CATHOLIC HOSPITAL IS SEARCHED FOR SNIPERS

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7 (AP)—Japanese troops, rushed to aid blue-jackets fighting in Shanghai, landed today at Woosung and immediately attacked that city of Chinese forts.

Two boatloads of men came ashore first, fighting as soon as they stepped on Chinese soil. It was not known whether these were soldiers or blue-jackets, but there were several hundred men supported by seven Japanese armored cars.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7 (Sunday) (AP)—Japanese blue-jackets searched the banks of Soochow creek in the heart of the international settlement at daybreak today, charging snipers had been active there.

French Franciscan sisters, who operate the hospital, protested strongly that the charges were absurd, but the blue-jackets ignored their protests and entered the building, searching at least part of it.

The heaviest bombardment of the nine-day old Shanghai battle was laid down this morning on the Chinese strongholds in the Chapei district, into which fresh troops had been moved during the night.

Big guns, apparently six inch pieces, roared in the vicinity of the Japanese headquarters on the edge of the international settlement.

The 19th Chinese route army put new units in line to relieve the worn-out men who have stood up under days of shell firing. An Associated Press correspondent, making a tour of inspection behind the Chinese lines, saw an extremely youthful army. Many of the soldiers appeared to be no more than 14 years old. They were armed in haphazard fashion, some carrying old long-barreled pistols and some obsolete rifles.

The whole Chinese rear has been protected with an intricate system of trenches.

Chinese civilians, carrying their household goods on their backs, plodded out of the area of danger in the direction of Shanghai.

There has been much aviation activity by the Japanese over Shanghai during the last 24 hours, but the expected attempt by China to dispute the air supremacy failed to materialize. Only two Chinese planes appeared over the city and they soon sped to the west.

Two American missions were reported attacked. Japanese blue-jackets were said in Shanghai dispatches to have dismantled the American Presbyterian mission and press, although church officials in New York said they had no reason to believe their Shanghai property had been touched.

Mission Damaged
The mission of the American Methodist church, in Hongkew, which was ransacked by the Japanese last week, was shelled by light artillery—whether by Japanese or by Chinese was not determined.

Eighty-six more Americans were evacuated from Nanking, where a Japanese attack was momentarily expected. Of the 180 American residents of that city, 109 have been taken to places of safety. These in-

More Assaults in Hawaii Told

COMING

Troubled Island Is Stirred By Stories of Girl and Native Woman.

HONOLULU, Feb. 6 (AP)—Two cases of alleged attacks upon women in the last 24 hours were reported today and again drew attention to the recent lynching and assault cases in the Hawaiian Islands.

Closely following the arrest last night of Herman Apio, 29, after a 17-year-old Chinese girl reported he attempted to attack her, Robert Ah Sam was charged with assault and battery and lewd conduct on complaint of a 21-year-old Hawaiian woman.

The Chinese girl said she was walking through a lane when Apio seized her and attempted to attack her. Her cries attracted Edward Una, who with William McDermott chased and caught Apio and called the police. Michael Morse of the detective bureau said Apio admitted the attempted attack.

HOARDING TO BE COMBATED

Twenty Million Persons to Waze War on Lack of Public Confidence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—A pledge that 20,000,000 citizens stand ready for a united anti-hoarding war was given to President Hoover today at a rally to which he summoned civic leaders from all parts of the nation.

The pledges came—some oral, some by raised hands—from representatives of more than 40 national associations. They had heard the chief executive and two of his principal financial advisors talk of the serious results of individual currency withdrawals.

Charles C. Dawes, president of the reconstruction corporation, urged an "appeal to the heart" and a return to the drive-methods of world war days to stop what he called a mass movement toward currency deflation. Ogden L. Mills, soon to become secretary of the treasury, seconded his appeal to "put hoarded dollars to work."

Those who attended departed without attempting to create the national anti-hoarding organization spoken of by the president. Work upon such a machine with branches in every community will be initiated next week under the leadership of Colonel Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howard of Memphis attended the basketball tournament here.

Mrs. Louis Behrends will leave today for a visit with relatives in Lamar, Colo.

BOY SCOUT ANNIVERSARY WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED IN ADOBE WALLS AREA—MANY BANQUETS

Anniversary week of the Boy Scouts of America will be properly observed by the Pampa district scouts as well as by scouts and scouters in various towns in the Adobe Walls council area.

The week will open in Pampa with the Scout program at the Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30. Rev. James Todd Jr. will read the scripture and lead in prayer. The Rev. A. A. Hyde will deliver the message, "The Immortals of the Good Turn," and the Scouts will open and close the service with the salute to the flag, the Scout oath and the Scout benediction.

Monday at 7:30 p. m., at the Methodist church the Board of Revision will be open to all scouts preparing to come before the Court of Honor. Men who will aid in giving the boys a review of their tests are asked to be present.

Scout Executive C. A. Clark and Rev. Hyde will speak at the Panhandle Father and Son banquet Tuesday evening. On Thursday evening, they will also attend the Berger Father and Son banquet.

The big night of the week will be the local Father and Son banquet and the Court of Honor to begin at 7 o'clock Friday evening at the Methodist church. Plates will be served at 25 cents and it is expected no less than 120 men and boys will be present. Mrs. Lee Hill's Sunday school class will serve the banquet.

Other towns in the area will also have observance of the week.

SECOND BADLY HURT BY FIRE FROM DEPUTY

FIVE MEN GET AWAY BY LEAPING OVER FENCE

NITROGLYCERIN THROWN

WOODROW DOWN, 19, IS VICTIM—INMATE MAY DIE

FARMINGTON, Mo., Feb. 6 (AP)—Five prisoners escaped from the county jail here tonight after a four-foot opening had been made by hurling a bottle of nitro-glycerin against a first floor wall of the structure but they left one of their companions dead and another seriously wounded, shot down by officers while attempting a getaway.

Twenty-two other prisoners, who had access to the blasted exit, remained inside the jail when they saw the two shot by Sheriff Roy E. Presnell and Deputy Sheriff Dewey May.

Woodrow Downs, 19, died half an hour after he was hit by a bullet which entered his hip and ranged upward to his stomach.

John Vranic, 35, was in a serious condition as the jail tonight, his right lung pierced by a bullet.

Harry A. Nelson Is Candidate for Commissioner

Announcement of the candidacy of Harry A. Nelson for commissioner of precinct 1 of Gray county was made yesterday.

Mr. Nelson issued the following statement: "Some of my friends have urged me, for some time, to become a candidate for county commissioner of precinct No. 1, Gray County, Texas. Complying with their requests, I have authorized the Pampa Daily NEWS to place my name as a candidate in their announcement column, subject to the action of the democratic primary, July 23, 1932. In this connection, I wish to announce that I have been a tax paying resident of precinct No. 1, Gray County, Texas, for the last 25 years. I came here from the "Show Me" state, am 43 years old and have a wife and four children. It is my intention to see all of the voters in the precinct before the primary. When I see them, I shall not attempt to trade them a free handshake and a mere smile for a dollar and seventy-five cent vote. The purpose of my visit will be to ask them what their ever-changing commission problems are, and what they desire Harry A. Nelson to do, if elected, to execute the will of the majority of the voters of precinct No. 1.

If elected, I shall not confine my activities to precinct 1, but shall work for the best interest of the entire county. I have not forgotten that 25 years ago I was a "new comer" as well as the "old timers." Believing that all counties need four good commissioners at all times one of my ambitions is to become the best commissioner that precinct 1 has ever had and to constantly strive to better the affairs of the county in keeping with its progress. Voters are invited to give me a thorough investigation. I fully realize the importance of the office, and if elected shall be alert to the welfare of the county.

Many have observed that the administration of county, state and federal government is frequently not what it should be, due to the officials in office. The masses of the people do not find it out until it is too late. I hereby pledge myself to do my best to see that Gray county gets value received for the money it spends, to render service worthy of appreciation by its citizens and to adhere strictly to the principles of a truly democratic form of government. I shall feel honored to be elected as a representative of the people who have helped to make Gray the splendid county that she is.

Sincerely,
HARRY A. NELSON

AMARILLO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Julian Bivins, who has been a cattleman in the Panhandle all of his life, today was elected head of the Panhandle Cattle Raisers' association.

C. E. Weymouth was elected vice president, and Grover Hill was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The cattlemen voted to hold their annual convention in conjunction with the Amarillo fat stock show Feb. 29 to March 3. Plans for the convention were discussed and committees appointed.

BEAT WHITE DEER IN FINAL GAME, 35 TO 20

BOYS ARE TWICE TIED

ILLNESS OF PLAYERS IS CAUSE OF AGREED DEADLOCK

The Pampa Harvesters and the Memphis Cyclones were joint winners of the Pampa invitation basketball tournament, boys' division, when they battled to a tie after two periods of overtime play last night.

Because of illness of players on both teams, coaches and officials agreed to declare the game a tie and award each team a trophy. The Pampa girls won the girls' division with a 35 to 20 victory over the White Deer sextet.

Thirty-two teams entered the tournament, necessitating its starting Thursday afternoon. Several of the teams later had to cancel their entry because of illness. All brackets were evened up and the tournament was declared one of the best in the history of the school. Large crowds packed the gymnasium for all contests. Visiting coaches and players were billeted in Pampa homes Thursday and Friday night through the work of the Junior chamber of commerce.

The final game of the tournament was a thriller from the opening. Lead Overcome

JOHN GARNER FOR PRESIDENT

The NEWS Endorses Texan as Real Statesman and Man Who Can Win.

(EDITORIAL)
With a deadlock between Roosevelt and Smith looming as a result of the "Stop Roosevelt" campaign to be launched in connection with Smith's statement on his availability, the imperative probable need of a worthy compromise candidate is obvious.

Fortunately, that statesman is available in the person of John N. Garner of Texas, speaker of the national house of representatives. He is rightly being mentioned all over the country as a man who could be elected and who would serve with distinction. That he does not seek the office is to his credit.

In view of the controversy raging around other candidates, with resultant harm to party chances and to election of a man in whose ability and under whose leadership the country could go forward to economic recovery, the Pampa Daily NEWS wholeheartedly endorses JOHN N. GARNER, a native and favorite son but a man whose long national service makes him a candidate for the presidency.

BOOSTING PATMAN
ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 6 (AP)—The fourth district Veterans Democratic club of Minnesota meeting here today, adopted a resolution urging nomination of Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, as a candidate for vice president at the national democratic convention next June. The resolution commended Patman as "a true leader of veterans."

SIEGE AT HOME
GUERNSEY, Ia., Feb. 6 (AP)—Barriaded in his home with a rifle and an axe, Bill Shull, 45, held up a Guernsey rural mail carrier this afternoon, successfully resisted capture for three hours tonight and forced officers to lay siege to his house. A fresh attack will be made with tear bombs in the morning.

BEGINNING OF END FINDS NEWS CAMPAIGN AT FEVERISH INTENSITY—PUBLIC WATCHING

Extra Vote Period Closes Monday Night—Drive to Stop in Three Days.

The final dawn of the final week! The last dash to the wire. In fact, it's the beginning of the end. Just three short days more and the NEWS' great automobile and prize campaign comes to the dramatic close. All Pampa and trade territory are watching, waiting, and wondering who will win the three major prizes. This is the question of every lip. All contestants are seething with the bustle of preparations for the final dash. Excitement is keyed to the highest pitch. Riding on the crest of the wave of enthusiasm are ambitious contestants, exerting vigorous efforts to be awarded next Wednesday to capture the beautiful prizes that night.

The public, too, is keyed to a fever heat, anxious to see favorite contestants go over big. Subscribers are coming in great quantities from unworked sections. As one man said to the campaign manager today, "Gee, a fellow would be a chump not to help and take part in this great campaign. The generosity of the NEWS is to be commended."

ANNOUNCES

HARRY A. NELSON, LONGTIME RESIDENT OF PRECINCT 1, HAS AUTHORIZED THE NEWS TO ANNOUNCE HIS CANDIDACY FOR COMMISSIONER OF THAT PRECINCT IN GRAY COUNTY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith today gave out a 144-word statement settling the question of whether he will be a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination.

"Here you are boys," he said, "but remember, it's not to be published until Monday morning."

There was a hush while 46 news-papern, representing press associations and papers in all parts of the country, read the statement.

The 1928 standard bearer lit a cigar, leaned back in the big chair he used when a New York assemblyman, and looked at the ceiling.

"Can we ask you a question or two?" someone said.

"Well, I expected that all right," Smith said with a chuckle.

A barrage of questions were shot at him in rapid order.

"Will you make an attempt to secure a wet plank in the platform?" "Too Far Away"

"It's too far away to talk about that," was the reply.

"Do you think the prospects of a democratic victory are better now than they were four years ago?" he was asked.

"Answer it yourself," he said with a laugh, but when pressed for a direct reply he said:

"They're decidedly brighter."

Before the statement was given out, New York newspapers unanimously had predicted Smith would not bind himself to let his name go before the convention as a presidential aspirant, but would leave the way clear for his friends to pick him in various states which name convention delegates at approaching primaries.

LIFTS JOHN GARNER WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The long-expected "Stop-Roosevelt" campaign is taking dynamic form among the democrats at last, plunging Alfred E. Smith into the vortex of a new party battle and lifting John N. Garner to unexpected prominence among the presidential possibilities.

Action all along the line will be the watchword now of those who do not want New York's two-time governor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, to foreclose the nomination in advance.

Regardless of what he may say in the statement to be published Monday, Smith's partisans are hoping to tie tightly to his leadership.

-SO WE HEAR

Red was the dominating color at the basketball tournament. The score keepers had difficulty keeping records because of red dresses, coats and hats across the floor and the snappy uniforms. Pampa took the cake. HARRY KELLEY sure knows his colors.

The faculty played an exhibition game. LEM SONE played carry-over basketball. He carried the ball down the floor and then turned it over to the other side. R. A. SELBY looked like anything but a basketball player, but he was high point man. COACH OGDEN MITCHELL was so tight yesterday morning that he had to have his young son, SHIELDS, pull him out of bed. Never again, says the coach.

We want to thank the Pampans who supplied rooms for the players and coaches. who said they liked Pampa hospitality. WARREN MOORE was in charge of the work for the school and all appreciate the cooperation. We certainly are grateful to the people who accommodated visitors. RAZORBACKS STOP BAYLOR'S WINNING STREAK, 42 TO 31

Mustangs Beat Texas Aggies and Horned Frogs Win over Texas Longhorns.

WACO, Feb. 6 (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks tonight broke the winning streak of the Baylor University cagers by a score of 42 to 31.

The Razorbacks played with snap and dash from the opening whistle and never was the Baylor squad in front. Only in early stages did the Bears have a tie.

Nevertheless, Raymond Strickland was the star of the contest, making 18 points to annex scoring honors.

DALLAS, Feb. 6 (AP)—The Southern Methodist basketball team won their first 1932 Southwest conference game here tonight by defeating Texas A. and M. Aggies, 30-23. It was the Mustangs' first victory in five conference starts and the Aggies fourth straight defeat.

Both teams played rough and tumble basketball that at times resembled a football scrimmage. Five players went out of the game via the foul route.

Much Terracing Done in County

County agent Ralph R. Thomas has been so busy terracing land since January 1 that he has not had time to count up the number of acres he has terraced.

Almost every farmer on the south side of the county has already terraced or is planning to conserve his soil by terracing.

Last week, Mr. Thomas supervised terracing at Chunn's place north of Eldredge.

This week, Mr. Thomas will supervise terracing during three days at the farms of Will Glass, Alarred, and A. B. Word, east of Eldredge.

Allred to Push His Ouster Suit

AUSTIN, Feb. 6 (AP)—James V. Allred, Texas Attorney General, is not going to let any grass grow under his feet while his suit to break an alleged huge oil trust, the claims is monopolizing the petroleum field, is pending.

Imbued with renewed confidence by a court ruling that he was within his legal rights in insisting on out-of-state residents who are officials of defendant companies to appear here personally and give testimony, today said he would insist that the allegations brought by him be either substantiated or disproved without unnecessary delay.

The state would banish the defendants from business in Texas, and collect approximately $1,000,000 in fines for anti-trust law violations from each.

PRODUCTION OF COUNTY LESS

Panhandle oil production continues to decline despite the fact that the allowable announced last Sunday was the same as for preceding months.

The daily production last week was 50,312 barrels, or 1,331 barrels less than the preceding week. Hutchinson county showed a gain of 100 barrels. Other counties decreased their output.

There was only one completion reported for Gray county during the week. It was the Quicksand Oil company's No. 1 Chapman in the central part of the county. It came in for an initial production of between 700 and 1,000 barrels.

Production by counties: Carson—5,201 barrels, a loss of 113 barrels. Gray—30,570 barrels, a loss of 1,193 barrels.

Hutchinson—13,140 barrels, a gain of 100 barrels. Moore—1,040 barrels, a loss of 78 barrels. Wheeler—361 barrels, a loss of 47 barrels. Totals—50,312 barrels, a loss of 1,331 barrels.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Feb. 6 (AP)—The south's bundle of springing energy, Emmitt Toppino of Loyola university, New Orleans, swept the boards tonight in the feature sprint series of the Milrose A. A. track and field carnival.

He romped off with the 50-yard final, beating New York's national champion, Ira Singer, after equaling the world indoor record of 6.2 seconds for the 60-yard dash.

McIntosh Claims Heard by Jury

Defense testimony in Dan McIntosh's suit against August Gordon will be resumed tomorrow morning in 114th district court. Judge E. F. Ritchey recessed court yesterday afternoon after the plaintiff had rested and the defense had placed two witnesses on the stand.

The plaintiff alleged in his testimony that his wife suffered permanent injuries when she slipped and fell on the entrance to Gordon's store. He claimed that the tile was slippery with water that had drained from the display windows when they were washed.

Plaintiff's witnesses were Dr. J. C. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh. Dr. McKean testified that the woman was permanently injured in the fall. Defense witnesses were Dr. Walker of Wichita Falls and Dr. Annie Cole. Testimony showed that Mrs. McIntosh had undergone operations for various ailments before she was injured at the store.

The defense claims that her physical condition after the fall was due to illnesses she previously suffered, and that the condition of her health caused her to fall on the tile.

Jurors in the case are C. L. Craig, George Farley, Sam Fenberg, J. A. Darnell, Frank Meers, Wm. D. Miller, D. R. Coop, Paul Cooksey, R. C. Barley, J. W. Carter, L. L. Allen, and Ed Bates.

B. C. D. Directors Are to Assemble

Directors of the Pampa Board of City Development will meet at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. A budget for 1932 will be discussed. Committee chairman recently appointed by President C. H. Walker will be asked to name their committees so that active work can be started. An activities committee will make a report to the board. One member of the Junior chamber of commerce board will sit with the B. C. D. directors.

Oil Tariff Much More Likely Now

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Congressional advocates of a tariff on oil today looked upon Secretary Wilbur's favorable pronouncement as almost positive proof their battle was won.

Democrats and republicans alike expressed the conviction the interior department chief's statement had virtually assured success in their drive for protective legislation.

The republicans viewed it as "very encouraging headway" toward a tariff, the democrats saw administration support behind Wilbur's remarks for either a tariff or an excise tax.

Russell B. Brown, counsel for the Independent Petroleum association, asserted "the indorsement given the proposed oil tariff by Secretary Wilbur indicates the increasing recognition of the necessity of reviving the prostrated petroleum industry." It has been so busy terracing land

Long Is Disgusted With Washington

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6 (AP)—After four days in the United States senate, Senator Huey P. Long (D.) of Louisiana returned to New Orleans today to express what might be called disgust.

Asked what he thought of Washington, he pondered a moment and said: "In order to think in terms of America you almost have to get away from Washington. That's the farthest spot from the United States I've seen."

"The sorrowful thing I found in Washington is the political paralysis that is affecting the democrats in congress. Over in the senate the democrats seemed like a whipped rooster."

"The world is disgusted with Hoover and Hooverism, Mellon and Mellonism, past, present, and future."

Negro Is Indicted in Quick Action

DALLAS, Feb. 6 (AP)—The Dallas County grand jury today indicted Jake "Rockwall Slim" White, 44-year old negro, on a charge of murder for the slaying of Mrs. W. S. Gray, 60, in an asserted robbery at her farm home near Garland Wednesday night.

The jury studied the case less than an hour before returning the true bill. The case was transferred immediately to Judge Charles A. Fippen's court but will not be set for trial until W. S. Gray, 66, wounded in the same alleged robbery, is able to appear in court.

Mrs. Gray was killed by a bullet and her husband was wounded by critically by another. In addition, Gray was beaten about the head with a pistol. Gray was robbed of about $2 in change and his watch.

Pilot Point Bank Robbed By Trio

PILOT POINT, Feb. 6 (AP)—Fangers and other officers searching for three masked men who robbed the Pilot Point National bank of $8,000 before dawn, shifted their hunt to the north of Gainesville late today.

A kidnaped bank employe was forced to unlock the outside door of the vault and a nitro glycerine charge was used to blow open the inner compartment. The robbers hurriedly scooped up all the cash in sight and escaped in an automobile.

A car similar to the one in which they fled was seen speeding northward on the infrequently traveled Pilot Point-Gainesville dirt road about dawn.

Carrying out a well-prepared plan the robbers kidnaped bank employes, a night watchman and others they met.

Uniforms Worn by Bank Bandits

WAVELAND, Ind., Feb. 6 (AP)—A bandit band clad in white uniforms invaded this town early today intent upon robbing the Waveland State bank but was driven off by the gun fire of vigilantes summoned by a telephone girl.

The uniforms, authorities believed were worn by the robbers so they might distinguish one another in case of conflict.

The robber band, numbering seven or eight, cut long distance telephone lines and also light wires in the vicinity of the bank before entering it.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County: Greeting: YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon L. H. Reynolds, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds, Jimmie Reynolds, and Lloyd H. Reynolds, and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Anna F. Reynolds, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st Judicial District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the First Monday in March, A. D. 1932, the same being the 7th day of March, A. D. 1932, then and there to answer an amended petition filed in said Court on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1932, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3073, wherein C. F. Buckler is Plaintiff, and L. H. Reynolds, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds, Jimmie Reynolds and Lloyd H. Reynolds, and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Anna F. Reynolds, are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff sues on two certain promissory notes executed by defendant, L. H. Reynolds, payable to the order of Otto C. Rice, each in the principal sum of $1250.00, each providing for vendor's lien on the property hereinafter described, numbered three and four respectively, due in their numerical order on September 12, 1929, and September 12, 1930 respectively, each providing for 7 per cent interest before maturity, and 10 per cent interest after maturity, each providing for 10 per cent attorney's fees. Plaintiff alleges that said notes are past due and unpaid, and that said notes and lien securing the same were duly transferred and assigned to plaintiff by the said Otto C. Rice; that said notes were given in part payment for Lot No. Four (4), Block Thirty-seven (37), Original Town of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, and in deed dated September 12, 1927, from Otto C. Rice and wife, Bessie Rice, to L. H. Reynolds, a vendor's lien was retained against said property to secure the payment of said notes; plaintiff has found it necessary to place said notes in the hands of attorneys for collection and contracted and agreed to pay his attorneys the 10 per cent attorney's fees provided for in said note; that on the date of filing plaintiff's petition there was due principal, interest and attorneys' fees the sum of $3434.92.

