CURTIS TENTATIVELY IS CLEARED OF TAKING RANSOM

NEW YORK, May 19. (AP)—Assistant District Attorney Ralph K. Jacobs of King's county, Brooklyn, announced today he had sent out two detectives to find Mrs. Mary G. Ford, Brooklyn public school teacher, and bring her in for questioning in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping and ransom payment.

Mrs. Ford, Jacobs said, was absent today from public school 67, Brooklyn, where she teaches. He said he told the detectives to proceed to 33 Riverside drive, Manhattan, where he said she rented an apartment two weeks ago. Jacobs said he was informed Mrs. Ford paid $100 for a month's rent in advance, with $20, $10, and $5 bills.

He sent for her, he said, on information given him by the public school authorities and after questioning the principal of the school where she teaches. Principal Talks Jacobs said he questioned Frederick Schoedel, principal of the school this morning, and that Schoedel made the following statement: "Several weeks ago a telephone call for Mrs. Ford came to the school. A man asked for her. He said we couldn't call her to the telephone during school hours, whereupon the man said: 'This is Jafsie, of the Lindbergh case.'"

"Our clerk said he didn't believe him. The man insisted, saying: (See LINDBERGH, Page 3)

Police Force Is Reduced By Three

With the release of Bud Cottrell from the Pampa police department, the personnel of the force has been cut three men during the past month. O. T. Lindsay and B. G. Holmes were the other reductions in the force, which now consists of Police Chief J. I. Downs and two other officers. Additional men will be put on during the Frontier Days celebration only, it is understood. The force will be enlarged again later if it is believed necessary. Pampa has been almost free from crime during the last few months.

Four school teachers each of whom was wearing a diamond ring on the ring-finger of her left hand, which may or may not mean anything. That is, they may teach here next year, but let us hope they don't go to Sayre to get the knot tied. Charlie Thut needs the business.

GIRL BANK CASHIER SAYS KIDNAPERS WILL GO STRAIGHT IN FUTURE

PETROLIA, May 19. (AP)—Officers of Texas and Oklahoma border counties continued their search Thursday for two well-dressed bandits who robbed the Continental State bank here and kidnaped Miss Mary Frazier, cashier on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Frazier was alone in the bank at the time of the holdup Wednesday noon. After a discussion as to whether she was to be locked in the vault or carried with them, the bandits forced her into the car and carried her on a harrowing four-hour ride over little-traveled roads before releasing her near Ringgold, about 20 miles southeast of here.

The young bank employe did not resist the bandits, she said when she returned here late Wednesday. If remembered the instructions Mr. Perkins (bank president) had given me and told the men to put up their guns because I was not going to make a fuss. One of them did put up his pistol but the other held his gun on me while his companion scooped up the money in the till.

"Neither of the men talked much and avoided looking at me the young bank cashier said. "One of them told me if they got out of this robbery they intended to go straight."

TOM JACKSON IS INDICTED IN CONNECTION WITH STATEMENT ON AMOUNT OF GRAVEL PUT ON ROAD

False Swearing Has Been Alleged by Jury

Tom Jackson, gravel contractor, was named defendant yesterday in an indictment for false swearing, which charged that an affidavit concerning a $3,840 gravel bill he made before County Auditor R. C. Wilson, Sept. 10, 1931, was a "false statement."

The affidavit as written in the indictment, states that before Mr. Wilson, Tom Jackson "deposes and on oath states that the above account of $3,840 for 1,280 yards of Kingsmill, placed on a road east of Kingsmill, running east to west by the McElroy refinery and connecting with the north crossing of the railroad, is within his knowledge just and true."

Mr. Jackson was served with the subpoena by Deputy Floyd Archer this morning. The defendant was released on $2,000 bond.

The indictment charges that on Sept. 10, 1931, Tom Jackson "did voluntarily, deliberately and willfully, under oath, make the following voluntary and false statement and declaration in writing and signed by him." The affidavit alleged.

Roosevelt Adds To Ballot Total

By The Associated Press
Thirty-two more votes picked up yesterday by Franklin D. Roosevelt in South Carolina, Vermont, and the District of Columbia, placed the leading contender for the democratic presidential nomination within reaching distance of a majority in the party convention.

He had today 428 votes, exclusive of 100 from New York and Pennsylvania which, while disputed, his managers expect him to receive.

Tomorrow and Saturday forty more delegates will be chosen in Tennessee, Oregon and Nevada, with prospects he may get them all. This would run his claimed total of delegates selected by the end of the week to 568, ten shy of the majority. This does not mean nomination as a two-thirds vote is required.

Entertainment today included numbers by the Federated Club orchestra, composed of Mesdames W. A. Bratton, director, A. H. Doucette, Robert Charlton, Lynn Boyd, Raymond Harrah, Tom Rose, A. W. Mann, and Chas Thut, with Mrs. May Foreman Carr as accompanist. Visitors today included Paul Bruce of Alameda, C. C. Bradshaw of Fort Worth, Jack D. Hudson of Claude, and President T. W. Bradham of Texas Woman's college, Fort Worth.

CONSPIRACY TRIAL IS SLOW AS ATTORNEYS WRANGLE OVER SEARCH WARRANT OF RAID

AMARILLO, May 19. (AP)—The trials of sixteen Gray county men, half of the former officers, on charges of conspiring to violate the prohibition laws moved slowly today as attorneys wrangled over the introduction of exhibits.

Judge James C. Wilson refused the introduction of $6,000 in money, a pint of liquor and other articles seized by Howard B. Oursler, special agent, from the Quaker Drug in Pampa, used by Roy Albritton, the alleged leader. The court held the search warrant illegal.

MONK SHINES

Parental pride took one on the chin when Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Kellogg, Indiana University, scientists, pictured above, reported that a baby chimpanzee they adopted as a companion for their infant son surpassed their own offspring in a nine-month psychological experiment. Clothed alike, the baby ape and baby boy romped and ate together in the Kelloggs' secluded bungalow near Jacksonville, Fla. But the ape learned faster, remembered longer and understood a greater number of human words and phrases than did the child at the end of the period.

WOULD ADD HUGELY TO CORPORATION'S FUNDS

WASHINGTON, May 19. (AP)—Speaker Garner today in a formal statement urged suggestions to relieve the economic situation in the country and said he hoped the administration would cooperate with congress in enacting them into legislation.

His program called for the issuance of one billion dollars in bonds for a government building program, broadening the base of the reconstruction finance corporation to add one billion dollars to its present two billion dollars capital and passage of the Huddleston bill to place $100,000,000 in the hands of President Hoover to be used in relieving "extreme suffering in any section of the country."

Garner said he was "unutterably opposed to the dole, but it must be apparent that before congress adjourns some real effort must be made toward taking care of the unemployed situation as well as the (See GARNER, Page 2)

CURIOUS CROWDS OVERRUN SPOT WHERE BODY WAS LOCATED

Two days after the Lindbergh baby's body had been found, the scene of the tragic discovery took on the atmosphere of a street fair, as this picture reveals. While hundreds of tourist cars jammed the ordinarily little-traveled road between Mt. Rose and Hopewell, N. J., refreshment stands sprang up on the spot and hawkers mingled with the crowds. The arrows at the left point to peanut and popcorn "concessions"; that at the right, to a hastily erected refreshment tent.

