Bill Christian says tennis will be a major sport of oil field athletes next summer. All right, we challenge you to three sets the next time the wind whips up like it did last Saturday. We like lots of wind with our "english."

A movement seems to be taking form for an experiment in the barter system here. The plan keeps money at home and, under some systems, amounts to a small sales tax for the benefit of the jobless.

Percy, the office mouse, says this is no country in which to hibernate. Any energetic animal, human or otherwise, will not starve if he is healthy and willing to hunt work diligently, says Percy.

The West Foster grouch says the farmer has hollered for help so long he is getting more of it than some others who need it just as bad. He doesn't know many farmers.

Note to wives of Lions: Don't cock much on the evenings that the clubmen practice their minstrel. It is a rollicking affair and its tempo does not mix well with beef steaks.

OLDTIMERS RILED
Yesterday on page 1 we featured the story of the mortgage foreclosure problem facing farmers, ranchmen, and other property owners of the nation. The dilemma is local to virtually every community. In some cases the foreclosures are being made so that loan companies can build up their collateral in terms of the current dollar and issue good looking statements. In other cases the mortgage holder is in distress, which he passes on to the mortgagee. In some instances, foreclosing is becoming a racket, with the lien holders buying in at forced sales for cash at a fraction of the real value of the property.

OLDTIMER CALLS
Yesterday afternoon B. F. Jackson of Miami was a caller. A typical oldtimer, aroused by the menace to cattlemen generally, he was vehement in his statement that something drastic must be done to save for farmers and ranchmen the homes they have labored so long to obtain and to hold. He is right—100 per cent right. Mr. Jackson came to this section in 1888. He has land and cattle, but taxes, interest, and necessary operating expenses cost more than he is making. If his ranch products were considered at their pre-war value, or in any proper ratio to the general commodity dollar and in keeping with a monetary token scaled to its purchasing power, his collateral behind the mortgage would be ample. But he is asked to put up much more collateral on pain of being foreclosed.

QUESTION OF PRINCIPAL
Mr. Jackson could furnish the collateral, but many of his neighbors cannot. Their property is mortgaged to the hilt to one person or another to raise cash to pay on the federal loans, bank loans, or loans obtained from individuals. Loan firm representatives declare that the reconstruction finance corporation will not make loans to them unless they get more collateral behind their paper. It resolves itself into another instance, where only the man who doesn't need money and credit can obtain it.

QUEER CONDITION
The staunch, resourceful cattlemen and farmers of this section have seldom been so hard-pressed that they could not obtain help at the banks. Many of them in other years could obtain money on their personal notes. But they don't blame the bankers. Farm commodity prices have been so low that sales did not give the bank deposits large enough to permit easy loans to clients. Never has there been such a need for extension of credit, of raising of the prices of farm products.

WORSE THAN TORNADO
When a tornado strikes a farm, it may tear up buildings and kill the live stock, but it leaves the soil. Forced sale of farm property in a distressed market does not

WOMAN DENIES WIFE'S DEATH WAS PLOTTED

INTIMATE RELATIONS WITH PARKS ARE RELATED

FURNISHED HER MONEY

WITNESS IS GRANTED IMMUNITY AT TRIAL

SWEETWATER, Jan. 25. (P)—Details of an intimate relationship with L. M. Parks, on trial on a charge of murder in connection with the drowning of his wife at Lake Trammell last summer, were brought out in the testimony of Mrs. Fay Condit today.

Mrs. Condit said she had lived in Sweetwater from 1928 until June of last year, coming here from San Angelo. She asserted she met Parks in the rooming house where she stayed when he came to deliver bottled drinks for the concern he represented.

In answer to questions, Mrs. Condit said Parks had bought her two insurance policies and had given her money "whenever I asked for it." She declared that neither of them mentioned Mrs. Parks and denied that neither had suggested doing away with her.

The drowning was pictured vividly yesterday by the prosecution in the testimony of witnesses and by means of photographs of the lake. Prosecuting attorneys introduced pictures, over the protest of defense counsel, which showed persons standing on a rock ledge in the lake, at the point where Parks claimed his wife fell into the water. Testimony tended to show that the water was only a foot or two deep over the ledge.

Other witnesses testified that Parks had taken out $17,000 life insurance for his wife, 30 days before her death, with himself as beneficiary.

Swimming Pool Contracts Let

Contracts for a portion of the material necessary in the construction of the swimming pool was let this morning at a special session of the city commission. The balance of the contracts will be awarded at the regular meeting Monday night.

Ira Hanson was awarded the contract for crushed rock and washed sand. The order was placed for 250 yards of crushed rock at $2.25 per yard, delivered, and 125 yards of washed sand at $1.75 per yard, delivered.

The order for 30,000 pounds of steel was given to the Cabot company whose bid was $150.4 per hundred pounds.

The 6,000 feet of lumber will be supplied by the Independent Lumber company at $27.50 per 1,000 feet of the amount and $25 per foot for part of the amount and $25 per 1,000 feet for the balance.

Borger Man Shows Scout Camp Movies

Movies taken at the Cima del Mundo Boy Scout camp last summer were shown to three local Scouters and the Borger executive committee last night at the home of H. W. Price of Borger, vice-president of the Adobe Walls council.

Executive C. A. Clark, President A. G. Post of the council, and J. O. Gillham, treasurer, were the local men who saw the films and helped to title them for showing here at the Scout roundup February 11.

Mrs. Price served refreshments to the group, which talked until a late hour. Mr. Price also showed motion pictures taken by him on an Alaskan tour.

Alden E. Spies' condition was reported satisfactory in Pampa hospital this morning.

I HEARD--

That Roscoe Meek, 3 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Meek woke up about 6:30 o'clock this morning and heard someone moving around in the kitchen. He got out of his bed and went to his mother saying "I hear a man in the kitchen but don't worry, I'll get him," as he started for the kitchen. The burglar turned out to be his daddy starting the fires.

