Senate Vote In Attempt To Kill Philippine Veto Will Be Close

SENTIMENT TO BROADEN FARM BILL GROWING

GLASS WILL ASK RULE TO 'GAG' HUEY LONG

SEEKS REPUBLICAN AID

SENATORS MAY APPLY MEASURE TO ALL PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A vote so close that two or three ballots may decide whether the Philippines are to be given their freedom was predicted tonight by senate leaders after hours of vehement oratory for and against overriding President Hoover's veto. The Senate adjourned late today until Monday without reaching a vote.

The decision, which now rests with the Senate since the House already has passed the pending measure over the chief executive's veto, is expected by Tuesday at the latest and possibly may come Monday.

The Senate ended a week of futile filibuster in a confused parliamentary snarl that boded ill for prospects of legislation at this session in banking, prohibition, farm relief or any of the other controversial issues awaiting action.

May Ask Closure Rule.

Democratic leaders were considering the rare expedient of asking for application of the drastic Closure rule to break the filibuster, but hesitated in the absence of sufficient pledged support from the Republican side to carry it out.

Senator Glass (D., Va.), sponsor of the banking bill, said today the Closure would be asked, probably Monday.

"I want the Senate to vote on whether it will legislate," he said. "If the Republicans don't want to let them take the responsibility, Huey Long asserted that he and his aides were ready to carry on the filibuster indefinitely.

Farm Bill Defeated.

Ex-Students of Canyon Organize To Fight Plan

Strongly opposing the program recommended by the legislative economy and efficiency committee to destroy state supported teacher training institutions in Texas, local ex-students of West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, organized Friday afternoon to take definite steps toward discouraging such legislation. T. H. McDonald was elected to lead the group in the fight.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Barnett of West Texas State Teachers college, and Supt. and Mrs. L. B. Carruth, also of Canyon, were present for the meeting, and informal talks were made by both Dr. Barnett and Supt. Carruth. They both stressed the importance of letters from individuals and organizations to the law-makers. They declared that the college was not opposed to retrenchment—that it was retrenching—but that it was opposed to being killed.

THREE GUESSES

Gilbert Wolf Kahn, son of Otto Kahn, New York banker and patron of the arts, has been sued for divorce by Mrs. Anne W. Kahn (above) in Reno, Nev. She charges extreme cruelty. They were married in New York in November, 1914.

POULTRY SHOW ATTRACTS MUCH INTEREST HERE

Merchandise Prizes Reach Total of Ninety-Nine

Hope that the Pampa poultry show to be held next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in the Johnson building on West Foster avenue will be the biggest ever staged here has been aroused by evidence of widespread interest in the event.

Ninety-nine attractive prizes of merchandise have been catalogued. Should the entry list not require all of these premiums, the committee in charge will double the prizes for some events after the show starts. All entries should be made by Thursday noon. Judging by R. B. Galloway of the Hartman-King company of Amarillo will start Friday morning.

Entry fees will be 10 cents for single birds and 35 cents for pens. Birds can compete only in classes for which they are entered—those in single classes cannot compete in pens. There must be a total of three entries in a class before first premium is awarded for singles, and two entries in each class for pens. All poultry entered for competition must be in the name of the actual owner, who shall also be a breeder of the variety entered.

No rabbits, ducks, or pet stock will be shown at the poultry event. When the birds are judged, the winners will be given orders for the merchandise offered by merchants for the various classes.

Rose Bush Sale Starts Thursday At Local Store

The second annual sale of rose bushes will start next Thursday at Pampa Hardware company.

In order to promote growing of flowers and beautification of homes, the firm will sell 2-year-old budded field-grown bushes at the unusually small cost of five for $1.

The first shipment will contain 1,120 bushes in 22 varieties. These are Texas-grown bushes and most of the varieties ordered have proved capable of doing well on the plains.

More than 3,000 bushes were distributed last year. Many hundreds of them bloomed during the summer. Re-orders will be placed as the demand indicates.

VOID. INSULL PASSPORT

SURRENDER OF PAPER ASKED IN NEW ORDER

WOULD PREVENT MEN FROM LEAVING GREECE

PERMIT IS NOW INVALID

INFORM COUNTRIES OF GOVERNMENT'S ACTION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—The American passport of Samuel Insull, indicted Mid-West Utilities magnate who refused to return from Greece to stand trial, has been ordered cancelled by the state department.

Officials of the department said tonight instructions were sent to the American legation at Athens last week to request that Insull surrender his passport.

No word has been received that Insull has done so, but in the meantime the legation was told to inform all countries nearby the passport no longer is valid.

The effect will be, it was said, to prevent the former utilities head from leaving Greece, where he fled after his empire crumbled away under him. After his indictment, Chicago officials bearing extradition papers from the state department sought to bring Insull home for trial, but he declined and the Grecian courts upheld his stand. Insull now has apparently taken up residence in Athens for an indefinite stay and, even should he decide to leave, finds himself without a passport unless the Greek government should issue him one.

WEDS GRIDDER

If her marriage had been announced before, Yale would have lost a football star. For it was last spring that Miss Elizabeth Jane Gerardi, above, socially prominent New York deb, was secretly wed to Walter B. Levering, then a junior at Yale. In accordance with the rules, the football player now must withdraw from the college.

'CHILDREN OF THE MOON' TO BE GIVEN NEXT

Little Theater Will Present Drama February 21

The next Little Theater play, "Children of the Moon," will deal with a subject old as civilization itself—moon-madness. The drama will be produced at the city hall, Tuesday evening, February 21.

It was decided to present the play in the city auditorium when it was learned that the stage of the La-Nora theater could not be adapted to hold the unusual properties necessary to an adequate production of the well-known drama.

"Children of the Moon" will be the Little Theater's first experiment with really serious drama. Of the two plays produced this year, one was a melodrama and the other a comedy. Last season, the organization produced three comedies and one historical play that was half melodrama. The plot of "Children of the Moon" is based on moon-madness in the Atherton family. The affliction of moon-madness was to physicians and others who know that "truth is stranger than fiction" it will seem highly plausible. Almost every month, one hears of a strange case of moon-madness.

In "Children of the Moon," the Athertons are suddenly affected when they gaze at the moon while under emotional stress. They go along for years, sane as a normal person; then the moon-madness suddenly strikes them.

PAMPA BUTTER SHIPPED BOTH EAST AND WEST

Creamery Sends Out 100,000 Pounds In 6 Weeks

If and when a Pampa resident moves to New York (City) or Los Angeles, Calif., as a few have done, he need not be surprised if he should go to a grocery store for butter and be handed a pound made by the Gray County Creamery. For since last December, the creamery, located at 315 East Acheson street, has shipped out carload after carload of butter, over 100,000 pounds, to various places in the United States, including New York and Los Angeles.

Only yesterday, a carload of butter was shipped to New York. Much of the butter made at the creamery is sold locally or in the Panhandle. Since Henry ("Heinie") Gerhard became "big butter man" he has learned that the butter boys in the east and the west want butter from the wide open spaces.

"And it wouldn't take a techno-

CABOT CREDIT UNION PAYS ANNUAL DIVIDEND AS USUAL

Representatives of all Cabot plants in the Panhandle district met at Kingsmill Friday evening in a session of the Cabot Credit Union, which was established about a year and 6 months ago.

A board of directors was elected, composed of L. N. Acheson, W. L. Loving, Isham Brown, W. F. Hendricks, Ed Mills, Reno Stinson, John Talley, R. A. Dasher, E. R. Austin, and Bob Crew. A supervisory board is composed of J. W. Hudson, Art Swanson, and L. M. Furnas.

After the Credit Union meeting, the safety department of the company headed by Don Conley took charge to make the 6-month safety award to Cabot's Schaffer plant, which won over other Cabot plants of the country. Then individual Bureau of Mines first aid certificates were handed out.

Despite demands based on general conditions, the union weathered the depression, paying every deposit on demand.

The game was rougher than usual, and many fouls were called.

In the OIL FIELDS

Six small producers were completed in Gray county in the last week. The wells were in five different pools. There were no new locations made in the county.

The Baldrige et al No. 1 Melton in section 95, block 2, w.s. completed for 147 barrels on the swab air being shot with 180 quarts of nitro from 3,005 to 3,056 feet. The hole was bottomed at 3,066 feet. The test is making 4,000,000 feet of gas.

The Mid Kansas No. 2 Webb in section 61, block 25, is making 60 barrels a day from 2,552 to 2,567 feet after being shot with 90 quarts of nitro from 2,852 to 2,890 feet where the hole was bottomed.

Tedesco-Bell's No. 3 Morse tract, section 1, block 26, was bottomed at 2,590 feet, and flowed 175 barrels before production failed. The hole was cleaned out and the test is good for 250 barrels a day on the pump.

Texas company's No. 2 Barrett in section 130, block 3, south of Pampa, is making 412 barrels on the pump. Pay was from 3,118 feet to total depth, 3,127 feet.

The Texas company's No. 14 Williams in section 7, block 1 is pumping 3-6 barrels a day on the pump. The hole was bottomed at 3,305 feet.

Other counties in the Panhandle were comparatively quiet. Carson county showed a small completion and Hutchinson county added two small producers.

Effective 7 a. m. January 14, Danciger Oil & Refining company announced that they would pay 36 cents a barrel for 33 gravity oil in Gray county with a top of 50 cents a barrel for 40 gravity and above. Danciger was previously purchasing on the regular gravity table ranging from 36 cents a barrel for below 29 gravity scaling upward to 60 cents for 40 gravity and above. Other companies paid no attention to the change.

Gray county's production soared 2,153 barrels daily during the week to send the output to 28,233 barrels. Carson and Moore counties showed small increases while other counties slumped. The Panhandle output jumped to 44,202 barrels or an increase of 1,715 barrels over the previous week.

Production by counties:

County	Wells	Prv	Wk.	Lst. Wk.
Carson	253	4,497	4,987
Hutchinson	818	26,080	28,233
Moore	835	10,835	9,939
Wheeler	22	724	757
	41	351	286
Totals	1,969	42,487	44,202

Increase, 1,715 barrels.

