Dr. Condon Organizes Mysterious Search in Massachusetts Town

ROUTINE WORK ON CASE GOES ON INTENSELY

GOVERNOR MOORE HAS REVEALED WORK OF CAPONE

HANDWRITING IS TRACED

DEAN PEACOCK STICKS TO STORY OF HIS ACTIVITIES

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass. May 23 (P)—Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafie" who paid $50,000 in an attempt to effect the return of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, arrived in Great Barrington today and said he would organize a search for the kidnapers in this vicinity. He would not discuss his reasons for coming here.

TRENTON, May 23 (P)—Governor A. Harry Moore today confirmed reports that three weeks ago four reputed agents of Al Capone, imprisoned Chicago gang leader, approached him at midnight with an offer to aid in the Lindbergh case. Gov. Moore said he was walking

Work on Denver Line Is Halted by Bridge Blaze

The Fort Worth and Denver railway will not be in Pampa on the date set, it was announced this morning. A delay of about 10 days will be necessary while the bridge across Buck Creek west of Wellington is being rebuilt. The bridge was badly damaged by fire Friday night.

An investigation into the cause of the fire in the bridge work on the line this way is being conducted by railroad officials. The Crossett posts burned rapidly and much difficulty was encountered saving the balance of the structure.

While the bridge across Buck Creek is being repaired, work on the line this way is at a standstill since material has to be brought from Childress. Steel has reached the end of the Red river bridge away from LeFors and cannot be finished until the bridge across Buck Creek is rebuilt.

It is believed steel will be in Pampa before June 15 if other delays are not necessary. The local station will not be completed by that time but will be well under way. Glover and Boyington are contractors.

I HEARD--

"That 'C. E. 'Brownie' Akers of Lubbock, former manager of the LaNora theater here, was in Pampa over the week-end looking for football players for the Lubbock West-erners. 'Brownie' was wearing a big hat as a disguise but somebody recognized him and exposed him. We sure are sorry to lose Mr. Akers and Shirley Ann who left for Lubbock with Mr. Akers this afternoon. Of course 'Brownie' didn't matter, Oh, no."

