'Roosevelt' Balancing Budget

"President Franklin Delano Roosevelt" was balancing another budget—in a Boston theater and with Actress Joy Hodges as his helper—when this picture was taken. But it wasn't the real budget or the real President Roosevelt. It was George M. Cohan in the new play "I'd Rather Be Right," a satire on the administration, so stinging it would have been taboos in almost any other country. Cohan portrays a singing and dancing chief executive, and throughout the cast pseudonyms are abandoned for real names.

260 Ride Grid Special To Port Arthur

MESSAGE SENT TO NEWSPAPER THIS MORNING

By HARRY HOARE. Daily NEWS Sports Editor. ABOARD PAMPA FOOTBALL SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 15.—By the time this appears in print we'll be nearing Port Arthur where the Pampa Harvesters go into battle at 7:30 o'clock tonight against the strong, heavy Port Arthur high school Yellow Jackets.

The special train is making the longest trip in the history of Texas interscholastic football. Teams have gone greater distances but no town has yet sent an entire special train on such a long journey. The train will advertise Pampa. On both sides of the train from one end to the other, big, yellow and green letters announced the train was the "Pampa high school football train" and that Pampa "was the oil and wheat center of the Panhandle" and that it is the place where "the wheat grows and oil flows." The Junior Chamber of Commerce hired Lee to paint the signs. It was estimated that Pampa would be advertised to thousands of people on the 1,600-mile trip to the Gulf coast and back.

Port Arthur Game To Be Broadcast Tonight From Field By KPDN

It's being played more than 800 miles away, but The Pampa Daily News and Radio Station KPDN are bringing that Pampa-Port Arthur high school football game back to the Panhandle tonight for stay-at-home fans who couldn't make the long trip to see the actual game in Port Arthur tonight.

LAYMEN PUSH GO-TO-CHURCH SUNDAY DRIVE

Thousands of Pampans today were preparing to attend church at least once next Sunday as a result of an intensive campaign waged this week by laymen and ministers of the city. The goal of the drive is to persuade everybody to attend church next Sunday, either in the morning or at night.

Laymen have enlisted the radio, newspapers, placards, the platform, and the telephone to urge local residents to attend church. Today THE NEWS published a supplementary go-to-church edition, tabloid size, which is a part of the regular issue of THE NEWS. The edition includes pictures of the ministers, and histories, written by the ministers, of the various churches in the city. This is the first time an edition devoted exclusively to information about the local churches has been published. Until THE NEWS began the job, the fact that Pampa had so many churches and so many people interested in churches had not been impressed upon the staff.

JESSIE DYE CHARGED WITH DRUNK DRIVING

The Gray county grand jury, when it convenes next Monday, will investigate the case of Jessie Dye, of Pampa, arrested by Constable Otis Hendrix and charged with driving an automobile on the public highways while intoxicated. Dye was arrested on S. Cuyler street where it was reported he was creating a disturbance and driving his car while under the influence of liquor.

DUKE CRAWLS IN COAL PITS TO MAKE SURVEY

DUISBURG, Germany, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor spent 90 minutes today crawling around in the coal pits of the Friedrich Heine mine on his survey of labor conditions under the Nazi regime. Mo.

Sterile Women Can Be Made To Bear Children, Says Chicago Authority

DALLAS, Oct. 15 (AP)—Many sterile women soon will be able to bear children through the effects of a serum obtained from the blood of pregnant mares. Dr. M. Edward Davis, Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology in the University of Chicago, announced today. In an interview in today's issue of The Dallas Morning News Dr. Davis said he would soon report in detail to the National Obstetrical and Gynecological Convention, here tonight.

THREE ATTEND CITY HEARING ON ZONING ACT

Pampa's city commission is expected to pass on the zoning ordinance when the commission holds its next regular meeting Monday night. A public hearing was held in the city commission room at 10 o'clock this morning when citizens were given opportunity to express their opinion of the proposed measure.

Only three citizens, besides city officials were present when the hearing was called this morning. Purpose of the ordinance is to make a plan for the promoting of the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the city. The ordinance, which is contained in 31 closely typewritten pages, divides the city into three classes, residential, commercial, and industrial. Industrial is further sub-divided into A and B. There are a dozen classifications of residential structures, 19 of commercial, and 15 of industrial. Minimum depth of front yards is set at 25 feet except along side line of corner. Minimum lot area for a one-family dwelling is 6,000 square feet for a two-family dwelling, 9,000 square feet.

GENERAL TAX MEASURE APPROVED BY HOUSE

AUSTIN, Oct. 15 (AP)—A general tax bill estimated to yield approximately $3,000,000 annually in new revenue headed for the hazards of Senate consideration today after passing the House of Representatives by overwhelming majority. Climaxing long hours of debate the measure, boosting taxes on natural resources and utilities about 25 per cent, swept through the House, 119 to 23, last night.

COURT STILL HEARING OIL JOBBERS EVIDENCE

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 15 (AP)—The government continued its parade of oil jobbers to the stand in federal court today in the anti-trust case against 23 oil companies charged with conspiracy to raise and fix gasoline prices in the midwest during 1935 and 1936. Three jobbers who testified in the first hour of today's session virtually duplicated previous testimony of nine midwestern jobbers. All 12 confirmed the government's contention that jobber contracts during these two years were uniform.

MOUNTAIN REGIONS WARMER THAN SOUTH

(By The Associated Press) Abnormally cool weather spread southward today in the vast area east of the Rockies, while communities of the mountain region enjoyed higher temperatures. Subfreezing temperatures were general north of the Mason-Dixon line, light snow was falling in northwestern Missouri and south central Iowa and cooler weather had penetrated southward to northern Florida and the Gulf coast.

WEDDING RINGS BEING MELTED INTO BULLETS

SHANGHAI, Oct. 15 (AP)—Answering an appeal of Mme. Chiang Kai-shek for help to fight Japan, Chinese women are converting their wedding rings into bullets.

Recovering

HOUSE HEARS MARVIN JONES

AUSTIN, Oct. 15 (AP)—Congressman Marvin Jones of Amarillo, Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee told the State House of Representatives today that farmers were entitled to aid as long as the tariff system was maintained. Jones came here from Taylor where he addressed a statewide farm party. He expected to leave soon for Washington in preparation for the special Congressional Session opening one month from today.

Anybody Want to Buy Buffalo, Elk Or Mule Deer?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Anybody want to buy a buffalo, elk, or mule deer? The government offered surplus big game for sale today—alive or dead—on four of the western preserves supervised by the biological survey.

I SAW - - -

Mrs. R. L. Mounts and she says the car-wreck jinx is still on her family. Two days ago Mr. Mounts, riding in a car with a fellow worker to their oil well job, was seriously injured in a collision. He suffered a broken arm, dislocated ribs and other injuries. None of the other passengers in the two cars were hurt. Noble Mounts, a son, was returning from work and stopped to inspect the car and saw his father's dinner pail and blood all over the front of the car. Last summer Noble was seriously injured in a car wreck.

STORIES ABOUT LEG DISPUTED

DALLAS, Oct. 15 (AP)—The medical account of Col. Edward H. R. Green's acquisition of a cork leg was related in court today as attorney for Massachusetts prepared to closely cross-examine a witness who testified Col. Green purposely failed to live in that state a portion of each year to avoid being declared a citizen of Massachusetts.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 15 (AP)—Wrinkled old John Abbott is one Osage Indian who thinks his oil-wellty tribe has too much money. "Young folks now get drunk, cus. act bad," he told 500 tribesmen who complained to Indian Commissioner John Collier their allowances were too small.

SECRETARY OF FORMER KAISER DIES TODAY

BERLIN, Oct. 15 (AP)—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, Imperial colonial secretary under former Kaiser Wilhelm II, died today. He was 72. Soon after the outbreak of the World War he was sent to the United States, in 1914, as a public relations official to present the German cause in such a manner as to encourage American sympathy.

SONS OF LEGION TO MEET AT HUT HERE TONIGHT

The regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman Post 3334 Sons of the American Legion will be held at the Legion hut tonight at 7:30. All members are urged to be present in order that the program for the coming year may be outlined. All sons of Veterans of the World war are especially invited to be present.