Plaintiff further alleges that on May 19, 1928, the defendant, L. H. Reynolds and his wife, Anna F. Reynolds, executed, acknowledged and delivered to the Stucky Construction Company a contract lien against the property above described for paying the street abutting said property, to secure the payment of $416.25, that said indebtedness and the lien securing the same have been duly assigned to plaintiff; that said sum was payable in five annual installments of $83.25 each, on the 6th day of October, 1929, and on or before the 6th day of September, of the years 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932, the said indebtedness providing for interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from September 6, 1928, and further provided that in the event of failure to pay any installment when due the balance might be declared due and payable at once; that installments 1, 2 and 3, are duly paid; that 4th installment maturing September 6, 1931, was not paid; that plaintiff being the owner and holder of said indebtedness declared all the balance due and payable. Said contract lien provided that in the event that same was placed in the hands of attorneys for collection a reasonable attorney's fee should be added. Plaintiff alleges that he has placed said lien in the hands of attorneys for collection and contracted and agreed to pay said attorneys the sum of $100.00, the same being the reasonable, usual and customary attorney's fees; that there is due on said unpaid certificate, principal, interest, and attorney's fees on the date of filing this petition the sum of $3741.98, on the date of filing said petition, which though often amended has not been paid or any part thereof. Plaintiff alleges that it has a valid and subsisting vendor's lien and paying lien to secure the payment in the amounts above described against the property above described.

Plaintiff further alleges that Anna F. Reynolds is now dead, leaving surviving her the following children known to defendant, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds and Lloyd H. Reynolds, defendants all of whom are minors and that the names of any other heirs and legal representatives of the said Anna F. Reynolds, are unknown to plaintiff. That the interest of all said defendants are inferior to the lien of plaintiff and property above described.

Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to appear and answer that he have judgment for his debt, interest, cost of suit, attorney's fees and for foreclosure of his liens against the property above described, general and special relief, legal and equitable.

Herein Fall Not but have before 1930 County its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 5th day of February, A. D. 1932.

LOUISE MILLER, Clerk, District Courts, Gray County, Texas. By MARIE EASTIN, Deputy.

Jury in Damage Suit Is Discharged By Judge Ritchey

Judge E. F. Ritchey discharged the jury in Alex Smith's suit against Gray county for damages, late Friday afternoon after the 12 men had deliberated 27 hours without reaching a verdict. Jurors said they stood 10 to 2 for the defendant.

Mr. Smith was suing the county for $4,000 which he claimed he was damaged when the county removed a dam and widened and deepened the ditches in the road adjoining his property. Mr. Martin is proprietor of the road. The jury was impaneled Friday morning, the twelve men stood nine to three.

One of the main issues in the suit was whether there was an increased flow of water from normal rains to land upon the land of the plaintiff since the county widened the bar ditches in March, 1929, and whether the increased flow was caused by reconstructing the road. The jury was asked to determine whether the plaintiff's land had been damaged by water since the county removed the dam, and whether the injury, if any, was temporary.

The county argued that the depression in the Smith land was a natural drain for the surrounding country, and re-building the road had nothing to do with damaging the land.

The case is scheduled to be tried again during this term of court.

Chinese lost 500 killed and 300 wounded in the fighting Thursday and Friday at Harbin, and they placed their own losses at 16 dead and 60 wounded.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The four major powers concerned in the Shanghai troubles abated their active peace efforts tonight and waited for Japan to act under her latest pronouncement of policy in China.

The five points of the Japanese program caused no particular surprise here and were regarded as a summary of that nation's position as outlined in Tokyo from time to time.

Disappointed It was understood this explanation was made public after Britain and the United States had conveyed "expressions of disappointment" to Tokyo on learning of the plans to send new troops.

The navy department in Washington heard that seven shells from Chinese anti-aircraft guns had burst within the marine area at Shanghai.

Admiral Montgomery M. Taylor, commander of the American naval forces at Shanghai, informed Washington that the Japanese would land infantry in the international settlement tomorrow.

The Washington commerce department learned that the Shanghai business community had suffered losses estimated at $12,500,000 since the battle has been going on.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7. (Sunday)—Three days of bombing and shelling have caused terrible havoc in the Wocsung forts, but the red, blue and white flag of China still waves over their torn walls.

This I discovered today when I penetrated to the forts in an effort to settle rumors the strategic position at the mouth of the Whangpo river had fallen into hands of the Japanese.

Not only do the Chinese remain, but the elaborate defense works they are constructing indicate they have no intention of evacuating.

Although at least four of the forts' six-inch guns have been silenced and many of the remainder are so antiquated they are useless, the Chinese garrison is prepared with rifles and machine guns to resist any attempt by the besieging Japanese warships to land troops.

Beat Off Landing Already one landing attempt has been beaten off.

Entering the gates of the fortress after a two-mile walk through a shell-scarred area, I saw a scene of complete devastation.

Nearly every building in the fort compound had been reduced to shattered tile and splintered timber. A few structures held a semblance of their original form, but all of them had been shelled or bombed.

The terrain was so badly torn up it was impossible to walk in a straight line more than a few yards at a time.

The size of the holes indicated the Japanese were using bombs of tremendous power. I measured the largest of the bomb pits and found them to be 30 feet across and 12 feet deep.

I was beginning to wonder where the troops were, as only a few of them could be seen looting about the enclosure.

My soldier guide led me to the forts' first line of defense, a great earthen wall on which the guns were placed.

Died Fighting I had to step around a huge pit in order to reach the first gun, which had been disabled by a bomb. A shell was held inserted in the breach of the gun. The gunners had died fighting.

The second gun, obviously damaged, pointed out to sea. The twisted barrel of the third gun also was visible. These pieces, apparently six-inches, bore marks indicating they had been manufactured in the United States.

Smaller cannon alongside were undamaged, and although they were of ancient manufacture and had not been fired. Commanding officers said three or four of them were incapacitated and 10 still could be used. Most of the undamaged guns were of such caliber as to be of little value.

Looking out to sea, I counted seven Japanese ships of war, two miles off shore.

The characteristic Chinese attitude was expressed by the fort's commander in these words:

"Defensive War" "We are fighting a defensive war. We do not fire unless we are fired at. We are determined not to yield to the Japanese invaders. We are prepared to sacrifice our lives to hold the forts."

There was no lack of morale among the troops. The men were cheerful and seemed to enjoy telling through an interpreter about the horror they had experienced.

Because of the protection offered by underground shelters, the casualties had been comparatively slight.

The Chinese losses in the Wocsung area were estimated at 80 dead and 300 wounded.

Wife of Lubbock Banker Succumbs LUBBOCK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Funeral services for Mrs. Walter S. Posey, 51, wife of one of West Texas' most widely known bankers, will be held here Sunday afternoon with interment following in a local cemetery.

Mrs. Posey, a Lubbock resident for 28 years, was long active in women's circles here and over the south plains region until overtaken by ill health five years ago. Death followed a two weeks illness.

PETTY THEFTS REPORTED Thieves were busy during the basketball tournament at the high school gymnasium last night. Two car doors were broken and another lost a radiator cap.

Raymond Acklam reported to city officers that a rock had been hurled through both blades of his car and a dressed chicken, bottle of milk, and a pair of gloves taken.

Bourland reported the loss of a radiator cap.

One other car was entered but nothing was taken.

Nurmi's Records Are Wiped Out by Unknown Youth

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Feb. 6. (AP)—Gene Venzke, a 23-year-old Swedish-American youth who has just decided to go back and finish school at Pottsville, Pa., started the athletic world tonight by wiping out the classic indoor mile records of Paavo Nurmi and Jole Ray.

Scarcely known outside metropolitan tracks, he ran the distance in 4 minutes, 11 1-5 seconds in the Wanamaker mile, feature of the 25th Millrose A. A. carnival, before a cheering capacity crowd of 13,000 spectators.

It surpassed the former world indoor record of 4:12 set in 1925 by Nurmi and equaled the same season by Ray.

The only two faster miles ever run have been recorded on outdoor tracks. Paavo Nurmi's official record is 4:10.2-5, but this was lowered to 4:09.1-5 by Jules Ladoumègue of France last summer.

BURNS NINTH CHILD AKRON, Ohio, Feb. 6. (AP)—Mrs. Anna Benko, 43, today threw her ninth child, born only two days ago, into a blazing furnace, police said.

The woman, according to her husband, George Benko, 44, a truck driver, has been in a highly nervous condition several years and he feared she was mentally unbalanced.

ing whistle. The Cyclones led at each quarter but Wayne Kelly, Pampa's great guard, looped his usual goal when most needed, to tie the score. The first overtime period produced no scores. With one minute to go in the second overtime period, Captain Cecil Stargel of Memphis sank a long one. With less than 10 seconds to go, Captain Frank Enloe of the Harvesters broke through the Memphis defense and capped the tying counter.

To pick a star of the game would be unwise. Enloe of the Harvesters was the offensive strength of his team. He scored 11 points to be high point man. Foot Fullington and Kelly and Patton made many of Enloe's points possible. They fed the flash and guarded so closely that Memphis was bewildered for the first time during the tournament.

Captain Stargel led the Cyclone attack and scored eight points. J. Davis, voted the most valuable player in the tournament, also played a strong game to score seven points. West was the defensive strength of the Cyclones.

Miss Robinson Stars Miss Robinson, Pampa, forward and all tournament choice, was the big factor in the Pampa girls' win over the White Deer sextet. The Pampa looped 24 points in the game to bring her total for the tournament to 54 points. Eura Rose was Robinson's running mate and her shooting was sensational. She added 11 points to the total score. Amy Lard was the strength of the Harvester attack in the center zone, while Coleman, Murphy, and Barnard were the guards deluxe. James, Scott, and Hladak also had a prominent place in the win.

Potter and Andrew, the two White Deer forwards, tied the scoring with 10 points each. Andrews, a midget

Society Slayer Is Freed of Murder

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 6. (AP)—Edward H. B. Allen, 23, society man, tonight was freed of a charge of murder in the killing of Francis Donaldson, third, son of a socially prominent family. The jury of 10 men and two women were out exactly 10 hours before they arrived at their verdict.

The tall, thin, young defendant shook like a leaf as he stood up to hear the jury's verdict.

When he heard the words "not guilty" he almost collapsed. But he quickly recovered himself as one of his attorneys put his arm around him to hold him in his swivel chair and was handed a glass of water.

Several persons started to cheer the verdict and a dozen bailiffs cried "order" quelling the unquiet disturbance.

in size, made four free throws. Halduk played her second great game at guard and was selected on the all-tournament team. Overton at center was strong at all times.

The night's entertainment opened with coaches playing the All-Stars coached by Stanley Erskine of Dallas, representative of A. G. Spalding & Bros. The coaches proved too much for the officials and ex-Harvesters who went down fighting 29 to 16. Super B. B. Fisher was in charge of the coaches.

The all-tournament teams were selected by Stanley Erskine, Warren Moore, and Harry E. Hoare. Floor officials were Kenner and Fuller. Time-keepers for the tournament were Albert Lard and Don Salsbury. Official scorers were Harry Hoare and Argus Fox.

The boys' all tournament team follows:

Enloe of Pampa and Stargel of Memphis, forwards; J. Smith of Memphis, center; Wayne Kelly of Pampa and Gibbons of Wheeler, guards.

J. Davis of Memphis was selected as the most valuable player in the tournament.

The girls' all-tournament team follows:

Robinson of Pampa and Gibson of Amarillo, forwards; Lard of Pampa and Davis of Amarillo, centers; Coleman of Pampa and Halduk of White Deer, guards.

PAMPA TEAMS EXHIBIT MUCH IMPROVEMENT IN TOURNEY

BOYS DEFEAT MIAMI CHIEFS ON SATURDAY

GIRLS GO TO FINALS BY BEATING LASSIES OF CANADIAN

Both Pampa basketball teams went into the finals in their own invitation tournament by wins yesterday afternoon. The boys defeated Miami 33 to 11 while the girls won from Canadian, 36 to 22. Memphis got into the finals with a 31 to 24 win from the crippled Hedley OWA. The White Deer girls went into the final after playing only one game.

Pampa 33, Miami 11
Captain Flash Enloe scored 15 points to send his team into the finals. Marbaugh added eight points while Bill Kelley was looping three field goals. Patton played a strong game at guard. Fullington led Enloe the ball for many points. Talley was the only warrior that could get anywhere against the Harvardians. He made eight points. Curly Owens made the other three.

Memphis 31, Hedley 24
Owens had Hedley well beaten until late in the last quarter, when two players were removed on fouls. Evans, Hedley forward, then got into action and scored eight points. Armstrong, Hedley's other forward, was bottled during the entire game and scored only six points. Injured center, played part of the game but was ineffective.

J. Davis jumped at center for Memphis and then dropped back to guard. He was high point scorer, making 16 points. O. B. Smith was next with ten points. Storgel, usually the most reliable man on the team, was held scoreless. West played another hard game at guard.

Pampa 36, Canadian 22
The Pampa girls met the Canadian sextet and defeated them, 36 to 22. Mona Robinson and Eura Rose tied for scoring honors with three each. They missed many but scored when points were needed. Lard played a good game at center while the guards were better than in Friday night's encounter. They made numerous fouls guarding Fillingim, big Canadian forward.

Miss Fillingim made 14 points to be high scorer. She made several free throws and overhead throws that counted one point. Caldwell was held to six points. Halsey was strong at center as was Cook at guard.

Miami 23, Pampa Gorillas 14
Coach Warren Moore's Gorillas' 172 to get into action until late in the game and could not overcome the commanding lead of the Miami Warriors. Irving got his shooting eye and made nine of his team's points. Whittenberg added three. Curly Owens was high scorer for Miami with eight points. Talley followed with six points and Dial, substitute guard, made four more. The guarding of both teams was strong and kept the score down. The Miami boys towered over the Gorillas who fought to the last whistle.

Miami: McClusky, Talley, Owens, Morrison, Bond, Paris, Kivellen, Lyons, Alexander, Dial, Gorillas: Bailey, Irving, Green, Faulkner, Moore, Whittenberg.

Wheeler 52, Hopkins 10
The big Wheeler quintet had no mercy on the crippled Hopkins whirlwinds and handed them the worst defeat of any team in the tournament. W. Richardson, giant guard, looped 16 points to be high scorer. He was followed by Gibbons with 13. Wheeler used two complete teams.

H. Mackie was high scorer for Hopkins with six points. W. Ridgeway tried hard but had tough luck with his shots. The Hopkins boys played six games last week-end to win the Groom tournament and had blistered feet.

Wheeler: Hooker, Gibbons, Baldwin, Smith, W. Richardson, Meek, Weeks, Richardson, Puckett. Hopkins: R. Mackie, W. Ridgeway, H. Mackie, E. Vanderberg, D. Mackie, R. Ridgeway, E. Husted.

Pampa 25, Amarillo 24
Hopelessly behind at the end of the first half and not given a chance to win, the Pampa girls' basketball team broke loose in the closing half of the game to defeat the Amarillo sextet 25 to 24 in one of the most thrilling games of the tournament.

Mona Robinson, Pampa's flashy forward, looped six field goals in the last half to pull the game out of the fire. She was assisted by Eura Rose, who scored six points. With one minute left to play, Amarillo's flashy forward, T. M. Gibson, looped one from the black line and the game was apparently lost. However, Amy Lard got the ball at the tip-off and shot it to Rose. She faked a shot and then passed to Robinson, who made the deciding goal.

Amarillo's centers, Davis and Hill, were the fastest team work up to that time. Their passing fast and accurate. The two forwards, Hamilton and Gibson, looped baskets from all angles. The guards also were strong and saved many sure goals. Captain Betty James played a strong game at center, while the guarding of Scott and Coleman was outstanding. Murphy also did some close guarding.

Gibson, Amarillo forward, made 21 points. She is tall and possesses wonderful form in long shots. She made 26 points against Miami the previous night.

YACHT BODIES IN ROW OVER WOOD'S MARK

One Association Will Refuse to Recognize Record He Made Last Week.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—A war over jurisdiction between the Yachtsman Association of America and the American Powerboat association, which has been going on some time in private, broke out publicly today with the announcement of the A. P. B. A.'s racing commission that Gar Wood's new speedboat mark would not be accepted as an American record.

The racing commission explained that, although Wood made his run under the supervision of one of its members, the above-mentioned yachtmen's association, he did so without seeking or receiving sanction from the A. P. B. A., and that under its rules his world record record could not be recognized. They recognize his time of 103.069 made last spring under A. P. B. A. sanction, but not his mark of 111.712.

The same eight men—Irving Jaffe, new 5,000 meters Olympic champion, Valentin Biella, Edwin Wedge and Eddie Schroeder, all of the United States teams; Alex Hurd and Frank Stack of Canada; and the Norwegians, Berni Evensen and Ivar Ballangrud—qualified today for the final of the last men's speed skating championships.

Alex Hurd, Canadian champion who has been skating in sensational fashion, came back in the first heat to whip the field again with Ballangrud second, Biella third, and Wedge fourth. All that proved was that second, third and fourth places in a heat could be shuffled around a bit in two days of racing, for Biella took second yesterday, Wedge third, and Ballangrud fourth.

Only one hockey match was played in the Olympic series today, Canada defeating Germany four goals to one.

By today's victory Canada maintained its lead in the round Robin series with two victories and no defeats. The United States and Germany are tied for second place, with one victory and one defeat each. Poland has lost its two games.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon J. H. Dean by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the 1st Monday in March, A. D. 1932, the same being the 7th day of March, A. D. 1932, and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 9th day of July, A. D. 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2890, wherein Martha Anne Dean is Plaintiff, and J. H. Dean is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff alleges that she is an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas and has resided in said state for more than twelve months and in Gray County six months next preceding the filing of this suit. That she and defendant were married on November 26, 1927, and continued living together until April 28, 1929, when defendant began a course of harsh, unkind and tyrannical treatment by striking her with his fist and kicking her, with slight intermissions until their separation on April 28, 1929. Plaintiff further alleges that defendant's use of intoxicating liquor to the excess caused him to abuse her violently in times of intoxication, so as to render their further living together insupportable. Therefore plaintiff asks for an absolute divorce in accordance with the petition on file.

Herein I fail not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1932.

CANADA HOLDS HER MASTERY IN ICE EVENTS

SKATING HAS AROUSED MUCH FEELING THIS YEAR

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 6 (AP)—The master minds of the 1932 winter Olympics breathed deep sighs of relief tonight, for the preliminaries of the 10,000 meters speed skating championship, with its international complications, ended today after being raced once, the results cancelled, and then raced again.

And, like the second game of a double-header that ends like the first in a scoreless tie, 18 distance bladesmen of Norway, Sweden, Finland, Canada, and the United States had nothing to show for an extra 6.2 miles of strenuous skating, except material for another flock of arguments, charges, counter-charges and bitterness.

The same eight men—Irving Jaffe, new 5,000 meters Olympic champion, Valentin Biella, Edwin Wedge and Eddie Schroeder, all of the United States teams; Alex Hurd and Frank Stack of Canada; and the Norwegians, Berni Evensen and Ivar Ballangrud—qualified today for the final of the last men's speed skating championships.

Manero and Clark Tied in Houston Golf

KNOT ALSO RESULTS IN BATTLE FOR SECOND PLACE

HOUSTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Tony Manero of New York and Clarence Clark of Bloomfield, N. J., fought heavy cross winds this afternoon to take 73 and tie for the leadership in the first 18 holes of the Colonial club's 2,000 golf open. Thirty-six holes will be played tomorrow.

For second place, another tie resulted. Tony Butler of Corpus Christi and Archie Habrick of Zanesville, Ohio, each taking a 74. Harry Cooper of Chicago, came in with an easy 75 and Levi Lynch of Dallas had a 76.

Those who had 77's included Willie McGuire and Jack Burke, Houston; Ralph Guidahl of St. Louis; Tom Burke, Colonial club pro; Jimmy Vincent of San Antonio, and Joe Ezar of Waco.

The Japanese star, Tomikicki Miyamoto, took a 78, and Abe Esplinas of Chicago could do no better than 79. Joe Lally of Louisville was among those coming in with the same score.

Other scores included: Levi Lynch, Dallas, 39-37-78. Willie McGuire, Houston, 37-40-77.

Jack Burke, Houston, 39-39-77. Jimmy Vincent, San Antonio, 37-40-77.

Dempsey Has 'Til April 15 to Get Right

Must Prove He Had No Part in Leaving Big Account Unpaid.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Jack Dempsey was given a long court in his battle with the Mississippi state boxing commission today. The former world's heavyweight champion, charged with being a partner in an exhibition fiasco in Columbus, Miss., more than a year ago, was given until April 15, to produce evidence to show he was not connected with the promotion of the show, which resulted, according to the Mississippians, in unpaid bills of $2,804.97.

Meanwhile, Dempsey is free to continue his exhibition tour and to roam the national boxing association-territory without being interrupted.

The former champion appeared to face two Mississippi commissioners, Harry J. Landry, Friars Point, and Luther W. Manles, Gulfport, at a hearing conducted by General John V. Clinin, president of the N. B. A.

Psychologist-Lecturer To Make First of Free Talks on Monday

Verona G. Hull, widely known psychologist and radio lecturer, who has been speaking over KQRS in Amarillo during the last two months is being brought to Pampa by local psychology enthusiasts to deliver a series of public lectures and class lessons in the Science of Successful Living and Personality Development.

Tomorrow evening, the first of three free lectures will be given at the county court house on the subject of "The Power of Attraction." Free lectures also will be given Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to which the public is invited, and the special class in psychology will begin Thursday evening.

In the educational and inspiring lectures, Miss Hull gives the causes of failure and the laws and principles underlying the psychology of success. This teacher claims that it is not lack of opportunity that makes people fail, but the inability of people to recognize opportunity when they come to it. She points out that the necessary thing to do is to think—to use one's mind—since all success, in fact, everything in life comes out of ideas from someone's mind.

"We are living in an age of mind," explains Miss Hull, "and mind is traveling faster than ever before. The world is making more mental progress in five years now than formerly in a century. This means that everyone must use his mind; he must think in order to keep up with progress today." And that is the purpose of the new psychology, states this speaker, "to teach you to use your mind to meet and master the situation whatever the problem or purpose might be."

Miss Hull has been lecturing upon the public platform, Chautauqua, and before school and business organizations for the past 10 years, and is a noted radio speaker as well. She is said to be pleasing and entertaining as a speaker, and her lectures are described as "having the punch that arouses all of man's dormant powers and possibilities into activity."

Her message is said to provoke thought and arouse ambition and desire for greater achievement and realization.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, GREETING:

You are hereby commanded to summon as is required by law Dallas Brockman to appear at the next regular term of the District Court, 31st Judicial District, to be held at the Courthouse thereof, in Pampa, on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court 14th Judicial District, on the 7th day of October, 1931, in a suit numbered 2017 on the docket of said Court, wherein Martha Brockman is plaintiff and Dallas Brockman is defendant, a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action being:

Suit for divorce by plaintiff against defendant, plaintiff alleging that she and defendant were married on January 19, 1929, and lived together until November 22, 1930. Plaintiff alleges that defendant was guilty of cruel, unkind and inhuman treatment towards her which has ruined her health; that defendant has accused plaintiff of living in adultery with other men, which accusations were untrue.

Herein fail not but have before said Court at its next term this writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court this 4th day of February, A. D. 1932.

LOUISE MILLER, Clerk, District Courts, Gray County, Texas.

ARTIST SKETCHES HOOVER AT WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE

In excellent trim these days, President Hoover is thoughtful and grave as he receives newspapermen to discuss the critical situation in the Far East. The newsmen, respectfully attentive, take notes as the President talks, fingering antique coins in his pocket which he has carried for years, possibly as lucky pieces.

This splendid and timely sketch of the President of the United States receiving newspapermen at the White House was made on the spot only a few days ago by George Clark, NEA Service staff artist, nationally-known creator of "Side Glances." The critical situation in the Far East was under discussion at this conference while Clark made the rough sketches for this graphic drawing.

Second Tourney Will Be Held

Pampa will have another basketball tournament Friday and Saturday. It will be for the junior high boys and senior grade boys. The age limit will be 15 years. W. B. Weathered will be in charge of the tournament. Any team not receiving an invitation may get in touch with Mr. Weathered.

Interscholastic league rules for junior boys will govern play. It is expected that teams will be entered from rural schools and grade schools in this section of the Panhandle. Awards will be given the winning teams and the all stars.

