PAMPA YOUTH DIES IN FALL FROM OIL RIG

John Kelley Clark, 21, died yesterday afternoon in a Borger hospital from injuries suffered in a fall from a derrick on the Cal Merchant ranch north of Sanford yesterday morning.

The Pampa youth was working 87 feet in the air when a scaffold snapped and hurled him to the derrick floor.

Survivors are the widow, his mother, Mrs. Ruth Clark Hugo, Oklahoma, a brother, Charlie Clark, Pampa, and four sisters, Mrs. Arthur Spracklin Granite, Okla., Mrs. O. H. Cummings, Odessa, Mrs. Henry Lee and Miss Mildred Clark, Hugo.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in First Methodist church here by the Rev. H. H. Bratcher, pastor of McCulloch-Harrah chapel, officiating.

Flowers will be in charge of Mrs. Sills and Mrs. Crane.

Olney Man Slugged, Robbed of $1,950

FORT WORTH, June 23 (AP)—E. A. Fields, 32, of Olney, was slugged into unconsciousness and robbed of $1,950 by two men who boarded his truck here early today.

I Heard...

That Tank Horton is banging the ball hard and playing, sensationally with Pensacola, Fla. in the Southern league. Tank's single last Friday broke up a 13-inning duel with Mobile.

Gray county farmers this week are launching a mass attack on grasshopper hordes, the worst since 1925, which are causing unestimated damage to wheat, cotton and row crops.

Poison, supplied by the government, is being mixed in wholesale lots to carry on the fight. County Agent Ralph Thomas stated today.

The government supplies the poison and farmers are asked to pay for the bran with which it is mixed.

One hundred pounds of the mixture is sufficient to cover ten acres of land. Farmers are being asked by letter if they wished to join in the war on the grasshoppers and it was indicated that if enough go into the battle the price of the mixture, in wholesale lots, still can be reduced to possible as low as 50 cents a hundred.

Sixteen thousand pounds of the mixture have been prepared at McLean this week and it is being distributed to farmers in that area where grasshoppers are getting in some of their hardest licks.

Farmers declare that the grasshopper invasion this year is widespread through Gray and adjoining counties.

Millions of them are attacking wheat, cotton and row crops as well as the grass ranges. Unless the mass attack of farmers is successful it is possible that hundreds of thousands of dollars damage will be caused to crops throughout the Panhandle territory.

WATER CONSUMPTION HERE HITS NEW HIGH

Pampans used more water yesterday than in any previous 24-hour period in the history of the city, according to the report of Supt. Andy Crocker filed with the city manager this morning.

Water consumed yesterday was 2,475,000 gallons or more than 200,000 gallons in excess of the amount pumped on Monday.

The water was taken from the ground and put into the lines and none used from storage. Pumps were not used during a 20-hour period during the day so steady was the flow since the wells were cleaned out and treated.

WHEAT YIELD ESTIMATE CUT BY HOT WINDS

An optimistic outlook for a million bushel wheat crop in Gray county this year was considerably dimmed today as farmers pointed to the heavy damage done to the wheat by the hot weather in the Panhandle since last Friday.

In some quarters it was estimated that the hot winds of the last few days have caused enough damage to cut previous wheat crop estimates almost in half.

L. J. Seitz, wheat farmer residing 26 miles east of Pampa, stated today that his crop outlook up until last Friday was fairly good, but the hot weather that began on that day, and which has continued without let-up since, has cut the prospects almost 50 per cent.

Mr. Seitz, who has 400 acres of wheat, said that he'll be lucky if he gets eight or ten bushels to the acre.

"The wheat yield is an unknown quantity," he added.

Mr. Seitz is of the opinion, he stated, that optimistic reports of wheat yields are detrimental to the farmer because the crop usually never is more than half of that contained in the prediction.

"That is especially true this year," Mr. Seitz said. "After the splendid rains we had, the outlook was good if the weather had continued to be cool. But the cool weather disappeared and the hot spell set in suddenly to cook any chances that previously existed."

County Farm Agent Thomas more than a week ago when good rains and cool weather were having their beneficial effects said that if the weather conditions remained as excellent as they had been that Gray county possibly would have a million-bushel wheat crop.

"However," he added, "if hot winds come along there is no telling what can happen to the crop."

And, that is exactly what happened. In less than a week from the day Mr. Thomas made the estimate, the hot spell set in and the wheat crop estimate immediately dropped.

'THERE'S HOPE' OF MEDIATION, CLAIMS TAFT

'WE'RE GOING TO WIN,' SHOUTS JOHN L. LEWIS

CLEVELAND, June 23 (AP)—Payless pay day and smokeless stacks stood forth today as silent but earnest pleaders for settlement of the 35-day steel strike.

It was pay day at Bethlehem Steel's Cambria plant in Johnstown, Pa., but there was no such payroll today as when the big mills were running at their 15,000-men capacity.

What checks there are, said a company representative, will be mailed during the week.

Much more serious is the situation at Youngstown, O., where 25,000 men have earned no wages since May 26; and in the Chicago area, where Inland Steel's 18,000 workers can look forward to no more money until smoke pours again from the stacks.

President Roosevelt's three mediators sought today to find a thread of compromise.

They called before them against the heads of the four steel corporations against whom John L. Lewis' CIO is striking—Republic Steel, Inland Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Bethlehem Steel.

"There is hope," said Charles P. Taft II, chairman of the mediation board, if there wasn't hope, I'd go home.

CIO leaders echoed his hopefulness with even greater enthusiasm, topped with Lewis' comment as he returned to Washington — "We're going to win!"

While the mediators struggled to end the strike, now costing nearly a million dollars a day, strikers and CIO sympathizers at Youngstown were turning out for simple funeral services for two of their men who died in Saturday night's three hour battle with police.

The force of Ohio national guardsmen in the Youngstown area will reach 4,500 men before night-fall, Major General Gilson D. Light said.

There has been no sign of disorder there since troops began pouring in early yesterday morning in response to Governor Davey's action, taken to prevent violence and bloodshed. Police and county authorities had arrested 177 persons up to early today on charges of suspicion or of carrying concealed weapons.

The CIO, through John Stevenson, CIO organizer, complained of the "wholesale arrests."

The four Youngstown plants have been closed since the strike began, but a check today showed Republic plants at Warren, Niles and Canton are operating at about one-third capacity.

CITY PARKING SITUATION TO BE SURVEYED

A survey of Pampa's clogged parking situation will be started shortly by the civic affairs committee of the Junior chamber of commerce.

Following a discussion at yesterday's luncheon of the Jaycees, President Dick Hughes asked the civic committee, of which Allen Hodges is chairman, to take action on the matter.

Fred Cary, Pampa attorney, spoke briefly on the subject of parking and pointed out to members of the organization that Pampa could create much good will among visitors if Pampans themselves would refrain from "hogging" the parking spaces downtown.

Remarks were directed at business and professional men and downtown employes who usurp parking places all day long that might be used by shoppers and persons from out of town who have business to transact.

It is to the advantage of Pampans that they do this," Mr. Cary said, "and I am sure there is none who will not see the point when they give it thorough consideration."

President Hughes and several other club members gave support to Mr. Cary's remarks and clearly indicated that they, too, believed the parking problem in Pampa is now at the stage where some solution must be attempted.

do not say my suggestion of parking the cars of business men and their employes out a couple of blocks will solve the problem, but I do believe that the Junior chamber of commerce will be performing a needed service if a survey is conducted, and the facts become known."

3,085-MILE FLIGHT OF 12 NAVY PLANES ENDS

COCO SOLO, Canal Zone, June 23 (AP)—The United States navy today recorded as a "routine transfer" the non-stop 3,085-mile flight of 12 planes from San Diego, Calif., to Coco Solo.

The fighting ships landed at this naval base yesterday at 2:28 p. m., P. S. T., after a journey of 27 hours and 58 minutes, the longest mass flight the navy ever tried. The twelve officers and 60 enlisted men flew the planes from the factory to their station here.

BLOODHOUNDS TRAILING MEN IN EAST TEXAS

HUNTSVILLE, June 23 (AP)—Nineteen hardened criminals who fled the Eastham prison farm yesterday after overpowering a guard dodged through the scrub oak and pines of East Texas today in an effort to maintain a long lead taken over a posse of men and bloodhounds.

