ATTACK IS ON WATERS

MORE PARADES ASKED BUT MEN TURN TO GAMES

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Police intervened today to prevent what appeared to be imminent trouble at the bonus marchers camp on the Anacostia flats. It started when John Pace, leader of a Communist organization, the workers Ex-Service Men's league, in a speech to the men demanded the overthrow of Walter W. Waters, the veterans commander-in-chief.

A thousand men moved menacingly toward the speaker as he shouted his demand for the removal of Waters.

Felham D. Glassford, police superintendent, with several officers moved quickly to the center of the crowd. He held up his hand and the advance ended abruptly.

"Pace has just as much right to speak here as anyone else," Glassford shouted. "Any of you who disagree with him and don't want to listen go to some other part of the camp and play baseball."

Leaders among the men supporting Waters waved their comrades away and the Communist organization's leader was left with a mere handful in his audience.

To hold the men opposing Pace in another part of the camp, Glassford himself went to them and spoke to hold their attention.

Police patrolled the field constantly after outposts of the veterans' own police had yielded to the temptation to join one or the other of the meetings.

Pace had just concluded a demand for "more demonstrations at the capitol" before beginning his attack on Waters.

The moment he started his demand shouts of "throw him out" and "get out of here you rat" went up from the men.

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—A $100,000 fund recommended by President Hoover to provide homeward transportation for thousands of bonus marchers encamped here was approved today by the house appropriations committee.

Jim Bowers of the Bowers ranch near Canadian was in Pampa Wednesday.

B. R. Wood walking down the street and telling about catching 10 fish in 40 minutes. After a block the number had increased to 20 but the time remained the same.

That District Attorney Raymond Allred stopped to help a fellow change a tire in Wheeler county the other day only to find out that the motorist was from Oklahoma and couldn't vote in Texas. Better look at the license number first after this, Raymond.

That Slim Dillman fell asleep between first and second in a recent baseball game and the result was disastrous.

THE WEATHER

ARKANSAS AND OKLAHOMA: Generally fair tonight and Friday. WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday, probably thunder-showers in southeast portion.

—AND A SMILE

HONOLULU—Mrs. Edward A. Felix had a falling out with her husband, an army sergeant, but the drop (a 50-foot one) restored her regard for him. Quarreling, she blacked one of his eyes. Then she swung at the other, missed and toppled over a cliff. When police hauled her up, only slightly hurt, she kissed the sergeant.

Asking You

Chris Martin, who affiliates with Kiwanis, asks this column to solicit a few hours work for fifteen Boy Scouts who cannot go to the annual camp at Red River unless they can earn their expenses. For those who don't understand, we'll say that this camp is to the Boy Scouts what a district convention is to a civic club member, a golf tournament to a would-be champion farmer, a hunting expedition for deer for the nimrod, a fifty Sunday meeting to the deacon, and a honeymoon to the young lady in love. In other words, it's downright important.

Moving Up

There is an old custom in Scouting which gives the boys unusual opportunities to shake off the Tenderfoot rank and move upward in standing. There's almost nothing useful these boys will not do for 20 cents an hour. You are asked to help a youngster by calling Mr. Martin at phone 344 and telling him when you can put a lad to work.

And Bury A Few

Know of any old bones worth digging after? The Junior chamber of commerce has offered its services in helping the Panhandle Plains Historical society assemble old records, data, and relics, including pre-historic bones. Floyd V. Studer of Amarillo will direct the digging. And how about burying a few old fossils, Jaysees?

A Good Jump

Seen: One of our night-watchmen doing a broad jump to avoid a rapidly moving car near the post-office. Why is it that some motorists seem to choose the worst place in town in which to hurry?

Our Weakness

We imagine we are similar to the average person... if there are to be any loud fireworks in our neighborhood, we'd prefer to be the one to make the noise.

"A New Deal"

If you are one of those who cannot see enough difference in the major parties to make an enthusiastic choice, just remember that turn about is fair play, and that it is unwise to let any pig crowd into the trough and stay there too long. Experience should teach that entrenchment tends to stagnate most any institution.

Hard On Kings

Democracy is having a hard test. And monarchies are not doing very well either. We can't imagine a king with enough power and insight into conditions to rule this country fairly and efficiently in all of its varying sections. We'll have to get along with demo-

ALLRED WILL MAKE SPEECH ON SATURDAY

Attorney General Coming On Tour of Section—Many Will Hear Him.

Jimmie Allred, Texas' youthful attorney general and candidate for re-election, will speak in Pampa Saturday night, according to his brother, District Attorney Raymond Allred of the 31st judicial district. Mr. Allred will speak on the vacant lot east of the courthouse if the weather permits.

The attorney general will be introduced by Charles C. Cook, local attorney. He will take the platform at 8:30 o'clock. An effort is being made to secure seats for the expected large audience that will come from all parts of this section to hear him.

Order on Local Gas Hearing Has Been Received

J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railway commission for the Panhandle field, received formal notification this morning of the hearing on conservation and prevention of waste of crude petroleum and natural gas in the Panhandle district set for July 16 at the city hall auditorium.

The hearing was set following receipt of a petition from Gray county producers, royalty, and lease owners who asked for relief from alleged overtaking of oil by the Danciger Oil & Refining company in certain Gray county pools. Petitioners will ask that the same rights be granted them as has been granted the Danciger company under court writs.

At the same time, the railway commission will open the gas conservation question. Conservation measures passed at the last legislative session have been declared unconstitutional, and other means of conserving the fuel will be discussed.

The notice follows: "It is hereby ordered that notice be given and is hereby given to all interested parties that the railroad commission of Texas will at 10 o'clock a. m., on July 16, 1932, at the city hall auditorium in Pampa, reopen for further hearing the above cause in response to petition of numerous operators in the Panhandle field who pray for relief against alleged intolerable conditions arising from production of certain Danciger Oil & Refining company leases in excess of allowable fixed by this commission and to determine what, if any, rules, regulations or orders shall be adopted for the enforcement of or pertaining to the common carrier and common purchaser laws.

"Pursuant to said hearing the commission will enter such rules, regulations or orders as in its judgment the facts presented at said hearing may justify."

The meeting will be in charge of C. V. Terrell, chairman of the commission.

SEVEN SAVED WHEN VESSEL SINKS QUICKLY

'PROMETHEE' IS LYING OFF CAPE LEVI, 25 FATHOMS

SHIP WAS ON SURFACE

HER TYPE HAS NEVER BEEN CONSIDERED VERY GOOD

CHERBOURG, France, July 7 (AP)—The French submarine Promethee with a crew of 56 and 17 others aboard, sank off Cherbourg harbor today.

Seven men were saved. In addition to the crew the ship was carrying 17 engineers and other workers not permanently assigned to the vessel.

The ministry of marine issued this statement describing the disaster: "The Promethee was making a trial trip on the surface. Suddenly she sank in a depth of about 25 fathoms, 7 miles north of Cape Levi. The cause of the accident was not determined."

The marine police of Cherbourg sent out all available salvage vessels and Admiral Maloway took over direction of the operations. Naval planes were brought into service, but flying conditions were bad, making a search from the air difficult.

The Promethee is one of a class of 1,384 tons surface displacement. She is 302 feet long with a 30-foot beam. Her armament consists of one 3.9 inch gun, one 37 millimeter gun, one machine gun, eleven 21.9 inch torpedo tubes, including two sets of revolving tubes, one fore and one aft.

The type was not particularly successful on trials. Two of the Promethee's sister ships, Vengeur and Redoubtable, made a cruise to the West Indies in 1930 without mishap.

The Promethee was one of five submarines in the 1927 building program.

Threat Lands Negroes In Jail

An alleged threat to kill Felix Gross, negro employe at a local barber shop, landed both Pat Fisher and Gross in jail late last night. Fisher is under indictment for murder in connection with fatal shooting of "Geetchy" Wilson. His trial was postponed from last term of court.