SHADOW BOXING

The men who are attending the disarmament conference at Geneva seem to be having their troubles.

United Press cables the other day reported that the delegates are utterly unable to agree on what caliber guns should be classified as "offensive" weapons.

Italy and Russia want every gun whose bore has a greater diameter than 100 millimeters (about four inches) classed in the "offensive" list.

Naturally, since there is such a divergence of views, the boys are having a hard time getting together. But they need not despair. Their efforts, after all, are not being wasted.

Suppose that complete a n'd perfect agreement could be reached about the guns. What then? Would the possibility of future war be made one hair's breath more remote?

The answer, in each case, is "No"—very obviously. For this conference seems to be not so much a disarmament conference as a despairing effort by world statesmen to maintain the status quo.

Surprising: As this is written, the Lindbergh kidnaping case seems to be nearing solution, with a few much-sought underworld characters at large and a few so-called respectables having confessed to dabbling with high crime in hope of profits.

Not Yet, But—? England, it is claimed, has had no kidnapings for ransom. This is no proof, however, that American gangsters' methods would not succeed over there at least part of the time.

New Methods?: It has become obvious that our worst crimes demand nationalized detection. While the Lindbergh case has aroused much voluntary coordination of local, state, and federal sleuths, in most cases of less prominence this would not be true.

"The principal activities of the corporation up to this time have been to sustain the credit of banks and other corporate interests by taking their frozen assets and making them loans upon the same which could not be had otherwise;

SPUDDERS ARE MOVED TO LONGVIEW FOR SEASON

Wichita Falls May Regain Franchise After This Year—Vote Is Held.

WICHITA FALLS, May 19 (AP)—Wichita Falls without Texas league baseball today for the first time since the franchise was moved here from Waco in 1920. At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Wichita Falls baseball club, holders of the franchise, it was formally voted to move the Spudder team to Longview.

The transfer was announced by L. C. McEvoy, president of the club, as temporary, and he expressed the opinion that the Spudders probably will return here at the close of the 1932 season. He declared the only obligation incurred by the ownership of the club was operation at Longview for the remainder of the 1932 Texas league schedule.

The Spudder team will open its season at Longview next Wednesday with a series with Fort Worth and will be known as the Longview club.

"We also found that in 1914 she pleaded guilty to grand larceny in Brooklyn and was given a suspended sentence."

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 19 (AP)—John H. Curtis, jailed Lindbergh "hoaxer" today was exonerated of any connection with the actual kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby or collection of ransom, but New Jersey officials pressed plans for questioning his companion, the Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock at Norfolk, Va., concerning his activities as a negotiator in the case.

The clergyman, revealed yesterday as having flown to Hopewell March 8 to request Col. Lindbergh to deposit $25,000 in a Norfolk bank as "earnest money" in connection with alleged negotiations with the kidnapers, declined to come to Hopewell but said he would give all information to the police at Norfolk.

Sends Representative

Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey immediately announced he favored "sending someone to Norfolk to see what he has to say" and indicated a representative probably would be named by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police. Col. Schwarzkopf said he was "very anxious" to confront Curtis with Peacock.

NORFOLK, Va., May 19 (AP)—Director of Public Safety Charles B. Borland today said full investigation revealed that John H. Curtis reached New York at 10 o'clock the morning of April 2, the day "Jafsie" paid a futile $50,000 ransom to the supposed Lindbergh kidnapers in a Bronx cemetery.

Borland said Curtis left New York four days later in an automobile for Philadelphia, where he was met by Lieut. George L. Richard, pilot, who was frequently used by the Norfolk "negotiators" on airplane flights during the "enormous deception" which Curtis carried out. Richard flew Curtis to Norfolk.

TRENTON, N. J., May 19 (AP)—Chief of Police William Walter disclosed today that ten days after the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby he received an anonymous letter from Buffalo, N. Y., saying the baby might be found by following the Lindbergh telephone lines. He turned the letter over to state police. The baby's body was found a week ago near the special police telephone lines to the Lindbergh garage.

Chief Walter wrote "attention" across the face of the letter, the paper said, and forwarded it to the police at Hopewell. He never received any report as to investigation of the letter.

The NEWS said Chief Walter favored the theory that the letter might have been written by one of four men who kidnaped the baby. The text of the letter, as published in The NEWS, follows:

"Mr. Chief: 'I am writing this letter from New York. I am going home to Canada. When I get to Buffalo I will mail it to you. That will give me more time to safely escape. I figured I'm in enough trouble. I got cold feet and the fellows knew it. I promised not to squeal and they gave me money and I'm going home.'

"Maybe I won't get caught. We all thought we could make some easy money. We got a place near Elizabeth, N. J., and one of the fellows who is pretty smart runs a wire to this place and listens to everything the Lindberghs say."

"He must be smart because every time the telephone rings he picks up the receiver and never talks. When he hangs up the receiver he always says 'I never knew I was so smart.'

The difference in SAFETY is about 10,000 Miles

ANYONE who gives a little thought to non-skid safety must quickly conclude that there are only two kinds of tire treads.

One has straight, smooth, sled-runner ribs of rubber where the tire contacts the road.

The other has tough, stout, sharp-edged, sure-biting traction blocks in the center of the tread.

Virtually all tires fit the first description—and the one important exception is the Goodyear All-Weather Tread.

It is interesting to note in this connection that more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

THEY must find by experience that center traction makes Goodyear Tires safer—but you might like to ask "how much?"

The answer, as nearly as we can figure is—about 10,000 miles.

A new tire with smooth rubber in the center of the tread is no safer than a Goodyear after its tread-center has worn smooth in use.

And judging from average driving experience, Goodyear All-Weather Tread Tires keep their clean-cut center traction—their non-skid safety—for somewhere around the first 10,000 miles.

You can draw your own conclusions, but it looks to us as if this made Goodyears 10,000 miles safer than other tires.

There seem to be several million motorists like yourself who have reached the same conclusion, because Goodyear Tires are first choice by millions.

If you want extra safety in the next tires you buy, just ask yourself one question: Why buy a second-choice tire when first-choice costs no more?

Why be satisfied with a second-choice tire when FIRST-choice costs no more!

SHADOW BOXING

The men who are attending the disarmament conference at Geneva seem to be having their troubles. United Press cables the delegates are utterly unable to agree on what caliber guns should be classified as "offensive" weapons. They are trying to make such a classification because of the American proposal that "offensive" weapons be abolished or internationalized.

Good Discipline

M. L. H. Baze, principal of Hopkins school No. 1, submits a copy of the report he has sent to the state board of education. Altogether, it is an excellent report. Principal Baze found no serious problems of discipline this year. While many of the pupils have been handicapped by irregular attendance elsewhere, much progress has been made in overcoming these deficiencies.

Won County Title

The school activities this year have included much singing, speaking, and athletics for children of all ages. In the county meet, Hopkins No. 1 amassed 207 points for the championship. Many places were won in both literary and athletic contests. Hopkins was second to LeFors in the track and field events considered separately. The enrollment was 23 on the average, with the minimum being 20 and the maximum 26. The Pampa is glad to get this report, and is always interested in the school affairs of Gray county.

