20 Years Later--Still Shooting

Twenty years, more or less, may have widened their waistlines and thinned their hair, but it hasn't affected the American dough-boy's fondness for the peculiar pastime of crap shooting. France found when a group of Legionnaires landed in Cherbourg and started a game in the station, where this picture was taken. When the game ended the veterans outboard their prize game to the battlefields on which they fought two decades ago.

SOONERS TIE TEXAS 7 TO 7 IN LINE BUCKS

DALLAS Oct. 9 (AP)—A stout Oklahoma line opened gaping holes for an eel-hipped half back and the Sooners tied University of Texas, 7 to 7, in the Cotton Bowl today.

Woody Huddleston, 160-pounder from Ada, Okla., did practically all the honors in 46-yard drive for the first score of the game late in the second period.

He dashed behind great blocking 37 yards before a shoestring tackle nailed him on the 8. A few plays later he plowed over from the three and Boudreau kicked the point.

Texas immediately scored on Gray's 12-yard toss to Atchison. Gray kicked good.

The combination of Huddleston, his Oklahoma line and some brilliant defense work by Al Corrotto member of the Sooners' brother act, was almost too much for Dana Bible's Texans.

First downs were even—six to six—but the Longhorns never appeared powerful enough to pull the game out of the first.

In the early part of the third, Texas kicked to Oklahoma's 37. A pass carried to the 33 and then Huddleston scampered on a neat 10-yard dash two plays later to the 23. Three passes failed however, and the ball went over.

Minutes later Seymour intercepted a Texas pass on the Longhorn 37 but his Oklahoma mates could not dent the Texas forward wall.

In the first a penalty for unnecessary roughness threw the Sooners back to their 25. Al Corrotto and Pete Smith ran, took care of tackles that left Texas groggy and scoreless.

The Oklahoma score came after it appeared Texas would stave off the thrust because of penalties. Oklahoma had six chances to score from the eight-yard line and barely made it when Huddleston cracked right guard from the three-yard line on fourth down.

Huddleston took Haas' kick on the Texas 46 and started the drive, blockers, including the irreplaceable Corrotto, Al and Gene, cleared the way and he reversed his field after a scamper through left tackle and went to the eight before Haas caught him.

Again he plowed to the four. Peterson, Texas end spilled Seymour at the line. Oklahoma got a first down when Texas drew a five-yard penalty although the ball stayed virtually in the same spot. Two line plays failed to gain. Another penalty, Seymour fumbled on the three but on the next play Huddleston made his successful effort.

A minute later, Texas engineered a passing attack from its own 40. Gray passed to Bryan for a first down on the 50. Gray to Mittermayer was good to the Oklahoma 43, and Atchison's pass to Peterson was ruled a deflection. Oklahoma 18 because of interference.

On a reverse, Atchison went to the 12. Gray then uncorked his aerial to Atchison, who grabbed the ball on the 5 and eased across.

Mustangs Crush St. Louis 14-0

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—Southern Methodist university concentrated its scoring in the second period today to defeat Washington university, 14 to 0, but the Mustangs were superior to the St. Louis team in virtually all the inter-sectional game.

A short pass from Jack Morrison to Pete Acker accounted for the Texans' first score and 70-yard run by Bill Dewell brought the other, John Stidger and Bobbeyville kicked the extra points.

Washington, playing without the direction of its head coach, Jimmy Conzelman, who was called away by the illness of his wife, was never in scoring position.

The SMU forward-pass touchdown caught the Bears flat-footed. Wall Beardley made three unsuccessful plunges after the Mustangs had reached the 5-yard line on a long pass from Stidger to Chelsea Crouch. With the ball only one yard from the goal, Washington was set for another line play but the pass came instead.

Near the end of the second period, after a Washington punt rolled over the goal line, Beardley started around end from his 20 yard line. After 10 yards he fumbled. Dewell grabbed the ball in the air, broke loose from tacklers and outdistanced pursuers to the goal line.

ELECTRICITY CALLED KEY TO ABNORMALITIES

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 9 (AP)—Enlightened treatments which have saved many who would have been burned at the stake in olden days, was discussed with scientific fervor here today.

The Southern Psychiatric association concluded a two-day conclave with a program devoted to the sharing of experience in modern methods, the results of which are a far cry from the days of witch-burning and torture inflicted on the insane.

In the final address, Dr. Newdigate M. Owensby of Atlanta jolted his listeners with a revolutionary theory advancing electricity as "the key to mental abnormalities." He connected the brain as a "human storage battery" which is recharged which furnishes motivating power by oxygen.

Dr. W. B. Russ of San Antonio criticized psychiatrists for their "terrifying terminology" which he held responsible for failures in treatment. He advocated phrases understandable to the physician and layman.

Good Time Was Had By All

What happens when a great halfback tries to get off a pass and a great end tries to stop him is graphically portrayed in this picture, which shows Dick Todd, Texas Aggie triple-threat, attempting to let go with an aerial as Texas A. & M. defeated Manhattan 14-7 in New York. Barging in on Todd is Jack Dal-Jasper captain. Both boys, by their sensational play, indicated they'd be right in the running when the experts started picking their "all" teams this fall.

VANDERBILT AND BERT MARSHALL WIN GAME

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 9 (AP)—Vanderbilt's Commodores blossomed today as a passing team and filled the air with enough footballs to defeat a stubborn Southwestern eleven 17-6.

Lummy Hollins and Hardy Housman were the "pitchers" who completely bewildered the Lynx scorers as Dutch McElreath and Marvin Franklin, two of the best flankers in the Southeastern conference, snatched passes consistently.

Bert Marshall, soph star from Greenville, Tex., set the stage for Vandy's first drive when he returned a punt from midfield to within the Lynx's 38 in the second period. Marshall also scored on a lateral in the third.

MEAT PRICES TO DROP GOVERNMENT DECLARES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—Administration leaders found two favorable trends today in their search for an answer to give angry housewives, mayors and governors who are demanding the federal government do something about the high cost of food.

They said the larger crops harvested this year already had pushed down the prices of several important food items, and eventually would reduce meat prices.

Their charts showed the farmer was getting a larger share of the dollar spent for food than he had been getting.

Advisors of Secretary Wallace, who kept a constant check on retail, market and farm prices, said retail foods recently had been about 30 per cent above the depression low point, but were still about 20 per cent under the 1929 peak.

They said the average family now pays $3.09 for a basket of food that cost $8.40 a year ago. During the depression this same amount of food cost only $6.67, but it was $10.90 in 1929.

Government data on retail meat prices indicated these recently were from 30 to 40 per cent higher than last year and from 50 to 75 per cent above the depression low.

Economists said fresh vegetables and fruits had been cheaper most of this year than last, and that these reductions had partially offset higher meat costs in the total food bill. Bumper crops of potatoes and apples have led these food price declines.

BALANCE

One requisite of good health is balance, balance of the functions of internal organs. When all these synchronize a healthy body and a poised mind are developed.

Sinus infection, acutely painful, disturbs this balance. A dubious "cure" could increase it and drive it deeper. But medical or surgical measures, undertaken by your physician, can clear it and restore your health to harmony and equilibrium.

DICK TODD LEADS AGGIES TO 14-0 WIN OVER MISSISSIPPI

TYLER, Oct. 9 (AP)—Deadly Dick Todd's churning feet carried Texas A. & M. to another inter-sectional triumph today that definitely brought them back to their old grid glory, a 14-0 conquest of a Mississippi State team that threatened only once.

It was Todd's uncanny, broken field running in a blustery first half that sparked the Aggies to near-perfect football—football that showed they had rolled up eight first downs and 135 yards to Mississippi State's minus one yard line through the first two periods.

Todd started with the opening kickoff, which he returned 40 yards, and didn't let up with his limpled sidestepping until removed in the fading minutes of play.

The Aggies, featuring Todd's three consecutive first-down thrusts over tackle and fullback Jim Shockey's 17-yard heave to Owen (Slick) Rogers to the Mississippi seven, hung out the indicator in the first five minutes of play. Their drive was temporarily halted there, but it flared up again in a second period that gave birth to both the Cadet scores.