Fisher made a threat against Gross at the barber shop, and while he was walking away from the place Gross threw a rock which struck Fisher in the neck, according to testimony given at a hearing in justice court. Gross then fled out of town on foot. He was arrested near the carbon plant southeast of Pampa by Sheriff Lon L. Blanscet. He was still running when the sheriff caught up with him.

"Pat done said he gonna kill me, and Ise leavin'—he has already killed one man, and I ain't gonna be the second!" he told the sheriff. Both negroes were charged with assault. Fisher's wound was not serious.

The population of the county jail last night included 15 negroes.

ROOSEVELTS RETAIN THEIR FAMILY NAME

"There is nothing like keeping the name in the family."

That was the dry remark of President Theodore Roosevelt, when his niece, Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, married Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt about 25 years ago.

Young Franklin Roosevelt, a distant relative of the president, had visited him in the White House. Franklin's wife referred to the president as "Uncle Ted."

It was because of the wedding that Franklin, quite without intention, caused Tammany some trouble. President Roosevelt attended the wedding, which coincidentally was on St. Patrick's day and the day of a big Tammany parade. The church was off Fifth avenue not far from the parade, and the president had to cross Fifth avenue to get to the church.

Again coincidentally he crossed the avenue just at the height of Tammany's march, so the story goes, and the crowds saw "T. R." back on Tammany and followed the president to the church.

It is said that Tammany marched with but a small audience for some distance.

The president also virtually stole the bride from the bridegroom. He probably paid more attention to him than to the young couple. Incidentally Alice Roosevelt, now Alice Roosevelt Longworth, daughter of the president, was a bridesmaid.

It was at Harvard that "T. R." assumed proportions in Franklin's mind. The dramatic figure of his distant relative in the White House turned him definitely to politics in his own mind, and only shortly after graduation he entered the race for election from Dutchess county, New York, and won.

ALABAMA POLYTECHNIC HEAD CONSIDERS TECH PRESIDENCY—WILL MAKE TRIP TO LUBBOCK

Auburn Prexy Has Affection for Own School

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 7 (AP)—The Advertiser today quotes Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, from an unnamed Oklahoma town, as saying over long distance telephone that he had been negotiating with Lubbock, concerning the presidency of the latter institution.

The paper quotes Dr. Knapp as saying he had gone to the Texas school for a conference at the solicitation of Texas friends, adding "I should be profoundly reluctant to leave Auburn. I consider it the greatest school in the South and feel it a great honor to be at its head."

The invitation from Texas came unsolicited. Dr. Knapp was quoted, but he had reached no decision. Dr. Knapp is expected to return to Auburn Saturday.

Governor B. M. Miller, on hearing that Dr. Knapp was considering the Texas offer, said, "I would greatly regret it, if Dr. Knapp should decide to leave Auburn."

Dr. Knapp succeeded Dr. Spright Dowell as head of Auburn at the beginning of the 1927 session, coming to Alabama from Oklahoma A. & M. college at Stillwater, Okla.

Rail Opening to Draw Thousands To City July 15

Final plans for Pampa's part in the celebration July 15 in connection with the opening of the new Fort Worth & Denver Railway line between Pampa and Childress have been delayed pending word from H. H. Durston, general executive agent, who left yesterday for Fort Worth to confer with Gen. John A. Hulien, vice-president.

Before leaving, Mr. Durston informed officials of the Board of City Development that he had plans that he believed would add to the popularity of Pampa's celebration, and he would view following his conference with Gen. Hulien today or tomorrow.

It is planned to meet the special trains bearing visitors from Fort Worth, Dallas, Wichita Falls, Childress, and intermediate points and escort the visitors up town. There will be a barbecue by invitation only. It will be impossible to feed everyone who will attend the celebration on the limited funds available. B. C. D. directors believe.

Children alone plans to send a delegation of 1,000 persons, according to word received from Jerry Deberport, secretary of the Childress chamber of commerce. Wellington, Shamrock, and LeFors also will have large delegations.

Word comes from Fort Worth and Wichita Falls that several Pullman cars will be chartered in those cities.

Governor Ross Sterling will be among the state officials who will be present.

ELECTROCUTE FLIES

The latest wrinkle in fly-catching was on display in front of the Davis Electric shop today. The contraption consisted of a low box covered with fine wires which were charged with electricity. Underneath the wires was a pan containing sugar and water. The liquid drew the flies like a magnet but when they flew down to it they touched the wires and burned to a crisp.

Wheat Reaches 30 Cents Today

Wheat in Pampa reached 30 cents a bushel for top weight this morning with a reduction of one cent for each pound under top. Grain being received is of a higher test than expected.

A. A. Tieman of the Great West Elevator reported this morning that he has received several loads of wheat from J. D. G. Bird of the Hopkins community south of Pampa which is testing 61 pounds. Mr. Bird reported that his yield is 25 bushels to the acre.

A heavy hail fell in the Hoover community Tuesday afternoon and did considerable damage. The heavy rain which fell here and north failed to go more than five miles south of the city and farmers south of that area are cutting wheat.

Cutting in other directions from the city is at a standstill because of the heavy rain.

Indian Sends Good Luck to Pampans

Frank Foster, just back from a fishing trip with his family, is telling a good one that he heard at Rancho Taos, N. M., where he stopped for a short period. While getting gas at a station, a car load of Taos Indians drove up and looked over the Foster car.

One of the Indians came over to the car and said to Mr. Foster: "You from Pampa?" Mr. Foster said that he was. The Indian remarked, "You know T. C. Ward, Pampa?" and Mr. Foster said that he was well acquainted with Mr. Ward. The Indian then said, "Me good friend T. C. Ward. Me guide T. C. Ward. T. C. Ward go home big buck deer over shoulder. You tell T. C. Ward you see Albert and Albert send good luck."

Later Mr. Foster learned that Albert Martin is one of the best known Indian painters in that section of New Mexico.

BOY SCOUTS IN NEED OF WORK

Several Pampa Boy Scouts need to earn some money before August 18 so that they can attend the summer camp of the Adobe Walls council and advance their work so that they can take higher rank in scouting. The boys will gladly work in gardens, clean windows, mow lawns, run errands, and do odd jobs to earn the necessary money.

A telephone call to 344 will bring a boy to your home or place of business. Boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years will be available. They will work hard and money could not be spent on a better cause, scout leaders in the city say.

While at summer camp, the Boy Scouts study to become better men.

MOSCOW HAS NO REPORT OF TWO YANKEES

FLIERS COULD POSSIBLY HAVE FLOWN ON TO OMSK

COMMUNICATIONS POOR

PLANE NECESSARILY IS DOWN SOMEWHERE ON ROUTE

MOSCOW, July 7 (AP)—James and Bennett Griffin, missing between Berlin and Moscow on their round-the-world flight, were still unreported at 11 a. m., Central Standard time today.

If they were still in the air at that time they would be forced down, for that was the limit beyond which the fuel they took aboard at Berlin would be exhausted.

They had full tanks when they took off from Berlin at 2 p. m. (C. S. T.), yesterday. That was approximately 600 gallons, enough to keep them in the air 21 hours.

Officials at the flying field here sent inquiries to all points along the route from Berlin, but there was no word of the Americans.

There was a possibility they had passed Moscow in the night without being seen and kept on toward Omsk, 1,600 miles to the east. Another supply of fuel awaited them there and it was assumed they knew the way.

But the airport at Kazan, three hours flying time east of Moscow, reported that the "Century of Progress" had not been sighted there.

Omsk, however, is without good communication facilities and if the fliers had landed there, word of their arrival might be delayed in reaching Moscow.

They had no fuel depot at Moscow, because the quality obtainable there is not satisfactory. There is, however, a supply awaiting them at Omsk.

Both fliers have had some experience in navigation and, since they studied their projected course very carefully before leaving New York, it seemed likely that if there were no difficulties of weather or trouble with the plane they would be able to find their way to Omsk handily.

Others who have flown this course followed the Trans-Siberian railway from Moscow to Omsk, a distance of 1,600 miles. This added to the 950 miles from Berlin to Moscow, would give them a 2,500 mile jump.

L. J. Starkey transacted business in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Goodrich and daughter of Shamrock visited friends here yesterday.

