Apologetic Japs Meet All Demands Of U. S. Protest

AMERICANS IN TOKYO RECEIVE MANY REGRETS

TOKYO, Dec. 14 (AP)—The gist of President Roosevelt's memorandum demanding full satisfaction for the sinking of the United States gunboat Panay was delivered today to Emperor Hirohito, one of the highest government officials disclosed.

It was reported the memorandum was received quietly.

The formal delivery of the protest was preceded by a diplomatic note to the United States which, in effect, met beforehand the major points of President Roosevelt's demands.

The high government source said the prompt delivery of the demands to the emperor itself best illustrated the attitude of the Japanese government regarding the attack on the Panay.

"It shows the extent of Japan's eagerness to face the music squarely," he said.

Official and unofficial sentiment—the latter including even personal expressions toward Americans from the Japanese man in the street—seemed to indicate a readiness to accept the responsibility and to make all possible amends.

Americans Stopped
This unofficial attitude brought strange scenes in Tokyo streets and public places where Americans met the Japanese public.

The Japanese stopped Americans in their rounds, removing their hats and gravely expressing their sorrow for the incident. The fact that most of the Americans failed to understand was no deterrent.

Average Japanese citizens visited numerous American business offices, tendering their regrets. Taxi drivers and even waitresses conveyed similar expressions.

Foreign Minister Koki Hirota sent to United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew the notes which:

1. Expressed apologies and regrets;
2. Promised indemnification;
3. Stated measures to prevent a

THERMOSTATS AND NEW BUS ROUTE ORDERED

Thermostats to regulate the temperature were ordered installed in all Pampa schools when the board met yesterday afternoon. The board also authorized establishment of another bus route because of increased rural attendance in Pampa schools.

The bus, driven by Joe Shelton, superintendent of bus drivers, will operate in area close to the city. It will be the last bus to leave in the morning and the first to return in the evening.

Harvey Anderson was employed to drive the bus on the Merten run.

The board also approved purchase of two new sewing machines for the home economics department at the high school. The Singer Sewing Machine company was awarded the contract.

SNOW COMES WITH DROP IN MERCURY HERE

Pampa, like the rest of North Texas, was enjoying Christmas-like weather today, with a coating of snow on the ground and temperatures ranging through the twenties.

A mixture of fog, snow and some sleet brought a little moisture to the area late yesterday and last night. The mercury stood stationary at 20 until ten o'clock this forenoon when it skipped up a point to 21 and by 1 o'clock this afternoon had reached 23 degrees.

Continued cold tonight was predicted by the weatherman who indicated that slightly rising temperatures could be expected tomorrow. Police were called to investigate four collisions on slippery streets within one hour last night. Cars were slightly damaged, but nobody was injured in any of the accidents. All accidents were blamed by police on icy windshields which obstructed views of approaching cars at intersections.

STRAITJACKET WILL BE PURCHASED FOR JAIL

Sheriff Earl Talley was given permission by the county commissioners at their regular meeting yesterday to purchase a strait jacket costing $18.

The device is expected to be used principally in handling persons adjudged insane, who are committed to the sheriff's care. County Auditor R. C. Wilson was authorized to ask for bids on a road maintainer. Bids are to be submitted January 10.

The following budget amendments were voted: in road and bridge funds, precinct 1, $3,500; precinct 2, $7,350; precinct 4, $1,275. Also approved was amending the courthouse and jail fund $1,688.50.

Walter and Ehnis Jones, C. W. Bowers, J. C. Terry and Floyd McLaughlin were appointed as a jury of view to ascertain damages incident to opening a road in block M-2.

A report of County Treasurer D. R. Henry was approved.

12 NAMES CERTIFIED FOR BOD DIRECTORS

Board of City Development directors last night certified 12 persons for membership on the board. Six of the 12 will be approved by the city commission next Monday night.

Five of the new directors will be named for three years, succeeding President Jim Collins, Vice-President Charlie Burton, Fred Cullum, E. J. Dunigan, Jr. and J. W. Garman, retiring directors. The sixth member will serve the unexpired two-year term of the late Ed W. Blsett.

Directors voted to accept invitations to the annual chamber of commerce banquets at Canadian tonight and at Amarillo on Friday night.

200 FAMILIES IN CITY NEED GOOD FELLOWS

Apparently indifferent to the request of the city that the Works Progress administration repair the damage done in a load test to the fairgrounds grandstand on Nov. 6, and that the project be continued, the federal agency through Heyward P. Kay of Shamrock, area engineer, yesterday informed City Manager C. L. Stine that the WPA desired to stop all work on the project on December 28, end of the present payroll period.

When asked by Mr. Stine as to whether the Works Progress administration would repair the wreckage wrought when 938 sacks of cement, each weighing 95 pounds, were loaded on a section 15 x 28 feet in area, causing the collapse of that part of the grandstand, Mr. Kay replied by saying he did not know nor did he believe anyone in the Works Progress administration could furnish that information.

At the City commission meeting last night, Mr. Stine reported this conversation. The commission was

FORTY ATTEND ROAD MEETING

Although the weather curtailed attendance, enthusiasm was not dimmed when Judge Noel McDade of Dumas, president of the Oilfield Highway 41 association, called a roll of delegates at the opening luncheon in the basement of the First Methodist church on noon today. Nearly 40 answered the call.

Judge McDade was introduced by President James Collins of the Pampa Board of City Development, who welcomed the visitors to Pampa.

Only speakers on the noon program were J. W. Van London of Amarillo, state highway division engineer, and R. A. Singletary, manager of the good roads bureau of the Oklahoma City chamber of commerce, who urged the association to pass a resolution urging continuance of funds for public roads.

Delegations at the meeting had arrived up to noon from Dumas, Borger, Panhandle, Wheeler, Sayre, Cordell and Oklahoma City.

A business session was scheduled for this afternoon in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall.

200 FAMILIES IN CITY NEED GOOD FELLOWS

Santa Claus will visit every less-privileged family in Pampa if those who are more able will adopt a family and provide that family with Christmas cheer.

There will be approximately 200 families in Pampa which will need a Good Fellow on Christmas eve and Christmas day.

The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary have again agreed to act as a clearing house for these families. The list of families and information about them was collected at the various relief organizations and turned over to the Legion.

Starting tomorrow at 9 a. m. these families will be "given away" at a desk in the City Hall lobby. The demand for families this year is increasing and those who want to play Santa Claus are urged to pick out their family or families tomorrow. As additional families will be put on this list, this desk presided over by the American Legion Auxiliary will be open until Christmas.

Some of these families are in very hard circumstances. The father in one family is in bed with rheumatism, and there are five children hoping that Santa Claus will come to see them. This family is waiting for a Good Fellow. Another family man, and wife and eight children will not receive a visit from Santa unless some one acts as Big Brother to them.

"A study of the list of these families inspires a prayer that Pampa Good Fellows will not forget the least of these this Christmas," said Howard Buckingham, Post Commander.

BORGAN ARRESTED IN HIGHWAY CRASH CASE

County officers are holding a Borger man in jail here, in connection with an automobile collision four miles west of Pampa on U. S. Highway 40 at 7:45 p. m. Monday.

Biggs Horn of White Deer, former Pampa, suffered only minor injuries in the accident, which occurred when his Oldsmobile coach was in collision with a Chevrolet coupe, driven by man now held in jail.

No charges had been filed against the man up to noon today. He suffered an injured right wrist, and an injury to his nose necessitated three stitches.

First Work Done On Borger Highway

Interest in the meeting of Highway Association 41 in Pampa today was increased through the recent beginning of work on the Pampa-Borger road improvement, which is a section of the 41 Highway. The photograph here, snapped by Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Pampa Board of City Development, shows the first steps in the road work getting under way on Spring Creek, four miles northwest of Skellytown. The contractors are Allhands-Davis, of Dallas. Work on the road was halted temporarily by ice and sleet, but was going ahead again today with 33 men on the job. The force will be doubled within a short time, engineers said.

NANKING BURNS AS JAPANESE PICK PUPPETS

SHANGHAI Dec. 14 (AP)—Japan's rising sun flag fluttered at each corner of Nanking's walls today and within the ancient stone battlements the abandoned capital of the Chinese government was reported in flames.

Meager reports from Nanking said several Chinese detachments were trapped within the city but continued their virtually suicidal struggle with the Japanese in fierce street fighting or had barricaded themselves in buildings to delay the conquerors.