Penitentiary system officials, calling out all available manpower, and aided by civilians spurred by hopes of reward, expressed confidence the felons could not long hold their advantage.

Rising temperatures, however, it was feared, might reduce the efficiency of the dogs.

Traces of some of the fugitives were reported today.

Eight of the convicts, six in stripes and two in civilian clothes, forced three men to surrender their clothes, an automobile and $2.50 early today between Trinity and Riverside.

Bybee lived for several years with his father at both Pampa and LeFors, and was well-known to officers and many residents here.

The two in civilian clothes grabbed Erza Gibson and a negro when they happened along ahead of E. B. Donnan, who was in his automobile.

Demand Clothes The six companions darted from their hiding places in the brush and forced the trio at the point of a shotgun to disrobe.

At the head of the breakers was W. H. Bybee, life-terminer convicted of murder and robbery. Bybee once before escaped from Eastham, gaining his freedom when Clyde Barrow helped Raymond Hamilton flee the farm in 1934.

Bybee and James Rice, serving 27 years from Harris county for robbery, attacked guard Frank Al-

MODERN MENUS

By NEA Service.

NEW YORK.—"It's much too hot to eat!" How many times we say that during the feverish summer months! Which puts a premium on cool and attractive table settings that will tickle the appetite even when the thermometer is playing around the hundred degree mark.

Dorothy C. Thorpe, brilliant California designer, has created some refreshingly original table presentation, a complete unit keyed to some summer theme—a gigantic magnolia blossom, for instance.

Center pieces are most effective in creating a cool appearance. Flowers floating in lots of water look like a natural pool. Water lilies or the heads of any large flowers may be used.

More Water Than Flowers.

Miss Thorpe features, too, the Japanese flower arrangements—a 'one, tall flower standing upright at one end of the bowl filled with water and cracked ice. One or two flowers lying down may be used with the one standing if preferred. The crux of the idea, however, is to show more water than flowers. And notice how it will immediately soothe the jangled nerves of over-heated guests.

Glass dinnerware is most satisfactory on summer tables. The new Mississippi glass with its cross-cutting on the back and smooth serving surface is not only beautiful but has a delightful frosty appearance.

Milk glass is regaining popularity and makes a lovely table, as does a ruby glass, rough on the back and smooth on the front, and one with a scored back and grooves for food.

China ought to be in such cool colors as green, white, pale blue, or cream. Bright colored pottery is smart and can be used for informal luncheons if toned down with a white cloth and white service plates. Dark blue and white plates are cooled off by bands of white or silver around the edges.

Keep all dishes covered—even cold ones. There are some nice new jellied consommé cups, pale green and flower shaped. Served on a white plate, they produce a charming effect. For breakfast served on the porch or terrace, colored china in fruit forms (apples, oranges) are featured. Then there are dishes in the form of lobsters and other fish, in which fish itself or tasty salads can be served.

Informal Affairs Are Coolest.

Stay away from formal entertaining as much as possible during the summer months. Informal functions give vent to more creative decorations. For example, if there are five or six places, the center piece can be used in the vacant place at the end or side to balance the table.

If you must go formal, the buffet supper is the easiest way to handle a large crowd. For such an event, silver metal receptacles on a dark blue cloth make a lovely scheme. Pack ice around the glass casserole when salads are used.

In addition, the university conferred 1,147 degrees in course at its 236th commencement exercises.

MISS GROOM IS JUNE BRIDE OF JOE HARRISON

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Lona Groom and Joe Harrison, both former Pupkins, at Bartlesville, Okla. on June 5, has been received by friends here. The Rev. M. S. Groom of Fort Worth, father of the bride, read the double ring ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wolfe.

George Wilson of Fort Worth, Miss Groom's brother-in-law, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and Mrs. M. C. Harrison of Tulsa sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. Mrs. J. L. Henderson of Barnsdall played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the couple entered.

Miss Groom wore a dress of dusty pink silk lace and marquisette with matching hat and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of Tallman roses and baby breath.

The relatives and few friends who attended the wedding were guests also at an informal reception, when the bride cut a three-tiered wedding cake at a table decorated with pink and white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are at home in Barnsdall, Okla., after a short trip to the Ozarks.

Mrs. Harrison was a teacher of public school music at Horace Mann ward school and then at junior high here for six years before she went to a similar position at Fort Worth last fall. She was prominent in musical activities of the city, has served as director of First Baptist choir and of Treble Clef and Carolites club choruses, and was a popular vocal soloist. She was graduated from West State State college at Canyon.

Mr. Harrison, son of M. C. Harrison of Tulsa, was graduated from Bartlesville high school, attended Phillips University, Enid, Okla., and was graduated from a college of embalming at St. Louis. He was with the Duenkel Funeral home here several months last year, and is now with a Barnsdall mortuary.

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below.

1. Is saleslady or saleswoman the correct term?

2. Does one speak of a group of women or a group of ladies?

3. In making an introduction may one use the phrase "make you acquainted with"?

4. Is "a song entitled" correct usage?

5. Is it good taste to refer to food as being lovely?

What would you do if—

1. In talking with a person who mispronounced a key word in your conversation—

(a) Avoid using the word yourself.

(b) Use the word, pronouncing it correctly.

(c) Pronounce the word as the other person does.

Answers:

1. Saleswoman.

2. Women.

3. No, say "May I present," "May I introduce," "This is," or simply repeat the two names.

4. No, entitle is only used in a legal sense. Say "a song called."

5. No, say good food.

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.

Often parents who have adopted a child find themselves puzzled, when things don't go altogether right, about correcting the unfortunate habit.

One general idea, however, should be kept in mind. Forget that this little member of the family is not your own, and do exactly as you would do with your own flesh and blood.

Give him all the love and cherishing that you would bestow upon your own child, but guide and train him also as you would your own. This is only fair to him and to everybody else.

It takes fortitude sometimes to regiment the little boy or girl who through the tragedy of circumstances has lost his first home. Not only is there a special appeal to the foster mother's sympathy and pity, but she also senses the eyes of the world upon her.

"What will the Smiths think if I correct James?" The whole street will be talking if they hear Susan cry.

The street won't talk, and the Smiths will understand, if they know you to be a person of heart and judgment. So do not be too sensitive about what they think.

As far as neighborhood gossip goes, it is quite ready to criticize the too-strict parent, and pity the badly-handled child, no matter who he is.

A recent letter brought me the problem of a mother who had taken a child of eight into her family, "because his parents were dead and none of his relatives wanted him."

Child Takes Advantage.

He has proved to be a trial, and the list of his poor habits is long. She is trying to be very kind and to win his confidence and make the forlorn little chap feel at home, but she says he takes advantage of everyone in the house. It is almost impossible to give blanket advice about a case like this, because characteristics set in early years are not always easy to change, and besides, cases differ so much. However, to make a child feel that he belongs in the family and should share its discipline as well as its kindnesses is, I believe, the best course in the end.

The very fact that the same things are expected of him as the other children should not set him apart in his own mind, but create a bond with the rest.

A child, at first, may not be at

COOL

Moving air in the home makes all the difference between warm weather comfort and discomfort. The cost of comfort is trifling. An attic fan will keep the whole house cool and comfortable. It is not expensive to install, and costs only a few cents a day to run.

The diagram at the right shows the operation of an attic fan. Installed in a window, or in louvers cut in the roof, it pulls the outside air in through the windows of the lower rooms and expels warm air through the attic windows. One of these will give you lots of comfort.

Women's Golf Meet Scenes

While Mrs. Burt Weil of Cincinnati, left, shot a one-under-par 79 to take medal honors in the Women's Western Open, and Mrs. June Beebe Atwood of Chicago, right, champion in 1931 and 1933, sat on the sidelines with her daughter, Judy, some of the other girls gathered in the clubhouse at the Beverly Country Club, Chicago, to talk things over. In the clubhouse group are, left to right, Helen Hicks of Long Island, a pro; Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, defending champion; Virginia Van Wis of Chicago, former national title-holder who is not playing in this tourney; and Mrs. Russell Mann, the former Lucille Robinson.

XIT REUNION WILL BE HELD AT DALHART AUGUST 9th

DALHART, June 23.—From the mists of the '80s will ride again the characters of the famous XIT ranch, when a gigantic pageant is presented at Dalhart, August 8-11, as the first attraction in the second annual XIT Ranch Reunion, Aug. 8-10.