Failure of the Bureau of Public Roads to check plans for the Pampa-Borger road in time to allow for the advertisement of the letting of bids to be made in sufficient time, has resulted in a postponement of the date when the State Highway department can accept bids.

EFFICIENCY OF PAMPA TRAFFIC LINES NOTED

Pampa received mention in the October issue of The American City magazine devoted to municipal problems, published in New York. The reference was in connection with a pamphlet of the American Public Works association, which contained opinions of various city officials on ways to maintain painted traffic lines.

Here's Cecile Taking Sisters for a Ride

When it comes to getting back up hill again after the coasting down is finished, that's another story. And it seems to be Cecile who has volunteered to get wagon and quins back to the top of the hill again. That's Yvonne helping a little—by pushing the wagon from behind, but Emilie, Annette and Marie seem quite content just to ride back up hill for another race downward. Cecile is anticipating the first ride down, though, and she has earned it.

PERMANENCE OF NEWS JOURNALS PREDICTED

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15 (AP)—The newspaper business is growing and the written word as the nation's "greatest educational force" will not be supplanted by the radio, in the opinion of Carl W. Ackerman, dean of the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Steel framework of the clock tower of the new union railroad passenger terminal rising 250 feet above the street, is a grim reminder to residents of Los Angeles' Chinatown that in a very short time they will be forced to seek new homes.

Prices Opposed

Butchers and consumers rubbed elbows, placard to placard, in a demonstration against high meat prices incident to the "strike" of kosher butcher shops in the New York City area as this picture was taken. The picture shows a small section of the crowd of more than 600. The strike ended as prices fell.

Smiles For Son at Poison Trial

Flashing him a warm smile, Mrs. Anna Marie Hahn placed her arms about her son Oscar, 12, as he comforted her in a Cincinnati courtroom during her trial on a charge of fatally poisoning Jacob Wagner, 78. The 31-year-old blond was indicted after an investigation of the deaths of seven elderly persons, whom officers said died mysteriously.

PRAYER DEFINED, DISCUSSED IN CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NEWSPAPER

(Written for the Christian Science Monitor.) Tenyson, in his poem, "Morte d'Arthur," writes: "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

enables us to receive Soul's ever-present ideas, and the perception and evidence obtained by this spiritual illumination inevitably establish health and harmony in human experience. We do not pray to change, appease, or advise unerring Mind, for Mind is Love, without variability or capriciousness. From this all-knowing Principle there emanates nothing unlovely or destructive. For this reason the supposed presence of evil is only a mirage, a mental delusion or false belief. Hence, by prayer, the Christian Scientist discovers his unity with Mind, and thus by sure degrees eliminates erroneous mental states. He prays to gain the consciousness of Truth. What is termed mortal mind is a myth, since God is the only Mind and intelligence of man.

'WHAT CHURCH MEANS TO OIL FIELD' DISCUSSED BY TOM WADE

The following is an address delivered over radio station KPND in connection with the go-to-church movement which will culminate next Sunday. The speech was written by Tom Wade who had to leave town on a business trip to San Antonio before it was delivered.

show you a man faithful to his God and faithful to his church. Honestly does anyone believe this world would be filled with the strife that now prevails if men were faithful in their attendance to their religious duties? Aside from the help we receive from attendance at religious exercises we should also realize that our failure to attend may cause Almighty God to visit his wrath upon us and our children.

PREVENTING HOME FIRES

A new bulletin issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters points out that a very large proportion of all fires occur in homes, that home fires are responsible for about one-half of the total loss of life from fire, and that scientific dwelling house inspection can eliminate most hazards.

Fire departments in various cities have inaugurated campaigns to cut down home fires through annual inspections. In one typical city the number of home fires was reduced by 37 per cent and the loss by 44 per cent, as compared with a previous period in which no inspections were made.

The inspections must be thorough. Heating plants, exposed wiring, storage of inflammable liquids, attics and basements and spare rooms where refuse and unused articles are allowed to accumulate, amateurish repairs of various kinds—every home is likely to present grave hazards such as these which can be easily and inexpensively corrected.

WASHINGTON—Numerous Catholics, Negroes and Jews who might otherwise forever have been obscure are now coming more or less into the news because the New Deal was embarrassed by revelation that Roosevelt's first Supreme Court appointee once belonged to the Ku Klux Klan.

One of the very first if not the first case which Justice Black will hear argued before the court will be argued by a distinguished Jewish lawyer named Jerome Frank. It so happens that Frank, who was an outstanding figure here in earlier days of the New Deal, is a friend of Black's and believes he should be on the court because of his liberal record in the Senate.

U. S. Faces Doubtful Future in Tangled Foreign Situation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—F. D. R. and his administration are trying to pick their way carefully through an assortment of situations which there is good reason to believe, find the President almost as confused about the future as the next fellow.

As to the international situation: Having abandoned isolation and stuck the national neck out into the Pacific, the administration shares the general wonderment over the question where we go from there.

Chicago Speech Tamed. Insiders know now that Roosevelt's Chicago "quarantine speech" was definitely tamed not only for the League of Nations' deliberations on the Japanese-Chinese warfare, but also for the period when England and France were bringing heavy pressure on Italy to get her troops out of Spain.

Among confusing factors on the political front, especially important if the international situation is going to overshadow domestic considerations, is the fact that many of Roosevelt's most persistent critics have been cheering loudly over his new stand.

There is a possibility of a re-scrambling of battle lines in Washington, since such anti-administration criticism has been so rampant.

JONES URGES BOUNTY IDEA TO FARMERS

TAYLOR, Oct 15 (AP)—The idea of giving the American farmer a bounty to balance the effects of a high tariff go back as far as Alexander Hamilton, Rep. Marvin Jones of Amarillo said today in advancing tentative points for Federal Farm Legislation.

The Chairman of the House Agricultural Committee spoke at a farm meeting called by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce for an exhaustive discussion on what the proposed Federal Farm laws should include.

Hamilton, the "Father of the Protective Tariff System in America," suggested in 1791 that a high tariff was needed so infant industries could compete with well-established businesses of the old world, Jones said.

"Hamilton could not fail to realize that to establish such a system would favor certain groups and place an especial burden upon the producers of agricultural products," he said. "He was fair enough to admit this. He suggested that the true way to correct this discrimination was to pay a premium or a bounty to the farmer."

But the farmer then became the first "forgotten man," he added. "Selfish groups picked up one wing of the Hamiltonian Philosophy and established a tariff system, but they failed to bring forward the other part, that is, the provision for restoring to the farmer that which was taken away from him under the protective tariff."

"For 100 years," he continued, "The fight against the unjust provisions of a lopsided tariff system" continued, until in 1929 both agriculture and business collapsed from the strain. The new program instituted under President Roosevelt merely has aimed at establishing "The Principle of Equality"—which he called the solid rock on which this government was originally built.

His own suggestions for a new farm program, he said, include: 1. Continuation, improvement and simplification of the present soil conservation program; 2. Obtaining for the farmer a fair division of the national income, to which "he is entitled as a matter of right"; 3. Provision for an ever-normal granary, storage or warehouse program with adjustment or control provisions to assure the consumer against scarcity and sellers against ruinous prices;

4. Encouragement of the search for new uses and new markets; 5. Graduated reduction in payments to large producers so as to encourage individual farming. A provision preventing land owners from receiving the benefits of the program if they reduce the number of tenants without approval of the local committee—"A proper division between landowner and tenant should be stipulated"; 7. The law should be administered by local people wherever possible. He said three things have never been included in farm legislation: reduction of payments to large operators; Search for new uses and markets; and correction of freight rate discriminations against farm products.

The Agricultural Committee, he said, has prepared "a sort of working bench bill based on these principles." The committee hoped, he added, it may be able to get a continuation of the present appropriations to carrying out the farm program.

PRIESTS OF 'RADICAL ALLIANCE' RUB ELBOWS WITH PICKETS IN DIRECT ACTION ON LABOR SCENE

By WILLIS THORNTON, NEA Service Staff Correspondent. Perhaps the most striking Catholic activity in labor situations during the past year has been Catholic Radical Alliance in Pittsburgh.