Economy Vs. Jobs

Labor leaders say the nationwide economy wave is putting thousands of men out of work and prolonging the lack of normalcy. And the taxpayers' leagues will boxing, but as far as that hypothetical "next war" is concerned it has about as much effect as a meeting of the high school debating society. This squabble over gun sizes is the tip-off.

say in rebuttal that without the economy the country would be even worse off. Big business cannot show a profit until buying power is restored, and that buying power cannot be restored without big business taking the lead and the responsibility. Little businesses, with no surpluses, and idle men with no bank accounts are nearly helpless. Congress can help by balancing the budget and going home as soon as possible.

Hey, Marvin!

Where, oh where are those who knew so much about the Pampa federal building a few months ago? Where is that vaunted influence which would speed the work? Idle men are awaiting that project with interest engendered by actual want. It is well known that Uncle Sam has to unwind a lot of red tape, but perhaps our Marvin can turn the spindle a little faster for us, as he did for Plainview. Pampa needs that federal building NOW.

Surprising

As this is written, the Lindbergh kidnaping case seems to be nearing solution, with a few much-sought underworld characters at large and a few so-called respectables having confessed to dabbling with high crime in hope of profits. Probably the once-respectables did not think the baby would be in any danger, but if it is shown that they knowingly assisted in the plot they should have no mercy. There are already too many distinctions in our laws governing guilt and punishment. Such an offense as has been committed against the home-loving Lindberghs can only merit the severest punishment for all who participated in it.

Not Yet, But—?

England, it is claimed, has had no kidnapings for ransom. This is no proof, however, that American gangsters' methods would not succeed over there at least part of the time. Whether the thugs would relish the risk of quick and severe English punishment is, however, another matter. The fact remains that England has been free of kidnapings, and this is, until contradicted, an endorsement of their direct methods of law enforcement.

New Methods?

It has become obvious that our worst crimes demand nationalized detection. While the Lindbergh case has aroused much voluntary coordination of local, state, and federal sleuths, in most cases of less prominence this would not be true. It seems strange that we spend millions for national defense yet have no coordinated federal crime detection machinery in such instances. Isn't it time to utilize our military forces in peace-time crime detection of this type?

A New Order

Quartering of soldiers in American communities in colonial days was bitterly unpopular. But they were English soldiers, not continentals. Nevertheless, thoughtful citizens do not wish to be subject to military rule. At the same time, a bit of military jurisdiction over crimes of recognizable public menace would be an improvement over present gang-ridden conditions in the bigger cities. There should be no state lines hampering crimes in which the criminals can jump into a fast car or plane and travel hundreds of miles by the time the law-enforcing agencies are notified. The old order changeth in criminal activity; we must change the law to conform to it.

people who are in physical distress as a result of lack of food and rainfall. Only a few minutes after Garner issued his statement, Representative Laguardia (R., N. Y.) quoted from it to the house and had it printed in the record. "The whole country is going to follow the leadership of the speaker," Laguardia said. "It is a statesmanlike, constructive statement." Garner issued the formal statement from the speaker's office after numerous conferences with various groups in his party and members of the republican party. His suggestions follow: "First: I would pass what is known as the Huddleston bill, which has for its purpose the placing $100,000,000 to be used as he deems necessary to relieve extreme suffering in any section of the country. If it is not necessary to use it, of course it will not be used. "This is in accord with the action of the congress in 1898 when it placed in the hands of President McKinley as well as the commanding general of the army in the Philippines $100,000,000 to be expended as his judgment might deem advisable in the desires of the country. "Likewise, in 1917 $100,000,000 were placed at the disposal of President Wilson for similar purposes. It has been said, with some degree of truth, that the present condition is more distressing to the people of this nation than in either 1898 or 1917, and surely we can trust the president to use the $100,000,000 patriotically and wisely for the purpose intended. "Second: I would broaden the base of the reconstruction finance corporation, permit it to exercise its judgment in making loans without any restriction whatever, and and in loaning money to railway corporations largely for the purpose of paying interest and maturing obligations. "We surely can trust the present board to wisely administer the additional duties as they are administering the present limited duties. "Third: I would provide for the issuance of $1,000,000,000 worth of mental building program, based largely upon laws already passed by congress and approved by the president. "In order that there might be no infringing upon the present budget obligation, I would levy a tax at the same time to take care of the interest and sinking fund. This procedure would be economically sound and would give considerable employment to labor in different sections of the country and make provision for governmental activities which must be had, under any conditions, in the near future.

SPUDDERS ARE MOVED TO LONGVIEW FOR SEASON

Wichita Falls May Regain Franchise After This Year—Vote Is Held.

WICHITA FALLS, May 19 (AP)—Wichita Falls without Texas league baseball today for the first time since the franchise was moved here from Waco in 1920. At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Wichita Falls baseball club, holders of the franchise, it was formally voted to move the Spudder team to Longview.

The transfer was announced by L. C. McEvoy, president of the club, as temporary, and he expressed the opinion that the Spudders probably will return here at the close of the 1932 season. He declared the only obligation incurred by the ownership of the club was operation at Longview for the remainder of the 1932 Texas league season.

The Spudder team will open its season at Longview next Wednesday with a series with Fort Worth and will be known as the Longview club.

"We broke the rules and called her to the phone. We heard her speak of a meeting. When she hung up, she turned around and said: 'That was my sister's doctor. He wants to make an appointment with me.'"

Check Absences

They said they checked on her absences from school and found she had been away from February 25 through March 1.

"We also found that in 1914 she pleaded guilty to grand larceny in Brooklyn and was given a suspended sentence."

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 19 (AP)—John H. Curtis, jailed Lindbergh hawker, today was exonerated of any connection with the actual kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby or collection of ransom, but New Jersey officials pressed plans for questioning his companion, the Rev. H. Dobson Peacock, at Norfolk, Va., concerning his activities as a negotiator in the case.

The clergyman, revealed yesterday as having flown to Hopewell March 8 to request Col. Lindbergh to deposit $25,000 in a Norfolk bank as "earnest money" in connection with alleged negotiations with the kidnapers, declined to come to Hopewell but said he would give all information to the police at Norfolk.

Sends Representative

Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey immediately announced he favored "sending someone to Norfolk to see what he has to say" and indicated a representative probably would be named by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of state police. Col. Schwarzkopf said he was "very anxious" to confront Curtis with Peacock.

NORFOLK, Va., May 19 (AP)—Director of Public Safety Charles B. Borland today said full investigation revealed that John H. Curtis reached New York at 10 o'clock the morning of April 2, the day "Jaslie" paid a futile $50,000 ransom to the supposed Lindbergh kidnapers in a Bronx cemetery.

Borland said Curtis left New York four days later in an automobile for Philadelphia, where he was met by Lieut. George L. Richard, pilot, who was frequently used by the Norfolk "negotiators" on airplane flights during the "enormous deception" which Curtis carried out. Richard flew Curtis to Norfolk.

TRENTON, N. J., May 19 (AP)—Chief of Police William Walter disclosed today that ten days after the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby he received an anonymous letter from Buffalo, N. Y., saying the baby might be found by following the Lindbergh telephone lines. He turned the letter over to state police.

The baby's body was found a week ago near the special police telephone lines to the Lindbergh garage.

Chief Walter wrote "attention" across the face of the letter, the paper said, and forwarded it to the police at Hopewell. He never received any report as to investigation of the letter.

The NEWS said Chief Walter favored the theory that the letter might have been written by one of four men who kidnaped the baby.