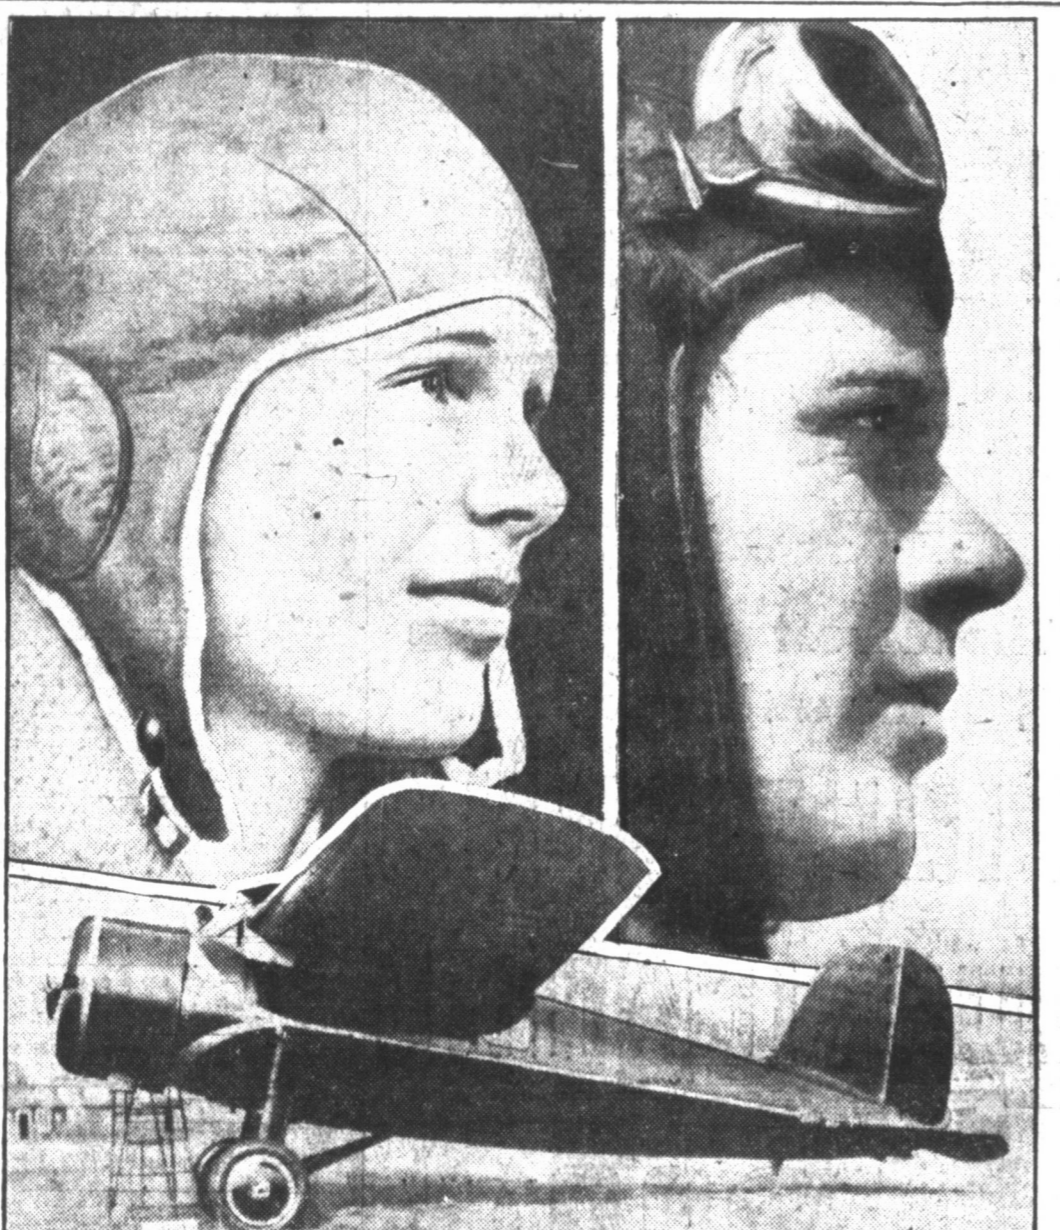

Tommie White says that Tom Perkins was the toughest drug store cowboy he ever got up against. Tom played 35 holes with Tommie yesterday in the Red Deer golf tournament and Tommie was in the pink of condition. Tom doesn't get to play so much.

WEATHER

OKLAHOMA: Partly cloudy to-night and Tuesday; cooler in north-west portion Tuesday.
WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy to-night and Tuesday; cooler in extreme west portion tonight; cooler in west and north portions Tuesday.

AND A SMILE
NEW YORK (P)—It will be almost a pleasure to fall out of your boat off Manhattan Beach, Coney Island. A life saving station operated exclusively by women has been opened there.

"LADY LINDBERGH" MAKES GOOD

The "Lady Lindbergh" makes good! Amelia Earhart Putnam, landing at Londonderry, Ireland, became the feminine counterpart of "We" five years to the day after Lindbergh's flight. The remarkable resemblance of the new air heroine and Colonel Lindbergh are shown in the two pictures above. Lower photo shows her trim monoplane just before the start from New York.

This, ladies and gentlemen, is a crucial week in Pampa. It should be a gala one, too.

Of All Ages

Pampa is playing host to some of the finest people in the world—the oldtimers who pioneered this section when life was hard. There will be others too, of all ages, who wish to do honor to the pioneers and to see the Frontier Days stunts.

"Grow" an Event

Frontier Days this year be interesting. And if all cooperate to make this year's entertainment a success, next year's event will be much larger and more spectacular. The important thing is to make this first event a success financially. You can do that—Y O U MUST—by buying generously of the tickets to the Harvester park arena.

Bigger Next Year

Next year, with more experience and, more time, it will be possible to introduce

REGISTRATION OF OLDTIMERS WILL START WEDNESDAY—MANY PAMPANS WILL WELCOME THEM

Although Pampa's first annual Frontier Days celebration does not start until 10 o'clock Thursday morning, when a big parade will be staged, registration of oldtimers will open at 12 noon Wednesday in the Schneider hotel. Alex Schneider

PLAINVIEW OLD SETTLERS REUNION DRAWS 12,000 AND MANY WILL COME TO PAMPA

Frontier Days Well Advertised at Pampa Folk on Radio Program

Plainview had between 12,000 and 15,000 persons at her Old Settlers Reunion Saturday, according to Pampans who attended. The Pampa Frontier Days celebration Thursday, Friday and Saturday was well advertised and hundreds of oldtimers who attended the Plainview celebration will be in Pampa. A Pampa car driven by George W. Briggs and decorated with Pampa Frontier Days literature and old time relics was driven in the parade. Bert Pritchett, former Plainview boy, rode an old Gray mare in the parade and told the thousands of visitors about the Pampa celebration. Jimmie King and Jimmie, Jr., rode the fenders of the car and played and sang cowboy songs.

Jaysees Ordered To Meet Tuesday In Vital Session

Every Jaysee member is not asked but commanded to be in the city hall auditorium at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. President Bob Brashears has sent out an S. O. S. for workers during the Frontier Days celebration Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Anyone else who wants to help put over the big project may go to the meeting and be given a "job". Members will be needed to sell and take tickets, to drive courtesy cars to help with the barbecue, and do a "thousand and one" other little jobs. Men in charge of each department will be present at the meeting and will call for volunteers. If the volunteers are insufficient, President Brashears will start the orders.

The meeting will be brief and to the point, so that there will not be a member who cannot spare the few minutes necessary to attend.

Miss Bertha Edge of LeFors made a trip to Pampa Saturday. M. T. Wilkerson of McLean was a courteous visitor in Pampa this morning.

DEFENSE SCORES AT TRIAL

PERJURY HIT BY JUDGE AS TALE REFUTED

JURIST URGES ARREST OF WITNESS THIS MORNING

GOVERNMENT CARELESS

CHARACTER OF GRAVES IS ATTESTED TO BY MANY

AMARILLO, May 23 (P)—The defense today used 13 witnesses in an effort to batter down the testimony which government prosecutors built up last week against a group of Gray county men charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws.

