people are among the finest in the world; instead of being critical, they try to encourage other young fellows as well as their own.

Unlucky Day.
It was Friday the 13th, and to make matters more delicate Supt. F. G. Sanders led this columnist under a ladder while looking over the fine school plant seemingly the school folk are not superstitious, for many a sheepskin was handed out last Friday.

Not So Easy.
This is not an easy year in which to talk to graduating young folk. Jobs are scarce, but ambition continues strong. Ordinarily, graduates feel that they know the world in theory and are ready to conquer it in fact. We imagine the present crop of boys and girls feels differently.

Plenty to Do.
There is much to be done by the educated generations to come. Law enforcement in this country is lax. Punishment does not fit the crime in many instances and detection in this complex age is difficult. Often the criminals have as much legal advice as the officers and as much equipment to escape punishment. The cradle, the very symbol of secure homes in a free country, is no longer safe. So-called statesmen and big business men argue over economic laws and debts and tariffs, without being sure of what is wrong and what is right. Certainly there never was a greater need for effective education upon which to build great lives and brains skillful enough to lead the nation to normalcy.

Rewards Waiting.
The world still rewards those who are better prepared and most willing to

A little boy is dead. And because the little boy's father once gave us an hour of imperishable splendor, and became for us a fulfilled dream and a realized ideal, we opened our hearts to the youngster and made a place for him there. And every home today is a little emptier than it was.
Lindy himself has known loneliness and darkness before. Once he was alone in an airplane far over the Atlantic in the blackness of midnight, with nothing but empty sky above him and empty sea beneath—a measure of literal, physical aloneness such as few men have ever faced. Yet that was nothing, compared to the loneliness and darkness that have come to him now. That friendly nickname, "Lone Eagle," was never more apt than today.

To say, "We are sorry," is easy—and meaningless. There is a grief so deep that nothing any man can say will make it any easier, and that is the kind of grief that Lindy and Anne are feeling now. We can feel for them and we can sorrow with them, but we cannot help them.
And yet, although what we feel is only a faint shadow of what they feel, we must express it. We believe, confusedly but perhaps not altogether mistakenly, that there is a kind of power in human love, a power of sympathy and tenderness. So we offer it, humbly, deeply, grieving, silently.

And we fall back, as all bereaved people have fallen back, since time began, on simply faith. Faith that somehow, in some way that we cannot now understand, the strange and tragic mosaic of human experience has a meaning; faith that there is to be, in a life that is better than this one, recompense for all suffering, healing for all wounds; faith that no life is ever really lost, that nothing fine and lovely and good is ever really wasted, that no agony of heart or loneliness of spirit ever goes unrelieved.

That is the faith that gets us through. We lose sight of it, very often, and once in a while we get the notion that we are so strong and so wise that we do not need it. But we learn otherwise; and we realize, as we are being forced to realize now, that we have neither strength nor wisdom of our own, and we must go a-drift unless we rely on the old promises.
So we cling to Faith.

pay the price of success. Margins in life as in business still determine the supply of opportunities to a great extent. There are no more Indians to fight, but there is thrilling work in combating gangsters and kidnapers. And there is still ample opportunity to live useful, full lives. Happiness of the unselfish kind is an acceptable goal in life. There are many worthwhile things which give satisfaction without payment of exorbitant prices. Health, a happy family circle, good books, a radio, electricity, gas, refrigeration—what more luxuries could anyone need to be happy?

Consider This.
Loyalty to one's home community is essential to good citizenship. Do you buy Pampa products? Are you boosting Pampa manufacturers, large and small? Do you know that Pampa-made products cannot be sold to most merchants in a large neighboring town? Do you get sore at this fact yet continue to pass up Pampa-made products you should buy? Think it over.

DOUKHOBORS PARADE IN NUDE TO SHOW THEIR INDIGNATION

NELSON, B. C., May 17 (AP)—Nudism, practiced not as a fad but as a protest against wrongs, real or fancied, has put 595 Doukhobors in the shadow of the penitentiary.
The arrest of 254 of these religiousists Sunday for parading in the nude is but the forerunner, authorities said today, of the government's campaign to put down rebellion against provincial laws.
Not only nudism but bombings, incendiarism and passive resistance are counts held against certain groups of the sect which fled Russia's czar to avoid military service and which holds pacifism and forgiveness to be cardinal virtues.
The 595 men and women who have been arrested—many have been sentenced to three years' imprisonment which is the mandatory punishment following conviction—are members of the sons of freedom branch of the Doukhobors of whom there are about 800 among the 4,000 Doukhobors of British Columbia.

