhalter, Charles Benson, Barbara Studer, Charles Jerry Peake, Jay Darrell Fenberg, Kiki Lamarr, and the young host. Kiki entertained the group with songs and readings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Schroeder returned last evening after a week's visit in Burkbeert.

CARD FROM INDIA RECEIVED BY MISS VINCENT; MESSAGE GIVEN

A hand-made Christmas card from India—and with it an account of a missionary's experiences! That was one of the most treasured messages received this year by Miss Kathryn Vincent. It was from Miss Mildred Hoffmeister of the A. P. mission, Ludhiana, Punjab, India. Miss Hoffmeister and Miss Vincent were friends in Texas Women's college.

Part of her part, follows: "Yes, a missionary's life is a busy one. I can truly speak for the new missionaries from personal experience. I have neglected many of my friends lately because of the rush of getting settled in my new environment. Here are some of the things I have been doing for the past two weeks: I have been supervising the repainting of part of an old house which is to be my kindergarten. There is one large room in which I will hold some of my classes, a small room which will be used as a library and quiet room, a bathroom, a large room for general work, such as carpentry, playing hours, etc.—a back porch for sand work, and a large porch for anything we might want to do for our gardens. The walls are being done in cream and the woodwork in brown. Our curtains are to be a bright orange. Just in front of our place is a large tree which makes a nice shady place for us to play. At one side a place is being plowed for a garden. The way we think we have a nice place in which to work and play?"

"Tomorrow afternoon I am going visiting the different members of our community to present my kindergarten to mothers of small children in the hope of getting some of the small darlings. As you know, kindergarten is a new thing in India.

"Then I have a class of boys between the ages of 15 and 17 for

PAMPA MAN IS TO MARRY GIRL OF WHITE DEER

ENGAGEMENT OF W. B. HOOVER, LULA MAE BRADY LEARNED

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Malone and children, Charlotte Rhea and Leroy, attended the wedding of Mrs. Malone's sister, Miss Fern Elizabeth Tolleson, to O. L. Taylor of Fort Worth, yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock in Amarillo. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Tolleson, 810 Madison. Dr. Yates of the First Baptist church of Amarillo officiated.

The couple will reside in Fort Worth following a honeymoon trip to Galveston and South Texas. Mr. Taylor is connected with W. T. C. at Fort Worth, and was formerly associated with the Amarillo Tri-State fair and the Amarillo News-Globe.

The bride formerly taught music in Pampa for a year, and has many friends here.

Auxiliary Will Be Very Active

A wide variety of activities which will provide work of interest for all members is being planned by Pampa Unit of the American Legion auxiliary for 1933. Activities of the unit will cover a wide scope during the year, according to Mrs. W. C. de Cordova, president, and members will have opportunity to take part in the phases of the work of special interest to them.

"The local unit of the auxiliary has always endeavored to be a real auxiliary, a means of working effectively in civic, welfare and patriotic projects," Mrs. de Cordova said. "During the year ahead we feel that there will be increased need for the type of work which our unit does, and increased opportunity for members to do worthwhile work through the unit."

"While the auxiliary has many interesting social activities, it is much more than a social organization. It is an organization for patriotic service which gives its members a means of expressing their devotion to America and American ideals through concrete work for the welfare and progress of the community and the nation."

The auxiliary's program for 1933 will include activities for the relief and rehabilitation of the disabled veterans, their families and the dependents of the dead; cooperation in general relief activities; work for better international understanding through the Fedac, the interrelated veterans' federation, promoting the security of America by work for maintenance of adequate national defenses, and activities to promote understanding of an loyalty to American ideals and institutions.

The Pampa unit has opened enrollment for 1933 and has invited all eligible women not members this year to come into the organization for 1933.

Women Are To Be Honored by Men

Women of the First Presbyterian church will be guests of the Men's Brotherhood at a banquet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Strange as it seems, the men will prepare and serve the meal and present a varied program.

Dolls Brought To Party on Thursday

Children brought their favorite dolls to the birthday party given by Mrs. Ova White Thursday afternoon for her little daughter, Janie Wade, age 7.

A cake topped with candles was the center of interest at a pretty party with table, and bags of Christmas candy were given as favors. Refreshments included angel food cake and chocolate with marshmallows. Many gifts were given by the honoree.

Party Given for La Noche Members

La Noche club met Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shaw for a series of bridge games.

High score prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Greene; low, Mr. and Mrs. John Weeks. Refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, fruit cake, and whipped cream were served.

The following attended: Messrs. Rittenhouse, Earl Scheig, Ralph Rittenhouse, John Weeks, E. H. Masey, and G. L. Greene.

