

Japanese Surround Kiangwan and Plan to Starve Out Their Enemy

HOOVER BLAMED BY GARNER

Today's sympathy goes to the public printer of the United States at Washington. Criticized for misprints in the Congressional RECORD, he told the congressmen their copy was terrible and the names attached to documents were illegible. Moreover, orators often have slips of the tongue.

As to Errors
The public too little realizes that errors in print are often errors in source. Some countries have even gone so far as to make it an offense to offer inaccurate information for publication. It should be realized that a newspaper man often has no knowledge of the happening referred to, and that the informer should be careful to prevent misapprehension of statements made. . . . Did you ever listen to spectators give varying versions of an accident just witnessed, or later describe said accident in court? Then you know the difficulties of gathering news accurately.

Whole Nation to School
Much has been said of late—and will continue to be said most of the year, about George Washington. We deem it fortunate that George does not live in this age of financial difficulty. For George liked his finery. . . . He imported his clothing for many years, finally employed his own tailors, and his home was the most brilliant socially on this side of the Atlantic.

Jefferson Peeved
Washington rode to the capitol in a "coach and six." Jefferson so much disliked the display that he rode a horse. Historians differ, however, on whether George had a "coach and two" and two negroes and two dogs. At any rate, he had 300 negro slaves and servants and a young army of fine dogs.

What-a-Man!
George is claimed to have broad-jumped 23 feet to hold a world's record for 120 years. He invented ice cream, so it is said, imported the first mules and also the first false teeth. The teeth fitted badly, accounting for the tightly drawn lips in his portraits. Rev. A. A. Hyde adds that on one occasion, when George discarded his teeth, the artist had him stuff his mouth with cotton to give an appearance of youth.

Gallant
George was quite intrigued by pretty faces and jealous of all rivals. Once he danced with a girl 3-1/2 hours without being seated once, just to spite another fellow. He wooed and won Martha, with whom he lived happily 40 years, in three days. He was always gallant in his attentions to her, and it is said that she never had to pull his coat-tail to get his attention.

Worthy Mate
Martha was an expert household manager, with duties which would challenge the skill of the best of modern housewives. Her breakfasts were served at 7, dinners at 3, tea at 7, and supper at 9. Her charm made possible Washington's social achievements. Personally, he had left school at 16, become a surveyor in the wild country, but had the advantage

SOVIET IN DEMAND FOR EXPLANATION OF JAP MOVES

SHANGHAI, Saturday, Feb. 27 (P)—In a slashing counter attack just after midnight, the Chinese army drove the enemy out of the Manchurian sector this morning and held on against desultory machine gun fire.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 26 (P)—Japanese troops, advancing against machine gun fire, surrounded the town of Kiangwan a few minutes before midnight tonight.

"If we can't bomb them out we'll starve them out," said a spokesman at Japanese headquarters.

The Chinese resistance was so stubborn that starvation appeared to be the only weapon which could succeed against them.

The spokesman said the Japanese losses in the past 24 hours of heavy fighting were 120 killed and wounded.

Fresh Japanese troops began bringing up various additional light artillery equipment suitable for the low dam terrain, networked by irrigation canals. This swampy ground has handicapped the Japanese in bringing up equipment including airplanes, which have been more effective than artillery.

WHI Drive, Wedge
The Japanese, it was understood, will launch a big drive in the Kiangwan area to push in a wedge. They hoped to separate the Chinese forces definitely by flanking the Chinese in the Kiangwan area and definitely cut the Wooning end of the front from the Chapel end.

Heretofore the Japanese strategy has been to cut the line and swing a double gate, one end hung on Wooning and the other on Chapel. Now the strategy appears to be either to bottle up both Chapel and Wooning by various flanking movements or finally by sheer force to compel a general Chinese retreat toward the 12-mile limit set by General Kenkichi Ueda.

Robbery Suspect Badly Wounded

BOGALUSA, La., Feb. 26 (P)—An alleged bank robber and kidnaper who gave the name of J. W. Ward, of Fort Worth, Texas, was shot and dangerously wounded today in a pistol battle with Bogalusa officers at Bowley's swamp, near McNeill, Miss. His companion named Hill escaped into a swamp and was surrounded by a heavily armed posse.

The two men were accused of carrying out a series of service station robberies through South Mississippi, culminating in the $5,000 robbery of the bank of Lumberton, at Lumberton, Miss., two days ago.

Starting out at three o'clock yesterday, the two men were alleged to have held up a service station, robbed two women of an automobile, kidnaped two residents of McLain, Miss., and fought two gun battles.

GARNER BOOM IS GROWING

Proclaiming the John Garner-for-President move as "young, but growing fast," this unique float from Boerne, Texas, drew shouts of glee during the colorful parade staged by Democrats at their state convention in San Antonio. The parley ended with all factions agreed on the speaker of the House for the Democratic presidential nominee. Garner is a native son of the Lone Star state.

FORMER NEW MEXICO PEACE OFFICER HELD AFTER CHASE

Thirty Gallons of Liquor Seized in Car; Three Are Under Charges

AMARILLO, Feb. 26 (P)—Three men, one a former New Mexico sheriff, were in the Potter county jail today charged in federal court with violation of the liquor laws.

John Brisco of Tucuman, N. M., former Quay county sheriff; E. B. Harris of Vega, Texas, and "Indian Joe" Taylor of Amarillo were arrested in Oldham county after a two-mile chase by federal and county officers. The car contained 30 gallons of whiskey, officers said. Charges of possession and transportation were filed. The car was confiscated.

Brisco was sheriff at Tucuman two years ago, according to information here.

Best Reserved Seats to Revue Are Going Fast

The best of the reserved seats for the Lions Club Musical Revue and Minstrel Show of 1932 are rapidly being sold from the big board at Fatheree Drug No. 4, in the Rose building.

Those who wish to be up close for the first night, March 3—Thursday, next—are advised to get their reserved seats tickets at once. Reserved seats also are on sale for the second night, March 4. The reserved seats are 75 cents, other seats 50 cents, and for children under 15 years are 25 cents. All proceeds above expenses will be used to provide treatments for Pampa's crippled children. Director John Sturgeon is giving the big performance its final shape. A full rehearsal will be held at the city hall this evening at 7 o'clock. Another practice will be held Sunday afternoon, then on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The curtain will rise for the first public performance Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

The revue and minstrel will start promptly, offering depression-chasing songs, gags, girls' chorus, solos, special acts, and skits. The wide interest noted in the show assures a good attendance.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK SUNSET LIMITED JUST FOR THRILL IS ADMITTED BY TWO YOUTHS

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 26 (P)—An attempt to wreck the Sunset Limited, crack Southern Pacific passenger train, near Seguin, was revealed today by Sheriff A. W. Seagert of Seguin.

Seagert said two Seguin boys had been arrested and admitted attempts to derail the speeding train "for a thrill." They were arrested after another man, on being questioned by officers, admitted he heard the pair tell of trying to derail the train.

According to Seagert, two railway ties were placed on the track at New Braunfels road crossing the mine west of Seguin. Speeding today San Antonio at a 60-mile-clip, the Sunset Limited struck the ties at 12:55 a. m. Monday.

The engineer brought the train to a halt 200 yards down the track. The pilot of the engine pushed the ties along the track and prevented derailment of the train, Seagert said. Scores of sleeping passengers, including several film notables bound for Los Angeles, were awakened by the excitement.

ONLY PART OF WELLS TURNED TO RAIL BODY

INJUNCTIONS ALONE TO BE REGARDED AT THIS TIME
GUARDSMEN ARE NEEDED
COMMISSION WORKS IN HARMONY WITH TROOPS

TYLER, Feb. 26 (P)—Administration of provision by martial law on leases of Eugene Constant and J. E. Wrather in the East Texas oil field was formally enjoined in a federal court decree filed here today with J. R. Blade, clerk of the court.

Gov. R. S. Sterling, adjutant general, W. W. Sterling and Brig. Gen. Jacob Walters or any one acting under their orders were defendants named.

AUSTIN, Feb. 26 (P)—Governor R. S. Sterling said today that only the wells owned by plaintiffs who obtained an injunction against him to restrain military interference with their production, were released to the railroad commission for regulation.

He reiterated previous statements that martial law was not affected in any way and that the Texas National guard militiamen would remain in the field to enforce the law. He said General Jacob F. Walters, in command of the troops, had advised him there was more need than ever for presence of militiamen in the field.

"General Walters stated that in fact there probably was need for additional troops but that he would try to get along with the men now in the field," Governor Sterling said. Governor Sterling insisted that all portions of the field save the tracts owned by Constant and Wrather in interests, plaintiffs in the injunction suit against him and his military authority, still were and would continue to be administered by military orders.

He pointed out, however, that the railroad commission's order of yesterday fixed the allowable at 75 barrels per well daily, the same as set by him in his last military order, and that there was no conflict between him and the commission on that score.

Prisoners Eager To Get Freedom

The incomparable spring weather that has prevailed this week was blamed by Sheriff Lon L. Blansett for an attempt of prisoners to saw their way out of the county jail last night.

As a consequence the wall was being replaced this afternoon by a new steel wall. The old one had been sawed in many places by prisoners who found it easy to saw through the welded portions. The jail this afternoon when the wall has been installed, officers indicated. Prisoners were being kept locked in the bunk rooms today.

WILL QUESTION BEARS
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (P)—President Hoover was informed today the senate banking committee intends to "call in several New York bank raiders" for his hearings beginning tomorrow in short session. Senator Walcott (R. Conn.) said after a conference with the president that they had discussed short selling. He declined, however, to name those who would be called to testify.

JAP FLIERS KILL YANKEE

Three Japanese battle planes hovered over Soochow. Robert M. Short, 27, shown above, jumped into his U. S. made biplane of the secondary hospital shortly after. Short, born in Stellacoom, Wash., trained as a flyer during the World War, but was not commissioned. He obtained his transport license at Los Angeles in 1927. After flying 2,439 hours over American airways he left for China in 1929 where he became adviser for Bureau of Aeronautics of the Chinese government.

The $26,000 airplane in which Short was shot down is shown here in a test flight in the United States before it was sold to the Chinese.

HEAVY 24-HOUR GUARD NOW WATCHING CAPONE IN JAIL

Whispering of Jail Break Have Been Heard From Underworld Sources

CHICAGO, Feb. 26 (P)—The government today established a 24-hour guard of deputy United States marshals at the cell door of "Scarface" Al Capone, awaiting in Cook county jail the outcome of his appeal for an income tax conviction.

The action, constituting a precedent for federal prisoners in this area, was taken ostensibly to keep outsiders from reaching Capone. United States Marshal H. C. W. Laubheimer refused to discuss the action or to confirm whisperings of a jail break.

Gossip from the underworld had been that the chief would never serve any part of the 10 years in penitentiary for evading income tax. The marshal said he received permission for the extra guards from Attorney General Mitchell in Washington yesterday.

"Safety" to Be Topic of Public Session March 11

A community "safety" meeting will be held at the city hall auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, March 11 to create interest in public safety. The meeting is being sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

"An interesting program for both men and women is being arranged," says A. G. Post, Kiwanis president, "and everyone in the community is invited to attend."

The program today was in charge of R. W. Lane, chairman of the agricultural committee. Talks were made by T. W. Barnes and Judge Newton P. Willis. One objective of the Pampa Kiwanis club is a closer relationship and better understanding between the farmers of this community and the business men of Pampa.

A ladies' night program will be held at the Schneider hotel Friday night, March 18.

A committee composed of J. H. Hulme, A. G. Post, Jim Collins, M. P. Downs and Alex Schneider want to Shamrock this week to make a survey regarding establishment of a Kiwanis club in that city.