Defense witnesses include prominent business men of Pampa, a church deacon, farmers and former grand jurors, all of whom denied they had ever known of any wrong doing of former Sheriff E. S. Graves or any of his six former deputies who are on trial with him.

Judge James C. Wilson scored government attorneys for carelessness when the defense recalled H. E. Bell, a government witness who testified last week he had never been convicted of a felony, and offered documents to show that he and three others were convicted in Coleman county in 1931 for conspiracy to rob a bank. The case is on appeal.

"It is an insult to the court when defense counsel shows where one government witness after another is guilty of perjury," Judge Wilson said. He then declared that Bell and one other government witness "should be in the penitentiary."

"The government should arrest Bell," he said. The witness had not been arrested when court adjourned.

Bell had testified earlier in the trial that he saw Graves paid protection money by H. A. "Sam" Zinn, LeFors invalid who is now dead.

Howard Blake, LeFors barber, and H. C. Crosson, oil field worker of LeFors, testified today that Zinn was not a bootlegger but depended on charity.

Time Fixed For Fiddling Contest

The old fiddlers contest of the Frontier Days celebration will be held at the Rex theater Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock, it was announced today. Visiting and local oldtimers will hear all the old tunes they danced to in their younger days.

Contestants may register any time between now and 11 o'clock Thursday night. There will be three cash prizes, as follows: first, $75 in gold; second, $5 in gold, and third $2.50 in gold. Contestants may register at The NEWS, the Chamber of Commerce or at the Rex theater ticket window.

Mrs. Ruth J. Wallace, formerly of Pampa but now living in San Antonio, has returned to Pampa for a limited stay.

THIRTY-FIRST DISTRICT COURT DOCKET IS CONGESTED BUT MANY CASES ARE CONCLUDED

Report of Grand Jury Now Awaited With Interest By Local Residents.

Thirty-first district court opened this morning with a well-filled criminal docket, due to indictments returned by the grand jury last week, to be disposed of in this, the twelfth and final week of the current term.

ABILENE WOMAN KILLED AND SISTER BADLY HURT AS TRAIN DEMOLISHES CAR AT CROSSING

Miss Norma Ramsey Dead—Student in Simmons

ABILENE, May 23 (P)—Miss Norma Ramsey, 25, was killed and her elder sister, Miss Nega Kate Ramsey, badly injured here this morning when their automobile, a small coach, was demolished by an east-bound Texas & Pacific train.

The accident occurred at a grade crossing leading into the heavily populated southwestern section of the city. Several fatal crashes of train and automobile have occurred there with the past few years.

The train, No. 16, known as "The Texan," was running five minutes behind schedule. The engineer told reporters he saw the automobile mounting the track an instant before the crash.

Miss Norma Ramsey was killed instantly. Her sister was removed to a hospital with head injuries and a broken leg. The younger girl was a senior in Simmons university and her sister acting head of the speech arts department in the same institution. Their father, Dr. H. H. Ramsey, is a pioneer dentist of Abilene.

The dead girl was a sister of Drs. W. V. and M. T. Ramsey and Mrs. Charles Atkinson of Abilene. The tragedy set telephones ringing throughout the city, and messages of sympathy began pouring into the Ramsey home. These had an added fervor when it was learned that Miss Norma Ramsey was betrothed recently to Holmes Oldham, member of another pioneer family here, and that the marriage would have occurred in a few weeks.

The youth, hurrying to the morgue, identified the body as that of his fiancée.

Funeral rites will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3, with burial at Baird, former home of the family.

NEWS FLASHES AT PRESS TIME

WASHINGTON, May 23 (P)—The Texas law regulating the size and weight of loads of commercial motor vehicles which may use its highways was today sustained by the supreme court.

GARLAND, Tex., May 23 (P)—Two children were drowned today in a deep pond on a farm near Garland. Zola James, 10, fell into the water while playing on the edge of the pond. Her brother, Thomas, attempted to rescue her but failed.

WASHINGTON, May 23 (P)—Asserting "a serious flood situation" exists along the lower Rio Grande valley, the American section of the international water commission today proposed in a preliminary report a control costing $4,246,000.

WASHINGTON, May 23 (P)—Speaker Garner today said he was "gratified" that President Hoover has endorsed his proposal to make the office of the reconstruction finance corporation and to provide additional funds for projects to provide employment.

Roy McCrackin of McLean is on the 31st district court jury here this week.

YOUNGER MEN ASKING REPEAL OR MODIFYING

SITUATION UNUSUAL IN TEXAS POLITICAL CIRCLES

GARNER BLOC WORRIED

HOPE FOR HARMONY IS TOO MUCH TO EXPECT

HOUSTON, May 23 (P)—Immediate repeal or modification of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States was asked by the Texas Democratic association, an organization of young men of the party, here today.

HOUSTON, May 23 (P)—War over the question whether Texas Democrats should take a stand for repeal of the prohibition amendment in the federal constitution had every other issue backed off the boards today as delegates to the state party convention assembled here.

