RELIEF BILL APPROVED

DEMOS' PLAN MEETS FAVOR OF SENATORS

MEASURE PROVIDES FOR PUBLIC WORKS BOND ISSUE TO COST HALF-BILLION

GARNER BILL GIVEN NO CONSIDERATION BY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The democratic unemployment relief bill, providing for a $500,000,000 public works bond issue was approved today by the senate banking committee.

The bill also provides for increasing the borrowing power of the reconstruction corporation by $1,500,000,000 for loans on self liquidating construction projects.

The committee voted, however, to eliminate provision for loans to competing private industries.

President Hoover has opposed the democratic proposal for a $500,000,000 bond issue, but has approved in principle the remainder of the program.

The committee yesterday approved as a separate bill the democratic proposal for a $300,000,000 fund for loans to states in relief destination, and in an attempt was to be made in the senate today to get an agreement for its consideration.

The senate committee voted 7 to 4 in favor of the democratic Wagner bill including the bond issue program. It agreed to cut out of the Wagner bill provision for loans to limited dividend housing corporations.

Provision was retained in the bill for allocation of $40,000,000 from the reconstruction corporation for financing agricultural exports.

While considering the various relief measures, the committee gave no consideration to the gigantic bill sponsored by Speaker Garner, which passed the house yesterday.

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The senate banking committee voted down today the administration reconstruction program to private industry for loans through the reconstruction.

Sure of Veto

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Representative Tison (R., Conn.), said today he was sure a veto awaited the Garner relief bill, passed by the house yesterday, if it should reach the White House.

Tison, former majority leader, made his statement after talking to President Hoover but said he had not asked the president what he would do if the bill should pass congress.

The chief executive, however, already has executed the bond issue phase of the Garner bill in stinging language, calling it a "pork barrel" measure.

AUSTIN, June 8 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling said he did not intend to ask the state democratic executive committee to submit the question of repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the voters in the July primaries.

HEARING END IS IN SIGHT

Witnesses Claim State Highway Commission Would Hear No Protests.

PALO PINTO, June 8 (AP)—After introduction in evidence of a charge that Mineral Wells was given no opportunity by the highway commission to protest designation of the Bankhead highway cutoff, Judge Sam Russell of Stephenville, hearing a plea to continue its temporary injunction, announced that he would conclude the proceedings, began Monday, either late today or at a night session.

John M. Chamberlain, former secretary of the Mineral Wells chamber of commerce, made the charge.

Chamberlain testified that he went to Austin in 1929, before the road was designated, and was assured by Governor Sterling, then chairman of the state highway commission, that the road would not be designated until after Mineral Wells had been notified. Nevertheless, the witness said, the road was designated on October 22, 1929, and Mineral Wells was not informed of the contemplated action.

Asked by T. T. Bouldin, Mineral Wells, attorney for the plaintiffs, if the chamber of commerce would have sent a delegation to Austin to fight the designation of the cutoff, Chamberlain replied:

"We most assuredly would have."

A. P. Wilbur of Gordon, the next witness, testified that W. R. Ely, present chairman of the highway commission, told him he planned to build a tap road from Gordon to the cutoff, a distance of two and one-half miles. This testimony was offered in an attempt to impeach that of Ely yesterday, who denied he had promised to build any tap roads.

The testimony of O. M. Hurst, mayor of Strawn, who offered in an attempt to show that Strawn would be damaged by building of the cutoff.

Judge Russell, however, ruled that the testimony was not admissible, as he wanted the evidence to apply only to whether Ely or other members of the highway commission had been guilty of fraud, gross mistake, abuse of legislative power or abuse of discretion in designating the cutoff.

Five Raids For Liquor at LeFors

Officers of the sheriff's department visited LeFors last night where they made five raids and gathered in a quantity of whisky and beer. Three arrests were made in connection with the raids.

W. B. Silver was charged with possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale and Justice of the Peace James Todd, Jr., set his bond at $750. Officers said they confiscated a gallon jar of liquor and 63 bottles of beer. Bond for Sam Hodges was set at $500 after he had been charged with possession of beer for the purpose of sale. Officers reported the finding of a quantity of beer on his premises.

One woman was also arrested on the raid but she had not been charged this morning.

KIDNAPING BILL PASSED

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The Patterson bill making interstate kidnapping a federal offense, was passed today by the senate.

FORMER COUNTY JUDGE WOULD REPRESENT FOUR COUNTIES

NAME TO BE ON BALLOT

SUPPORTERS SAY THEY HAVE HIS PROMISE HE'LL RUN

Drafted by his friends, the name of Ivy E. Duncan of Pampa will appear on the democratic primary official ballot for the office of representative of the 122nd legislative district comprising Gray, Donley, Wheeler and Collingsworth counties.

Mr. Duncan was out of the city this morning when his friends announced that his name had been placed on the ballot. They said they received Mr. Duncan's consent Sunday but agreed not to release the information until today.

Born in Duncan, Okla., the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Duncan, Ivy moved to Pampa with his parents in 1908. He received the balance of his education in Pampa, graduating from Pampa high school, attending Baylor University and then Lebanon Law school at Cumberland university, Lebanon, Tenn., where he received his law degree. Before entering Cumberland university, Mr. Duncan acted as deputy county clerk of Gray county.

Mr. Duncan is past president of the Pampa Lions club. He is a director of the Pampa Board of City Development, being chairman of the highway committee of that body.

"Someone had to make the sacrifice to represent Gray county and Mr. Duncan is in this district at Austin and we felt that Ivy Duncan was the man for the office," his supporters said this morning. "Ivy is qualified for the office in every respect. He will be able to move to Austin during sessions of the legislature and in touch with the necessary actions pertaining to this district and the state."

Mr. Duncan is married and has two children. He is a large property holder in Pampa.

George Benton Announces For District Clerk

George Benton, a resident of this county for the past 28 years, has authorized THE NEWS to announce his candidacy for the office of district clerk of Gray county.

Mr. Benton says that he is qualified to fill the office because of his education and business experience. He is a man with a family and needs the job, he said. He is the son of one of the oldest residents in this section of the country. During the past ten years Mr. Benton has been a wheat farmer in this county.

"If elected to the office of district clerk for this county, I will endeavor to fill the office in a business like and courteous manner," Mr. Benton says. "Although I have not had any experience in that department, I am willing to learn and will, to the best of my knowledge, conduct it as the law requires."

"It is my desire to visit every voter in the county and explain to him and her personally my reason for running for office and ask for their vote and influence in the race."

Judge Bishop Is Out For Congress

AMARILLO, June 8 (AP)—Henry S. Bishop of Amarillo, judge of the 47th judicial district, has filed for a place on the ballot opposing congressman Marvin Jones, up for reelection from the eighteenth district.

TEXAS BONUS QUEEN

"Queen of Texas' 'bonus army.'" was the title bestowed on Mary Arnold, 23, pretty brown-eyed wife of C. S. Arnold, Atlanta, Ga., World War veteran, when she enlisted with her husband for the march to Washington. She is the only woman known to be with the "army." Here you see her, attired in overalls, smiling a farewell to Dallas, Tex., when the long trek started by box car. At her right is her husband, a war-time dispatch rider of the 116th field artillery. They abandoned a placer miner in Arizona to join the "march," making their first hitch by refrigerator car.

HUNDREDS FILL CHURCH TO HEAR MINISTERS EULOGIZE F. P. REID AT LAST RITES

SERVICES OF BUILDER OF PANHANDLE ARE EXTOLLED

"When a builder dies it is a great loss to his community and his state and Pampa and Texas has truly lost a builder in the death of F. P. Reid who passed away suddenly Sunday night," was the tribute of three ministers at services for Mr. Reid yesterday afternoon in the first Methodist church.

More than a thousand friends passed the bier before it was taken to Fairview cemetery where Masonic services were conducted. The church was filled to capacity and a cortege of cars one-half mile long accompanied the remains of the veterans roadbuilder and booster to its last resting place.

Pampa business houses, the city hall and churches closed during the funeral services in honor of the man who had served the city as mayor for seven years, who started the Pampa fair, was active in chamber of commerce work and church activities. The funeral was held under the direction of G. C. Malone, Funeral Home.

"A Christian since he was seven years of age, Mr. Reid has been a pillar in the Methodist churches at Mobeetie and Pampa for the past 35 years," Rev. Long said. "He was a builder and a booster and his works will live long years. It will take years of work yet to accomplish some of the work he has started."

The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church said in part, "After his Christian duties, Mr. Reid's first consideration was the better roads and Highway 41 from Oklahoma City to Denver must be made a reality and dedicated as a monument to Mr. Reid who looked into the future, knowing that he would not ride over the smooth road when finished but that his children and friends would have the opportunity. Mr. Reid has made life

SCHNEIDER COMMISSION SUIT REVERSED BY HIGHER COURT

Another Residence Burglarized Here

Petty thefts continue in Pampa despite several arrests and the recovery of large quantities of clothing. Officers are working without letup on the cases and hope to make arrests soon. Two youths were arrested Saturday and clothing stolen from two local residents recovered.

The latest theft was reported this morning by Mrs. Irvin Taylor who resides on South Wilcox street. Mrs. Taylor reported the loss of two suits, old trousers, hats and shoes; also bedclothing, an army blanket, violin, victrola and tools.

Entry was gained through a window. The police are urging owners to keep their homes securely locked until they can cope with the situation.