Meanwhile, it was said the Japanese continued their "mopping up" operations. Chinese sources admitted that the Japanese occupied Pukow, terminus of Tientsin-Pukow railway into north China across the Yangtze from Nanking. Chinese troops were reported

BODY OF GIRL FOUND IN AMARILLO TUNNEL

AMARILLO, Dec. 14 (AP)—Possibility that Evelyn Lucille Taylor, 21, whose badly decomposed body was found in a drainage tunnel at railroad yards here, was slain and her body hidden, was advanced by officers today.

Sheriff Bill Adams said the body was found face down in a shallow stream of oily water. It was identified as that of Miss Taylor by her father, Sam Taylor. She had been missing since she left her home to attend a dance the night of Oct. 29.

Officers said the body was fully clothed and wrapped in sacks and blankets. They said the head had a hole in the back of it which indicated the woman had been either struck or shot.

BOND IN FORGERY CASE SET AT $2,000 HERE

Bond for Joe Cross, charged with forgery, was set at $2,000 in a hearing Monday before Justice of the Peace E. P. Young. The charge is in connection with an automobile trade in Pampa, Oct. 30.

In another case yesterday before Justice of the Peace E. P. Young, Pat Fisher, negro, had his bond set at $500. Fisher was arrested about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon by county officers, in the "flats," and charged with carrying a pistol.

Neither of the two had made bond late this morning. Introductory offer, complete brake relining job, $8.95. Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth, "Grizzly" lining. Motor Inn. Adv.

Final Installment On Lake Fund Paid; Work Begins Near Canyon

At their regular meeting yesterday afternoon, Gray county commissioners voted to pay Gray county's share of the expenses in the Panhandle Water Conservation authority, amounting to $420, by transferring sums from the four precinct funds to the county wide erosion fund.

The $420 payment is the third and concluding payment on Gray county's share in the expenses of the PWCA, a $220 payment having been made in April, and a $220 payment in September, to make Gray county's total payment $860.

Carl Hinton, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce manager and acting secretary of the PWCA Saturday announced that actual work will start this week on Tierra Blanca dam and lake, first of the major projects sponsored by the Panhandle water authority to be "cleared."

The project will be one of the largest of its kind between Concha Dam and the Mississippi river, and will provide employment for 300 men over a period of six months and will cost approximately $500,000.

The PWCA has been financed by the various counties in the Panhandle, each being assessed a definite amount.

Wheeler Tenants May Buy Farms Under Act

Wheeler county has been selected as one of the three counties in Texas embraced by Region 12 of the Farm Security Administration where loans to tenants to purchase farms will be made this year under the new Bankhead-Jones Tenant Act. It was announced today by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, Randall and Floyd are the other counties.

Announcement followed closely upon the meeting of the four-state Farm Security Advisory committee which recommended counties after an intensive study of farming conditions in West Texas. It was upon the recommendation of this group that the counties were designated by the Secretary.

In effect the announcement means that $69,792 will be available to tenant farmers in these three counties to purchase farms within the next several months. It was upon the recommendation of this group that the counties were designated by the Secretary.

Applications for farm purchase loans will be made to the County FSA supervisor, who in turn will present the application to a county committee of three farmer members. This committee, which is now in the process of selection, will consider qualifications of the applicant and will appraise and examine the farms to be purchased. The successful applicant must be a citizen of the United States, a farm tenant, farm laborer or share-cropper or a person who has recently obtained the major portion of his income from farming operations.

HAD STOPPED TO GIVE AID IN CAR CRASH

Mrs. Sallie Smith, 46, of McLean, died in a local hospital at 8:15 o'clock last night as a result of injuries received when she was struck by a car and thrown against a railing on the bridge over the North Fork of Red River, three miles southwest of LeFors Monday evening.

Mrs. Smith was driving home to McLean from Pampa. As she drove over the bridge southeast of LeFors she noticed a car which had accidented on the bridge, torn down 40 feet of railing and fallen into the river. In the car were B. M. Howell of Keller, and J. H. White of Wellington. Neither was injured by the mishap.

Mrs. Smith stopped her car off the bridge, and signaled another car, in which was riding Mrs. Wilson Boyd, a sister-in-law of County Judge Sherman White. Mrs. Donald Beall and Mrs. Roger Powers, all of McLean, and like Mrs. Smith, en route from Pampa to McLean.

The women stopped their car on the bridge and accompanied Mrs. Smith as she walked back to investigate the car that had fallen into the river. While they were walking along the bridge, a car coming from the opposite direction approached them. The women started, two going to one side of the bridge, two to the other.

Mrs. Beall Leaps
Mrs. Smith was knocked through a railing of the bridge. Her clothes caught on the railing, preventing her from falling into the river. Mrs. Donald Beall leaped into the river, 30 feet below. She suffered only minor injuries.

The car that struck Mrs. Smith then rammed the rear of the car in which the three women had been riding. Mrs. Smith was placed in the car of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gray, who were coming to Pampa, and who had been passed a short time before by the car that struck Mrs. Smith.

Aid Rendered
There were two men in the car that struck Mrs. Smith. They stopped and helped Mrs. Smith into the Gray car. They remained at the scene of the accident for some time talking to the others involved in the

FOUR SUBMIT SUBSTITUTES TO WAGE ACT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—A small group of rebellious northern Democrats displaced southern colleagues today at the spearhead of House opposition to the administration's wage-hour bill.

Four members from north of the Mason-Dixon line proffered substitute measures which would impose inflexible wage-hour standards on firms engaged in interstate commerce.

The House may vote on them late today or tomorrow after deciding whether to place administration of the program under an independent five-man board or one labor department official.

Although the proposed substitutes differed in some details, none would permit any wage or hour differentials between the north and south.

Some of their proponents admitted frankly the purpose of the revisions was to alienate members who would support a more flexible measure.

Administration forces gained some southern support for the bill last week by agreeing to include differentials. Southern opponents contended that without them, industry in their region would be hampered by the legislation.

House leaders, buoyed by their success yesterday in defeating efforts to prevent consideration of the long-delayed bill, expressed confidence it would pass late in the week without substantial change.

They were more concerned about sentiment for sending the bill back to the labor committee for revision than about the proposals to revise it on the floor.

The Senate, meanwhile, sought to complete the farm bill by the time the House finished the wage-hour debate. Senator Barkley, Democratic floor leader, announced he was prepared to insist on night sessions if necessary to accomplish this objective.

The first major attempt to reviser the wage-hour bill was expected from Rep. Dockweiler (D-Calif.), sponsor of a substitute drafted by the American Federation of Labor. He would impose a uniform minimum wage of 40 cents an hour and a 40-hour work week. The labor committee draft would let these standards be set by industries. Minimum wages could not exceed 40 cents an hour, and the maximum work week could not be under 40 hours.

Dies Hits Measure
When the legislation finally reached the House floor yesterday after 283 members voted to repudiate the rules committee's blockade of it, Republicans and some southern Democrats denounced its provisions.

Rep. Dies (D-Tex.), a leading foe of the measure, said it was "designed to humbug" the workers and would benefit "only a handful of people."

Other portions of the President's legislative program were advancing slowly. Both Senate and House banking committees continued their study of the housing bill. The Senate group beginning final consideration of amendments.

The House rivers and harbors committee went ahead with hearings on legislation to create seven regional planning agencies.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe Railway system carloadings for the week ending December 11, were 22,008, compared with 22,119 for the same week in 1936. Received from connections were 5,008 cars, compared with 6,164 for the same week last year.

Total cars moved were 27,016 compared with 28,383 for the same week in 1936. The Santa Fe handled a total of 27,913 cars in the preceding week this year.

REPUBLICANS PICK 100 TO STEER COURSE

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14 (AP)—By meeting after midnight the Republican executive committee pushed well past the half way mark today in its strenuous sorting of 1,000 nominees for a policy committee of 100 while the party's national chairman, John D. M. Hamilton, lashed vigorously at his critics.

The conferees made a preliminary canvass of 600 names in alphabetical order in a nine-hour session behind closed doors.

Outside observers speculated upon at least four names as possible choices for chairman of the steering group; President E. M. Hopkins of Dartmouth; James Truslow Adams, the historian; Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon; and John H. Wigmore, Chicago legal authority.