Encouraged by expressions obtained at a number of county conventions in some of the larger counties, champions of a firm declaration on the highly-controversial issue in this state uncompromisingly refused to withdraw advocacy of such action although pleaders for harmony were using their best efforts to remove the question from the convention picture.

Do-X Takes Off To English Port

VIGO Spain, May 23 (P)—The Do-X, largest flying boat in the world, took off for Southampton at 10:45 a. m. today (4:45 a. m. C. S. T.) after the crew had refueled her. The ship got in last night from Horta, Azores, after crossing the Atlantic from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

The Do-X will return to Germany, her home land, after the stop in England.

By way of Arewell to Vigo, the boat circled over the city, whose rooftops were crowded, and then headed north.

The trip from Horta, Azores, was made in 40 minutes less than 12 hours.

The 14 persons aboard were taken off for a banquet given by the German colony and later lodged in a hotel.

Coolness Is Seen In Manchuria as Trouble Studied

MUKDEN, Manchuria, May 23 (P)—There was evidence today of a distinct coolness between the League of Nations inquiry commission and officials of the new Manchurian government.

A hint of strained relations between the league investigators and Henry Pu-Yi's regime was given last week when it was announced the commission was seriously put out because Manchoukie officials balked the commission's plan to go to the northern border to interview General Mah Chan-Shan.

General Mah, the officials said, was not a fit person for the commission to talk to. The commissioners, however, said they wanted to see him to get the "other side of the story."

General Mah, who opposed the initial Japanese drive in Manchuria at the Nomen river and at Taisi-har, later became one of the organizers of the new government. Still later he fled to the north and a statement was issued quoting him as saying as he was loyal to China and only participated in the new government to get inside information.

When the commission passed through Changchun, the Manchoukie capital, yesterday on their way back here from Harbin, no officials of the new government met them. When they went up to Harbin a short time ago they were welcomed at Changchun with great ceremony.

GEORGE BRIGGS

FRANK HILL

Manager George Briggs of the B. C. D. and Frank Hill, secretary of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce, are working hard these days on arrangements for Frontier days. Mr. Hill has sacrificed much time from personal business to work for the celebration.

Two Schools To Close at Picnics

Two rural schools of the county will close this week with picnics. Tomorrow, pupils and patrons of the Laketon school will enjoy themselves at a picnic to be held on Marr's ranch in that community.

On Wednesday, the Bell school will close with a picnic on Mel Davis' ranch.

County Superintendent John B. Hessey will attend both affairs, and will furnish soda pop for the picnickers.

THIRTY-FIRST DISTRICT COURT DOCKET IS CONGESTED BUT MANY CASES ARE CONCLUDED

a forgery charge. George Richardson was given two years on a burglary charge. Edridge Miles, under indictment for theft, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. F. M. Neaves, under a liquor indictment, was given a two-year suspended sentence.

Joe Mitchell, under three indictments for daylight burglary in connection with burglarizing of the homes of Roy Ritter, William McAdams, of Grandview, and of Stanley Kretzmeier of Pampa, is due to be tried tomorrow. Mitchell, in court this morning, told Judge W. R. Ewing that he would defend himself.

He said he had not made any arrangements with an attorney to represent him. About $5,000 worth of merchandise was seized at the Mitchell home south of Pampa the day he was arrested.

pageantry into the program. By this we mean that some historic battle of the plains can be re-enacted with real Indians, adding authenticity to the scene. Done at night, such a spectacle would be worth going many miles to see. There would be educational value to such a pageant—of a kind that would be entertaining and instructive to students and adults alike.

Need Clean Slate
But as we said, a good start and a clean bank record by this first year is all important. With better business conditions later, other years may not present such a problem, but this first event, which has challenged the attention of people all over this section, is not going to be easy to finance successfully. Do your part—BUY TICKETS. And buy them in books at the temporary reduced rates.

Permanent
To make people see the permanence of Frontier Days, talk up NEXT YEAR to the visitors while you are making them feel welcome this year. Treat them right now, and they will return and their neighbors with them next year. Pampa aspires to become an entertainment center for this territory. Frontier Days can be made one of the biggest celebrations in the Southwest. There believed in the idea, believed in Pampa as the ideal place to hold it, believe in Pampans as well able to make something permanently worthwhile out of it, believe in the pioneers whose sacrifices it commemorates, believe in yourself as a citizen who can help to put it over, believe in yourself as a person whom visitors would like to meet and know. Get acquainted with our guests. Shake their hands, find out when they came to the Panhandle or what they need to make them enjoy the occasion. PUT REAL THOUGHT INTO FRONTIER DAYS. And above all, make visitors feel like Pampa HAS DONE RIGHT BY THEM.

Back Both Parties
A reader is puzzled by reports that eastern interests are backing candidates in both parties. There is no mystery about it. Business is non-partisan on the whole. Business wants protection, and this most often can be secured haphazardly. It pays business to have friendly candidates in both parties. That is why it is not uncommon for a big international or national firm to contribute to the campaign funds of both parties, or to selected candidates in each party.