Guy Saunders asking N. D. Oliver of the Carhart Motor company if a frog was in a well 21 feet deep and he jumped three feet at a time and slid back two feet, how many jumps would it take to get out of the well. Mr. Oliver replied seven. When asked to explain, he said that the frog put his front feet behind him. (It wasn't a Panhandle frog.)

Dismiss Charge Against Man In Judd Slayings

JACK SULLIVAN GIVEN 20 YEARS IN BANK HOLDUP

Convicted in Looting Olton State Bank Last July

PLAINVIEW, Jan. 25. (P)—Jack Sullivan today was convicted for the armed robbery of the Olton State Bank last summer by a jury in sixty-fourth district court and his punishment was set at 20 years in the penitentiary.

The trial started Monday. Arguments of attorneys were completed late last night and the jury went to bed without making a report.

The Olton State bank was robbed of $3,867 last July 13. Sullivan was arrested first at Mountain Air, N. M., Sept. 13 after a gun fight with officers of Texas and New Mexico. Suffering from wounds received in that altercation, he was placed in the hospital ward of the Lubbock county jail from which he escaped Nov. 7. About a month later he was arrested at Vernon after a chase by officers through the business district.

Sullivan had been in jail here since Dec. 21.

Officers Shoot 2 Strangers at Erick

ERICK, Okla., Jan. 25. (P)—Trapped by officers, one man was shot to death and another was fatally wounded and a third was captured in a department store here this morning. A fourth man, thought to be wounded, fled.

The shooting occurred at the B. and L. Store, where Constable Taft Travelstead and Elmer Renner had secreted themselves, apparently as the result of advance information that a burglary was to be attempted. Authorities said the men forced an entrance at the door and were walking toward the safe when the shooting started.

None of the men was satisfactorily identified.

ADISON, Wis.—The sign of the barber shop read: "Satisfaction guaranteed on your money back."

The other night a burglar broke into the shop, helped himself to a small amount of money, and then left, but not until he had taken time to write the owner of the place a note. It read: "You gave me a bad haircut. It's O. K."

JUDGE DENIES LIBERTY PLEA OF AL CAPONE

NOTED GANGSTER MUST REMAIN IN FEDERAL PRISON

PROCEEDINGS IMPROPER

HOLDS ACTION SHOULD HAVE BEEN MADE PREVIOUSLY

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 25. (P)—Federal Judge E. Marvin Underwood today dismissed the petition for a writ of habeas corpus whereby Al Capone, notorious former Chicago gangster sought his release from the Atlanta federal penitentiary under the statute of limitations.

Capone was convicted of violating the income tax laws of 1926, 1927 and 1928 and was sentenced to serve ten years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

The gangster in his bid for freedom alleged the three-year clause under the statute of limitations had expired before he was indicted on the charges of which he was convicted.

Judge Underwood held that a habeas corpus proceeding would not be the proper remedy for Capone's contention for freedom under the limitations statute.

The jurist said that contention should have been set forth at the trial or in the appeal from the income tax conviction, but that it had no place in habeas corpus proceedings.

Capone entered the federal penitentiary here in May last year and last September his petition for habeas corpus was filed in the local federal court as a surprise move. Hearing was postponed once because of a congested docket but on Nov. 16, 1932, Judge E. Marvin Underwood called the case for a hearing.

Business Method Reports of Other Cities Received

Merchants who wish to know what business men in other cities are doing to meet various problems may obtain much valuable information at the Board of City Development.

The United States department of commerce has sent a big file of reports, blue-prints, and pamphlets based on authoritative surveys. There are scores of subjects, including wrapping and packaging, business practices, advertising, better business bureaus, coupons and premiums, costs, credits, and collections, transportation, wholesaling, and salesmanship.

It is believed that business men would find it worth their time to examine the big file and pick out subjects of interest to them.

Miss Myrtle Towse was admitted to Worley hospital for treatment yesterday afternoon.

MAY FOIL UNCLE SAM

TULIA, Jan. 25. (P)—Rewards posted for the arrest and conviction of the slayers of Sheriff John C. Moseley of Swisher county, who was slain by gunmen here Sunday night, totaled $1,275. Local committees still were working on a public subscription.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson said she would post a reward of $200 in behalf of the state. Mrs. Moseley, who today accepted appointment to succeed her husband as sheriff, said that she would give $300, and the public fund had reached $275. The county already had posted $500.

Officers investigating Moseley's death at the hands of three persons he sought to arrest for investigation said there were "no new developments."

Sinclair Lewis' New Book Is Out

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (P)—Furious bubbles should be foaming from the literary pot by nightfall—Sinclair Lewis' new book is out today.

Out in a large way, too. It is published simultaneously in 16 countries and 13 languages, including the Polish. Such extensive and instantaneous publication dwells not in the memory of even the oldest publisher's representative.

"Ann Vickers" is what he calls it. It bears the heart and mind of a modern woman.

It takes her through school, suffrage work during the first Wilson administration, settlement house labors, study of prison conditions, marriage to a social worker who turned out to be "a perpetual source of bedtime stories," and a love affair with a crooked judge.

Jack Baines is recovering from a serious illness. He is the son of the superintendent of Pampa hospital.

Road Commission Could Be Ousted Under House Bill

Elective Body of 5 Would Be Named at Once By Governor.

AUSTIN, Jan. 25. (P)—Establishment of an elective state highway commission to take over the duties of the existing appointive commission was proposed in a bill introduced in the Texas house of representatives today. The elective commission would be composed of five members.

Cries of "No" were heard as the caption of the bill was read by the reading clerk.

It was introduced by Representative John W. Laird of Lufkin, Sam DeVal of Hallettsville, Lon A. Alsop of Carthage, A. C. Kyle of Mineral Wells and James Pavlica of Flatonia and was referred to the committee on highways and motor traffic.

The fight over creation of a new commission was generally regarded as one of the warmest in prospect at this session of the legislature. The bill was looked upon as an attempt of the administration of Governor Miriam Ferguson to obtain control of the highway department, the largest branch of the state government.