The second annual Kiwanis Easter egg hunt will be held March 26. All the children of Gray county are invited to participate in the hunt.

SAYS NATION WAS LED INTO WORST PANIC

REMARK IS MADE TO REPORTERS THIS MORNING
HIS REPLY TO JAHNCKE
HURLEY CLAIMS RASKOB IS SLANDERING THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (P)—Speaker Garner today said that President Hoover had led us "into the greatest panic the country or world has ever known."

The Texas democrat, who is being pressed to become an avowed candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, made the remark at a conference with newspapermen.

He had been asked whether he had any comment on the speech of assistant Secretary Jahncke of the navy, made last night at Wooster, Ohio, in which the "little cabinet" member said President Hoover's leadership had made the democrats "just a little bit dizzy."

Referring to Mr. Hoover's request for authority to create several assistant secretarieships of departments, by way of reorganizing the government in the interest of economy and efficiency, Garner said, "the president had better keep the assistant secretaries he now has at home."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (P)—A charge that John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, "and his associates" were slandering and misrepresenting President Hoover was made by Secretary Hurley today in replying to an address last night by the democratic chairman.

ABOUT THE AMENDMENTS

(AN EDITORIAL)

Pampa citizens will go to the polls Tuesday, March 1, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 7 p. m., to vote upon proposed amendments to the city charter.

Since adoption of the city charter in November of 1927, Pampa has had a three-member commission, with one member designated as the mayor. These in turn choose a city manager, or business director, to have executive supervision of the city's great business institution. The commissioners are elected each two years on the first Tuesday in April.

The proposed amendments would eliminate the possibility of seating three inexperienced men by providing for the election of one new commissioner each April, leaving two men familiar with the city routine in office at all times, but allowing for possible change in the majority of the commissioners each bi-ennium, as now. These are advantages being argued in favor of the amendments, which follow:

Shall Section 7 of Article 7 of the special charter of the City of Pampa, Texas, adopted by a vote of the people on November 8, 1927, be amended so that hereafter the said section will read as follows, to-wit: "ELECTION DAY: The regular municipal election of the City of Pampa shall be held on the first Tuesday in April each year, commencing with the year 1932."

(In other words, this amendment changes the elections from each two years to once each year.—Ed.)

The other amendment proposed: Shall Section 2 of Article 7 of said charter be amended so that hereafter the said section will read as follows, to-wit: "TERM OF OFFICE: The mayor and each commissioner, except for the terms hereinafter provided for, shall serve for a term of three (3) years and until his successor is elected and qualified, unless sooner removed from office as herein provided. At the regular municipal election of the City of Pampa, to be held on the first Tuesday in April in the year 1932, the mayor shall be elected and shall serve for a term of one (1) year, Commissioner No. 1 shall be elected and shall serve for a term of (2) years, and Commissioner No. 2 shall be elected and shall serve for a term of three (3) years, and until their successors are elected and qualified, unless sooner removed under the provisions of this charter."

The election will be held in the city hall, with John B. Ayers as manager. Only regularly qualified voters who paid poll taxes may vote, the election being controlled by the laws of the State of Texas, in addition to the city charter.

Were the amendment to pass, city elections would be as follows in the future:

This year—On the first Tuesday in the coming April a mayor would be elected for one year, one commissioner for two years, and one commissioner for three years.

1933—On the first Tuesday in April, the citizens would elect a mayor for three years, and the other two commissioners would have been in office a year at that time.

1934—Commissioner No. 1 would reach the end of his term on the first Tuesday in April, and his successor would be elected for three years. The mayor and Commissioner No. 2 would not be affected by this election.

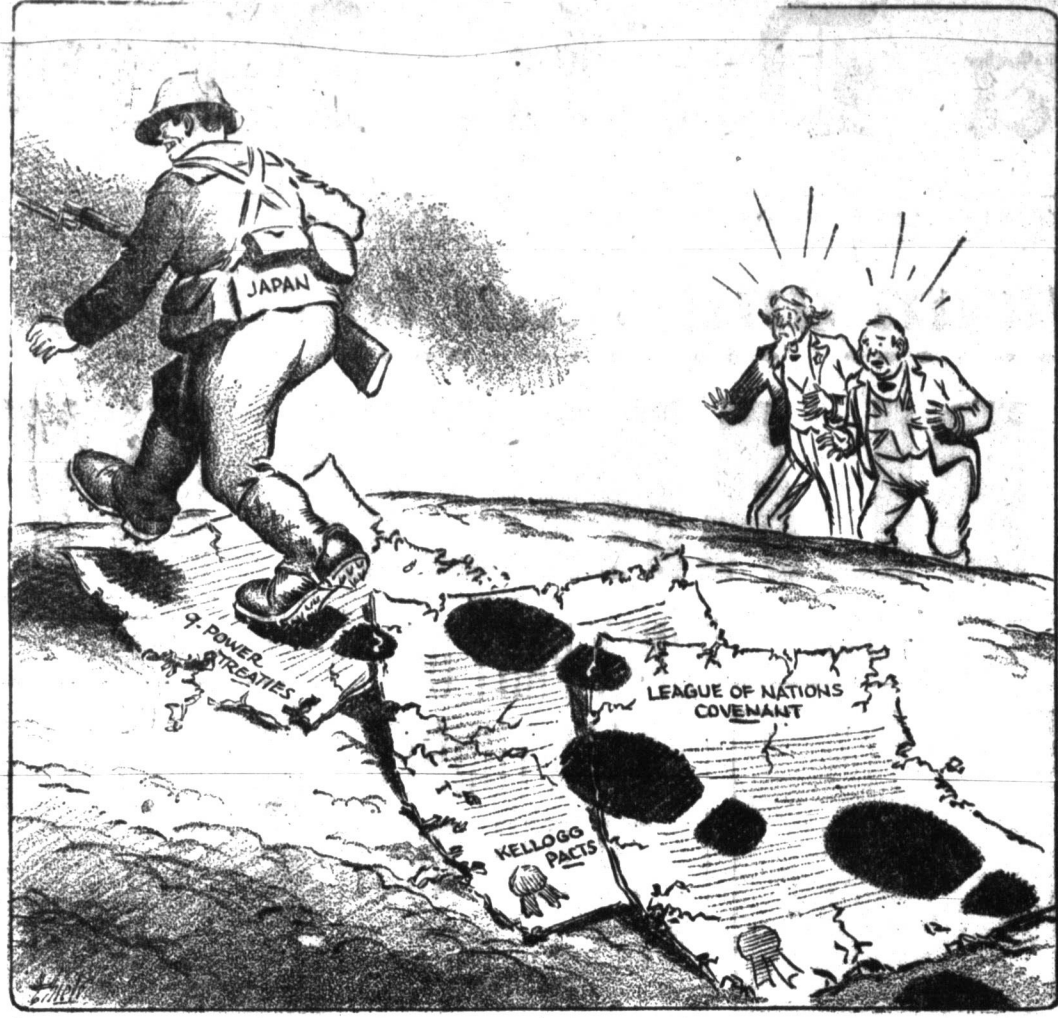

1935—On the first Tuesday in April, the term of Commissioner No. 2 would expire, and his successor would be elected for a term of three years.

The rotation would continue with the election of one commissioner each year. The test of any governmental proposal is not its faults, nor its good points, but the margin which shows it to be better or worse than the plan being used. The NEWS would not argue that the proposed amendments are faultless, but rather would suggest that the principle of keeping experienced men in office at all times is a favorable argument which offsets what could be said against the plan. Our United States senators are chosen at alternate elections. Members of the railroad commission are elected similarly, and for six-year terms. Better known is the same system applied to election of school trustees, directors of the Board of City Development, and other bodies of similar function.

In short, there is nothing drastic nor unusual in the proposed city charter amendments. Fortunately, moreover, they are not vital to the future of the city in that their defeat would be a public calamity. Regardless of whether the amendments are approved or defeated, Pampa must choose three commissioners April 5.

Service as a commissioner, almost without remuneration, is a sacrifice of any capable man's time, and the campaign for re-election—if he, in answer to the plea for experienced men in office, runs again—is sure to make enemies. Therefore, if capable men could be persuaded to run for one three-year term, and retire, the city could have a succession of good public officials without the re-election furors. That, it seems to The NEWS, is a point for the voters to consider seriously.

The NEWS urges all qualified voters to participate in the election. While its editorial board is inclined to the belief that the success of the proposed plan is shown in the cities which have used it, and in businesses where it obtains in principle, this newspaper is not of the opinion that the issue is worth tearing one's hair about. Pampa's main objective, from a municipal standpoint, should be to keep men of sound business judgment and good character in places of public responsibility.

of his employer's (Lord Colfax) home, where he learned the social graces.

Master of Self

Impetuous in his youth, he mastered himself and became the master of men, winning greater victories in holding the loyalty of freezing men than in the battles of the revolution. Indeed, although he had strategy and determination sufficient to surprise the British he was not considered a brilliant soldier in military circles. Here is what an acquaintance, Baron de Kalb, a German officer with the French, wrote to his wife about Washington: "He is the most amiable, kind-hearted, and upright of men, but as a general he is too slow, too indolent, and far too weak; besides, he has a tinge of vanity in his composition and over-estimates himself. In my opinion, whatever success he may have will be owing to good luck. It is unfortunate he is so easily led. . . I look upon him as the sole defender of his country's cause."

Greatness Grew

What his friends overlooked was that his greatness and judgment were steadily growing. Not a theorist, he assimilated the literature and thoughts of the time and emerged from the chaos with clear-cut ideas as to the kind of government the thirteen states should have. This was fortunate, since extremists were abundant. Many speakers urged repudiation of debts and communal holding of property. With these communist utterances he, a land-holder, had no patience. "Good God!" he exclaimed, "these fellows show that mankind, left to themselves, are unfit for their own government."

Not a Saint

Efforts to canonize Washington have failed, likewise all attempts to reduce his stature to a pigmy and de-wack; besides, he has a tinge of vanity in his composition and over-estimates himself. In my opinion, whatever success he may have will be owing to good luck. It is unfortunate he is so easily led. . . I look upon him as the sole defender of his country's cause."

looks to him as its originator. Yet he was so popular as president that he had no opponent for a second term—despite certain bitter criticism—and twice later refused to seek a third term. Father of his country, he had no children if his own. No prophet, he left advice good even to this day. But may we say, in conclusion, that Washington had a remarkable faculty for adapting his thoughts and opinions to circumstances as they arose. Living today, he might very well express opinions quite different from those by which he is best known.

City Letters Are Held in Mails

The post office failed to find 51 Pampans who paid their poll tax this year, and as a result 51 persons have not received notice of the amendment election Tuesday. Letters informing the voters of the city that an election to change the clause in the city charter regarding terms of elective officers.

It is believed that some of the taxpayers have left the city since paying their poll tax, and others have changed their place of address without giving the post office notice. Some of the letters returned are stamped "not in directory."

"When an address is changed, the postmaster should be notified," Postmaster D. E. Cecil urged.

Health of Child Is Objective of Public Education

The health of school children is a prime objective in education, and a program of health education should embrace three fundamental ideas according to Supt. R. B. Fisher. It is the aim of Mr. Fisher to base health work in the Pampa school system on these ideas.

The fundamentals include inspection, correction and prevention. "First, it must be a program of inspection," Mr. Fisher said. "Every child, every teacher, every janitor and every employe connected with the school have an annual inspection by competent dentists and physicians."

"The second phase of a health program is to correct whatever defect in weight, posture, organs, or general condition of the pupil or teacher is found, and immediate correction should begin. The correction should be spoken of as a means to greater efficiency and health, and in no sense should the child be made to tremble and to fear for his physical condition."