U. S. Girl Braves Death in Revolt

Bravely sticking to her post in the American legation at San Salvador while bullets whizzed around her in the recent unsuccessful Communist revolt, Ruth Kiker, the legation's chief clerk, was accorded the plaudits of a heroine as she returned to the United States for a vacation. The modest heroine is seen here as she arrived in Los Angeles on the liner Santa Elisa.
Emmett McCann, new manager of the Indianapolis baseball club of the American association for the 1932 season in a former Portland shortstop, take the matter to court.
"No," he was told. "We are Christians, and we forgive them."

COP ADOPTS PRISONER

The "one man's orphan home," as he styles it, of Motorcycle Policeman Den Maynard, Huntington, W. Va., has gained another recruit—a 18-months-old baby girl he found on a doorstep when he was called to make an arrest. This adoption was the eleventh for Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, pictured above with the foundling. Eighteen years ago when they married, they adopted six brothers and sisters of the bride. Later, four of Maynard's brothers came. The stork winked and brought three more babes in the Maynard brood. Chagrined because his flock has dwindled recently to six or eight, the others having "married off," Maynard wishes he had a good farm. "Then I could take on at least 20," he grins.

Bonus Pleas Are Heard by House

WASHINGTON, May 17, (AP)—The house rules committee today heard pleas for special consideration of the cash bonus issue this session but took no action.

For nearly two hour the rules group, surrounded by veterans standing against the walls of the small committee chamber, listened to arguments advanced by representatives Patman (D., Tex.), Rankin (D., Miss.), and Hastings (D., Okla.).
They appealed for a house vote on the new-money bonus payment plan rejected by the Ways and Means committee.

Chairman Pou pointed out it was "unusual and unprecedented" for his committee to grant a rule on legislation adversely reported by another committee which was not even seeking the rule.

Patman replied that his request was justified because the Ways and Means committee had broken a precedent of 143 years in filing an unfavorable report and thereby blocking use of a discharge petition.

Breckenridge Goes Before Grand Jury

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 17, (AP)—Col. Henry Breckenridge, friend and advisor of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, told a grand jury in the Bronx, New York City, today what he knew of payment of the futile $50,000 ransom for the murdered Lindbergh baby.

City Drug Opens Summer Fountain With Sale Tomorrow

MANY DRINKS NEW AND OLD TO BE CHEAP. ANNUAL OPENING WILL FEATURE LOWER PRICES

The City Drug Store will hold its annual Summer Fountain opening tomorrow. Several special features will be offered for the day.

W. F. Cretney, manager, promises many pleasant surprises in the new drinks and other fountain delicacies. "We want to show those who are not regular customers the fine fountain service we can give," says Mr. Cretney.

Featured in this year's opening of the City Drug Store's fountain is the big double portion orangeade. The store recently introduced this drink to the people of Pampa for 10 cents. Two large oranges are used for the filling of each order.

Among the other items to be included in the opening will be the famous Jumbo Soda, and the old fashioned milk shade. In commemoration of the opening the Jumbo Sodas will see for nine cents, including 2 helpings of pure ice cream.

Gerhard's fresh ice cream will be used in the items where ice cream is used. A special price will also prevail on brick ice cream.

Curb service, with plenty of parking space, will be offered as usual.

The personnel of the store includes Mr. Cretney, Jack Keahy, Clyde Oswalt and James Stone.

Careful attention is given to children, for all their wants or for the things for which they have been sent to the store. A free milk shake will be given to each child bringing two large potatoes to the store tomorrow. The potatoes will be given to the Welfare Board.

"Business is good," says Mr. Cretney. "We believe in the future of Pampa and continue to make the necessary expenditures to keep our stock up and the store in proper condition for a big business. We have always handled quality drugs, sundries and fountain goods to be sold at a fair price."

Big Orangeade Is Special At City Drug's Opening

If oranges contain vitamins and vitamins contain health, which is a proven fact, then the orangeades featured in the annual opening of the City Drug Store's fountains Wednesday should be a toast to health.

