

STERLING IS CALLED TRESPASSER
RASKOB IS BUSY PUSHING HIS REFERENDUM PROPOSAL
LACK OF PROPER SERVICE MAY POSTPONE OUSTER SUIT CASES

From W. S. Fleetwood, $1 for the Baker school cafeteria fund.

Touching, indeed! Mr. Fleetwood is a compositor on The NEWS. When he read of the plight of many children at the Baker school—how they lacked food at noons and could not go school without it—he was touched by the picture. He was setting the type at the time, but he stopped, pulled out a dollar bill, and brought it to this desk.

The Right Response Getting results before the article appears in print is unusual. The Pampan hopes that many readers will fill in the coupon below and mail it, or leave a dollar with this column. Principal Aaron Meek said yesterday that many parents of jobless homes had barely enough food to keep alive, and that they could not furnish children lunches. The Baker P. T. A. is furnishing noon meals to more than a score of such children. Your dollar will, with the aid of soup from the Schneider hotel, feed a child for two weeks under the plan used. Here is the coupon:

Mr. J. A. Meek, Principal, Baker School. Allow me to help keep those children in school. I am enclosing a dollar for your cafeteria fund. (Signed):

Dollar a Week! The first response after the papers were on the street (as this was being written) came from Mrs. Alex Lubetkin, who phoned in from the Gift Shop that she wished to give a dollar a week to the cafeteria fund while the need continued acute. That's real generosity for you; who'll be next?

Watch Your Salesmen! Selling is such a matter of proper contacts. In making a sales appeal, it is always wise to know the salesmen—circulars, letters, blotters, etc.—are welcome where you send them? Do they get proper attention from busy housewives, who do most of the purchasing in the average home?

Never Barred There is one salesman who is never barred, who is always welcome, who is (See PAMPA, Page 2)

STANDARD OIL WRIT IS RULED TO BE ILLEGAL

DEFAULT VERDICT FOR STATE IS ASKED IN ONE SUIT

SHELL UNION IS SILENT

DELAY TO MARCH IS BELIEVED VERY LIKELY

AUSTIN, Jan. 6. (P)—Attorney General James V. Alfred today asked District Judge C. A. Wheeler to enter a judgment in favor of the state against the Shell Union Oil corporation of New York, one of the defendants in the attorney general's suit to oust 15 major oil companies from Texas. The Shell Union had failed to file an answer to the attorney general's suit alleging conspiracies in restraint of trade in the marketing of refined petroleum products in violation of state anti-trust laws. The suit asked penalties ranging from $1,000,000 from each of the defendants and cancellation of their authority to do business in Texas.

No Order Entered Judge Wheeler found that no service had been obtained by the state against the Standard Oil company of New York and the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. No order as to the status of these defendants was entered, however.

The court also held that service had not been obtained on the Standard Oil company of California. A service had been returned to the attorney general's department but it was sent back to the sheriff of San Francisco for perfection, the original service having been made on an improper officer of the company. Judge Wheeler announced he would not act on the request for a default judgment against the Shell Union corporation until this afternoon. He said he would file an answer or for amicus curiae on its behalf. Service against the Shell Union was found to have been perfect.

Charlie Thut To Seek Re-Election As County Clerk

Announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the office of county clerk was given The NEWS today by Charlie Thut, who will offer his name to voters in the democratic primary next July. "Charlie," as he is known to hundreds in court circles of the Panhandle, is an institution at the Gray county courthouse. When a perplexing question comes up, most persons take a short cut to the desired information by asking "Charlie." If he doesn't know what is asked, he will immediately and cheerfully attempt to find it. Strictly impartial, he is extremely friendly, with an ever-present smile as his dominating characteristic. Being accommodating is Mr. Thut's way of showing that he appreciates the high esteem in which he is held.

School's Lunch Time Is Changed

Bulletins have been sent to parents of first and second grade pupils of Sam Houston school telling of a change made this week in lunch hours. Pupils of those two grades will be dismissed for lunch at 11:30 o'clock, and their classes will begin in the afternoon at 12:30. Older children will be dismissed at 12 o'clock and will report for afternoon classes at 1 o'clock. Principal A. L. Patrick said the new arrangement assisted greatly in the cafeteria service by preventing congested conditions. He asked parents to cooperate in seeing that the first and second grade children who had lunch at home were back to school in time for 12:30 o'clock classes.

DURSTON AIDS RAIL GROUPS

More Right-of-Way Bought By Committee—Weather Slows Construction.

H. H. Durston, general executive of the Fort Worth and Denver railway, and George Billingsley, auditor, arrived yesterday afternoon. Mr. Billingsley left for Fort Worth this morning, but Mr. Durston will remain a few days. Several tracts of right-of-way were secured by Mr. Durston and members of the C. C. D. right-of-way committee yesterday. Today Mr. Durston was securing right-of-way for a new street that will have to be opened in place of Crawford street, where the railway line will cross South Barnes street. Building of the underpass for traffic will close Crawford street.

BLAINE BLOCKS IT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. (P)—The plan to begin senate consideration today of the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction finance corporation bill was blocked when Senator Blaine Republican, Wisconsin, objected. Under senate rules, unanimous consent was necessary to bring the measure up. Leaders had hoped to act on it this afternoon.

One's Friends Frequently Are Unable to Furnish His Correct Spelling.

There is no insult comparable to a mis-spelled, and above all, a mis-pronounced name, according to editors. All newspapers, ever so often, carry mis-spelled names in their columns. Desperate editors have found no way to stop it. Some people are of the opinion that only in newspapers are names mis-spelled. The truth is that one's neighbors and friends are guilty of wanton insolence every day in the matter of pronouncing and spelling names. Of course, the owner of a name is the sole judge of how it should be pronounced and spelled. A local woman with a "nut-cracker" name declared that nine out of 10 persons spelled her name wrong on Christmas greeting cards and that four out of 10 consistently pronounced her name incorrectly. Pampa with unusual names, or names difficult to spell or pronounce, were almost unanimous in complaining that few said their names correctly. Most of them would prefer a correct name week to any other sort of week, including clean-up week. "To mis-pronounce a man's name is to make fun of him," Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet said. "The victim gets the idea that the person who mis-pronounces the name does not think enough of you to even learn how to say your name. A mis-pronounced name makes both yourself and your tormentor ridiculous." And in that connection, Sheriff Blanscet emphasized that his name is not "Blanchett," as many people believe. Charlie Thut would have all new-comers know that his name is pronounced "Tut" and not "Thut" as in through. Murray Freundlich's name is pronounced as "froidnick," not "Friendlich." The last name of Paul Kasishke is properly said Kasish-ke. Many people call Judge S. D. Stennis "Judge Stennet," and get H. L. Cottrell and Younger (See NAMES, Page 2)

STATE CONTROL TALKED

SENATOR DILL ASSERTS LIQUOR NOT PARTY PROBLEM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. (P)—John J. Raskob, democratic national chairman, began conferences with party leaders today on his proposal that the Democrats declare decisively for a prohibition referendum and avoid being classified as either wet or dry. On his list were Senator Robinson, floor leader of the party in the senate and vice-presidential nominee in 1928, and Speaker Garner, whose power in the party is more potent now than republican control of the house has been overthrown. First reactions in Capitol Hill to Raskob's latest prohibition expressions were to the effect that prohibition is not a party question. One consolation There was some satisfaction that Raskob did not intend to attempt to commit the national committee at its coming meeting of his proposed constitutional amendment giving states control over liquor. Senator Dill of Washington, a supporter of Governor Roosevelt of New York for president, issued the warning "prohibition is not a party question," but he did applaud the move of Raskob "to sit down and talk over the controversy." Raskob laid his "home rule plan for liquor control" before the na-

ELECTED!

BRASHEARS IS JAYSEE HEAD

Junior Chamber Will Make Survey of Odd Jobs Throughout Pampa.

R. S. (Bob) Brashears, above, was elected president of the Junior chamber of commerce last night following the resignation of C. B. Akers. Mr. Brashears is business manager of the Pampa Daily News. Because his duties in the next few months will cause him to be out of the city a great deal, C. B. "Brownie" Akers resigned last night as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. After accepting his resignation reluctantly, the directors elected R. S. (Bob) Brashears to the presidency. Mr. Brashears is business manager of The NEWS. Five alternate directors will be chosen at a general membership session Tuesday evening from a list of 10 submitted by a nominating committee. This committee is composed of Bob Rose, Bob Watson, and C. H. Schuler. In an effort to assist unemployment, the Junior Chamber will soon conduct a job survey. This survey will be a house-to-house canvass to determine how many odd jobs can be found for the many men who are eager to take such employment. The Jaysees also will hold a membership banquet every other month, alternating with the senior organization. A major activities committee to coordinate a program with the senior body will go into session this week.