Under existing statutes, Mrs. Ferguson is empowered to appoint only one member of the commission during her term, leaving a majority of the commission composed of members strongly allied with former Governor R. S. Sterling.

Destroyers Collide In Fleet Maneuvers

SAN PEDRO Calif., Jan. 25. (P)—Badly damaged in a collision during maneuvers 300 miles off the California coast, the United States navy's first line destroyer Dahlgren limped toward San Diego today in convoy of the destroyers Sands and Lawrence.

Radio advices to the United States fleet's flagship Pennsylvania indicated the vessel was in a precarious condition. The Dahlgren carries 105 officers and men.

The Dahlgren en route to Honolulu for the annual war games, was engaged in maneuvers with other of the 310-foot greyhounds of the sea when it was struck by the destroyer Tarbell.

Navy officials here were informed the collision was caused by the jamming of the Dahlgren's rudder. The bow of the Dahlgren was damaged. Slight damage was done to the Tarbell.

FARM REVOLT PREDICTED IN HOUSE HEARING

AID OR REVOLUTION IN TWELVE MONTHS, LEADER SAYS

DEBT DECADE FLARES

REPUBLICAN CHARGES ROOSEVELT FAVORS BIG REDUCTIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (P)—Revolt will come in the farm belt, congress was told today, unless legislation giving substantial relief to farmers is passed.

This was testimony of farm leaders as the senate agriculture committee launched open hearings on the allotment bill passed by the house but apparently doomed not to get through the senate this session.

"Unless something is done for the American farmer we will have revolution in the countryside in less than 12 months," said Edward A. O'Neil, president of the American Farm Bureau federation.

"The biggest and finest crop of revolutionists you ever saw are sprouting all over this country right now," said John A. Simpson, president of the Farmers Union.

Debt Reduction Charged.
In a trip through the west from which he had just returned, Simpson said, he had seen "revolutions against the courts."

Raise American tariffs or slash foreign currencies was the alternative that came from a high administration quarter almost coincidental with a flare of debate over the impending foreign debt discussions that swept the senate.

An outline of the views of President Hoover came from an official qualified to speak for the president at just about the same time Finland was seeking to fall into the debt discussion line and word came that Latvia was ready to do the same.

Shortly after Representative Rainey of Illinois, the democratic leader, had said neither revision nor cancellation might be expected from the conferences, a fresh outburst of debate opened in the senate.

Robinson (R., Ind.) precipitated it by asserting that President-elect Roosevelt's offer to discuss debts with all nations that had paid their December installments was an invitation to reduce the debts and calling attention to a published report that an emissary of the president had been in Great Britain talking with officials about an 80 per cent reduction.

Convict's Wife Fails at Suicide

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 25. (P)—Glenn Smeeman, Cleveland business man and Colorado convict, was back in his cell in the Canon City prison today awaiting action of his pardon plea, while his wife was recovering here from an attempt at suicide.

Mrs. Smeeman talked readily of her attempt to kill herself by a sleeping potion and gas in the home of a relative Thursday.

Smeeman, convicted of auto theft here in 1917, escaped and became a successful business man in Cleveland before the law finally found him out. He faces a similar charge of auto theft in St. Louis, Mo. He has applied to Governor Edwin C. Johnson for a pardon and the governor has taken the request under advisement. The state board of corrections had Prison Warden Roy Best recommended to the governor that executive clemency be granted.

That smiling face of Tom Braly back in Pampa today. He came in last night from the University of Oklahoma, Norman, where he finished taking semester exams. Mrs. Braly, thinking Tom was Judge Braly's nurse when he came in the door, talked to him a minute or too before she turned to face him.

That smiling mouth of Blue Morrow over at L. Baum's pursued in a "highly-behavior" manner while whistling "Underneath a Harlem Moon."

WHEN LONELINESS STALKS US

A 65-year-old New Yorker, nearly blind, out of work and discouraged, borrowed a nickel from an acquaintance the other day to pay for a subway ride. The nickel the acquaintance gave him happened to be a lead slug, but the old man's eyes were too dim to tell the difference; so he was stunned when a policeman arrested him for dropping it in the cash box.

He was taken to a police station and locked up for the night. The police reassured him when he explained how it had happened, and told him the judge would undoubtedly let him off, next morning; but apparently what they said didn't comfort him much—for when they came to his cell in the morning they found he had hanged himself.

You get little stories like this every so often, these days; stories of little misfortunes which affect their victims out of all proportion to their real seriousness. And back of them you can see a flood tide of human loneliness and discouragement that could make the angels weep.

Being locked up overnight for putting a lead slug in a coin box isn't, after all, an overwhelming tragedy. The ordinary man would be dismayed by it, irritated, moved either to rueful mirth or to impotent profanity; but he wouldn't be pushed along the path to suicide.

Put a mishap like that on the shoulders of a man who has had nothing but misfortune for months on end, however, and you are apt to crush him. For it is precisely such minor incidents that persuade luckless, beaten men that the world is altogether too harsh and unsympathetic a place to be endured any longer. It underlies their loneliness, their isolation; and once a man gets a face-to-face look at complete loneliness things are apt to go badly with him.

Loneliness, after all, is something none of us really dares face. We spend most of our lives trying to run away from it; our homes, our friendships, our play, much of our daily work, are all defenses against it. Once it gets on our heels we are haunted; and the tiniest accident can trip us up and deliver us over to a panic in which death itself loses its terrors.

There is no such thing as complete silence says a scientist. Evidently he never attended a party where the hostess asked: "Shall we have a merry little evening of mah jong?"

To suppose that barbers do nothing but give the wrong horses for the fifth race at Agua Caliente is ridiculous. They give the wrong horses for the other races as well.

Technocrats accuse the steel industry of holding life-long razor blades off the market to keep up the demand; but they can't bring that charge against the styptic pencil boys.

When it comes to holding back governments to keep sales clicking it must have taken our best minds years to keep cigarette lighters from lighting.