BABIES BORN IN WINTER NEED INDOOR SUN BATHS

Babies born in the fall or winter should be given long indoor sun baths throughout the winter, the U. S. Children's Bureau says. In the temperate zones, especially in fall and winter, the sunlight must be supplemented with cod-liver oil, which is known as "bottled sunshine."

As the audience assembled, Miss Dorothy Mae Meers played violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Wilson at the piano. The program included talks by Mr. Wilson on the church's responsibility to the Scott's, Chris. B. Martin on reminiscences of the summer camp, J. W. Martin on plans for the round-up February 14, and C. A. Clark on the 10-year plan of Scouting. Paul D. Hill, scoutmaster and toastmaster, told of his pleasure in working with the boys and praised his assistant, Earl Goodwin, who succeeded him as scoutmaster.

LINOLEUM SHOULD BE WARM BEFORE IT IS PUT DOWN

When laying a linoleum floor covering in cold weather, place it in a warm room for at least 48 hours before it is unrolled. If this precaution is not taken linoleum is likely to crack since cold makes it brittle.

When cooking cranberries use a wooden spoon to prevent discoloration in the berries. An emulsified pan is suggested for use in the cooking.

Auxiliary Will Be Very Active

A wide variety of activities which will provide work of interest for all members is being planned by Pampa Unit of the American Legion auxiliary for 1933. Activities of the unit will cover a wide scope during the year, according to Mrs. W. C. de Cordova, president, and members will have opportunity to take part in the phases of the work of special interest to them.

"The local unit of the auxiliary has always endeavored to be a real auxiliary, a means of working effectively in civic, welfare and patriotic projects," Mrs. de Cordova said. "During the year ahead we feel that there will be increased need for the type of work which our unit does, and increased opportunity for members to do worthwhile work through the unit."

"While the auxiliary has many interesting social activities, it is much more than a social organization. It is an organization for patriotic service which gives its members a means of expressing their devotion to America and American ideals through concrete work for the welfare and progress of the community and the nation."

The auxiliary's program for 1933 will include activities for the relief and rehabilitation of the disabled veterans, their families and the dependents of the dead; cooperation in general relief activities; work for better international understanding through the Fedac, the interrelated veterans' federation, promoting the security of America by work for maintenance of adequate national defenses, and activities to promote understanding of an loyalty to American ideals and institutions.

The Pampa unit has opened enrollment for 1933 and has invited all eligible women not members this year to come into the organization for 1933.

BABIES BORN IN WINTER NEED INDOOR SUN BATHS

Babies born in the fall or winter should be given long indoor sun baths throughout the winter, the U. S. Children's Bureau says. In the temperate zones, especially in fall and winter, the sunlight must be supplemented with cod-liver oil, which is known as "bottled sunshine."

As the audience assembled, Miss Dorothy Mae Meers played violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Wilson at the piano. The program included talks by Mr. Wilson on the church's responsibility to the Scott's, Chris. B. Martin on reminiscences of the summer camp, J. W. Martin on plans for the round-up February 14, and C. A. Clark on the 10-year plan of Scouting. Paul D. Hill, scoutmaster and toastmaster, told of his pleasure in working with the boys and praised his assistant, Earl Goodwin, who succeeded him as scoutmaster.

LINOLEUM SHOULD BE WARM BEFORE IT IS PUT DOWN

When laying a linoleum floor covering in cold weather, place it in a warm room for at least 48 hours before it is unrolled. If this precaution is not taken linoleum is likely to crack since cold makes it brittle.

Printing of Your Party Is Courtesy To Those Present

For your party to appear on the women's pages of the NEWS is a distinct courtesy to your guests. They look for accounts of all functions, large or small, which they attend, and they should not be disappointed.

Occasionally a hostess will wait for the newspaper to request an account of her party before she gives the information. She makes the mistake of assuming the paper knows she gave the party and of forgetting that the courtesy is to her guests as well as to the newspaper.

News for a week-day paper should be submitted not later than 10:30 a. m. on the day of publication, and for Sunday's edition, not later than 2 p. m. Saturday.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET IS GIVEN BY BOY SCOUTS BY THEIR MOTHERS

Boy Scout troop No. 4 of the First Christian church, scoutmasters, troop committeemen, and dads of the boys had a particularly enjoyable time Friday evening at a fourth anniversary banquet given the boys by the Mothers' auxiliary of the troop.