Ewing Leech Is To Seek Office He Now Holds

Announcement of his candidacy for re-election was authorized today by R. Ewing Leech, tax assessor of Gray county. In seeking the nomination in the Democratic primary of next July, Mr. Leech said that he did so in the belief that he could thereby best serve Gray county. He promised that, if he is re-elected, he will continue his fair and diligent handling of the duties of his office. Mr. Leech is one of the best known and liked members of the Gray county "official family." He is active in church and civic affairs and is always ready to help in any cause for the advancement of Gray county. He takes pride in knowing intimately the problems and needs of the various parts of the territory he serves, and is sympathetic but firm in his relations with citizens.

STORM IS DISPELLED

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 6. (P)—Clearing skies today generally were dispelling a storm which has stretched a 100-mile wide path of deep snow from the Michigan peninsula to the Texas Panhandle. Because of low temperatures, the snow remained in huge heaps where it was piled yesterday by brisk winds, blocking highway traffic in the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles. Western Kansas and parts of Iowa, Nebraska and in Minnesota, where the fall continued today.

PAUL YOUNG HUNTED

JOPLIN, Mo., Jan. 6. (P)—Two carloads of officers left Joplin at 2 p. m. today going east on highway 66 toward Springfield in response to a telephone call from Springfield police that a man believed to be Paul Young, the third of the Young brothers sought in the slaying of six Springfield officers last Saturday, had been seen driving west from Springfield. HAGEN IS COMING SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 6. (P)—Walter Hagen will be among the starters in the 11th annual Texas open golf tournament here Jan. 28-31.

BIG GOODNIGHT RANCH IS SOLD TO CREDITORS

FATE OF BUFFALOS TO BE DECIDED BY PEOPLE

MUST FURNISH RANGE

STATE IS WILLING TO BUY FRONTIER BEASTS

GOODNIGHT, Jan. 6. (P)—The famous Goodnight ranch, founded by the late Col. Charles C. Goodnight, cattle baron of the Panhandle was sold to mortgage holders yesterday for $50,000. The fate of a buffalo herd, started by the pioneer rancher and his wife in 1878, and the only descendants of the great herds that formerly roamed the staked plains, was placed in doubt by the sale. Cleo Hubbard, ranch manager, had not been notified of the sale. He did not know into whose hands the management would pass, nor their attitude toward disposal of the herd. He has been in charge of the ranch, and the buffaloes for years, but had not talked with the former owner Joseph I. Staley, of Wichita Falls, since the purported sale yesterday. Information received here was that the sale was made on a $50,000 mortgage, and that the Great Southern Life Insurance company was the biggest mortgage holder. Efforts of Panhandle people to raise funds to purchase the 11,000-acre range to be turned over to the Texas game commission as a preserve so far have failed. They had the assurance of the game commission that the buffalo herd would be bought and preserved if a suitable range was provided. A movement to save the buffaloes received nationwide attention last August when Staley announced that he would stage a hunt on the buffaloes in their native haunts. He sought, in this manner, to dispose of the herd and probably save his ranch. Such a protest went up from Panhandle citizens that legislation was enacted preventing the hunt, and authorizing the game commission to buy the herd. At a barbecue held at the ranch headquarters near this city last Sept. 7, Gen. John A. Hulen of Ft. Worth was named chairman of a statewide committee that was instructed to direct a campaign for funds.

MAY MAKE STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. (P)—It was indicated in highly authoritative circles today that an important statement of American policy toward the Far East may be made shortly by Secretary Stimson. Discussions between the secretary and the French and British ambassadors regarding further joint action in the Far Eastern situation were linked by officials in predicting a statement on the general situation.

IMPEACHMENT OF MELLON IS ASKED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. (P)—A resolution seeking the impeachment of Secretary Mellon was introduced in the house by Representative Patman, Democrat of Texas. "On my own responsibility," Patman told the house, "I impeach Andrew W. Mellon of high crimes and misdemeanors." The house sat tense and still as Patman spoke, facing the chamber crowded with representatives who had just answered a roll call. Patman based his charges on a statute of 1789 forbidding a treasury head from engaging in commerce. He said Mellon owns voting stock in 300 corporations with combined assets of $3,000,000,000. "Since becoming secretary, Mellon has been the owner in whole or in part of many sea vessels competing with other vessels in commerce" the Texas said.

FORGERIES TRACED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 6. (P)—County and city officers here today were attempting to break up what they believed to be a state house check forging ring. Search was under way for John W. Buster, who figured in a recent diamond robbery here. Officers said he was under a suspended sentence from Wichita Falls, Texas, and was suspected in the capital check cases. Buster escaped from agents of the state game and fish department in their automobile this week.

DETROIT, Jan. 6. (P)—A man was shot to death by police today shortly after he had been surprised in the supply vault in a branch of the First Wayne National bank. The man, identified from fingerprints as Harry Bolton, former inmate of Kingston, Ont., prison, apparently had hidden all night in the bank.

MERCURY HAS ANOTHER LOW

Sixteen Degrees Above Last Night — Highways Are Still Blocked.

The mercury dropped to its lowest mark this winter at 6 o'clock this morning when the thermometer at the Santa Fe depot registered 16 degrees above zero. Less than 10 degrees rise was reported at noon. A bright sun was shining, but the cold north wind still whipped loose snow and kept the drifts from melting. Roads in every direction excepting to Amarillo were still blocked this morning. The Safety First bus from Amarillo was running only a few minutes late. Other buses were kept in Pampa with no attempt to send them through. Telephone connections between Pampa, Amarillo and other points were by way of Childress until this morning, when a single clear line was opened. The telephone company made arrangements to have the Pampa NEWS telegraphers connected with Oklahoma City, but early this morning made connections with Borger and brought the news through that way. There were many breaks west and south of Pampa. A light mist covered the wires with ice and when two wires met they froze together. Pampa streets with the exception of the Borger road were open this morning. The city caterpillar and grader worked more than three hours yesterday afternoon but failed to make an opening. Traffic can get through by detouring one block, however.

MARTIAL LAW IS RAPPED BY JUDGE TODAY

CONTROL OF BIG EAST TEXAS FIELD IS INVOLVED

STATE HAS CITED RIOT

TWO JURISTS ASSERT PRODUCTION SOLE "WAR" ISSUE

HOUSTON, Jan. 6. (P)—Two members of a three-judge federal court hearing arguments in an attack on Governor Ross Sterling's martial law rule in the East Texas oil fields said from the bench today that, in their opinion, the act of the governor in sending troops into the area was for the sole purpose of limiting the production of oil. Their expressions were contrary to the contention of Governor Sterling, Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wothers and Adj. Gen. W. W. Sterling, defendants in the injunction suit, who have maintained throughout the hearing that declaration of martial law was for the sole purpose of preventing and suppressing riot and insurrection and that restriction of production was only a necessary incidental to enable keeping the public peace. The plaintiffs, E. Constantin and J. D. Wraibler, allege production restriction was the governor's motive and that the "riot and insurrection" was not-existent or imaginary. While the arguments of the defense were going on, Federal Judge Randolph B. Evans, of the eastern district of Texas, said headily there was no question in his mind that the martial law was nothing other than a pretext, a subterfuge to limit the production of oil. Circuit Judge J. C. Hutcheson, presiding, concurred in the remark and added that had been a "trespass on the property of the citizens" in his opinion. While the spectators, including many prominent oil men, sat up with interest, the attorney for one oil company, himself not participating in the suit, said quietly "School is out."

—SO WE HEAR

"Gosh, any self-respecting horse shouldn't mind being rowled by those spurs," remarked JOHN B. HESSERTY yesterday in the office of SHERIFF LON L. BLANSCKET. The spurs in question were owned by J. W. "BILLY" JACKSON of Hollywood, Calif., former Pampan. They are heavy silver, gold mounted with bucking horns and other rodeo performances. They set the veteran cowpuncher and picture star back and even hundred and fifty bucks. "CONSTABLE FRANK JORDAN would like to go around without a coat . . . He is wearing one of ex-SHERIFF E. GRAVES' six guns and it is a beauty. . . All hand engraved with pearl handle . . . The veteran sheriff gave the constable the gun when he visited here last time . . . the former sheriff has the mate." The roads between Pampa and LeFors were really impassable yesterday afternoon. R. S. CARTER and G. TAYLOR COLE came to Pampa yesterday morning but couldn't get back. They tried the LeFors road without luck. . . later an attempt was made on highway 23 with the same result. . . a third attempt through the oilfield was foiled. . . so the LeFors men spent last night in Pampa. LONE PLANE IS SEEKING TRACE OF MISSING FLIERS

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 6. Shelton, who accompanied Mrs. Stewart in a second plane carrying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Woerner, also of St. Louis yesterday, took off alone from the local airport.