National Grain Corporation Is Defended as of Value to Farmers

The Farmers National Grain corporation, a cooperating division of the Federal farm board, has many friends as well as enemies in this territory.

Friendly citizens have asked publication of this portion of a speech by Senator C. L. McNary, chairman of the senate agricultural committee.

"The operation of the Farmers National Grain corporation during the first years of its existence, from Oct. 29, 1929, to Oct. 31, 1931, seems to offer complete justification of its course. During that time the corporation has purchased and handled more than 390,000 bushels of grain, and we regard it as a challenge to all other grain marketing associations that this vast amount of grain has been handled at a cost of less than 1 cent a bushel, including a total cost for salaries and wages in all bushels bought, handle, and sold."

"To make it clear that this one cent per bushel includes all general and administrative expenses is merely to prove, in our opinion, that operations of the corporation have been conducted with utmost efficiency. It may be well, in this connection, further to point out that the unit cost above mentioned covers the organization period, during which nationwide grain merchandising machinery was established and set in motion, and includes all the costs incidental thereto. Net earnings of the corporation, after he setting aside of revenues necessary to insure the soundness of the corporation, represent a gain to organized grain producers to 2.3 per bushel, which amounts do not include important benefits which have come to them in narrowed margins and reduced discounts in the purchase of grain at both county and terminal points."

"Opposition to this program was inevitable and was anticipated by the cooperatives. The tide of public opinion is changed however, and efforts to repeal the farm marketing act will fail."

Brandin Stands on Storm Forecast

A. G. "Friday" Brandin, courthouse weather prophet and old timer of Gray county, promised fair weather for local citizens for most of next week. His prediction made on the last day of 1931 that January would produce no major storms was correct. He said last Sunday that the first storm of the year would be between the 10th and 15th.

"Friday" declared yesterday that fair weather would prevail in the Panhandle until Wednesday, and that he would not be responsible for the weather from then on until the first of March.

Chinese Detective Story With Warner Oland Now at La Nora

An intensely gripping mystery melodrama, "Charlie Chan's Chance," comes to the La Nora theater today. Based on an Earl Derr Biggers' novel, John G. Blyzions directed this Fox Films picture.

Warner Oland, supreme in oriental characterizations, appears as Charlie Chan, the famed Chinese detective from Honolulu. The lovers are Marian Nixon and Alexander Kirkland, last seen as the youngest son in "Surrender." Others in the cast are H. B. Warner, Linda Watkins, James Kirkwood, and Ralph Morgan.

The story details the newest adventures of Charlie Chan, this time in a New York setting, where he finds himself studying the police methods of that city.

A mysterious murder is committed and Scotland Yard detectives combine efforts with metropolitan police, but they are unable to solve the baffling crime. Charlie Chan, by virtue of his superior wisdom and his keen analytical mind, discovers important clues, reconstructs the crime and, after a series of thrilling experiences and many narrow escapes, untangles the enigmatical skein. The murderer is finally revealed in a dramatic climax.

The role of Charlie Chan gives Oland full play for his unusual talents developed during a long period of experience on the stage and screen. He has been playing oriental roles for many years, appearing in such outstanding productions as "Dr. Fu Manchu," "The Return of Dr. Fu Manchu," "The Black Camel" and "Charlie Chan Carries On."

H. L. Polly, manager of Murfee's, Inc., will leave this morning for Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo., to purchase spring and early summer merchandise. He expects to be gone about a week.

Birthday Party Given As Surprise To Miss Haggard

Miss Viola Haggard was complimented with a surprise buffet dinner on her birthday by her mother, Mrs. Eush Haggard. She received many useful remembrances from her friends.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the beautifully decorated parlor and in the delicious dinner served to the following guests: Miss Lorraine Noel, Miss Isabelle Baer, Miss Louise Pearce, Esther Stark, Etha Jones, Dorothy Stillings, Laverne Wilson, Pearl Wilson, Roberts Montgomery, Mildred Haggard, Mrs. E. E. Reynolds.

After dinner, the group played bridge until 7:30 p. m., when they attended a basketball tournament.

Faster Mail to Be Sought Here

Postmaster D. E. Cecil and George W. Briggs, manager of the Pampa Board of City Development, will be in Lubbock tomorrow where they will attend a hearing of the railway commission regarding a permit for a bus and mail line between Clarendon and Pampa. A bus is operating at the present time, but is under a temporary permit which does not allow for the carrying of mail between points.

Should the commission decide to grant a permanent permit, mail now brought to Pampa from Childress will be brought from Clarendon, which means that it will arrive in Pampa more than one hour earlier. Three companies are applying for the permanent permit.

Under present conditions, mail from Fort Worth and connecting points is brought to Pampa from Childress. It arrives here at 9:40 a. m. If a permit is granted for mail to be brought here from Clarendon, it will arrive in Pampa at 7:40 a. m. Mail being dispatched through Childress leaves here at 3 o'clock. If the new permit is granted the mail will not have to leave here until 8 o'clock.

a formidable group of eastern delegates. Despite the fact that he has refused to cooperate in any "Stop-Roosevelt" movement as such, Speaker Garner's friends are planning to bring him prominently to the fore in the south, and in some states of the west.

TO PUSH MITCHE

The efforts on behalf of Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, and other favorite sons, are to be redoubled. Newton D. Baker still is discussed as a possible candidate in some states. There is talk of entering former Governor Harry Byrd of Virginia, for whom headquarters were opened today in Richmond, in some of the dry districts of Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

In various western states where only Roosevelt activity has been apparent thus far, efforts will be made to send unstructured delegations, and let the convention fight it out. That is true in Wyoming. It is true in Kansas.

Many of those closest to Smith concede his chances of nomination are not encouraging. No real effort for him is expected outside of the east, except perhaps for an isolated state or two in the south and west.

LINDSAY NUNN SEES IMPROVED BUSINESS COMING—FINDS JOHN GARNER'S POPULARITY IS BROAD

Back from a lengthy business trip to St. Louis, Chicago, New York, Washington, and other points, J. Lindsay Nunn of Amarillo is convinced of two things he observed on his trip. A dearer upturn in business is expected and 2. John N. Garner has a remarkably growing support for the democratic presidential nomination.

Asked what the eastern bankers expect of business in 1932, Mr. Nunn said:

"This is rather a hard question to answer. There doesn't seem to be any definite opinion expressed by the bankers as to when there will be an upturn, but I find a feeling that any further change would be for the better. Decidedly they feel that the absolute bottom has been reached. The bankers and business leaders all seem to think that the Reconstruction Finance corporation is going to do a tremendous amount of good for the country and that it will allow certain banks which are carrying so-called frozen assets to borrow money on these assets thereby putting money back in circulation. The concrete help to be expected will come also to the banks which have been closed a number of them which were not closed because they were broke, but because they had assets that could not be realized on as quickly as money was demanded by depositors. In the case of such banks it seems that it will be possible for them to reopen, borrow money on these slow assets, and then use this money in paying depositors. Naturally, if this is done, it means that millions and millions of dollars will be actually placed in the hands of the so-called ultimate consumer, the general public."

"I heard considerable comment from the various bankers in Chicago and other points on the matter of hoarding. It seems that the banks have been confronted during the past few months with the fact that their depositors were losing confidence, consequently they were not depositing their money in the banks, but holding it out. This tendency seems to have been arrested, and, as one banker in Chicago told me, they feel they have reached the limit on this and now that the government has taken a hand in it, there will be more money put on deposit and the general confidence of the people is returning. None of the bankers seems to think that we will have prosperity 'just around the corner.' They feel that we would probably have a month or two of the low ebb ahead of us, but with a constantly mounting level and that possibly after the summer is over, we will see a return of normal conditions. However, the feeling seems to be that the crisis of the banking institutions has probably been passed and the general public is having their confidence restored."

Questioned about the impending party nominations, Mr. Nunn replied as follows:

"I heard more in the east about John Garner, present speaker of the house, than I have heard out here in this locality of the southwest where he comes from. I was very much surprised to find that political leaders, both democrats and republicans, feel that Mr. Garner will stand a better chance of being elected president, if he is nominated, than Mr. Roosevelt. In Chicago, the democrats predict that if Roosevelt is nominated, Illinois will go republican, but that Garner can carry the state for the democrats. In New York I found a feeling among both democrats and republicans that Garner can carry the state of New York, but that if Roosevelt is nominated, it is doubtful if he can beat Hoover, although I have never seen a president so criticized as is Mr. Hoover, by both parties. The feeling in Washington is that any democrat who is nominated will be elected, but of all the democrats mentioned I find more comment mounting in favor of Ritchie, Baker, and Garner, with Garner in the foremost. It is indicated that Ohio will go for Garner in the nomination.

Strange to say, I have heard very little of the wet and dry issue. The main issue before the people seems to be the economic conditions. This is one that is going to work to the detriment of Mr. Roosevelt in securing the democratic nomination. The bigger business interests of the east seem to doubt somewhat that Mr. Roosevelt will be any saner in governing the country's affairs than has been Mr. Hoover, but these same folks are pointing to the record which John Garner is making in the house and pointing out his ability to handle the governmental affairs. There is no question that if Mr. Garner should be elected, he will certainly be president without dictation from sources which are inimical to the country's good. The congress, both house and senate, seems to be functioning more on the order of a board of directors of some huge corporation rather than the prevalent idea of a congregation of politicians. As to the wet and dry issue, of course, that will eventually come in the democratic party, because the other party is going to see that it is thrust into the democratic party as propaganda to solidify themselves behind Mr. Hoover.

Hoover is probably a victim somewhat of circumstances. It is a fact that, on all sides among all classes of people of both parties, I heard criticism of his conduct of the country's affairs, yet he will, without doubt, be the nominee of the republican party.

Much to my pleasure I found that Marvin Jones, our representative, is taking his place in congress not merely as a representative from this district, but as a statesman for the country at large. Marvin is the head of the agricultural committee, which ranks with the three leading governmental committees, the other two being the ways and means and the appropriations. I gathered from all sources in Washington that Marvin is handling his job well and is paying more attention to the work of the government than in worrying about re-election. The success which he has attained is due, not only to his ability, but to the fact that he has seniority in congress surpassed only by a few. A congressman, to represent best his district, must have long service behind him, which shows that the district has done well in continuing to re-elect him from term to term."

Turning back to the federal corporation, Mr. Nunn added:

"Knowing Jesse Jones as I do and judging by the comment which I heard from financial leaders, there is no question but that Mr. Jones will have considerable to say about the operation of this corporation. He will not be a 'yes' man and will remain on the committee only if his views are given serious consideration. However, there seems to be a unanimity of opinion between Mr. Dawes, Mr. Jones, and the other committeemen to see that this corporation functions for the best interests of the entire country. Practically everybody is putting their faith of reconstructed business into the operation of the reconstruction corporation and with the millions of dollars turned loose to the railroads, insurance companies, the larger and smaller banks all over the country, it is bound to bring back better con-

MINATREE COW IS BEST IN DAIRY ASSOCIATION RECORDS

The December cow-testing record for the northeast Panhandle was released this week by R. F. Tesson of Canadian, official tester. The report contains the milk and butter-fat records of the highest-producing animals in the counties of Gray, Carson, Hemphill and Roberts counties.

The best record made during the month was by Snowball, owned by W. E. Minatree. She produced 1,794 pounds of milk and 75.4 pounds of butterfat.

Mr. Tesson's report of records was as follows.

County	Cow	Milk	Butterfat	Herd Owner
Gray	Snowball	1,794	75.4	W. E. Minatree

PETITIONERS OF MANY COUNTRIES URGE DISARMAMENT AS PEACE PLAN

GENEVA, Feb. 6. (AP)—Unofficially, world looks hopefully and expectantly to Geneva to avoid a new race for armaments and to prevent a world cataclysm which the failure of the conference might entail.

Representatives of 60 nations today told the world insistently demands disarmament. Backed by petitions signed by more than 8,300,000 plain folk, and delegated by world wide organization of women, churches, workers, students and pacifists, authorized spokesmen of various ages, creeds, and economic beliefs addressed the disarmament conference in extraordinary session.

Some pleaded, others demanded. Still others threatened, some enunciated only general humanitarian principles, others offered concrete constructive proposals. But whatever method for impressing the governmental delegates was chosen, and in whatever terms the wishes, hopes or demands were couched, the fundamental thought underlying all of today's oratory was this: That the sorely distressed conditions and Mr. Jones' ideas will be given grave consideration in every case, because he is regarded both as an outstanding financial leader and as a man of foresight and broad understanding."

ONLY ONE DEAD BUT HUNDREDS OF CASES OF FLU IN CITY NOW

The influenza death toll in Pampa last week was only one, although several hundred children and many adults were suffering from more or less mild forms of the "flu," bad colds, sore throats and pneumonia. Local physicians declared that it was a good thing for Supt. R. B. Fisher to dismiss school last Friday for the basketball tournament.

They estimated that scores of children who would have taken the disease Friday stayed at home and did not come into contact with influenza germs.

On Thursday over 100 high school students were absent from Central high school on account of being ill with the "flu." Those ill at Baker school also numbered about 100. About 50 from each of the other ward schools were ill, while around 100 junior high students were ill. Pampa physicians said that Friday and Saturday were their busiest days. Pampa hospital was almost full of patients. Worley hospital had three times as many patients as usual. Doctors were giving medical attention to patients night and day, and calls piled up in their offices.

Health and weather observers commented upon the unusual fact that so much sickness should be in the community during one of the warmest Januarys and Februarys on record.

Health and weather observers commented upon the unusual fact that so much sickness should be in the community during one of the warmest Januarys and Februarys on record.

STOCKS SLOWLY DECLINE

NEW YORK, Feb. 6. (AP)—The stock market got a few notches nearer the early January lows today. However, reactionary tendencies of industrial and utilities were almost imperceptible and the fractional average loss would have passed unnoticed had the list enjoyed a more comfortable margin of safety above last month's minimums.

As it was the day's two business hours hardly provided a fair test of resistance. Covering shorts who were unwilling to chance further delay in protecting their profits undoubtedly assisted many stocks, and Wall Street went home in the belief that the market would give a clearer demonstration of its intentions next week. The short interest increased last month, thus improving the technical position.

TEXAN IS KILLED

Why Trade in Pampa?

Beautiful stores, nice homes, substantial gifts to public enterprises—these are the results of trading in Pampa. But what is equally important is that Pampa stores are large, the stocks are complete, the quality of goods high, the prices reasonable. Such factors make Pampa an ideal trading point and remove the necessity of our going elsewhere to buy. And what fun it was visiting the local stores yesterday! Merchants all were preparing for a new season, spring, and they were busily filling their racks and counters with fresh merchandise. They are expecting the arrival of many more reasonable articles during this week.

The best homes in Pampa do not hesitate to send their finest linens to the CITY STEAM LAUNDRY. It was with such assurance from my friends that I left some fine Madeira linens and some dainty embroidered articles at this laundry, knowing that skilled workers would care for them.

The employees take special delight in caring for baby clothes. These garments are delicately cleaned and are ironed by hand.

Nothing is more interesting than a visit to the laundry. While I was there some of the workers were cleaning the most delicate of fabrics and others were laundering such things as feather beds and feather pillows.

Are you familiar with the "THRIFT" and the "WEST WASH" offers? These are special economy services. Telephone the laundry (the number is 643) and ask about them. Or visit the laundry at 315 West Kingsmill.

My new formula for chic: Buy hat, gloves, and costume jewelry at one time.

For all who love beautiful accessories, MURFEE'S STORE yesterday was opening exquisite new arrivals for spring. They will be ready tomorrow for the approval of Pampa women.

Pearls are more in favor than ever. I had noticed they were being worn often to entertainments, and the shipment to MURFEE'S was still more proof of their popularity.

MURFEE'S new spring gloves will delight you. They are in both kid and washable fabrics. White, beige, and egg-shell are the most popular spring colors. The plainer type of glove is in favor. MURFEE'S gloves range in price from $1.95 to $3.50.

"Up on one side and down on the other" is a favored rule in buying a hat, and the favored colors are blue, tan, black, red, gray, and green. Rough straw is a popular material. See such hats at MURFEE'S at prices ranging from $1.95 to $7.50

Q is for Quarters. A Room or a Suite. Well-priced and Well-Cared-for. And Furnished Complete.

When I visited the PAMPA FURNITURE STORE, I observed the lighter weight furniture and visualized its appearance in a small, cozy apartment. Here's what I saw: "A two-piece mohair living room suite with diamond back chair first met the eye of one entering the apartment. In one corner was a 'reading nook'—a chair, a pillow, a bookcase, a lamp. There was a kitchen, all shining and cheerful, which could truly be called the 'home hostess' laboratory." There was a lovely breakfast nook. But there was bedroom furniture that was simply irresistible. Not only did my 'dream apartment' have a beautiful bedroom suite, but it had one of those best of all mattresses—the Simmons.

Frank Foster is the kind of merchant who is delighted to show you his furniture and explain to you just what is the "latest out." He has a smile just as broad for the one who is "just looking" as he has for the one who spends $1,000. Visit the PAMPA FURNITURE STORE and see the finest furniture in the Panhandle.

"Such food should be served on a silver platter," I heard someone say while I was eating lunch at LA NORA CONFECTIONETTE. That person was right. The food was delicious. But it tastes just as good from a china plate.

The CONFECTIONETTE knows no depression. We find people standing, waiting to obtain one of those cozy CONFECTIONETTE booths. They like the privacy of the booths. They like the meals, which range from a sandwich and a drink to a bounteous dinner. And they like the fountain service. One of those double thick malted milks, for instance, will add interest to any meal.

Infinite care is taken in the preparation of each dish at LA NORA CONFECTIONETTE. It must be tempting to the eye. It must do its share to make the meal a real delight.

When you want a light luncheon, remember the CONFECTIONETTE SNACK—a sandwich, a salad, and a dessert—all daintily prepared and served for 30 cents. And if you are very hungry, the 40-cent luncheon can't be beat. The CONFECTIONETTE is the second coe south of La Nora theater.

Hats with crowns as peaked as Baby Bunting's hood are a new note in early spring chapeaux.

Both Uprights and Grands. You'll find them at TARPLEY'S. To suit purse and plans. "This is an age of music," I thought as I visited the TARPLEY MUSIC STORE, "and this store is ready to meet every new demand."

The time has passed when it was considered "sissy" to play the piano or violin. Now to be musical is one sure road to popularity. Music today is taught in every public school in Pampa. It is emphasized in every club. It is used in every church. Every child is a potent musician. Don't deny him the privilege and joy of playing some instrument.

Have you seen the small grand pianos and the tiny Tom Thumb practice pianos for children? TARPLEY'S pianos and other musical instruments are the best buys possible.

Miss Margaret Buckler is in charge of the sheet music and record department. There is the latest popular sheet music for 35 cents a copy, and the finest of classical selections. Also there is the complete Century addition at 15 cents per copy.

Fashionable folk have been seen wearing black velvet evening gowns made on simple lines. One model was worn with a long scarf.

DISTRICT SECRETARY WILL ACCOMPANY MRS. HILL

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will address a meeting to be held at 3:15 o'clock at the Methodist church. The secretary, Mrs. Clyde Warwick of Canyon, will accompany the president to this city Tuesday.

The gathering will be under the sponsorship of El Progreso club, and in the evening the visitors as well as local federated club presidents will be special guests at the El Progreso meeting in the home of Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Hill will bring Pampa club women her aims as president for the coming two years. The object for the district is "Know the Federation Work." The aims are enlightenment, enlightenment, wise economy, and helpfulness.

The motto is "Look Upward, not Downward; out ward, not inward; forward, not backward, and lend a hand."

Mrs. Hill will be glad to discuss problems that are meeting any club. The theme in the evening will be in accord with the Washington bi-centennial celebration, and Mrs. Hill will lecture on Washington portraits.

Mrs. May Foreman Carr and her pupils will play while the guests are gathering, and Dorothy Jo Moore and Bonnie Lee Rose, pupils of Miss Kathryn Vincent, assisted by Mrs. Frank Keehn, will dance the minuets. Mrs. T. D. Hobart and Mrs. P. C. Ledrick will pour tea.

MANY MEETINGS WILL BE HELD

MUCH VARIETY NOTED IN CALENDAR OF WEEK

The coming week will be a busy one for Pampa society, and considerable variety is observed in meetings for each day. The calendar follows:

MONDAY
Regular meeting of the Little Theater has been postponed until Monday of next week.

Circle 2 of the First Baptist W. M. S. will meet at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. F. Ewing Leech to be served at noon. A similar meeting will be held at the church by Circle 3. Circle 1 will meet at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. B. Chisum, and Circle 4 will meet with Mrs. W. B. Henry, at 2:30.

Central Baptist Sunbeams will meet at the church at 3 o'clock.

TUESDAY
Royal Neighbors will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the basement of the First Baptist church.

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will address Pampa club women at 3:15 o'clock at the Methodist church.

El Progreso club will have an open meeting at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar.

Comus club will have a dance from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Schneider hotel.

B'Nai Israel Sisterhood will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Murray Freundlich.

Contract Club Entertained By Mrs. Goldston

Valentine was the theme for a prettily planned party given by Mrs. A. B. Goldston Friday afternoon for members of the Contract Bridge club. Mrs. Philip Pond scored high in the games.

Leaders of Pampa Clubdom for Year 1932-33

When Pampa federated clubs begin their activities next year, the above women will fill the president's chairs. They were selected at recent meetings of the various organizations. Reading from left to right, they are: Top row, Mrs. J. Porter Malone of the Twentieth Century club, Mrs. Julian Barrett of the Junior Twentieth Century club, and Mrs. O. H. Booth of the Arno Art club; bottom row, Mrs. F. Ewing Leech of the Twentieth Century Culture Club, Mrs. J. M. McDonald of El Progreso club, and Mrs. Katie Vincent of the Wayside club. News of Clubs in District

CANYON, Feb. 6.—The Pampa County Federation of Women's clubs which was visited by the district president and secretary recently, has put much emphasis on health and beautification, over a period of years. An active county health chairman has directed the efforts of the clubs, so that by co-operating with other agencies they have secured the examination of school children, have encouraged more careful planning of sanitary features of homes and towns and have urged more healthful living habits among adults.

In the field of beautification, yards, houses and school grounds have been improved through the exchange of seeds and plants, the planting of flower gardens, hedges, and trees. Some of the clubs have had yard contests.

Mrs. Reuben Gschler of Bovina has just been elected president of the Pampa county federation, succeeding Mrs. T. J. Crawford of Friona.

Pampa county clubs, four of which belong to the county federation, have two district officers. Mrs. Mannie Goodwine of Friona is chairman of the committee on law observance, and Mrs. Walter Lander is chairman of the committee on Texas composers and American music.

The Woman's Book club and the Junior Woman's club of Canyon were guests at a seated tea at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hill on Feb. 3. These are the two federated clubs of Canyon; an outline of the history and purposes of the Texas federation was given them to emphasize the administration's objective that every club woman be acquainted with the general club movement.

Home financing as an important aspect of the successful home has long been recognized by club women. The department of the American Home in the seventh district is headed by Mrs. F. G. Sadler of Littlefield. Mrs. J. V. Connor is chairman of the division of home economics teaching; Mrs. C. E. Duke of Tulsa is chairman of banking, insurance and budgeting; Mrs. H. Y. Burden and Mrs. Bob Higgins of Hereford heads a division of home equipment. Each of the division: of the American home department tries to help the individuals who make up the clubs and to show clubs how to work with other existing agencies for the improvement of community life. County home demonstration agents, teachers of home economics in the public schools, and banks that are trying to do constructive work in helping people to solve their economic problems find the American Home committee an avenue through which their educational campaigns can be carried forward.

Mrs. Johnson will entertain the club at its next meeting.

MRS. T. V. REEVES.