Catholic. And radical? The very name drew interested attention from all parts of the country as priests began to appear on the picket lines in Pittsburgh strikes to distribute literature and speak to strikers.

"The three priests who started the Radical Alliance admit that they used the word to shock people, in which they were successful. Apparently there was also a feeling that Father Coughlin had misused the term 'Social Justice,' and that 'Liberal' implied too great adherence to Adam Smith laissez faire with a political tinge.

Has a Honorable Meaning. So "Radical" it was, but Father Carl P. Hensler, the brilliant pupil of Msgr. John A. Ryan, thus defines the Alliance's meaning of the term "Radical."

"Certainly we do not have in mind the popular meaning of the term. The common tendency is to associate it with working-class violence and lawlessness. . . . Actually, however, the word has an honorable meaning in its primary sense. It means going to the roots of a thing, thoroughgoing, fundamental. This is the sense in which we use the term. We contend that the relationship between Catholicism and Capitalism is one of fundamental opposition, which can not be removed unless the ax of reform is laid to the very roots."

The Radical Alliance began activity last March with evening forums on Communism, economic liberalism, the "sit-down" strike, the Papal encyclicals and the program of the Catholic Worker (a militant New York group) on social and economic reform.

Armed with a letter from Most Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, Bishop of Pittsburgh, approving their work, the priests and lay leaders of the Alliance began appearing on picket lines, where they were usually received with great enthusiasm. Similar credentials from Bishop Schrembs of Cleveland gave them clear sailing on all the picket lines of the "Little Steel" strike in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Always the priests preface their speeches with a disapproval of Communism, though they admire the zeal of Communists and exhort their own followers to cultivate it.

scab unions," Father Rice says, "and not to set Catholic against non-Catholic, but to act as inspirational educational groups teaching a true philosophy of labor, and make unionism a more perfect, more adequate thing." This step would be regarded as a sort of mile post along the road to NRA-type vocational and industrial groups as suggested in the encyclicals. Since NRA was tossed out by the Supreme Court, the Catholic Action group has favored a constitutional amendment permitting development along that line.

The key to activity like that of the Radical Alliance lies in Father Rice's statement that "we have dramatized the fact that the church is the friend of the worker and the poor." This is in direct line with Pope Pius' stricture against Catholics who have turned to Socialism:

"We seem to hear what many of them allege in excuse: the church and those professing attachment to the church favor the rich and neglect workmen and have no care for them. . . . that these appearances and these accusations are undeserved and unjust, the whole history of the church clearly shows. They're Ready to Serve. In many other localities, Catholic priests are taking an increasingly active part in labor relations. Father John P. Boland of Buffalo is chairman of the New York state Labor Relations Board. In Cincinnati, Archbishop John T. McNichols has developed a committee of priests trained in labor relations to be ready to serve whenever called on in any labor situation in the diocese. A dozen or more priests served on various labor boards during NRA days.

Thus, through the labor and social reform dicta of the Popes as interpreted in the church's press and pulpit, and transplanted into action in parley and picket line, the influence of the Catholic church is leaving an increasingly deep impress on the solution of the pressing labor and social problems of the day.

STORIES IN STAMPS GALILEE HOLY SEA

THE history of ancient towns and ancient peoples rose and fell with the waters of Galilee, "holy" sea, of Palestine through which flows the river Jordan.

Galilee is 13 miles long and seven miles wide. It lies in a deep basin which extends from Lebanon to the Red Sea. Its surface is 682 feet below the Mediterranean level and its greatest depth is 200 feet. It is encircled entirely by a beach.

Along this beach and back in the hills once lived a teeming population. Many of the great trade routes of southwestern Asia converged here, and here too was abundant fishing and countless sailing craft.

At one time some 10 flourishing cities clustered about this small sheet of water: Tiberias, Tarichaea, Bethsaida, Gadara, Sinabris. At Galilee's northern end, Jesus passed the greater part of His public ministry.

one turned on the hot water downstairs," he said. "That gave me a blast of cold water upstairs, but it prepared me for this day."

The shower was installed by Dan Moody when he was Governor.

Of the 48 states, 28 had sterilization laws of some kind in 1935. Most of the persons sterilized in this country have been insane or feeble-minded. Only about five per cent have been criminals.

PHYSICIAN TO TAKE STAND IN GREEN TRIAL

DALLAS, Oct. 15 (AP)—A physician friend who saw the late Col. E. H. R. Green, whose multifarious hobbies included his friend, waste away until he would not see his old cronies, is expected to be recalled as a witness today in a four-state scramble for some $6,000,000 taxes on the estimated $44,000,000 estate.

The colorful panorama of the colonel's career took a summer hue when Dr. N. D. Bule of Marlin, Texas, testified yesterday that the financier became so emaciated he would not see his old friends because of his pride.

"He had wasted away and was so sensitive about his condition he saw only one of his old Texas friends," the physician said. Green was suffering from a rheumatic condition of one knee and had great difficulty getting around because of that and loss of his other leg.

The physician visited Green at Round Hill, South Dartmouth, Mass., until his death in June, 1936, the colonel would ask about his Texas friends, Dr. Bule said, and would send individual messages back to them. The witness said the colonel was proud of his Republican political affiliations in Texas.

Attorneys indicated Dr. Bule would be recalled for cross-examination by representatives of Florida, Massachusetts and New York.

The hearing, before a master in chancery for the Supreme Court is nearing the end of a week's session and attorneys said it would move to Fort Worth Monday for another week. After that the 40-odd attorney and tax experts may go to Terrell where, Texas contends, Col. Green had legal domicile.

Massachusetts, New York and Florida each contends it was his legal residence. Testimony had been spiced with reminiscences of the days when Green bought uniforms for a military company and dresses by the carload for girl students, prostitutes and when he was equally at home with New York boulevardiers and Texas planters.

ARAB OUTLAWS MURDER 2 BRITISH POLICEMEN
JERUSALEM, Oct. 15 (AP)—Guerrilla bands of Arabs struck new terror in the Holy Land today and two young British policemen fell in a pre-dawn ambush on the Bethlehem road.

Constables Norman Harrison and Austin Malia were added to the list of dead which already included four Arabs. Twelve Jews had been injured in the last two days.

Authorities were expected to declare a nightly curfew and possibly proclaim martial law unless British military moves brought order. One thing was certain—that the recent banishment of members of the Arab higher committee had not halted terrorism.

PAMPA, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 15, 1937

LET YOURSELF GO....

Why You Should Go To Church Sunday

There are two big reasons why you should attend church Sunday. First, Pampans should go to again prove that they can act in concert, that they can cooperate on a project and put it over. They have done that many times, but let them do it again—just to see that it still works.

Second, everybody should go to church Sunday because it is a well-planned move to make Pampa church-conscious. Of course, if everybody attends church next Sunday and fills all the churches, that is no sign they will be filled the next and succeeding Sundays. But many of them will like it so well they will return; they will think about it and come back on following Sundays.

On the whole, nothing but good can come of it. No one can come to harm by doing a good deed, and going to church is a good deed or nothing. The ministers will preach their best sermons Sunday. They will not ask for money; in fact most of them will not even mention the subject. They will want their visitors to come back.

Pampans usually act together. In a movement or campaign that affects the whole community they all do it or none do it. That's why drives such as the Salvation Army, flood relief, railroad, highway, lake and other such drives go over. They put their shoulders to the wheel and put their projects over.

There are strong indications today that the go-to-church movement is going to succeed. And it is predicted that every church in the city will be filled at least once Sunday.

Those who plan to go to church should bear in mind that they may attend any church, but that they are strongly urged to attend some church.

Mayor Asks Pampans to Attend Church on Sunday, October 17

PROCLAMATION

Sunday, October 17th, has been designated in the city of Pampa as GO TO CHURCH DAY. During the past decade with the advent of the many different attractions, the glamour of emergency business and the atmosphere of new acquaintances has led too many of us away from the CHURCHES on Sunday.