ELY VOLLEY OVERLOOKED

Governor Sterling Not Offended by Highway Chairman's Fiery Statements.

AUSTIN, June 8 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling said today that "a fellow is likely to say things under fire that he would not give expression to normally," in declaring he was not offended by testimony given by W. R. Ely, chairman of the highway commission at Palo Pinto.

Ely, testifying in a suit for injunction to restrain the commission from building the so-called Weatherford cutoff of the Bankhead highway, referring to the attitude of Governor Sterling opposing the project at this time, said he would not permit a governor to dictate to him.

"Judge Ely has done too much hard work for Texas for to criticize him and I know he did not mean any reflection on me," Governor Sterling said. "Having been chairman of the highway commission once myself I know just how difficult Ely's job is. He has done fine work on the highway commission. There are absolutely no differences between us. I merely do not approve of building the cutoff at this time because I am not in favor of expending any public funds whatsoever unless it is absolutely necessary."

Governor Sterling said he believed there were more people who favored construction of the cutoff than there were opposing it.

Court of Honor To Be On Friday

Twelve Pampa Boy Scouts will appear for 24 merit badges at four of Eagle Scout at a Court of Honor Friday night in the district courtroom in the courthouse. The boys appeared before a board of review in the Methodist church last night.

James Todd, Jr., chairman of the Court of Honor committee, will preside. He will be assisted by troop committeemen from the various troops.

Mr. Todd urged parents to attend the ceremony Friday night. The boys deserve the support of their parents in their work, Mr. Todd says.

Scouts making application for the Eagle rank have received 21 or more merit badges.

Woman Charged In Pistol Case

A woman is being held in county jail in connection with a disturbance at a dance hall on the Boppeg road last night. She was arrested soon after by city officers and turned to the county. The officers also arrested four men at the same time.

The woman pleaded not guilty to a charge of rudely displaying a pistol in a public place and remanded for trial. Justice of the Peace James Todd, Jr., had not set the time of the trial at noon.

Sheriff's officers answered the disturbance call but the offenders had disappeared before they arrived on the scene.

Underpass Being Built on Barnes

The Fort Worth and Denver railway bridge crew arrived in Pampa yesterday and started work on the "false work" for the overhead bridge across Barnes street. Steel is rapidly approaching Pampa and should reach the outskirts by Friday or Saturday.

The channel steel cannot be laid across the underpass until steel reaches that point as two spans, each 80 feet long and eight feet thick have to be brought to that point on flat cars. A huge crane will lift the girders and put them in place.

Barnes street has been blocked and southbound traffic is being detoured west two blocks and then south to the city limits. Although the detour starts at Albert street, Barnes street will be open one block south to Field street as several business houses are located in that block.

BRIDGE APPROVED

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The senate today approved a bill authorizing the Fort Hancock-Formentor Bridge company to construct a toll bridge over the Rio Grande at Fort Hancock, Texas. It now goes to the president.

IVY E. DUNCAN
Friends of Ivy E. Duncan have had his name placed on the official ballot for representative of the 122nd legislative district. Mr. Duncan, prominent Pampa lawyer, has been a resident of this county for the last 26 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Duncan.

"My Hero!" Says Jim To 'Roughness' After Eagle Fray

There's no telling what might happen if a giant eagle with angry yellow eyes, spurs, claws and beak primed to slash, should attack a person at the top of a 35-foot tree.

And James Poole, member of the Harvester football squad, did not know what was going to happen to him yesterday' out on Ledrick's Chicken Creek ranch when he was energetically climbing to an eagle's nest in a tree on the river, and the mther eagle descended like a bolt out of the blue, headed straight for Jim. Her claws and beak were set in such a manner that Jim could already feel them in his bicycle.

However, just as the eagle was a few feet away from Jim, Siler (Roughness) Faulkner, on the ground below shattered the eagle with a discharge from a shotgun he was carrying. "Roughness" claims he saved Jim's life, and that Jim did not know whether he or the eagle was shot.

Since Saturday, "Roughness" Jim and H. L. (Chicken Creek) Ledrick have been out on the Ledrick ranch. Jim was not only good at finding an eagle's nest but he found several prairie chickens that were little chicks a few weeks old, and many an oldtimer of Chicken creek has never seen a little prairie chicken.

Jury Is Out On Partnership Suit

A 114th district court jury declined to answer a special issue in Judge E. F. Ritchey's charge as to whether H. E. Saunders was a partner in S. B. Crossman and Amarillo service station, but decided that Crossman owed the Simms Oil Company $1,837.03 for gasoline. The twelve men also did not answer six other special issues. They returned their verdict this afternoon. The question of partnership was not decided in the verdict. This was the principal issue in the case.

The charge in the case in the Simms Oil company's suit for debt against Horace E. Saunders in 1924, district court was read to the jury at 9:30 o'clock last night following a night session. At noon today the jury had not reported. Judge E. F. Ritchey presided.

The plaintiffs entered testimony to show that S. B. Crossman became indebted to the company for gasoline when operating a filling station in Amarillo and that Mr. Saunders was Crossman's partner and was therefore responsible for the debt. Mr. Saunders contended that he was not a partner of Crossman although he advanced money to Mr. Crossman. He claimed that his name did not appear on the sales contract.

W. M. Lewright represented Mr. Saunders. The oil company was represented by Shannon and Phieffer of Amarillo.

MORE BODIES FOUND

PROCLAMATION BEING ISSUED BY GLASSFORD

WASHINGTON ANXIOUS TO GET RID OF 'B. E. F.'

INFERENCE IS CLEAR

TRANSPORTATION OUT OF CITY WILL BE FURNISHED

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—With resources for feeding the thousands of veterans here about exhausted, Police Superintendent Glassford today prepared a notice to the bonus seekers that the authorities tomorrow will gladly furnish transportation out of the city to such of those who are ready to return home.

At police headquarters it was referred to as being in the nature of a "proclamation," with an inference of an order for evacuating being in mind. It developed, however, that the plan is more for a document in the nature of a request—with the clear inference that the District of Columbia is anxious to rid itself of its bedraggled visitors.

Meanwhile, leaves in military posts in this vicinity have been restricted. Officers and men understand that they are to stand ready for any emergency duty that they may be called upon to perform.

Communist contingents among the veterans, in a decided minority, abandoned plans for a demonstration today but arranged tentatively to make one on Friday in the form of attempting to present a petition on Capitol Hill.

Police Watchful

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Police kept in constant touch today with federal authorities as the number of the veterans here seeking the bonus payment continued to grow. There were reports that army posts in the vicinity of Washington had taken precautionary protective moves in view of the mounting numbers of veterans in the city. Police estimated that nearly 10,000 would be in the capital by the end of the week.

The inhospitable reception they received at the hands of police and Capitol building officials when they applied for permission to parade there, today caused leaders of the communist organization, the workers' ex-servicemen's league, to cancel their demonstration for today. Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Garner directed that they be given no permit to parade on Capitol grounds.

One of those sunsets yesterday afternoon that was worth living in the Panhandle at least a year, to see. It was a sensational sunset. What if the pampas have only one tree (on the road to Amarillo) and no forests nor mountains if a red sunset such as yesterday's may be seen every so often!

FOLLOWING FALSE GODS

(Editor's Note: Occasionally a writer with deep insight looks into the collective soul of the nation with unprejudiced eyes and turns to tell the people the cause of their misery. Such an article is "The False Gods" by Walter Lippman, reprinted here with permission from the New York Herald Tribune.)

From what source come these unmanly fears that prevail among us? These dark forebodings? This despairing impotence? What is it that has shaken the nerves of so many? It is the doubt whether there exists among the people that trust in each other which is the first condition of intelligent leadership.

A demoralized people is one in which the individual has become isolated and is the prey of his own suspicions. He trusts nobody and nothing, not even himself. He believes nothing, except the worst of everybody and everything.

The last ten years have been a time of exceptionally drastic change in the underlying convictions of western men. For reasons which it is not easy to state briefly or even clearly to discern, it seems as if in this decade the change in life brought about by science and machinery and the modern city, by democracy and by popular education, has struck with full impact and with cumulative force against the traditional morality, the social conventions and the ideals of the mass of men.

During this decade the country has been making the experiment of outlawing an ancient and general human appetite. Those in high places have known quite well how badly the experiment was working, what stupendous lawlessness and corruption the prohibition law was producing.

During this same decade those in high places have steadfastly preached to the people that it was their destiny to have two-car garages and eight-tube radio sets. This was the ideal they held out before the people, to be acquisitive, to seek feverishly to become richer and richer, to prostrate themselves before the Golden Calf.

For if you teach a people for ten years that the character of its government is not greatly important, that political success is for those who equivocate and evade, and if you tell them that acquisitiveness is the ideal, that things are what matters, that Mammon is God, then you must not be astounded at the confusion in Washington, or the nonchalance of James J. Walker, or the vermin who in a hundred different ways exploited the tragedy of the Lindbergh baby.

Those in high places are more than the administrators of government bureaus. They are more than the writers of laws. They are the custodians of a nation's ideals, of the beliefs it cherishes, of its permanent hopes, of the faith which makes a nation out of a mere aggregation of individuals.