NAMES--

Cockrell confused in their minds. Most Confusing. Many times Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wohlgenuth don't know whether they are being addressed. The name should be pronounced Wohlgenuth (that g and long u, and not Woeggenuth. It would be wise to ask Mrs. Fritz Waechter how to say her name. She told the writer once, but he has forgotten. The last name of Lewis and Smith Kin-kind is said like Kin-kind, not Kin-kind. The "e" in Earl Sheig's name is long, and the name is not "Sheig."

Miss Angela Strand's name is "Struh-nd," "Strand." Stanard should not be called "Standard," as so many people do. Baer is never pronounced as "bear." The accent in W. C. de Cordova's last name is on the first syllable. It is Frank Soodhalter, not "soodhalter."

There are several hard names to pronounce among the employes of The NEWS. Bob Brashears is never "bray-shears," "brash-shears," but "bruh-shears." The last name of Harry Hoar should be pronounced "Ho-are," according to Harry. Members of the Pullingim family in Pampa pronounce their name "Fuling-im," the "g" hard, and not "fulin-im." Kenneth Boehm's last name is "Bohm," not "boam."

Chisum and Chisholm are pronounced alike as far as the local persons bearing those two names are concerned. The "g" hard, and not said as in "tomb." Danciger is not "dancer," but "dan-see-ger," with the name on the first syllable. Mrs. Stella Bastin (bas-tin), Mrs. Chas. P. Bastion (bas-tion, accent on the first syllable).

Frank Beaudoin's pronunciation name "beaud-wim." S. T. Champ is said like "beechum." Nels, Walberg not Walsberg. Fry is "fry," not "fray," or "fri."

Richard is not "gerhart." Fawcett does not have a short "a." It is a John Gant and a J. G. Gant don't confuse the two. It is Hugh Isbell, not "Isabel." It is Hugh (hugstid), not "youstid." It is J. A. Hulme (short "u") and not "Hulm." D. C. Houk is said as

THREE KINDS OF LOVE BY KAY CLEAVER STRAHAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY ANNE CECILY and MARY-FRANCES FENWICK live with their grandparents, once wealthy, now so impoverished that Anne's only source of income is her part-time work at the household. The sisters have been orphaned since childhood. The grandparents are known respectively as "ROSA LIE" and "GRAND" and they insist on keeping up pretenses of their former wealth.

No harm in trying to pick them up De Armout thought. He tightened another cigaret and strolled across the street.

HER eyes went past the orchid and black bathtub in the window to the wide sunlit street beyond. When Mr. Redfern had conceived the idea of lowering his rent by moving from the west side of the river to this small place on the east side he had said that it would be much pleasanter for Miss Fenwick, "they were closer to the street, here, and she could look out of the window and watch the people passing and the traffic all day long."

He had meant it kindly. He knew, as Ann knew, how light her duties were; a few letters and bills to be sent, a few items to be posted in the books, an occasional telephone call to answer, pay rolls to be made out on Saturdays, and nothing more to be done except for a scurrying day or two around the first of each month.

Since Mr. Redfern managed to keep his ailing business alive only by constant personal ministrations, Ann was alone most of the time in the office. She read library books; novels of the lighter, neatly mediated sort; fiction, biography, or a newly popular philosophy; poetry, sometimes, if the bindings were clean and pretty, though poetry often made her sad. She wrote letters to the few people she knew who did not live in Portland—letters so long that the recipients felt they required a "real letter" in answer (Ann Fenwick writes such "lady letters") and so, often, never answered them at all. She sewed a little, but guiltily—it didn't look well to be sewing in an office. During the season she went to a nearby market and bought peas and string beans and prepared them unrepentantly, and with newspapers ready to hand for coverings, to carry home ready to be cooked for the evening meal.

Once, for a few happy months she had attempted short-story writing; but the following flood of fat envelopes bearing rejections had drowned her courage, or her confidence, and dissolved her ambitions for authorship. She had not told about the short stories. She was afraid that he would tease and teased her about the French in six easy side the evening he had left her house at 10 o'clock and telephoned from a drug store 20 minutes later. Nothing had been wrong that evening; he had wished to hear her voice again, to be certain that she really was Phil's surliest last evening did not count for much beside the time she had scalded her hands, and Phil had gone mad, and telephoned to a doctor, and declared that he could not live in a world where Ann could be hurt.

The surliness and the failure to call her, both together, grew small, put beside these two weeks when she had been ill in bed and a box of flowers with a package of notes to be read every half hour all day had arrived each morning—and then, Phil's cheek wet against hers because he was so happy the first afternoon she was allowed to come downstairs.

She looked again at the clock. Five o'clock. Suppose he did not telephone at all? Suppose she went home, and began to wait there for his message, and it didn't come? Suppose she waited all evening—and all tomorrow, and all tomorrow evening? Suppose she were to begin now, at five o'clock on the fifth day of April, to wait all her life long for a message from Phil that never came?

The telephone bell rang. She snatched the receiver and paused to moisten her lips before she spoke. "Ann, angel..." Cecily's voice thrilled higher and sweeter than usual.

THE youth known for the present as Earl DeArmout stood, that instant and stick suspended from his arm, outside the Happy Hour Pool Room, resting rather than waiting. Standing so, he made no particularly attractive picture, though he was young and tall, slender and well formed. A hasty opinion might have granted him good looks; but a more discriminating observer would have remarked that the dark bright eyes were set too closely together under the overhanging brow and had this same observer been recent to a zoo he might have noted here an anthropoidal similitude.

The lower part of the face was better; the jaw gave an impression of strength, and the mouth was merely too pink and pretty. His teeth, which showed proudly when he yawned—and he often yawned—were blue; every which way a revealed some old dentist's proclivity with gold. Further description of Earl DeArmout is difficult because one knew the first thing about him. He had a serene impression, of extreme trustworthiness, nor of rectitude; but, perhaps, he was not blackly villainous so few persons are.

He looked at the watch on his wrist and found the time past 10 o'clock. He raised his eyes and a little reading; Stark reality, O. Lutz, Chiropractor, A. A. Carlson, Dentist. He finished Jilted and more roman. Lung Chin Gee, "hop" and lowered his eyes to the street.

A block away, Peggy-Louise's Beauty Shoppe stood the fat little kid who had been in the restaurant last night, and with her was the pretty girl friend. Earl had no interest in the fat little kid, though he had gathered from her manner in the restaurant that she would probably stand for a pick-up; the girl friend, a peach, probably would not stand for a pick-up; but she might come along with her friend if he managed it right. No harm in trying. He lighted another cigaret and strolled across the street.

MARY-FRANCES glanced slantwise from under her long curling lashes. "He is coming," she breathed. "He is coming..." TENNYSON did it more elaborately but, perchance, with more genuine emotion. At least Mary-Frances's cheeks were hot and her hands were cold; her knees were rickety; her throat was cramped, and her stomach was impoverished and wavering.

"You can't," said Ermintrude, in a sort of sick squeal. "You're positively can't!" It is to be feared that the greenness of any ally, rather than any swift surge of affection, causes Mary-Frances to swerve closer to Ermintrude and put a tightening arm about her waist. "Darling," she murmured, "I got to go. I just got to. Don't you realize, can't you understand that if I were cruel to him now, and proved to be nothing but a mere fickle coquette and everything, two lives would be ruined?"

"Maybe not," urged Ermintrude distractedly optimistic, "maybe I might just turn out to be one of those terrible mistakes afterwards anyway. Let's—let's run or something. Oh, please! It's just terrible. It's—it's not refined."

"Ermintrude" (he was so close now that the tap of his stick on the walk was the loudest sound in the world), "if you don't help me, if you don't stay by me, like you promised last night, I'll be my true friend and everything—then—then we just part forever right now, and that's all."

"Hello, g'lar," said Earl DeArmout. Ermintrude's chin went high in the air; but Mary-Frances's chin arched slowly (nonchalant savored with winsomeness), came to rest above the blue jersey shoulder of Earl DeArmout, and, as she undoubtedly would have phrased it, lifted timid eyes to meet his steady gaze.

"How about some ice cream?" Earl DeArmout. He had begun to speaking to Ermintrude, so perhaps she was within earshot when she answered, "No couldn't possibly."