Scout Roundup Will Be Held On February 11

The big Boy Scout roundup which was to be held February 14 has been moved up to February 11, it was announced yesterday by J. W. Martin, chairman.

The program of the day will be at the high school gymnasium, but the exhibits of Scout work will be placed in some downtown building to be selected soon.

Mr. Martin said that a parade in the afternoon would be one of the feature events of the day. Many troops of the host Adobe Walls area will come here for the day, which is one of the most important of the year for the boys.

Harvesters In 38-20 Victory Over Canadian

Handicapped by a slippery concrete floor, the Harvesters got a late start at Canadian last night but their power increased as the game progressed and they won their second game from the Wildcats by a 38 to 20 score.

Canadian took a 7 to 2 lead in the first few minutes, but the Harvesters rallied and led 7 to 9 at the quarter, and 17 to 9 at the half. The Riley brothers than whom there were no better cage artists in the Panhandle last year, were in the lineup but Patton and Kelley stopped them cold. Miles Marbaugh injured his ankle in the fourth quarter and left the game—after scoring 10 points. The other points were made as follows: Woodward 11, Wayne Kelley 13, Fullingim 2, Bill Kelley 2.

The game was rougher than usual, and many fouls were called.

SENTENCED TO DIE

MAIRSHALL, Ill., Jan. 14. (AP)—A jury in Clark circuit court today returned a verdict of first degree murder against Hubert Moor, 32-year-old school teacher, for the slaying of his wife, Marjorie. The verdict carries a penalty of death in the electric chair.

TEXAS ANTIS SEEK DRY LAW MODIFICATION

RESOLUTION VOICED TO PUT CONSTITUTIONAL ACT TO VOTE

PLAN TO SOFTEN LAW

STATE WOULD VOTE ON MEASURE ON JULY 29, 1933

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—Texas anti-prohibitionists today initiated in the state legislature a move having as its purpose modification of the dry status in their commonwealth to meet whatever changes may be made in the nation's anti-liquor laws.

The way was opened for tempering the anti-prohibition section of the state constitution to permit the legislature to regulate the manufacture, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor under the local option system, and there was a proposal to soften what is known as the Dean law, which prescribes stringent punishment for violators of prohibition laws.

Representative Weaver Moore of Houston introduced in the house a resolution proposing submission of the constitutional amendment. Representatives Paul Hill of Laredo, and E. C. Hill of Angleton are authors of a house bill that would liberalize the state enforcement statute.

The bill fixing penalties for violations would make the first two offenses misdemeanors, punishable by fines. It would be in line with existing federal prohibition enforcement laws. The Dean law makes the first offense a felony punishable by confinement in the penitentiary for from two to five years.

The proposed amendment would be submitted to the electorate at a special election on July 29, 1933 and would become a part of the constitution immediately if it received a majority vote. It carried a saving clause that the legislature would be empowered to pass laws "to the extent that such shall not violate the constitution of the United States as it is now or may hereafter be amended."

John Alden Carpenter, above, Chicago business man, pianist and composer of many songs and orchestral works, will marry Mrs. Ellen Waller Borden, top regarded as successor to Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick as Chicago's society leader. Carpenter is a widower. Mrs. Borden was divorced in 1924 from John Borden, capitalist and sportsman. Carpenter has been a successful composer of many songs, of piano works especially designed for children, and of orchestral works, at least one of which has been played at New York's Metropolitan Opera House.

POST OFFICE BIDS WILL BE OPENED FEB. 1

Several Changes Are Made in Plans By Architect

Revised bids for the erection of Pampa's federal building will be opened in Washington at 3 p. m. February 1 according to a letter received by Pampa postoffice officials and by Glover and Borington, local contractors, yesterday morning.

The original bids opened November 28, were rejected as being too high. Since that time, the architect has made several changes in the plans. They have been approved by the postal authorities in Washington. The changes made are not known here. The supplemental list.

KIWANIS CLUB WILL OBSERVE 18TH ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK

Pampa's Kiwanis club will join in the observance of the 18th anniversary of Kiwanis International this week. It was announced yesterday by C. E. (Dan) McGrew, president.

Clubmen of 1873 other communities of the United States and Canada will similarly observe the event. Locally, the program will be in charge of the education committee, composed of Reno Stinson, chairman, W. O. Workman, and R. A. Selby.

The first Kiwanis club was organized in Detroit in 1915, and on January 21 of that year the first meeting was held.

"Kiwanis has made a valuable contribution to community life during the last 18 years and today is offering greater civic betterment and social welfare programs than ever," Mr. McGrew pointed out. "We are going to make our observance of Kiwanis week a fitting and proper occasion, presenting our achievements for the last year and explaining the history of Kiwanis International."

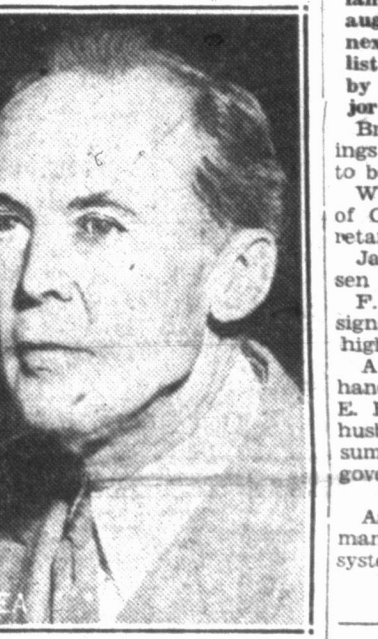

Carl Endicott of Huntington, Ind., president of Kiwanis International, in a special message has discussed the anniversary as follows:

"Time marches on—and the curtain of 1933 closes the show as another year takes its proper place in the hectic history of the past. Nineteen hundred thirty-two is just a snapshot in our book of memory.

"Hunger and hard times have torn at the vitals of a billion people."

WILL MARRY

John Alden Carpenter, above, Chicago business man, pianist and composer of many songs and orchestral works, will marry Mrs. Ellen Waller Borden, top regarded as successor to Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick as Chicago's society leader. Carpenter is a widower. Mrs. Borden was divorced in 1924 from John Borden, capitalist and sportsman. Carpenter has been a successful composer of many songs, of piano works especially designed for children, and of orchestral works, at least one of which has been played at New York's Metropolitan Opera House.

CHIEF OFFICES ARE FILLED BY NEW GOVERNOR

POLITICAL PLUMS FALL INTO EAST TEXAS' PALMS

RANGERS ARE CHOSEN

FERGUSON INAUGURAL WILL BE SPURNED BY STERLING

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, who will be inaugurated governor of Texas on next Tuesday, today announced a list of those who will be appointed by her to head some of the major departments of state.

Brigadier General Henry Hutchings of Fort Worth was selected to be adjutant-general.

W. W. Heath, former county judge of Grimes county, was named secretary of state.

Jack Flynn of Houston was chosen commissioner of labor.

F. L. Denison of Temple was designated to be a member of the highway commission.

A list of the appointments was handed to newspapermen by James E. Ferguson, former governor, an husband of the woman who will assume administration of the state government, at his office downtown.

Regents appointed.

Asked if Lee Simmons, general manager of the state penitentiary system, would be retained, Ferguson.

(See CHIEF, page 8.)

Pampa Portion Of Relief Fund Totals $8,870

Federal relief work in Gray county will assume a wider scope to morrow, with McLean launching a program under the direction of the community chest, of which C. C. Greene is manager.

Other members of the chest include R. R. Cook, president, T. A. Landers, E. L. Sitter, G. C. Boswell and Jess Cobb. Based on needs and registration of unemployed, the apportionment of funds was made as follows for January and February: McLean $1,550, LeFors $930, Pampa $8,870.

The payroll of last week totaled $1,236, which was paid out to 21 men and 4 women.

The committee is seeking aid of the city administration in obtaining work of a more permanent nature than has been available. Although making of park walks, placing of caliche on streets, and work at the water works and sewer plants have been important, the committee wishes some more substantial project if one can be started quickly.

Good weather in this month has enabled private construction projects in the oil field areas to go forward rapidly. It is pointed out that clean-up work could be done on days not suitable for construction.

CHINA MAY FIGHT YET

GENEVA, Jan. 14. (AP)—As leader of the special assembly of the League of Nations were arriving to resume their efforts for a conciliatory settlement of the Manchurian dispute, Dr. W. W. Yen notified the League today that China reserve the right to offer armed resistance to Japanese military action in the area of Shanhaikwan.

Appealing Plan

Proposals of the B. C. D. good will committee, cooperating with a similar committee of the Junior chamber, to form an inter-community good will organization appear to be founded in a distinct need.

There are many occasions on which one community can help another. Lack of proper means for exchange of information hampers community leaders. The plan as proposed would be to have in each community a small committee affiliated with the B. C. D. This committee would inform the B. C. D. group of any need in its community, and would in turn be responsible for distributing information from the B. C. D.

This is another way of saying that communities, large or small, should be neighbors and visit and work together like neighbors. Chairman Bourland has the right idea and should be given cooperation in carrying it out.

Glass Houses

Veterans of Foreign Wars are making much of the fact that so many members of the National Economy League are beneficiaries of the very evils they condemn. Admiral Richard E. Byrd, chairman of the League, receives $4,200 as a reward for the polar expedition. This may be a cheap payment for such exploration, but veterans claim similar service in war activities. General Pershing draws $21,500 annually, Major General Harbord $6,000, Admiral Sims $6,000, and Archie Roosevelt, under of the League, is director in ship companies subsidized by the government.

The league is doing its cause no good by pushing forward those who fatten on the pork barrel rations. On the other hand, evidence of pork-barrelism and extravagance of the government as furnished by the veterans reacts against their own claims. When the services of explorers, veterans who never crossed the Atlantic, and retired officers are measured, the public may decide at there should be payment of compensation but drastic deduction in the lists of those eligible for pensions now and later. If modern wars are to require millions of participants, pensions must be re-classified lest each new generation provoke a war to get its share of old age curity.