Virgil (Brahma) Jones, the strim Aggie guard who stood out like a lighthouse in line play of both teams, gave the Cadets their initial scoring chance when he pounced on a Mississippi fumble on the Bulldogs' eight.

Ken Mills contacted Todd with a six-yard pass and Bob Nesrsta went over for the touchdown on the second try. Todd kicked the extra point.

Runs 45 Yards Backed down against their goal line by Mills' deadly "offin corner" kicking, Mississippi State booted out 45 yards—a "mistake" kick that soared straight into Todd's arms. He cut out to the left, ducked through two tacklers who seemingly had him and headed for the corner and a touchdown. Again he kicked the point.

"He's the greatest broken-field runner in America today," grinned Coach Homer Norton of Todd's performance after the game. "I bar none—Jones is the best."

Only Jones, the charging linebacker, and the stepping backfielder, Rogers, could touch Todd for the day's glory.

Only once did the Mississippi Staters challenge the sturdy Aggie line that held like a rock during most of the game. Midway in the fourth period Bernie Ward, halfback, occasional flashes of running power, belted over tackle to the nine but the weary Aggie line held up once more and repelled the threat.

When the half ended the Aggies were knocking at Mississippi's touchdown door again—down on the seven-yard line. With time for only one play, Shockey passed wild and it was intercepted as the gun sounded.

And then Todd shook loose on a punt return in the second period and scurried 55 yards down the sideline for a touchdown only to have it called back when officials ruled he stepped out of bounds about midway of his spectacular dash.

FIRE DEPARTMENT MAKES SHORTEST RUN IN YEARS The Pampa fire department had its shortest run in many years Friday night about 9:30 o'clock when a call was received from the Lee Waggoner Service station across the street from the fire department.

While most of the firemen made the run on foot, the truck was driven across. Firemen found an electric motor smoking but no fire.

The truck driver just backed the truck across the street and into the fire station.

TROJANS NOSE OUT BUCKEYES

By HERBERT W. BARKER NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—Ohio State, Notre Dame, U. C. L. A. and Arkansas fell off the football merry-go-round today and left Pitt, California, Louisiana State, Cornell, Nebraska and a few other acknowledged Titans to carry on with banners still flying. At the present rate of mortality among the favorites, however, there was no assurance any of them could survive for long.

Ohio State, victors over Texas Christian and Purdue in its first two starts was nosed out, 13-12, by Southern California in a thrilling battle fought in Los Angeles before 55,000.

Washington, Pacific Coast conference champions a year ago, bowed to Oregon State, 6-3, while U. C. L. A. bowed to Stanford, 12-7, in another far western upset that left California's Golden Bears in the driver's seat. California crushed Washington State, 27-0.

Another conference champion, Arkansas of the Southwest, caught a star in Baylor's Bears and bowled, 20-14, a fourth period fumble paving the way for its defeat. Notre Dame, touted as on the road back to the heights it once occupied unchallenged, found the fighting Illinois outfit too tough a nut to crack and had to be content with a scoreless tie that cut deeply into the Ramblers' prestige.

Two other powerhouse arrays, Duke and Tennessee, battled to a scoreless tie that did nothing to advance either's bid for national championship recognition.

Marshall Goldberg's 77-yard run in the opening minutes of play enabled Pitt's Panthers to whip Duquesne, 6-0. Louisiana State, a formidable defensive team, outpointed Rice 13-10. Nebraska applied fourth period pressure to whip Iowa State, 20-7. Cornell mixing its passes with a strong running attack, sent Princeton down to defeat by the same count.

Manhattan gave the East an unexpected inter-sectional victory as Ed Kringle kicked a 22-yard field goal to whip Michigan State, 3-0, but New York University was badly kicked around by North Carolina, 19-6. Ashburn, which had played Tulane to a scoreless draw Monday, did the same thing with Villanova today. West Virginia nosed out Washington & Lee, 6-0.

Army, Navy, Harvard and Navy all turned in victories. Army's running game ground out three extra points to win, 21-8, as Luckman, Columbia's triple threat back, stole most of the spotlight. Yale had fun on the ropes from the start and won easily, 27-7. Harvard likewise found Brown easy pickings, 34-7, but Navy had to score three touchdowns in the final quarter to compile its 40-13 triumph over Virginia. Holy Cross scored over Bucknell, 20-14, in other major Eastern games. Fordham, Colgate, Syracuse, and Dartmouth all won easily over minor opponents.

Georgia Tech earned an easy Southeastern conference verdict over Kentucky, 32-0. Alabama and Georgia were turning back Southern conference foes. Alabama whipped South Carolina, 20-0, and Georgia stopped Clemson, 14-0.

Big Ten competition saw Minnesota eke out a 6-0 victory over Indiana. Northwestern halt Michigan, 7-0, on a Don Heap-Cleo Diehl pass, and Wisconsin crushed Chicago, 27-0. Purdue took an inter-sectional games from Carnegie 7-0. Missouri began its big six campaign by beating Kansas State, 14-7, but Kansas was soundly whipped by a non-conference rival, Wichita, 18-7.

The University of Colorado gave further evidence of power in a 33-rout of Utah State in the Rocky Mountain group. Utah was nosed out, 9-7, by Idaho, a non-conference team. Gonzaga, which had held Washington State and St. Mary's (California), to scoreless ties, fell before Oregon, 40-6.

WHITE DEER YOUTH STARS AS TCU NOSES OUT TULSA 20-13

By David A. Cheavens PORT WORTH, Oct. 9 (AP)—David O'Brien and Johnny O'Ball passed and rained Texas Christian university to a 20-13 victory over the Tulsa university hurricane here today, but a White Deer, Texas, boy on the Tulsa team almost stole the show.

Morris White from White Deer led a 72-yard two-play drive in the fourth quarter that made the fans think the final score would be Tulsa 13, TCU 14. He took a kickoff and sneaked through the entire Christian team, dodged O'Brien and safely and seemed headed for a touchdown when Don Looney, TCU right end, swooped from behind and pulled him down.

On the next play, Scholl passed to White from a wide spread formation and the fleet Tulsa, who played football for the Lubbock, Texas, high school team, raced to the Texas Christian eight-yard line. Scholl carried it across the goal line on the next play, F. Gregory booted the point.

The fourth period's dwindling moments produced another high point in the game when the Christians came back to score their final touchdown. When O'Brien started another drive by nimbly returning a Tulsa kick to his 35-yard line, Hall spun swiftly off tackle for a nine-yard gain and O'Brien then made it first down around right end. TCU got a first down on a Tulsa penalty for defensive holding, then Hall on a double reverse whirled to the hurricane thirty-yard line. The Tulsa line stiffened but O'Brien booted off neatly on the visitors' three-yard line. On the first play after Tulsa kicked back to the forty, O'Brien shot a 34-yard pass to Harrell who ran across the goal line standing up. O'Brien's kick was wide.

Texas Christian scored in the first quarter after getting a series of breaks on Tulsa fumbles, some of which the Frogs failed to utilize. A fumble by Scholl of Tulsa on the twenty-yard line was followed quickly by O'Brien's eighteen-yard bullet pass to Jordan who took the ball on the run and crossed the goal line untouched. O'Brien's kick from placement was squarely between the Bars.

Tulsa scored its first touchdown in the second, the drive starting with a beautiful 40-yard pass from Thompson to Baze. Clifford brought him down on the TCU twenty. Thompson, who pressed White for honors in the hurricane backfield, threw another pass to R. Gregory in the Christian three. Two plays later Rogers circled left end and crossed the goal line. F. Gregory's attempted placement was blocked. Early in the third period, White had the Christian fans worried when he took a TCU kick off and scampered through the entire Christian team for 62 yards to TCU's 30-yard line.

It appeared he was clear, but Hall dragged him to earth from behind.

HUBBELL ALLOWS 6 HITS AS GIANTS WIN FIRST GAME OF SERIES 7-3

CLIFF MELTON AND GOMEZ TO PITCH TODAY

POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 9 (AP)—Although still showing traces of grogginess from the effects of previous punishment, the New York Giants got up off the floor today and punched out a 7 to 3 victory over the Yankees in the fourth game of the world series.