"I ought to apologize," he began. "As a matter of fact, if I'd thought I'd known that girls wouldn't, maybe, stand fresh guy horning in like this?" But as a matter of fact I'm danger here myself—see?—and wanted to be friendly. You understand how I mean, don't you?" murmured Mary-Frances, her hand all.

"Friday" Believes Fine Days Ahead

It will be "along in February" before Pampa has another cold spell similar to the one that raged the first part of this week, A. G. (Friday) Brandon, courthouse weather prophet, and old timer of Gray county, predicted this morning.

"Friday" said there might be a few flurries of bad weather but that this section would not have another major cold spell until February. He said good weather would prevail the remainder of this week.

For the last 10 days, "Friday" has accurately predicted every stage of the weather without missing a detail. Two days ago, he forecast that today would be fair and pretty and that the snow would melt. Pressed this morning to reveal the source of his information, "Friday" looked non-committal and walked away. Courthouse gossip this morning had it that "Friday" learned how to forecast the weather from Cajuns and Creoles while he was growing up in Louisiana.

Much Of Property Is On Pavement

More than 1,500 pieces of property in Pampa are on pavement, according to figures compiled from a "paving map" just completed by C. L. Stine, city engineer. Mr. Stine made one map for the postal department, one for the city manager and one for the fire department and one for himself.

There are five different types of paving in the city and each type is represented by a different colored ink on the map. The business section is of brick and is red on the map. Other types of paving are six-inch vibrolithic; five-inch vibrolithic; six-inch concrete and five-inch cc/crete. There is approximately 12 miles of paving inside the city limits, the map shows.

SAVED FROM DEATH

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 6. (AP)—John Moore, under death penalty because he stole a pair of shoes in Winston-Salem is not to die for his offense.

After a hearing, Tyre C. Taylor, executive counsel to Governor Gardner, announced he would recommend commutation of Moore's sentence to life imprisonment. The executive counsel's word is practically final in such matters.

LENZ IS MADE HAPPY BY GAINS ON VERGE OF DEFEAT

CULBERTSON'S CARDS NOT TO STAR'S LIKING

HIS PARTNER FAILS TO ADD TO TEAM'S TOTAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 6. (AP)—Sidney S. Lenz was happier today, on the verge of apparently certain defeat, than for some time.

For the rubbers in which Commander Winfield Liggett Jr. has set opposite him in place of Oswald Jacoby, resigned, the plus of Lenz's side in the great contract bridge match was 2,665 with 13 rubbers left to play.

Eight more rubbers last night, of which Lenz and Liggett won six, only intensified the general expectation of neutrals that Ely Culbertson will win handsily. The match ends Friday night. There will be no session tonight. Howard Schenker will be Culbertson's partner tomorrow night.

Lenz Gains

The Culbertson plus was reduced last night by 2,660 to 14,175. The rubbers won became 73 for Culbertson and 64 for Lenz.

For the first time in the match Culbertson had a partner who failed to contribute to the plus of his side. He was Michael Gottlieb, New York realty broker, a tall, handsome youth whom Culbertson regards as a star.

Gottlieb played brilliantly on the defensive but Lenz and Liggett had big cards of which they failed to take full advantage. Culbertson thought most of the breaks were with his opponents.

On hand 789 Culbertson commented that an opening three bid under Lenz's system shut out slam contracting. Liggett contracted for four spades and made six.

The hands:

Lenz (North)
S-J 6 2
H-10 9
D-A Q 10 8 7 3
C-5

Culbertson (West, dealer)
S-9 7 4
H-Q 5 4 3 2
D-Q 10 8 7
C-A 10 9 6 2

Liggett (South)
S-A K Q 10 8 5
H-A K
D-K 5
C-K 4 3

The bidding: west pass; north pass; east pass; south spades; west pass; north four spades; all pass. Culbertson led the four of diamonds.

DEMPSEY HAS TRAINING PLAN FOR 25 DAYS

Then He Will Start Out On Tour to Fight Husky Opponents.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6. (AP)—Jack Dempsey was en route by motor car today for Reno, Nev., to train for his second comeback tour which he said would begin Feb. 1.

"I'll train for the next 25 days like I want," said the former world heavyweight champion. "When I pull out on my second tour, you may expect to see me weigh 190

A. & I. AND SUL ROSS TO OPEN HOT CAGE CAMPAIGN

Buffaloes Are Expected to Whizz Through to Third Straight Pennant.

ABILENE, Jan. 6. (AP)—Meeting of Sul Ross and Texas A. and I. at Kingsville tomorrow night will start another championship basketball campaign in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic association now composed of McMurry college, Abilene Christian college, West Texas Teachers, Sul Ross, Daniel Baker, and Texas A. and I.

The six-cornered race, running through February, consists of 29 conference games.

Most of their strongest competition was eliminated this winter when Eastern colleges withdrew from the T. I. A. A. to form the Lone Star conference, and as a result the West Texas State Teachers are expected to breeze in with their third straight T. I. A. A. championship.

With one exception, the T. I. A. A. will engage in a double round robin card. Eight hundred miles apart, Texas A. and I. and the West Texas Teachers find it impracticable to carry on athletic relations.

Sport Slants

It is doubtful whether 1932 will be any faster than 1931 along the various trails of sport.

Ladoumègue of France on foot, Campbell and Stainforth of England in an auto and in the air, traveled faster over the mile route than has ever been done by man before.

Beard of Alabama ran the fastest high hurdle race of all time. Stanford's great mile relay team lowered the world's record. Gate receipts also tumbled faster than ever before and Southern California performed the fastest major operation in recent football history in stopping Notre Dame's streak.

The endurance record for the past year was established by Von Elm and Burke, who went 72 extra miles, a tournament by itself, to decide the United States open golf championship.

Pepper Martin turned in the finest performance of the year, especially from the viewpoint of the Athletics, and also figured in the funniest legend: "Old Pepper chases those jackrabbits, leans over to feel 'em and, if they are nice and fat, just picks 'em up and puts 'em in his bag!"

Another Paavo

Dan Ferris writes that Paavo Nurmi not only has a real rival for all-around-distance running laurels in his young countryman, 22-year-old Lauri Lehtinen, but predicts that Lehtinen will wipe out many of the peerless one's world records.

We will believe it when we see it. Men and machines have been moving at a pretty fast pace but it seems a trifle early for any one to catch up with the phantom of Finland, taking into account all he has done in foot-racing in the last 12 years? Old man though he is and no longer possessed of the unconquerable speed of his heyday in 1924-25, Nurmi gave a running lesson to Lehtinen and a few other ambitious Finns on home 4 rounds last summer.

It was the occasion when Paavo broke the world's outdoor two-mile record, running the distance in 8:59.5. Lehtinen was at his heels after being overtaken in the stretch by Paavo. The youngster's time was 9:00.5.

Still a third Finn, Virtanen, was clocked under the former world's record in the same race, set at 9:01.4 by the Swede, Edwin Wide.

Nurmi was just Lehtinen's age when he first crashed into world notice at the 1920 Olympics in Antwerp, winning distance honors at 10,000 meters. It was not until three years later that he broke the world's mile mark and then reached his peak in the 1924 Olympics.

Tragedy In Numbers

The figures tell more sharply than anything we have seen the story of Hack Wilson's tumble from the high places in the biggest form reversal of 1931. Here they are:

1930	1931
Games	155
At Bat	585
Runs	146
Hits	268
Doubles	35
Triples	6
Homers	56 (record)
Total bases	423
Sacrifices	18
Stolen bases	3
Bases on balls	199 (record)
Struck out	84

CHICAGO WILL CUT ATHLETICS FOR SCHOOLS

DOUBLE WEIGHT BASIS IS CANCELED BY BOARD

CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Chicago's public school athletic league has cut its championship basketball schedule by half to aid the board of education in its struggle to reduce expenses.

A school board ruling that all public high schools must be closed by 5 p. m. to conserve light and heat caused the athletic league to abandon the doubleheader schedule, in which lightweight and heavyweight teams of the same pairs of schools were to have met. Under the new schedule the same dates will be reserved, with only one game and the lights and heavies alternating.

Word of the death of Mrs. C. H. Hefner in Wichita Falls late last night, was received here this morning by Mrs. Orda Myatt, a granddaughter. Mrs. Myatt before her marriage Christmas was Miss Wilma Noah of Arp, but formerly of Pampa. It will be impossible for Mrs. Myatt to go to Wichita Falls because of blocked roads.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Wheat: No. 2 red 54 3-4. Corn: No. 2 yellow 39 1-2 to 3-4; No. 3 white 38 to 38 1-2. Oats: No. 2 white 26 1-4 to 1-2. Wheat closed unsettled 1-2 to 1.