Calendar of This Year Includes Many Activities for Girl Scouts

Objectives of Pampa Girl Scouts, organized last year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Fitzsimmons, include a much larger program for 1932.

It is intended that each Girl Scout shall pass the requirements for second class rank. A definite community service will be attempted. Official uniforms will be worn and troops kept full.

There will be a court of awards, at which the new rank will be bestowed. The girls will subscribe to their official magazine, "American Girl." Three parties for other than troop members will be for parents, the troop committee and the sponsoring Kiwanis club, and for other troops and boy friends.

There will be six hikes, one of which will be overnight. It is expected that at least 60 per cent of the girls will camp for a week. The calendar for the year follows:

February—Party for troop with charge games for benefit of equipment fund. Handicraft; objects to be made and collected for the Girl Scout headquarters.

March—Signaling. One hike to practice signaling. Continue handicraft work begun in January.

April—Make star charts. One night meeting to study stars. Flashlight signaling. One outdoor meeting. Tree planting, rummage sale for camp fund, instruction and preparation for overnight hike.

May—Mother's day—make something for mother. Decoration day—join in community ceremonies. Continue plan for overnight hike.

June—Instruction, preparation, and taking of overnight hike. Plans for camping trip. Court of awards. July—Week's camp. August—Big Play or swimming party. September will close the first year's work of Pampa's Girl Scout organization.

ADDRESS IS TO BE FEATURE OF FOUNDERS' DAY BANQUET FOR UNIVERSITY GROUP HERE

Club Mayfair Is Entertained at Colonial Party

Red, white, and blue were employed by Mrs. Clyde Fatheree in stressing a colonial theme at a party for Club Mayfair Thursday afternoon.

Bridge appointments were in a colonial design, and at the close of the games packages wrapped in the featured colors were presented to Mrs. Julian Barrett for high score among club members, Mrs. John Sturgeon for high score among the guests, and Mrs. Ed Damon for low.

Candles, decorated to further the chosen motif, lighted the tables for the serving of a salad and dessert course with tea.

Joining in the games were Miss Virginia Faulkner, Miss Margaret Buckler, and Mesdames Virginia Duerr, Lynn Boyd, Eibert Hubbard, Arthur Swanson, Julian Barrett, Ed Damon, T. R. Martin, and three special guests, Mrs. John Sturgeon, Mrs. Buck Miller, and Miss J. M. Lybrand Jr., Mrs. Arthur Teed, Miss Dorothy Follard, Mrs. Don Conley, Mrs. Corinne Cooper, and Mrs. W. J. Smith were tea guests.

Parent-Teacher Group Observes Founders' Day

About forty mothers were present at a meeting of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at the school. A short business session was held, and a founders' day program, led by Mrs. A. L. Patrick, followed. The program was in celebration of the 35th anniversary of the National congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Patrick made a short talk on the beginning of the Parent-Teacher movement, and Miss Florence Jones gave the purpose of child welfare day. Mrs. L. C. Peddicord discussed the founders, Mrs. Alice McLellan Bixley and Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst. This was followed by a birthday ceremony in which a gold candle was lighted by Mrs. Patrick in remembrance of the founders. A candle representing the child was lighted by little Esther June Mullinax, and a candle in honor of Mrs. G. C. Malone, first president of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association, was lighted by Mrs. Don Hurst. The fourth candle representing the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association, was lighted by the president, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, who also closed the meeting with prayer.

A birthday cake was cut and served, and a birthday offering amounting to $3.58 was taken. Mrs. L. K. Stout's room was given the prize for having the largest number of mothers present.

Play-a-While Club Is Entertained In F. C. Fischer Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. Murphy and Dr. C. V. McCallister were special guests at a meeting of the Play-a-While Bridge club Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Fischer. Members attending were Mrs. L. G. Rittenhouse and son, Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Beck, Mrs. J. E. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery, Mrs. W. Wilkes, Happy Baxter, and Doyle Ward.

Awards in the games went to Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Wilhelm for high and low scores, respectively, among the women and to Mr. Rittenhouse and Mr. Wilhelm for high and low, respectively, among the men. Guest prizes were given Mr. and Mrs. Murphy. Refreshments were served after the games.

PUPILS WILL PLAY
On Tuesday evening at the open meeting of the El Progreso club, four of the advanced piano pupils of Mrs. May F. Carr—Miss Eloise Lane, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Daphna Lunsford, Miss Esther Stark—will be heard. Mrs. Carr will play the Schubert-Tausig arrangement of March Militaire.

Miss Mary Shaggs is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Skaggs, Panhandle.

Booker Bahom of Kingsmill transacted business in the city Friday.

Tom McLaughlin of LeFors visited in Pampa Friday afternoon.

DR. McCASH HAS MADE MANY TALKS ON SUBJECT

An authoritative lecture on conditions on Russia, made by President I. N. McCash of Phillips university, Enid, will be heard in Pampa Friday evening by members of the American Association of University Women and the College club and their husbands, as well as a number of other persons who are making a study of facts pertaining to that country.

The address will feature the annual founder's day banquet for the A. A. U. W. and College club, which will be held at 8 o'clock at the Schneider hotel.

Dr. McCash went to Russia last summer to study particularly the five-year plan, which was inaugurated in 1928 and will be completed in 1933. He went in the interest of education and religion, making a research of the attitude of the Soviet government to both of these things. He has been called upon by a large number of college teachers associations, churches, and clubs.

Music, dances, and all other details of the banquet will feature a Russian theme.

Mrs. Earl O'Keefe will be toast mistress, and hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Kasishke, Miss Kathryn Vincent, Mrs. A. H. Dougette, Miss Pauline May, Miss Iva June Willis, Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle, Mrs. A. B. Goldston and Mrs. Alex Lubetkin.

Art Club Meets In Clayton Home

Mrs. I. B. Hughey was in charge of a lesson on Rubens at a meeting of the Arno Art club Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Tom Clayton. Mrs. Roy Tinsley was co-hostess.

Discussions included the following: Mrs. C. L. Orvis, "Rubens and Isabella Brandt"; Mrs. Jack Mason, "The Descent from the Cross"; Mrs. Arthur Swanson, "The Lion Hunt"; Mrs. T. W. Sweetman, "The Christ Child, St. John, and the Angels"; Mrs. T. H. Solomon, "Le Chapeau de Paille"; Mrs. Roy Tinsley, "Henry IV Receiving the Portrait of Marie de Medicis."

A lovely salad course was served to Mesdames John Andrews, Baum, O. H. Booth, C. L. Craig, E. Fatheree, R. B. Fisher, I. B. Hughey, J. W. Jamison, Jack Johnson, T. W. Sweetman, Roy Tinsley, Tom Clayton, and one visitor, Miss Helen Leech.

Strict-Nine Club Is Complimented By Mrs. Barrier

Mrs. C. M. Barrier was hostess at the Kelly apartments Wednesday afternoon for members of the Strict-Nine club. She stressed the Valentine motif in appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. James Smoot, who won the award for high bridge score, and Mrs. Jess Stalls, who was favored by consolation, gave their prizes to Mrs. E. Stansbury, who was preparing to leave with Mr. Stansbury and their daughter, Dorothy, for a two-month visit in Michigan.

Those attending were Mesdames James Smoot, James Shackelford, Jess Stalls, Ralph Lennon, A. E. Stansbury, Roy Abbot, and W. R. Chaffin.

Helping Hands Club Has Meet

LAKETON, Feb. 6.—The Helping Hands club met with Mrs. Clyde Gray Thursday with a good attendance. Miss Ruby Adams, demonstrator, had charge of the program, the subject being winter gardens. Visitors were Mrs. Edgar Gray, Mrs. R. B. Dial, Mrs. Chess Terry, and Miss Fern Hughey of Pampa. Members present were Mrs. Leo Paris, Mrs. Frank Welch, Mrs. G. C. Springer, Mrs. Ataway, Mrs. John White, and the hostess. Jello with fruit was served with cake and cocoa at the close of the meeting.

WASHINGTON—Apparently President Hoover and his chief political lieutenants think a bit differently about this question of the patriotic impulses of those gentlemen working to bring relief to the country.

Consider, for example, the night that the president received the bill authorizing the creation of the two-billion dollar reconstruction finance corporation.

It was a big moment for him when he affixed his signature making it a law. The short statement he issued to the press, announcing the fact that he had signed the bill, contained a rather remarkable sentence:

"I wish to pay tribute," said the president, "to the patriotism of the men in both houses of congress who have given proof of their devotion to the welfare of the country, irrespective of political affiliation."

Two hours or so later a tall, handsome and smiling young man arose in Chicago to make a speech. It was Patrick Hurley, secretary of war and one of the president's close political advisers.

It was a different story Secretary Pat had to tell about motives and patriotism than that made earlier by the chief.

He pictured President Hoover as a maligned executive, a victim of propaganda intended to defame his character and ability.

"A lot of this," continued the secretary of war, "has been conducted anonymously by men who would sacrifice the welfare of the nation to gain a political advantage. But when the critics have been driven by the people to adopt the president's program."

Is it Hurley's idea that this is patriotism under duress? Hurley Enthusiastic

This marks the second time the secretary has engaged in making pointed jibes at those who have criticized the president. At the meeting of the republican national committee in Washington last December he started things popping with pretty much the same kind of speech.

One thing seems to be fairly clear about Hurley at the present. He intends to contribute as his part in the rejection of President Hoover a zest and enthusiasm comparable to any.

NEW YORK—Countess Olga Albini, the songbird, is one of the few women who ever turned down a fat offer from Florenz Ziegfeld to appear in one of his shows.

Plumpness, on the countess' part, had something to do with her refusal. Ziegfeld wanted her to take off some poundage. The countess, like so many Spanish ladies, likes to eat. Then, too, she had plenty of radio work, and was assured of a steady job on the air.

While a trifle plump, the soprano has yet to lose her graceful proportions. There are persons who consider her the outstanding beauty in the radio field.

Though she loves sweets, she says she does not eat them on days when she is to sing. And she exercises, too; walks for an hour daily, swims all year—in indoor pools when the weather's cold, and fences.

Albini was a road show prima donna for awhile, and does over big in personal appearances now.

She has acquired an ability for showing off good looking clothes, which she designs herself. It is recalled by some, however, that she was not always so much concerned with her personal appearance, and that her attractiveness was developed with her reputation.

She is proficient at preparing Spanish dishes, and is fond of the tasty food she cooks. She won't wear diamonds, and prefers emeralds. Despite her Spanish blood, she dislikes bright colors. There's not a red frock in her wardrobe. She speaks four languages and has never bobbed her hair. Her manner is gracious.

The count, who bestowed her title upon Olga by marriage, is her faithful shadow and adviser.

Babe Ruth probably is able to stand a salary slice without having to give up his 12-room apartment, but maybe Mrs. Ruth would have to worry along with just two servants instead of three.

Lou Holtz, the vaudevillian, is another whose salary grievances, however just they may be, fail to stir many sympathetic tears these days.

If Holtz drew even what the Palace wants to pay him for as many weeks per year as the Babe plays ball, his income would shake the diamond's star. Yet Lou is always bothered about a few hundred dollars, more or less.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS THINK

MAINTAINING TEACHING STANDARDS

Should the salaries of school teachers be slashed in accordance with wage cuts in other lines of endeavor? That is a problem which is being considered by school boards all over the country. Our answer is "No."

"Now is the proper time to weed out incompetent and untrained teachers," is the opinion of Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas Teachers college, and president of the Texas State Teachers' association.

However, Dr. Hill warns that "the present crisis might react adversely, resulting in the elimination of the best trained and most desirable teachers in the profession. Salaries are being cut in many places, and still others are recommending salary cuts. Such a movement is going to be disastrous. It means that those best fitted to teach and those outstanding in the profession will desert our ranks and turn to more lucrative positions."

The educator points out that "the teachers' association and the state's teachers' colleges have spent years in building up the profession to its present standards, which still are too low. But if this false economy movement continues it will undo everything we have accomplished in years of work. The average annual salary for Texas teachers is $1,051.54. This is much too low. But the fact that 15 per cent of the teachers do not have college training, and a large per cent of them are not even high school graduates has held the salary basis to an unreasonably low standard. There is a surplus of teachers now, and the best can be had at prevailing salaries, provided no further reductions are made."

This editor has always stood for higher salaries for teachers and public officials. It is our opinion that these servants, in positions of high trust and the opportunity to mould character, are entitled to liveable salaries. We should favor an increase in teachers' salaries rather than a reduction, at any time.—HERALD, Borger.

EAT MORE MEAT

The value of all crops produced on Texas farms last year was $630,000,000, according to the Dallas NEWS' survey. The value of livestock produced was $454,000,000. The figures prove that Texas is still a major livestock producer and that the wealth, well-being and happiness of Texas people still depends in large degree on the livestock industry—a fact most Texans fail to appreciate.

The Omaha Daily JOURNAL-STOCKMAN recently put in a word or two in behalf of meat as a good, substantial and wholesome human food. Obviously, the people of Texas for selfish reasons should give more attention to meat in the daily diet. In this time of bargain-hunting and economizing, meat should commend itself to the frugal housewife as one of the cheapest foods that the markets afford. Fine quality meats of all kinds may be bought today at a fraction of what they cost two or three years ago. This is true of fresh meat as well as cured products. The meat dollar probably goes farther today than any other dollar in the family budget. And in spite of the low prices prevailing, the quality in general is higher than formerly.

Meat is coming back into the dietary with a rush. The food faddists, the dietists and the federal government in wartime did their darn'dest to destroy the human appetite for meat, but failed. Wholesome meat, as a matter of fact, not only is a perfectly safe food, but it is a food that should be included in the diet of every person.

More emphasis should be placed on meat in the family budget—and this should appeal particularly to Texans, whose interests are the interests of the livestock producers.—NEWS, Abilene.

OUR BEST SPENT TAX MONEY

The money paid by Wheeler county toward the services of the county farm agent and home demonstration agent returns more dividends than any other funds expended by county commissioners court.

Many business men attending the Shamrock chamber of commerce annual banquet Tuesday night were amazed at the wide scope of activities reported by Jake Tarter, farm agent, in a five-minute talk. Tarter spends from 12 to 16 hours a day visiting farmers and helping them. He seldom has time to attend public meetings, and never has an opportunity to visit townspeople and report just what he is doing.

Three bull circles have been formed and financed by members, who own 167 cows. One hundred and thirty-nine poultry demonstrators in Wheeler county are practically earning their livelihood from their flocks. Twenty-nine beef clubs of four members each have been formed to keep on their tables fresh beef during most of the year. Four hundred and seventy-nine hogs have been cured the modern way this year for home consumption.

Two hundred purebred hogs have been imported into the county this year. Terracing and soil conservation methods on 129 farms the past year have saved the county an estimated $8,000. There were 171 boys in 4-H clubs last year and now there are 312. Fifty per cent of the boys' dads attend the 4-H meetings. The boys are teaching dad who once did not believe in modern methods of agriculture, how to make money on the farm.

The cow, the sow, and the hen, the past year have put up-and-coming Wheeler county farmers where they are not worrying about this depression business. They don't have much money, but pantry shelves are filled and when prices on farm commodities get right, they are going to make big money. They have learned how to live at home.

Give Jake Tarter and Viola Jones credit for having done more for Wheeler county than any other public employees. If every dollar spent of tax-payers' money was as well accounted for as that little portion the county puts up with the federal and state government for farm and home demonstration work, the word "depression" would be obsolete in five years.—TEXAN, Shamrock.

Admiral Byrd plans to build an Antarctic city 500 miles nearer the pole than Little America. Just the place for the American people to warm up to the debt cancellation idea.

With Uncle Andy Mellon saluted away in the London job and Daves safely pickled, politically speaking, by his reconstruction corporation, President Hoover is step by step exercising more political sagacity than he was credited for having. His renomination is so sure that the subject no longer merits discussion. His party cannot drop him without admitting his weakness, which in this instance is his chief political strength.

That "Unless" Hoover is a beaten man, unless—That unless is packed with dynamite, for it cannot be assumed that Hoover can be beaten by a divided democratic party. There are many persons who are so afraid of changes that they will vote for Hoover rather than take a chance. They expect eventual improvement if he is re-elected, and they fear the effect of any radical change, such as complete revision of the tariff system.

Why Not? But the people who hold the balance of power, in our humble estimation, wish deep-rooted changes in governmental policy and in its relation to private business, and they look to the democratic party for that sort of achievement. And why should they not? The republicans have had ample time to prove that they have no control over capitalistic big business. A united democratic party has the biggest opportunity of the century.

For Roosevelt This section undoubtedly favors Franklin D. Roosevelt of all the democratic possibilities, assuming that Jack Garner is not a candidate. But it is surprising to read that Roosevelt is not popular at all with the politicians of the east. He has shown an unwillingness to put party above everything, and that is a political sin in any party. All Smith is so aware of this feeling that he is reported to be considering a last-minute offer to run. This would be even more disastrous than before to party chances but it probably isn't improbable.

Unpopular Limited and skillful talk of rift between Roosevelt and Smith would be strengthening to the former, providing the candidate plays night with your chum again—see? And then you put what you'll need in a suitcase and sneak out of the house, and I'll meet you—well, say down about Fenwick and Spruce—see? I'll talk around the garage and say I'm going to make Blue-noon tonight. Fact is, we'll go in exactly the opposite direction—see? Throw 'em off if they did start anything. But they won't. Not them. Now leave me see—" He took a road map from his pocket.

"I COULD write a note," mused Mary-Frances.

"No, no. Nothing like that, Frankie. Absolutely not. That's out—see? Way I'll work it is so they won't even know you're gone till 'way long tomorrow—Wednesday, sometime, and we'll left Mendel Springs early in the morning and have a long head start. I got to stop at Mendel Springs—kind of get myself in shape again. But after we leave there—we'll go. That bus of But's, leave me tell you, is some goer. He had to have one that would go—see?—cause—well, that was the kind of one he wanted. Well, we'll make the Springs tonight—"

"Earl," faltered Mary-Frances, "I wouldn't want to start tonight. Not Tuesday night."

"Earl lighted his third cigaret. "All right," he said. "I'm through—see? Wait till I get that damn Check to give me the check. I'm through—see?" He made an ugly gesture with the flat palm of his hand and twisted his features queasily. "I should have known better. Aw, well—what's the diff? You're just like all dames. Yellow!"

be married on Wednesday. I was going to say that—well, that I'd just as lief go tomorrow, Wednesday."

Earl softened. Earl melted. Earl said, "Sweetie! Honest, I'll have to ask you to excuse me—the way I talked just now. I should of known better. Oh, you little sweeties you! You mean you'll go, straight goods and no fooling, tomorrow?"

MARY-FRANCES, her chin in her palm, sighed a long sigh and nodded. "As you say, there isn't so much for me to stay here for."

"Little sweet baby! That's what you are. Little sweet baby! But, say, listen, hon—er—there's just one little thing maybe we'd better kind of get straight—see? I wouldn't want you to go into this with your eyes shut nor anything. About Wednesday—being married and all. I thought I kinda explained to you, baby, how I wasn't fixed to get married right off—not for a few months."

"I know," said Mary-Frances. "But, after all, beloved, we're eloping. Eloping and marrying really amount to just the same thing, I think. I'd much rather elope on Wednesday."

Earl puffed his cigaret, inhaled deeply, tipped back his head, looked up his lower lip, blew the smoke upwards, and watched it float and waver and vanish into nothing.

She reached under her bed and found the green satin mules. She had put them away—not for her trousseau, of course; merely to keep—but she had taken them out again and was wearing them, resolutely, to rags.

In the bathroom she washed her face without looking at it, and brushed her teeth viciously as if she hated them. Taking one thing with another, of what earthly use were such objects as a face and teeth to her any longer?

Back in her room she looked out of the window. On her way through the upper hall again she struggled into the second sleeve of her bathrobe—the dingy blue one—and got the cord tied around her waist; but the mules clog-clopped on the uncarpeted stairs, and came loose, and to keep them on at all she had to curl her bare toes firmly down into the padded satin.

Grand, who at first clog-clop had paused at the front door with his hand on the knob, waited until Cecily stood beside him and tried to take the door-knob away from him before he said, "Cecily, my child, where are you going?"

"I'm going out," said Cecily. "Barry's here. He saw me. Oh, please get out of my way!"

Cecily looked cursorily. It was a horrid old ugly thing, and it should have been washed, again, ages ago. "Grand, please get out of my way."

"No granddaughter of mine," said Grand, "shall—"

"Grand! I won't have this. Barry saw me. He'll not understand why I don't come. He may leave—"

"—goes to meet a young gentleman garbed in a costume in which no lady would leave her bedroom."

"I'm fully clothed. Get away from that door. He saw me. I tell you. He'll drive off. He'll think I'm not coming."

"Nor does she go, in any dress, to meet a man who has no better taste, no more regard for her reputation and the reputation of her family, than to arrive before the breakfast hour and sit in a car in front of her home. Cecily, return to your room. I shall question this young man. I shall deal with him as he—"

Cecily did not really push him. She took hold of his shoulders and sort of revolved him away from the door, and shoved a little—only a trifle—so that she could have room to open the door and go through it. The mules were clog-clopping down the porch steps. Ann was leaning over the upstairs railing before Grand thought of falling—sinking would be a more pertinent word—with one groan and two pitiful moans to the floor. (To Be Continued)

Illinois Man Is Opening Studio of First Rank Here

L. O. Wirsching of Danville, Ill., has moved to Pampa and tomorrow will open a studio in the Smith building at 119 West Foster avenue.

He was for 20 years in the photographic business in Illinois and is bringing this experience to Pampa. He is placing a first class studio here and will do all kinds of portrait, kodak finishing, and commercial work. He was widely known in Illinois because of the excellence of his portraiture.

In coming to Pampa, Mr. Wirsching said he was attracted by the fact that Pampa was so long in the "white spot" of business maps. He was much impressed in a preliminary

Huge Movie Set Made For "Union Depot," Rex Film

"Union Depot," the first National picture which comes to the Rex theater today, is what is known as a "one-set" picture. Practically the whole story is told in one great interior, the inside of a Union Depot in a Middle-Western city.

But if any one labors under the impression that because it is a one-set picture it must of necessity be an inexpensive picture to stage, he reckons without understanding just what the replica of a great railroad terminal involves.

The "Union Depot" set, in every way a duplicate of a large city station, involved the building of practically every other kind of a modern set. It would be perfectly possible to spend a life time inside New York's Grand Central Terminal and never want for anything. It would be equally possible to live a life time inside the "Union Depot" set on the First National lot if it were not dismantled as soon as the picture finished.

All of these services and many more are provided in the great set for the new picture featuring Douglas Fairbanks Jr., and Joan Blondell, and each of them made necessary the building of a set within a set.

Monument Fund Is Enlarged By Reid

New memberships in the Fort Elliott marker and monument project have raised the total to $2, it was announced by F. P. Reid yesterday.

Mr. Reid, as president of the Highway 41 association, is attempting to raise enough money to erect a suitable marker at the site of the historic old fort. The new members are:

TWINKLES

Dear Readers: For your information, the cable press rate to the United States from Shanghai is 18 cents a word; full regular rate 72 cents a word and the urgent rate, which is chiefly used for bulletins, is $2.34 a word. Yessir, your "war" news is expensive.

Amarillo Rotarians referred to themselves as Amarillo-yans. We thought they were Amarilloans. Which, we ask you, is correct?

And, in view of the bad meaning attached to the word Panhandlers, we suppose we will just be plain-men and let it go at that.

New Officers Are Installed Here

New officers of the Royal Neighbors were installed by District Deputy Mattie Carnes of Borger at a meeting here last week.