Hamilton said the meeting which may "possibly decide the future of the party" and even possibly the future of the nation "had approached no one as yet for committee membership and 'certainly no one for the chairmanship.'"

Aside from the deliberations Hamilton made a stream of rebuttals to Robert W. Johnson, New Jersey industrialist, and others who have called for his own retirement.

"No one has the right to read me or anyone out of the party," Hamilton said.

2 KILLED AND 8 WOUNDED IN PANAY SINKING

By LLOYD LEHRBAS
SHANGHAI, Dec. 14 (AP)—Fifty-two survivors of the bombed United States Gunboat Panay today made their way from an inland refuge back toward the Yangtze river, carrying their two dead and eight seriously wounded.

Awaiting their arrival from Hanshan, some 20 miles inland, the United States Gunboat Bee, three Japanese warships and a Japanese airplane stood by at Hohsien to aid the injured.

The two known dead in the Japanese bombardment Sunday of the Panay and three other American vessels were Charles L. Ensminger of Ocean Beach, Calif., Panay storekeeper, and Sandro Sandri, Italian newspaper man who had sought refuge on board the vessel.

Available information of the attack which endangered 79 foreigners, mostly Americans, was that two were dead, eight seriously wounded, two slightly wounded, eleven foreigners and 81 Chinese missing, and probably a total of 96 saved.

Party Was Fleeing
The Panay party had fled to Hanshan to avoid Chinese-Japanese fighting on the river banks.

Sandri had represented the Turin newspaper La Stampa. Before coming to China he had covered wars in Spain and Ethiopia for Premier Mussolini's newspaper Il Popolo D'Italia of Milan.

There was no word of the 68 missing Chinese members of the crews of the Meian, Meisun and Meiping. Standard Oil company boats destroyed in the bombing attacks for which the Japanese navy has accepted full responsibility. It was believed, however, that most of them had been saved.

Names of the eight foreigners seriously wounded were not known here. Available information thus far listed names of 22 survivors, including Lieutenant Commander James Joseph Hughes, Lieutenant Arthur F. Anders, and Jim Marshall, Colliers Magazine writer, all of which were wounded.

F. Hayden Vines of Roanoke, Va., arrived at Wuhu with a slight injury.

Patterson Not Aboard
The Shanghai American consulate received word that A. L. Patterson of Washington, D. C., was not aboard the Panay. He previously had been listed among those unaccounted for.

The United States Cruiser Augusta received word that one of two Japanese planes which had flown to the scene of the incident was on its way back. The Bee and the Japanese gunboat Hoxdu were expected to steam back from Hohsien tomorrow, bearing survivors of the tragedy.

Negotiations were reported under way between Japanese and British authorities to remove the possibility of future attacks on British ships. The aim of the negotiations was said to be to permit any of the approximately 30 British vessels upstream on the Yangtze to proceed downriver to Shanghai.

Letters To Santa Claus

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a pair of cowboy boots and I want a rifle that shoots corcks and has a bird target. If you have any little automobile race tracks, I would like to have one and a blackboard.

I would also like a rubber ball. I guess you know I wear a size 11 cowboy hat. I'm six years old. My mama and daddy don't think I've been a very good boy, but I hope you think I have been good.

I guess that is all I want 'cause I don't want you to forget the rest of the little boys and girls.

JACK SPEER, Pampa.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a doll story book, jacks, and clothes.

BILLIE, Magic City.

Dear Santa Clab:
I want a football cap and a pair of cowboy boots. I wear size 13 and am seven years old. I want a rifle with a bird target and a cowboy suit. Don't forget all the other little boys and girls.

JIMMY SPEER, Pampa.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a football, tractor, house shoes, boots.

Your friend,
DALE, Magic City.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a rubber doll, housekeeping outfit, house shoes, fruits, nuts and candy.

BONNYE GAYE, Magic City.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a doll, cooking pans, jacks, and lots of clothes.

BERNICE JEAN, Magic City.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy five years old. I have tried to be good. I would like to have a White wrecker, two guns, two scabbards, a belt and six boxes of caps. I also want a scooter, some overalls and shirts. Mother said I couldn't have the scooter and overalls, too, so please leave the scooter go, and bring the overalls.

Your little friend,
MARQUIS WAYNE SANDERS,
303 Sunset Drive.

P. S.—Santa, I hope you make all the other little boys and girls happy.

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl three years old. I have a real bad case of whooping cough. I have to stay in bed today because I coughed so much last night. Please bring me a doll, suitcase, set of dishes, stove, and a pair of mittens. Bring my little brother some mittens, too.

Love, your friend,
LUDIA SANDERS,
303 Sunset Drive.

P. S.—Santa, please don't forget mama and Jim.

LeFors Cagers To Play In City Tomorrow Night

Harvester basketball fans will have a chance to note any considerable improvement in the team tonight and tomorrow night when the local boys play the Pirates.

Tomorrow night two LeFors clubs will play Coach Odus Mitchell's team here, the first game to be played at 7 and the second at 8 o'clock. Tonight the Pampa boys will play at LeFors.

Yesterday, Coach Odus Mitchell gave the boys a new set of plays, featuring deception and speed, and clever blocking. Coach Prejean taught the B squad the same set of plays. The B squad will play its first game soon. Mr. Prejean is taking his basketball-coaching seriously, and is drilling the boys painstakingly and thoroughly.

He is using the same tactics he used in coaching the Harvester football line; that is, stressing constant practice on details of fundamentals. Likely looking boys in his squad are Grover Lee Heiskell who yesterday practiced with the A squad of Coach Mitchell's; Johnny Kidwell, Doyle Auld, Jack Crout, Walter Word, Nevin Johnston, Herbert Maynard, Douglas Keyser.

Norman Cox, regular center, was still on the bench yesterday. He was unable to practice because of an injured knee. He was barely able to hobble about. Jack Cunningham, talkative 1937 reserve, is being groomed for Cox' place. Whether he can make it or not of course depends on the next few games. Cunningham looked brilliant at times in the Perryton tournament, but at other times he played entirely unsatisfactorily. Coach Mitchell is still teaching fundamentals to most of his team. Bob Andis, Pete Dunaway, Junior Foster are now being groomed as regulars.

It was learned yesterday that Berger will probably be the team to beat in the district tournament in February. Darrouzett will lose its best player at the second semester. Perryton handles the ball with lightning rapidity, but most observers believed Berger would show more lasting improvement. Berger is convinced this is the Bulldogs' year to win the district.

changes in the Social Security Act. The A. P. of L. announced today it would propose four major amendments:

1. To extend both the old age pension and unemployment insurance provisions to cover all workers. Domestic marine, and farm labor now is excluded from the old age pension program, and employees in small shops as well as farm and domestic labor are not covered by unemployment insurance.

2. To require the states to give unemployment insurance benefits to workers engaged in "legitimate" strikes. As the law stands, benefits can not be withheld should an unemployed worker refuse to work in a struck plant.

3. To fix the minimum old age pension at $30 a month for anyone who has paid taxes for five years. The minimum now is $10.

4. To eliminate employee contributions to unemployment insurance funds.

A proposal by Philip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers, to use the old age reserve funds for a vast housing program tops the C. I. O. program. The Social Security Board has estimated these reserves will total 47 billion dollars by 1980.

HERE'S WISHING YOU ALL THE HAPPIEST HOLIDAY SEASON EVER —

Camels
MADE FROM FINER, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCO'S
Give cigarettes for Christmas! What cigarette? CAMELS, of course. There's no doubt about how much people appreciate Camel's finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCO'S. A gift of Camels carries a double greeting from you. It says: "Happy Holidays and Happy Smoking!"

Prince Albert
THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE
If you know a man who smokes a pipe—you'll be making an appropriate selection if you give him PRINCE ALBERT. Prince Albert's is a mild pipe tobacco as ever delighted a pipe-smoker. It's easy on the tongue—doesn't bite. It's extra cool, thanks to its "crimp cut." And it's tops for mellow taste.

ASK ME WHAT I'D LIKE—AND THE ANSWER IS THAT BIG GLASS HUMIDOR OF PRINCE ALBERT

I BELIEVE IN GIVING MEN GIFTS THEY CAN USE. SO—I'M GIVING THAT SPECIAL 1-LB. CHRISTMAS TIN OF PRINCE ALBERT

YES SIR—CAMELS HEAD THE LIST OF WHAT I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS

(left) The famous Christmas package, the Camel carton—10 packs of "20's"—200 cigarettes. You'll find it at your dealer's.