Parties Similar
It has been singularly noticeable in recent years that the national parties are becoming as alike as two peas. The names in the two parties differ, but you see the members trading around irrespective of party lines. You see democrats voting for tariffs and republicans voting for free trade bills. It is entirely a localized influence upon the individual lawmakers. With the spread of industries over the country, interests have become complex and consistency almost impossible. The old issues have been blended, and liberalism versus conservatism is more nearly the national tendency in politics today. Big business tends to be conservative, while the more radical elements give more attention to principles and theories, however harmful to certain interests.

A New Policy?
The country needs nothing more than a set of leaders who can devise and sponsor successfully a new national policy—of freedom of opportunity, of flexibility of tariffs so that our neighbors can find a market here for their goods in a way that will least disturb

WHITE DEFEATS PERKINS TO TAKE GOLF TITLE SUNDAY

TWO AND ONE IS SCORE FOR HARD MATCH

RUNNER-UP COMES UP EVEN AFTER 27 HOLES

Tommy White, challenged in the championship flight by the consistent recuperative powers of Tom Perkins, his opponent, came through with skillful approach shots and thrillingly recovers to win the city golf title Sunday over the Red Deer course, 2 and 1.

The scoring: White 40-40-38-40-158 Perkins 43-39-40-37-157

White as champion received a fine silver trophy from Mark Heath, manager of the course. Perkins was awarded a beautiful leather bag as runner-up.

John McFall swamped Ray Lawrence, 8 up, to take the second flight. McFall received a golf statue and Lawrence a driver and brassie. McFall had a 172 and Lawrence a 178.

The third flight was won by R. J. Hagen, who won 5 and 2 over Cecil Petticoat. The cards were 42-42 and 46-40, respectively. Hagen was given a driver and a spoon; Petticoat a desk set.

In the fourth flight, Gene Green defeated Harry E. Hoare, 3 and 2, to receive a Walter Hagen brassie. Hoare was awarded a statue ash tray.

The fifth flight went to Dr. R. M. Johnson, who had a 5 up victory over Milton Clayman. Dr. Johnson's award was a pair of golf shoes, while Mr. Clayman's was a sport shirt.

White Best Driver
Tommy White also won the driving contest by placing three balls down the fairway for a total of 689 yards. Skeet Stewart made the longest single drive in the contest with 273 yards. The city champion also won the prize for the lowest qualifying score when he turned in a 72, or par, Perkins, Ferris, Conley, and Hol Wagner tied for the runner-up prize and will play it off this week.

Perkins and Hoffman tied for the prize for low medal match score and will play off or match to decide the winner.

C. E. Capers made the longest drive during match play when he drove a ball 325 yards off No. 1 tee box. The foursome making the low aggregate score while qualifying was made up of White, Perkins, McAllister and Webb.

The championship flight was intensely interesting to the gallery which followed each round. Perkins made the first turn three down and the second two down, but sank a couple of fine birdies to turn the third corner even up.

The play on the last 9 holes: No. 28—Perkins drove 290 down the fairway; White 302. Both were on in two to have the hole at par 4.

No. 29—Perkins was short and White about even but to the left of the green. White dropped at the pin for a par 3 but Perkins went 1 down, putting past the cup.

Evens With Birdie
No. 30—Perkins outdrove White 30 yards in the fairway, then White topped his wood for a roller. White Perkins got away long and straight across the draw near the green. White ironed to the edge; Perkins rolled near and sinking for a birdie while White rimmed the cup hard for a 5 to even the play.

No. 31—Perkins was even but 15 yards to the right, while White, curbed on prettily. White's putt barely missed for a par 3, but Perkins rolled on then was short to take a 4 and go 1 down.

No. 32—Both players drove to the 200-yard mark in center. White nearly topped his brassie but got a long roller. Perkins followed with a long, low drive. White's masher shot was on, but Perkins was a trifle to the right of the green. Perkins rolled on close, then White sank his putt for a par 5. Perkins rimmed for a 6 and went 2 down.

PAMPA GOLFERS TURN IN 13 TO VICTORY OVER WELLINGTON MEN SUNDAY

Locals Hit Stride for First Time and Loom Up as Threat in League.

The Pampa Country club golf team won its event in the Cap Rock league yesterday afternoon with a 13 to 9 win over the Wellington Country club team here.

Only one match went over the regulation 18 holes. Frank Wallace took holes to beat D. Dryden of Wellington. Only one match was won by one hole, and it went to E. Lewis, who defeated Ferris of Pampa.

Dr. R. A. Webb, country club No. 1 player, won his first league match of the season yesterday when he defeated R. Lewis 4 up. Dr. H. H. Hicks, ranking No. 2, failed to play again yesterday.

EXPORTERS WIN WHILE 4,000 FANS ARE IN STANDS

By The Associated Press
The Beaumont Exporters, having jumped into a good lead in the Texas league race during a long home stay, were in enemy territory today. They hoped to maintain their pace in a double-header with San Antonio. The Shippers, three games in front, had won 14 of their last 16 contests.

Four thousand Beaumont fans turned out yesterday to show appreciation of the team's great showing. The Exporters rewarded them by battling to a 6-4 victory over Houston, one of their main rivals. They thereby pushed Houston down to a tie for second place with Dallas, which took its second straight game from Fort Worth, 4 to 0.