The Giants themselves, with big Hank Leiber back in centerfield and providing a cleanup wallop they had not previously shown, blasted Irving (Bump) Hadley from the box with a six-run attack in the second inning.

Despite the fact he had only two full-days of rest between assignments and was again victimized by ragged support, Hubbell was master of the proceedings at every critical stage.

The Reapers mowed down 26 to 0 by Buchanan Eleven

The Buchanan Junior high school gridders Friday afternoon won an upset 26 to 0 game from the Pampa Junior high Reapers in a game played in Amarillo. The old dope bucket was badly battered since Buchanan only tied Borger after the Reapers had downed the Borger Bull Pups 13 to 0.

Benny Files, a blocking back, turned ball carrier to gallop across the pay line three times. Elmer Smith made the other score. Ray Goldsmith was a consistent ground carrier for the Amarilloans.

The Reapers appeared lost, displaying little of the blocking and tricky running of their previous two games. L. B. Allison was injured in the second play and the rest of the Reapers showed nervousness from then on.

Sam Houston of Amarillo will come to Pampa for a conference game next Friday afternoon.

The United States is estimated to have coal enough in the ground to last years.

Harvesters Smack Down Greenville Lions 25 to 0

The Pampa Harvesters kept their 1937 record clean here Friday night with a 25 to 0 victory over the Greenville Lions in a heavy shower which fell just as the team started to line up for the kickoff and which delayed the start about 15 minutes, made the field slippery but not muddy.

Despite the slippery ball, fumbles were few. They played an important part in the Harvester scoring however, alert Pampa players falling on three of the Greenville bobbles. The Harvesters lost three out of six.

The rain practically killed the aerial game although it was through the ozone that Greenville made most gains, three passes netting 37 yards. On the ground the Lions were held to 29 yards ahead while being thrown for 39 yards loss.

Sticking to the ground excepting for one pass which slipped out of Heiskell's arms on the goal line, the Harvesters stayed on the ground. They ran up 228 yards and lost only 15. Alert line backers picked off three Greenville passes.

Harvesters Score Quickly Taking the opening kickoff on his own 15-yard line, Smith returned to the 37 before being downed. A goalward march then started with Smith picking off 18 yards, Heiskell 6, Graham 12 and Karr 2 to put the ball across the line. Mathews' try for the extra point was inches wide.

The Harvesters pushed for another touchdown on the first play of the second quarter. After an exchange of punts, the Harvesters had the Lions back on their own 22-yard line. Stinebaugh went back to punt but missed the ball on the pass from center. He fell on the ball on his own 5-yard line but it was a fourth down and the ball went over. Smith picked up 4 yards at the whistle ending the quarter. On the next play Smith crashed over. Mathews missed the try for extra point.

Main Eventers Monday Night

VIC WEBBER will see Frank Wolff battling Bob Cummings. Tex Watkins and Don Rainey will be the preliminary boys who will take the mat at 8 o'clock instead of at 8:30 o'clock.

A couple of grapplers who like the going kinds rough will tangle in the main event of Cliff Chambers wrestling show tomorrow night when Vic Webber tangles with Bill Cazzell. The semi-final vester backs ran here and there and suddenly Bob-Karr came racing around his own left end with no Greenville player in sight. Karr rumped 39 yards before he was finally hauled down by Shelton who came in from his safety position. Karr tried three plunges at the line and went across for a touchdown, making 4 yards on the play. Mathews added the extra point.

Each team made one first down the rest of the way as Harvester reserves streamed on the field. Terry passed to Daugherty for 12 yards but the drive was killed when Reynolds recovered a Lion fumble.

Karr blocked a Greenville punt and McMahon recovered and Turner intercepted a Greenville pass before the reserves took over. They held the Lions and Leavitt intercepted a Greenville pass with seconds left to play. Then Leavitt went through his own right tackle, cut to the sidelines and raced 20 yards before slipping as he dodged the last Greenville player between him and the goal line. The gun sounded as Leavitt was about 10 yards on his run.

Once more the Harvesters played a smooth game both on offense and defense. The ball carriers worked perfectly behind a hard-charging line that broke low and fast. On one play the Harvester line had all seven Greenville linemen on the ground as the Lions charged high.

The work of J. P. Mathews on defense was stellar. His line mates helped him get through to stop several Greenville plays behind the line of scrimmage.

Terry gave a great exhibition of passing a wet ball as he hurried for the Lions who were without their ace ball totter, passer and punter, "Candy" Franks, who was not in uniform because of injuries received three weeks ago.

CAZZELL SAYS HE WELCOMES WEBBER BOUT

Bill "Cazell" of Amarillo will get his big chance when he tangles with Vic Webber in the main event wrestling match Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena.

The first bout will be called promptly at 8 o'clock or a half hour earlier than previous matches. Ringside seat price will be reduced to 65 cents, tax paid.

"I've waited a long time for a main event and now Pampa fans will see things happen," declared Mr. Cazell when he learned of his appointment with Webber. "Buck Lipscomb was only a bad little boy to what I am."

The likable Weber, who opened here with a marvelous exhibition of grappling, was silent. It is well known that Webber can handle bad men as well as bad boys. Whether he will handle Cazell with scientific holds or take him apart is doubtful.

Wolf, cocky after his win over Buck Lipscomb last week, was in a jovial mood when told he would be a semi-final boy this time. The news was also pleasing to Bob Cummings who has long wanted to test his strength against Wolff.

Back after a long absence will be Tex Watkins, the rough, tough sailor laddie. Fans are smacking their lips thinking about the sailor trying to keep up with Rainey's speed.

Baylor Upsets Arkansas As LSU Wallops Rice

HOUSTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—Louisiana State university made a clean sweep of its Texas rivals today, whipping Rice Institute 13-0 on the Texans' home ground.

Scoring once in the second period and once in the third, the Louisianians were too much for the Lighter Texans. Power plays mixed with the unerring passes of Young Bussey, sophomore back, kept the Rice team in hot water.

Anderson, Louisiana's back, made the first tiger touchdown from the one-foot line, after line plays had placed the ball in a scoring position. Kavanaugh, Louisiana, end, caught a fumbled ball in the air on the Rice goal line and sprinted the length of the field for the second score. Miller converted for the point on the second touchdown but a bad pass from center prevented the Tigers from adding the extra point on the first score.

Rice threatened once. In the third period passes and line bucks put the ball on the L.S.U. one-yard line, but a fumble flew into the waiting hands of Kavanaugh who raced for the score.

The victory for the Tigers gave them three straight wins this season and broke a jinx that has kept them out of the Rose Bowl consideration three. Texas teams, Rice twice, and university of Texas once, tied or defeated them to mar otherwise perfect records.

Last week L.S.U. defeated the university of Texas in the mud. Scott Sullivan, 150-pound back for Rice, dealt Louisiana misery while he was in the game. Tossing passes and skirting ends for substantial gains.

The broiling heat slowed down the game in the final period, with both teams suffering. Louisiana contended itself with line bucks, while Rice turned to a flurry of passes in the hope of snatching a victory. Rice tried 20 aerials and completed six for 71 yards. Louisiana tried nine and completed four for 63 yards.

Louisiana rolled up 17 first downs to Rice's 14.

FRANKIE FRISCH WILL NOT PLAY ANY MORE

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—The name of Frankie Frisch, fiery leader of the St. Louis Cardinals, has graced a major league lineup for the last time.

The Cardinal management announced today the Fordham flash had been removed from the active player list for the 1938 season.

He recently signed to manage the gas house gang next year with a reported increase in salary.

Neighbors Help Cripled Farmer Harvest Cotton

MYRA, Oct. 9 (AP)—Lee Livingston, farmer, lost his foot in a hay baler and was worried about getting in his cotton and corn crop until a group of neighbors went into action.

They pitched in and did his harvesting, hauled his cotton to the gin, and the ginner ginned it for nothing.

WHITTENBURG BEATS MIAMI FRIDAY 12-0

MIAMI, Oct. 9 — The strong Phillips Blackhaws of Whittenburg met stiff opposition from a fighting band of Miami Warriors Friday afternoon in winning a conference tilt 12 to 0.