It is not only against the material consequences of this decade of drift and hallucination, but against the essence of its spirit that the best and bravest among us are today in revolt. They are looking for new leaders, for men who are truthful and resolute and eloquent in the conviction that the American destiny is to be free and magnanimous, rather than complacent and acquisitive; they are looking for leaders who will talk to the people not about two-car garages and a bonus, but about their duty, and about the discipline they must impose upon themselves, and about their responsibility to the world and to posterity, about all those things which make a people self-respecting, serene, and confident. May they not look in vain.

Nacogdoches Girl Dies After Crash

The heir to his post as district governor is our own fellow Pampa, C. Herbert Walker. Mr. Walker knows Lionism and is the logical man to follow Braswell. We have kept "Hub's" hair neatly parted in the middle and have seen to it that he conducted himself in the right manner.

We will correct the Dallas newspapers by mentioning that the cowboy band is from San Angelo, not Abilene. It is a singing stringed band composed entirely of Lions, and they sing cowboy songs in a western way. We'd like to have them at Frontier Days next year. Or better yet, why not get up our own Frontier Day troubadors?

Although as one wag put it, troublous times continue to Hoover over us, and although a lot of rich men are committing suicide when their fortunes dwindle to as "little" as $200,000, not one of the more than one hundred thousand Lions has thus taken his life. You bear relatively little of the depression among men endowed with the civic club spirit of give, rather than get.

We have no delusions of the fact that civic club members are only imperfectly attuned to their slogans and codes of ethics. We are aware of some littleness and selfishness in the ranks. But we are convinced that in no other groups are to be found more of the unselfishness, comradeship, and good citizenship sorely needed in the world today.

This country has too much taxation and too little voluntary service to neighbors and communities. There is too much confiscation of capital, as compared with profits; too little investment of the time and interest of business men in their communities. Unless there be a community of thought, of ideals, of aspirations, how can men escape destructive practices in business and industry? There may be a substitute for civic clubs, but none is yet on the horizon.

Claim Loans at Harlingen Ruined Missouri Company

ST. LOUIS, June 8 (AP)—The Post-Dispatch said today mortgage loans on real estate in the lower Rio Grande valley, the Texas grapefruit belt, were a principal factor in bringing about the receivership of the Farm & Home Savings & Loan association at Nevada, Mo.

Last summer the Texas Building and Loan Supervision Bureau asked the company to scale down the valuation of its holdings by $1,300,000. A reserve of $1,700,000 was set up to care for depreciation in Texas, but this resulted in tapping the reserve established for retiring matured certificates, with the result that the certificates did not mature within the estimated periods.

Governor Merry About Candidates

AUSTIN, June 8 (AP)—"The weather's hot and the water's fine," is Governor Sterling's invitation to gubernatorial aspirants. He said today the governor's race was open to all comers and everyone who wanted to aspire the chief executiveship "certainly has a right to do so."

Ivy E. Duncan left for Dallas early this morning where he will join Mrs. Duncan and their son who is undergoing treatment in a Dallas hospital.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 8. (AP)—The Louisiana legislature today placed its approval on a resolution by Senator Waldo Dugas, Lafayette, to submit repeal of the eighteenth prohibition amendment to the people of Louisiana at the November election, when the House of Representatives approved the measure 71 to 25.

C. A. Provost, addressing the House before the vote, said the measure "allowed the people of Louisiana an opportunity to express themselves on the matter of prohibition."

There was no response from opponents.

The resolution becomes effective without further notice.

Anderson Is Named City Hall Janitor

E. L. Anderson was named janitor at the city hall during a brief session of the city commission yesterday afternoon. Mr. Anderson took over his new duties this morning.

The commission discussed the purchase of right-of-way for highway 33 through the city but took no definite action. The highway enters the city through the Lavender addition on the west and Frederick street on the east.

Irish Senate Is Agreed Upon Oath

DUBLIN, Irish Free Stat., June 8. (AP)—Eamon de Valera's effort to abolish the Free State oath of allegiance to the British crown advanced another step today when the senate in committee, agreed without division to that section of his measure which abolishes the form of the oath to be taken by members of parliament.

At the same time the senate defeated by 30 to 22 another section which would repeal the provision of the Free State act stipulating that anything in the constitution repugnant to the Anglo-Irish treaty shall be null and void.

Hobo King Tells Bums To Stay Out Of U. S. Capital

CINCINNATI, O., June 8. (AP)—Jeff Davis, "King of Hoboes," sent word to "jungs" and "tanks" throughout the nation today for hoboes to stay out of Washington, and give world war veterans free rein in seeking payment on their bonus certificates.

The orders are to be passed by word of mouth. His instruction, Davis said, followed word from Washington that Dan Brien, calling himself a hobo, had issued a call for the wanderers to gather in Washington and demand "good food and clean beds."

"The hoboes are contented; the hoboes are satisfied," Davis protested. "We believe the soldiers should get their bonus. We don't want to see the soldiers become hoboes, too, but we don't want to see any body else butting in."

Davis is president of the "American Workers' Union, hoboes of America" organized 24 years ago. Fifty years old, he has been a hobo for 28 years.

STOCK TUMBLE

NEW YORK, June 8. (AP)—Stocks slid back almost steadily for their successive day today, wiping out a good portion of last week's recovery. The list closed with a weak tone, with a number of losses ranging from 1 to 5 points. The turnover approximated a million shares.

Beard is the holder of the official American record of 14.2 seconds for the high sticks, which is one-fifth of a second under the accepted world mark. He will represent the New York A. C. during the Olympic trials.

'Babe' Didrikson Wants Job Back

DALLAS, June 8. (AP)—Mildred (Babe) Didrikson had changed her mind today about quitting her job and was back in Dallas to see if her employers would change theirs.

The noted girl athlete said she would ask reinstatement with the Golden Cyclone team and with the company which sponsors them. She walked out when the company refused to give her an immediate added week's vacation.

AKRON TO RETURN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8. (AP)—Arrangements for the return of the navy dirigible Akron from Sunnyvale, Cal., to Lakehurst, N. J., probably starting Friday or Saturday, were being made here today at district headquarters.

MINERS KILLED

MIAMI, Okla., June 8. (AP)—James Miller, 23, was killed instantly and Edward Miller, 28, not a relative, died within 39 minutes after a hoisting cable dragged 200 feet to the bottom of the shaft at the Niagara mine, near Picher, today.

TEXAS GOLFER LOSES

Oklahoma cities and towns have a per capita debt and only a little more than one-third the average of the nation's cities, according to information compiled recently by Roy Eaton, instructor in government at the University of Oklahoma.

Court Decides In Favor Old City

AUSTIN, June 8. (AP)—Texas courts today placed their seal of approval on the incorporation of Fredericksburg, founded in 1846 in the Hill country and for many years considered the biggest unincorporated town in the commonwealth.

The third court of civil appeals upheld a decision of the Gillespie county district court finding the picturesque little town's special election of 1928 when a majority voted to incorporate valid.

That election was the fourth in which an effort had been made to create a municipality. Three former attempts had been rejected by the voters.

The case on appeal was in the nature of a quo warranto proceeding. It had been tried once before and taken to the supreme court. In that appeal the higher court held that the district court, where the case originated, had erred in sustaining general demurrers to the contestants' pleadings instead of trying the cause on facts.

The appeal that time came up through the San Antonio civil appeals court, but was brought to the Austin appellate tribunal this time through an equalization of civil appeals courts dockets.

Contestants claimed that those who fixed the boundaries of the proposed municipality had acted fraudulently and arbitrarily in excluding certain territory.

M. B. Blair, associate justice of the civil appeals court, said this probably was the first instance in history where an incorporation contest had been based on "too little territory" included rather than too much.

Jurors Investigate Prices of Groceries

DALLAS, June 8. (AP)—A special grand jury endeavored today to learn why Dallas county has bought bread at 60 cents a loaf, celery at 75 cents a stalk and crackers at $1.10 a pound.

These boom prices for groceries were noted in the report of an auditing firm on the upkeep of the county's detention home. The auditor's report was accompanied by elaborate tables of statistics and photostatic copies of 171 purchase tickets.

Purchases so listed were made between August, 1927, and July of last year.

THIRTY-THREE CHILDREN ARE IN CONDITION

OTHERS ARE URGED TO TAKE NECESSARY HEALTH STEPS

Remedial defects are being corrected for a number of Gray county children as they prepare to enter the first grade of school next fall, it was announced by physicians who aided with the pre-school clinic.

A follow-up committee, representing the county council of Parent-Teacher associations, is urging that all defects be corrected as soon as possible in order that the first grade of school next year may be as free from remedial defects as is possible. The council, headed by Mrs. W. B. Murphy as president, is sponsoring the summer round-up.

The pre-school clinic was held in the following 12 schools of Gray county: Laketon, Kiplinger, Back, Webb, Hopkins No. 1, Hopkins No. 2, Alameed, McClelland, LeFors, Grandview, and Bell.

Of 154 children examined, 33 were seemingly perfect. There were 237 defects found, with tonsils, adenoids, and teeth giving more trouble than anything else.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MOVEMENT HAS SEEN STEADY PROGRESS; NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

NEWS ITEMS OF SKELLYTOWN

BOSTON, Mass., June 8—The steady progress of the Christian Science movement during a year marked by a general slowing down in human activities was emphasized here this week in reports presented at the annual meeting of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist. Members from many parts of the world—more than 6000 in all—listened to reports of the various departments of the organization.