POLITICAL EDITION SUNDAY

Sunday's Pampa Daily NEWS will be particularly interesting because of political information it will contain concerning Gray county candidates.

Those running for office have been asked to make known their platforms or make statements in advertisements which will serve to concentrate interest on their candidacies. With the first primary rapidly approaching, some special emphasis is needed to attract attention away from national politics.

The Daily NEWS annually provides this edition because many candidates say that they cannot possibly reach all the voters in the county. There will be added circulation and the readers of THE NEWS in all parts of the county will be waiting for the edition with interest.

Copy for the political advertisements must be in the hands of The News staff not later than Saturday morning.

cracy or embrace communism, which isn't sure of itself either. We might, for a change, do the best with what we know and have.

New Issues For Old
The best that any party can hope to do is to align itself with enough issues, most of them sectional, to attract a majority of the electoral votes. And in our rapidly changing country any set of issues is apt to be scrapped every administration or two.

Inter-Dependent
The best that any small community can do for itself is to attract to it its maximum trade, boost its payrolls as much as conditions will allow, and be as generous as possible to those who are unfortunate. Cities, states, nations are inter-dependent, but only those who deal in international relations and trade can remedy maladjustments in those relationships.

Must Buy, Too
America, in "perfect isolation," cannot hope to maintain her wanted standard of living. We must sell, but we cannot forever sell without buying. A fool's boom results when we recklessly lend abroad so that nations and peoples can buy from us. The reaction which develops when the money is spent and there is no more is what we call a depression. Lowering the tariff barriers will both help and hinder. It will mean readjustments in this country at the expense of labor and industry, but could anything be much devastating than the lack of such foreign trade?

A Huge Market
America has a vast unused market at home, it is

Smith's Decision Pleases Democrats

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Expressions of pleasure without even a note of surprise continued today in democratic discussions of Alfred E. Smith's announcement that he will support the party ticket and one of their number met criticism of the reforestation program advanced by their presidential candidate with the statement that it is quite all right.

Meanwhile, the only formal emanation from the newly-opened republican campaign headquarters in Chicago was an announcement by Everett Sanders, national committee chairman, that Secretary Ogden L. Milk of the treasury would begin his party's drive in a speech at Boston Monday.

BUFFS GET HURLER
HOUSTON, July 7 (AP)—The Houston Buffs have obtained Bill Beckman, Columbus right hand pitcher, in option, President Frank Ankenman announced today. He will help fill the gap caused by the injury to Mike Cvenugros, who will be out for six weeks. Mike suffered a broken finger recently.

true, but it is only potential without ten millions of men can be put to work. And those men, working alongside fast machines, can turn out many times as much as the country can absorb — without foreign trade. The foreign producer lacks gold, we don't wish his goods in competition with ours, and we will accept no other token in trade. And, we might add, he either cannot or will not pay us in dollars that are hard to get the equivalent of the dollars we lent him when money was plentiful and cheap. All debts, paid in present expensive dollars, are oppressive. Somehow, some way, there must be inflation. Can and will the democratic party make debts easier to pay, foreign trade easier to obtain, jobs easier to get? The answer is that the American people are eager to send Herbert Hoover to the foot of the class and promote Franklin D. Roosevelt. And remember that the new boy in school is given the benefit of a doubt, until he proves he isn't better than the others. Mr. Hoover's talent in relief work could best be used distributing Farm Board surpluses. He's a round peg in a square hole, politically speaking.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

GARNER PROMISES M'ADOO HE WILL SPEAK IN CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—William G. McAdoo said today after a conference with Speaker Garner that the democratic vice-presidential nominee had promised to speak in California during the campaign.

He expressed gratification at Alfred E. Smith's announcement he will support the party ticket and described as "republican propaganda trying to stir up trouble" reports he had thrown California's votes to Franklin D. Roosevelt because Smith blocked him in 1924.

"I felt sure that Governor Smith, a fine democrat, would support the ticket," McAdoo said. "It was extremely unfair to the governor to suggest that he would not support the party."

"There was no element of revenge in any action of mine at Chicago. If there had been, why should I have gone to Roosevelt who led the fight for Smith in 1924?"

McAdoo smiled as he made this statement. He added:

"The condition in the country is so grave that we did not want to do anything to endanger the opportunity of the democratic party to render the service it can to the country at this time."

McAdoo was asked what he thought of Garner's speech yesterday, demanding that the loaning powers of the reconstruction finance corporation be broadened.

"I think the speaker is absolutely right in the position he has taken," the former treasury head said. "It is absolutely indefensible to give all this relief to special interests and not to all the people."

Beer War Rages On Chicago 'Front'

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—The beer war apparently is raging again along Chicago's southside gangland front.

The process of eliminating one another from the city's crime picture was resumed last night after a short intermission.

James "Red" McGee, a former policeman, and Vernie Larkin, reputed henchmen of Edward "Spike" O'Donnell, were the victims.

Two gunmen invaded the Del Rio roadhouse, operated by McGee, and Larkin with shotguns. A third man, a waiter, was seriously wounded in trying to get out of the line of fire.

The killers escaped in an automobile and police were unable to obtain a good description of them from witnesses.

Trouble on the southside, after a period of quiet, opened up again two weeks ago when Charles O'Donnell, a brother of "Spike" was machine gunned to death.

J. H. Foster of McLean was in Pampa yesterday on personal matters.

Louis Donosky of Dallas was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. O'Loughlin's Case Is Likely To Be Re-opened

DENVER, July 7 (AP)—Reports from the state penitentiary that Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin shielded her son, Douglas Millikan 10, when she refused to testify in her trial for the murder of her stepdaughter, Leonora O'Loughlin, caused police officials today to consider reopening the case.

Mrs. O'Loughlin was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Chief of Police A. T. Clark ordered the boy summoned to tell all he knows of the death of his 10-year-old step-sister.

Clark heard reports from the women's division of the Canon City penitentiary to the effect Mrs. O'Loughlin told inmates she had refused to take the stand in her own behalf because she shielded her son.

The reports said her fellow convicts were told that Douglas fought with his step-sister, hit her with a tire iron and that Mrs. O'Loughlin, panic stricken, took the body in an automobile to Berkeley Park lake where it was found two days later, Oct. 16, 1930.

At her trial Mrs. O'Loughlin asserted she was not guilty. She also said she knew who did the killing but would not buy happiness at the expense of another.

Debts Parley Is Chilled by France

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, July 7 (AP)—A flat declaration from Premier Herriot of France that either the United States must revise war debt schedules or Germany must continue to pay reparations under the Young plan chilled the atmosphere of Europe's negotiators here.

At the same time, Germany continued to stick tightly to her contention that she no longer meet the Young plan payments.

Premier Herriot's declaration was made last night at the end of a day of negotiations which led nowhere. It was given to the press in explanation of why France demands a safeguarding clause, protecting her reparations income in case America remains adamant on the debts, in any agreement negotiated here.

At the same time, the impression

'Slave Block' Is Barred by Board In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, July 7 (AP)—The proposed "slave block" auction of unemployed labor was barred by the Los Angeles park board last night. The board acted on the advice of the city attorney's office that such use of the park land would be "improper."

Board members also said there had been a feeling, although it was not expressed at their meeting, the establishment of the "slave block" might lead to demonstrations by Communists.

It had been planned to establish the block, modeled after those used in the pre-civil war days, in the historic plaza of the Mexican district.

Court of Honor To Be Postponed

The Boy Scout court of honor set for tomorrow night will be postponed until July 15, James Todd jr., chairman of the local court, said yesterday.

The board of review will be conducted Monday night in the First Presbyterian church.

Weather conditions made it impossible for several boys who are eligible for high rank and merit badges to get to the board of review last Tuesday night, Mr. Todd said. Several boys from rural communities will be included in the work.

Four boys will receive Eagle Scout rank at the court of honor.

Unusual Idea Used for Sale

Fred Penn, familiarly known as Fred, local manager of the United Dry Goods store announces a radical new departure represented by the store's first annual Store Manager's sale. Instead of fixed prices on merchandise local managers of the United institution have been given the concession of pricing the price that will sell the merchandise, regardless of worth or present selling prices.

