HOUSE VOTE ON CASH PAYMENT IS DUE NEXT MONDAY

TEXARMANA, Ark., June 6. (A)—Missouri Pacific railway of-ficials today asked Sheriff B. W. Turquette of Miller county to re-move about 150 "bonus marchers" from railroad property and prevent their obtaining passage from the city on freight trains.

The marchers arrived in Texarkana yesterday en route to Washington, where they hope to bring about immediate payment of bonuses for world war service.

After a conference with Prosecuting Attorney H. M. Barney and other Miller county officials: Sheriff Turquette called Governor Harvey Parnell's office at Little Rock. The governor was reported out of town but his secretary was notified of the situation and discussed it with the attorney general.

Sheriff Turquette was awaiting advice from the attorney general before taking action against the bonus marchers.

300 At Wichita

WICHITA, Kan., June 6. (AP)-More than 300 world war veterans recruited from the Wichita and near surrounding territory left here last night for Washington to join others in advocating immediate payment of the soldiers bonus

The contingent failed to board their designated freight train and many left the city to hike their way to Newton while others were given transportation in automobiles by sympathizers. They planned to concentrate at Newton where they expected to board a Santa Fe train.

Lobbyists Busy

WASHINGTON, June 6, (AP)slim army rations failed today to dim the fire of the "bonus expeditionary force," as its leaders continued their drive for immediate cash payment of service certificates.

So energetic was the lobbying by increased numbers in the House and Senate office buildings that extra police were stationed at stratgetic points. No attempt was made to restrict visits to the congressmen, but officers hoped to hold war veterans down to one or two callers at a time.

Metropolitan police, meanwhile, estimated they had food enough to last through tomorrow. The total here now is more than 2,500.

P. D. Glassford, superintendent of police, requested George Alman, Portland, Ore., commander-in-chief of the vetrans to make muster rolls all men to eliminate all but bonafide former soldiers.

A. House vote on the $2,000,000,000 bill payment issue is scheduled for next Monday. Representative Patman (D. Tex.), sponsor of the bill, said no effort is being made by him to secure an earlier vote, which would require a special rule of a two-thirds majority to suspend the

Due to the six-cornered republican contest and five candidates fighting for the democratic senatorial nomination, campaign manogers predicted an unusually large vote: 400,000 republican and 100,000 democratic votes would be cast, they estimated.

In addition to the senatorial race, Iowans also expressed preference for candidates for congressmen and for governor and other state officers. Gov. Dan Turner, republican, was seeking renomination.

COOL WEATHER AND HEAVY RAIN SOON TO BE FORGOTTEN; PICNIC TIME JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Between shivers, during this cool, wet weather, an optimistic sport is to plan the menus for that fishing trip or picnic that is sure to come before long. Fishing trips and picture for the control of t nics are sports the entire family can enjoy, and, if properly plan-ned, they become the most delightful of all entertainments.

By-the-river menus should allow for frying a part of the "catch" in an open fire place. Also it's a good dea to make breakfast as substantial as the other two meals, for even 2 t flour and 2 tb. sugar to the fat the children will be 'as hungry as and when well blended, add 1-3 c

The following menus are suggested by the home economics depart-ment of Texas State College for Women:

Breakfast: Baked apple, oat meal, me and eggs, toast, coffee, milk for the children. Lunch: Fried fish, lettuce sandriches, peanut and cabbage salad, baked beans, blackberries and cookies, thermos bottle of coffee for adults, jug of water for children. Supper: Potato salad, sliced to-matoes, baked ham, bread and butter, hot chocolate and cake. Breakfast: Stewed prunes, wheatena, graham muffins, apricot jam, Lunch: Hamburger and sandbeets, escalloped corn, chocolate pudding with whipped cream, tea. Dinner: Baked fish with lemon, baked potatoes, creamed cauliflower, Roll to 1-2 inch thickness and place hot biscuit and butter, lettuce salad, on top of berries. Bake in hot oven.

REVIVAL AT CHURCH OF CHRIST CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Evangelist C. Ellis McGaughey spoke at the Church of Christ last evening on confessing Christ. "Those who are Christians should be interested in confessing Christ at every opportunity, and those who are not Christians should be interested in learning how to con-fess Christ," Mr. McGaughey said. and added that the public confession of faith in Christ is necessary

"There is no need of confessing hat we believe we are saved." he declared, "for that is not a confession, in reality, but a profession Christ wants a confes than a profession."

"We confess Christ in many ways," asserted the speaker. "Con-fession of Christ is made with the mouth and denotes the willing of one to follow Christ. We confess Christ in baptism. are buried with the Lord in bap-tism, we confess by the action that we believe Christ was crucified, buried, and resurrected. In partaking of the Lord's supper we con-fess that we believe the blood of Christ was shed to take away sins of the world, and not only but by communion we pro-claim or advertise the death of Christ until he comes again. In giv-ing of our means we confess we believe the gospel should be preached in all parts of the earth, that the kingdom of God should cover the earth as the water covers the sea. By singing spiritual songs, we confess Christ. But one of the great-est ways to confess Christ is in our daily life. We are apistles kn

GOOD RECORDS COOL WEATHER AND HEAVY RAIN SOON TO BE FORGOTTEN; PICNIC TIME JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Between shivers, during this cool, | blackberry cobbler, coffee. wet weather, an optimistic sport is to plan the menus for that fishing rip or picnic that is sure to come pefore long. Fishing trips and picnics are sports the entire family can enjoy, and, if properly plan-ned, they become the most delightful of all entertainments. By-the-river menus should allow or frying a part of the "catch" in an open fire place. Also it's a good idea to make breakfast as substantial as the other two meals, for even the children will be 'as hungry as ave men.