(left) One pound of mild, mellow Prince Albert—the "bitless" tobacco—packed in the cheerful red tin humidior and placed in an attractive Christmas gift package.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

There is only one place where man can go for real security from evil, for rest from the trials and temptations of the world, from the burdens each day brings forth, and that place is in Christ. "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."—Chivers.

HOW TO DETERMINE YOUR CITY'S ASSETS

A group of researchers from Teachers' College of Columbia University put 309 American cities under the microscope recently to learn what it is that makes the difference between a good and a bad city. Cities have characters, just like people. They are busy, prosperous cities that nobody likes because they are so obviously on the make; there are down-at-the-heel places which somehow to manage to be friendly and appealing; there are in-between towns that don't look like much at first glance but that are nice when you get to know them.

What is that elusive something that sets such cities apart? The Columbia savants wanted to know; so they began a complicated but eminently sensible examination to discover what it is that a good city has which a bad city has not.

When they got through they announced that it is the character of a city's inhabitants, rather than its economic advantages, that makes for civic "goodness;" and before you say that you knew that in the first place, look how they used to figure it out.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—New Yorkers this week were discussing these events over their favorite brand of dog's nose. The pair of ex-dandies who indulged in a fist fight between acts at a Broadway premiere. The blonde girl evangelist who invaded a nightclub and threatened to open a revival meeting then and there. The unknown Princeton hero who advanced on Marlene Dietrich in a nightclub and asked her to dance, which she did. The refusal of actor George Arliss to grant interviews anywhere but in the lobby of his hotel. The passing of Bob Pastor as a factor in the upper-bracket prize-fight scramble.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—The proposal of Governor George D. Aiken of Vermont to shrink southern influence in Republican councils turns another light on efforts in both major parties to trim the south's political prestige and power. The idea of dwarfing southern influence in the Republican set-up is not new. Steps toward it have been taken repeatedly, and as things stand now, northern states get a "bonus" of extra delegates because of the size of the Republican vote cast. Southern states, casting few Republican votes, get no bonuses.

The Aiken proposal, however, strikes at another point, the national committee. He would give committee members a vote in exact proportion to the proportion of Republican vote cast in each state. In southern states the amount of Republican vote cast is very small compared with the Democratic vote, so southern members of the national committee would have little to say.

The Democratic party dimmed the southern voice in its 1936 convention by abrogating the 100-year-old two-thirds rule. Of course the 1940 convention will decide whether to nominate its candidates by a bare majority or two-thirds. But now that the precedent is broken, the prospect seems not especially bright for the south to have the two-thirds rule restored.

Several motives reducing southern influence in party organizations are evident. One thing seems certain. If the southern voice in party organization is weakened, the influence of southern members of congress likely will be proportionately weakened. That is where they will feel the real pressure.

Time and again the southern delegates have held a balance of power in Republican conventions. Since they are often under control of the party management because of the patronage influence, the southern delegates are peculiarly useful to a party management in suppressing just such "house cleaning" drives as Aiken's.

The south's vote in national committee is relatively even greater, for each state at present gets one vote. Aiken would change that. The south already has been hit elsewhere. The congressional reapportionment of 1930 stripped southern states of several representatives in congress. Again, southern prestige and "independence" is being attacked by northern and western efforts to impose an anti-lynching bill.

Further, the wage-hour bill threatens to deprive the south of its hole-card in bidding for industrial development. The south has cheap labor. Because of that, it is successfully inducing such industries as spinning to move down there from the east.

The wage-hour bill is designed ultimately to compel all parts of the country—including the south—to reach a certain wage level for the unskilled well above prevailing southern wages. New England, trying to protect its own spinning industry, is all for that.

Chief Art Hurst and I have practically kissed and made up. . . I have offered him my best references and showed him my name in the list of 500 Famous Americans, and I feel pretty sure that I have just about broken him down to the point where he will give in with a little push. . . I have apologized to the chief and have told him that the hog story I told on him was just in fun. . . In fact, I assured him that of all the hogs I know, he is the porkiest.

He will not write me a letter and burn me up, so you can't have an argument unless there are two sides to it. . . Besides, I probably have an unfair advantage over the chief because I can get at him in print whenever I feel like it. . . And, if there is anything I dislike doing, it's to take advantage of a fellow—well, not very much advantage, anyhow. . . I must be slipping. I don't know how I happened to forget to say something about the chief yesterday. . . I had seven complaints from people who threatened to quit the paper if I didn't say something about him today. . . Which reminds me that Lon Blanscet, ex-champion of the world's bull-doggers, will not take this paper five minutes after I drop this column out of it—if I ever decide to drop it.

It's pretty nice to have people say things like that about you. . . It makes you feel big and worthwhile. . . Mr. Blanscet says that he grabs the paper, looks at the first page to see who has been killed and then almost breaks a finger turning to the editorial page so he can devour and revel in this column. . . Now, if that isn't a testimonial that will out-pink a Lydia Pinkham adv., I'll eat it. . . Why, I even have a radio fan who listens to me over in White Deer every night just as regular as clock-work. . . He would rather miss his supper than miss tuning me in. . . He says my voice scares the mice out of the house, and does such a good job of it that the mice are afraid to come back in until daylight. . . There's a pal for you.

In one of the oil camps down around LeFors they think I'm lazy because I have threatened to cut this column. . . They advise me to pay no attention to Fred Cary, the lawyer, who came in the office the other day and hid my best scissors to keep me from clipping what he calls uninteresting "blah." Hol Wagner, the typographer de luxe, says if things keep on like they are over there in the Orient, he figures that when duck hunting season ends on Dec. 26, you can just keep your gun oiled and start out hunting Japs. . . Personally, I don't think it will be as bad as all that. . . The Americans who are over there had plenty of warning to get out. . . If they want to stay there and get in the way of stray bombs, seems to me that's their funeral. . . If you insist on hanging around where there is fire you are bound to get scorched sooner or later.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM. "The play is the thing," all right, but the players make you go to see it. So it is with all the high school plays. Everybody likes to see how the boys and girls are going to act on the stage. And so here is a good word for Kenneth Carman's latest play which you may see Thursday or Friday nights in the high school auditorium. It will be worth your while to see it because you know all the people in it.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D. Chronic disease of the head sinuses is a fairly common condition among children: Infection of the head sinuses is frequently associated with chronic nasal catarrh, with enlarged and diseased tonsils and adenoids, with disease of the middle ear and with a variety of constitutional disorders. One authority on ear disease reported that in 100 cases of middle ear involvement in children, 86 had co-existing infection of the head sinuses. Another specialist observed a group of 150 cases of acute middle ear infection in children and found the associated sinusitis in every case.

Vermont Sons Demand Voice in GOP Affairs

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Even the oldest inhabitant doesn't seem to remember when Vermont was particularly influential in national politics, but now that she stands as one of the two states which voted against Roosevelt last year, her sons are demanding a voice in affairs of the Republican party.

Gov. George D. Aiken of the Green Mountain state, who obviously seeks a share in party leadership, has just issued a blast telling what he thinks the G. O. P. ought to do. And you may or may not have noticed that Harold W. Mason, a Vermont business man, quite recently became secretary of the Republican National Committee thru appointment by Chairman John D. M. Hamilton.

"We have become a party of old men," protests Aiken, and this criticism gained some point with ensuing reports that former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois almost surely would be chairman of the committee of one hundred being chosen to work out a party program. Lowden is 76, and although no one opposed him just because of his advanced age, it was recognized that he was too old to harbor presidential ambitions which might be promoted by his selection.

Book A Day. By BRUCE CATTON. James M. Cain is as hard-boiled, as thoroughly readable, and as romantic—in his side-of-the-mouth, tough-guy manner—as ever; and his new novel, "Serenade" (Knopf; $2.50), is well worth your while if you can stand a few shocks.

"You are now leaving the United States," said a sign on the way out on highways crossing the Vermont line after the 1936 election. But Mason says Vermont's vote for Landon has been a great thing for the state, attracting not only tourists but many well-to-do persons who have moved in to build summer homes or rent old farmhouses.