SUPPORT FOR CAGE TEAM IS GROWING NOW

CANYON EAGLES WILL BE PLAYED THURSDAY EVENING

Pampa sportsmen have been bitten by the basketball bug at last. They are talking about the green and gold on the streets and in the stores. Pampa basketball teams have received little support in the past, even though they have battled from the first to last whistles for the school.

The Harvesters will meet the Canyon Eagles in Canyon Thursday night and will entertain the Amarillo Sandies here Saturday night. Two teams are scheduled to come from the "City of No Roses." The Ferryton girls are scheduled to play here Saturday night.

The boys' team has been going strong since the Christmas holidays. They defeated a team of Phillips "68" players from Oklahoma and took two games from Miami last week. The Canyon game is expected to be the toughest this season.

Davis Hill and his Sandies defeated Liberal, Kan., in Amarillo last week for the first time in several years. The Sandie quintet is composed of veterans with LaBarge, former Berger Bulldog, assisting. Coach Odus Mitchell is looking for a hard game against the Sandies.

POSSE OF CURIO HUNTERS IS DESCENDING ON GREEN HOUSE
WHERE MISSOURI KILLERS DIED

HOUSTON, Jan. 6 (AP)—The little green cottage here where two Missouri killers, Harry and Jennings Young, died at their own hands to save themselves from arrest had a different posse before its doors today.

The cottage, surrounded yesterday by armed policemen who never made their arrests, was descended upon by the curious and by souvenir hunters who wanted to trim a bit of green from the hedge or even to remove a loose brick.

Meanwhile, the police had come to the end of their trail, they felt, in the search under way in the southwest for other members of the impromptu executioner's squad which slew six officers near Springfield last Saturday.

Police Chief Percy Heard said he was confident none of the other slayers was in South Texas.

Harry Young and Jennings Young, each of whose names Young had saved themselves from arrest. Police believed it was a double suicide.

The Youngs had rented a room in the house the night before but the owner, J. F. Tomlinson, had recognized them from a picture he saw in a newspaper that night and reported to police yesterday morning.

They went to the cottage and surrounded it. A police lieutenant went in through the back door; other officers searched the front entrance. The lieutenant had opportunity to fire once when one of the brothers peered from the bathroom door but the shots which took the desperadoes lives were shot they fired themselves.

One of them called out, between two series of shots from within, "we are dead; come and get us."

The police came, as soon as they could prepare themselves with gas masks for the tear gas fumes within and found Jennings dead and Harry dying.

Civil Suits For Term Scheduled
By Judge Ritchey

Cases were set for trial during the remaining seven weeks of 114th district court by Judge E. P. Ritchey yesterday. The trial docket will be adhered to as much as possible, although some cases may be added and some removed.

The schedule for the seven weeks, beginning next Monday is as follows:

Jan. 11—J. H. Ingle vs. John W. Ross et al; Zeila Reddick vs. Prairie Oil & Gas company, two suits.

Jan. 13—Texas Indemnity Insurance company vs. Mrs. Etta Bar-Jings.

Jan. 14—Mrs. M. A. Ratcliff vs. Traders & General Insurance company. Oil Belt Grocery vs. T. E. Stennett.

Jan. 15—Wetzel Oil company vs. G. C. Malone; Walter Darlington vs. Walter Darlington Jr.; Stuckey Construction company vs. E. R. Turman; Realty Trust company vs. H. E. Florey et al.

Jan. 21—U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty company vs. Mrs. Gladys L. Henderson.

Jan. 25—Dan McIntosh vs. A. Goddon; Clowe and Cowan vs. R. H. Mintener; Brewster vs. D. A. Upham et al; Rigdon vs. D. A. Upham et al.

Jan. 27—Alex Smith vs. Gray county; Simms Oil company vs. H. I. Saunders et al; T. B. Cobb vs. C. Vollmert.

Feb. 1—G. M. A. C. vs. Martin J. McCarthy; Witt Stuart vs. Hindertool company.

Feb. 8—J. G. Gantz vs. Roy A. Thompson et al; Albert Michelson vs. N. W. Rudman; W. D. Davis vs. Geo. G. Rainouard.

Feb. 10—Doyle vs. Bankers' Lloyds two suits.

Feb. 15—Lizzie Carroll vs. E. B. Johnson; Keenan vs. LeFors Petroleum company; Ayers vs. D. A. Upham et al.

The suits against Upham and others involve claims made by McLean citizens against the gas company at McLean.

The suit of Alex Smith against Gray county will likely arouse a great deal of interest. Smith contends that his farm was badly damaged by flood waters which he alleges were turned on the land when the county graded a road skirting his farm.

CLAUSON MOTOR CO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—The demonstration of the looting of the Lincoln National Bank and Trust company—the largest bank robbery in history—has come with the recovery of nearly $3,000,000 in stolen bonds, which were returned to their rightful owners because a gangster kept his word.

Gus Winkler, reputed "brains" of the gang of Fred Burke, "the killer," and an associate of the organization of "Scarface" Al Capone, was the gangster who kept his promise despite the fact he had what authorities said was an iron-clad alibi, namely that he was in Buffalo, N. Y., when machine gunners looted the Lincoln bank in September of 1930.

The announcement came yesterday afternoon in the offices of the "secret six," Chicago crime fighting organization, when negotiable securities worth $553,000 were handed to W. E. Barkley, a directing officer of the bank, by Sergeant Roy
Steffens, in the presence of Max
Towle, county attorney of Lincoln,
Neb. Winkler already had supplied proof of the destruction of $2,217,- 000 worth of registered bonds, making issuance of new certificates possible.

R. C. Saunders, chief of the protective department of the Illinois
Bankers' association, said the recovery reduced the loss to a mere $10,- 000 or $15,000, which may be cut by restoration of other stolen securities which have been traced.
Where the securities had been hidden or from whom Winkler obtained them remained a mystery.
It was learned, however, they were left in a cheap suitcase placed on a street corner where they were picked up by Sergeant Steffens early last Monday morning.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Hollye Sellers Hinkle

We have found one use for high heels in addition to their aesthetic value. They can be used to great advantage as stilts to aid the wearer in keeping her feet dry while crossing the streets when the snow is melting. A person should practice balancing on her heels at home to keep the result from being disastrous when she attempts it on the street.

In wading through the slush yesterday afternoon in search of news, we learned—

That C. H. Walker's car got stuck "on the hill" yesterday.

And that Mrs. J. C. Wheeler thought she had the record when she got stuck three times on that way home for lunch.

That Mrs. Glen Pool and Mrs. W. O. Christian entertained their friends with a fried chicken dinner Sunday.

And that we were also hungry for fried chicken—though we didn't know it before—and that we would have some of the very next Sunday.

That Mr. and Mrs. Paul LeBeuf agree that farmers should paint the noses of their horses with phosphorus—or some such substance—so that they could be seen at night.

That W. F. Cretney does not show appreciation for the beautiful snow—it interferes with his favorite diversion, golf.

That the elevator at the Rose building looked brand new but we can't say so much for the fragrance of that polish that was being applied.

That the lady who operates the elevator at the Combs-Welby building was so impressed with the play, "The Champ" that she could think of little else after seeing it yesterday afternoon.

That Mrs. James Todd Jr. considered herself lucky—she had not been hit by a single snowball yesterday, and that, she declared, was rare.

That Mrs. Charles I. Hughes was one of the busiest persons in town yesterday, for to dispose of or to assort all the bulletins that can be found in a chamber of commerce office is one big job.

That Dr. Purviance has a contraption for his telephone that is the envy of everyone; it is flexible and yet it prevents the cord from twisting.

That Miss Shirley Green has returned after a visit to Memphis.

That Mrs. D. E. Robinson appreciates an efficient newspaper delivery boy and she hopes the one who left her route got a better job.

That Dr. Brunow was marooned near Pampa.

That two LaFors men were unable to get home after a visit to Pampa. Doggone the snow.

The population of the United States in 1777 was 3,000,000.

West Point was first occupied as a military post Jan. 20, 1778.

PARENT-TEACHER GROUPS TO BEGIN 1932 WORK

ORGANIZATION IS TO GATHER ON THURSDAY

CHILD WELFARE WILL BE EMPHASIZED THIS YEAR

To see that every child of school age is kept in school and that each of these pupils is properly fed and clothed is to be the chief aim of all Pampa Parent-Teacher associations during 1932, according to announcement this morning of Mrs. Frank McNeill, president of the Parent-Teacher Association.