The text of the letter, as published in THE NEWS, follows:

"Mr. Chief:

"I am writing this letter from New York. I am going home to Canada. When I get to Buffalo I will mail it to you. That will give me more time to safely escape. I figured I'm in enough trouble. I got cold feet and the fellows knew it. I promised not to squeal and they gave me money and I'm going home.

"Maybe I won't get caught. We all thought we could make some easy money. We got a place near Elizabeth, N. J., and one of the fellows who is pretty smart runs a wire to this place and listens to everything the Lindberghs say.

SHIRAZ REVUE SHOWS LOVELY COLLEGE TOGS

HIGHER EDUCATION IS URGED BY MRS. E. S. BURNETT

The pleasures and profits of a higher education and the problems brought about by the pursuit of such an education formed the basis for advice given by members of the American Association of University Women last evening at the Schneider hotel to a group which is about to travel the same road they have traveled—girls of the graduating class of Pampa high school and their mothers.

The event took the form of a vocational colloquium, featuring the program with an address by Mrs. E. S. Burnett of Amarillo, former instructor of Vassar and the University of Wisconsin, and a style show. The event was climaxed with the presentation of a scholarship to Eloise Lane. The scholarship was given on the basis of character, personality, leadership, and scholastic standing. Miss Lane being valedictorian of her class.

Flowers Presented

Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, and Mrs. E. S. Burnett were in charge of the registration table in the lobby of the Schneider hotel, where guests assembled at 8:30 o'clock. Upon entering the hotel dining room, each guest was presented a corsage by Sarah Ellen Will and Betty Ann McTaggart. Miss Kathryn Vincent assisted the children.

Lovely Tea Table

The room was floriated under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Massa, Miss Josephine Thomas, and Mrs. Ben Farris. The tea table, presided over by Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. E. S. Burnett, Mrs. Paul Kasiskie, and Mrs. A. H. Doucette, was the center of attraction. It was adorned with a huge cluster of sweet peas and was lighted with six tapers in graduating heights.

Vocational Tables

On decorated tables were arranged catalogs from many colleges and universities, and Mrs. R. B. Fisher, Mrs. LeMar Jones, Miss Josephine Cariker, Miss Alma Ruth Schulky, and Miss Ivan Mayfield stood ready to give advice regarding the various types of institutions of higher learning.

Go to College

The speaker urged college attendance. "It is not possible for you to attend this year," she said, "plan to go next year. Prepare yourself for any vocation you are interested in. The more important professions are no longer closed to women. Choose a school which recognizes equality of men and women students and which offers unusual advantages to women. The A. U. W. has prepared such a list of colleges and universities."

OFFER TIP TO WORKING FOLK

Living under separate roofs is one way for employed married couples to be happy, say Claudette Colbert and Norman Foster of the films. That's what they do, but isn't a "separation," they explain. And from the way they appear above, it would seem they're happy enough.

SAY SEPARATE ROOFS OFFER BEST RESULTS

CLAUDETTE COLBERT AND HUSBAND NOT 'SEPARATED'

BY ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — The Norman Posters expected Hollywood to gossip when, re-united here recently, they took separate homes.

The expectation has been fulfilled, and they're laughing about it, both Foster and his wife, who is better known as Claudette Colbert.

Married five years ago they lived in separate apartments in New York, so their domestic arrangement is not new. When both signed motion picture contracts, Foster was brought to Hollywood while his wife remained at the eastern studio of the same company.

Only once before now has she worked in Hollywood, but recently she, too, was brought west. Miss Colbert lived at her husband's home until she could find one of her own.

But for them living under different roofs doesn't constitute a "separation," and they are not contemplating a divorce, they say.

CONFESSES TO HOAX

SCRANTON, Pa., May 19 (AP)—A homesick young man who ran away last September after financial reverses admitted to police today that a fantastic kidnaping story with which he hoped to disguise his movements was purely imaginative. J. Drew Fague, 31-year-old justice of the peace and former democratic nominee for congress, confessed he wrote the ransom demands his wife recently received and applied the adhesive tape which bound his mouth and hands when he was found lying beside a highway yesterday.

leged to have been made by Mr. Wilson was then stated in the indictment.

Following the affidavit were these charges:

"Whereas in fact and in truth said account was not within the knowledge of Tom Jackson just and true; and whereas in truth and in fact Gray county had not received the benefit of said account, which said false statement an affidavit was not required by law and was not made in the court of a judicial proceeding; and the same Tom Jackson knew the same to be false at the time he made it.

Witnesses named in the indictment were County Engineer A. H. Doucette, Bonnie Hendricks, Ed Carr, J. P. Wehrung and Lewis O. Cox, county commissioner.

Both Mr. Carr and Mr. Wehrung are members of the grand jury that indicted Mr. Jackson.

The indictment was the result of a ten-week investigation made by the present grand jury of charges made by J. L. FARISH SAYS PRODUCTION OF OIL MUST BE CONTROLLED TO KEEP GREAT INDUSTRY SOUND

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19 (AP)—The "outstanding" need of America's oil industry "is to be able to balance supply with demand," the chamber of commerce of the United States was told today by President W. S. Farish of the Humble Oil and Refining company of Houston, Texas.

Speaking before the chamber's oil and lumber industries round table conference, Farish said it was his "deliberate judgment" that the oil industry was "in sounder economic position than any other large industry in America." But he added that "the industry is beset with distressing and acute problems. The prompt solution of which is imperative to its continued welfare."

Farish then launched into a detailed survey of the oil industry in the world industrial scheme and the causes of its difficulties, ending with the conclusion they grew from "the industry's lack of control of production."

Defending the principle of production control, the speaker said he was convinced such control was not only justifiable in the case of crude oil but that it was "the obvious, intelligent goal for the industry to try to obtain." He opposed fixing of prices, but recommended lawmaking bodies "while continuing to safeguard scrupulously and adequately the public interest."

Farish also pointed out that "the prohibition against agreement between producers for co-operative and unitized exploration and development of individual oil pools, and against agreements to curtail production to reasonable market demand."

leged to have been made by Mr. Wilson was then stated in the indictment.

Following the affidavit were these charges:

"Whereas in fact and in truth said account was not within the knowledge of Tom Jackson just and true; and whereas in truth and in fact Gray county had not received the benefit of said account, which said false statement an affidavit was not required by law and was not made in the court of a judicial proceeding; and the same Tom Jackson knew the same to be false at the time he made it.

Witnesses named in the indictment were County Engineer A. H. Doucette, Bonnie Hendricks, Ed Carr, J. P. Wehrung and Lewis O. Cox, county commissioner.

Both Mr. Carr and Mr. Wehrung are members of the grand jury that indicted Mr. Jackson.

The indictment was the result of a ten-week investigation made by the present grand jury of charges made by J. L. From the way we see this model situation, it's an 11-to-1 bet that McClelland Barclay, famous artist, will find the subject he wants for his painting of the "typical American girl" cheering her Olympic team on to victory. Senator Long Is Victim of Crack

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—For all his versatility, Senator Huey P. Long was caught off base last night by Senator Neely of West Virginia.

After repeatedly taking command of the tax bill debate, leading it around to the relative climatic conditions of California and Louisiana, the history of Texas and the frightful sound of the paving outside the capitol, Long was tempted by Neely into making a comparison of the gas production of his state and West Virginia.