The ministerial alliance and the ever faithful church goers have conceived this wonderful idea of a campaign to have every man, woman and child in this city to attend SOME CHURCH at least one time on Sunday, October 17th and,

WHEREAS, no city in all the history of the world has ever grown to predominance in social, financial or spiritual circles with out the aid of CHURCHES, and,

WHEREAS, there is located in Pampa twenty-one churches of almost every denomination whose doors are open with a hearty and urgent invitation to every individual to attend on this and every succeeding Sunday.

NOW THEREFORE, I, W. A. Bratton, Mayor of the City of Pampa, urge every place of business to close its doors on Sunday, October 17th, from the hours of 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. so that every employee may have the opportunity of attending worship at the CHURCH of his choice.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto sign my name on this the 9th day of October, A. D. 1937.

W. A. BRATTON, Mayor.

We invite you to the Central Baptist church Sunday, October 17, and thereafter.

The Central Baptist Church—"The friendly church"—is a missionary Baptist church with a class for every age for the Sunday School Department. A wide awake B. T. U. organization. A spirit filled worship hour.

Our church voluntarily cooperates with 24,671 like churches in a world wide missionary program following Christ's commission "Go ye into all the world and make disciples . . ." This work constitutes 417 foreign missionaries in 18 countries, with 1,600 native workers. In the homeland we employ 327 missionaries working in 850 mission stations: among the Indians, the Negroes, the under-privileged in the cities and congested industrial sections, and in Cuba and Panama. Total membership (Whites only) 4,482,315. Total baptisms last year 191,993.

We invite you to come with us in a great program in Pampa and around the world.

MISSION ESTABLISHED IN '30 IN S. PAMPA DEVELOPED INTO CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

By E. M. DUNSWORTH, Pastor.

Some time in the latter part of 1930, or in the first part of 1931, the Central Baptist Church established a small mission just off South Barnes street about one block south of Five Point. The mission after a short time was moved to a residence on South Barnes street, about one block north of the present location of the Calvary Baptist church.

The pastor and membership of the Central Baptist church carried the mission on for several months. On November 11, 1931, Rev. J. L. Ratcliff, then a member of the Central Church, and Rev. L. A. Roll, then pastor of the First Baptist Church Lefors, called together a group of brethren and sisters, 21 in number, and organized what is now known as Calvary Baptist church. Rev. J. L. Ratcliff was called as pastor of the young church.

The church went along filling her place in the community as best it could. On March 20, 1932 the church called in a group to assist in the ordination of deacons. Those called in were Rev. W. O. Cooley, pastor, Central Baptist church, Rev. E. M. Dunsworth, Pastor Salem Baptist church, Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor First Baptist church, and Del M. Scaif, deacon in the Central Baptist church. Author T. Hill and William E. Napera were ordained and set apart to be the office of deacon.

The church had many struggles, but carried on for the Lord and grew. On June 17, 1934, Pastor Rev. J. L. Ratcliff resigned the care of the church and Rev. J. L. King was called to be pastor. The work progressed in a fine way under the leadership of Pastor King. More and more the pastor and church came to realize the great need of a more adequate building to care for the people who came to worship.

On Dec. 20, 1934, our good friend E. G. Barrett made it possible for the church to secure a building site. The church then moved a small building on the ground and carried on their worship for some time. In Feb., 1935, a group got together and decided after much deliberations that the church must go into a building campaign. Soon thereafter a group of men met with picks and shovels and broke dirt for the first unit of a church building. W. T. Broxson made it possible for the excavation to be completed.

After the basement was excavated, F. E. Hicks furnished a large truck and Lee Miller and others hauled the sand and gravel which was donated by Mr. Noel and Mr. Williams. Members came in from their work in the evening and hauled sand until a late hour in the night. After the sand was on the ground, the forms were set and everything ready for the concrete to be run. They came to a standstill and did not know what to do. About this time that noble-hearted superintendent of the Texas of Carbon Black Company donated the use of the company's large cement mixer. Mr. Clenenger moved the mixer to the church location. A day was set and a group of men of the church and friends came in and ran the cement in one day by working until a late hour in the night. The good women brought in food and fed the men while they worked. This was done some time in the late spring or early summer; we do not have the date.

We come back now to say that one person who had more to do in making possible the erection of the first unit of the Calvary Baptist Church was W. C. Brown, known by many people as "Hill Top Brown." Brown saw the need of a larger and better building, so he made the noble gift of $500.; then he used his influence to get other friends interested in this worthy cause. He also made general supervisor of the work until it was finished.

Rev. J. L. King, Pastor, resigned in July, 1936. On August 2, 1936, at the close of a week's meeting conducted by Rev. Lem Hodges, missionary of district No. 10 who acted as moderator of the church conference, Rev. E. M. Dunsworth was called as pastor. Since that time the church has had a splendid growth. The net increase last year was 75. More than half of this number came by baptism.

The church has carried on with a splendid missionary educational, and benevolent program with an expenditure of more than $2,000. Some $200 of this went to help the poor in South Pampa. The church also has spent between $800 and $1,000 on the property within the last year. The property is now worth $3,500. We have a debt of only $200 on the property.

Beecher First to Introduce Mirth Into Sermons

It was the great Samuel Johnson who said: "The size of a man's understanding may be justly measured by his mirth." It was the late Phillips Brooks who used the expression: "The deep wisdom of fine felling." Mr. Henry Ward Beecher was probably the first minister in the United States who made use of facetiousness in the pulpit. When he did so he was severely criticized. People were willing to weep in the church, but they thought that to smile or possibly laugh was to be frowned upon as a breach of good order. Mr. Beecher, in referring to the criticism, said that he noticed that if a bowl full of water slopped over on one side it was apt to react and slop over on the other side. A smile may be the expression of as deep an emotion as a tear and may be as valuable in teaching truth or stirring to action.—California Christian Advocate.

Enduring social transformation is impossible of realization without changed human hearts. Religious leaders are dealing with forces even more powerful than those dealt with by the scientists or economists. When religious leaders have a fiery, yet clear understanding of this, they will, by working on the human heart, so balance the message of the economist and the scientists that we will yet be saved from ruin.—Secretary Henry A. Wallace.

ST. MATTHEWS MISSION HAS BEEN ACTIVE 12 YEARS IN CITY; ABSORBING STORY TOLD

By ROBERT J. SNELL, Pastor.

In accordance with the established policy of the Protestant Episcopal Church to minister to its people wherever they may be located St. Matthews Mission as presently organized is the outgrowth of that policy applied locally. As Pampa grew from a small settlement to a good sized city the church grew along with it.

Intermittent services were held during the last decade under the supervision of Bishop E. C. Seaman, of Amarillo, in private homes, on school property and in funeral chapels. The only residence workers during this period were theological students from our Church seminaries who spent several summers here. Their work was augmented by visitations of the Bishop and ministers who worked under him out of Amarillo. The first official act of record is the Confirmations of Mrs. C. P. Buckler and Miss Margaret Buckler on April 24th, 1925. There were seven additional Confirmations during this transitional period. In October, 1926, the Woman's Auxiliary was inaugurated under the leadership of Mrs. William Craven, and this organization has been functioning actively since that time. In the summer of 1928 the Church School was organized with Mr. Robert Sowder as Superintendent.

Smith Named Priest

In October, 1930, the Rev. N. C. Smith was appointed in charge of Pampa, and he remained as Priest in Charge until Jan. 1st 1935, living part of the time in Pampa and the remainder in Amarillo. Under his regime the Chapel and Parish Hall was completed in March, 1932, being and combined gift of Mr. M. K. Brown and Mr. C. P. Buckler, Mr. Brown having given previously the two lots on the back which the Chapel and Parish Hall now stands. This building was set aside for its special purpose on April 10, 1932, at services conducted by the Bishop the Rt. Rev. E. C. Seaman, at which time Mr. Smith presented a Confirmation class of 12 persons. Interior furnishings were made possible through the work of the Woman's Auxiliary. With a proper place to worship the work of the Mission went forward steadily Mr. Smith holding services twice a month dividing his time between Pampa, Borger and Shamrock. During his four years of service in this field there were 27 Confirmations, and 18 baptisms. In addition the Mission had the rare privilege of having an Ordination Service on June 12th, 1933 when Mr. Aiken was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Seaman. Mr. M. K. Brown, was Warden, and Mr. C. P. Buckler was Treasurer during most of the time.