Announcement was made of the election of the following officers: President—Hon. Ralph O. Brewster of Dexter, Maine. Clerk—Erna W. Palmer of Brookline, Mass.

Treasurer—Edward L. Ripley of Brookline, Mass. First reader—Gordon V. Comer of Denver, Colo.

Second reader—Miss Lucia C. Coulson of London, Eng. In his address, the new president, Governor Brewster, stated in part: "The disciples of Christian Science face with others the challenge of a testing time to determine whether their conception of the universe is founded on words of sand or on the rock of an understanding that is equal to every test. Out into the highways and byways goes the disciple of Christian Science to demonstrate his capacity to meet the problems common to mankind. To the extent that disciples of Christian Science shall exemplify its teachings for suffering humanity, hungry after the things that shall really satisfy, to that extent the world will be restored to the path from which it has wandered."

"It has been our privilege to witness and record inspiring growth during the past year," was the message read by Miss M. Rosamond Wright, manager of the department of branches and practitioners.

Thirty-eight Christian Science societies have qualified for the title of church, and 92 branch church organizations have been added. During the year the first branches of the mother church were recognized in Greece, Belgium, and Czechoslovakia. The mother church now has 2592 branch churches and societies; also 42 college or university organizations formed and conducted in accordance with the annual of the mother church.

In a message from the Christian Science board of directors, read by George Wendell Adams, chairman of the board 1931-1932, brief mention of the new publishing house was made.

Reporting for committees on publication, the Hon. Mr. C. Augustus Norwood, manager, pointed out that legal recognition has been accorded the Christian Science organization in one additional jurisdiction, Czechoslovakia.

MEN BALL PLAYERS, BEWARE!

By HOLLYCE SELLERS HINKLE

So the women of San Marcos have organized a baseball team! Congratulations to them, and may they defeat at least one of those 12 men's teams which have been formed in that city!

Did we hear some man chuckle? Of course. Just as they chuckled a score of years ago when it was suggested that women would equal men in swimming and tennis. Just as they chuckled when women suggested making speeches and entering business.

The San Marcos women may well be encouraged by the fact that in the spring of last year two lusty women were signed by professional baseball teams. At that time the Columbia Missourian commented as follows:

"The skeptic says it was for publicity. Be that as it may, it is admittedly true that there are some surprisingly good women ball players. They have shown exceptional ability in other sports, such as tennis, golf, and swimming for years.

"This tendency suggests interesting possibilities. Will we hear over our radios: 'Susie Jones socked the apple over the fence—it's a homer!' or 'Buxom Betty Brown crashed through left tackle for eight yards,' or 'Kid Katherine floored the Mauler with a left hook to the jaw?'"

So, "for the sake of the cause," may the San Marcos women enjoy a successful season!

A feeling of inability to compete with men players has caused many women to avoid active participation in organized sports. They have missed all the fun and benefit of the health-giving exercise merely to avoid those chuckles of their male companions. But why not give the men a treat! Let them laugh. Some day the laugh will be on them!

Questions Are Answered; Box Is Maintained

The question box at the Church of Christ is proving quite interesting. Evangelist C. Ellis McGaughey is answering Bible questions each evening for those who have problems in understanding the scriptures.

The house was filled almost to capacity last evening when Mr. McGaughey spoke on "The Gospel for Today." He said in part: "Walk on the earth today and see how last we ride and notice other changes since their day it would be exciting to them. And because of our progress in temporal affairs, many think we need a new gospel. The gospel needed for today is not a new or a revised gospel but the old gospel that was preached 1900 years ago. We should ask for the old paths and walk them."

In order for one to preach the gospel each day that one must preach the God of the Bible to be a real God, one that is able to bless and to curse. The Christ of the Bible should be preached as the miraculous son of God, born of the virgin, crucified, and raised from the grave by the power of God. The church of the Bible should be proclaimed in its oneness and purity. The gospel of salvation should be preached as in the days of the apostles, and during that time all became Christians in the same way. "Today we have various churches and various ways of becoming members of them. We have over 200 denominations and about 1,600 creeds, but the church of the Bible is the one we should belong to and the Bible should be our creed." "Believing a Lie" is the subject for 8:30 o'clock this evening.

Railways in several European countries are increasing passenger rates.

RECORDS KEPT OF SCHOOL'S ACHIEVEMENTS

PICTURES, ARTICLES ARE PLACED IN SCRAP BOOKS

Historical progress is soon forgotten if no records are kept of that progress. And so it is with school achievements.

Realizing that fact, Woodrow Wilson school pupils and teachers have reported to The NEWS all happenings which are in any way out of the ordinary and have clipped the articles for permanent records. "You would be surprised," said Mrs. Annie Daniels, principal, "how carefully the children watched the papers last year in order that no article pertaining to the school might be passed unnoticed."

One clipping based on each activity has been placed by Mrs. Daniels in an attractive scrap book.

On the first page of the book is a picture of Supt. R. B. Fisher, a picture of the school, and an article about the principal. As the pages are turned, articles may be found on the following subjects: Chapel services, special class work, individual honors, programs presented for the Parent-Teacher association, music contests, observance of special days, honor rolls, entertainments, the summer round-up, the police patrol, a visit of Kiwanians to a chapel service, "dress up" day, praise given by visitors from Canyon, and closing of school picnic. There is also a discussion based on Woodrow Wilson, for whom the school was named.

There are pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle, who "help write the news," and group pictures of the entire school, the teachers, the second grade band and the pep squad.

NEW MEMBERS ARE RECEIVED BY LOCAL CLUB

Six new members were voted into the Treble Clef club at a meeting held this morning at the First Baptist church. They are Mrs. Harry Lyman, Mrs. Frank Smith, Miss Dorothy Dodd, Mrs. Frank Keesh, Mrs. L. O. Wirsching, and Mrs. J. B. Townsend.

The new members were voted upon during a business meeting held following the regular rehearsal. It was also voted to enforce the following sections of the constitution: Section 2—All members, both active and associate, shall pay dues at each business meeting.

Section 3—Any club member absenting himself from three consecutive meetings shall have her name dropped from the list of membership, unless prevented from attendance by illness, absence from town, or is excused by the executive committee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fisher and children; Betty and Jimmy, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Murphy.

"APPAREL FOR WOMEN"

Gambler's Throw

by Eustace L. Adams

SYNOPSIS: Jerry Calhoun, Emory Rutledge and a detective, Stevens, are preparing for an intensive hunt after the kidnapers who carried off Nancy Wentworth, a wealthy business woman. They plan to follow down the gang by airplane, as both boys are pilots. Jerry, and the others are being held while their relatives pay "board money" to ensure their safety. The money was collected by a hydroplane, which gives a clue to the modern methods and resources of the kidnapers. Meanwhile the captives find themselves transported by plane to some unknown place of tropical heat. They see only a woman, and their nerves grow strained in the suspense and heat. One of the millionaires, Mallory, tells Nancy he has been in love with her for years and tries to kiss her—when someone intervenes.

Chapter 9

A DANGEROUS MAN

THE whirling blur of things steadied. Nancy's eyes returned to focus. A long breath or two and she was almost herself.

Before her was the gangster One-shot Lucci, balancing himself lightly upon the balls of his feet, rubbing the knuckles of his right hand and staring at her with his bright, hard little eyes. His shock of black hair was slicked back against his head, glued down with pomade. She could smell the ifiac scent of it.

"If he tries to neck you again, I'll kill him," he declared flatly. "Lucky I happened by." He paused a moment in thought. Then his brow cleared. "Wouldn't it be better if I cracked his neck right now? There wouldn't be a squawk outa him."

"No, no, please!" she turned a sob into a nervous laugh. "Thank you so much, Mr. Lucci, but let's not add to our troubles." Mr. Lucci looked as though he thought the trouble would be negligible, a thing to be forgotten in the next breath, but she hurried on. "I'm sure he won't bother me again."

Mallory was struggling to his feet, his green eyes hot and murderous. A bluish lump was already becoming evident on the point of his chin. He lurched as he turned and staggered into the house.

"That's what too much hooch does to a guy," Lucci observed philosophically. "If that bird was in training, now, he could muscle his way through quite a good set." He wiped his forehead with a florid handkerchief of lavender silk, bordered and initialed in purple. "Gee, ain't it hot! Have you got any idea where we are, Miss Wentworth?"

"Not the slightest." She drew a long breath of relief. A danger point had been passed in safety. "Mr. Mallory thinks we're on one of the southernmost islands of the Bahama group. Mr. Hamilton thinks we are on the Florida coast."

"How long were you in that plane?"

"It must have been fifteen or sixteen hours. The curtains were drawn during the day time and we landed at night, so we couldn't see whether we had been flying over land or water."

"Fifteen hours," echoed the gangster reflectively. "That knocks my idea out of the picture. I figured we'd been in the air long enough to get to California or maybe Mexico. But I don't think they could have carried you that far from New York. It's hot enough to be 'way down in the tropics. Well, I'll pass. We'll know sometime, I guess, if we don't all get bumped off down here fighting with each other. Have they said anything to you about ransom money?"

"Not a word. Nor to any of the others, so far as I know. Perhaps that's one of the things that makes the tension and the uncertainty."