As the group entered the dining hall of the church, candles on four large cakes were lighted. Prayer was said by the Rev. F. W. O'Malley. Then the boys blew out the candles and the lights were turned on. The food naturally attracted the boys' attention and included chicken a la king on toast, creamed potatoes, green beans, hot rolls and jelly, fruit salad with whipped cream, cake and coffee.

As the audience assembled, Miss Dorothy Mae Meers played violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Wilson at the piano. The program included talks by Mr. Wilson on the church's responsibility to the Scott's, Chris. B. Martin on reminiscences of the summer camp, J. W. CULTURAL ACTIVITIES ALSO AMONG ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF PAMPA GROUPS IN YEAR 1932

MORE ORGANIZATIONS EXIST NOW THAN EVER BEFORE; ALL SHOW WILLINGNESS TO AID IN COMMUNITY PROBLEMS

By HOLLYCE SELLERS HINKLE

Pampa women have had no small part in the betterment of the city during the year 1932. Although their activities have been varied, there has been one tremendous service common to all—charity.

Never before have there been so many organizations in Pampa as there were during the last year, and never before have all rallied with such enthusiasm to aid in charitable undertakings.

Women have, during the last year, scores of charity deeds to their credit, but two rise in importance above all the rest: the community Christmas tree, at which toys and confections were provided for 425 needy youngsters, and the converting of 3,500 yards of Red Cross material into warm, useful garments for less fortunate men, women, and children.

NO DEPRESSION SEEN IN CULTURAL WORK

Depression or no depression, cultural activities in Pampa go forward, and these activities during 1932 have been chiefly through efforts of women's clubs. These clubs measure their value not in terms of dollars and cents but in terms of knowledge, friendship, cultural entertainment, and other mental, as much as physical, qualities.

Perhaps the most important step taken by the clubs during the last year was the organization of a city federation through which all during the coming year may work together for common good. One of the first of the united efforts during 1933 will be the furnishing of the club room at the city hall.

Among other cultural club activities during the year were the organization of the Treble Clef club which has provided valuable entertainment during recent months, the formation of the Piano Symphony, the organization by the Arno Art club of the Pampa Garden club, the change in the Wayside home demonstration club into the Civic Culture club, a study group.

Epic of Human Misery to Open La Nora Second Anniversary Week

THEATER WILL HAVE CLASSIC FILM PROGRAM

FAIRBANKS EXCELLENT IN PICTURE AT REX NOW

LaNora theater, which last night saw the new year arrive amid a rollicking pretense, today opens its second anniversary week program.

Headlining the week is Paul Muni and a strong supporting cast in the startling picture, "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang." Because this autobiography of Robert E. Burns is real—a page from an actual experience—it has held national attention apart from the coincidental showing of the film.

The local theater program of the week follows:

LaNORA—Today, Monday, and Tuesday, "Paul Muni in 'I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang,'" Wednesday and Thursday, Ramon Novarro and Helen Hayes in "Sun-Down," Friday and Saturday, William Haines in "Peak Life."

REX—Today, Monday, and Tuesday, Doug Fairbanks Jr. and Nancy Carroll in "Scarlet Dawn;" Wednesday and Thursday, Sydney Fox and Eric Linden in "Ariadne;" Friday and Saturday, Tom Keene in "Riders of the West."

STATE—Today, Monday, and Tuesday, Robert Woolsey and Bert Wheeler in "Girl Crazy;" Wednesday and Thursday, Bill Boyd in "Carnival Boat;" Friday and Saturday, Bob Steele in "Riders of the Desert."

Ninety-Six Get Federal Relief Checks in Week

Ninety-six persons, five of them women, received their checks from the Pampa federal relief committee Saturday.

A total of $524.85 was paid out, with a small portion of it being given as direct relief to the sick. The committee acted upon recommendations concerning the wage scale, which has been higher here than in other towns of this section. The wage per hour was lowered to 25 cents from 30 cents.

Unless more federal relief is received within 3 days, the number of men to be given work this week must be greatly lowered. Texas appropriation from the reconstruction finance commission for the first three months of 1933 has been expected for several days, but no information has been received. D. B. Anderson, manager of the west Texas chamber of commerce, has been in Washington seeking to expedite the appropriation.

The committee hopes that the men being given employment will be able to supplement their earnings with other part-time work.

New Car Agency Opening Soon in Saunders Building

The Saunders building at the corner of Ballard and Kingsmill will be occupied by the new Carhart-Taylor Motor company which will open an agency for the distribution of Studebaker, Pierce Arrow and Rockne automobiles and Studebaker, Pierce-Arrow, White and Indiana trucks, buses and ambulances.