Copies of a Western Union message received by Mr. Penn from Mr. Haymon Krupp, president of the United Dry Goods stores, will be distributed by Western Union messengers to citizens of Pampa telling of the new idea behind this sale.

The local manager states that this new idea ushers in a new thought in store management permitting more latitude in the presentation of merchandise and prices.

When asked as to the purpose of the sale Mr. Penn stated that the Annual Store Manager's sale proposed to present the market's newest offerings in style right merchandise, as well as offering an unusual opportunity to buy seasonal and staple merchandise at the greatest savings of the summer months.

On page 5 today there appears a large newspaper advertisement listing some of the items featured in this unusual summer event. Mr. Penn made particular mention of the fact that daily special would be offered throughout the sale which starts July 8th and continues through the following week.

NATIONAL LEAGUE APPEARS TO BE "RACE OF ROOKIES"

YOUNG STARS SEND PIRATES TO HIGH RUNG

CHICAGO CUBS HELPED BY SENSATIONAL PITCHING

By GAYLE TALBOT, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The present National League race might well be termed the "race of the rookies."

A group of young men who scarcely were known a year ago have made President Heydler's follies what they are today. Pittsburgh, leading the lead by three and a half games today, could trace success to the pitching of Steve Swetonic and Bobby Brown have by their consistently great pitching kept Boston Braves at or close to the top.

Swetonic scored his ninth victory yesterday by beating the Giants in the first half of a doubleheader, 4 to 2, on six hits. Larry French stopped the New Yorkers, 3 to 1, in the nightcap.

Warneke rang up his eleventh triumph, halting the Phillies 6 to 1. The Braves lost to St. Louis, 4 to 2. Cincinnati and Brooklyn battled all afternoon without getting anywhere. The Reds took the first game, 6 to 4, but the Dodgers won the second, 3 to 2.

Dark Horse to Face Hard Test in Tennis Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 7 (AP)—The dark horse of the southern tennis tournament, Quinn Connelly of Houston, Tex., encountered a hard test today in a quarter-final match with Bryan Grant of Atlanta, Ga., seeded No. 2.

Connelly, an unknown, won a sensational victory yesterday over Billy Reese of Atlanta, fifth seeded player. It was the major upset in the tournament.

Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, seeded No. 1 and Grant's old nemesis, was matched against Robert Little of Atlanta in today's quarter-finals matches.

Yesterday's STARS

By The Associated Press

Marty McManus, Red Sox—Doubled with two out in the ninth to beat St. Louis.

Bill Hallahan, Cardinals—Had the Boston Braves to five hits.

Charley Grimm, Cubs—Made the 2,000th hit of his major league career to help lick the Phillies.

Steve Swetonic and Larry French, Pirates—Pitched the leaders to a pair of victories over the Giants, 4 to 2 and 3 to 1.

TWO MEN RELEASED

Glen Brown and W. W. Killough, charged with aiding their brother, Doyal Killough, to escape from the county jail last week, were released without bond this morning. Their trials were set for the next term of county court.

Doyal Killough was serving a jail sentence on a misdemeanor charge.

Sport Slants

Speaking of a horse race and Gene Sarazen, remarks our Mr. Paul Mickelson, the eagle-eyed golf observer, how about a "place bet" on Gene during 1932. Look at his record:

Agua Caliente open—second to Fred Morton by two shots with 286.

Los Angeles open—tied only for sixth behind Mac Smith, with 286.

Texas open—tied with Gus Moreland for second with 288, one stroke behind Clarence Clark.

New Orleans open—won with 290 (note—later he remarked this was good omen for whole year as a victory in same place preceded his big rush 10 years ago.)

Florida West Coast—finished third with 291, behind Bill Burke and Johnny Farrell.

Coral Gables $10,000 open—won with 287, one stroke better than Walter Hagen and Paul Runyan.

North and South open—tied for sixth with 292, behind Craig Wood, the winner.

British open—won with 283, two strokes below Bob Jones' record.

U. S. open—won it with 286, tying Chick Evans' record.

Sarazen Prosperity Wave.

Sarazen has collected about $10,000 in prize money within the first six months of 1932.

His contracts with manufacturers, existing and prospective, should be worth up to $15,000 for the balance of the year, perhaps more.

LOCALS MUST WIN TO STAY IN BALL MEET

BURLINGTON RAILROAD 'OUTFIT' DEFEATS PAMPANS

As loss this afternoon would send the Pampa-LeFors team home from the Amarillo tournament with only one win chalked up on their good side and it a "by." The Burlington Railroaders of Amarillo jumped on the local aggregation yesterday 11 to 4 and got revenge for a defeat at the hands of the Magnolia Mags and the "cheft" of two players.

Manager Eddie Pulliam started Freshour on the mound. He followed him with Meek, who was lambasted all over the lot. Either Weathered or Joe Marcum will start the game today against the Wheeler-Moestle nine.

The Railroaders pounced on Freshour and Meek for 18 safe bingles. They got to Freshour for eight hits and seven runs in two innings and had the bases loaded in the third when he retired. Meek was greeted with a continued bombardment. The Railroaders pulled the old double steal and both men were safe. They also stole five other bases and took them home.

Wyatt and Freddy Newsome of LeFors were the only local boys who could get to Jelly Allen. They got two each with one of Wyatt's being a double. W. B. "Red" Weathered hit one for three bases but was left stranded. Manager Pulliam scored two runs but was credited with but one trip to the plate.

Jimmie Baldwin of LeFors was again the star of the local nine. The little fellow took everything that came his way and started two double plays. Meek struck out six of the Railroaders.

Moestle has a strong team with plenty of big hitters.

Radio Men Are Riled by Ruling On Announcing

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—There may never be another coast-to-coast broadcast of a championship fight here if the State Athletic commission enforces its edict barring professional announcers from the microphone.

Rather than submit to the commission's ruling that none but "boxing experts" shall be privileged to broadcast future bouts, both the National Broadcasting company and Columbia Broadcasting company have threatened to take the ring battles off the air.

The commission, as a result of the flare-up following the description of the Sharkey-Schmelling bout by Graham McNamee and Charles F. Coe, announced that in future the mikes must be manned by none but "boxing sports writers, judges, or referees."

There probably will be a showdown the next time a championship is settled hereabouts.

HAGEN SHOWS UP

OTTAWA, Ont., July 7 (AP)—Walter Hagen, defending champion in the Canadian open golf tournament, showed up at the Ottawa golf and hunt club club course today to play in defense of his title over a course he has never seen.

Post entries raised the starting field to a total of 116 as Jack Armitage and Frank Corrigan, Canadian golfers, drove off to start the tourney.

Exhibition and other by-products might add $10,000 to his earnings. His salary as professional of the Lakeville Country club, Great Neck, L. I., probably is around $10,000 for the year.

This brings the grand total close to $50,000 for 1932, which is handsome enough in these times, all things considered to make life very pleasant indeed for a young man just turned 31 and liking his work.

Fate Rough On Two

No other player, with the possible exception of Walter Hagen, could have realized as much in real and potential profits from the National open as Sarazen, yet it was something of a tragedy, economically, that neither Phil Perkins nor Bobby Cruickshank, with scores of 289, could carry off the big prize.

The tournament was Perkins' first start as a professional. The former British amateur was forced by circumstances to fall back on his golf for a living. When he posted his fine total, a good portion of the crowd, and the experts and the business men considered him the likely victor. Only a few final returns stood between T. Philip and at least $5,000, on the spot, but the gap was made insurmountable as first Cruickshank and, finally, Sarazen, shot away the Britisher's advantage.

Crest of Flood Is Passing Today

SAN ANTONIO, July 7 (AP)—Three Rivers expected to see the crest of the Rio river flood pass today without any damage to the town proper.

Homes and farms in surrounding lowlands, however, already have been inundated with heavy losses to crops and livestock.