"Well, it's a swell racket, whatever they're doing about collecting for us. They bought this island, and this portable house for $15,000, say. The airplane cost them fifteen—twenty grand more. The clothes they bought for us when we got down here, and the eats, drinks and furniture, say, another five grand. That's something like $40,000. God knows how much they will chisel outa us before they turn us loose. But me, I don't mind. It's worth whatever it costs. I didn't think any red hot living could teach me a good racket. And this one's a wow."

His calm analysis of the situation as a business proposition appealed to her sense of humor and quickly restored her nerve.

She had heard of notorious One-shot Lucci, as had every other newspaper-reading inhabitant of the United States. Tales of his diabolical ferocity, his cold-blooded use of machine guns, bombs, airplanes and other frightful weapons of modern warfare, his brazen disregard for life or man-made law, his complete domination of more than two-thirds of the entire criminal element of the country, had been widely written up in the press. She, in common with millions of others, had imagined One-shot Lucci to be a modern edition of the wild west gunman of popular fiction.

Instead, he reminded her of the prosperous fellow who owned her favorite fruit shop in New York. It was only the expression of his eyes, chill as brown agate, and the hard set to his jaw that was markedly different. Yet those two features alone told her that he might be—that he was—all of those things delineated by the newspapers. His exceptional intelligence, combined with a total lack of moral sense, made him what he indubitably was, one of the most dangerous men in America.

"Well, what do you see?" His crisp voice, with scarcely a trace of accent, challenged her.

"Very little that I did not know," he accepted her thrust.

"I must find a cool spot," she said. She turned toward the door and had nearly reached the sanctuary of the darkened interior when his voice, cool and measured, came to her.

"Next time anyone starts to make love to you, Nancy, tell him that I'll toss his heart out to the sharks."

She wheeled around, her courage returning, determined to fight it out then and there. He had disappeared. His steps could be heard slithering through the sawgrass around the corner of the porch.

Not since the spy scares during the World War had there been such a general feeling of distrust pervading the country as that which followed the bold raids of the kidnapers in Chicago.

Newspapers were filled with headlines reporting the latest vague pronouncements of the police which, when analyzed, revealed that the officials knew nothing and were at their wits' end.

Every airplane manufacturing plant in the United States was visited by police who checked the name of each recent purchaser of an amphibian or a flying boat. Work of checking the records of such craft was proceeding apace but, since aviators are notably a migratory lot, months would be needed to complete the work.

Attorneys representing the two Chicago millionaires took the train for New York, with a man who was reputedly the cleverest criminal lawyer in the United States, who represented One-shot Lucci.

After a very lengthy conference with the firm of Hammond, Smyth, Whittelsey, Van Ashforth and Hammond, the reward fund was increased to $150,000 for each person rescued from captivity. Also $250,000 was offered to the person or persons causing the arrest and conviction of the leader of the kidnaping band.

An undenied rumor was published in the press stating that a score of wealthy men had underwritten a huge fund to be used in retaining the services of the two largest private detective agencies in the country to work independently of each other and of the police.

On Saturday, the 15th, it was announced that a demand had been made upon the friends and relatives of the Chicago victims for a "board bill" of $100,000 each, to be placed in a rowboat anchored upon Lake Michigan exactly 13 miles east of the Great Lakes naval training station. Specific mention was made in the demand that watch would be set for aircraft or surface vessels. Warning was given that if a similar trap were set on Lake Michigan to that of Montank point, no effort would be made to take the money and the prisoners would bear the brunt of retaliation. As before, the notes were written and enclosed in non-descript stationery but were, on this occasion, mailed from a box in Chicago's populous Loop. There were no finger prints nor any other traceable clues.

At nine o'clock the following Wednesday morning, a large cabin monoplane zoomed off an uneven field of stubble on the outskirts of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and flew southward at an amazing speed. When it turned out over Lake Michigan at Waukegan, its altitude was such as to render it almost invisible from the ground.

Twenty-four thousand feet above the vast expanse of inland sea, three men were comfortably seated in its heated, enclosed cabin. Jerry, his gray eyes sparkling, was at the joystick.

(Copyright, Dial Press)

Jerry is grimly determined to chase the kidnapers, this time, to their hidden headquarters. Tomorrow, the strange plane appears again, which would have enabled them to name a new premier.

The republicans maintain that such an emergency decree would be unconstitutional because article 48 permits such a step only when public peace is menaced, but the plan was being openly advocated in highest circles.

With a man named by Chancellor Van Papan at its head, the government of Prussia would be expected naturally to fall in line with the rightist policies of the new federal regime.

The present state of Prussia's finances gave the rightist another hope that the federal government would intervene. Chancellor Von Papan informed Heinrich Hirtzler, centrist head of the acting government, yesterday that the reich would not pay some $25,000,000 now due Prussia for realty transfers, and this declaration seriously complicated Prussia's financial condition.

AMERICAN TORTURED FOR FIVE MONTHS BY CHINESE BANDITS

SHANGHAI, June 8 (AP)—A harrowing tale of five months of terror and filthy living conditions was told here today by Captain Charles Baker, American steam boat captain released last week near Hankow by Chinese bandits who kidnaped him last winter.

Captain Baker, who was released through efforts of American missionaries after many previous attempts had been made to meet ransom demands of his captors, arrived here on his way to the United States.

"I was threatened with death fifty times," he said. "I never expected to survive. These half-civilized, treacherous, inhuman bandits, who call themselves communists, are conducting a wholesale kidnaping business. Their victims are any foreigners or wealthy Chinese they can lay their hands on who, they believe, would be capable of paying huge ransoms."

During the entire five months his food consisted only of half-cooked rice, and fish twice a day, he said. "It was filthy," he said, "but I ate it occasionally. I refused to drink the water they offered me, however, until it was boiled. I slept in mud huts on bare boards beside the outlaws."

Although he was frequently threatened with execution, because the ransom demand of 50,000 Mexican dollars was not met, he was mistreated physically only once.

"Then I was chained and beaten," he said, "apparently because a newly-arrived chief wished to impress his followers."

Captain Baker was brought here from Hankow on the United States naval river gunboat Panay. The Panay is a sister ship of the Oahu, which yesterday was reported to have fired on a group of bandits on the upper Yangtze, near Chungking.

"The Americans treated me royally," he said. "I cannot express how good the clean bed, food and water they offered me looked, after five months of wallowing in dirt and filth in disease-infested bandit huts."

"I had no bath or change of clothing during the entire time I was a captive, and the lice made life a nightmare. The Americans, under Lieutenant-Commander W. J. Morcott, brought me back to life."

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Republican prohibitionists of the Senate talked about making a concerted attack on the party's proposed resubmission plank yesterday but reached no agreement.

Eight of them gathered, without previous announcement, in the office of Senator Borah of Idaho, stirring a lot of speculation. But when the discussion was over, they indicated no prospect of unified action by them at the Chicago convention and Borah himself reiterated his decision, not to go.

Meanwhile, James R. Garfield, chairman of the platform-drafting committee, left for Chicago with the tentative resubmission plank which a majority of the G. O. P. congressional leaders have approved. He held a final conference with party chiefs, but apparently did not call again on President Hoover, who has kept silent on the prohibition issue confronting the party.

The general conclusion in the capital, however, is that the President's stand has been indicated by the presence of Postmaster General Brown and administration leaders in the meetings which favored the resubmission of the plank.

In Borah's gathering were Smoot of Utah, Robinson, of Indiana, Steiwer of Oregon, Thomas of Idaho, Capper of Kansas, Goldsborough of Maryland, and Vandenberg of Michigan. Steiwer has come out for resubmission.

Robinson has given Garfield a prohibition plank draft which took the stand that resubmission proposals must be accompanied by a substitute plan and repudiating the party to observance and enforcement of the 18th amendment so long as it remains in force.

His arm was severed between the elbow and shoulder. He said he had boarded the train to ride to Ardmore, Okla., en route to his home.

LA PAZ, Bolivia, June 8 (AP)—Possibility of a wave of socialist revolutions in South America was foreseen as a result of the recent Chilean coup in an editorial today in Ultima Hora, leading afternoon newspaper here.

The editorial said the capitalist system has "demonstrated a complete incapacity to solve the problems of the present."

"It will not be long—this is the general opinion that reality will soon confirm—before Peru and Argentina experience revolutionary movements of the same nature as Chile has just undergone. And this will extend to Bolivia and the other countries of Latin America."

Prussia Expects Dictator Rule

BERLIN, June 8 (AP)—Reports that Chancellor Franz Von Papan would use the emergency article 48 of the German constitution to declare a dictatorship in the state of Prussia persisted today although they were officially denied.

The reports said the plan was to set up a dictatorship by emergency decree, naming a commissioner to head the government with dictatorial powers, if the present deadlock in the diet over selection of a new premier continues.

The deadlock followed the recent diet elections when the parties of the right, chiefly Adolf Hitler's national socialists, made notable gains but failed to secure a majority

WESLEY FERRELL SUBBUES A'S IN 4-3 GAME

PERSONALLY BATS AND PITCHES THEM INTO SUBMISSION

BY GAYLE TALBOT Associated Press Sports Writer

It took Wesley Ferrell the better part of two seasons to catch up with the Philadelphia Athletics, but Cleveland's ace could feel today he had gone a long way toward squaring account with the Mackmen.

They licked him five times last season and knocked him out of the box the first time they faced him in the current campaign. That might have convinced a pitcher less obstinate than Ferrell, but it only made him more determined to crack the jinx and he finally turned the trick yesterday.