DKG Chapter Has Annual Festival

Glorifying Yourself

You'll make a bigger hit at Christmas parties if: You change your hair style between now and then. If you have been wearing the same coiffure season after season for more years than you care to admit, have a new one designed right now and see if you don't look as well as feel better. There's one bright touch in your get-up. It can be a sparkling pin in your hair, a bracelet of brilliants, a glittering sequin bolero—anything you like so long as it is light-hearted, an outward sign of the way you feel, or should feel, inside. You spend the next ten days eating sensibly, sleeping regularly and getting plenty of exercise. Health is the foundation of true beauty, and you can't expect your skin to be clear and handsome, and shiningly soft, eyes sparkling, if you burn the candle at both ends all the time, seldom get any exercise, eat the wrong food and eat it at odd hours. You are brimful of the true spirit of Christmas. Take time to write notes on cards to old friends. Give a present, no matter how small, to at least one person (outside your circle of friends and relatives) who needs a bit of cheer in her life. Do a few little favors for people who do not expect them, then make up your mind not to expect or even hope for gratitude or even adequate thanks.

You walk like a queen, holding chest high, stomach in, backbone straight, head up. Last year's dress will seem fresh and new and different if the figure it is on stands fast and handsome, instead of slumping as it did a year ago. You put your pennies into one simply cut gown and a few accessories with which to vary it a bit. You've heard it before, but it's still true that one really fine, perfectly fitted evening dress is far better in the long run than two or three little numbers which do not fit particularly well in the first place and look even worse after cleaning.

High-lighting the holiday activities of the week-end was the annual Christmas party of the Delta Kappa Gamma chapter which was given Saturday in the home of Mrs. R. B. Fisher. The reception rooms were attractively decorated in bright holiday colors.

Mmes. Gary Simms, R. E. Von of Panhandle and Madge Richerson were initiated in a beautiful candle-light ceremony. A member of the club, Mrs. Josephine Sparks, who has traveled extensively in Europe, lectured and showed pictures of various countries. Her hobby being dolls, she also exhibited dolls from several different countries. Refreshments of green and red sandwiches, cranberry salad, fruit cake with whipped cream, and coffee were served on bright colored pottery plates.

After Christmas carols were sung, gifts were exchanged among Mmes. J. B. Austin, J. I. Bradley, R. B. Fisher, Sam Irwin, F. E. Leech, J. L. Lester, J. A. Meek, Elma Phelps, R. A. Selby, L. K. Stout, Misses Vida Cox, Bernice Larsh, Madge Richerson, Josephine Thomas, Pampa. Out-of-town guests were Mmes. H. H. Marks, Preston Hutton, Neta Turner, Canadian; Ozella Hunt, Miami; R. A. Welks, Every Odesse Howell, Gladys Holly, White Deer; Maurice Creed, Dumas; Josephine Sparks, Illa Mae Hastings, Vera Carpenter, LeFors; C. J. Meek, Winona Adams, Wheeler; Lewis Goodrich, W. O. Morrow, Shamrock; F. A. Render, Gary Simms, R. E. Vaughn, Louise Orr, Panhandle.

CITY INSPECTS VOIDED BONDS

The intricate process by which the city of Pampa will be enabled to save $55,000 in interest charges on its bonds, by the cancellation of old bonds and the issuance of refunding warrants, was one step further advanced yesterday.

The bonds total $4, each of $1,000 denomination, and are of three issues, with various dates of interest, and maturity dates ranging from 1937 to 1968.

Receipt of the old bonds marked another stage of the deal started two months ago between the city and R. A. Underwood and Co., Dallas investment firm.

Why Use Pills or Purgatives?

The purpose of most cathartics is to over-stimulate your intestines. Afterward, you may feel weakened. In cases of common constipation, isn't it better to keep "regular" with a wholesome NATURAL food like Kellogg's All-Bran?

All-Bran will keep you "regular" as the time-table—but it works so differently from medicines. It doesn't over-stimulate your intestines; it gives them TWO things they need. First, All-Bran provides "bulk"—it absorbs water and softens like a sponge. This water-softened mass aids elimination.

Use All-Bran REGULARLY: eat two tablespoons every day and drink plenty of water. The results will delight you! Every grocer sells All-Bran. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

PERIOD TESTS MADE BY T. W. A. COSTS $20,000

With cockpits hooded, T. W. A. Skyliners are taking off several times daily from Los Angeles, Kansas City and Newark, as the line's regular 90-day instrument checks.

Known as "instrument flights," these tests submit each pilot to a searching test of his ability to take off, fly and land these great planes under all imaginable conditions. Every T. W. A. pilot must pass such a test every 90 days.

"We know at all times that our pilots can handle their planes under all weather conditions, and be able to bring them in smoothly without looking beyond the instrument board in front of them—even though we do not operate flights when visibility and weather are the least doubtful," declared Paul E. Richter, vice president in charge of operations.

Cost of making the tests, Richter revealed, is approximately $20,000 a year. They are conducted under the direction of Harlan Hull, T. W. A. system chief pilot; H. B. Sandel, chief pilot for the eastern region; and O. W. Coyle, western region chief pilot.

Among the maneuvers which each pilot must execute perfectly are instrument takeoffs, spirals, 45-degree turns, 90, 180 and 270-degree turns, flying the radio "beam," and putting plane in landing position; locating radio beacons, finding the airport after being deliberately "lost"—each of these to be done relying solely on instruments.

These include indicators which record air speed, engine speed, compass course, oil temperature, carburetor air temperature, and scores of other readings vital to the efficient working of motors and plane.

Flashes of LIFE

TRAGEDY
CINCINNATI, O.—The Ohio river flood of last January swept away Edward Crews' home.

He moved his family into a garage and set about building a new house.

Last Saturday he finished the job, started a fire in the furnace to warm the home for moving in.

Something went wrong. The new home burned to the ground.

HAPPY YULETIDE
NEW ALBANY, Ind.—To make sure he would have enough money for Christmas, Kenneth A. Miller picked strawberries, hunted walnuts, sold novelties and "did odd jobs when I wasn't busy at the night club where I work."

He has just drawn from nine banks 50 Christmas saving checks for $25 each.

THE LAST MILE
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—Missouri's new lethal gas chamber claimed its first victim last night—a 100-pound red pig.

The pig died in three minutes.

The State Legislature last spring substituted asphyxiation for hanging as capital punishment.

HAND QUICKER THAN EYE
OKLAHOMA CITY—One of the brothers in ring 53, international brotherhood of magicians, received 27 votes for vice president.

Startled prestidigitators counted noses. There were only eight at the meeting.

CANS FOR CANNONADING
RICHMOND, Va.—R. M. Little, grocer, got his dander up when he underwent the loss and ignominy of a holdup, so when gummen again paid him a visit he spoke his mind.

While he talked Mrs. Iva Carter, a clerk, entered by a side door and grabbed one of the intruders. Encouraged, Little jumped from behind a counter and let fly with a dozen cans of his goods. The gummen fled.

KARL CROWLEY TO RUN IF ALLRED DOESN'T

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Karl A. Crowley of Fort Worth, Solicitor General of the Post Office Department, said today only one thing kept him from announcing his candidacy for Governor of Texas—the possibility Governor James V. Allred would seek a third term.

"If he doesn't seek a third term I will run," Crowley said.

"And I honestly don't believe Jimmy is going to run for a third term. I believe he has too much respect for the time-honored Democratic custom of serving two terms and letting someone else in the position."

The possibility of a campaign by Allred for reelection, he said, probably was related to gubernatorial bids by Attorney General William McCraw and Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson.

"I think both Allred and Mrs. Jim Ferguson are considering running solely because the people want some strong foe to oppose these two men who have been darting over the country the last four years holding themselves out as candidates for the position," he said.

SPRIZE!
ARKANSAS CITY, Kas.—Mrs. Tom Smyer had always regarded a chestnut as an inoffensive tid-bit.

She sampled one from a batch she was roasting. It exploded, burning her around the mouth.

EYE-RELIEF COMES BY WIRE to patients in Vienna's general hospital who have metal particles imbedded in their sight organs, for this electro-magnet, shown in use in the eye clinic, is capable of removing a 10-pound mote. WIND EROSION HAZARD REDUCED 30 PER CENT

AMARILLO, Dec. 14 (AP)—The wind erosion hazard in the "dust bowl" has been reduced this year to 30 to 35 per cent of the serious situation that existed at this time last year, the regional advisory committee on land use practices in the five-state area, reported in conference here today.