"The third phase of a health program is prevention, the proper inspection of food, the proper purification of water and the cleaning up of centers where disease germs originate and propagate are as essential in a preventive health program as are health habits."

"Prevention in school is brought about by utilizing what science has discovered. Vaccination, immunization, and the giving of proper serums are the basis of school health."

Weed Is Blamed In Calves' Death

MIDLAND, Feb. 26. (AP)—The turpentine weed, together with lack of good grass due to late rain last fall, has been blamed for the abnormal loss of calves over a wide area of West Texas this winter, after an investigation of the situation by Dr. Lewis of the state sanitary livestock commission.

Lewis, after investigations in a number of counties, said short grass on the ranges was causing cattle to eat the turpentine weed, with resultant heavy losses by sinking of calves.

Chinese Coolies at Front Forced to Assist Japanese

SHANGHAI, Feb. 26. (AP)—The men behind the Japanese guns in Shanghai's war of paradoxes are Chinese coolies.

In addition to their own armed and khaki-clad legions, the Japanese are being assisted in their assaults on the Chinese 19th route army by large groups of half-clad Chinese, who under force, carry the ammunition to the big guns in the Japanese forward position, ammunition which is to be used on the Coolies' own brothers and cousins across the lines.

These Coolies are taken forward each morning by the Japanese in trucks. They are searched for arms and then carefully watched to make certain none of them have "gone sniper."

Then, they are set to work moving armaments and supplies to the front line divisions. They man a long line of heavily loaded wheel-barrow and rickshaws which link up the supply depots at the front in an almost unbroken stream.

Not all of these Coolies come back. Frequently they are exposed to the Chinese fire and suffer casualties. Some of them return, carried by their fellows and heavily bandaged.

"ABUSE OF POWER" WASHINGTON, Feb. 26. (AP)—"An abuse of power" in letting ocean mail contracts was charged against the post office department in the house today by Representative Arnold (D., Ill.).

Concession Man Is Finally Ousted

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 26. (AP)—After a five-year occupancy, Thomas Jefferson Stewart operator of a concession stand on a plot of land adjoining historic San Jose Mission, has been ousted and ownership of the property vested in Bexar county.

Witness for Stewart at a trial in county court testified that the county had made no effort to claim the land for five or six years.

Among county witnesses was the Rev. N. J. Gilbert, in charge of the mission property of the Catholic church, who testified that the church made no claim to the property involved in the dispute and that he understood it belonged to the county.

The trial was heard on appeal from a justice of the peace court.

SANTA FE FARM AND HOME TRAIN IS NOW ON LONG TOUR

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 26. (AP)—Telling a story of modern farming methods through the medium of specially prepared exhibits as well as in the words of speakers aboard, the Santa Fe farm and home special, operated by the Santa Fe Railway company and the Texas A. & M. college cooperating, began a forty-five day tour of all Santa Fe lines in Texas Feb. 15 at Navasota. The special will make 147 stops in all and a program of two to three hours will be given at each stop.

Visitors will be invited aboard to inspect the various agricultural, livestock, home industries and home improvement exhibits and speakers will appear at open air meetings at the train at all stops where the weather permits. Passenger coaches will be used for meetings in inclement weather.

The final program of the tour will be at Snyder, April 6.

Much in the nature of an agricultural college on wheels, the nine car special carries a message of better living on the farm. It will re-emphasize throughout the broad stretches of the state the benefits of improved methods of livestock raising and farming practices, tried methods of cutting production costs and making the farm self-sustaining. It tells the story, in words and exhibits, of proper care and utilization of the soil, of a well rounded farming program, of home beautification and live-at-home practices, including enlargement in the scope of home industries among progressive farm women.

One entire car of the train is filled with farm electrification exhibit sponsored by the Texas committee on the relation of Electricity to Agriculture in cooperation with the Southwest-division of the National Electric Light association. Local electric companies will supply current at the different stops for the operation of the equipment which includes poultry farming apparatus, feed grinders, cream separators, milking machines, sausage grinder, and other farm machinery as well as various household appliances.

J. F. Jarrell, Topeka, Kans., manager of agricultural development of the Santa Fe, has general charge of the train which is being operated by the railway company. Exhibits were prepared by the Extension Service and speakers are from the staffs of the Extension Service, the college proper and other cooperating agencies and institutions.

Livestock car contains exhibits of Angora goats, dairy cows, hogs on self feeders, beef cattle showing advantages of creep feeding, and sheep.

Some of the exhibits will be changed from week to week to adapt the message of the train to the particular section being traversed.

This train will arrive in Pampa March 21 and stay 3 hours.

Flying Class Is To Have Exercises SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 26. (AP)—Ninety-seven students, including four officers of the regular army, will be awarded their wings at Kelly Field today. This is the first class to graduate since Lieutenant Colonel Harry B. Claggett took command of the Air Corps Advanced Flying school.

The exercises will set a new precedent by being held in the afternoon. The program will begin with an aerial review, followed by exercises in the post theater. Brigadier General Charles H. Danforth, commanding officer of the Air Corps Training Center, will present the diplomas and Colonel Claggett will present the students with wings.

"Can a Chinaman Beat This Shot?"

E. F. Woodward of Houston, whose average of 9881 on 2300 targets gave him second place in the race for national high average trapshooting honors, has been announced as winner of the state high average title, according to official averages just released by the Amateur Trapshooting Association.

H. E. Woodward, son of E. F., was runner-up with 9721 on 2800 targets.

The elder Woodward also accounted for the state high average title at doubles targets with 3184 on 650 twin targets.

However, Houston did not grab all the honors. Alfred R. King of Wichita, winner of the 1930 Grand American Handicap, was the leading handicap shooter of the state with 8769 on 650 targets.

These Chinese may be clever but it is doubtful if they can shoot as straight as our Texans.

Oriental War No Surprise to This Observer

BELTON, Feb. 26. (AP)—Existing warfare between Japan and China comes as no surprise to one who for 20 years resided in this very war-torn section, says Mrs. Ella Jester Comerford, of Belton, who was a missionary to the Chinese in Shanghai. Experience with their intimate customs and life has given her an insight into their background, which, she says, has been leading toward war all that time.

There is a hatred between the nations. On the side of Japan there is envy, jealousy, and a desire for the wealth of lands of China. On the other hand, China, overruled and submerged by her sister, is trying to protect her rights and to fight back this dominating nation. There are riches untold and unexplored lands in China. Japan needs this land and this wealth, for there is not room enough for the nation on its group of small islands.

As a result of the Russo-Japanese war, Korea lost her independence and became a part of Japan. Since that time China has hated Japan, which, from that hour has not ceased to torment her, seeking always to seize her land. She aims principally at Manchuria.

Japan, however, has sought other outlets. Many citizens came to the United States to live in California, but the immigration laws prevented their establishing a colony there. The same citizens went to South America, but were not admitted. They returned home with a dislike for the United States that has not been cooled by time.

Mrs. Comerford has heard many Japanese say that Japan will never be satisfied until she gets Manchuria.

The gold and coal mines led the Germans to form a settlement which operated a railroad from Kiao Chou Bay up to the Shantung province. The scientists from this settlement said that there was enough coal in Shan Si, alone to furnish the entire world for the next thousand years. Mrs. Comerford said.

England allowed Japan during the World War to go in and take this German settlement under condition that she restore it to China when the war ended. Japan did not miss the opportunity of getting a foothold in China. England, at the Washington Conference, demanded that this settlement be relinquished. Since that time, Japan has had a bitter feeling toward England.

Japan is friendly with no one. She is a nation destined for war and corruption, because she makes herself enemies with all nations, Mrs. Comerford believes.

By the trading right granted at the end of the Chinese Japanese War of 1894, Japan was given the right to penetrate the territories of China. She has exercised this right to the utmost.

Mrs. Comerford believes that Russia and Japan have a secret alliance now. "If not," she adds, "why should she allow Japan to capture her only sea-port, Vladivostok?" If Japan could get hold of the Chinese province, she would divide her spoils with Russia.

Little Theatre Is To Have Social

Members of the Little Theater will assemble next Monday evening, Feb. 29, at the Mitchell building for a social meeting, according to announcement made by the social committee.

"Realizing that we need a more congenial spirit of friendliness in our organization, we are planning to have a good time," the announcement which was sent to all members said. "There will be no business session, and the only purpose is that we might become better acquainted and enjoy each other's friendship," it was stated.

ALLRED OPPOSES RECESS AUSTIN, Feb. 26. (AP)—Attorney General James V. Allred today protested the request of defense attorneys that Judge J. D. Amarillo Women Donate to Fund

AMARILLO, Feb. 26. (AP)—The Amarillo branch of the American Association of University Women will give $600 to the national fellowship fund of the organization this year. It will be the largest single contribution ever made from Texas.

Texas' share of the million dollar fund will be $40,000. Interest from that amount will enable one Texas girl to continue her university work each year.

The Texas unit was named for Mrs. Helen Mary Kirby, who for 35 years was dean of women at the University of Texas.

STAY NEAR DAUGHTER FLORENCE, Ariz., Feb. 26. (AP)—The Rev. and Mrs. Harvey J. McKinnel, elderly parents of Mrs. Winifred Ruth Judd, convicted trunk murderer, today were seeking a small house to occupy until the time their daughter is put to death on the gallows in the nearby prison, or is granted a new trial. Permission to visit their daughter for "an hour or so each Sunday" has been granted the parents by prison officials.

Books Discarded And 'Mickie' Is Taken as Study

Mickie is just a white mouse for which a bantam chicken was traded, but he took the place of books for first and second grade pupils of Mrs. C. W. Stowell's room, Sam Houston school, yesterday. He was brought to school by Douglas Smith.

This story of Mickie was written on the blackboard, and the children read it. During language, the story was copied. At the drawing period, each child drew a picture of Mickie eating a piece of cheese. During spelling, pupils learned to spell "pink," "white," "ears," and other words pertaining to the "honored guest." During the health period, the teacher explained how mice were used in scientific experiments. It was learned that apple was Mickie's favorite food.

For was the mouse the only unique thing brought to school by the pupils of Mrs. Stowell's room. The other day a brought a Cream-of-Wheat doll and a girl brought a basket of baby chicks.

In accord with the study which the council is making of the Children's Charter, Mrs. Townsend discussed point 3, "every child's right for love and securing of parental and home care." The UNITED

BOY CRAZY

by GRACE PERKINS

SYNOPSIS: While Hope Ross Dally gives her newly acquired husband a taste of her anger, Dickey's father, "Hickey," is willing to help them, and has come with Dickey, but Mr. Ross disapproves of Hickey. Furious, he knocks Dickey down.

"CALL AN AMBULANCE"

An arm stole around Papa Ross's shoulder. A vivid, living arm, and a voice sharp with fear called into his ear.

"Dad—what's happened?"

He uncovered his face slowly and gazed down at Goody. Gradually his distorted features quieted.

"You'd better call an ambulance," he said tonelessly. "I've hurt him. I—thank God, I didn't have a gun."

"Dad—oh, Dad!"

They both stiffened as the sounds behind the closed door of the billiard room reached their ears. Instinctively they moved aside as the knob was grasped and a voice spoke a short, hardened command.

The door swung open, and Hickey stood purple to the collar around his neck. Dobson, obedient, but panting, was growling at their feet. Barely did Hickey glance at them. Turned, with a mountainous dignity tasted her orange juice, and wondered why a single taste should drain the glass. Merely for curiosity's sake she lifted the cover from one dish and closed her eyes faintly at the sight of hot bran muffins, and two pats of fresh sweet butter. The tang of coffee teased her. . . .

She and Sassy scraped the tray clean between them, and once more Hope lifted tray and dishes and flung them out her window into the rocky brook below, on the theory that nobody could really tell whether or not she had eaten!