Medical Care

The report of the national committee on the cost of medical care is voluminous and may not appeal to the layman, but certainly the average person fears the cost of medical care and would like to be assured of the best facilities of the profession without exorbitant cost. There are millions of persons who need expert care, and thousands of physicians who need more practice than they are getting—more income, more opportunity to buy equipment.

The committee to which we referred took cognizance of these facts, and further pointed out that hundreds of

Four Vacancies In Helium Plant

The United States civil service commission will accept applications until February 7 for the position of assistant helium plant operator to fill four vacancies in the U. S. Bureau of Mines at Amarillo.

The last eligible register for this position was established November 30, 1929. Six appointments have been made from that register.

The salary is $1,680 a year, less a furlough deduction of $1-3 per cent and retirement deduction of $1-2 per cent.

Applicants must have had at least six months' experience in the operation of a helium production plant or a plant requiring the application of the principles of mechanical refrigeration, or gas or air liquefaction, by either throttling expansion or engine expansion.

Full information may be obtained from O. K. Gaylor, secretary of the United States civil service board of examiners, at the post office here.

Story of Mutiny To Be Broadcast

Nearly 150 years ago a fully manned English warship sailed for the island of Tahiti in the south Pacific ocean in search of breadfruit trees to be planted in the West Indies.

Nothing was heard from it until four years later when the captain and some of his officers came home in a row-boat. Mutiny, romance with the Tahiti women, and murder all entered into the story which the captain told.

This unusual yarn, as well as the story of how another British warship finally found the mutinous crew after years of search, will be broadcast Wednesday night by Carveth Wells, well known globe trotter and radio entertainer for Continental Oil company.

Local listeners can hear the Carveth Wells broadcast by tuning in on stations WJY, WOAI or KTBS Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock.

man brings. Tears have streaked the cheeks of children tugging at the skirts of weary and almost hopeless women. White collars have wilted to a sickly yellow that has gone streaking down spines.

"Business is propped up in bed, nursing a hang-over head. Forgotten are our boasts of bigness. Frenzied financiers, finding themselves flat tires on the highway of life, have sought an avenue of escape—via ship or shot, leaving behind the wrecked hopes of a trusting humanity in the ditches of despair, new year—yes, generations and generations of new years are ahead. This year is one of hope and opportunity, one of greatest possibilities. We have just closed the old year with celebration and memory of that time 2,000 years ago.

Three wise men journeyed to the east to start with the hope in their hearts of finding a savior of humanity.

"They found him in a lowly manger. Can it be that He is the forgotten man? Is it possible that we forgot Him last year, and the year before, and the other years past?"

"Kiwans remembers—and that age-old spirit of service is the basis of my message of Kiwanis everywhere on the sunrise of this New Year, our 18th birthday."

The Pampa club will be engaged in work for under-privileged children in vocational guidance, Junior police movement, general welfare work, and other meritorious activities during this year, according to officers of the organization.

ANSWERS

to today's
THREE GUESSES

THE BREMEN holds the record for both eastward and westward crossings. The map shown is of the BLACK SEA. PHILIPPIDES ran from the battlefield of MARATHON to ATHENS with tidings of a Greek victory.

millions of dollars has been spent for hospitals. Enormous expense is involved in operating these institutions. The problem is because of the fact that technical knowledge and physical equipment far surpass the social arrangements for the enjoyment of modern medical advantages. We have no desire to urge adoption of any bureaucratic control of medical practice, but we do recognize the need for socialization of the profession from the standpoint of both physician and patient. Preventive medicine has barely been launched.

Mark-Downs Needed

Attempting to make book profits under the present value of the dollar is unfair to many businesses and to the employees who contribute to the welfare of various firms. Quite a number of big companies have changed their records from the deficit side of the ledger to actual profits by marking down values.

Unless the general level of prices can be raised, it is inevitable that values must be lowered on corporation records and books of tax-assessors. Business can no more survive high book values and high assessments for taxes than it can long sustained loss of sales. It may be answered that marking down of property assessments will so decrease taxes that chaos will result. That would be true were all costs fixed charges in public affairs. Those expenses which are not fixed charges, however, should be reduced in keeping with the deflated dollar. Business will make faster progress toward recovery when this fact is generally recognized. Losses may as well be recognized and adjustments made accordingly.

It is unfortunate that debtors and creditors cannot reach similar mark-down agreements or extension of credit until values are more near the level in which the debts were incurred. Fore-closure of mortgages ought to be in accordance with the justice of present facts as well as literal agreements.

WORSHIP ORDER REVISED

"THE BOOK OF COMMON WORSHIP" Bishop Thirkield, Dr. Horkel, Dutton & Co.

Special features: Comprehensive orders of worship, based on the great historic of the service in accordance with modern needs. The Psalter, carefully selected, omitting imprecatory psalms, and arranging all the rhythm, beauty and strength of the ancient Hebrew poetic parallelism of the original. Several orders arranged after the best usage, for Baptism, Holy Communion, and other sacred rites and ordinances.

A choice collection of additional prayers, selected from the best of centuries of devotion, suitable for the service in the sanctuary, as well as for personal devotions. An unusual and special service for those at sea or in the air. Special sections of prayers devoted to health and healing, to the new world order, and to college and schools.

A large number of modern prayers printed here for the first time. Provision in all the services for free prayer, and for periods of devout silence in worship. A number of modern Litanies, joyous as well as penitential, give variety and freshness. Family prayers that are brief, cheery, and usable.

All together a modern book of worship, conserving all that is best in the spiritual life of the ages and fitted for today's needs.

SOUL AND GUTS

"The soul and the guts are a damn sight nearer than most people like to think," comments one of the characters in Robert Gibbins' Tahitian Journal, "Iorana," published by Houghton Mifflin company. When Dr. Louis Berman, the gland specialist, does not make this exact statement in his new book, he seems to share the same conviction by entitling it "Food and Character."

What has been achieved and what is being proposed under Russia's Five-Year Plan is discussed by a number of prominent correspondents and Soviet authorities in "Red Economics," recently issued by Houghton Mifflin company. Walter Duranty, who contributes both the introduction and final chapter, has recently returned to Moscow for the New York Times. "There are jollier assignments," comments his friend Alexander Woolcott, "than one involving prolonged confinement in that bleak citadel of the noble experiment and for Duranty, after ten years of it, Moscow can no longer have the same novelty that presumably imparted such a tang to the week which Mr. Shaw lavishly devoted last year to becoming an authority on Soviet Russia. But since he has the lively curiosity and the passionate detachment usually credited to the Man from Mars, he is just the person for the job and, as he now trundles down the road from Leningrad, it must be some satisfaction to know that he is on his way back to a post for which he is better

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Snead and daughter, Miss Martha Snead, are expected home this week-end after visiting in Austin and other points.

Buying Barbara

By Julia Cleff-Addams • Author of "YOU CAN'T MARRY"

SYNOPSIS: At a hilarious party in a London night club, Mark Loughlin, a rich and arrogant young artist, draws Barbara Armitage into his arms and demands that she buy them. He is the guest in London of Farrell Armitage whose love for Barbara Armitage has led him to promise to launch Mark as an artist in return for a year's grace extended by Barbara. For Barbara is engaged to marry Mark; in the year Farrell hopes to win her love for himself. Letta Cane helps Farrell because she also loves Mark.

The young man smiled and his likeness to Armitage proved to be that of type only. The set of Armitage's mouth had always something hard about it; whereas this cheerful grin radiated a puppy-like complacency.

"Oh, I wonder if you're thinking of coming along yet? Armitage thought perhaps you might be. I'm his secretary—Kenneth Poole—he left me behind in New York, I know—I only got back today. Can I find your coat?"

It was quite evident to Mark that someone, probably McLaughlin, had reported him at Brandish Place as being incapable of speech or movement and he took pleasure in removing this impression.

"Thanks, I wish you would. I was half-expecting Armitage to send someone. When you're a lame duck, you see, you take kindnesses like that entirely for granted. People are so immensely decent."

Under the secretary's geniality, a flash of surprise showed.

"You look wonderfully fresh after your beano—you got saved a lot, I expect, by not dancing."

Mark found himself hatted, coated and, finally, driven away in the same car that had brought him up from Kings Mallard.

As the car drew up the door was

"May I borrow that sketch?" asked McLaughlin.

pressions before his exhaustion became apparent in his work.

In the event he did three and after a glass of champagne—a fourth. This was of the enormous and frenzied negro conductor of the Da Capo band.

Then he made the mistake of drinking a good deal of everything that was pressed upon him; and gradually the flattery and the laughter and the music and the chatter all merged into an irregular drumming rhythm that was not unpleasant but had a tendency to beat its way right into his head and interfere with his conversation. There was, however, a curiously loud interval when a caunt, grey-haired man stood by his chair and said—

"I like that study of the conductor. Would you let me borrow it? Name's McLaughlin."

The confusion fell from Mark's mind. The two women who had their arms round his neck screamed together as he wrenched himself to his feet.

"It isn't what I'd planned you should look at first. These people—just a lot of—What a pity I'm too drunk to explain!"

"It is, rather. . . Didn't Farrell Armitage speak to me about you?" "He promised to, sir."

"Well, when you've slept this off, come round and see me. Or no—His eyes had found the crutch—"I'll come round to you." He flicked a nod towards the tableful and went.

The next clear interval showed Mark his own face in a long mirror in which the dawn was faintly reflected. He was sitting on a blue sofa in the outer lounge; the party, the porter informed him, had left him completely stranded. But Armitage's car was outside—Mark, quite clear-headed now, recognized the chauffeur.

The man who descended from it and bore down upon him was not, however, Armitage but a man nearly as tall, nearly as heavy and nearly as brown of hair and eyes and skin. "Damn nearly Armitage," marvelled Mark, whose head was clearing with most enortune speed.

Kenneth Poole, tomorrow, requires a "holiday-task" that comp

Fairway for Farm Relief

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 14 (AP)—Mrs. H. J. Dunavant, the only woman in the world to build and operate an 18-hole golf course, literally has followed a fairway to...

Less than three years ago, widowed, she found herself with a 200-acre farm, cropped to death, without a single building in any sort of repair—eating itself up in taxes.