Two large oranges are used in every order of the orangeade. The drinks are prepared from fresh oranges, with all their richness, no artificial flavor, or coloring is used, only the natural flavor of the health-giving fruit.

Persons on a diet now can diet with pleasure by drinking two or three of the orangeades each day, and in addition to having a pleasing refreshment, they can stay within the confines of their prescribed health habits.

That the drink is popular with the public is evidenced by the number sold each day at the fountain of the City Drug Store.

While other popular drinks such as the Jumbo Soda and Old-Fashioned Milkshake will be among the dozens offered, the Orangeade will be a feature on Wednesday's opening.

REVENUE BILL PASSES FIRST VOTING TEST

LOUISIANA'S HUEY P. LONG SPEAKS FOR TWO HOURS

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—The compromise billion-dollar revenue raising bill without intact its first voting encounter in the senate but was sent floundering on its course today by an unexpected buffering of oratory.

Senator Huey Long (D., La.) did not get the kind of a program he wanted so he consumed in talk the two hours of the Senate's first night session to speed the bill.

Sponsors of the non-partisan budget balancing legislation were confident of a break in the jam as a ten-hour session was begun today with the vital income tax schedule still open for amendment.

The next test was due on the motion of Senator Connally (D., Tex.) to raise the income rates provided by the bill to the 1921 level. The bipartisan coalition supporting the measure showed its strength yesterday in defeating the motion of Senator Couzens (R., Mich.) to restore the even higher war-time income schedule. The vote was 49 to 31.

The object of both the Couzens and Connally proposals was to remove necessity for the special excise taxes provided by the measure.

Senate democrats noted with interest Alfred E. Smith's declaration for the sales tax in a radio speech last night. However, the view was privately expressed that the decisive vote of the house against the sales levy had forestalled hope for its approval in the senate.

An informal understanding was reached, however, to have a show-

Prosecution Will Follow Supreme Court Decision

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 17 (AP)—Prosecution of several oil companies on charges of violating Oklahoma proration rules is expected to follow speedily in the wake of the United States supreme court decision upholding Oklahoma's oil conservation laws.

The Champlin Refining company of Enid, which brought the test case; the Wilcox Oil and Gas company, Oils, Inc., Marshall Oil, and the Slick-Urschel interests already face charges of violating proration rules.

Prosecution probably will take the form of contempt proceedings, oil men said.

Meanwhile, Gov. William H. Alfalfa Bill Murray said he would continue martial law in Oklahoma all fields to prevent interference by injunction of "inferior federal courts."

Rains Extinguish Ontario Fires

NORTH BAY, Ont., May 17 (AP)—Heavy rain and snow have extinguished forest fires in Northern Ontario, reports reaching North Bay today said. No further outbreaks of fires have been reported and it was said that, aside from timber destroyed, the loss would be small, as the flames were checked in most places before much property was affected. Snow was reported today all through the northern area.

SOVIET LEADERS HAIL MARCHING MILLION

It was a proud moment for the leaders of Soviet Russia who looked on while more than 1,000,000 workers and their children poured into Red Square, Moscow, to stage the country's most impressive May Day demonstration. Disciplined units of demonstrators, like those shown in the upper picture, moved by Nikolai Lenin's tomb in a 100-foot phalanx. Greeting them with smiling faces and waves of their hands were (left to right, below): V. M. Molotov, chairman of the Council of People's Commissars; Josef V. Stalin, virtual dictator of the Soviet regime; G. K. Ordzhonidze, Commissar for Peasants and Workers' Inspection; and M. I. Kalinin, chairman of the Central Executive Committee.

Officers Seeking Indicted Men

LONGVIEW, Tex., May 17 (AP)—Officers today sought to arrest "10 or 12" men indicted yesterday by the Gregg county grand jury in connection with purported wholesale oil thefts in the vast east Texas oil field. A total of 158 indictments was voted.

District attorney John E. Taylor said "10 or 12" men were named. Their identities were not revealed pending arrest. Eighteen men, including two railroad commission employees, and two railway agents, had been charged in justice court here a short time ago.