The Carhart Motor company of Panhandle, the firm backing the agency, has been distributing Buicks from Panhandle for 14 years. The company is still selling Buicks at Panhandle, and is handling the Studebaker, Pierce-Arrow, Rockne line at Borger, J. E. Gehart, one of the first two residents of Panhandle, is the senior member of the firm. George Taylor is Mr. Carhart's son-in-law.

Mr. Taylor pointed out that in 1932, Studebaker dealers got a 59 per cent bigger slice of the total business of the industry than they did in 1931.

One of the cars to be featured is the Rockne Six which stood in eighth place in sales during August and September after starting from "scratch," Mr. Taylor said.

IN EPIC OF ROMANCE

Nancy Carroll and Douglas Fairbanks Jr., as they appear in Warner Bros. epic of romance and adventure, "Scarlet Dawn." Lilyan Tashman is also featured in the picture, now at the Rex.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS JR. HAS GREAT ROLE IN WARNER PHOTO PLAY CALLED "SCARLET DAWN"

Russian Revolution of 1917 Basis of Film

A wide sweep of colorful adventure and romance is the outstanding quality that marks "Scarlet Dawn," in which Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. gives his finest screen performance since "Dawn Patrol." It is another of the great line of Warner pictures which opened today at the Rex theater.

All of the essentials of good motion picture entertainment are contained in this film: good story, fine acting and the superb direction of William Dieterle, who is asserting himself as one of the ace directors of Hollywood.

The story opens with the beginning of the Russian revolution of October, 1917 when Prince Nikita, played by Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is on leave from the front only to be caught in the maelstrom of revolt. By disguising himself as a peasant, he manages to flee the country, not without many adventures and misadventures, followed by a faithful and beautiful servant girl who had served him in his ancestral home.

The romance between these two and their struggle for existence in Constantinople is one of the most beautiful things that has ever come to the screen. Further complications are added by a blonde soldier who had received the attention of Nikita in his halcyon days and who invades him into becoming a gentleman of fortune until a third girl, an American heiress, makes him change his mind.

A very imposing cast, for which Warner has spared no expense, has been placed on a high level. The three women were very adroitly played by Nancy Carroll, Lilyan Tashman and Sheila Terry. Making up the balance of the cast of this colorful piece of entertainment are Carl Fox, Frank Reicher, Walter Walker, Mischa Auer, Mae Busch, Hadji Ali, Alphonse Ethier, Ivan Linow, Betty Gillette, Richard Alexander, Maurice Black, Dewey Robinson, William Ricciardi, Yola D'Avril, Harry Cording and William LeMaire.

The story was based on the novel, "Revolt," by Mary McCall. J. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., contributed his versatile abilities still further, in collaborating on the screen play with Niven Busch and Erwin Gelsey.

It is the sort of picture that will appeal to the young and old alike. It was that rare felling of romance that was so evident in "Seventh Heaven" and in "Lilac Time." "Scarlet Dawn" is splendid entertainment and one that should be seen by everyone.

REAL DRAMA BEHIND STORY OF NEW FILM

CHAIN GANG DETAILS IN LA NORA PICTURE ARE EXACT

A most unusual and extraordinary type of story comes to the screen of the La Nora theater today in the Warner Bros. picture, "I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang," starring Paul Muni, with the most brilliant supporting cast ever used at the Warner studio.

The screen play by Sheridan Gibney and Brown Holmes is based on the autobiographical novel of Robert E. Burns. The picture treats of the astounding experience of a man sentenced to a state chain gang for the theft of less than five dollars, who escaped and is still at large.

It portrays the terrors of chain gang life, which are picturesque despite their shuddery aspect. This shows how prisoners, their legs shackled together and to each other, are forced to work on rock piles until they fall exhausted. They are not even permitted to wipe the sweat from their brows unless given special permission from guards who watch over them with guns and bloodhounds.

Inhuman floggings are inflicted under the slightest pretext, prisoners screaming in agony as the cruel leather lash descends on their bare backs, fainting from loss of blood and sometimes dying from the effects. Food, consisting of pig fat, sorghum and fried onions, is so nauseating that the prisoners are unable to swallow it until so starved that it became a question of eating it or dying of starvation.

The tale is replete with thrills including the flight of a convict through swamps, pursued by armed guards and baying bloodhounds; the blowing up of a bridge with dynamite and a battle of prisoners armed with explosives with guards with rifles.

In addition to the many thrills and the tremendous drama of the piece, there is a glowing romance of the fugitive's undying love for a woman he can never marry and the heart-breaking experience of his marriage to a woman who held him through the knowledge of his secret and eventually betrayed him and surrendered him to the authorities.