The game was marred by an altercation near the end of the last quarter, when Coach Daniel of the Warriors protested vigorously to Referee Davis Hill about alleged slugging in the part of the Blackhawk players. The referee received a scalp wound as fans crowded on the field.

Play was resumed with no penalties assessed. The Blackhaws were penalized 95 yards to 40 for the Warriors.

Robinson, big Blackhawk back, was the star of the game with his terrific plunging and deadly passing. He accounted for both Phillips touchdowns.

Murray and Gill played deadly defensive games for the game but outweighed the Warriors.

PORT ARTHUR LOSES FIGHT

BEAUMONT, Oct. 9 (AP)—Port Arthur High school today lost its fight for an injunction to restrain enforcement of the district football ruling disqualifying twelfth grade players from championship football competition.

Judge Thomas Cole of Kountze sustained a general demurrer, reasoning: "A high school is not a legal entity. It is incapable of being sued and incapable of contracting. It can not create property rights. Therefore, a district football committee, composed of representatives from a number of high schools, does not represent anything legally."

The schools are not legal entities and the committee is not a legal entity. If the suit were brought against school districts, it would be a different matter. School districts are legal parties.

The bearing on an order to show why an injunction should not be granted took most of the morning. The Port Arthur Independent School District trustees asked the injunction, following a resolution by the District 14 executive committee in April which provided that eligibility of Port Arthur football players begins in the eighth instead of the ninth grade as heretofore. Port Arthur had named the district committee and the Texas Interscholastic League in the suit, alleging that was the only way it could get an appeal, since the state committee said it could not interfere in a district committee ruling.

KELTON BEATS GUERRILLAS 7-0 IN FEW MINUTES OF BATTLE

A sweeping end run around the weak side of the line gave Kelton a touchdown in the first three minutes of play to defeat the Pampa Guerrillas 7 to 0 Friday afternoon in Kelton. Lee, little halfback who played tackle on defense, took the ball on a criss-cross and ran 30 yards for the touchdown. He plunged the line to add the extra point.

From then until the final whistle the Guerrillas played sparkling ball, three times holding Kelton on the 10-yard line with four downs to go.

Kelton also came up with a strong defense which kept the Guerrillas outside their 20-yard line excepting on one drive which bogged on the 12-yard stripe.

The Guerrillas threw passes all over the field for a 500 average. 15 heaves being completed. Most of the aerials were flipped by Doyle Aulds who alternated between passing to his ends and backs.

On Tuesday afternoon the Guerrillas will entertain the Price Memorial Cardinals at Harvester field. The Pampa lineup against Kelton was:

Hobart Wins Cup In Pistol Shoot; Team From Wichita High

Those who believe leveling a pistol down on a target and banging away isn't sport should have seen the North Texas-South Oklahoma Peace Officers' shoot on the range west of Harvester park Friday afternoon.

In case you haven't already heard about it, Fred Hobart took individual high honors at the meet. He scored 96 points to take that cup he's been after. This makes the third time he's won that award and it's his now.

Wind Bothers Marksmen.
Former Sheriff Lon Biancos, whose specialty is managing rodeos, was among the spectators Friday.

Teams slow fire. Wichita first, 437, Pampa, second 429; Highway patrol, third, 283.

Individual high score, men: Fred Hobart, Pampa, 96, first. Mr. Hobart was awarded the cup which becomes his permanently, this being the third time he has won the trophy. Second prize, H. C. King, Wichita Falls, 92; third A. Grady, Wichita Falls, 91; fourth, R. E. Biles, Wichita Falls, 90; fifth, O. T. Lindsey, Pampa, 89; sixth, W. C. Dillman, Pampa, 87.

Individual high score, women: Mrs. W. E. Wyatt, Fort Worth, first, 89; Miss Marjorie Campbell, Wichita Falls, second, 86; Miss Alene Rose, Wichita Falls, third, 85.

Individual high score, rapid fire won by H. C. King, Wichita Falls, 74; Walter Jones, Canadian, second, 65; Jess Leverett, Wichita Falls, third, 60.

He remarked that he had never attended one of these shoots when the wind was blowing.

There were 10 targets and unless one was standing directly back of the marksmen, it was difficult to tell at exactly which target he was aiming. Even one of the scorers had trouble one time on the point. At that, there was one target that had one too many holes in it, and the extra perforation had been made by a different kind of bullet than the others. Perhaps a stray shot from the gun of the man who seemed to be firing at three points.

Deadeye From Wichita.
Wichita Falls is sure one gun-shootin' town. A big part of the entries were from the big town down the valley from the Panhandle, and they get as interested over shooting as the Plainsmen do over football.

Pampa had its pistol team beaten by Wichita Falls, 437 to 429.

Our Pampa Team.
Of course, we reached out and grabbed a few for our team that didn't live in Pampa. We had Walter Jones, R. H. Routh (whose convention badge reads "Amarillo"), Fred Hobart, who lives at Canadian but holds a Gray county deputy sheriff badge, Deputy Sheriff O. T. Lindsey, and Pampa Policeman W. C. Dillman we can claim as bona fide home town players, we mean shooters. O. T. scored a 90, second on the Pampa team.

Women Excellent Shots.
In keeping with women's advance into every masculine field, there was a match for the ladies. They shot 'em, too. They came near the men's top marks in the scores they made.

There was Mrs. W. C. Wyatt of Fort Worth, whose husband is a special agent for the Fort Worth & Denver. She rang up, or shall we say, shot up, a score of 89, and was all a-tremble when the event was over.

Mrs. D. C. Copelin of Wichita Falls, wife of the association president, said she had done some trembling too, but unfortunately it had been while or before she shot. Mrs. Copelin scored a 74 and lots of men at the match would have liked to have made a score that good.

Miss Marjorie Campbell, also of Wichita Falls, won second in the match with an 86, and Miss Alene Rose, won third with 85.

FREIGHT RATE HEARING TO BE HELD OCT 11

A hearing on the petition of the Texas railroads of the order issued by the 126th district court of Travis county, September 29, restraining enforcement of drouth rates on livestock feed ordered by the Railroad commission on Sept. 8, will be held at Austin Oct. 11.

These reduced rates effected 34 Texas counties, 16 of which were in the Panhandle, including Gray county.

Ralph Thomas, county agent of Gray county, will leave today for Austin to testify in this hearing.

According to Mr. Thomas, Gray county as a whole is probably as short of feed as it has been in the past two years. Although there seems to have been evidence of grain in certain spots of the county, other places failed to get these rains.

For example, the government station in Pampa showed a perception of 8.05 inches for the months of October and September, while four miles north of town there was not enough moisture to bring up volunteer wheat. In the portion of the county southeast of LeFors, there was very little rainfall. Grasshopper damage has been great during the summer on the ranges, according to Mr. Thomas.

According to reports of the county agent's office, nearly 3,000 tons of feed were shipped in last winter under the drouth rate. The saving of approximately six thousand dollars for the ranchmen. It is expected that an equal or greater amount will be needed in the county this winter. Cattlemen and county agents over the entire Panhandle effected by the drouth, are expected to testify at the hearing.

Sleeping Sickness Vaccine to Arrive Monday or Tuesday

A shipment of vaccine to be used in treating horses afflicted with sleeping sickness is expected to arrive in Pampa Monday or Tuesday, Dr. T. J. Worrell, city sanitation officer, said last night.

Dr. Worrell says that he was fortunate in being able to obtain the shipment. There is a heavy demand for the vaccine now as the sleeping sickness epidemic has been widespread over the Panhandle.

Weddings are banned in All Saints Church, Gurnard; Isle of Wight.

BLACK RULING DUE MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—There were strong indications tonight the Supreme Court decided this afternoon whether to permit further proceedings on two challenges of Justice Hugo L. Black's title to his position on the tribunal.

This belief among legal experts was bolstered by the fact Black emerged from a secret conference of the justices long before the meeting was over. This indicated he excused himself while his colleagues discussed his eligibility to serve on the bench.

If an agreement was reached, an announcement will be made Monday. Two conferences were held earlier in the week. Black remained at both until the end.

Hughes Presides
Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, who began his judicial career 27 years ago tomorrow, presided over the afternoon's meeting. The justices completed action on approximately 300 petitions filed during the four months summer recess.

