CORPORATION MEASURE PASSED

KEEPS FAITH

When Hazel Forbes, 21, above, former actress, became Mrs. Paul O. Richmond last May, her 47-year-old husband expressed the wish that she never return to the stage. He died the other day and the young widow has announced that the wish he made in life will remain inviolate in death.

Concentration of wealth in the east is often derided. Huge profits during the whoopee days of the "prosperity era" piled up, filled the banks, and thus concentrated helped to bring on the depression. So it is often said.

Those Foreign Loans

The wealth did not all stay in the coffers on Wall street. It is a matter of record that international bankers of the United States have made 13 billions in foreign loans since 1914. The loans in 1931 alone totaled 250 millions. Wealth flowed out of the country both before and during the depression.

Much in Default

Of these foreign loans, 2,679 millions has been in default either in interest or principal, or both. The so-called "boob" loans now constitute an international diplomatic and economic problem. It has come to light that the state department has aided and abetted the international bankers, and to an extent the administration through Andrew Mellon and other high officials has encouraged loans against even the better judgment of the banking houses.

Repudiated

In this era of uncertainty, governments may be overthrown and obligations repudiated. Remember that Russia repudiated 17 billions in foreign loans, Germany might conceivably do the same, and even though France might occupy the Ruhr, and collect customs with arms for years, the status of the international debt problem would be hazardous. It is apparent that many huge loans were foolhardy, and all out of proportion to the caution used in lending to American business men and farmers.

Don't Blame Them

No wonder the farmers are incensed when they read of defaulting foreign borrowers and of the steps taken to

Mail Campaign for Oil Tariff Is Latest Plan Used

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (AP)—A "direct-by-mail" advertising campaign among house members for an oil tariff is being waged by Representative Wesley E. Disney (D. Okla.), as part of his drive for petroleum levies.

Two letters setting forth what he believes to be some of the things showing the need for an oil tariff have been sent to Disney in the last week and a third will go forward within the next 10 days. Others will follow.

"You would be surprised at the number of members who have told me they either thought the oil tariff ought to be considered or would favor it," Disney said.

He did not name any, but referred to their states, listing New York, Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois.

He has just introduced a bill calling for a levy of $1.03 a barrel on crude and 50 per cent ad valorem on refined products.

U. S. Indifferent to Parley Delay

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (AP)—Its position on debts and reparations now clear to Europe, the American government has assumed an outward attitude of disinterest to the whole problem.

Word of the postponement of the Lusanne debt parley was received by the state department from London. Officials declined to comment on the postponement on the grounds the United States had no interest in the parley since it was a strictly European conference.

The administration position is that there is no connection between the payment of German reparations and the fulfillment by the European nations of their obligations to this country.

If the European nations agree among themselves on steps toward righting their economic affairs, it is possible this country would listen sympathetically to an appeal for further debt postponement.

Gas Tax Evasion Is Hit in Speech

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 22. (AP)—Concerted action by state officials and oil companies to destroy the "gigantic racket" of gasoline tax evasion was urged by F. V. Martinek, Standard Oil of Indiana official and chairman of the Illinois gasoline tax evasion committee, before the Oklahoma Petroleum Marketers' association here.

"Until the industry is aroused to stand together as a unit we will have gasoline tax evasion and its resulting evil effects," Martinek said.

"The invasion of the industry by the racketeer has left behind a trail of blackmail, corruption, bribery, intimidation and kidnapping," he declared.

Pampa Youth on Oklahoma Team

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 22.—Alfred B. Fullingim, formerly of Panhandle and Pampa, was selected as a member of the freshman basketball team at the University of Oklahoma, when practice was resumed after the Christmas holidays.

Fifteen men were selected for the first squad. Fullingim's rank was No. 5. He alternates at the center and guard positions. Approximately 75 men reported for practice from the latter part of October until Christmas. Fullingim is a freshman. He played basketball at Panhandle high school two years.

NOT MAKING EXPENSES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (AP)—A voice evidently belonging to someone with a box-office eye spoiled the dignified effect of the house of representatives yesterday. The session was in one of those utterly dull periods when only a handful of members remain on the floor. There was a moment of quiet. From the gallery floated down:

"They are not making expenses today."