Menus Suggested The following menus are suggested by the home economics depart-ment of Texas State College for Women:

Breakfast: Baked apple, oat meal, hame and eggs, toast, coffee, milk for the children. Lunch: Fried fish, lettuce sand-

Supper: Potato salad, sliced to-matoes, baked ham, bread and butter, hot chocolate and cake.

Breakfast: Stewed prunes, wheatena, graham muffins, apricot jam, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Hamburger and sand-

Dinner: Baked fish with lemon,

Cabbage and Peanut Salad: 1 ground cabbage, 1 c shredded carrot, 1-3 c chopped peanuts, 1 t onion juice. Method: Let stand 15 or 20 minutes in French dressing. Hot Potato Salad: 1-3 lb. diced and cooked until delicately browned. If very fat, drain off some of the fat reserving 1-4 c. Add a chopped onion and cook for a few minutes. Do not brown. Add 2 t flour and 2 tb. sugar to the fat and when well blended, add 1-3 c vinegar and 2-3 c water. Cook the sauce until thick and the starch is well cooked (about 4 minutes). To the 8 medium sized cooked potatoes which have been diced, add 1 well beaten egg. Add the hot dressing and stir lightly with a fork. Season. Let stand 30 min-utes to blend. Serve very warm, although it may be served cold. Pimento, green pepper, peas or other-cooked vegetable may be added. Potatoes cooked with jackets in salted water give best flavor. More bacon fat may be used if a richer salad is desired.

Blackberry Cobbler: Fill the bot-tom of a baking dish with black berries to the depth of about 1 1-2 inches. Sweeten to taste. Cover this with the following dough. Mix and sift together 2 c of flour, 4 t Lunch: Hamburger and said wiches made with buns, buttered beets, escalloped corn, chocolate beets, escalloped cream, tea. baking powder, 2 t sugar, 1=2 baki eggs well beaten and 1-3 c cream. REVIVAL AT CHURCH OF CHRIST CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Evangelist C. Ellis McGaughey spoke at the Church of Christ last evening on confessing Christ. "Those who are Christians should be interested in confessing Christ at every opportunity, and those who are not Christians should be interested in learning how to con-fess Christ," Mr. McGaughey said, and added that the public confes-sion of faith in Christ is necessary to salvation.

"There is no need of confess hat we believe we are saved." he declared, "for that is not a confession, in reality, but a profession. Christ wants a confession rather than a profession.

"We confess Christ in many ways," asserted the speaker. "Con-fession of Christ is made with the mouth and denotes the willing of one to follow Christ. We con-fess Christ in baptism. When we are buried with the Lord in baptism, we confess by the action that we believe Christ was crucified buried, and resurrected. In partaking of the Lord's supper we con-fess that we believe the blood of Christ was shed to take away the sins of the world, and not this sins of the world, and not this only but by communion we proclaim or advertise the death of Christ until he comes again. In giving of our means we confess we believe the gospel should be preached in all parts of the earth, that the kingdom of God should cover the carth as the water covers the sea. By singing spiritual songs, we con-fess Christ. But one of the greatest ways to confess Christ is in our daily life. We are apistles known and read of all men." The evangelist then asked this question: "Is the penmanship found in your life that of satan or of Christ?"

The Harridge Decision

A great deal of comment has followed the decision of Will Har-ridge, president of the American Mr. Moriarty did not League, in the Moriarty-White Sox brawl. The facts seem to be that Umpire Moriarty was ganged by several of the Sox after he had challenged them all under the grandstand after a game at Cleve-land, and after he had knocked Pitcher Milt Gaston for a loop. The decision was: for Gaston, $500 fine and 10 days; for Manager Lew Fonseca, one of the party, $500 fine; for Catcher Charley Berry,

He enlists his friend Emory Battles in a campaign to rescue her, which is complicated when the gang that captured Nancy carries out a series of abductions of wealthy men in New Fork and Chicago. A new form of ransom, "board money," is demanded of the relatives of the kidnaped persons. In unusually shrewed letters the gang orders the money to be left in a rowboat off the coast, and forbids any boat to approach the spot. Jerry and Emory, both war pilots, fly over the scene and see the money tart a pursuit, but are outdistanced and forced to land because of gas shortage. "The free bridge will remain open until the Supreme court of the United States decides otherwise,' the plain-spoken governor asserted In his much publicized "war of the bridges," Gov. Murray declared martial law at the crossing last July 27 in order to block court action against opening of a Texas-Oklahoma free bridge which parallels the toll span. Traffic was kept off the toll bridge until the free structure was opened.
Gov. Sterling of Texas also used

Texas rangers to enforce a Federal court order to keep the free bridge closed at the southern end for a time, but the order later was vacated and the free bridge opened. Then Murray withdrew his own soldiers. The present litigation subsequently was brought by the bridge company.