Slowly and thoughtfully she dressed. Quite carefully she explained the dire necessity of peculiar proceedings to Sassy, begging the cat not to worry and to please put up with a few hardships just for an hour or so.

Then with infinite patience, she knotted together her sheets, and vigorously pushing her bed over to the window, fastened one end of her rope to the bedfoot. The long end she tossed out the window.

Next Sassy was tenderly picked in a tiny overnight bag, padded with boudoir pillows to protect his pedicreed bones.

Out the window, flung as far as possible, so that it might miss the brook, went her own full-sized valise. Next, with prayers and Hickey marched with dignity past the two in the corridor, and marched to a ladder-back chair where slumped a bridegroom of less than two rounds of the clock. Carefully Hickey picked up his son. And marched, silent and with supreme dignity, past the two in the corridor.

"Is he badly hurt?" called Papa Ross sharply.

At the foot of the staircase Hickey turned.

"Shall I—shall we call an ambulance?" put in Goody huskily.

Hickey's arms sagged from the sheer weight of his muscular burden. One fleeting glimpse of the boy's bleeding face, eyes closed in grateful unconsciousness, struck the vision of the two who stood half covering in the light of the billiard room.

"I will take care of my son," said Hickey with labored breath. "You take care of your daughter!"

Tightly he gathered his burden, and spoke to the dog at his heels.

Goody and Papa Ross watched the procession up the broad staircase. Heard the voices in the upper hall. Heard the slam of the front door. Heard the sound of Hickey's car. And then—heard no more.

The following day, Mr. Ross did not go to his office. He himself unlocked Hope's door in the morning, and once more marshalled the cook in and out with a breakfast tray of food. The room was empty save for the hungry kitten cuddled in the taffeta bedspread that had been tossed on the floor. From behind Hope's bathroom door came sounds of a running shower, gasps and gurgles of grateful shock in the bride's plant trouble.

When Hope, wrapped in a hand crocheted bathrobe of orange, green, and lavender silken threads, swung open her bathroom door and gazed about, her bright blue eyes lighted on the breakfast tray set in the sunshine so that the painted cherries and peaches and grapes stood out on the gay yellow china like living fruit. Her nose crinkled, and her small bare foot tapped thoughtfully. A particularly rasping mew from Sassy made up her mind.

Kitten in her lap, Hope sat down and fed it cream and bits of parsley from her omelette. Disdainfully she

NEARLY 200 PERSONS ATTEND INITIAL MEETING OF NIGHT CLASS IN KINGSMILL SCHOOL

GROUP IS TO GATHER ONCE EACH WEEK FOR STUDY

Nearly two hundred persons gathered at the Kingsmill school building last evening for the first session of a night school conducted by J. L. Lester, vocational agriculture instructor of the Pampa high school. Mrs. Lester, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burke, teachers in the Kingsmill school. The Kingsmill instructors were hosts at the gathering last evening.

The class will meet once each week, the next meeting to be held next Thursday evening. All interested are invited to attend. Each gathering will open with a program of entertainment. Then Mr. Lester and Mr. Burke will teach a class of men and Mrs. Lester and Mrs. Burke will teach the women.

"Pop" Frazier will teach the school band delighted the crowd with the following numbers last evening: A march, "Cadets on Parade"; a romance, "South Sea Isles"; medley, "The Old South"; march, "On the Hike." Two vocal duets were sung by Marjorie Enloe and Hester Ella Lester, high school students, accompanied at the piano by Miss Iva June Willis.

"IDEAL GIRL"

Beautifulization of home and school grounds was discussed by Mrs. Lester, and Mr. Lester spoke on selection and care of eggs for incubation. Mr. Burke used as his subject "Natural Incubation vs. Artificial Incubation." Principal L. L. Sone of Pampa high school discussed the benefits to be derived from the work.

The class will be open to boys and girls as well as men and women, and such vital problems as those pertaining to home, school, and agriculture will be taken up. It will continue 12 weeks.

lovely party in the home of Mrs. F. W. Broyles Wednesday afternoon. The hostess used the St. Patrick theme throughout decorations.

Mrs. W. D. Champion was favored for high score and presented the gift to Mrs. W. Cretes, a guest. The low score favor went to Mrs. A. A. Parker.

A delicious luncheon was served to Mesdames F. P. Boyd, W. L. Bozeman, W. I. Fowler, B. R. Nash, W. D. Champion, A. A. Parker, L. L. McGhee, F. W. Broyles, and one guest, Mrs. Cretes.

The club will meet next week with Mrs. Boyd at 2 o'clock.

ST. PATRICK THEME FEATURED IN PARTY

A St. Patrick theme was evident in appointments of green and white at the bridge party given by Mrs. P. J. Landry Wednesday afternoon. Members of the O. D. O. club were guests for the occasion.

Honors went to Mrs. George Nix for high score, Mrs. J. H. Dehnert, for second high, and Mrs. W. C. Shair, guest high.

Green and white were featured in refreshments served at the close of the games to Mesdames George Nix, Floyd Archer, L. G. Rittenhouse, Lon Blansett, J. H. Dehnert, P. J. Landry, and two visitors, Mrs. W. G. Shair and Mrs. Ray Lawrence.

SOC—IDEAL GIRL—CUT

The "Ideal girl" is the title voted Ellen Kent Millsaps of Monroe, La., student at Hollins college, Roanoke, Va. The selection carried with it the honor of leading the fancy dress ball at Washington and Lee university. She is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 110, has hazel eyes and brunet hair.

Bruening Winning Confidence Votes

BERLIN, Feb. 26. (AP)—Four times today the Bruening government turned back the opposition in the Reichstag, winning against a succession of no-confidence motions.

The chancellor had a majority of 25 on a Communist motion declaring non-confidence in the whole cabinet. There were larger margins to defeat no-confidence motions against two members of the cabinet, and a nationalist motion to dissolve the Reichstag lost by 71 votes.

With these assaults disposed of, the Reichstag set the date for the presidential election at March 13, and provided for a second ballot April 10 in case none of the candidates should receive a clear majority on the first.

Before the votes were taken there was an impressive moment when Wilhelm Marx, who opposed President von Hindenburg in the 1925 campaign, pleaded with the opposition to forget their personal differences and emulate the "chivalrous, honorable" tactics of the campaign of seven years ago.

Divorces Fewer in Term of Court

The number of divorces granted during this term of 114th district court was the lowest in five years, court records reveal.

Decrees granted were as follows: Flora Moore vs. Geo. G. Moore; Lena Jordan vs. Charles Jordan; Ross W. Beardmore vs. Lenora Beardmore, custody of children; Daisy Clark vs. Albert Clark; E. C. Stinson vs. Nell Stinson; G. H. Reber vs. Laura Reber; Eunice Kennedy vs. William Milton Kennedy.

Judge E. F. Ritchey has entered judgment for the defendants in the U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty company's action against Mrs. Gladys L. Henderson, regarding compensation. The judgment specified monthly payments of a compensation and denied payment in a lump sum.

A judgment of $2,750 for the defendant was entered in the Texas Indemnity company's suit against Mrs. Etta Barling.

An unusual amount of business was finished by the court this term. The docket was thinned by judgments, transfers, and dismissals.

Safety Measure in Banking Urged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26. (AP)—Asserting that "the people want safety above every other consideration," Senator Fletcher (D., Fla.) today introduced a bill to safeguard against losses of deposits through bank failures.

Each federal reserve member bank would be required to contribute a sum equal to five per cent of its capital to establish a "depositors' guaranty fund" which would be a first lien against all net assets of a bank becoming insolvent.

A similar provision was contained in the bill by Senator Glass (D., Va.), making numerous other revisions in federal reserve banking law and now undergoing alteration.

The Fletcher bill also strengthens the penal provisions of the banking laws flatly prohibiting suspension of sentence, parole or pardon.

CHILD IS DROWNED

BALLINGER, Feb. 26. (AP)—Funeral service was held here this afternoon for Donald Rees, 20-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reese, drowned late yesterday in an unfinished well in the back yard of his parents' home. Search for the baby was made when it was learned he was not with his father, and the body was found in four feet of water. The Reeses have lost four children by death in four years, and four are living.

ROAD GIVEN LOAN

NEW YORK, Feb. 26. (AP)—The St. Louis-San Francisco railroad has been granted $3,000,000 of the $13,700,000 in loans it is seeking from the reconstruction finance corporation, it was learned today.

This loan will permit the road to meet its financial requirements until June 1. Renewal of the application for additional funds of $10,700,000 to meet bond interest and maturities between June 1 and the end of the year is expected later.

YOUTHS TAKE GOLFING LEAD

Moreland, Smith and Maguire Hold 3 Top places in Houston Tourney

HOUSTON, Feb. 26. (P)—Youth had been served richly today as semi-final play began in the Houston Country club's annual invitation golf tournament.

Three of the semi-finalists were youngsters—Gus Moreland of Dallas, 20; Reynolds Smith of Dallas, 19, and Willie Maguire, Jr., of Houston, 16, while the fourth was a calm veteran, John Dawson of Chicago.

Moreland was paired with Smith, while Maguire was matched with Dawson, a position he had been hoping for since the tournament began.

Maguire eliminated Edwin McClure of Shreveport yesterday in a great match up in 38 holes. Moreland had no trouble in downing E. J. Rogers of Oklahoma City, 9 and 8. Smith, who was one down to Jack Dold of Houston at the ninth hole in the morning round, hit his stride soon and finished 2 and 1.

Dawson displayed consistent golf to down W. C. Hunt of Houston, former state champion, 7 and 6.

Tournament Of Wrestling And Boxing Planned

The Texas Amateur Athletic Federation is blooming with a new sports division this year. It will be a boxing and wrestling tournament to be conducted at Austin Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9.

It will be the first annual boxing and wrestling tournament of this organization. The various events will be open to any amateur white person, weighing 100 pounds or more, that lives in Texas.

The wrestling will be governed by Intercollegiate point rules. All boxing matches will be three, three minute rounds, and in case of a draw, additional rounds will be held until a winner is declared. Five impartial judges will hand down the decisions, and the referee will not be one of them.

NEW NINES IN TWILIGHT LOOP READY TO PLAY

TWO MORE TEAMS TO BE NEEDED FOR LEAGUE

Two new soft-ball teams have thrown their hats in the ring and announced that they are ready for all comers. The latest entries are from the Railroad Commission office and the Pampa Independent school district faculty. The addition brings the teams entered to six.

Members of the faculty will meet this afternoon to elect officers. A practice will follow on the high school campus. J. A. Meek is acting manager of the squad.

The railroad commission gang will organize tomorrow. Zeno Ingram is temporarily in charge. Practice started yesterday afternoon.

The Pampa NEWS team started organization work yesterday and has accepted challenges from the faculty, railway, and the high school teams. The first games will probably be played next week following an organization meeting. The meeting date will be announced in Sunday's NEWS.

Other teams representing the Western Building & Loan or Worley building, Blair Motor company, and First National bank are in various stages of organization. At least two more teams are needed to round out the league. Practically every team needs additional players.

Short-Stops Are Very Rare Now

RICHMOND SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 26. (P)—Manager Bucky Harris of the Detroit Tigers blames the lively ball for the dearth of capable short stops which has plagued the Tigers, as well as other clubs of the American league. Every player now wants to be a slugger, he says, and since home run hitters are by tradition outfielders, ambitious players gravitate to the outer gardens.

He believes, however, that Bill Rogell will solve the Tiger short stop problem.

Pekinpaugh to Have Six Hurlers

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 26. (P)—Manager Roger Peckinpaugh of the Cleveland Indians is counting on six pitchers now in training here, to produce 80 victories for the tribe this season. What he's looking for now is another brace of hurlers to produce an additional 10 wins apiece.