Headquarters of the Salvation Army home service appeal in the city hall will be open Monday to receive last-minute pledges and cash.

While the appeal will not be considered closed until all listed prospects have been seen, the drive proper is drawing to a close. Anyone who cannot call at headquarters Monday may mail checks direct to J. O. Gillham, treasurer. It was suggested yesterday by Mrs. Phil T. Rainey of Dallas, who has been here to assist in the campaign.

Those in charge of the appeal have been much pleased by the sympathy expressed for the work of the Army. It is emphasized, however, that more large checks from those able to give them are needed to make the drive the success hoped. No money goal was set, but the Army program is limited to the financial support received.

MAJOR--
The one occurrence in which the sheriff could obtain no productive lead was the burning of the county bridge across the North Fork. This presumably has the work of transient job hunters.

Last spring as chairman of "Frontier Days," the sheriff managed one of the biggest events in the history of Pampa. Sheriff and Mrs. Blansett have moved to their ranch, home 6 miles southwest of Pampa.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31. (AP)—A bit of brisk profit taking accompanied the year-end in wheat trading today, and more than rubbed out modest new price gains.

Unattended by any fireworks, December wheat, which recently broke the all time bottom price record for future delivery contracts in Chicago, wound up at 1 1/2 cents above the record low point, but well under yesterday's finish. Fears of cold wave damage to domestic wheat had much to do with lifting of values until late profit taking set in.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31. (AP)—A bit of brisk profit taking accompanied the year-end in wheat trading today, and more than rubbed out modest new price gains.

Unattended by any fireworks, December wheat, which recently broke the all time bottom price record for future delivery contracts in Chicago, wound up at 1 1/2 cents above the record low point, but well under yesterday's finish. Fears of cold wave damage to domestic wheat had much to do with lifting of values until late profit taking set in.

ACTING IN 'LOVE-IN-A-MIST' PLACES COMEDY AMONG BEST OFFERED BY LITTLE THEATER

CAST COOPERATES TO GIVE 'FINISHED PRODUCTION'

Those who attended the Little Theater play at the LaNora Friday night were head telling their friends yesterday morning that "Love-In-A-Mist" was "one of the best plays ever presented here," that it was "a finished production" that "it was worth the money," and that they "enjoyed it as much as any stage play they ever saw."

That phrase, "a finished production" was impressive because it means a whole lot. It meant that the entire cast cooperated in making the play a success. It meant that Mrs. T. F. Morton, the director, accomplished much to attain the ideal of every director, as well as every athletic coach; not to turn out a "one-man" team.

The play was as good as advance predictions said it would be, and the cost was, as Mrs. Morton said, "ideal." To state that one of the seven members of the cast was the star of the show would be minimizing the work of the other six. In lieu of the flattering adjectives one usually uses in praising the performance of the actors, one might as well dispense with them and say that the play was "good... good!"

Still, one cannot help commenting upon the fine work of Mrs. Julian Barrett as Diana Wynn, Gilmore Nunn as Gregory Farinham, Howard Nellis as Count Scipione Varelli, Miss Louie Barton as Aunt Ann Moore Wynn, Florita Freeman as Sidney Rose Wynne, James Todd, Jr., as Colin and Miss Peggy Arnold as Kinzy, the two negro servants—every member of the cast.

The play was based upon the tendency of Diana to avoid telling the truth whenever she could tell a "white lie." Her astounding "whoppers" were immediately uncovered, but she at once told more—better and bigger ones.

She loved Gregory, but the count loved her and to prevent him from dying of a broken heart she told him she loved him. Then the count left Italy and came to America to make a formal proposal. In the meantime, Gregory returned from Asiatic explorations and after quarrelling with Diana who loved him in spite of her lies, he proposed and she accepted. The climax of the play came when both of her lovers met and confronted her with the embarrassing question, "do you love me or do you love him?" At that point, Diana decided to tell the truth, that she loved Gregory, and the count went out and shot himself. All the time, Sidney Rose was in love with "Scippi." During his convalescence, he decided he loved no one but Sidney Rose. Again the four lovers met, Diana lied again, saying she loved only "Scippi," who protested that he did not love her anymore and the play ended happily.

Acting Subtle
Mr. Nellis' mastery of the Italian accent was surprising and thoroughly entertaining. His acting in every detail was superb, subtle, and realistic—and the same could be said for Mrs. Barrett and Mr. Nunn. The manner in which the former acted when she told her lies and when she was caught up with was deliciously amusing. Mr. Nunn's exasperation, his desire to "wing her neck," his rage, his impatience, were indispensable. He was in command of the situation when necessary, and his semblance of embarrassment was subtly itself. Mrs. Barrett, Miss Barton, and Miss Freeman were magnificent goons, thanks to Pampa merchants. A white evening gown of crepe with red accessories worn by Mrs. Barrett was especially "magnificent." Paul M. LeBeuf, properties director of the Little Theater, had the stage looking like an expensive Hollywood set.