They included litigation involving to some extent six Roosevelt administration laws.

Black, who took his seat last Monday, still remained secretive about his goings and comings and his office continued to reject telephone calls.

Challengers of his right to sit on the bench were Albert Levitt, former federal judge in the Virgin Islands and Patrick Henry Kelly, Boston attorney.

They contended the retirement of Justice Willis Van Devanter, whom Black succeeded, did not create a vacancy and that he must resign before Black could be legally appointed.

In addition, Levitt argued Black was constitutionally ineligible because he was a member of the Senate which boosted the "emoluments" of justices by permitting them to retire at full pay after becoming 70 and serving ten years.

Neither mentioned Black's former membership in the Ku Klux Klan.

Speculation was widespread in the capital as to whether the new justice had discussed, or planned to discuss, this question with President Roosevelt.

One Word Awaited
Action on the petitions Monday will consist of only one word—"denied" or "granted." If granted there will be arguments followed by formal opinions.

It was on October 10, 1910, that Hughes began his duties as associate justice after serving two terms as governor of New York. He resigned from the court six years later to make an unsuccessful race as the Republican nominee for president.

A few years later he went to El Dorado, Ark., in the Smackover field and it was there that he became associated with Bob "Uncle Bob" Dunlop in oil production. He joined the Skelly Oil company as scout in the Smackover field in 1925 and seven years ago was transferred to the Panhandle, where his amiable disposition attracted everyone to him.

morning, Deputy Supervisor Hawkins stated.

Inspector Carter, who is stationed permanently in Pampa, said that he would prefer charges before County Attorney Joe Gordon against each of the three persons.

Warburst and Arendal will face charges of illegal sale and possession. Miss Billington is facing only the one charge of illegal sale, Inspector Carter said.

The state officers indicated that evidence against the three places had been obtained by control board inspectors on previous visits.

The Saturday night merely were "follow-ups," and the liquor confiscated in the two places only added to the cases which will be violated against the alleged liquor law violators, the liquor board supervisor said.

measure of a man is his ability to stand up under kidding, and you stood up.

Jeanne Eagels is gone, too. Do you remember the September night you slipped into the Galey theater when the lights were down and saw her in her unforgettable role of Sadie Thompson in "Rain!" Jeanne Will and Flo; gone. And Calvin Coolidge, who was sort of a political icebox they told you, but who really was quite a gent when he entertained you at a White House luncheon, wasn't he? He's gone, too.

And how's your horsemanship these days, pal? You had the laugh on the smarties the last time you were here. All the Calamity Anns and Oscars were sitting by with baited breath every time you straddled a nag hoping for the worst. They had heard that the Prince of Wales and falling off a horse were synonyms in England.

Take It Easy Duke
You never fell once. You played polo and you rode to the hounds, and they didn't need an equerry to pick up the royal pieces, either.

I guess you will never forget September 10-11. You certainly packed those days full of vacationing. First you had a swim, then polo, then one of those "quiet" social luncheons that a fellow just can't get away from, then you dashed over and had a look at Mr. Morgan's blooded cattle, then dinner and dancing that lasted—it seems incredible—all night.

When you come back next month I guess you'll take it easier. You're thirteen years older, for one thing,

SENATE AND HOUSE IN DIRECT DISAGREEMENT

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (AP)—A program as scrambled as any in years confronted the Texas legislature today as mid-point of the 30-day special session, called by Governor James V. Allred to find $15,000,000 in new revenue, drew near.

The senate apparently had jumped the fence and headed for fields of economy in preference to levying additional taxes.

An omnibus bill taxing natural resources, utilities and theaters, and estimated to yield $10,000,000 had been reported favorably by a committee of the house and faced early floor consideration next week.

Favorable committee reports had been given house bills to legalize and tax sales of liquor by the drink, to equalize the tax renditions and to give to counties the state's share of the ad valorem tax.

Everyone conceded much work remained if the session was to accomplish anything either in economic or in revenue raising and the time was growing short.

A sub-group of the senate finance committee virtually had completed work on a new departmental appropriation bill for the current biennium, estimated to slash between $3,000,000 from appropriations approved at the general session last spring.

DRIGGER RITES WILL BE CONDUCTED TODAY

Miss Drigger is survived by her parents, two sisters, Christine and Jewel Dean, both at home, and two brothers, Alvin at home and Bob at Silver City, N. M.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Lefors Church of Christ with the Rev. H. J. Harding officiating. Burial will be in Lefors cemetery under direction of Pampa Mortuary.

INJURED IN WRECK

GALVESTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—W. F. Gidley, dean of the school of pharmacy at the University of Texas, Austin, and Mrs. Gidley were among five people injured in an automobile collision at a highway intersection near Alvin, late this afternoon. Dean and Mrs. Gidley were en route from Austin to Galveston to visit a daughter at the time of the accident. Emergency treatment was given them by an Alvin physician, and they were brought to a local hospital by ambulance.

he has talked with Secretary Wallace and others closely associated with the preparation of new farm legislation. Already he has said haste would be needed if a new bill were to be passed and the needed machinery set up to make it effective for next year's crops. Secretary Wallace has strongly advocated a special session.

In addition to a farm bill, a wage and hour recommendation of Mr. Roosevelt's remains to be acted upon by Congress. Long ago, too, he said treasury experts were studying new tax plans with a view to revising the nation's money-getting system.

Along with these, talk has arisen that a need for congressional action might arise out of the forthcoming talks among the signers of the nine-power treaty: Plans for a conference of the signatories of that treaty have arisen since his talk at Chicago last week in which he said that nations which disturb the international harmony should be "quarantined."

A contract for paving the road to Borger will have to be let after the grade and drainage work is complete. The other unit, the Stunnett to Dumas link, is yet unprovided for but Bobbitt and Hines have promised to place it in some improvement program at the earliest possible time.

Commissioner Hines visited the Panhandle March 9, 1937, and inspected the route from Pampa to Dumas. He addressed the March chamber of commerce luncheon meeting at noon that day.

May 7, 1937, both Commissioner Hines and Chairman Bobbitt visited the Panhandle and toured the Pampa-Dumas highway. Chairman Bobbitt was the principal speaker at a luncheon for the oil executives, carbon black officials, and other oil-field officials of the Panhandle in Pampa, and at a mass meeting in the afternoon at the Pampa High School auditorium.

Due to the concentration of offices in Pampa and Borger and the new development trend in the Dumas area, the Panhandle Project No. 1 is one of the heaviest traveled roads in the Panhandle in spite of the present unimproved condition.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by telephoning 384 Monday or Tuesday morning. Tickets will be 50 cents.

Mr. Keffler will present the subject in a general view, showing the effect excessive taxation of the oil and gas and other industries will have on the various business interests of Pampa. He will likewise discuss other developments in progress in the capital city of Texas.

of cattle over a paved highway or a bunch of railroad tracks?" (He knows you didn't). "Well try it sometime. It'd be hard enough to get the first cow across, and the rest of the herd would hold up traffic for an hour—if they all didn't slip and fall down on the concrete and stay there the rest of the day. There wouldn't be enough cowboys to herd a load of cattle into Pampa.

Six Cowboys Enough
"But don't get the wrong idea," he continued. "It doesn't take many cowboys to drift a herd from the Hay Hooks to Hoover. Two at the front to keep the herd headed in the right direction, two at each flank, and two at the rear are enough. You don't drive cattle, you drift 'em."

So if you want to see some real cowboys in action go to Hoover just as the herd is coming over the hill. You can see more of the cattle kingdom there in a day than you can see in many a day elsewhere, and those boys really look like cowboys—not dude or drugstore cowboys, but cowpunchers who work for their living with cattle.

Right Atmosphere
Hoover, as all picnickers know, is about seven miles east of Pampa on the Santa Fe. The picturesque little railroad stop is a fitting place from which to ship cattle. Somehow, it wouldn't look right (to one who is used to Ken Maynard and Buck Jones and John Wayne), the leading movie cowboys) to ship cattle from a stockyard where the noise of a refinery drowns out the yellows of the punchers. But the setting at Hoover, the "breaks," the cottonwood-lined creek, the sloping hills, the winding railroad crawling along the creek, is right, which the German government has not been formerly (correct) invited and in which they do not participate."