A Philadelphia jurist has upheld a wife's right to one night out a week for her bridge club. But he didn't go as far as to say she must split her winnings as poker-playing husbands have to do.

When things were booming a few years ago, we heard a lot about the "nouveau riche." It seems a bit more difficult to popularize the new poor.

We have been virtually assured that the crowd will be big enough for a good time."

Buying Barbara

BYRONIA: Mark looked at Barbara, but gazed at an artist, whose Barbara Queen dominated that she came to him. The telegram is intended to eliminate Barrett's mother, the millionaire who is financing Mark's London career. Barrett hopes not when he has made the bargain artist successful Barbara will no longer like him and will tell Mark of Mark's benefactor. Barbara telegraphs Mark's mother who replies that Mark does not need her.

Chapter 23
MARK'S ULTIMATUM

BARBARA told herself that she would write to Mark and explain that she suspected only a mood in him. Then, if it were more than a mood, he could send his call again.

She made her way to her own room and lit her lamp. There was an old Venetian mirror here which she had delicately regarded. She lit the candles that flanked it and looked at her reflection.

Candlelight was certainly flattering. It made her hair the pale, delicate gold of the gilding and under each wave it placed a shadow. It gave darkness to her eyes, the texture of white velvet to her skin, mystery to the line of her throat. She felt as though someone stood at her shoulder, whose gaze in-possible but there was no available car. She hurried out without explanation. She swung down a side-road and emerged into a deserted street of offices. Before one of these stood a big, dark car which she recognized. As she hesitated, its owner came across the pavement and she dashed up and spoke to him.

"Sir James, could you possibly run me to the station? I might just be able to catch the London express, if you would?"

He started violently and peered at her over his everlasting smile. "Get in! Get in! By all means! Jones, slip along to the station as fast as you can. Pull up this rug, my dear Miss Barbara; the evenings are far from warm lately. Though, bless me, your youngsters don't seem to feel the cold!"

Barbara was puzzled by his manner. He appeared to force himself to meet her eyes—and yet he was more sympathetic than usual as he fussed over her. He had turned off the light in the car just as the car moved away but almost immediately he turned it on again.

"You've had a wire from Mark, have you? I suppose he's not so well again. Natural he should send for you—quite natural. Letta tells me he's making a splash up there,

Stalin Decrees Death Penalty For Opponents

MOSCOW, Jan. 25. (AP)—Calling for a merciless fight against "saboteurs" in the North Caucasian agricultural region, scene of the recent mass exile of peasantry, Joseph V. Stalin and V. M. Molotov today decreed the death penalty to persons actively hindering preparatory work in the spring planting.

Death Penalty For Opponents

Demanding stricter "labor discipline," the decree also prescribed exile or expulsion from collective farms of lazy and apathetic peasants. It empowered the village Soviets to compel mobilization of the peasantry, if necessary, to clear cultivated areas of weeds preceding the sowing.

Cattleman Has Lived 47 Years 'West of Pecos'

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 25. (AP)—He has been 47 years since W. W. Turney, then a recent graduate of Sam Houston normal, rode a stage across the Pecos river to become a school teacher at Fort Davis. On his arrival he found eleven saloons, four stores, a fort and 75 school children.

Turney remained in West Texas to become a lawyer and the first county attorney of Brewster county. In addition he owns the 250,000-acre 0-2 ranch near Alpine. He and his associates also have 17,000 acres in Pecos county.

Turney related recently that school teaching had no problems after the "bad boys" learned who was master. By day he taught the children of cattlemen, saloon keepers, and army officers how to read and write and at night studied Blackstone. Soon he traveled to El Paso and received a permit to practice law.

The teacher-lawyer next turned his attention to acquiring lands. About 15 years ago the Miracle Oil well on one of his ranches made the headlines of the state when it spouted oil from a depth of less than 100 feet. It was a three-day wonder, however, that soon faded. Turney prophesied that "the development of the Trans-Pecos has just begun."

Senate Adopts British Definition On What Constitutes Intoxication

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—Attention has been centered on the report of the central control board of Great Britain on what constitutes an intoxicating liquor by the senate judiciary committee's adoption of its findings.

The committee fixed the permissible alcoholic content in the Collier-Blaine beer and wine bill at 3.05 per cent by weight. This percentage was held by the official British commission after an inquiry to the non-intoxicating.

The commission found that "any form of alcoholic liquor can cause drunkenness, if such a quantity of it is taken, at once or within a short time, as will lead to the presence of the drug in the blood above a certain proportion, which in the case of the average healthy adult may be put provisionally at from 0.15 to 0.2 per cent."

The smaller percentage, it found, would be produced by a gill and a half of whisky at proof or more than four pints of a 4 per cent beer.

Senate leaders predicted early consideration of legislation designed to change the prohibition laws, in view of indications of a break in the long debate on the Glass banking bill.

Report Capone's Sister Fired On

CHICAGO, Jan. 25. (AP)—A report that Mrs. Maifada Maritote, sister of Al Capone, former "czar" of Chicago's gangland, barely escaped death when four bullets were fired in her direction, was under investigation by police today.

The report, published in a newspaper, said the shots were fired yesterday by gunmen from an automobile while Mrs. Maritote was walking from a residence with her nine-months old daughter, Delia Rosa, to get into a motor car, following a visit with the parents of her husband, John J. Maritote.

A woman at the Maritote home, however, denied that anyone had shot at her, and said that the noise of the shots came from two cars half a block away. She thought the sound was due to the cars "backfiring."

Japanese Journals See 'Danger Ahead'

TOKYO, Jan. 25. (AP)—Under bold headlines—"grave decision confronting empire" and "great danger ahead"—Japanese newspapers reported, a special cabinet session today which heard Foreign Minister Uchida's report on the league of nations' virtual abandonment of efforts to conciliate the Sino-Japanese dispute. The foreign minister warned his colleagues they must prepare shortly to make a decision of grave import.