Although alarmed by the slowly rising waters, which reached a depth of 40 feet at 9 a. m., residents of the Live Oak county town remained in their homes last night although the water was still rising this morning, no danger was anticipated as the flood was reported receding at Calhoun, 11 miles above, which has been flooded since last night, and also at Tilden.

J. M. Cunningham, newspaper publisher at Three Rivers, said a further rise of two feet could be registered in the Rio before the water would flood streets of the town.

THREE MINERS KILLED GREENSBURG, Pa., July 7 (AP)—

Three men were killed and four injured, two critically, when caught beneath a fall of slate in the Edna No. 1 mine of the John Carr Coal company today.

WANT BEER NOW

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—A petition to Speaker Garner urging immediate action on beer-for-revenue legislation was circulated today among republican anti-prohibitionists.

Over-Production Is Still Problem

LOS ANGELES, July 7 (AP)—Over production in 10 California oil fields today threatened to disrupt the recently increased price schedule for crude oil, even though most fields were keeping so far under their allowances the state was well within its quota.

The crude price hike was made with the understanding by major purchasing companies, each field would strictly hold within its allowance.

The daily average output for the 10 days since the new schedule was established was reported today by Oil Umpire Neal Anderson as 468,479 barrels, approximately 18,000 barrels under the state allowance.

Judge Stennis at Home of Parents

Judge S. D. Stennis arrived safely at Meridian, Miss., after flying by plane from Fort Worth Tuesday, and members of his family here believe that his parents, both of whom were seriously ill, have improved.

Home of his father and mother is about 50 miles from Meridian, and he traveled that distance by automobile.

Judge Stennis' family received a telegram from him yesterday, but no mention was made of his parents' condition. His father is 74 and his mother 73.

FLOWER SHOW WILL BE SPONSORED BY PRESBYTERIANS

JULY 28 SET AS DATE FOR EXHIBIT HERE

BIBLE LESSON TAUGHT FOR AUXILIARY BY MRS. FATHEREE

A display of flowers—both the usual and the typical—will be sponsored by the women's auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, according to plans made at a meeting yesterday afternoon.

The flower show will be on July 27 in the church annex. Detailed plans will be made by Mrs. Charles Todd, chairman, Mrs. Tom Clayton, and those who may be chosen to work with them. It is the aim of the auxiliary to interest all flower-lovers in Pampa and surrounding territory.

Mrs. B. M. Bradley and Mrs. E. O. Shead were hostesses at yesterday's meeting.

In addition to planning the flower show, the group made preparation to send representatives to the annual encampment in Ceta Canyon July 21-28.

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree gave the Bible lesson, reading the twenty-third chapter of Proverbs. She also presented a very interesting talk on woman's attitude toward prohibition. Other aiding in presenting the study were Mrs. Ted Scott, the first messenger; Mrs. G. A. Smith, the woman of Galilee; and Mrs. T. W. Sweatman, the woman of Capernaum.

Visitors present were Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. Warren Cretney. Members attending were Mesdames Scott, Walker, Fatheree, Sweatman, G. A. Smith, Bradley, E. O. Shead, Tom Clayton, P. C. Ledrick, John Andrews, Katie Vincent, Dave Pope, Charles Todd, George Briggs, Roy Vaughan, R. F. Dirksen, T. D. Hobart, Frank Foster, W. R. Wanner, A. A. Hyde, J. M. White, J. E. Dever, George Priauf, and J. M. McDonald.

Louise Walstad Dance Hostess Here Wednesday

Dancing was the diversion when Miss Louise Walstad entertained a group of her friends last evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walstad.

The following attended: Misses Virginia Rose, Dale Campbell, Mary Ann Moyer, Betty Weiss, Nita Holmes, Mary K. Martin, Frances Finley, Eura Rose, Dorothy Doucette, and Wanda Barnard; Albert Doucette, Ralph Morrison, Don Mining, Burdette Keim, Bill Kelley, Paul Camp, Jones Seitz, Lewis Sprinkle, Bob Wallace, Curtis Stark, Sandy Bradley, Jim Pool, Walter Berry, Vernon Lawrence, George Walstad, and Archie Lee Walstad.

Executive Board Of Club Gathers

Plans to be presented at a business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday were made last evening when 11 members of the executive board held a called meeting in the club rooms of the Rose building.

Those attending were Clara Lee Shewmaker, Mildred Overall, Lillian McNitt, Grace Pool, Mabel Gee, Lillian Jordan, L. Faye Woolley, Mrs. John Beverly, Mary Lou Downs, Louise Dunn, and Ruby Vamoy.

Treble Clef Club Holds Rehearsal

New music to be studied this summer has been received by the Treble Clef club and was discussed at a business and rehearsal meeting held at the First Baptist church yesterday morning. The club now is studying Greetings to Spring and Allah's Holiday.

Those attending yesterday's meeting were Miss Dorothy Dodd and Mesdames R. R. Jones, J. W. Garman, J. D. Young, A. N. Dilley, John Andrews, J. B. Townsend, Philip Wolfe, Raymond W. Harrah, Grace Brown, W. W. Jones, Charlie Thut, W. A. Bratton, and F. Wirsching.

MUCH CANNING DONE BY GRAY COUNTY FOLK

DEMONSTRATIONS ARE GIVEN BY MISS RUBY ADAMS

Gray county club women and 4-H girls will spend the month of July in canning vegetables and fruits, Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, announced yesterday.

She is supervising a canning demonstration every day this week in Gray county communities. Tuesday she met with the Bell and Kingsmill women's clubs, Wednesday with the Grandview women's and girls' clubs. Today she will meet with the Laketon club, Friday with the Back clubs. Demonstrations at the women's club deal with the canning of vegetables, and canning of fruits and the making of various syrups used are demonstrated at the girls' clubs.

A canning demonstration will be conducted by Miss Adams every day during the next two weeks, and then she will accompany Gray county delegates to the short course at Texas A. & M. college. The various clubs are selecting their delegates this week.

Baby Is Named for C. Herbert Walker

O. Herbert Walker today is a grandfather as well as a grandfather. It was for him that his little grandson, born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Gibbs of Plainview, was named.

Y. W. A. WILL MEET
The Young Women's auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet at 8 o'clock this evening in the home of Miss Geneva Groom, 510 N. Somerville.

Picnic Is Planned For Dorcas Class

Meeting at the Central Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock, members of the Dorcas class of that church will go on a picnic. All members will bring basket lunches.

COMING EVENTS

FRIDAY
O. E. S. Study club meeting has been postponed to next Monday.

Friendship Sunday school class, First Methodist church, will attend a lawn party at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. Purviance.

Arno Art club will hold a morning meeting at 9:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. O. H. Booth.

Rainbow girls will have public installation of officers at the Masonic hall at 8 o'clock. Dr. W. A. Seydler, installing officer, will be assisted by Mrs. Roy Sewell, installing marshal, and Mrs. Katie Vincent, installing chaplain.

INFLUENCE OF HOLLYWOOD IS SUBJECT USED

CIRCLES OF METHODIST W. M. S. GATHER FOR STUDY

"It isn't all Hollywood's fault," declared Mrs. W. Purviance, one of the members of Circle 1, First Methodist church, yesterday as she discussed the influence that make for lawlessness. That movies do exert a powerful influence for both good and evil, however, was brought out in a talk by Mrs. Roy Tinsley. Both talks emphasized the responsibility of citizens for crime.

Mrs. George Walstead let a lesson on compassion, based on the Missionary Voice. Sandwiches, wafers, and iced tea were served at the close of the meeting to one visitor, Mrs. Charles L. Wooley, and the following members: Mesdames George Walstead, Roy Tinsley, Tom Cook, Lewis Robinson, J. H. Marshall, Luther Flerson, and Mrs. Purviance.

A Bible lesson was conducted by Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar at a meeting of Circle 2 at the church. The meeting was opened with a song, "More About Jesus," and a prayer by Mrs. Joe Shelton. Those attending were Mesdames C. E. McHenry, C. T. Nicholson, C. T. Hunkapillar, W. V. McArthur, W. A. Seydler, Sherman White, Joe Shelton, and Hoyt Allen.