Based on the old records and correspondence of the ranch, on historic documents now in the archives of museums, will be the scenario telling the story of the three million acres paid by the Lone Star State to the Parwell Bros. of Chicago for construction of the capitol at Austin.

Depicted again will be that historic bargain, struck between high Texas officials and the Parwells, that brought into existence the XIT ranch, which was in the eighties, the biggest ranch in the world under fence.

Shown will be the first trail herd, brought by Ab Blocker from South Texas, and pushed through Yellow House headquarters near Lubbock on the southern tip of the ranch, on up to the northernmost division, Buffalo Springs, 32 miles north of Dalhart. The other six divisions were dry, no wells yet drilled, while at the northernmost division were live springs that attracted the Indians' oldest legends.

Realistic will be the stark, unpoised drama of July, 1885, when cowboys turned the first XIT ranch brand on the cattle Blocker trailed in.

The brand was figured out by Blocker and "Barbecue" Campbell, who came from Indian Territory in Oklahoma in 1884 to become the first general manager of the XIT. They wanted a brand that could be made with a straight iron and still not be burned over by rustlers. Only Hot Weather is Here— Beware of Biliousness!

Have you ever noticed that in very hot weather your organs of digestion and elimination seem to become torpid or lazy? Your food sours, forms gas, causes belching, heartburn, and a feeling of restlessness and irritability. Perhaps you may have sick headaches, nausea, and dizziness or blind spells on suddenly rising. Your tongue may be coated, your bowels actions sluggish or insufficient.

CONGRESS EXPECTED TO HIT AT TAX DODGING

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Tax investigators considered today asking Congress to help smash the alleged tax dodging device of foreign insurance companies by expanding the staff of internal revenue agents.

The Senate-House committee arranged for Mason B. Leming, treasury attorney, to complete his testimony on insurance company cases and for Guy T. Helvering, internal revenue commissioner, to explain how domestic personal holding companies might be used to reduce taxes.

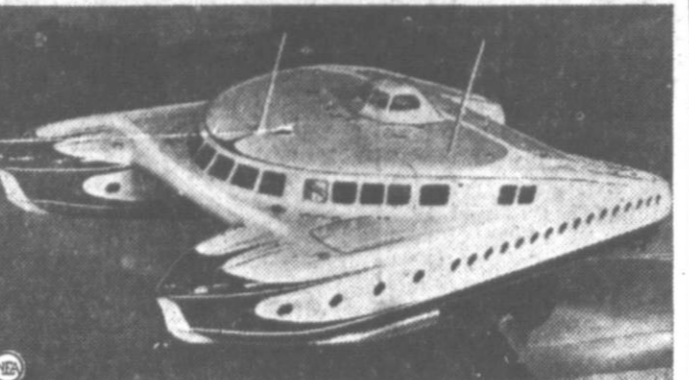

Rep. Vinson (D. Ky.) said more auditors and investigators would enable the internal revenue bureau to check foreign insurance company cases more rapidly.

Congress, he said, recently made possible the collection of about $80,000,000 in taxes by giving the bureau $3,000,000 to hire 700 or 800 more agents.

Soviets Building 'Boat of Future'

Like a step into the future of transportation is this giant, ultra streamlined speedboat, shown in miniature at the Paris exposition and being built in Russia. To accommodate 150 persons, it will have six motors and will cruise between Black Sea resorts at 50 miles an hour. It is 60 feet long and 30 feet broad.

down the curtain two days hence on nearly half a year's work.

Both houses yesterday cleared the decks for passage of local proposals. The House's investigation of a rumored order to slash 30,000 old age pensioners from the rolls was virtually completed with all officials denying knowledge of the mandate. Testimony showed, however, the administration was concentrating on re-investigations of recipients which might result in cutting out an undetermined number of ineligible.

Bills putting teeth in statutes barring bookmaking and outlawing dog racing awaited floor action through a conference committee report. Other minor anti-gambling proposals were shunted off by one means or another.

A resolution designed to break up the current system of obtaining cement for road building squeezed through a House committee by a close vote.

AMARILLOANS INSPECT PAMPA TENNIS COURTS

The Amarillo city engineer and his assistant were visitors in Pampa yesterday afternoon when they inspected local tennis courts. Amarillo plans to build several additional courts, using the same materials as in the ones here.

Courts at Central park and at the water wells are now in use. Caliche on the two courts at Baker school has been rolled for play but they have not been topped. Caliche base is on the ones at Woodrow Wilson school but they are not suitable for play.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Steel, motors and a few specialties roiled along for moderate gains today and toward the rest of the list ahead after an irregular afternoon performance.

U. S. Steel was a leader most of the session, rising about 3 during the afternoon. Other steels joined in the climb and in the final hour entry was transmitted to the rest of the market. There were scattered losses near the close.

Wall street men aid renewed efforts of the federal mediation board to bring peaceful settlement of steel strikes had paved the way for demand.

Centred short covering also helped to lead one indifferent issue over into the gains column, brokers said.

Transactions approximated 250,000 shares:

Windsor Marriage Viewed as Tragic

The marriage of Wallis Warfield and the Duke of Windsor was less a romance than a tragedy, Virginia-born Lady Astor (above), first woman member of the British parliament, asserted on arrival at New York for a visit with relatives in America, but whether it was tragedy for England or the former King Edward she refused to amplify.

Senate Approves Relief Program

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Congressional disputes over relief policies showed signs of continuing today despite Senate approval of the administration's $1,500,000,000 program for 1938.

Senator Bailey (D., N.C.), an outspoken critic of federal spending, said he was drafting a bill designed to "take politics out of relief."

It calls for administration by a non-partisan board instead of by Works Progress Director Harry L. Hopkins, and provides severe penalties for political activities in connection with employment efforts.

Senate passage of the measure is substantially the form sought by the administration transferred debate back to the House, which must agree to a score of amendments.

Hopkins has estimated the appropriation, reduced a third from the total funds available this year, will require granting of 500,000 persons from relief rolls.

Some Senate amendments requiring House approval are:

Two-year extension of the Public Works Administration; The House voted for this in a separate bill.

Authorizing completion of projects already started with relief funds.

Making ready needy Indians specifically eligible for relief.

Requiring that administrative expenditures be limited to five per cent.

Barring from relief rolls persons who refuse offers of private employment with comparable pay.

NEW ORLEANS, June 23 (AP)—There was considerable covering by shorts later in the morning and a little chasing by the trade. Toward mid-session active positions were selling 10 to 15 points above the previous close.

Apprehension over the foreign situation now that Italy and Germany have withdrawn from the four power control plan, a mention of weevil emergence and the weekly weather and crop report were the principal incentives behind the demand.

July contracts traded up to 12.06, Oct. to 12.26, and Dec. to 12.29. On a few sales March traded to 12.29, or 3 points up. Other positions remained at their opening figures.

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO WIN NET MATCHES

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 23 (AP)—Don Budge, America's chief hope for the title, trounced George Patrick Hughes, British Davis Cup player in the second round of the all-England tennis championships today, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

Gene Mako of Los Angeles, Budge's Davis Cup doubles partner, moved into the third round of singles with a 6-1, 6-2, 6-1 triumph over H. C. Fisher of Switzerland.

Helan Jacobs, defending champion and his actual earnings as a motion picture director was put into the corporation.

To the government's claim that the accumulation of this surplus was unreasonable and for purposes of evading surtaxes, Helvinger said, De Mille replied that his corporation was saving up money to go into the production of motion pictures at a later date.

Retrial of Howell, Gray Set for July 19 In Court Here

Retrial of O. L. Gray and Price Howell, Pampans, charged with assault with intent to murder, has been set for July 19. It was announced today by District Judge W. R. Ewing.

Their first hearing ended in mistrial in district court here yesterday when it developed three of the jurors examined evidence in the case after court had been adjourned for the day.

Gray and Howell are in custody for an alleged assault upon Mrs. Velma Little last May 9.

Last night the countryside swarmed with searchers their number estimated at about 200. Thirty bloodhounds, in groups of 10, were called in. Railroads, bridges and the Trinity river were watched closely and officers rode along the section's many roads and lanes.