Today she is sole owner and proprietor of the only public championship golf course within 70 miles of this city, a beautiful, rolling layout of verdant greens, thick woods and smooth fairways.

She is financially independent, has never operated in the "red" and since the course was thrown open to an impatient public in September of 1931, from her clubhouse, rambling log structure put together by day labor from material at hand, she send forth as many as 200 golfers a day.

"I was pretty well discouraged," she recalled, as she sat in front of the big stone fireplace during a lull in business. "We couldn't even get good roasting ears off the place. Then I happened to hear some people talking about a championship golf course in their community—somewhere in Texas, I believe.

"Call it inspiration if you like, but it flashed over me right then that I might convert my seemingly worthless farm into such a course.

"It looked hopeless—but I saw the arid fields, the endless rubbish, the washes as deep as a house, and it looked pretty hopeless. But I looked again and saw a rolling hillside, a hazardous creek bed and a background of towering pines. I made up my mind."

The first thing Mrs. Dunavant did was send for Donald J. Ross, a renowned golf architect. He came, saw and surveyed. It was, he said, a natural layout, except that it was just a little too small.

The next day, Mrs. Dunavant bought an adjoining 20 acres from a startled neighbor. He questioned her sanity, perhaps, but he took her money before she could change her mind.

From there on it was just hard work, a job that may be appreciated only by one who has built a golf course. The land had to be cleared, an enormous task, and everything that possibly could be of use salvaged. Enough scrap iron was found to be wrought into all the hardware needed.

A well was dug, plumbing installed, the creek dammed to form a lake and 12,500 feet of pipe laid to supply water for the greens and fairways. A mile of road was built to connect with the main highway. Countless tons of fertilizer were worked into the poor land.

Keeps 15 Persons Busy Exactly a year after Mrs. Dunavant launched her adventure, the 6,228-yard course was opened to the public, its 18 beautiful greens, designed by Ross, in perfect condition and the fairways coated with grass. Mrs. Dunavant's only son left college to help her get the enterprise under way, and has not gone back. Today, in addition to him, the Carolina Golf Club regularly employs a cashier, a golf professional, greenkeeper, caddy master, eight helpers and a maid, with Mrs. Dunavant ever vigilant to see that her course is conducted efficiently.

Though she is not a golfer herself, Mrs. Dunavant is keenly awake to her job. She recently engaged Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood, noted professionals, for an exhibition match over the course, and social interest has been stimulated by a series of "Ladies' Days," when a professional in contract bridge gave free lessons in the clubhouse.

Rev. Snodgrass is Speaker for Program Led by Fathers

The Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher association had a very interesting meeting Friday night given for the mothers by the fathers. All arrangements were made by the men, with Paul Hill as general chairman.

A short business meeting was held before the program and it was voted to make a resolution of protest against the proposed action to be taken in regard to the changing West Texas colleges of higher education.

Mrs. Roy McMillen, Mrs. H. R. Thompson, and Mrs. J. O. Gillham were appointed as a nominating committee to present names for the officers for the coming year.

A meeting was called for those interested in the Home Study course at the home of Mrs. A. N. Dilley at 4:15 Wednesday, Jan. 18.

CONSTITUTION IS APPROVED ON SATURDAY

CLUB REPRESENTATIVES MEET AT JOHNSON RESIDENCE

Election of officers and adoption of constitution and by-laws took place at a meeting of the Council of Clubs yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. O. Johnson.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, one of the most prominent club women of the Panhandle, was elected to head the group as president, and Mrs. Philip R. Pond, under whose direction the organization was formed, was chosen vice-president.

Mrs. Paul Kasishke was named recording secretary; Mrs. Alex Schneider, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur S. Swanson, parliamentarian. It was decided that the representative of the Child Study club should serve as corresponding secretary, and the representative of the Civic Culture club, reporter. These two representatives were not known.

The nominating committee was composed of Mesdames J. M. McDonald, H. W. Johns, Katie Vincent, and Raymond W. Harrah, while the constitution and by-laws committee was composed of Mesdames A. B. Goldston, P. Ewing Leech, O. H. Booth, and Philip Wolfe.

Following are those who attended and the organizations they represented: El Progresso, Mrs. J. M. McDonald and Mrs. Charles Thut; Junior Twentieth Century, Mrs. A. B. Goldston and Mrs. Arthur S. Swanson; Civic Culture, Mrs. Katie Vincent and Mrs. H. W. Johns; A. U. W., Mrs. E. C. Will; Senior Twentieth Century, Mrs. Paul Kasishke; Twentieth Century Culture, Mrs. F. Ewing Leech and Mrs. Philip R. Pond; Little Theater, Mrs. H. D. Keys; Child Study, Mrs. H. W. Johns, and Mrs. Robert Gilchrist.

Mrs. Beauchamp Entertained By Baptist Women

Mrs. Seth Beauchamp was named honoree at a party and shower given Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. W. Johns, superintendent of the adult department of the First Baptist Sunday school. Mrs. Beauchamp formerly was associate superintendent of the department, and the party was given by the general officers as well as the officers and teachers of the Women's Convention Bible class, the Bethany class, the Dorcas class, and the Fidelis Matrons.

Games were played in the prettily decorated rooms of the Malone home, and favors were given with lovely refreshments, plates, consisting of creamed chicken in pate, shells, heart-shaped cheese sticks, stuffed olives, fruit cake, whipped cream, and coffee.

The following attended: Mesdames Seth Beauchamp, C. E. Lanvaster, J. A. Meek, J. A. Arwood, Robert G. Seeds, E. L. Luper, A. C. Hazard, C. A. Barnes, Joe Foster, J. J. Long, R. E. Gatlin, C. L. Stephens, T. B. Rogers, F. E. Hoffman, T. W. Jamison, Lewis Davis, and G. C. Malone.

Card Theme Used At Linger Longer Meeting Thursday

A card theme in red and black was emphasized throughout a smartly planned bridge party given by Mrs. Jack Baker for the Linger Longer club Thursday afternoon.

One of the tables was covered with red under black tarleton and the other had black under red tarleton. To find their places, the players matched their red tallies, having black card symbols, with similarly designed mini cups. Mrs. Hollis Rabb scored high in the games.

Shaded lamps furnished the illumination for the serving of cranberry salad, ribbon sandwiches, chocolate cream puffs, and coffee.

Two guests, Mrs. H. N. Clay and Mrs. Clyde Oswald, and the following members joined in the games: Mesdames Hollis Rabb, E. J. Pafford, Jimmie Hopkins, L. N. Atchison, Ray Eaton, and the hostess.

Art Club Is To Sponsor Exhibit

All Pampa club members and others who are interested are invited to attend a pottery exhibit sponsored by the Arno Art club during the coming week.

The exhibit will be held at Pampa Furniture company, and hostess club members will be Mesdames C. L. Craig, E. Hooks, A. B. Goldston, John V. Andrews, T. W. Swatman, T. F. Morton, V. E. Patheres, and T. W. Jamison.

E. L. Sitter of McLean was in business Saturday.

YOUNG MUSICIANS FIND REAL POPULARITY

Even among grown-ups it is difficult to find a group of musicians so popular as the youngsters shown above. No child in the Woodrow Wilson Kid band is more than 11 years of age. The principal is Mrs. Annie Daniels; the director, Winston Savage; the pianist, Miss Lois Stallings. Reading from left to right the children include the following: First row—Buddy Wilson, Jeanne Lively, Alma Oliver, Eula Marie Anderson, Betty Jean Tlemann; second row—Jean Clay, Bonnie Oakes, Leta Mae Bell, Mary Jean Hill, Betty Jo Taylor, George Davis; third row—James Evans, Keith Records, Lucille Carlock, James Coburn. Absent members were Jeannette McMillen, David O'Keefe, and Lester Shirley. (Photo by Fred's Studio).

PAMPA DECLARED AMONG OUTSTANDING CITIES OF TEXAS IN WELFARE ACTIVITY; TEACHING THRIFT TO PUPILS IS STRESSED BY PARENTS, TEACHERS

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude State Publicity Chairman

Parent-Teacher workers throughout Texas consider particularly, in January, the subject of thrift and its relation to character education, with practical application to training children in thrift habits and to manage wisely on reduced incomes. Many organizations have been most active in aiding pupils who have been in need of clothing and lunches. Houston, Amarillo, Dallas, and Pampa have been outstanding along this line according to reports received.

Mrs. Sidney T. Gilmore, Sonora, state chairman of Thrift of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, sends to Congress units this message:

"Never before has the call for observance of 'Thrift' been so keenly felt, as the economic situation in which our people find themselves at the present time. It makes unusually appropriate the principles and practices which have been sponsored by the National Thrift Committee for the past fifteen years.

In 1932 we heard so much of the 'depression.' As the Parent-Teacher association has for one of its chief objectives 'trained parenthood,' your state chairman of Thrift would like to suggest that in 1933 we eliminate the D and the I from the overworked and much abused word 'depression,' which will leave in its stead the two words 'press on.'

"Current inquiries, regarding the general situation, suggest that most of us have been watching the waves of the tides. The tides are fundamental, the waves are transient, so let us with faith and courage enter 1933 trying to learn the true meaning of the word 'thrift,' also let us apply it not only during this Thrift week, January 17-23, but in each week of the year.

"By precept and by example let us teach our children that thrift does not only mean earning and saving money, but how to spend our earnings wisely, also how to conserve and how to spend our time, energy, and health. Thus the habits of thrift, learned in childhood, will make us a happier and more contented nation.

"Your individual responsibility is

Relief Work Is Done by Clubs Thru District

In the 48 counties which compose the seventh district, almost every club is engaged this year in some relief work. Relief work is especially the safeguarding of childhood during the hard times. Mrs. H. G. Brillhart of Perryton is chairman of the district committee on child welfare, co-ordinating her efforts with those of the state chairman, Mrs. Violet Greenhill of Houston.

Mrs. Brillhart is urging clubs to work with other agencies in caring for children and thus eliminate duplication and wasted effort. She recognizes that cooperation with the county judge, county health nurse, and school authorities is essential. That her work is effective is shown by the great number of clubs that are providing milk for undernourished school children, preparing hot lunches for other school children furnishing clothing for babies, and finding work for parents that they may take care of their own children.