"Mr. President," said Neely, turning a beaming smile to Vice-President Curtis, "West Virginia's gas is under control. That's the only difference."

When the guffaws and gavel-banging ceased, Long changed the subject.

the sale of the cakes and pies will be distributed among the P. T. A.'s of the city.

A $20 certificate applicable upon the purchase of a White Star gas range will be given as an attendance prize Friday, by Malone's, which has furnished the White Star range and the cabinets and table for the school.

Many other valuable attendance prizes will be given. Pampa merchants and national advertisers have been unusually generous with their gifts this year.

Coca Cola—Hancock, of the Coca Cola Bottling works, will give a six-bottle carton to every woman attending the school Friday afternoon. Free Coca Cola was distributed to each person in the audience today.

No set program has been arranged for Mrs. Thurg's lecture and demonstration Friday. She will prepare those dishes requested by members of the audience, and also will answer all questions.

In addition, she will discuss "A Safe Reducing Diet," noting the dangers of improper reducing, and the scientific methods of riding one's self of excess poundage.

In her discussion today, the director supplied the answers to the eternal question, "What Shall We Have for Dinner?" Balanced menus were outlined, and a schedule given by which every cook may easily learn to include in her meals the necessary foods in their proper relative amounts.

"Balancing a meal becomes a habit after a little practice," she said. "One does this instinctively after one becomes conscious of the simplicity with which it can be managed."

The following outline indicates the constituents which every meal should possess:

1. Protein—meats and other protein rich food such as beans, eggs, fish and nuts.

NEW YORK UNDERWORLD SAID TO HAVE HUNTED AS UNIT TO FIND LINDBERGH OFFSPRING

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—The World-Telegram says that Morris Rosner, appointed by Col. A. Lindbergh to negotiate with the underworld for the return of the Lindbergh baby, told an amazing story of the underworld search.

Earl Sparling, who wrote the article, says Rosner told him that hostilities were forgotten and every organized mob and gang in the country co-operated.

"The first thing I did," Sparling quotes Rosner as saying, "was to go to all the mob leaders and ask them to help. Every one of them did."

"They started off by suspecting everyone who was missing from the usual places. That includes lamsters or fugitives from justice and the other fellows who were hiding out because they thought they were on the spot in some fraud. Every one of them was hunted up and questioned."

"And all of them were willing to help. Some of them were taking their lives in their hands to come out of hiding."

Rosner is quoted as saying that one thing that the gangs were able to do for Col. Lindbergh was to "keep out the chislers," opportunists who sought to obtain a ransom for a child they did not have. "The gangs dealt with such men in summary fashion, he said."

Cakes and Pies To Be Entered By Many Girls

Almost all of the 150 home economic students who yesterday visited the Pampa NEWS cooking school, will enter cakes and pies in the cake and pie baking contest sponsored by the Pampa Parent-Teacher associations, according to Mrs. J. B. Massa, teacher of home economics at Pampa high school.

The girls and their instructors, Mrs. Massa, and Miss Angela Strand, were introduced to the audience and then they returned to school.

"The girls are happy to be allowed to enter the baking contest," Mrs. Massa said. "They feel that they owe the Parent-Teacher association a debt and are taking this opportunity of paying it. No one knows better than these girls, the good work that the P. T. A. accomplishes."

"We are sorry that the classes are unable to attend all the meetings of the cooking school," said Mrs. Massa yesterday. Examinations are being held at the high school and we cannot allow the girls to leave. However, we are glad to have been able to bring them down to the school."

"Pampa should be proud of their 'Home Ec' girls," declared Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, director. "The home economics classes of today are giving the girls a training which their mothers, and myself were never able to obtain. Modern education has combined theoretical and practical knowledge of cooking and housework, so that the high school graduate of today is far better equipped to manage a house than her mother was at the time of her marriage."

German Airliner Is Starting Home

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—The German airliner Do-X took off at 3:05 o'clock (C. S. T.) this morning for Harbor Grace, N. E., on the first lap of its return trip to Germany.

The airliner was heavily loaded yesterday for its long flight. A full supply of fuel and provisions was placed aboard, the Captain Frederick Christianson, after taking his craft to a point off the J. P. Morgan estate on Long Island, waited for the dawn. There was a crew of 14 aboard.

The Do-X had been thoroughly overhauled since its arrival in New York Aug. 27. Plans are to remain in Newfoundland until favorable weather reports for her flight over the Atlantic to the Azores are received.

She is bound for Lake Constance, Switzerland, her home port, which she left in November, 1930.

MLEAN SUIT HEARD

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Justice Jennings Bailey today took under advisement the suit to oust Edward B. McLean, Washington publisher, as co-trustee of his father's large estate after the trial came to an abrupt end.

Evidence in the case began Tuesday. It was expected to last two weeks or more but Justice Bailey excluded all testimony but that bearing directly on points at issue.

A suit on notes were filed by the First National bank of Pampa against Mrs. Maggie Hopkins yesterday in district court here.

DO YOU INHALE?

...wonder why cigarette advertising generally avoids this question?

ONE of the mysteries in cigarette advertising has been the apparent fear of the word "inhale." It seems rather foolish—for everybody inhales—whether they realize it or not... every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Think, then, how important it is to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure that you don't inhale certain impurities.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question... because when you smoke Luckies your delicate membranes get the protection no other cigarette affords. All other methods have been made old-fashioned by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Of course you do! So truly this message is for you.

SIGNING BALL FOR GANG CHIEF LED TO RULING

NEW YORK, May 19. (AP)—The National baseball league today announced it has rescinded its much discussed and criticized rule prohibiting ball players on the field from speaking to anyone in the stands.

The rule was adopted this year after considerable discussion and a fine of $5 set as the penalty for its infraction. It was said to have been passed largely as the result of circulation of a picture taken in Chicago, which showed a prominent ball player signing a baseball for Al Capone. The picture aroused considerable adverse comment.

Pine Bluff Is Holding Lead in Cotton States

By The Associated Press

Pine Bluff continued to win yesterday and held its lead in the Cotton States league while Vicksburg shoved Baton Rouge out of second place. The Billies defeated Port Arthur while Baton Rouge lost to Pine Bluff. Monroe swamped El Dorado to push the Arkansans deeper into the cellar.

Right fielder Washington's saved Baton Rouge from a shut out in the game which Pine Bluff won 4 to 1. The Baton Rouge heavy hitter smashed out a home run in the sixth.

A home run by Mueller, center-fielder, with two men on base in the fourth inning, gave Vicksburg a winning lead for a 5-2 decision over Port Arthur. The Texans scored twice in the second inning, one tally being a home by Koch, left fielder, but Kelley held them after that.

Three El Dorado pitchers were pounded by Monroe for a 12 to 5 win. Neither Burleson, Randolph nor White could hold back the onslaught and the loss was charged up to Burleson who was sent to the showers in the fourth after five hits had netted seven runs.

The ball game scheduled for 5 o'clock this afternoon on Magnolia diamond between the fast Phillips "88" team from Bargar and the Coltexo-Phillips team from LaFors will bring into action the pick of the Panhandle's players. The Coltexo-Phillips nine will be strengthened by the use of Weatherred and Marshall of the "Mags".