The new officers are: Oracle, Mrs. T. L. Anderson; past oracle, Mrs. Bert Moore; vice-oracle, Mrs. J. E. Weeks; recorder, Mrs. J. F. McClard; receiver, Mrs. Fred C. Fischer; secretary, Mrs. Barber; marshal, Mrs. Lee Tucker; assistant marshal, Mrs. W. A. Webb; inter-sentinel, Mrs. C. F. Naylor; outer-sentinel, Mrs. A. L. Jones; graces, Mrs. W. Wilkes, courage; Mrs. Clyde Peed, modesty; Mrs. J. E. McCall, unselfishness; Mrs. Ed Mages, endurance; managers, Mrs. Face, Mrs. Coolbaugh, and Mrs. Jack Kellams; flag bearer, Mrs. E. F. Henderson.

A musical program included vocal and guitar selection by LeRoy Henderson, piano selections by Kathryn Vincent, musical numbers of Vern Springer's orchestra, number by Russell Ruff, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. T. F. Morton, piano solo by Mrs. Morton, and a reading by little Helen Masey.

Refreshments were served to about 50 members and guests.

MEETING POSTPONED

The regular meeting of the Pampa Little Theater has been postponed from tomorrow evening to Tuesday evening of next week. An interesting program, including a 1-act play, will be given at that time. The meeting will be held at the Mitchell building.

CATHOLIC HOSPITAL IS SEARCHED FOR SNIPERS

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7 (AP)—Japanese troops, rushed to aid blue-jackets fighting in Shanghai, landed today at Wossung and immediately attacked that city of Chinese forts.

Two boatloads of men came ashore first, fighting as soon as they stepped on Chinese soil. It was not known whether these were soldiers or blue-jackets, but there were several hundred men supported by seven Japanese armored cars.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7 (Sunday) (AP) Japanese blue-jackets searched the Catholic general hospital on the banks of Soochow creek in the heart of the international settlement at daybreak today, charging snipers had been active there.

French Franciscan sisters, who operate the hospital, protested strongly that the charges were absurd, but the blue-jackets ignored their protests and entered the building, searching at least part of it.

By The Associated Press
The heaviest bombardment of the nine-day old Shanghai battle was laid down this morning on the Chinese strongholds in the Chapei district, into which fresh troops had been moved during the night.

Big guns, apparently six inch pieces, roared in the vicinity of the Japanese headquarters on the edge of the international settlement.

The 19th Chinese route army put new units in line to relieve the worn-out men who have stood up under days of shell firing. An Associated Press correspondent, making a tour of inspection behind the Chinese lines, saw an extremely youthful army. Many of the soldiers appeared to be no more than 14 years old. They were armed in haphazard fashion, some carrying old long-barreled pistols and some obsolete rifles.

Dig Trenches
The whole Chinese rear has been protected with an intricate system of trenches.

Chinese civilians, carrying their household goods on their backs, plodded out of the area of danger in the direction of Shanghai.

There has been much aviation activity by the Japanese over Shanghai during the last 24 hours, but the expected attempt by China to dispute the air supremacy failed to materialize. Only two Chinese planes appeared over the city and they soon sped to the west.

Two American missions were reported attacked. Japanese blue-jackets were said in Shanghai dispatches to have jansacked the American Presbyterian mission and press, although church officials in New York said they had no reason to believe their Shanghai property had been touched.

Mission Damaged
The mission of the American Methodist church, in Hongkew, which was ransacked by the Japanese last week, was shelled by light artillery—whether by Japanese or by Chinese was not determined.

Eighty-six more Americans were evacuated from Nanking, where a Japanese attack was momentarily expected. Of the 180 American residents of that city, 109 have been taken to places of safety. These in-

HOARDING TO BE COMBATED

Twenty Million Persons to Wage War on Lack of Public Confidence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—A pledge that 20,000,000 citizens stand ready for a united anti-hoarding war was given to President Hoover today at a rally to which he summoned civic leaders from all parts of the nation.

The pledges came—some oral, some by raised hands—from representatives of more than 40 national associations. They had heard the chief executive and two of his principal financial advisors talk of the serious results of individual currency withdrawals.

Charles G. Dawes, president of the reconstruction corporation, urged an "appeal to the heart" and a return to the drive-methods of world war days to stop what he called a mass movement toward currency deflation. Ogden L. Mills, soon to become secretary of the treasury, seconded his appeal to "put hoarded dollars to work."

Those who attended departed without attempting to create the national anti-hoarding organization spoken of by the president. Work upon such a machine with branches in every community will be initiated next week under the leadership of Colonel Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howard of Memphis attended the basketball tournament here.

Mrs. Louis Behrends will leave today for a visit with relatives in Lamar, Colo.

BOY SCOUT ANNIVERSARY WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED IN ADOBE WALLS AREA—MANY BANQUETS

Anniversary week of the Boy Scouts of America will be properly observed by the Pampa district troops as well as by scouts and scouters in various towns in the Adobe Walls council area.

The week will open in Pampa with the Scout program at the Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30. Rev. James Todd Jr., will read the scripture and lead in prayer. The Rev. A. A. Hyde will deliver the message, "The Immortals of the Good Turn," and the Scouts will open and close the service with the salute to the flag, the Scout oath and the Scout benediction.

Monday at 7:30 p. m. at the Methodist church the Board of Review will be open to all scouts preparing to come before the Court.

Troubled Island Is Stirred By Stories of Girl and Native Woman.

HONOLULU, Feb. 6 (AP)—Two cases of alleged attacks upon women in the last 24 hours were reported today and again drew attention to the recent lynching and assault cases in the Hawaiian Islands.

Closely following the arrest last night of Herman Apio, 29, after a 17-year-old Chinese girl reported he attempted to attack her, Robert Ah Sam was charged with assault and battery and lewd conduct on complaint of a 21-year-old Hawaiian woman.

The Chinese girl said she was walking through a lane when Apio seized her and attempted to attack her. Her cries attracted Edward Una, who with William McDermott chased and caught Apio and called the police. Michael Morse of the detective bureau said Apio admitted the attempted attack.

Spanish Style Is Chosen for Local Postal Building

The new postoffice will reflect the Spanish type of architecture, according to R. P. DeWitt, architect who inspected the site Friday.

The structure will face Foster avenue instead of Ballard street as originally planned. The particular type of architecture which will be utilized in the building is a mixture of Alhambra and southwestern Spanish. Details have been worked out but a red tile roof, Alhambra columns, and a distinctly Spanish facade have been planned.

The building will comprise one story and a basement, but the ceiling will be unusually high. The structure will be about 105 feet wide and 120 feet long. It will cost $155,000. Mr. DeWitt left here Friday for Washington. He will make preliminary drawings next week and will immediately submit them to the fourth assistant postmaster-general, who has charge of postoffice construction. It is expected that the contract will be let around April 1, and that construction will begin before June 1.

Bivens Is Chosen Cattleman's Chief

AMARILLO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Julian Bivens, who has been a cattleman in the Panhandle all of his life, today was elected head of the Panhandle Cattle Raisers' association.

C. E. Weymouth was elected vice president, and Grover Hill was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The cattlemen voted to hold their annual convention in conjunction with the Amarillo fat stock show Feb. 29 to March 3. Plans for the convention were discussed and committees appointed.

Twenty-two other prisoners, who had access to the blasted exit, remained inside the jail when they saw the two shot by Sheriff Roy E. Praeland and Deputy Sheriff Dewey May.

BEAT WHITE DEER IN FINAL GAME, 35 TO 20

BOYS ARE TWICE TIED

ILLNESS OF PLAYERS IS CAUSE OF AGREED DEADLOCK

The Pampa Harvesters and the Memphis Cyclones were joint winners of the Pampa invitation basketball tournament, boys' division, when they battled to a tie after two periods of overtime play last night.

Because of illness of players on both teams, coaches and officials agreed to declare the game a tie and award each team a trophy. The Pampa girls won the girls' division with a 35 to 20 victory over the White Deer sextet.

Thirty-two teams entered the tournament, necessitating its starting Thursday afternoon. Several of the teams later had to cancel their entry because of illness. All brackets were evened up and the tournament was declared one of the best in the history of the school.

Large crowds backed the gymnasium for all contests. Visiting coaches and players were billeted in Pampa homes Thursday and Friday night through the work of the Junior chamber of commerce.

JOHN GARNER FOR PRESIDENT

The NEWS Endorses Texan as Real Statesman and Man Who Can Win.

(EDITORIAL)
With a deadlock between Roosevelt and Smith looming as a result of the "Stop Roosevelt" campaign to be launched in connection with Smith's statement on his availability, the imperative probable need of a worthy compromise candidate is obvious.

Fortunately, that statesman is available in the person of John N. Garner of Texas, speaker of the national house of representatives. He is rightly being mentioned all over the country as a man who could be elected and who would serve with distinction. That he does not seek the office is to his credit.

In view of the controversy raging around other candidates, with resultant harm to party chances and to election of a man in whose ability and under whose leadership the country could go forward to economic recovery, the Pampa Daily NEWS wholeheartedly endorses JOHN N. GARNER, a native and favorite son but a man whose long national service makes him a candidate for the presidency.

Many have observed that the administration of county, state and federal government is frequently not what it should be, due to the officials in office. The masses of the people do not find it out until it is too late. I hereby pledge myself to do my best to see that Gray county gets value received for the money it spends, to render service worthy of appreciation by its citizens and to adhere strictly to the principles of a truly democratic form of government. I shall feel honored to be elected as a representative of the people who have helped to make Gray the splendid county that she is.

Sincerely,
HARRY A. NELSON

JUDD STORY IS COMPLETE

Attack on Doctor Is Last Defense Move—Insanity Is Major Claim.

COURTHOUSE, PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 6 (AP)—Evidence which will hang, imprison or free Winnie Ruth Judd was complete tonight—the end of the 13th day of wrangling for her life.

The state, closing on the declaration of its star rebuttal witness, Dr. Joseph Calkins—"she is sane"—prepared to demand the death penalty for the slaying of Agnes Anne Lerol.

Closing a sarcastically executed maneuver to discredit the San Francisco psychiatrist's testimony, the defense passed by its right to call witnesses in sur-rebuttal. It stands on the contention Mrs. Judd was "insane—unable to distinguish right from wrong" and if she slew two women friends last Oct. 16.

Mrs. Judd, the question of whose guilt in the slaying of Mrs. Lerol will pass definitely into the hands of the all-male jury late Monday, still has another charge hanging over her head—the murder of Hedwig Samuelson.

LIFTS JOHN GARNER
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The long-expected "Stop-Roosevelt" campaign is taking dynamic form among the Democrats at last, plotting Alfred E. Smith into the victory of a new party battle and lifting John N. Garner to unexpected prominence among the presidential possibilities.

Action all along the line will be the watchword now of those who do not want New York's two-time governor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, to foreclose the nomination in advance.

Regardless of what he may say in the statement to be published Monday, Smith's partisans are hoping to tie the tightly to his leadership.

Ranch Girl Is Held as Kidnap

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 6 (AP)—Billie Adkins, 20, rancher's daughter, was held in the county jail tonight in default of $10,000 bail as material witness in the kidnaping Thursday of Gordon H. Sawyer, bank executive.

Police, sheriff's officers and a posse of more than 2,000 citizens continued their search for the girl's father, known only as "Colonel" Adkins, and her two brothers.

BOOSTING PATMAN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 6 (AP)—The fourth district Veterans Democratic club of Minnesota meeting here today, adopted a resolution urging nomination of Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, as a candidate for vice president at the national democratic convention next June. The resolution commended Patman as "a true leader of veterans."

DEADLOCK MAY GIVE TEXAN AN EXTRA CHANCE

"STOP ROOSEVELT" IS CRY OF EASTERN DEMOCRATS

FAVORITE SONS PUSHED

AL'S CHANCES BELOW PAR BUT HE IS HOPEFUL

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith today gave out a 144-word statement settling the question of whether he will be a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination.

"Here you are boys," he said, "but remember, it's not to be published until Monday morning."

There was a hush while 46 newspapermen, representing press associations and papers in all parts of the country, read the statement.

The 1928 standard bearer lit a cigar, leaned back in the big chair he used when a New York assemblyman, and looked at the ceiling.

"Can we ask you a question or two?" someone said.

"Well, I expected that all right," Smith said with a chuckle.

A barrage of questions were shot at him in rapid order.

"Will you make an attempt to secure a wet plank in the platform?"

"It's too far away to talk about that," was the reply.

"Do you think the prospects of a democratic victory are better now than they were four years ago?" he was asked.

"Answer it yourself," he said with a laugh, but when pressed for a direct reply he said:

"They're decidedly brighter."

Before the statement was given out, New York newspapers unanimously had predicted Smith would not bind himself to let his name go before the convention as a presidential aspirant, but would leave the way clear for his friends to work for him in various states which name convention delegates at approaching primaries.

Red was the dominating color at the basketball tournament. The score keepers had difficulty keeping records... because of red dresses, coats and hats across the floor... and the snappy uniforms...

Pampa took the cake... HARVEY KELLEY sure knows his colors... The faculty played an exhibition game... LEM SOME played carry-over basketball... He carried the ball down the floor... and then turned it over to the other side... R. A. SELBY looked like anything but a basketball player... but he was high point man... COACH OGDEN MITCHELL was so tight yesterday morning... that he had to have his young son, SHIELDS... pull him out of bed... Never again, says the coach.

A. P. I. Chapter to Bring Officials to City Tuesday

A Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute, production division, will be organized at Pampa Tuesday night.

J. E. Warren, temporary chairman, said invitations had been sent to everyone in the field interested in drilling, producing, pipeline transportation and natural gasoline manufacture. He said there were four active chapters in the mid-continent area.

H. M. Blakeslee, associated with the Dallas office, will address the meeting, to be held in the city auditorium. Officers will be elected.

GUERNSEY, Ia., Feb. 6 (AP)—Barricaded in his home with a rifle and an axe, Bill Shull, 45, held up a Guernsey rural mail carrier this afternoon, successfully resisted capture for three hours tonight and forced officers to lay siege to his house. A fresh attack will be made with tear bombs in the morning.

RAZORBACKS STOP BAYLOR'S WINNING STREAK, 42 TO 31

Mustangs Beat Texas Aggies and Horned Frogs Win over Texas Longhorns.

WACO, Feb. 6. (AP)—The Arkansas university Razorbacks tonight broke the winning streak of the Baylor university cagers by a score of 42 to 31.

The Razorbacks played with snap and dash from the opening whistle and never was the Baylor squad in front. Only in early stages did the Bears have a tie.

Nevertheless, Raymond Strickland was the star of the contest, making 18 points to annex scoring honors.

DALLAS, Feb. 6. (AP)—The Southern Methodist basketball team won their first 1932 Southwest conference game here tonight by defeating Texas A. and M. Aggies, 30-23. It was the Mustangs' first victory in five conference starts and the Aggies fourth straight defeat.

Both teams played rough and tumble basketball that at times resembled a football scrimmage. Five players went out of the game via the foul route.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 6. (AP)—Led by Adolph Dietzel, lanky center who rang up 18 points, the Texas Christian university Horned Frogs scored their third Southwest conference victory of the year by defeating the University of Texas Longhorns, 36 to 14, in the purple field house tonight. The Frogs turned in a great defensive game and held Coach Ed Ollie's crew to four field goals and six free tosses.

Much Terracing Done in County

County agent Ralph R. Thomas has been so busy terracing land since January 1 that he has not had time to count up the number of acres he has terraced. Almost every farmer on the south side of the county has already terraced or is planning to conserve his soil by terracing.

Last week, Mr. Thomas supervised terracing at Chum's place north of Eldridge. He conducted a meat-cutting demonstration at the farm of Joe Clements one mile west of LeFors.

This week, Mr. Thomas will supervise terracing during three days at the farms of Will Glass, Alanreed, and A. B. Word, east of Eldridge.

Allred to Push His Ouster Suit

AUSTIN, Feb. 6. (AP)—James V. Allred, Texas Attorney General, is not going to let any grass grow under his feet while his suit to break an alleged huge oil trust, he claims is monopolizing the petroleum field, is pending.

Imbued with renewed confidence by a court ruling that he was within his legal rights in insisting on out-of-state residents who are officials of defendant companies to appear here personally and give testimony, today said he would insist that the allegations brought by him be either substantiated or disproved without unnecessary delay. "I shall do my utmost to see that this case does not wear itself out by dragging unnecessarily over too long a period," he said.

The state would banish the defendants from business in Texas, and collect approximately $1,000,000 in fines for anti-trust law violations from each.

PRODUCTION OF COUNTY LESS

Panhandle oil production continues to decline despite the fact that the allowable announced last Sunday was the same as for preceding months. The daily production last week was 59,312 barrels, or 1,331 barrels less than the preceding week. Hutchinson county showed a gain of 100 barrels. Other counties decreased their output.

There was only one completion reported for Gray county during the week. It was the Quicksand Oil company's No. 1 Chapman in the central part of the county. It came in for an initial production of between 700 and 1,000 barrels.

Production by counties:

- Carson—5,201 barrels, a loss of 113 barrels.
- Gray—30,570 barrels, a loss of 1,193 barrels.
- Hutchinson—13,140 barrels, a gain of 100 barrels.
- Moore—1,040 barrels, a loss of 28 barrels.
- Wheeler—361 barrels, a loss of 47 barrels.
- Totals—50,312 barrels, a loss of 1,331 barrels.

Loyola Star Is Flash in Setting Tie for Record

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Feb. 6. (AP)—The south's bundle of sprinting energy, Emmitt Toppino of Loyola university, New Orleans, swept the boards tonight in the feature sprint series of the Millrose A. A. track and field carnival. He romped off with the 50-yard final, beating New York's national champion, Ira Singer, after equalling the world indoor record of 6.2 seconds for the 60-yard dash.

McIntosh Claims Heard by Jury

Defense testimony in Dan McIntosh's suit against August Gordon will be resumed tomorrow morning in 114th district court. Judge E. F. Ritchey recessed court yesterday afternoon after the plaintiff had rested and the defense had placed two witnesses on the stand.

The plaintiff alleged in his testimony that his wife suffered permanent injuries when she slipped and fell on the entrance to Gordon's store. He claimed that the tile was slippery with water that had drained from the display windows when they were washed.

Plaintiff's witnesses were Dr. J. C. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, Dr. McKean testified that the woman was permanently injured in the fall. Defense witnesses were a Dr. Walker of Wichita Falls and Dr. Archie Cole. Testimony showed that Mrs. McIntosh had undergone operations for various ailments before she was injured at the store.

The defense claims that her physical condition after the fall was due to illness she previously suffered, and that the condition of her health caused her to fall on the tile.

Jurors in the case are C. L. Craig, George Parley, Sam Fenberg, J. A. Darnell, Frank Meers, Wm. D. Miller, D. R. Coop, Paul Cooksey, R. C. Barley, J. W. Carter, L. L. Allen, and Ed Bates.

B. C. D. Directors Are to Assemble

Directors of the Pampa Board of City Development will meet at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. A budget for 1932 will be discussed. Committee chairmen recently appointed by President C. H. Walker will be asked to name their committees so that active work can be started.

An activities committee will make a report to the board. One member of the Junior chamber of commerce board will sit with the B. C. D. directors.

Oil Tariff Much More Likely Now

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—Congressional advocates of a tariff on oil today looked upon Secretary Wilbur's favorable pronouncement as almost positive proof their battle was won.

Democrats and republicans alike expressed the conviction the interior department chieftain's statement had virtually assured success in their drive for protective legislation.

The republicans viewed it as "very encouraging headway" toward a tariff; the democrats saw administration support behind Wilbur's remarks for either a tariff or an excise tax.

Russell B. Brown, counsel for the Independent Petroleum association, asserted "the indorsement given the proposed oil tariff by Secretary Wilbur indicates the increasing recognition of the necessity of reviving the prostrated petroleum industry" has been so busy terracing land.

Long Is Disgusted With Washington

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6. (AP)—After four days in the United States senate, Senator Huey P. Long (D.) of Louisiana returned to New Orleans today to express what might be called disgust.

Asked what he thought of Washington, he pondered a moment and said: "In order to think in terms of America you almost have to get away from Washington. That's the farthest spot from the United States I've seen."

"The sorrowful thing I found in Washington is the political paralysis that is affecting the democrats in congress. Over in the senate the democrats seemed like a whipped rooster."

"The world is disgusted with Hoover and Hooverism, Mellon and Mellonism, past, present, and future."

Negro Is Indicted in Quick Action

DALLAS, Feb. 6. (AP)—The Dallas County grand jury today indicted Jake "Rockwall Slim" White, 44-year old negro, on a charge of murder for the slaying of Mrs. W. S. Gray, 60, in an asserted robbery at her farm home near Garland Wednesday night.

The jury studied the case less than an hour before returning the true bill. The case was transferred immediately to Judge Charles A. Phipps's court but will not be set for trial until W. S. Gray, 66, wounded in the same alleged robbery, is able to appear in court.

Mrs. Gray was killed by a bullet and her husband was wounded by a bullet. In addition, Gray was beaten about the head with a pistol. Gray was robbed of about $2 in change and his watch.

Pilot Point Bank Robbed By Trio

PILOT POINT, Feb. 6. (AP)—Rangers and other officers searching for three masked men who robbed the Pilot Point National bank of $8,000 before dawn, shifted their hunt to the north of Gainesville late today.

A kidnaped bank employe was forced to unlock the outside door of the vault and a nitro glycerine charge was used to blow open the inner compartment. The robbers hurriedly scooped up all the cash in sight and escaped in an automobile.

A car similar to the one in which they fled was seen speeding northward on the infrequently traveled Pilot Point-Gainesville dirt road about dawn.

Carrying out a well-prepared plan the robbers kidnaped bank employes, a night watchman and others they met.

Uniforms Worn by Bank Bandits

WAVELAND, Ind., Feb. 6. (AP)—A bandit band clad in white uniforms invaded this town early today intent upon robbing the Waveland State bank but was driven off by the gun fire of vigilantes summoned by a telephone girl.

The uniforms, authorities believed were worn by the robbers so they might distinguish one another in case of conflict.

The robber band, numbering seven or eight, cut long distance telephone lines and also light wires in the vicinity of the bank before entering it.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon L. H. Reynolds, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds, Jimmie Reynolds, and Lloyd H. Reynolds, and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Anna F. Reynolds, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st Judicial District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the First Monday in March, A. D. 1932, the same being the 7th day of March, A. D. 1932, then and there to answer an amended petition filed in said Court on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1932, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3073, wherein C. P. Buckler is Plaintiff, and L. H. Reynolds, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds, Jimmie Reynolds and Lloyd H. Reynolds, and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of Anna F. Reynolds, are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff sues on two certain promissory notes executed by defendant, L. H. Reynolds, payable to the order of Otto C. Rice, each in the principal sum of $1250.00, each providing for vendor's lien on the property hereinafter described, numbered three and four respectively, due in their numerical order on September 12, 1929, and September 12, 1930 respectively, each providing for 7 per cent interest before maturity, and 10 per cent interest after maturity, each providing for 10 per cent attorney's fees. Plaintiff alleges that said notes are past due and unpaid, and that said notes and lien securing the same were duly transferred and assigned to plaintiff by the said Otto C. Rice; that said notes were given in part payment for Lot No. Four (4), Block Thirty-seven (37), Original Town of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, and in deed dated September 12, 1927, from Otto C. Rice and wife, Bessie Rice, to L. H. Reynolds, a vendor's lien was retained against said property to secure the payment of said notes; plaintiff has found it necessary to place said notes in the hands of attorneys for collection and contracted and agreed to pay his attorneys' fees provided for in said note; that on the date of filing plaintiff's petition there was due principal, interest and attorneys' fees the sum of $3434.92.