Facing the Athletics in their first appearance in the west, he personally pitched and batted them into submission, 4 to 3. With the score tied in the seventh, he doubled and then scored the winning run on Porter's two-bagger.

The New York Yankees continued to bowl along as they opened their western tour with a 9 to 2 decision over Detroit.

Washington scored four runs off Vic Frasier in the eleventh frame to down the Chicago White Sox, 9 to 5, and St. Louis gave the west an even break for the day by defeating Boston, 6 to 1.

The first day's inter-sectional warfare in the National League saw first place again change hands and further tightened up one of the hottest races the old circuit has experienced in years.

Boston, held idle by rain, look over the top again when the Chicago Cubs dropped their opener at Brooklyn, 9 to 2.

A brace of home runs by Mel Ott, one with a man on base, were all the Giants needed to nose out Cincinnati, 4 to 3.

Led by young Floyd Vaughan, pounded a double and four singles in five trips, Pittsburgh opened its eastern trip with a 7 to 4 win over the Phillies.

Chicago Golfers In Match Play

DALLAS, June 8. (AP)—Johnny Dawson, nationally-known star from Chicago, and Eddie Connor of Dallas, were the first twosome to start match play today in the seventh annual Dallas Country club invitation tournament.

Gus Moreland, twice Texas amateur champion, is defending champion. He had as his first opponent today, Kenneth Haggart, former Oklahoma champion. David Clark of Dallas turned in a 36-31—69 to become medalist. He drew Dr. S. M. Hill, veteran tournament player of Dallas, in his first round match.

Dennis Lavender, former Texas amateur champion and present city champion, qualified with a 76 and drew Johnny Avon in his first round.

The following out-of-town players made the championship flight: Johnny Dawson of Chicago; J. B. and Leland Haa-man of Paris; Jack Tinnin of Paris; Guthrie Bryant of Houston; Al Blarce of Waco and Charles Kistenmecher of Paris.

Two Britons Lead In First Round

SANDWICH, England, June 8. (AP)—W. H. Davies and Charles Whitcombe, British professionals and members of the 1931 Ryder cup team, took the early lead in the first round of the British open golf championship with sub-par rounds of 71 today.

Fred Taggart, another British veteran, held second place temporarily with 73, while Henry Cotton, Fred Rowson, Albert Seymour, Arthur Havers and W. L. Hope, British stalwarts all, were tied at 74.

Walter Pursey, Seattle professional, and first American to finish, took 76 strokes and Robert Sweeney, American student at Oxford, needed 78.

Gene Sarazen, MacDonal Smith and Tommy Armour, leading American threats, all played in the afternoon.

El Dorado Again Beats Baton Rouge

By The Associated Press

El Dorado again subdued the Cotton States League's leader, Baton Rouge yesterday while Jackson came forward with a bang to overwhelm the second place Pine Bluff Judges. In the third night game, however, Monroe turned back the efforts of Port Arthur.

El Dorado went with the eight to put away a 12 to 6 win over Baton Rouge. That one inning gave the Arkansas eight runs. Fines and Atwood got homers for Baton Rouge, while Loewer and Seelye each gave El Dorado a triple.

Jackson's batting eye was too good for Pine Bluff as the Mississippians ran away, 11 to 2, scoring quickly in the first inning and taking four runs in the ninth. The Judges' errors killed their chances. Monroe scored twice in the eighth to take a 5-4 victory over Port Arthur. Nelson began to weaken in the fifth and was ranked in the eighth for Hinson. Hammack, Monroe third baseman, was the hitting ace, getting three out of four chances and all three being two-baggers. Sain, Texas catcher, batted in two runs.

Clay Tournament Is Full of Surprises

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 8. (AP)—The stars and dark horses have mixed it up with surprising results in the early singles matches of the national clay courts championships and the start of the doubles drew attention today.

George Lott of Chicago and Bryan Grant of Atlanta were seeded first in the doubles rankings with Clifford and Ed Sutter, the New Orleans brothers, second.

Berkeley Bell of New York and Louis Thalheimer of Dallas, teamed up for the third rank, followed by Wilbur (Junior) Coon of Kansas City and Bill Hughes of Memphis. Chattanooga's young star, Lefty Bryan and another Dallas player, Doc Barr, were seeded fifth.

Fourth round singles matches were scheduled for the afternoon.

The galleries got a thrill yesterday when Gerin Cameron of Tulsa took Louis Thalheimer of Dallas, eighth seeded player, for a 6-2, 3-6, 6-4 drubbing in third round play.

McDonald Smith In Tie With British

SANDWICH, England, June 8. (AP)—MacDonald Smith, one of the three leading American threats in the British open golf championship, posted a 71 today to tie for the early lead of the first round with the two British professionals, W. H. Davies and Charles Whitcombe.

The American stylist just missed a two yard putt on the last green which would have given him a 70 and the lead.

A. R. Bradbeer, young Somerset professional who led the qualifying field with 70-71—141 needed 76 strokes for his first round.

BUFF SOUTHPAW HURLER LEADS TEXAS LEAGUE

MIKE CVENGROS STOPS LONGVIEW 4 TO 1 FOR 10TH WIN

BY BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

Mike Cvangros is improving with age. The veteran southpaw of the Houston Buffaloes stepped to the front as the league's leading pitcher in games won yesterday when he beat Longview, 4 to 1. Mike held the Cannibals to 10 scattered hits for his tenth victory this season.

Mike's task yesterday wasn't easy. It required all his mounding cunning to stop the Cannibals in eleven innings. The Houston pitcher got a splendid mound duel from Hal Wiltse. In the eleventh inning, Cvangros decided his pitching alone would not win the game so he banged out a single. A low throw to first left Cvangros safe at second and Carey at first. Knott singled, filling the bases. Stebbins singled to score Cvangros with the winning run. Knott and Carey later scored on out by Medwick and Peel.

At Dallas last night, the veteran Oscar Fuhr, another southpaw, pitched like an old master to beat San Antonio, 8 to 5. Fuhr was invincible for seven innings when he held San Antonio hitless and runless. He weakened in the eighth to allow a pair of hits and one run. The ninth was a nightmare when four runs scored on four hits, but the Indians died away without further damage.

In a doubleheader at Tyler, Galveston won the first game, 7 to 1, but dropped the second, 4 to 2. Vam Lamm, former University of Texas athlete, gave the East Texans something to shout about when he clouted a home run in the second game with Aaron Ward on base to save Tyler from a tie or a double defeat.

Making 15 hits count for 8 runs, the league leading Beaumont Exporters stayed several jumps ahead of the field last night by beating Fort Worth, 8 to 5.

Chiropactic is a Philosophy, a science and art of things natural; a system of adjusting by hand the articulations of the human body for the elimination of the cause of disease.

Dis-ease is an effect; every effect must have a cause. The cause of disease is a lack of nerve stimulus, transmitted from the brain through the nerve system, applying its self upon the material elements of the body.

I will be glad to explain how Chiropactic is related to you, and prove by a practical demonstration the working of the science as practiced according to the latest methods.

Sport Slants

BY ALAN GOULD

Yale's noble gesture of athletic deflation, leading up to a five-game football schedule in 1933, will not strike a responsive chord generally among the colleges and universities of the United States.

Even in a depression-year Old Eli's athletic gate receipts exceeded $1,000,000. Up at New Haven, the university's magnificent sports plant is mortgage-free. The whole athletic structure at Yale is on a solid foundation so that changes in policy, designed to eliminate over-emphasis, can be made without risks.

Elsewhere no such favorable circumstances exist for radical retrenchment in profit-producing attractions, unless it be at Harvard or Duke, two heavily endowed institutions.

Most colleges, if they adopted a five-game gridiron schedule, would have to cancel other sports which depend on football revenue.

Others, with field houses and big stadiums to pay for, cannot see the necessity or advantage of going further into the financial hole.

Congress Due To Adjourn June 20

WASHINGTON, June 8. (AP)—Representative Rainey, the democratic leader, believes there is no hope for congress to adjourn before June 20.

"The democratic house has done everything it can to complete its business but the delay has been caused by the senate," he told newspapermen today. "We can't adjourn by the end of this week, but we ought to get out of here by the 20th or the 25th at the latest."

That would permit attendance at the democratic convention which convenes June 27.

Building construction in Hong Kong, China, is breaking all high records.

East and West

Easterners, speaking broadly on behalf of the citizenry east of the Ole Miss, will not take kindly to the suggestion from Southern California that to save Olympic expenses, in the present emergency, the U. S. teams be composed mainly of far westerners, plus a few of the top-notch Eastern performers.

Sectional pride, as well as sectional talent will demand that all of the main sections of athletic activity receive an even break.

So far as the colleges are concerned, anyway, there is no chance for squawks from the East. The teams of the I. C. A. A. A. are all in and in California for their championship meet, which is a semi-final Olympic tryout.

This will take care of Yale's men.

Radio Campaigner Beats Brookhart In Iowa Election

DES MOINES, Ia., June 8. (AP)—The vagaries of politics today bent an "amateur" at the game to the head of Iowa's republican ticket for the November general elections as the party's candidate for United States senator.

The "amateur" was Henry Field, erstwhile seed grower, the radio station owner and provider of the farm family's news, from the breakfast prunes that furnished ammunition for opponents' speeches, to overalls, baby chicks and automatic feeders.