It was understood the meeting adjourned without a decision, pending further developments at Geneva, though it was generally believed the government holds Japan compelled to withdraw from the league of nations, or to make a decision of territorial aggression or violation of the league covenant, anti-war pact, or nine-power pact.

COSTLY DOG BITE

WATERBURY, Conn. (INS)—Donald McCarthy lost a finger but gained $1,200 in damages despite Paul Daunis' efforts to show that his dog could not have bitten off the member. Daunis brought his dog to court to prove his gentleness but Judge Edward I. Finn said the animal appeared large enough to have bitten off the finger.

ONE GRAIN RENT

MANLIUS, N. Y. (INS)—The lodge of Masons here has just paid its annual building rent, consisting of one grain of barley. The lodge has a perpetual lease calling for the unusual rent payment.

Mrs. Phillip R. Pond and her brother, David Forsythe, left Monday for a few days' visit with their parents in Winfield, Kan.

Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald is ill.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE FIRST SETTLERS IN THIS STRANGE COLONY WERE LEFT STRANDED ON THE ISLAND IN 1665, BY THE PIRATE, HENRY MORGAN.

FEW TRAVELERS stop on the island of Saba, for landing on the steep, rocky shores is a dangerous task. The town, which is aptly called "The Bottom," is located inside the crater wall, and is invisible to the outside world except from an airplane. The inhabitants are white, and speak the English language. The town boasts of two churches, a schoolhouse and a jail. Most of the male population are mariners.

Peru-Colombia War Threatening Again

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—The smoldering conflict between Peru and Colombia over possession of the Amazon river port of Leticia has been brought to the attention of world powers signatory to the Kellogg peace pact by the American government.

Witt Hints He Will Stand For Governor in '34

AUSTIN, Jan. 25. (AP)—Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt of Waco took a courageous position before the large audience present when he was inaugurated recently to a second term in his present office.

With Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson waiting on the platform to be inducted into the governor's office and her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, sitting by her side, Witt hinted he intended to run for chief executive two years hence.

Future political plans of the Ferragons are unknown. It is doubtful if they have ever discussed them. Witt greeted the opportunity skillfully. He was telling about an injury to his right arm that had kept him in a hospital for a number of weeks. He said the injured member was almost well.

"They say a politician can not get along without a good right arm, and I believe that," Witt stated. "I feel that I will need that right arm particularly in 1934."

It was a sudden and somewhat dramatic announcement. The response must have been gratifying to the lieutenant governor, because his declaration was greeted with general applause.

There probably was within the sound of Witt's voice a half dozen or more public men who have the gubernatorial bee, too. These included Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo, Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman, Attorney General James V. Allied, and, maybe, Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction.

Teachers' Pension Bill Is Prepared

GALVESTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—The proposed Galveston teachers' pension bill, recently approved "as to form" by the board of school trustees, will be presented in the legislature next month, it has been indicated. Notice that the bill will be presented is now being advertised in a cordance with state law.

The proposed bill would provide a fund, built up by contributions of money and property and by deductions from salaries, which would be used to retire teachers and other regularly salaried employees of the public school system. A sum of $50,000 has already been given the trustees by Mrs. T. V. Lovenberg and this would be diverted as the trustees of the retirement fund, under the provisions of the bill.

The WORLD of STAMPS

By QUINTON JAMES
Why stamp bugs? Whence the lure of collecting? Lacking the book-length space needed to answer, we refer questioners to the issue commemorating the centenary of the Falkland Islands, sets of which have just come to this country.

Pretty done, they would make charming prints for a doll's house but their interest lies beyond attractiveness of color and design.

Where are the islands? A map on the 3-penny stamp tells you. Who owns them? A portrait of King George on the one-pound value indicates the answer.

What are their products and climate? A whale on the 6-penny, a Romney marsh ram on the half-penny, an iceberg on the 1-penny and a chilly-looking section of the coast of South Georgia on the 4-penny reply.

Other values: 1½-penny, whale catcher; 2-penny, Port Stanley; 1-shilling, the government house; 2-shilling 6 pence, battle memorial; 5-shilling, a king penguin; 10-shilling, the arms of the colony.

In brief, here is a painless geography, and more, on as attractive a set of stamps as we ever hope to see issued for a land whose population isn't quite 3,600.

No Records
Last year set no records in the varieties of stamps issued. Kent B. Stiles in his annual roundup, to appear in Scott's Monthly for February, sets the number of 1,692, as compared with 1,872 for 1931 and 3,153 for the record year, 1920.

New airmails dropped from 335 to 278, with 1930 holding the record—462. Over half of the 2,950 issued since 1917, the date of the first one, have appeared during the past three years.

Commemoratives showed a big increase, from 435 to 537, but were still far below the record of 737 reached in 1930. Almost half of the year's were accounted for by the Italian postal administration.

Thirty-eight per cent of the new issues were created by overprinting. In 1918, with guns booming, airmails and territories changing hands and surcharging offering the simplest means of keeping the post going, 80 per cent were overprints.

An Army Game
A postal concession having been granted by the Egyptian government, members of the British army and royal air force in Egypt and their families can send ordinary letters to the British Isles at a reduced rate, in some cases a third less than the regular postage. The stamps issued probably will not be catalogued.

CATCH RARE FISH
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (INS)—An amica culva, or bowfin, rare in New England waters, was seized the other day by commercial fishermen in Lake Housatonic near Derby. State game wardens were unable to name the fish but William A. James at Peabody museum cleared the mystery and had the fish placed in a tank at the institution.

I don't spend very much on Myself

BUT, believe ME, when it comes to what I smoke, I want it right!

You know how it is when a fellow is accustomed to smoking a good cigarette and he gets hold of one that isn't right. He's likely to get in a bad humor.

I am a great believer in the old saying that "quality will tell," and I have noticed that the things which come to stay are good things.

You can buy a package of good cigarettes for 15c. Six cents of this goes to the Government. So that outside of the 6c paid to the Government, you get a little over two cigarettes for one cent.