Utility May Not Sell Appliances

AUSTIN, Jan. 22. (AP)—An injunction restraining the San Antonio Public Service company from engaging in merchandising in gas and electrical appliances likely will affect Texas utility companies generally, attorneys said here today.

Judge C. A. Wheeler of Travis county district court, after a trial lasting two weeks, ruled yesterday that the San Antonio corporation had no authority to engage in merchandising of appliances.

He refused to enter an order cancelling the company's charter but enjoined it from selling gas and electrical appliances.

School Principal And Athlete Die In Auto Crash

BEAUMONT, Jan. 22. (AP)—The Winnie high school principal, a basketball player of that school and a construction company employe were killed in an automobile-truck collision near here last night. Eight others were hurt.

The dead were L. G. Rodgers, 29, school principal; Francis McBride, 16, of Bancroft, member of the Winnie cage team; and C. E. Teer, about 35, of Baton Rouge, La.

A sedan driven by Rodgers and bearing the Winnie basketball team, which played here yesterday, crashed into the trailer of a construction company truck on a bridge nine miles south of Beaumont.

Four of the injured were members of the basketball team. The other four were employes of the Saigh Construction company. The most seriously hurt were Gordon Broussard, Winnie student, broken arm; O. R. Childress of Winnie, broken leg; Jodie H. Hopner of Silsbee, broken thigh; W. J. Foster of Beaumont, fractured wrist and badly injured knee, and Bill Hall of Beaumont, broken leg. Childress, Hopner, Foster and Hall were workers for the construction concern.

Americans Are Dominating Nets

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 22. (AP)—For the sixth consecutive year, United States players are dominating the Canadian covered courts tennis championship here.

With three representatives in the semi-final bracket, the United States seemed virtually certain to win the title. The survivors were George Lott, champion in 1927-28-30-31; J. Gilbert Hall, champion in 1929; and Berkeley Bell. The Canadian representatives were Marcel Rainville, Davis Cup star from Montreal.

Parings today sent Lott against Hall and Rainville against Bell.

In doubles, a final round meeting between Lott and Rainville squared off against H. Paul Emard and Roland Longtin of Montreal in the semi-finals today while Mercur and Hall took on Bell and C. W. Leslie of Montreal.

PONDERS DECISION

FRANKLIN, Jan. 22. (AP)—District Judge W. C. Davis was considering the constitutionality of the Texas cotton acreage restriction law today having heard testimony on both sides at a trial concluded yesterday. Davis did not plan to announce a decision in the test case until next week. Regardless of the verdict, attorneys intended to carry the suit through the court of civil appeals and the supreme court.

Kenneth Boehm, Tom Perkins, H. B. Lively, R. E. Burns, and Harry Hoare attended the wrestling match in Aparrillo last night.

Jobless Sea Cook Wears AP's Derby

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (AP)—A jobless sea cook strutted the sidewalks of New York's east side today wearing one of Al Smith's brown derbies.

"Yes, sir, that's what I call a break," said George Stumpf, who used to cook beans on army transports but now stirs stew in the municipal lodging house for his meals.

"Here I walk into that free clothes place with a ticket callin' for a suit and they gimme one of the gov-nor's blue worsteds, made on Fifth Avenue. Then, to top it off, they stick one of his hard hats on my head."

Stumpf has his new outfit because the former governor heeded the plea of the clothing relief division of the emergency unemployment committee.

BOOZE PLAN DEFEATED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (AP)—The senate rejected overwhelmingly the Bingham proposal inviting referendums by the states on repeal or modification of prohibition.

Under a general attack that the resolution was meaningless, that it sought to "pass the buck" down to the states and that it could accomplish nothing, the measure late yesterday went down 53 to 15. Its opponents included a number of senators listed as anti-prohibitionists or supporters of resubmission.

YOAKUM, Jan. 22. (AP)—A district court order shortly before midnight forced the Texas-Louisiana Power company to turn water back into the mains of Yoakum after the supply had been cut off eight hours. The company shut off the water with an explanation it could not be supplied without operating the light and power plant. Under a city ordinance, operation of the power plant was punishable by a fine of $3,000 a day, company officials said.