He turned back a few pages in the history of political campaigning and took the road with his campaign bedecked with campaign signs and telling of his celebrated campaign dish—chicken stew—at old-fashioned political rallies.

He accused Senator Smith W. Brookhart of nepotism, using the senator's ranking privilege for distributing campaign literature, and of spending too much time away from his senatorial duties on Chautauqua lectures.

Brookhart claimed Field was entered in the race to split the vote and force the nomination to convention. But Field instead polled consistently around 45 per cent of the total cast for the office, whereas 35 per cent was the minimum needed for nomination.

The downfall of Brookhart came six years almost to the day after his own spectacular victory over the late Senator Albert B. Cummins. / Louis Murphy of Dubuque seemed certain to be the democratic nominee for senator.

Clyde Herring of Des Moines was gradually gaining a commanding lead in the democratic gubernatorial nomination to oppose Gov. Dan Turner, republican.

Irish President Adamant on Oath

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, June 8. (AP)—President Eamon de Valera informed the senate today that the Free State government had not changed its attitude toward the bill removing the oath to the English crown and saw no reason why the senate should not continue to discuss the measure.

The president made his statement in reply to a suggestion that the senate should adjourn in view of negotiations now being carried on between the British and the Free State governments.

The president also said his government would not accept an amendment providing that the oath removal act should not come into force until an agreement had been reached between the two governments.

The senate thereupon proceeded with the measure in its committee stage.

Roosevelt Total Is Almost Enough

By The Associated Press

Apparently have climbed on the Florida and Mississippi democrats Franklin D. Roosevelt presidential bandwagon to raise his instructed, pledged and claimed total to 528 of the 770 convention votes necessary to give him the nomination.

This is exclusive of 109 disputed votes in Pennsylvania and New York. Additional delegates will be selected in Virginia tomorrow and in Idaho Friday.

Meanwhile, the republicans who meet at Chicago next Tuesday to renominate President Hoover centered their principal activity on a proposed prohibition plank. Final decision will be left to the convention.

Additional republican delegates were being chosen in Indiana today and Idaho will make its selection Friday. President Hoover, however, already has more than the majority necessary to renominate.

In the Florida primary, Roosevelt had a big lead over Governor Llan H. Murray of Oklahoma and J. Chassee of Milwaukee.

Representative Ruth Bryan Owen was trailing Mark Wilcox in the race for nomination from the fourth congressional district.

Mississippi's delegation will go to the democratic convention unpledged but favoring Roosevelt.

Second Amended Petition Stands

AUSTIN, June 8. (AP)—The state's second-amended original petition in the commonwealth's suit to oust certain oil corporations for alleged anti-trust law violations today continued to stand against onslaughts of defendants' attorneys.

Judge J. D. Moors of Travis county district court overruled the defendants' exceptions to references to a "general conspiracy" said by the state to have been entered into by the defendants to control the marketing of gasoline and petroleum products.

They contended the state's allegations were too vague and indefinite in attempting to cite facts to warrant the court permitting such references to stand.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

The thoughtful housewife usually plans her dessert from three angles: nourishment, cost and beauty. The summer dessert especially can be planned to provide much nourishment for the meal. The nourishment required in the dessert is determined by the rest of the meal. Calculate the calories and observe the protein contained in the main part of the menu. If the first course of a luncheon is a rich cream soup, a dessert made of milk and eggs is not suitable. If the meat course has been a heavy roast, a light cooling dessert should be chosen. But when the meat course has been light as is often the case in hot weather, the desserts can be well made up the necessary protein in its milk and eggs.

A very sweet dessert often adds much to the fuel value of a meal. For sugar is a quick energizer or stimulant. In summer the sweetness of desserts should be given careful attention. It should, of course, be sweet enough to be palatable, but over-sweetening produces just that much extra heat.

If the meal has been lacking in bulk and breadstuffs, a rice or cereal pudding fills the need.

Contrast in Courses.
If the meat and vegetables have been expensive, serve an inexpensive dessert. This does not mean a commonplace one, but rather one that is simple, requiring no large amount of time or expensive, elaborate ingredients. Contrast is always essential and a simple dessert should follow an elaborate main course.

Fruit is the ideal dessert for summer on several counts. One of the criticisms of the food of the average family is that too little fruit is used in the daily dietary. The serving of fresh fruit saves time, an important factor in a busy mother's day. Waste can be avoided if several varieties are cut up together. Served in combination, none need being "go round." Slightly sweetened and chilled, there's nothing more refreshing than a fruit cup.

Fruit juices stiffened by the addition of gelatine make excellent hot weather desserts for almost all ages and types. The person who is dieting to reduce may have this dessert without cream, while the one who wants to gain in weight will find the fruit stimulating to

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Unhulled strawberries, cereal, cream, potato omelet, graham muffins, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Cream of spinach soup, croutons, open sandwiches of marmalade and milk, fruit cup, milk, tea.
DINNER: Slice of ham baked in milk, lettuce salad, shrimp and peas in turnip cups, head lettuce with French dressing, orange soufflé, chocolate drop cookies, milk, coffee.

the appetite with the cream adding many calories to his diet.

Rice puddings always are acceptable and can be as inexpensive and simple as one wishes. When made with milk and eggs, they are very nourishing and are particularly suitable to serve after a summer vegetables-plate dinner.

It is a saving of both time and money if the dessert of every meal is made to count definitely. The dessert which is added to the meal merely as an after-thought induces one to over-eat and is rather extravagant, but the dessert which is carefully planned to take its full part in the menu adds both pleasure and nourishment to the lunch or dinner and is very much worth while.

Chilled orange soufflé is a nourishing summer dessert that is most refreshing.

Chilled Orange Soufflé
Three eggs, 1 lemon, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatine, 1-4 cup cold water, 2 oranges, 1-2 cup sugar, few grains salt, 1-2 cup whipping cream.

Soften gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Beat yolks of eggs with sugar and lemon juice and cook over hot water until thickened. Stir in softened gelatine and let stand until cool. Add pulp of oranges freed from skin and seeds, whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry and cream whipped until firm. Mix lightly and turn into a mold. Let stand on ice for two hours or longer until thoroughly chilled and firm. Unmold and serve.

Gene Sarazen Ahead In British Open

SANDWICH, England, June 8. (AP)—Gene Sarazen, New York professional and American favorite for the title, today scored a 70 for the first round of the British open golf championship to take the lead with most of the field in.

His score was one stroke better than those of Macdonald Smith, another American favorite, Charles Whitcombe and W. H. Davies, British professionals, who had been tied for the early lead.