During 1931, the organizations did much welfare work, cooperating to a large extent with the Welfare Board. The installing of cafeterias offered opportunity for much service. Meals were served to all children at a very low cost, and the children unable to pay even the small charge were given meals free. Many garments were repaired by Parent-Teacher association members and were given by principals to the children who needed them most.

The first meeting of parents and teachers this year will be held at Baker school tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. In keeping with its policy of teaching common-sense methods for every-day life, the group will hear a program on thrift. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting by members of the hospitality committee, Mrs. J. W. Crowder, Mrs. A. L. Jones, and Mrs. Roy Kilgore.

A meeting of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association which was to have been held tomorrow has been postponed until Thursday afternoon. The Horace Mann Parent-Teacher meeting was postponed until next week. Plans for the Woodrow Wilson meeting were indefinite this morning. The junior high school group will meet on Thursday of next week, and the high school organization on the following Thursday.

Plumbers Lower Their Own Wages

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 6. (AP)—Asked to accept a wage reduction from $10 to $8 a day, master plumbers here have gone their employers one better and offered to work for $5. The offer was accepted. Not only did they accept the wage cut but said they would furnish material at cost plus 10 per cent, compared with 17 and 20 per cent formerly.

SINGER

Mary McCoy, winsome soprano of radio, has had a new photo taken and here it is. She is a native of Kansas.

Mrs. Christian And Mrs. Pool Are Hostesses

A fried chicken dinner was served by Mrs. Glen Pool and Mrs. W. O. Christian for a group of friends Sunday evening in Mrs. Pool's home. Holly boutonnieres were given as favors to the men and polonaises were given to the women.

The following guests attended the dinner and remained for the evening: Mr. and Mrs. D. Patridge, Mr. and Mrs. C. Helton, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Berry, Mrs. "Tubby" Graham, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dilley, Mrs. W. E. Weible Jr., Clyde Stuckey, Mr. and Mrs. Christian, and Mr. and Mrs. Pool.

Pampa Doctor Is Marooned By Snow

Dr. V. E. von Brunow and a nurse, Miss Ruth Shill of the Boy Scout area, all local scout-Miss Ruth Shill spent half of their time had been marooned since Monday night.

The doctor and the nurse left Pampa about 10 o'clock Monday night on an emergency call to the Lyons farm near the Red school house. When they started back, the drifted snow made it impossible for them to proceed. Two wreckers sent out yesterday by Mrs. Brunow failed to reach them. The doctor and the nurse spent Monday and Tuesday nights at the Lyons home.

Dr. Brunow and Miss Shill arrived in Pampa at noon.

Wet Democrat Is Going To Congress

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 6. (AP)—William N. Rogers of Wakefield, a wet democrat, today was the choice of the first New Hampshire congressional district, nominally republican and represented by a dry since 1925. He is the first democrat to represent the state in congress in 10 years and was the last of his party to serve in the national house.

Former Gov. John H. Bartlett, Rogers' republican opponent for the seat made vacant by the death of Fletcher Hale, received 24,505 votes to Rogers' 27,453 at yesterday's special election.

AMUSU GROUP ENTERTAINED WITH PARTY

MRS. HUNKAPILLAR IS HOSTESS FOR BRIDGE

Members of the Amusu club gathered in the C. T. Hunkapillar home for a pleasant afternoon of bridge Tuesday. Mrs. J. M. Dodson was announced as winner of high score, and after the games Mrs. Hunkapillar served refreshments.

Those playing were Mesdames C. P. Buckler, Alex Schneider, William M. Craven, Siler Faulkner, Charlie Thut, George Wastad, Tom E. Rose, J. M. Dodson, J. M. McDonald, J. H. Kelley, W. E. Charin, Charles C. Cook, L. N. McCullough, John Glover, Clifford Braly, and W. A. Bratton.

Others calling at the tea hour were Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. F. Ewing Lech, Mrs. C. H. Walker, and Mrs. E. C. Will.

Rope Deer Driven In Gulf Of Mexico

AUSTIN, Jan. 7. (AP)—Chasing coyotes down in an automobile across prairies of South Texas, at one time a he-man sport, has given way to a water game that makes the other pastime seem rather tame. Milton West of Brownsville, member of the Texas house of representatives, brings news that they are now driving deer into the water off the Mexican coast just below Matamoros and roping from motor boats.

"It beats tarpon fishing all to pieces," West stated.

He said several small unnamed islands off the Mexican coast about 50 miles below Brownsville are infested with deer. The hunters drive them into the water and as they swim for their lives, the motor boat ropers swing their lariats and then tow their catch to shore, sometimes getting their boats upset in the process.

Chicago To Seek Second Convention

CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Chicago went gunning for its second political convention today with one already in the bag.

Edward N. Hurley and his lieutenants in the non-partisan committee that set out months ago to land both the republican and democratic meetings for 1932 headed for Washington laden with everything from maps to money.

The republican party decided to meet in Chicago June 14. Long before this decision was reached, the Chicago committee had laid the groundwork for a similar invitation to the democrats.

EL PASO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Four persons were burned to death in an apartment house fire in Juarez, Mexico, today. The bodies of the victims were found after firemen extinguished the blaze, believed started by explosion of a stove. The dead:

POPULAR

Miss Gracie Roosevelt, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., had the first and last dances with Alan Hoover, son of the president, during the holiday dance at the White House. Young Hoover was host to more than 200 young people.

COMING EVENTS

THURSDAY
The 6-K's will be entertained at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gwin.

Baker Parent-Teacher association will meet at 3 o'clock for a program on thrift. Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. J. W. Crowder, Mrs. A. L. Jones, and Mrs. Roy Kilgore.

American Legion auxiliary will meet at 8 o'clock at the Legion hall.

The meeting of the Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association has been postponed until Thursday afternoon of next week at 3 o'clock.

Garner Proud Of His Newest Gavel

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. (AP)—A gavel of bois d'arc, or Osage orange wood, remarkably durable and well-fashioned, was used today by Speaker Garner in calling the house to order.

The gavel, the 40th in Garner's collection, was made by Sam Cowan of Somy, Texas, high point individual in the farm shop contest of 1930 in the Texas Agricultural college. It was sent to Garner by Professor M. F. Thurmond, conductor of the contest.

The young Cowan, Garner wrote: "I cannot compliment you too highly on the workmanship displayed in the making of this gavel. It ranks among the finest I have received, and the fact that it is made from bois d'arc wood enhances its value in my eyes."

LONDON BRIDGE CLUB IS FAVORED HERE TUESDAY

IS COMPLIMENTED BY MRS. CLARENCE BARRETT

Mrs. Clarence S. Barrett entertained the London Bridge club with an afternoon of bridge games in her home Tuesday.

Awards went to Mrs. G. C. Malone for high score, Mrs. Bert Curry for high score among the guests, and Mrs. Julian Barrett for high cut.

A tasty salad course was served with coffee to Mesdames Julian Barrett, Otto Studer, John Studer, Porter Malone, Bert Curry, B. C. Lowe, P. O. Sanders, and Arthur Swanson.

The club will meet on the afternoon of Jan. 19 in the home of Mrs. Julian Barrett.

To Win Is Aim Of Mrs. J. E. Seitz

Mrs. J. E. Seitz, who is in the Pampa NEWS campaign, says she is going to win the Buick automobile—and she certainly thanks her friends and all who support her in this contest.

"I must win," she says to have a car to keep my children in high school. She lives in the country and has to furnish their town transportation to and from school. She has one daughter and two sons in high school.

To win is her aim.

Newlyweds Visit In Pampa Briefly

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennedy of Kansas City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wheeler for a short time yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were recently married in Los Angeles, where the bride resided before her marriage, and were en route to Kansas City to make their home.

WILL NOT MEET

The meeting of the Child Study club, formerly announced for tomorrow, will be held instead on Thursday afternoon of next week. The meeting will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Sherman White, 403 West street.

Total area of the Hawaiian Islands is 6,403 square miles. New York's first city directory was published in 1785.

Lady Sprawls—Escort Blushes; All for Bridge

NEW YORK, Jan. 6. (AP)—Bridge was a potent attraction last night as Ely Culbertson and Sidney Lenz approached the end of their 150-rubber contract match at the Waldorf-Astoria.

One young lady in an evening dress sprawled on the floor in order to peek through the screen that guards the players. Her escort was much dismayed. "My dear," he whispered, "your dignity!"

"What's the matter?" asked the young lady, "nobody is stepping on it." She stuck to the spot.

Business Group Holds Executive Session Tuesday

Miss Myrtle Miller submitted her resignation as a member of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club at a meeting of the club's executive board last evening in the club rooms at the Rose building. Miss Miller will leave soon for Denton, where she will study at Texas State College for Women. She is the former Gray county home demonstration agent.