Warden W. W. Waid of the Texas Prison system planned to take active charge of the hunt today. Capt. J. P. Hamilton of Eastham farm was in command last night. NEGRO ON TRIAL FOR SLAYING IN 'FLATS'

Testimony was being heard in Gray county district court today in the trial of Archie Nelson, Pampa negro indicted for the murder of Willie Phillips, another negro.

The trial opened at 10 a. m. today. Jurors are M. F. Roche, E. M. Kellers, E. C. Snyder, S. S. Thomas, Brent Blonkivist, S. C. Evans, L. N. Atchinson, E. M. Keller, Glen Euter, R. G. Hughes, C. E. Hutchins, and M. V. McArthur.

Half of the courtroom was crowded with negro residents as the case came to trial. Nearly a score of them were sworn in as witnesses.

Nelson is alleged to have shot Phillips to death as the latter crossed the street in the "flats" about 9 o'clock on the night of Memorial Day.

Representing the prosecution is District Attorney Lewis M. Goodrich. Attorneys John F. Sturgeon and Walters Rogers comprise counsel for Nelson. The case was expected to consume the remainder of the week.

During afternoon revival meetings in rural Georgia towns it is customary for stores to close.

ST. LOUIS, June 23 (AP)—Miss W. J. Egan, Webster Groves, Mo., has received a belated Christmas greeting, one of the letters included on the mail of the ill-fated airliner which crashed near Salt Lake City last December 15, with the loss of six lives.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of fluid bile into your bowels daily. If this is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Old Bile is your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sunk and the world looks bleak.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mass bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Bump, bump, get the rest, get the rest, get the rest. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

but nothing takes the place of more mileage

I don't just tend this station; it's my own place of business. I've got a personal pride in keeping civilized restrooms for you. You're absolutely entitled to that, along with all the other service I can give you. But here's the thing: I don't figure I'm let out of giving you mileage—every last cent's worth you can get. That's exactly why the oil I picked to sell at my station is Conoco Germ Processed. Let me explain the long mileage it gives you, out of both your oil and your engine.

You see, the patent Germ Process makes this oil form a real plating of lubricant all through your engine. Being attached for good, Oil-Plating won't run off while the car is parked... nor get pushed off either, no matter how fast you make a long trip. Then you're not wasting your oil and mistreating your engine, no matter if you reel off 5000 miles in a row, or make a million starts and stops around town. I could take your car now at my place, and in a few minutes change it to the correct grade of Conoco Germ Processed oil, the only oil that Oil-Plates your engine.

RA HAS LENT $9,887.10 TO GRAY FARMERS

The Resettlement Administration has lent farmers in Gray county a total of $9,887.10 since July 1, 1936, according to U. D. Kindrick, supervisor for this county, with offices in the American National bank building in McLean.

Purpose of this rehabilitation loan program, he explained, is to enable individual farm families to get a new start under more favorable conditions. In emergency cases this agency has provided food and other necessities until they were able to provide for themselves. The loans have been for the purchase of necessary farm supplies, livestock, household needs, feed, seed, fertilizer, for payment of rent, taxes, and for food.

When these rehabilitation loans were made the county supervisor provided agricultural assistance and guidance and in most cases the home management supervisor assisted the farm women in home management plans. While the county supervisor works on a farm plan to show which crops can best be grown on the farmers' land and how he can make the most money from his farm, the home management supervisor works with the farm women in connection with the home.

It is interesting to note that many farmers do not need a loan after their farm plans have been worked out by a county supervisor and they have produced one crop. The rural rehabilitation program of this federal agency has been welcomed in every section of the county. It has been shown that a small loan for necessary items on the farm and proper farming practices would put many of the country's temporarily distressed families on their feet permanently.

Rehabilitation loans made to farmers in Region 12 of the Resettlement Administration from July 1, 1936, to June 12, 1937, amount to $2,322,888.20.

TEXAS HAS 46,200 CASES OF SYPHILIS, 2ND RANKING KILLER

AUSTIN, June 23 (AP)—Health officials estimate there are 46,200 cases of syphilis in Texas.

Dr. Frederick W. Kratz, assigned by the U. S. Public Health Service to the State Department of Health, said recently it appears about 72,000 new infections occur each year in the state.

The disease, he said, ranks second as a killer, exceeded only by tuberculosis "and if deaths which were complicated by syphilis were reported as syphilis they would outnumber those caused by tuberculosis."

"From 14 to 24 per cent of all inmates in Texas hospitals for the mentally ill owe their presence there to syphilis," he said. "If these persons had received adequate and proper treatment early in the disease, no funds need have been provided for this number."

He said the highest rate of the disease appears between the ages of 16 to 30 years, with 30 per cent occurring before 20, but seven out of each 100 persons 40 or over remain a potential treatment problem. Dr. Kratz said 20 per cent of the negro population has the disease and that many of these are hired for domestic service. He advised employers to have their servants examined.

He said also that 60 per cent of all venereal diseases are contracted innocently, first and foremost being hereditary syphilis.

From 1927 to 1936 Kansas' dairy products were worth $1,289,650 more than the animals that produced them, according to the state board of agriculture.

Kansas State College agronomists have developed a new oats strain which they believe will meet the demand for a smut-resistant variety. It is named Fulghum X. Markton.

DOUBLEHEADER TO BE PLAYED

An added softball attraction will be presented at Road Runner park on Thursday night when the Texas company and Skelly Oil softball teams in the City Softball league clash in the first game of a doubleheader which will see the Pampa Jaycees and Canadian playing the nightcap affair. Game time will be 8:30 o'clock with admission 10 and 15 cents. On Friday night two Industrial softball league battles will be staged with King meeting Champlin at 8:30 o'clock and Danciger and Phillips battling in the nightcap attraction.

The Texas company nine is leading the City league with 10 wins against no defeats. Skelly is in second place with nine victories and one loss. The two teams have been playing outstanding ball.

Canadian took a one-run overtime decision from the Jaycees a few weeks ago in Canadian and Thursday's game will be a return match. The Jaycees have strengthened with the signing of Brown, pitcher, and Al Frignora, outfielder, from the disbanded Pampa Soxers.

JOE LOUIS BECOMES YOUNGEST CHAMP AFTER KNOCKING OUT BRADDOCK

BATTLE WITH GERMAN MAY BE EXPECTED

LONG LAY-OFF COSTS IRISHMAN HIS TITLE

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Joe Louis, only three years ago a rank amateur, rules the heavyweight flistic ranks of the world today.

The 23-year-old son of an Alabama cotton picker won the championship crown from great-hearted James J. Braddock before a clamorous crowd of 35,000 in Comiskey park last night, with one murderous right hand blow that struck with the speed of a rattlesnake.

The gloved thunderbolt climaxed a spectacular fight, ending with the young negro's hold on the crown won't be secure beyond argument unless and until he evens the score with Schmeling. The German, still the logical contender, may be matched to fight Louis in New York this September. Meantime Schmeling is slated to fight Tommy Farr, the British Empire champion, abroad.

Knocked 'Dead'
Braddock, an old man, as boxing goes, had a courageous, Irish-fighting heart and ability to "take it." He survived seven rounds in defending his championship against him, but the way he defended it brought thunderous cheers from the huge crowd.

The fight ended with the game Braddock lying helpless. He was bleeding from the mouth, cut and battered. In the language of the ring he was knocked dead. He never heard the referee, Tommy Thomas, count the fatal ten over him.

As Braddock came out for the eighth round he was a worried, wobbly champion. But he gamely walked into Louis' blistering fire. Suddenly, Louis shot out with a terrific left hook that landed in Braddock's mid-section. Another left caught the champion on the chin. His knees buckled, and he began to sag. Then, in the next instant, Louis drove in a cruel right hand smash to the jaw and Braddock sank to the floor, rolling over on his right side, with his head resting on his arm. He remained motionless as the referee counted over him.

Braddock Not Cautious
The crowd at first was stunned. Braddock, underdog in the betting, carried the sentiment of the majority because he had been poor and had fought his way back from government relief rolls to the top and because he is tremendously popular personally. As the champion lay motionless on the canvas, the yells of the spectators suddenly grew into a mad roar, as row upon row of humans took it up.