Plaintiff further alleges that on May 19, 1928, the defendant, L. H. Reynolds, executed, acknowledged and delivered to the Stuckey Construction Company a contract lien against the property above described for paving the street abutting said property, to secure the payment of $416.25, that said indebtedness and the lien securing the same have been duly assigned to plaintiff; that said sum was payable in five annual installments of $83.25 each, on the 6th day of October, 1928, and on or before the 6th day of September, of the years 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932, the said indebtedness providing for interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from September 8, 1928, and further provided that in the event of failure to pay any installment when due the balance might be declared due and payable at once; that installments 1, 2 and 3, are duly paid; that the installment maturing September 6, 1931, was not paid; that plaintiff being the owner and holder of said indebtedness declared in the balance due and payable. Said contract lien provided that in the event that same was placed in the hands of attorneys for collection a reasonable attorney's fee might be added. Plaintiff alleges that he has placed said lien in the hands of torneys for collection and contracted and agreed to pay said attorneys the sum of $100.00, the same being the reasonable, usual and customary attorney's fees; that there is due on said paving certificate, principal, interest, and attorney's fees on the date of filing this petition the sum of $507.06, making a total indebtedness due from defendant, L. H. Reynolds, to plaintiff in the sum of $3741.98, on the date of filing said petition, which though often amended has not been paid, or any part thereof. Plaintiff alleges that it has a valid and subsisting vendor's lien and paving lien to secure the payment in the amounts above described against the property above described.

Plaintiff further alleges that Anna F. Reynolds is now dead, leaving surviving her the following children known to defendant, Harvey Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds and Lloyd H. Reynolds, defendants all of whom are minors and that the names of any other heirs and legal representatives of the said Anna F. Reynolds, Nancy Reynolds, Jimmie Reynolds and Lloyd H. Reynolds, are unknown to plaintiff. That the interest of all said defendants are inferior to the lien of plaintiff and property above described.

Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to appear and answer, that he be heard in judgment for his debt, interest, costs of suit, attorney's fees and for foreclosure of his liens against the property above described, general and special relief, legal and equitable.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 5th day of February, A. D. 1932.

LOUISE MILLER,
Clerk, District Courts, Gray County, Texas.

Jury in Damage Suit Is Discharged By Judge Ritchey

Judge E. P. Ritchey discharged the jury in Alex Smith's suit against Gray county for damages, late Friday afternoon after the 12 men had deliberated 27 hours without reaching a verdict. Jurors said they stood 10 to 2 for the defendant.

Mr. Smith was suing the county for $4,000 which he claimed he was damaged when the county removed a dam and widened and deepened the ditches in the road adjoining his property. Mr. Martin is proprietor of the road morning, the twelve men stood nine to three.

One of the main issues in the suit was whether there was an increased flow of water from normal rains to and upon the land of the plaintiff since the county removed the dam and deepened and widened the ditches in March, 1929, and whether the increased flow was caused by reconstructing the road. The jury was asked to determine whether the plaintiff's land had been damaged by water since the county removed the dam, and whether the injury, if any, was temporary.

The county argued that the depression in the Smith land was a natural drain for the surrounding country, and re-building the road had nothing to do with damaging the land.

The case is scheduled to be tried again during this term of court.

SHANGHAI—

clude all the children and most of the women.

In Tokyo the government issued a formal declaration that it had no intention of entering upon an aggressive campaign in Shanghai. The official statement said the purpose of sending army units to the Chinese city was "to put an end to the menace of the Chinese armies and to relieve inhabitants of all nationalities from the strain of fear."

Disappointed

It was understood this explanation was made public after Britain and the United States had conveyed "expressions of disappointment" to Tokyo on learning of the plans to send new troops.

The navy department in Washington heard that seven shells from Chinese anti-aircraft guns had burst within the marine area at Shanghai.

Admiral Montgomery M. Taylor, commander of the American naval forces at Shanghai, informed Washington that the Japanese would land infantry in the international settlement tomorrow.

The Washington commerce department learned that the Shanghai business community had suffered losses estimated at $12,500,000 since the battle has been going on.

Chinese troops concentrated in the region of Pinhsien, Manchuria, after being driven out of Harbin, were bombed by Japanese airmen.

Chinese Beaten

Japanese estimated that the Chinese lost 500 killed and 300 wounded in the fighting Thursday and Friday at Harbin, and they placed their own losses at 16 dead and 60 wounded.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The four major powers concerned in the Shanghai troubles abated their active peace efforts tonight and waited for Japan to act under her latest pronouncement of policy in China.

The five points of the Japanese program caused no particular surprise here and were regarded as a summary of that nation's position as outlined in Tokyo from time to time.

Official circles drew two main conclusions. One that Japan has definitely rejected all efforts to link Manchuria and Shanghai. The other was that Japan is notifying the world that China's stern military opposition at Shanghai has not caused her to back down.

Tyko dispatches indicates there is a difference of opinion among members of the Japanese cabinet on methods of handling the Shanghai trouble, although the minister of war and minister of navy obtained indorsements of their plan to send an army division and additional warships to the Chinese port.

The United States and the powers associated with her in peace proposals have apparently decided to go slowly and await developments in the far east regardless of the fact that China is still the scene of sharp fighting between the Japanese and Chinese.

BY MORRIS J. HARRIS,
Associated Press Staff Correspondent

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7 (Sunday)—Three days of bombing and shelling have caused terrible havoc in the Wosung forts, but the red, blue and white flag of China still waves over their torn walls.

This I discovered today when I penetrated to the forts in an effort to settle rumors the strategic position at the mouth of the Whangpo river had fallen into hands of the Japanese.

Not only do the Chinese remain, but the elaborate defense works they are constructing indicate they have no intention of evacuating.

Although at least four of the forts' six-inch guns have been silenced and many of the remainder are so antiquated they are useless, the Chinese garrison is prepared with rifles and machine guns to resist any attempt by the besieging Japanese warships to land troops.

Beat Off Landing

Already one landing attempt has been beaten off.

Entering the gates of the fortress after a two-mile walk through a shell-scattered area, I saw a scene of complete devastation.

Nearly every building in the fort compound had been reduced to shattered tile and splintered timber. A few structures held a semblance of their original form, but all of them had been shelled or bombed.

The terrain was so badly torn up it was impossible to walk in a straight line more than a few yards at a time.

Them to be 30 feet across and 12 feet deep.

I was beginning to wonder where the troops were, as only a few of them could be seen looting about the enclosure.

My soldier guide led me to the forts' first line of defense, a great earthen wall on which the guns were placed.

Died Fighting

I had to step around a huge pit in order to reach the first gun, which had been disabled by a bomb. A shell was held inserted in the breach of the gun. The gunners had died fighting.

The second gun, obviously damaged, pointed out to sea. The twisted barrel of the third gun also was visible. These pieces, apparently six-inchers, bore marks indicating they had been manufactured in the United States.

Smaller cannon alongside were undamaged, and although they were of ancient manufacture and had not been fired. Commanding officers said three or four of them were incapacitated and 10 still could be used. Most of the undamaged guns were of such caliber as to be of little value.

Looking out to sea, I counted seven Japanese ships of war, two miles off shore.

The characteristic Chinese attitude was expressed by the forts' commander in these words:

"Defensive War"

"We are fighting a defensive war. We do not fire unless we are fired at. We are determined not to yield to the Japanese invaders. We are

Nurmi's Records Are Wiped Out by Unknown Youth

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Feb. 6 (AP)—Gene Venzke, a 23-year-old Swedish-American youth who has just decided to go back and finish school at Pottstown, Pa., startled the athletic world tonight by wiping out the classic indoor mile records of Paavo Nurmi and Jole Ray.

Scarcely known outside metropolitan tracks, he ran the distance in 4 minutes, 11 1-5 seconds in the Wanamaker mile, feature of the 25th Millrose A. A. carnival, before a cheering capacity crowd of 13,000 spectators.

It surpassed the former world indoor record of 4:12 set in 1925 by Nurmi and equaled the same season by Ray.

The only two faster miles ever run have been recorded on outdoor tracks. Paavo Nurmi's official record is 4:10:2-5, but this was lowered to 4:09:1-5 by Jules Ladoumeque of France last summer.

BURNS NINTH CHILD

AKRON, Ohio, Feb. 6 (AP)—Mrs. Anna Benko, 43, today threw her ninth child, born only two days ago, into a blazing furnace, police said.

The woman, according to her husband, George Benko, 44, a truck driver, has been in a highly nervous condition several years and he feared she was mentally unbalanced.

Wife of Lubbock Banker Succumbs

LUBBOCK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Funeral services for Mrs. Walter S. Posey, 51, wife of one of West Texas' most widely known bankers, will be held here Sunday afternoon with interment following in a local cemetery.

Mrs. Posey, a Lubbock resident for 28 years, was long active in women's circles here and over the south plains region until overtaken by ill health five years ago. Death followed a two-week illness.

PETTY THEFTS REPORTED

Thieves were busy during the basketball tournament at the high school gymnasium last night. Two car doors were broken and another lost a radiator cap.

Raymond Acklam reported to city officers that a rock had been hurled through both glasses of his car and a dressed chicken, bottle of milk and a pair of gloves taken. Roy Bourland reported the loss of a radiator cap.

One other car was entered but nothing was taken.

ing whistle. The Cyclones led at each quarter but Wayne Kelly, Pampa's great guard, looped his usual goal when most needed, to tie the score. The first overtime produced no scores. With one minute to go in the second overtime period, Captain Cecil Stargel of Memphis sank a long one. With less than 10 seconds to go, Captain Flash Enloe of the Harvesters broke through the Memphis defense and dropped the tying counter.

To pick a star of the game would be unwise. Enloe of the Harvesters was the offensive strength of his team. He scored 11 points to be high point man. Hoot Fullingim and Kelly and Patton made many of Enloe's points possible. They led the flash and guarded so closely that Memphis was bewildered for the first time during the tournament.

Captain Stargel led the Cyclone attack and scored eight points. J. Davis, voted the most valuable player in the tournament, also played a strong game to score seven points. West was the defensive strength of the Cyclones.

Miss Robinson Stars

Miss Robinson, Pampa forward and all tournament choice, was the big factor in the Pampa girls' win over the White Deer sextet. The Pampaian looped 24 points in the game to bring her total for the tournament to 54 points. Eura Rose was Robinson's running mate and her shooting was no less sensational. She added 11 points to the total score. Amy Lard was the strength of the Harvester attack in the center zone, while Coleman, Murphy, and Barnard were the guards deluxe. James, Scott, and Walsley also had a prominent place in the win.

Potter and Andrew, the two White Deer forwards, tied the scoring with 10 points each. Andrews, a midget

Society Slayer Is Freed of Murder

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 6 (AP)—Edward H. B. Allen, 23, society man, tonight was freed of a charge of murder in the killing of Francis Donaldson, third, son of a socially prominent family. The jury of 10 men and two women were out exactly 10 hours before they arrived at their verdict.

The tall, thin, young defendant shook like a leaf as he stood up to hear the jury's verdict.

When he heard the words "not guilty" he almost collapsed. But he quickly recovered himself as one of his attorneys put his arm around him to hold him in his swivel chair and was handed a glass of water.

Several persons started to cheer the verdict and a dozen balliffs cried "order" quelling the unquiet disturbance.

In size, made four free throws. Halduk played her second great game at guard and was selected on the all-tournament team. Overton at center was strong at all times.

The night's entertainment opened with coaches playing the All-Stars coached by Stanley Erskine of Dallas, representative of A. G. Spalding & Bros. The coaches proved too much for the officials and ex-Harvesters who went down fighting 23 to 16. Supt. R. B. Fisher was in charge of the coaches.

The all-tournament teams were selected by Stanley Erskine, Warren Moore, and Harry E. Hoare. Floor officials were Kenner and Fuller. Time-keepers for the tournament were Albert Lard and Don Saulsbury. Official scorers were Harry Hoare and Argus Fox.

The boys' all-tournament team follows:

Enloe of Pampa and Stargel of Memphis, forwards; J. Smith of Memphis, center; Wayne Kelly of Pampa and Gibbons of Wheeler, guards.

PAMPA TEAMS EXHIBIT MUCH IMPROVEMENT IN TOURNEY

BOYS DEFEAT MIAMI CHIEFS ON SATURDAY

Both Pampa basketball teams went into the finals in their own invitation tournament by wins yesterday afternoon. The boys defeated Miami 33 to 11 while the girls won from Canadian, 36 to 22. Memphis got into the finals with a 31 to 24 win from the crippled Reddy Owls. The White Deer girls went into the final after playing only one game.

Pampa 33, Miami 11
Captain Flash Enloe scored 15 points to send his team into the finals. Merbaugh added eight points while Bill Kelley was kept busy in three field goals. Patton played a strong game at guard. Fullington fed Enloe the ball for many points. Talley was the only warrior that could get anywhere against the Harvesters. He made eight points. Curly Owens made the other three.

Memphis 31, Reddy 24
Memphis had Hedley beat until late in the last quarter. Then two players were removed on fouls. Evans, Hedley forward, then got into action and scored eight points. Armstrong, Hedley's other forward, was bottled during the entire game and scored only six points. Injure center, played part of the game but was ineffective.

J. Davis jumped at center for Memphis and then dropped back to guard. He was high point scorer, making 16 points. O. B. Smith was usually the most reliable man on the team, was held scoreless. West played another hard game at guard.

Pampa 36, Canadian 22
The Pampa girls met the Canadian sextet and defeated them, 36 to 22. Mona Robinson and Eura Rose tied for scoring honors with 13 each. They missed many but scored when points were needed. Lard played a good game at center while the guards were better than in Friday night's encounter. They made numerous fouls guarding Fillingim, big Canadian forward.

Miss Fillingim made 14 points to be high scorer. She made several free throws and overhead throws that counted one point. Caldwell was held to six points. Halsey was strong at center as was Cook at guard.

Miami 23, Pampa Gorillas 14
Coach Warren Moore's Gorillas failed to get into action until late in the game and could not overcome the commanding lead of the Miami Warriors. Irving got his shooting eye and made nine of his team's points. Whittenberg added three. Curly Owens was high scorer for Miami with eight points. Talley followed with six points and Dial, substitute guard, made four more. The guarding of both teams was strong and kept the score down. The Miami boys towered over the Gorillas who fought to the last whistle.

Miami 23, Pampa Gorillas 14
Miami's Mackley, Talley, Owens, Morrison, Bond, Paris, Kivshen, Lyons, Alexander, Dial, Gorillas: Bailey, Irving, Green, Faulkner, Moore, Whittenberg.

Wheeler 52, Hopkins 10
The big Wheeler quintet had no mercy on the crippled Hopkins. Whirlwinds and handed them the worst defeat of any team in the tournament. W. Richardson, giant guard, looped 16 points to be high scorer. He was followed by Gibbons with 13. Wheeler used two complete teams.

H. Mackie was high scorer for Hopkins with six points. W. Ridgeway tried hard but had tough luck with his shots. The Hopkins boys had played six games last week-end to win the Green tournament and had blistered feet.

Wheeler: Hooker, Gibbons, Beck, Smith, W. Richardson, Molt, Weeks, Richardson, Puckett, Hopkins: R. Mackie, W. Ridgeway, H. Mackie, E. Vanderberg, D. Mackie, R. Ridgeway, E. Husted.

Pampa 25, Amarillo 24
Hopefully behind at the end of the first half and not given a chance to win, the Pampa girls' basketball team broke loose in the closing half of the game to defeat the Amarillo sextet 25 to 24 in one of the most thrilling games of the tournament.

Mona Robinson, Pampa's flashy forward, looped six field goals in the last half to pull the game out of the fire. She was assisted by Eura Rose, who scored six points. With one minute left to play, Amarillo's flashy forward, T. M. Gibson, looped one from the black line and the game was apparently lost. However, Amy Lard got the ball at the tip-off and shot it to Rose. She faked a shot and then passed to Robinson, who made the deciding goal.

Amarillo's centers, Davis and Hill, were the fastest pair seen up to that time. Their team work was perfect and their passing fast and accurate. The two forwards, Hamilton and Gibson, looped baskets from all angles. The guards also were strong and saved many sure goals.

Captain Betty James played a strong game at center, while the guarding of Scott and Coleman was outstanding. Murphy also did some close guarding.

Gibson, Amarillo forward, made 21 points. She is tall and possesses wonderful form in long shots. She made 25 points against Miami the previous night.

YACHT BODIES IN ROW OVER WOOD'S MARK

One Association Will Refuse to Recognize Record He Made Last Week.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—A war over jurisdiction between the Yachtsman Association of America and the American Powerboat association, which has been going on some time in private, broke out publicly today with the announcement of the A. P. B. A.'s racing commission that Car Wood's new speedboat mark would not be accepted as an American record.

The racing commission explained that, although Wood made his run under the supervision of one of its members, the above-mentioned yachtsmen's association, he did so without seeking or receiving sanction of the A. P. B. A., and that under its rules his world record record could not be recognized. They recognize his time of 103.089 made last spring under A. P. B. A. sanction, but not his mark of 111.712.

The Blair Motor team took three straight games from the Kiwanis club and the Texas company won two out of three from the Supply Friday night. Morton of the Supply team rolled high game with 216 pins.

Memphis 47, Canadian 14
The Memphis Cyclones blasted the hopes of the Canadian Wildcats, Friday night in a lopsided encounter. The rangy boys from down country worked with a precision that had not been seen up to that time. They looped goals from all angles, close in and long range. Stargel was high scorer with 22 points. He was followed by Davis, huge guard, with 15 points. Smith followed with eight points, six of them made on free throws. The guarding of West was outstanding defensively.

Brodie of Canadian couldn't hit the back board in the first half but broke loose in the last quarter to score 12 points in quick order. Nix and Pundt tried hard, but could not break through the long Memphis guard.

Memphis: Stargel, Malvery, Smith, Davis, West, Stewart, Evans, Canadian: Brodie, Nix, Pundt, McCauley, Hartnett, Crowell, Keene, Calloway, Gilstrap.

Hedley 41, Pampa Gorillas 22
Hedley proved too strong for Coach B. G. Gordon's Gorillas in the closing game Friday night. The little fellow put up a stiff battle with Woodward making six points at forward and Heskell, guard, seven.

It was Evans, big Hedley center, that caused all the havoc. The elongated one scored 22 points for high scorer. Armstrong, Tidwell and Pickett each scored six points.

Hedley: Armstrong, Faldet, Evans, Tidwell, Stafford, Gordon, Bain, Pickett, Youree, Pampa: Woodward, Rodgers, Beard, Howard, Heskell, Adair, Reynolds.

SKATING HAS AROUSED MUCH FEELING THIS YEAR

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 6 (AP)—The master minds of the 1932 winter Olympics breathed deep sighs of relief tonight, for the preliminaries of the 10,000 meters speed skating championship, with its international complications, ended today after being raced once, the results cancelled, and then raced again.

And, like the second game of a double-header that ends like the first in a scoreless tie, 18 distance bladesmen of Norway, Sweden, Finland, Canada, and the United States had nothing to show for an extra 6.2 miles of strenuous skating, except material for another flock of argument, charges, counter-charges and bitterness.

The same eight men—Irvig Jaffee, new 5,000 meters Olympic champion, Valentin Bialis, Edwin Wedge and Eddie Schreger, all of the United States teams; Alex Hurd and Frank Stack of Canada; and the Norwegians, Bernt Evensen and Ivar Ballangrud—qualified today for the final of the last men's speed skating championships.

Alex Hurd, Canadian champion who has been skating in sensational fashion, came back in the first heat to whip the field again with Ballangrud second, Bialis third, and Wedge fourth. All that proved was that second, third and fourth places in a heat could be shuffled around a bit in two days of racing, for Bialis took second yesterday, Wedge third, and Ballangrud fourth.

Only one hockey match was played in the Olympic series today, Canada defeating Germany four goals to one.

By today's victory Canada maintained its lead in the round Robin series with two victories and no defeats. The United States and Germany are tied for second place, with one victory and one defeat each. Poland has lost its two games.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon J. H. Dean by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the 1st Monday in March, A. D. 1932, to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 9th day of July, A. D. 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2890, wherein Martha Anne Dean is Plaintiff, and J. H. Dean is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff alleges that she is an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas and has resided in said state for more than twelve months and in Gray County six months next preceding the filing of this suit. That she and defendant were married on November 26, 1927, and continued living together until April 28, 1929, when defendant began a course of harsh, unkind and tyrannical treatment by striking her with his fist and kicking her, with slight intermissions until their separation on April 28, 1929. Plaintiff further alleges that defendant's use of intoxicating liquor to the excess caused him to abuse her violently in times of intoxication, so as to render their further living together insupportable. Therefore plaintiff asks for an absolute divorce in accordance with the petition on file.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1932.

LOUISE MILLER,
Clerk District Court, Gray County, Texas.
W. G. Dawson of Kingsmill was a courthouse business visitor yesterday.

MANERO AND CLARK TIED IN HOUSTON GOLF

HOUSTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Tony Manero of New York and Clarence Clark of Bloomfield, N. J., fought heavy cross winds this afternoon to take 73's and tie for the leadership in the first 18 holes of the Colonial club's 2,000 golf open. Thirty-six holes will be played tomorrow.

For second place, another tie resulted. Tony Butler of Corpus Christi and Archie Habrick of Zanesville, Ohio, each taking a 74. Harry Cooper of Chicago, came in with an easy 75 and Levi Lynch of Dallas had a 76.

Those who had 77's included Willie McGuire and Jack Burke, Houston; Ralph Gulda of St. Louis; Tom Burke, Colonial club pro; Jimmy Vincent of San Antonio, and Joe Egar of Waco.

The Japanese star, Tomikicki Miyamoto, took a 78, and Abe Espinosa of Chicago could do no better than 79. Joe Lally of Louisville was among those coming in with the same score.

Other scores included: Levi Lynch, Dallas, 39-37-76. Willie McGuire, Houston, 37-40-77.
Jack Burke, Houston, 38-39-77. Jimmy Vincent, San Antonio, 37-40-77.
Joe Egar, Waco, 41-36-77. Philip George, Liberty, 39-38-77. Tom Burke, Houston, 41-36-77. Ralph Gulda, St. Louis, 39-38-77.

MANERO AND CLARK TIED IN HOUSTON GOLF

HOUSTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Tony Manero of New York and Clarence Clark of Bloomfield, N. J., fought heavy cross winds this afternoon to take 73's and tie for the leadership in the first 18 holes of the Colonial club's 2,000 golf open. Thirty-six holes will be played tomorrow.

For second place, another tie resulted. Tony Butler of Corpus Christi and Archie Habrick of Zanesville, Ohio, each taking a 74. Harry Cooper of Chicago, came in with an easy 75 and Levi Lynch of Dallas had a 76.

Those who had 77's included Willie McGuire and Jack Burke, Houston; Ralph Gulda of St. Louis; Tom Burke, Colonial club pro; Jimmy Vincent of San Antonio, and Joe Egar of Waco.

The Japanese star, Tomikicki Miyamoto, took a 78, and Abe Espinosa of Chicago could do no better than 79. Joe Lally of Louisville was among those coming in with the same score.

Other scores included: Levi Lynch, Dallas, 39-37-76. Willie McGuire, Houston, 37-40-77.
Jack Burke, Houston, 38-39-77. Jimmy Vincent, San Antonio, 37-40-77.
Joe Egar, Waco, 41-36-77. Philip George, Liberty, 39-38-77. Tom Burke, Houston, 41-36-77. Ralph Gulda, St. Louis, 39-38-77.
Harvey Penick, Austin, 40-38-78. Dick Metz, San Angelo, 39-39-78. Dudley Bell, Houston, 39-39-78. Paul Runyan, Westchester, N. Y., 40-38-78.
Floyd Boone, Corsicana, 39-39-78. Ray Mangrum, unattached, 39-40-79.
Lefty Stackhouse, Dallas, 44-37-81.

DEMPSEY HAS 'TIL APRIL 15 TO GET RIGHT

Must Prove He Had No Part in Leaving Big Account Unpaid.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Jack Dempsey was given a long count in his battle with the Mississippi state boxing commission today.