Tryouts for the next Little Theater play, "Children of the Moon," will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Pampa Office Supply company.

AMARILLO, Dec. 31.—The high school football season is over, but the memory of the race lingers on. Among the sports writers of District One there is a feeling that this section of the state had more than its share of stars despite the fact the teams were units or machines.

Contrary to other years the season just past saw few individual stars. Not only the teams of Amarillo, Lubbock and Pampa were composed of players who stressed teamwork, but also those of Plainview and Borger.

Baseball Fans To Talk League Proposal Friday

Pampa baseball fans will gather in the city commission room in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock Friday night to decide whether Pampa will enter a team in the proposed Class D league. George Limerick will preside and present the proposition to the fans.

The idea was placed before a small group of fans by Marty Fiedler last week. Mr. Fiedler is manager of the Albuquerque club. He is a former big league player. The plan presented was to form a joint stock company of small investors for the first expense of the club.

Each team would be a farm for some upper league team which would send a manager and 14 young players for seasoning. The sponsoring club would pay the expenses of four of the players and have an option on them. The top salary would be $71 a month. The season would be of 144 games, with half of them at home.

Twilight baseball would be played, excepting on Sunday afternoons, when double-headers would be staged. Admission to all games would be 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men. Children under 14 years would be admitted free.

Red Deer Golf Course To Have Opening Soon

The Red Deer Golf course will be opened by a group of local golfers. The decision was reached at a meeting of enthusiasts in the club room at the fire station Friday night. A general meeting of men interested in forming a joint company at a small sum will meet at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night in the same place to complete arrangements.

The course is one of the sportiest and most popular in this section of the country. It consists of nine holes but enlargement plans have been discussed. Although definite plans for operation have not been decided, it has been suggested that charter members pay a membership fee of a dollar or two a month to cover the lease expense and payment of a caretaker and maybe a small upkeep fee but no green fees. Non-members would pay a small green fee.

Interested persons are urged to attend the meeting Tuesday night, when permanent officers will be elected and final plans made.

McLean Chamber To Select Officers

McLEAN, Dec. 31.—Annual election of chamber of commerce officers will take place at the city secretary's office Monday evening. Officers whose terms expire are: President, Reuben B. Cook; vice-president, Carl O. Green; secretary, W. E. Bogan; treasurer, Claude Williams; directors, Boyd Mesdor, M. D. Bentley, O. G. Stokely, Ralph Caldwell, Jesse J. Cobb, and T. A. Landers.

Ed. F. Mills of Kingsmill was in the city last night. Charles N. White of LeFors was a Pampa visitor yesterday. Ivan Reeder of Kingsmill was in the city Saturday.

PAMPA MIGHT PLAY SANDIES

Amarillo Anxious To Come Here on Next Friday Evening.

The high school basketball schedule for this week has not been definitely decided. The Harvesters are scheduled to go to McLean Friday night for the opening game of the sub-section Panhandle Basketball League schedule, but the Amarillo Sandies are anxious to come to Pampa that night and the game might be changed.

On Saturday night, the Canadian Wildcats will come to Pampa for the second league game. The Canadian girls' team is supposed to meet the Pampa girls in a league game. It is not known whether McLean will have a girls' team this year.

Coach Mitchell will return Monday and will complete arrangements for the games. Practice will start Monday afternoon, correcting glaring weaknesses noticed in games of last week.

The Harvesters have won seven of their nine games played this season. They have amassed a total of 308 points for an average of more than 34 points a game. Their opposition has scored only 131 points for an average of 15 points a game. The local team defeated the Plainview Bulldogs for the first time last week. They also divided a series with the Happy Jacks.

The Panhandle Basketball league schedule will last four weeks when a section series will be played.

Cage Game at LeFors Was a Comical Event

LeFORS, Dec. 31.—Local people are still talking about the basketball game here between ministers and bus drivers in the school gymnasium. "Long-handed" underwear and ladies' bloomers, worn as costumes, provided comical sights. It was impossible to keep score.

Recent LeFors visitors to Pampa were T. J. McDonald, S. M. Simms, A. J. Dickerson, R. V. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lance, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Johnson, F. L. Dittmore, Miss Annabel Evans, Gene Wolf, Miss Exia McPherson, Willie Stephenson, and Mrs. L. Plattner.