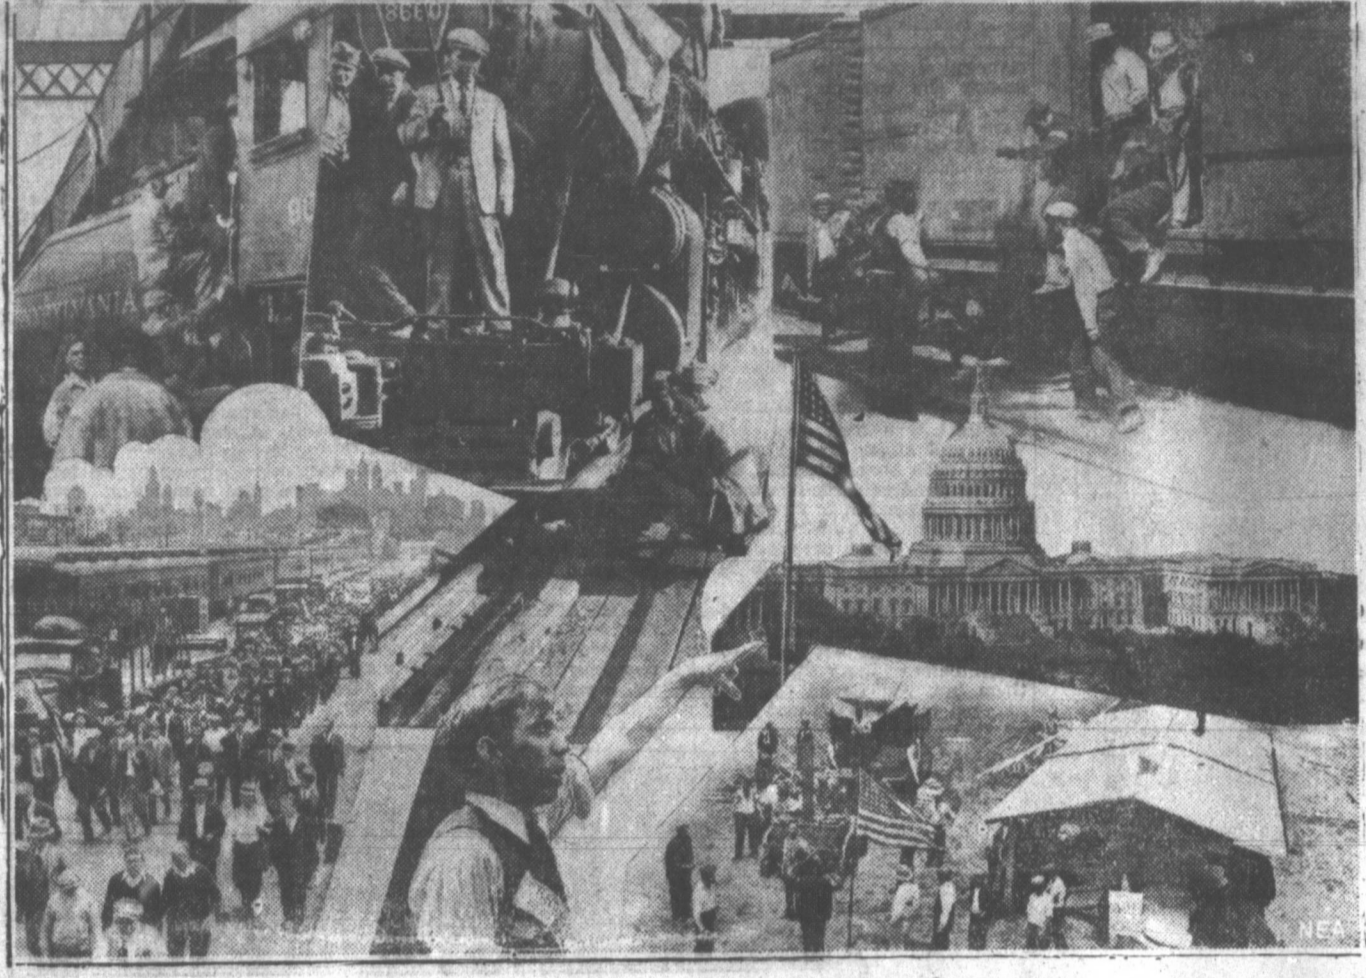

AIR RATE HIKE

WASHINGTON, June 8. (AP)—Increase of the air mail postage rate within the country from 5 cents to 8 cents for the first ounce and from 10 cents to 13 cents for each additional ounce, effective July 6, was announced today by the post office department. The increase is expected to yield $3,000,000 annually in revenue.

JURORS PICKED

FORT WORTH, June 8. (AP)—Three jurors had been picked at noon today to try Lonnie W. Wilkerson, former city policeman, on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal shooting of a youth at Ridgela golf course on May 5.

"BONUS EXPEDITIONARY FORCE" MARCHES

Streams of bonus-minded war veterans pouring into Washington by train, auto, and even on foot, created a situation which was as strange as it was full of dangerous possibilities. Veterans in Cleveland (upper left) swarmed aboard locomotives, stopped them with cross-ties on the track, demanding free rides to Washington. A contingent of several hundred left New York (lower left) hiking after a short train and ferry ride. "On to Washington" was the cry, voiced by leaders such as C. B. Cowan, Cleveland Communist (lower center) who is shown seeking "recruits" for the B. E. F. (Bonus Expeditionary Force). As new arrivals dropped from box-cars (upper right), authorities made efforts to set up temporary shelters in Washington (lower right) so far as their limited funds would go. The national Capitol (center right) was the goal of all, and every new arrival added tensely to a strained situation.

Church Worker For Referendum

FORT WORTH, June 8. (AP)—James A. Crain, Indianapolis, national secretary for the Board of Temperance and Social Welfare of the Christian church, told the state convention at Texas Christian university today that he favors a referendum of the liquor question.

This referendum, he explained, would be favored provided those dissatisfied with the eighteenth amendment will outline a constructive substitute. The substitute then would be taken before the public, along with the prohibition amendment, and the people could decide which they want, he said.

Crain said he is safe in making such a statement because the wet forces simply want to repeal the amendment and will offer no substitute that will satisfy the dries.

He called upon Texans to organize 20,000 voters pledged to support prohibition and to oppose race track gambling "and other social evils."

Famed Indian Oil Heiress Is Dead

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 8. (AP)—Mary Elkins, Osage Indian oil heiress, whose lavish spending and marital adventures focused public attention on her exploits here for the last decade, was found dead today in her home at Ivy Wild, a suburb.

Authorities investigating her death had not determined the cause but indicated there was evidence she may have been slain. Sheriff officers had been seeking her for a week to serve papers on her in connection with an allegation of affections suit brought by a negro woman.

At one time she was one of the richest of the Osages. Through death of her parents, sisters and brothers, she inherited the equivalent of seven and one half head rights, which combined with her own gave her eight and one half head rights in the tribe. She owned more than 5,000 acres of Osage lands, all oil bearing.

NOTED K. C. DIES

Public Defender Faces Charge of Slaying Woman

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8. (AP)—Frank J. Egan, for 11 years San Francisco public defender, faced arraignment in superior court today on a charge of murder.

With him to be arraigned were Verne Doran, convict and former Egan chauffeur, and Albert Timmin, an ex-convict formerly employed by Egan. All three were indicted by the grand jury Saturday charged with responsibility for the death of Mrs. Jessie Scott Hughes, 59-year-old widow and reported benefactor of Egan.

Egan surrendered to police yesterday, ending an intensive search which began Sunday. Egan, Doran, and Timmin were indicted that day following Doran's purported statement to police the slaying of Mrs. Hughes was guided by Egan and carried out by the two former felons.

Doran said in his asserted confession that Egan was hard pressed for money and was the beneficiary of Mrs. Hughes' life insurance and a legatee in her will.

'PRETTY BOY' FLEES AGAIN

Floyd and Pals Blast Way Through Dozen Officers With Machine Guns.

ADA, Okla., June 8. (AP)—Chagrined by another amazing escape by Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd and George Birdwell through a cordon of officers, posse searched eastern Oklahoma hills for the two notorious desperadoes with renewed determination today.

Elasting their way through nearly a dozen officers with machine gun fire, Birdwell and Floyd fled from a house near Stonewall, southeast of here last night, and apparently escaped unharmed despite a fusillade from officers' guns. No one was wounded.

The bandits' car did not show the same invulnerability, bullets shattering the windshield and flattening at least one tire. Officers expressed the belief the two men were protected by steel vests and other armor.

Hearing that Floyd planned to hide in a farmhouse near Stonewall before making another foray on the bank there which they have been certified with robbing several times, Sheriff L. E. Franklin notified state operatives and a posse was formed.

Pursuing officers found evidence that the fleeing bandits had stopped and changed tires and reports came that they were seen near Atwood, where they eluded capture in April.

At Tulsa, several months ago, Floyd and Birdwell walked through surrounding officers without a shot being fired.

C. L. Carruth of Miami was a business visitor here yesterday.

SALINA, Kans., June 8 (AP)—An auction of 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, remainder of the farm board holdings in Saline county, was ordered this morning by county authorities to satisfy $13,140.38 in delinquent taxes.
 The national grain stabilization corporation refused to pay the taxes on the ground that the wheat, federal property, was exempt. A recent order of the farm board to ship the wheat holding from the county precipitated the action.

 "Mr. Reid is traveling a smooth road now but he will be watching to see that his dreams are carried out and that his friends will way carry on the work he has started," Rev. James Todd, Jr. said. "I don't remember the first time I met Mr. Reid. When he grasped my hand in friendship I felt that I had always known him. Pampa has truly lost a friend and a booster and we must in some way carry on the work he has started."
 Friends of the road builder were present from Panhandle, White Deer, Berger, Miami, Canadian, Mobeetie, Wheeler and other cities. Beautiful floral offerings banked the casket. The Rev. Vote Monday
 Meanwhile, Rep. Rainey, democratic leader, told newspapermen he would keep the house in session for a vote Monday on whether to take up legislation for immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus.

Rainey, who filed the adverse Ways and Means committee report on the cash bonus proposal, said: "One hundred forty-five members signed the petition to discharge the rules committee from consideration of the cash bonus proposition, and they are entitled to a vote in the house."

"A lot of those who signed the petition have been coming to me asking if we are not going to adjourn before June 13, but I told them 'no, you signed the petition and you can go to the mat on it.'"

Roosevelt Vote In Florida Gains

Representative Patman (D., Tex.) told newspaper men today that besides the 145 signers of the bonus petition he had assurances that 80 other house members will vote for the bill making a total of 225, more than the majority needed for passage.

Patman also said he received today three money orders from Texas for a total of $65 which he is turning over to a committee of bonus marchers to help pay expenses.

The three contributions from Texas points toward food for the bonus army came from the Blackstone Post of the American Legion at Fort Worth, $25; the ex-service men of Arp, a new Texas oil town, $30 and $10 from Ray Dunn of Mineral Wells.

"I'm not encouraging the bonus army movement," Patman said, "So I turned this money over to Superintendent of Police Glassford."

LOS ANGELES, June 8 (AP)—Southern California's "bonus army," expected to number well over 2,500 unemployed world war veterans, will begin its long journey to Washington, D. C., possibly Saturday.

Survivors of Three Wars Dies at 95

PHILADELPHIA, June 8 (AP)—Dr. William Williams Keen, who served his country in three wars and humanity in a brilliant half-century career in medicine, died at his home here last night at the age of 95. He had been ill for some time.

Dr. Keen entered the service first in 1861 as assistant surgeon of the first regiment, Massachusetts volunteers. He served in the Spanish-American war and was appointed by President McKinley on a commission to investigate the conflict but was obliged to decline. His world war service won his decorations from France and Belgium. It was largely due to his efforts that American soldiers were inoculated with paratyphoid serum.

SANDWICH, England, June 8 (AP)—Gene Sarazan, New York professional and American favorite for the title, today scored a 70 for the first round of the British open golf championship to take the lead with most of the field in.

His score was one stroke better than those of Mac Donald Smith, another American favorite, Charles Whitcombe, and W. H. Davie, British professional, who had been tied for the early lead.