Paul's Letters Discussed The last letters of Paul were studied by Mrs. C. A. Long and Mrs. H. F. Barnhart at a meeting of Circle 5 at the church. Mrs. Long and Mrs. H. L. Wilder conducted the devotional, and a talk on doctrinal elements was given by Mrs. Paul Jensen.

Two new members, Mrs. B. F. Brown and Mrs. Nat Lunsford, and the following old members attended: Mesdames C. A. Long, H. F. Barnhart, R. K. Elkins, H. L. Wilder, H. T. Wohlgenuth, W. B. Hamilton, C. A. Burton, Roy Kretzmeier, Clara Selby, J. M. Turner, and Fred Cullum.

In Faulkner Home Meeting in the home of Mrs. Siler Faulkner, members of Circle 4 heard a devotional by Mrs. Albert Wood, prayer by Mrs. J. H. Carson, and a discussion of the writings of Paul by Mrs. S. A. Hurst. Ice cream and cake were served during a social half-hour to Mesdames J. M. Fitzgerald, S. A. Hurst, T. L. Certain, J. H. Carson, Frank Bryan, W. R. Campbell, Albert Wood, Philip Wolfe, and the hostess.

Mrs. Hardcastle Is in Charge of W. M. S. Program

A program taken from Royal Service and based on the Jew was given under the direction of Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle at a meeting of the Central Baptist W. M. S. yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. G. C. Stark led the Bible study, and discussions were given by Mesdames Cecil Lunsford, S. L. Anderson, O. J. McAllister, Paul Heath, D. L. Lunsford, and W. O. Cooley. Others attending were Mrs. G. D. Holmes and Mrs. T. M. Gillham.

Next Wednesday the W. M. S. will meet at 3 o'clock to hear a lesson on missions in the Bible taught by the Rev. W. O. Cooley, pastor of the church.

Revival of Men Well-Attended At Church Here

"Men whom I've never seen at church before are attending the revival services for men and boys only at the Calvary Baptist church this week," J. L. Ratcliff, pastor, said this morning.

The Rev. Steve T. Greenwood of Alanreed will be speaker this evening, and the Rev. W. O. Cooley, pastor of the Central Baptist church, will speak tomorrow evening. On Saturday, both men and women will be admitted and the Rev. Douglas Carver of White Deer will speak.

Speakers for the first of the week were as follows: Monday, the Rev. L. A. Roll of LeFors; Tuesday, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church of Pampa; Wednesday, the Rev. E. M. Duns-worth of Salem.

Mrs. Wight Is Head of Class

Mrs. Roy Wight, who was elected last Sunday as president of the Dorcas Sunday school class, First Baptist church, presided at a business session held by the class yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. Powell Wehrung.

The new officers planned their work, and at the close of the meeting they visited absentees, prospective members, and the sick. Those attending were Mrs. Tom E. Rose, teacher, and Mesdames Roy Wight, Dee Campbell, Dan McClintock, L. P. Ward, W. R. Bell, John Oakes, S. O. Garner, G. H. Covington, Della Bay, and J. Powell Wehrung.

C. A. Neal of White Deer was a Pampa visitor this morning.

COUPLE WEDS AT CARLSBAD NEW MEXICO

MRS. OWINGS IS BRIDE OF J. A. SHELTON, MIAMI RANCHER

The marriage of J. A. Shelton of Miami and Mrs. Johnnie Owings of Pampa came as a surprise to many friends and acquaintances. They were married at Carlsbad, N. M., Tuesday.

Mr. Shelton, known throughout the Panhandle as "Jimmy," was born and reared in Miami. He is a prosperous Rogers county rancher and is one of the remaining few who believe in cattle raising on a large scale. He bought the entire J Y herd and brand from Ernest Reynolds last fall and merged them with his Bar 7 brand.

The bride came to Pampa from Oklahoma City, where her family has resided since pioneer days.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton left Carlsbad for a 2-week motor trip. They will visit the Carlsbad cavern and Jaurez, Mexico. Upon leaving Jaurez, they will motor up the west coast and return by way of Denver, where they will visit relatives of the groom.

The couple will reside at the Pats Creek ranch, 25 miles south of Spearman, and there will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. J. A. Meek Is Re-Elected To Head W. M. S.

Mrs. J. Aaron Meek was re-elected president of the First Baptist W. M. S. at a business session held yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. A. Keeney was named secretary; Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, corresponding secretary-treasurer; Mrs. C. H. Schukler, pianist; Mrs. Dan McIntosh, chorister. Other officers are to be appointed.

The elected officers were nominated by a committee composed of Mrs. W. B. Henry, Mrs. R. W. Tucker, and Mrs. C. E. Lancaster. Mrs. Meek presided at yesterday's meeting and Miss Lois Barrett led a devotional stressing the importance of a willingness to assume responsibility. Circle reports were given.

The meeting was attended by about twenty-five women.

Bert L. Bural of White Deer made a trip to Pampa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Holmes of White Deer were in Pampa yesterday.

Clarence Grunfeld of Los Angeles visited with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Freundlich yesterday.

Mrs. E. W. Voss has returned after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Brown, of El Reno, Oklahoma.

RED GIRDLE WORN WITH BLUE

This dark blue sheer crepe dress has a peplum skirt and a bright red girdle. The dark blue milan hat has a red ribbon band.

Liana Merwin

THE dress illustrated above brings to mind once again the tremendous importance of heavy sheers, for summer wear. It is a dress that is ideal for town wear during the hot months. The ubiquitous cape sleeve that covers the arm sufficiently for modesty is about the coolest sleeve to be found. The red sash on the dress and the red hat band add a very effective color contrast.

The question of skirt lengths for the coming season is a very interesting one and most people will be relieved to hear that they will probably remain much the same. For evening wear, most dresses will be floor or instep length, and will have an even hemline. Formal afternoon dresses will vary in length a bit, choosing either ankle length or something in the neighborhood of about eight inches from the floor.

Day skirts will continue to hover about twelve inches from the floor, though here and there, especially for sports wear, a shorter one sometimes creeps in.

MY LIFE and the OLYMPICS

by PAAVO NURMI

(Written For The Associated Press)

I said in my former article that I know of a means of enjoyment which stands far above the sensual pleasure attained by intoxicants and other such means. Such a pleasure as I mean you get from a Finnish bath.

How I can feel while writing these lines, the lovely heat upon the ledge in the bathroom, and the perfume of the bunch of birch twigs with the leaves remaining on! There is nothing in the world to compare with a Finnish bath. The heat penetrates the flesh, the bones, the marrow; it feels as if it even warms your very soul. Such an enjoyment is difficult to describe and in my case it deserves of a higher song than any paensyric upon Greta Garbo, the Prince of Wales, or eternal love—Amen.

The Finnish bath is of ancient date. This method of bathing was applied thousands of years ago, and it was then used in wide districts in Europe. But during the centuries that followed its first use it fell into oblivion in most places. The Finns however had not the heart to leave it, and they will most certainly never do so. The Finnish bath—"Sauna" is the Finnish name for it—joins the present generation with those who in bygone ages defended the country—the Land of the Thousand Lakes—from bears, wolves and lynx.

Crack and snapping horns. But, let us return to our mittens. I can thank the Finnish bath for being able to withstand the sweating-bath at Paris in 1924. In the 10 kilometers cross-country running there, even southerners fell down like chickens. But the glow from the sun only invigorated me, as I was used to breathing even in extremely hot surroundings.

I cannot refrain from telling you that the bath with us in Finland is a direct curative method. Even in these days we may find in some rural wilderness old women quacks who cure people suffering from some muscular defect. The old quack in the hot bath-house uses a small axe for hacking small blood-wounds in the suffering flesh. Then she places a cupping-horn against each wound and sucks the air out of it. There being then no air in the horn, the skin is sucked tight against it, and the bad blood is drawn out in drops. Even I have tried this, and I know it to have been the cause very often of good results. There is no witchery whatever in this original and peculiar cure. It may sometimes be injurious however. But then you may meet doctors any day, who order a postman to take plenty of fresh air, or forbid a teetotaler from excessive use of alcohol.