Buying Barbara

SYNOPSIS: Letta Cane expects the young millionaire, Farrell Armitage to propose to her. Farrell told her he has determined to marry Barbara Quentin, whom he first saw by accident that afternoon. Letta offers aid, and sends Farrell to fetch Barbara to the little house she has prepared for herself and Mark. Letta's maid, swooned some of Mark's wistful glances at a portrait of Letta Cane wearing the bride's crown. Mark just has given Barbara. But Barbara defends Mark.

Chapter 14 BARBARA EXPLAINS

"YOU'LL go Mark's way? I wonder if you can tell me why?" Barbara was tarted.

"But—" She gestured round the room and the gesture was, to Farrell, pathetic. "We are to be married," she said simply. "I thought I had told you."

"Oh yes, you told me! And I know you will tell me next that you are going to marry because you love each other. But what you feel for Mark isn't love."

She lay back in the chair, her heavy lids closed, her hands exasperated upon her knees.

"Someone else has told you so already!" he exclaimed. And, as she nodded—"Well, whoever it was didn't make you see, sense, so I'm going to. And I'm adding this bit of news—Mark doesn't love you."

"Ah but, you see," she said, stirring, "he does. He does love me."

"I think not. A man who loves a woman—Armitage took breath for the brutality of it—"doesn't put off his wedding-day for a jant to Electra."

A quiver ran through her and the faint color that had crept into her face, drained away again; but she did not open her eyes.

"Has he—done that?"

"Yes. Next Thursday he's coming to stay with me for a bit, to meet some people who may be of use to him. . . . Don't pretend that although it went against the grain he felt he owed it to you, or any thing like that, because—"

"I wasn't going to pretend. He has postponed our marriage before and not even for such a good reason as a visit to London."

Bewildered, astonished, Armitage could only give a quick laugh.

"All the same," he went on, cutting into his ex-temper, "he does love me. I know it, beyond any manner of doubt, in his own way he always has and—in his own way—he always will. As for me, what ever you call that feeling that I have for him, it's the strongest I've ever known. The strongest, the clearest, the most unchanging."

"Rot! It's nothing but a habit of mind—a fixation, don't they call it?—a childish misconception—"

"No. I didn't cultivate pity for Mark because I promised his father I would. I was able to promise because of my pity."

"Pity! Pity isn't love."

"With me, it is. And it isn't only pity—it's—there's—a sort of honor in being desperately needed. I fulfill a need in Mark."

He wheeled abruptly upon her. "I want you, Barbara Quentin, to forget Mark for a few minutes, and think about me."

She gave her faint, frank little smile.

"I am thinking about you already. I was just going to ask you why you invited Mark to stay with you on a day which you knew was his wedding-day."

"Because I don't want you to marry him on Thursday. Or at all."

Her smile vanished.

"I want you to marry me," he said.

Her heavy lids flew open. She struggled up in the chair and he put out a hand to draw her to her feet. But she ignored it.

PIMA Merchants To Meet Tuesday

Merchants interested in the PIMA association have been asked to meet in the chamber of commerce rooms at 8 o'clock Tuesday night for the purpose of re-organizing and electing officers. Frank Foster is temporary chairman. He has offices in his store.

Plans for improving the organization will be discussed and a check on past happenings made.

J. E. Biggs of Shamrock visited friends here yesterday.

ATHLETIC TEAMS RANK NEAR TOP DURING THE YEAR

Pampa had an athletic year to equal any previous time, but the year was not so successful in any line of sports as some previous years. Basketball, track and field, golf, baseball, wrestling, and football took up the time of sport loving fans.

The Harvester basketball team won the county meet and went to the quarter finals in the district meet before being eliminated. It won and lost a game to the Amarillo Sandies, defeated Lubbock in straight games, but lost to Plainview. The Phillips quintet from Woodward fell before the Harvesters and the Panhandle Panthers were held even in games played.

The team tied for winning honors in the Pampa invitation basketball tournament after playing two quarter periods. The Pampa girls won their division of the tournament. The 1932-33 Harvester team has won seven out of nine starts and seems one of the best teams in the history of the school.

Track and field events were varied and of great interest. The Pampa team won the county meet and took high honors in the district event at Canyon. None of the winners went to the state, however. The Pampa relay team was one of the best ever developed. Three of the members will be ready for the 1933 team and two promising new boys will be available for the other positions.

Tennis was also enjoyed at the high school where the team, boys and girls, went to several tournaments and won honors.