The first six on the list are Wesley Ferrell, Willie Fudlin, Clint Brown, Mel Harder, Sarge Connally and Pete Jablonowski. There are nearly a dozen candidates for the other two jobs.

SMALL BOAT MISSING

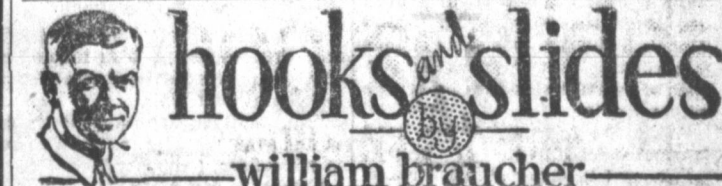

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 26. (P)—Dispatches from Vera Cruz today said fear was held there for the safety of a dozen persons aboard the small packet boat Elena which left Vera Cruz for Tampico last Saturday, encountered a severe storm Sunday and has not been heard from since. Several passengers in addition to the crew were reported aboard the boat.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

BASKETBALL

Chattanooga 38, Mississippi college 33.
Kansas City Athletic club 33, Haskell Indians 20.
Tulsa U. 24, Phillips U. 26.
Southwestern 38, Simmons U. 55.

A Column of Don'ts
Don't count too much on the deterioration of the Athletics this year. Messrs. Simmons, Grove, Earnshaw, Fox and Cochrane still are pretty fair ball players.
Don't expect too much of Pepper Martin. This actually will be only his second season in the big show.
Don't try to tell me the name of any pitcher in the National League who will win more games this year than Dizzy Dean, Cardinal rookie. And St. Louis has a lot of other good pitchers, too. (Are we sold on that guy Dean?)
Don't bet that Brooklyn will not finish right up there. The reasons will be pitchers from Macon named Krider, Mattingly, Mungo and Gallivan—and a fat outfielder named Wilson.
Don't discount Lew Fonseca as just another White Sox manager. Lew is in a good spot; to bring the White Sox up there this year, and he knows just how to do it.

These Concern the Boxers
Don't let anybody tell you that Jack Sharkey is going to take Schmeling. The fact is, Max is going to make the Boston Squire cry out loud.
Don't put up good money against Billy Petrolle. Don't put up much good money against Tony Canzoneri. And don't put up very much good money against Jackie Fields.
Don't take Steve Hamas too seriously. In fact, it's a pretty fair match.

rule not to take any boxer seriously if the young man ever happens to go to college.
Don't ask any more questions about Jack Dempsey coming back. Dempsey is not coming back—and that's final.
Don't throw rocks at a man because he voices the opinion that Ernie Schaaf is about as tough a piece of cauliflower as there is extant right now. This is a free country, why sure it is!
Don't exclaim to the neighbors if you pick up the papers some of these days and observe that old Billy Wallace has been matched for a shot at the lightweight championship.

Now, About Horses
Don't let self-appointed louts talk you off Phar Lap because the Australian invader must reverse his running direction over here and must run on dirt instead of turf. In fact, never let any self-appointed tout talk you off anything.
Don't swallow any talk about Top Flight being unable to win the Derby because she is just like other unbeaten two-year-olds who flopped as three-year-olds. Away back there in 1914, Regret, another filly who had been unbeatn as a two-year-old won the Derby, and Morvich, winner of the Derby in 1922, never lost a race as a two-year-old.
Don't ever buy a race horse. If you must have a four-footed animal, get a good milch cow.

Title to Many Acres of Land in Pecos County Subject of Dispute

AUSTIN, Feb. 26. (P)—Controversy over title to 2,468 acres of some of the most valuable oil land in the world is in the hands of a Travis county district judge for adjudication. The case was submitted to Judge C. S. Wheeler after a trial that lasted approximately one month.

The disputed area, located in Pecos county, on which the largest oil well in the world is located, was claimed by the state several years ago as vacant, unsurveyed school land and sold on competitive bids. It was placed on the auction block as ranch land and could be utilized for little except cattle grazing.

A royalty interest in favor of the public school fund was retained when the state sold the land. With the discovery of the prolific oil field on part of the territory, this royalty interest has been estimated conservatively at $20,000,000, with other estimates running considerably higher.

Ira C. Yates, pioneer west Texan, purchased a large portion of the vacancy and the richest pool so far discovered in the field bears his name, the Yates Pool. Yates was named a co-defendant in the suit brought by the state to prove it had the right to sell the land to Yates and others. He and those who held title on state patents assisted the state, since their title would fall if it was proven the state had no claim to the land.

The state sold the land about 1915. Cattle grazed over the land unmolesed for ten years, before their pasture was invaded by a drilling rig. The first well that was sunk, The Yates No. 1, was a producer.

Ranching quickly became secondary; the loving of cattle was replaced by the hammer of the oil drill as other rigs were rushed into the field and a wild scramble started for land in the area.

Surveyors field notes and maps were checked as to accuracy. Several alleged discrepancies were found and the Douglas Oil Company and others claimed that no vacancy existed where the state claimed one to be. The instant law suit followed.

It probably will be appealed to the supreme court before it is finally decided.

The contested acreage lies between Block 194 and the Pecos river surveys. Defendants in the suit instituted by the state claim the eastern sections of Block 194 did not reside their full acreage quotas and that acreage in the vacancy should have been allotted to these sections. Evidence was offered to show that if any vacancy existed, it was between Block 194 and Block "Z", which would place the vacancy on the western instead of the eastern edge of Block 194.

Voluntaneous evidence was offered by each side, mostly in the form of maps, field notes and survey lines. The record is believed to be one of the largest, if not the largest ever assembled in the trial of a land suit, one defendant alone offering approximately 1,700 field notes on surveys.

Should the state lose the suit, the school fund will lose its royalties and Yates and other titleholders under the state will lose their title. If the defense contention is sustained by the courts, the land will be allotted to sections in which the state did not reserve a royalty interest.

An interesting document was offered by Yates in presenting his side of the case. One of the links in Yates' chain of title was a warranty deed dated July 26, 1894, made out by Thomas Tinsley of New York to James B. Smith and H. H. McLauren of Austin to 53 sections of land in Pecos county. The location of these sections has a bearing on the suit.

The deed called for 640 acres to each section. The consideration for the deed was $50,000 in bonds, fifty bonds of $1,000 each, "being part of an issue of $125,000 made by the state of Tamaulipas, Republic of Mexico, to James B. Smith and H. H. McLauren of Austin, Texas, in payment for the construction of a state penitentiary at the city of Victoria, the capital of the said state of Tamaulipas, under a contract between said Smith and McLauren and said state dated the 27th of October, 1892, said bonds bearing date of Nov. 18, 1893, payable in lawful money of Mexican coinage on the first day of July, 1902. Principal and interest payable at the treasury of the state of Tamaulipas in the city of Victoria.

"Big Names" Are On Coaching List

BY BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

Hunk Anderson, Marchie Schwartz, "Pop" Warner, "Tny" Thornhill, Jack Meagher, "Phog" Allen and Clyde Littlefield are the big names that will be connected with the second annual Texas Tech coaching school this summer at Lubbock.

In the football division, Hunk Anderson and Marchie Schwartz of Notre Dame, Warner and Thornhill of California and Jack Meagher of Rice will teach. Anderson will teach the Notre Dame shift system. Warner will teach his double wing back formations. Meagher will demonstrate end blocking.

"Phog" Allen will teach basketball, and Clyde Littlefield from the university of Texas, will teach track and field.

With this fine array of coaching talent signed, the Texas Tech school should be able to graduate any number of persons on the finer points of football, basketball and track.

Asia is the most interesting land to students.

FOOTBALL TO BE PLAYED IN SPRING WORK

MITCHELL GROUP HAS ADVANTAGE OF EXPERIENCE

The first football game of the spring training season will be played next Friday afternoon at Harvester park between Coach Oduis Mitchell's track and field squad and Coach Argus Fox's gang out for spring football.

It should be a battle. Both teams will have a smattering of lettermen, with the Mitchellites having the advantage. However, the Fox crew will have the advantage of training and substitutes. The track and field boys practice every afternoon following their workout.

Although Coach Mitchell has not definitely selected his starting lineup, he will probably use Marbaugh, Fullingim, Pool, Faulkner, Patton, Bert Stevens, and Ernest Taylor in the line and Wayne Kelly, Leon Robinson, Claude Sullins, and Joe Kahl, should he decide to remain here next term, in the backfield.

Coach Fox has Sam Turner, H. L. Ledrick, Rufus Walker, Clovis Green, Gerdis Schmidt, and Phillip Powell, lettermen, available for duty. His substitutes will number about 45 and some of them will be first string Harvesters this year. Among the 1931 Harvesters who appear to have the goods are Norvell Stevens, Sartin, Hollenbeck, Hamilton, Pribble, Wright, Smith, Howard, Nelson, Reynolds, Owens, and others.

Spring training will continue for at least two months more, with eligible track and field men learning signals and doing light work with the big squad.

Hornsby Frosh in Nice Exhibition

CATALINA ISLAND, Calif., Feb. 26. (P)—Rogers Hornsby's freshmen have demonstrated their ability under fire of a semi-comic baseball game already.

To get an insight of his rookies, Manager Hornsby divided his squad into the colts and ponies yesterday for a full nine-inning game. The ponies, captained by Charlie Root, won 12 to 6. The youngsters, especially Stanley Hack and Harry Taylor, pleased Hornsby with their work.

The veterans were due to arrive today.

New Training Is Being Attempted By Lew Fonseca

MINERAL WELLS, Feb. 26. (P)—The beginning of Lew Fonseca's great baseball experiment started today.

Instead of starting his White Sox to work in regulation spring training camp style, Manager Fonseca chased his players over hill and dale and then sent them to the salt baths for conditioning. The process will be continued for a week, after which the team will train for its regular camp at San Antonio.

Carey Selph, the White Sox draft prize, was still among the missing today and hopes he would change his mind and drop his insurance business for baseball went glimmering.

Beer Cocks? No, New Flower Pots

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 26. (P)—Some beer cocks went to high school here the other day. They did not go to the chemical laboratory, however, for no course in beer making is offered.

The cocks from the city hall were taken in raids by police and were given high school authorities to be used as flower pots. The beautification program of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has struck the high school system of San Angelo.

Pepper Martin Is On His Way To Cardinals' Camp

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 26. (P)—Hides those bases, Bradenton—"Pepper" Martin's on his way!

When Johnny Leonard hopped into his "gasoline buggy" at noon today bound for the St. Louis Cardinals' spring training camp in the Everglades country he had his pretty wife and baby daughter, Mary Alyne, with him.

Brown as a berry and hardened after a winter spent in hunting and taking life easy in doing the things he likes to do while not playing baseball, "the Pepper" left for Florida with a determination to "re-peel" hidden behind his every-ready smile.

"Steal more bases? Sure, I can," he said. "I'm just plumb tickled that the Cards are going to turn me loose, like they said. Not that I wasn't turned loose pretty well already, but there were lots of times I had to steal bases without waiting for a signal. It makes me feel pretty good to think the Card management has confidence in my judgment."

"Guess about all I can do is to hustle harder than ever."

ALUMNI PLAN OF COACHES IS TO BE ENDED

HERBERT CRISLER HAS PRINCETON JOB NOW

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 26. (P)—After several dismal football seasons, Princeton has definitely broken away from its policy of alumni coaching with the appointment of Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler, as its new head football coach.

Appointment of Crisler, who several days ago said he had received an offer from Princeton, was definitely announced last night by Thurston J. Davies, supervisor of athletics at Princeton. Davies said he had been informed Crisler had signed a three-year contract.