Braddock, instead of boxing cautiously, started to slug with Louis at the very beginning. They hardly reached the center of the ring before Braddock walked into the negro challenger and drove a powerful right that just missed Louis' chin. Louis then opened with a shower of lefts and rights that caused Braddock to retreat momentarily.

Then to the astonishment of the spectators, the champion drove a right uppercut to the chin that dropped Louis as if he'd been hit with an axe. The blow, however, apparently landed on his Adam's apple, instead of the button. Louis jumped up and backed out of danger before the timekeeper could begin a count. Braddock was unable to press his sudden advantage.

The champion, in superb physical condition, continued to wade into Louis in succeeding rounds, showing no fear of the negro's punching dynamite. In the sixth it was apparent that he was beginning to tire under Louis' bouncing lefts and rights off his cheeks and head.

Legs Gave Out
Braddock was hurt, cut badly about the eyes and mouth, but his courage did not desert him. He was determined to land a finishing punch. Before the round was finished he was throwing his looping right hand wildly and desperately but he was off balance and rapidly slowing down. His legs were no longer able to support him and he was soon a target for the killing. He was losing his championship, but he didn't give it away. His age and his legs did.

Braddock, through his puffed and bleeding lips, declared he had no intention of retiring and hoped to meet Louis again. There was a gasp an inch long on the left side of his upper lip. His eyes and ears were crimson from Louis' wicked blows.

The dethroned champion, after his 50 per cent share of the net receipts has been cut up, will be lucky to have as much as $50,000 or $70,000 for himself. But that's practically a gold mine, compared to the Braddock financial circumstances three years ago, when Jim began his comeback climb, and probably exceeds all that he has managed to clear since he won the title from Baer in 1935.

Louis, with a "cut" of 17 1-2 per cent for himself and associates, has now earned approximately $850,000 in less than three years of professional fighting. The negro, whether he fights once or twice more this year, as Mike Jacobs plans, is certain to pass the million mark in his next bout.

Oilers Defeat Negroes; Game Tonight Canceled

Joe Louis won a prize fight last night but the Wichita, Kas. Monroviens baseball team couldn't win a ball game from the Pampa Oilers. When the smoke of battle had cleared away about midnight, the Oilers had amassed 17 runs to 6 for the Kansas negroes.

Tonight's scheduled game with the Monroviens has been cancelled. It is not the policy of the Oilers management to book weak teams for games and the Kansas came recommended as a strong club. Rather than ask fans to sit through another exhibition such as the Monroviens presented last night, the decision to cancel the game was made this morning. Next appearance of the Oilers here will be against the Halliburton Cementers of Duncan, Okla., Sunday afternoon and Monday night.

The Bell with the Monroviens turned out "not" to be the famous "Cool Papa" Bell but a first baseman of the highest caliber. He could reach a country mile after a ball in any direction.

Pampa's slugger "Ducky" Medwick and "Gerald" Walker, wrapped into one, continued his hitting pace with four blows, including a double on six trips to the plate. The Oilers slugger is Catcher Eddie Sain. Before having to go to work, McNabb picked up a pair of bingles on his two times up. Sam Sealing, playing despite a pulled tendon in his leg, bagged three for five and Manager Fred Brickell and Ben McLarry collected three for six. One of Brickell's blows went for three bases. Although getting only one hit, a double, Carl Beason scored four times.

Thurmon, Monroviens right fielder, lifted one over the right centerfield fence. It was hit off his shoepoles, low and inside which the big negro golfered. Williams, second baseman, was the most dangerous hitter on the club. He got two hits and backed Brickell against the centerfield fence twice.

Showing more speed than at any time since joining the club, Sam Dailley sent the Monroviens down with nine hits and fanned 11. He also got two hits. Stinic and Green were nipped for 21 base hits.

It was a real ball game for a few innings with the Monroviens tying the score in the third on Thurmon's home run. In the last half of the third the Oilers plugged the score with five runs and from then on it was a case of how many runs they wanted to score.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and Monday night at 8 o'clock the Halliburton Cementers of Duncan, Okla., will be here for games. The Cementers have already entered the Denver Post tournament.

REYNOLDS SMITH CAPTURES MEDAL HONORS IN TOURNEY
DENVER, June 23 (AP)—Star amateur golfers of the west and southwest, battling here for the Trans-Mississippi title over the Cherry Hills course opened play in the first round matches today. All but four of the championship battalion of 64 "Trans" swingers owed par anywhere from one to nine strokes.

Reynolds Smith, of Dallas, Texas amateur champion, conquered a stiff, all-day wind and the course's frequent trouble spots to win medal honors yesterday with a snappy 36-34-70, two under par.

John Dawson played Bob Conliff Jr., young Oklahoma City player, who shot a qualifying 77, in starting his search for a second straight championship.

Smith faced Nathan Grimes of Denver, former Colorado titlist, who notched a 77.

Walter Blevins, from Kansas City, was runner-up to Smith for the low score with 34-37-71.

Jimmy Manion of St. Louis, champion in 1924, playing his tenth T-M meet, and young Paul Jackson, Oklahoma champion from Oklahoma City, matched par with 72s.

Blevins' foe today was Bob Warren, Denver 77-shooter. Manion tackled Arthur Blomquist, Colorado Springs youth, and Jackson faced Tom Stephenson, Kansas City who had 78.

Eddie Held of St. Louis, winner of the Trans-Miss in 1923 and 1926, scored a 77 and drew O. D. Cass Jr., Denver, and his first round opponent, Gus Moreland of Peoria, Ill. Walker Cup team member who was "Trans" ruler in 1932 and 1933, was challenged by Dr. George Dorsey, Denver surgeon. Leland Hamman of Paris, Texas, met Fred Newton, Cleveland, Ohio's lone representative.

Other state and sectional champions in the running, besides Smith, Blevins and Jackson, include Harry Todd of Dallas, Texas, open champion in 1924, and Fred Newton, Cleveland, Ohio, who won the championship field, Colorado having 31. Texas has eight, Missouri seven, Illinois and Oklahoma four each, Kansas three, New Mexico and Nebraska two each and California, Utah and Ohio one each.

BEAUMONT IN SECOND PLACE IN TEXAS LOOP

(By The Associated Press.)
It seems a lot of observers were caught off base in their recent pronouncements. Beaumont's young Shippers had shot their bolt and were heading fast for the lower depths of the Texas League.

Whether they can stand the pace a whole season requires proof but the Exporters have shown no little skill and energy in battling their way back into second position, giving the run-away Oklahoma City Indians the nearest thing to a fight.

They held that place today despite the fact they lost last night to a Port Worth club that did little except watch old Jackie Reid out-smart Beaumont's batters. The score was 2 to 1 although Patchin gave up but three hits to the five Beaumont took from Reid.

A club that recently seemed headed for better things but suddenly returned to its old ways also showed a 2-1 contest. The Dallas Steers managed only three hits all evening and then threw away the game against San Antonio by mixing its signals in the last inning. San Antonio relied on Leslie Tietje, one-time Dallas player, to subdue the Steers. The Mission batters could turn their 10 hits into only the brace of scores.

Tulsa dropped into fifth and out of a tie with Fort Worth when it lost to Galveston 6 to 5. George Granger, a pinch hitter who actually produced, slugged out an eighth-inning double with the bags loaded and gave the Bucs their three-run advantage.

The tall grass in the Oklahoma City ball park helped Pitcher Clay Touchstone win his game for the 2. Indians against Houston, 9 to 2. Touchstone popped one into the outfield and raced around the bases while the Houston men frantically searched the tall grass for the ball. When they found it and shot it homeward, Touchstone had already been there.

Touchstone otherwise was bad medicine for the Houston men, granting them five scattered hits.

Schmeling Made World's Champ

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Max Schmeling made a world's champion out of Joe Louis after all.

When the Teutony schlager kayoed the Brown Bomber in the memorable upset a year ago, he taught him not to gamble with dynamite. Louis never forgot that lesson. Because he remembered he's the second man of his race to be fighting man No. 1 of the world.

His poker face sprayed with the biggest smile he ever smiled, the Brown Bomber told his story and the one reason why he came off the floor to dethrone the game James F. Braddock.

"Schmeling taught me to climb into a shell when I got hit," said the champion. "When he dropped me in the first round the first thing that hit me to my head was caution. I got hell from Chapple (Trainer Jack Blackburn) between rounds for not taking the count of nine but I knew what I had to do. Instead of piling in like I did after Schmeling hit me in the second round, I just backed and took my time."