The right kind of tobacco, the right sort of paper—a cigarette that's pure and good-tasting and mild—that's the kind I want.

I have been smoking CHESTERFIELDS for a long time. They are mild and yet they satisfy.

Northern Italy Is Program Subject At Junior Twentieth Century Club Meeting Tuesday in Roy Wight Home

Far-away Italy furnished the theme for an interesting travel program led by Mrs. Charles Todd yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Roy Wight, the gathering being for Junior Twentieth Century club members.

Mrs. Todd opened the program by comparing in detail the living and traveling conditions in Italy with those of other countries. Mrs. Paul Jones then described Pisa, Genoa, and the Italian Riviera. Mrs. Edward H. Damon told, from actual experience, what a traveler might see in Milan, and Mrs. Roy Bourland spoke on "Venice, the Enchantress, Why?" Mrs. Dick Walker described the art treasures in Florence, stressing Michael Angelo's masterpiece, Mrs. W. R. Chafin spoke on the hill towns of Italy.

During the business session plans regarding the furnishing of the city hall club room were made, and it was decided to buy a newspaper out of the president-elect, Mrs. Charles Todd.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Mesdames Edward H. Damon, Clarence R. Barrett, Roy Bourland, Fred C. Cary, Robert W. Chafin, J. E. Dever, A. B. Goldston, T. R. Martin, Max M. Manaffey, Frank Perry, Arthur S. Swanson, Charles Todd, Dick Walker, Roy Wight, Marvin Overton, Paul C. Jones, Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell, Virginia Faulkner, Margaret Buckler.

Sunday Supper Is Popular Means of Club Entertaining

DENTON, Jan. 24.—The Sunday night supper has come into prominence as a social affair within the past few years. It is the opportunity "par excellence" for dispensing hospitality to friends who do not have a home, or for gathering a group of friends into a Sunday Night Supper club.

The menu may be as simple or as elaborate as the hostess can prepare and serve with ease. The buffet method of service is well adapted to this type of meal. The food may be arranged attractively on platters and placed on the main table just before the guests are invited in.

Each guest serves himself and selects a congenial group with whom to eat. In case the hostess' table is large enough, card tables may be placed over the dining and dining rooms, and the guests seated in some designated way.

FURS—THEY'RE FIRST IN FASHION

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 25.—Two furs are smarter than one, in the opinion of Bebe Daniels.

She has just introduced a stunning new coat to her friends, sleek black broadtail, fitting the figure in flattering manner, luxuriously collared in black fox. Certainly the two furs do help each other.

With it she wore a small, made-on-the-head black sololi, with draped sides and a flaring little veil of fine mesh. Her fabric bag has a novel fastening, an ivory blunt edged dagger that slides through through the frame to hold it shut.

Nothing in the way of dress shows stars' individuality more than the furs they pick. About town this week various styles that hit the eye pleasantly included:

Glenda Farrell, lurching at the brown party with the Jack Walters wearing a black wool coat with a whole cape collar of gray fox. Her irregular brimmed hat was black.

Ginger Rogers, with Mervin LeRoy, her fiance, dancing at the Coconut Grove wearing a rough wool suit of bright blue with streaks of gray fox circling around the sleeves.

Julie Hayden, lurching at Levy's, wearing a cloth coat of green, lavishly trimmed about the collar and sleeves with gorgeous mink. She wore a cut pancake hat of blue that went perfectly with the green and her pouch bag was the same blue.

Gloria Stuart, at an afternoon party, wearing a pebbly crepe grass dress, with ermine tabs making a round collar for it.

BEBE DANIELS

Would You Be Willing

To return to the tallow candle or the kerosene lamp for lighting, a coal or wood range for cooking, a Franklin stove as the source of heat, the horse-car or a horse and buggy as your sole means of transportation?

You would not! Ask any householder and his wife to give up their automobiles, electric lights or electric appliances and see what they say.

Then why continue old-fashioned methods of performing household tasks when electricity will preform for you? If your house is properly wired for electric service, there is no excuse for operating it in the most difficult and time-consuming way possible when this greatest of all servants is at your command.

OLYMPICS HAD TWO MILLION DOLLAR GATE

LOS ANGELES COUNTY AND CITY WILL BENEFIT

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN, Associated Press Sports Writer.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25. (AP)—The Olympic games held last summer turned a net profit of approximately $150,000.

While no financial statement of the international classic has been made, this figure was revealed in a statement from the community development association that it "hoped contribute to the city and county.

Los Angeles the final surplus of the Olympic games in the neighborhood of $150,000.

The Los Angeles organizing committee, almost the same as the community development association, has announced it would revive the funds of a million dollars, voted by the state legislature for the construction of the games.

This would raise the net over operating expenses to approximately $200,000. Such costs as construction and handling of the Olympic village, and additions to the various game sites, estimated at half a billion dollars, were not covered by bond issue.

On the basis of these figures it was unofficially said that the gross receipts for the games, which were the most successful financially of any ever staged, were slightly short of $2,000,000.

A friendly suit is now before superior court to determine the proper manner in which to retire the bonds. The "final surplus" will be evenly distributed between Los Angeles county and city.

The community development association turned over to the city and county today, $47,744.56, which represents the net profit for the operation of the memorial coliseum, formerly the Olympic stadium, since the fall of 1923.

Cochran Will Face Scoville In Cue Match

CHICAGO, Jan. 25. (AP)—Walker Cochran of Hollywood, Calif., today was after his fourth straight victory in the world three-cushion billiards tournament, and needed it to hang on to undisputed possession of the leadership.

Cochran's opponent was Frank Scoville of Buffalo, N. Y., who after disappointing start, captured two straight victories. Cochran and Scoville were down for the second on match, following the opening by J. N. Bozeman Jr., of Chicago, and Cliff Denton of Chicago.

The defeats left Denton and Jackson tied for third position, and in the high match, Johnny Layton, the Sedalia, Mo. veteran, joined them at three victories and two defeats, by downing Allen Hall of Chicago, 50 to 42 in 39 innings. The defeat was Hall's fifth straight.