Crisler, a university of Chicago graduate, has been head coach and director of athletics at the University of Minnesota. He recently gave up the coaching part of his duties because he found it too arduous to hold two jobs and Bernie Bierman of Tulane was named Minnesota coach.

Although Crisler said he considered the Princeton offer "too flattering to be refused" Davies' announcement said his salary would be "not in excess of the faculty scale." It was understood the highest-paid member of the regular Princeton faculty receives about $10,000 a year.

Abilene Bridge Hand Is Perfect

ABILENE, Feb. 26. (P)—Only once in so many thousand times does it happen, but a woman amateur bridge player here has drawn the perfect hand—13 spades. The hand was dealt to Mrs. Clyde Hambrick here during an evening of play with her husband and another couple in her home.

The quartet had played one game, the men playing against the two women. Mr. Hambrick dealt the fifth hand, and opened bidding with "one heart." The other two peeped, then Mrs. Hambrick, trying to suppress her excitement, jumped the bid to "seven spades."

Her nonchalance failed completely, however, and she explained "and none of you have any." The ladies, incidentally led the evening's games by 1,800 points.

This Game of GOLF

By O. B. KEELER

Education of young children in golf, says Mr. Albert R. Gates, business administrator for the Professional Golfers' association, is one of the most important and rapidly growing phases of instruction in the game. He goes into a rather detailed and decidedly interesting explanation in a recent announcement.

"Golf is an acquired game," Mr. Gates says, voicing an important truth. There is no such thing as a great natural golfer—that is, a golfer who attains the first rank without either capable instruction or the chance at first class emulation.

"Bobby Jones and Alex Stirling Fraser and young Billy Howell come readily to mind as striking examples of what it means to a younger with an inherent ability for golf to come early under either suitable instruction or example," he says.

"Parents interested in golf are coming more and more to realize the fact that it is in childhood, preferably in early childhood, that the foundation for a sound and expert game is laid.

"Golf professionals everywhere are going in more and more for the instruction of children—admittedly the best and most responsive pupils.

"Most children naturally are imitative in a high degree and find little difficulty in duplicating with an almost startling exactness the instructor's methods.

"Their muscles, as well as their minds, in the plastic and formative state, respond freely, and under competent instruction they attain the foundation of a correct and useful swing far more readily and thoroughly than their elders."

Mr. Gates points out that many members of the P. G. A. now are building excellent reputations as instructors of children, and their little pupils of a few years ago are adding to the fame of their teachers.

George Jacobus is an example which readily comes to mind. You may not have heard so much about George as a tournament competitor—but pupils of George's have won the New Jersey junior championships the last four years. Several of them, representing the Ridge-wood Country club, apparently are on the verge of more advanced honors.

Golf Excursions

One of George's pet ideas is a weekly "golf holiday," on which he takes as many of his small pupils as can go to some adjacent course, to let them try their skill on a strange layout.

This, of itself is a long step in the preparation of a golf competitor. I have seen many a boy and

STRIBLING TO SHOW SCHAAF REAL PUNCHES

BATTLE FIRST GREAT ONE OF CURRENT SEASON

CHICAGO, Feb. 26. (P)—Ernie Schaaf, Boston's youthful dealer in wholesale knockouts, attempts the loftiest hurdle of his stirring drive toward the heavyweight throne tonight by engaging W. L. (Young) Stribling in a 10-round struggle at the Chicago stadium.

"The struggle, rightly rated as the first important heavyweight battle of 1932, literally placed both fighters on the pugilistic spot, notably Schaaf. A victory for the fast-climbing Bostonian would make him probably the most formidable contender for the heavyweight crown after Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey finish their title argument in June.

Stribling, who was turned back by Schmeling last July in Cleveland, knew as did everyone else that a decisive victory was paramount. He was hitting the comeback trail and realized he couldn't afford another setback.

Because of his greater experience, ring generalship and his reputation in Chicago rings, where he has never lost a decision, Stribling was ranked as a slight favorite.

GLADEWATER, Feb. 26. (P)—Ten men were under charges of conspiracy to defraud and of theft over $50 after officers said they uncovered a bypass at the negro school well here. National guardsmen claimed oil had been run illegally from the well to the V. O. E. refinery here.

girl grew up playing a very good game on the old home course, only to look like a third-rater in competition at some other club.

Olin Duira, the big Brentwood professional in California, has a number of extremely promising pupils; after officers said they uncovered a and Fred Canausa, professional at West Point, has a juvenile class composed of children of officers stationed at the military academy.

At the Kildeer club, near Chicago, George Arnold has several young pupils breaking 80 consistently. Jack Anderson, Tschay Fields professional, has established the custom of giving free lessons to pupils of New Trier high school, Wilmette, Ill., where by the way, golf instruction counts as a physical education credit.

The young idea, then, is learning how to shoot—properly. And it is just as well for every golf-minded parent to understand that golf is a highly artificial game, and that there are no "natural" golfers.

Humble to Take Oil Seven Days

HOUSTON, Feb. 26. (P)—Effective today and continuing until further notice, the Humble Oil and Refining company will take from its own wells in East Texas field and purchase from all wells it hitherto has been purchasing crude oil to the extent of 75 barrels per well per day, seven days a week, it was announced by the Humble company this afternoon.

On February 21 the Humble and other companies took from their own wells and purchased from other wells with which pipe line connections were made crude oil at the rate of 65 barrels per well per day.

HOOVER AGAINST REDUCTION OF SCHOOL FUND

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26. (P)—President Hoover has placed his emphatic support at the disposal of educational groups fighting curtailment of school funds during the present period of economic distress. The president expressed his views in a brief letter to the department of superintendence for the National Education association at the close of its convention here yesterday.

"However the national economy may vary or whatever fiscal adjustments may need to be made," he wrote, "the very first obligation upon the national resources is the undiminished financial support of the public schools."

CHARGES FOLLOW TRIAL WAXAHACHIE, Feb. 26. (P)—J. Robert Kelley, Bud Mace, and Roy Thornton have been indicted as an aftermath of incidents in the recent tempestuous burglary trial of Schuyler Marshall, Jr., former Dallas county sheriff.

Kelley was indicted for attempted subordination of perjury in connection with alleged threats against Tom Zackery, witness in the Marshall hearing. Mace and Thornton were indicted for perjury. They were called as state witnesses in the Marshall trial and were accused of altering their testimony.

LOTT AND ALLISON WIN MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 26. (P)—George Lott, Chicago and Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, favored players, advanced in the men's singles semifinals of the Pan-American tennis tournament here today by defeating their quarter-final opponents.

Lott won easily 6-4, 6-3, from Carroll Turner, Miami. Allison's victory 6-1, 6-3, over Arthur Hendrix of Lakeland, Fla., was not as easy as the score would indicate.

The 1931 rye crop was short the world over. United States coffee imports increased 15 per cent in 1931 over 1930.

State Engineers Will Be Fewer

AUSTIN, Feb. 26. (AP)—A plan under which it is hoped to reduce the engineering force of the state highway department is being worked out by Chas. Gilchrist, state highway engineer. Curtailed construction, caused by a reduction in the amount of federal aid funds available and the failure of counties to vote bond issues, was given as the reason for the plan.

Under the engineers now employed as resident engineers in charge of construction will also be given supervision over maintenance projects. The slackening in construction will permit them to handle both the construction and maintenance jobs.

M. B. Hodges, resident engineer at Uvalde in charge of construction, recently was given the task of supervising maintenance in that section. J. G. Lotz was moved from Marfa to El Paso to take over similar duties in that area.

Gilchrist stated he believed this plan would provide better supervision of maintenance work without detracting from the efficiency of construction operations. Efforts will be made to follow the plan in all parts of the state where construction has been curtailed.

The total amount of work placed under contract this year will be several million dollars under last year's total. Last year's contracts approached record proportions because of the additional $5,000,000 appropriation made available to Texas by the federal government to aid in relieving unemployment.

Cowboy Reunion Will Be Held

MIDLAND, Feb. 26. (AP)—An old time cowboy reunion of range workers and cattlemen will be held here July 5 on the heels of the general July 4 celebration this year. Old timers who have lived in Midland since 1890 will be honor guests.

Local cowmen and the chamber of commerce are joining in sponsoring the event, after the movement was started by Elzy White of Roswell, former Midland rancher, and John Scharbauer of this city and Fort Worth.

A barbecue, pow wow for reminiscences, parade, chuck wagon feed, horse races and roping contests and a square dance are included on a tentative program.

NOTED OKLAHOMA DIES

JAPANESE--

for an explanation of the proposal of the Japanese command at Harbin, Manchuria, for trains to transport troops "on the pretext of defending Japanese citizens when in reality the troops were expected to be sent to the Soviet border."

In a verbal conversation with the Japanese ambassador, Kakhakan also charged that "white" Russian activities in Manchuria were being carried on "under the protection and with the direct support of the Japanese." He also requested an explanation of that from the Japanese government.

Cities Contract
In addition, he included the action of the Japanese military authorities at Harbin in proposing a contract with the Chinese Eastern railway, partly Russian owned, to transport regular troops at a reduction of 50 per cent of the regular cost and he called for information about the character of the newly-formed Manchurian government.

Reports by the Tass (Russian) news agency published here declared General Kosmin, a Russian white guard leader at Harbin, had been ordered by the Japanese to form a "white" regiment to invade the Soviet Russian province of Primor on the Pacific, of which Vladivostok is the principal city.

Kidnaping Law May Be Drawn

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26. (AP)—An interstate law to curb kidnaping, described as a "growing national menace," was urged before the house judiciary committee today by Chas. E. Smith, St. Louis citizen and police.

Those who yesterday asked protection from the mailing of threats today sought the severest penalty for taking a kidnaped person from state to state.

C. A. Newton of St. Louis said kidnaping "most profitable and safest racket of all the forms of crime," had come to a forefront position in the past six to eight months.

Where victims once were chiefly gamblers and bookmakers, he said, the best families are now the targets with extortions ranging as high as $125,000. Newton said he did not think death or life imprisonment too drastic a punishment for kidnaping.

The jury commission which selected the grand jurors were L. L. Palmer of Almarred, J. M. Carpenter of McLean, John V. Andrews, and M. P. Downs of Pampa.

Hawaiian Prison Conditions Told

HONOLULU, Feb. 26. (AP)—A story of convicts carrying the keys to their cells and the outer gates of the penitentiary and of prisoners leaving for night or week-end visits was told in a report of the Hawaiian prison directors to Governor Lawrence M. Judd.

The report covered the state of affairs during the height of Honolulu's recent crime wave when the Oahu prison was under the administration of High Sheriff John C. Lane. Lane resigned in January after being censured by the governor. The report said conditions have been improved under the new sheriff, Major Gordon Ross, of the territorial national guard, who has placed the convicts under strict, but fair, discipline.

Counterfeit Bills Circulated Here

It was reported here this morning that a number of counterfeit $10 bills were being circulated in Pampa, and merchants were urged to watch closely all $10 bills coming into their hands.

This is the third time in the past six months that bogus bills have been reported in circulation here. Several lead 50-cent pieces were found here last fall. It is believed that the persons passing the spurious money arrive during the afternoon and leave the same night.

John Peake of Fort Worth, former Pampan, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Minor Meriwether for a few days.

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO KNOW? JUST ASK JIM—HE'LL ANSWER

Jaysees Are to Convene Tonight

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP)—About the only thing "Jim" doesn't do is go to school.

"Jim" is a dog—a 6-year-old English setter—owned by S. H. Van Arsdale, and for almost all of his life he has performed feats which onlookers have been unable to fathom.