Bodie Clemons, youthful hurler, will be in the box in an attempt to hold the fast Barger nine. Clemons held the Barger boys to three scattered hits in six innings in overbrag last Saturday. He was then relieved so that he would be rested for the game today.

The Coltexo-Phillips nine will line up as follows: Marshall, lf; Baldwin, ss; Hipps, rf; Weatherred, 2b; Newsome, cf; Pullian, c; Flynn, 1b; Romaine, 3b; Clemons, p. Substitutes—Stewart, Ellis, Kirkpatrick, Munn, Earnest and G. Clemons.

TRAINING FOR CAGEMEN HAS COME TO END

BIG CHANCE TO COME NEXT SEASON FOR LOCALS

Spring basketball practice came to a sudden end yesterday when Coaches Oduis Mitchell and Argus M. Fox announced that they had been unable to match a practice game for the Harvesters. Suits were turned in yesterday afternoon and the boys set at freedom until fall football season comes around.

The Harvesters appear to be on the way to a long-coveted championship. The team is composed of veterans under Captain Midget Woodward. Spring training has been in progress for the past three weeks. The team won a lop-sided victory over a team of ex-Harvesters and defeated a second string team.

The first team appears to be cinched by Woodward, Marbaugh, Fullingim, Patton, and Wayne Kelley, with Bill Kelley, Jim Pool, Gerdis Schmidt, Claude Sullins, Carmen Howard, Lloyd Hamilton and Walton Heard as substitutes.

"I believe next season will see our big chance," coaches said last night. "We have plenty of good material and from spring workouts we believe they will round into a winning aggregation."

BERKELEY BELL EASILY BEATEN

NEW YORK, May 19. (AP)—Berkeley Bell, the acrobatic Texan, is having difficulty making the boys respect his No. 10 ranking among the tennis stars of this country.

Bell has lost out in three straight tournaments in the Metropolitan area, all of which he had been favored to win. He received his most painful setback yesterday when Edward Burns of Brooklyn, an obscure player, defeated him in the quarter-finals of the Bronxville field club invitation tournament.

Others to beat Bell recently were J. Gilbert Hall and Dr. Eugene McCauliff. Bell was a member of the United States Davis Cup squad two years ago and as recently as the past winter defeated Jean Borotra of France in the national indoor.

MAGS TO PLAY UNDER LAMPS AT AMARILLO

Will invade Amarillo For Tilt With White Sox On Metro Diamond

The Magnolia "Mags" will play their first game under the lights tomorrow night when they invade Amarillo to battle Dirty Waller's White Sox. The game was matched yesterday afternoon.

Manager Rusty Cahill doesn't know how his boys will go under artificial light but he is willing to find out. Waller's aggregation has played three games at night and has won two. Emmer Gober's Clovis boys gave the White Sox their first defeat.

Either Casey or Voss will get the call to start the game, Manager Cahill said this morning. Bozeman, heavy hitter of the club, will be behind the bat. The same lineup will be used that defeated the Burlington Railroaders 7 to 6 here last Sunday. Burke pitched the game.

The lighting system was installed at Metro park three weeks ago. It was badly damaged by the wind last Sunday but has been repaired and is in excellent condition, Waller reported yesterday.

Waller will be remembered as the manager of the Lubbock Hubbers of 1931. Many Pampa fans plan to accompany the team to Amarillo.

News Team Will Have Strong Nine in Phillips Game

A strengthened Pampa NEWS "layground" ball team will invade Phillips camp south of here tomorrow afternoon for a return game with the oilfield boys. The news-boys won a ninth inning victory in the first game by scoring six runs to overcome a big lead. The final score was 13 to 12 in favor of the Pampars.

Patrick will do the hurling for the NEWS. The Faculty star is at loose ends since the teachers broke up for the summer. He will be opposed by Adamie, the Phillips ace who held the Pampa nine to six runs in eight innings here.

The game will be played on the Phillips diamond northwest of the gasoline plant in the Bowers pool. The time will be 5:30 o'clock and the game will go nine innings.

The NEWS will take Patrick, Sturgeon, Dilman, Hinkle, Fullingim, Marshall, Wagner, Fonda, Myrick, Bourland and Hoare on the trip.

WELLINGTON IS COMING NEXT FOR TOURNEY

CAPROCK MEMBER TO BRING 20 GOOD GOLFERS

Members of the Wellington Country club will come to Pampa Sunday for a scheduled game in the Cap Rock league. It will be the second game of the season played in Pampa and the third played by the local club to date. Play will be over 18 holes at the Pampa Country club.

Wellington reports that they will bring 20 players to Pampa. Wellington is stading second in the league race after defeating Clarendon in an upset last Sunday. Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the tournament committee, is anxious that members turn out for the match. Pampa has lost to Clarendon and Memphis, but the players hope to break into the win column against Wellington.

Play will start at 1 o'clock sharp, according to Dr. Hicks, who wants every man on the spot on time so that there will be no delay in getting the flights started.

The Two "No" Men

Two men are still saying a loud "no" to major league salaries. They are Heinie Meine, Pirates pitcher, and Rip Collins, whose last baseball assignment was to pitch for the Browns.

Mr. Meine is jerking sodas in his restaurant at Luxembourg, just beyond the southern city limits of St. Louis. Mr. Collins is roaming the Texas plains in the habitations of a Texas Ranger. You might gather from the difference between the two pursuits these "no" men are following that ball players' tastes differ a lot.

Meine Gets Mad

Mr. Meine let his red hot temper get away with him upon receiving the Pittsburgh offer for 1932. In January he had no intention of holding out. He expected a raise after his splendid showing for the Pirates last year, in which he won 10 and lost 13 for a fifth place club. He had reached the peak of his pitching powers, it seemed, and when he opened the envelope and saw a depression contract, his face got red.

Probably Heinie felt just as he did that day in a Pullman diner when, after being hit on the ear with a perfectly pegged hard roll, he seized a catsup bottle and splattered its contents on one and all, without fear or favor.

Not so with Mr. Collins. Rip is probably having more fun now than he ever had in his life, packing what is called in certain circles a "Roscoe" or shooting iron, as he rides better skelter across the plains of his native state. For Rip, for all of his 35 years, still is a broth of a boy, ready for what ever adventure may come.

With Yanks in 1929

It was a wild crew that Rip Collins joined when he came to the Yankees in 1920, but the Ripper was wide enough to fit in nicely. Bob Meusel was a recruit that year, too, and Babe Ruth was making his first appearance with the Yanks.

Rip had been a great halfback at Texas A. & M. Certain chroniclers have set down that his nickname was in honor of his uncouth way with an enemy line. Rip himself is said to have admitted to baseball writers that he got the monicker from his capacity for what was known as "Rippy" liquor.

Rip's major league career was as stormy as his disposition. After two years with the Yankees, he was traded to the Red Sox with Peckinpauigh. Piercy and Quinn for Scott, Jones and Bush. Boston promptly traded him to Detroit with Franck in the deal for Howard Ehmke. He was at Detroit five years, and was released to Toronto in 1928. After a good year there, he was purchased by the Browns.

Rip has been a holdout before. He was sold by Dallas to the Yanks in 1915, but refused to report until 1919. Rip liked Texas.

Might Have Been a Card

Rip was in the final stage of his career when he decided to hold out this year, but Meine was just coming along.