Snell Appointed

After Mr. Smith's transfer to the Clarendon field the Mission was without a minister's service for a year and a half with the exception of three months in the summer of 1935 when the Rev. B. W. Gaither was in charge. In his short stay there were three Confirmations and one Baptism. The Bishop held infrequent services during this period and the Women's Auxiliary kept its organization intact.

The Rev. R. J. Snell was appointed to this field in August, 1936, and has been stationed here since that time. Since his arrival there has been a service held in the Chapel every Sunday with one exception. A few of these services were conducted by Mr. S. G. Surratt as lay-reader during the absence or illness of the Minister. In addition to the customary late Sunday morning services the Rev. Mr. Snell has pioneered in having early morning Communion services and two evening services a month thus giving the membership three different hours of worship. During the fourteen months of Mr. Snell's regime there have been five baptisms and five Confirmations. The Woman's Auxiliary under the leadership first of Mrs. S. L. Lewis and now under Mrs. C. P. Buckler has carried forward an active program of worship, study and service. The Mission Committee with Mrs. Buckler as Warden and Mr. Surratt as Treasurer has supervised the administration of the Mission. Under their guidance a residence building was bought in December, 1936, and moved onto one of the Church's two lots and suitably equipped for a rectory. The securing of a rectory adequately supplies the building needs of the Mission for the present time. There is sufficient room left on the Church property for a Church building when the need arises.

Story Of Church

In the twelve years of activity of this Mission it has become an integral part of the Community life. At the same time it has maintained its place as one of the many co-operating local units of the National Church. The work of this mission is made possible by the combined support of local contributions and the National Church. This Church is one of the great Anglican Communications and traces its continuous history from the time of Christ through the Anglican Church in England. The Protestant Episcopal Church as such was founded after the Revolutionary War and remained in full communion with the Anglican Church in England.

If you would know your loyalty to Christ, then measure your service to man, for the extent of your service to man is the measure of your loyalty to Christ.

FRANCIS AVENUE CHURCH OF CHRIST BUILT IN 1927 AND PROPERTY IS CLEAR OF DEBT

By M. C. Cuthbertson, Minister.
The Francis Avenue Church of Christ, purchased the present location, June, 1927. The membership, at that time was quite small. The first part of the building was erected in 1927, and later the additional unit was added; also the home of the minister.

The following men have preached as regular ministers for the church: W. A. Kerchville, Jesse Wiseman, E. C. McKenzie, and the present minister, M. C. Cuthbertson.

The church property is clear of debt. The last note was paid in February of this year, at which time a special service was held, and thanks offered to our God for his blessings.

The membership of this congregation, expresses appreciation to the people of Pampa, for their friendly attitude toward the church, and urges that we consecrate our lives to the Bible and through it to our God.

The Church and Social Order

The Church believes in the possibility of Christianizing our social order. Because of this faith it must ultimately array itself against every individual and institution which stands as an obstacle in the way of this Kingdom of God. Things which are contrary to the spirit of Jesus Christ are the enemies of his Church.

Sometimes these opposing forces are found in the soul of the individual. Many times they are imbedded in the social institutions which are heritages of the past. The Church itself was a part of this heritage. But the spirit of Christ which is in the Church is constantly leading it on to a new vision of society.

Probably the Church will not ally itself with any particular reform agency, but it will give its blessing to all those who work for the brotherhood of man. Sometimes this opposition must be stated fairly and frankly. The Church once opposed duelling and slavery and the commercialized liquor traffic. In the future it must oppose these and many others. It will be against war, against social injustices, against unfair laboring conditions, against radical prejudices, against the abridgement of human liberties.

Some of these principles will make those who sponsor them unpopular. It is not going to be the popular thing to be tolerant when the rest of the world is intolerant, to be brotherly minded when the rest of the world is controlled by national and racial prejudices. There will come times when it will not be easy to be a Christian.

But the Church must not forsake its dream of the coming kingdom. "Dreamer of dreams, We take the taunt with gladness."

Life is made up largely of what we believe, know and do. But we would better not believe so much than to believe so much that is false; we would better not know so much than to know so much that is not true; we would better not do so much than to do so much that is not right. The question after all, then, is not how much we believe, know, or do, but how much of what we believe, know and do is RIGHT.

CHURCHMAN CALLS FOR PROTECTION OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN AMERICA

By WILLIAM H. LEACH.

For the churchman who espouses communism with his voice, while he keeps his hands in the purse of capitalism, I have but profound contempt. For the sincere communist who is willing to make the sacrifices necessary for his convictions I have in Germany and Italy the communistic philosophy has become in America the football for every selfish interest to kick around. Most of those doing the kicking are hoping for a reaction from their attack upon this political doctrine to build their own fortunes or their own particular social philosophy.

Some of the attacks have been so malicious that they should be frowned upon by a democratic state. There is no reason for the public hysteria which bars a communistic candidate from the public platform or puts him in jail.

Two methods of unfair attack must have been noticed even by the casual observer. The first is the constant linking of the term "atheistic" with communism. "Atheistic Communism." That is the appeal to religious bigotry. But take away the one word "atheistic" and this argument falls to the ground. It is true that communism as practiced in Russia is atheistic. It is not fundamentally true that all communism must be atheistic. There was a type described in the Book of Acts which was theistic. It is quite possible that a communistic society, based on theism, may come nearer to the New Testament idea of than any other political form which might be described. Religion must be against atheism. It must be against an atheistic communism or an atheistic capitalism. But just why must it be against communism per se.

The second attack is that which has been used by the Fascist dictators of the old world. Fascism steps in as the stop gap between Capitalism and Communism. Rabbi Feinberg rightly raises the question as to whether or not much of the anti-Communistic propaganda is not really propaganda for the Fascist state. For the Church or religion to imagine that it will enjoy more freedom under Fascism than it could under Communism is a dream without hope. Where Fascism reigns, freedom dies. This flank attack is one which is drawing many good religious folk to attack Communism. Unconsciously they find themselves lost in the new Fascist state.

There is a great deal in American Democracy which is not to be found in either the right of Fascism or the left of Communism. Religious freedom and the rights of conscience are among these. Let us protect these at whatever sacrifice may be necessary. But let us not make common cause with any enemy of Communism which seeks not merely to destroy atheistic communism but the things which make for religious freedom possible.

HOLIDAY SUBSTITUTED IN U. S. FOR HOLY DAY.

It is said of Carlyle that he believed in God until Cromwell died and there are men today who believed in Sunday until the turf is green. We have substituted the holiday for the holy day, recreation for reverence, games for godliness, and dissipation for devotion. Sunday has become the day of traffic disasters in place of meditation in the church we have substituted murder on the highways.

WILLIAM BOOTH ESTABLISHED SALVATION ARMY IN 1865

The Salvation Army came into being in the year 1865 when William Booth felt the urge to leave security of a Methodist pulpit and devote all there was of him to the caring of those who in some way had missed their mark in life. It was not many years after the birth of The Salvation Army that William Booth became interested in only bringing the Gospel to those who refused to go to Church but who were in caring for their temporal needs.

This work has progressed to the point that we now have a separate department for the care of almost every work in the social field and the needs of the various communities in which the Army operates demand these specialized departments are made available as a part of the regular program of The Army.

The Salvation Army through a long period of time and by past performances is proud to be an ally of every church. Statistics show very definitely that of the thousands who are contacted by The Salvation Army they hear its message of Hope comparatively few ever become members of The Army but return to the church of their calling. Both Gypsy Smith and the late Billy Sunday were first contacted through the medium of The Salvation Army open-air services.

The purpose of The Salvation Army is to promote the cause of Christian religion, charity and education and to engage in religious, in charitable, in educational, in missionary, and in philanthropic work.

With this in mind The Salvation Army says: "Go to Church."