Routine business was transacted and several recommendations were made to be submitted at a business meeting of the entire club next Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Those attending were Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, president, Miss Myrtle Miller, Miss Aurelia Miller, Mrs. Ruby McConnell, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. Audrey Fowler, and Mrs. Christine Smith.

Wayside Meeting Postponed Week

The meeting of the Wayside club, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, was postponed because of inclement weather. It will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. H. H. Isbell.

Miss Shirley Green has returned from Memphis, where she spent the holidays.

BEGONIAS ARE FAVORS GIVEN CLUB GUESTS

MRS. BEAUCHAMP IS HOSTESS TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Potted begonias centered the tables at refreshment time when Mrs. S. T. Beauchamp entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club in the home of Mrs. C. L. Craig.

The plants were given as cut favors to Mrs. Ralph Trimble, Mrs. Floyd McConnell, and Mrs. Roger McConnell.

Red and green were featured in appointments for the games of bridge, which were terminated with the serving of individual pies and coffee.

Special guests were Mrs. Ralph Trimble, Mrs. C. Hemperly of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. F. G. Patching of Clarendon. Members present were Mesdames Carl Boston, F. M. Culbertson, P. C. Ledrick, Roger McConnell, Floyd McConnell, Jim White, Sherman White, H. P. Elling, and C. L. Craig.

The club will meet on the afternoon of Jan. 12 in the home of Mrs. Carl Boston.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at the Legion hut Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Little Martha Ann Hopkins Receives Gifts as First Baby of 1932

"MISS 1932" WILL BE GIVEN THINGS OFFERED BY BUSINESS MEN THROUGH ADS IN NEWS

WEE LADY IS MEMBER OF FAMILY LONG RESIDENT HERE

Wee "Miss 1932"—who is Martha Ann Hopkins—is as happy as a child of her days can be over winning a number of fine awards for being the first born of the new year.

Martha Ann, born to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hopkins at 1:05 p. m. Jan. 1, will receive the gifts of merchants who advertised on "The NEWS" baby page Dec. 31. These will include baby pairs of shoes, a down payment on a Frigidaire, an educational saving certificate, a silver baby spoon, a kimona coat, and other gifts.

Martha Ann was properly registered with C. O. Duenkel, registrar of births, and she appears perfectly satisfied to live in Gray county, where her father is a native and where her people are prominent pioneer residents.

Contestants Are Setting Quotas in The NEWS Race

The $100 Golden Opportunity and the 100,000 extra votes on clubs of $30 in "The NEWS" circulation contest continues to receive much comment by the public and the ambitious contestants.

Going up! Swinging into line, all a-tingle with energy and enthusiasm contestants in the Daily NEWS automobile and prize campaign are launching the greatest drive of the campaign, with greater ambitions and promises of greater results.

You can win or lose on this new offer, but make it your business to WIN, for the votes that you stack up now during this period will probably be the deciding ones when the final count is made on Feb. 16. This is no time to hesitate; work with the determination to get MORE on this offer than you ever have before—that's the way to win. Eliminate "I can't" from your mind and make it "I will." Get second payments of subscriptions you have already taken. Those who have subscribed for only six months will, beyond doubt, extend their subscription for a year or more. Subscriptions can be extended to three years.

Staying at it constantly brings results. The contestant who is on the job, out after votes EVERY day is the one who realizes what it takes to win. No working today, and loafing tomorrow will get worthwhile results. While you are resting some contestant is gaining ground on you toward the prize that might have been yours, at the rate of 100,000 extra votes for every $30 worth of subscription. Don't slacken your pace. Stay at it systematically and avoid being sorry for what you might have done. Set a quota for yourself, of no less than a quota a day and strive every day to double yesterday's quota. There is no limit to the number of $30 clubs any candidate may place to her credit with 100,000 extra votes on each.

The time limit for accepting new entrants is almost up. Those who have been watching the campaign with interest should enter and get going today, if they expect to accomplish anything. It is not too late yet for some real worker to enter and make an even race for the GRAND prizes, by winning this period's gold offer and the big extra votes.

For those already in the race, now is the time to kill two birds with one stone—win on the Gold and clinch an automobile.

Rev. Hyde Receives The New Stamps

The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was the first Pampan to report receipt of the new Washington Bicentennial stamps. A friend of Rev. Hyde's living in Washington sent them to the Pampa minister.

There are 12 of the new stamps, ranging in value from one-half cent to 10 cents. Each has a different portrait of Washington on it, and the chief interest of the stamps lie in this feature.

Rev. Hyde's friend wrote that "50,000 people stood in line to buy these stamps on Jan. 1, the postoffice having remained open all day to accommodate them. Over 1,000,000 first day's letters were sent out, 3000 of them going to the White House. The rush was so great that many were still in line when the office closed for the day. Cancelling machines were kept with Jan. 1 in them throughout the second day in order that all might be accommodated."

The local post office will receive several thousand of the stamps in the near future. Announcement of their arrival here will be made by Postmaster D. E. Cecil.

The portraits of Washington on the stamps are as follows: one-half cent dark brown from a miniature by Charles Wilson Peale; one-cent, green profile bust by Jean Antoine Houdon; one and one-half cent light brown, Peale's painting of Washington in 1772; two-cent, carmin, Gilbert Stuart's atheneum portrait in 1796; three-cent, purple, Peale's portrait made at Valley Forge, 1777, one now used on $1 bills; four-cent, brown, another portrait by Peale in 1777; five-cent, blue, 1795 portrait by Peale; six-cent, orange, John Trumbull's Washington of 1792; seven-cent, black, Trumbull of 1780; eight-cent, olive green, drawn from life by Chas. B. J. B. Saint Memin in 1798; nine-cent, pink, life portrait by W. Williams in 1794; ten-cent, orange-yellow, Washington by Stuart in 1795.

Bridge Problem Draws Criticism Of Many Players

A bridge problem submitted for solution to Pampa bridge players last Friday by Dr. V. E. von Brunow was described as "ballyhoo and hokey" today by some of the best players in the city.

The consensus of opinion was that it was impossible to take the eight tricks required by Dr. Brunow against "any possible defense."

A group comprising W. J. Smith, Tom Wade, Miss Virginia Faulkner, Walter Berry and Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Sanders, challenged Dr. Brunow to produce proof that eight tricks could be taken against any possible defense. It was possible to take eight tricks, but not possible against any possible defense, it was said. Mrs. W. H. Johns, contract bridge teacher, said she had worked on the problem, but that she had not exploited the "any possible defense" clause.

Many other bridge players of the city who have been working on the problem had not solved it last night. Dr. Brunow vehemently insisted Monday that the eight tricks could be taken if the "rules of bridge" were followed. One woman declared that the problem was a "publicity stunt," and challenged the doctor to prove that he knew what he was talking about.

Dr. Brunow refused to comment today on the criticism directed at him, but informed his critics that after playing five tricks of the problem they must have remaining cards as follows:

N—S, J, H, none; D, 7; C, 6.
E—S, none; H, Q; D, none; C, J, 10.
S—S, none; H, J; D, none; C, A, 5.
W—S, none; H, none; D, K; C, K, Q.

Here is the problem:
Play double dummy; south leads; spades are trumps. North and south must take all eight tricks against any possible defense. Five tricks have already been played.

YOUNG FENBERG HAS FORTITUDE

The fortitude of Sam and Molly Fenberg's baby, Charles Barry, would make the ancient Spartans green with envy.

For instance last night, Mrs. Molly put little Charles Barry to sleep in his bed. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lazarus were visiting the Fenbergs. A while after Charles Barry was tucked in his bed, Mrs. Fenberg said "Eve (Mrs. Lazarus) go back and see how the baby is getting along." And here is what Mrs. Lazarus saw: The sheet was covered with blood. Charles Barry's hands were covered with blood and he was clapping them and crying. His face was splattered with blood. It did not take Mrs. Fenberg long to figure out that Charles Barry had broken a glass ash tray against the bed and had cut his hands in many places with the pieces. During all that time, he made no outcry. But as for that matter, he never cries, Sam says.

BUFFALOS SOON TO MEET OLD CAGE RIVALS

Oklahomans Won Games Off Them as Far Back as Series During 1927.

CANYON, Jan. 6.—The meeting in basketball of the Southwestern (Okla.) Teachers and the West Texas Buffaloes at Canyon Jan. 8 and 9 is not the first time for these two schools to vie for honors on the hardwood floor.