He sold himself to Branch Rickey eight years ago, and the Cards drew with him to Syracuse. During his first year at Syracuse he won 17 and lost 10. In 1925 he pitched and played the outfield, won 10 games and lost four. He asked Rickey for a raise.

"Get this laugh," said Heinie recently. "Rickey told me I'd have to take a cut, instead of getting a raise, because Syracuse wasn't making money. I asked him what a man had to do to get a raise. He said he was sorry but Syracuse wasn't making money and I'd have to share in the tough luck."

"I told him, 'No cut for Heinie. Trade me,' and he did."

Meine was the fourth pitcher in the National League last year in point of fecitiveness as gauged by earned runs, allowing only 2.98 per game, a mark bettered only by Walter, Hubbell and Brandt.

Trukolds Used In Cooking School Doing Wonders

Two TruKold refrigerators are being used in The NEWS cooking school at the city auditorium by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, culinary expert. Montgomery Ward & company handles the TruKold for the Pampa territory.

This unique refrigerator has only three moving parts, no belts, no gears, no flywheels, no oiling except the motor twice a year. However, the most attractive feature of the TruKold is its price, which effected a revolution in refrigerator salesmanship. A guarantee accompanies each machine. The TruKold is a rigid all-steel cabinet and contains a one-piece porcelain-lined food compartment.

Your Laundry Is Praised by Expert of Cooking School

Your Laundry and Dry Cleaning company's truck calls at the hotel every morning for my laundry and cleaning and both are returned to me the same night, Mrs. Ihrig at the NEWS cooking school smilingly remarks when asked where she sends her laundry and cleaning while in Pampa. And the work is beautifully done, she says.

Your Laundry is well equipped to do every type of washing and cleaning. Pure soft water is used in the laundry department and the best and purest of ingredients in the clearing department.

Mrs. Ihrig says it is a pleasure to go to the cooking school and know that she will go back to the hotel and find her laundry and cleaning ready for her.

Cooking Schools Success Partly Due to Equipment

"I have had unusually good luck while conducting the Pampa school," said Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, director of the Pampa NEWS' annual cooking school today.

"Everyone, and cooking school instructors are no exception, has a failure now and then. All of the dishes I have prepared here have been marvelous successes. I attribute the absence of failures to the White Star Gas range and to the use of gas for cooking. No other range, and no other fuel is as easy to regulate.

"I cannot give all the credit to the range. I have had the best ingredients money can buy for my use here, but not the most expensive. Great West flour, and Mrs. Tucker's are as sure guarantees of success as any cook may have. When one seasons with Morton's and McIlhenny's Tobacco the dish must be tasty. I am not forgetting the fine canned and fresh fruits and vegetables provided by C and C System nor the choice meats obtainable there. And the TruKold silently kept them fresh during the four days of the school.

Good coffee is necessary and Folger's is always good.

"Credit for the success of the frozen dishes and jells must be given to the TruKold. All I did was to mix a few things together, and let the TruKold do the work.

The splendid cooperation exhibited by Pampa merchants aided greatly in the success of the school.

Stamford Has Plans Made for Cowboy Reunion

STAMFORD, May 19.—Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of the sponsors who will represent the various cities and towns in the Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held here July 4, 5 and 6.

Prizes will be given to the two sponsors having the most attractive riding outfits, the best mounts and showing the best horsemanship. First prize will be a handsome pair of hand-made riding boots and the second prize a pair of the famous McChesney silver-mounted spurs. Both prizes were donated by the Nocoona Boot company of Nocoona, Texas, and are now on exhibit here.

NEGRO MUST DIE

HUNTSVILLE, May 19. (AP)—James Williams, 30, negro, today faced electrocution in the penitentiary here shortly after midnight for the killing of Joe West, Hunt county farmer, last October.

Frisco officials said the execution would be carried out unless Gov. R. S. Sterling intervened. The pardon board gave the governor an adverse report in Williams' case.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Of course the person who is eating to grow thin will have to give up pies and cakes and all desserts beginning or ending with cream, but she may partake of almost any fruit ice, providing it is not too sweet, many gelatine desserts, most of the "snows" and puddings made with fruit and Irish moss or agar-agar in place of cornstarch.

It's well to remember, too, that desserts made with yolk of egg are fattening, while those made with white of egg are not. Some desserts are simple enough themselves, but their sauces contain the damaging flesh-producing calories.

The home-maker who wants the same dessert to answer for a reducing diet and a normal one as well can sometimes solve her problem in the sauce. Whipped cream served with a plain fruit gelatine makes the dessert pleasing to the family, while the lack of the whipped cream makes the dessert possible for the person who would reduce.

A soft custard sauce can be served to the family and omitted from the special serving.

Miscovites off ruit—frozen canned fruit—always can be served to one who is on a reducing diet. All fresh fruits with the exception of grapes and bananas are permissible. Fresh fruit combined with the frozen fruit makes a regular "party" dessert for the too plump.

Gelatin desserts can be varied if the mixture is whipped with a dover beater when it begins to thicken. Whip it until light and foamy and chill thoroughly before serving.

Keep in mind, too, that gelatin desserts that are to be eaten without cream will be more palatable if they are not too firm. They must be chilled to the nth degree.

Fruit whips and souffles made from stewed or fresh fruits can be used if they aren't made too sweet.

Snow pudding is an excellent example of a dessert that satisfies the whole family. The yolks of the eggs are used for the sauce which is not served to the reducing member.

Snow Pudding
One and one-half tablespoons granulated gelatine, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1 cup boiling water, 1-2 cup lemon juice, 2-3 cup granulated sugar, whites 2 eggs.

Soften gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add sugar and lemon juice. Place in a pan of ice water until mixture is cool and syrupy. Beat with egg beater until foamy. Add whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry and continue beating mixture until it will hold its shape. Turn into a mold and chill for several hours. Unmold and serve.

Sheets are another inviting dessert for the one who must beware of calories. Pineapple sherbet is seasonal and delicious.

Pineapple Sherbet
One cup sugar, 2 cups water, 1 cup pineapple, 2 lemons, whites 2 eggs.

Boil sugar and water for three minutes. Cool and add pineapple and juice of lemons. Pour into freezer and turn until mushy. Add well beaten whites of eggs and stir until thorough mixture. Turn freezer until mixture is frozen. Remove dasher and pack in four parts ice to one part ice cream salt and let stand several hours. Or you can pack the sherbet in the freezing trays of your iceless refrigerator after you have frozen the sherbet in the freezer. This type of sherbet must be frozen with stirring.

You Can't Marry

by Julia Cleft-Addams

SYNOPSIS: George Townsend's employer, Gratia Matching, tries to find out from her cousin, Jenny, which girl has married Eddie Townsend. George is told that the job has been given to Jenny, and she wonders why. Her husband, Ed, and Jenny, are quarreling. Townsend has been recovering from an accident.

Chapter 23

GEORGIE'S CHOICE

AT FIRST Georgie thought that Eddie was looking for her but he hurried straight down—down and down, stumbling and sliding—and the next moment she heard Gill's slow voice.

"Hello, str?"

"Oh, hullo, Gill!" Eddie's voice was slow, too, in spite of the frantic hurrying of his feet. "I got a bit tired of my own company. Say, it'll be a long time before Miss Jenny is back won't it?"

"Only just gone," remarked Gill, after long thought.