The grand jury reported to Judge W. C. Hurst that connivance between dishonest land and royalty owners and operators had seriously hindered officers and the grand jury in conducting the investigation.

down on the sales tax before the numerous excise and "nuisance" taxes are considered. In other words, if the sales tax is to be adopted, no time will be spent on the other rates.

The Connally income tax amendment would provide normal rates of 4 per cent on the first $4,000 income and 8 per cent on income over $4,000 with a surtax schedule graduating to 55 per cent on income over $4,000 with a surtax schedule graduating to 55 per cent on income over $1,000,000.

The bill provides normal rates of 3 per cent on the first $4,000 income, 6 per cent on the next $4,000 and 9 per cent on income over $8,000 with a maximum surtax of 45 per cent on income over $1,000,000. The existing normal normal rates are 1½, 3 and 5 per cent, respectively.

Woman Blamed For Bad Business Of Newspaper

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—The business and advertising managers of the Washington POST testified today that the paper had lost circulation and advertising in the last year because of "unfavorable publicity" due to suits in which Edward B. McLean, president of the POST, had been involved.

Their statements in the District of Columbia supreme court were part of a suit in which McLean's three minor children, through their mother, Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, is seeking his removal as co-trustee of the huge estate left by his father, the late John R. McLean.

Arthur D. Marks, POST business manager, said negotiations for sale of the paper injured it and that divorce suits by McLean in Mexico and Latvia also caused a loss of prestige to the paper and hurt its business.

Nelson T. Harrison, attorney for the children, also sought to show that failure of McLean to pay his bills played a part in the paper's loss of business but Justice Jennings Bailey sustained objections by Julius Peyser, McLean's counsel.

The POST advertising manager, Ernest S. Johnston, introduced memoranda given him by the paper's advertising solicitors which said they failed to get business because of McLean's connection with the POST.

One of these said that there was a loss in business because of McLean's "unchurchmanlike" demeanor.

S. T. Morgan of Wheeler transacted business here this morning.

ARMY ISSUES ULTIMATUM TO PARTY HEADS

SLAYERS MAY NOT BE EXECUTED FOR CRIME

TOKYO, May 17 (AP)—The army... politics today and dictated that a national, non-partisan cabinet be named to succeed that of the slain Premier Inukai.

The army's ultimatum completely upset plans of political leaders. During the day it had been virtually decided that Kiburo Suzuki, president of the cabinet, should head another Eisyukai party government.

Mr. Suzuki was named head of the party earlier in the day. The selection was made as a means of healing a threatened breach within the party ranks.

Washington, May 17 (AP)—Demands of the Japanese army that a coalition or national government be established threaten the overthrow of Japan's party system and are the culmination of a wave of militarism tinged with socialism which has been rising constantly since the seizure of Mukden last September 19.

Refusal of army leaders to support any government which Kiburo Suzuki, newly-elected president of the Eisyukai, or government party, may form, is against Japanese political tradition.

As the war minister must be a general and the army refused to have a general serve in a one-party cabinet, it remains to be seen whether the emperor, as supreme commander of the army, will force the military into line or scrap tradition and recommend formation of a government made up of various parties such as Great Britain recently organized to face the economic crisis.

"Manchuria for the Japanese," is the slogan under which intense Japanese nationalism and fascism have been drawing together for more than two years. Inukai and the Eisyukai party replaced the Minseito party and premier Wakauchi last December because the minseito party government was not aggressive enough in its Manchurian policy and did not have a satisfactory financial policy.

LINDBERGH--

(Continued from Page 1) contact with the kidnapers. A newspaper representative, according to Mr. Curtis' statement, made a very lucrative offer to him for his story to be given exclusively to that paper.

Mr. Curtis also said that Dean Peacock could have prevented his unfortunate part in this enormous deception. Admiral Burrage merely presented to Col. Lindbergh the story as he had heard it, making no recommendations, but permitting it to stand on his merits.

"Reputable citizens and officials frequently vouched to Col. Lindbergh for the integrity of Mr. Curtis, stating that his word could be relied on. This made the deception so much easier. The story of Mr. Curtis has resulted in the very widespread activities of the coast guard and other federal agencies in seeking the fictitious boat he has described."

Four days ago, when Mr. Curtis came to these headquarters, the police authority at this point started questioning him and checking his story. The result of the check on his story and the questioning of Mr. Curtis was culminated at 4 o'clock this morning with his complete confession that all the information he had given was the result of his imagination and deception as well as his desire to make a good newspaper story that would bring lucrative returns, and that there was no fact or foundation on which the story was built."