The former world's heavyweight champion, charged with being a partner in an exhibition fiasco in Columbus, Miss., more than a year ago, was given until April 15, to produce evidence to show he was not connected with the promotion of the show, which resulted, according to the Mississippians, in unpaid bills of $2,804.97.

Meanwhile, Dempsey is free to continue his exhibition tour and to roam the national boxing association territory without being interrupted.

The former champion appeared to face two Mississippi commissioners, Harry J. Landry, Priors Point, and Luther W. Maples, Gulfport, at a hearing conducted by General John V. Glinn, president of the N. B. A.

Psychologist-Lecturer To Make First of Free Talks on Monday

Verona G. Hull, widely known psychologist and radio lecturer, who has been speaking over KGBS in Amarillo during the last two months is being brought to Pampa by local psychology enthusiasts to deliver a series of public lectures and class lessons in the Science of Successful Living and Personality Development.

Tomorrow evening, the first of three free lectures will be given at the county court house on the subject of "The Power of Attraction." Free lectures also will be given Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to which the public is invited, and the special class in psychology will begin Thursday evening.

In the educational and inspiring lectures, Miss Hull gives the causes of failure and the laws and principles underlying the psychology of success. This teacher claims that it is not lack of opportunity that makes people fail, but the inability of people to recognize opportunity when they come to it. She points out that the necessary thing to do is to think—to use one's mind—since all success, in fact, everything in life comes out of ideas from someone's mind.

"We are living in an age of mind," explains Miss Hull, "and mind is traveling faster than ever before. The world is making more mental progress in five years now than formerly in a century. This means that everyone must use his mind; he must think in order to keep up with progress today." And that is the purpose of the new psychology, states this speaker, "to teach you to use your mind to meet and master the situation whatever the problem or purpose might be."

Miss Hull has been lecturing upon the public platform, Chautauques, and before school and business organizations for the past 10 years, and is a noted radio speaker as well. She is said to be pleasing and entertaining as a speaker, and her lectures are described as "having the punch that arouses all of man's dormant powers and possibilities into activity."

Her message is said to provoke thought and arouse ambition and desire for greater achievement and realization.

MR. HENRY IMPROVES

John Henry, who has been a patient at Pampa hospital, is recovering slowly from an attack of influenza and complications. He will be able to leave the hospital in about five days, it was said. J. S. Wynne who underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital 10 days ago is doing fine, Dr. W. Pirvance, his physician, said. Mr. Wynne will be able to leave the hospital in about another week.

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, GREETING:

You are hereby commanded to summon as is required by law Dallas Brockman to appear at the next regular term of the District Court, 31st Judicial District, to be held at the Courthouse thereof, in Pampa, on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court, 14th Judicial District, on the 7th day of October, 1931, in a suit Numbered 3017 on the docket of said Court, wherein Martha Brockman is plaintiff and Dallas Brockman is defendant, a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action being:

Suit for divorce by plaintiff against defendant, plaintiff alleging that she and defendant were married on January 19, 1929, and lived together until November 22, 1930. Plaintiff alleges that defendant was guilty of cruel, unkind and inhuman treatment towards her which has ruined her health; that defendant has accused plaintiff of living in adultery with other men, which accusations were untrue.

Herein fail not but have before said Court at its next term this writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court this 4th day of February, A. D. 1932.

ARTIST SKETCHES HOOVER AT WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE

In excellent trim these days, President Hoover is thoughtful and grave as he receives newspapermen to discuss the critical situation in the Far East. The newsmen, respectfully attentive, take notes as the President talks, fingering antique coins in his pocket which he has carried for years, possibly as lucky pieces.

This splendid and timely sketch of the President of the United States receiving newspapermen at the White House was made on the spot only a few days ago by George Clark, NEA Service staff artist, nationally-known creator of "Side Glances." The critical situation in the Far East was under discussion at this conference while Clark made the rough sketches for this graphic drawing.

Second Tourney Will Be Held

Pampa will have another basketball tournament Friday and Saturday. It will be for the junior high boys and senior grade boys. The age limit will be 15 years. W. B. Weathered will be in charge of the tournament. Any team not receiving an invitation may get in touch with Mr. Weathered.

Interscholastic league rules for junior boys will govern play. It is expected that teams will be entered from rural schools and grade schools in this section of the Panhandle. Awards will be given the winning teams and the all stars.

National Grain Corporation Is Defended as of Value to Farmers

The Farmers National Grain corporation, a cooperating division of the Federal farm board, has many friends as well as enemies in this territory.

Friendly citizens have asked publication of this portion of a speech by Senator C. L. McNary, chairman of the senate agricultural committee.

"The operation of the Farmers National Grain corporation during the first years of its existence, from Oct. 29, 1929, to Oct. 31, 1931, seems to offer complete justification of its course. During that time the corporation has purchased and handled more than 390,000 bushels of grain, and we regard it as a challenge to all other grain marketing associations that this vast amount of grain has been handled at a cost of less than 1 cent a bushel, including a total cost for salaries and wages in all bushels bought, handle, and sold.

"To make it clear that this one-cent-per-bushel includes all general and administrative expenses is merely to prove, in our opinion, that operations of the corporation have been conducted with utmost efficiency. It may be well, in this connection, further to point out that the unit cost above mentioned covers the organization period, during which nationwide grain merchandising machinery was established and set in motion, and includes all the costs incidental thereto. Net earnings of the corporation, after he setting aside of revenues necessary to insure the soundness of the corporation, represent a gain to organized grain producers to 2.3 per bushel, which amounts do not include important benefits which have come to them in narrowed margins and reduced discounts in the purchase of grain at both county and terminal points.

"Opposition to this program was inevitable and was anticipated by the cooperatives. The tide of public opinion is changed however, and efforts to depeat the farm marketing act will fail."

Brandin Stands on Storm Forecast

A. G. "Friday" Brandin, courthouse weather prophet and old timer of Gray county, promised fair weather for local citizens for most of next week. His prediction made on the last day of 1931 that January would produce no major storms was correct. He said last Sunday that the first storm of the year would be between the 10th and 15th. "Friday" declared yesterday that fair weather would prevail in the Panhandle until Wednesday, and that he would not be responsible for the weather from then on until the first of March.

Chinese Detective Story With Warner Oland Now at La Nora

An intensely gripping mystery melodrama, "Charlie Chan's Chance," comes to the La Nora theater today. Based on an Earl Derr Biggers' novel, John G. Blyzzone directed this Fox Films picture.

Warner Oland, supreme in oriental characterizations, appears as Charlie Chan, the famed Chinese detective from Honolulu. The lovers are Marian Nixon and Alexander Kirkland, last seen as the youngest son in "Surrender." Others in the cast are H. B. Warner, Linda Watkins, James Kirkwood, and Ralph Morgan.

The story details the newest adventures of Charlie Chan, this time in a New York setting, where he finds himself studying the police methods of that city.

A mysterious murder is committed and Scotland Yard detectives combine efforts with metropolitan police, but they are unable to solve the baffling crime. Charlie Chan, by virtue of his superior wisdom and his keen analytical mind, discovers important clues, reconstructs the crime and, after a series of thrilling experiences and many narrow escapes, untangles the enigmatical skein. The murderer is finally revealed in a dramatic climax.

The role of Charlie Chan gives Oland full play for his unusual talents developed during a long period of experience on the stage and screen. He has been playing oriental roles for many years, appearing in such outstanding productions as "Dr. Fu Manchu," "The Return of Dr. Fu Manchu," "The Black Camel" and "Charlie Chan Carries On."

H. L. Polly, manager of Murfee's, Inc., will leave this morning for Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo., to purchase spring and early summer merchandise. He expects to be gone about a week.

J. A. DeGrace of McLean transferred business here yesterday. Mrs. J. K. Thomas of Miami was shopping in the city Saturday.

CATTLE TRADE DULL

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 6 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Cattle trade during the week under review was very low with most all classes showing moderate to sharp price declines. Best fed steers in Chicago stopped at 10 to 20. St. Louis had a late top of 4.40. The week's receipts of around 558,000 were 188,000 short of last week.

Hogs, compared with a week ago, are unevenly steady to 30 higher with average gains at most points of 10 to 20. St. Louis had a late top of 4.40. The week's receipts of around 558,000 were 188,000 short of last week.

The depressing influence of a lower dressed lamb trade this week was more than offset by curtailed receipts and price upturns of 50 to 100 who registered on fat lambs. Chicago had a closing top of 7.40 while at the river markets few western arrivals reached 6.85. Mature killing classes of sheep at most centers were little better than steady.

COTTON SLOWER

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6 (AP)—Trading was decidedly sluggish in today's short week cotton session. Owing to poor Liverpool cables and an easier opening of stocks prices lost 2 to 3 points in the early trading. After fluctuating within a very narrow range prices turned somewhat firmer at the end owing to shorts covering for over the week end, developing a scarcity of contracts and recovering 9 to 10 points. The close was at or near the top showing net advances for the day of 5 to 8 points.

New highs for the session were made near the end at 6.67 for March, 6.84 for May and 7.00 for July or 8 to 10 points above the early lows. The close was at or near the top with the three active months showing net gains for the day of 6 to 7 points.

Port receipts 47,327, for season 7,788,052, last season 7,042,236. Exports 19,544, for season 5,135,946, last season 4,812,254. Port stock 4,873,685, last year 4,171,650. Combined ship-board stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 297,935, last year 72,318. Spot sales at southern markets 16,454, last year 13,295.

WHEAT TURNS UP

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Prompted largely by forecasts of a cold wave and by accompanying likelihood of crop damage, wheat prices tended upward today after early downturns.

Rallies in wheat more than counterbalanced the bearish effect of stock market unsettlement and inactivity of North American wheat export demand. World shipments of wheat for the week appeared small, and indications were that the peak of the Argentine movement would soon be passed.

Wheat closed firm, at the same as yesterday's finish 3-6 higher, corn 1-4 off to 1-4 up, oats unchanged, and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to 7 cents advance.

Corn and oats chiefly followed wheat action, but at one stage the corn market touched the lowest price level since last October. Country offerings to arrive were of liberal volume, though mainly above the market.

Provisions averaged higher on account of increased consignments of lard to Great Britain for the pur-

Faster Mail to Be Sought Here

Postmaster D. E. Cecil and George W. Briggs, manager of the Pampa Board of City Development, will be in Lubbock tomorrow where they will attend a hearing of the railway commission regarding a permit for a bus and mail line between Clarendon and Pampa. A bus is operating at the present time, but it is under a temporary permit which does not allow for the carrying of mail between points.

Should the commission decide to grant a permanent permit, mail now brought to Pampa from Clarendon will be brought from Clarendon, which means that it will arrive in Pampa more than one hour earlier. Three companies are applying for the permanent permit.

Under present conditions, mail from Fort Worth and connecting points is brought to Pampa from Clarendon. It arrives here at 9:40 a. m. If a permit is granted for mail to be brought here from Clarendon, it will arrive in Pampa at 7:40 a. m. Mail being dispatched through Clarendon leaves here at 3 o'clock. If the new permit is granted the mail will not have to leave here until 8 o'clock.

VIA PRACTICES LAW IN PAMPA

B. S. Via, experienced attorney and former resident, is back in Pampa for the practice of law. He is located in the First National bank building, where he is associated with L. B. Godwin. Mr. Via owns property here and has many acquaintances. He recently returned from a six-month hunting trip to Canada and Alaska.

a formidable group of eastern delegates.

Despite the fact that he has refused to cooperate in any "Stop-Roosevelt" movement as such, Speaker Garner's friends are planning to bring him prominently to the fore in the south, and in some states of the west.

TO PUSH RITCHIE

The efforts on behalf of Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, and other favorite sons, are still rekindled. Newton D. Baker still is discussed as a possible candidate in some states. There is talk of entering former Governor Harry Byrd of Virginia, for whom headquarters were opened today in Richmond, in some of the districts of Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

In various western states where only Roosevelt activity has been apparent thus far, efforts will be made to send uncommitted delegates, and let the convention fight it out. That is true in Wyoming. It is true in Kansas.

LINDSAY NUNN SEES IMPROVED BUSINESS COMING—FINDS JOHN GARNER'S POPULARITY IS BROAD

Back from a lengthy business trip to St. Louis, Chicago, New York, Washington, and other points, J. Lindsay Nunn of Amarillo is convinced of two things he observed: 1. A definite upturn in business is expected and 2. John N. Garner has a remarkably growing support for the democratic presidential nomination.

Asked what the eastern bankers expect of business in 1932, Mr. Nunn said: "This is rather a hard question to answer. There doesn't seem to be any definite opinion expressed by the bankers as to when there will be an upturn, but I find a feeling that any further change would be for the better. Decidedly they feel that the absolute bottom has been reached. The bankers and business leaders all seem to think that the Reconstruction Finance corporation is going to do a tremendous amount of good for the country and that it will allow certain banks which are carrying so-called frozen assets to borrow money on these assets thereby putting money back in circulation. The concrete help to be expected will come also to the banks which have been closed because they had assets that could not be realized on as quickly as money was demanded by depositors. In the case of such banks it seems that it will be possible to reopen, borrow money on these slow assets, and then use this money in paying depositors. Naturally, if this is done, it means that millions and millions of dollars will be actually placed in the hands of the so-called ultimate consumer, the general public."

Most confidence men "I heard considerable comment from the various bankers in Chicago and other points on the matter of hoarding. It seems that the banks have been confronted during the past few months with the fact that their depositors would not deposit their money in the banks, but holding it out. This tendency seems to have been arrested and, as one banker in Chicago told me, he feels that the crisis of the banking situation has been passed and that the general public is having their confidence restored."

About Politics Questioned about the impending party nominations, Mr. Nunn replied as follows: "I heard more in the east about John Garner, present speaker of the house, than I have heard out here in this locality of the southwest where he comes from. I was very much surprised to find that political leaders, both democrats and republicans, felt that Mr. Garner will stand a better chance of being elected president, if he is nominated, than Mr. Roosevelt. In Chicago, the democrats predict that if Roosevelt is nominated, Illinois will go republican, but that Garner can carry the state for the democrats. In New York I found a feeling among both democrats and republicans that Garner can carry the state of New York, but that if Roosevelt is nominated, it is doubtful if he can beat Hoover, although I have never seen a president so criticized as Mr. Hoover, by both parties. The feeling in Washington is that any democrat who is nominated will be elected, but of all the democrats mentioned I find more comment mounting in favor of Ritchie, Baker, and Garner, with Garner in the foremost. It is indicated that Ohio will go for Garner in the nomination."

Strange to say, I have heard very little of the wet and dry issue. The main issue before the people seems to be the economic conditions. This is one that is going to work to the detriment of Mr. Roosevelt in securing the democratic nomination. The bigger business interests of the east seem to doubt somewhat that Mr. Roosevelt will be any saner in governing the country's affairs than has been Mr. Hoover, but these same folks are pointing to the second which John Garner is making in the house and pointing out his ability to handle the governmental affairs. There is no question that if Mr. Garner should be elected, he will certainly be president without dictation from sources which are inimical to the country's good. The congress, both house and senate, seems to be functioning more on the order of a board of directors of some huge corporation rather than the prevalent idea of a congregation of politicians. As to the wet and dry issue, of course, that will eventually come in the democratic party, because the other party is going to see that it is thrust into the democratic party as propaganda to solidify themselves behind Mr. Hoover.

Hoover is probably a victim somewhat of circumstances, it is a fact that, on all sides among all classes of people of both parties, I heard criticism of his conduct of the country's affairs, yet he will, without doubt, be the nominee of the republican party.

Much to my pleasure I found that Marvin Jones, our representative, is taking his place in congress not merely as a representative from this district, but as a statesman for the country at large. Marvin is the head of the agricultural committee, which ranks with the three leading governmental committees, the other two being the ways and means and the appropriations. I gathered from all sources in Washington that Marvin is handling his job well and is paying more attention to the work of the government than in worrying about re-election. The success which he has attained is due, not only to his ability, but to the fact that he has seniority in congress, and is represented by a few. A congressman, to represent best his district, must have long service behind him, which shows that the district has done well in continuing to re-elect him from term to term."

Turning back to the federal corporation, Mr. Nunn added: "Knowing Jesse Jones as I do and judging by the comment which I heard from financial leaders, there is no question but that Mr. Jones will have considerable to say about the operation of this corporation. He will not be a "yes" man and will remain on the committee only if his views are given serious consideration. However, there seems to be a unanimity of opinion between Mr. Dawes, Mr. Jones, and the other committeemen to see that this corporation functions for the best interest of the entire country. Practically everybody is putting their faith of reconstructed business into the operation of the reconstruction corporation and with the millions of dollars turned loose to the railroads, insurance companies, the larger and smaller banks all over the country, it is bound to bring back better con-

MINATREE COW IS BEST IN DAIRY ASSOCIATION RECORDS

The December cow-testing record for the northeast Panhandle was released this week by R. F. Tesson, official tester. The report contains the milk and butter-fat records of the highest-producing animals in the counties of Gray, Carson, Hemphill and Roberts county.

The best record made during the month was by Snowball, owned by W. E. Minatree. She produced 1,794 pounds of milk and 75.4 pounds of butterfat.

Mr. Tesson's report of records was as follows.

County	Cow	Milk	Butterfat	Herd Owner
Gray	Snowball	1,794	75.4	W. E. Minatree
Gray	Dora	1,467	58.7	H. E. Taylor
Gray	Black Jersey	1,007	51.3	W. E. Minatree

PETITIONERS OF MANY COUNTRIES URGE DISARMAMENT AS PEACE PLAN

GENEVA, Feb. 6 (AP)—Unofficially told the governmental representatives of 60 nations today that the world insistently demands disarmament.

Backed by petitions signed by more than 8,300,000 plain folks, and delegated by world wide organization of women, churches, workers, students and pacifists, authorized spokesmen of various ages, creeds, and economic beliefs addressed the disarmament conference in extraordinary session.

Some pleaded, others demanded. Still others threatened; some enunciated only general humanitarian principles, others offered concrete constructive proposals.

But whatever method for impressing the governmental delegates was chosen, and in whatever terms the wishes, hopes or demands were couched, the fundamental thought underlying all of today's oratory was this: That the sorely distressed conditions and Mr. Jones' ideas will be given grave consideration in every case, because he is regarded both as an outstanding financial leader and as a man of foresight and broad understanding."

Why Trade In Pampa?

Beautiful stores, nice homes, substantial gifts to public enterprises—these are the results of trading in Pampa. But what is equally important is that Pampa stores are large, the stocks are complete, the quality of goods high, the prices reasonable. Such factors make Pampa an ideal trading point and remove the necessity of our going elsewhere to buy. And what fun it was visiting the local stores yesterday! Merchants all were preparing for a new season, spring, and they were busily filling their racks and counters with fresh merchandise. They are expecting the arrival of many more seasonable articles during this week.

The best homes in Pampa do not hesitate to send their finest linens to the CITY STEAM LAUNDRY. It was with such assurance from my friends that I left some fine Madeira linens and some dainty embroidered articles at this laundry, knowing that skilled workers would care for them.

The employees take special delight in caring for baby clothes. These garments are delicately cleaned and are ironed by hand.

Nothing is more interesting than a visit to the laundry. While I was there some of the workers were cleaning the most delicate of fabrics and others were laundering such things as feather beds and feather pillows.

Are you familiar with the "THRIFT" and the "WET WASH" offers? These are special economy services. Telephone the laundry (the number is 643) and ask about them. Or visit the laundry at 315 West Kingsmill.

"Such food should be served on a silver platter," I heard someone say while I was eating lunch at LA NORA CONFECTIONETTE. That person was right. The food was delicious. But it tastes just as good from a china plate.

The CONFECTIONETTE knows no depression. We find people standing, waiting to obtain one of those cozy CONFECTIONETTE booths. They like the privacy of the booths. They like the meals, which range from a sandwich and a drink to a bounteous dinner. And they like the fountain service. One of those double thick malted milks, for instance, will add interest to any meal.

Infinite care is taken in the preparation of each dish at LA NORA CONFECTIONETTE. It must be tempting to the eye. It must do its share to make the meal a real delight.

When you want a light luncheon, remember the CONFECTIONETTE SNACK—a sandwich, a salad, and a dessert—all daintily prepared and served for 30 cents. And if you are very hungry, the 40-cent luncheon can't be beat. The CONFECTIONETTE is the second door south of La Nora theater.

Hats with crowns as peaked as Baby Bunting's hood are a new note in early spring chapeaux.

EL PROGRESSO CLUB TO HOLD OPEN MEETING

DISTRICT SECRETARY WILL ACCOMPANY MRS. HILL

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will address all federated clubs of Pampa at a meeting to be held at 3:15 o'clock at the Methodist church. The secretary, Mrs. Clyde Warwick of Canyon, will accompany the president to this city Tuesday.

The gathering will be under the sponsorship of El Progreso club, and in the evening the visitors as well as local federated club presidents will be special guests at an El Progreso meeting in the home of Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Hill will bring Pampa club women her aims as president for the coming two years. The object for the district is "Know the Federation Work." The aims are enlightenment, enlightenment, wise economy, and helpfulness.

The motto is "Look Upward, not Downward; out ward, not inward; forward, not backward, and lend a hand."

Mrs. Hill will be glad to discuss problems that are meeting any club. The theme in the evening will be in accord with the Washington bi-centennial celebration, and Mrs. Hill will lecture on Washington portraits.

Mrs. May Foreman Carr and her pupils will play while the guests are gathering, and Dorothy Jo Moore and Bonnie Lee Rose, pupils of Miss Kathryn Vincent, assisted by Mrs. Frank Keehn, will dance the minuet. Mrs. T. D. Hobart and Mrs. P. C. Ledrick will pour tea.

Leaders of Pampa Clubdom for Year 1932-33

When Pampa federated clubs begin their activities next year, the above women will fill the president's chairs. They were selected at recent meetings of the various organizations. Reading from left to right, they are: Top row, Mrs. J. Porter Malone of the Twentieth Century club, Mrs. Julian Barrett of the Junior Twentieth Century club, and Mrs. O. H. Booth of the Arzo Art club; bottom row, Mrs. F. Ewing Culture Club, Mrs. J. M. McDonald of El Progreso club, and Mrs. Katie Vincent of the Wayside club. (By Fred's Studio)

ADDRESS IS TO BE FEATURE OF FOUNDERS' DAY BANQUET FOR UNIVERSITY GROUP HERE

Club Mayfair Is Entertained at Colonial Party

Red, white, and blue were employed by Mrs. Clyde Fatheree in stressing a colonial theme at a party for Club Mayfair Thursday afternoon.

Bridge appointments were in a colonial design, and at the close of the games packages wrapped in the featured colors were presented to Mrs. Julian Barrett for high score among club members, Mrs. John Sturgeon for high score among the guests, and Mrs. Ed Damon for low. Candles, decorated to further the chosen motif, lighted the tables for the serving of a salad and dessert course with tea.

Joining in the games were Miss Virginia Faulkner, Miss Margaret Buckler, and Mesdames Virginia Duerr, Lynn Boyd, Elbert Hubbard, Arthur Swanson, Julian Barrett, Ed Damon, T. R. Martin, and three special guests, Mrs. John Sturgeon, Mrs. Buck Miller, and Miss J. M. Lybrand Jr., Mrs. Arthur Teed, Miss Dorothy Pollard, Mrs. Don Conley, Mrs. Corinne Cooper, and Mrs. W. J. Smith were tea guests.

Dr. McCash has made many talks on the subject of Russia. An authoritative lecture on conditions in Russia, made by President L. N. McCash of Phillips University, Enid, will be heard in Pampa Friday evening by members of the American Association of University Women and the College club and their husbands, as well as a number of other persons who are making a study of facts pertaining to that country.

The address will feature the annual founder's day banquet for the A. A. U. W. and College club, which will be held at 8 o'clock at the Schneider hotel.