As flash light bulbs popped and the mob of newspapermen and well wishers rushed and tugged in a frenzy to talk to the new champion, someone interrupted Braddock.

"He's the same fellow I ever met," Joe said as his big smile evaporated. "He can punch as hard as any man I ever met—Max Baer and the rest—but I guess them years jes crept up on him. Nice to be young, ain't it?"

Cubs Have Won 18 Of Their Last 22 Games

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer
Slow to start because of the early season injuries that crippled pitchers and key men alike, the Chicago Cubs are once again all present and accounted for and red hot. They've won 18 of their last 22 games, topping off with a 5-0 job on the Giants yesterday, in which Bill Lee handcuffed the Terry Terrills with seven hits.

At present the Cards appear the Cubs' toughest rivals.

Old Pop Haines did an unexpectedly fine job yesterday but was no match for Rookie Luke Hamlin and the Gas House Gang went down before the Dodgers, 2-1.

Hamlin's four hit effort was only one of a flock of crack elbowing performances yesterday. Monte Stratton, Chicago White Sox youngster, blanked the Athletics 2-0 with three hits. Old Blub Malone, Yankees' relief veteran, made his 1937 starting debut and stopped the Browns 8-5 with five hits. Cy Young fanned seven and tossed a four hitter as the Pirates pounded the Bees 4-1, and Lee Grissom, Cincinnati rookie, muffed the Phillies 6-0 with six hits.

Washington walloped four pitchers, including Bob Feller in a two inning relief role and trampled the Indians, 11-2. The Tigers and Red Sox were rained out.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIEZE CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Well, he was one grand, game guy, anyway. . . . Whether you ever hear any more of James J. Braddock as a fighter, you'll always remember the great stand he made against Joe Louis last night.

There was more than one spot in which the champion could have taken the easy way out (and no questions asked) but he kept coming in for more until he simply could come in no longer.

Louis showed the boys a few things, too. . . . One is, you can't believe all you see in training camps. . . . There was nothing about the keen, sharp punching Bomber of Tuesday night to indicate the slogger who loafed through his drills at Kenosha.

Maybe that was part of the strategy. . . . One fellow told us, but we didn't believe him. . . . Anyway, Joe is the same hard hitter of two years ago and he may be champion for a long, long time, providing he isn't tagged again by Max Schmeling.

Schmeling is slated up to fight Tommy Farr, the British champ. . . . Braddock also may be persuaded to go abroad to start his comeback for a long, long time. . . . Promoters estimated negroes comprised 20 per cent of last night's audience.

Sport Sparks

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT.
DALLAS, June 23 (AP)—Butchers, bakers and filling station operators, backbone of golf, gather at Fort Worth's Meadowbrook golf club Saturday and Sunday for the annual 72-hole medal tourney of the Texas Municipal Golf Association.

To the winner goes a trip to the National Public Links Tournament at San Francisco early in August. . . . Last year Charles Reesor, young West Texan, bagged first prize at Wichita Falls with Derald Lehman of Fort Worth in close pursuit. . . . Reesor forfeited his chances by moving to Oklahoma.

President Gordon Young of Dallas said he expected a field of more than 75 for the two-day grind. The field will find Meadowbrook's exacting par 35-36-71 layout a tough spot to argue with par. . . . Treaded fairways, narrow enough to call for accuracy, dot the course, especially on the incoming nine. Members of clubs affiliated with the Texas Golf Association will be ineligible for competition. . . . Winner and runner-up automatically become eligible for participation in the '38 tourney of the Texas Golf Association.

Odds and ends: One of the Evangeline league's most pugilistic performers, so go the stories, is Jimmy Lawrence, Texas Christian's onetime battering fullback. . . . He's doing all the catching (and fist piling) on St. Charles. . . . One of his battery mates is Tillie Manion, who did considerable place kicking for the Horned Frogs before turning pro last season. . . . No fewer than a dozen of Coach D. X. Billie's most promising footballers are doing chores in the oil fields during summer vacation.

Fall fashion note: The St. Mary's Rattlers football team of San Antonio will wear red, white and blue uniforms with stars sprinkled around the shoulders. . . . Those uniforms will bob up all the way from Montreal, Canada. . . . Rumors have it that the Rattlers just missed booking the Navy.

Exports of American products to Japan, valued at $204,000,000 in 1936, exceed the total of our sales to all other far eastern countries combined.

Ready to Ferret Out Tax Evaders

The informally careless attitudes of Senator Pat Harrison, left, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, belied the seriousness of their conversational topic as the above picture was taken in Washington. At the urging of President Roosevelt, they were preparing to open a senatorial investigation of big U. S. tax dodgers and evaders.

extreme brief, that federal economy shouldn't be taken out of the hides of loyal public servants. Coffey said exactly what the boys and girls wanted to hear. But the reason he is being hailed as a champion of champions all over the town is the fact that he became the only congressman ever heard of here who voluntarily confined himself to a speech lasting only a minute and a half.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, June 23 (AP)—United States Senator Tom Connally addressed the legislature recently under circumstances considerably different from those obtaining when he spoke before it several months ago. On the first occasion he lambasted the plan of President Roosevelt to re-organize the Supreme Court, but on the second he made only the briefest reference to it, confining his remarks largely to the weather.

"I think I have had more than my quota of opportunities to speak to you," he said. "A good many folks in Texas think I made one speech too many down here, but I have no regrets."

Senator Connally said he had "much sympathy" for members of the legislature who had to labor in hot weather, adding that in Washington "we will keep going probably until September."

The same day Gov. James V. Allred had indicated the legislature might be in session also in September.

"It might be a good idea to take your vacations in July," he told press correspondents.

Some suggested that the dove hunting season doesn't open until September in any zone and later in some.

"Do you mean," queried one, "that we should shoot doves in July?"

The governor laughed. "I think you ought not to shoot doves at all," he said.

It is generally believed a special session will be called in late August or September to provide additional revenue.

At the start of the regular session in January Gov. Allred told the legislature the state needed at least $13,000,000 more revenue, but not a tax measure was passed. On the other hand, an increase of about $10,000,000 was approved.

Shortly before the governor sent a message to the legislature urging it not to pass prohibitory laws against "trifling wagering," but to restrict its anti-gambling legislation to public, commercialized forms. Rep. Alfred E. Petch of Fredericksburg was found in his office.

Ickes Bounces Back From Prone Position On Floor

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 23 — It has been reported that on the latest least a dozen conspicuous occasions Secretary Harold L. Ickes, the new Deal's India rubber man, has bounced back up again from what seemed to be a position on the floor.

His PWA, which was supposed to be dead, has been granted two more years of life with funds back in the Treasury.

There isn't going to be any new Department of Public Works right away, which means that Ickes won't have to make a choice between being secretary of that and his present post as secretary of the interior.

Also if the government reorganization bill is passed, the name of the Interior Department will be changed to Department of Conservation, Ickes desires.

These assurances developed at a time when Ickes, who hasn't been well, was in the Naval Hospital here, away from the firing line he was.

Few things demonstrate the quality of Ickes so well as his ability to stand above and seemingly oblivious to the constant bitter intrigue which beats on within his department and the PWA.

Ickes has put on his back in the hospital but never more mentally alert, he sent memos to his immediate subordinates which left no doubt that he meant still to be secretary of the Interior and boss of PWA, hospital or no hospital.

Files Given to Roosevelt. Ickes and others in his domain had been victims of a persistent state of stress dating back a year or so ago to the time when he and others had pushed out Louis Glavis, chief of the Ickes investigation agency and regarded by many as the ace of American sleuths.

The specter of Glavis still pursued the Ickes crowd, especially when it became known that many items usually supposed to have been in the Glavis files, were mysteriously missing. Files of the Division of Investigation have been checked and cross-checked to no other end than lot of headaches.