Italy backed up this blunt refusal by expressing the conviction that:

"Adoption of procedures—even if only preliminary—outside the London committee and its organs would in the present situation, result not only in not diminishing but in increasing the possibilities of misunderstandings and complications and in retarding instead of hastening attainment of a general agreement—an agreement which the Fascist government regard as supremely necessary."

The note which reviewed the entire nonintervention situation in so far as it applied to foreign volunteers, was delivered in Rome today to British and French envoys.

Fascist Europe Sought
Italy asserted she shared the internal struggles in Spain may cease to be the cause of suspicion and friction between other fields also that progress may be realized toward a general detent (lessening of tension)."

Britain and France invited Italy to a tri-power conference in a joint bid presented the Italian government last Saturday.

They sought the withdrawal of Italians fighting in Spain under threat of action understood to envision opening of the Franco-Spanish frontier to the flow of munitions and men to the Spanish government.

Observers said the Italian reply threatened "a grave situation" because it was feared Italy and Germany were seeking a Fascist Europe through control of Spain.

Informed sources said the British government would not decide upon the next step until the document was examined fully and consultations held with the French government.

It was believed British officials first would attempt to reconcile French insistence of strong, immediate action against a desire here to do nothing which might blast irrevocably Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's hopes of regaining Italy's friendship.

PRIZES AWARDED AT ANNUAL GARDEN CLUB FLOWER EXHIBIT

MANY FLOWERS DISPLAYED AT SHOW FRIDAY

An unusually large group of people attended the Garden club flower show Friday at the First Presbyterian church annex where prizes were awarded for flowers entered in 16 different classes.

In the program which was presented at the regular meeting of the Garden club in connection with the exhibit, Mrs. Charlie Thurgave gave a talk on "How and When to Plant Tulips and Daffodils."

"Plan your garden on paper before you start digging as it is easier to erase than to dig in the wrong place," Mrs. Thurgave said.

"Daffodils should be planted now but tulips should not be planted until the leaves fall off the trees. The best place to plant the bulbs is among annuals and perennials so that the dead leaves will cover the ground where they are planted."

"These bulbs should not be planted in a straight line but in groups of six. After careful spacing and covering, the ground should be watered thoroughly every two weeks. Daffodils may be planted 18 inches deep and the same directions used in setting out tulips may be followed," the speaker pointed out.

In discussing "An Outdoor Living Room," Mrs. Edward Damon said this is the place to sit and think and to forget the dirty dishes and dust storms.

"The outdoor living room should be separated from the work yard just as the kitchen work is separated from the parlor. Fences, walls, or shrubs ought to surround these spots to insure privacy from the delivery service and neighbors.

"Eln, ash, peach and catalpa trees furnish protection from the wind and shade from the sun. All tastes may be pleased in the furniture which is used in the outdoor living room which can be made into an attractive play yard," the speaker concluded.

In the business meeting which followed, it was announced that the 3200 tulip and daffodil bulbs which were ordered by the club can be obtained from Mrs. L. C. Bliss, 623 North Somerville.

Writer Gives Suggestions For Likable Personalities

By Ruth Millett. What people do you like? Sit down and think why you like them. There are reasons. Just as there are reasons why you liked last night's movie, or the dress you bought yesterday, and paid more than you could afford—simply because it was the right dress. All three, the friends you are always pleased to see, the picture show that entertained you, and the dress you couldn't resist have qualities that attract you.

Let's find out about the qualities you find attractive in people. Perhaps you have those very qualities yourself. But if you have not, once you recognize them, you can make them your own. It won't be a thing you can do in a day—but you can become the kind of person you whole-heartedly want to be.

How? By keeping tab on yourself. First of all by recognizing the pleasing qualities in your friends, and making those qualities a part of your own personality.

Let's take one especially attractive woman and find out why she is the sort of person you are always glad to see: First of all she will have a quality of aliveness. And a face that whether pretty or not, is good to look at because it is a shining mirror that reflects her happy thoughts, her laughter, her sympathy, her admiration.

This friend with real charm is always glad to see you. She remembers the things you like, so that one time when you meet her she says, "I read a book yesterday I think you would enjoy—it's the story of a year on a Maine farm." And another time, "Block's have a new fall suit in that shade of brown that is just right for you."

When she hears something nice about you, she manages somehow to tell you, at a time when you need a compliment to give you a "lift."

She doesn't dump her burdens and worries on your shoulders. In fact, now that you are thinking of it—you scarcely believe she has petty troubles, for she has always managed to keep them to herself.

She doesn't make you uncomfortable by running down other people. The person who does that always gets busy and he is likely to be the next victim.

Her conversation is interesting because she is a real and living part of today. She reads the newspapers, listens to the radio, enjoys books and plays.

If these qualities make the kind of person you want to be yourself, get busy and be that person. Don't let discontent, self-centeredness, envy, or fault-finding become habits. Every hour that you live is doing things to you, making you what you are and will be, tracing lines in your face.

Let those lines be etched by goodwill, laughter, sincere sympathy, joy of living.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
A special feature of the Sunday evening service at the First Methodist church will be a chalk talk by Miss Myldred Bishop. Miss Bishop will be accompanied by Mrs. John Bradley at the piano and Miss Julia Giddens, violinist. Each of these is accomplished in her particular field and the pastor, Rev. Will C. House, feels that the church is fortunate in having the privilege of presenting this particular feature. The subject of the pastor's message will be "Toll Gates."

At the morning service he will speak on "Why Men Pray." The members of the church invite the public to share these services with them.

Collect a few vari-colored gourds or small squashes of unusual shape. Coat them with a thin layer of colorless shellac. When the vegetables are dry arrange them in a shallow bowl or tray and use them as table decorations.

Artichokes should be soaked, heads down for 30 minutes in two quarts of cold water to which two teaspoons of salt have been added. They are then ready for cooking.

Serve mint sherbet in peach or cantaloupe halves. The combination of flavors is delicious.

MAKE PAMPA CHURCH CONSCIOUS
The movement being sponsored by the 21 churches of Pampa and by local laymen to encourage every Pampian to attend church next Sunday is not a sensational, spectacular attempt to fill the churches for one day and then everybody forget all about it.

Laymen who are pushing the campaign to fill the churches next Sunday are aware that attendance of everybody on that particular day would in itself accomplish little, but they are hoping that most of those who attend next Sunday will go the next and the next and possibly the next. They are hoping that those who do not have the habit of going to church will see that they can get something in church they can get nowhere else; that the church is the only place where certain spiritual reactions and where a certain frame of mind can be attained.

Mayor Bratton's proclamation today is not addressed to either saints or sinners, but to everybody. He refers just as much to those people who do not have their names on the church registers as to those who do. Then, the laymen and the churches are not "pulling" for any church; they don't care which church you attend, just so you attend.

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON—Arthur Mullen of Nebraska, the man who rose to prominence as the foe of the Bryans, has folded up his political career like a used napkin and has retired to private life. That is, almost. He is writing a book.

Big, bold and breezy as a prairie wind, Mullen had 40 years of political life behind him when he announced a few days ago that he was going back to his farm. He was suffering from a disgruntled stomach.

The break came in 1912. In that year Theodore Roosevelt split the Republicans, and the Democratic presidential nomination, instead of being merely a thing of beauty, became merely a thing of value.

The Nebraska primary pledged its Democratic delegation to Champ Clark, but at a crucial moment in the convention Bryan said he couldn't stomach some of the support that was going to Clark. He swung his own vote to Woodrow Wilson. It put Wilson in the White House.

From that hour Mullen was against the Bryans. He associated himself with Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, prominent publisher and in 1916 they prevented Bryan going even as a delegate to the national convention. Mullen became national committeeman. A truce was reached in 1926 when Charles Bryan was elected governor, but in 1933 came a furious break. Senator Towell, who had defeated Hitchcock several years earlier, died soon after Roosevelt took office. Mullen wanted Governor Bryan to appoint Hitchcock for the remaining year of Howell's unexpired term.