Mrs. A. H. Doucette, who is in charge of the contest of the district, states that the contest is receiving special attention this year because the contest number is a composition of David Guion, one of Texas' most gifted and popular composers. Guion, who now has a studio in Dallas, recently at Ballinger and has intimately known American cowboy and negro life and from these sources has found the inspiration for the compositions which have brought him fame abroad and at home. The selection to be used for the district contest is "Howdy Do Mis' Springtime."

The men of Hereford are taking an active interest in the district convention which will be held there April 19, 20, and 21. Mrs. Bob Wilton, league chairman, recently was invited to speak to the Lions club on convention plans.

Hereford women who are working on special tasks in connection with the convention are Mrs. P. M. Kester and Mrs. P. H. Gilliland, assistant chairmen; Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, local program committee, who will assist the district chairman, Mrs. Tom Rose of Pampa; Mrs. A. A. Foster on the credentials committee; Mrs. O. G. Hill, homes; Mrs. H. D. Reed, finance; Mrs. Nettie Price, station, decorations; Mrs. E. J. Harrison, transportation; Mrs. John Olson, page; Mrs. A. O. Thompson, social; Mrs. G. A. F. Parker, and Mrs. Jess Stamford, pianists.

Fifteen rural key women are helping the assistance of every Mrs. O. J. McAlister was named co-chairman; Mrs. Chandler, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. Buzbee, personal service chairman; Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle, social chairman; Mrs. G. C. Stark, mission study chairman; Mrs. T. M. Gillham, reporter and publicity chairman.

The meeting was opened with a song, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Mitchell and prayer by Mrs. Stark. The mission book, "Today's Supreme Challenge to America," was chosen for the next study. Twelve women were present.

Rev. W. A. Erwin of McLean was here Saturday.

Mrs. Mitchell to Be Circle Chairman

Mrs. R. M. Mitchell was chosen to head the Bethany circle, Central Baptist W. M. S., as chairman when the circle met recently in the home of Mrs. H. C. Chandler.

Mrs. O. J. McAlister was named co-chairman; Mrs. Chandler, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. Buzbee, personal service chairman; Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle, social chairman; Mrs. G. C. Stark, mission study chairman; Mrs. T. M. Gillham, reporter and publicity chairman.

The meeting was opened with a song, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Mitchell and prayer by Mrs. Stark. The mission book, "Today's Supreme Challenge to America," was chosen for the next study. Twelve women were present.

Rev. W. A. Erwin of McLean was here Saturday.

COSTUMES OF LONG AGO TO BE IN FAVOR

DARRELL JACKSON TO BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

"Come and join in a good old-fashioned party with a good old-fashioned meal and a good old-fashioned time."

So urge those in charge of the Founders day supper to be given for A. A. U. W. members, their husbands, and illustrators, Jan. 19 at 8:30 o'clock in the Schneider hotel. The annual event is to celebrate the founding of the local branch of the A. A. U. W. six years ago and to involve the spirit of the national Founders day.

Darrell Jackson, Amarillo attorney, will be principal speaker, discussing the early 80s. He and his wife, Amy Jackson, will wear old-time costumes, as will most of the other guests at the supper. Mrs. Jackson, a teacher of art, has just completed illustrating the Junior League cook book. Another special guest will be Gene Howe, more commonly known as "Old Tack," and Mrs. Howe. Mrs. H. H. Hicks of Pampa will be toastmistress.

Mrs. J. B. Massa, program chairman, Mrs. Hicks, and Mrs. T. E. Rose have arranged other features for the supper which they have not yet revealed.

Decorations will be in keeping with the old-time theme, and Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. G. C. Walstad, and Mrs. Purviance have been placed on a committee to locate old-fashioned clothes. Information regarding the clothing may be received from this committee.

Reservations for members and guests must be made not later than 9 o'clock Tuesday night. Plates will be 50 cents each.

Miss Robertson Is Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Saunders entertained Friday evening as a courtesy to Miss Beulah Robertson. The party was a birthday surprise for the honoree.

Games of various kinds were enjoyed, and light refreshments were served.

Installation Held By Rainbow Girls

Legion Auxiliary Membership Large During Year 1932

The American Legion auxiliary closed the year of 1932 with a loss of only one per cent in membership, according to final membership figures for the year received by the local auxiliary unit from national headquarters in Indianapolis. The auxiliary's national enrollment for 1932 was 406,853 members, 4,750 less than in 1931, when the largest membership in the organization's history was enrolled.

Approximately 160,000 auxiliary members paid their dues in advance for 1933, the organization starting the year with nearly 40 per cent of its members re-enrolled for the new year. The advance enrollment for 1933 was larger than for any other year, except 1931 and 1932.

HASKELL GIVEN TERM

ALSKELL, Jan. 14. (P)—Homer Altman, former Stoneval county tenant farmer, was found guilty of murder by a jury here today in the slaying of Sam Turner, ranchman, in February, 1931. His punishment was set at five years in the penitentiary.

The main topic of discussion at Austin was the financing of the general headquarters building. This building planned just before the de-

Texas Was Sure 'Tough' in 1878!

There were 377 homicides in Texas in 1878, according to statistics recently released. Of that number, 313 were from the gun menace.

The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in searching through "Redfields Home-icide, North and South" found a quotation from the Galveston News which carried the fact that there were 401 homicides in Texas in 1878.

Therefore, figures show, that there was one homicide for every 4,000 persons in 1878 while in 1932 there was one homicide for every 15,000 persons.

The south has more homicides than the north, according to the book.

A SEAT in the CABINET?

Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia, mentioned for at least half the cabinet posts, is known to the public for a variety of activities.

A successful newspaper publisher in his teens, he branched out into apple growing, general farming, banking and the storage business, mixing these with politics since he was 28 years old.

Politics brought him prominently into the public eye. After eight years at Richmond as senator he became governor at 38 and immediately launched a sweeping reform of the state government.

Since he left the governor's office in 1930 he has devoted his time to his businesses and the democratic party.

After defeat for the presidential nomination at Chicago he offered his services to President-elect Roosevelt and became the campaign treasurer.

A member of a family prominent-ly identified with the history of Virginia since it was a colony, Byrd nevertheless has insisted always that he is just a small-town newspaper man and farmer.

Pampan Dies of Gunshot Wounds Here on Friday

The body of John N. Fulps, 55, was sent to Lockhart last night by the Stephenson Mortuary. Mr. Fulps died at his home Friday afternoon.

Death was due to gunshot wounds self-inflicted, an inquest conducted by W. S. Baxter, revealed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulps moved to Pampa last May, when Mr. Fulps became a member of the Pampa Implement company. They resided at 413 North Davis street.

Besides his wife, Mr. Fulps is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. T. Oliver, Pampa, and four sons, J. W. Jr., and William, Pampa; Cordell, Marchfield, Calif.; and Littleton, Liberal, Kan. Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. Teresa Fulps, Lockhart; three sisters, Mrs. Carl Voss, San Antonio; Mrs. Jim Jolly, Arp; and Mrs. M. D. Finley, Fort Howard, Md.; four brothers, W. H., Douglas, Ariz.; H. F., Fort Worth; George E., Chicago; and James, Lockhart.

County Will Have Three Jury Terms

Seeking to save the county the expense of one jury term of county court, Judge C. E. Cary has instituted a new schedule of terms effective for one year.

There will be three jury terms instead of four, and with the expiration of the one starting on the third Monday in February terms will begin on first Mondays of alternate terms and continue for the rest of the calendar months.

After defeat for the presidential nomination at Chicago he offered his services to President-elect Roosevelt and became the campaign treasurer.

WALTERS APPOINTED L. C. Walters has been named Pampa representative of the American Automobile association (A. A. A.) and will maintain headquarters in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall.

Walters will handle memberships, renewals, policies, road information, and courtesy cards of the organization. It is the first time in several years that Pampa has had a representative.

NOTICE A meeting of the stockholders of the Pampa hospital will be held at the Pampa hospital at 10 a. m. Jan. 14, 1933 for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14. (AP)—U. S. D. A.—Cattle trade during the week under review was featured by a fairly broad demand for light weight fed steers and yearlings at strong to unevenly higher prices.

Several markets showed upturns of 25-50. Light mixed yearlings, fed steers and lower grade light weight steers sold to an especially good advantage. Medium weight and heavy steers were on a steady to 25 higher basis.

Trade on hogs has been somewhat uneven with some centers closing steady to 15 higher with a week ago while other markets show losses of 5-15. St. Louis had a late top of 3.35. Total offerings for the week were around 524,700 against 431,375 last week.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP)—An outbreak of concentrated selling pitched wheat values backward late today, and more than offset earlier gains.

Much of the selling which accompanied the break in wheat was attributed to sudden liquidation of holdings by a large professional trader. Stop-loss orders from other sources were automatically thrown on the market as a result of the quick fall of prices.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 14. (AP)—Trading in cotton was very moderate in today's short session and prices fluctuated narrowly and without any definite tendency, closing steady net 1 point down to 1 up.

During the second hour prices rallied slightly on trade buying and in sympathy with some improvement in stocks and wheat. March advanced to 6.18, may to 6.29 and July to 6.41 or 4 to 7 points above the early lows. There was a reaction of a point or two at the end on realizing and March closed at 6.16 or net unchanged for the day. May at 6.28 or 1 point net down and July at 6.40, net unchanged.

HARVESTERS BRUSH ASIDE MIAMI'S THREAT IN 56-4 ROUT

ONLY 1 FIELD GOAL LOOPED BY WARRIORS

JAWS NOSED OUT IN 21-20 BATTLE BY 'ETTES

Miles Marbaugh, elevated Harvester forward, contained his assistant chortling in Miami Friday night to help the Harvesters spectacularly and accurately a 56 to 4 victory over the Miami Warriors. The Harvesters in a 21 to 20 thriller from the Miami Squaws.