Orlin Collier, pitching for Beaumont, had things all his own way until he weakened to permit the Buffs to score three times, but retired Stebbins to end the conflict. Tyler, deep in the cellar, still was hoping for a victory on home soil. Longview yesterday set the Sports Record for Pampa, Dick Benton beat out a punt and scored on Hall's long fly.

George Murray was the pitching star as Dallas blanked Fort Worth The Steers, making their first home appearance in some time, snapped out of their batting slump to deliver 13 hits.

Odd Fellows in Need of Games

BRAVES MOVE UP BY SPLITTING WHERE CUBS LOSE

By HERBERT W. WALKER Associated Press Sports Writer
The good left arm of Lefty Grove and the mighty bat of Jimmy Foxx fast are leading the Philadelphia Athletics out of the darkness of the American league standings.

Behind Grove's six-hit pitching and with the aid of home runs by Foxx, Simmons, and Mickey Cochrane, the A's bowled over New York 4-2, yesterday for their seventh successive victory and moved into third place.

Washington got four-hit pitching from young Monte Weaver and whipped Boston, 7-1. Cleveland dropped into fifth place as a result of a 4-2 beating at the hands of the St. Louis Browns who made only five hits off Clint Brown but bunched them for four runs in the fifth.

Ninth inning rallies won two games for Chicago from the Detroit Tigers. Johnny Hodapp's homer won the first, 3-2, and Lou Blue's triple was the high spot of a rally that won the second, 8-7.

The Boston Braves drew to within two percentage points of the National league lead by splitting a double bill with the Phillies while the league leading Chicago Cubs were taking another beating from the Cincinnati Reds. Ed Brandt pitched five-hit ball to give the Braves the opener, 4-2, but the Phillies won the nightcap 5-3.

Ray Kolp had the better of a pitcher's duel with Charley Root as the Reds won their third in a row from the Cubs. Herman and Lombardi drove in all four Red runs. Bill Clark held the Giants to five hits as Brooklyn won a 2-1 victory with Alphonso Lopez driving in both tallies.

Pittsburgh won the first game from St. Louis Cardinals, 5-1 but dropped the second, 5-3.

Americans Are Not Favored To Defeat English

MUIRFIELD, Scotland, May 23 (AP)—Memories of Jess Sweetser's American victory in the British amateur golf championship of 1926 were recalled with the start here today of 235 golfers, eleven of them Americans, in the most uncertain tournament-chase of the game.

Round after round of the 18 hole matches, morning and afternoon, with a 36-hole final for the Saturday survivors produces many surprises and upsets every year, as it did that week six years ago when an unknown Scots lad, Andrew Jamieson, stopped Bobby Jones in the sixth round. One by one the American Walker cup team, all of whom were competing, fell away. Sweetser struggled on, topped over the Hon. W. Brownlow in the semi-finals and next day walked away with the cup from the Scotsman, A. F. Simpson.

Only Sweetser that year, Jones in 1930 after failures in 1921 and 1926—and Walter Travis have captured the British amateur trophy. And unless there are big surprises the American delegation which is none too distinguished, won't get far at Muirfield this week.

Allison Ready For Double Job

PHILADELPHIA, May 23 (AP)—Wilmer Allison, whose play has been one of the bright spots in winter and spring tennis, apparently is ready to handle both singles and doubles assignments against the Australian team in the Davis cup matches here Friday, Saturday and Monday.

Playing against John Van Ryn, his doubles partner, in a special match before a group of officials of the United States Lawn Tennis association at the Philadelphia country club yesterday, Allison won two out of three sets, the scores of which were not announced.

MAGS REVEAL NEW AGE AND BEAT LE FORS

WILL PLAY WHITE SOX AT AMARILLO TONIGHT

The Magnolia "Mags" threw a new hurler at the Coltexo-Phillips LeFors nine yesterday afternoon at LeFors to win 2 to 1 in the big battle of the season. Cason, new find, allowed the heavy LeFors sluggers only two hits during the game, while the "Mags" were gathering 10 of the delivery of Lefty Freshour, Dallas Indian.

Cason's support was air-tight after the first inning, when two errors and a hit accounted for the lone tally. The other hit off Cason came in the ninth inning. Only 26 batters faced Cason in the last eight innings.

Every man on the Magnolia team got a hit off Freshour, with the latter going them one better and getting two. Only one extra base blow was hit during the game and it for two bases. Weeks, Magnolia second baseman, was the lucky batter, and he drove in both runs to win the game in the fifth.

Freshour pitched good ball with good support but he grooved too many for the good of his health. The "Mags" had expected Clemons' fast ball and whenever Freshour slipped a fast one over they took advantage of it.

Bozeman, Magnolia catcher, of his products here during the night but stayed in the game until the last man was out, playing most-Dirty Waller, who will be unable to make the trip to Amarillo tonight. Pulliam will relieve him.

The LeFors nine scored their only run on a walk and two errors in the first inning. Edgar, first man up, walked. He made a grand slam home run when Warren went out. Cason scored when Pulliam was also safe on an error. After that, Cason had the game well in hand.