Honolulu Grand Jury Is Active

HONOLULU, Jan. 22. (AP)—With Honolulu aroused by a third assault on a woman, the grand jury studied evidence today against the four persons accused of lynching the suspected assailant of a navy officer's wife and the legislature added to its pile of legal reforms to curb the city's crime wave.

Police combed the city for Daniel Lyman, escaped murderer, whom Mrs. Toka Okazaki, 29-year-old Japanese, identified as the man, after binding her, attacked her Wednesday night, Dec. 30.

Officers were ordered to shoot rather than take chances of Lyman, sought since his escape from prison Dec. 31, offered resistance. The motor car he stole from Mrs. Okazaki's escort was found in a residential section of the city.

Sixteen witnesses remained to appear before the grand jury which heard a like number yesterday in its

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

International Sunday School Lesson for Jan. 24.

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman. Scripture lesson: John 4:9-26.

1. The Samaritan woman there saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10. Jesus answered and said unto her, I thou knowest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given living water.

11. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep; whence then hast thou that living water.

12. Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle?

13. Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto eternal life.

14. The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw.

15. Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

16. The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband.

17. For thou hadst had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly.

18. The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

19. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

20. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father.

21. Ye worship that which ye know not; we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.

22. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers.

23. God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

24. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things.

25. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

26. Golden Text: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—I Tim. 1:15.

27. Time: December or January, A. D. 27 (see verse 33, harvest in Palestine coming in April).

28. Place: Sychar, in Samaria, near the ancient Shechem.

29. INTRODUCTION: On their way northward from Judea to Galilee, Jesus and his disciples came to Jacob's well close to Sychar and near the ancient Shechem, situated between Mounts Ebal and Gerizim. It was six o'clock in the afternoon, according to Roman reckoning, when Jesus, wearied with his journey, seated himself on the stone steps of the curbing around the well. The disciples went into the village to purchase food, and so Jesus was probably left alone, though it may have been that "John remained with Jesus and overheard the conversation he reported." At present Jacob's well furnishes an abundance of good water; it is now 76 feet deep and about eight feet in diameter.

30. Christ went northward by the shortest route, which led through Samaria, the middle division of Palestine. Most Jews taking that journey made a detour to the east and went up along the eastern bank of the Jordan in order to avoid the territory of the hated Samaritans, with whom (verse 9) they had no more dealings than absolutely necessary. The Samaritans erected their own rival temple on the summit of Mount Gerizim, which, however, was destroyed about B. C. 129 by John Hyrcanus, so that in Christ's day the Samaritans merely worshipped on the site of their former temple. Their religion in the time of Christ was not far from that of the Sadducees. They looked for the coming of the Messiah and accepted the Pentateuch as their Bible, but rejected the rest of the Old Testament. A pitiful remnant of the Samaritans still exists and worships where they worshipped ages ago.

31. ASKING A FAVOR: Sychar had a plenty of water, but it came from the lime strata of Mt. Ebal, and people then as now go much farther to this well to get soft water. While Jesus sat there a woman came with her pitcher to draw water from the well, for that was regarded as women's work. She is called "a woman of Samaria," not meaning the ancient capital, which was six miles distant, but the country of Samaria; she was a Samaritan woman. It was considered improper for a rabbi to talk much with a strange woman, and this woman would be recognized at once by the pure-hearted Saviour as a woman of abandoned character. Besides, she was a despised Samaritan; and yet he asks a favor of her! One of the ways to get close to another person is to do him a kindness, but a still better way is to seek and receive a kindness at his hand. Also Christ was longing for the woman's salvation, which was drink to his soul. "The whole incident is an acted parable of the gospel. The words of Jesus, 'Give me to drink,' are an expression of the thirst of God.

32. "Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again." "Physical good does not satisfy a man's soul any more than intellectual truth or beauty meets the cravings of his body. You cannot feed a hungry soul with a dainty dish, enrich a poor soul with gold, or clothe a naked soul with lace and diamonds, yet thousands are guilty to the foolish endeavor. Our Lord feeds with immortal bread the hungry soul, enriches the poor in spirit with incorruptible treasure or power and peace, and clothes the inner man of the heart with a royal raiment of spiritual righteousness. Men can never be satisfied by any stream of which cattle drink." "But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst." "Our Lord is here distinguishing between two kinds of happiness, the temporary and the permanent. One satisfies for a time, the other continues throughout all time."—Dean George Hodges.