The Warriors didn't buy a chance against the Harvesters until Oats Mitchell substituted second string at the beginning of the second half with the score 0 to 0. Miami had the ball on occasions in the first half, Marbaugh stood under basket and the balance of the game with a nice shot outside the defense. He added a free throw a few minutes in the second quarter, added the point with another free throw. The Harvesters have played four games in the Panhandle league and have scored 162 points, the opposition's 87 points. Marbaugh is leading the parade with 28 points when the LeFors pirates came to Pampa.

BROWN BUYS CLUB SHARE

'Satchel Mouth' Comedian Now Owns Third of K. C. Blues.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 14. (AP)—A life-long ambition to possess an important position in a baseball club came to fulfillment today for Joe E. Brown, the film comedian of the spreading mouth, with agreement to buy one-third share in the Kansas City club of the American association.

Joe, who has a wise-crack for most any occasion, revealed to the press his ambition to own a share in the club. That will be left to his old friend, Tris Speaker, between pictures the fans of the American association may expect to see the grinning face of the comedian wherever the Blues are playing.

Motion picture player that he is, Joe does not intend to allow films to make a sideline out of baseball for him. He does not expect to manage the club. That will be left to his old friend, Tris Speaker, between pictures the fans of the American association may expect to see the grinning face of the comedian wherever the Blues are playing.

Hopkins Cagers Show Up Well in Mobeetie Meet

The high school Gorilla basketball team was eliminated from the Mobeetie Invitation tournament Friday night when they lost to the Shamrock Irishmen 21 to 19. Coach Warren Moore's boys played their best ball of the season and only weak guarding last the game.

Moore was high point scorer of the game with 10 points. He was followed by Irwin with four points. Clevis Green accounted for three points and Carr and Moore one each. Moore and Carr started at guard positions but were relieved by Smith, Scott, and Burgess during the game.

Coach Moore was well pleased with the showing made by his team. He is going to work on the guard positions for the next week and will then be ready for some stiff competition.

PAMPA'S CAGE TEAM ONE OF BEST IN TWO DISTRICTS OF PANHANDLE, SCORES SHOW

Several Clubs Rank About Even; Final Stages Of Race To Be Close.

It's beginning to appear now that Pampa had might as well win the district basketball championship as any other team in the district. An analysis of scores made recently by leading contenders for the title indicates that Pampa's Harvesters are just about as good as any in the Canyon or Lubbock districts. Technically, the Pampa cagers have an edge on any club in the district. The boys have only to surcharge themselves with half the fighting spirit that has characterized Harvester football teams in the past, and the crown will be theirs.

Pampa has already won from and lost games to the strongest teams in the Panhandle and South Plains. The Harvesters have defeated Amarillo, Happy and Plainview, and they have dropped games to the last two teams, but by close scores. Last week, the Happy Jacks were defeated by Plainview's Bulldogs 34 to 33 in the last few seconds of the game when a substitute forward, Lowry, made good two free shots for Plainview. Happy led during the entire game. Earlier in the week, Happy was defeated by Quitaque 24 to 23 at Happy.

In both of the games, Happy's center, C. Barnard was high-point man. He made 12 points in the Plainview battle. He is the man the Harvesters may have to stop in the district play-off-providing of course that Happy noses out Quitaque for the sectional title. Hedley, it appears has the best team in the other half of this section. Panhandle, White Deer and Hedley have beaten Clarence, but not by as big a score as the Harvesters.

Lubbock claims to have the best team in the Westerners' district. The Lubbock quintet defeated Amarillo by the same score by which Pampa won from the Sandies—three points. Sports writers in Lubbock stated recently that the Westerners have the best basketball team in the history of the school. Of course, that's bad news for the Harvesters, but the Pampans should not go to Lubbock January 20 feeling like underdogs.

Amarillo should beat Vega and cop the sub-section pennant. The Sandies easily downed Dumas 40 to 22 Friday night. Perryton lays claim to the best team in the north plains section. The Perryton boys have beaten Spearman, Gruver, Higgins, Felt, and are proclaiming their supremacy. Nothing has been heard from the Dalhart section. Stratford has produced some powerful teams in the past, and so has Dalhart, but whether either school has clubs of champions either this year or next is a score that is hard to know.

However, the sub-section winner is certain to be either Dalhart or Stratford, with the odds favoring Dalhart.

The teams to watch, it now appears, are Quitaque, Plainview, Happy, Hedley, Amarillo, Perryton, and possibly Gruver.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Hess and children and Mrs. M. A. Hess, all of Amarillo, were expected in Pampa this week-end to visit Mr. and Mrs. Guy Saunders.

Eight-Semester Rule Not Likely To Be Repealed

The eight-semester rule, which makes it impossible for a high school student to participate in athletics if he has been in high school eight semesters, will probably go into effect this year as voted last year. In a letter to The NEWS, Roy B. Henderson of the Texas Intercollegiate league writes: "While the state executive committee of the league has not yet formally passed upon the recommendation from the Fort Worth meeting, knowing the attitude of the committee as I do, I do not believe the eight-semester rule will be resubmitted."

"Thanking you for your interest, Roy B. Henderson."

The Fort Worth meeting, mentioned by Mr. Henderson was held last September and was attended by teachers from many schools of the state. They voted by an overwhelming majority to have the rule abolished or changed to read that a student could participate in athletics in his senior year, providing he had less than 12 credits when he entered his senior year.

It was the opinion of the meeting that the eight-semester rule, along with the one-year transfer rule, would work a hardship upon athletes and schools alike.

It is believed that steps will be taken to remove high school athletics from under the wing of the Texas Intercollegiate league so that students will not be suppressed. Superintendent R. B. Fisher is in favor of following in the footsteps of Oklahoma, where a state high school association was formed to control athletics.

DEAL DENIED
WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 14. (AP)—Denial that a deal was pending between the Longview baseball club and the San Antonio interests for the transfer of the Longview Texas league club to the Alamo city was made here today by L. C. McEvoy of St. Louis, president of the Longview club and vice-president of the St. Louis Browns who own a controlling interest in the Texas league franchise.

A Ford truck covered with coyote hides aroused much interest in downtown Pampa this morning. The hides were hanging from the cab and sides of the truck. There were 51 pelts dangling from the truck.

The coyotes were killed by Roy Sewell and Joe Bowers during the last 60 days. Everyone of them was killed within 45 miles of Pampa. Dogs were used in most instances. The men have four dogs which they carry in the truck. They were long-legged fellows capable of covering a lot of ground in a short time.

Both hunters and dogs have become experts at the game.

BABE LOSES IN BILLIARDS

Didrikson Makes First Pro Appearance in Gotham Cage Game.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Babe Didrikson, all-round athletic star from Texas, today made her second appearance as a professional, this time at pocket billiards, and was defeated by Ruth McGinnis, of Honesdale, Pa., 100 to 11, in 26 innings.

"I don't want any more of this," Babe said as she walked away from the table after completing the first block of a series of four she and Miss McGinnis will play through tomorrow.

The Pennsylvania girl, who has been playing billiards since she was 7, was the complete master of the Babe, having runs of 18, 15 and 14 as compared to the cluster of 5 Babe put together for her best effort.

Miss Didrikson made her first professional appearance last night in a basketball game where she scored nine points to lead the scoring as her team won 19-16.

SCOUT NEWS
Troop 20, Clarence Cunningham, scribe, Practice for the Boy Scout roundup which takes place in February took up most of the meeting in the basement of the city hall Friday night. The troop will take an active part at the roundup. Games were played and troop business transacted during the evening.

PAUL RUNYAN WINS OPEN AT AGUA CALIENTE

TEXAS YOUTH TURNS IN ANOTHER CARD OF SIXTY-NINE

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Jan. 14. (AP)—A young but experienced golfer, Paul Runyan, won the $7,500 fourth annual Agua Caliente open, scoring a victory over par and a select list of professionals here today with a 72 hole total of 287.

A thrilling rally on the last nine accounted for the 2-stroke margin by which the 24-year-old pro from Arkansas and White Plains, N. Y., trounced his pal, Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., who played in the same threesome and was the runner-up.

Runyan was tied for first at the end of the third day with Craig Wood, Deal, N. J., who had won open tournaments at San Francisco, Pasadena, and Los Angeles before the western winter trail led him here. They had totals of 217, and Horton Smith was two strokes behind them.

Young Ray Mangrum, the Texan from Los Angeles, made a marvelous comeback to tie for 10th place.

STRANGE INTERLUDE

Serial of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film "Strange Interlude," starring Norma Shearer and Clark Gable, from the play by Eugene O'Neill and directed by Robert Z. Leonard.

FINAL INSTALLMENT

Finding that there is a streak of insanity in her husband's family, and knowing that a child means so much to him, Nina Leeds has a child by Dr. Ned Darrell, with whom she has been in love for a long time. The boy instinctively hates Darrell and does not hesitate to show it.

"Ned!" Nina exclaimed sharply. "You ought to be ashamed! You know how grateful Sam has always been to you!"

"Would he be grateful if he knew how much I'd really done for him?" Darrell asked bitingly.

"Ned!" Nina burst out. "Gordon suddenly jumped up and confronted Darrell, his fists clenched grimly, with rage."

"You shut up," he stammered out, "making fun of my father!"

"My dear boy," Darrell answered mockingly, "I wouldn't make fun of your father for the world."

"You — you did, too. I hate you!"

Nina was shocked and indignant. "Gordon! How dare you talk like that to your Uncle Ned?"

"He's not my uncle!" Gordon shouted rebelliously. "He's not my anything!"

"Not another word or you'll be punished, whether it's your birthday or not!"

"I don't care! I'll tell Dad!" Gordon said sullenly.

"Go back to your friends in there! And don't come near me again, do you hear, until you've apologized to Uncle Ned."

"Oh, never mind, Nina!"

"I won't apologize — never!" Gordon said going out of the room.

"I can't understand a m. Ned —" Nina said bitterly.

"Perhaps he realizes subconsciously that I am his father, his rival in your love. If he realized how little you love me any more, he wouldn't bother!"

"Is it possible you can still love me, Ned?"

"I must, or I'd never act this fool way, would I?"

"And I must love you," Nina smiled back.

"You've given me the only happiness I've ever known! And no matter what I may say or do in bitterness, I'm proud and grateful, Nina."