Finnish Sportsman's Massage
Finnish massage is not so renowned as Swedish. The simple reason is that we have not had the common sense to boast about it as much as our western neighbors have of theirs. And yet the Finnish massage, which is stronger and more powerful than the Swedish, has been an invaluable factor for Finnish sportsmanship.

Modern competitive sport has been developed along such lines that victories cannot any longer be won by sheer good luck and wonderful christening-presents. No, a tremendous amount of work is needed now. A high class sportsman has to pass three stages before he reaches the top: Firstly work, secondly work, and thirdly hard work. Of course it is a separates thing altogether, if the sportsman has also natural faculties.

Work, exertion, leave so to say slag material in the body. This is removed quickest by massage. Then we must remember that a tough and tense muscle is tired quicker than loose flesh—we assume of course, that it is a question of muscle, not fat. Finnish massage is directed towards rendering tough muscles supple. And our masseurs succeed herein. When I was in America and went to a masseur of another nationality, I found after the treatment that I was soft and lighter. In the name of sacred truth I must admit, however, that this feeling of lightness came from my purse being considerably thinner than when I went to him. But my feet were almost as sore when I came from him as before his treatment.

What Makes Record Breakers
Such youngsters as read these lines and in their hearts perhaps have the desire to become great sportsmen. I should like to advise about certain demands they must place upon themselves. Be patient, dogged, energetic, and let your fancy play. It will do you no harm either, if you over and above those qualities—are slightly ambitious.

Patience is an absolutely indispensable aid to the sportsman. It may often happen that the results, in spite of severe training, do not come up to expectation. But then it is up to you not to give way. Sportsmen must have a kind of doggedness, so that they, whether in an icy blast or in sweltering sunlight—strive towards the goal. A runner will never attain his object, if he has not the necessary energy. And ambition drives you to beat all others.

My nervous system is not the best possible. I can still blush like a schoolboy even for the slightest thing. My nerves have often hindered my sleep for hours on end on hot summer nights. In matches however, they are always in the best condition, and that is no doubt the main thing.

How a champion runner keeps his muscles flexible—Paavo Nurmi is shown, getting his favorite Finnish massage from Hugo Quist, his manager, during the 1929 American tour of the great Finn, and relaxing at the baths in his home country.

BEAUMONT AT OLD STRIDE IN ANOTHER WIN

DEFEATS GALVESTON IN NIGHT GAME, 7 TO FOUR

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

If you have an idea Beaumont is kidding about winning the second half pennant to match their first half flag, just take a peek at today's league standing. You will see that the Exporters are three full games in front of Dallas and Longview, who are tied for second place, because they have eight of their nine starts.

Last night the Exporters whipped Galveston, 7 to 4. It was a pitching case of too much Herring who sailed the Buccaneers down with eight consecutive shutout innings after allowing four runs in the initial frame. Hank Breenberg went 1/3 the front as the league's leading home run hitter in the first inning when he clouted homer No. 33. Dallas lost a fast one to Fort Worth. The Steers went on the field in the first of the ninth with a 3 to 2 lead and apparent victory. John Whitehead, recruit pitcher, had held the Panthers at bay through eight innings but went wild after Fort Worth had tied the score on one hit and three walks. Whitehead was removed with one out and two on. Oscar Furr went in and struck out the next batter. George, recently traded by Dallas to Fort Worth for Tex Jeanes, stroled to the plate and hit a lazy fly to centerfield. Jeanes camped under the ball but failed to hold it and Gribble raced across the plate with what proved to be the winning run.

Longview hopped into a tie for second place by taking a 6 to 2 game from Tyler. Tom Conlan kept Tyler's hits out of the danger zone.

San Antonio and Houston played a six-inning 2 to 2 game that was halted by rain.

Cubs Without Bill Jurgas As Probe Is Begun

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—Manager Rogers Hornsby and his Chicago Cubs carried on their National league pennant fight today without the services of their star young shortstop, Bill Jurgas, while police investigated the events that caused a pretty brunette to shoot and wound him as well as herself.

Although the woman, Miss Villet Popovich Valli, a divorcee and a former chorus girl, insisted she intended only to shoot herself, police had a letter that cast a murder and suicide complexion to the case.

The letter, addressed to Miss Valli's brother and written just before she invaded Jurgas' hotel room yesterday and wounded him twice, blamed Kiki Cuyler, Cub outfielder, and Lew Sleadman for breaking up her romance. She advised her brother, Mike Popovich, a Chicago Y. M. C. A. employe, that she planned to kill Jurgas and herself.

Cuyler denied he had interfered with the romance except to admit that Jurgas asked his advice and that he told him he was "too young to think of love."

Neither the girl nor Jurgas was in a serious condition today. Jurgas suffered two wounds, one bullet entering his right side, grazing a rib and piercing the right shoulder and the other ripping the flesh around the little finger of his left hand. Miss Valli was shot in the left hand.

Neither would discuss the affair today.

Lie Should Rule Choice of Club

By JOHNNY FARRELL (As Told to Artie McGovern)
Don't lessen your pleasure in golf and thus lose a part of the benefits of the game by envying the good player—emulate him.

You can do much to improve your score by watching many apparently trivial details. For example, don't select a club before you have studied the lie of your ball. I often have seen a player, after a tee shot, pull out a brassie before coming up to the ball. A club should be chosen not so much from the distance needed as from the lie. All good players, you will notice, are very careful about selecting a club.

The brassie is one of the game's most difficult clubs, and your ball

Man Is Killed By Former Cop

WICHITA, Kas., July 7 (AP)—A man identified through fingerprints and police photographs as J. W. Miles, 42, was shot and killed today in the act of robbing a small warehouse operated by Clyde Cole, grocer.

An elaborate burglar alarm system of his own design aroused Cole, former Wichita policeman, shortly after midnight. Grabbing a shotgun, he went to the warehouse and fired as the robber attempted to escape.

ADVICE ON SWINE

AMARILLO, July 7 (AP)—Wise farmers will time their hog breeding to catch the market in March, or the late summer market the latter part of August or September, according to E. M. Regenbrecht, hog specialist, with Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college.

"Experience of the last 40 years proves that a premium of from one and one-half to two cents a pound will be received by marketing on these dates," Regenbrecht said. "Last year was an exception to the rule. But usually northern breeders hold their pigs to consume the corn crop, and it is best for southern breeders to avoid the market when the northern hogs are dumped."

TWO MINERS KILLED

GREENSBURG, Pa., July 7 (AP)—Two miners were killed, seven were injured and ten entombed by falling coal in the Edna No. 1 mine of the John Carr Coal company today.

Coroner A. J. McMurray was informed that one of the injured men will die.

Whether any of the entombed men were hurt was not determined. The report to the coroner said a huge piece of coal fell, blocking the mine passage.

YOUNG MAN DROWNS

DODGE CITY, Kas., July 7 (AP)—Wayne Reigel, 22, drowned here yesterday when a raft he was riding through the swollen waters of Millberry creek capsized.

Republicans Are Turning Democrats

ALBANY, N. Y., July 7 (AP)—Governor Roosevelt believes his campaign for the presidency already has won a host of republican votes.

Many of these votes he considers big because of his speech of acceptance. The governor's staff here is well pleased with the first move in the national campaign, the flight to Chicago and the speech before the convention.

For the moment Roosevelt is busy with matters of state government and answering the messages which have been flowing in since the nomination.

Tomorrow night the Albany democratic organization, which has been unfriendly to the governor, will publicly proclaim its support in what the leaders have announced will be a huge demonstration of the powerful city machine.

Then the governor will busy himself here until the week-end, when he will go to Hyde Park and thence to New York.

WOMAN FOUND DYING

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 7 (AP)—A woman was found dying from bullet wounds in front of her grocery store home here early today and officers discovered her husband, with his throat cut, in the rear of the establishment. The man, O. R. Igo, who was dangerously wounded, was unable to talk at a hospital today.