33. "True Worshipers." v. 23. "But the hour cometh, and now is." The time of man's freedom in the Spirit from local restrictions of worship was coming in its fullness, and had already begun in that very conversation of Jesus with the despised Samaritan woman, a conversation breaking over all bounds of formal religion, and leaping forth into the liberty of the children of God. "When the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth." "The characteristics of true worship are only two, 'Spirit,' 'truth,'—heart, head; emotion, intelligence; the whole man going forth to lose himself in fellowship with the Unseen. Hence, Hegel writes truly, 'Worship is primarily an inward act of faith, the living communion of the ego with God.'"—Rev. George C. Lorimer, D. D. "For such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers." "Note the emphasis in this reply on the word 'Father' (v. 21 and twice in this verse). This name of God, which we teach children to lip in earliest years, came to her it may be, now for the first time. The learning of the human spirit is that of a child seeking the author of his being. The seeking is not human only. The Father also seeketh his child, and seeth him when he is a great way off (Luke 15:20)." Archdeacon E. W. Watkins. "Messiah Cometh." v. 25. "The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (he that is called Christ)." The Samaritans, though they accepted only the Pentateuch, based their expectation of the Messiah on such passages as Duet. 18:15-20. "When he is come, he will declare unto us all things." The woman was confused. She was not able to rise to the height of Christ's sublime utterances; but she had faith to believe that the coming Messiah would make it all clear to her.

34. "I Am He." v. 26. "Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he." This seems to have been our Lord's first declaration of his Messiahship, and it is one of the clearest he ever made. "No one before her had been so honored as this woman; not Nicodemus in the privacy of a personal interview; not as yet the disciples nearest to him in the narrow circle of friends; and not, of course, the Jews demanding his authority for expelling with platted thong from the holy temple its huckstering profaners."—Rev. Samuel H. Giesy, D. D.

35. While our Lord was speaking with the woman, the disciples returned from Sychar with food, and were surprised at his unconventional act, but had far too much reverence for him to speak about it. When the disciples pressed food upon him, he made the memorable reply, "I have meat to eat that ye know not. My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to accomplish His work." Then he bade them raise their eyes and see the fields already white with the harvest.

36. "Special Lessons" "It is a significant fact that Samaria was opened to evangelism through the medium of a woman of low social rank and of ill repute. She was the latch of the door which Christ found ready for his hand."—J. D. Freeman.

37. "This supreme interest and importance of this chapter lies not only in the conversion of the woman, but in the effect that her testimony had upon the men of the city." Rev. Cyril Bickersteth.

MRS HICKS IS AID TO DAD IN CUTTING SCORE

WHEN HELEN WAS JUST CHILD HE HELPED HER GAME

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (AP)—A few years ago when Helen Hicks' father needed a golfing partner he used to take the young lady along with him for company. Now she takes him out and charitably helps him polish up his game.

She was 12 then and didn't like golf. Now it dominates her life. She can tell you offhand how many strokes she took on any hole in any tournament during the last five years.

Today she is the national women's golf champion, 20 years old, a stocky powerful young lady with a booming laugh that has rung out over most of the great courses of the country. She is five feet six inches tall and weighs 140 pounds.

Her game is orthodox, good form all around. She hits magnificent shots. Improvement in her approach game brought her into the champion class last year.

Glenna Collett Vare, six-time national champion and her greatest rival, is one of her best friends. Maureen Orcutt is her jinx, can usually beat her just by tossing a putter on the nearest green.

Helen gets a big thrill out of college football, reads a great deal, likes to fly but doesn't want to learn how, plays basketball with her high school alumni teams and scores most of the points.

After the golf bug hit her, she'd tell her high school principal she didn't feel well, get off for the afternoon and play in tournaments. Next day the principal would see her name in the papers and congratulate her.

Her hair is bobbed boyish and she uses powder but no rouge. She's tanned all the time anyway, playing golf most of the winter in the south. Her usual exclamation when she misses a shot is "aw nerfs." Then she laughs. Mistakes never bother her.

When she gets restless at home on Long Island she gets a club and practices shots around the front lawn. Her father usually follows her. He tears holes in the lawn and swears. Helen never disturbs more than a blade of grass.