Tex's Topics

We've always taken interest in the movies sent out of Hollywood in which the plots have been built around a newspaper office. For so many years the screen scenarists have pictured newspapermen as a scandal-mongering, key-hole peeping, frayed-at-the-edges bunch of gutter-snipes who, if they had to, would stoop to anything akin to mayhem or murder in order to get a story or so-called "scoop".

Taking them as a whole, we believe the public will find newspaper folk to be just about as law abiding, just as religious, just about as respectable, and with just about as level-headed ideas on what is ethical and respectable, as you will find in any profession.

Likewise, they must be entitled to full protection of the law from attack through innuendo and ulterior motive. Any legitimate newspaper, aware of its duty to its community and to the people of that community, realizes that the policies of publication necessarily must be tempered with the newspaper's responsibility to the people in the realization that it does not have the moral right to parade private lives for public scrutiny, nor to make fodder of facts which are not of public concern.

Which leads one to remark that the motion picture industry finally has produced a photoplay that contains more of the newspaper McCoy than any made to date. Paramount's "Exclusive", screened recently in Pampa, despite its title being so akin to those films with a newspaper theme that were the most blatant hokum, was mighty real stuff. It gave the newspaper spirit, with the minimum of "stageyess".

Yet, strange things have happened on many newspapers, and this story, according to publicity releases, was written by a newspaper man, so one cannot be too sure that such incidents are so unreal. The elevator accident and the strong arm methods employed by the newspaper owned by the gangster: to the public these may seem quite impossible.

MacMurray and Miss Farmer carried their roles without a flaw. Whatever parts seemed unnatural in their acting was due to the way the lines were written, if those parts may correctly be called unnatural. If Ruggles topped them, however, for if ever a player turned in a workmanlike job, Charlie did. He was human, he was real, he was newspaper.

Ruggles outshone both the vital MacMurray, and the blonde and beautiful Farmer. Even in the death scene, one of the three best shots in the picture, he made it as real as the morning mail. To die convincingly, theatrically speaking, is surely an acid test of a player's ability.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
A new church building, to cost about $30,000 was planned by the building committee of the First Christian church. The committee was composed of C. L. Thomas, Roy McMullen, H. M. Pickman, Ivy Duncan, and the Rev. James Todd, Jr.

School children of Pampa bearing flags and banners, formed the principal part of the Fire Prevention Week parade here, according to W. C. Montgomery, chairman of local observances.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY
Gray county's biggest oil producer of the year was brought in by the Skelly Oil company on the Saunders lease southeast of LeFors. In a 21 hour test the well made 5,622 barrels.

The Pampa high school golf team went to Canadian to play Canadian high school team, but there was no high school team so they played a picked team of Country Club players, winning five and losing five matches.

Roosevelt Quotes Burke, screamed the headlines back in Nebraska. Burke defeated Bryan in the primary, was elected in the fall and became—somewhat to Mr. Roosevelt's dismay—a leader in the fight against the court bill.

Neither Fish Nor Fowl

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—The effect of Os-good Perkins' death on New York was comparable to the paralysis which came over Hollywood several months ago when Jean Harlow died. Broadway couldn't believe it. Yet, it was true. One moment he was starring in a new play, and before the day had ended he was dead.

We never knew him personally, but he was our favorite actor. We used to see him quite frequently at Frankie and Johnnies, in West 45th street, having supper usually about midnight. About him invariably were a group of "name" players, and invariable the talk was shop. I remember one winter's night when for two hours I sat at an adjoining table and listened to an avid conversation on the ins and outs of acting.

Perkins at the time was playing with the Lunts in "Point Valaine," the Noel Coward piece which I considered one of his very best plays but which somehow never became a hit. He and Alfred Lunt, together with three or four others, were having steak sandwiches and a pot of tea.

CROPS OF TEARS MAKES FARMERS SMILE

MOORHEAD, Minn. (AP)—Housewives will shed a tear or two while farmers smile at the jingle of coin, as a result of one of this territory's best crops this fall—onions.

The largest onion crop ever produced in this area came this fall after an exceptional growing season that produced yields running from 250 bushels per acre upward. High prices due to poor production in other onion-growing sections gave some fields in this district a net profit of 250 per acre while gardeners say 450 acres planted near the city are expected to net between $50,000 and $75,000.

"I" is the most commonly used word in telephone conversation, and "you" is second.

People You Know

THIS is to acknowledge the fine influence of the Garden club in the community, and the courageous example it sets. A garden club in California, the traditional land of flowers, or in East Texas where flowers bloom under ideal conditions, would not call for special mention, but here where the elements are against the gardener, a band of women who are determined to produce floral beauty should receive continuous encouragement and praise.

How's Your Health?

IF the child won't eat a child that simply won't eat is a great trial to his parents. Most troubling is the uncertainty of the condition.

Does the food disagree with the child? Or is his unwillingness to eat just one of the ways in which the child seeks to dominate his parents?

Does the food disagree with the child? Or is his unwillingness to eat just one of the ways in which the child seeks to dominate his parents? If the child is ill, he is likely to reveal his condition by symptoms other than and in addition to his loss of appetite. Besides, if there is any real question about the underlying condition of his health, a careful medical examination will settle that.

Around Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD—Most places, typing is an occupation. In Hollywood it's an affliction. The movie-makers will do the funniest things. They've done it, most recently to Stella Adler, now known—by her own request so it will spell as it should—as Stella Ardler.

Fireman Gets a Call

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—Chapter from life of Volunteer Fireman Walter Hampton: Hampton heard the general alarm, and swung on to the truck as it passed him on a downtown street.

On Capitol Hill

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (AP)—State representatives desirous of renomination would be highly pleased if they knew they would have a little trouble as former representative P. L. Anderson of San Antonio encountered in a comeback attempt.

Anderson, supported by the city administration organization was returned to the legislature in a recent election by such a one-sided majority it could hardly be called a contest. Nearly complete returns gave him 8,700 votes to a combined total of 1,172 for his opponents.

Observers believe actions at the special session or sessions of the legislature this fall may have much to do with whether Governor Allred seeks a precedent-breaking third term.

Allred or his appointees have had opportunity during his two terms to give work to about 8,000 persons, the lawmaker said. "All have relatives and friends and some are influential."

Earl P. Adams, who retired as chairman of the State Industrial Accident Board a short time ago after serving nearly eight years, says he has no desire again to hold any public office except possibly an appellate court judgeship.

Adam's name has been added to the long list of former state officials who are now practicing law here.

Adams said he likewise favored additional restriction of appeals to the Supreme Court.

Book A Day

Back in the fabulous 20's America's younger intellectuals seemed to have art all mixed up with a trip to Paris. Whether one wanted to be a poet, a novelist, a painter or a sculptor, one had to begin by visiting Paris.

He tells about them now, with the aid of Ghostwriter Morrill Cody in a pleasant book called "This Must Be the Place" (Lee Furman: $3). Here we get a bartender's-eye view of the American invasion, and a strange and educational sight it is.

A few real geniuses passed under Chartres' gaze—Ernest Hemingway for one, who used to take the barman's eye view for another, Ford Maddox Ford, who took American prohibition hooch back to show the Parisians what strong liquor was really like.

Painters and photographers, says Chartres, are the heaviest drinkers. Ordinary bar-room hangers-on come second in capacity, with journalists ranking third. Sculptors, for some reason, invariably get depressed with drinking.

I have shaken hands and kissed babies every year since I left law school. Moreover, this darn job is getting under my skin.

Germany and Italy are not dictatorships, but the greatest and soundest democracies that exist in the world today.

I was not washed clear of the boat at all, just over the side.

Oklahoma's Highway Patrolmen Depicted As Gentlemanly, Kind

Those Oklahoma highway patrolmen in Pampa Thursday and Friday for the peace officers' convention know their Emily Post. Perhaps they know it better than do those whose lives are not concerned with the pursuit and capture of criminals and the protection of lives and property.

Oklahoma believed the idea of policemen acting like Sing Sing graduates was due for a change. In line with other states, they have established the Oklahoma Highway patrol. It is organized under the Commission of Public Safety, headed by Bud Gentry. H. E. Bailey is assistant, and Major Jack Hitch is chief of patrol.

The patrol does more than take joy rides up and down the highways, casually arresting a few speeders, as the unthinking might imagine.