HARVESTER GUARDS PLAN TO PUT CORBITT 'ON THE SPOT'

Sandie Forward Beat Team At Lubbock Almost Single Handed.

There is a marked man on the Amarillo Golden-Sandstrom basketball club. His name is Corbitt, and he plays at the forward position.

He will be on the "spot" Friday night at Agartillo where the Pampa Harvester guards will join the Sandstoms in a not-too-friendly game. Jess Patton and Wayne Kelley are the guards who will be gunning for Corbitt; Hetsell would like to take a round with him too.

What aroused the Harvesters' ire and anxiety was Corbitt's stunt at Lubbock Monday night when he scored 21 points, 20 by the field-goal route.

Here's what the Lubbock Aviators carried about the Corbitt stampee: "Shooting goals from mid-court, from the sidelines and locker rooms with remarkable aim and dexterity, one J. L. Corbitt, captain of the basketball team and captain-elect of the 1933 varsity football team, proved that one hot-shot on the court was worth half a dozen in the bush and almost single-handedly defeated Lubbock high school last night. And the Westerners haven't caught him 'til yet. The final score was 33 to 28. Corbitt was personally responsible for 21 of those 33 points. Lubbock deserved defeat because it didn't locate that goal-scoring expert. His number was 14, but Lubbock didn't get that boy's number by a whole flock of shots. Lubbock was caught flat-footed without an arch-support. After the Westerners sized up everybody but Corbitt it was too late to do much about it."

Monsieur Patton and Kelley held this Corbitt boy to two field goals in the Sandie game here. They hope to entertain the young man in a similar manner Friday night.

KELLEY GETS NEW PLAYERS

More Girls Trying Out For Places on Harvesterettes Sextet.

Freshmen, sophomore, and even a few junior girls appeared on the floor yesterday afternoon after Coach Harry Kelley of the Harvesterettes issued a call for basketball prospects for next year's team to report for practice. The coach has come to the conclusion that to have a good team, it is necessary to start the players young.

Several members of this year's team are seniors and are out for their first basketball. The team went through nearly two hours of hard practice but the result was anything but satisfactory. Inability in passing and shooting and a weakness in blocking were the chief worries which faced Coach Kelley but he met them by making a few changes.

With two more practices scheduled before their game with the Pampa Gorillas and the Amarillo Yagmians which will start at 7:30 o'clock. Season tickets will be honored at the game.

Fugitive Slain After Jumping Off Fast Train

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 25. (AP)—Stanley "Swede" Anderson, St. Louis underworld character who escaped from United States marshals north of New Orleans Monday by leaping through the window of a swiftly moving train, was shot and killed near here early Tuesday as he sought to flee northward on a fast freight.

He was shot by a deputy sheriff in an open field near Louisiana State university after jumping from the freight.

He was identified by letters in his pocket and by injuries about the face, suffered in his leap thru the window of a Pullman drawing room in which he was being brought to New Orleans to face charges in connection with the slaying of a Louisiana dry informer two years ago.

MANY CONTESTANTS

AMERICAN LEAGUE FURNISHES 6 OF 10 ON ALL-STAR TEAM

Babe Replaced First Time in 8 Years; Klein Given Right Field Berth.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25. (AP)—The American League furnishes six of the ten players on the Sporting News' major league all-star team for 1932 but George Herman Ruth is not among them.

For the first time in the eight-year history of the baseball publication's poll, the big Yankee slugger loses his place in right field to Chuck Klein, sensation of the Phillies.

Of the 191 votes cast for right field in the poll of members of the Baseball Writers' association, Klein received 11 against 63 for Ruth. Klein also polled 12 votes for a grand total of 135 votes. Ruth's total of 94 was made up of 63 for right field, 29 for left and two for center.

Klein, Harold (Pie) Traynor of Pittsburgh, Frank (Lefty) O'Doul of Brooklyn, and Lon Warneke of the Chicago Cubs are the four National League players who gain places on the mythical team. The American leaguers included Jimmie Foss and Bob Grove of the Athletics; Tony Lazzari and Bill Dickey of the Yankees; Earl Averill of the Cleveland Indians, and Joe Cronin of the Washington Senators.

Cronin, the Senators' manager and shortstop, polled the greatest number of votes, 158.

BOYS AROUSED OVER SANDIE'S LUBBOCK WIN

HARVESTERS PREPARE TO DO BEST AT AMARILLO

Coach Odus Mitchell would like to change the time or date of his game with the Amarillo Sandstoms so that his boys could see the Henry's of Wichita, Kan., and the Canyon Buffalos clash in Canyon Friday night, but he does not think the Amarillo coach will change the date. However, he planned to seek the change today.

The team showed little change in tactics and ability during practice yesterday afternoon, but their spirit improved. A hard scrimmage which followed practice, made the railbirds sit back and smile. "Bring on Corbitt and company," they declared. "The boys ought to recover from their slump by game time."

The Harvesters have been slipping, due largely to easy games in the Panhandle league race which have been a detriment rather than a boon to local basketball. The schedule has been too great, a few of the faithful believe. However, they think the Harvesters have had their off-period this season and will be ready to shoot to the finish.

Ways and means of stopping Corbitt, Amarillo forward, were discussed and enacted during practice and if the sharpshooter makes 10 points Friday night he will be a wonder. Mahuron, the boy who gave the Harvesters all their misery here, will not be forgotten. Neither will Beale, center, or Dunaway and his running-back at guard positions.

Fans are urged to attend the important game. Pampa has become basketball-minded and the team always played its best when backed by a few fans. Game time will be 7:30 o'clock unless changed to allow the teams to go to Canyon.

HEDLEY OWLS UNDEFEATED

Cage Team Seems Certain To Be Sectional Foe Of Harvesters.

The Pampa Harvesters and the Hedley Owls have strange holds on their respective sub-sections in the Panhandle Basketball league. They will probably clash in the finals for sectional honors. The winner will go to Canyon to play the winners of the other three sections.