Her greatest ambition is to be the first American woman to win the British championship.

SHARKEY HAS DEMANDS FOR VERY BIG 'CUT'

WAIVING OF FOUL RULE IN NEW YORK IS DISCUSSED

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (AP)—Without a smile, Joe Jacobs and Johnny Buckley announced they hope to get together some time today to sign a contract for a heavyweight championship bout here in June between Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey.

A Jacobs-Buckley-Madison Square garden conference that lasted hours yesterday smoothed out all the points of difference, it was announced, with two or three "minor" exceptions.

The "minor" exceptions, it was understood, had to do with such unimportant matters as financial terms.

After the conference broke up last night, it was said the chief difficulty arose out of the fact that Buckley, Sharkey's manager, was demanding a larger share of the receipts than the garden was ready to grant.

There also were indications that Jacobs was endeavoring to have New York state's "no foul" rule waived again just as it was when Schmeling won the heavyweight title on a foul in the fourth round of his first match with Sharkey here in 1930. The consensus was that the rule would not be waived again.

Homer Lively, Tom Perkins, Tom Barnes, and S. A. Burns were in the front row when Clingman went over them so high that they were unable to catch him. He landed between two fans in the third row of seats. The Indian was flat on the mat for nearly a minute after the Pampan went through the ropes but managed to climb to his feet to win the match.

Red Michael handed the Amarillo fans a treat when he defeated the bully of Amarillo, Lobo Brown. The Pampan redhead won two straight falls. Pampan fans were somewhat surprised to hear the Amarilloans howling for the Pampan redhead to beat the home boy, who is about the most unpopular man in the game.

Little Tuffy Edmonson, also of Pampan put on a real exhibition with a youngster by the name of Stallings. It was a sock and go affair with the little 8-year-old Pampan having the best of the argument. It is too bad that the youngster has been taught to slug and punch. He would be a real crowd pleaser if he would stick to clean wrestling tactics.

More than 50 Pampan attended the match.

"SLIGHTLY IMPROVED"
WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 22. (AP)—The condition of Mrs. Lavina Parker who has been in a critical condition since she was shot twice in front of her home here last Tuesday morning, was reported to be slightly improved today. Her husband, James E. Parker, oil man, who surrendered to police after the shooting, is still in a county jail cell. No date for a preliminary hearing has been set pending the outcome of the wounded woman's fight for life.

CLINGMAN IS HURT IN FALL

Sails Over Ropes, Landing On Head to Lose Bout With Yaqui Joe.

Sailor Otis Clingman, local midweight contender, was taken to an Amarillo hospital last night after he landed in the third row of ring-side seats while attempting to subdue Yaqui Joe, Sonora Indian, in for third fall of a wrestling match in the Armory. The Indian was hanging on the ropes from reverse headlocks and Sonnenbergs when Clingman made his last dive.

As Clingman neared the ropes, the Indian fell to the floor, practically unconscious, and the Pampan sailed through the air and landed before fans could break his fall. He was unconscious for more than 15 minutes, before being brought to by doctors and nurses. However, he soon became unconscious a second time and was ordered to a hospital. This morning he was reported to be recovering.

GIVEN under my hand this 7th day of January, A. D. 1932.

HAPPY JACKS ARE TO BE IN CAGE GAME HERE TONIGHT UNDER CHANGE OF PROGRAM

COACH MITCHELL WILL USE ONE TEAM AT MIAMI

Coach Odus Mitchell of the Harvester basketball team announced this morning that only the Harvester B team would enter the Miami tournament today and Saturday. The Harvester A team will meet the Happy Jacks here at 8 o'clock tonight and will go to Happy for a return Saturday night.

The change in plans was made when it was learned by The NEWS that both Pampan teams had been placed in the same schedule and would therefore play each other the second game of the tournament. Coach Angus Fox will have charge of the B squad in Miami. He will take Chastain, Poe, Pool, Brumley, Schmidt, Sullins, Kelley, and Beown to Miami.

Happy has one of the strongest teams in this section of the country. The Jacks won the Tulla invitation tournament last week. They have lost only two games in 12 starts this season.

An effort will be made to secure a game for the Gorilla team that will not go to Miami. That game will be called for 7 o'clock.