"S'pose so," Eddie sighed and shuffled. "I got—lonesome. Want a match, too. Couldn't find any matches."

Georgie leaned over the bannisters and peered down. At the bottom of the well, in the hall of the building, Eddie was lighting a cigarette while Gill stood silently by. As though the first few whiffs steadied

Georgie leaned over the bannisters and peered down at Eddie. Him, he presently turned and ascended the stairs again.

"There's a chair for you in the office," Gill called after him, in a burst of garrulity; but Eddie plodded on and up. Exactly, thought Georgie, as she herself had plodded, every step an effort! "Well, both frightened, frightened of everything—and, oh, it's such a heart-breaking pity when we were going to be so happy!" she said aloud. But she had no more time for sorrow. She went firmly back to the apartment.

She sang persistently and cheerfully as she burst into her bedroom and threw her hat on the bed. She had left all doors open behind her and she could hear Eddie's hesitating return.

"That you, dear boy? Come and welcome me home!"

"Gill!"

He came crashing across the room, a big, eager man, and swept her up and into his arms. She shut her eyes as they kissed and all was forgotten save the ecstasy of this homecoming.

"Oh, girl, my girl! Jenny said you wouldn't be here till the end of the week!"

She freed herself, breathless, radiant.

"I didn't think I should be, but at the last moment the Old Man called the deal off and we came back. He has kept me slaving all day or I'd have been here before. Ed, what do you think of all this?"

"All what?"

"Well, the apartment, darling, and all the new furniture."

The light in Eddie's eyes dimmed.

"Isn't it perfect?" she urged. "I wanted it to be perfect for us to come back to and it was such a shame that you had to see it when I wasn't even there to lead you home and that we couldn't have the triumphal arches and all the illuminated addresses as I'd planned! Everything went wrong, didn't it?—but it's all right now. It is perfect and we are in it together."

He nodded and sat down on the stool-covered stool before the long

MALCOLM CARR, WITH ESSAY ON SERVICE, WINS CONTEST SPONSORED BY ROTARY CLUB

Americans Are in Much Danger

NANKING, May 19. (AP)—The safety of 60 Americans, most of them missionaries, was threatened today at Peking by a host of 20,000 Chinese communists overrunning northern Anhwei province.

"Pride goeth before a fall" is an old saying, but as true an axiom as the fact that the sun rises and sets each day. The fall of the Roman empire came about from the detrimental effects of pride and conceit.

Though governess of the then known world's vast resources, and therefore in the more precarious position, Rome refused to see disaster in the habitual courting of her emperors and leading citizens. Abandoning in the fat of complacency, she designed not to foresee ruin in her gradually weakening social status. She was proud; yes, verily, too proud to admit that there might possibly be some flaw, some weakening link in her chain of triumph and success. Rome revealed in her haughty disdain of her suffering, over-taxed, compulsorily ruled provinces. She considered every condescending deed in disgrace, no matter how beneficial the result. Those who indulged in the most stonish kindness or favor towards the provincials were subject to public ridicule. And yet from that period of persecution, wherein service was unheeded, we have drawn this philosophy: "Learn, then, that no act is disgraceful that tends to promote happiness and peace of mankind."

Napoleon in all his glory failed to discover that subtle quality of humanity, that of we have drawn this philosophy: "Learn, then, that no act is disgraceful that tends to promote happiness and peace of mankind."

It was the foolishly vain glorious attitude of the nobles and sovereigns who lived prior to the revolution that led to the peasants' righteous declaration of revolt and the storming of the Bastille. It was the aristocrats who refused to "put their old cloaks about them," and were not content to live without every convenience, that "put the country down." Indeed, the cynical, disinterested Louis the Fifteenth stated that conditions would suffice for his time, and frankly admitted his full comprehension of the political and social resiliency of the government's terrible indebtedness by exclaiming, "After me, then comes the deluge!"

Hence, I believe that I have pointed out that since the beginning of time, conceit and an absurd pride have invariably and infallibly preceded man's downfall. When he becomes so self-satisfied, so profoundly complacent, and so ridiculously oblivious to the creeds and opinions of his fellow-man, he is merely preparing a smooth surfaced highway for his decline towards degradation and infamy. But that is where Rotary International steps in with its Sixth point of fellowship, or service. This great organization, encompassing most of the earth's surface with its far reaching branches, and including members from seventy different nations, has as one of its guiding principles the belief that men should not build up self-destructive walls of individualism round themselves, but should dispel all such tendencies with a true spirit of service and cooperation, even to the point of self-sacrifice.

Service, or rather the lack of services, is extremely evident in the business world. We deal with our fellows on a cash basis rather than on a basis of human interest. How sharply our talk of service contrasts with man's acquisitive spirit there, where one must fall for another success! The motto of many seems to be indeed, that "It is better to reign in hell than to serve in Heaven." Two men, in the realm of business, may be contrasted as the Sea of Galilee is contrasted with the Dead Sea. Both have the same source, yet Galilee allows the waters to enrich the lake and pass on to the valleys below, while the Dead Sea allows the waters to collect and make horror. It has no outlet! It gets to keep, while Galilee gets to give! That is Rotary's message to the world—don't get to keep, but get to give! If we would but lose our grasping desires, service would make us a thousand times richer.

The prosperity and happiness of our nation today is due to such men as have given all to accomplish some immortal work of service.

There could be no great steel corporation without Morgan to organize it and Gary to carry it through its ripening years. There could be no great railroads without Garrett and Vanderbilt to build them over barren deserts, almost inaccessible mountains, and surging rivers. In Italy, there were terrible living conditions, when one day a black shirted man without sword or gun came through the gates of Rome and told the ministry that government meant life, and honor, and property, and happiness, and that he was going to give Italy such a government! No man dared oppose him who had such a purpose in his heart. In one hour this man had devoted a life time of ordinary service to a country which was to thrive under his guidance as long as his heart and integrity remained sound!

In conclusion, it may be said, that if you wish happiness, international-

Levine's Dresses Worn at School

Dresses worn by Mrs. Ihrig at THE NEWS cooking school come from Levine's Store, Pampa's busiest store, where a large selection is available. Mrs. Ihrig chose voile and organza dresses in preference to others because they are cool and attractive. She also selected one attractive print dress.

"Levine's was the first store I have been in this year that it was necessary to try on one dress," Mrs. Ihrig says. "The first dress gave me fit perfectly and I didn't have to spend an hour trying on others."

One of the voile dresses selected by Mrs. Ihrig had a cape collar with neat edge. Others were plain with net and lace trim. The fast color print selected was flowered and short, especially designed for kitchen wear.

Levine's has a wonderful stock to select from, Mrs. Ihrig reports.

Mrs. Ihrig, in charge of THE NEWS cooking school, uses DuBarry toilet articles because of their delicate perfume and high standard. She is securing them from Fatheree Drug where a his line of Richard Hudnut products are stocked. DuBarry products have been leaders for many years.

The story of DuBarry is an interesting one, Mrs. Ihrig says. The name was chosen from the legend of the lovely skin which comes from Paris. Jeanne, a French peasant girl, retained her beauty into late life and it was her secret alone. She married Count DuBarry and it was then revealed that she used special cosmetics.

Years later Richard Hudnut secured the formulas and started making DuBarry products—which have become so popular. Mrs. Ihrig