The committee, composed of farm leaders of the region, cautioned that the situation might become worse, but that, as it existed at the present time, the wind erosion hazard was definitely reduced.

Dean Harry Umberger of the extension service of Kansas, presided at the meeting, attended by 33 officials, some of whom are from Washington.

The meeting will continue through tomorrow.

AVERAGE PRODUCTION OF CRUDE INCREASES

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 14 (AP)—The nation's average daily production of crude oil, increased 35,031 barrels during the week ending Dec. 11 to 3,422,208 barrels, the oil and gas journal reported today.

Oklahoma increased 4,075 barrels daily to 569,775. East Texas was up 917 to 417,815 and the total state of Texas increased 14,703 to 1,319,057.

Louisiana was off 6,995 barrels daily to 239,285. California increased 10,100 to 178,875.

Eastern states including Michigan increased 408 barrels daily to 186,556 and the Rocky Mountain area dropped 3,690 to 72,620.

The Washington naval agreement of 1924 limited the size of aircraft carriers to 27,000 tons.

Richter, vice president in charge of operations.

Cost of making the tests, Richter revealed, is approximately $20,000 a year. They are conducted under the direction of Harlan Hull, T. W. A. system chief pilot; H. B. Sneed, chief pilot for the eastern region, and O. W. Coyle, western region chief pilot.

Among the maneuvers which each pilot must execute perfectly are instrument takeoffs, spirals, 45-degree banks, 90, 180 and 270-degree turns, flying the radio "beam," and putting plane in landing position; locating radio beacons, finding the airport after being deliberately "lost"—each of these to be done relying solely on instruments.

These include indicators which record air speed, engine speed, compass course, oil temperature, carburetor air temperature, and scores of other readings vital to the efficient working of motors and plane.

Flashes of LIFE

(By The Associated Press)

TRAGEDY

CINCINNATI, O.—The Ohio river flood of last January swept away Edward Crews' home.

He moved his family into a garage and set about building a new house.

Last Saturday he finished the job, started a fire in the furnace to warm the home for moving in.

Something went wrong. The new home burned to the ground.

HAPPY YULETIDE

NEW ALBANY, Ind.—To make sure he would have enough money for Christmas, Kenneth A. Miller picked strawberries, hunted walnuts, sold novelties and "did odd jobs when I wasn't busy at the night club where I work."

He has just drawn from nine banks 50 Christmas saving checks for $25 each.

THE LAST MILE

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—Missouri's new lethal gas chamber claimed its first victim last night—a 100-pound red pig.

The pig died in three minutes. The State Legislature last spring substituted asphyxiation for hanging as capital punishment.

HAND QUICKER THAN EYE

OKLAHOMA CITY.—One of the brothers in ring 53, international brotherhood of magicians, received 27 votes for vice president.

Startled prestidigitators counted noses. There were only eight at the meeting.

CANS FOR CANNONADING

RICHMOND, Va.—R. M. Little, grocer, got his dander up when he underwent the loss and ignominy of a holdup, so when gunmen again paid him a visit, he spoke his mind.

While he talked Mrs. Iva Carter, a clerk, entered by a side door and grabbed one of the intruders. Encouraged, Little jumped from behind a counter and let fly with a dozen cans of his goods. The gunmen fled.

KARL CROWLEY TO RUN IF ALLRED DOESN'T

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Karl A. Crowley of Fort Worth, Solicitor General of the Post Office Department, said today only one thing kept him from announcing his candidacy for Governor of Texas—the possibility Governor James V. Allred would seek a third term. "If he doesn't seek a third term I will run," Crowley said. "And I honestly don't believe Jimmy is going to run for a third term. I believe he has too much respect for the time-honored Democratic custom of serving two terms and letting someone else in the position."

The possibility of a campaign by Allred for reelection, he said, probably was related to gubernatorial bids by Attorney General William McCraw and Railroad Commissioner East O. Thompson.

"I think both Allred and Mrs. Jim Ferguson are considering running solely because the people want some strong foe to oppose these two men who have been darting over the country the last four years holding themselves out as candidates for the position," he said.

S'PRIZE!

ARKANSAS CITY, Kas.—Mrs. Tom Smyer had always regarded a chestnut as an inoffensive tidbit.

She sampled one from a batch she was roasting. It exploded, burning her around the mouth.

WIND EROSION HAZARD REDUCED 30 PER CENT

AMARILLO, Dec. 14 (AP)—The wind erosion hazard in the "dust bowl" has been reduced this year to 30 to 35 per cent of the serious situation that existed at this time last year, the regional advisory committee on land use practices in the five-state area, reported in conference here today.

The committee, composed of farm leaders of the region, cautioned that the situation might become worse, but that, as it existed at the present time, the wind erosion hazard was definitely reduced.

Dean Harry Umberger of the extension service of Kansas, presided at the meeting, attended by 33 officials, some of whom are from Washington.

The meeting will continue through tomorrow.

AVERAGE PRODUCTION OF CRUDE INCREASES

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 14 (AP)—The nation's average daily production of crude oil increased 35,031 barrels during the week ending Dec. 11 to 3,422,208 barrels, the oil and gas journal reported today.

Oklahoma increased 4,075 barrels daily to 560,175. East Texas was up 917 to 417,815 and the total state of Texas increased 14,703 to 1,319,057.

Louisiana was off 6,995 barrels daily to 239,285. California increased 10,100 to 178,875.

Eastern states including Michigan increased 408 barrels daily to 186,856 and the Rocky Mountain area dropped 3,690 to 72,620.

The Washington naval agreement of 1924 limited the size of aircraft carriers to 27,000 tons.

WPA WORKERS MAKING 40,550 XMAS TOYS

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 14—Toys made by WPA workers will brighten this Christmas season for at least 20,000 underprivileged Texas youngsters, it was disclosed today. WPA officials estimate that 40,550 toys will be ready for distribution by Christmas morning. Into these articles have gone the handicraft of 8,500 workers, most of whom utilized spare-time moments for the work.
City officials in Amarillo, Fort Worth and Houston are cooperating with WPA to employ 93 men and women at manufacturing toys for children of needy families in the three cities.

LOST KINGDOM

Yesterday: Starting out to search for Bob after his long absence, Honey Bee Girl grows increasingly bitter toward Melissa.

CHAPTER XXIII

"WE have about a hundred matches here, and six candles," Bob was inspecting his shoulder pack, now reclaimed. "They would serve us in event the flashlight failed."

Lissa smiled up at him. They were alone in the cavern, but she was not afraid now.

"I should have had the flashlight in my own pocket, of course," he resumed. "But it's kind of bulky. And I never dreamed of such an emergency as we faced."

"Let's forget all that," she suggested. "Let's plan—things!"

He caressed her, and kissing her twice, "Say, partner, you're wonderful, aren't you?"

"I want you to think so, anyway, Dr. Barry!"

They walked very close together, with her head touching his shoulder.

"What shall we plan?" he queried. "Home? Career? Happiness? Where do you want to live, sweetheart?"

"With you."

"I know, but—where? New York? Arizona? Timbuctoo?"

She smiled up at him again. "With you. That's all I ask."

The climbing was not easy. Bob remembered that they had to go up a total of 600 feet, and must walk perhaps three times that distance because of the turns and curves in the great underground room. The way was very rough, too.

"We must be over half way up," he told her after a while. "Want to rest a moment?"

"No. But, Bob—I'm seeing things again!"

"Yes? What?"

"I just saw a flash of light, of reflected light, when your pocket lamp wasn't turned that way."

It was true. Two minutes later they saw the pinpoint of direct light gleaming from an angle above them.

"HELLO!" Bob shouted. "WHO IS IT?"

"Bawb... Bawb? Are you all right? It is Honey Bee, Bawb."

The two hastened to join her. Her brilliant gasoline lantern illuminated a really joyous reunion there.

There was much talk. Lissa thought she had never seen the Indian's face show with such animation. Suddenly she felt a surge of pity for Honey Bee; the poor girl thought herself in love with Bob, suddenly remembered. In that instant, oddly enough, Lissa's mind slipped back over the 3000 miles to New York, back a few years, to a single out a statement made by a university professor whom she had greatly respected. "Life has only one real tragedy," the professor had said. "It is unrequited love."