Once men sang together round a table in chorus; now one man sings alone, for the absurd reason that he can sing better. If scientific civilization goes on (which is most improbable) only one man will laugh, because he can laugh better than the rest—G. K. CHESTER-TON.

Knowledge is a good thing, but it is not what one learns but what one teaches that counts; not what one takes in, but what one gives out that blesses mankind.

The Church is the mother of all humanity.
 In the dawn of civilization she cradled human-kind and became the benefactor of the weak.
 At the horns of her altar the oppressed found sanctuary.
 When Caesars sought to make slaves of human flesh she taught men, in bonds, how to sing.
 Under her protection womanhood has been freed from social slavery and given freedom.
 Through her beneficence hospitals have been erected and schools founded.
 This mother of humanity knows no race.
 Expansive with affection she seeks to bring all men, of every race, into the common fold.
 All this one finds in the Church; but there is something still greater. For, at her altar, she offers to a hungry humanity, "The Christ."
 The Master is here and calleth for thee.
 The altar is ready.
 Come.

Church Schools U.S. Priests In Labor, Social Problems

By WILLIS THORNTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

The fact that the Roman Catholic church has not sponsored, and does not plan to sponsor distinctively Catholic labor unions in United States, as it does in Canada, does not mean that no effort is being made to impress on the labor and social movements of the day the Catholic principles laid down by the Popes.

The social action department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference for 19 years has been working to interest priests in labor and social problems. Just a year ago an impetus was given this work by the general meeting of archbishops and bishops, which ordered a series of social action schools for the clergy. Such summer schools were held this summer in Milwaukee, Toledo, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Some 275 priests attended these schools of social action, which included courses in subjects like economics, labor legislation, the labor movement, and the Papal encyclicals bearing especially on labor and social reform.

Laymen Join Schools

Speakers like Msgr. John A. Ryan who as head of the social action department is credited with being "the father of minimum wage legislation in the United States" and Msgr. Francis J. Haas, one of the ablest and most experienced of labor conciliators and mediators, held classes or an hour a day, and worked with student-priests. Local priests told of local conditions and situations. A third hour was in the form of a seminar in which local laymen, labor leaders, officials, lawyers and others joined.

Next year it is planned to increase the number of these schools and extend the work.

These and similar activities in the labor and social reform field are an effort to translate into action the principles laid down almost 40 years ago in Pope Leo XIII's encyclical "Quadragesimo Anno." For the social question, says the former, "no solution can be found apart from the intervention of religion and the church." Pope Leo's encyclical is referred to as the Magna Charta on which all Christian activities in social matters are ultimately based.

The labor encyclicals set forth general principles:

That private property is a natural right, which the state should not take away, but should control and restrict in the common interest.

That both capital and labor are entitled to a just share in produced goods, neither dominating, but the state maintaining a just balance between them.

That fathers of families should receive a wage sufficient for ordinary domestic needs. That distribution of wages, salaries, and prices should be so arranged as to keep employment steady.

That organization of workers is desirable, the form of syndicates by industries in which both employer and employe are members being preferred, with the state always ready to see that neither exercises power to the detriment of the public generally.

That it is not the private ownership of the means of production that is at fault, but the power over the lives of men which those private owners have arrogated to themselves by that ownership.

That along with trade unionism must go education in the moral aspect of the social problem, in order that a world fallen almost back to paganism may create a "Christian renewal of human society."

Don't Always Agree

Specific application of these principles in particular cases is the task set by the Catholic action group. In this they do not always agree, either in aim or in manner of functioning.

The work of Father Couglin in Detroit has by no means received the approval of all Catholics, yet he bases it on those same papal pronouncements which guide priests like Msgr. Ryan and Msgr. Haas in quite different paths. Wide differences of opinion as to the child labor amendment, labor tactics like the sitdown strike, and many other questions appear.

As between the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O., no sides have been taken. Prominent leaders on both sides are Catholics. The most recent statement on it comes from Archbishop Edward Mooney of Detroit, who noted that no Catholic authority has declared C. I. O. "incompatible with Catholicity on the basis of its publicly-stated principles," thought noting that Communists in the C. I. O. were trying to control it for their own purposes, and that Catholics should "relentlessly oppose these efforts." For the past 20 years there has always been a special labor mass and labor sermon at A. F. of L. Conventions.

Cites Guffey Coal Act

The NRA-type of industrial solutions finds favor with many of the Catholic labor leaders, and Father R. A. McGowan, assistant to Msgr.

Ryan in the Catholic Action work, cites the Guffey Coal Act as a nice example of the cooperation between labor and industry which is deemed necessary in working out solutions for critical cases.

In a pamphlet, "Organized Social Justice," approved by 131 Catholic labor and social leaders, the tendency of the social action department to approve NRA-type solutions is well shown. "If employes had been represented (adequately, of course) in the associations which drew up the NRA industrial codes, and in the code provisions, the NRA and its institutions would have been fairly comparable with the proposed occupational groups," says the pamphlet. "Had the NRA been permitted to continue, it could readily have developed into the kind of industrial order recommended by the Holy Father."

Education in U. S.

Subscribers to this proposal included P. T. Fagan, Francis J. Gorman, Thomas Kennedy, and Phil Murray. All C. I. O. leaders, and Edward Keathing and Matthew Tighe of the A. F. of L. Social students and active workers in labor conciliation causes like Msgr. Haas, Dr. John A. Lapp, Ed McGrady, Msgr. Ryan, Rev. Fredrick Seidenberg and Frank P. Walsh, also approved the plan.

Charge them that are rich in this present world, that they be not highminded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

THREE FAMILIES ESTABLISHED ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH IN PAMPA ABOUT 23 YEARS AGO

By H. E. COMSTOCK, Pastor.

The Assembly of God church was established some 23 years ago in a small frame building. This small church carried on for several years largely under the direction of the Holmes, McKay and Simmons families, with various pastors serving them at short intervals. It was in 1927 that a building permit was granted for construction of a brick church at 500 South Cuyler street at a cost of $12,000.

The church located at the busiest intersection of the city is afforded the pleasure of serving many of the transients and tourists as well as a large membership of its own. The official church board consists of the following members: Lee Coble, L. A. Brown and J. L. Kennedy serve as trustees. John Rhode, L. H. Cooper and L. H. Burnett serve as deacons. R. F. McDonald is the secretary and treasurer. The Sunday school officers are L. H. Cooper, superintendent, and Viron Miller, secretary and treasurer. The church is free from indebtedness and has been able to make several improvements the last few years.

The Rev. H. E. Comstock is now serving his fifth year as pastor of this church. The church has enjoyed a marked increase in both membership and Sunday school attendance, being just a year ago this month that the Sunday school reached a high mark with 229 in attendance. Our goal for Sunday morning is 250. We will appreciate your help.

Since the beliefs and doctrines of the Assembly of God Church are rather vague in the minds of some we therefore submit the following statement of fundamental truths that the Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice.

Believing the Bible to be the inspired Word of God, a revelation from God to man, the infallible rule of faith and conduct, and is superior to conscience and reason, but not contrary to reason.

Divine Healing: Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the atonement and is the privilege of all believers.

Blessed Hope and Millennial

Episcopalian

The Rev. R. J. Snell, pastor, St. Matthews Episcopal church.

Reign of Christ: The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the church. The revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ from heaven, will bring salvation to national Israel, and the millennial reign of Christ on the earth is the world's hope.

The Lake of Fire: The devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, and whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life shall be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

There is therefore now on condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

METHODIST CHURCH ORGANIZED IN 1907 WITH FIVE MEMBERS; HARRAH FAMILY STILL ACTIVE

M. E. Pastor

The Rev. W. C. House, pastor, First Methodist church.

By W. C. HOUSE, Pastor.
The First Methodist church of Pampa is the oldest organized church in the city. Originally there was a union church here, in which members of the various denominations worshipped. The Methodist church was the first to withdraw and organize a church of its own. This was done in 1907 with five charter members. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harrah, and their son, Mr. Lee Harrah, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cousins. Two of these, Harrah and Lee Harrah, are still active members of the congregations.

The first building was a one room church erected on the corner of Starkweather and E. Foster streets in 1908. The congregation worshipped in this church for a good many years.