Back in 1927 West Texas fans were thrilled beyond measure when these two teams met at Canyon in a two-game series. The first game went to the Bull Dogs 45 to 32. The next went to the Buffs 26 to 22. Then in 1928 the Buffaloes won both games 46-24 and 42-24 and then in 1929 two more thrilling games were captured by the Buffs, the first one was 33 to 31 and the other 25 to 19. This year's games should be all that any fan is looking for in the way of thrills.

Quoting from a letter to S. D. Burton from Rakin Williams, Bull Dog mentor, "I am bringing a fine bunch of boys, none of whom has played in Canyon. All were glad when I told them of your wire, as they have heard plenty from me about your team. We will come there from Austin, where we play the Longhorns."

The Longhorns and Bull Dogs split a two-game series and from press reports the Bull Dogs are every bit as good as the Longhorns. The Buffaloes will be playing their first games of the season and may not be working as smoothly as will the Southwestern team, but Coach Burton believes his cage men will be able to turn back the invaders from the Sooner state.

The Buffs are the "tallest in America" this year. The starting line-up will average 6 feet 3 1/2 inches in height with most of the elevation being on the offensive end of the court.

WINS $2.55

Judge Harvey Harris of Wichita Falls, Texas, pictured above, believes in fighting for right. Charged $4.55 for gas during the month of November, the judge believed that because his family was away most of the time, he was getting "stuck" by the Municipal Gas company. He filed suit in justice court for $3 and was awarded $2.55. The jury debated the case 10 minutes after lengthy questioning of Harris by company attorneys.

Boy Is Searching For Lost Shetland

Junior Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Zimmerman, has suffered what he fervently believes is the greatest calamity that has come into his young life. He has temporarily lost his Shetland pony. The pony, a bay and white, walked through a gate that was left open at the farm of Junior's brother-in-law, Melvin Noel, near Pampa Saturday night. Since then the Noels and Zimmermans have searched the neighborhood for the horse. Anyone seeing it or hearing of it is asked to notify Junior.

GLENDORA'S LEVEE WILL BE LEFT AT MERCY OF WATERS—TROOPS TO WARN OF BREAKS

GLENDORA, Miss., Jan. 6. (AP)—Wearied flood fighters today abandoned Glendora's levee to the hammering of roaring Tallahatchie river after exhausting efforts at reinforcement against a rising tide of water.

Armed guards patrolled the banks here and to the south with instructions to fire fusillades of shots to warn inhabitants to higher ground as soon as a break is discovered.

All last night water coursed thru breaks at Albin and further south in Marcel levee, near Charleston, spreading over acres of land. Observers said the river will continue to rise a foot or more.

The situation around Philipp, now facing the triple burden of waters from Tallahatchie, Panola, and Quitman counties, gave the flood fighters grave concern. Levees there have been pounded for days and water is rising rapidly toward the crest.

Crackup of Twilight, Matthew Bayou and Grassy Lake levees would prove a hazard that this town of 200 inhabitants on the southern tip of the flood area, could not hope to withstand. Squads of workmen today were strengthening the weakened Tippa levees, also a menace to Philipp.

Plowing through two feet of water, Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad locomotives are bringing boxes to all way stations to house refugees, suffering from lack of fuel and heavy clothing.

Coleman Has Narrow Escape In Snow Storm

R. H. Coleman, manager of the Pampa NEWS circulation campaign, and W. T. "Red" Lynn of Amarillo, nearly lost their lives in yesterday's blizzard.

The near tragedy occurred 6 miles south of Happy, less than 100 yards from the place where two people froze to death last March. The two men made their way to the Webster Forbus farm home after daylight.

The Coleman car stalled in a snowdrift about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Snow was being driven by a strong north wind and the men were unable to locate a house. They ran the car at intervals to keep the interior warm, but about 4 o'clock the starter stuck and from then until after daylight the men were without heat. About 8:30 Mr. Coleman saw a windmill off the road and later the outline of a house.

Crossing open prairie and fences soon exhausted the cold men and they remembered little after climbing the last fence the separated them from the house. Members of the Forbus family found the frozen couple last year.

Later in the day, the two men were taken back to Tulla where they took a train home. Mr. Forbus will bring Mr. Coleman's car to Pampa when the weather clears. Mr. Lynn has been connected with the North Texas Building & Loan company, but will join Mr. Coleman here tomorrow.

SWISS FAMILY A CROWD ZURICH, Switzerland, Jan. 6. (AP)—"Meet the family" was a joke when Ulrich Sommer, late of Zurich said it. He is survived by 10 children, 57 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Bowling Scores

The league-leading Schneider hotel bowling team in the Commercial league dropped two out of three games to the Peake & Landry entry last night. Both teams rolled with four men which apparently effected the league leaders. Powell's Prides won two out of three from the Country club.

They also rolled with four men. The bad weather prevented other players from getting into the city. High scores were at a premium. The highest game of the night was rolled by J. P. Wehrung of the Peake & Landry entry. J. M. Powell of Powells rolled a 193 game and Cullum of the Schneidernmen had a 192 game.

The government began by extending to fourth important cities and the entire presidency of Madras the ordinances outlawing the Indian legislative assembly, was one of the first to be arrested by police.

The new ordinances prohibit all contributions to Gandhi's party and all peaceful picketing. Bombay, Calcutta, New Delhi, and Ajmer are among the cities covered by extension of the decrees.

Most Hindu stores and business houses remained closed in protest against Gandhi's arrest and business declined sharply. Thus far the only bloodshed was at Benares where one man was killed and at Allahabad where two died when police attacked groups of Nationalists which refused to disperse.

Promulgation of the new ordinance in the most nationalistic sections of the country was received with sullen silence by the people.

SWIM IN PARIS FOUNTAINS PARIS, Jan. 6. (AP)—Fountains in the parks of Paris may be thrown open to children as swimming pools next summer by the municipal council.

COTTON QUIET NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 6. (AP)—Cotton, although quiet at today's opening, was steadier in sympathy with improved cables. First trades showed gains of 1 point. Stocks experienced a firm opening and in sympathy cotton prices advanced. March traded up to 6.36, May to 6.54 and July to 6.69, 7 to 9 points above yesterday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was steady and at the highs.

GRAINS STRONGER CHICAGO, Jan. 6. (AP)—Fresh upturns in grain prices early today accompanied reports of big purchases of Canadian wheat for China and Europe. An improved tone in Wall street securities also was a bullish factor. Opening 3-8 to 3-4 higher, wheat afterward held near the initial range. Corn, too, started with 3-8 to 3-4 advance and continued firm.

BRITISH CLOSE IN ON HINDUS AS LATTER STRESS BOYCOTT

BOMBAY, Jan. 6.—Scores of nationalist leaders, including a number of women, were arrested today as the rank and file of Gandhi's millions throughout India began their fight for independence against the British crown.

The women fired the first "gun" in the weaponless war on the nationalists by picketing shops throughout the country, defying arrest and urging prospective customers not to buy British-made goods.

Fifty congress leaders were imprisoned early today and the government's sweeping drive continued. Among the nine women arrested was Mrs. Kamaladevi Chattopadhyaya, sister-in-law of Mrs. Sarojini Naidu and leader of the women's volunteer organization. She, with the other women, was sent to house of correction to await trial.

The government began by extending to fourth important cities and the entire presidency of Madras the ordinances outlawing the Indian legislative assembly, was one of the first to be arrested by police.

What's your VERDICT?

Light up . . . Convince Yourself that Chesterfields Satisfy

FLIP OPEN a pack of Chesterfields! Help yourself to a cigarette . . . Light up . . . and let's get the facts. Mister . . . you're dead right. They're milder! And when the cool, fresh Chesterfield smoke hits the taste-spot . . . there's no question about it . . . they do taste better!

It's no secret in tobacco circles that Chesterfield buys the finest tobaccos that grow . . . Turkish and Domestic . . . sun-ripened, mellow, pure!

Chesterfields are blended first . . . then cross-blended . . . to make them milder . . . and milder still! There's no mistaking that rare balance of flavor built up by Cross-Blending. You enjoy it in every fragrant puff! Even the cigarette paper is different. Cleaner, whiter, tasteless . . . the purest that money can buy. Listen, smokers . . . this is straight. You can't put taste in a cigarette . . . unless quality goes in, too. You can taste the goodness in Chesterfields . . . actually tell the difference. But light up . . . and convince yourself.

Pass your verdict on Chesterfield's Radio Program, too! Nat Shilkret's 35-piece Orchestra with Alex Gray, soloist, are on the Columbia Network every night except Sunday, at 10:30 E. S. T.

THEY'RE Milder • • THEY'RE Pure • • THEY TASTE BETTER • • They Satisfy