The "Mags" runs came in the fifth on three singles and a double. Lister and Shriver singled but Magnolia's lead was blown away when Cason singled to fill the bases. Johnson Weeks, the old veteran, stepped to the plate and lifted one for two bases to score Lister and Shriver.

To Amarillo Tonight
The Magnolias will go to Amarillo tonight where they will meet Dirty Waller and White Sox under the lights. The game is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock. Many Pampa fans plan to make the trip. The local team will be strengthened by the services of Freshour, Newsome and Baldwin of the LeFors team. Voss of Burke will start the game for the Pampa nine.

The "Mags" have been going strong this season. They have lost only three games since the season opened. They will go through a battle tonight as Waller is known to have a strong team and it will be the Pampans first game under artificial lights.

Score by innings of yesterday's game:
Magnolias . . . . . 000 020 000-2 10 2
LeFors . . . . . 100 000 001-1 2 1
Batteries: Magnolias, Cason and Bozeman. LeFors, Freshour and Pulliam. Umpires, Pace and Buckingham.

You Can't Marry

by Julia Cleft-Addams

SYNOPSIS: Eddie Townsend wants to keep her job. She intends to work while he recovers from an accident, and has persuaded her cousin Jenny to pretend to be Eddie's wife, because her employer would discharge George if he knew she was married.

Chapter 31

HAGGLING OVER MARRIAGE

"I do love you," George muttered. It was as though she were protecting them both, by saying it.

"Jenny was sure you did," agreed Eddie. He seemed to accept Jenny as an authority on the matter and for once George felt no twinge of jealousy. She was relieved to find him so—so simple. No half-truths over, with Eddie. Black or white, yes or no; take it or leave it.

"It's simply and solely a matter of money," she hurried on. "You may say that we shan't have very much less, even if you can't fly any more. But supposing that little bit less just turns being hard up into being downright poor? Suppose it means that we can never take any risk or meet any adventure? We wouldn't go on loving, Ed. I've seen big money at close quarters and I know what it can do."

"It can't buy happiness."

"No. But it can buy freedom."

"Of a kind."

"It's the kind I need, then?"

"What are you trying to tell me, girl?"

"That I love you. That I'll give up my job to make a home for you; but not yet."

"When?"

"When my savings are enough to make the difference between slavery and freedom. I mean, a reasonable freedom, Ed. I'm not thinking any more of dinners and dances, I wear I'm not. I'm thinking of the kind of life that will keep us in love with each other. I—I want to be kept in love with you, always."

Eddie was looking curiously at her. For all his simplicity, for all his take-it-or-leave-it directness, he was looking at her as though he understood her better than she cared to understand herself.

"What—what is it, Ed dear?"

He roused himself and turned abruptly away.

"It's nothing. I was just thinking about what you've said. About what I suppose you'd call your point of view. . . I'd better be getting along, I think."

"Back to this crazy little room of yours?" George laughed shakily. "I don't see why! Jenny can't come there, if she doesn't want to stay at a hotel, and you can have your room here, as we planned at first. I've squared Gill and—and if people think you married the other Miss Revelt, well, Jenny doesn't really mind. It's a very convenient thing for them to think." She came close to him as he stood with one hand on the door; she slipped her white, strong arms up his shoulders.

"Don't go," she whispered.

His arms went round her and he held her for a moment in the embrace she loved; roughly keeping her against him when she would have moved away, roughly kissing her lips and her closed eyes. She was deaf to the hurrying stammer of the little clock; time was eternity, anyway, and all the old thrill and the old longing were flooding back into her heart.

Then Eddie pushed her away and she saw again the strange, considering look that wasn't a bit like Eddie.

"I'm going," he said, "and never you mind where. Let's call it Mexico and let's say I shall be there for a year. At the end of the year I'll be back from wherever it is—say, Mexico—and we'll see what all this saving and working of yours has led to. It's what we should have done if hadn't gone through this wind. I should have let's what we'll do now."

"Or—hadn't she?"

"No, but Eddie, we were to have been together here for a week before you went away! That's why I—"

She had been going to say that that was why she had bought clothes and furniture, in her wild extravagance. She changed it to "That's why we got married on Saturday, surely! And we can have longer than a week, now. We can have as long as we like—the whole year!"

"You don't know me very well, George, do you?"

"Seems not!" (He was really going, apparently; he was staring back at her from the threshold.)

"I—I honestly can't grasp why you should object to staying here; you needn't be my guest—oh, Eddie, aren't we actually going to see each other for a year?"

"Not unless you send me word that you've given up your job, Jenny."

will know where to find me—I'll keep in touch with little Jen. You can't have everything you want, you know, girl, even if you are Miss Revelt of Matching's. In fact, I'm sure that in the end you won't get nothing."

"What do you mean?" she cried.

"You spoil things like marriage," said Eddie simply. "When you haggle with them. At least, that's what I think."

From where she stood by the table, she saw him reach for his hat and let himself out of the door of the apartment.