Lissa set herself to be cordial to Honey Bee, but the cordiality was not reciprocated. Apparently only Bob existed to the red girl. Bob didn't notice the slight.

"Did you tell?" he was demanding. "Did you tell the others?"

"No," she shook her head. "They think you went to see three other ways, maybe back to town. Holliman is gone."

"Gone where?"

"He disappear. He do not say where."

"And Hades Jones?" Bob was intent on his questioning.

"He is go crazy almost, looking for you."

"I'll bet!" snapped Bob, grinning. "Good old Hades. Well, look, Honey Bee, you're great, not to tell. I'm sure glad, because it did not pan out anyway. I mean the cave is nothing but a big hole, and if we hadn't got lost in it, we'd have been out that same afternoon. And if we—"

STUDENTS WOULD NOT VOLUNTEER FOR WAR

AUSTIN, Dec. 14—Should war be declared now by the United States as it was in 1917, students in the University of Texas say they would not volunteer, it is shown by the third poll of the new Bureau of Student Opinion released Sunday morning by the Daily Texas, student newspaper.

But curiously enough, there are actually more women—in comparison to the number of men enrolled in the institution—who are now willing to volunteer their services to go to the front and aid the army.

To the question, "If the United States should enter the war under the same conditions as it did in 1917, would you volunteer?" men students answered:

Yes—31.8 per cent.
No—61.3 per cent.
No opinion—6.9 per cent.

Women were asked the question:

Yes—37.1 per cent.
No—53.6 per cent.
No opinion—9.3 per cent.

NO MAN'S LAND.

SALEM, Ore.—Long, long ago a lot in the heart of Salem was set aside for capital punishment. It became known as Dent county's "hangman's lot." Recently George F. Addison, attorney, sought to satisfy a judgment which involved the piece of land.

But he has hunted fruitlessly for a record of ownership.

Joe Louis Believes He Can Now Whip Schmeling

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—Joe Louis is not a man easily impressed. He sat dead-panned in Madison Square Garden last night while Max Schmeling knocked Harry Thomas daffy in eight rounds, and all Joe had to say was: "If I can't whip that Schmeling the next time I don't ever want to see another pair of boxing gloves."

Joe might have been whistling in the dark. Schmeling, to the eye, had looked like a truly great fighter as he toyed with Thomas in the early rounds and then methodically chopped him to the canvas with lightning rights. But Louis sounded exactly like he meant it.

So did his dusky manager, old Jack Blackburn: "All I hope is that nothin' happens to that date we got with Schmeling next June," he said. "Nothing apparently is going to happen to that date. Over 16,000 customers justified their way into the Garden last night, ignoring the exhortations of the anti-Nazi pickets who paraded before the doors."

Most of them seemed to be there to cheer Schmeling.

While beaten by a much superior fighter, Thomas was far from disgraced. He hit the canvas for the sixth time in the eighth round before Referee Arthur Donovan escorted him, rubber-legged, to his corner. He didn't knock a thing by that time, but he still wanted to battle.

The long 18-month lay-off since he stopped Louis last summer appeared not to have affected Schmeling's timing or the lethal power of his right once he got himself unshattered. He let his wild-swinging opponent carry the fight to him and bided his time. Thomas, in fact, connected sufficiently to win three of the first five rounds.

It wasn't until the sixth that Max, moving around easily, unhurriedly, began cracking Harry on his wrists. He said afterward that he had found the Eagle Bend. Minn. product harder to tag with a right than he did Louis. But once he got the range it was all over.

Just before the seventh round ended Thomas went down, hard, the bell clanging; almost as he landed.

There wasn't any doubt in Thomas' mind, once it cleared, that he had run into a stinger. In his humble opinion, he said, Schmeling will stop Louis' clock again the next time they meet, and quicker than the other time.

Schmeling was pretty well pleased. He came out of his first time-up unmarked and breathing easily. He seems ageless. At 32, his legs and body are as smooth and rippling and taut-looking as ever. Undoubtedly he has a great right that he never exhibited as champion. He looks, in fact, like the next champion.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BREITZ

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—Mike Jacobs looked over his near sell-out and said: "Well, I hope their boycotters don't feel hurt." Impression at ringside was Max could have polished off Thomas any time he wanted to, but Max insisted his timing was so bad he had to go slow. . . . Biggest surprise of the evening was to hear the popular Jimmy Braddock boomed by the fans when he entered the ring to be introduced. . . . Joe Louis, filled to the adenoids with good fried chicken, was just about to drop off to when Schmeling began firing rights in the sixth. . . . Joe sat up and took plenty of notice from then on. . . . He knew just how Thomas was feeling. . . . It was a great evening for the Nazis and Mike Jacobs. . . . Ja Wol! . . . P. S.: Thomas still is a good catcher.

Not that it means a darn thing one way or another, but a gal named Rose Bowles got a marriage license in Reno the other day. . . . When he was here with the Washington Redskins a week ago, Dixie Howell, former Alabama star, made a hit with the patrons of a Green-wich village joint by acting as starter for a turtle race. . . . Joe Louis looks a little fat—too much fried chicken. . . . Here's another item that may not mean anything, but one New York newspaper reports there's a "for sale" sign on the house of Judge Stephen McKeever, half owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Cuba is bidding for Henry Armstrong to go down there and fight Kid Chocolate. . . . The Southeastern conference, which placed teams in three of the four major "bowl" games New Year's day, rates some

JOHNNY ALLEN AND VERNON GOMEZ DIVIDE MOUND HONORS

GUST JOHNSON BEATS MACKIE

Wrestling faithfuls who battled the elements last night saw one of the best cards of the season when Gust Johnson took two straight falls from Cyclone Mackie in the main event. Jack Mandell downed Jack Hagen in the semi-final and Otto Ludwig and Benny Wilson went to a preliminary draw.

Promoter Cliff Chambers has apparently swiped the slogan, "the show must go on" because he had the stoves roaring and some of the hottest battles of the year for the nearly 200 fans.

Wilson and Ludwig used everything but corner posts on each other and then wanted to go 10 minutes more. When Promoter Chambers refused they went together anyway and Referee "Big Train" Clements had considerable trouble separating them. Then Ludwig wanted to battle hecklers and lost in a verbal battle with a couple of witty bleachers.

Mandell Makes Hit

Jack Mandell, newcomer to the local mat, turned out to be the answer to both a promoter's and a fan's prayer. He has everything. He packs a beautiful left, which he uses openhanded, he has long legs which he uses to advantage, he is as fast as lightning, as slippery as an eel, and a real wrestler.

The battle got rough but not dirty although Hagen slipped across a few times. He followed up with one-finger holds. Hagen thought he had the match won several times but he couldn't hold the Slippery Mandell who wiggled out of Japanese Crabs, surf boards, hammerlocks and what have you. He won in 23 minutes with drop kicks, while lying on his back, and a smother. He is known as the Kangaroo Man and he resembles one as he leaps across the ring or comes out with his feet to get flying body scissors, headlocks or drop kick.

Mackie Socks Referee

Few holds in the wrestling wars were hidden when Mackie and Johnson got together. They tried about everything in an effort to win. Both featured punishing hammerlocks, and headlocks and it was after a series of flying headlocks, followed by a couple of Sonnenbergs that Johnson pinned Mackie after 21 minutes of furious wrestling.

Mackie got the worst of the early argument in the second fall and lost his temper—and the match. He went after Johnson with lefts and rights and wouldn't break when Big Train interfered. He was received with a right to the jaw. Mackie then started after Johnson but the referee came back to drop Mackie. Johnson took advantage of the melee to fall on Mackie for the fall in 12 minutes. The referee groggily counted Mackie out.

Mobeetie Beats McLean 12 to 6

MOBEETIE, Dec. 14—The Mobeetie Hornets won from the McLean Tigers by a small margin of 12-6 in a hard fought battle. The Hornets won to the tune of 27-3 in a fast and furious game. The Hornets made the 3 points in the last two minutes of the game.