In 1924 the present location, which is East Foster and Ballard street, was purchased and a brick basement was completed in 1925. The congregation worshipped in the basement until the present commodious building was erected and formerly opened on September 2nd, 1928, during the ministry of Rev. Tom W. Brabham.

About three years ago the Methodists of this city saw the need of ministering to our people throughout the city and organized McCullough Memorial Church in west Pampa and Harrah Chapel in south Pampa and erected a building for each congregation. These three buildings were dedicated May 29, 1937, under the ministry of Rev. Gaston Foote.

The present total membership of the First Methodist Church is 1182. There have been 135 additions to the church this year. The present church school enrollment is approximately 700. This church is just closing one of the most successful years in its history.

This church has endeavored to minister to the city of Pampa as well as its own members. It functions in every way that a church should. A full program of Christian education; of social service and spiritual cultivation is carried on throughout the year. This is a program that challenges the members of the church and includes a well organized and departmentalized Church School; a woman's missionary society doing a most effective work; organizations for children and young people under the leadership of capable workers; and a Board of Stewards of wide awake, alert business men, who with the pastor, look after the business interests of the church.

The Rev. Will C. House is closing in November, his second year as pastor of this church.

In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works.

Church Takes All The Blame

Mr. Speeds will clean his auto, Mr. Spurr will groom his horse, Mr. Gadds will go to Findlay. With all the little Gadds, of course Mr. Flight will put carbide on his homing pigeon's perch, Mr. Weeds will work his garden, Mr. Good will go to church.

Mr. Cleet will drive his golf ball, Mr. Tiller steer his boat, Mr. Popper on his cycle, Round and round the state will mote, Mr. Swatt will watch a ball game, Mr. Take and son will search Through the beakey wood for mushrooms, Mr. Willing will go to church.

Do you ask me what's the matter; Do you wonder what is wrong? When the nation turns from worship, Sermon, prayer, and sacred song? Why the people rush for pleasure, Leave religion in the lurch? Why prefer a padded auto To a cushioned pew in church?

Reader, well I know the answer, But if I should speak aloud, What I think is the real reason It would queer me with the crowd. You'll be popular, dear reader, When you yield the critic's birch; You'll be safely in the fashion When you blame things on the church!

MCCULLOUGH-HARRAH CHURCHES YOUNGEST IN PAMPA; FUNDS GIVEN BY PIONEERS FAMILIES

By HUBERT BRATCHER, Pastor.
Pampa's "Twin Churches," built during the same year and almost identical as far as physical equipment is concerned, lay claim to being the youngest churches in the city. McCullough Memorial is located on the Borger Highway in the Talley addition on the West side of town and Harrah Chapel at 713 South Barnes Street across from the Baker school on the South side of town.

To the late Sam McCullough, esteemed pioneer citizen and loyal churchman, goes the credit for the idea of a small church west of town to serve the people of that section. It was not until 1934, however, under the pastorate of Rev. Gaston Foote at First Methodist church that the dream became a reality through the gifts of Mrs. Sam McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harrah. And as the vision of this pioneer citizen took form two churches were built instead of one.

McCullough Memorial church was completed and the first services held in it in June, 1934, at which time the church was organized with the following charter members: Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beard, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boyd, Mrs. J. C. Dollard, Urenia Dollard, Mrs. B. L. Roberson, Lu Dean Scott, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tolle, Mrs. Lance Webb and Lewis Roberson.

Harrah Chapel was built during the summer of 1934 and a church organized October 7 with the following members. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Buckner, Mrs. Jess Bowerman, Mrs. Art Jaynes, Mrs. R. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Poteet, Mazie Perkins, Clyde Perkins, and Velma and Thelma Turner.

During the past three years approximately 300 members have been received, educational annexes have been built; Sunday Schools have been carried on with a total enrollment of 240; A Woman's Missionary Society has been active and doing splendid work; Young People's Organizations have been functioning and Boy Scout work has been sponsored in the two communities.

The membership of the church is composed of common folk, engaged for the most part in some phase of oil field work, affiliated with the church in the common task of building the Kingdom. The youth of the churches themselves is reflected in its members—young couples and their families, mainly, with ages ranging under forty-five, with few exceptions.

Social service, fellowship and helpfulness are stressed to the exclusion of denominational lines. The churches are really Community Churches as they follow out this ideal and strive above all else to serve the spiritual needs of the community.

One service is held at each church each Sunday. On the 1st and 3rd. Sundays morning services are held at Harrah Chapel and evening services at McCullough. And on the 2nd. and 4th. Sundays morning services are held at McCullough and evening services at Harrah Chapel.

The churches just now are closing out a successful conference year under the leadership of Rev. H. H. Bratcher. The board of stewards of the churches at present are H. L. Wallace, pres., E. N. Franklin, Sec-treas., A. N. Rogers, Ben Ward, J. R. Combs, Jerry Nelson, F. D. Howell, O. G. Smith, Mrs. Ed Stokes and Mrs. Carl Johnson.

A SPIRITUAL MAGNET

It is related of Fenelon that he had such communion with God his very face shone. Lord Peterborough, a skeptic was obliged to spend the night with him at an inn. In the morning he rushed away, saying, "If I stay another night with that man I shall be a Christian in spite of myself." Fenelon's manners were full of grace, his voice was full of love, and his face full of glory. The invitation, "Come to Jesus," was in every act. He was a "spiritual magnet." "That," says the Record of Christian work, "is what God wants us all to be. That is what we all can be, by just yielding up to all to Him and letting Him live again in us. Under no other condition can this transforming power fulfill its mission to our souls. Are you ready for it?"—The King's Business.

Fast lives end up to slow music.

Christian Church Started in 1800

The Christian Church is part of a great movement that started in America about 1800 and that had for its purpose the restoration of the religion of Christ to its pristine purity and simplicity. There are about 8,000 congregations of similar faith and practice in the United States with a total membership of over one and a half million people. These congregations cooperate in a voluntary manner to carry the gospel of Christ into 22 countries of the world. While they cooperate in missionary, benevolent and educational activities, yet these congregations are free from any over head domination as they have no higher organization to dictate policies or programs.

The outstanding teaching of this congregation is a plea for the absolute Lordship of Jesus Christ and the putting of Him as the Head of all things to the church. It is a plea that the church wear His name because He is the Founder and Head of the church. It is a plea that Christ be the Creed of the church, and that men should believe in a person rather than a doctrine. It is a plea that the unsaved be taught Christ's instructions as to the way men are to be saved of their sins. It is a plea that the church observe the two ordinances Christ ordained for the church—The Lord's Supper on the first day of the week and Tithing (paying one tenth) to the support of the Lord's Work. It is a plea that the New Testament be our rule of faith and practice.

To become a member of this congregation a person must (1) Believe that Jesus Christ is God's Son and Savior of the world. (2) Repent of sins, and give undivided allegiance to Jesus Christ as Lord and Master. (3) Make a public confession of faith in Jesus Christ as God's Son. (4) Be immersed in the name of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is the standard by which each member should regulate his or her life.

AN EDITORIAL

The United States of America dedicated to the truth that all men are "endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Civil liberties and religious rights that derive from this truth are today being assailed.

We of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths, for whom civil liberties and religious rights are based upon principles of our religion, reaffirm our loyalty to these fundamentals of just government, and our support of the traditions of American life that have championed and applied them.

Under the American tradition of liberty we are blessed by a land wherein cultural traditions may live together in amity and mutual respect.

The nation can rely upon the mobilized spiritual forces of Protestants, Catholics and Jews for their support and defense of this truly American ideal.

FIRST CATHOLIC MASS SAID HERE IN SAWYER HOME; NEW CHURCH BUILT TEN YEAR AGO

By Mrs. Donald A. Powell

In going over the records of Holy Souls parish the Rev. J. H. Krukkert appears as having first come from St. Francis, 48 miles southwest of Pampa, to administer to the needs of the Catholic people in August, September and October, 1926, and at this time mass was said at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Sawyer about once a month, with an attendance of 12 people. Prior to the summer of 1926 Mrs. A. R. Sawyer and Mrs. L. H. Sullins were the only known Catholics in Pampa. Father Krukkert was then pastor at St. Francis and Pampa was one of his missions.