After Col. Schwarzkopf issued his statement he was asked if any action had been taken against Curtis and related that Curtis was not under arrest.

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—The confession by John Hughes Curtis that his story concerning a mysterious vessel supposed to harbor Lindbergh's kidnapers was untrue, bore out the belief of the United States coast guard.

NORFOLK, Va., May 17 (AP)—The Rev. H. Dobson Peacock, a second of the Norfolk negotiators, when informed of the Curtis confession at Newport, said, "I am still relying on Mr. Curtis. He has been under a great strain for the past two MARKETS STRONGER NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—The stock market fluttered uncertainly today but soon more inclined to move forward than to retreat.

Oil stocks were firm largely in response to the supreme court's upholding of proration in Oklahoma and reports that the conferences of world producers, including the Russians, have begun in earnest.

NEW YORK—On such a warm evening it was a relief to get home from a formal dinner and peel off that absurd high collar. Then the telephone rang and I was hooked up with some friends from out-of-town who were rearin' to go places and see things.

So we went, and what did we get for their money? For one thing, we got in on the tag end of the brief show, and had to wait for hours until the morning exhibitionism was under way.

Fresh air might be a federal agent, judging from the way it is kept out of this place. Our nation's destroyers never could lay down a smoke screen as dense as the cigaret smoke in a night club.

Why Do They Bite? Nobody in our party had a good time, yet each will go back and tell his or her circle of smart hometown friends it was an experience to be remembered (to be remembered, maybe, but not to be repeated).

Good Night, Clubs Plenty of tears are shed over the shrinkage of some of New York's boasted institutions, but the fading night club has relatively few mourners.

Senate Clique To Face Test Today

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—A smoothly clicking non-partisan combination in the senate today faced its first hurdle on the road to accomplishing a record-making tax-economy-relief program in time for adjournment by the middle of June.

Another week or ten days, however, probably will be required for this process. To make enactment of the entire program possible, the leaders sought to begin today an overtime schedule, starting sessions at 11 o'clock in the morning and running through till ten at night.

Storm Does Much Harm At Yoakum

YOAKUM, May 17. (P)—Extensive damage to buildings and crops was caused in the Yoakum area last night by tornadoes, hail and lightning. One man was injured seriously.

A tornado sweeping through Wied community demolished two homes, damaged a store and razed a number of smaller buildings.

The two-story home of C. Plesch was wrecked, as were his barn and outhouses. Two girls were at the home but they escaped injury. The home of J. Vetsy was destroyed.

J. Frank Vick was injured seriously at his farm when lightning struck a building in which he had taken refuge.

Scattered hail stones damaged the tomato crop, which was ready for market. The loss was undetermined. A strip of land two miles wide, about 2 miles south of Yoakum, seemed to have suffered most. Crops in that area were practically ruined.

Lightning struck an electric light pole in the Yoakum residential district, shocking several people slightly.

High wind accompanied rain which soaked the entire section. A report from the Kerth community told of a tornado wrecking the Catholic church, leveling telephone wires and damaging crops.

Crops in a strip two miles wide and four miles long at Sweethome were badly damaged as a result of being pelted by hail. Crops in the Dryer and Edgar communities also suffered heavy losses.

Governor Lawrence M. Judd commuted their 10-year prison sentence to one hour of technical "confinement."

Miners Like Serfs Professor Declares

BALTIMORE, May 17. (P)—Dr. Broadus Mitchell of Johns Hopkins university, back home today from the borders of Bell county, Kentucky, where he went with members of the Civil Liberties Union, charged that "a state of feudalism exists in the mining country of southeastern Kentucky with the natives reduced to a state of serfdom comparable to the Mediaeval times."

Dr. Mitchell, associate professor of economics at Johns Hopkins, went into Kentucky with the commission sent out by the Civil Liberties Union to investigate conditions in the coal fields.

The object of the trip, according to Mitchell, was fulfilled in that attention of the nation has been focused once more on the problems of the "serfs" who live in another age and world.