Since the first of the year the patrol has not lost a single case when it has brought into court drivers who have been under the influence of intoxicating liquors. Note that "under the influence" Oklahoma is strict on that point.

When the patrol brings in an offender, the man arrested is placed under a sobriety test. He may not be drunk, but if he is under the influence to the extent that he drives too fast or carelessly, he can be fined, on that count if not on the drunk charge.

Assistance to motorists is also a job of the patrol, as well as arresting violators of the law. When there has been wreck and it is necessary to get the battered car off the road at once, the patrol does it.

When a car breaks down on the road and the owner is too poor to afford calling a garage for a tow car, the patrol brings him into the nearest town. Each one of the patrol cars is equipped with a trailer-hitch and tow lines.

In fact, courtesy is the fundamental rule of the patrol's relations with the public.

When an Oklahoma highway patrol car overtakes a driver and signals for him to stop, does the patrol car come blaring up with a screaming siren?

It does not. It approaches the car in such a way as not to create a traffic problem. Politely the officers indicate they wish the car to stop.

They don't run in front of the car they halt, but stop about 20 feet to the rear. Do the officers then rush forward with a tough guy look, as if to say, "Well, you blankety-blanks, I've got yuh now, what's your hurry, where's the fire?" They do not.

They work by a precise rule. An officer gets out of the patrol car, walks at a certain pace, notes the license number as he turns and halts at the left rear fender, then moves forward, stops and faces the driver.

Very Polite.

He takes off his cap, and says, "How do you do, sir," or "How do you do, madam." He doesn't lean on the car, nor does his hand or any part of his body touch the car. He stands erect.

All the time he has been walking toward the car he has estimated the situation and has determined about what he will do, whether he will arrest or warn the offender. A warning is given pleasantly, and with courtesy. There is no rough stuff in such cases.

Let's you think the patrolman walks like a lamb to slaughter, remember the patrol knows that it never knows with whom it is dealing and where is a shotgun and rifle in the car covering the patrolman and a man who knows how and when to use it.

At night, of course, they take extra precaution. A signal light on the patrol car is used to notify motorists to pull to the side of the road and stop.

Sirens Not Used.

They don't use sirens for two reasons: first, because a man hearing a screaming siren might become excited and crash into an oncoming car or overturn in a ditch; and, in the case of women who are pregnant, the effect of the siren might result in a miscarriage.

The many members of the Oklahoma highway patrol are college men, they are not a rah-rah outfit, nor are they a military organization. They are the young, efficient, modern type of officer, trained to the limit, and keen on their jobs.

The outfit numbers 125 men, headed by eight sergeants and four captains. Captain Jack Roberts, who with his comrades, Lieutenant's Johnny Whalen, Sergeant Lefty Walker, and Red Elliott, compose the Flitfoot quartet, that scored such a hit in Pampa at the peace officers' convention, is one of the four captains.

Whalen, Walker, and Elliott are with the patrol. They are members of the Oklahoma City police.

Captain Roberts said the patrol had barracks at Edmond, Okla., and 65 trailer camp sites over the state. These camp sites are equipped with telephones, lights, water, so that the patrol is always prepared when it moves about the state. Each car is equipped with a trailer-hitch.

Equipment carried in the car includes a special 15-ton capacity jack, flashlight, first aid kit, ax, flares; and all other items that might be needed in the work. There is a gun and rifle rack close to the car's roof, above the dash.

Schools Held.

Two schools for cadets have been held at the University of Oklahoma, Captain Roberts said. Here, in addition to close order drill and the usual courses for peace officers, the men also learn public speaking, gas instruction, jujitsu, standard and advanced courses of the American Red Cross in first aid, and—yes, sir, Emily Post.

Whether it is a greasy hamburger stand in some outlying hamlet, or in a mansion, courtesy is the rule, and they eat in the hamburger stand as they would in the mansion. There is no sloppiness, no souching in chairs.

Naturally, the patrol is courteous in assisting drivers who have troubles with their cars along the road, and patrolmen invariably help a woman motorist change a tire.

Captain Roberts said that in cases where a motorist berated a patrolman who stopped him, abusing the officer, even cursing him, the officer was supposed to stand and let the irate one blow off all the steam, then make the arrest.

Looking at Captain Roberts, who is better than six feet tall, weighs around 200, has blue eyes as sharp and direct as a bayonet thrust, one suspects it wouldn't be a wise idea to abuse him. He would follow the rules, of course, but he might meet me sometime outside of office hours when he was on vacation.

Especially, after his lightning demonstration when he grabbed an arm in a quick, breaking motion, then jabbed an Adam's apple. The throat ached for half an hour.

He wears a gun, carried in a holster, flap buttoned. They train the cadets how to use them and the men are good shots. But they only use guns in defense of their own lives or the lives of some one else.

Endorsement of the plan to provide the Panhandle with a police network for the apprehension of criminals was contained in a telegram signed by D. C. Copelin, peace officers' association president, sent Friday to Sen. Clint C. Small and Representatives Eugene Worley, Jack Little, and Bob Alexander, at Austin.

In their convention here, the officers Thursday approved the suggestion of Sheriff Earl Talley that a resolution be adopted, asking that legislators be urged to grant legal authorization for the expenditure of county funds to establish a police radio network in the Panhandle.

18 New Wells In Panhandle Produce 8,281 Barrels

GRAY COUNTY LEADS WITH 10 PRODUCERS

Eighteen new producers were given a total open flow potential of 8,281 barrels by the Texas Railroad Commission last week in the Panhandle oil field. Gray county led with 10, capable of producing 3,632 barrels. The seven Hutchinson county wells were good for 4,052 barrels. Carson county registered the other completion.

Sixteen first intentions to drill were filed during the week to show steady drilling activity. Most activity was in Hutchinson county, where 10 of the new locations were reported. Gray, Carson and Wheeler counties had two each with the other test in Cottle county which is under jurisdiction of the Pampa office of the Texas Railroad Commission.

Best well of the week was the Barnsdall Oil Company's No. 6 Lewis in section 7, block M-23, BS&P survey, Hutchinson county, which was given a potential of 1,064 barrels. Other wells in the immediate area are much smaller producers.

Only one gas well was given a potential, the Shell Petroleum Company's No. 1 Kraker in Moore county which flowed 17,335,000 cubic feet.

The Cottle county test was made by F. P. Hynes et al in section 1, Cert. 129, Abst. 15, Adams, Beaty and Moulton survey. It is near production in King county.

New producers by counties:

Gray County.

Has Black Eye

An apology from William Moore, son of famed Dinty Moore, soothed the ruffled feelings of Barbara Barnister, Virginia beauty who now adorns New York's Park Avenue, even though it failed to cure the black eye concealed by dark glasses. Mr. Moore regretted causing Miss Barnister embarrassment when he struck her eye and kicked her thigh at a 4:00 a. m. night spot rendezvous.

EXTENSION CLASS MAY BE FORMED IN CITY

An extension class of the West Texas State College is expected to be formed in Pampa this week, if a sufficient enrollment can be obtained. A minimum of 20 students is required before the class can be started.

Child guidance and elementary education were the courses favored by those who attended a meeting Wednesday at the high school. There were a dozen prospective students present. They agreed to contact others and report to Supt. R. B. Fisher.

Olin E. Hinkle, professor of journalism at West Texas State College, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves of the college's extension division, were here in the interest of the plan.

School officials attending the meeting included Supt. R. B. Fisher, County Supt. W. B. Weathered, and Principals L. Sone, R. A. Seiby, and A. L. Patrick.

PARENTS DAY PROGRAM AT TECH ON OCT. 23

Letters have been received by Pampa parents of local students now enrolled at Texas Technological college at Lubbock, inviting them to participate in the second annual parents' day program Oct. 23. A reception in the lounge of the men's dormitory will open the day's festivities at which student council members, President and Mrs. Bradford Knapp will welcome guests. Climax of the day is the Tech-New Mexico university football game of the evening, when fathers of varsity players will be introduced. Prizes will be awarded at that time to parents having the most children enrolled in Tech during its 12 year history; to parents who have the largest number of children in college this semester; and to the parent traveling the greatest distance for the event.