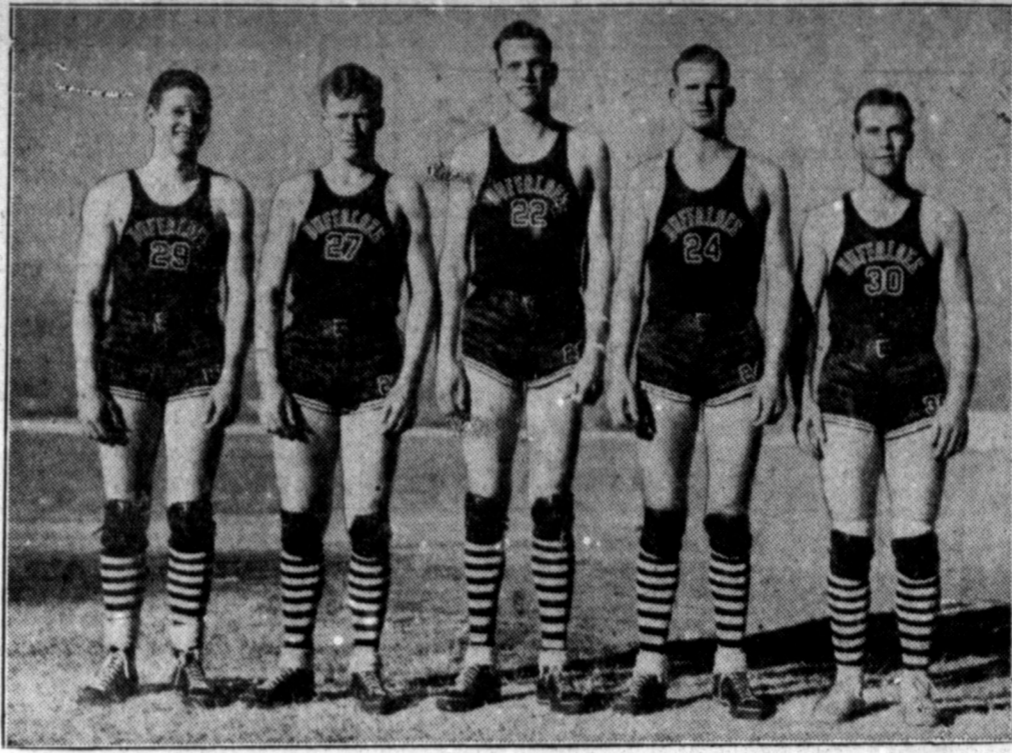

The Mobeetie basketballers are entering the Kellon tournament Friday and Saturday, December 10 and 11. The boys play Samnorwood their first game, and the girls play Allison their first game.

The Mobeetie teams have played Wheeler two times and Miami once, they have won all of their games, making a total of eight games won.

sort of honorable mention, doesn't it? . . . Eddie Mader, the heavy-weight, used to be a choir boy in St. Michael's church here. . . . Harry Thomas really is owned by James Norris Jr., vice president of the Detroit Hockey Red Wings, but Norris doesn't figure in the management, leaving all those headaches to the suave and astute Nate Lewis. . . . SAMMY BAUGH'S FANS JUST YAWN—HE DID IT FOR YEARS

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT.
DALLAS, Dec. 14 (AP)—Folks down here in Texas who followed Sammy Baugh from the time he chucked a "drug-store" football through his first window pane, wonder what all the fuss is about.

Slingin' Sam, the passin' man—the lanky West Texan they're calling "the greatest football player in the world" since his show on icy-covered Wrigley field at Chicago Sunday—pulled those one-man stunts nearly every wintry Saturday afternoon for three years around these parts.

Fathers don't tell legitimate bedtime stories down here during the football season; they sort of cheat a little and tell the kids how Sammy pitched 274 passes during his three seasons with Texas Christian that netted 3,479 yards and 39 touchdowns.

Quite a stunt the fans admit, was Baugh's feat in heaving three touchdowns passes and setting up another score with a pass for four touchdowns that beat Baylor, 28-0. Next came Texas, and three more aerial touchdowns buried them by the same score. For the third time in four weeks, he tossed three more scoring passes to Barry Rice, 27-7.

Just as Sammy Baugh has "made" professional football, so was Sammy Baugh "football" itself in the Southwest.

Professional football may never know how close it came to never having Baugh as the stimulant that lifted the sport into bigtime money. There were times, many times, when Sammy had his mind set on a coaching job at his alma mater. In fact, he even went so far as to sign a contract for the freshman coaching job and put pro ball out of his mind, but Sammy was human, money is decidedly loquacious and Sammy played pro football.

Squad mellow Leo (Dutch) Meyer, T. C. U. coach who discovered Baugh in sort of a storybook manner, serves unofficially, at times, as Sammy's adviser. It was he who told Sammy to go up and have a fling at pro football.

It was also Meyer who saw a gangling youngster playing third base on a West Texas town baseball team back in '33 and went back to T. C. U. to tell then Head Coach Francis Schmidt that he had found "a real baseball player."

That promising third baseman went to the University of Texas, however, and thus started Sam Baugh's amazing collegiate career.

He stayed there only a few days and his plans went awry. Texas don't need Baugh's third basing and "Uncle Billy" Disch, beloved Texas baseball coach, personally loaned Sammy the money to travel on to Fort Worth and Texas Christian!

Thus did Texas university send along to Texas Christian the greatest forward passer in football—a youngster who rifled them down later.

Sammy started throwing back in the third grade with "a sort of a drug-store football," one of those imitation leather balls.

The first forward pass he ever attempted was good for a touchdown.

He really started as an end on the Temple, Texas, high school team, but—

"One day I threw some passes—and then I played in the backfield the rest of the season. I've been passing ever since."

No, sir, folks down here never have doubted that Sammy Baugh is "the greatest football player in the world," they're just wondering why "those eastern writers" took so long to raise this fuss.

Subsidization of Players Favored By Pitt Alumnus

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 14 (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh's first "paid" football player (he's a millionaire now) went on the record today in favor of subsidization, declaring he owned "whatever material success I may since have attained" to financial help in college.

Joseph C. Trees, associate of M. L. Benedum in world-wide oil operations, said last night at a victory club banquet in honor of Pitt's undefeated 1937 grid squad that "subsidization is eminently sound and fair," provided:

"That education is the primary objective; that the boy really wants an education, and that the institution sees to it that he either gets that education or is removed from its student rolls."

RAWLS NAMED NO. 1 ATHLETE OF THIS YEAR

(Note: This is the second of a series analyzing the seventh annual Associated Press sports poll. It covers opinions as to the year's outstanding feminine performers.)

By ALAN GOULD.
NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—Katherine (Kitty) Rawls, diminutive Florida swimming queen who captured six national titles this year, achieved the added distinction today of being rated the No. 1 athlete of the year among feminine competitors in the seventh annual Associated Press sports poll.

The 18-year-old aquatic star won the closest voting contest in the history of the poll, participated in by the nation's leading sports writers. Only one point separated Miss Rawls from her two closest rivals, Anita Lizana of Chile, the new holder of the United States tennis title, and Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., the national golf champion.

Miss Rawls led in first place votes, with 11, to Miss Lizana's 10 and Miss Page's eight. Tabulation of points, on a 3-2-1 basis as each expert rated three women performers in the order of preference, gave Miss Rawls the No. 1 honor with 53 points each and Mrs. Page had 52 points each.

Although this trio dominated the balloting, the 44 participating experts gave mention to the performance of 21 feminine headliners, including Sonja Henie, Babe Didrikson and Eleanor Holm Jarrett. Miss Didrikson, now concentrating on professional golf, was winner of the 1932 poll.

Miss Rawls, the first mermaid to top the poll since Helene Madison was rated the outstanding feminine athlete of 1931, has had an amazing career. She won two out of three title bids at the national indoor A. A. U. meet last winter. She hopped off a boat from Japan, in mid-summer, to capture four national outdoor championships in two days at San Francisco. This increased to 27 her total of national title triumphs. She has for years proved supreme in the medley swim but this year added honors in the breast stroke, besides the 440, 880 and mile free style events.

Betty Jameson, Texas golf star, received two points.

DOENGES NAMED COACH OF O. C. U. GOLDBUGS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 14 (AP)—Oswald Doenges, coach of Hugo high school's powerful team, was appointed head football coach of Oklahoma City's Goldbugs for the 1938 season today.

Doenges had the endorsement of Lynn Waldorf, one-time O. C. U. coach and now head coach at Northwestern university of the Big Ten conference. Doenges played football under Waldorf.

Dr. A. G. Williamson, university president, who had recommended Doenges' appointment, made the announcement after a meeting of the school's athletic board.