"Dearest, it's wonderful of you to say that! Can't we be brave enough for you to go away . . . now . . . on this note . . . sure of our love . . . with no ugly bitterness for a moment? And work this time — Really work!"

"I'll try, Nina."

"Forget me, Ned — pick up your life as it was before I entered it — carry on — do really big things and make me proud of you —"

"That's simple enough to say, Nina."

"But you must, Ned — there's no place in our lives for each other now — there, Gordon to be considered — my life must be his — he's old enough to notice — to question — and we must never let him know the truth —"

"Everyone must be spared — but us —"

"Ned —"

"Sorry — you're right — I will go away — stay away — we'll write him to this chapter. Good-bye, Nina."

"Thanks — and goodbye — dear."

Growing to manhood, Gordon became a great college athlete, the pride of his promisc father, and the focus of his mother's passionate affection. She was furious when she learned of his engagement, wanting to keep him for herself, jealous that any other woman should possess him. Darrell had returned, and she begged him to help keep Gordon for her, but he refused to interfere in any more lives and despised her for the havoc she had wrought.

Charlie Marsden, suspecting Nina's relationship with Darrell, was triumphant when he believed that she had turned against her lover. Nina tried to warn Gordon's fiancée of the inherent sanity of the Evans people, but Darrell stopped her lie, and comforted the girl, who was sympathetically tolerant of Nina's outburst. Sam suffered a stroke induced by excitement when Gordon's team won a great college boat race, and as they realized his helplessness, Darrell and Nina both knew that once again they must act aside their own feelings, honor-bound to care for the man who had ignorantly trusted them so implicitly.

Nina, in a hysteria of resignation, vowed to devote herself to Sam's care, and to step aside unselfishly for the sake of her son's happiness.

Charlie Marsden, witnessing Evans' sudden stroke thought to himself gloatingly that now he would not have very long to wait. And two months later Sam Evans died. Madeline, the boy's wife now, and Gordon accompanied Nina and Ned and Charlie to the Evans estate on Long Island.

Before leaving Gordon went in to speak to his mother. Ned Darrell was with her. Continually, Gordon continued to sneer at Ned. And when Darrell sternly cautioned him, Gordon stepped forward and slapped him across the face. Darrell staggered back from the force of the blow. Nina screamed, and, jumping up, flung herself on "Gordon, holding his arms.

"Gordon!" she moaned piteously. "What would your father say? You don't know what you're doing! You're hitting your father!"

Gordon was crushed by remorse. "I'm sorry," he stammered. "Dad would feel as if I'd hit him — just as bad as if I'd hit him."

He turned to Darrell and apologized very humbly.

Then Madeline and Gordon were gone. Charlie Marsden walked into the room as Ned was saying good-bye to Nina. The roar of an airplane motor told all three that Gordon and his wife were leaving, too. They waved, and the airplane circled over the estate, then straightened out and sped into the distance.

When Ned Darrell was gone, too, Nina sat in a deep chair beside Charlie. She leaned her head against his shoulder.

"You're so restless, Charlie — I feel as if I were a girl again and you were my father and the Charlie of those days made into one. I wonder in our old garden the same? We'll pick flowers together in the aging afternoons of spring and summer . . . I'm so contently weary with life . . ."

Marsden winced automatically. "Dear old Charlie!" — and then looked down at Nina and smiled.

"God bless dear old Charlie," he murmured, "who, passed beyond desire, has all the luck at last!"

City Hall Basement To House Library

Partitioning of the east side of the city hall basement for use of the Pampa Library is under way. Steady growth of the library patronage necessitated finding of larger quarters, which the basement provides. Books and shelving will be moved to the new quarters by men furnishing by the federal relief committee. More than 1,500 persons are using the library.

WILL SPEAK

Wearing an old-time costume, Darrell Jackson, above, of Amarillo will speak on the early '90s when he attends the old-fashioned supper to be given by the Pampa branch of the A. A. U. W. Thursday evening. Gene H. W. below, widely known as "Old Tack," will be among the special guests.

Robert Paul Certain of Miami was admitted to Worley hospital again yesterday afternoon.

Addison Harris was taken to his home in the Baek community from Worley hospital yesterday.

M. W. Brooks of Oklahoma City was a Pampa visitor Thursday.

Canadian Boys To Play Miami Tuesday Night

CANADIAN, Jan. 14.—The Canadian Wildcatters, boys' basketball team, and the high school girls will go to Miami next Tuesday evening for a double-header. The locals have the edge, according to dope, since they won a couple of games here last week from Miami, but they are liable to run into more opposition as the Miami teams will be out for revenge. As the Canadian girls won by a good margin they are not expected to have much trouble, but the boys game was close, and it is liable to be a fight from start to finish. Coach Ward has a couple of new forwards who will probably strengthen his lineup and add to his scoring possibilities. The locals will try hard to take both games, as they are both conference contests.

Three Girls On Canadian Team Unusually Tall

CANADIAN, Jan. 14.—The Canadian high school girls' basketball team bids fair to establish a record in this section. In their first three games, they have scored 157 points, taking the measure of Miami, LeFors, and Pampa with ease.

Coach Carpenter believes his team will take sectional honors, unless some accidents happen to keep some of his stars out of the game. He has a couple of forwards, Fulgim and Sims, who are 5 feet 11 inches, and both are hitting the baskets regularly. It will take some good guards to keep them from piling up a score in any game. He also has a center, Cleo Miller, who looks down from a height of almost six feet.

Captain Helton at running center will do her share, and Halsey and Fletcher at the guard positions can stay with the fleetest of forwards. Coach Carpenter has some good reserves who are fall, and with such material he hopes to put out a winning team.

C. O. Green, chairman of the McLean community chest, was in Pampa yesterday.

Norman To Furnish 'Hot Cha' Rhythm For Artists Ball

Joe Norman's well-known orchestra of Amarillo will furnish "hot cha" music for the "depression dance" to be given by the Youth Theater at the Pla-Mor auditorium, Thursday evening, January 26, according to Mrs. Ruby McConnell, chairman of the committee. "That ballroom when we get it ready for our dance will look like the depression had struck it, and where?" Mrs. McConnell said. She let it be known that the decoration committee is going to make such a drastic change in its interior that one won't be able to recognize anything except the goal posts, and of course these aren't any goal posts. The decorations "moo-test" it is understood will be "hot cha, technocracy and the depression." Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. Julian Barrett and George Limerick will make invitations, but they won't look like invitations next week. "The friends might as well be prepared for a shock," said Mrs. McConnell. Joe Norman informed the committee yesterday that he would be "saving everything for that dance. We'll shoot our 1933 musical wed for that night—or will we shoot it . . . for les artistes bal."

MILLER SUIT CALLED PAUL

MILLER SUIT CALLED PAUL. PA., Jan. 14. (AP)—Col. Zach Miller, former owner of the 191 raceh at Miami, Okla., today said he would hire dice several surprise witnesses in a $32,000 breach of contract suit against Tom Miller, movie cowboy when it goes to trial again next week. A former verdict for $3,000 in Miller's favor was appealed and set aside by state courts. TIME FOR APPLICATIONS. Persons wishing to be given notary public commissions by the state are advised to make immediate application. Applications may be made to Representative John Yeargan, Senator O. C. Small, both at Austin, or to County Clerk Charles Thut.

PAUL

Paul Mangrum led at the half way mark, but while playing with Wood yesterday he dropped nine strokes in the blind giant, and fell well back. But today Mangrum turned the corner with a par 36, and came home in 33 for a 69, the best score of the day, which gave him a 72 total of 200, and a tie with Wood. Mangrum made a spectacular finish, shooting 35-23-69. It was the second round of 69, low card of the tournament, for the Waco, Texas, youth, and was three strokes under par. It was putting on a great fashion show today, and was dead to the ground on half of the holes with a steady iron game which had marked his early rounds. His card: Cut 453 3 3 630-30 In 443 443 344-33-30-69-299

TODAY Two New Style Leaders THE 1933 OLDSMOBILES PRICES REDUCED $130 TO $145 'A Roomier more Powerful Six $745 * A Larger more Luxurious Eight $845 NEW! . . . Two motor cars entirely different from anything you ever saw. New radiators—lamps—hoods—wind-shields. New fenders and wheels. New rear contours. Symmetrical new design from end to end. And with style leadership, these 1933 Oldsmobiles also bring you every other desirable quality—at the lowest prices in ten years. Larger—Roomier—More Powerful The new Six is a roomier, more comfortable car . . . The Eight is larger and finer in every respect. Both are extremely brilliant performers. And progressive engineering has still further increased the dependability for which Oldsmobile is famous. The Six engine is larger and develops 80 h.p.—while the Eight has been increased to 90 h.p. As a result, the new Six will do from 75 to 80; the Eight from 80 to 85—actual stop-watch miles per hour. Engines Cradled in Rubber The new Oldsmobile engines are cushioned on a three-point rubber mounting of new scientific design. This mounting is the most successful yet perfected, and overcomes all sensation of effort or vibration from the source of power. Lower, Sturdier Chassis In both the new Six and Straight Eight, Oldsmobile has employed a special double-drop X-type frame which greatly strengthens the chassis and provides unusual driving stability. By permitting a substantial reduction in the car's height, the new frame contributes also to the pleasing new body lines. Fisher No Draft Ventilation Outwardly and inwardly, Oldsmobile's new Fisher bodies offer many important refinements. For instance, the revolutionary new Fisher No Draft Ventilation, Individually Controlled, is built into all closed models. Demand Balanced Excellence! Don't compromise, this year! Demand style, performance, and durability, at prices which represent top value. The new Oldsmobile Six and Eight—two outstanding General Motors values—offer you balanced excellence in everything essential to motoring pleasure, comfort and satisfaction. The 1933 Oldsmobile Sixes range in price from $745—the Eights from $845—f. o. b. Lansing. Bumpers and spare tires are extra. Convenient G.M.A.C. time payment plan.