Both Pampa and Hedley are undefeated in their sections with the half-way mark passed. They will play for the sectional championship before Feb. 14. The Harvesters hold victories over Miami, LeFors, Allison, McLean, and two over Canadian. Hedley has also been undefeated in league competition.

Pampa had games scheduled with Hedley during the Christmas holidays, but the games were postponed because of bad weather. The Owls have always had strong teams and Coach Mitchell of the Harvesters was anxious to test the Owl strength.

Borger and Spearman are fighting for top place in their sub-section. The Bulldogs from Borger have three victories to two for the Lynx of Spearman. The two teams clash Friday night in the first of two games.

Other leaders in the league are Amarillo, Dalhart, Perryton, Hereford, and Quitaque. Quitaque defeated Happy in their first encounter to remain undefeated. However, Happy is hoped to win the next encounter to throw the race into a tie. Happy, it will be remembered, divided games with the Harvesters during the Christmas holidays.

The district finals will be played in Canyon Feb. 17 and 18.

Texas Pitcher Has Recovered From Malaria

CHICAGO, Jan. 25. (AP)—The youngest of J. Louis Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, for a first division berth in the American league, were brighter today, for a corps of specialists has succeeded in dispersing an army of malaria germs which kept Vic Frazier, right-handed pitcher, from accomplishing much last season.

The youngsters from Texas won 13 games with a last place club in 1931 and was much sought after before the start of the 1932 season. After a siege of influenza, however, the malaria bugs went to work on him last spring, and he managed to win only three decisions.

"Vic Frazier has regained his health," Vice-President Harry Grabner, speaking for Comiskey, said, "we expect to land in the first division, what with the addition of Al Simmons, Mule Haas, and Jimmy Dykes to provide punch."

Purchase of Cat Club Considered

FORT WORTH, Jan. 25. (AP)—Norman E. Perry, owner of the Indianapolis Indians of the American Association, was here today to confer with owners of the Fort Worth baseball club of the Texas league, with a view to possible purchase of the Fort Worth club.

Perry expected to be joined by Wade Killifer, manager of the Indianapolis club, and together they planned to inspect the ball park and confer with S. S. Lard, majority stockholder, and Ted Robinson, minority shareholder.

"Personally, I feel we might be able to work out some sort of agreement," Perry said last night.

WOLF WAR DECLARED

COLEMAN, Jan. 25. (AP)—Coleman county sheep men are going to war on wolves. A number of them met recently with the county commissioners' court to discuss the matter. The work will be carried on with funds to be provided by sheep men, the county, the state and the federal government. The biggest depredation, County Commissioner Carl Lohn said, has been in the northwest part of the county.

BUFFALOES TO MEET CHAMPS DURING WEEK

WICHITA HENRYS PLAY AT CANYON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CANYON, Jan. 25. (Sp)—The Wichita Henrys for three years the national champions, have been scheduled for two games at Canyon. They will meet the giant Buffalo basketball team of the West Texas State Teachers college, which is the "tallest team in America," at Canyon Friday and Saturday, January 27 and 28.

Every member of the Henry's team has at some time been an All-American. Tom Pickell, former Arkansas center and all-intercollegiate American while there, is playing center for the Henrys. Both Pickell and Dunham were all-American selections last year, while Miller, a forward of the Henrys, was on the second All-American selection.

Fans from all over the Panhandle are expected to flock to Canyon for these games. Followers of the Buffaloes have been looking forward to just such games. They believe the West Texans are potentially a great team as can be assembled, and that a few such games will greatly benefit the giant basketekers. A few of the more enthusiastic followers of the Henrys are predicting that the Buffs will split the series.

Never before have fans of this section been privileged to see such games, and if the turn out is sufficient to make these games a success financially, doubtless other teams almost as colorful will be brought to Canyon.

The tallest basket ball player to perform in the Rocky mountain region this season is Chick Campbell, center on a Hutchinson, Kansas, independent five. He stands 6 feet 7 inches.

Mrs. O. H. Booth was unable to attend the Twentieth Century club meeting yesterday because of illness.

ONE-ARMED GOLFERS TO PLAY IN BROWNWOOD TOURNAMENT

Winner Probably Should Be Matched With One-Legged Man.

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

The principal worry of most golfers is which hand or arm should carry the club head back and which should bring it down. It is an old problem that has never been solved satisfactorily by recognized authorities on this game called golf.

Maybe the issue will be settled when John Herndon and Happy Henderson stage their battle on the Brownsville municipal course on Sunday, January 24. At least it will be a left and right arm battle.

Herndon has only his left arm and swings a club back-handed. Henderson has only his right arm and swings a club fore-handed. Both are ready for the special match. Their combined swings make that of the right-handed golfer. They will play for the Valley one-arm golf title and also to settle the question of superiority of the right or left arm in golf.

Long is Golfer

Herndon and Henderson are not the only good one-armed golfers in Texas. Louie Long, former All-Southwest conference and on the Southern Methodist football team, is making rapid strides as a one-armed golfer.

During the summer Long's left arm was cut off by a passing truck while he was riding in an automobile. The accident ruined his career as a professional football player. Undauntedly, he bought himself a set of golf clubs and started playing with his good right arm. Almost any afternoon Louie Long, Jimmy St. Clair, Jimmy Stewart, and Russell McIntosh, all of Southern Methodist can be found on the Tension municipal course at Dallas. Long manages to hold his own.

One Arm vs. One Leg

Probably the match of matches would be to pit the winner of the Herndon-Henderson affair against J. H. Biggersstaff of Sulphur Springs. John is one of the large field of heart-hearted fellows who play golf in spite of physical handicaps—he has only one leg.

Biggersstaff is no dub. He consistently shoots in the low eighties and often breaks into the seventies. He plays in most of the invitational tournaments each year. He has played in several special matches against one-legged golfers in other areas and has yet to lose a match.