Presumably Ickes and his favorite chief assistant, Elbert K. Burlington, who has facetiously been known as the "ovirsecretary" ever since Congress created the office of under-secretary of the interior and Roosevelt gave the job to his own friend and liaison man, Charlie West of Ohio—knew what certain other insiders know: that Glavis turned results of certain of his inquiries over to Roosevelt. It's a safe bet that none of these reports compromised "Honest Harold" himself, but the general effect as to certain other officials is still speculative.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS. Notice is hereby given that on July 20, 1937, at 10 a. m. a meeting of all the lot owners in the Fairview Cemetery of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, will be held at the White Deer Land Company's building No. 116 South Cuyler street, Pampa, Texas, for the purpose of forming a corporation as provided for in title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 of the State of Texas.

C. P. BUCKLER. (Daily to July 19.)

Friends of Ickes realize that his recent physical condition has been largely due to the fact that he has been as conscientious and probably a more hard-working official than any other in the New Deal. But his breach with Glavis, whom he once trusted implicitly and who once idolized Ickes, may have been a contributing factor. Roosevelt never lost his faith in Glavis, and that was a thorn in the faithful, indefatigable secretary's side.

Not long ago at a White House conference Ickes objected to the proposed—and subsequently accomplished—appointment of John Carson, former secretary to the late Senator Jim Couzens of Michigan, as consumers' counsel to the Bituminous Coal Commission.

Ickes suggested that Carson, who is known to his friends as a pro-Roosevelt partisan, was inimical to Roosevelt. The President asked for particulars and Ickes finally complained that Carson and Glavis were intimate friends—which is true.

"Now listen, Harold," said Roosevelt, "you can't let the ghost of Glavis chase you forever."

Becomes Hero in 90 Seconds. The new hero of government clerks and other minor employes in Washington is Congressman John Coffey of Washington state.

Seven "rebel" judges, recently suspended from the American Federation of Government Employees, had a mass meeting the other night and proclaimed that they would like to be affiliated with the C. I. O.—an invitation to which John L. Lewis has announced himself receptive.

The meeting lasted for hours and there were several long-winded speakers. But Coffey held himself down to 90 seconds flat. He said, in

OUR ears of today have little use as sound catchers, since they are too fat, but once, when man's life depended on his ability to hear the approach of other animals, he could turn them in different directions, just as a horse does. Today the muscles that made this possible, although still present, are useless.

Coral Wife

BY EUGENIA MACKERRAN Chapter XIII

The commencement exercises were almost over. Coral, sitting on the platform with the rest of the graduating class, was beginning to feel too warm in the folds of her academic gown.

Her mortar board, set at a jaunty angle on her black curls, seemed tight. The voice of Dean Matthews, whose talk followed that of President Norton, droned on and on in the heat of the late June morning.

She looked down into the auditorium where her parents were sitting, but her searching eyes could not locate them. She glanced toward the opposite corner of the platform where David sat in company with the rest of the faculty.

She caught his eye and smiled in answer to his quick wave. Her thoughts began to wander. How different this Commencement Day was to what she had anticipated a few weeks before!

She had not been afraid then that she might never be an even graduate, for even after her innocence and David's had been established in connection with the theft of the process, there had been a faculty committee to face on the subject of her marriage.

Dean Matthews, the liberal, the human, and some of the other professors, had wanted to drop her from school in spite of everything, but the words of Professor Maxwell and Professor Bendorf had finally swayed their judgment.

She had been given a great deal of advice; some good, kindly and well meant, some acid and disapproving. But in the main everyone had been amazingly generous and understanding.

Then, too, the last of Hoyt's threats had been hanging over her. For many days, even after his father had been notified of his son's part in the theft of the process, she had not known whether or not he would refuse to give her father an extension of time on his loan.

Coral shuddered a little at the recollection of those days, when with her graduation day growing nearer and nearer, she saw in its approach only financial catastrophe for her beloved father. But even that had come out all right, she thought happily.

Mr. Marquis had given her father an unlimited extension of time on his loan. He had even made a special trip to the university to see President Norton and attempt to make up in some way for his son's conduct.

He had called on Coral, too, and told her how deeply he regretted his part in sanctioning Hoyt's threat of foreclosure. "If I had known," he had said, "that you were not really in love with that boy I should never have permitted him to create you in such a way. But I was honestly convinced, Coral, until I heard of your marriage, that you were only flirting with him, intending to marry him, but wanted to help him a little. I knew the boy was unhappy about it, so I tried to help him. I see now how wrong I was."

He had asked her forgiveness, then, and though Coral had laughed and made light of her former fears, she knew deep in her heart that nothing could ever completely undo their scar.

She was recalled to her reverie, then, by the realization that Dean Matthews had stopped speaking and that President Norton stood once again on the rostrum. She listened attentively for his words. At last they came deep and sonorous, booming out over the respectably packed audience. "Each year, through a special endowment, the faculty of Elton University has the pleasure and honor of presenting a prize of $500 to the student who in its estimation has made the finest record in his or her career at the university. The award of the prize is based on several things: scholarship, good sportsmanship, useful social and extracurricular activity, supremacy in athletics, popularity among the other students, and general all-round ability. The winner is always selected from among the members of the graduating class. Last year, this prize was not given, since we felt that no person in the senior class was entirely deserving of the honor. This year, however, we are giving the prize to one who so outstandingly deserves it that there is no question at all in the minds of the committee as to her suitability. It gives me great pleasure, now, to announce the name of the prizewinner, a girl who holds a special place in all our hearts. The winner of the Faculty Prize for 1937 is Coral Crandall Armstrong!"

"The huge auditorium resounded with applause, as Coral, too surprised and touched for coherent speech or thought, allowed herself to be led forward, presented with a long envelope containing the check, and led back again to her seat, the applause still ringing in her ears. The Faculty Prize, the most coveted honor which Elton had to offer, was hers: As she collected her thoughts, she became more and more excited. How proud David would be! But he must have known about it all along. And her parents. Dad and Mother would be so pleased.

"The rest of the exercises passed in a dreamlike fashion. After more words and the announcement of names, her name was called, she stepped forward and received her diploma and degree, and returned to her place. At last all the names had been read. The audience and the students arose. In the back of the auditorium the organ pealed for the opening bars of the Alma Mater. As she joined in the singing, Coral's eyes stung with sudden tears. Her college days were over. These four happy years were ended, gone already into the limbo of years which can be recollected but never re-lived. As she filed off the platform with her classmates she noticed many more who were close to weeping. They too felt as she did, and she felt a great rush of tenderness in her heart for these good friends of hers from whom she would soon be separated by so many things.

She found David and her parents waiting together for her outside the building. With them was Professor Maxwell, his silver head inclined politely over her mother's soft blue hat. David and her father were talking together amicably. Her heart glowed at the sight as she approached them. How wonderful it was that her parents were already so fond of David. They had forgiven her unquestionably for her elopement, and a few weeks before!

David forgot onlookers and caught her in his arms. "You're that now. My co-ed wife." And then, as his lips met hers, "The most wonderful wife in the world."

On Capitol Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE
AUSTIN, June 23 (AP)—While Speaker Robert W. Calvert was out of town late in the special session of the legislature he let some of the representatives mentioned to succeed him take turns presiding over the sometimes unruly House.

Charles Tennyson of Wichita Falls was in the chair the first day and Fred Mauritz of Ganado the second. Others mentioned as possibilities for the speakership and who likewise have received "tryouts" are Bob Alexander of Childress and Alf Roark of Saratoga.

Mauritz collapsed during a tumultuous afternoon session the day he presided. Members were clamoring at the time to appeal from his ruling on an important point of order.

A combination of indigestion, heat, and nervous strain caused him to become faint.

Each of the four representatives most mentioned for the Speakership has a wide circle of friends in the House. Alexander is considered one of the leaders, is serving his third term. Tennyson is the House sponsor of the bill establishing a teachers' retirement fund and heads the education committee. Mauritz and Roark are chairmen respectively of the powerful state affairs and taxation committees.

Roark is a bachelor and 26 years old. Mauritz is 55. The two others are in their thirties.

Tennyson is a teacher, Alexander a farmer, Mauritz a farmer and ranchman, and Roark a lawyer.

Representatives will, perhaps, be able to tell more about how the race is shaping up by the time the next special session rolls around. The person nominated for governor in the primaries next summer perhaps could influence it if he desired.

So far, the leading probable entrants in the gubernatorial contest have given no indication whom they would prefer. In 1935, Gov.-Elect James Allred tried to bring about Calvert's election but failed. This year Calvert won without a struggle.