His forte is locating any object named, spelled or written by his master. He points out any one in a crowd, specified by Van Arsdale—the fattest man, a person wearing glasses, or a young woman in a blue coat.

He places a paw on any make of motor car on the street mentioned by his master. Or take him to a forest, and he will find whatever kind of a tree is called out.

Those who watch the dog, exert themselves trying to detect what system, if any, Van Arsdale employs. It is agreed he uses no inflections of the voice, but some contend he occasionally stands in certain positions or sometimes looks in the direction of the person to be pointed out.

Couple Wants to Fight for China

FORT WORTH, Feb. 26. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. George Anthony Reginald Williams—the latter the former Lady Mary Heath—arrived here today from Mexico after a "flying honeymoon" and announced they had applied for service with Chinese air forces in China.

If their dreams of entering the far eastern fight fail to materialize they said they would go to Europe, "where airplanes are much cheaper." They flew a Mexican army plane while wintering in the Southern Republic.

The couple motored here, en route to New York, accompanied by a red and green Mexican parrot, "Loro." They planned to resume their journey eastward tomorrow.

May Delay Trial for Lawyer Darrow

HONOLULU, Feb. 26. (AP)—Expressing the belief there was reasonable certainty Clarence Darrow would come to Honolulu to aid in the defense of Mrs. Granville Portesque and three others charged with lynching Joseph Kakhawan, defense counsel said today the trial set for March 10, probably would be delayed to await his arrival.

Montgomery Winn, who is preparing the defense case, said a motion for postponement would be made if Darrow replied favorably to their invitation. Winn said friends of Mrs. Portesque had been in touch with Darrow in Chicago and New York, and through their efforts he expected the noted criminal attorney would come here.

Two Are Dead in Strange Affair

DALLAS, Feb. 26. (AP)—S. P. Knox, 56-year-old Dallas real estate dealer, died yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage believed to have resulted from shock. Mrs. Alvie Bauman, 45-year-old widow, was stabbed to death in her home a short time earlier.

A blood-stained pocket knife and watch near Mrs. Bauman's body were identified as belonging to Knox. Miss Cora Lee Payne, an occupant of the house in which Mrs. Bauman lived, said Knox was at the house when Miss Payne left in the afternoon. Mrs. T. W. Matejka, a neighbor, told detectives she heard screams.

NOT WITH PREMIUM

Roy Bourland is no longer connected with the Premium Oil company. However, he will not leave Pampa nor cease to be a Pampa business man. He plans to open up a plant of his own here soon, handling his own special process oils and greases. Mr. Bourland has become well known as a petroleum engineer since coming to Pampa several years ago.

C. M. Bailey of Childress was a visitor here yesterday and today.

Fred Abbott of Shamrock was here on business yesterday.

TWO DEATHS IN FAMILY

FORT WORTH, Feb. 26. (AP)—A heart ailment caused two deaths in the same family in a few hours last night and this morning.

Not long after her son Leon R. (Lonnie) Moore, architect, died of heart disease, Mrs. Fannie Moore, 83, succumbed to the malady in an adjoining room.

Pampa Weather Far Superior to Health Resorts

Not in the memory of old timers who have lived here 50 years and over has there been such weather in January or February as there has been this year. Especially this month.

People who have spent winters in California and Florida say that Pampa weather this year has been superior to weather in either of those states in past Januarys and Februarys. Take this week. Mrs. Lee C. McConnell who lived in California a number of years, believes Stroppe never knew a January that state anymore consistently tropical than it has been here this winter.

"Uncle Jim" Williams and J. L. Srtoppe never knew a January that was as warm as this one. And Friday Brandin? Well, frankly, Friday isn't talking. He announced long ago that he would have pretty weather along in February when we might have a storm and we might not." He won't lay his tongue to an opinion on the weather. He said that he would not be responsible for weather after Feb. 15, and refused to explain the implication one was meant. Other prophets predicted we would have bad weather between the 20th and the 25th.

It's hard for residents to believe that on some days in March the snow will be piled high—but will it? Is this year going to be immune from storms and snow? Other prophets talking in circles.

Couple Wants to Fight for China

FORT WORTH, Feb. 26. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. George Anthony Reginald Williams—the latter the former Lady Mary Heath—arrived here today from Mexico after a "flying honeymoon" and announced they had applied for service with Chinese air forces in China.

If their dreams of entering the far eastern fight fail to materialize they said they would go to Europe, "where airplanes are much cheaper." They flew a Mexican army plane while wintering in the Southern Republic.

The couple motored here, en route to New York, accompanied by a red and green Mexican parrot, "Loro." They planned to resume their journey eastward tomorrow.

Representative Is Urged for County

Gray county should have a man representing this legislative district, comprised of Gray, Wheeler, Donley, and Collingsworth counties, many local men say. Gray county is one of the most important counties in the district, and needs a man in Austin to guide its interests in the best channels.

Dewey Young, who worked to the best of his ability for Gray county, is retiring.

Oil is one of the big problems confronting the legislature. A Pampa man would be familiar with the industry.

Two candidates have already announced—but they are not from this section of the district. How about a candidate from Pampa, say local men.

Cigarets Stolen From Box Car

Santa Fe Special officers were reported hot on the trail this morning of burglars who broke into a box car in the Santa Fe yards last night and took four cases of cigarettes valued at $250.

The cigarettes were billed to the E. H. Hamlett Wholesale confectionary, 117 North Frost Street. Mr. Hamlett said the cigarettes had not been stamped with the state tax stamp or the loss would have been greater.

The theft was discovered early this morning, and officers in nearby cities were watching highways for the burglars. Arrests were expected to be made before tomorrow.

Lively's Group to Talk Agriculture

Agricultural activities for 1932 will be discussed by the agricultural committee of the Pampa Board of City Development at 8 o'clock tonight in the chamber of commerce rooms. Travis Lively is chairman of the committee.

One of the most important matters to be discussed will be the vocational judging contest this spring. Plans for holding the Gray county free fair will also come before the meeting. Other agricultural projects will be discussed.

R. J. Stewart of El Dorado, Ark., is here on business this week.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic—JESUS RAISES LAZARUS FROM THE DEAD.

Scripture Lesson—John 11:32-44.

32. Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was and saw Him, fell down at His feet, saying unto Him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33. Jesus therefore saw her weeping and the Jews also weeping, who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled.

34. And said, where have ye laid him? They say unto Him, Lord, come and see.

35. Jesus wept.

36. The Jews therefore said, behold how He loved him!

37. But some of them said, could not this man, who opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man should not die?

38. Jesus therefore again groaning in Himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

39. Jesus saith, take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto Him, Lord, by this time the body decayeth; for he hath been dead four days.

40. Jesus saith until her, said I not unto thee, that, if thou believest thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41. So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hearest me.

42. And I knew that thou hearest me always; but because of the multitude that standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst send me.

43. And when He had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes; and his face bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, loose him, and let him go.

Golden Text—I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live.—John 11:25.

Time—The raising of Lazarus, February, A. D. 30. The retirement to Ephraim, March, A. D. 30. The anointing by Mary, Saturday, April 1, A. D. 30.

Place—Bethany and Ephraim.

Introduction

"The eleventh chapter of John is a life-commentary on the exceeding preciousness of Christ's presence in the last and saddest moments of experience."—Mackay.

"He who lives by the Life cannot die," was the motto of Raymond Lull, the heroic African missionary. Sara Coleridge wrote to a bereaved friend, "My thoughts had turned the same way as yours—where all mourners and friends of those that mourn will naturally go for sure and certain hope and ground of rejoicing—to that most divine chapter on the raising of Lazarus."

Life Through Jesus

The outstanding lesson and truth of this miracle is life through Jesus. True life, in our Lord's teaching, is the greatest of all good things, and eternal life the supreme gift.

Bethany

A little village on the eastern slope of Mount Olivet, on the Jericho road, about two miles from Jerusalem. Mary, though the younger had become by the time John's Gospel was written the better known of the two sisters on account of her lavish honoring of Jesus, recorded in the next chapter. Tradition says that Lazarus was still younger—the pet brother of the two sisters.

Their hospitable home in the secluded suburb was a refreshing retreat for our Lord from noisy, hostile Jerusalem. It must have been one of the few places that the homeless Master could really call home. It is a precious spot for the Christian imagination. Richly has their guest-friendship been rewarded. They are immortal types of the life of the heart, that says, "Welcome!" to Christ Jesus.

The Postponed Miracle

A sudden stroke fell upon that peaceful household, a deadly fever or some other fearful disease, striking down the dear brother, the hope of the home.

Then occurred one of the strangest events in our Saviour's life his deliberately waiting two days in Bethany, so that Lazarus might be dead and four days in his grave by the time he reached the sorrowing home. How can we account for this postponed miracle? Jesus accounted for it. He said it was for glory of God and the Son of God. He looked far ahead of the temporary sickness and griefs of this world; he was at work for the eternal life of all believers. He knew that the miracle he was about to perform would result in his own death, and he did not flinch from the cross, because he knew also that his death would open the door of hope and salvation to all sinners.

"For the glory of God, and for the sake of others, for the sake of the disciples, for the sake of the world, says Christ, I have suffered my friend, Lazarus, to die."

A Decisive Event

This miracle created such a sensation and attracted so much attention there at Jerusalem that it may be regarded as the beginning of the end of Jesus' career. It led the Jewish council to take decisive steps for his arrest and killing. The cross was inevitable, but strangely, an act of great loving-kindness toward those friends of his was thus the immediate cause of the tragedy. Both our Lord, Himself, and the disciples apprehended this outcome before they left Perea. "Let us also go, that we may die with him;" v. 16. His remark, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends," is pathetically pertinent to the incident.

Martha's faith, imperfect as it was, won from Christ the immortal saying, repeated in millions of funeral services all over the world to the comforting of uncounted hearts: "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die (physically), yet shall he live (spiritually); and whosoever liveth (spiritually) and believeth on me shall never die (spiritually)."

"You need not die the grave, and listen to the silence of the earth and heaven, and yet wait in strong patience the resurrection joy; for He once lay there Himself, and rose again."

"This saying of Christ's has made the tomb a gateway instead of a terminal."

Our Lord wanted Mary present when he raised her brother from the dead, and so He sent Martha to call her sister. "The teacher is here, and calleth thee," said Martha quietly; and Mary sprang up eagerly to follow her. "Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, fell down at his feet." Martha had not assumed this worshipful attitude; Mary long before had chosen "the better part."

"Saying unto Him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died." She uttered the same sad cry as Martha, for it had evidently been the burden of the two sisters' talk for all those four sorrowful days.

"Jesus Wept"

This is the shortest verse in the Bible, and one of the most beautiful. "Almost the sweetest words I know are these,"—Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D. "Does not Christ show in his attitude at Lazarus' grave that he loves and cares for the suffering loved ones at every grave?"—President L. R. Scarborough. "That is what we all need, a God who can feel for us, understand us, sympathize with us." Also Jesus may have been weeping for his friend Lazarus. "He knew what the eternal world is and what glory lies behind the veil; and he did not weep because Lazarus was done with life and its gladness and sunshine; no, but because his friend has passed to where, beyond these voices, there is peace, and he must summon him back, must fetch the wanderer who had got home out once more into the weary wilderness. And his tears say to us, 'Oh, if you only knew the glory which lies behind the veil and which I know so well since I dwell there from everlasting; if you only knew that radiant world of rest and peace and joy, you would never wish your dead back in this dark world of toil and tumult and sorrow; you would rejoice that they are at home with God.'"—Prof. David Smith.

"The Glory of God"

"Thou shouldst see the glory of God." That was said also when Christ heard of the sickness of Lazarus, that it was to advance the glory of God and His Son; see v. 4. "So they took away the stone."