The ball season opened with the organization of the first playground ball league in the history of the city. Eight teams entered the league. Baseball was also in the limelight with the Magnolia Mags, Junior team, LeFors, and Phillips and Cabot leagues. The teams combined to enter both the Amarillo and Borger tournaments with the team taking fourth money in the Borger event. One of the Pampa players went to the Denver tournament with Borger, third place winner.

Many golf tournaments were held over the two local courses and Pampa golfers participated in invitation tournaments. The Pampa Country club entered a team in the Cap Rock Golf league and finished in fifth place.

The football season closed with the Harvesters winning five games and losing four. The team held Amarillo and Lubbock to one touchdown victories and won her other two conference games. Several surprise players were uncovered and three members of the team made

"There's no need to say anything. In a way, the definite things were said when we were born—"

"You must please let me speak! I meant, of course, that I don't know what to say because I should terribly like to snub you. But—"

"It's quite useless for you to turn me down. Or rather, I've allowed for the probability of your turning me down again and again—"

"In that one respect then," she said very crisply, "I shall not disappoint you."

She dragged herself out of her chair and turned away. He considered that she looked lovelier in her anger than in any other mood, her face stung to the pale rose color and her eyes dark and bright and cold. He watched her without a glance at the portrait on the floor, to where she had laid aside her coat.

"You'll take me back now, please?" she requested, shaking out the furs.

"Oh yes, I'll take you back." Armitage sighed sharply. "I'll let you drive, too, if you want to. My generosity of spirit is an aspect of me that I particularly want you to study."

He could not see her face as she bent over the furs, but he sensed that again her mood was veering.

"We will resume our discussion, he said, carefully flippant. "And we shall yet go to Hogey Cove by moonlight and either be devoured or permitted to drown."

"Have you told Mark why you insisted on Thursday?"

"No. You'll do that."

She still kept her face averted but she put aside the coat.

She stood there for a few minutes, by the door and gazed back at the fire she had left; she gave the curious suggestion that it was telling her something—f forbidding her to leave it until—or unless—? Then she walked back to it very slowly and as though magnetized. She dropped again into the deck chair and sat leaning forward, her hands clasped and drooping, her mind utterly withdrawn from him.

He, too, had returned to the fire. He stood with an elbow on the narrow ledge above it and waited. She was now so many fathoms deep in herself that he knew the humiliation of a non-existence; and yet he was afraid to make any noise that would shatter the delicate world into which she had gone.

All his life, he was to remember these slow minutes—these fascinating, inexplicable, maddening minutes—in which he waited motionless for her to come back.

The quality of their silence had nearly mesmerized him also, when suddenly she spoke. Only her voice, he thought, could float out like that, so low, so clear—one with the firelight, the stillness, the night hour.

"Is it possible," she said, "to make a bargain with you?"

He still waited.

"If I promised to marry you without loving you, without even liking or admiring you very much, would you make Mark well?"

"No," he said politely. "No, I'm afraid that wouldn't be at all possible."

He was so angry with her that he dared not move.

Farrell undertakes a long vigil tomorrow.

PAMPANS GIVE MUCH TIME TO SPORTS IN '32

Trojans AND FOES READY

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 31. (AP)—Southern California's football players—36 of them—tested tonight just above the Rose Bowl battlefield, while their opponents from Pittsburgh were approaching by train from their training camp at Tucson, Arizona.

The man in the street probably will regard the winner of Monday's game as the national champion.

Southern California with a brief workout in the famous bowl tested the turf and atmospheric conditions and found them about the same prevailing a year ago when the mythical All-Conference team backs from Tulane, 21-12.

The western team was in perfect condition as it sought its fourth Rose Bowl victory, a record no other team has had a chance to make. Pitt, too, with nine days hard work in Tucson's invigorating air was reported fit as a fiddle and ready to score its first victory in three starts in the rose-scented environment. The Trojans will pack a distinct weight advantage over the invading Panthers but supporters of the eastern outfit suggest clever manipulation of the forward pass attack may whittle Southern California down to Pittsburgh's size.

Wrestling was resumed here during the year and some of the best matches in the country have been staged here. Several Pampa boys have made good away from home and are in great demand.

This year promises to be a bigger and better year in the realm of sport. Plans are under way to start professional baseball here.

GIRL IS CHAMPION

BROOKLINE, Mass., Dec. 31. (AP)—Miss Helen Grawn, slim 16-year-old Detroit girl, swept through the final round of 11th National Girls Indoor tennis singles tournament today, defeating Miss Joanna Paley, Sharon, Mass., in straight sets to win the championship.

Mrs. Henry Nash was able to leave Worley hospital yesterday.

The Trojans stopped the Green backs from Tulane, 21-12.