SHEARER AND GABLE PRAISED FOR NEW FILM

EXTRAORDINARY MOVIE FROM STAGE IS HERE

Heralded as the most extraordinary motion picture ever to reach the talking screen, "Strange Interlude," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's dramatization of the Eugene O'Neill drama which ran on Broadway for a year and a half and won the Pulitzer prize award for the finest play of the season of 1928-29, will open today at the LaNora theater.

Second Joint Appearance. The principal roles in the talkie version of O'Neill's brilliant psychiatric study are played by Norma Shearer and Clark Gable, who are together again for the first time since their successful joint appearance in "A Free Soul." Miss Shearer enacts the role played in the stage version by Lynn Fontanne, while Gable has the part of the young doctor.

Other leading roles are filled by Alexander Kirkland, prominent New York stage player; Ralph Morgan, repeating the role he played in the original Theatre Guild production of "Strange Interlude"; Robert Young, who recently scored in "Unashamed"; May Robson, veteran character actress; Maureen O'Sullivan, last seen in "Slyscrapers"; Henry B. Walthall, Mary Alden and Tad Alexander. The picture was directed by Robert Leonard, who produced "Susan Lennox," one of Clara Carter's biggest hits. "Strange Interlude" has been called the most daring venture ever attempted in motion pictures, chiefly because of its ultra-sophisticated theme, which deals with a neurotic woman who undergoes a series of intensely dramatic sensual experiences, also because of its dialogue "asides," in which the actors express themselves politely and then hastily reveal their private opinions, which are totally at variance with the spoken expression. To achieve this effect, Director Leonard first made a "take" in which only the "thoughts" were recorded. Each scene was then taken again with the players speaking their regular lines, the "thoughts" being played back and re-recorded to fit in with the dialogue.

"Strange Interlude" offers brilliant examples of the art of screen makeup for the first time. Dick Hughes will direct the production. Members of the cast follow: Judge Atherton, I. A. Freeman, a mad moon-gazer who has evolved strange theories about life while watching the full moon send a golden, gilded pathway across the ocean which roars below the windows of his home; Madame Atherton, his wife, Mrs. Earl Powell who has become calm and serene through years of suffering; Laura Atherton, Mrs. E. M. Conley, selfish, cruel, vicious, head-strong mother of Jane Atherton; Mrs. A. B. Goldston, who to her mother's rage and anger falls in love with Major Bannister, Paul M. LeBeuf, an aviator who wrecked his ship near the Atherton home on the sea. Thomas, an old sea-dog and survivor of many a wreck, will be played by Paul Camp. Thomas is the loyal slave of Judge Atherton. Newt Dilley will portray the role of Dr. Wetherell who explains in detail why the Athertons go moon-mad and why they act as they do. He is the family physician. Walter Higgs, Major Bannister's mechanic, will be Neal Bean.

Dick Hughes has appointed a group of "chemical engineers" from the Cabot company to achieve the stage properties, including lighting and synchronization. They are R. C. Allen, Art Swanson and Ed Damon. The sound of the surf will be heard throughout the play. A beautiful curtain showing the "billowing waves" of the sea has been obtained and will form the background for the play. The "engineers" will also provide gadgets to furnish sea-fog and the whirr of an airplane.

Mrs. R. G. Hughes was able to leave Pampa hospital yesterday.

APES PROVIDE MANY THRILLS IN REX MOVIE

MARTIN JOHNSON AND MRS. JOHNSON ARE NERVY

The ear-splitting scream of the gorilla, the terrifying roar of the lion, the mighty trumpeting of the elephant, these and many other of the wild native noises of the jungle come bellowing out at you in all their thrilling vibrancy from the screen of the Rex theater, where Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson's new film, "Congorilla," starts today.

This awe-exciting production, the first all-sound picture ever to come out of the heart of the Central African jungle, is the most amazing picture of its kind ever shown on a local screen. For the first time one sees actual close-ups of the giant gorilla, locked in mortal combat, baring his man-crushing teeth and beating his hairy chest in stark ferocity as he charges the camera. Not once does he charge, but time and time again rising up on his haunches in all his raging fury before the death-defying explorers.

These shots of the big apes are beyond question the most remarkable all-sound pictures ever made of jungle life. Not only will you thrill to them but it will be many a day before you forget your meeting with these vicious, man-like beasts.

And in contrast to the large apes are some most interesting shots of the world's smallest race of people, the pygmies, who inhabit the great Itira Forest in the Belgian Congo. The Johnsons lived with these grotesque savages for seven months, photographing every mode of their every-day life, their weird songs and dances, the queer music and tribal rites and their peculiar hunting expeditions, armed only with their tiny bows and arrows. "Congorilla" brings to you widest Africa—its wildest Africa really is. Every native sound you hear on the screen was recorded in the depths of the jungle. It took two years for the Johnsons to make this film, and it is a credit to their fearlessness, the spirit of adventure and their high regard for realism. It is a film you should see and one that you will long remember.

REGENTS NOT CONFIRMED
AUSTIN, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Senate today confirmed all of Governor R. S. Sterling's recent appointments except three to the board of regents of the University of Texas and the same number to the state board of education. These had not yet been considered by the state committee on governor's nominations.

Mrs. Jack Griggs returned from Dumas Friday night.

Harry Bloom of Lubbock arrived here yesterday on an extended visit with Murray Freundlich.

BUTTER--

crat to figure that out either," Mr. Gerhard said. "The government has scored our butter at 91." Of course, that is a good score for butter. But the creamery is equipped to make good butter. Since Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard began building a modern creamery in Pampa, they have installed about $140,000 worth of machinery in the new building. There is so much window space (about 55 per cent) for the sunlight to pour through that it is like sitting in the sun.

The most recent improvements include a condenser that really would a technocrat to explain its intricate workings and manipulations. Anyway, it's solid copper. Two engines generate the plant's electricity.

What would you think the farmers in the Pampa territory are the most interested in? The price of wheat? Oil? Hardly! According to Mr. Gerhard, they are now making their living by selling milk products and produce, and they are interested in knowing market prices for milk products and produce. So Mr. Gerhard is advised by telegram every day from Los Angeles just what the market prices are for the benefit of the farmers. The cream from which the butter is made comes from Gray, Carson, Donley and Wheeler counties. Most of the farmers trade their cream checks for groceries and other necessities of life.

Wife Hopeful But Not Certain That Meers Will Be Released by Mexico

EL PASO, Jan. 13. (AP)—Outcome of a contemplated international exchange of prisoners was awaited hopefully today by Mrs. Jeff Meers, whose husband was held in a Mexican penitentiary for the killing of a Mexican waiter he mistakenly identified as the slayer of his father.

A Mexican prisoner, Jose Carrasco, sentenced to life imprisonment in 1927 for alleged participation in the bank messenger holdup in which Meers' father, a bank guard, was slain, figures in the proposed trade. Carrasco was taken from a Texas prison farm to the El Paso county jail some six months ago by Texas rangers pending completion of negotiations.

About two years and a half ago young Meers went to a Juarez saloon and shot the waiter Antonio Visconti, in the erroneous belief he was avenging the murder of his father. He had acted under the delusion that Visconti was Manuel Villarreal, border desperado credited with killing his father.

He learned subsequently of his tragic mistake but was convicted of murder and transferred to the Chihuahua state penitentiary at Chihuahua City. Efforts to liberate him have been carried on steadily but with little result until Roberto Fierro became governor of Chihuahua.

Publicity Suppressed
Governor R. S. Sterling of Texas and Governor Fierro started negotiations and Carrasco was taken to the El Paso jail. The sheriff of El Paso county was instructed to hold Carrasco for "investigation." No further orders relative to his disposal have been issued.

El Paso newspapers suppressed publicity concerning the proposed exchange for fear it would hinder arrangements.

Nothing was said of the affair recently until Attorney General James V. Allred announced in Austin yesterday that he and Judge Ballard Caldwell of El Paso had been instrumental in having Meers' death sentence commuted to seven years imprisonment. It was revealed that the commutation took place last September.

indicated he would. "That is a matter for the prison board," he replied.

H. J. Lutcher Stark of Orange, Dr. K. H. Ayresworth of Waco, and L. J. Sulak of LaGrange were named to the board of regents of the University of Texas.

E. J. Kiest of Dallas was re-named to membership on the board of directors of Texas A. & M. college, a place he held under the administration of Gov. R. S. Sterling. Members of the live stock sanitary board were named as follows: Leo Callan of San Antonio, chairman, Dr. E. F. Jarrell of Smith county, and W. M. Glenn of Angelina county.

Frank Hamer Ignored.
Ranger captains designated were J. E. Vaughn of Presidio county, D. E. Hamer of Dallas county, James Robbins of Bexar county, H. T. O'Neal of Pecos county, R. W. Aldrich of Travis county, and E. H. Hammond of Harris county.

D. E. Hamer is a brother of Captain Frank Hamer, veteran Ranger captain, who has served in that capacity intermittently for more than two decades. The retiring Hamer did not serve as a Ranger during Mrs. Ferguson's administration in 1925-26, but he was a special investigator with the adjutant general's office during that period.

Captain Tom Hickman of Fort Worth is another colorful Texas Ranger who will quit the service with induction of the new administration. Aldrich returns as a captain after having served through the Moody administration.

Inaugural Scorned.
AUSTIN, Jan. 14 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling today formally announced he would not participate in the inauguration of his successor, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, as chief executive of Texas, set for next Tuesday.

In a brief prepared statement he stated he desired to "say to the people of Texas that I do not care to take part" in the inauguration. He said Mrs. Ferguson's husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, would be "the governor in fact."

When a joint committee of the House and Senate yesterday announced the order of the procession into the hall of the House of Representatives, where the woman will be inducted, Governor Sterling's name was omitted.

BICYCLE STOLEN
A Hawthorne Flyer bicycle was stolen from the central high school campus yesterday afternoon, and although city officers were on hand a few minutes after the theft, they failed to locate the bicycle in searching for more than an hour. The bicycle was owned by Doris Gee.

Officers also are searching for the Ford V-8 sedan stolen from in front of the Miller-Lybrand company last night.

John R. Pawlick of Groom visited with friends here yesterday.

Ralph Thomas, county agent, was terracing land near Alanreed today.