Dr. McCash went to Russia last summer to study particularly the five-year plan, which was inaugurated in 1928 and will be completed in 1933. He went in the interest of education and religion, making a research of the attitude of the Soviet government to both of these things. He has been called upon by a large number of college teachers associations, churches, and clubs.

Music, dances, and all other details of the banquet will feature Russian themes.

Mrs. Earl O'Keefe will be toastmistress, and hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Kasishke, Miss Kathryn Vincent, Mrs. A. H. Doupette, Miss Marie May, Miss Iva June Willis, Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle, Mrs. A. B. Goldston and Mrs. Alex Lubetkin.

Mrs. Earl Wyatt of Amarillo, state president of the A. A. U. W., will be a special guest and will give a few words of greeting. Mrs. H. C. Amarillo, state corresponding secretary, may also attend.

Reservations must be made with Mrs. W. R. Campbell not later than Monday by all who plan to attend. Plates are $1 each.

Parent-Teacher Group Observes Founders' Day

About forty mothers were present at a meeting of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at the school. A short business session was held, and a founders' day program, led by Mrs. A. L. Patrick, followed. The program was in celebration of the 35th anniversary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Patrick made a short talk on the beginning of the Parent-Teacher movement, and Miss Florence Jones gave the purpose of child welfare day. Mrs. L. C. Peddicord discussed the founders, Mrs. Alice McLellan Birley and Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst. This was followed by a birthday ceremony in which a gold candle was lighted by Mrs. Patrick in remembrance of the founders. A candle representing the child was lighted by Mrs. Fisher, June Mullinax, and a candle in honor of Mrs. G. C. Malone, first president of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association, was lighted by Mrs. Don Hurst. The fourth candle, representing the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association, was lighted by the president, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, who also closed the meeting with prayer.

A birthday cake was cut and served, and a birthday offering amounting to $3.56 was taken. Mrs. L. E. Stovall's room was given the prize for having the largest number of mothers present.

Art Club Meets in Clayton Home

Mrs. I. B. Hughey was in charge of a lesson on Rubens at a meeting of the Arzo Art club Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Tom Clayton. Mrs. Roy Tinsley was co-hostess.

Discussions included the following: Mrs. C. L. Craig, "Rubens and Isabella Brandt"; Mrs. Jack Mason, "The Descent from the Cross"; Mrs. Arthur Swanson, "The Lion Hunt"; Mrs. T. W. Sweetman, "The Christ Child, St. John, and the Angels"; Mrs. T. B. Solomon, "Le Chapeau de Paille"; Mrs. Roy Tinsley, "Henry IV. Receiving the Portrait of Marie de Medici."

A lovely salad course was served to Mesdames John Anderson, E. Baum, O. H. Booth, C. L. Craig, V. E. Fatheree, R. B. Fisher, L. E. Hughey, J. W. Jamison, Jack Mason, T. W. Sweetman, Roy Tinsley, Tom Clayton, and one visitor, Helen Leech.

Strict-Nine Club Is Complimented by Mrs. Barrier

Mrs. C. M. Barrier was hostess at the Kelly apartments Wednesday afternoon for members of Strict-Nine club. She stressed the Valentine motif in appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. James Smoot, who won the award for high bridge score, and Mrs. Jess Stalls, who was favored for consolation, gave their prizes to Mrs. A. E. Stansbury, who was preparing to leave with Mr. Stansbury and their daughter, Dorothy, for a two-month visit in Michigan.

Those attending were Mesdames James Smoot, James Shackelford, Jess Stalls, Ralph Lennon, A. E. Stansbury, Roy Abbott, and W. R. Chaffin.

Mrs. Smoot will entertain at the next meeting.

Helping Hands Club Has Meet

LAKETON, Feb. 6.—The Helping Hands club met with Mrs. Clyde Gray Thursday with a good attendance. Miss Ruby Adams, demonstrator, had charge of the program, the subject being winter gardens.

Visitors were Mrs. Edna Gray, Mrs. R. B. Dial, Mrs. Chess Terry, and Miss Fern Hughey of Pampa. Members present were Mrs. Leo Paris, Mrs. Frank Welch, Mrs. G. C. Springer, Mrs. Ataway, Mrs. John White, and the hostess, Jello with fruit was served with cake and coffee at the close of the meeting.

An all-day meeting will be held Feb. 19 in the home of Mrs. Leo Paris. A yard demonstration will be given and a covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

News of Clubs in District

Calendar of This Year Includes Many Activities for Girl Scouts

CANYON, Feb. 6.—The Farmer County Federation of Women's clubs which was visited by the district president and secretary recently, has put much emphasis on health and beautification, over a period of years. An active county health chairman has directed the efforts of the clubs, so that by co-operating with other agencies they have secured the examination of school children, have encouraged more careful planning of sanitary features of homes and towns and have urged more healthful living habits among adults.

In the field of beautification, yards, houses, and school grounds have been improved through the exchange of seeds and plants, the planting of flower gardens, hedges, and trees. Some of the clubs have had yard contests.

Mrs. Reuben Gieschler of Bovina has just been elected president of the Farmer county federation, succeeding Mrs. T. J. Crawford of Friona.

Farmer county clubs, four of which belong to the county federation, have two district officers, Mrs. Maunie Goodwine of Friona, is chairman of the committee on law observance, and Mrs. Walter Lander is chairman of the committee on Texas composers and American music.

Contract Club Entertained by Mrs. Goldston

Valentine was the theme for a prettily planned party given by Mrs. A. B. Goldston Friday afternoon for members of the Contract Bridge club. Mrs. Philip Pond scored high in the games.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Mesdames J. M. Lybrand, Buck Miller, J. H. Kelley, T. F. Smalling, Siler Faulkner, A. B. Zahn, Frank Keim, Philip R. Pond, L. O. Johnson, P. M. Gwin, Charlie Thut, and Henry Thut.

Mrs. Johnson will entertain the club at its next meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Going To Amarillo

The American Legion auxiliary, meeting in regular session Thursday evening planned to go to Amarillo the evening of Feb. 19 to honor its national president. The local group also will attend a luncheon in Amarillo Feb. 20.

Those at Thursday's meeting were Mesdames Ray Anderson, C. C. Axelander, E. S. Hogsett, W. M. Voyles, W. B. Murphy, Gordon Ingie, A. E. Arnold, Clyde Garner, R. A. Webb, Al Lawson, W. C. de Cordova, and Roy Sewell.

Mrs. C. C. Cockrill visited in Amarillo yesterday.

MANY MEETINGS WILL BE HELD MUCH VARIETY NOTED IN CALENDAR OF WEEK

The coming week will be a busy one for Pampa society, and considerable variety is observed in meetings for each day. The calendar follows:

MONDAY
Regular meeting of the Little Theater has been postponed until Monday of next week.

Circle 2 of the First Baptist W. M. S. will meet at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. F. Ewing Leech to sew. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. A similar meeting will be held at the church by Circle 3. Circle 1 will meet at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. B. Chisum, and Circle 4 will meet with Mrs. W. B. Henry at 2:30.

Central Baptist Sunbeams will meet at the church at 3 o'clock.

TUESDAY
Royal Neighbors will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the basement of the First Baptist church.

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of the seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will address Pampa club women at 3:15 o'clock at the Methodist church.

El Progreso club will have an open meeting at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar.

Comus club will have a dance from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Schneider hotel.

B'Nai Israel Sisterhood will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Murray Freundlich.

Altar society, Holy Souls church, (See CALENDAR, Page 4)

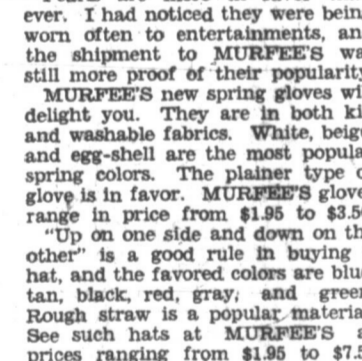

My new formula for chic: Buy that, gloves, and costume jewelry at one time.

For all who love beautiful accessories, MURFEE'S STORE yesterday was opening exquisite new arrivals for spring. They will be ready tomorrow for the approval of Pampa women.

Pearls are more in favor than ever. I had noticed they were being worn often to entertainments, and the shipment to MURFEE'S was still more proof of their popularity.

MURFEE'S new spring gloves will delight you. They are in both kid and washable fabrics. White, beige, and egg-shell are the most popular spring colors. The plainer type of glove is in favor. MURFEE'S gloves range in price from $1.95 to $3.50.

"Up on one side and down on the other" is a good rule in buying a hat, and the favored colors are beige, tan, black, red, gray, and green. Rough straw is a popular material. See such hats at MURFEE'S at prices ranging from $1.95 to $7.50.

Fashioning folk have been seen wearing black velvet evening gowns made on simple lines. One model was worn with a long scarf.

Q is for Quarters. A Room or a Suite, Well-priced and Well-Cared-for, And Furnished Complete.

When I visited the PAMPA FURNITURE STORE, I observed the lighter weight furniture and visualized its appearance in a small, cozy apartment. Here's what I saw: "A two-piece mohair living room suite with diamond back chair first met the eye of one entering the apartment. In one corner was a 'reading nook'—a chair, a pillow, a bookcase, a lamp. There was a kitchen, all shining and cheerful, which could truly be called the 'home hostess' laboratory.' There was a lovely breakfast nook. But there was bedroom furniture that was simply irresistible. Not only did my 'dream apartment' have a beautiful bedroom suite, but it had one of those best of all mattresses—the Simmons.

Frank Foster is the kind of merchant who is delighted to show you his furniture and explain to you just what is the "latest out." He has a smile just as broad for the one who is "just looking" as he has for the one who spends $1,000. VISIT the PAMPA FURNITURE STORE and see the finest furniture in the Panhandle.

P for pianos. Both Uprights and Grands. You'll find them at TARPLEY'S To suit purse and plans.

"This is an age of music," I thought as I visited the TARPLEY MUSIC STORE, "and this store is ready to meet every new demand."

The time has passed when it was considered "sissy" to play the piano or violin. Now to be musical is one sure road to popularity. Music today is taught in every public school in Pampa. It is emphasized in every club. It is used in every church. Every child is a potent musician. Don't deny him the privilege and joy of playing some instrument.

Have you seen the small grand pianos and the tiny Tom Thumb practice pianos for children? TARPLEY'S pianos and other musical instruments are the best buys possible.

Miss Margaret Buckler is in charge of the sheet music and record department. There is the latest popular sheet music for 35 cents a copy, and the finest of classical selections. Also there is the complete Century addition at 15 cents per copy.

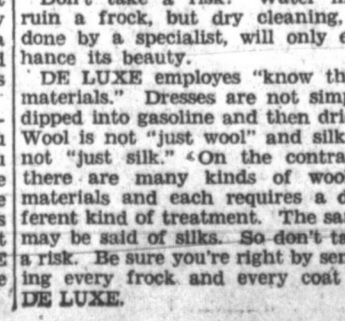

It was like buying a new dress when I stood at DE LUKE CLEANERS—but a new dress would have cost 20 times as much!

Don't take a risk! Water may ruin a frock, but dry cleaning, if done by a specialist, will only enhance its beauty.

DE LUKE employs "know their materials." Dresses are not simply dipped into gasoline and then dried. Wool is not "just wool" and silk is not "just silk." On the contrary, there are many kinds of woolen materials and each requires a different kind of treatment. The same may be said of silks. So don't take a risk. Be sure you're right by sending every frock and every coat to DE LUKE.

IT WON'T WAH IT WILL DRY CLEAN

(By Herbert Plummer) WASHINGTON—Apparently President Hoover and his chief political lieutenants think a bit differently about this question of the patriotic impulses of those gentlemen working to bring relief to the country.

Consider, for example, the night that the president received the bill authorizing the creation of the two-billion dollar reconstruction finance corporation.

It was a big moment for him when he affixed his signature making it a law. The short statement he issued to the press, announcing the fact that he had signed the bill, contained a rather remarkable sentence:

"I wish to pay tribute," said the president, "to the patriotism of the men in both houses of congress who have given proof of their devotion to the welfare of the country, irrespective of political affiliation."

Two hours or so later a tall, handsome and smiling young man arose in Chicago to make a speech. It was Patrick Hurley, secretary of war and one of the president's close political advisers.

It was a different story Secretary Pat had to tell about motives and patriotism than that made earlier by the chief.

He pictured President Hoover as a maligned executive, a victim of propaganda intended to defame his character and ability.

"A lot of this," continued the secretary of war, "has been conducted anonymously by men who would sacrifice the welfare of the nation to gain a political advantage. But even the critics have been driven by the people to adopt the president's program."

Is it Hurley's idea that this is patriotism under duress? Hurley Enthusiastic

This marks the second time the secretary has engaged in making pointed jibes at those who have criticized the president. At the meeting of the republican national committee in Washington last December he started things popping with pretty much the same kind of speech.

One thing seems to be fairly clear about Hurley at the present. He intends to contribute as his part in the reelection of President Hoover a zest and enthusiasm comparable to any.

ABOUT NEW YORK

(By William Gaines) NEW YORK—Countess Olga Albini, the songbird, is one of the few women who ever turned down a fat offer from Florenz Ziegfeld to appear in one of his shows.

Plumpness, on the countess' part, had something to do with her refusal. Ziegfeld wanted her to take off some poundage. The countess, like so many Spanish ladies, likes to eat. Then, too, she had plenty of radio work, and was assured of a steady job on the air.

While a trifle plump, the soprano has yet to lose her raceful proportions. There are persons who consider her an outstanding beauty in the radio field.

Though she loves sweets, she says she does not eat them on days when she is to sing. And she exercises, too; walks for an hour daily; swims all year—in indoor pools when the weather's cold, and fences.

Albini was a road show prima donna for awhile, and does over big in personal appearances now.

She has acquired an ability for showing off good looking clothes, which she designs herself. It is recalled by some, however, that she was not always so much concerned with her personal appearance, and that her attractiveness was developed with her reputation.

She is proficient at preparing Spanish dishes, and is fond of the tasty food she cooks. She won't wear diamonds, and prefers emeralds. Despite her Spanish blood, she dislikes bright colors. There's not a red frock in her wardrobe. She speaks four languages and has never bobbed her hair. Her manner is gracious.

The count, who bestowed her title upon Olga by marriage, is her faithful shadow and adviser.

Dollars and Nonsense Babe Ruth probably is able to stand a salary slice without having to give up his 12-room apartment, but maybe Mrs. Ruth would have to worry along with just two servants instead of three.

Lou Holtz, the vaudevillian, is another whose salary grievances, however just they may be, fail to stir many sympathetic tears these days.

If Holtz drew even what the Palace wants to pay him for as many weeks per year as the Babe plays ball, his income would shame the diamond stars. Yet Lou is always gathered about a few hundred dollars, more or less.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS THINK

MAINTAINING TEACHING STANDARDS

Should the salaries of school teachers be slashed in accordance with wage cuts in other lines of endeavor? That is a problem which is being considered by school boards all over the country. Our answer is "No." Teachers have never received large enough salaries, and general cuts might prove disastrous.

"Now is the proper time to weed out incompetent and untrained teachers," is the opinion of Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas Teachers college, and president of the Texas State Teachers' association.

However, Dr. Hill warns that "the present crisis might react adversely, resulting in the elimination of the best trained and most desirable teachers in the profession. Salaries are being cut in many places, and still others are recommending salary cuts. Such a movement is going to be disastrous. It means that those best fitted to teach and those outstanding in the profession will desert our ranks and turn to more lucrative positions."

The educator points out that "the teachers' association and the state's teachers' colleges have spent years in building up the profession to its present standards, which still are too low. But if this false economy movement continues it will undo everything we have accomplished in years of work. The average annual salary for Texas teachers is $1,051.54. This is much too low. But the fact that 15 per cent of the teachers do not have college training, and a large per cent of them are not even high school graduates has held the salary basis to an unreasonably low standard. There is a surplus of teachers now, and the best can be had at prevailing salaries, provided no further reductions are made.

This editor has always stood for higher salaries for teachers and public officials. It is our opinion that these servants, in positions of high trust and the opportunity to mould character, are entitled to liveable salaries. We should favor an increase in teachers' salaries rather than a reduction, at any time.—HERALD, Borger.

EAT MORE MEAT

The value of all crops produced on Texas farms last year was $630,000,000, according to the Dallas NEWS' survey. The value of livestock produced was $454,000,000. The figures prove that Texas is still a major livestock producer and that the wealth, well-being and happiness of Texas people still depends in large degree on the livestock industry—a fact most Texans fail to appreciate.

The Omaha Daily JOURNAL-STOCKMAN recently put in a word or two in behalf of meat as a good, substantial and wholesome human food. Obviously, the people of Texas for selfish reasons should give more attention to meat in the daily diet. In this time of bargain-hunting and economizing, meat should commend itself to the frugal housewife as one of the cheapest foods that the markets afford. Fine quality meats of all kinds may be bought today at a fraction of what they cost two or three years ago. This is true of fresh meat as well as cured products. The meat dollar probably goes farther today than any other dollar in the family budget. And in spite of the low prices prevailing, the quality in general is higher than formerly.

Meat is coming back into the dietary with a rush. The food faddists, the dietists and the federal government in wartime did their darn'dest to destroy the human appetite for meat, but failed. Wholesome meat, as a matter of fact, not only is a perfectly safe food, but it is a food that should be included in the diet of every person.

More emphasis should be placed on meat in the family budget—and this should appeal particularly to Texans, whose interests are the interests of the livestock producers.—NEWS, Abilene.

OUR BEST SPENT TAX MONEY

The money paid by Wheeler county toward the services of the county farm agent and home demonstration agent returns more dividends than any other funds expended by county commissioners court.

Many business men attending the Shamrock chamber of commerce annual banquet Tuesday night were amazed at the wide scope of activities reported by Jake Tarter, farm agent, in a five-minute talk. Tarter spends from 12 to 16 hours a day visiting farmers and helping them. He seldom has time to attend public meetings, and never has an opportunity to visit townspeople and report just what he is doing.

Three bull circles have been formed and financed by members, who own 167 cows. One hundred and thirty-nine poultry demonstrators in Wheeler county are practically earning their livelihood from their flocks. Twenty-nine beef clubs of four members each have been formed to keep on their tables fresh beef during most of the year. Four hundred and seventy-nine hogs have been cured the modern way this year for home consumption.

Two hundred purebred hogs have been imported into the county this year. Terracing and soil conservation methods on 129 farms the past year have saved the county an estimated $8,000. There were 171 boys in 4-H clubs last year and now there are 312. Fifty per cent of the boys' dads attend the 4-H meetings. The boys are teaching dad who once did not believe in modern methods of agriculture, how to make money on the farm.

The cow, the sow, and the hen, the past year have put up-and-going Wheeler county farmers where they are not worrying about this depression business. They don't have much money, but pantry shelves are filled and when prices on farm commodities get right, they are going to make big money. They have learned how to live at home.

Give Jake Tarter and Viola Jones credit for having done more for Wheeler county than any other public employees. If every dollar spent of tax-payers' money was as well accounted for as that little portion the county puts up with the federal and state government for farm and home demonstration work, the word "depression" would be obsolete in five years.—TEXAN, Shamrock.

Admiral Byrd plans to build an Antarctic city 500 miles nearer the pole than Little America. Just the place for the American people to warm up to the debt cancellation idea.

With Uncle Andy Mellon salted away in the London job and Dawes safely pickled, politically speaking, by his reconstruction corporation, President Hoover is step by step exercising more political sagacity than he is credited for having. His re-remination is so sure that the subject no longer merits discussion. His party cannot drop him without admitting his weakness, which in this instance is his chief political strength.

That "Unless" Hoover is a beaten man, unless—That unless is packed with dynamite, for it cannot be assumed that Hoover can be beaten by a divided democratic party. There are many persons who are so afraid of changes that they will vote for Hoover rather than take a chance. They expect eventual improvement if he is re-elected, and they fear the effect of any radical change, such as complete revision of the tariff system.

Why Not? But the people who hold the balance of power, in our humble estimation, wish deep-rooted changes in governmental policy and in its relation to private business, and they look to the democratic party for that sort of achievement. And why should they not? The republicans have had ample time to prove that they have no control over capitalistic big business. A united democratic party has the biggest opportunity of the century.

For Roosevelt This section undoubtedly favors Franklin D. Roosevelt of all the democratic possibilities, assuming that Jack Garner is not a candidate. But it is surprising to read that Roosevelt is not popular at all with the politicians of the east. He has shown an unwillingness to put party above everything, and that is a political sin in any party. Al Smith is so aware of this feeling that he is reported to be considering a last-minute offer to run. This would be even more disastrous than before to party chances but it probably isn't improbable.

Unpopular Limited and skillful talk of rift between Roosevelt and Smith would be strengthening the former, providing the candidate plays

THREE KINDS OF LOVE BY KAY CLEAVER STRAHAN

ANN and CECILY FENWICK have for years supported themselves, their younger sister, MARY-FRANCES, and their grandparents, known as "ROSA LIE" and "GRAND." Because of this financial responsibility, Ann, who is 25, is unable to marry PHIL ECKHARDT, young inventor whom she has been engaged for eight years. Cecily, 22, loves BARRY MCKEEL, but she refuses to name their wedding date for the same reason.

Earl softened. Earl melted. Earl said, "Sweetie! Honest, I'll have to ask you to excuse me—the way I talked just now. I should of known better. Oh, you little sweeties you! You mean you'll go straight goods and no fooling, tomorrow?"

MARY-FRANCES, her chin in her palm, sighed a long sigh and nodded. "As you say, there isn't so much for me to stay here for."

She reached under her bed and found the green satin mules. She had put them away—not for her trousseau, of course; merely to keep—but she had taken them out again and was wearing them, resolutely, to tags.

"I COULD write a note," mused Mary-Frances. "No, no. Nothing like that, Frankie. Absolutely not. That's out—see? Illinois Man Is Opening Studio of First Rank Here

L. O. Wirsching of Danville, Ill., has moved to Pampa and tomorrow will open a studio in the Smith building at 119 West Foster avenue. He was for 20 years in the photographic business in Illinois and is bringing this experience to Pampa. He is placing a first class studio here and will do all kinds of portrait, kodak finishing, and commercial work. He was widely known in Illinois because of the excellence of his portraiture.

In coming to Pampa, Mr. Wirsching said he was attracted by the fact that Pampa was so long in the "white spot" of business maps. He was much impressed in a preliminary

Huge Movie Set Made For "Union Depot," Rex Film

"Union Depot," the first National picture which comes to the Rex theater today, is what is known as a "one-set" picture. Practically the whole story is told in one great interior, the inside of a Union Depot in a Middle-Western city.

But if any one labors under the impression that because it is a one-set picture it must of necessity be an inexpensive picture to stage, he reckons without understanding just what the replica of a great railroad terminal involves.

The "Union Depot" set, in every way a duplicate of a large city station, involved the building of practically every other kind of a modern set. It would be perfectly possible to spend a life time inside New York's Grand Central Terminal and never want for anything. It would be equally possible to live a life time inside the "Union Depot" set time inside the "Union Depot" set on the first National lot if it were not dismantled as soon as the picture finished.

All of these services and many more are provided in the great set for the new picture featuring Douglas Fairbanks Jr., and Joan Blondell, and each of them made necessary the building of a set within a set.

courts, pacts, and disarmament prevent these conflicts when the same causes arise again? That is the issue, and it cannot yet be answered affirmatively.

TWINKLES

Dear Readers: For your information, the cable press rate to the United States from Shanghai is 18 cents a word; full regular rate 72 cents a word; and the urgent rate, which is chiefly used for bulletins, is $2.34 a word. Yessir, your "war" news is expensive.

Amarillo Rotarians referred to themselves as Amar-ill-yans. We thought they were Amarillians. Which, we ask you, is correct?

And, in view of the bad meaning attached to the word Panhandlers, we suppose we will just be plainmen and let it go at that.