In November and December, 1926, and January, 1927, mass was said by Father Krukkert at the American Legion hall. As the legion dances were held each Saturday night, the good ladies got together early Sunday morning, scraped away all of the mud, swept the place clean, spread newspapers on the floor in lieu of kneeling benches, and erected a temporary altar to hold services. In February, mass was celebrated twice at the Grand theatre, and when it was destroyed by fire they moved to the chamber of commerce quarters which had formerly been the post office, in the White Deer Land Building, and continued to hear mass there until April, 1928.

During all of this time, with the constant influx of people due to the oil boom, the congregation was growing, and on December 31, 1927, the report made to the bishop showed for Pampa a Catholic population of 116 souls.

Amarillo Made Diocese

Prior to 1926, Amarillo had been part of the diocese of Dallas, under the jurisdiction of Bishop Lynch, but in that year Amarillo was made a separate diocese and the appointment was made by the Holy See naming the Rev. Rudolph A. Gerken as first Bishop of the Amarillo Diocese. He was consecrated in 1927 and installed in his diocese in the same year.

A rectory had been built at White Deer, and Father Krukkert moved there from St. Francis in 1927, but at the time Amarillo became a diocese there was a change of pastors and the Rev. Michael G. French was appointed by Bishop Gerken as pastor of White Deer, with Pampa as its mission. In the meantime Father Krukkert had purchased the lots for the site of the Pampa church, and on January 26, 1927, at the offices of Merrick and Boyd a meeting was held, under the leadership of Rev. J. H. Krukkert, with Martin McGarrity as temporary chairman. Those present at this meeting were Mmes. Lynn Boyd, A. R. Sawyer and R. J. Kiser, and Messrs. Henry Pohl, then Superintendent of Sinclair Pipe Line Company, P. J. McNamara, then superintendent of Magnolia pipe line company, C. J. Murphy, J. E. Dolan, Martin J. McGarrity, J. P. Dean, Frank A. Spellman, with the Fox Rig company, J. W. O'Day, A. F. Clark, F. C. Clavette, I. J. Huval, S. J. Lawrence, Mr. Haley, Robert M. Manning, Martin P. Muench.

At this meeting, Mrs. Lynn Boyd was named treasurer, in charge of raising funds for the building of the church. Shortly after this (February 3, 1927) the Altar society was formed, with 13 ladies as members, and Mrs. P. J. McNamara, first president. Today there are more than 50 ladies in the Altar society, of which Mrs. Tom Manley is president.

Wonderly Appointed Pastor

The Rev. Joseph F. Wonderly succeeded Father French as pastor at White Deer in July, 1928, with its mission, Pampa, under his care, and while Holy Souls Church was dedicated on Thanksgiving Day, 1928, it remained a mission until the fall of 1930, when Bishop Gerken made it a parish and Father Wonderly was appointed to its pastorate. The Catholic extension society had donated $5,000.00 towards the erection of the church which is of Gothic type architecture with French influence. The architect was Harold Junders of Norman, Okla., and the contractors Sharp and Vasey of Pampa. The rectory was added in 1930 and built by Boyington and Glover of Pampa.

School Founded

With the continued growth of the parish the erection of a parochial school was decided upon in Amarillo, who succeeded Bishop Gerken in 1934. In the spring of Rev. Robert E. Lucey, Bishop of Texas, Towns and Funk of Amarillo and Albuquerque, and ground broken in May. The school was completed and dedicated by Bishop Lucey September 12, 1937, and shortly before this date the Rev. Charles A. Knapp had been named assistant pastor. The school was opened September 13 with an enrollment of 101 pupils. Six sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word are in charge, and also conduct special classes in music and art.

At the present time Holy Souls parish has a population of 150 families, approximately 600 souls. At the time this parish was set up Canadian, Mobeetie and Miami were annexed as its missions, and their total present population is 35 families, approximately 105 souls.

The Salvation Army round the World Motto:

The World for God

The world for God! The world for God!
There's nothing else will meet the hunger of my soul.
I see forsaken children; I see the tears that fall
From women's eyes, once merry, now never laugh at all.
I See the sins and sorrows of those who sit in darkness;
I see, in lands far distant, the hungry and oppress'd.
But behold! on a Hill—Calvary, Calvary.

"Go to Church Sunday"

Pampans Would Move Away from Here if There Were No Churches in City, Says Ivy Duncan

"Tis said that if all of the churches in Pampa or any other city would close their doors the 13,000 people living in the city would move away, and I believe that," Ivy E. Duncan, general chairman of the go-to-church committee, said in a radio talk over station KPDN NEWS station, this week.

Next Sunday has been designated as go-to-church day, and laymen and members of all churches in the city are pushing the movement to persuade every Pampan to attend church, any church, or the church of his choice, either Sunday morning or Sunday night.

Mr. Duncan's talk which contains a ringing challenge, has drawn much favorable comment and is published here:

"You have probably heard or read something that next Sunday is go-to-church day in Pampa; that all people in and around Pampa are requested, urged and expected to be in some church for services some time that day.

"The question probably flashes in your mind: why have a day of this kind for Pampa? The answer is: why not? Do we not set apart separate days to commemorate events or sentiments? In one of our sister cities of the plains we have a day set apart as mother-in-law day—a beautiful gesture to honor a noble character. That city is to be commended for its thoughtfulness. Cannot Pampa honor so noble an organization as the church by setting apart one day of the years as go-to-church day, and by attending the services held therein?

"The idea of making Pampa church-conscious, and of having a go-to-church day was born in and fostered by the Ministerial Alliance of the city of Pampa. To we laymen who have been drafter to assist in the movement, it has fallen our lot to impress upon you the necessity of your support of the movement. Therefore we ask your full co-operation in seeing that your employees, your associates, yourself as well as the members of your family are in attendance at some church on that day.

Much Money Spent

"You as citizens have spent thousands of dollars in erecting churches in Pampa. You are spending other thousands in salaries of ministers to administer unto the several church organizations in Pampa, but you do not aid either the organization or the minister by your occasional presence.

"Tis said that if all of the churches in Pampa would close their doors the 13,000 people living in the city would move away. I believe that. Yet, only about 10 per cent of our citizenship is keeping those organizations here which you would not live here without. It is obvious that the other 90 per cent is shirking their known duty. It is the desire of the citizenship of Pampa to continue to shirk their duty? Or shall you enter into a new deal for the churches by being present there Sunday?

Urge Employees To Attend

"How can you assist in making October 17 a grand success for the churches? If you are an employer insist that all of your employees go to church that day. If your business is such that you operate on Sunday, then close your business up for two hours on that day from 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., and don't wait for your competitor to call on you for an agreement to that end. If you are an employee lay your plans now to be in church that day. If you are a member of the church but haven't attended for a long time you fill find a warm welcome in your return. If you do not belong to any church you certainly have an invitation to attend and will be met and greeted by friends and associates. If you don't believe in churches, or you are too stubborn to go, then your courage is challenged and you haven't the nerve to go. Regardless of your past or present, your trade

DR. TRUETT DESCRIBES 'THE GREATER SERVICE'

When Tennyson wrote "Crossing the Bar" he did more for civilization than if he had built a thousand of the most splendid ocean liners that ever ploughed the sea. When Thomas Stevenson built the lighthouses which send their radiance over the tossing waters of the English Channel, he wrought, to be sure, a most valuable service for England and the world. But of far greater value is the work of his son, he has taught us how to kindle a light within, how to keep the soul serene and steadfast in the face of pain and death. When Millet seized his brush and painted the "Angelus" on a bit of canvas that cost him three francs, he did more for labor and the laboring man than if he had seized a hoe and wrought for fifty years in the fields of France. The paramount benefactors of the world are not the men who add to the quantity of our material possessions, but those who deepen the quality of mental and moral character. "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." "Unless there is something that a man holds dearer than money, he is a poor man, or a bad one."—Rev. George W. Truett, D. D., in "God's Call to America and Other Addresses."