It was not until the sound of his footsteps had quite died away that she remembered that he had said—"Jenny comes for me every morning and returns me at ten every night." The little battered clock was nearing ten, but there was as yet no Jenny and Eddie had gone back to his ridiculous room alone.

George's hot, deep color stained her face at her own forgetfulness. Someone ought to have gone with him—she herself ought to have gone with him. She started forward and ran to the door of the apartment, then out to the landing. She leaned far out over the well, because he might be stopping to talk for a few moments with Gill.

But there was no sound of Eddie's voice and she could just glimpse Gill lounging in the doorway of the building.

She went back into the kitchen and tidied and washed up and took off Jenny's overall and went back to her own bedroom. The trousers in the cupboard, she really ought to try it on; see if alterations were needed. It was absurd to own a cupboardful of heavenly clothes and not even know them by sight!

She pulled open the wardrobe-door and began to draw the lovely, scented things up and down the rail on which they hung. How costly they looked! The check she had given for them appeared small when she remembered the sum still to be paid. And she had nothing at all to her credit in the bank; it would be months before she could have anything. As for the savings she had spoken of so emphatically—

Standing there, fingering the beautiful clothes her vanity had craved, she began to suspect that she had been a fool with her money. Perhaps now she was being a fool about Eddie as well. Perhaps he was right and in the end she would get nothing. . . . She slammed the wardrobe shut and mde for the living room. If Jenny didn't come in soon, she would ring up Veda and see whether he would not take her somewhere and dance.

Jenny, sitting very straight in Gratton Matching's great black car, saw Eddie at the corner of Eyle Street.

The car had slowed at the corner and waited the policeman's permission to turn into Eyle Street; the policeman, a friend of Jenny's and Eddie's, was trying to induce Eddie to cross.

"Come on now, sir," he called persuasively. "Here's a clear little bit of road and all you got to do is to hop across it." But Eddie's nerves had hopelessly departed. He leaned against a building and Jenny could see him shake his head, trying to grin.

She had half-opened the door of the car before she remembered the speaking-tube. Then—"I will get out here, please," she directed hurriedly and, while the astonished chauffeur descended and moved to the door at the curb-side, she flung herself out of the opposite one and in a twinkling had Eddie's arm through hers.

After his first exclamation, he allowed her to pilot him across the street in their accustomed way; but when she turned with him in the direction of Mrs. Bigger's shop, he protested.

"Now you just run off home," he commanded. "I can manage a straight bit of pavement all right; it was the crossing that got me. That was all. You'll have to walk, I'm afraid. Your hearse seems to have trundled on without you."

She inspected him anxiously. He looked better, stronger, in spite of his recent fright; but he didn't look at all happy. Not in the least as she had thought he would look when George was home at last.

"You know George is back?" she asked—and found that he was asking the question of her, word by word. Involuntarily, they stopped and stood laughing. "Why aren't you with her?" she asked, when the quiet, companionable moment had passed.

"May I tell Ninth Avenue that you married Eddie?" Jennie asks George tomorrow.

Norman Thomas Again Candidate

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 23. (AP)—Norman Mattoon Thomas, 47-year-old socialist leader from New York and ordained Presbyterian minister, today again was the socialist party's candidate for president.

He was nominated at the national socialist convention yesterday by acclamation after Louis Waldman of New York presented him as a leader who would not "cater to the extremes."

Thomas was the socialist standard bearer in the 1928 presidential election and received 207,420 votes. He was a socialist candidate for governor of New York in 1924 and for mayor of New York city in 1925.

James H. Maurer, gray-haired labor leader from Harrisburg, Pa., will be Thomas' running mate.

The task of selecting its leader over the party turned today to build him a platform and it appeared likely a decision would be reached before the end of the day whether the prohibition question should be a subject for a plank.

Supt. Fisher Owns Residence Here

It was erroneously stated in yesterday's issue of The News that Lynn Boyd owned Supt. R. B. Fisher's residence at 806 North Somerville. Mr. Fisher built the house three years ago and has lived in it, paid taxes on it, since. The author of the article and of this correction, explains that in some way he got the impression that the Boyds, who live next door, owned the place, and that in the enthusiasm of inspecting the flowers in the Fisher yard he took the impression for granted.

WAR VETERAN DIES

HAWLEY IS DEFEATED

PORTLAND, Ore., May 23 (AP) Rep. Willis C. Hawley, veteran Oregon Republican, Congressman, apparently has failed of re-nomination. With only a few scattered precincts unreported today, he was 800 votes behind James W. Mott, state corporation commissioner. Hawley has represented Oregon in Congress 20 years.

Canadian Woman Tells Students Of Early Days, Indians, Trials Of Pioneers, Dugouts, Travel

CANYON, May 23.—Mrs. W. R. Hext of Canadian was a recent interesting visitor in one of the history classes which is conducted by Professor L. F. Sheffy of the West Texas State Teachers college.

According to Mrs. Hext the New England pioneers were not the only ones who worshipped with their guns ready for use should Indians appear.

Speaking of the dugouts which were used as homes in early Panhandle days, Mrs. Hext said, "Some of the dugouts were mighty nice. They managed to get lumber and put in walls and they partitioned them off and made fireplaces."