Governor's Race Narrows Down To Sterling And Ma

BY R. W. BARRY
By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, May 17. (P)—At least two Texas political figures, whose 1932 plans were held in abeyance pending definite decision by Governor R. S. Sterling as to his reelection attitude may now go ahead knowing how the governor stands. State Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo, who announced he would be a candidate for governor if Mr. Sterling decided against a second term campaign, succeeded Saturday in extracting a definite declaration from the chief executive. "So that there may be no possible doubt of my position, I announce definitely that I am a candidate for re-election," Governor Sterling said in a statement after Senator Small threatened to announce yesterday unless the governor made a "positive statement" of his plans.

Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt of Waco was withholding an announcement for re-election until he ascertained what the governor would do. He has been sizing up the situation with a thought of aspiring to the governorship.

It was possible Witt would run, although the consensus was he would ask to be returned to the lieutenant governorship, having in mind a race two years hence when a large field, including Senator Small, Attorney James V. Alfred and possibly Senator Woodward of Coleman is expected. Woodward had announced he would be a candidate this time in event Governor Sterling stayed out. He was considered the administration's most likely choice as a successor to Governor Sterling.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Texas' first woman chief executive, defeated for a second term in 1928 by Dan Moody, already is campaigning, through her husband, also a former governor, for governor. She has announced formal opening of her speaking campaign at Waco Saturday.

Louisiana State university will have a ten-game football schedule next fall for the first time in years.

TEXAS CROP PROSPECTS ARE LESS BRIGHT THAN YEAR AGO

AUSTIN, May 17. (P)—Carl H. Robinson, senior agricultural statistician of the federal-state crop and livestock reporting service, in his May 1 reports released today, said the Texas crop production outlook is not as bright as a year ago.

"The March freezes, dry weather and high winds were unfavorable to all growing crops and retarded spring planting and sowing," his report stated. "Rains during the last days of April and early May have been very beneficial to growing crops, pasture, and for planting. Fruit prospects are poor due to spring freezes. Corn planting is about a week later than last year. With warmer weather after the recent rains, rapid growth of range feed may be expected during the next thirty days. Shipments of fat cattle to market have been light."

The condition of Texas wheat May 1 was estimated at 60 per cent of normal, compared with 88 a year ago and 73, the ten-year average.

"The estimated abandonment of wheat acreage prior to May 1 is 16 per cent of the 3,768,000 acres sown last fall, which leaves 3,165,000 acres for harvest this year," Robinson stated. "A condition of 60 per cent May 1 indicates an average yield of 10 bushels per acre, which, applied to the acres remaining for harvest, forecasts a total production of 31,650,000 bushels. Last year's production was 57,433,000 bushels."

The condition of oats May 1 was rated at 56 per cent of normal compared with 85 a year ago and 70 the six-year average. Stocks of hay on Texas farms May 1 were 19 per cent of last year's production, or 148,000 tons, compared with 14 per cent last year and 14.4 the ten year average.

Louisiana's New Governor Sworn In

BATON ROUGE, La., May 17. (P)—The tumult and the shouting along Louisiana's embattled gubernatorial front died today as Oscar K. Allen, duly elected and approved by the forces of Senator Huey P. Long, came to the capitol to be sworn as governor.

Inauguration of Allen, former chairman of the state highway commission, shared attention with dedication of a 33-story state house, built of marble, limestone and bronze at a cost of $5,000,000 to supplant Louisiana's pre-civil war capitol.

Negroes Kidnap Girl and Hold Her For Ransom

PHILADELPHIA, May 17. (P)—Authorities were called to solve a daring, daylight ransom kidnaping of which they were not apprized until 30 hours after its commission. Meanwhile, the victim's father, Nathan Gerson, a laundry owner, had paid $300 and obtained his daughter's release, taking no chances that the four negro abductors might make good a threat to kill her if he notified the police.

Dora Gerson, 19, was overpowered on a street near her home, dragged into an automobile, bound and gagged and taken to a barn outside the city about 6 o'clock last Saturday evening.

At 2:30 o'clock the following afternoon, one of her captors telephoned her father, arranged a rendezvous and demanded $1,000 ransom. At 9 o'clock yesterday morning Gerson handed over $300 and two hours later the girl was pushed from the kidnapers' automobile two blocks from home.

With his daughter safe, Gerson reported the occurrence to the police last night. Miss Gerson furnished them with descriptions of the