AS GASOLINE GETS OLDER GASOLINE GETS WEAKER

STALE GAS IS FEEBLE — fresh GAS PACKS POWER

LEAVE an uncorked bottle of gasoline around your house and what happens? It evaporates—the light ends—the "easy starting" elements—go slowly off into thin air.

But more than evaporation takes place as gas gets stale. A chemical change occurs. That's why the older gas gets, the weaker it gets. That's why gas can get so stale—so "powerless"—it won't even kick over a motor!

And as gas gets staler, it gets stickier, too—is more apt to clog valves. And it decreases in anti-knock value—is more apt to knock and thump.

The whole petroleum industry has long known these facts. Gulf has worked on the problem—and has now perfected a system that assures the motorist of getting FRESH gasoline. Here's how ...

Gulf makes the best gas that can be produced—and so refines that gas as to take out the very elements which cause rapid deterioration. Hence, Gulf gas stays FRESH longer.

Next, Gulf has organized its distribution system to rush that FRESH-MADE gas to you in a hurry.

It handles gas as though it were perishable food. The huge Gulf refineries have been carefully placed in many sections of the country, so that it is easily possible to rush FRESH gasoline to every one of the 45,000 Gulf filling stations. A vast fleet of tank trucks speeds FRESH gas to Gulf stations every day in the year.

When you buy gas you're really buying power. Stale gas can't give you all the power you pay for. Get FRESH gasoline. FRESH-MADE—delivered FRESH. Get Gulf. Use nothing else. Your motor will have more power. It will be cleaner and quieter.

Gambler's Throw

by Eustace L. Adams

SYNOPSIS: Jerry Calhoun tries to start his airplane engine under the machine gun fire of gangsters who are carrying out his wife, Emory, Stevens, a detective, holds the gun off the gangsters. Emory, who has been kidnapped, is rescued from their hands. Ashwood, who has been kidnapped, is rescued from their hands.

Chapter 33 BEHIND THE BARRICADES

A GUST of flame belched crimson from the slowly revolving motor. Ashwood made it! No. Churning, churning, every second dragging itself into an infinity of time. Stevens' gun still barked. Another bullet and another raked the cabin. Again a ball of flaming gas ballooned from the exhaust stack. Then the engine roared, backfired, missed and suddenly burst into full-throated, rhythmic life, causing the plane to vibrate in every inch of her fabric.

Stevens' figure appeared in the doorway. In the darkness over his shoulder, guns stabbed the night with their vicious points of scarlet. Jerry, trembling with eagerness to push forward on the throttle, watched the old man hesitate, turn back and fire a full clip of cartridges. Then carefully closing and latching the cabin door, the detective took his seat.

The great monoplane rolled forward over the hard-packed shell. Then she was free, an earth-bound monster no longer, but a joyous, throbbing, bird-like thing hurtling through the air.

Stevens' steady forefinger pointed slightly to the left. Jerry banked over to follow a faint red line of exhaust fire. As he straightened out again, he glanced down and backward toward the house. From a row of windows on the east end of the low building tiny pinpoints of flame flickered from the guns of the besieged. From three sides came answering flashes.

The exhaust flames of the amphibian were clearly visible now, and Jerry knew that he was gaining, slowly but steadily, upon the northward-speeding plane. Stevens held his beloved machine gun. He quitted ahead at the fleeing plane.

"How long?" he inquired tersely. "I haven't any idea," confessed Jerry. "They don't know yet that we're following them. When they see us they'll give her full throttle. We're fairly evenly matched in speed. Maybe fifteen minutes. Maybe two hours. Have to wait till we see how much speed they have."

"Ashie, old bean, it won't be long now!" Emory Batties' smoke-bearded face broke into a wide-mouthed grin as he rolled over on his side and looked at the man who shared the shelter of the up-ended living room table.

The cripple ducked behind the heavy shield just as it vibrated under the sharp smack of a bullet. His lined face was drawn with fatigue, but the dancing light in his blue eyes was undimmed as he returned the other's smile.

"One would think, my dilettante friend, that you looked forward with pleasure to dying." His drawing voice had lost nothing of its mocking brilliance. He reached for a cigarette from Emory's case. "From where I lie," he puffed, "it looks as though we would be able to hold them off about thirty more minutes at the longest, and then only if we are able to continue keeping them from passing to the rear of the house and surrounding us."

"They may all have sunstroke within the next thirty minutes!" reported the other, squinting cautiously over the top for a brief glance toward the hangar which, in the first faint pastel tints of the dawn, looked strangely peaceful in comparison with the wrecked living room behind him. A bullet snapped by and he dropped his head once more.

"You picked out some pretty fat sharpshooters when you organized your mob, Ashie," he declared ruefully. "As ye sow, so shall ye—" pronounced a resonant voice from the center of the room.

"Please, please, Dr. Titherington!" interrupted the cripple. "Spare us, on a warm morning like this! If I hear just one more such quotation, I shall froth at the mouth and bite somebody!"

Alfred sat up behind the overturned couch. The steward's face was ghastly pale. His left arm, roughly bandaged in torn sheeting, showed as a great blotch of crimson against the background of his white service jacket. A semi-circle of empty clips was mute evidence to the fact that he

COTTON IS WEAK

NEW ORLEANS, July 7 (AP)—Cotton experienced rather a disappointing opening today in the face of much more favorable Liverpool cables than due.
First trades here showed losses of 5 to 6 points and although there was a slight rally after the start, prices soon eased again, July dropping to 5.93, or 13 points under yesterday's close. This was said to be due to the issue of additional July notices for which there appeared to be little demand. The later months eased off in sympathy and owing to an overnight forecast for fair weather in the eastern belt. October dropped to 6.05, and December to 6.19, or 9 to 10 points down from yesterday's close.
Profit-taking after a rather substantial advance during the week was said to be one of the causes of the easier tone.
Near the end of the first hour the market showed indications of a disposition to rally on some short covering, prices on the months beyond July recovering one to two points on the lows.

WHEAT UNDER PRESSURE

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—Downturn in grain values early today accompanied Liverpool reports of expected pressure of new wheat from Germany and Russia next month. Besides, better weather prevailed for domestic harvest operations southwest and foreign markets failed to follow yesterday's price upturns on this side of the Atlantic. Opening 1/4% off, wheat later held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 1/4% lower and subsequently sagged all around.

Relief Bill Is Passed by House

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—The conference report on the Garner-Wagner relief bill, containing a provision which President Hoover has indicated will lead to a veto, was adopted today by the house.

The report now goes to the senate where republican leaders planned to expedite action so that, in the event of a veto, a new measure can be worked out quickly to permit adjournment of congress.

Mr. Hoover opposed the provision sponsored by Speaker Garner to authorize the reconstruction finance corporation to make loans to all persons on adequate security.

STOCKS ARE WEARY

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—The stock market finally wearied of trying to keep its head above water today, and was submerged in a wave of selling in the late trading. Losses of 1 to more than 3 points were numerous. The turnover was only about 800,000 shares, but trading quickened on the decline, and the closing tone was weak.

Reparations Not Worth Much Now

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Reparations, that child of the world war which started out as a colossus of finance, has dwindled in the short span of twelve years to a comparative pygmy.

First capitalized at $64,000,000,000, reparations today are admittedly worth more than another $1,000,000,000 to the former allies and Germany insists they are not worth half that.

Although mentioned in the Versailles treaty, it was left to a Boulogne conference of the allied powers in June, 1920, to name tentatively the complete reparations that Germany must pay.

But the previously appointed reparations committee vetoed the suggested sum of $64,000,000,000 and pared it down to $31,500,000,000 to be paid in cash, bonds and exports. This total was agreed on and the allies issued an ultimatum making it effective.

DO YOU INHALE?

"We've spilled the beans" in the smoker's interest

Do you inhale? "You've spilled the Beans!" said the cigarette trade when first we asked this simple question—a question which long had been treated with silence that would "shame a Sphinx!" Why? Wasn't the subject vital enough to pursue? Or, was there a hidden reason for the general avoidance of the question by others? Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has chosen to raise this question... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it! Do you inhale? Of course you do—and so, in the smoker's interest, Luckies have not feared to "spill the beans."