Jesus might have bidden the stone to remove itself, but he never worked needless miracles. "The analogy teaches us that there are some things which we can do for the unconverted, and these we should hasten to perform."—C. H. Spurgeon.

Our Lord is jealous for the glory of God, and makes it perfectly clear that he works the miracle through God's power given to him as God's Son. "The miracle itself was overwhelming as a proof of power with God. But the manner of it, the thanksgiving here uttered beforehand, the address to God, the name by which He calls Him, all would convey the impression to the witnesses, not of a mere prophet, like Elijah or Elisha, but of the Son of the Father, and the sent of God."

Effect of Miracle

"As this miracle was worked for the glory of God in his Son, it is necessary to record its effects, which, as in the case of every miracle, were twofold: Some were led to believe on Christ, while the hearts of Sceptics were hardened into obstinate opposition even in the face of such a stupendous fact. The latter went away to report the event to Christ's confirmed enemies, the Pharisees, and discuss what should be done with the wonder-worker. So is it with all of Christ's gracious and mighty words and works: they are either "a savor from death unto death," or "a savor from life unto life" (2 Cor. 2:16).

RESEARCH REVEALS ALL-BRAN RICH IN HEALTH-ELEMENTS

Helps Correct Constipation with "Bulk" and Vitamin B; Also Has Iron

Recent scientific research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation. It has "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

These two important food-elements promote regular habits, and help do away with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy, so often the result of constipation.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild in action—much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using pills and drugs—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoonsfuls of Kellogg's daily—enough for most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Besides, ALL-BRAN brings your body twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Equally tasty as a cereal with milk or cream, or used in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 26.—Representative Sam A. Bryant, veteran member of the legislature, has announced for re-election to the 121st district. Bryant, who has lived on the same farm in Hall county 27 years, is a champion of agriculture.

Begins Work On Raising of Campaign Fund

HOUSTON, Feb. 25.—Lewis Fisher of Houston, state campaign chairman of the democratic party's "Victory Drive," will begin active work soon toward raising the state's quota of $50,000.

Fisher shortly will name county chairmen and other workers in the campaign for funds.

"There is more incentive for a campaign contribution from the individual citizen this year than there was four years ago," he said. "All signs indicate this is a democratic year. The country needs a democratic president."

The chairman will assume a neutral attitude, until completion of the Victory Drive, with respect to the various possible candidates for the democratic presidential nomination.

Oppose Moving Citrus in Bulk

McALLEN, Feb. 25.—Decision flatly to oppose any move for shipments of citrus out of the valley in bulk has been reached by the Valley Shippers' association.

C. D. Wallace, secretary of the association, explained that Florida is shipping considerable citrus in bulk now, and that the valley can probably get permission to ship in bulk if the section desires to move fruit in this manner. Practically every shipper present opposed such shipments on the ground that it would demoralize the market and lower the quality of the fruit being shipped.

Reports were read showing that many Florida shippers now oppose the bulk shipments.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Children sometimes develop troublesome likes and dislikes regarding food as they reach the age of eight or nine. There are several reasons for this and one in particular can be laid to their elders' door. Discussions about food by older persons may do much to influence young tastes. Consequently opinions of grown-ups should be carefully "guarded."

At this age, too, mothers often relax the constant supervision of their children's diet and the juniors are allowed to eat about what they please with the result of a poorly balanced dietary.

It is not at all difficult to plan menus for children from eight to ten. They enjoy good food and may be allowed a large variety. Most of the regulation adult meals that are well balanced and sensible are suitable for children.

One of the best food habits to establish early, if the meals are well balanced and well cooked, is that of eating some of every food served. Even if the amount is very small, the rule should be firmly enforced, for this habit makes for a balanced diet and develops a broader taste in later years. It's almost impossible for the homemaker to plan interesting and economical menus when there are certain foods her family refuses to eat. For example when summer vegetables, either canned or shipped, must be used all winter in place of the winter root vegetables, there's a sameness about the winter and summer meals that discourages the appetite. Aside from this, seasonal foods are always the cheapest.

Variety Is Possible

The rule of a quart of milk a day continues to hold, but some of it may be used in cream soups, creamed vegetables, desserts and beverages. Tea and coffee should not be permitted until the "years of discretion." Meat, fish, eggs, raw and cooked fruits, cereals and simple desserts can be served in great variety.

While it's of utmost importance

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Grape fruit sections, cereal cooked with dates, cream, crisp broiled bacon, bread crumb pan cakes, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Dried beef with rice, prune and peanut butter sandwiches, orange jelly with whipped cream, vanilla cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER: Baked ham, creamed spinach, stewed potatoes a la Southern, apple-celery and raisin salad, custard pie with apricot meringue, milk coffee.

that vitamins and minerals be supplied in abundance, the calory value of foods must not be overlooked. The amount of food a child needs at this age has been estimated as between 1700 and 2000 calories a day. The protein calories should be between 10 and 15 per cent of the whole amount. A working knowledge of the calory value of the more common foods is valuable.

The ordinary serving of a number of foods yields 100 calories. This makes it easy to calculate the approximate number of calories in the whole day's diet. When the diet is well balanced the distribution of the calories is sure to be suitable.

Meat, fish or egg once a day, a quart of milk, plenty of vegetables and fruits, cereals and bread and butter with simple cookies and puddings—such foods insure a wholesome, nourishing diet.

The following menu for a day is worked out to show the number of calories in each dish.

Breakfast: One large orange (100), 3-4 cup cooked cereal (100), 4 tablespoons thin cream (100), 1 soft cooked egg (70), 1 slice toast (60), 2 teaspoons butter (70), 1 glass milk about 3-4 cup (125). Total calories, 615.

Luncheon: One-half cup baked macaroni with tomato sauce (100), 1-4 head lettuce (12), 2 teaspoons French dressing (60), 1 whole slice whole wheat bread (100), 1 teaspoon butter (35), 2-3 cup apple sauce (100), 1 glass milk (125). Total calories, 538.

Dinner: One ball round steak ground (100), 1 baked sweet potato (150), 1-2 cup creamed peas and carrots (60), 1-3 cup fruit salad with mayonnaise (130), 3 tablespoons brown Betty with 1 tablespoon whipped cream (200), 1 slice bread and butter (135), 1 glass milk (125). Total calories, 900. Total calories for the day 2,043.

Prison Bars Are Minor Obstacles

HENDERSON, Feb. 25.—Norman Welch, sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary for automobile theft, and Lue Pope, given a two-year suspended sentence on the same charge, stepped from their trial here to the office of the justice of the peace and were married. Welch will leave in a few days for Huntsville and his wife will go to Marshall because she cannot go with him.

After serving his sentence in Texas, Welch will be returned to the Ohio penitentiary, from which he escaped several months ago. He must serve 11 years there.

One of the strangest pleas on criminal records of this county or in the state was Lue Pope's request that she be sentenced to the penitentiary. When Judge E. T. Brown refused this plea, the girl refused to sign her name to suspended sentence papers and the clerk was asked to do so for her. Failing to win a prison term, the girl refused to give up the idea of getting married.

GAS IN WATER WELL

MULESHOE, Feb. 26. (P)—Gas pressure in a water well recently drilled in on the H. E. Musson farm, 15 miles southeast of Muleshoe, shot the water 30 feet into the air, giving it the appearance of an artesian flow.

U. S. MARINES BEHIND SHANGHAI SANDBAGS

This is the sight that cheered American residents of Shanghai—Uncle Sam's Marines going about the business of getting "the situation well in hand." The Daily News NEA Service picture above is the first to show American forces in duty in the war-stricken Chinese city. Helmeted "devil dogs" are shown behind a sand-bag barricade at the sixth end of a bridge over Siochiw Creek while milling Chinese refugees sift through the police cordon guarding the international settlement.

Bedichek Urges General Changes in Rules Governing Texas Interscholastic Leagues

Needs for Adoption of New Measures Is Pointed Out By Executive

AUSTIN, Feb. 26. (AP)—A general overhauling of the rules of the Texas Interscholastic League, reputedly the largest high school association in the world, is being urged after adoption of two rules recently to bolster the League's athletic standards.

The rules, one of which would prohibit a student who has attended high school for eight semesters from participating in interscholastic athletics and the other bars a transfer student from playing for one year, were adopted by substantial majorities.

Commenting on the vote, Roy Bedichek, an official of the League, stated "the overwhelming majority given each of these rules leaves no doubt in anyone's mind of the determination of responsible public school authorities of Texas to reclaim high school sports from the disastrous ways into which they were drifting."

Now a movement has been started to revise the amateur rule of the League.

Under the present amateur rule, an athlete who wins a footrace at a fireman's picnic and receives a small monetary prize is barred from interscholastic competition, even though no money is made from the athletic exhibition and no admission is charged.

Bedichek pointed out that a fireman's picnic, or other similar event, was a wholesome community meeting and should be encouraged.

The rule could be made more effective and better strike at the roots of professionalism by revising in athletic meets, outside the regular league schedules, at which admissions were charged would be barred. This would permit athletes to engage in harmless meets without having the odium of "professionalism" attached to them.

Bedichek stated that gate receipts were the basis of true professionalism and that genuine professionalism could not obtain a foothold without hearing the clink of money as the turnstiles revolved.

Discussing the recent changes in the rules, Bedichek stated that athletics could not survive as a school enterprise unless used in behalf of bona fide students.

The one year transfer rule was advanced as a cure for the evil of proselyting and subsidizing among high school athletes. Numerous instances had been called to the league's attention where fans from one school were alleged to have induced the star athlete of another school to quit his first love and cast his lot with the second school.

The other rule was aimed at the lesser of the two evils. It will discourage an athlete from the practice of failing a year or dropping out of school for two semesters to obtain an advantage over a student who passes his work regularly by putting on a little weight and age without endangering his eligibility.

League officials stated the old rules encouraged a student to fail in his studies for a year or to drop out, the procedure acting as a deterrent to the athletic ambitions of a student who passed his courses as they came only to himself outweighed and out-experienced when he tried to obtain a place on the team.

Bedichek stated it has been the experience of other states that unless school authorities took action to insure clean sports that the public intervened, through its legislatures, and forced enactment of drastic regulations. This is especially true in states wherein schools participate for late championships.

"Only two courses are open," Bedichek stated. "One, to lessen the drive; or, two, to increase the control. A high powered car needs better brakes than a low powered car. The Interscholastic League has chosen the latter alternative. It has chosen to enact two rules that can be enforced because in the majority of cases, the facts will be a matter of record. We believe that these brakes will work."

Criticism of the practice of buying large amounts of sports equipment by high schools also has been voiced by officials of school that are members of the league. Heavy buying has caused schools to become lax in meeting their accounts, one official estimating that within the last ten years sporting goods companies had been forced to charge off more than $200,000 in bad school accounts and that these same dealers are carrying between $300,000 and $400,000 in accounts from 60 days to two years overdue.

Famous FAST STARTERS

91 MILES AN HOUR.

SKIING RECORDS ARE BASED ON DISTANCE JUMPED. BUT AT BIG PINES PARK, CALIFORNIA, JUMPERS WERE ELECTRICALLY TIMED ON JANUARY 24, 1931. MAXIMUM SPEED WAS 91 MILES AN HOUR. THAT'S WHIZZING SOME, FOR A LONE HUMAN ON A PAIR OF STICKS! BUT IT'S NOTHING, ALONGSIDE THE THRILL YOU WILL GET FROM THE CANNON BALL SPEED WITH WHICH PHILLIPS 66 GASOLINE STARTS YOUR MOTOR IN FREEZING WEATHER. IT IS HIGH TEST, AND HOW! ITS GRAVITY NOW RANGES FROM 65° TO 71.4°.