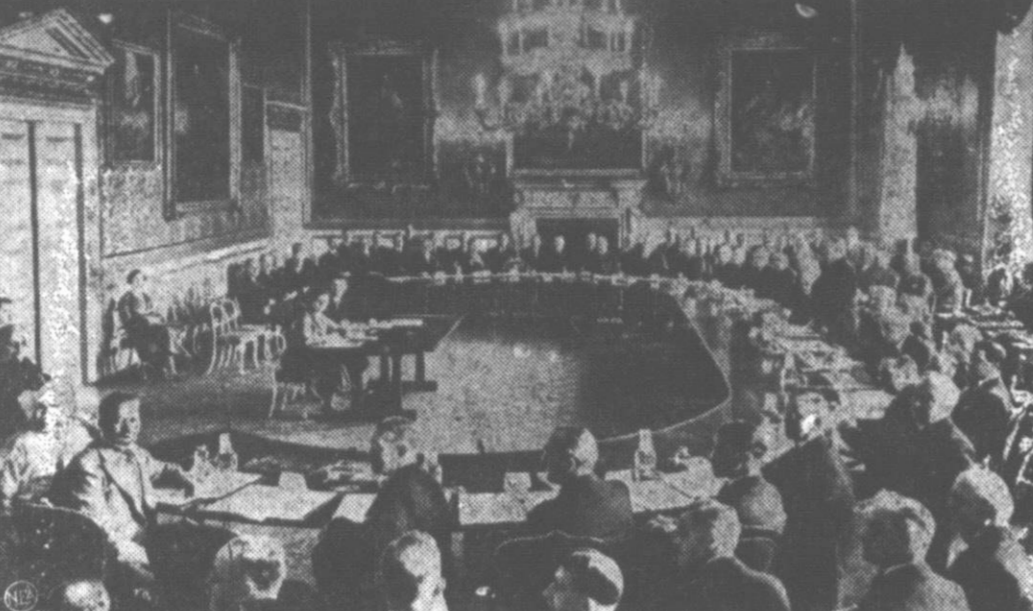

Calvert's friends have urged him to jump into the attorney general's race next year.

Gov. Allred surprised capital reporters recently with an intimation another special session of the legislature might begin in late August.

The newspapermen had been contemplating a second called session before the end of the year but had guessed it probably would not come until about Oct. 1. The chief executive advised them, however, to take their vacations in July.

Some legislators have expressed the opinion there will be two more special sessions this year. If the lawgivers are here for only one additional meeting of 30 days they will have been in session more than half of 1937.

Tightening Links That Unite the British Empire

Turning from coronation festivities to the grave business of fortifying the empire's world prestige, envoys from all Britain's dominions gathered, above, in St. James' Palace, London, for a historic Dominion Conference. Besides attempting to patch up empire trade generally, delegates were faced with problems on import and export duties, gold management, co-ordination of defenses, and the possibility of an Anglo-American commerce treaty. In this view of the conference, Indian delegates are in left foreground; Australian delegates are in center foreground, and British officials and other empire ministers are at right and in background.

Adobe Walls Scouts

TROOP 4.
Troop 4's board of review met last Monday with Scoutmaster Gee and two more examiners. There were three Scouts going up to first class and merit badges. The Scouts were Hugh Monroe for three merit badges, Bobby Gilchrist for two, and Richard Dodson for two. The merit badges passed were safety, firemanship, and pathfinding. The cards were signed and the meeting was ended.—Hugh Monroe, scribe.

Jack Hessey, one of the boys going to Washington to attend the National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America, is an Eagle Scout and senior patrol leader of troop 14. Jack is one of the few Scouts who obtained the Eagle rank in the shortest possible time.

Jack is 14 years old, and became a Scout in December, 1934. He has the following merit badges: physical development, first aid, life saving, pioneering, personal health, public health, bird study, camping, civics, cooking, pathfinding, safety, angling, animal industry, automobile, book binding, carpentry, cement work, chemistry, conservation, firemanship, first aid to animals, handicraft, marksmanship, metal work, music, painting, reading, reptile study, salesmanship, scholarship, study, collecting, swimming, wood carving, and woodwork.

After becoming a tenderfoot he continued in the regular advancement in Scouting, and would be receiving his Gold Palms at this coming Court of Honor. He has held the following offices in the troop: assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, instructor, and senior patrol leader.

Jack is an active member of the senior high school band. He attends Sunday school at the First Methodist church. In all his work and duties he has been one of the most conscientious members of the various organizations. He was elected by his Scoutmaster and business men to be a delegate of his troop to the National Jamboree. Jack is one of the best liked members of troop 14, and the boys, assistant Scoutmasters and his Scoutmaster, instructor, and senior patrol leader, are wishing him an unforgettable, interesting trip.

Troop 14 is sponsored by the P. T. A. of Sam Houston school. L. L. McColin is chairman of their troop committee and Walter F. G. Stein, the Scoutmaster.

Jack is taking with him a complete Indian costume and a self-made chariot. Region 9 will present this historical scene of the southwest in a big open-air performance, and several thousand boys will participate in Indian games and dances. The chariot exhibition will be staged and several hundred home-made chariots will be demonstrated.

The boys who are going to Washington will leave Thursday afternoon at 6:19, and will be given a send-off at the Santa Fe station. A local band will entertain Scouts from Lubbock, Amarillo, and other parts west that will be in special coaches on the train passing thru Mack Graham, chairman of the council's Jamboree committee, and several prominent citizens, will address these Scouts at the station.

KANSAS CITY—Barney Mahoney, traffic patrolman, prides himself on being able to handle all situations, starting a motorist making a forbidden left turn, he halted the man and began a lecture.

"No speak English," the motorist said when Mahoney stopped for breath. The man then handed the officer a small book titled "English Into Spanish." A 15-minute study revealed nothing on traffic rules.

Finally Mahoney resorted to an international word: "Vamoose," he shouted. The driver vamoosed—with a smile.

OIL INDUSTRY FIDGETY OVER PRICE HIKES

TULSA, Okla., June 23 (AP)—The uneasy feeling in the refining end of the petroleum industry was offset only partly today by the continued strength of the tank car market for gasoline.

The action of Standard of Indiana in reducing the tank wagon price of gasoline continued to have repercussions in an "edgy" feeling on the part of refiners as they prepared to meet the anticipated heavy consumption over the Independence Day holiday.

Many predictions were made that Standard and such midwestern dealers as had met the decrease would "up" the price again before the fourth of July. Crude oil producers and marketers still fumed over the gasoline price contending it had robbed them of an expected general advance in crude.

The Bureau of Mines estimate of the July demand for crude, up 57,800 barrels from June to a daily average of 3,423,800 barrels was interpreted here as an expected increase to meet the demand of the vacation period.

Crude oil men were in a fidget about the price situation. Many were the reports to hand about crude oil being a drug on the market in some sections and being sought at premium prices in other areas.

One of the yarns going the rounds was that East Texas, which got an eight cent a barrel advance May 22 to $1.35 flat was on the verge of another increase with some buyers so anxious for the crude that 10 to 12 1-2 cents a barrel premiums were reported.

At the same time producers in other parts of the mid-continent complained their prices were not keeping pace with costs of production. Ruling prices, gravity sear, were 98 cents to $1.30 for Oklahoma-Kansas; 96 cents to $1.20 for north and north central Texas; $1.03 to $1.27 for east central Texas and 90 cents to $1.22 for north Louisiana-Arkansas.

Upon the conclusion of the contest, and with the announcement of winners, a complete explanation of the solution of each puzzle, together with all clues contributing to that solution, will be mailed to each person who participated in the contest. Names and addresses of all winners likewise will be included.

HUSKIES WIN RIVER RACES

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. L., June 23 (AP)—Al Ubricksen husky young men from the University of Washington have written a new page in the history of American rowing by making a clean sweep of the intercollegiate regatta for the second successive year.

Studding the three victories of the far westerners on the Hudson yesterday were two records, 13.44 in the junior varsity event and 18.33 3-5 in the varsity. The previous records, made by California, have stood since 1928.

There was nothing like last night's stirring duel in the varsity race. The Huskies headed off the field just past the mile mark and rowed Navy and Cornell right into the river. Washington finished four lengths ahead of Navy.

Cornell was third and Syracuse, California, Columbia and Wisconsin trailed in that order.
